CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

PREAMBLE AND DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

PREAMBLE.

We, the people of the State of California, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, in order to secure and perpetuate its blessings, do establish this constitution.

ARTICLE I.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

SECTION 1. All men are by nature free and independent, and have certain inalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; and pursuing and obtaining safety and happiness.

SEC. 2. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for the protection, security, and benefit of the people, and they have the right to alter or reform the same whenever the public good may require it.

SEC. 3. The State of California is an inseparable part of the American Union, and the constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land.

SEC. 4. The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be guaranteed in this state; and no person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness or juror on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of this state.

SEC. 5. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require its suspension.

SEC. 6. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, unless for capital offenses when the proof is evident or the presumption great. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed; nor shall cruel or unusual punishment be inflicted. Witnesses shall not be unreasonably detained, nor confined in any room where criminals are actually imprisoned.

SEC. 7. The right of trial by jury shall be secured to all, and remain inviolate; but in civil actions three fourths of the jury may render a verdict. A trial by jury may be waived in all criminal cases not amounting to felony, by the consent of both parties, expressed in open court, and in civil actions by the consent of the parties, signified in such manner as may be prescribed by law. In civil actions and cases of misdemeanor, the jury may consist of twelve, or of any number less than twelve upon which the parties may agree in open court.

SEC. 8. Offenses heretofore required to be prosecuted by indictment shall be prosecuted by information, after examination and commitment by a magistrate, or by indictment, with or without such examination and commitment, as may be prescribed by law. A grand jury shall be drawn and summoned at least once a year in each county.

SEC. 9. Every citizen may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press. In all criminal prosecutions for libels, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury; and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives, and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted; and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact. Indictments found, or information laid, for publications in newspapers, shall be tried in the county where such newspapers have their publication office, or in the county where the party alleged to be libeled resided at the time of the alleged publication, unless the place of trial shall be changed for good cause.

SEC. 10. The people shall have the right to freely assemble together to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives, and to petition the legislature for redress of grievances.

SEC. 11. All laws of a general nature shall have a uniform operation.

SEC. 12. The military shall be subordinate to the civil power. No standing army shall be kept up by this state in time of peace, and no soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, except in the manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 13. In criminal prosecutions, in any court whatever, the party accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial; to have the process of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses in his behalf, and to appear and defend, in person and with counsel. No person shall be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense; nor be compelled, in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. The legislature shall have power to provide for the taking, in the presence of the party accused and his counsel, of depositions of witnesses, in criminal cases other than cases of homicide, when there is reason to believe that the witness, from inability or other cause, will not attend at the trial.

SEC. 14. Private property shall not be taken or damaged for public use without just compensation having first been made to, or paid into court for, the owner, and no right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation other than municipal until full compensation therefor be first made in money or ascertained and paid into court for the owner, irrespective of any benefits from any improvement proposed by such corporation, which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury, unless a jury be waived, as in other civil cases in a court of record, as shall be prescribed by law. The taking of private property for a railroad run by steam or electric power for logging or lumbering purposes shall be deemed a taking for a public use, and any person, firm, company or corporation taking private property under the law of eminent domain for such purposes shall thereupon and thereby become a common carrier. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 15. No person shall be imprisoned for debt in any civil action, on mesne or final process, unless in cases of fraud, nor in civil actions for torts, except in cases of wilful injury to person or property; and no person shall be imprisoned for a militia fine in time of peace.

SEC. 16. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligations of contracts, shall ever be passed.

SEC. 17. Foreigners of the white race, or of African descent, eligible to become citizens of the United States, under the naturalization laws thereof, while bona fide residents of this state, shall have the same rights in respect to the acquisition, possession, enjoyment, transmission, and inheritance of all property, other than real estate, as native born citizens: provided, that such aliens owning real estate at the time of the adoption of this amendment may remain such owners; and provided further, that the legislature may, by statute, provide for the disposition of real estate which shall hereafter be acquired by such aliens by descent or devise. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 18. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crime, shall ever be tolerated in this state.

SEC. 19. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable seizures and searches, shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue but on probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, particularly describing the place to be searched and the person and things to be seized.

SEC. 20. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it, adhering to its enemies, or giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the evidence of two witnesses to the same overt act, or confession in open court.

SEC. 21. No special privileges or immunities shall ever be granted which may not be altered, revoked, or repealed by the legislature, nor shall any citizen, or class of citizens, be granted privileges or immunities which, upon the same terms, shall not be granted to all citizens.

SEC. 22. The provisions of this constitution are mandatory and prohibitory, unless by express words they are declared to be otherwise.

SEC. 23. This enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people.

SEC. 24. No property qualification shall ever be required for any person to vote or hold office.

SEC. 25. The people shall have the right to fish upon and from the public lands of the state and in the waters thereof, excepting upon lands set aside for fish hatcheries, and no land owned by the state shall ever be sold or transferred without reserving in the people the absolute right to fish thereupon; and no law shall ever be passed making it a crime for the people to enter upon the public lands within this state for the purpose of fishing in any water containing fish that have been planted therein by the state: provided, that the legislature may by statute, provide for the season when and the conditions under which the different species of fish may be taken. [New section; adopted November 8, 1910.]

ARTICLE II.

RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.

SECTION 1. Every native citizen of the United State, every person who shall have acquired the rights of citizenship under or by virtue of the treaty of Queretaro, and every naturalized citizen thereof, who shall have become such ninety days prior to any election, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been resident of the state

one year next preceding the election, and of the county in which he or she claims his or her vote ninety days, and in the election precinct thirty days, shall be entitled to vote at all elections which are now or may hereafter be authorized by law; provided, no native of China, no idiot, no insane person, no person convicted of any infamous crime, no person hereafter convicted of the embezzlement or misappropriation of public money, and no person who shall not be able to read the constitution in the English language and write his or her name, shall ever exercise the privileges of an elector in this state; provided, that the provisions of this amendment relative to an educational qualification shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who now has the right to vote, nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age and upwards at the time this amendment shall take effect. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 2. Electors shall in all cases, except treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest on the days of election, during their attendance at such election, going to and returning therefrom.

SEC. 2½. The legislature shall have the power to enact laws relative to the election of delegates to conventions of political parties; and the legislature shall enact laws providing for the direct nomination of candidates for public office by electors, political parties, or organizations of electors without conventions, at elections to be known and designated as primary elections; and also to determine the tests and conditions upon which electors, political parties, or organizations of electors may participate in any such primary election. It shall also be lawful for the legislature to prescribe that any such primary election shall be mandatory and obligatory. The legislature shall also have the power to establish the rates of compensation for primary election officers serving at such primary elections in any city, or city and county, or county, or other subdivision of a designated population, without making such compensation uniform, and for such purpose such law may declare the population of any city, city and county, county or political subdivision. Provided, however, that until the legislature shall enact a direct primary election law under the provisions of this section, the present primary election law shall remain in force and effect. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1908.]

SEC. 3. No elector shall be obliged to perform militia duty on the day of election, except in time of war or public danger.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his presence or absence while employed in the service of the United States; nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this state, or of the United States, or of the high seas; nor while a student at any seminary of learning; nor while kept in any almshouse or other asylum, at public expense; nor while confined in any public prison.

SEC. 5. All elections by the people shall be by ballot or by such other method as may be prescribed by law; provided, that secrecy in voting be preserved. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1896.]

SEC. 6. The inhibitions of this constitution to the contrary notwithstanding, the legislature shall have power to provide that in different parts of the state different methods may be employed for receiving and registering the will of the people as expressed at elections, and may provide that mechanical devices may be used within designated subdivisions of the state at the option of the local authority indicated by the legislature for that purpose. [New section; adopted November 4, 1902.]

ARTICLE III.

DISTRIBUTION OF POWERS.

SECTION 1. The powers of the government of the State of California shall be divided into three separate departments—the legislative, executive, and judicial; and no person charged with the exercise of powers properly belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any functions appertaining to either of the others, except as in this constitution expressly directed or permitted.

ARTICLE IV.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a senate and assembly which shall be designated "The legislature of the State of California," but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and amendments to the constitution, and to adopt or reject the same, at the polls independent of the legislature, and also reserve the power, at their own option, to so adopt or reject any act, or section or part of any act, passed by the legislature. The enacting clause of every law shall be "The people of the State of California do enact as follows:—"

The first power reserved to the people shall be known as the initiative. Upon the presentation to the secretary of state of a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by qualified electors, equal in number to eight per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election, at which a governor was elected, proposing a law or amendment to the constitution, set forth in full in said petition, the secretary of state shall submit the said proposed law or amendment to the electors at the next succeeding general election occurring subsequent to ninety days after the presentation aforesaid of said petition, or at any special election called by the governor in his discretion prior to such general election. All such initiative petitions shall have printed across the top thereof in twelve point black-face type the following: "Initiative measure to be submitted directly to the electors."

Upon the presentation to the secretary of state, at any time not less than ten days before the commencement of any regular session of the legislature, of a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by qualified electors of the state equal in number to five per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election, at which a governor was elected, proposing a law set forth in full in said petition, the secretary of state shall transmit the same to the legislature as soon as it convenes and organizes. The law proposed by such petition shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the legislature, within forty days from the time it is received by the legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as hereinafter provided. If any law so petitioned for be rejected, or if no action is taken upon it by the legislature, within said forty days, the secretary of state shall submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing general election. The legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different one on the same subject by a ye and nay vote upon separate roll call, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by the secretary of state to the electors for approval or rejection at the next ensuing general election or at a prior special election called by the governor, in his discretion, for such purpose. All said initiative petitions last above described shall have printed in twelve point black-face type the following: "Initiative measure to be presented to the legislature."

The second power reserved to the people shall be known as the referendum. No act passed by the legislature shall go into effect until ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature which passed such act, except acts calling elections, acts providing for tax levies or appropriations for the usual current expenses of the state, and urgency measures necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, passed by a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to each house. Whenever it is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety that a law shall go into immediate effect, a statement of the facts constituting such necessity shall be set forth in one section of the act, which section shall be passed only upon a ye and nay vote, upon a separate roll call thereon; provided, however, that no measure creating or abolishing any office or changing the salary, term or duties of any officer, or granting any franchise or special privilege, or creating any vested right or interest, shall be construed to be an urgency measure. Any law so passed by the legislature and declared to be an urgency measure shall go into immediate effect.

Upon the presentation to the secretary of state within ninety days after the final adjournment of the legislature of a petition certified as herein provided, to have been signed by qualified electors equal in number to five per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, asking that any act or section or part of any act of the legislature be submitted to the electors for their approval or rejection, the secretary of state shall submit to the electors for their approval or rejection, such act, or section or part of such act, at the next succeeding general election occurring at any time subsequent to thirty days after the filing of said petition or at any special election which may be called by the governor, in his discretion, prior to such regular election, and no such act or section or part of such act shall go into effect until and unless approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon; but if a referendum petition is filed against any section or part of any act the remainder of such act shall not be delayed from going into effect.

Any act, law or amendment to the constitution submitted to the people by either initiative or referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon, at any election, shall take effect five days after the date of the official declaration of the vote by the secretary of state. No act, law or amendment to the constitution, initiated or adopted by the people, shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, and no act, law or amendment to the constitution, adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative provisions of this section, shall be amended or repealed except by a vote of the electors, unless otherwise provided in said initiative measure; but acts and laws adopted by the people under the referendum provisions of this section may be amended by the legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If any provision or provisions of two or more measures, approved by the electors at the same election, conflict, the provision or provisions of the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail. Until otherwise provided by law, all measures submitted to a vote of the electors, under the provisions of this section, shall be printed, and together with arguments for and against each such measure by the proponents and opponents thereof, shall be mailed to each elector in the same manner as now provided by law as to amendments to the constitution, proposed by the legislature; and the persons to prepare and present such arguments shall, until otherwise provided by law, be selected by the presiding officer of the senate.

If for any reason any initiative or referendum measure, proposed by petition as herein provided, be not submitted at the election specified in this section, such failure shall not prevent its submission at a succeeding general election, and no law or amendment to the constitution, proposed by the legislature, shall be submitted at any election unless at the same election there shall be submitted all measures proposed by petition of the electors, if any be so proposed, as herein provided.

Any initiative or referendum petition may be presented in sections, but each section shall contain a full and correct copy of the title and text of the proposed measure. Each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number if such exist. His election precinct shall also appear on the paper after his name. The number of signatures attached to each section shall be at the pleasure of the person soliciting signatures to the same. Any qualified elector of the state shall be competent to solicit said signatures within the county or city and county of which he is an elector. Each section of the petition shall bear the name of the county or city and county in which it is circulated, and only qualified electors of such county or city and county shall be competent to sign such section. Each section shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person soliciting signatures to the same, stating his own qualifications and that all the signatures to the attached section were made in his presence and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each signature to the section is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be, and no other affidavit thereto shall be required. The affidavit of any person soliciting signatures hereunder shall be verified free of charge by any officer authorized to administer oaths. Such petitions so verified shall be prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and that the persons signing the same are qualified electors. Unless and until it be otherwise proven upon official investigation, it shall be presumed that the petition presented contains the signatures of the requisite number of qualified electors.

Each section of the petition shall be filed with the clerk or registrar of voters of the county or city and county in which it was circulated, but all said sections circulated in any county or city and county shall be filed at the same time. Within twenty days after the filing of such petition in his office the said clerk, or registrar of voters, shall determine from the records of registration what number of qualified electors have signed the same, and if necessary the board of supervisors shall allow said clerk or registrar additional assistants for the purpose of examining such petition and provide for their compensation. The said clerk or registrar, upon the completion of such examination, shall forthwith attach to said petition, except the signatures thereto appended, his certificate, properly dated, showing the result of said examination and shall forthwith transmit said petition, together with his said certificate, to the secretary of state and also file a copy of said certificate in his office. Within forty days from the transmission of the said petition and certificate by the clerk or registrar to the secretary of state, a supplemental petition identical with the original as to the body of the petition but containing supplemental names, may be filed with the clerk or registrar of voters, as aforesaid. The clerk or registrar of voters shall within ten days after the filing of such supplemental petition make like examination thereof, as of the original petition, and upon the completion of such examination shall forthwith attach to said petition his certificate, properly dated, showing the result of said examination, and shall forthwith transmit a copy of said supplemental petition, except the signatures thereto appended, together with his certificate, to the secretary of state.

When the secretary of state shall have received from one or more county clerks or registrars of voters a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, he shall forthwith transmit to the county clerk or registrar of voters of every county or city and county in the state his certificate showing such fact. A petition shall be deemed to be filed with the secretary of state upon the date of the receipt by him of a certificate or certificates showing said petition to be signed by the requisite number of electors of the state. Any county clerk or registrar of voters shall, upon receipt of such copy, file the same for record in his office. The duties herein imposed upon the clerk or registrar of voters shall be performed by such registrar of voters in all cases where the office of registrar of voters exists.

The initiative and referendum powers of the people are hereby further reserved to the electors of each county, city and county, city and town of the state, to be exercised under such procedure as may be provided by law. Until otherwise provided by law, the legislative body of any such county, city and county, city or town may provide for the manner of exercising the initiative and referendum powers herein reserved to such counties, cities and counties, cities and towns, but shall not require more than fifteen per cent of the electors thereof to propose any initiative measure nor more than ten per cent of the electors thereof to order the referendum. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as affecting or limiting the present or future powers of cities or cities and counties having charters adopted under the provisions of section eight of article eleven of this constitution. In the submission to the electors of any measure under this section, all officers shall be guided by the general laws of this state, except as is herein otherwise provided. This section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted to facilitate its operation, but in no way limiting or restricting either the provisions of this section or the powers herein reserved. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 2. The sessions of the legislature shall be biennial, unless the governor shall, in the interim, convene the legislature, by proclamation, in extraordinary session. All sessions, other than extraordinary, shall commence at twelve o'clock m., on the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding the election of its members, and shall continue in session for a period not exceeding thirty days thereafter; whereupon a recess of both houses must be taken for not less than thirty days. On the reassembling of the legislature, no bill shall be introduced in either house without the consent of three fourths of the members thereof, nor shall more than two bills be introduced by any one member after such reassembling. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 3. Members of the assembly shall be elected in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, at the time and in the manner now provided by law. The second election of members of the assembly, after the adoption of this constitution, shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and eighty. Thereafter members of the assembly shall be chosen biennially, and their term of office shall be two years; and each election shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, unless otherwise ordered by the legislature.

SEC. 4. Senators shall be chosen for the term of four years, at the same time and places as members of the assembly, and no person shall be a member of the senate or assembly who has not been a citizen and inhabitant of the state three years, and of the district for which he shall be chosen one year, next before his election.

SEC. 5. The senate shall consist of forty members, and the assembly of eighty members, to be elected by districts, numbered as hereinafter provided. The seats of the twenty senators elected in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two from the odd-numbered districts shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, so that one half of the senators shall be elected every two years; provided, that all the senators elected at the first election under this constitution shall hold office for the term of three years.

SEC. 6. For the purpose of choosing members of the legislature, the state shall be divided into forty senatorial and eighty assembly districts, as nearly equal in population as may be, and composed of contiguous territory, to be called senatorial and assembly districts. Each senatorial district shall choose one senator, and each assembly district shall choose one member of assembly. The senatorial districts shall be numbered from one to forty, inclusive, in numerical order, and the assembly districts shall be numbered from one to eighty in the same order, commencing at the northern boundary of the state and ending at the southern boundary thereof. In the formation of such districts no county, or city and county, shall be divided, unless it contains sufficient population within itself to form two or more districts, nor shall a part of any county, or of any city and county, be united with any other county, or city and county, in forming any district. The census taken under the direction of the congress of the United States in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and every ten years thereafter, shall be the basis of fixing and adjusting the legislative districts; and the legislature shall, at its first session after each census, adjust such districts and reapportion the representation so as to preserve them as near equal in population as may be. But in making such adjustment no persons who are not eligible to become citizens of the United States, under the naturalization laws, shall be counted as forming a part of the population of any district. Until such districting as herein provided for shall be made, senators and assemblymen shall be elected by the districts according to the apportionment now provided for by law.

SEC. 7. Each house shall choose its officers, and judge of the qualifications, elections, and returns of its members.

SEC. 8. A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

SEC. 9. Each house shall determine the rule of its proceedings, and may, with the concurrence of two thirds of all the members elected, expel a member.

SEC. 10. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house, on any question, shall, at the desire of any three members present, be entered on the journal.

SEC. 11. Members of the legislature shall, in all cases, except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest, and shall not be subject to any civil process during the session of the legislature, nor for fifteen days next before the commencement and after the termination of each session.

SEC. 12. When vacancies occur in either house, the governor, or the person exercising the functions of the governor, shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

SEC. 13. The doors of each house shall be open, except on such occasions as, in the opinion of the house, may require secrecy.

SEC. 14. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any place other than that in which they may be sitting. Nor shall the members of either house draw pay for any recess or adjournment for a longer time than three days.

SEC. 15. No law shall be passed except by bill. Nor shall any bill be put upon its final passage until the same, with the amendments thereto, shall have been printed for the use of the members; nor shall any bill become a law unless the same be read on three several days in each house, unless, in case of urgency, two thirds of the house where such bill may be pending shall, by a vote of yeas and nays, dispense with this provision. Any bill may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other; and on the final passage of all bills they shall be read at length, and the vote shall be by yeas and nays upon each bill separately, and shall be entered on the journal, and no bill shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to each house.

SEC. 16. Every bill which may have passed the legislature shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the governor. If he approve it, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which shall enter such objections upon the journal and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, it again pass both houses, by yeas and nays, two thirds of the members elected to each house voting therefor, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor's objections. If any bill shall not be returned within ten days after it shall have been presented to him (Sundays excepted), the same shall become a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the legislature, by adjournment, prevents such return, in which case it shall not become a law, unless the governor, within thirty days after such adjournment (Sundays excepted), shall sign and deposit the same in the office of the secretary of state, in which case it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by him before adjournment. If any bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more items, while approving other portions of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects, and the reasons therefor, and the appropriation so objected to shall not take effect unless passed over the governor's veto, as hereinbefore provided. If the legislature be in session, the governor shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of such statement, and the items so objected to shall be separately reconsidered in the same manner as bills which have been disapproved by the governor. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1903.]

SEC. 17. The assembly shall have the sole power of impeachment, and all impeachments shall be tried by the senate. When sitting for that purpose, the senators shall be upon oath or affirmation, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected.

SEC. 18. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, controller, treasurer, attorney general, surveyor general, chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court, judges of the district courts of appeal, and judges of the superior courts, shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office; but judgment in such cases shall extend only to removal from office, and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under the state; but the party convicted or acquitted shall nevertheless be liable to judgment, trial, and punishment according to law. All other civil officers shall be tried for misdemeanor in office in such manner as the legislature may provide. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 19. No senator or member of assembly shall, during the term for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any civil office of profit under this state which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which have been increased, during such term, except such offices as may be filled by election by the people.

SEC. 20. No person holding any lucrative office under the United States, or any other power, shall be eligible to any civil office of profit under this state; provided, that officers in the militia who receive no annual salary, local officers, or postmasters whose compensation does not exceed five hundred dollars per annum, shall not be deemed to hold lucrative offices.

SEC. 21. No person convicted of the embezzlement or defalcation of the public funds of the United States, or of any state, or of any county or municipality therein, shall ever be eligible to any office of honor, trust, or profit under this state, and the legislature shall provide, by law, for the punishment of embezzlement or defalcation as a felony.

SEC. 22. No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law, and upon warrants duly drawn thereon by the controller; and no money shall ever be appropriated or drawn from the state treasury for the purpose or benefit of any corporation, association, asylum, hospital, or any other institution nor under the exclusive management and control of the state as a state institution, nor shall any grant or donation of property ever be made thereto by the state; provided, that notwithstanding anything contained in this or any other section of this constitution, the legislature shall have the power to grant aid to the institutions conducted for the support and maintenance of minor orphans, or half-orphans, or abandoned children, or aged persons in indigent circumstances—such aid to be granted by a uniform rule, and proportioned to the number of inmates of such respective institutions; provided, further, that the state shall have at any time the right to inquire into the management of such institution; provided, further, that whenever any county, or city and county, or city, or town, shall provide for the support of minor orphans, or half-orphans, or abandoned children, or aged persons in indigent circumstances, such county, city and county, city, or town shall be entitled to receive the same pro rata appropriations as may be granted to such institutions under church or other control. An accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of public moneys shall be attached to and published with the laws at every regular session of the legislature; provided, however, that for the purpose of raising five million dollars ($5,000,000), to be used in establishing, maintaining, and supporting in the city and county of San Francisco, State of California, an exposition in commemoration of the completion of the Panama canal, to be known as the Panama-Pacific international exposition, the state board of equalization shall, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1911, and for each fiscal year thereafter, and including the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1914, fix, establish, and levy such an ad valorem rate of taxation, as when levied upon all the taxable property in the state, after making due allowance for delinquency, shall produce for each of such fiscal years a sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($1,250,000). The said taxes shall be levied, assessed, and collected upon every kind and character of property in the State of California not exempt from taxation under the law, and subject to taxation on the first day of July, 1910, and in the same manner, and by the same method, as other state taxes were levied, assessed, and collected under the law, as the same existed on the first day of July, 1910. The state board of equalization shall each year, at the time it determines the amount of revenue required for other state purposes, determine, fix, and include the rate of tax necessary to raise the revenue herein provided for.

There is hereby created in the state treasury a fund to be known as the Panama-Pacific international exposition fund, and all moneys collected pursuant to this provision, after deducting the proportionate share of the expense for the collection of the same, shall be paid into the state treasury, and credited to such fund. All moneys so paid into such fund are hereby appropriated, without reference to fiscal years, for the use, establishment, maintenance, and support of said Panama-Pacific international exposition. No tax, license fee, or charge of any kind or character shall ever be levied or assessed or charged against any property of said Panama-Pacific international exposition, or against any property used as exhibit therein, while being used or exhibited in connection therewith.

There is hereby created a commission to be known as the Panama-Pacific international exposition commission of the State of California, which shall consist of the governor of said state and four other members to be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate of said state. The governor shall have the power to fill all vacancies occurring at any time in said commission. The members of said commission shall receive no compensation and shall hold office until such exposition shall have been closed and its affairs settled. Said four members of said commission shall be selected from different sections of the state, and the appointment thereof shall be made by the governor of the state during the month of February, 1911. The commission hereby created shall have the exclusive charge and control of all moneys paid into the Panama-Pacific international exposition fund; and provided, further, that the legislature shall pass all laws necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, including the times and the manner in which and the terms and conditions upon which moneys shall be drawn from the state treasury by said commission; where contracts and vouchers shall be filed; to whom and how often reports shall be made; what disposition shall be made of any sum left unexpended or received from the sale of any property or buildings purchased or constructed by said commission for the use of said exposition, or of any disposition of any building or improvement constructed by said commission out of said fund, and to provide for the transfer to the general fund of the State of California of any portion of said Panama-Pacific international exposition fund unused.

The commission herein created is authorized and directed to make such proper contracts with the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California on the 22d day of March, 1910, as will entitle the State of California to share proportionately with the contributors to the said Panama-Pacific international exposition in the returns from the holding of said exposition at the city and county of San Francisco. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 23. The members of the legislature shall receive for their services the sum of one thousand dollars each for each regular session, to be paid at such times during the session as may be provided by law, and the sum of ten dollars each for each day while in attendance at a special or extraordinary session, for a number of days not exceeding thirty; and mileage to be fixed by law, all paid out of the state treasury; such mileage shall not exceed ten cents per mile; and each member shall be allowed contingent expenses not exceeding twenty-five dollars per member for each regular biennial session. The legislature may also provide for additional help; but in no case shall the total expense for officers, employees and attachés exceed the sum of five hundred dollars per day for either house, at any regular or biennial session, nor the sum of two hundred dollars per day for either house at any special or extraordinary session, nor shall the pay of any officer, employee or attaché be increased after he is elected or appointed. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1908.]

SEC. 23a. The legislature may also provide for the employment of help; but in no case shall the total expense for officers, employees and attachés exceed the sum of five hundred dollars per day for either house, at any regular or biennial session, nor the sum of two hundred dollars per day for either house at any special or extraordinary session, nor shall the pay of any officer, employee or attaché be increased after he is elected or appointed. [New section; adopted November 3, 1908.]

SEC. 24. Every act shall embrace but one subject, which subject shall be expressed in its title. But if any subject shall be embraced in an act which shall not be expressed in its title, such act shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall not be expressed in its title. No law shall be revised or amended by reference to its title; but in such case the act revised or section amended shall be re-enacted and published at length as revised or amended; and all laws of the State of California, and all official writings, and the executive, legislative and judicial proceedings, shall be conducted, preserved, and published in no other than the English language.

SEC. 25. The legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say:

First—Regulating the jurisdiction and duties of justices of the peace, police judges, and of constables.

Second—For the punishment of crimes and misdemeanors.

Third—Regulating the practice of courts of justice.

Fourth—Providing for changing the venue in civil or criminal actions.

Fifth—Granting divorces.

Sixth—Changing the names of persons or places.

Seventh—Authorizing the laying out, opening, altering, maintaining or vacating roads, highways, streets, alleys, town plots, parks, cemeteries, graveyards, or public grounds not owned by the state.

Eighth—Summoning and impaneling grand and petit juries, and providing for their compensation.

Ninth—Regulating county and township business, or the election of county and township officers.

Tenth—For the assessment or collection of taxes.

Eleventh—Providing for conducting elections, or designating the places of voting, except on the organization of new counties.

Twelfth—Affecting estates of deceased persons, minors, or other persons under legal disabilities.

Thirteenth—Extending the time for the collection of taxes.

Fourteenth—Giving effect to invalid deeds, wills, or other instruments.

Fifteenth—Refunding money paid into the state treasury.

Sixteenth—Releasing or extinguishing, in whole or in part, the indebtedness, liability, or obligation of any corporation or person to this state, or to any municipal corporation therein.

Seventeenth—Declaring any person of age, or authorizing any minor to sell, lease, or incumber his or her property.

Eighteenth—Legalizing, except as against the state, the unauthorized or invalid act of any officer.

Nineteenth—Granting to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive right, privilege, or immunity.

Twentieth—Exempting property from taxation.

Twenty-first—Changing county seats.

Twenty-second—Restoring to citizenship persons convicted of infamous crimes.

Twenty-third—Regulating the rate of interest on money.

Twenty-fourth—Authorizing the creation, extension, or impairing of liens.

Twenty-fifth—Chartering or licensing ferries, bridges, or roads.

Twenty-sixth—Remitting fines, penalties, or forfeitures.

Twenty-seventh—Providing for the management of common schools.

Twenty-eighth—Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, cities, cities and counties, township, election or school districts.

Twenty-ninth—Affecting the fees or salary of any officer.

Thirtieth—Changing the law of descent or succession.

Thirty-first—Authorizing the adoption or legitimation of children.

Thirty-second—For limitation of civil or criminal actions.

Thirty-third—In all other cases where a general law can be made applicable.

SEC. 25½. The legislature may provide for the division of the state into fish and game districts, and may enact such laws for the protection of fish and game therein as it may deem appropriate to the respective districts. [New section; amendment adopted November 4, 1903.]

SEC. 26. The legislature shall have no power to authorize lotteries or gift enterprises for any purpose and shall pass laws to prohibit the sale in this state of lottery or gift enterprise tickets or tickets in any scheme in the nature of a lottery. The legislature shall pass laws to prohibit the fictitious buying and selling of the shares of the capital stock of corporations in any stock board, stock exchange or stock market under the control of any corporation or association. All contracts for the purchase or sale of shares of the capital stock of any corporation or association without any intention on the part of one party to deliver and of the other party to receive the shares, and contemplating merely the payment of differences between the contract and market prices on divers days, shall be void, and neither party to any such contract shall be entitled to recover any damages for failure to perform the same, or any money paid thereon, in any court of this state. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1908.]

SEC. 27. When a congressional district shall be composed of two or more counties, it shall not be separated by any county belonging to another district. No county, or city and county, shall be divided in forming a congressional district so as to attach one portion of a county, or city and county, to another county, or city and county, except in cases where one county, or city and county, has more population than the ratio required for one or more congressmen; but the legislature may divide any county, or city and county, into as many congressional districts as it may be entitled to by law. Any county, or city and county containing a population greater than the number required for one congressional district, shall be formed into one or more congressional districts, according to the population thereof, and any residue, after forming such district or districts, shall be attached, by compact adjoining assembly districts, to a contiguous county or counties, and form a congressional district. In dividing a county, or city and county, into congressional districts, no assembly district shall be divided so as to form a part of more than one congressional district, and every such congressional district shall be composed of compact contiguous assembly districts.

SEC. 28. In all elections by the legislature the members thereof shall vote viva voce, and the vote shall be entered on the journal.

SEC. 29. The general appropriation bill shall contain no item or items of appropriation other than such as are required to pay the salaries of the state officers, the expenses of the government, and of the institutions under the exclusive control and management of the state.

SEC. 30. Neither the legislature, nor any county, city and county, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, shall ever make an appropriation, or pay from any public fund whatever, or grant anything to or in aid of any religious sect, church, creed, or sectarian purpose, or help to support or sustain any school, college, university, hospital, or other institution controlled by any religious creed, church, or sectarian denomination whatever; nor shall any grant or donation of personal property or real estate ever be made by the state, or any city, city and county, town, or other municipal corporation, for any religious creed, church, or sectarian purpose, whatever; provided, that nothing in this section shall prevent the legislature granting aid pursuant to section twenty-two of this article.

SEC. 31. The legislature shall have no power to give or to lend, or to authorize the giving or lending, of the credit of the state, or of any county, city and county, city, township, or other political corporation or subdivision of the state now existing, or that may be hereafter established, in aid of or to any person, association, or corporation, whether municipal or otherwise, or to pledge the credit thereof in any manner whatever, for the payment of the liabilities of any individual, association, municipal or other corporation whatever; nor shall it have power to make any gift, or authorize the making of any gift, of any public money or thing of value, to any individual, municipal or other corporation whatever; provided, that nothing in this section shall prevent the legislature granting aid pursuant to section twenty-two of this article; and it shall not have power to authorize the state, or any political subdivision thereof, to subscribe for stock, or to become a stockholder in any corporation whatever.

SEC. 32. The legislature shall have no power to grant, or authorize any county or municipal authority to grant, any extra compensation or allowance to any public officer, agent, servant, or contractor, after service has been rendered, or a contract has been entered into and performed, in whole or in part; nor to pay, or to authorize the payment of, any claim hereafter created against the state, or any county or municipality of the state, under any agreement or contract made without express authority of law; and all such unauthorized agreements or contracts shall be null and void.

SEC. 33. The legislature shall pass laws for the regulation and limitation of the charges for services performed and commodities furnished by telegraph and gas corporations, and the charges by corporations or individuals for storage and wharfage, in which there is a public use; and where laws shall provide for the selection of any person or officer to regulate and limit such rates, no such person or officer shall be selected by any corporation or individual interested in the business to be regulated, and no person shall be selected who is an officer or stockholder in any such corporation.

SEC. 34. No bill making an appropriation of money, except the general appropriation bill, shall contain more than one item of appropriation, and that for one single and certain purpose, to be therein expressed.

SEC. 35. Any person who seeks to influence the vote of a member of the legislature by bribery, promise of reward, intimidation, or any other dishonest means, shall be guilty of lobbying, which is hereby declared a felony; and it shall be the duty of the legislature to provide, by law, for the punishment of this crime. Any member of the legislature who shall be influenced, in his vote or action upon any matter pending before the legislature, by any reward, or promise of future reward, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, in addition to such punishment as may be provided by law, shall be disfranchised and forever disqualified from holding any office or public trust. Any person may be compelled to testify in any lawful investigation or judicial proceeding against any person who may be charged with having committed the offense of bribery or corrupt solicitation, or with having been influenced in his vote or action, as a member of the legislature, by reward, or promise of future reward, and shall not be permitted to withhold his testimony upon the ground that it may criminate himself, or subject him to public infamy; but such testimony shall not afterwards be used against him in any judicial proceeding, except for perjury in giving such testimony.

SEC. 36. The legislature shall have power to establish a system of state highways or to declare any road a state highway, and to pass all laws necessary or proper to construct and maintain the same, and to extend aid for the construction and maintenance in whole or in part of any county highway. [New section; adopted November 4, 1902.]

ARTICLE V.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The supreme executive power of this state shall be vested in a chief magistrate, who shall be styled the governor of the state of California.

SEC. 2. The governor shall be elected by the qualified electors at the time and places of voting for members of the assembly, and shall hold his office four years from and after the first Monday after the first day of January subsequent to his election, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

SEC. 3. No person shall be eligible to the office of governor who has not been a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state five years next preceding his election and attained the age of twenty-five years at the time of such election.

SEC. 4. The returns of every election for governor shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government, directed to the speaker of the assembly, who shall, during the first week of the session, open and publish them in the presence of both houses of the legislature. The person having the highest number of votes shall be governor; but in case any two or more have an equal and the highest number of votes, the legislature shall, by joint vote of both houses, choose one of such persons so having an equal and the highest number of votes for governor.

SEC. 5. The governor shall be commander-in-chief of the militia, the army and navy of this state.

SEC. 6. He shall transact all executive business with the officers of government, civil and military, and may require information, in writing, from the officers of the executive department upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

SEC. 7. He shall see that the laws are faithfully executed.

SEC. 8. When any office shall, from any cause, become vacant, and no mode is provided by the constitution and law for filling such vacancy, the governor shall have power to fill such vacancy by granting a commission, which shall expire at the end of the next session of the legislature, or the next election by the people.

SEC. 9. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the legislature by proclamation, stating the purposes for which he has convened it; and when so convened it shall have no power to legislate on any subject other than those specified in the proclamation, but may provide for the expenses of the session, and other matters incidental thereto.

SEC. 10. He shall communicate, by message to the legislature, at every session, the condition of the state, and recommend such matters as he shall deem expedient.

SEC. 11. In case of a disagreement between the two houses with respect to the time of adjournment, the governor shall have power to adjourn the legislature to such time as he may think proper; provided, it be not beyond the time fixed for the meeting of the next legislature.

SEC. 12. No person shall, while holding any office under the United States, or this state, exercise the office of governor, except as hereinafter expressly provided.

SEC. 13. There shall be a seal of this state, which shall be kept by the governor, and used by him officially, and shall be called "The great seal of the State of California."

SEC. 14. All grants and commissions shall be in the name and by the authority of the people of the State of California, sealed with the great seal of the state, signed by the governor, and countersigned by the secretary of state.

SEC. 15. A lieutenant governor shall be elected at the same time and place, and in the same manner, as the governor, and his term of office and his qualifications shall be the same. He shall be president of the senate, but shall only have a casting vote therein. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1898.]

SEC. 16. In case of the impeachment of the governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the powers and duties of his office, resignation, or absence from the state, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the lieutenant governor for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease. And should the lieutenant governor be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the state, the president pro tempore of the senate shall act as governor until the vacancy in the office of governor shall be filled at the next general election when members of the legislature shall be chosen, or until such disability of the lieutenant governor shall cease. In case of a vacancy in the office of governor for any of the reasons above named, and neither the lieutenant governor nor the president pro tempore of the senate succeed to the powers and duties of governor, then the powers and duties of such office shall devolve upon the speaker of the assembly, until the office of governor shall be filled at such general election. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1898.]

SEC. 17. A secretary of state, a controller, a treasurer, an attorney general, and a surveyor general shall be elected at the same time and places, and in the same manner, as the governor and lieutenant governor, and their terms of office shall be the same as that of the governor.

SEC. 18. The secretary of state shall keep a correct record of the official acts of the legislative and executive departments of the government, and shall, when required, lay the same, and all matters relative thereto, before either branch of the legislature, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him by law.

SEC. 19. The governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, controller, treasurer, attorney general, and surveyor general shall, at stated times during their continuance in office, receive for their services a compensation which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which they shall have been elected, which compensation is hereby fixed for the following officers, as follows: governor, ten thousand dollars per annum; lieutenant governor, four thousand dollars; the secretary of state, controller, treasurer, and surveyor general, five thousand dollars each per annum, and the attorney general, six thousand dollars per annum, such compensation to be in full for all services by them respectively rendered in any official capacity or employment whatsoever during their respective terms of office; provided, however, that the legislature may, by law, diminish the compensation of any or all of such officers, but in no case shall have the power to increase the same above the sums hereby fixed by this constitution. No salary shall be authorized by law for clerical service in any office provided for in this article, exceeding eighteen hundred dollars per annum for each clerk employed. The legislature may, in its discretion, abolish the office of surveyor general; and none of the officers herein-before named shall receive for their own use any fees or perquisites for the performance of any official duty. [Amendment adopted November 9, 1908.]

SEC. 20. The governor shall not, during his term of office, be elected a senator to the senate of the United States.

ARTICLE VI.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The judicial power of the state shall be vested in the senate, sitting as a court of impeachment, in a supreme court, district courts of appeal, superior courts and such inferior courts as the legislature may establish in any incorporated city or town, township, county, or city and county. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 2. The supreme court shall consist of a chief justice and six associate justices. The court may sit in departments and in bank, and shall always be open for the transaction of business. There shall be two departments, denominated, respectively, department one and department two. The chief justice shall assign three of the associate justices to each department, and such assignment may be changed by him from time to time. The associate justices shall be competent to sit in either department, and may interchange with each other by agreement among themselves, or as ordered by the chief justice. Each of the departments shall have the power to hear and determine causes, and all questions arising therein, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained in relation to the court in bank. The presence of three justices shall be necessary to transact any business in either of the departments, except such as may be done at chambers, and the concurrence of three justices shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment. The chief justice shall apportion the business to the departments, and may, in his discretion, order any cause pending before the court to be heard and decided by the court in bank. The order may be made before or after judgment pronounced by a department; but where a cause has been allotted to one of the departments, and a judgment pronounced thereon, the order must be made within thirty days after such judgment, and concurred in by two associate justices, and if so made it shall have the effect to vacate and set aside the judgment. Any four justices may, either before or after judgment by a department, order a case to be heard in bank. If the order be not made within the time above limited, the judgment shall be final. No judgment by a department shall become final until the expiration of the period of thirty days aforesaid, unless approved by the chief justice, in writing, with the concurrence of two associate justices. The chief justice may convene the court in bank at any time, and shall be the presiding justice of the court when so convened. The concurrence of four justices present at the argument shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment in bank; but if four justices, so present, do not concur in a judgment, then all the justices qualified to sit in the cause shall hear the argument; but to render a judgment a concurrence of four judges shall be necessary. In the determination of causes, all decisions of the court, in bank or in departments, shall be given in writing, and the grounds of the decision shall be stated. The chief justice may sit in either department, and shall preside when so sitting, but the justices assigned to each department shall select one of their number as presiding justice. In case of the absence of the chief justice from the place at which the court is held, or his inability to act, the associate justices shall select one of their own number to perform the duties and exercise the powers of the chief justice during such absence or inability to act.

SEC. 3. The chief justice and the associate justices shall be elected by the qualified electors of the state at large at the general state elections, at the time and places at which state officers are elected; and the term of office shall be twelve years from and after the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding their election; provided, that the six associate justices elected at the first election shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves, by lot, that two of them shall go out of office at the end of four years, two of them at the end of eight years, and two of them at the end of twelve years, and an entry of such classification shall be made in the minutes of the court in bank, signed by them, and a duplicate thereof shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. If a vacancy occur in the office of a justice, the governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a justice to fill the vacancy, which election shall take place at the next succeeding general election, and the justice so elected shall hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term. The first election of the justices shall be at the first general election after the adoption and ratification of this constitution.

SEC. 4. The supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction on appeal from the superior courts in all cases in equity, except such as arise in justices' courts; also, in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real estate, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, or in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, amounts to two thousand dollars; also, in all such probate matters as may be provided by law; also, on questions of law alone, in all criminal cases where judgment of death has been rendered; the said court shall also have appellate jurisdiction in all cases, matters, and proceedings pending before a district court of appeal, which shall be ordered by the supreme court to be transferred to itself for hearing and decision, as hereinafter provided. The said court shall also have power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and habeas corpus, and all other writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction. Each of the justices shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state, upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the supreme court, or before any district court of appeal, or before any judge thereof, or before any superior court in the state, or before any judge thereof.

The state is hereby divided into three appellate districts, in each of which there shall be a district court of appeal consisting of three justices. The first district shall embrace the following counties: San Francisco, Marin, Contra Costa, Alameda, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Fresno, Santa Cruz, Monterey, and San Benito.

The second district shall embrace the following counties: Tulare, Kings, San Luis Obispo, Kern, Inyo, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Orange, Riverside, and San Diego.

The third district shall embrace the following counties: Del Norte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Humboldt, Trinity, Shasta, Lassen, Tehama, Plumas, Mendocino, Lake, Colusa, Glenn, Butte, Sierra, Sutter, Yuba, Nevada, Sonoma, Napa, Yolo, Placer, Solano, Sacramento, El Dorado, San Joaquin, Amador, Calaveras, Stanislaus, Mariposa, Madera, Merced, Tuolumne, Alpine, and Mono.

The supreme court, by orders entered in its minutes, may from time to time remove one or more counties from one appellate district to another, but no county not contiguous to another county of a district shall be added to such district.

Said district courts of appeal shall hold their regular sessions, respectively at San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Sacramento, and they shall always be open for the transaction of business.

The district courts of appeal shall have appellate jurisdiction on appeal from the superior courts in all cases at law in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, amounts to three hundred dollars, and does not amount to two thousand dollars; also, in all cases of forcible and unlawful entry and detainer (except such as arise in justices' courts), in proceedings in insolvency, and in actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; in proceedings of mandamus, certiorari, and prohibition, usurpation of office, contesting elections and eminent domain, and in such other special proceedings as may be provided by law (excepting cases in which appellate jurisdiction is given to the supreme court); also, on questions of law alone, in all criminal cases presented by indictment or information in a court of record, excepting criminal cases where judgment of death has been rendered. The said courts shall also have appellate jurisdiction in all cases, matters, and proceedings pending before the supreme court which shall be ordered by the supreme court to be transferred to a district court of appeal for hearing and decision. The said courts shall also have power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and habeas corpus, and all other writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of their appellate jurisdiction. Each of the justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of his appellate district upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the district court of appeal of his district, or before any superior court within his district, or before any judge thereof.

The supreme court shall have power to order any cause pending before the supreme court to be heard and determined by a district court of appeal, and to order any cause pending before a district court of appeal to be heard and determined by the supreme court. The order last mentioned may be made before judgment has been pronounced by a district court of appeal, or within thirty days after such judgment shall have become final therein. The judgments of the district courts of appeal shall become final therein upon the expiration of thirty days after the same shall have been pronounced.

The supreme court shall have power to order causes pending before a district court of appeal for one district to be transferred to the district court of appeal of another district for hearing and decision.

The justices of the district courts of appeal shall be elected by the qualified electors within their respective districts at the general state elections at the times and places at which justices of the supreme court are elected. Their terms of office and salaries shall be the same as those of justices of the supreme court, and their salaries shall be paid by the state. Upon the ratification by the people of this amendment the governor shall appoint nine persons to serve as justices of the district courts of appeal until the first Monday after the first day of January in the year 1907; provided, that not more than six of said persons shall be members of the same political party. At the election in the year 1906 nine of such justices shall be elected as above provided, and the justices of each district court of appeal shall so classify themselves by lot that one of them shall go out of office at the end of four years, one of them at the end of eight years, and one of them at the end of twelve years; an entry of such classification shall be made in the minutes of the court, signed by the three justices thereof, and a duplicate thereof filed in the office of the secretary of state. If any vacancy occur in the office of a justice of the district courts of appeal, the governor shall appoint a person to hold office until the election and qualification of a justice to fill the vacancy; such election shall take place at the next succeeding general state election as aforesaid; the justice then elected shall hold the office for the unexpired term.

One of the justices of each of the district courts of appeal shall be the presiding justice thereof, and as such shall be appointed or elected as the case may be. The presence of three justices shall be necessary for the transaction of any business by such court, except such as may be done at chambers, and the concurrence of three justices shall be necessary to pronounce a judgment.

Whenever any justice of the supreme court is for any reason disqualified or unable to act in a cause pending before it, the remaining justices may select one of the justices of a district court of appeal to act pro tempore in the place of the justice so disqualified or unable to act.

Whenever any justice of a district court of appeal is for any reason disqualified or unable to act in any cause pending before it, the supreme court may appoint a justice of the district court of appeal of another district, or a judge of a superior court who has not acted in the cause in the court below, to act pro tempore in the place of the justice so disqualified or unable to act.

No appeal taken to the supreme court or to a district court of appeal shall be dismissed for the reason only that the same was not taken to the proper court, but the cause shall be transferred to the proper court upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as may be just, and shall be proceeded with therein as if regularly appealed thereto.

All statutes now in force allowing, providing for, or regulating appeals to the supreme court shall apply to appeals to the district courts of appeal so far as such statutes are not inconsistent with this article and until the legislature shall otherwise provide.

The supreme court shall make and adopt rules not inconsistent with law for the government of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal and of the officers thereof, and for regulating the practice in said courts. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1904.]

SEC. 4. No judgment shall be set aside, or new trial granted in any criminal case on the ground of misdirection of the jury or the improper admission or rejection of evidence, or for error as to any matter of pleading or procedure, unless, after an examination of the entire cause including the evidence, the court shall be of the opinion that the error complained of has resulted in a miscarriage of justice. [New section; amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 5. The superior court shall have original jurisdiction in all cases in equity, and in all cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, and in all other cases in which the demand, exclusive of interest or the value of the property in controversy amounts to three hundred dollars, and in all criminal cases amounting to felony, and cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for; of actions of forcible entry and detainer; of proceedings in insolvency; of actions to prevent or abate a nuisance; of all matters of probate; of divorce and for annulment of marriage; and of all such special cases and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for, and said court shall have the power of naturalization, and to issue papers therefor. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in such cases arising in inferior courts in their respective counties as may be prescribed by law. They shall be always open (legal holidays and non-judicial days excepted), and their process shall extend to all parts of the state; provided, that all actions for the recovery of the possession of, quieting the title to, or for the enforcement of liens upon real estate, shall be commenced in the county in which the real estate, or any part thereof, affected by such action or actions, is situated. Said courts and their judges shall have power to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, quo warranto, and habeas corpus, on petition by or on behalf of any person in actual custody, in their respective counties. Injunctions and writs of prohibition may be issued and served on legal holidays and non-judicial days. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 6. There shall be in each of the organized counties, or cities and counties, of the state, a superior court, for each of which at least one judge shall be elected by the qualified electors of the county, or city and county, at the general state election; provided, that until otherwise ordered by the legislature, only one judge shall be elected for the counties of Yuba and Sutter, and that in the city and county of San Francisco there shall be elected twelve judges of the superior court, any one or more of whom may hold court. There may be as many sessions of said court, at the same time, as there are judges thereof. The said judges shall choose, from their own number, a presiding judge, who may be removed at their pleasure. He shall distribute the business of the court among the judges thereof, and prescribe the order of business. The judgments, orders, and proceedings of any session of the superior court held by any one or more of the judges of said courts, respectively, shall be equally effectual as if all the judges of said respective courts presided at such session. In each of the counties of Sacramento, San Joaquin, Los Angeles, Sonoma, Santa Clara, and Alameda there shall be elected two such judges. The term of office of judges of the superior courts shall be six years from and after the first Monday of January next succeeding their election; provided, that the twelve judges of the superior court elected in the city and county of San Francisco, at the first election held under this constitution, shall at their first meeting so classify themselves, by lot, that four of them shall go out of office at the end of two years, and four of them shall go out of office at the end of four years, and four of them shall go out of office at the end of six years, and an entry of such classification shall be made in the minutes of the court, signed by them, and a duplicate thereof filed in the office of the secretary of state. The first election of judges of the superior courts shall take place at the first general election held after the adoption and ratification of this constitution. If a vacancy occur in the office of judge of a superior court, the governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a judge to fill the vacancy, which election shall take place at the next succeeding general election, and the judge so elected shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

SEC. 7. In any county, or city and county, other than the city and county of San Francisco, in which there shall be more than one judge of the superior court, the judges of such court may hold as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are judges thereof, and shall apportion the business among themselves as equally as may be.

SEC. 8. A judge of any superior court may hold a superior court in any county, at the request of a judge of the superior court thereof, and upon the request of the governor it shall be his duty so to do. But a cause in the superior court may be tried by a judge pro tempore, who must be a member of the bar, agreed upon in writing by the parties litigant, or their attorneys of record, and sworn to try the cause, and the person so selected shall be empowered to act in such capacity in all further proceedings in any suit or proceedings tried before him until the final determination thereof. There may be as many sessions of a superior court at the same time as there are judges thereof, including any judge or judges acting upon request, or any judge or judges pro tempore. The judgments, orders, acts and proceedings of any session of any superior court held by one or more judges acting upon request, or judge or judges pro tempore, shall be equally effective as if the judge or all of the judges of such court presided at such session. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 9. The legislature shall have no power to grant leave of absence to any judicial officer; and any such officer who shall absent himself from the state for more than sixty consecutive days shall be deemed to have forfeited his office. The legislature of the state may, at any time, two thirds of the members of the senate and two thirds of the members of the assembly voting therefor, increase or diminish the number of judges of the superior court in any county, or city and county, in the state; provided, that no such reduction shall affect any judge who has been elected.

SEC. 10. Justices of the supreme court, and of the district courts of appeal, and judges of the superior courts may be removed by concurrent resolution of both houses of the legislature adopted by a two-thirds vote of each house. All other judicial officers, except justices of the peace, may be removed by the senate on the recommendation of the governor; but no removal shall be made by virtue of this section unless the cause thereof be entered on the journal, nor unless the party complained of has been served with a copy of the complaint against him and shall have had an opportunity of being heard in his defense. On the question of removal the yeas and noes shall be entered on the journal. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 11. The legislature shall determine the number of each of the inferior courts in incorporated cities or townships, and in townships, counties, or cities and counties, according to the population thereof and the number of judges or justices thereof, and shall fix by law the powers, duties and responsibilities of each of such courts and of the judges or justices thereof; provided, such powers shall not in any case trench upon the jurisdiction of the several courts of record, except that the legislature shall provide that said courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts in cases of forcible entry and detainer, where the rental value does not exceed twenty-five dollars per month, and where the whole amount of damages claimed does not exceed two hundred dollars, and in cases to enforce and foreclose liens on personal property when neither the amount of liens nor the value of the property amounts to three hundred dollars. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 12. The supreme court, the district courts of appeal, the superior courts, and such other courts as the legislature shall prescribe, shall be courts of record. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 13. The legislature shall fix by law the jurisdiction of any inferior courts which may be established in pursuance of section one of this article, and shall fix by law the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the judges thereof.

SEC. 14. The county clerks shall be ex officio clerks of the courts of record in and for their respective counties, or cities and counties. The legislature may also provide for the appointment, by the several superior courts, of one or more commissioners in their respective counties, or cities and counties, with authority to perform chamber business of the judges of the superior courts, to take depositions, and perform such other business connected with the administration of justice as may be prescribed by law. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 15. No judicial officer, except court commissioners, shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office; provided, that justices of the peace now holding office shall receive to their own use such fees as are now allowed by law during the terms for which they have been elected. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 16. The legislature shall provide for the speedy publication of such opinions of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal as the supreme court may deem expedient, and all opinions shall be free for publication by any person. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 17. The justices of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal, and the judges of the superior courts, shall severally, at stated times during their continuance in office, receive for their service such compensation as is or shall be provided by law. The salaries of the judges of the superior court, in all counties having but one judge, and in all counties in which the terms of the judges of the superior court expire at the same time, shall not hereafter be increased or diminished after their election, nor during the term for which they shall have been elected. Upon the adoption of this amendment the salaries then established by law shall be paid uniformly to the justices and judges then in office. The salaries of the justices of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal shall be paid by the state. One half of the salary of each superior court judge shall be paid by the state; and the other half thereof shall be paid by the county for which he is elected. On and after the first day of January, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and seven, the justices of the supreme court shall each receive an annual salary of eight thousand dollars, and the justices of the several district courts of appeal shall each receive an annual salary of seven thousand dollars; the said salaries to be payable monthly. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1906.]

SEC. 18. The justices of the supreme court, and of the district courts of appeal, and the judges of the superior courts shall be ineligible to any other office or public employment than a judicial office or employment during the term for which they shall have been elected. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 19. Judges shall not charge juries with respect to matters of fact, but may state the testimony and declare the law.

SEC. 20. The style of process shall be "The People of the State of California," and all prosecutions shall be conducted in their name and by their authority.

SEC. 21. The supreme court shall appoint a clerk of the supreme court; provided, however, that any person elected to the office of clerk of the supreme court before the adoption hereof, shall continue to hold such office until the expiration of the term for which he may have been elected. Said court may also appoint a reporter and not more than three assistant reporters of the decisions of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal. Each of the district courts of appeal shall appoint its own clerk. All the officers herein mentioned shall hold office and be removable at the pleasure of the courts by which they are severally appointed, and they shall receive such compensation as shall be prescribed by law, and discharge such duties as shall be prescribed by law, or by the rules or orders of the courts by which they are severally appointed. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 22. No judge of a court of record shall practice law in any court of this state during his continuance in office.

SEC. 23. No one shall be eligible to the office of a justice of the supreme court, or of a district court of appeal, or of a judge of a superior court, unless he shall have been admitted to practice before the supreme court of the state. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 24. No judge of the supreme court nor of a district court of appeal, nor of a superior court, shall draw or receive any monthly salary unless he shall make and subscribe an affidavit before an officer entitled to administer oaths, that no cause in his court remains pending and undecided, that has been submitted for decision for a period of ninety days. In the determination of causes all decisions of the supreme court and of the district courts of appeal shall be given in writing, and the grounds of the decisions shall be stated. When the justices of a district court of appeal are unable to concur in a judgment, they shall give their several opinions in writing and cause copies thereof to be forwarded to the supreme court. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 25. The present supreme court commission shall be abolished at the expiration of its present term of office, and no supreme court commission shall be created or provided for after January 1st, A. D. 1905. [New section; adopted November 8, 1904.]

ARTICLE VII.

PARDONING POWER.

SECTION 1. The governor shall have the power to grant reprieves, pardons, and commutations of sentence, after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, upon such conditions, and with such restrictions and limitations, as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. Upon conviction for treason, the governor shall have power to suspend the execution of the sentence until the case shall be reported to the legislature at its next meeting, when the legislature shall either pardon, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve. The governor shall communicate to the legislature, at the beginning of every session, every case of reprieve or pardon granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence, its date, the date of the pardon or reprieve, and the reasons for granting the same. Neither the governor nor the legislature shall have power to grant pardons, or commutations of sentence, in any case where the convict has been twice convicted of a felony, unless upon the written recommendation of a majority of the judges of the supreme court.

ARTICLE VIII.

MILITIA.

SECTION 1. The legislature shall provide, by law, for organizing and disciplining the militia, in such manner as it may deem expedient, not incompatible with the constitution and laws of the United States. Officers of the militia shall be elected or appointed in such manner as the legislature shall, from time to time, direct, and shall be commissioned by the governor. The governor shall have power to call forth the militia to execute the laws of the state, to suppress insurrections, and repel invasions.

SEC. 2. All military organizations provided for by this constitution, or any law of this state, and receiving state support, shall, while under arms, either for ceremony or duty, carry no device, banner, or flag of any state or nation, except that of the United States or the State of California.

ARTICLE IX.

EDUCATION.

SECTION 1. A general diffusion of knowledge and intelligence being essential to the preservation of the rights and liberties of the people, the legislature shall encourage by all suitable means the promotion of intellectual, scientific, moral, and agricultural improvement.

SEC. 2. A superintendent of public instruction shall, at each gubernatorial election after the adoption of this constitution, be elected by the qualified electors of the state. He shall receive a salary equal to that of the secretary of state, and shall enter upon the duties of his office on the first Monday after the first day of January next succeeding his election.

SEC. 3. A superintendent of schools for each county shall be elected by the qualified electors thereof at each gubernatorial election; provided, that the legislature may authorize two or more counties to unite and elect one superintendent for the counties so uniting.

SEC. 4. The proceeds of all lands that have been or may be granted by the United States to this state for the support of common schools, which may be, or may have been, sold or disposed of, and the five hundred thousand acres of land granted to the new states under an act of congress distributing the proceeds of the public lands among the several states of the Union, approved A. D. one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and all estates of deceased persons who may have died without leaving a will or heir, and also such per cent as may be granted, or may have been granted, by congress on the sale of lands in this state, shall be and remain a perpetual fund, the interest of which, together with all the rents of the unsold lands, and such other means as the legislature may provide, shall be inviolably appropriated to the support of common schools throughout the state.

SEC. 5. The legislature shall provide for a system of common schools, by which a free school shall be kept up and supported in each district at least six months in every year, after the first year in which a school has been established.

SEC. 6. The public school system shall include day and evening elementary schools, and such day and evening secondary schools, normal schools, and technical schools as may be established by the legislature, or by municipal or district authority. The entire revenue derived from the state school fund and from the general state school tax shall be applied exclusively to the support of day and evening elementary schools; but the legislature may authorize and cause to be levied a special state school tax for the support of day and evening secondary schools and technical schools, or either of such schools, included in the public school system, and all revenue derived from such special tax shall be applied exclusively to the support of the schools for which such special tax shall be levied. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1908.]

SEC. 7. The legislature shall provide for the appointment or election of a state board of education, and said board shall provide, compile, or cause to be compiled, and adopt, a uniform series of text-books for use in the day and evening elementary schools throughout the state. The state board may cause such text-books, when adopted, to be printed and published by the superintendent of state printing, at the state printing office; and wherever and however such text-books may be printed and published, they shall be furnished and distributed by the state free of cost or any charge whatever, to all children attending the day and evening elementary schools of the state, under such conditions as the legislature shall prescribe. The text-books, so adopted, shall continue in use not less than four years, without any change or alteration whatsoever which will require or necessitate the furnishing of new books to such pupils, and said state board shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law. The legislature shall provide for a board of education in each county in the state. The county superintendents and the county boards of education shall have control of the examination of teachers and the granting of teachers' certificates within their respective jurisdictions. [Amendment adopted November 5, 1912.]

SEC. 8. No public money shall ever be appropriated for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, or any school not under the exclusive control of the officers of the public schools; nor shall any sectarian or denominational doctrine be taught, or instruction thereon be permitted, directly or indirectly, in any of the common schools of this state.

SEC. 9. The University of California shall constitute a public trust, and its organization and government shall be perpetually continued in the form and character prescribed by the organic act creating the same, passed March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight (and the several acts amendatory thereof), subject only to such legislative control as may be necessary to insure compliance with the terms of its endowments and the proper investment and security of its funds. It shall be entirely independent of all political or sectarian influence, and kept free therefrom in the appointment of its regents, and in the administration of its affairs; provided, that all the moneys derived from the sale of the public lands donated to this state by act of congress, approved July second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two (and the several acts amendatory thereof), shall be invested as provided by said acts of congress, and the interest of said moneys shall be inviolably appropriated to the endowment, support, and maintenance of at least one college of agriculture, where the leading objects shall be (without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics) to teach such branches of learning as are related to scientific and practical agriculture and the mechanic arts, in accordance with the requirements and conditions of said acts of congress; and the legislature shall provide that if, through neglect, misappropriation, or any other contingency, any portion of the funds so set apart shall be diminished or lost, the state shall replace such portion so lost or misappropriated, so that the principal thereof shall remain forever undiminished. No person shall be debarred admission to any of the collegiate departments of the university on account of sex.

SEC. 10. The trusts and estates created for the founding, endowment, and maintenance of the Leland Stanford Junior University, under and in accordance with "An act to advance learning," etc., approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, by the endowment grant executed by Leland Stanford and Jane Lathrop Stanford on the eleventh day of November, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and recorded in liber eighty-three of deeds, at page twenty-three et seq., records of Santa Clara county, and by the amendments of such grant, and by gifts, grants, bequests, and devises supplementary thereto, and by confirmatory grants, are permitted, approved, and confirmed. The board of trustees of the Leland Stanford

Junior University, or such, or in the name of the institution, or by other intelligible designation of the trustees or of the institution, may receive property, real or personal, and wherever situated, by gift, grant, devise, or bequest, for the benefit of the institution, or of any department thereof, and such property, unless otherwise provided, shall be held by the trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University upon the trusts provided for in the grant founding the university, and amendments thereof, and grants, bequests, and devises supplementary thereto. The legislature, by special act, may grant to the trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University corporate powers and privileges, but it shall not thereby alter their tenure, or limit their powers or obligations as trustees. All property now or hereafter held in trust for the founding, maintenance, or benefit of the Leland Stanford Junior University, or of any department thereof, may be exempted by special act from state taxation, and all personal property so held, the Palo Alto farm as described in the endowment grant to the trustees of the university, and all other real property so held and used by the university for educational purposes exclusively, may be similarly exempted from county and municipal taxation; provided, that residents of California shall be charged no fees for tuition unless such fees be authorized by act of the legislature. [New section; adopted November 6, 1900.]

SEC. 11. All property now or hereafter belonging to "The California School of Mechanical Arts," an institution founded and endowed by the late James Lick to educate males and females in the practical arts of life, and incorporated under the laws of the State of California, November twenty-third, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, having its school buildings located in the city and county of San Francisco, shall be exempt from taxation. The trustees of said institution must annually report their proceedings and financial accounts to the governor. The legislature may modify, suspend, and revive at will the exemption from taxation herein given. [New section; adopted November 6, 1900.]

SEC. 12. All property now or hereafter belonging to the "California Academy of Sciences," an institution for the advancement of science and maintenance of a free museum, and chiefly endowed by the late James Lick, and incorporated under the laws of the State of California, January sixteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, having its buildings located in the city and county of San Francisco, shall be exempt from taxation. The trustees of said institution must annually report their proceedings and financial accounts to the governor. The legislature may modify, suspend, and revive at will the exemption from taxation herein given. [New section; adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 13. All property now or hereafter belonging to the Cozswell Polytechnical College, an institution for the advancement of learning, incorporated under the laws of the State of California, and having its buildings located in the city and county of San Francisco, shall be exempt from taxation. The trustees of said institution must annually report their proceedings and financial accounts to the governor. The legislature may modify, suspend, and revive at will the exemption from taxation herein given. [New section; adopted November 6, 1906.]

ARTICLE X.

STATE INSTITUTIONS AND PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

SECTION 1. There shall be a state board of prison directors, to consist of five persons, to be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, who shall hold office for ten years, except that the first appointed shall, in such manner as the legislature may direct, be so classified that the term of one person so appointed shall expire at the end of each two years during the first ten years, and vacancies occurring shall be filled in like manner. The appointee to a vacancy occurring before the expiration of a term shall hold office only for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The governor shall have the power to remove either of the directors for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty, after an opportunity to be heard upon written charges.

SEC. 2. The board of directors shall have the charge and superintendence of the state prisons, and shall possess such powers and perform such duties, in respect to other penal and reformatory institutions of the state, as the legislature may prescribe.

SEC. 3. The board shall appoint the warden and clerk, and determine the other necessary officers of the prisons. The board shall have power to remove the wardens and clerks for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty. All other officers and employees of the prisons shall be appointed by the warden thereof, and be removed at his pleasure.

SEC. 4. The members of the board shall receive no compensation, other than reasonable traveling and other expenses incurred while engaged in the performance of official duties, to be audited as the legislature may direct.

SEC. 5. The legislature shall pass such laws as may be necessary to further define and regulate the powers and duties of the board, wardens, and clerks, and to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

SEC. 6. After the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, the labor of convicts shall not be let out by contract to any person, copartnership, company, or corporation, and the legislature shall, by law, provide for the working of convicts for the benefit of the state,

ARTICLE XI.

COUNTIES, CITIES, AND TOWNS.

SECTION 1. The several counties, as they now exist, are hereby recognized as legal subdivisions of this state.

SEC. 2. No county seat shall be removed unless two thirds of the qualified electors of the county, voting on the proposition at a general election, shall vote in favor of such removal. A proposition of removal shall not be submitted in the same county more than once in four years.

SEC. 3. The legislature, by general and uniform laws, may provide for the alteration of county boundary lines, and for the formation of new counties; provided, however, that no new county shall be established which shall reduce any county to a population of less than twenty thousand; nor shall a new county be formed containing a less population than eight thousand; nor shall any line thereof pass within five miles of the exterior boundary of the city or town in which the county seat of any county proposed to be divided is situated. Every county which shall be enlarged or created from territory taken from any other county or counties, shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts and liabilities of the county or counties from which such territory shall be taken. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 4. The legislature shall establish a system of county governments, which shall be uniform throughout the state; and by general laws shall provide for township organization, under which any county may organize whenever a majority of the qualified electors of such county, voting at a general election, shall so determine; and whenever a county shall adopt township organization, the assessment and collection of the revenue shall be made, and the business of such county and the local affairs of the several townships therein shall be managed and transacted, in the manner prescribed by such general laws.

SEC. 5. The legislature, by general and uniform laws, shall provide for the election or appointment, in the several counties, of boards of supervisors, sheriffs, county clerks, district attorneys, and such other county, township, and municipal officers as public convenience may require, and shall prescribe their duties and fix their terms of office. It shall regulate the compensation of all such officers, in proportion to duties, and may also establish fees to be charged and collected by such officers for services performed in their respective offices, in the manner and for the uses provided by law, and for this purpose may classify the counties by population; and it shall provide for the strict accountability of county and township officers for all fees which may be collected by them, and for all public and municipal moneys which may be paid to them, or officially come into their possession. It may regulate the compensation of grand and trial jurors in all courts within the classes of counties herein permitted to be made; such compensation, however, shall not, in any class, exceed the sum of three dollars per day and mileage. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1908.]

SEC. 6. Corporations for municipal purposes shall not be created by special laws; but the legislature, by general laws, shall provide for the incorporation, organization, and classification, in proportion to population, of cities and towns, which laws may be altered, amended, or repealed. Cities and towns heretofore organized or incorporated may become organized under such general laws whenever a majority of the electors voting at a general election shall so determine, and shall organize in conformity therewith; and cities and towns heretofore or hereafter organized, and all charters thereof framed or adopted by authority of this constitution, except in municipal affairs, shall be subject to and controlled by general laws. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1896.]

SEC. 7. City and county governments may be merged and consolidated into one municipal government, with one set of officers, and may be incorporated under general laws providing for the incorporation and organization of corporations for municipal purposes. The provisions of this constitution applicable to cities, and also those applicable to counties, so far as not inconsistent or prohibited to cities, shall be applicable to such consolidated government. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 7½. Any county may frame a charter for its own government consistent with and subject to the constitution (or, having framed such a charter, may frame a new one), relating to the matters hereinafter in this section specified, and none other, by causing a board of fifteen freeholders, who have been for at least five years qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified electors of said county, at a general or special election. Said board of freeholders may be so elected in pursuance of an ordinance adopted by the vote of three fifths of all the members of the board of supervisors of such county, declaring that the public interest requires the election of such board for the purpose of preparing and proposing a charter for said county, or in pursuance of a petition of qualified electors of said county as hereinafter provided. Such petition, signed by fifteen per centum of the qualified electors of said county, computed upon the total number of votes cast therein for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, praying for the election of a board of fifteen freeholders to prepare and propose a charter for said county, may be filed in the office of the county clerk. It shall be the duty of said county clerk, within twenty days after the filing of said petition, to examine the same, and to ascertain from the record of the registration of electors of the county, whether said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors. If required by said clerk, the board of supervisors shall authorize him to employ persons specially to assist him in the work of examining such petition, and shall provide for their compensation. Upon the completion of such examination, said clerk shall forthwith attach to said petition his certificate, properly dated, showing the result thereof, and if, by said certificate, it shall appear that said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, said clerk shall immediately present said petition to the board of supervisors, if it be in session, otherwise at its next regular meeting after the date of such certificate. Upon the adoption of such ordinance, or the presentation of such petition, said board of supervisors shall order the holding of a special election for the purpose of electing such board of freeholders, which said special election shall be held not less than twenty days nor more than sixty days after the adoption of the ordinance aforesaid or the presentation of said petition to said board of supervisors; provided, that if a general election shall occur in said county not less than twenty days nor more than sixty days after the adoption of the ordinance aforesaid, or such presentation of said petition to said board of supervisors, said board of freeholders may be elected at such general election. Candidates for election as members of said board of freeholders shall be nominated by petition, substantially in the same manner as may be provided by general law for the nomination, by petition of electors, of candidates for county offices, to be voted for at general elections.

It shall be the duty of said board of freeholders, within one hundred and twenty days after the result of such election shall have been declared by said board of supervisors, to prepare and propose a charter for said county, which shall be signed in duplicate by the members of said board of freeholders, or a majority of them, and be filed, one copy in the office of the county clerk of said county and the other in the office of the county recorder thereof. Said board of supervisors shall thereupon cause said proposed charter to be published for at least ten times in a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in said county; provided, that in any county where no such daily newspaper is printed, published and circulated, such proposed charter shall be published for at least three times in at least one weekly newspaper, of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in such county; and provided, that in any county where neither such daily nor such weekly newspaper is printed, published and circulated, a copy of such proposed charter shall be posted by the county clerk in three public places in said county, and on or near the entrance to at least one public schoolhouse in each school district in said county, and the first publication or the posting of such proposed charter shall be made within fifteen days after the filing of a copy thereof, as aforesaid, in the office of the county clerk. Said proposed charter shall be submitted by said board of supervisors to the qualified electors of said county at a special election held not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days after the completion of such publication, or after such posting; provided, that if a general election shall occur in said county not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days after the completion of such publication, or after such posting, then such proposed charter may be so submitted at such general election. If a majority of said qualified electors, voting thereon at such general or special election, shall vote in favor of such proposed charter, it shall be deemed to be ratified, and shall be forthwith submitted to the legislature, if it be in regular session, otherwise at its next regular session, or it may be submitted to the legislature in extraordinary session, for its approval or rejection as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment. Such approval may be made by concurrent resolution, and if approved by a majority vote of the members elected to each house, such charter shall become the charter of such county and shall become the organic law thereof relative to the matters therein provided, and supersede any existing charter framed under the provisions of this section, and all amendments thereof, and shall supersede all laws inconsistent with such charter relative to the matters provided in such charter. A copy of such charter, certified and authenticated by the chairman and clerk of the board of supervisors under the seal of said board and attested by the county clerk of said county, setting forth the submission of such charter to the electors of said county, and its ratification by them, shall, after the approval of such charter by the legislature, be made in duplicate, and filed, one in the office of the secretary of state and the other, after being recorded in the office of the recorder of said county, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk thereof, and thereafter all courts shall take judicial notice of said charter.

The charter, so ratified, may be amended by proposals therefor submitted by the board of supervisors of the county to the qualified electors thereof at a general or special election held not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days after the publication of such proposals for ten times in a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in said county; provided, that in any county where no such daily newspaper is printed, published and circulated, such proposed charter shall be published for at least three times in at least one weekly newspaper, of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in such county; provided, that in any county where neither such daily nor such weekly newspaper is printed, published and circulated, a copy of such proposed charter shall be posted by the county clerk in three public places in said county, and on or near the entrance to at least one public schoolhouse in each school district in said county. If a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon, at such general or special election, shall vote in favor of any such proposed amendment or amendments, or any amendment or amendments proposed by petition as hereinafter provided, such amendment or amendments shall be deemed to be ratified, and shall be forthwith submitted to the legislature, if it be in regular session, otherwise at its next regular session, or may be submitted to the legislature in extraordinary session, for approval or rejection as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment, and if approved by the legislature, as herein provided for the approval of the charter, such charter shall be amended accordingly. A copy of such amendment or amendments shall, after the approval thereof by the legislature, be made in duplicate, and shall be authenticated, certified, recorded and filed as herein provided for the charter, and with like force and effect. Whenever a petition signed by ten per centum of the qualified electors of any county, computed upon the total number of votes cast in said county for all candidates for governor at the last general election, at which a governor was elected, is filed in the office of the county clerk of said county, petitioning the board of supervisors thereof to submit any proposed amendment or amendments to the charter of such county, which amendment or amendments shall be set forth in full in such petition, to the qualified electors thereof, such petition shall forthwith be examined and certified by the county clerk, and if signed by the requisite number of qualified electors of such county, shall be presented to the said board of supervisors, by the said county clerk, as hereinbefore provided for petitions for the election of boards of freeholders. Upon the presentation of said petition to said board of supervisors, said board must submit the amendment or amendments set forth therein to the qualified electors of said county at a general or special election held not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days after the publication or posting of such proposed amendment or amendments in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of the submission of any proposed amendment or amendments to such charter, proposed and submitted by the board of supervisors. In submitting any such charter, or amendments thereto, any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the electors, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others.

Every special election held under the provisions of this section, for the election of boards of freeholders or for the submission of proposed charters, or any amendment or amendments thereto, shall be called by the board of supervisors, by ordinance, which shall specify the purpose and time of such election and shall establish the election precincts and designate the polling places therein, and the names of the election officers for each such precinct. Such ordinance, prior to such election shall be published five times in a daily newspaper, or twice in a weekly newspaper, if there be no such daily newspaper, printed, published and circulated in said county: provided, that if no such daily or weekly newspaper be printed or published in such county, then a copy of such ordinance shall be posted by the county clerk in three public places in such county and in or near the entrance to at least one public schoolhouse in each school district therein. In all other respects, every such election shall be held and conducted, the returns thereof canvassed and the result thereof declared by the board of supervisors in the same manner as provided by law for general elections. Whenever boards of freeholders shall be elected, or any such proposed charter, or amendment or amendments thereto, submitted, at a general election, the general laws applicable to the election of county officers and the submission of propositions to the vote of electors, shall be followed in so far as the same may be applicable thereto.

It shall be competent, in all charters, framed under the authority given by this section to provide, in addition to any other provisions allowable by this constitution, and the same shall provide, for the following matters:

1. For boards of supervisors and for the constitution, regulation and government thereof, for the times at which and the terms for which the members of said board shall be elected, for the number of members, not less than three, that shall constitute such boards, for their compensation and for their election, either by the electors of the counties at large or by districts; provided, that in any event said board shall consist of one member for each district, who must be a qualified elector thereof; and

2. For sheriffs, county clerks, treasurers, recorders, license collectors, tax collectors, public administrators, coroners, surveyors, district attorneys, auditors, assessors and superintendents of schools, for the election or appointment of said officers, or any of them, for the times at which and the terms for which, said officers shall be elected or appointed, and for their compensation, or for the fixing of such compensation by boards of supervisors, and, if appointed, for the manner of their appointment; and

3. For the number of justices of the peace and constables for each township, or for the number of such judges and other officers of such inferior courts as may be provided by the constitution or general law, for the election or appointment of said officers, for the times at which and the terms for which said officers shall be elected or appointed, and for their compensation, or for the fixing of such compensation by boards of supervisors, and if appointed, for the manner of their appointment; and

4. For the powers and duties of boards of supervisors and all other county officers, for their removal and for the consolidation and segregation of county offices, and for the manner of filling all vacancies occurring therein; provided, that the provisions of such charters relating to the powers and duties of boards of supervisors and all other county officers shall be subject to and controlled by general laws; and

5. For the fixing and regulation by boards of supervisors, by ordinance, of the appointment and number of assistants, deputies, clerks, attorneys and other persons to be employed, from time to time, in the several offices of the county, and for the prescribing and regulating by such boards of the powers, duties, qualifications and compensation of such persons, the times at which, and terms for which they shall be appointed, and the manner of their appointment and removal; and

6. For the compensation of such fish and game wardens, probation and other officers as may be provided by general law, or for the fixing of such compensation by boards of supervisors.

All elective officers of counties, and of townships, of road districts and of highway construction divisions therein shall be nominated and elected in the manner provided by general laws for the nomination and election of such officers.

All charters framed under the authority given by this section, in addition to the matters herein above specified, may provide as follows:

For offices other than those required by the constitution and laws of the state, or for the creation of any or all of such offices by boards of supervisors, for the election or appointment of persons to fill such offices, for the manner of such appointment, for the times at which and the terms for which such persons shall be so elected or appointed, and for their compensation, or for the fixing of such compensation by boards of supervisors.

For offices hereafter created by this constitution or by general law, for the election or appointment of persons to fill such offices, for the manner of such appointment, for the times at which and the terms for which such persons shall be so elected or appointed, and for their compensation, or for the fixing of such compensation by boards of supervisors.

For the formation, in such counties, of road districts for the care, maintenance, repair, inspection and supervision only of roads, highways and bridges; and for the formation in such counties, of highway construction divisions for the construction only of roads, highways and bridges; for the inclusion in any such district or division, of the whole or any part of any incorporated city or town, upon ordinance passed by such incorporated city or town authorizing the same, and upon the assent to such inclusion by a majority of the qualified electors of such incorporated city or town, or portion thereof, proposed to be so included, at an election held for that purpose; for the organization, government, powers and jurisdiction of such districts and divisions, and for raising revenue therein, for such purposes, by taxation, upon the assent of a majority of the qualified electors of such districts or divisions, voting at an election to be held for that purpose; for the incurring of indebtedness therefor by such counties, districts or divisions for such purposes respectively, by the issuance and sale, by the counties, of bonds of such counties, districts or divisions, and the expenditure of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds, and for levying and collecting taxes against the property of the counties, districts or divisions, as the case may be, for the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness at maturity: provided, that any such indebtedness shall not be incurred without the assent of two thirds of the qualified electors of the county, district or division, as the case may be, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor unless before or at the time of incurring such indebtedness provision shall be made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also for a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof on or before maturity, which shall not exceed forty years from the time of contracting the same, and the procedure for voting, issuing and selling such bonds shall, except in so far as the same shall be prescribed in such charters, conform to general laws for the authorizing and incurring by counties of bonded indebtedness, so far as applicable; provided, further, that provisions in such charters for the construction, care, maintenance, repair, inspection and supervision of roads, highways and bridges for which aid from the state is granted, shall be subject to such regulations and conditions as may be imposed by the legislature.

Whenever any county has framed and adopted a charter, and the same shall have been approved by the legislature, as herein provided, the general laws adopted by the legislature in pursuance of sections four and five of this article, shall, as to such county, be superseded by said charter as to matters for which, under this section it is competent to make provision in such charter, and for which provision is made therein, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, and except that any such charter shall not affect the tenure of office of the elective officers of the county, or of any district, township or division thereof, in office at the time such charter goes into effect, and such officers shall continue to hold their respective offices until the expiration of the term for which they shall have been elected, unless sooner removed in the manner provided by law.

The charter of any county, adopted under the authority of this section, may be surrendered and annulled with the assent of two thirds of the qualified electors of such county, voting at a special election, held for that purpose, and to be ordered and called by the board of supervisors of the county upon receiving a written petition, signed and certified as hereinabove provided for the purposes of the adoption of charters, requesting said board to submit the question of the surrender and annulment of such charter to the qualified electors of such county, and, in the event of the surrender and annulment of any such charter, such county shall thereafter be governed under general laws in force for the government of counties.

The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any county that is consolidated with any city. [New section; adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 8. Any city containing a population of more than three thousand five hundred inhabitants as ascertained and established by the last preceding census, taken under the direction of the congress of the United States, or by a census of said city, taken subsequent to the aforesaid census, under the direction of the legislative body thereof, under laws authorizing the taking of the census of cities, may frame a charter for its own government, consistent with, and subject to, the constitution, (or, having framed such a charter, may frame a new one), by causing a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall have been, for at least five years, qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified electors of said city, at a general or special municipal election. Said board of freeholders may be so elected in pursuance of an ordinance adopted by a vote of two thirds of all the members of the council, or other legislative body, of such city, declaring that the public interest requires the election of such board for the purpose of preparing and proposing a charter for said city, or in pursuance of a petition of qualified electors of said city, as hereinafter provided. Such petition, signed by fifteen per centum of the qualified electors of said city computed upon the total number of votes cast therein for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, praying for the election of a board of fifteen freeholders to prepare and propose a charter for said city, may be filed in the office of the city clerk thereof. It shall be the duty of said city clerk, within twenty days after the filing of said petition, to examine the same and to ascertain from the record of the registration of electors of the county, showing the registration of electors of said city, whether the petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors of such city. If required by said clerk, the council, or other legislative body, of said city shall authorize him to employ persons specially to assist him in the work of examining such petition, and shall provide for their compensation. Upon the completion of such examination, said clerk shall forthwith attach to said petition his certificate, properly dated, showing the result thereof, and if, by said certificate, it shall appear that said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, said clerk shall present the said petition to said council, or other legislative body, at its next regular meeting after the date of such certificate. Upon the adoption of such ordinance, or the presentation of such petition, said council, or other legislative body, shall order the holding of a special election for the purpose of electing such board of freeholders, which said special election shall be held not less than twenty days, nor more than sixty days after the adoption of the ordinance aforesaid, or the presentation of said petition to said council, or other legislative body; provided, that if a general municipal election shall occur in said city not less than twenty days, nor more than sixty days, after the adoption of the ordinance aforesaid, or the presentation of said petition to said council, or other legislative body, said board of freeholders may be elected at such general municipal election. Candidates for election as members of said board of freeholders shall be nominated by petition, substantially in the same manner as may be provided by general laws for the nomination by petition of electors of candidates for public offices to be voted for at general elections.

It shall be the duty of said board of freeholders, within one hundred and twenty days after the result of such election shall have been declared by said council, or other legislative body, to prepare and propose a charter for said city, which shall be signed in duplicate by the members of said board of freeholders, or a majority of them, and be filed, one copy in the office of the city clerk of said city, and the other in the office of the county recorder of the county in which said city is situated. Said council, or other legislative body, shall, thereupon, cause said proposed charter to be published for at least ten times, in a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in said city; provided, that in any city where no such daily newspaper is printed, published and circulated, such proposed charter shall be published, for at least three times, in at least one weekly newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in said city, and, in any event, the first publication of such proposed charter shall be made within fifteen days after the filing of a copy thereof, as aforesaid, in the office of the city clerk. Such proposed charter shall be submitted by said council, or other legislative body, to the qualified electors of said city at a special election held not less than twenty days, nor more than forty days, after the completion of such publication; provided, that if a general municipal election shall occur in said city not less than twenty days, nor more than forty days, after the completion of such publication, then such proposed charter may be so submitted at such general election. If a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon at such general or special election shall vote in favor of such proposed charter, it shall be deemed to be ratified, and shall be submitted to the legislature, if it be in regular session, otherwise at its next regular session, or it may be submitted to the legislature in extraordinary session, for its approval or rejection as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment. Such approval may be made by concurrent resolution, and if approved by a majority vote of the members elected to each house, such charter shall become the charter of such city, or, if such city be consolidated with a county, then of such city and county, and shall become the organic law thereof, and supersede any existing charter, (whether framed under the provisions of this section of the constitution or not,) and all amendments thereof, and all laws inconsistent with such charter. A copy of such charter, certified by the mayor, or other chief executive officer of said city, and authenticated under the seal of such city, setting forth the submission of such charter to the electors of said city, and its ratification by them, shall, after the approval of such charter by the legislature, be made in duplicate and deposited, one in the office of the secretary of state and the other, after being recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which such city is situated, shall be deposited in the archives of the city, and thereafter all courts shall take judicial notice of said charter.

The charter, so ratified, may be amended by proposals therefor submitted by the council, or other legislative body of the city, to the qualified electors thereof at a general or special municipal election held at intervals of not less than two years (except that charter amendments may be submitted at a general municipal election at an interval of less than two years after the last election on charter amendments provided that no other election on charter amendments has been held since the beginning of the last regular session of the state legislature or shall be held prior to the next regular session of the state legislature), and held not less than twenty days, nor more than forty days, after the completion of the publication of such proposals for ten times in a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in said city, or for three times in at least one weekly newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in said city, if there be no such daily newspaper. If a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon at such general or special election shall vote in favor of any such proposed amendment or amendments, or any amendment or amendments proposed by petition, as hereinafter provided, such amendment or amendments shall be deemed to be ratified, and shall be forthwith submitted to the legislature, if it be in regular session, otherwise at its next regular session, or may be submitted to the legislature in extraordinary session, for approval or rejection as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment, and if approved by the legislature, as herein provided for the approval of the charter, such charter shall be amended accordingly. A copy of such amendment or amendments shall, after the approval thereof by the legislature, be made in duplicate, and shall be authenticated, certified, recorded and filed as herein provided for the charter, and with like force and effect. Whenever a petition signed by fifteen per centum of the qualified electors of the city, computed upon the total number of votes cast therein for all candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, is filed in the office of the city clerk of said city, petitioning the council, or other legislative body thereof, to submit any proposed amendment or amendments to the charter of such city, which amendment or amendments shall be set forth in full in such petition, to the qualified electors thereof, such petition shall forthwith be examined and certified by the city clerk, and if signed by the requisite number of qualified electors of said city, it shall be presented to the said council, or other legislative body, by the said city clerk, as hereinbefore provided for petitions for the election of boards of freeholders. Upon the presentation of said petition to said council, or other legislative body, said council, or other legislative body, must submit the amendment or amendments set forth in said petition to the qualified electors of said city, at a general or special municipal election, held not less than twenty, nor more than forty, days after the completion of the publication of such proposed amendment or amendments, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of the submission of any proposed amendment or amendments to such charter, proposed and submitted by the council, or other legislative body. The first publication of any proposed amendment or amendments to such charter so proposed by petition shall be made within fifteen days after the aforesaid presentation of said petition to said council, or other legislative body. In submitting any such charter, amendment or amendments thereto, any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the electors, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others.

Every special election held in any city under the provisions of this section, for the election of a board of freeholders, or for the submission of any proposed charter or any amendment or amendments thereto, shall be called by the council, or other legislative body thereof, by ordinance, which shall specify the purpose and time of such election, and shall establish the election precincts and designate the polling places therein, and the names of the election officers for each such precinct. Such ordinance shall, prior to such election, be published five times in a daily newspaper, or twice in a weekly newspaper, if there be no such daily newspaper printed, published and circulated in said city. Such election shall be held and conducted, the returns thereof canvassed, and the result thereof declared by the council, or other legislative body of such city, in the manner that is now or may be hereafter provided by general law for such elections in the particulars wherein such provision is now or may hereafter be made therefor, and in all other respects in the manner provided by law for general municipal elections, in so far as the same may be applicable thereto.

Whenever any board of freeholders shall be elected, or any such proposed charter or amendment or amendments thereto shall be submitted at a general municipal election, the laws governing the election of city officers, or the submission of propositions to the vote of electors, shall be followed in so far as the same may be applicable thereto and not inconsistent herewith.

It shall be competent in any charter framed by any city under the authority given in this section, or by amendment to such charter, to provide, in addition to those provisions allowed by this constitution and by the laws of the state, for the establishment of a borough system of government for the whole or any part of the territory of such city, by which one or more districts may be created therein, which districts shall be known as boroughs, and which shall exercise such special municipal powers as may be granted by such charter, and for the organization, regulation, government and jurisdiction of such boroughs.

All the provisions of this section relating to the city clerk shall, in any city and county, be deemed to relate to the clerk of the legislative body thereof. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

Sec. 5a. The charter of the city and county of San Francisco may be amended, in addition to the method and the times provided in section 8 of article XI of the constitution, in the following particulars:

(a) Authorizing the city and county of San Francisco, a municipal corporation, by its legislative authority, to incur a bonded indebtedness in an amount not exceeding five million dollars, and to issue municipal bonds therefor, and to grant and turn over to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company (a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California March 22, 1910) the proceeds of said bonds, the same to be used and disbursed by said exposition company for the purposes of an exposition to be held in the city and county of San Francisco to celebrate the completion of the Panama canal; said bonds, so issued, to be of such form and to be redeemable, registered and converted in such manner and amounts, and at such times not later than forty years from the date of their issue, as such legislative authority shall determine; the interest on said bonds to not exceed five per centum per annum, and said bonds to be exempt from all taxes for state and municipal purposes, and to be sold for not less than par at such times and places, and in such manner, as shall be determined by said legislative authority; the proceeds of said bonds, when sold, to be payable immediately by the treasurer of said city and county to the treasurer of said Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company, upon the demand of said treasurer of said exposition company, without the necessity of the approval of such demand by other authority, the same to be used and disbursed by said Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company for the purposes of such exposition, under the direction and control of such exposition company;

(b) Providing that any bonded indebtedness incurred for the purposes aforesaid shall be exclusive of the bonded indebtedness of the said city and county limited by section 9 of article XII of said charter;

(c) Granting to said Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company the exclusive possession and use, together with the management and control, of that portion of Golden Gate Park in the city and county of San Francisco westerly from Twentieth avenue, as extended, for such exposition purposes, such possession and use, also management and control, to terminate not later than one year after the closing of such exposition;

(d) Granting to said Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company the exclusive possession and use, together with the management and control, for such exposition purposes, of any lands held by the board of education of the city and county of San Francisco, and by the city and county of San Francisco, not in actual use, such possession and use, also management and control, to terminate not later than one year after the closing of such exposition.

(e) Authorizing said Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company to temporarily close streets in the city and county of San Francisco westerly from Twentieth avenue, for such exposition purposes, and to have the exclusive possession and use, together with the management and control, of said streets for such exposition purposes, such possession and use, also management and control of said streets, to terminate not later than one year after the closing of such exposition.

Proposals to amend the charter of the city and county of San Francisco in the foregoing particulars may be submitted by the legislative authority of said city and county to the electors of said city and county, at any general or special election (and a special election may be called therefor) held in said city and county, after the publication of such proposals in a newspaper of general circulation in said city and county, for such time as shall be determined by said legislative authority. Upon the ratification of any such proposed amendment by a majority of the electors of said city and county voting at such election on such proposed amendment, said proposed amendment receiving such majority vote shall become operative immediately as an amendment to said charter, without the necessity of approval thereof by the legislature.

Any act of the legislative authority of the city and county of San Francisco, in submitting to the electors of said city and county, at any general or special election, proposals to amend the charter of said city and county in the foregoing particulars, including any notice by publication or otherwise of such proposals, and of such election, and the holding of such election, in accordance with the provisions hereof, before the adoption of this amendment, are hereby validated in all respects as if performed subsequent to the adoption of this amendment. The disbursement of all funds obtained from said bonds shall be accounted for by said Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company by an itemized statement thereof to be filed with the auditor of the city and county of San Francisco. [New section; adopted November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 8 $\frac{1}{2}$. It shall be competent, in all charters framed under the authority given by section eight of article eleven of this constitution, to provide, in addition to those provisions allowable by this constitution and by the laws of the state, as follows:

1. For the constitution, regulation, government, and jurisdiction of police courts, and for the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the judges of such courts shall be elected or appointed, and for the qualifications and compensation of said judges and of their clerks and attachés.

2. For the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of boards of education shall be elected or appointed, for their qualifications, compensation and removal, and for the number which shall constitute any one of such boards.

3. For the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of the boards of police commissioners shall be elected or appointed; and for the constitution, regulation, compensation, and government of such boards and of the municipal police force.

4. For the manner in which and the times at which any municipal election shall be held and the result thereof determined; for the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of all boards of election shall be elected or appointed, and for the constitution, regulation, compensation and government of such boards, and of their clerks and attachés; and for all expenses incident to the holding of any election.

Where a city and county government has been merged and consolidated into one municipal government, it shall also be competent, in any charter framed under said section eight of said article eleven, or by amendment thereto, to provide for the manner in which, the times at which and the terms for which the several county and municipal officers and employees whose compensation is paid by such city and county, excepting judges of the superior court, shall be elected or appointed, and for their recall and removal, and for their compensation, and for the number of deputies, clerks and other employees that each shall have, and for the compensation, method of appointment, qualifications, tenure of office and removal of such deputies, clerks and other employees. All provisions of any charter of any such consolidated city and county heretofore adopted, and amendments thereto, which are in accordance herewith, are hereby confirmed and declared valid. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 9. The compensation of any county, city, town, or municipal officer shall not be increased after his election or during his term of office; nor shall the term of any such officer be extended beyond the period for which he is elected or appointed.

SEC. 10. [Repealed November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 11. Any county, city, town, or township may make and enforce within its limits all such local, police, sanitary, and other regulations as are not in conflict with general laws.

SEC. 12. The legislature shall have no power to impose taxes upon counties, cities, towns or other public or municipal corporations, or upon the inhabitants or property thereof, for county, city, town, or other municipal purposes, but may, by general laws, vest in the corporate authorities thereof the power to assess and collect taxes for such purposes.

SEC. 13. The legislature shall not delegate to any special commission, private corporation, company, association, or individual, any power to make, control, appropriate, supervise, or in any way interfere with any county, city, town, or municipal improvement, money, property, or effects, whether held in trust or otherwise, or to levy taxes or assessments, or perform any municipal functions whatever.

SEC. 13 $\frac{1}{2}$. Nothing in this constitution contained shall be construed as prohibiting the state or any county, city and county, city, town, municipality, or other public corporation, issuing bonds under the laws of the state, to make said bonds payable at any place within the United States designated in said bonds. [New section; adopted November 6, 1905.]

SEC. 14. The legislature may by general and uniform laws provide for the inspection, measurement and graduation of merchandise, manufactured articles and commodities, and may provide for the appointment of such officers as may be necessary for such inspection, measurement and graduation. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 15. Private property shall not be taken or sold for the payment of the corporate debt of any political or municipal corporation.

SEC. 16. All moneys, assessments, and taxes belonging to or collected for the use of any county, city, town, or other public or municipal corporation, coming into the hands of any officer thereof, shall immediately be deposited with the treasurer, or other legal depository, to the credit of such city, town, or other corporation, respectively, for the benefit of the funds to which they respectively belong.

SEC. 16I. All moneys belonging to the state, or to any county or municipality within this state, may be deposited in any national bank or banks within this state, or in any bank or banks organized under the laws of this state, in such manner and under such conditions as may be provided by law; provided, that such bank or banks in which such moneys are deposited shall furnish as security for such deposits, bonds of the United States, or of this state or of any county, municipality or school district within this state, or of any irrigation district within this state, to be approved by the officer or officers designated by law, to an amount in value of at least ten per cent in excess of the amount of such deposit; and provided, that such bank or banks shall pay a reasonable rate of interest, not less than two per cent per annum on the daily balances therein deposited; and provided, that no deposit shall at any one time exceed fifty per cent of the paid-up capital stock of such depository bank or banks; and provided, further, that no officer shall deposit at one time more than twenty per cent of such public moneys available for deposit in any bank while there are other qualified banks requesting such deposits. [Amendment adopted November 5, 1912.]

SEC. 17. The making of profit out of county, city, town, or other public money, or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, by any officer having the possession or control thereof, shall be a felony, and shall be prosecuted and punished as prescribed by law.

SEC. 18. No county, city, town, township, board of education, or school districts, shall incur any indebtedness or liability in any manner or for any purpose exceeding in any year the income and revenue provided for such year, without the assent of two thirds of the qualified electors thereof, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor unless before or at the time of incurring such indebtedness provision shall be made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also provision to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof on or before maturity, which shall not exceed forty years from the time of contracting the same; provided, however, that the city and county of San Francisco may at any time pay the unpaid claims, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, for materials furnished to and work done for said city and county during the forty-first, forty-second, forty-third, forty-fourth, and fiftieth fiscal years, and for unpaid teachers' salaries for the fiftieth fiscal year, out of the income and revenue of any succeeding year or years, the amount to be paid in full of said claims not to exceed in the aggregate the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, and that no statute of limitations shall apply in any manner to these claims; and provided, further, that the city of Vallejo, of Solano county, may pay its existing indebtedness incurred in the construction of its waterworks whenever two thirds of the electors thereof voting at an election held for that purpose shall so decide, and that no statute of limitations shall apply in any manner. Any indebtedness or liability incurred contrary to this provision, with the exceptions hereinbefore recited, shall be void. [Amendment adopted November 6, 1900.]

Section 18 amended by adding the following, adopted November 6, 1906: The city and county of San Francisco, the city of San Jose and the town of Santa Clara may make provision for a sinking fund, to pay the principal of any indebtedness incurred, or to be hereafter incurred, by it, to commence at a time after the incurring of such indebtedness of not more than a period of one fourth of the time of maturity of such indebtedness, which shall not exceed seventy-five years from the time of contracting the same. Any indebtedness incurred contrary to any provision of this section shall be void.

SEC. 19. Any municipal corporation may establish and operate public works for supplying its inhabitants with light, water, power, heat, transportation, telephone service or other means of communication. Such works may be acquired by original construction or by the purchase of existing works, including their franchises, or both. Persons or corporations may establish and operate works for supplying the inhabitants with such services upon such conditions and under such regulations as the municipality may prescribe under its organic law, on condition that the municipal government shall have the right to regulate the charges thereof. A municipal corporation may furnish such services to inhabitants outside its boundaries; provided, that it shall not furnish any service to the inhabitants of any other municipality owning or operating works supplying the same service to such inhabitants, without the consent of such other municipality, expressed by ordinance. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

ARTICLE XII.

CORPORATIONS.

SECTION 1. Corporations may be formed under general laws, but shall not be created by special act. All laws now in force in this state concerning corporations, and all laws that may be hereafter passed pursuant to this section, may be altered from time to time or repealed.

SEC. 2. Dues from corporations shall be secured by such individual liability of the corporators and other means as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 3. Each stockholder of a corporation, or joint-stock association, shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred, during the time he was a stockholder, as the amount of stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock, or shares of the corporation or association. The directors or trustees of corporations and joint-stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint-stock association, during the term of office of such director or trustee.

Nothing in the preceding paragraph of this section shall be held to apply to any exposition company organized to promote and carry on any international exposition or world's fair within the State of California, and the liability of stockholders in any such exposition company shall be and the same is hereby limited to an amount not exceeding the par value of the stock of said corporation subscribed for by such stockholders. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1908.]

SEC. 4. The term corporations, as used in this article, shall be construed to include all associations and joint-stock companies having any of the powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships, and all corporations shall have the right to sue and be subject to be sued, in all courts, in like cases as natural persons.

SEC. 5. The legislature shall have no power to pass any act granting any charter for banking purposes, but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws, and the legislature shall provide for the classification of cities and towns by population for the purpose of regulating the business of banking. No corporation, association, or individual shall issue or put in circulation, as money, anything but the lawful money of the United States. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 6. All existing charters, grants, franchises, special or exclusive privileges, under which an actual and bona fide organization shall not have taken place, and business been commenced in good faith, at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall thereafter have no validity.

SEC. 7. The legislature shall not extend any franchise or charter, nor remit the forfeiture of any franchise or charter of any quasi-public corporation now existing or which shall hereafter exist under the laws of this state. The term of existence of any other corporation now or hereafter existing under the laws of this state, may be extended, at any time prior to the expiration of its corporate existence, for a period not exceeding fifty years from the date of such extension, by the vote or written consent of stockholders representing two thirds of its capital stock or of two thirds of the members thereof. A certificate of such vote or consent shall be signed and sworn to by the president and secretary, and by a majority of the directors of the corporation and filed and certified in the manner and upon payment of fees required by law for filing and certifying articles of incorporation, and thereupon the term of the corporation shall be extended for the period specified in such certificate, and such corporation shall thereafter pay all annual or other fees required by law to be paid by corporations. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1908.]

SEC. 8. The exercise of the right of eminent domain shall never be so abridged or construed as to prevent the legislature from taking the property and franchises of incorporated companies and subjecting them to public use the same as the property of individuals; and the exercise of the police power of the state shall never be so abridged or construed as to permit corporations to conduct their business in such manner as to infringe the rights of individuals or the general well-being of the state.

SEC. 9. No corporation shall engage in any business other than that expressly authorized in its charter or the law under which it may have been or may hereafter be organized; nor shall it hold for a longer period than five years any real estate, except such as may be necessary for carrying on its business.

SEC. 10. The legislature shall not pass any laws permitting the leasing or alienation of any franchise, so as to relieve the franchise or property held thereunder from the liabilities of the lessor or grantor, lessee or grantee, contracted or incurred in the operation, use, or enjoyment of such franchise or any of its privileges.

SEC. 11. No corporation shall issue stock or bonds, except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void. The stock and bonded indebtedness of corporations shall not be increased, except in pursuance of general law, nor without the consent of the persons holding the larger amount in value of the stock, at a meeting called for that purpose, giving sixty days' public notice, as may be provided by law.

SEC. 12. In all elections for directors or managers of corporations every stockholder shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares of stock owned by him, for as many persons as there are directors or managers to be elected, or to cumulate said shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal, or to distribute them, on the same principle, among as many candidates as he shall think fit; and such directors or managers shall not be elected in any other manner, except that members of co-operative societies formed for agricultural, mercantile, and manufacturing purposes may vote on all questions affecting such societies in manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 13. The state shall not, in any manner, loan its credit, nor shall it subscribe to or be interested in the stock of any company, association, or corporation.

SEC. 14. Every corporation other than religious, educational, or benevolent, organized or doing business in this state, shall have and maintain an office or place in this state for the transaction of its business, where transfers of stock shall be made, and in which shall be kept, for inspection by every person having an interest therein, and legislative committees, books in which shall be recorded the amount of capital stock subscribed, and by whom; the names of the owners of its stock, and the amounts owned by them, respectively; the amount of stock paid in, and by whom; the transfers of stock; the amount of its assets and liabilities, and the names and places of residence of its officers.

SEC. 15. No corporation organized outside the limits of this state shall be allowed to transact business within this state on more favorable conditions than are prescribed by law to similar corporations organized under the laws of this state.

SEC. 16. A corporation or association may be sued in the county where the contract is made or is to be performed, or where the obligation or liability arises or the breach occurs; or in the county where the principal place of business of such corporation is situated, subject to the power of the court to change the place of trial, as in other cases.

SEC. 17. All railroad, canal, and other transportation companies are declared to be common carriers, and subject to legislative control. Any association or corporation organized for the purpose under the laws of this state, shall have the right to connect at the state line with railroads of other states. Every railroad company shall have the right with its road to intersect, connect with, or cross any other railroad, and shall receive and transport each the other's passengers, tonnage, and cars, without delay or discrimination.

SEC. 18. No president, director, officer, agent, or employee of any railroad or canal company shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in the furnishing of material or supplies to such company, nor in the business of transportation as a common carrier of freight or passengers over the works owned, leased, controlled, or worked by such company, except such interest in the business of transportation as lawfully flows from the ownership of stock therein.

SEC. 19. No railroad or other transportation company shall grant free passes, or passes or tickets at a discount, to any person holding any office of honor, trust, or profit in this state; and the acceptance of any such pass or ticket by a member of the legislature, or any public officer, other than railroad commissioner, shall work a forfeiture of his office.

SEC. 20. No railroad or other transportation company shall raise any rate of charge for the transportation of freight or passengers or any charge connected therewith or incidental thereto, under any circumstances whatsoever, except upon a showing before the railroad commission provided for in this constitution, that such increase is justified, and the decision of the said commission upon the showing so made shall not be subject to review by any court except upon the question whether such decision of the commission will result in confiscation of property. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 21. No discrimination in charges or facilities for transportation shall be made by any railroad or other transportation company between places or persons, or in the facilities for the transportation of the same classes of freight or passengers within this state. It shall be unlawful for any railroad or other transportation company to charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of passengers or of like kind of property for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line or route in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or to charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates; provided, however, that upon application to the railroad commission provided for in this constitution such company may, in special cases, after investigation, be authorized by such commission to charge less for longer than for shorter distances for the transportation of persons or property and the railroad commission may from time to time prescribe the extent to which such company may be relieved from the prohibition to charge less for the longer than for the shorter haul. The railroad commission shall have power to authorize the issuance of excursion and commutation tickets at special rates. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the railroad commission from ordering and compelling any railroad or other transportation company to make reparation to any shipper on account of the rates charged to said shipper being excessive or discriminatory, provided no discrimination will result from such reparation. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 22. There is hereby created a railroad commission which shall consist of five members and which shall be known as the railroad commission of the State of California. The commission shall be appointed by the governor from the state at large; provided, that the legislature, in its discretion, may divide the state into districts for the purpose of such appointments, said districts to be as nearly equal in population as practicable; and provided, further, that the three commissioners in office at the time this section takes effect shall serve out the term for which they were elected, and that two additional commissioners shall be appointed by the governor immediately after the adoption of this section, to hold office during the same term. Upon the expiration of said term, the term of office of each commissioner thereafter shall be six years, except the commissioners first appointed hereunder after such expiration, one of whom shall be appointed to hold office until January 1, 1917, two until January 1, 1910, and two until January 1, 1921. Whenever a vacancy in the office of commissioner shall occur, the governor shall forthwith appoint a qualified person to fill the same for the unexpired term. Commissioners appointed for regular terms shall at the beginning of the term for which they are appointed, and those appointed to fill vacancies, shall, immediately upon their appointment, enter upon the duties of their offices. The legislature shall fix the salaries of the commissioners, but pending such action the salaries of the commissioners, their officers and employees shall remain as now fixed by law. The legislature shall have the power, by a two-thirds vote of all members elected to each house, to remove any one or more of said commissioners from office for dereliction of duty or corruption or incompetency. All of said commissioners shall be qualified electors of this state, and no person in the employ of or holding any official relation to any person, firm or corporation, which said person, firm or corporation is subject to regulation by said railroad commission and no person owning stock or bonds of any such corporation or who is in any manner pecuniarily interested therein, shall be appointed to or hold the office of railroad commissioner. No vacancy in the commission shall impair the right of the remaining commissioners to exercise all the powers of the commission. The act of a majority of the commissioners when in session as a board shall be deemed to be the act of the commission; but any investigation, inquiry or hearing which the commission has power to undertake or to hold may be undertaken or held by or before any commissioner designated for the purpose by the commission, and every order made by a commissioner so designated, pursuant to such inquiry, investigation or hearing, when approved or confirmed by the commission ordered filed in its office, shall be deemed to be the order of the commission.

Said commission shall have the power to establish rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight by railroads and other transportation companies, and no railroad or other transportation company shall charge or demand or collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation for such transportation of passengers or freight, or for any service in connection therewith, between the points named in any tariff of rates, established by said commission, than the rates, fares and charges which are specified in such tariff. The commission shall have the further power to examine books, records and papers of all railroad and other transportation companies; to hear and determine complaints against railroad and other transportation companies; to issue subpoenas and all necessary process and send for persons and papers; and the commission and each of the commissioners shall have the power to administer oaths, take testimony and punish for contempt in the same manner and to the same extent as courts of record; the commission may prescribe a uniform system of accounts to be kept by all railroad and other transportation companies.

No provision of this constitution shall be construed as a limitation upon the authority of the legislature to confer upon the railroad commission additional powers of the same kind or different from those conferred herein which are not inconsistent with the powers conferred upon the railroad commission in this constitution, and the authority of the legislature to confer such additional powers is expressly declared to be plenary and unlimited by any provision of this constitution.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to repeal in whole or in part any existing law not inconsistent herewith, and the "railroad commission act" of this state approved February 10, 1911, shall be construed with reference to this constitutional provision and any other constitutional provision becoming operative concurrently herewith. And the said act shall have the same force and effect as if the same had been passed after the adoption of this provision of the constitution and of all other provisions adopted concurrently herewith, except that the three commissioners referred to in said act shall be held and construed to be the five commissioners provided for herein. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 23. Every private corporation, and every individual or association of individuals, owning, operating, managing, or controlling any commercial railroad, interurban railroad, street railroad, canal, pipe line, plant, or equipment, or any part of such railroad, canal, pipe line, plant or equipment within this state, for the transportation or conveyance of passengers, or express matter, or freight of any kind, including crude oil, or for the transmission of telephone or telegraph messages, or for the production, generation, transmission, delivery or furnishing of heat, light, water or power, or for the furnishing of storage or wharfage facilities, either directly or indirectly, to or for the public, and every common carrier, is hereby declared to be a public utility subject to such control and regulation by the railroad commission as may be provided by the legislature, and every class of private corporations, individuals, or associations of individuals hereafter declared by the legislature to be public utilities shall likewise be subject to such control and regulation. The railroad commission shall have and exercise such power and jurisdiction to supervise and regulate public utilities, in the State of California, and to fix the rates to be charged for commodities furnished, or services rendered by public utilities as shall be conferred upon it by the legislature, and the right of the legislature to confer powers upon the railroad commission respecting public utilities is hereby declared to be plenary and to be unlimited by any provision of this constitution.

From and after the passage by the legislature of laws conferring powers upon the railroad commission respecting public utilities, all powers respecting such public utilities vested in boards of supervisors, or municipal councils, or other governing bodies of the several counties, cities and counties, cities and towns, in this state, or in any commission created by law and existing at the time of the passage of such laws, shall cease so far as such powers shall conflict with the powers so conferred upon the railroad commission; provided, however, that this section shall not affect such powers of control over any public utility vested in any city and county, or incorporated city or town as, at an election to be held pursuant to laws to be passed hereafter by the legislature, a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon of such city and county, or incorporated city or town, shall vote to retain, and until such election such powers shall continue unimpaired; but if the vote so taken shall not favor the continuation of such powers they shall thereafter vest in the railroad commission as provided by law; and provided, further, that where any such city and county or incorporated city or town shall have elected to continue any powers respecting public utilities, it may, by vote of a majority of its qualified electors voting thereon, thereafter surrender such powers to the railroad commission in the manner to be prescribed by the legislature; or if such municipal corporation shall have surrendered any powers to the railroad commission, it may, by like vote, thereafter reinvest itself with such power. Nothing in this section shall be construed as a limitation upon any power conferred upon the railroad commission by any provision of this constitution now existing or adopted concurrently herewith. [Amendment adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 24. The legislature shall pass all laws necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE XIII.

REVENUE AND TAXATION.

SECTION 1. All property in the state except as otherwise in this constitution provided, not exempt under the laws of the United States, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law, or as hereinafter provided. The word "property," as used in this article and section, is hereby declared to include moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, dues, franchises, and all other matters and things, real, personal, and mixed, capable of private ownership; provided, that a mortgage, deed of trust, contract, or other obligation by which a debt is secured when land is pledged as security for the payment thereof, together with the money represented by such debt, shall not be considered property subject to taxation; and further provided, that property used for free public libraries and free museums, growing crops, property used exclusively for public schools, and such as may belong to the United States, this state, or to any county or municipal corporation within this state shall be exempt from taxation. The legislature may provide, except in the case of credits secured by mortgage or trust deed, for a deduction from credits of debts due to bona fide residents of this state. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 1½. The property to the amount of one thousand dollars of every resident in this state who has served in the army, navy, marine corps, or revenue marine service of the United States in time of war, and received an honorable discharge therefrom; or lacking such amount of property in his own name, so much of the property of the wife of any such person as shall be necessary to equal said amount; and property to the amount of one thousand dollars of the widow resident in this state, or if there be no such widow, of the widowed mother resident in this state, of every person who has so served and has died either during his term of service or after receiving honorable discharge from said service; and the property to the amount of one thousand dollars of pensioned widows, fathers, and mothers, resident in this state, of soldiers, sailors, and marines who served in the army, navy, or marine corps, or revenue marine service of the United States, shall be exempt from taxation; provided, that this exemption shall not apply to any person named herein owning property of the value of five thousand dollars or more, or where the wife of such soldier or sailor owns property of the value of five thousand dollars or more. No exemption shall be made under the provisions of this act of the property of a person who is not a legal resident of this state. [New section; adopted October 10, 1911.]

SEC. 1¾. All buildings, and so much of the real property on which they are situated as may be required for the convenient use and occupation of said buildings, when the same are used solely and exclusively for religious worship shall be free from taxation; provided, that no building so used which may be rented for religious purposes and rent received by the owner therefor, shall be exempt from taxation. [New section; adopted November 6, 1900.]

SEC. 1½. All bonds hereafter issued by the State of California, or by any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or district (including school, reclamation, and irrigation districts) within said state, shall be free and exempt from taxation. [New section; adopted November 4, 1902.]

SEC. 2. Land, and the improvements thereon, shall be separately assessed. Cultivated and uncultivated land, of the same quality, and similarly situated, shall be assessed at the same value.

SEC. 3. Every tract of land containing more than six hundred and forty acres, and which has been sectionized by the United States government, shall be assessed, for the purposes of taxation, by sections or fractions of sections. The legislature shall provide by law for the assessment, in small tracts, of all lands not sectionized by the United States government.

SEC. 4. [Repealed November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 5. [Repealed November 6, 1906.]

SEC. 6. The power of taxation shall never be surrendered or suspended by any grant or contract to which the state shall be a party.

SEC. 7. The legislature shall have the power to provide by law for the payment of all taxes on real property by installments.

SEC. 8. The legislature shall by law require each taxpayer in this state to make and deliver to the county assessor, annually, a statement, under oath, setting forth specifically all the real and personal property owned by such taxpayer, or in his possession, or under his control, at twelve o'clock meridian on the first Monday of March.

SEC. 9. A state board of equalization, consisting of one member from each congressional district in this state, as the same existed in eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective districts, at the general election to be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and at each gubernatorial election thereafter, whose term of office shall be for four years; whose duty it shall be to equalize the valuation of the taxable property in the several counties of the state for the purposes of taxation. The controller of state shall be ex officio a member of the board. The boards of supervisors of the several counties of the state shall constitute boards of equalization for their respective counties, whose duty it shall be to equalize the valuation of the taxable property in the county for the purpose of taxation; provided, such state and county boards of equalization are hereby authorized and empowered, under such rules of notice as the county boards may prescribe as to county assessments, and under such rules of notice as the state board may prescribe as to the action of the state board, to increase or lower the entire assessment roll, or any assessment contained therein, so as to equalize the assessment of the property contained in said assessment roll, and make the assessment conform to the true value in money of the property contained in said roll; provided, that no board of equalization shall raise any mortgage, deed of trust, contract or other obligation by which a debt is secured, money, or solvent credits, above its face value. The present state board of equalization shall continue in office until their successors, as herein provided for, shall be elected and shall qualify. The legislature shall have power to redistrict the state into four districts, as nearly equal in population as practical, and to provide for the elections of members of said board of equalization. [Amendment adopted November 4, 1884.]

SEC. 10. All property, except as otherwise in this constitution provided, shall be assessed in the county, city, city and county, town or township, or district in which it is situated, in the manner prescribed by law. [Amendment adopted November 8, 1910.]

SEC. 10½. The personal property of every householder to the amount of one hundred dollars, the articles to be selected by each householder, shall be exempt from taxation. [New section; adopted November 8, 1904.]

SEC. 11. Income taxes may be assessed to and collected from persons, corporations, joint-stock associations, or companies resident or doing business in this state, or any one or more of them, in such cases and amounts, and in such manner, as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 12. The legislature shall provide for the levy and collection of an annual poll tax, of not less than two dollars, on every male inhabitant of this state over twenty-one and under sixty years of age, except paupers, idiots, insane persons, and Indians not taxed. Said tax shall be paid into the state school fund.

SEC. 12½. Fruit and nut-bearing trees under the age of four years from the time of planting in orchard form, and grapevines under the age of three years from the time of planting in vineyard form, shall be exempt from taxation, and nothing in this article shall be construed as subjecting such trees and grapevines to taxation. [New section; adopted November 6, 1894.]

SEC. 13. The legislature shall pass all laws necessary to carry out the provisions of this article.

SEC. 14. Taxes levied, assessed and collected as hereinafter provided upon railroads, including street railways, whether operated in one or more counties; sleeping car, dining car, drawing-room car and palace car companies, refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loading and other car companies operating upon railroads in this state; companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel or stage line in this state; telegraph companies; telephone companies; companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity; insurance companies; banks, banking associations, savings and loan societies, and trust companies; and taxes upon all franchises of every kind and nature, shall be entirely and exclusively for state purposes, and shall be levied, assessed and collected in the manner hereinafter provided. The word "companies" as used in this section shall include persons, partnerships, joint-stock associations, companies, and corporations.

business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel or stage line in this state; all telegraph and telephone companies; and all companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity shall annually pay to the state a tax upon their franchises, roadways, roadbeds, rails, rolling stock, poles, wires, pipes, canals, conduits, rights of way, and other property, or any part thereof used exclusively in the operation of their business in this state, computed as follows: Said tax shall be equal to the percentages hereinafter fixed upon the gross receipts from operation of such companies, and each thereof within this state. When such companies are operating partly within and partly without this state, the gross receipts within this state shall be deemed to be all receipts on business beginning and ending within this state, and a proportion, based upon the proportion of the mileage within this state to the entire mileage over which such business is done, of receipts on all business passing through, into, or out of this state.

The percentages above mentioned shall be as follows: On all railroad companies, including street railways, four per cent; on all sleeping car, dining car, drawing-room car, palace car companies, refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loaning and other car companies, three per cent; on all companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel or stage line, two per cent; on all telegraph and telephone companies, three and one half per cent; on all companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity, four per cent. Such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county and municipal, upon the property above enumerated of such companies except as otherwise in this section provided; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to release any such company from the payment of any amount agreed to be paid or required by law to be paid for any special privilege or franchise granted by any of the municipal authorities of this state.

(b) Every insurance company or association doing business in this state shall annually pay to the state a tax of one and one half per cent upon the amount of the gross premiums received upon its business done in this state, less return premiums and reinsurance in companies or associations authorized to do business in this state; provided, that there shall be deducted from said one and one half per cent upon the gross premiums the amount of any county and municipal taxes paid by such companies on real estate owned by them in this state. This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county and municipal, upon the property of such companies, except county and municipal taxes on real estate, and except as otherwise in this section provided; provided, that when by the laws of any other state or country, any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, are imposed on insurance companies of this state, doing business in such other state or country, or upon their agents therein, in excess of such taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, imposed upon insurance companies of such other state or country, so long as such laws continue in force, the same obligations and prohibitions of whatsoever kind may be imposed by the legislature upon insurance companies of such other state or country doing business in this state.

(c) The shares of capital stock of all banks, organized under the laws of this state, or of the United States, or of any other state and located in this state, shall be assessed and taxed to the owners or holders thereof by the state board of equalization, in the manner to be prescribed by law, in the city or town where the bank is located and not elsewhere. There shall be levied and assessed upon such shares of capital stock an annual tax, payable to the state, of one per centum upon the value thereof. The value of each share of stock in each bank, except such as are in liquidation, shall be taken to be the amount paid thereon, together with its pro rata of the accumulated surplus and undivided profits. The value of each share of stock in each bank which is in liquidation shall be taken to be its pro rata of the actual assets of such bank. This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county and municipal, upon such shares of stock and upon the property of such banks, except county and municipal taxes on real estate and except as otherwise in this section provided. In determining the value of the capital stock of any bank there shall be deducted from the value, as defined above, the value, as assessed for county taxes, of any real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, owned by such bank and taxed for county purposes. The banks shall be liable to the state for this tax and the same shall be paid to the state by them on behalf of the stockholders in the manner and at the time prescribed by law, and they shall have a lien upon the shares of stock and upon any dividends declared thereon to secure the amount so paid.

The moneyed capital, reserve, surplus, undivided profits and all other property belonging to unincorporated banks or bankers of this state, or held by any bank located in this state which has no shares of capital stock, or employed in this state by any branches, agencies, or other representatives of any banks doing business outside of the State of California, shall be likewise assessed and taxed to such banks or bankers by the said board of equalization, in the manner to be provided by law and taxed at the same rate that is levied upon the shares of capital stock of incorporated banks, as provided in the first paragraph of this subdivision. The value of said property shall be determined by taking the entire property invested in such business, together with all the reserve, surplus, and undivided profits, at their full cash value, and deducting therefrom the value as assessed for county taxes of any real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, owned by such bank and taxed for county purposes. Such taxes shall be in lien of all other taxes and licenses, state, county and municipal, upon the property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this paragraph, except county and municipal taxes on real estate and except as otherwise in this section provided. It is the intention of this paragraph that all moneyed capital and property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this paragraph shall be assessed and taxed at the same rate as an incorporated bank, provided for in the first paragraph of this subdivision. In determining the value of the moneyed capital and property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this subdivision, the said state board of equalization shall include and assess to such banks all property and everything of value owned or held by them, which go to make up the value of the capital stock of such banks and bankers, if the same were incorporated and had shares of capital stock.

The word "banks" as used in this subdivision shall include banking associations, savings and loan societies and trust companies, but shall not include building and loan associations.

(d) All franchises, other than those expressly provided for in this section, shall be assessed at their actual cash value, in the manner to be provided by law, and shall be taxed at the rate of one per centum each year, and the taxes collected thereon shall be exclusively for the benefit of the state.

(e) Out of the revenues from the taxes provided for in this section, together with all other state revenues, there shall be first set apart the moneys to be applied by the state to the support of the public school system and the state university. In the event that the above named revenues are at any time deemed insufficient to meet the annual expenditures of the state, including the above named expenditures for educational purposes, there may be levied, in the manner to be provided by law, a tax, for state purposes, on all the property in the state, including the classes of property enumerated in this section, sufficient to meet the deficiency. All property enumerated in subdivisions a, b, and d of this section shall be subject to taxation, in the manner provided by law, to pay the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any city, city and county, county, town, township or district, before the adoption of this section. The taxes so paid for principal and interest on such bonded indebtedness shall be deducted from the total amount paid in taxes for state purposes.

(f) All the provisions of this section shall be self-executing, and the legislature shall pass all laws necessary to carry this section into effect, and shall provide for a valuation and assessment of the property enumerated in this section, and shall prescribe the duties of the state board of equalization and any other officers in connection with the administration thereof. The rates of taxation fixed in this section shall remain in force until changed by the legislature, two thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof. The taxes herein provided for shall become a lien on the first Monday in March of each year after the adoption of this section and shall become due and payable on the first Monday in July thereafter. The gross receipts and gross premiums herein mentioned shall be computed for the year ending the thirty-first day of December prior to the levy of such taxes and the value of any property mentioned herein shall be fixed as of the first Monday in March. Nothing herein contained shall affect any tax levied or assessed prior to the adoption of this section; and all laws in relation to such taxes in force at the time of the adoption of this section shall remain in force until changed by the legislature. Until the year 1918 the state shall reimburse any and all counties which sustain loss of revenue by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation for the net loss in county revenue occasioned by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation. The legislature shall provide for reimbursement from the general funds of any county to districts therein where loss is occasioned in such districts by the withdrawal from local taxation of property taxed for state purposes only.

(g) No injunction shall ever issue in any suit, action or proceeding in any court against this state or against any officer thereof to prevent or enjoin the collection of any tax levied under the provisions of this section; but after payment action may be maintained to recover any tax illegally collected in such manner and at such time as may now or hereafter be provided by law. [New section; adopted November 8, 1910.]

ARTICLE XIV.

WATER AND WATER RIGHTS.

SECTION 1. The use of all water now appropriated, or that may hereafter be appropriated, for sale, rental, or distribution, is hereby declared to be a public use, and subject to the regulation and control of the state, in the manner to be prescribed by law: provided, that the rates or compensation to be collected by any person, company, or corporation in this state for the use of water supplied to any city and county, or city, or town, or the inhabitants thereof, shall be fixed, annually, by the board of supervisors, or city and county, or city, or town council, or other governing body of such city and county, or city, or town, by ordinance or otherwise, in the manner that other ordinances or legislative acts or resolutions are passed by such body, and shall continue in force for one year and no longer. Such ordinances or resolutions shall be passed in the month of February of each year, and take effect on the first day of July thereafter. Any board or body failing to pass the necessary ordinances or resolutions fixing water rates, where necessary, within such time, shall be subject to peremptory process to compel action, at the suit of any party interested, and shall be liable to such further processes and penalties as the legislature may prescribe. Any person, company, or corporation collecting water rates in any city and county, or city, or town in this state, otherwise than as so established, shall forfeit the franchises and waterworks of such person, company, or corporation to the city and county, or city, or town, where the same are collected, for the public use.

SEC. 2. The right to collect rates or compensation for the use of waters supplied to any county, city and county, or town, or the inhabitants thereof, is a franchise, and can not be exercised except by authority of and in the manner proscribed by law.

ARTICLE XV.

HARBOR FRONTAGE, ETC.

SECTION 1. The right of eminent domain is hereby declared to exist in the state to all frontages on the navigable waters of this state.

SEC. 2. No individual, partnership, or corporation, claiming or possessing the frontage of tidal lands of a harbor, bay, inlet, estuary, or other navigable water in this state, shall be permitted to exclude the right of way to such water whenever it is required for any public purpose, nor to destroy or obstruct the free navigation of such water; and the legislature shall enact such laws as will give the most liberal construction to this provision, so that access to the navigable waters of this state shall be always attainable for the people thereof.

SEC. 3. All tidelands within two miles of any incorporated city or town of this state, and fronting on the waters of any harbor, estuary, bay, or inlet, used for the purposes of navigation, shall be withheld from grant or sale to private persons, partnerships, or corporations.

ARTICLE XVI.

STATE INDEBTEDNESS.

SECTION 1. The legislature shall not, in any manner, create any debt or debts, liability or liabilities, which shall, singly or in the aggregate with any previous debts or liabilities, exceed the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, except in case of war to repel invasion or suppress insurrection, unless the same shall be authorized by law for some single object or work to be distinctly specified therein, which law shall provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest of such debt or liability as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt or liability within seventy-five years of the time of the contracting thereof, and shall be irreplicable until the principal and interest thereon shall be paid and discharged and such law may make provision for a sinking fund to pay the principal of such debt or liability to commence at a time after the incurring of such debt or liability of not more than a period of one fourth of the time of maturity of such debt or liability; but no such law shall take effect until, at a general election, it shall have been submitted to the people and shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election; and all moneys raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated or to the payment of the debt thereby created, and such law shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout the state, for three months next preceding the election at which it is submitted to the people. The legislature may, at any time after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same. [Amendment adopted November 3, 1908.]

ARTICLE XVII.

LAND AND HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION.

SECTION 1. The legislature shall protect, by law, from forced sale, a certain portion of the homestead and other property of all heads of families.

SEC. 2. The holding of large tracts of land, uncultivated and unimproved, by individuals or corporations, is against the public interest, and should be discouraged by all means not inconsistent with the rights of private property.

SEC. 3. Lands belonging to this state, which are suitable for cultivation, shall be granted only to actual settlers, and in quantities not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres to each settler, under such conditions as shall be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE XVIII.

AMENDING AND REVISING THE CONSTITUTION.

SECTION 1. Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the senate or assembly, and if two thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses shall vote in favor thereof, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered in their journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon; and it shall be the duty of the legislature to submit such proposed amendment or amendments to the people in such manner, and at such time, and after such publication as may be deemed expedient. Should more amendments than one be submitted at the same election, they shall be so prepared and distinguished, by numbers or otherwise, that each can be voted on separately. If the people shall approve and ratify such amendment or amendments, or any of them, by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of this constitution.

SEC. 2. Whenever two thirds of the members elected to each branch of the legislature shall deem it necessary to revise this constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote, at the next general election, for or against a convention for that purpose, and if a majority of the electors voting at such election on the proposition for a convention shall vote in favor thereof, the legislature shall, at its next session, provide by law for calling the same. The convention shall consist of a number of delegates not to exceed that of both branches of the legislature, who shall be chosen in the same manner, and have the same qualifications, as members of the legislature. The delegates so elected shall meet within three months after their election, at such place as the legislature may direct. At a special election to be provided for by law, the constitution that may be agreed upon by such convention shall be submitted to the people for their ratification or rejection, in such manner as the convention may determine. The returns of such election shall, in such manner as the convention shall direct, be certified to the executive of the state, who shall call to his assistance the controller, treasurer, and secretary of state, and compare the returns so certified to him; and it shall be the duty of the executive to declare, by his proclamation, such constitution as may have been ratified by a majority of all the votes cast at such special election, to be the constitution of the State of California.

ARTICLE XIX.

CHINESE.

SECTION 1. The legislature shall prescribe all necessary regulations for the protection of the state, and the counties, cities, and towns thereof, from the burdens and evils arising from the presence of aliens who are or may become vagrants, paupers, mendicants, criminals, or invalids afflicted with contagious or infectious diseases, and from aliens otherwise dangerous or detrimental to the well-being or peace of the state, and to impose conditions upon which such persons may reside in the state, and to provide the means and mode of their removal from the state, upon failure or refusal to comply with such conditions; provided, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed to impair or limit the power of the legislature to pass such police laws or other regulations as it may deem necessary.

SEC. 2. Relating to employment of Chinese or Mongolians by corporations formed under laws of California.

NOTE.—The provisions of this section held to be in conflict with the United States constitution and therefore void. In re Parrott, 6 Saw. 319; (U. S. Circuit Court).

SEC. 3. No Chinese shall be employed on any state, county, municipal, or other public work, except in punishment for crime.

SEC. 4. The presence of foreigners ineligible to become citizens of the United States is declared to be dangerous to the well-being of the state, and the legislature shall discourage their immigration by all the means within its power. Asiatic coolieism is a form of human slavery, and is forever prohibited in this state, and all contracts for coolie labor shall be void. All companies or corporations, whether formed in this country or any foreign country, for the importation of such labor, shall be subject to such penalties as the legislature may prescribe. The legislature shall delegate all necessary power to the incorporated cities and towns of this state for the removal of Chinese without the limits of such cities and towns, or for their location within prescribed portions of those limits, and it shall also provide the necessary legislation to prohibit the introduction into this state of Chinese after the adoption of this constitution. This section shall be enforced by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE XX.

MISCELLANEOUS SUBJECTS.

SECTION 1. The city of Sacramento is hereby declared to be the seat of government of this state, and shall so remain until changed by law; but no law changing the seat of government shall be valid or binding unless the same be approved and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors of the state voting therefor at a general state election, under such regulations and provisions as the legislature, by a two-thirds vote of each house, may provide, submitting the question of change to the people.

SEC. 2. Any citizen of this state who shall, after the adoption of this constitution, fight a duel with deadly weapons, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with deadly weapons either within this state or out of it, or who shall act as second, or knowingly aid or assist in any manner those thus offending, shall not be allowed to hold any office of profit, or to enjoy the right of suffrage under this constitution.

SEC. 3. Members of the legislature, and all officers, executive and judicial, except such inferior officers as may be by law exempted, shall, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

SEC. 5. The superintendent of printing of the State of California shall, at least twenty days before said election, cause to be printed and delivered to the clerk of each county in this state five times the number of properly prepared ballots for said election that there are voters in said respective counties, with the words printed thereon: "For the new constitution." He shall likewise cause to be so printed and delivered to said clerks five times the number of properly prepared ballots for said election that there are voters in said respective counties with the words printed thereon: "Against the new constitution." The secretary of state is hereby authorized and required to furnish the superintendent of state printing a sufficient quantity of legal ballot paper, now on hand, to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 6. The clerks of the several counties in the state shall, at least five days before said election, cause to be delivered to the inspectors of election, at each election precinct or polling place in their respective counties, suitable registers, poll books, forms of return, and an equal number of the aforesaid ballots, which number, in the aggregate, must be ten times greater than the number of voters in the said election precincts or polling places. The returns of the number of votes cast at the presidential election in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six shall serve as a basis of calculation for this and the preceding section; provided, that the duties in this and the preceding section imposed upon the clerks of the respective counties shall, in the city and county of San Francisco, be performed by the registrar of voters for said city and county.

SEC. 7. Every citizen of the United States, entitled by law to vote for members of the assembly in this state, shall be entitled to vote for the adoption or rejection of this constitution.

SEC. 8. The officers of the several counties of this state, whose duty it is, under the law, to receive and canvass the returns from the several precincts of their respective counties, as well as of the city and county of San Francisco, shall meet at the usual places of meeting for such purposes on the first Monday after said election. If, at the time of meeting, the returns from each precinct in the county in which the polls were opened have been received, the board must then and there proceed to canvass the returns; but if all the returns have not been received, the canvass must be postponed from time to time until all the returns are received, or until the second Monday after said election, when they shall proceed to make out returns of the votes cast for and against the new constitution; and the proceedings of said board shall be the same as those prescribed for like boards in the case of an election for governor. Upon the completion of said canvass and returns, the said boards shall immediately certify the same, in the usual form, to the governor of the State of California.

SEC. 9. The governor of the State of California shall, as soon as the returns of said election shall be received by him, or within thirty days after said election, in the presence and with the assistance of the controller, treasurer, and secretary of state, open and compute all the returns received of votes cast for and against the new constitution. If, by such examination and computation, it is ascertained that a majority of the whole number of votes cast at such election is in favor of such new constitution, the executive of this state shall, by his proclamation, declare such new constitution to be the constitution of the State of California, and that it shall take effect and be in force on the days hereinafter specified.

SEC. 10. In order that future elections in this state shall conform to the requirements of this constitution, the terms of all officers elected at the first election under the same shall be, respectively, one year shorter than the terms as fixed by law or by this constitution; and the successors of all such officers shall be elected at the last election before the expiration of the terms as in this section provided. The first officers chosen after the adoption of this constitution shall be elected at the time and in the manner now provided by law. Judicial officers and the superintendent of public instruction shall be elected at the time and in the manner that state officers are elected.

SEC. 11. All laws relative to the present judicial system of the state shall be applicable to the judicial system created by this constitution until changed by legislation.

SEC. 12. This constitution shall take effect and be in force on and after the fourth day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, at twelve o'clock meridian, so far as the same relates to the election of all officers, the commencement of their terms of office, and the meeting of the legislature. In all other respects, and for all other purposes, this constitution shall take effect on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty, at twelve o'clock meridian.

ARTICLE XXIII.

SECTION 1. Every elective public officer of the State of California may be removed from office at any time by the electors entitled to vote for a successor of such incumbent, through the procedure and in the manner herein provided for, which procedure shall be known as the recall, and is in addition to any other method of removal provided by law.

The procedure hereunder to effect the removal of an incumbent of an elective public office shall be as follows: A petition signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor of the incumbent sought to be removed, equal in number to at least twelve per cent of the entire vote cast at the last preceding election for all candidates for the office, which the incumbent sought to be removed occupies (provided, that if the officer sought to be removed is a state officer who is elected in any political subdivision of the state, said petition shall be signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor to the incumbent sought to be removed, equal in number to at least twenty per cent of the entire vote cast at the last preceding election for all candidates for the office which the incumbent sought to be removed occupies) demanding an election of a successor to the officer named in said petition, shall be addressed to the secretary of state and filed with the clerk, or registrar of voters, of the county or city and county in which the petition was circulated; provided, that if the officer sought to be removed was elected in the state at large such petition shall be circulated in not less than five counties of the state, and shall be signed in each of such counties by electors equal in number to not less than one per cent of the entire vote cast, in each of said counties, at said election, as above estimated. Such petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds on which the removal is sought, which statement is intended solely for the information of the electors, and the sufficiency of which shall not be open to review.

When such petition is certified as is herein provided to the secretary of state, he shall forthwith submit the said petition, together with a certificate of its sufficiency, to the governor, who shall thereupon order and fix a date for holding the election, not less than sixty days nor more than eighty days from the date of such certificate of the secretary of state.

The governor shall make or cause to be made publication of notice for the holding of such election, and officers charged by law with duties concerning elections shall make all arrangements for such election and the same shall be conducted, returned, and the result thereof declared, in all respects as are other state elections. On the official ballot at such election shall be printed, in not more than two hundred words, the reasons set forth in the petition for demanding his recall. And in not more than three hundred words there shall also be printed, if desired by him, the officer's justification of his course in office. Proceedings for the recall of any officer shall be deemed to be pending from the date of the filing with any county, or city and county clerk, or registrar of voters, of any recall petition against such officer; and if such officer shall resign at any time subsequent to the filing thereof, the recall election shall be held notwithstanding such resignation, and the vacancy caused by such resignation, or from any other cause, shall be filled as provided by law, but the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold his office only until the person elected at the said recall election shall qualify.

Any person may be nominated for the office which is to be filled at any recall election by a petition signed by electors, qualified to vote at such recall election, equal in number to at least one per cent of the total number of votes cast at the last preceding election for all candidates for the office which the incumbent sought to be removed occupies. Each such nominating petition shall be filed with the secretary of state not less than twenty-five days before such recall election.

There shall be printed on the recall ballot, as to every officer whose recall is to be voted on thereat, the following question: "Shall (name of person against whom the recall petition is filed) be recalled from the office of (title of the office)?" following which question shall be the words "Yes" and "No" on separate lines, with a blank space at the right of each, in which the voter shall indicate, by stamping a cross (X), his vote for or against such recall. On such ballots, under each such question, there shall also be printed the names of those persons who have been nominated as candidates to succeed the person recalled, in case he shall be removed from office by said recall election; but no vote cast shall be counted for any candidate for said office unless the voter also voted on said question of the recall of the person sought to be recalled from said office. The name of the person against whom the petition is filed shall not appear on the ballot as a candidate for the office. If a majority of those voting on said question of the recall of any incumbent from office shall vote "No," said incumbent shall continue in said office. If a majority shall vote "Yes," said incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from such office, upon the qualification of his successor. The canvassers shall canvass all votes for candidates for said office and declare the result in like manner as in a regular election. If the vote at any such recall election shall recall the officer, then the candidate who has received the highest number of votes for the office shall be thereby declared elected for the remainder of the term. In case the person who received the highest number of votes shall fail to qualify within ten days after receiving the certificate of election, the office shall be deemed vacant and shall be filled according to law.

Any recall petition may be presented in sections, but each section shall contain a full and accurate copy of the title and text of the petition. Each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number, if such exist. His election precinct shall also appear on the paper after his name. The number of signatures appended to each section shall be at the pleasure of the person soliciting signatures to the same. Any qualified elector of the state shall be competent to solicit such signatures within the county, or city and county, of which he is an elector. Each section of the petition shall bear the name of the county, or city and county in which it is circulated, and only qualified electors of such county or city and county shall be competent to sign such section. Each section shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person soliciting signatures to the same stating his qualifications and that all the signatures to the attached section were made in his presence and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each signature to the section is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be; and no other affidavit thereto shall be required. The affidavit of any person soliciting signatures hereunder shall be verified free of charge by any officer authorized to administer an oath. Such petition so verified shall be prima facie evidence that the signatures thereto appended are genuine and that the persons signing the same are qualified electors. Unless and until it is otherwise proven upon official investigation, it shall be presumed that the petition presented contains the signatures of the requisite number of electors. Each section of the petition shall be filed with the clerk, or registrar of voters, of the county or city and county in which it was circulated: but all such sections circulated in any county or city and county shall be filed at the same time. Within twenty days after the date of filing such petition, the clerk, or registrar of voters, shall finally determine from the records of registration what number of qualified electors have signed the same: and, if necessary, the board of supervisors shall allow such clerk or registrar additional assistants for the purpose of examining such petition and provide for their compensation. The said clerk or registrar, upon the completion of such examination, shall forthwith attach to such petition his certificate, properly dated, showing the result of such examination, and submit said petition, except as to the signatures appended thereto, to the secretary of state and file a copy of said certificate in his office. Within forty days from the transmission of the said petition and certificate by the clerk or registrar of voters to the secretary of state, a supplemental petition, identical with the original as to the body of the petition but containing supplemental names, may be filed with the clerk or registrar of voters, as aforesaid. The clerk or registrar of voters shall within ten days after the filing of such supplemental petition make like examination thereof as of the original petition, and upon the conclusion of such examination shall forthwith attach to such petition his certificate, properly dated, showing the result of such examination, and shall forthwith transmit such supplemental petition, except as to the signatures thereon, together with his said certificate, to the secretary of state.

When the secretary of state shall have received from one or more county clerks, or registrars of voters, a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, he shall forthwith transmit to the county clerk or registrar of voters of every county or city and county in the state a certificate showing such fact; and such clerk or registrar of voters shall thereupon file said certificate for record in his office.

A petition shall be deemed to be filed with the secretary of state upon the date of the receipt by him of a certificate or certificates showing the said petition to be signed by the requisite number of electors of the state.

No recall petition shall be circulated or filed against any officer until he has actually held his office for at least six months; save and except it may be filed against any member of the state legislature at any time after five days from the convening and organizing of the legislature after his election.

If at any recall election the incumbent whose removal is sought is not recalled, he shall be repaid from the state treasury any amount legally expended by him as expenses of such election, and the legislature shall provide appropriation for such purpose, and no proceedings for another recall election of said incumbent shall be initiated within six months after such election.

If the governor is sought to be removed under the provisions of this article, the duties herein imposed upon him shall be performed by the lieutenant governor; and if the secretary of state is sought to be removed, the duties herein imposed upon him shall be performed by the state controller; and the duties herein imposed upon the clerk or registrar of voters, shall be performed by such registrar of voters in all cases where the office of registrar of voters exists.

The recall shall also be exercised by the electors of each county, city and county, city and town of the state, with reference to the elective officers thereof, under such procedure as shall be provided by law.

Until otherwise provided by law, the legislative body of any such county, city and county, city or town may provide for the manner of exercising such recall powers in such counties, cities and counties, cities and towns, but shall not require any such recall petition to be signed by electors more in number than twenty-five per cent of the entire vote cast at the last preceding election for all candidates for the office which the incumbent sought to be removed occupies. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting or limiting the present or future powers of cities or counties or cities and counties having charters adopted under the authority given by the constitution.

In the submission to the electors of any petition proposed under this article all officers shall be guided by the general laws of the state, except as otherwise herein provided.

This article is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted to facilitate its operation, but in no way limiting or restricting the provisions of this article or the powers herein reserved. [New article; adopted October 10, 1911.]

REFERENDUM PETITIONS.

1911 (EXTRA SESSION).

Referendum petitions as provided for in article IV, section 1, of the state constitution were filed against the acts relating to the office of registrar of voters passed at the extra session of the legislature in 1911 (chapters 48, 49 and 50). These acts amended sections 4013 and 4232 of the Political Code, and added new sections 4149e and 4149f thereto. The acts were repealed by vote of the electors of the State on November 5, 1912.

1913 (REGULAR SESSION).

Referendum petitions have been filed with the Secretary of State against the following acts which otherwise would have become effective on August 10, 1913. These acts must therefore be submitted to the electors of the State for their approval or rejection, and will be so submitted at the general election to be held in November, 1914:

Chapter 17. Red Light Abatement Act.

Chapter 353. "Blue Sky" Act.

Chapter 579. Non-sale of Game Act.

Chapter 586. Water Commission Act.

INOPERATIVE LAWS.

1913 (REGULAR SESSION).

Chapter 174, providing for expenses of a commission to represent the State at the Battle of Gettysburg anniversary and for transportation of veterans to the exercises in connection therewith.

The above appropriation bill which the 1913 legislature voted to become effective immediately upon passage, was held under a decision by the District Court of Appeal, Third District, not to be "current expenses" within the meaning of article IV, section 1, of the constitution. The law became inoperative because the expenditure was necessary before the law went into effect under the ninety-day provision. The appropriation was also held to be in contravention of article IV, section 31, which provides that the "legislature shall have no power . . . to make any gift."

STATUTES OF CALIFORNIA

PASSED AT THE

FORTIETH SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE

CHAPTER 1.

An act making an appropriation to pay the expenses of electors of president and vice president of the United States.

[Approved January 13, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of nine hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay the per diem and mileage of electors of president and vice president of the United States for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

Appropriation: expenses of presidential electors.

SEC. 2. This act inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the current expenses of the state shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV, of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 2.

An act to make an appropriation for the contingent expenses of the senate for the session of the fortieth legislature of the State of California during the sixty-fourth fiscal year.

[Approved February 3, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five thousand dollars for the contingent expenses of the senate for the session of the fortieth legislature of the State of California, during the sixty-fourth fiscal year.

Appropriation: senate contingent expenses.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it makes an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 3.

An act making an appropriation for an additional stenographer for the governor's office during and following the present session of the legislature.

[Approved February 3, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Appropriation: governor's additional stenographer.

SECTION 1. The sum of five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the salary of an additional stenographer for the governor's office to be appointed by him to serve during and following the present session of the legislature.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant for the sum within made payable and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act inasmuch as it makes an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 4.

An act to appropriate money to pay the expense of distributing state text-books free to the school children of the state in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

[Approved February 3, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Appropriation:
distributing state textbooks.

SECTION 1. The sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay postage, expressage, freight or other delivery, clerical or other help and all other expense necessary in distributing state text-books free to the school children of the state, in accordance with section 7 of article IX of the constitution.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the current expenses of the state shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 5.

An act appropriating money to reimburse the state printing fund for expenses paid therefrom by the superintendent of state printing in printing the constitutional amendments distributed according to law prior to the election on November 5, 1912.

[Approved February 3, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of eleven thousand five hundred forty-nine dollars and sixty cents ($11,549.60) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to be paid according to law to reimburse the state printing fund for expenses paid therefrom by the superintendent of state printing in printing the constitutional amendments distributed according to law prior to the election on November 5, 1912.

Appropriation: printing constitutional amendments.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the current expenses of the state shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution of the State of California, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 6.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations, banks and insurance companies for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation," approved April 1, 1911, by amending sections two, three, four, five, twenty-four and thirty-five.

[Approved February 3, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of an act entitled "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations, banks and insurance companies for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation" approved April 1, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Public

Section 2. All railroad companies, including street railways, whether operated in one or more counties; all sleeping car, dining car, drawing-room car and palace car companies, all refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loaning, and other car companies, operating upon the railroads in this state; all companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel, or stage line in this state; all telegraph and telephone companies; and all companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity shall annually pay to the state a tax upon their franchises, roadways, roadbeds, rails, rolling stock, poles, wires, pipes, canals, conduits, rights of way, and other property, or any part thereof, used exclusively in the operation of their business in this state, computed as follows: Said tax shall be equal to the percentages hereinafter fixed upon the gross receipts from operation of such companies and each thereof within this state. When such companies are operating partly within and partly without this state, the gross receipts within this state shall be deemed to be all receipts on business beginning and ending within this state, and a proportion, based upon the proportion of the mileage within this state to the entire mileage over which such business is done, of receipts on all business passing through, into, or out of this state. The percentages above mentioned shall be as follows: On all railroad companies, including street railways four and three-fourths per cent; on all sleeping car, dining car, drawing-room car, palace car companies, refrigerator, oil, stock, fruit, and other car-loaning, and other car companies four per cent; on all companies doing express business on any railroad, steamboat, vessel or stage line, two per cent; on all telegraph and telephone companies, four and two-tenths per cent; on all companies engaged in the transmission or sale of gas or electricity, four and six-tenths per cent. Such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon the property above enumerated of such companies except as otherwise provided in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, and as provided in section twenty-two of article four of said constitution. The word "municipal" as used in this act shall apply to incorporated towns and cities formed under article eleven of the constitution of this state and to none other.

SEC. 2. Section three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Tax on insurance
companies.

Section 3. Every insurance company or association doing business in this state shall annually pay to the state a tax of one and three-fourths per cent upon the amount of the gross premiums received upon its business done in this state, less return premiums and reinsurance in companies or associations authorized to do business in this state; provided, that there shall be deducted from said one and three-fourths per cent upon the gross premiums the amount of any county and municipal taxes paid by such companies on real estate owned by them in this state. This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon the property of such companies, except county and municipal taxes on real estate, and except as otherwise provided in the constitution of this state; provided, that when by the laws of any other state or country, any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, are imposed on insurance companies of this state, doing business in such other state or country, or upon their agents therein, in excess of such taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, or of securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, imposed upon insurance companies of such other state or country, so long as such laws continue in force, the same obligations and prohibitions of whatsoever kind must be imposed by the insurance commissioner upon insurance companies of such other state or country doing business in this state.

Retaliatory provision.

SEC. 3. Section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. The shares of capital stock of all banks, organized under the laws of this state, or of the United States, or of any other state and located in this state, shall be assessed and taxed to the owners or holders thereof by the state board of equalization, in the manner hereinafter provided, in the city or town where the bank is located and not elsewhere. There shall be levied and assessed upon such shares of capital stock an annual tax, payable to the state, of one per centum upon the value thereof. The value of each share of stock in each bank, except such as are in liquidation, shall be taken to be the amount paid in thereon, together with its pro rata of the accumulated surplus and undivided profits. The value of each share of stock in each bank which is in liquidation shall be taken to be its pro rata of the actual assets of such bank. This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon such shares of stock and upon the property of such bank, except county and municipal taxes on real estate and except as otherwise provided in the constitution of this state. In determining the value of the capital stock of any bank there shall be deducted from the value, as defined above, the value, as assessed for county taxes, of any real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, owned by such bank and taxed for county purposes. The banks shall be liable to the state for this tax and the same shall be paid to the state by them on behalf of the stockholders in the manner and at the time hereinafter provided, and they shall have a lien upon the shares of stock and upon any dividends declared thereon to secure the amount so paid. The moneyed capital, reserve, surplus, undivided profits, and all other property belonging to unincorporated banks or bankers of this state, or held by any bank located in this state which has no shares of capital stock, or employed in this state by any branches, agencies, or other representatives of any banks doing business outside of the State of California, shall be likewise assessed and taxed to such banks or bankers by the said board of equalization, in the same manner as above provided for incorporated banks, and taxed at the same rate that is levied upon the shares of capital stock of incorporated banks, as provided in the first paragraph of this section. In the case of a branch, an agency, or other representative of any bank doing business outside of this state, the capital of said branch, agency, or representative used in this state shall be taken to be the average amount owed by the said branch, agency, or representative to the bank of which it is a branch, agency, or representative during the year ending the first Monday in March. The value of said property shall be determined by taking the entire property invested in such business, together with all reserve, surplus, and undivided profits, at their full cash value, and deducting therefrom the value as assessed for county taxes of any real estate, other than mortgage interests therein, owned by such bank or banker and taxed for county purposes. Such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon the property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this section, except county and municipal taxes on real estate, and except as otherwise provided in the constitution of this state. All moneyed capital and property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this paragraph shall be assessed and taxed at the same rate as an incorporated bank, provided for in this section. In determining the value of the moneyed capital and property of the banks and bankers mentioned in this section, the said state board of equalization shall include and assess to such banks all property and everything of value owned or held by them which would go to make up the value of the capital stock of such banks and bankers, if the same were incorporated and had shares of capital stock. The word "banks" as used in this act shall include banking associations, unincorporated banks and bankers, branches, agencies or other representatives of any banks doing business outside of the State of California, savings and loan societies, and such trust companies, as conduct the business of receiving money on deposit, but shall not include building and loan associations.

"Banks"
defined.

SEC. 4. Section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Tax on franchises.

Section 5. All franchises, other than those of the companies mentioned in sections two, three and four of this act, shall be assessed at their actual cash value, after making due deduction for good will, in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall be taxed at the rate of one per centum each year, and the taxes collected thereon shall be exclusively for the benefit of the state. These franchises shall include the actual exercise of the right to be a corporation and to do business as a corporation under the laws of this state and the actual exercise of the right to do business as a corporation in this state when such right is exercised by a corporation incorporated under the laws of any other state or country, also the right, authority, privilege, or permission to maintain wharves, ferries, toll roads, and toll bridges, and to construct, maintain or operate in, under, above, upon, through or along any streets, highways, public places, or waters, any mains, pipes, canals, ditches, tanks, conduits or other means for conducting water, oil, or other substances.

SEC. 5. Section twenty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 24. Within ten days after the first Monday in February, the controller shall send by mail to the last known address of any company whose taxes are delinquent a notice of the amount of said taxes, penalties, and costs, and that if the said taxes, penalties, and costs are not paid on or before the Saturday preceding the first Monday in March next thereafter at six o'clock p. m. of said day, the delinquent company if it be a domestic corporation will forfeit its charter to the state, and that if the delinquent company be a foreign corporation it will forfeit its right to do business in this state. If the taxes, penalties, and costs are not paid within the time specified in said notice, the controller shall, on said Saturday preceding the first Monday in March at six o'clock p. m. of said day, mark on the record of assessments for state taxes opposite the assessment of the delinquent company the words "charter forfeited to the state," if the delinquent company be a domestic corporation, and thereupon said charter shall be so forfeited, and if the delinquent company be a foreign corporation the words "right to do business forfeited" and thereupon said right to do business shall be so forfeited. He shall at once report to the secretary of state the name and number of charter of each corporation whose charter or right to do business has been forfeited for non-payment of taxes, and the secretary of state shall at once report the same to the governor. The governor shall forthwith issue his proclamation, declaring that the charters of such domestic corporations have been forfeited and the right of such foreign corporations to do business in this state has been forfeited. Said proclamation shall be filed immediately in the office of the secretary of state, and immediately thereafter a copy of said proclamation shall be published in the manner provided by law in one issue of one daily newspaper of general circulation published at the state capital, of one daily newspaper of general circulation published in the city and county of San Francisco, and of one daily newspaper of general circulation published in the city of Los Angeles. The secretary of state shall thereupon transmit a certified copy of the proclamation to each county clerk in this state, who shall file the same in his office. Any such corporation making subsequent payment of all taxes, penalties, and costs due the state, and in addition thereto an amount equal to the taxes levied under this act for the year in which such forfeiture occurred, for each year subsequent to such forfeiture and to the time of such redemption, shall be relieved of such forfeiture, and the controller shall notify the secretary of state thereof, and the secretary of state shall annually on the first Monday in April transmit to the county clerk of each county in this state a list of the corporations so paying, and which have been relieved of such forfeiture, which list shall be by said county clerk filed in his office; provided, the rehabilitation of a corporation under the provisions of this act shall be without prejudice to any action, defense or right which accrued by reason of the original forfeiture; and provided, that in case the name of any corporation which has suffered the forfeiture prescribed in this act, or a name so closely resembling the name of such corporation as will tend to deceive, has been adopted by any other corporation since the date of said forfeiture, then said corporation having suffered such forfeiture shall be relieved therefrom pursuant to the terms of this section only upon the adoption by said corporation seeking revivor of a new name, and in such case nothing in this act contained shall be construed as permitting such corporation to be revived or carry on any business under its former name; and such corporation shall have the right to use its former name or take such new name only upon filing an application therefor with the secretary of state and upon the issuing of a certificate to such corporation by the secretary of state setting forth the right of such corporation to take such new name or use its former name, as the case may be; provided, however, that the secretary of state shall not issue any certificate permitting any corporation to take or use the name of any corporation heretofore organized in this state, and which has not suffered a forfeiture prescribed by this act, or to make or use a name so closely resembling the name of such corporation heretofore organized in this state as will tend to deceive. The provisions of title 9, part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, in so far as they conflict with this section, are not applicable to corporations seeking revivor under this act. The controller may, on or before the thirtieth day of April next following said delinquency and forfeiture, bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California, to collect any delinquent taxes, together with any penalties, or costs, which have not been paid in accordance with the provisions of this act and appearing delinquent upon the record of assessments for state taxes heretofore in this act provided for. The attorney general must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for. In such action a writ of attachment may be issued, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of said attachment is required. In the case of companies whose charters or right to do business has been forfeited under the provisions of this act, service of summons may be made upon the persons now provided for by law to be served as agents or officers of any of such companies and such persons shall be deemed to be the agents of such companies for all purposes necessary in order to prosecute such action. Payment of the taxes and penalties, or amount of the judgment recovered in such action must be made to the state treasurer. In such actions the record of assessments for state taxes, or a copy of so much thereof as is applicable in said action, duly certified by the controller, or by the secretary of the state board of equalization, showing unpaid taxes against any company, person or association assessed by the state board of equalization, is prima facie evidence of the assessment upon the property and franchises, the delinquency, the amount of the taxes, penalties, and costs due and unpaid to the state, and that the company, person, or association is indebted to the people of the State of California in the amount of taxes and penalties therein appearing unpaid, and that all the forms of law in relation to the assessment and levy of such taxes have been complied with.

SEC. 6. Section thirty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 35. In so far as the rates of taxation upon the property and franchises described and enumerated in section fourteen of article XIII of the constitution of the State of California and in section one of the act of which this act is in part amendatory, differ from the rates of taxation upon such property and franchises as fixed and defined by this act, it is hereby declared to be the intent and purpose of the legislature, two thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof, by virtue of the authority conferred upon the legislature by subdivision f of section fourteen of article XIII of the constitution to change the rates of taxation heretofore fixed and imposed by said section of the constitution and enumerated and specified in the act of which this act is amendatory to the rates fixed, determined, established and set forth by and in this act. Rates changed.

This tax levy, and each and every of the percentages or rates of taxation herein and hereby determined, made, fixed and established to be paid by the persons, firms, companies and corporations specified, described or included in section 14 of article XIII of the constitution, are and have been determined, made, fixed and established after a full, complete, open and public investigation and hearing by and before this legislature upon and respecting the value of each and all of the properties and franchises included within or enumerated in section 14 of article XIII of the constitution, and of all other and different property subject to taxation of any kind within the State of California, of which investigation and hearing every and all persons, firms, companies and corporations concerned therein or affected thereby had due notice; and at which investigation and hearing the legislature took oral and written evidence and at which hearing every and all persons, firms, companies and corporations concerned therein or affected thereby and who desired so to do, were given an opportunity to and did appear and were heard and introduced evidence before this legislature Rates fixed after public hearing.

respecting and showing the value of said properties and franchises included within or enumerated in said section 14 of article XIII of the constitution and also respecting and showing the value of all other and different property subject to taxation of any kind within the State of California, and after the due consideration of all of said evidence by this legislature and its ascertainment and determination therefrom and thereon of the value of said and all of said hereinbefore mentioned properties and franchises; and the percentages or rates of taxation herein and hereby determined, fixed and established have been and are determined, fixed and established, and have been and are based, upon the value of each, all and every of the properties and franchises included within or enumerated in said section 14 of article XIII of the constitution as ascertained and determined as aforesaid by this legislature and constitute and are the percentages or rates of taxation ascertained and determined by this legislature which when applied in the manner provided and required by law, do and will levy a tax upon said properties and franchises included within or enumerated in said section 14 of article XIII of the constitution in proportion to the value of the same and in proportion to the value of every and all other and different property subject to taxation of any kind within the State of California as ascertained and determined as aforesaid by this legislature.

SEC. 7. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy, shall, under the provisions of section one of article IV of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 7.

An act to amend an act entitled, "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, relating to cities of the sixth class, by adding a new section thereto, to be numbered eight hundred and seventy a.

[Approved February 4, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled, "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, is hereby amended by adding a new section thereto relating to cities of the sixth class, to be numbered eight hundred and seventy a and to read as follows:

Section 870a. Whenever the city trustees shall deem it necessary for the city or town to construct a bridge connecting the municipal corporation with an adjoining road district and it shall become necessary in constructing such bridge to take or damage private property within or without or within and without the corporate limits of said city or town, the trustees of said city or town may, by resolution, declare the necessity thereof and direct and maintain proceedings for that purpose under title VII of part III of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section one of article four of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency: Many municipal corporations governed by the act of which this act is amendatory, have their exterior boundaries on banks of rivers and streams which during the winter months become so swollen by rains and floods as to render it dangerous to public safety to cross such streams, and as the provisions of title VII, part III of the Code of Civil Procedure, or the act of which this act is amendatory, do not enumerate among the public uses for which the right of eminent domain may be exercised, the taking of private property necessary for the construction, by cities of the sixth class, of bridges across streams forming the exterior boundaries of such cities and the construction of such bridges being necessary for the public safety for travel to and from such cities, this act is hereby declared to be an urgency act within the meaning of the section and article of the Constitution of the State of California above in this section mentioned.

Urgency measure: declaration of facts.

CHAPTER 8.

An act appropriating the money in the state school book fund for the purpose of paying expenses of publishing and distributing state text-books free to the school children of the state in accordance with the constitution.

[Approved February 4, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The money in the state school book fund is hereby appropriated for the purpose of paying expenses of publishing state text-books and distributing the same free to the school children of the state in accordance with section 7 of article IX of the constitution. The expense of publishing shall include the payment of royalties under existing contracts upon the basis of books shipped and all material, labor and other expenses necessary to the mechanical work of printing and binding said books. All books shall be printed upon the order of the superintendent of public instruction and claims shall be drawn after being certified to by the superintendent of state printing as provided by law. The expense of distributing shall consist of postage, expressage, freight or other delivery, clerical or other help and all other necessary expense connected with such distribution, the claims for the same to be presented and certified to by either of the above state officers incurring the same, and allowed and audited as provided by law.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the current expenses of the state, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution of the State of California, shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 9.

An act to recognize and declare valid all proceedings in Richmond municipal water district.

[Approved March 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Richmond water district
validated.

SECTION 1. The Richmond municipal water district as formed by the board of supervisors of Contra Costa county, State of California, and as now existing, is hereby recognized and declared valid, and all proceedings on organization and formation are hereby approved and declared valid.

CHAPTER 10.

An act to amend section four hundred and fifty-two a of the Civil Code relating to the incorporation of mutual benefit associations.

[Approved April 2, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 452a of the Civil Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Formation of mutual benefit associations.

452a. Associations of any number of persons may be formed for the purpose of paying the nominee of any member a sum, upon the death of the member, not exceeding three dollars for each member of the association, but not exceeding, in any case, the sum of three thousand dollars. Such association may be formed by filing articles of incorporation in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal place of business is situated and a certified copy of such articles of incorporation, duly certified by the county clerk, in the office of the secretary of state. Such articles must state the name of the corporation, its general purposes, its principal place of business, its term of existence, not exceeding fifty years and the names and residences of the directors selected or appointed to serve for the first year. The articles of incorporation must be signed by not less than twenty-five members of such association and must be acknowledged by them as required by section two hundred and ninety-two.

CHAPTER 11.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof," which became a law under the constitutional provision without the governor's approval February 25, 1901, as subsequently amended, by amending section two thereof, relating to the proceedings for the calling of an election therefor.

[Approved April 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof," which became a law under the constitutional provision without the governor's approval February 25th, 1901, as subsequently amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. Whenever the legislative branch of any city, town or municipal corporation shall, by resolution passed by vote of two thirds of all its members determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement, including bridges, water works, water rights, sewers, light or power works or plants, buildings for municipal uses, wharves, schoolhouses, fire apparatus, and street work, or other works, property or structures necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes and powers of the municipality, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality, it may at any subsequent meeting of such board, by a vote of two thirds of all its members, call a special election and submit to the qualified voters of said city, town or municipal corporation the proposition of incurring a bonded debt for the purpose set forth in said resolution, and no question other than the incurring of the indebtedness for said purpose shall be submitted; provided, that propositions of incurring indebtedness for more than one object or purpose may be submitted at the same election. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed public improvements, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness, and shall fix the date on which such special election will be held, the manner of holding such election and the voting for or against incurring such indebtedness, and in all particulars not recited in such ordinance, such election shall be held as provided by law for holding municipal elections in such municipality; provided, however, that if the rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness shall not exceed four and one half per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, the rate of interest need not be recited in such ordinance, but in its discretion, the said legislative branch may recite in such ordinance a maximum rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness, not exceeding six per centum per annum payable semi-annually, which rate when so recited, shall not be exceeded in the issuance of bonds for such indebtedness.

CHAPTER 12.

An act to validate municipal bonds, and to provide for the levy and collection of taxes to pay the principal and interest on such bonds.

[Approved April 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Municipal
bonds
validated.

SECTION 1. Where in any municipal corporation, proceedings have been taken for the purpose of issuing and selling bonds of such municipal corporation, for any purpose or purposes, all such acts and proceedings leading up to and including the issuance of such bonds, if they have heretofore been sold, and all such acts and proceedings heretofore had, although the bonds are not yet sold, are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared validated to all intents and purposes, and the power of said municipal corporation and of the legislative body thereof, to issue such bonds, is hereby ratified, confirmed and declared, and the bonds already sold are declared to be, and the bonds hereafter sold shall be, the legal and binding obligation of and against the municipal corporation, having heretofore issued or hereafter issuing such bonds, and the faith and credit of such municipal corporation is hereby pledged for the prompt payment and redemption of the principal and interest of said bonds.

Tax levy for principal and interest.

SEC. 2. The legislative branch of such municipal corporation shall at the time of fixing the general tax levy and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually each year until said bonds are paid, or until there shall be a sum in the treasury of said municipal corporation, set apart for that purpose sufficient to meet all sums coming due for the principal and interest on such bonds a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds and also such part of the principal thereof as shall become due before the time for fixing the next general tax levy; provided, however, that if the maturity of the indebtedness created by the issue of bonds be made to begin more than one year after the date of the issuance of such bonds, such tax shall be levied and collected at the time and in the manner aforesaid annually each year, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof on or before maturity. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes and shall be collected at the time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected and be used for no other purpose than for the payment of said bonds and the accruing interest thereon.

SEC. 3. This act shall not operate to legalize any bonds which have been sold for less than par, nor to legalize any bonds the issuance of which has not received the assent of two thirds of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation, voting at an election held for the purpose of determining whether such indebtedness should be incurred, nor to legalize any bonds which mature at a date more than forty years from the time of their issuance.

Not to legalize bonds sold below par.

CHAPTER 13.

An act to amend section eight hundred and seventy-five of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, as subsequently amended, relating to the powers of the president and presidents pro tem. of boards of trustees of cities of the sixth class.

[Approved April 4, 1918. In effect August 10, 1918.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eight hundred and seventy-five of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 875. In the absence of the president of the board of trustees from any meeting of said board, or in the event of his inability to act, a president pro tem. may be chosen by the board. The president or the president pro tem. shall preside at the meetings of the board of trustees, shall sign all warrants drawn on the treasurer, and shall sign all written contracts entered into by said city or town. The president pro tem. may sign or approve any ordinance with the same force and effect as if signed by the president. The president or president pro tem. shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, to take affidavits and to testify the same under their hands. The president or president pro tem. shall sign all conveyances made by said city or town, and all instruments which shall require the seal of the city or town. The president or president pro tem. is authorized to acknowledge the execution of all instruments executed by said city or town that require to be acknowledged. The authority and power of the president pro tem. shall continue during the day on which he is chosen and shall cease at the expiration of such day.

CHAPTER 14.

An act to reappropriate and make available for the purpose of printing for the state board of forestry a certain amount heretofore appropriated for the support of said board.

[Approved April 5, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Appropriation:
board of forestry.

SECTION 1. Of the balance now remaining in the appropriation made by chapter 705, Statutes of 1911, approved May 1, 1911, entitled "An act making appropriations for the support of the government of the State of California for the sixty-third and sixty-fourth fiscal years," there is hereby reappropriated and made available for the purpose of printing for said board of forestry for the sixty-fourth fiscal year the sum of seven hundred dollars.

SEC. 2. The controller of the state is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant in favor of the state board of forestry for the amount herein made payable as provided in section one hereof, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the current expenses of the state shall, under the provisions of section one of article IV, of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 15.

An act to amend section 1577 of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to the sale of property of an estate, and to amend section 1580 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the procedure for the sale of mining property belonging to an estate.

[Approved April 5, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1577 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Mortgage,
lease or sale of estate
property.

1577. Whenever, in any estate now being administered, or that may hereafter be administered, or in any guardianship proceeding now pending, or that may hereafter be pending, it shall appear to the superior court, or a judge thereof, to be for the advantage of the estate to raise money upon a note or notes to be secured by a mortgage of the real property of any decedent, or of a minor, or an incompetent person, or any part thereof, or to make a lease of said real property, or any part thereof, or to agree to sell or give an option to purchase a mining claim, or mining claims, or real property worked as a mine, the court or judge, as often as occasion therefor shall arise in the administration of any estate, or in the course of any guardianship matter, may on a petition, notice, and hearing as provided in this article and section fifteen hundred and eighty of this code, authorize, empower and direct the executor or administrator, or guardian of such minor or incompetent person, to mortgage such real property, or any part thereof, and to execute a note or notes to be secured by such mortgage, or to lease such real estate, or any part thereof, or to enter into an agreement to sell such real estate, or any part thereof, or to give an option to purchase such real estate or any part thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 1580 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1580. To obtain an order to enter into an agreement for the sale of, or for an option to purchase, a mining claim, or claims, or real property, worked as a mine, the proceedings to be taken and the effect thereof shall be as follows: Sale of mining property.

First—The executor, administrator, or guardian of a minor, or of an incompetent person, or any person interested in the estate of such decedents, minors, or incompetent persons, may file a verified petition showing: Executor's petition.

1. The advantage or advantages that may accrue to the estate from entering into such agreement or option.

2. A general description of the property affected by said agreement or option.

3. The terms and general conditions of the proposed agreement or option.

4. The names of the legatees and devisees, if any, and of the heirs of the deceased, or of the minor, or of the incompetent person, so far as known to the petitioner.

Second—Upon filing such petition an order shall be made by the court or judge requiring all persons interested in the estate to appear before the court or judge at a time and place specified, not less than two or more than four weeks thereafter, then and there to show cause why an agreement for the sale, or an option for the purchase of the realty should not be made, and referring to the petition on file for further particulars. Court's order on hearing.

Third—The order to show cause must be personally served on the persons interested in the estate at least ten days before the time appointed for hearing the petition, or it may be published for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county if there be one, and if there is none, then in some newspaper of general circulation in an adjoining county. Service of order.

Hearing on petition.

Fourth—At the time and place appointed to show cause, or at such other time and place to which the hearing may be postponed, the power to make all needful postponements being hereby vested in the court or judge, the court or judge having first received satisfactory proof of personal service or publication of the order to show cause, must proceed to hear the petition, and any objections that may have been filed or presented thereto. If, after a full hearing, the court or judge is satisfied that it will be for the advantage or best interest of the estate to enter into the proposed agreement for the sale, or option for the purchase, of the mines or real property, worked as a mine, an order must be made authorizing, empowering and directing the executor, administrator or guardian to make such agreement or option to purchase. The order may prescribe the terms and conditions of such agreement or option to purchase. The court or judge may, at the time of making said order authorizing such agreement to sell or option to purchase, fix the amount of bond to be given by the executor, administrator, or guardian, and may provide for the payment into court of the proceeds from said agreement to sell or option to purchase, and that the said executor, administrator, or guardian, shall give the bond required before obtaining an order of the court for the payment to him of such proceeds from said agreement to sell or option to purchase.

agreement.

Fifth—After making the order to enter into said agreement or option to purchase, the executor, administrator or guardian of a minor or of an incompetent person shall execute, acknowledge and deliver an agreement or option to purchase containing the conditions specified in the order, setting forth in the agreement or option to purchase that it is made by authority of the order, and giving the date of such order. A certified copy of such order shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of every county in which the land affected by the agreement or option to purchase, or any portion thereof, is situated. If the party of the second part to said agreement to sell or option to purchase neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of the agreement to sell or option to purchase, the court may, on motion of the executor, or administrator, or guardian, and after notice to the purchaser, order such agreement to sell or option to purchase cancelled.

Return of proceedings to
court.

Sixth—The executor or administrator, or the guardian, after the terms of said agreement to sell, or said option to purchase, have been complied with by the party of the second part thereto, and all payments mentioned in the same have been made according to the terms of said agreement to sell or option to purchase, must make a return of his proceedings to the court, which must be filed in the office of the clerk at any time subsequent to the compliance with said conditions and the making of said payments. A hearing upon the return of the proceedings may be asked for in the return or by petition subsequently, and thereupon the clerk must fix the day for the hearing, of which notice of at least ten days must be given by the clerk, by notices posted in three public places in the county, or by publication in a newspaper, and must briefly indicate the land or lands mentioned in the agreement to sell or option to purchase, and must refer to the return for further particulars. Upon the hearing, the court must examine the return and witnesses in relation to the same. If it appears to the court that the terms of the said agreement to sell or option to purchase, including all payments to be made, have been complied with, the court must make an order confirming the sale, and directing conveyances to be executed. The sale, from that time, is confirmed and valid, and a certified copy of the order confirming it and directing conveyances to be executed, must be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the land sold is situated. Conveyances must thereupon be executed to the purchaser by the executor or administrator, or the guardian, and they must refer to the orders of the court authorizing and confirming the sale of the property of the estate, and directing conveyances thereof to be executed and to the record of the order of confirmation in the office of the county recorder, either by the date of such recording, or by the date, volume, and page of the record, and such reference shall have the same effect as if the orders were at large inserted in the conveyance. Conveyances so made convey all the right, title, interest, and estate of the decedent, in the premises, at the time of his death; if prior to the sale, by operation of law or otherwise, the estate has acquired any right, title or interest in the premises, other than or in addition to that of the decedent at the time of his death, such right, title or interest also passes by such conveyances.

may confirm.

Conveyances

CHAPTER 16.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act providing for the management of the California redwood park and creating a board of five commissioners with power to manage said California redwood park," approved Feb. 6, 1911, by adding a new section granting to the board of commissioners the power to acquire property by gift, bequest, donation, contribution, devise, purchase, condemnation, and otherwise.

[Approved April 5, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act providing for the management of the California redwood park and creating a board of five commissioners with power to manage said California redwood park" approved Feb. 6, 1911, is hereby amended by adding a new section to be known as section 2½ and to read as follows:

Commission may accept gifts.

2½. The said California redwood park commission shall have the right, power and authority to receive and accept, either in the name of said commission or in the name of the people of the state, by gift, devise, grant or other conveyance, real property or any interest therein, including water, water rights, roads, trails and rights of way, to be added to or used in connection with said California redwood park; also to receive and accept, by gift, donation, contribution, or bequest, money to be used in acquiring or improving real estate as a part of or in connection with said California redwood park; also to receive and accept personal property in the same manner for purposes connected with said park; also to acquire by purchase, or by condemnation proceedings brought either in the name of said California redwood park commission or in the name of the people of the State of California, such real and personal property as shall be necessary or proper for the extension, improvement or development of said California redwood park.

CHAPTER 17.

An act declaring all buildings and places nuisances wherein or upon which acts of lewdness, assignation or prostitution are held or occur or which are used for such purposes, and providing for the abatement and prevention of such nuisances by injunction and otherwise.

[Approved April 7, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Definitions. SECTION 1. The term "person" as used in this act shall be deemed and held to mean and include individuals, corporations, associations, partnerships, trustees, lessees, agents and assignees. The term "building" as used in this act shall be deemed and held to mean and include so much of any building or structure of any kind as is or may be entered through the same outside entrance.

Place of prostitution a nuisance.

SEC. 2. Every building or place used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation or prostitution and every building or place wherein or upon which acts of lewdness, assignation or prostitution are held or occur, is a nuisance which shall be enjoined, abated and prevented as hereinafter provided, whether the same be a public or private nuisance.

Action to abate.

SEC. 3. Whenever there is reason to believe that such nuisance is kept, maintained or exists in any county or city and county, the district attorney of said county or city and county, in the name of the people of the State of California, must, or any citizen of the state resident within said county or city and county, in his own name may, maintain an action in equity to abate and prevent such nuisance and to perpetually enjoin the person or persons conducting or maintaining the same, and the owner, lessee or agent of the building, or place, in or upon which such nuisance exists, from directly or indirectly maintaining or permitting such nuisance.

SEC. 4. The complaint in such action must be verified unless filed by the district attorney. Whenever the existence of such nuisance is shown in such action to the satisfaction of the court or judge thereof, either by verified complaint or affidavit, the court or judge shall allow a temporary writ of injunction to abate and prevent the continuance or recurrence of such nuisance. Temporary writ.

SEC. 5. The action when brought shall have precedence over all other actions, excepting criminal proceedings, election contests and hearings on injunctions, and in such action evidence of the general reputation of the place shall be admissible for the purpose of proving the existence of said nuisance. If the complaint is filed by a citizen, it shall not be dismissed by the plaintiff or for want of prosecution except upon a sworn statement made by the complainant and his attorney, setting forth the reasons why the action should be dismissed, and the dismissal ordered by the court. In case of failure to prosecute any such action with reasonable diligence, or at the request of the plaintiff, the court, in its discretion, may substitute any such citizen consenting thereto for such plaintiff. If the action is brought by a citizen and the court finds there was no reasonable ground or cause for said action, the costs shall be taxed against such citizen. Action to have precedence.
Failure to prosecute.

SEC. 6. Any violation or disobedience of either any injunction or order expressly provided for by this act shall be punished as a contempt of court by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Violation of injunction.

SEC. 7. If the existence of the nuisance be established in an action as provided herein, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the judgment in the case, which order shall direct the removal from the building or place of all fixtures, musical instruments and movable property used in conducting, maintaining, aiding or abetting the nuisance, and shall direct the sale thereof in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under execution, and the effectual closing of the building or place against its use for any purpose, and so keeping it closed for a period of one year, unless sooner released, as hereinafter provided. While such order remains in effect as to closing, such building or place shall be and remain in the custody of the court. For removing and selling the movable property, the officer shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fees as he would for levying upon and selling like property on execution, and for closing Order of abatement.

the premises and keeping them closed, a reasonable sum shall be allowed by the court.

Proceeds of sale.

SEC. 8. The proceeds of the sale of the property, as provided in the preceding section, shall be applied as follows:

1st. To the fees and costs of such removal and sale;

2nd. To the allowances and costs of so closing and keeping closed such building or place;

3rd. To the payment of plaintiff's costs in such action;

4th. The balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the property so sold.

Building may be sold.

If the proceeds of such sale do not fully discharge all such costs, fees and allowances, the said building and place shall then also be sold under execution issued upon the order of the court or judge and the proceeds of such sale applied in like manner.

Owner, not guilty of contempt, may pay costs.

SEC. 9. If the owner of the building or place has not been guilty of any contempt of court in the proceedings, and appears and pays all costs, fees and allowances which are a lien on the building or place and files a bond in the full value of the property, to be ascertained by the court, with sureties, to be approved by the court or judge, conditioned that he will immediately abate any such nuisance that may exist at such building or place and prevent the same from being established or kept thereat within a period of one year thereafter, the court, or judge thereof, may, if satisfied of his good faith, order the premises closed under the order of abatement, to be delivered to said owner, and said order of abatement canceled so far as the same may relate to said property. The release of the property under the provisions of this section shall not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty or liability to which it may be subject by law.

Fine lien on building.

SEC. 10. Whenever the owner of a building or place upon which the act or acts constituting the contempt shall have been committed, or of any interest therein has been guilty of a contempt of court and fined therefor in any proceedings under this act, such fine shall be a lien upon such building and place to the extent of the interest of such person therein enforceable and collectible by execution issued by the order of the court.

Laws
repealed.

SEC. 11. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as repealing any law for the suppression of lewdness, assignation or prostitution.

CHAPTER 18.

An act to increase the number of judges of the superior court of the county of Kern, and to provide for the appointment of an additional judge.

[Approved April 14, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The number of judges of the superior court of the county of Kern, is hereby increased from two to three.

SEC. 2. Within thirty days after the taking effect of this act, the governor shall appoint one additional judge of the superior court of the county of Kern, State of California, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, A. D. nineteen hundred and fifteen. At the general election to be held in November, 1914, a judge of the superior court of said county shall be elected in said county, who shall be the successor of the judge appointed hereunder, to hold office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law.

Additional judge for county.

SEC. 3. The salary of said additional judge shall be the same in amount, and shall be paid at the same time, and in the same manner, as the salary of the other judges of the superior court of said county now authorized by law.

CHAPTER 19.

An act to provide for the registration of bonds issued by the State of California, or any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or other public corporation.

[Approved April 14, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the owner of any coupon bond, or of any bond payable to bearer, already issued or hereafter issued by the State of California, or any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or other public corporation, now or hereafter existing in this state, shall present any such bond to the treasurer or other officer of such corporation, who by law performs the duties of treasurer, with a request for the conversion of such bond into a registered bond, such treasurer, or such other officer, shall cut off and cancel the coupons of any such coupon bond so presented, and shall stamp, print, or write upon such coupon bond, or such other bond payable to bearer, so presented, either upon the back or upon the face thereof, as may be convenient, a statement to the effect that the said bond is registered in the name of the owner, and that thereafter the interest and principal of said bond are payable to the registered owner. Thereafter, and from time to time any such bond may be transferred by such registered owner in person, or by attorney duly authorized on presentation of such bond to such treasurer, or such other officer, and the bond be again registered as before, a similar statement being stamped, printed or written upon any such bond may be in substantially the following form:

(Date, giving month, year, and day.)

Statement. This bond is registered pursuant to the statute in such cases made and provided in the name of ----- (here insert name of owner) and the interest and principal thereof are hereafter payable to such owner.

Treasurer (or such other officer.)

After any bond shall have been registered as aforesaid, the principal and interest of such bond shall be payable to the registered owner. Such treasurer, or such other officer, shall keep in his office a book or books which shall at all times show what bonds are registered and in whose names respectively.

Act applicable to all issues.

SEC. 2. Whenever under any statute of this state or any charter of any municipal corporation in this state, any bonds are issued, whether the proceedings for the issuance of such bonds have been had in whole or in part prior to the enactment of this statute, or whether the same have been had in whole or in part after the enactment of this statute, such bonds may be issued either in the form of coupon bonds, or in the form of registered bonds, or some in the form of coupon bonds, and some in the form of registered bonds, as has been or hereafter may be provided in the proceedings for the issuance of such bonds and notwithstanding any language or provision to the contrary contained in any such statute or charter authorizing the issuance of the bonds, or in any other law of the state. The provisions of section one of this act shall apply to coupon bonds so issued, as well as to other coupon bonds, or other bonds payable to bearer.

registering.

SEC. 3. The state treasurer or other treasurer or official performing the duties of treasurer shall be entitled for so registering a bond or bonds to charge and collect a fee of fifty cents for every $1,000.00 of the par value thereof for the purposes of providing the additional supplies and clerical help necessary in complying with this act.

CHAPTER 20.

An act increasing the number of judges of the superior court of the county of San Diego, State of California, and for the appointment of such additional judge.

[Approved April 14, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The number of judges of the superior court of the county of San Diego, State of California, are hereby increased from three to four.

SEC. 2. Within sixty days after this act takes effect, the governor shall appoint one additional judge of the superior court of the county of San Diego, State of California, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, 1915. At the next general election one judge of such superior court of said county shall be elected, who shall succeed the judge appointed under this act, and the person so elected shall hold office for the term prescribed by law.

SEC. 3. The salary of said additional judge shall be five thousand dollars per annum, and shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the salaries of the other judges of the superior court.

CHAPTER 21.

An act to organize and declare valid all proceedings in the San Ysidro irrigation district.

[Approved April 14, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. San Ysidro irrigation district as formed by the board of supervisors of San Diego county, State of California, and as now existing, is hereby organized and declared valid, and all proceedings in organization or formation are hereby approved and declared valid.

SEC. 2. The boundaries of said district are hereby declared to be as follows: Beginning at a point 1330.14 feet west of the quarter corner to section one, township 19 south, range 2 west and section 6, township 19 south, range 1 west, San Bernardino meridian, thence north along the subdivision line of said section 1, 2640 feet more or less to the line between townships 18 and 19 south, range 2 west; thence north along the subdivision line of section 36, township 18 south, range 2 west, 600 feet to a point; thence west 600 feet to a point; thence north 45 degrees, west 933.5 feet, more or less to the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of the

CHAPTER 22.

An act to authorize the superintendents of the Whittier State School and the Preston School of Industry to relinquish inmates from the control of either of said schools and to receive such inmates into the other of said schools and to provide for the expense of transferring such inmates and for the maintenance of the inmates so transferred.

[Approved April 14, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Transfer of inmates of state schools authorized.

SECTION 1. The superintendent of the Whittier State School is hereby empowered to relinquish from his control, and the superintendent of the Preston School of Industry is hereby empowered to receive and transfer to the Preston School of Industry such number of boys committed to and confined in the Whittier State School as by mutual agreement said superintendents shall deem expedient and necessary to properly and safely house during the rebuilding of said Whittier State School. The expenses of transfer both ways shall be met out of the funds of the Whittier State School. The estimated cost of maintaining the boys so transferred to the Preston School of Industry while they remain in said school shall also be paid for out of the funds of the Whittier State School upon the approval of the board of control. A number of boys equal to the number of boys so transferred and remaining in the Preston School of Industry shall be transferred to said Whittier School as the needs and conveniences of said school will permit, upon mutual agreement between said superintendents and application by the superintendent of said Whittier State School, and the superintendent of the Preston School of Industry is hereby empowered to relinquish from his control and the superintendent of the Whittier State School is hereby empowered to receive and transfer to the Whittier State School such boys as may be so applied for, and the number of boys so transferred shall be deducted from the number of boys for whose maintenance the Whittier State School shall pay as provided for in this act.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section one of article four of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting the necessity for such urgency: The state department of engineering and experts engaged independently to inspect the main building of the Whittier State School have declared said building to be and the same is unsafe and unfit for human occupancy. Said building has been essential not alone to the proper conduct of the educational and other work of said institution, but also to provide living and sleeping quarters for the officers of said school and about two hundred of the boys committed thereto. The unsafe and unfit condition of such building constitutes a menace to the life and physical well-being of said officers and boys, and it is therefore deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety that such persons shall be at once removed from such building and that proper provision therefor should be made by law.

An act to amend section seventeen hundred twenty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to the disposition of life estates or homesteads on owner's death in certain cases.

[Approved April 15, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1723 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1723. If any person has died or shall hereafter die who at the time of his death was the owner of a life estate which terminates by reason of the death of such person, or if such person at the time of his death was one of the spouses owning lands as a homestead, which land by reason of the death of such person, vest in the surviving spouse; any person interested in the property, or in the title thereto, in which such estates or interests were held, may file in the superior court of the county in which the property is situated, his verified petition setting forth such facts, and thereupon and after such notice by publication or otherwise, as the court may order, the court shall hear such petition and the evidence offered in support thereof, and if upon such hearing it shall appear that such life estate of such deceased person absolutely terminated by reason of his death, or such homestead vested in the survivor of such marriage, the court shall make a decree to that effect, and thereupon a certified copy of such decree may be recorded in the office of the county recorder, and thereafter shall have the same effect as a final decree of distribution so recorded.

CHAPTER 24.

An act to amend section fifteen hundred eighty-four of the Political Code relating to the government of school districts by municipal charter.

[Approved April 15, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section fifteen hundred eighty-four of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Government of school districts partly within city.

Section 1584. A school district, a portion of which is embraced within the limits of an incorporated city or town governed by a charter proposed and adopted as provided by section 8 of article XI of the constitution of the State of California, may be subject to, controlled and governed by the provisions of such charter relating to and providing for the management of public schools in the manner provided in this section. The board of trustees of such school district may provide for the holding of an election at the time, and in the form and manner for holding elections for school trustees, at which election shall be submitted the question of the district being governed by the provisions of the charter of such city or town. The ballots used at such election shall contain the words "Shall the (name of district) be governed by the charter of the city (or town) of _____?" and the words "Yes" and "No" so placed that the voters may clearly indicate their choice in this connection. The board having charge of such election shall count the ballots cast on such proposition and make return thereof to the board of trustees of such school district. If it shall appear from such returns that a majority of the votes cast on such proposition were in favor thereof, then said board of trustees shall certify said result to the board of education provided for in the charter of such city or town, and from and after the date of such certificate said school district shall be governed by the provisions of such charter relating to the establishment, management and control of the public schools; provided, however, that in any case where any such school district or portion of school district, is embraced within the corporate limits of a city or town having such charter as is herein referred to, and the electors of such school district have participated in and voted at any school election held subsequent to the adoption of and under the provisions of such charter, then the electors of such school district shall be deemed to have submitted to be governed in all matters relating to the management of public schools within such school district or high school district as fully and to all intents and purposes as though the electors of such school district or high school district had by their votes elected to be governed by the provisions of such charter. All qualified electors residing in such school district, whether residing within or without the boundaries of such incorporated city or town, shall be entitled to vote for members of the board of education at any election held for that purpose.

CHAPTER 25.

An act to amend sections three and five of an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof," which became a law February 25, 1901.

[Approved April 15, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of an act entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof," which became a law February 25, 1901, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. Such ordinance shall be published once a day for at least seven days in some newspaper published at least six days a week in such municipality, or once a week for two weeks in some newspaper published less than six days a week in such municipality, and one insertion each week for two succeeding weeks shall be a sufficient publication in such newspaper published less than six days per week. In municipalities where no such newspaper is published, such ordinance shall be posted in three public places therein for two succeeding weeks. No other notice of such election need be given. It shall require the votes of two thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the issuance of the bonds herein provided; provided, however, should the proposition so submitted at such election fail to receive the requisite number of votes of the qualified voters, voting at such election to incur the indebtedness for the purpose specified, the legislative body of such municipality shall have no power or authority within six months after such election to call or order another election for incurring any indebtedness for improvements, substantially the same as voted upon at such prior election, unless a petition signed by fifteen per centum of the qualified electors of such municipality computed upon the total number of votes cast therein for all candidates for governor at the last preceding election at which a governor was elected be filed with the legislative body of such municipality, requesting that such proposition, or a proposition substantially the same, be submitted at an election to be called for the submission of such proposition and to be held in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Resubmission of question.

SEC. 2. Section five of the aforesaid act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Payment of bonds.

Section 5. All municipal bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable substantially in the following manner: A part to be determined by the legislative body of the municipality, which shall be not less than one fortieth part of the whole amount of such indebtedness, shall be paid each and every year on a day and date, and at a place or places to be fixed by the legislative body of the municipality issuing the bonds and designated in such bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid at such date; provided, however, that, in case of bonds issued for the acquisition, construction or completion of water works or light or power works or plants, or any other authorized revenue-producing public works, plant, utility or property, the legislative body of the municipality may, in its discretion, determine and fix a date for the earliest maturity of the principal of such bonds not more than ten years from the date of the issue of such bonds, but, in this event, the whole amount of such indebtedness must be made payable in equal annual parts in not to exceed forty years from the time of contracting the same. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the legislative body of the municipality may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars, and shall be payable on the day and at the place or places fixed in such bonds, and with interest at the rate specified in the bonds, which rate shall not be in excess of six per cent per annum, and shall be payable semi-annually, and said bonds shall be signed by the executive of the municipality, or by such other officer thereof as the council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of the municipality shall, by resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of all its members, authorize and designate for that purpose; and also signed by the treasurer thereof, and shall be countersigned by the clerk. The coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer. In case any of such officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, such signa-

An act to amend section 852 of the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883.

[Approved April 16, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 852 of the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, is hereby amended to read as follows:

852. The members of the board of trustees and the clerk and treasurer, shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city or town at a general municipal election to be held therein on the second Monday in April in each even-numbered year. The clerk and treasurer shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. Members of the board of trustees shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and in event of resigning shall not vote on the selection and appointment of their successors. The respective terms of the members of the first board of trustees elected under the provisions of this act shall be determined as follows: the two persons elected by the highest number of votes shall hold office for four years; and the three persons elected by the lowest number of votes shall hold office for two years. In the event that two or more persons shall be elected by the same number of votes, the term of each shall be fixed by lot. The board of trustees may, in their discretion, appoint an attorney, a poundmaster, a superintendent of streets, a civil engineer, a marshal and such police and other subordinate officers as in their judgment may be deemed necessary, and fix their compensation, which said officers shall hold office during the pleasure of said board.

An act authorizing the appointment of two delegates from California as members of a commission which is to investigate European systems of rural credits and report thereon, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved April 18, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

Rural credits.

WHEREAS, Under the auspices of the southern commercial congress a commission composed of two delegates from each state is to be sent to Europe, during 1913, to study systems of rural credit and co-operative agricultural societies, and

WHEREAS, Said commission is to embody the result of its investigations in a report with a view of establishing in this country a system of agricultural finance and rural credits, and

WHEREAS, The congress of the United States has duly approved the project of sending said commission to Europe, and

WHEREAS, It is eminently fitting that delegates should be sent from California to take part in the work of the commission with a view to aiding the farmers of our state, therefore,

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Delegates.

SECTION 1. The governor is authorized to appoint two delegates from California who shall take part in the commission which, under the auspices of the southern commercial congress, is to visit, during 1913, the various countries of Europe and there investigate the different systems of co-operative agricultural societies and rural credits and to report thereon with a view to establishing in this country a sound system of rural credits and agricultural finance.

Appropriation.

SEC. 2. The sum of three thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to pay the expenses, traveling and otherwise, of said delegates while serving as members of the said commission, and the state controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant for the same in favor of the commission hereunder appointed and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

CHAPTER 35.

An act appropriating money to pay the expense of maintaining an exhibit of the products of the State of California at the universal and international exposition, to be held in the city of Ghent, in the kingdom of Belgium, in the year nineteen hundred thirteen, and providing for a commissioner thereof.

[Approved April 18, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of twelve thousand eight hundred and forty-eight dollars and five cents is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of collecting, transporting and maintaining an exhibit of the products of the State of California at the universal and international exposition to be held in the city of Ghent, in the kingdom of Belgium, in the year nineteen hundred thirteen. The governor of California is hereby constituted a commissioner, to be known as the Ghent international exposition commissioner, and he shall have exclusive charge and control of the appropriation herein made, with power to appoint all necessary persons for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act. The controller is directed to draw his warrant on the general fund from time to time in such amounts and in favor of such person or persons as the governor, the commissioner hereinbefore referred to, shall direct, and the treasurer shall pay the same.

Appropriation:
exhibit at Ghent.

SEC. 2. The exhibit, or such portions of the exhibit, made at said Italian international exposition in the city of Turin in the year nineteen hundred eleven, as may be proper for exhibition at the said universal and international exposition to be held at Ghent in the year nineteen hundred thirteen shall be placed in proper condition for exhibition and transported to the city of Ghent for display at the opening of said universal and international exposition at the time of its opening on the twenty-seventh day of April, nineteen hundred thirteen, and the same shall be continuously displayed thereat until the close of said exposition in the month of November, nineteen hundred thirteen, and the person or persons in charge of said exhibit at the present time shall deliver the same over to such person or persons as the governor of the State of California shall direct to take charge of said exhibit at said universal and international exposition at Ghent.

Exhibit.

SEC. 3. This act is exempt from the provisions of section six hundred seventy-two of the Political Code of the State of California.

SEC. 4. This act inasmuch as it makes an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 39.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the dissolution of irrigation districts, the ascertainment and discharge of their indebtedness and the distribution of their property" approved February 10, 1903, and amended March 3, 1909, by adding a new section thereto to be numbered section two a relating to the dissolution of such districts where they have no assets and have no indebtedness not barred by the statute of limitations and have ceased to be going concerns.

[Approved April 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to provide for the dissolution of irrigation districts, the ascertainment and discharge of their indebtedness and the distribution of their property" approved February 10, 1903, and amended March 3, 1909, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as section two a to read as follows:

Section 2a. In case an irrigation district has no indebtedness not barred by the statute of limitations and no assets and has ceased to be a going concern and has no irrigation system by which it conveys water for irrigation or domestic purposes to any of the residents of such district, the petition for dissolution mentioned in section two of said act shall contain statements showing such facts and also that it is the desire of the signers of such petition to have said district dissolved, and such petition need not contain any other statement or allegation, and such petition need only be signed by two thirds of the qualified electors residing in such district, and by the holders of title or evidence of title representing at least fifty per cent of the acreage within said district and not less than fifty per cent in value of all lands lying within the exterior boundaries of said district, the value of said lands to be determined by the last equalized assessment roll of said district, and such petition so signed and containing such statements and allegations shall be sufficient. In such case the plan of dissolution referred to in section three of said act may be entirely omitted and it shall not be necessary for the petitioners or persons signing such petition, or for the board of directors of such district to propose any plan for the dissolution of such district or any plan for the liquidation of its indebtedness or the distribution of its assets; provided, that the petition shall further recite the fact that an application will be made to the superior court of the State of California in and for the county in which the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, for a decree of dissolution of said district under the provisions of said act. And in the case mentioned in this section, it shall not be necessary to obtain the assent of any holder of any indebtedness or evidence of indebtedness of said district barred by any statute of limitations of this state before the election provided for in said section three, shall be called. Upon the filing of said petition with the board of directors of said district said board shall call a special election at which shall be submitted to the electors of such district the question whether or not said district shall be dissolved. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks before such election. Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, and the fact that it is proposed to dissolve the district. Said election must be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with provisions of law governing the election of officers in irrigation districts. At such election the ballot shall contain the words "Dissolution of the district—Yes" or "Dissolution of the district—No," or words equivalent thereto. It shall not be necessary in winding up the affairs of any district organized under the laws of this state to pay all or any portion of any debt or obligation of such district, for the enforcement of which debt or obligation a suit is barred by the laws of this state, nor to pay any bond, coupon, warrant or other indebtedness, claim or demand which shall be barred by the laws of this state prior to the filing of the petition for dissolution with the board of directors of such district.

CHAPTER 40.

An act making an appropriation for the contingent expenses of the department of engineering.

[Approved April 21, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the contingent expenses of the department of engineering. Appropriation: contingent expenses of department of engineering.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby directed to draw his warrants in favor of the department of engineering, in such sums and at such times as said department may present claims therefor and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV, of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 41.

An act to amend sections 1721, 1738, 1739 and 1749 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to bonds for county high schools.

[Approved April 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1721 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1721. A high school district composed of two or more high school districts shall be known as a union high school district, and such designation shall be part of its name. If such school districts or portions thereof, are in more than one county, such union high school district shall be known as a joint union high school district and such designation shall be part of its name. Whenever the term high school district is used in this article or in article 15 of this chapter, it shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed to include "Union high school districts," joint union high school districts and county high school districts. Any city school district which has been for a period of one year preceding the taking of effect of this section, established and maintained a high school within such district, shall be deemed to be and constitute a city high school district. Union high school districts.

SEC. 2. Section 1738 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1738. Whenever a petition, signed by fifty or more qualified electors and taxpayers of any county, is presented to Petition for county high school district.

the board of supervisors thereof, asking for the establishment of a county high school district in such county, the board of supervisors must submit the question of establishing a county high school district in said county to the qualified electors thereof, at the next general election held therein, or at a special election to be called by the board for that purpose. If a special election is called, notice thereof must be given by publication in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county, for at least two weeks before the election, or if there is no such newspaper, by posting the same conspicuously in five public places in the county, at least two weeks before the election. The ballots used at such election shall contain the words "County high school district—Yes," and "County high school district—No," and voters shall express their choice by marking a cross with pencil, ink or rubber stamp after the answer they desire to give. Said special election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by this code for conducting special elections. The electors of any high school district existing in such county at the time of the submission of said proposition, shall be excluded from voting upon said proposition, unless, in addition to the petition above mentioned, there was also presented to said board of supervisors the petition of two thirds of the qualified electors residing in such high school district, or in case of a union high school district, the petition of two thirds of the qualified electors residing in each school district composing the union high school district; in which case the electors of the high school district or districts from which such petitions are presented, shall also be entitled to vote upon said proposition. If a majority of all votes cast upon the question of establishing a county high school district are in the affirmative, the board of supervisors shall make an order declaring the county high school district established and shall also declare the high school district or districts which participated in such election, upon the petitions hereinbefore required, to be lapsed, and the property of such lapsed high school district shall be held or sold by the board of supervisors for the benefit of the county high school district. The order of the board in regard to such lapsed districts shall be entered by the county clerk in his record of high school districts.

Sec. 3. Section 1739 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Trustees of county high school
districts.

Section 1739. When a county high school district is established in any county, the county board of education shall be trustees of such county high school district and have control thereof, and shall have the same power and duties in regard thereto, as high school boards of other high school districts. All property required by them for the use of the high school district shall be taken in the name of the county and shall be disposed of only upon order of the board of supervisors made upon recommendation of the county board of education.

Sec. 4. Section 1749 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1749. In counties where a county high school district has been established under the provisions of this article, the board of trustees thereof may, when in their judgment it is advisable, and must, upon a petition of a majority of the qualified electors of said district, call an election and submit to the electors of said district the question whether the bonds of such district shall be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for purchasing high school lots, for building or purchasing one or more high school buildings, or making alterations or additions to high school buildings, for repairing, restoring or rebuilding any high school building damaged, injured or destroyed by fire or other public calamity, for insuring high school buildings, for supplying high school buildings with furniture and necessary apparatus, for improving the grounds, or for any or all of said purposes. The conduct of said election and the issue, sale and payment of said bonds and the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of principal and interest thereon, shall be in the manner prescribed for the issuance of bonds of other high school districts. In case the qualified electors of any county deem it expedient to establish and maintain more than one county high school, then such additional school or schools may be established and maintained in the manner prescribed in this article for establishing and maintaining a county high school.

CHAPTER 42.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act providing for the cancellation of all liens for taxes on any sixteenth or thirty-sixth section, or legal subdivision thereof, which sixteenth or thirty-sixth section, or legal subdivision thereof, has been or may hereafter be used as bases for lieu selections, in accordance with the provisions of section 3406 of the Political Code," approved May 1, 1911, by amending section one thereof relating to the cancellation of liens for taxes on sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections used as bases for lieu land selections, or to be used in the adjustment and settlement of any controversy regarding the school land grant made by congress to the State of California.

[Approved April 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of an act entitled "An act providing for the cancellation of all liens for taxes on any sixteenth or thirty-sixth section, or legal subdivision thereof, which sixteenth or thirty-sixth section, or legal subdivision thereof, has been or may hereafter be used as bases for lieu selections, in accordance with the provisions of section 3406 of the Political Code," approved May 1, 1911, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Cancellation of liens for taxes on 16th and 36th sections.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of each county in the state, upon petition of the surveyor general of the State of California, at the first meeting of the board following the receipt of said petition, to order the cancellation of all liens for taxes on any sixteenth or thirty-sixth section, or legal subdivision thereof, which sixteenth or thirty-sixth section, or legal subdivision thereof, has been, subsequent to March 24, 1909, or may hereafter be, used as bases for lien selections, or which are to be used as bases for selections or conveyed to the federal government in accordance with, or pursuant to, the provisions of an act entitled "An act to authorize the adjustment and settlement of a controversy existing between the United States and the State of California, in relation to the grants made by congress to the State of California for the benefit of the public schools, and internal improvements, authorizing the conveyance of land by officers of the state for the purpose of making such adjustment and settlement, and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions hereof," approved December 24, 1911. A certificate from the surveyor general setting forth the fact that any sixteenth or thirty-sixth section is necessary to be used as bases for lien selections, or is intended to be conveyed to the federal government in pursuance of the provisions of the act last hereinbefore referred to, shall be authority for the action of the board of supervisors in ordering the cancellation of liens for taxes on such lands.

CHAPTER 43.

An act to require county recorders to furnish the surveyor general of the State of California with certificates of the status of sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections and providing the fee therefor.

[Approved April 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Certificate of status of 16th and 36th sections.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the county recorder of each county in the State of California, upon the request of the surveyor general of the State of California, to issue his certificate certifying to the status of any sixteenth or thirty-sixth section, or legal subdivision thereof, which are to be used as bases for selections or conveyed to the federal government in accordance with, or pursuant to, the provisions of an act entitled "An act to authorize the adjustment and settlement of a controversy existing between the United States and the State of California, in relation to the grants made by congress to the State of California for the benefit of the public schools, and internal improvements, authorizing the conveyance of land by officers of the state for the purpose of making such adjustment and settlement, and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions hereof," approved December 24, 1911.

SEC. 2. The county recorder shall transmit said county recorder's certificate to the surveyor general of the State of California upon the receipt of the fee of one dollar for the issuance of said certificate.

CHAPTER 44.

An act to amend section 3491 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the sale of school lands.

[Approved April 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3494 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

3494. The unsold portion of the five hundred thousand acres granted to the state for school purposes, the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections of school land belonging to the state, which are not situated within the exterior boundaries of a military, Indian or forest reservation created by authority of the United States, or of a national forest, national park or national monument, or within the exterior boundaries of lands withdrawn from public entry for forest purposes, and lands selected in lieu thereof on or before March 24, 1909, where the selection was duly forwarded to the local United States land office and given a register and receiver's number and forwarded to the general land office at Washington, D. C., and which became and now is a part of the records of such general land office at Washington, D. C., must be sold on and after September 1, 1915, but not before, (and no application shall be filed for said lands until on or after said September 1, 1915, except for lands for which an application may be on file, as hereinafter provided), at the rate of two dollars and fifty cents per acre, in gold coin, payable, twenty per cent of the principal within fifty days from the date of the certificate of location issued to the purchaser; the balance, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, in advance, is due and payable within one year after the passage of any act by the legislature requiring such payment, or before, if desired by the purchaser; provided, however, that any applicant whose application was filed on or before March 8, 1911, and is now on file for any of the lands above described, to wit, the unsold portion of the five hundred thousand acres granted to the state for school purposes, the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections of school land belonging to the state which are not situated within the exterior boundaries of a military, Indian or forest reservation created by authority of the United States, or of a national forest, national park or national monument, or within the exterior boundaries of lands withdrawn from public entry for forest purposes, and lands selected in lieu thereof on or before March 24, 1909, where the selection was duly forwarded to the local United States land office and given a register and receiver's number and forwarded to the general land office at Washington, D. C., and which became and now is a part of the records of such general land office at Washington, D. C., may complete the purchase of such lands at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) per acre, in gold coin, payable, twenty per cent of the principal within fifty days from the date of the certificate of location, the balance, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, in advance, is due and payable within one year after the passage of any act of the legislature requiring such payment, or before if desired by the purchaser; and provided, further, that any applicant whose application was filed on or subsequent to March 9, 1911, for any of the lands above authorized to be sold may complete the purchase of such lands at the rate of two dollars and fifty cents per acre; provided, said application for the lands in this section authorized to be sold be good and valid and said applicant shall have complied in all respects with the laws in relation to the sale of such lands. The sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections of school land which are situated within the exterior boundaries of a military, Indian or forest reservation created by authority of the United States, or of a national forest, national park or national monument, or within the exterior boundaries of lands withdrawn from public entry for forest purposes, are withdrawn from sale. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as a recognition that the said sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections last above referred to have not heretofore been withdrawn from sale. Lieu lands applied for or selected subsequent to March 24, 1909, shall be sold and disposed of as provided in article I of chapter I of title VIII of part III of this code; provided further, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed or held to prevent the contesting of any application, now on file which is subject to contest and any qualified person may at any time in the manner and within the time provided by law for contesting applications contest the application of any applicant now on file and for such purpose may at any time after the approval hereof file his application for any of the lands authorized to be sold by this section and for which an application is now pending, which lands shall be sold to such contesting applicant at the rate of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per acre and under the terms and conditions in this section provided.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act providing for the conveyance by quitclaim deed, from the State of California to the government of the United States, of certain lands erroneously conveyed or patented to said state by said government," approved May 1, 1911.

[Approved April 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of an act entitled "An act providing for the conveyance by quitclaim deed, from the State of California to the government of the United States, of certain lands erroneously conveyed or patented to said state by said government," approved May 1, 1911, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. In all cases where it appears to the register of the state land office that the government of the United States has, through error or misdescription, conveyed to the State of California any lands, the said register of the state land office shall certify said facts to the governor, and it shall be the duty of the governor of this state to cause to be executed and delivered to the government of the United States, a conveyance by quitclaim deed, of all such land so erroneously conveyed or patented. Such deed shall be executed on behalf of the State of California by the hands of the governor and of the secretary of state, and shall be attested by the great seal of state, and recorded in the office of the register of the state land office.

CHAPTER 46.

An act to amend section 3398 of the Political Code of the State of California relating to the surveyor general being the general agent of the state for the location in the United States land offices of lieu and indemnity land; relating also to locations in United States land offices of lands desired to be selected in lieu of grants made to the state, and said section as hereby amended also providing that the surveyor general shall not perfect or amend selections made on or before March 21, 1909, and also providing that no further action thereon shall be taken and also relating to amending or correcting selections, re-selections, amended selections, designations and re-designations.

[Approved April 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3398 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

3398. The surveyor general is the general agent of the state for the location in the United States land offices of the lands desired to be selected and located in lieu of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections granted to the state for the use of the public schools, and in lieu of any and all losses sustained by the state to its school grant, whenever he is authorized by law to make such location or locations, or whenever for any reason he is authorized to select lands in lieu of grants made to the state; but no such selection or re-selection, designation or re-designation or amended selection shall hereafter in any manner be made, except upon the surrender to the surveyor general, as in this article provided, of a certificate of indemnity or scrip. The surveyor general shall not perfect or amend or correct any selection, re-selection, amended selection, designation or re-designation made on or before March 24, 1909, or take any action whatever in relation thereto or thereon, unless the request therefor is accompanied by certificates of indemnity or scrip equal in acreage to the selected lands or the portion of such selection desired to be corrected, or amended or designated or re-designated, and, also, unless the said selection, re-selection, amended selection, designation or re-designation was duly received by the register or receiver of the local United States land office, and given a register and receiver's number and duly forwarded to the general land office at Washington, D. C., and became and now is a part of the records of such general land office at Washington, D. C. No selection of any land for which a certificate of purchase is outstanding shall be made by the surveyor general until the certificate of purchase issued therefor shall have been surrendered. Nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to mean that prior to the passage hereof the surveyor general was authorized to perfect, or amend or correct any selection, re-selection, amended selection, designation or re-designation, except upon the surrender to the surveyor general, of a certificate of indemnity or scrip.

CHAPTER 47.

An act to amend section 67 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to the number of superior court judges and providing for the appointment of four additional superior court judges in and for the city and county of San Francisco, and providing for their compensation.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 67 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, is hereby amended to read as follows:

67. In the city and county of San Francisco, there shall be sixteen judges of the superior court, any one or more of whom may hold court; and there may be as many sessions of said court at the same time, as there are judges thereof. The said judges shall choose from their own number, a presiding judge, who may at any time be removed as presiding judge, and another chosen in his place by a vote of any nine of them. The presiding judge shall distribute the business of the court among the judges thereof, and prescribe the order of business, and perform such other duties as the judges of said court may by rule provide. The judgments, orders and proceedings of any session of the superior court, held by any one or more of the judges of said court, shall be equally as effective as if all of said judges of said court presided at such session.

Within ninety days after this act becomes a law, the governor shall appoint four judges of the superior court in the city and county of San Francisco, in addition to the twelve superior court judges already provided for by law, in and for said city and county of San Francisco, State of California, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, 1915. At the next general election to be held in November, 1914, four additional judges of the superior court shall be elected in the city and county of San Francisco, who shall be successors of the judges appointed hereunder for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law. The salaries of the said additional judges shall be the same in amount and be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the salaries of the other judges of the superior court in and for the city and county of San Francisco, and now authorized by law.

An act to regulate certain scaffolding or staging for the protection of workmen; requiring that in addition to the duties imposed by any law upon employers using or directing or permitting the use of scaffolding or staging swung or suspended from an overhead support such employers shall be subject to the provisions of this act; fixing penalties for a violation hereof to be the same as provided in section 402c of the Penal Code; and providing for the enforcement of this act by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All scaffolding or staging, swung or suspended from an overhead support which is more than twenty feet from the ground or floor, shall have a safety rail of wood or other equally rigid material of sufficient strength to bear any sudden strain there against equal to four times the weight of an ordinary man, such rail to be properly secured and braced SEC. 2. In addition to the duties imposed upon an employer by any law regulating or relating to scaffolding or staging, it shall be the duty of such employer who uses or permits the use of scaffolding or staging, as defined in section one of this act, in connection with construction, alteration, repairing, painting, cleaning or the doing of any other kind of work upon any building structure, or other thing or place of work, to furnish safety lines to tie all hooks and hangers back on the roof of such building, structure or other thing or place of work, and to provide safety lines hanging from the roof, securely tied thereto, and one such line to be provided between each pair of hangers or falls and near the ends of all such scaffolding or staging. When planks are used for the platforms or floors of such scaffolding or staging, they shall be not less than fourteen inches in width, and not less than one and one half inches in thickness, and shall be of wood free from knots or fractures impairing the strength of such planks. Not more than two men shall be allowed or placed to work between two hangers or falls upon such scaffolding or staging.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. Any violation of the provisions of this act shall be punishable as provided in section four hundred and two c of the Penal Code, and shall be in addition to the penalties provided therein for the violation of any of the provisions of the said section.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics to enforce the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 49.

An act to amend section one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the payment of tuition of non-resident pupils attending high schools in the several high schools or in an adjoining county.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1758. For the purpose of defraying the cost of educating high school pupils residing in any county and not in any high school district, a special tax shall be annually levied by the board of supervisors of each county in which there is no county high school upon all property in the county not situated in any high school district, in the manner hereinafter provided. Every superintendent of schools to whom any report is made under section seventeen hundred forty-three, shall verify each such report as to the new pupils therein mentioned as attending high school and residing in his county but not in any high school district, and shall compile a report showing the total number of such high school pupils residing in his county outside of any high school district, the net cost of educating each of such pupils, the total net cost for all of such pupils, and the total net cost to each high school district for all of such pupils attending therein; to be determined as hereinafter provided. The net cost in any year of educating a new pupil attending a high school and not residing in any high school district shall be the excess, if any, of the total cost, for such year, of educating each high school pupil of the district maintaining such high school over the amount per pupil paid by the state to such high school district for that year. If it shall appear to a superintendent of schools by the reports of the principals in the several high schools of his county that pupils living in an adjoining county are attending high school in his county, then said superintendent of schools shall compile a report showing the names of said pupils, the county from which they came and the net cost of educating each and the total cost of educating all of such pupils. Said report shall be forwarded by registered mail to the superintendent of schools of the county from which such pupils attend, to be by said superintendent of schools to whom such report is sent filed with the board of supervisors of such county on or before September first of each year. The cost of educating each high school pupil of any high school district shall be determined by dividing the total amount expended by the high school district for maintaining school during any school year, by the average daily attendance of pupils enrolled in the high schools of the district during the same school year. The amount paid per pupil by the state to any high school district in any one year shall be determined by dividing the high school district's income from the state high school fund for that year, by the average daily attendance of pupils enrolled in the high schools of the district for that year.

CHAPTER 50.

An act to amend section one hundred and ninety-seven of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the custody, services, and earnings of legitimate unmarried minor children.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 197 of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Custody of minors.

197. The father and mother of a legitimate unmarried minor child are equally entitled to its custody, services and earnings. If either the father or mother be dead or unable or refuse to take the custody or has abandoned his or her family, the other is entitled to its custody, services and earnings.

CHAPTER 51.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the protection and preservation of shade and ornamental trees growing and to be grown upon the roads, highways, grounds and property within the State of California; and for the planting, care, protection and preservation of shade and ornamental trees, hedges, lawns, shrubs and flowers growing and to be grown in and upon such roads, highways, grounds and property; and to create county boards of forestry for such purposes; and to prescribe the duties and powers of such boards; and to authorize such boards to appoint county foresters; and to prescribe the duties and fix the compensation of county foresters; and to empower such boards to enforce all laws and adopt and enforce any and all lawful and reasonable rules for the protection, planting, regulation, preservation, care and control of such shade and ornamental trees, hedges, lawns, shrubs and flowers," approved April 28, 1909.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

County boards of forestry.

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors in each and every county or city and county of the State of California may, in its discretion, appoint a county board of forestry, consisting of five persons, one from each supervisorial district, who shall serve without compensation, and who shall have exclusive charge and control of all shade and ornamental trees, hedges, lawns, shrubs and flowers growing or to be grown upon the public roads, highways, grounds and property within its respective county.

SEC. 2. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county or city and county in this state shall, by resolution or ordinance, elect to avail itself of the provisions of this act, such board shall, within two months thereafter, appoint five suitable and competent persons, one from each supervisorial district of such county or city and county, as a county board of forestry in and for such county, who shall serve as such without compensation; and may also fix the compensation of a county forester, to be appointed as hereinafter provided at a sum not to exceed $150.00 per month.

Appointment of members.

Pay of county
forester.

SEC. 3. The term of office of such county board of forestry shall be four years, provided, however, that the persons first appointed shall so classify themselves by lot that two of their number shall retire from office at the end of two years, two at the end of three years and one at the end of four years. If any vacancy occurs in the office, such vacancy shall be filled, for the unexpired term, by the board of supervisors.

Term of office.

SEC. 4. Within ten days after notice of their appointment, the members of said county board of forestry shall organize by the election of one of their members as chairman and adopt suitable rules for their government.

Organization of board.

SEC. 5. When organized, said county board of forestry, may employ a suitable and competent person as county forester to serve as such during the pleasure of the board and to prescribe the duties of such employee.

Appoint-
forester.

SEC. 6. Such forester, when appointed shall execute a bond to said board, in the sum of $1,000.00, for the faithful performance of his duties. He shall be the secretary of said board and shall perform such other duties as said board shall prescribe. Said forester shall have power and it shall be his duty to enforce the provisions of this act and all lawful orders of said board.

Bond and duties.

SEC. 7. Every county board of forestry appointed under the provisions of this act shall, within its respective county, have power over and jurisdiction to decide upon the variety, kind and character of trees, hedges, shrubs, lawns and flowers that shall be planted upon said roads, highways, grounds and property; and to determine all questions respecting the pruning, cutting and removal of any trees or hedges now growing and to grow thereon and the necessity therefor and the extent of and the manner in which said work shall be done; and, under the authority of the board of supervisors of its respective county, to plant and properly care for such trees, hedges, shrubs, lawns and flowers; and to enforce, carry out and effectuate the provisions of this act; provided, however, that said board, in the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties hereunder, shall not interfere with the jurisdiction of the board of supervisors over the roads, highways, grounds and property in the improvement, care and general control thereof.

Trimming trees, etc.

SEC. 8. It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation (except said board of forestry or its employees) in any county or city and county where a county board of forestry has been created and appointed under the provisions of this act, to trim, prune, cut, deface, destroy or remove any shade or ornamental tree or hedge growing or to grow upon any such road, highway, ground or property or to paint, place, attach to or put upon any such trees, hedges, shrubs, lawns or flowers, any sign, notice, advertisement or advertising device without the consent in writing of said board first obtained, or to plant any tree or hedge, on any such road, highway, ground or property without such written consent; provided, however, that nothing in this act shall give such county board of forestry any jurisdiction over any fruit or nut trees now growing along said roads, highways, grounds or property, except that such trees may not be removed without the consent of the said board of forestry.

Fruit trees excepted.

Penalty.

SEC. 9. Every person who shall violate any of the provisions of section 8 of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 10. All moneys received as penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the county board of forestry fund; which fund is hereby created, and the moneys thereof hereby appropriated for the expenses of said board in the carrying out of the provisions of this act and the policy and purposes herein provided.

SEC. 11. County boards of supervisors, whenever the provisions of this act are availed of, shall appropriate money for the use of said county board of forestry sufficient to pay the compensation of said county forester and for the necessary expenses of said county board of forestry.

SEC. 12. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 52.

An act to amend section 1583 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the apportionment of school funds to joint school districts.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1583 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1583. Whenever a district lies partly in one county and partly in another, the county superintendent must apportion to such district such proportion of the school money to which such district is entitled, as the number of school children in average daily attendance residing in that portion of the district situated in his county bears to the total number of children in average daily attendance in the entire district. The teacher or teachers in such joint school districts shall make a separate report of the attendance from the different counties and shall combine these reports on a principal's report blank and send copies of all such reports to each county superintendent of schools in whose county parts of the district are located. The text-books to be used, and the rules governing the school in such district, shall be those adopted by the board of education of the county in which the schoolhouse in said joint district is located. The trustees of joint districts shall make to the superintendents of each county in which the district is located, the reports which other trustees are required to make. The teacher in such joint district shall hold a certificate in the county in which the schoolhouse is located.

Apportionment of school funds to joint districts.

CHAPTER 53.

An act to amend section 1593 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the date of the election of school trustees.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1593 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1593. First—An election for school trustees must be held in each school district on the first Friday of April of each year, at the district schoolhouse, if there is one, and if there is none, at the place to be designated by the board of trustees.

Election for school trustees.

Second—The number of school trustees for any school district, except where city boards are otherwise authorized by law, shall be three. No person shall be deemed ineligible to the office of trustee on account of sex.

Number.

Third—In new school districts the school trustees shall be elected on the first Friday of April subsequent to the formation of the district, to hold office for one, two and three years, respectively, from the first day of May next succeeding their election.

New districts.

Fourth—When a vacancy occurs from any of the causes specified in section nine hundred and ninety-six of this code, the county superintendent of schools shall appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy until the first day of May next succeeding the appointment, and a trustee shall be elected at the next April election, to hold office for the remainder of the term.

Vacancy.

Annual
election.

Fifth—Except as provided in subdivisions two and three of this section, one trustee shall be elected annually, to hold office for three years from the first day of May next succeeding his election, or until his successor shall be elected, or appointed, and qualified.

CHAPTER 54.

An act to amend section 1551 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the report of the superintendent of schools of each county.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1551 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

County
superintendents' annual report.

1551. Every school superintendent in this state must, on or before the first day of August in each year, report to the superintendent of public instruction, and to the board of supervisors of his county, the average daily attendance in the day and evening elementary schools and of the day and evening high schools as appears by the teachers' reports on file in his office for the school year immediately preceding. It shall be the duty of every county superintendent to inquire and ascertain whether the boundaries of the school districts in his county are definitely and plainly described in the records of the board of supervisors, and to keep in his office a full and correct transcript of such boundaries. In case the boundaries of districts are conflicting or incorrectly described, he shall report such fact to the board of supervisors, and the board of supervisors shall immediately take such steps as are necessary to change, harmonize and clearly define them. The county superintendent, if he deem it necessary, may order the description of the district boundaries printed in pamphlet form, and pay for the same out of the unapportioned county school fund of the county.

CHAPTER 55.

An act to repeal section 1624 of the Political Code of the State of California requiring the appointment of school census marshals.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Section 1624 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 56.

An act to repeal section 398 of the Penal Code of California relating to the sale of firearms and ammunition to Indians.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 398 of the Penal Code of California is Repealed. hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 57.

An act to add a new section to an act entitled "An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities, and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof and providing a method for the payment of such bonds." approved April 7, 1911, to be known as section 79a, defining a certain portion of said act.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to an act entitled "An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities, and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof and providing a method for the payment of such bonds," approved April 7, 1911, to be numbered section seventy-nine a and to read as follows:

Section 79a. The word "places" as used in this act, shall be deemed to, and is hereby declared to include any public pleasure ground and common which has been dedicated and accepted according to law, and this act shall include the improvement of a public pleasure ground and common. "Places" defined.

CHAPTER 58.

An act to amend section 631 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to findings.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 634 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Waiving findings of fact.

634. Findings of fact may be waived by several parties to an issue of fact:

1. By failing to appear at the trial;
2. By consent in writing filed with the clerk;
3. By oral consent in open court, entered in the minutes.

In all cases where the court directs a party to prepare findings, a copy of said proposed findings shall be served upon all the parties to the action at least five days before findings shall be signed by the court, and the court shall not sign any findings therein prior to the expiration of such five days.

CHAPTER 59.

An act to amend sections 1198 and 1199 of the Political Code, relating to books and records of ballots and number of ballots to be provided by the county clerk or registrar and the destruction of unused ballots.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1198 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Binding of ballots.

1198. All ballots, when printed, shall be bound in stub books, each book to consist of ten, or some multiple of ten, ballots and so issued. A record of the number of ballots printed by them shall be kept by the respective county clerks, and by the clerk or secretary of the legislative body of each incorporated city or town.

SEC. 2. Section 1199 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Number
furnished.

1199. The county clerk or registrar of voters of each county shall provide for each election precinct in the county ten general tickets for every eight or fraction of eight electors registered in the election precinct for such election; and an additional ten ballots for each election precinct that has less than thirty registered electors: provided, that no ballot pad used or provided for any election shall contain less than ten general tickets for such election, and in case of a consolidated city and county, an equal number of municipal tickets, when any city and county officers are to be elected and the clerk or secretary of the legislative body of any incorporated city or town shall furnish a like number of municipal tickets when any city or town officer is to be elected. And upon the day of election, immediately upon the arrival of the hour when the polls are required by law to be closed, the county clerk in each county shall openly, in his main office, in the presence of as many persons as may there assemble to observe his act, proceed to destroy every unused ballot which shall have remained in his possession, custody, or control, and forthwith make and file his affidavit, in writing, as to the number of ballots so destroyed.

Destruction of unused ballots.

CHAPTER 60.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition or construction thereby of works for the irrigation of the lands embraced within such districts, and, also, to provide for the distribution of water for irrigation purposes," approved March 31, 1897, by amending section thirty-nine thereof, relating to the levying and collection of assessments.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirty-nine of the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition or construction thereby of works for the irrigation of the lands embraced within such districts, and, also, to provide for the distribution of water for irrigation purposes," approved March 31, 1897, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 39. The board of directors shall then, within fifteen days after the close of its session as a board of equalization, levy an assessment sufficient to raise the annual interest on the outstanding bonds, and in any year in which any bond shall fall due must increase such assessment to an amount sufficient to raise a sum sufficient to pay the principal of the outstanding bonds as they mature; also, sufficient to pay in full all sums due, or that shall become due from the district, before the time for levying the next annual assessment, on account of rentals or charges for lands, water or water rights acquired by said district under lease or contract; also, sufficient to pay in full the amount of any other contract or obligation of the district which shall have been reduced to judgment. The secretary of the board must compute and enter in a separate column of the assessment book the respective sums in dollars and cents to be paid as an assessment on the property therein enumerated. When collected, the assessment shall be paid into the district treasury and be apportioned to the several proper funds. In case of the neglect or refusal of the board of directors to cause such assessment and levies to be made as in this act provided, then the duly equalized assessment made by the county assessor of the county or each of the respective counties in which the district is situated shall be the basis of assessment for the district, and the board of supervisors of the county in which the office of the board of directors of said district is situated shall cause an assessment roll of said district to be prepared, and shall make the levy required by this act, in the same manner and with like effect as if the same had been made by said board of directors and all expenses incident thereto shall be borne by such district and may be collected by suit at law, which shall be commenced by the district attorney of the county whose board of supervisors caused said assessment roll to be prepared, unless the amount of such expenses shall be paid within sixty days from the time when proper demand shall have been made therefor. In case of the neglect or refusal of the collector or treasurer of any irrigation district to perform the duties imposed by law, then the tax collector and the treasurer of the county in which the office of the board of directors of such district is situated must respectively perform such duties and shall be accountable therefor upon their official bonds; but, in case any county tax collector shall collect any assessment for any irrigation district, he shall pay the same to the county treasurer, who shall place such money in a special fund to the credit of the district and shall disburse the same to the proper persons for the purposes for which such assessments have been levied and shall not pay any part thereof to the treasurer of said district until said county treasurer shall be satisfied that all of the valid obligations for which such assessments were levied and for which payment has been demanded have been paid. It shall be the duty of the district attorney of each county in which the office of any irrigation district is located to ascertain each year whether the duties relating to the levying and collection of assessments, as in this act provided, have been performed, and, if he shall learn that the board of directors or any official of any such irrigation district has neglected or refused to perform any such duty, said district attorney shall so notify the board of supervisors or the county official required by this act to perform such duty in such case, and, unless such board of supervisors or such county official shall proceed to the performance of such duty within thirty days after the receipt of such notice, the district attorney shall take such action in court as may be necessary to compel the performance of such duty, and said district attorney shall give such notice to other officials, and shall take such action, as may be necessary to secure the performance in their proper sequence of the other duties relating to the levying and collection of assessments, as in this act provided; provided, that for the enforcement of the levying and collection of any assessment hereafter required to be levied and collected for the payment of any debt hereafter incurred, in case complaint shall be made to the attorney general of the State of California that the district attorney of any county has not performed any duty devolving upon him by the provisions of this section, or that he is not proceeding with due diligence or in the proper manner in the performance of any such duty, the attorney general shall make an investigation, and if it shall be found that such charge or charges are true, said attorney general shall take such measures as may be necessary to enforce the performance of the duties relating to the levying and collection of assessments, as in this act provided. In case, as the result of the neglect or refusal of any official or officials to perform any duty relating to the levying and collection of assessments, as in this act provided, it shall be impossible for such duty to be performed within the time required and such duty shall subsequently be performed, then the time within which all duties consequent upon the performance of such duty shall be performed shall be extended so as to allow the elapsing of the intervals required by this act to elapse between the performance of such duties, and the assessments herein provided for shall not become delinquent for at least thirty days after the first publication of the notice that such assessments are due and payable, as provided in section forty-one of this act. In the event any land within said district subject to assessment for the purposes of the district has not been assessed by the county assessor or does not appear upon the county assessment roll adopted by said board of supervisors as the basis of assessment for the district, the land so omitted belonging to any person, association, corporation, or municipality shall be forthwith assessed by the county assessor upon an order of the board of supervisors and a description of the property so omitted shall be written in the roll prepared for the purpose of district assessments. In such case, before any assessment is levied, the board of supervisors must meet and equalize said assessment with that of the assessment of other lands in said district. The same notice shall be given by the board of supervisors of such meeting for the purpose of equalizing the assessment to be made as herein directed as is provided in this act to be given by the board of directors of an irrigation district when the said board is to meet for the purpose of equalizing assessments. All the powers and duties respecting the collection of all assessments on possession of, claim to, or rights to the possession of land now provided in sections 3820, 3821, 3822, 3823, 3824, 3825 and 3829 of the Political Code, as regards county assessors shall apply, so far as applicable, to irrigation district assessors.

CHAPTER 61.

An act to amend section two thousand six hundred ninety-two of the Political Code of the State of California relating to private roads and private ways for canals.

[Approved April 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand six hundred ninety-two of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Opening of private ways.

2692. Private or byroads or private ways for a canal may be opened, laid out, or altered for the convenience of one or more residents or freeholders of any road district in the same manner as public roads are opened, laid out, or altered, except that only one petitioner shall be necessary, who must be either a resident or freeholder in said road district: and the board of supervisors may for like cause order the same to be viewed, opened, laid out, or altered, the person for whose benefit said road or private way for a canal is required paying the damages awarded to land owners, and keeping the same in repair; provided, that the petitioners must accompany the petition with the bond mentioned in section two thousand six hundred and eighty-three, conditioned as provided in said section, and with a further condition that the bondsmen will pay to the person over whose land said road or private way for a canal is sought to be opened, his necessary costs and disbursements in contesting the opening of such road or private way for a canal, in case the petition be not granted, and the road or private way for a canal finally not opened; provided, that all private roads or private ways for canals opened, or laid out, under the provisions of this act, shall be upon section or half section lines wherever practicable.

Bond.

CHAPTER 62.

An act legalizing the consolidation and reorganization of reclamation district No. 729 with reclamation district No. 108, in the counties of Yolo and Colusa; fixing, defining and establishing the boundaries of the consolidated district; providing for its management and control, subject to the provisions of the Political Code of California, and to other laws of said state relative to reclamation districts; and repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent therewith.

[Approved April 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The reorganization and consolidation of reclamation district No. 729, with reclamation district No. 108, in the counties of Yolo and Colusa, pursuant to notice thereof filed in the office of the county recorder of Yolo county, are hereby approved, confirmed, ratified, legalized and declared valid. The territory hereinafter bounded and described shall constitute the consolidated and reorganized district, to be known and numbered reclamation district No. 108, as heretofore designated of the register of the state land office, which shall be the successor of each of said two reclamation districts, and its board of trustees shall be the successors of and shall have all of the powers, duties and obligations that the said respective boards of trustees of each of the two districts had prior to such consolidation, and shall have power to take all proceedings required or necessary, and perform all acts required or authorized by the board of trustees for, and to levy or collect assessments in each of said districts, for any indebtedness existing in either, prior to their consolidation. The assessment lists of each district, and of the consolidated district, shall be filed with the board of supervisors of Colusa county, who shall hear objections to any assessments, modify, amend or approve the same. pursuant to the provisions of section 3462 of the Political Code, and original lists shall thereafter, pursuant to said last mentioned section, be filed with the county treasurer of Colusa county, and the certified copy therein referred to, with the county treasurer of Yolo county. None of the lands contained within the description set forth in section three of this act, which do not lie within the boundaries of either reclamation district No. 108 or reclamation district No. 729, prior to their reorganization and consolidation, as set forth in section one hereof, shall be liable for any indebtedness or obligations of either incurred before this act shall take effect.

Consolidation of reclamation district No. 729 with No. 108.

Assessment lists.

SEC. 2. The management, control and government of said reclamation district No. 108, as so reorganized and consolidated, and in all proceedings in relation thereto, and of the board of trustees thereof, in all other respects, shall be under and pursuant to all of the provisions of the Political Code of California, and to the other laws of said state relative to reclamation districts formed under the said Political Code.

Management.

SEC. 3. The exterior boundaries of said reclamation district No. 108, in the said counties of Colusa and Yolo, as so reorganized and consolidated, shall be, and the same are hereby fixed, defined, established and determined as follows: Commencing at a point on the right bank of the Sacramento river at a point from whence an oak tree 30 inches in diameter standing 270 feet southerly from the center of an Indian mound bears south $43\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ west 640 feet distant, and which point is the northwest corner of reclamation district No. 787, in the county of Yolo, State of California; thence south $43\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ west, along the westerly boundary line of reclamation district No. 787, to said oak tree 30 inches in diameter, situated 270 feet southerly from the center of said Indian mound; thence south $43\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ west, along said boundary of reclamation district

CHAPTER 67.

An act to amend section 1577 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the formation of new school districts and the change of boundaries of school districts.

[Approved April 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1577 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1577. First—No new school district shall be formed at any other time than between the first day of October and the tenth day of February, nor at that time unless the parents or guardians of at least fifteen children between the ages of five and seventeen years as shown by the petition, residents of such proposed new district, and residing at a greater distance than two miles by a traveled road from the public school house in the district in which such parents or guardians reside, present a petition to the superintendent of schools, setting forth the boundaries of the new district asked for; provided, that the provision requiring the petitioners shall reside a distance of more than two miles by a traveled road from said public schoolhouse may be dispensed with when the petition shall be signed by parents or guardians of fifty or more children between the ages of five and seventeen years, residents of a district or districts containing more than two hundred children in average daily attendance in the elementary schools of said district or districts as shown by the report of teacher or principal of said school or schools on file in the office of the county superintendent of schools for the school year immediately preceding.

Second—The boundaries of a school district, except as provided in section one thousand five hundred fifty-one of the Political Code, shall be changed only between the first day of October and the tenth day of February in any year, and then only when at least ten heads of families residing in the districts affected by the proposed change of boundaries shall present to the superintendent of schools a petition setting forth the changes of boundaries desired, and the reasons for the same; provided, that two or more elementary school districts lying contiguous may at any time be united to constitute but one district, whenever a petition signed by a majority of the heads of families residing in each of said districts shall be presented to the superintendent of schools. Said petition shall be acted upon in the same manner as is done in case of the formation of new school districts.

Formation of joint
districts.

Third—Joint districts (that is, districts lying partly in one county and partly in another) may be formed at any time between the first day of October and the tenth day of February in any year, whenever a petition signed by the parents or guardians of at least fifteen children between the ages of five and seventeen years as shown by the petition residents of such proposed joint district and residing at a greater distance than two miles by a traveled road from any public schoolhouse, shall be presented to the superintendent of schools of each county affected by the proposed formation of the joint district; and provided, further, that the provision requiring that the petitioners shall reside a distance of more than two miles by a traveled road from a public schoolhouse may be dispensed with when the petition shall be signed by the parents or guardians of fifty or more children between the ages of five and seventeen years as shown by the petition, residents of school district or districts containing an average daily attendance of two hundred or more in the elementary schools of said district or districts as shown by the reports on file in the office of the superintendent of schools for the school year immediately preceding. All the provisions relative to the formation of joint districts shall be by concurrent action of the superintendent and the board of supervisors of each county affected; still further provided, that by concurrent action of the boards of supervisors and the county school superintendents, contiguous school districts or parts of such school districts lying in different counties may, on proper petitions as above required, be united to form a joint school district, and the school property within the territory thus united shall become the property of the newly formed joint school district.

Children
districts.

Fourth—The children residing in any newly formed district, in any district whose boundaries have been changed, or in any joint district, shall be permitted to attend the school in the district or districts from which the newly formed district was constituted until the first day of July next succeeding the formation or change.

Transfer
of funds.

Fifth—Whenever a district shall be united with a municipality or with another district, all funds belonging to said district shall be transferred, by requisition of the superintendent of the county upon the county auditor, to the municipality or district with which said district is united.

CHAPTER 68.

An act to amend section 1576a, of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the employment of clerk in certain school districts.

[Approved April 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1576a of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1576a. In any school district organized under the preceding section, and which is also a high school district, and which districts are governed by a board of school trustees, and which districts have an average daily attendance in the elementary school district of at least eight hundred as shown by the last report of the principal of schools in said elementary school district on file in the office of the county superintendent of schools, the trustees of the said school district may appoint a clerk, who shall not be one of their own number, to act for the elementary district trustees and the high school district trustees, to hold office at the pleasure of the board of trustees. Said board may fix the salary of the clerk at a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars per month for the two districts, which sum shall be paid in the same manner and from the same funds as other incidental expenses of the districts are paid.

Clerk for district trustees.

CHAPTER 73.

An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment and dispositions of any surplus moneys in the treasury of any county, city and county or incorporated city or town.

[Approved April 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Investment of surplus county funds.

SECTION 1. Any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town which now has, or hereafter shall have, any surplus money in the treasury thereof, not required for the immediate necessities of the said county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, is hereby authorized to invest such portion of any such surplus as to the governing body of the said county, city and county, or incorporated city or town may be deemed wise or expedient in any bonds already issued or hereafter issued by such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town respectively, or in bonds already issued or hereafter issued by any school district situated in whole or in part within the limits of such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or in bonds already issued or hereafter issued by the State of California, or the United States, and such investment may be made by direct purchase of any issue of bonds, or part thereof, at the original sale of such bonds, or by the purchase of such bonds after they have been thus issued. Any bonds thus purchased and held may, from time to time, be sold and the proceeds reinvested in bonds as above provided. Sales of any bonds thus purchased and held shall, from time to time, be made in season so that the proceeds may be applied to the purposes for which the money, with which the bonds were originally purchased, was placed in the treasury of the county, city and county, or incorporated city or town.

Sale of bonds.

SEC. 2. The functions and duties of this act authorized shall be performed by the legislative or governing body of the county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or under its authority.

CHAPTER 74.

An act to repeal section 1242 of the Political Code, relating to the disposal of ballot when a challenge to a person offering to vote is sustained.

[Approved April 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Section 1242 of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 75.

An act to amend section 892 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the entry of judgment.

[Approved April 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 892 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

892. When the trial is by the court, judgment must be entered within thirty days after the submission, and no justice of the peace who is paid a salary, shall draw or receive any monthly salary unless he shall make and subscribe an affidavit before an officer entitled to administer oaths, that no cause in his court remains pending and undecided, that has been submitted for decision for a period of thirty days.

Entry of judgment in 30 days.

CHAPTER 76.

An act to amend section seven hundred ninety-one of the Political Code, relating to notaries public.

[Approved April 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seven hundred ninety-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

791. The governor may appoint and commission such number of notaries public for the several counties and cities and counties of this state as he shall deem necessary for the public convenience, except that in counties of the second class the number shall not exceed one hundred and ten.

Notaries public.

CHAPTER 77.

An act to amend section 6 of an act entitled "An act conveying certain tide lands and lands lying under inland navigable waters situated in the bay of San Diego to the city of San Diego in furtherance of navigation and commerce and the fisheries, and providing for the government, management and control thereof, approved May 1, 1911.

[Approved April 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six of an act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act conveying certain tide lands and lands lying under inland navigable waters situate in the bay of San Diego to the city of San Diego in furtherance of navigation and commerce and the fisheries, and providing for the government, management and control thereof," approved May 1, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

San Diego to issue harbor
bonds.

Sec. 6. The foregoing conveyance is made upon the condition that the city of San Diego shall, within twelve months from the approval of this act, exclusive of such time as said city may be restrained from so doing by injunction issued out of any court of this state or of the United States, and exclusive of such further delay as may be caused by unavoidable misfortune or great public or municipal calamity, issue its bonds for harbor improvement purposes in an amount of not less than one million dollars, and shall, within eighteen months after the approval of this act, exclusive of the time in this section hereinbefore mentioned, commence the work of such harbor improvement, and the said work and improvement shall be prosecuted with such diligence that not less than one million dollars shall be expended thereon within four years from the approval of this act exclusive of the time in this section hereinbefore mentioned. The said harbor improvement work shall be so done and performed that accommodation will be furnished and maintained for ocean going vessels of the largest class, and a depth of water shall be obtained and maintained at the piers of not less than thirty-five feet. If said bonds be not issued or said work be not prosecuted and completed as and in the manner herein provided, then the lands by this act conveyed to the city of San Diego shall revert to the State of California.

water at piers.

CHAPTER 78.

An act to amend section 20 of an act entitled "An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities, and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof and providing a method for the payment of such bonds," approved April 7, 1911.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20 of an act entitled "An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities, and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof and providing a method for the payment of such bonds," approved April 7, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 20. Subdivision 1. The expenses incurred for any work authorized by this act (which expense shall not include the cost of any work done in such portion of any street as is required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, nor include work which shall have been declared in the resolution of intention to be assessed on a district benefited) shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, except as otherwise in this act specifically provided; each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed, in proportion to the frontage, at a rate per front foot sufficient to cover the total expense of the work.

Assessment for street improvement.

Subdivision 2. The expense of the work done on main street crossings shall be assessed at a uniform rate per front foot of the quarter blocks and irregular blocks adjoining and cornering upon the crossings, and separately upon the whole of each lot or portion of a lot having any frontage in the said blocks fronting on said main streets, half way to the next main street crossing, or to the end of such street if it does not meet another, and all the way on said blocks to a boundary line of the city where no such crossing intervenes, but only according to its frontage in said quarter blocks and irregular blocks.

Street crossings.

Subdivision 3. Where a main street terminates in another main street, the expenses of the work done on one half of the width of the street opposite the termination shall be assessed upon the lots in each of the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering on that side, according to the frontage of such lots on said main streets, and the expense of the work on the other half of the width of said street when the work is sewerage of the terminating street only, shall be assessed upon the lots fronting on the termination and the lots adjacent to said lots on each side half way from the termination to the next terminating or intersecting street, according to the frontage of such lots on that side, and in all other work done on the termination, the property fronting on the termination shall be considered frontage and be assessed as set forth in subdivision one of this section.

When street terminates in main street.

Subdivision 4. Where any alley or subdivision street crosses a main street, the expense of all work done on said crossing shall be assessed on all lots or portions of lots half way on said alley or subdivision street to the next crossing or intersection, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

Alley crossings.

Subdivision 5. The expense of work done on alley or subdivision street crossings shall be assessed upon the lots fronting upon such alley or subdivision streets on each side thereof, in all directions, half way to the next street, place or court, on either side, respectively, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

When alley terminates
in street.

Subdivision 6. Where a subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court terminates in another street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, the expense of the work done on one half of the width of the subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court opposite the termination, shall be assessed upon the lot or lots fronting on such subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court so terminating, according to its frontage thereon, half way, on each side respectively, to the next street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court or to the end of such street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, if it does not meet another, and the expense of the work on the other half of the width when the work is sewerage of the terminating subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, shall be assessed upon the lots fronting on the termination and the lots adjacent to said lots on each side half way from the termination to the next terminating or intersecting street, according to the frontage of such lots on that side, and in all other work done on the termination the property fronting on the termination shall be considered frontage and be assessed as set forth in subdivision one of this section.

of street.

Subdivision 7. Where any work mentioned in this act (manholes, sewers, cesspools, culverts, crosswalks, piling and capping excepted) is done on one side of the center line of any street, or sewerage or re-sewerage is ordered to be done under the sidewalk on only one side of any street for any length thereof, the assessment for the expenses thereof shall be made only upon the lots and lands fronting nearest upon that side of the street and for intervening intersections only upon the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering upon that side.

Land belonging to U. S. or to
state.

Subdivision 8. Whenever any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to the United States, or to the State of California, or any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to any county, city, public agent, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reform institution, or institution for the feeble-minded or the insane, and being in use in the performance of any public function, shall front upon the proposed work or improvement, or be included within the district declared by the city council in its resolution of intention to be the district to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, said city council may, in the resolution of intention, declare that said lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, shall be omitted from the assessment thereafter to be made to cover the costs and expenses of said work or improvement. In the event that said lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, shall by said resolution be omitted from the assessment, then the total expense of all work done shall be assessed on the remaining lots fronting on the work or improvement, or lying within the limits of the assessment district, without regard to such omitted lots, pieces or parcels of land. In the event that the council shall, in such resolution of intention, declare that said lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned as aforesaid, or any of them, shall be included in the assessment, or in the event that no declaration is made respecting such lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, then said city shall be liable for such sum or sums as may thereafter be assessed against any such lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned and used, and so included in the assessment by reason of the aforesaid declaration, or such lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned and used respecting which the resolution of intention makes no declaration, which shall be payable by the said city out of the general fund unless the legislative body shall in its resolution of intention designate another fund.

Subdivision 9. It shall be lawful for the owner or owners of lots or lands fronting upon any street, the width and grade of which have been established by the city council, to perform, at his or their own expense (after obtaining permission from the council so to do, but before said council has passed its resolution of intention to order grading inclusive of this), any grading upon said street, to its full width, or to the center line thereof, and to its grade as then established, and thereupon to procure, at his or their own expense, a certificate from the city engineer, setting forth the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling made by him or them in said grading, and the proportions performed by each owner, and that the same is done to the established width and grade of said street, or to the center line thereof, and thereafter to file said certificate with the superintendent of streets, which certificate the superintendent shall record in a book kept for that purpose in his office, properly indexed. Whenever thereafter the city council orders the grading of said street, or any portion thereof, on which any grading certified as aforesaid has been done, the bids and contracts must express the price by the cubic yard for cutting and filling in grading; and the said owner or owners and his or their successors in interest, shall be entitled to credit, on the assessment upon his or their lots and lands fronting on said streets for the grading thereof, to the amount of the cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in his or their certificate, at the prices named in the contract for said cutting and filling; or, if the grade meanwhile has been duly altered, only for so much of said certified work as would be required for grading to the altered grade; provided, however, that such owner or owners shall not be entitled to such credit as may be in excess of the assessments for grading upon the lots and lands owned by him or them, and proportionately assessed for the whole of said grading; and the superintendent of streets shall include in the assessment for the whole of said grading upon the same grade the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in any and all certificates so recorded in his office, or for the whole of said grading to the duly altered grade so much of said certified work as would be required for grading thereto, and shall enter corresponding credits, deducting the same as payments upon the amounts assessed against the lots and lands owned, respectively, by said certified owners and their successors in interest; provided, however, that he shall not so include any grading quantities or credit any sums in excess of the proportionate assessments for the whole of the grading which are made upon any lots and lands fronting upon said street and belonging to any such certified owners or their successors in interest. Whenever any owner or owners of any lots and lands fronting on any street shall have heretofore done, or shall hereafter do any work, (except grading) on such street, in front of any block, at his or their own expense, and the city council shall subsequently order any work to be done of the same class in front of the same block, said work so done at the expense of such owner or owners shall be excepted from the order ordering work to be done; provided, that the work so done at the expense of such owner or owners, shall be upon the official grade, and in condition satisfactory to the street superintendent at the time said order is passed.

Diagram of property
affected.

Subdivision 10. Whenever the resolution of intention declares that the cost and expenses of the work and improvement are to be assessed upon a district, the city engineer shall make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement, as described in resolution of intention, and to be assessed to pay the expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, the area in square feet of each of such lots, pieces or parcels of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, all within the limits of the assessment district; and when said diagram shall have been approved by the city council, the clerk shall certify the fact and date thereof. Immediately thereafter the said diagram shall be delivered to the superintendent of streets of said city, who shall, after the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets or city council on appeal, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within said assessment district, as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from such work, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said assessment district the total amount of the costs and expenses of such work, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots or portions of lots, and subdivisions of land in said assessment district benefited thereby, to wit: Upon each respectively, in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. In other respects the assessment shall be as provided in the next section, and the provisions of subdivisions one, two, three, four, five, six and seven of this section shall not be applicable to the work or improvement provided for in this subdivision.

Assessment.

Definitions.

Subdivision 11. The terms, lot, lots, lands, piece or parcel of land wherever mentioned in this act shall be deemed to include and shall include property owned or controlled by any person, firm or corporation as a railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way, and whenever a railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way shall front on or abut or parallel or be included with or divide longitudinally any street improved under the provisions of this act or shall be included within any district to be assessed for the cost of any improvement provided in this act, such railroad right of way (whether the same is owned in fee or as an easement) shall be included in the warrant, assessment and diagram and shall be assessed in the manner and with the same effect as other lots, lands or pieces or parcels of land are assessed as provided in this act, and such railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way shall be subject to sale for nonpayment of assessments as in this act provided.

CHAPTER 79.

An act to regulate the production of certified milk, cream, ice cream, butter and cheese; and repealing an act entitled "An act to regulate the production of certified milk," approved March 18, 1909, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No person, firm or corporation shall sell or exchange, or offer or expose for sale or exchange, as and for certified milk, any milk which does not conform to the rules and regulations and to the methods and standards for the production and distribution of "certified milk" adopted by the American association of medical milk commissions on May 1st, 1912, and which does not bear the certification of a milk commission appointed by a county medical society organized under and chartered by the medical society of the State of California, and which has not been pronounced by such authority to be free from antiseptics, added preservatives, and pathogenic bacteria, or bacteria in excessive numbers. All milk sold as certified milk shall be conspicuously marked with the name of the commission certifying it. Such milk commission shall make all requirements for the production and handling of certified milk uniform and fair, and shall not refuse to certify milk for any applicant for certification who shall comply with the provisions of this act.

Certified milk regulations.

SEC. 2. No person, firm or corporation shall sell or exchange or offer or expose for sale or exchange, any cream, skimmed milk, buttermilk, ice cream, butter or cheese as and for certified cream, certified skimmed milk, certified buttermilk, certified ice cream, certified butter or certified cheese, as the case may be, or use the word "certified" in connection with the sale, designation, advertising, labeling or billing of any cream, skimmed milk, buttermilk, ice cream, butter or cheese unless the same and all products of milk contained therein or used in the manufacture thereof are obtained exclusively from milk which conforms to the requirements of this act for certified milk and which bears the certification of a milk commission in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of this act, and unless in addition thereto the methods and conditions under which such cream, skimmed milk, buttermilk, ice cream, butter and cheese, as the case may be, have been prepared or manufactured, as regards cleanliness and sanitation, shall conform to the requirements of the milk commission whose certification is sought. All cream, skimmed milk, buttermilk, ice cream, butter and cheese sold, designated, advertised or offered for sale, as certified cream, certified skimmed milk, certified buttermilk, certified ice cream, certified butter or certified cheese shall be conspicuously marked with the name of the commission certifying it and certifying the milk from which such cream, ice cream, butter and cheese is obtained.

Penalty. SEC. 3. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days.

Repealed. SEC. 4. An act entitled "An act to regulate the production of certified milk," approved March 18, 1909, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 80.

An act providing for the regulation of water companies, defining their powers and duties, defining the powers and duties of the railroad commission with reference thereto, and defining the conditions under which such water companies become subject to the provisions of the public utilities act and the railroad commission of the State of California.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Water company, public
utility.

SECTION 1. Whenever any person, firm or private corporation, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, operating or managing any water system within this state, sells, leases, rents or delivers water to any person, firm, private corporation, municipality or any other political subdivision of the state whatsoever, except as limited by section 2 hereof, whether under contract or otherwise, such person, firm or private corporation is a public utility, and subject to the provisions of the public utilities act of this state and the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the railroad commission of the State of California.

SEC. 2. Whenever any private corporation or association is organized for the purpose solely of delivering water to its stockholders or members at cost, and delivers water to no one except its stockholders or members at cost, such private corporation or association is not a public utility, and is not subject to the jurisdiction, control or regulation of the railroad commission of the State of California.

Private company not public utility.

SEC. 3. Whenever any private corporation or association organized for the purpose of delivering water solely to its stockholders or members at cost does deliver water to others than its stockholders or members for compensation, such private corporation or association becomes a public utility and subject to the terms of the public utilities act and the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the railroad commission of the State of California.

When private company becomes public utility.

SEC. 4. Whenever any private corporation or association is organized both for the purpose of delivering water to its stockholders or members at cost and to persons, firms, corporations, municipalities or other political subdivisions of the state in addition thereto, such private corporation or association is a public utility and subject to the provisions of the public utilities act and to the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the railroad commission of the State of California.

Private company, public utility.

SEC. 5. Whenever the railroad commission, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, shall find that any water company which is a public utility operating within this state has reached the limit of its capacity to supply water and that no further consumers of water can be supplied from the system of such utility without injuriously withdrawing the supply wholly or in part from those who have theretofore been supplied by such corporation, the railroad commission may order and require that no such corporation shall furnish water to any new or additional consumers until such order is vacated or modified by the said commission. The commission shall likewise have the power after hearing upon its own motion or upon complaint, to require any such water company to allow additional consumers to be served when it shall appear that to supply such additional consumers will not injuriously withdraw the supply wholly or in part from those who theretofore had been supplied by such public utility.

Limitation on service of water company.

SEC. 6. The railroad commission shall have the power to require any and all water corporations to file with the commission a statement in writing defining and describing the lands and territory to be supplied by such corporation with water, and when such territory is described and defined in the articles of incorporation of any such corporation or in the places of designated use in the notices of appropriation under which the rights of such corporation to appropriated water are initiated in accordance with section 1415 of the Civil Code, and it shall appear either from said statement filed by such water corporation or from said articles of incorporation or said notices of appropriation that such water corporation has undertaken to supply more consumers or a greater number of acres than it can adequately supply, the commission may require such corporation to limit the number of consumers or acres of land which it has undertaken to supply or which is set out in its articles of incorporation or notices of appropriation to such a limited number of consumers or acres of land as the commission shall find, after hearing, such water corporation may adequately supply. This provision does not apply to territory or consumers which have once been served by said corporation, and as between consumers who have been voluntarily admitted to participate by the corporation in its supply of water or been required to be supplied by an order of the railroad commission, in times of shortage there shall be no priority or preference, and such corporation in times of shortage shall be required to apportion such supply ratably among its consumers.

Language construed.

SEC. 7. The language in section 1 of this act "whether under contract or otherwise" shall not be construed as authorizing a contract by a person or corporation defined herein as a public utility which shall in anywise deprive the state or the railroad commission or other competent authority of power to regulate the rates and service of any such public utility.

CHAPTER 81.

An act regulating the cleaning, laundering, sale, offering for sale, and furnishing for use to employees, of wiping rags; authorizing counties, cities and counties, cities and towns, to enact ordinances prohibiting the cleaning, laundering, sterilizing, and sale of wiping rags without a permit, and to issue and revoke permits to clean, launder, and sell wiping rags within their respective jurisdictions; authorizing peace and health officers to make inspections of wiping rags, and making violations of this act a misdemeanor.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Wiping rags to be sterilized.

SECTION 1. Every person or corporation who supplies or furnishes to his or its employees for wiping rags, or who sells or offers for sale for wiping rags, any soiled wearing apparel, underclothing, bedding, or parts of soiled or used underclothing, wearing apparel, bedclothes, bedding or soiled rags and cloths, unless the same have been sterilized by a process of boiling for forty minutes in a solution containing five per cent of caustic soda, and unless before such boiling, the sleeves, legs and bodies of garments are ripped and made into flat pieces, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Wiping rags within the meaning of this act are cloths and rags used for wiping and cleaning the surfaces of machinery, machines, tools, locomotives, engines, motor cars, automobiles, cars, carriages, windows, and furniture, and surfaces of articles, appliances and engines in factories, shops, steamships and steamboats, and generally used for cleaning purposes in industrial employments, and also used by mechanics and workmen for wiping from their hands and bodies soil incident to their employment. Wiping rags defined.

SEC. 3. Any person or corporation who shall wash, cleanse or launder soiled rags or soiled cloth material for wiping rags, in the same building or by the same machinery or appliances, in or by which clothing and articles for personal wear or for household use are laundered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Not to be cleaned in laundry.

SEC. 4. Every peace officer, health officer or health inspector, upon proper demand and notice of his authority, shall be permitted, during business hours, to enter factories, shops, yards, ships, boats and premises where wiping rags are used, or are kept for sale, or offered for sale, and inspect such wiping rags; and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company or corporation to refuse to permit such inspection, or to impede or obstruct such officer during such inspection. Inspection.

SEC. 5. Each county, city and county, city and town, may regulate the business of laundering, and sterilizing, and the business of selling wiping rags, by enacting ordinances prohibiting the laundering, sterilizing and sale, and offering for sale, of wiping rags, or cloth material for wiping rags, within their respective jurisdictions, without a permit issued by the board of supervisors of the county, or board of health or health officer of the city and county, city and town, and for the issuance of certificates of inspection of wiping rags offered for sale. Such permit shall be granted as of course on a first application therefor, and may be revoked by the board or officer authorized to issue the same for a violation of this act or for a violation of such ordinance by the holder of such permit. The board, department or officer authorized to issue permits to launder, sterilize, or sell wiping rags shall keep a register of the names and places of business of persons to whom such permits are issued, and the date of issue and number of said permit, and a record of revocation of issued permits. Local regulation of wiping rag business.

SEC. 6. Every package or parcel of wiping rags must, before being sold or offered for sale, be plainly marked "sterilized wiping rags," with the number and date of permit given for the conducting of the laundry in which the rags contained in such package or parcel were laundered and sterilized, and the name of the board or officer issuing the permit; or with the name and location of the laundry in which such rags were laundered and sterilized. Packages to be marked.

SEC. 7. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Penalty.

CHAPTER 82.

An act to amend section two hundred and eighty b of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to licenses to practice law.

[Approved May 12, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two hundred and eighty b of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

License to practice law on diploma.

280b. Any person producing a diploma of graduation from the college of law of the University of Southern California, or evidence of having satisfactorily completed the three years' course of law study prescribed by the department of law of Leland Stanford Junior University or the department of jurisprudence of the University of California, or the institute of law of the University of Santa Clara shall be entitled to a license to practice law in all the courts of this state, subject to the right of the chief justice of the supreme court of the state to order an examination, as in ordinary cases of applicants without such diploma or other evidence.

CHAPTER 83.

An act to amend section 1493 of the Code of Civil Procedure of California, relating to claims against estates of deceased persons.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand four hundred and ninety-three of the Code of Civil Procedure of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Presentation of claims against estates.

1493. All claims arising upon contracts, whether the same be due, not due, or contingent, and all claims for funeral expenses and expenses of the last sickness must be presented within a time limited in the notice, and any claims not so presented, are barred forever; provided, however, that when it is made to appear by the affidavit of the claimant, to the satisfaction of the court, or a judge thereof, that the claimant had no notice as provided in this chapter, by reason of being out of the state, it may be presented at any time before a decree of distribution is entered.

CHAPTER 84.

An act to amend section 3571 of the Political Code of the State of California relating to the securing of certificates from the register of state land office by owners of certificates of purchase or patents from the state for the purpose of securing restitution of moneys for lands sold by the state but not owned by it, and said section as amended also providing for the waiver by the state of any statute of limitation as to the issuance of said certificate and also as to the issuance of warrants by county auditors and the state controller as provided in section 3572 of said Political Code.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3571 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

3571. If any land was not the property of the State of California at the date application was filed therefor, or if the land applied for was swamp and overflowed land but the application became or was void by reason of the fact that the land had not been segregated, the owner of the certificate of purchase or patent may receive in exchange therefor, from the register of state land office, a certificate showing the amount paid and the class of land upon which the payment was made, (if the land is lieu land or indemnity land the register's certificate shall not issue until the selection therefor is cancelled by authority of the department of the interior), by conveying by quitclaim deed to the State of California, all of his right, title and interest in and to said land. The authority of the said register to issue such certificate and likewise the authority of the auditor and controller to issue their warrants, as provided in section 3572 of this code, shall not be barred by any period of time which may have elapsed since the issuance of the certificate of purchase or patent, but in the issuance of the certificate herein provided for, the said register shall first determine that the person applying for said certificate is the owner of the certificate of purchase or patent, and has not assigned or conveyed his interest therein or in the land therein described or any part thereof, and that it is a proper case for the issuance of a certificate as herein provided. A copy of a patent duly certified by the county recorder of any county where the same may have been recorded shall have the same force and effect as the original.

Certificate of lands sold by but not owned by state.

CHAPTER 85.

An act to amend sections 129 and 130 of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to rules of court.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 129 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rules of
court.

129. Every court of record may make rules not inconsistent with the laws of this state, for its own government and the government of its officers; but such rules shall neither impose any tax, charge or penalty upon any legal proceeding, or for filing any pleading allowed by law, nor give any allowance to any officer for services.

SEC. 2. Section 130 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

When rules take effect.

130. Rules adopted by the supreme court shall take effect sixty days, and rules adopted by superior courts, thirty days after their publication. When adopted they shall be spread upon the record of the court, printed and filed in the office of the clerk of the court.

CHAPTER 86.

An act to amend section 409 of the Political Code, relative to fees to be collected by the secretary of state.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

21. For each commission, passport, or other document signed by the governor and attested by the secretary of state (pardons, military commissions, commissions issued to non-salaried state officers, and extradition papers excepted), five dollars.

22. For each patent for land issued by the governor, if for one hundred and sixty acres or less, one dollar; and for each additional one hundred and sixty acres, or fraction thereof, one dollar.

23. For issuing certificate of official character, two dollars.

Fees of secretary
of state.

24. For recording miscellaneous documents or papers, twenty cents per folio.

25. For filing certified copy of order and decree of court, changing name, or certified copy of order and decree of court, dissolving a corporation, five dollars.

No member of the legislature or state officer shall be charged for any search relative to matters appertaining to the duties of his office; nor shall he be charged any fee for a certified copy of any law or resolution passed by the legislature relative to his official duties.

All fees collected by the secretary of state must, at least once each week, be paid into the state treasury.

CHAPTER 87.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered 570, providing for the disposition of unclaimed funds in the hands of a receiver.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered 570, providing for the disposition of unclaimed funds in the hands of a receiver, and to read as follows:

Disposition of unclaimed funds in hands of receiver.

570. A receiver having any funds in his hands belonging to a person whose whereabouts are unknown to him, shall, before receiving his discharge as such receiver, publish a notice, in one or more newspapers published in the county, at least once a week for four consecutive weeks, setting forth the name of the owner of any unclaimed funds, the last known place of residence or postoffice address of such owner and the amount of such unclaimed funds. Any funds remaining in his hands unclaimed for thirty days after the date of the last publication of such notice, shall be reported to the court and, upon order of the court, all such funds must be paid into the state treasury accompanied with a copy of the order, which must set forth the facts required in the notice herein provided. All funds so paid into the state treasury must be received, invested, accounted for and paid out, in the same manner and by the same officers as is provided by law in the case of escheated estates, and in section twelve hundred and seventy-two of this code.

CHAPTER 88.

An act to amend the Civil Code of the State of California by adding a new section thereto to be numbered fourteen hundred ten a, relating to the water of all natural streams carrying water from the State of California into any other state, and defining relative rights to the waters of such streams.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code of the State of California to be numbered fourteen hundred ten a and to read as follows:

1410a. The entire flow of water in any natural stream which carries water from the State of California into any other state is subject to use in the State of California, under the laws of the State of California, and the right may be, so far as not already acquired by use in the State of California, acquired and held under the laws of the State of California. The rights to the use of such water held under the laws of the State of California, shall be prior and superior to any rights to the waters of such streams held under the laws of any other state.

CHAPTER 89.

An act to amend section one thousand seven hundred and forty of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to meetings of high school boards.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand seven hundred and forty of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1740. District, union and joint union high school boards shall meet on the first Saturday in May of each year at twelve o'clock m., and organize by electing a president from their own number, and a clerk. Every high school board shall hold regular monthly meetings at such times as may be provided in the rules and regulations adopted by them for their own government; provided, that in union or joint union high school districts the regular meetings as above provided may be quarterly. Special meetings may be held at the call of the president of the board. Upon the request, in writing, signed by a majority of any board, the president of said board shall call a meeting thereof. Of all special meetings of any board the members thereof shall have at least two days' notice, issued and served by the clerk thereof. At special meetings no business shall be transacted other than that specified in the call therefor. All meetings of the high school board shall be held at the high school building; provided, that if no high school building exists in the high school district, or if the high school district consists of a single city, town, or school district, the high school board may meet at such place in the high school district as it may by resolution determine.

CHAPTER 90.

An act to amend section one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to contracts by boards of school trustees and city boards of education.

[Approved April 25, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

School
trustee not to be interested in contract.

1876. No school trustee or member of any board of education must be interested in any contract made by the board of which he is a member; and any contract made in violation of this provision is void; provided, that in school districts entitled to not more than two teachers on average daily attendance as shown by the teacher's report for the previous school year, a member of the board of trustees may receive a reasonable compensation from the district for necessary work and labor performed by him for the district in repairing the school-house, fences and other property belonging to the district or in furnishing wood or other necessary supplies, but in all such cases the requisition drawn in his favor in payment of services or supplies must be signed by the other two trustees before it shall be subject to approval by the superintendent of schools.

CHAPTER 91.

An act to amend section sixteen hundred twenty-two of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to expenditure of state and county school money.

[Approved April 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section sixteen hundred twenty-two of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1622. Boards of school trustees and city board of education may use fifty per cent of the county school money for any of the purposes authorized by this chapter; but all the state school money and not less than fifty per cent of the county school money shall be applied exclusively to the payment of teachers' salaries of the elementary schools; provided, that any city superintendent of public schools or supervising principal of public schools who holds a teacher's certificate in force for the full time for which the requisition is drawn may be paid out of the same money or fund used for the payment of the salaries of teachers of the elementary schools.

Expenditure of school funds.

CHAPTER 92.

An act to amend section two hundred twenty-four of the Civil Code, relating to the adoption of abandoned and deserted children and the taking of acknowledgments to the consent to such adoption.

[Approved April 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two hundred twenty-four of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

224. A legitimate child can not be adopted without the consent of its parents, if living; nor an illegitimate child without the consent of its mother, if living; except that consent is not necessary from a father or mother deprived of civil rights, or adjudged guilty of adultery or cruelty, and for either cause divorced, or adjudged to be habitually intemperate in the use of intoxicants, or who has been judicially deprived of the custody of the child on account of cruelty or neglect. Neither is consent of any parent necessary in case of any abandoned child. Any child deserted by its parents without provision for their identification, or relinquished by its parent or parents for the purpose of adoption expressed in writing signed and acknowledged by such parent or parents before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, or before the secretary of any organization or society engaged in the work of placing dependent or deserted children into homes in this state, which organization or society has obtained a permit therefor, duly executed in writing, from the state board of charities and corrections, shall from the date of such act of desertion or of such relinquishment be deemed to be an abandoned child within the meaning of this section. Any child left in the care and custody of another by its parent or parents, without any provision for its support, for the period of one year, may after such notice to the parent or parents residing within the state and to such other relatives of said child residing within the county as the court shall require, be determined by order of the juvenile court of the county in which said child was so left to be an abandoned child within the terms of this section. Any abandoned child within the meaning of this section, or any child whose parent or parents have been judicially deprived of its custody on account of cruelty or neglect, maintained by or in the custody of any orphan asylum within this state, any charitable organization or society receiving state aid or receiving commitments from the juvenile court, may be adopted with the consent of the managers of such orphan asylum, charitable organization or society. Any orphan child for whose support no provision has been made by any person for a period of one year, but who has been maintained during said year by or in the custody of any orphan asylum within this state, any charitable organization or society receiving state aid or receiving commitments from the juvenile court, may be adopted with the consent of the managers of such orphan asylum, charitable organization or society.

CHAPTER 93.

An act to amend section one thousand six hundred and seventy-four of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to union school districts.

[Approved April 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand six hundred and seventy-four of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1674. Union school districts may be formed, and union schools maintained therein, as in this section provided.

First—When a majority of the heads of families who reside in two or more contiguous school districts and who have children attending school as shown by the teachers' registers in the school of the said districts in the same county, shall unite in a petition to the county superintendent of schools for the formation of a union school district, to comprise the districts so petitioning, he shall, within twenty days after receiving said petition, call an election for the determination of the question, and shall appoint three qualified electors in each of the districts petitioning, to conduct the election therein. Said election shall be held separately and simultaneously at the public schoolhouse in each of the districts petitioning, and shall be called by posting notices thereof in three of the most public places in each district, one of which places shall be the public schoolhouse in each district at least ten days before said election. Said election shall be conducted by the officers appointed for that purpose, in the manner provided by law for conducting school elections. The ballots at such election, in each district, shall contain the words, "For the union school district," and the voters shall write or print after said words on his ballot the word "Yes" or the word "No." It shall be the duty of said election officers in each district to canvass the vote at said election, and report the result to the county superintendent of schools within five days subsequent to the holding of said election.

Second—If a majority of the votes cast at such election, in each and every of such districts, shall be in favor of such union school district, the county superintendent shall (except in the case of the formation of a union district consisting of but two districts, and as hereinafter provided for in subdivision fourth of this section), within fifteen days after receiving the returns of the election held therein, direct the board of trustees in each of said districts to call a meeting of the qualified electors of their respective districts, in the manner provided in section sixteen hundred and seventeen of this code for calling district meetings. At said meeting the qualified electors shall in each district select one representative, whose powers and duties shall be as hereinafter specified. The representatives so chosen shall name the union school district, and shall have power to make temporary arrangements for the location of one or more union schools therein, and, if satisfactory apartments or buildings in a suitable location are offered or can be procured, for a consideration or at a rental which would make it advisable to accept the same, they shall have the power to secure an option of a lease on such apartment or building for a period not to exceed three years from the first day of July next ensuing. Within forty days after their selection they shall notify the county superintendent of schools that they desire to meet to locate one or more union schools in and for such union district. Thereafter the representatives so chosen shall meet in conjunction with the county superintendent of schools at a time and place to be named by the superintendent, for the purpose of determining the location of such union school or schools. At such meeting the superintendent shall be the chairman and shall be entitled to vote and participate in all its proceedings. Should said representatives fail to unanimously agree upon a location for such school or schools, they shall propose in writing to the county superintendent then present, or, if he is not present, they shall transmit to his office, within ten days, the names of the locations which they, or any of them, favor. Within twenty days after receiving such notice, the superintendent shall call an election as provided in subdivision one hereof, to determine the location of the union school or schools. At such election only such sites as have been named by the representatives and certified to the county superintendent shall be voted upon. Any form of ballot by which the voter signifies his choice of location or locations shall be allowed. The result of said election shall be determined and certified to the county superintendent, as provided in said subdivision one. The location or locations which receive the largest number of votes shall be chosen as the location or locations of the school or schools.

Third—A union school district formed of school districts not all in the same county, is designated a joint union school district.

Ballot.

(1) When a majority of the heads of families residing in two or more contiguous school districts not all in the same county and who have children attending the schools in the districts petitioning as shown by the teachers' registers shall unite in a petition to the county superintendents of their respective counties for the formation of a joint union school district, to comprise the districts so petitioning, it shall be the duty of each of said superintendents, within twenty days after receiving said petition, to call an election in the district or districts in his county petitioning, for the purpose of determining the question, and appoint three qualified electors in each of such petitioning districts, to conduct the election therein. Said election shall be called and conducted in all respects as specified in subdivision one of this section, except that the form of ballot shall be: "For the joint union school district," and the result thereof shall be reported by the election officers in each district to the superintendent of the county in which such district is situated, within five days subsequent to the holding of said election.

Majority in favor.

(2) If a majority of the votes cast at such election, in each and every of such districts, shall be in favor of such joint union school district, the county superintendent in each county shall (except in the case of the formation of a joint union district consisting of but two districts, and as hereinafter provided for in subdivision four of this section), within fifteen days after receiving the returns of the election, direct the board of trustees in the district, or districts, in his county, to call a meeting of the qualified electors, as provided in subdivision two of this section. At said meeting the qualified electors, in each district, shall select a representative, as provided in said subdivision. The representatives so chosen shall meet at a time and place to be agreed upon among themselves, and name the joint union school district. The location of the joint union school, or schools, shall be determined by the joint action of the representatives chosen and the county superintendents of the counties, in manner and form as provided for the location of a union school, or schools.

Location.

Time of taking effect.

Fourth—Proceedings for the formation of, or for admission to, a union or joint union school district may be begun at any time, but the schools in the district uniting to form, or that are admitted to, a union or joint union school district, shall remain under the control of their respective boards of trustees until the first day of July next succeeding the formation of the union or joint union district and the location of the union or joint union school, or schools, or of admission to a union or joint union district, on which first day of July the districts uniting to form the union or joint union school district, or the district admitted to such union, shall cease to exist, except for purposes specified in this section, and the terms of office of the school trustees in said districts shall expire, and the district property of each district so uniting or admitted shall vest in such union or joint union district and pass to the control of the board of trustees of such district, to be held and disposed of by them, as provided in section sixteen hundred and seventeen of this code; provided, that in union or joint union school districts formed by the union of but two school districts, no selection of representatives, as provided for in subdivision two of this section, is necessary, and the board of trustees for the original school districts shall act as the representatives, and shall constitute the board of trustees for the new union or joint union school district, and each of such trustees shall continue in office for the term for which he was elected, except as hereinafter provided; and provided, further, that the proceeds of any sale by the board of trustees of the union or joint union school district, of school property that originally belonged to any of the original districts, must first be applied to the discharge of any bonded indebtedness of such original district.

Sale of property.

Fifth—In the formation of union or joint union school districts, the representatives selected according to the provisions of subdivision two of this section shall act as a board of trustees for such union or joint union district, until the election or appointment and qualification of the regular board of trustees, as hereinafter provided.

Trustees.

Sixth—In union or joint union school districts, formed by the union of more than two school districts, the board of trustees shall be composed of one member elected from each district composing the union or joint union district, at the time and in the manner provided for the election of school trustees, except as otherwise provided in this section. The county school superintendent (or superintendents by concurrent action in joint union school districts) shall, in union or joint union school districts composed of three or more school districts, divide the districts composing the union or joint union school districts in three classes, as nearly equal in number of school districts as possible, to be designated by him (or them) as class A, B, and C, respectively. At the first annual school election following the organization of the union or joint union school district and the location of the school or schools, the districts in class A, as so divided and designated, shall each elect a school trustee for one year; the districts in class B shall each elect a school trustee for two years; the districts in class C shall each elect a school trustee for three years; and all the trustees so elected shall constitute the board of trustees of the union or joint union school district. At each annual election thereafter, as terms of office expire, the school trustees shall be elected for three years, and, in case of expiration of term of appointment, for the unexpired term. Vacancies in the board of school trustees shall be filled by appointment by the county superintendent of schools (in case of joint union school districts by appointment by the county superintendent of the county in which the vacancy occurs), the appointee or appointees to hold until the first day of May next succeeding the appointment.

Composition of board.

Classification of districts.

Seventh—In union or joint union school districts formed by the union of but two school districts, the board of trustees of the union or joint union district shall consist of the two boards of trustees of the district so uniting, and each trustee shall continue to hold office for the term for which he was elected; provided, that should one or more additional districts at any time be admitted to such union or joint union district, the board of trustees shall then consist of one trustee from each of the original districts, as provided in subdivision six of this section, and the terms of the trustees in the two original districts and of the trustees in the district or districts admitted shall expire on the first day of May next ensuing after the admission of the third district.

Building.

Eighth—After the location of the union or joint union school, or schools, has been determined, as provided in subdivision two of this section, the representatives, acting as a board of trustees, or their successors, may erect or lease a suitable building, as they may deem most advisable. A lease shall not be made for a longer period than three years. A building may be erected under the provisions of sections eighteen hundred and thirty to eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, inclusive, of this code, relating to a district tax, or sections eighteen hundred and eighty to eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, inclusive, of this code, relating to the issuance of bonds. In all cases the plans must be approved by the county superintendent of schools of the county in which the schoolhouse is to be located.

Change of
location.

Ninth—No change of location of any union or joint union school, when once established, shall be made, except upon a petition to the county superintendent of schools (or superintendents, in case of a joint union district), signed by two thirds of the heads of families who reside in the school district and who have children attending the school as is shown by the teacher's register in the school, and then only in accordance with all the provisions for the original location of the school, as contained in subdivisions two and three of this section.

boards.

Tenth—The powers and duties of boards of trustees in union or joint union school districts shall be such as are now, or may hereafter be assigned by law to boards of school trustees, except as otherwise provided in this section.

Meetings.

Eleventh—Boards of trustees of union or joint union school districts shall hold regular meetings at the school building, at such time as may be provided in the rules and regulations adopted by them for their own government. Such meetings shall not be held less frequently than quarterly. Special meetings may be held at the call of the president of the board. Upon the request, in writing, signed by a majority of any board, the president of said board shall call a meeting thereof, pursuant to such request. Of all special meetings of any board the members thereof shall have at least two days' notice, issued and served by the clerk thereof. At special meetings no business shall be transacted other than as specified in the call therefor; provided, that in union and joint union districts formed by the union of more than three school districts the board may appoint an executive committee, consisting of the president and the clerk and one other member of the board, to attend to the routine business of the board, their action to be reported to the board for ratification at its first meeting ensuing.

Twelfth—The course of study shall be that prescribed by the proper authority, and shall embrace a period of not less than eight years, except as may be hereafter provided by law; and the text-books used shall be those adopted by the proper authorities. In joint union districts the provisions of section fifteen hundred and eighty-three of this code shall apply. Course of study.

Thirteenth—The board of trustees of a union or joint union school district may contract, in such manner as they may deem best, for the transportation, to and from school, of such pupils as may seem to such board to be in need of such transportation, and shall pay for such transportation, in the usual manner, out of any funds available for the purpose; provided, that all such contracts for transportation shall be first approved by the county superintendent (or superintendents) of schools of the county (or counties) in which such district is situated. Transportation of pupils.

Fourteenth—Whenever in their judgment it may be deemed advisable, the board of trustees for any union or joint union school district may unite with the trustees of any other school district, single, union or joint, in the employment of a supervising principal, who shall devote such time to the supervision of instruction in the several school districts and shall receive such compensation from each board of trustees as may be agreed upon by them. Supervising principal

Fifteenth—(1) On the first day of July next ensuing after the formation of a union or joint union school district, or the admission thereto of a school district, the county superintendent of schools (or superintendents in joint union school districts) shall transfer, by requisition upon the county auditor, all funds remaining to the credit of the different districts uniting to form the union or joint union district (or to the credit of the district admitted thereto) to the credit of such union or joint union district. Transfer of funds.

(2) For the purposes of teachers' reports and for the estimating of the number of teachers and the amount of money to which each district is entitled, the several districts uniting to form the union school district shall continue their separate existence. Separate existence.

The teacher or teachers shall keep the enrollment and attendance of each district separate from that of the other districts composing the union. At the close of the term or year, a report shall be made of the attendance of each district composing the union separately. These separate reports shall be combined into a principal's report. In case of a joint union school district, the teacher or teachers shall send a copy of each report to the county superintendent in whose county parts of the district lie; and provided, further, that no moneys shall be apportioned directly to any of such several districts, while Enrollment separate.

forming a part of an organized union or joint union school district, but there shall be apportioned to such union or joint union district the aggregate of moneys that would be apportioned to the several school districts composing it, if such several districts were not united.

Admission of new districts.

Sixteenth—(1) Any school district may be admitted to a union or joint union school district by action of the board of supervisors of the county in which such school district is located, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the board of trustees of the school district seeking admission and the board of trustees of the union or joint union school district, whenever a majority of the heads of families who reside in the district and who have children enrolled in the school as is shown by the teacher's report on file in the office of the superintendent of schools for the year or term immediately preceding, shall present to said board of supervisors a petition for such annexation, accompanied by a petition for such annexation signed by a majority of the members composing the board of trustees of the union or joint union district to which admission is desired. The county superintendent of schools shall then classify the newly admitted district, in class A, B, or C, as provided in subdivision six of this section, for the election of a trustee thereby. If such petitioning school district and such union or joint union school district be not wholly situated in the same county, then said petitions shall be presented in duplicate to the board of supervisors of each and every county in which any part of either of such districts is situated, and such annexation shall be made only by the concurrent action of all of such board of supervisors; and in that case the classification of the annexed district, for election of a trustee, shall be made by concurrent action of the county superintendents of each and all such counties.

Admission of part of district.

(2) A portion of a school district may be admitted to an adjacent union or joint union school district by action of the board of supervisors of the county in which such school district is situated, whenever a majority of the heads of families who reside in the district and who have children attending the school as shown by the teacher's register, shall present to said board of supervisors a petition for such annexation, accompanied by a petition for such annexation signed by a majority of the members composing the board of trustees of the union or joint union district to which admission is desired. The board of supervisors shall attach such annexed portion of a school district to a contiguous original school district forming part of the union or joint union district, for voting and other purposes, and such annexed portion shall thereafter be a part of the original district to which it is so attached, and can not subsequently withdraw from the union or joint union district, except as the district to which it is so attached withdraws. Such annexed portion shall have no representation on the board of trustees of the union or joint union school district, except as a part of the district to which it is attached. If such portion of a school district and such union or joint union school district be not wholly situate in the same county, then said petition shall be presented in duplicate to the board of supervisors of each and every county in which any part of either of such districts is situated, and such annexation, and such attachment of annexed portion to one of the original districts, shall be made only by the concurrent action of all such boards of supervisors.

(3) Any school district contained in a union or joint union school district may, in like manner, withdraw from such union or joint union district by action of the board (or boards) of supervisors of the county (or counties) in which the union or joint union district is located, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the trustee of the school district seeking to withdraw and a majority of the other members of the board of trustees of the union or joint union district, whenever a majority of the heads of families residing in the union or joint union district, including two thirds of the heads of families who reside in the district wishing to withdraw and who have children attending the school as shown by the teacher's register, shall present to such board or boards of supervisors a petition for such withdrawal, accompanied by a written consent to such withdrawal signed by a majority of the members composing the board of trustees of such union or joint union district.

With-
of district.

Seventeenth—Any union or joint union school district, formed under the provisions of this section, and which shall have been in existence three years or more, may be dissolved in the following manner: A petition signed by two thirds of the heads of families who reside in the district and who have children who attend the school as shown by the teacher's register or as may be shown by a census of the district ordered by the board of school trustees, shall be presented to the county superintendent of schools of the county in which such district is situated, setting forth briefly the reasons for dissolution and praying that the question may be submitted to the voters in such district. Upon receiving such petition the superintendent shall, within twenty days, call an election in the district, submitting to the voters therein the question of dissolution of such district. If such petitioning district be not wholly situated within the same county, said petition shall be presented in duplicate to the superintendent of each county having territory within such district, and each superintendent so petitioned shall, within twenty days after receiving such petition, call an election in the territory situate within his county and forming part of such district, and appoint three electors resident within such territory to conduct such election therein. Notice of such election, which must be held throughout the district on the same day and during the same hours, shall be given by posting written or printed notice thereof in at least three of the most public places in such district for at least twelve days next before the day set for such election; and if such district be not wholly situated in the same county, said notice shall be posted for said time in three of the most public places in the portion of the district in each county. Said election shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for conducting school elections. The ballots shall have printed on them the words "For Dissolution," and the voters shall write or print thereafter the word "Yes" or the word "No." The election officers shall report the result of such election within five days thereafter to the county superintendent of schools of the county of which they are residents.

Ballot. If a majority of all the votes cast at such election be opposed to dissolution, no further petition shall be entertained or election ordered for a similar purpose within three years next following such election. If the district in which such election is held be wholly situated in one county, and if two thirds of all the votes cast at such election be in favor of dissolution, the county superintendent of such county shall forthwith certify the result of such election to the board of supervisors of such county, and such board shall, at its first regular meeting thereafter, make an order declaring such union district dissolved, such order to take effect at the end of the current school year, except as hereinafter provided. If the district in which such election is held be not wholly situated in one county, each of the county superintendents of the counties having territory therein shall immediately certify to the others the result of the election in his own county, and if two thirds of all the votes cast at such election be in favor of dissolution, all of such county superintendents shall, jointly, forthwith certify the result of such election to the board of supervisors of each of such counties, and said boards, and each of them, shall, at the first regular meeting thereafter, make an order declaring such union or joint union district dissolved, such order to take effect at the end of the current school year, except as hereinafter provided. When a union or joint union school district has been thus dissolved, the property thereof shall be sold by the board of supervisors of the county in which such property is situated, and the proceeds of such sale, together with any moneys in the treasury to the credit of such dissolved district, shall be apportioned to and placed to the credit of the school districts that composed such dissolved district in proportion to the value of property in each of such school districts, as determined by the last previous assessment therein for school purposes, and the board or boards of supervisors of the county or counties in which such dissolved district is situated shall make such orders, and such transfers from county to county, as may be necessary or proper to effect such apportionment. From and after the time of the making of the order or orders hereinbefore provided for, declaring a union or joint union school district dissolved, the original school districts composing the same, with such additional territory as shall have been annexed to them, shall be considered to be in existence again, as separate districts, and subject to the provisions of sections fifteen hundred and ninety-three to sixteen hundred and two of this code,

CHAPTER 94.

An act to repeal an act entitled, "An act to provide for the dedication to public use for street purposes of certain lands of the state normal school at Los Angeles; to prescribe the conditions of such dedication; to authorize and empower the board of trustees of said state normal school to convey said lands to the city of Los Angeles to public use for street purposes, and to authorize and empower said board of trustees to make certain changes, alterations and repairs in the buildings and other improvements upon the lands of said state normal school arising out of such dedication," approved April 15, 1909.

[Approved April 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The act approved April 15, 1909, and entitled Repealed. "An act to provide for the dedication to public use for street purposes of certain lands of the state normal school at Los Angeles; to prescribe the conditions of such dedication; to authorize and empower the board of trustees of said state normal school to convey said lands to the city of Los Angeles to public use for street purposes, and to authorize and empower said board of trustees to make certain changes, alterations and repairs in the buildings and other improvements upon the lands of said state normal school arising out of such dedication," is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 95.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code of the State of California, to be designated as section number 3084, relating to the issuance of burial permits.

[Approved April 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be designated as section 3084, to read as follows:

Burial permit.

3084. No person, firm or corporation shall deposit in any cemetery, or inter in any cemetery in any county, city, or city and county in this state, any human body without first having obtained and filed with the board of health, or health officer, of the city, city and county, or county where the death occurred, a certificate, signed by a physician, or a coroner, setting forth as near as possible, the name, age, color, sex, place of birth, occupation, date, locality and the cause of death of the deceased, and obtain from said board of health or health officer a burial permit; nor shall any human body be removed or disinterred without a permit from the board of health, health officer, or by order of the coroner, of the county, city and county, or city in which the same is buried. A burial permit issued in one county, or city, or city and county, shall be valid and sufficient in any county which shall be specified therein as the place of interment, and shall be issued in duplicate, and shall be marked respectively original and duplicate. The original shall be retained by and filed with the board of health, or health officer issuing the same, and the duplicate shall be presented to and filed with the board of health or health officer of the county wherein the body is interred, and no further permit for burial shall be required, but any county burial fees required by law or ordinance shall be paid. Superintendents of cemeteries must return to the county board of health or health officer, and county recorder of the county where the interment is made, on each Monday, the names of all persons interred or deposited within their respective cemeteries for the preceding week. No superintendent of a cemetery shall remove, permit, or cause to be removed, disinter or cause or permit to be disinterred, any corpse that has been deposited in the cemetery, without a permit from the county board of health, or health officer, or by order of the county coroner. The board of health, or health officer must file a report with the county recorder on each Monday, showing the names of all persons interred in the county on permits issued outside of the county, for the preceding week, and by what board of health or health officers burial permits therefor were issued.

An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for and regulate the deposit of county and municipal moneys in banks and banking corporations, limiting the amount of public moneys that may be deposited therein, and providing a penalty for the illegal deposit and use thereof," approved March 23, 1907.

[Approved April 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for and regulate the deposit of county and municipal moneys in banks and banking corporations, limiting the amount of public moneys that may be deposited therein, and providing a penalty for the illegal deposit and use thereof," approved March 23, 1907, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. All moneys belonging to any county or municipality within the state may be deposited by any officer of such county or municipality having the legal custody of such county or municipal funds in any licensed national bank or banks within this state, or in any bank, banks or corporations authorized and licensed to do a banking business and organized under the laws of this state; provided, that such bank or banks in which such moneys are deposited shall furnish as security for such deposits bonds of the United States, or of this state, or of any county, municipality, school district, or irrigation district within this state, approved by the officer making the deposit and the district attorney for the county or city attorney for the municipality to which the deposit belongs. The market value of the bonds furnished shall be at least ten per cent in excess of the amount of the deposit secured thereby; but the amount of the deposit shall in no case exceed the face value of the bonds furnished as security therefor; and provided, that such bank or banks shall pay a reasonable rate of interest, not less than two per cent per annum, on the daily balances therein deposited.

CHAPTER 97.

An act to amend section six hundred and seventy-six of the Political Code relating to the investment of state school funds.

[Approved April 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred seventy-six of the Political Code, as amended by an act approved April 3, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 676. Whenever and as often as there is in the state treasury the sum of ten thousand dollars as the proceeds of the sale of state school lands, the board must invest the same in the bonds of this state, or in the bonds of the United States, or in the bonds of any county, permanent road district, city and county, city, town, school district, or irrigation district within this state; the investment to be made in such manner and on such terms as the board shall deem best for the fund. All such bonds purchased by the board under the provisions of this section must be delivered to the state treasurer, who shall keep them as a special school fund deposit, and the interest upon such bonds when collected, shall be placed by him to the credit of the state school fund.

CHAPTER 98.

An act to amend section three of an act entitled "An act to authorize the deposit of state moneys in banks in this state, and to repeal all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved February 28, 1907, and amended by an act approved March 24, 1911.

[Approved April 29, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of the act entitled "An act to authorize the deposit of state moneys in banks in this state, and to repeal all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved February 28, 1907, and amended by an act approved March 24, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Security for state funds deposited in banks.

Section 3. For the security of the funds deposited by the state treasurer under the provisions of this act, there shall be deposited with the treasurer bonds of the United States, or of this state of any county, municipality, school district or irrigation district within this state, which bonds shall be approved by the governor, controller and treasurer, to an amount in value at least ten per cent in excess of the amount of the deposit with such bank or banks; and if in any case, or at any time, such bonds are not deemed satisfactory security to the governor, controller and treasurer, they may require such additional security as may be satisfactory to them. Said bonds, or any part thereof, may be withdrawn on the written consent of the governor, controller and treasurer; provided, that a sufficient amount of said bonds to secure said deposits shall always be kept in the treasury; and in the event that said bank or banks of deposit shall fail to pay such deposits, or any part thereof, on the demand of the state treasurer, then it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to forthwith convert said bonds into money and to disburse the same according to law.

CHAPTER 99.

An act to create a drainage district to be called Knight's Landing ridge drainage district; to promote drainage therein by the making of a cut through Knight's Landing ridge, and the construction of a canal leading therefrom; to provide for the election and appointment of officers of said drainage district; defining the powers, duties and compensation of such officers; and providing for levying and collecting assessments upon the lands within said drainage district; the issuance of bonds by said drainage district and testing the validity of the levy of such assessments and the issuance of such bonds.

[Approved April 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A drainage district is hereby created to be known and designated "Knight's Landing ridge drainage district," the boundaries of which said district shall be as follows: Knight's

Officers.

SEC. 2. The officers of said district shall consist of a board of five drainage commissioners who shall hold office two years from and after their election or appointment and until their successors have qualified. Said drainage commissioners shall be selected as follows: three from that portion of said district to be known as the northern division and lying north of a line running east and west through the center of sections 15, 16 and 17 in township 11 north, range 2 east M. D. B. & M., and extended beyond the limits of the east and west lines of said sections through the east and west boundaries of said district, and two from that portion of said district to be known as the southern division and lying south of the above described line, and each of them must at the time of his election or appointment be the owner of at least forty (40) acres of land in said Knight's Landing ridge drainage district and in the portion of said district from which he is elected, the test of his qualification as such commissioner to be such land ownership and not residence in the portion of said district from which he is selected.

Election.

SEC. 3. An election shall be held within forty days after the date upon which this act shall take effect, and on the last Monday of October of every second calendar year thereafter, at which election said commissioners shall be elected. Said first election shall be called by the reclamation board created by that certain act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled: "An act approving the report of the California debris commission transmitted to the speaker of the house of representatives by the secretary of war on June 27th, 1911, directing the approval of plans of reclamation along the Sacramento river or its tributaries or upon the swamp lands adjacent to said river, directing the state engineer to procure data and make surveys and examinations for the purpose of perfecting the plans contained in said report of the California debris commission and to make report thereof, making an appropriation to pay the expenses of such examinations and surveys, and creating a reclamation board and defining its powers," and approved December 24, 1911. Said reclamation board shall, prior to said first election procure from the assessor of said counties of Yolo and Colusa, respectively, a list certified by such assessors respectively, containing a description of all the lands of the district situated in such counties, the name of the person to whom each tract is assessed and the value thereof, as appears from the last prior assessment roll of said counties, which said list shall be furnished to and be used by the board of election hereinafter described in determining the number of votes each voter is entitled to cast. Said reclamation board shall also designate the voting places for said first election and for all succeeding elections, one of which shall be located in the northern division of the district and one in the southern division thereof, as above defined. Notice of the time and place of holding all elections in each of said divisions shall be given by said reclamation board by publication once a week for two weeks next preceding such election, in some newspaper published in Colusa county and also in some newspaper published in Yolo county. In all elections other than the first, the board of drainage commissioners shall, prior to the election, procure from the assessors of said counties of Yolo and Colusa, respectively, a list certified by such assessors respectively, containing a description of all the lands of the district situated in such counties, the name of the person to whom each tract is assessed and the value thereof as it appears from the last prior assessment roll of said counties, which said list shall be furnished to and be used by the board of election hereinafter described in determining the number of votes each voter is entitled to cast. In all elections said reclamation board shall appoint an inspector and two judges of election for each voting place, who shall constitute a board of election for such voting places.

At all elections of commissioners each owner of land within each portion of said drainage district as above defined, shall be entitled to cast one vote, in person or by proxy, for each commissioner to be elected therein for each one dollar's worth of real estate owned by such land owner within said portion of said district, such valuation to be determined by the next preceding assessment roll of the county in which the same is situated. The estates of minors, incompetents or deceased persons shall be represented by the guardian, executor, administrator or trustee in person. Where a tract is situated partly within and partly without the boundaries of such district, or partly in the northern portion of the district and partly in the southern portion thereof, and the assessment roll contains a valuation of said tract of land as a whole, the same must be apportioned according to the number of acres lying within and without the boundaries of said district or north and south of the above defined division line respectively. No person shall vote by proxy at such election, unless authority to cast such vote shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing, duly acknowledged and certified in the same manner as grants of real property, and filed with the board of election. In case no board of election shall be appointed, or if any member thereof shall fail or refuse to serve, the landowners present (at the time of the opening of such election) may appoint such board of election or supply the place of an absent member. Each member of the board of election must, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, be sworn to perform them faithfully. Any person entitled to vote at such election may administer the oath. The polls shall be kept open from ten o'clock a.m. till four o'clock p.m. on the day of said election. The boards of election must keep a list of the names of the persons voting at such election, together with a statement of the number of votes cast by each, and shall canvass the votes and make a return thereof showing the number of votes cast for each person for drainage commissioner and shall return therewith said list containing the names of the landowners voting at such election. tion shall be by ballot, which ballots must contain the name of the person voting the same, the total number of votes cast, the names of the persons voted for and the number of votes cast for each of said persons. The ballots must be inclosed in an envelope by the election board, and delivered, with the election returns, to the said reclamation board, and said reclamation board shall cause a certificate of election to be issued by the secretary of said board to the person or persons receiving the highest number of legal votes. If a certificate of election shall be issued to any person who has not received the highest number of legal votes, and upon an affidavit being filed by a landowner in the portion of said drainage district from which such commissioner was declared elected, setting forth that such person did not receive the highest number of legal votes, and giving the names of the persons who cast illegal votes for such person, and the number of such illegal votes so cast, the said reclamation board shall canvass the election returns, and hear evidence touching the legality of any votes cast, and may revoke such certificate of election and issue a certificate to the person legally elected. Within fifteen days after receiving a certificate of election, and before entering upon the duties of his office, each drainage commissioner shall take the oath of office prescribed by law, and file the same in the office of said reclamation board. All vacancies in the board of drainage commissioners shall be filled by the said reclamation board, and such appointee shall hold office until the next succeeding election, and the qualification of his successor.

Meetings.

SEC. 4. The board of drainage commissioners shall elect one of their number as president, and shall elect a secretary who may or may not be a member of said board, and an engineer, who shall not be a member of said board, and employ such other persons as may be necessary to assist and advise said board. The office of said board of drainage commissioners shall be kept at the city of Sacramento, but the same may be changed by the said board from time to time. The board shall hold regular meetings upon the first and third Saturdays of each month, and may, in the by-laws of the district, provide for as many additional regular meetings as may be necessary, and at such meetings three of said members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any and all business. The days of holding regular meetings as fixed by this act may be changed by said board from time to time. Special meetings may be called and held at such times and in such manner as the by-laws may provide. Any meeting of the commissioners, at which all members of the board are present, shall be deemed a regular meeting at which any business may be transacted. No commissioner shall be disqualified from participating in any and all proceedings or actions of the board of drainage commissioners, except that he shall not cast a deciding vote upon a motion or resolution to pay money or award a contract directly to himself. Each commissioner shall receive ten dollars per day and necessary mileage actually expended while engaged in the performance of his duties.

SEC. 5. The board of drainage commissioners shall have ^{Powers.} power to adopt by-laws not in conflict with general laws; to appoint an executive committee with such powers as shall not be in conflict with general laws; to employ engineers and others to survey, plan, locate and estimate the cost of the works necessary for the drainage of the lands of the district; to thereafter, at any time, in its discretion, modify or change such original plan or plans, or adopt new, supplemental or additional plan or plans, when in its judgment the same shall have become necessary; provided, that said board of drainage commissioners must report to the reclamation board such original plan or plans of the work and every new, supplemental or additional plan, if any, together with the estimates of the cost of the works necessary for the drainage of the lands of the district, in pursuance of any such plan or plans, together with an estimate of incidental expenses; to acquire from private persons, reclamation, swamp land, levee or other public agencies or protection districts, or corporations, all rights of way, easements, property and material, whether outside or within the limits of the district, necessary or requisite for levees, canals and other drainage works, by donation, contract purchase or by proceedings under the provisions of title VII part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California for condemnation thereof in the name of the district or any other provision of law in relation to the right of eminent domain; to sue and be sued in the name of said drainage district and to do all other acts or things necessary or requisite for the full exercise of its powers or necessary for the promotion of the drainage of lands within said drainage district. It shall be the duty of said board of drainage commissioners to take such steps as may be necessary to open a cut through Knight's Landing ridge in Yolo county, and to construct a canal leading from said cut for the purpose of draining and disposing of the waters of Colusa basin by carrying the same to the head of the proposed Yolo by-pass in section eight, township 10 north, range 3 east, M. D. B. and M., in said county of Yolo, as defined by and in accordance with the general plan of the California debris commission, transmitted to the speaker of the house of representatives of the United States by the secretary of war, on the 27th day of June, 1911, with such modifications or amendments as may hereafter be adopted by said reclamation board, and in accordance with such plan as shall be approved by said reclamation board, or made in accordance with law and in the manner hereinafter provided. The said canal shall be of such size and the embankments thereof of sufficient strength and dimensions as to prevent the waters therein from overflowing its banks. No water shall be permitted to flow through any cut or excavation in said ridge provided to be made in this act until the canal to be constructed as hereinbefore provided shall have been completed so ^{Drainage of Colusa basin.}

as to convey the waters flowing or to flow through said cut to the head of said proposed Yolo by-pass in said section eight, in a manner satisfactory to the said reclamation board. Said reclamation board shall have power to direct the method of the construction of said cut, canal and levees. Said drainage commissioners shall also have power to construct such gates in said canal or ridge, or in or near Sycamore slough where the same enters the Sacramento river above said ridge, as may be necessary to carry out such plan. If required by the said reclamation board, such gates must be constructed before such ridge is cut or excavated.

Assessors.

SEC. 6. The said reclamation board shall upon receipt of plans and estimates, as above set forth, appoint three assessors, who shall be disinterested persons, and who shall have no interest in any real estate within said drainage district, and each of whom, before entering upon his duties, shall make and subscribe an oath that he is not in any manner interested in any real estate within said district, directly or indirectly, and that he will perform the duties of an assessor to the best of his ability. Said assessors must assess upon the land within said drainage district the said sum so estimated by the board of drainage commissioners, and shall apportion the same according to the benefits that will accrue to each tract of land in said district, respectively, by reason of the expenditure of said sums of money. Said assessors shall make a separate list of the lands so assessed in each county, which list shall contain a description of the tracts of land assessed, by swamp land surveys, legal subdivisions, or other boundaries or references sufficient to identify the same; the name of the owner, if known or if unknown, that fact; the amount of the charge assessed against each tract. No mistake in the name of the owner or supposed owner, of any real estate shall invalidate the assessment. Said lists, when completed, shall be filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county of Yolo, State of California. The said board of supervisors shall appoint a time when it will meet for the purpose of hearing objections to said assessment, and notice of such hearing shall be given by publication for four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of Yolo, and in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of Colusa. At any time before the date of such hearing any person interested in any land upon which any charge has been assessed may file written objections to such assessments with the clerk of said board of supervisors stating the grounds of such objections, which said statement shall be verified by the affidavit of such person, or some other person who is familiar with the facts. At said hearing the said board of supervisors shall hear such evidence as may be offered in support of said written objection, and may modify or amend the assessment in any particular, or make a reapportionment of the entire assessment. If the amount of any assessment in said list shall be changed, the said board of supervisors shall set a day for hearing objections to said assessment as changed, and shall give notice thereof by publication for four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of Yolo, and in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of Colusa. At such hearing objections in writing may be made by any person interested, and the board of supervisors shall proceed to hear the same in the same manner as upon the original hearing. If the amount of any assessment shall again be changed, the said board of supervisors shall proceed as before to give notice and to hear objections thereto, and shall proceed in a similar manner until the amount of each assessment shall be finally fixed and approved. The said board of supervisors shall then make an order approving said assessment, and shall endorse such order upon such assessment list, which said endorsement shall be signed by the chairman of said board of supervisors and attested by the clerk thereof, and such decision of said board of supervisors shall be final, and thereafter said assessment list shall be conclusive evidence that the said assessment has been made and levied according to law, except in an action commenced, as hereinafter provided. Immediately after the approval of said assessment the order approving same shall, by the clerk of said board of supervisors, be deposited in the office of the county treasurer of Yolo county, and a copy thereof shall be certified to by said clerk and deposited by said clerk in the office of the treasurer of Colusa county. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the said board of supervisors may commence an action in the superior court of the county in which the greater part of said district is situated, to have said assessment corrected, modified or annulled. Such action must be commenced within thirty days after said assessment list has been filed in the office of the county treasurer of the county in which the land affected is situated. If said action shall not be commenced within said thirty days, no action or defense shall thereafter be maintained attacking the legality of said assessment in any respect.

Action to correct.

SEC. 7. From and after the filing of the list with the treasurer of each respective county, the charges assessed upon any tract of land within the said county shall constitute a lien thereon and shall impart notice thereof to all persons. No subsequent act or conduct of the commissioners shall invalidate said assessment or lien, but such commissioners may be compelled by mandate or other proper proceeding to perform their duties, as required by law. The list thus prepared and filed must remain in the offices of the respective treasurers for thirty days from such filing, or longer if ordered by the board of drainage commissioners, and during the time they so remain, any person may pay the amount of the charge assessed against any tract of land to the treasurer of the county in which such tract is situated in gold coin of the United States, or in warrants of the district. At the end of thirty days, the treasurers must return the lists to the board of commissioners of the district, and all unpaid assessments shall thereafter bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, and shall be collected and paid in separate installments, of such amounts, and at such time, respectively, as the board, from time to time, in its discretion, may, by order entered in its minutes, direct; if any such installment shall remain unpaid at the expiration of thirty days from the date of the order, then said installment shall become delinquent, together with the accrued interest thereon, and ten per cent of the amount of said installment and interest shall be added thereto, and collected for the use of the district; provided, further, that the commissioners must on the first day of January of each year, except when bonds shall have been issued on the assessment, order the collection of a sufficient amount of said assessment to pay all warrants that have been issued and outstanding for a period of two years or more, together with the interest on such warrants. Immediately after the said installment has become delinquent, the board of drainage commissioners must publish a notice at least once each week for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which any land upon which such installment may be delinquent is situated, which notice shall contain a description of the property assessed, the name of the person to whom it is assessed, or a statement that it is assessed to unknown owners, if such be the fact; the amount of the delinquent installment, the amount of the interest at the date of delinquency, the amount of the penalty that has been added as above provided, and a notice that the property assessed will be sold on a date therein stated, at such place in said district as the board of commissioners may in said notice designate, to pay said installment with accrued interest and the penalty hereinbefore specified. At the time stated in said notice, or such other time to which said sale may have been postponed, the commissioners must sell said property to the highest bidder for gold coin of the United States. Out of the proceeds of said sale the commissioners must pay the amount of said installment with the accrued interest thereon and the penalty herein provided for to the county treasurer of the county of Yolo who shall place the same in the proper funds of said district, and the commissioners must pay to the owner of said property any surplus remaining after such payment to said county treasurer. The commissioners may postpone said sale from time to time by a written notice posted at the place of sale. If no bid is made for said property equal to the amount of said installment, accrued interest and penalty, the district shall become the purchaser, and the said property must be struck off to the district for the amount of said installment, accrued interest and penalty. A certificate of such sale shall be executed by the commissioners to the purchaser, or to the district, if the property shall have been struck off to the district, and said certificate of sale shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the land sold is situated, or if situated in two counties, then in the office of the county recorder of each thereof. Any person interested in said property may redeem the same at any time within one year after the date of said sale, by paying to the county treasurer of Yolo county the amount of said installment with the accrued interest and penalty, and interest on the said sums at the rate of two per cent per month from the date of said sale. Redemption of property.

If no redemption shall be made within said one year, the purchaser, or the district, if said property shall have been sold to the district, shall be entitled to a deed executed by said commissioners, and the effect of such deed shall be to convey said property free of all liens and incumbrances, excepting state, county and municipal taxes, and the liens of assessments now levied or which may hereafter be levied by any of the reclamation districts situate within said drainage district, and the unpaid balance of said assessment, which said balance must be called in and collected in the same manner as other assessments: provided, that where said property shall have been decided to the district and shall not have been sold by the commissioners, the same shall not be offered for sale for subsequent installments of said assessments so long as the district shall remain the owner of said property, but the commissioners may sell said property at any time at public auction after notice given for the same period and in the same manner as is herein provided for sales for delinquent installments, but not for a sum less than all delinquent unpaid installments with accrued interest and penalties, and the deed executed in pursuance of such sale shall convey said property free of all incumbrances, except state, county and other municipal taxes, the lien of any assessments levied or which may hereafter be levied by any reclamation district within said drainage district and the unpaid balance of said assessment. Deed.
Sale of property decided to district.

In all cases where an assessment shall hereafter be levied for drainage purposes on the lands embraced within said drainage district, if, for any reason, any tract or tracts of land shall not have been charged with said assessment, then such tract or tracts of land shall be charged in any subsequent assessment with such proportion of the former assessment as the benefits derived by said lands from the drainage works, for which said former assessment was levied, bears to the whole amount of said former assessment; or a subsequent re-assessment of such tract or tracts of land may be made separately for the purpose of charging said land with its proper proportion of the costs of drainage. Such re-assessment shall be made by assessors appointed by the reclamation board, as provided by this act, and must be made and approved in the same manner as other assessments. The assessors appointed by the reclamation board must make a list of the charges assessed against each tract of land; and, if there be any error or mistake in the description of the land or in the name of the owner, or if any land which should be assessed has been, or shall be, omitted from the list, or if there is any error or mistake in any other respect, the Land omitted from list.
Correction of mistakes.

said assessors may amend or correct the same at any time before the filing of such list with the clerk of the board of supervisors as hereinbefore provided. Where payment is made in warrants of the district, legal interest must be computed thereon from the date thereof to the time of such payment, when said warrants must be surrendered to the county treasurer of the county of Yolo and by him canceled.

Payment of warrants.

SEC. 8. The warrants drawn by the commissioners must be presented to the treasurer of the county of Yolo, and if they are not paid on presentation, such indorsement must be made thereon and they must be registered and bear interest from the date of such warrants at the rate of seven (7) per cent per annum and shall be payable in the order of their registration. Such warrants are, and shall be, considered as contracts in writing for the payment of money, and the period prescribed for the commencement of an action based upon the said warrants, or connected therewith, is, and shall be, the term of four (4) years from the date of their issuance. Any owner of land in the district may, at any time, pay any assessment thereon, excepting an assessment upon which bonds have been issued, or any part thereof, with warrants of the district. No warrant shall be paid or received on an assessment, except within four (4) years after the date of its issuance. The board of drainage commissioners and the county treasurer of Yolo county must cancel all warrants not paid within four (4) years after the date of issuance; provided, that any warrant not paid or received on assessment within four (4) years after date of the issuance may, before the expiration of such four (4) years, upon the demand of the owner or holder, be extended for a like period of four (4) years upon the presentation of the same to the board of commissioners of the district, such extension being indorsed thereon by the said board and a record thereof filed with the county treasurer of Yolo county. Said warrants may also thereafter be renewed from time to time in the same manner.

Cancellation of warrants.

In case an action or proceeding, based upon any warrant or connected therewith, be commenced within four (4) years from the date of issuance of such warrant and final judgment be obtained in favor of the owner or holder thereof, such warrant shall be paid or received on assessment in like manner as if it had been paid or received on assessment before the expiration of said four (4) years from the date of its issuance. In any proceedings for a writ of mandate to compel the board of drainage commissioners to issue a warrant, if a controversy arises as to the amount that may be due to the plaintiff, the court must determine the same in the manner provided for determining controversies in other civil actions and shall cause a writ to issue for such sum as may be found to be due. At any time after the issuance of a warrant the holder or owner thereof with the consent of the board of drainage commissioners may surrender the said warrant, and a new warrant for the face thereof and accrued interest thereon shall thereupon be issued to the owner or holder in the same manner as the original warrant. Whenever there shall be sufficient moneys in the county treasury of Yolo county to the credit of said drainage district to pay any warrant or warrants which have been registered and drawing interest, the said county treasurer must give notice by a written notice posted in a conspicuous place in his office, stating therein that he is ready to pay such warrants. From and after the date of posting such notice, such warrants shall cease to draw interest.

SEC. 9. Whenever in said Knight's Landing ridge drainage district any assessment has been levied and assessed upon the lands of said district, which remains unpaid in whole or in part, and where in the judgment and opinion of the board of drainage commissioners of said district it would be for the best interests of said district or the landowners therein to issue bonds for the purpose of obtaining money to pay the cost of drainage, the indebtedness of the district or any other legal charge, or when a petition signed by the owners of more than one half of the land in the district is filed with the secretary of the board, the board of drainage commissioners of said district shall by order entered upon the records of said board order a special election to be held at some place in said district to be designated by said board of drainage commissioners, at which said special election shall be submitted to the owners of land in said district the question of whether or not bonds of said district shall be issued in an amount equal to the amount of such indebtedness or the part of such assessment remaining unpaid, which said amount shall be entered by said board of drainage commissioners in its records and stated by them in the order for such special election. After the making of such order no part of the assessment or assessments so designated shall be paid until after said election shall have been held, and if the vote of said election shall be favorable to the issuance of such bonds, said assessment or assessments shall be paid or collected only when demanded for the purpose of redeeming said bonds. Notice of such special election must be given by said board of drainage commissioners by posting notices thereof in at least three public places in the district, at least twenty days prior thereto, and also by publication for the same length of time in some newspaper of general circulation published in each of said counties of Yolo and Colusa, and such notice must specify the time and place of holding such election, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, and the names of three land holders of the district to act as a board of election. Affidavits of publication and posting of such notice must be filed with the secretary of said board of drainage commissioners. At such election each owner of lands in the district shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy, and shall have the right to cast one vote for each dollar's worth of real estate owned by him in the district, the value thereof to be determined from the next preceding assessment roll of the county where the same is situated. The board of drainage commissioners shall, prior to the election, procure from the assessor of the said counties of Yolo and Colusa, respectively, a list certified by such assessors, respectively, containing a description of all the lands of the district situated in such county, the name of the person to whom such tract is assessed and the value thereof, as it appears from the last prior assessment roll of said counties, which said list shall be furnished to and be used by the said board of election in determining the number of votes each voter is entitled to cast. Executors, administrators, special administrators and guardians may cast the votes of the estates represented by them. Where a tract of land is situated partly within and partly without the boundaries of such district and the assessment roll contains a valuation of said tract of land as a whole, the same must be apportioned according to the number of acres lying within and without the boundaries of said district. No person shall vote by proxy at such election unless authority to cast such vote shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing duly acknowledged and certified in the same manner as grants of real property and filed with the board of election. The ballots cast at such election shall contain the words: "Bonds—Yes," or the words: "Bonds—No," and also the name of the person casting the ballot with the number of votes cast by him. A list of the ballots cast shall be made by the board of election, containing the name of the voter and, if the ballot be cast by proxy, the name of the person casting it, the number of votes cast and whether the same be cast for or against the issuing of the bonds.

Canvass of votes.

If the persons, or any of them appointed and specified in the notice of election as the board of election fail to attend at the time and place appointed for the election, the voters present at the time for opening the polls may appoint any landowner of the district then present to fill the place of any absent member thereof. Each member of such board of election must, before entering upon his duties as such, take an official oath as such member of the board of election, which said oath may be administered by any officer authorized to administer oaths or by any landowner in the district. The polls shall be kept open for the reception of votes from ten o'clock a.m. until four o'clock p.m. At the close of the polls the board of election shall at once proceed to canvass the votes and declare the result and shall forward a certificate, showing the same and the number of votes cast for and against the issuing of bonds, to the secretary of said board of drainage commissioners. Any person interested may contest such election within twenty days after the result thereof has been declared by filing a complaint in the superior court of the county of Yolo, and if no contest shall be commenced within said time, the declaration of the result by the board of election shall be final and conclusive.

Majority favors.

If a majority of the votes cast at such election are in favor of the issuance of bonds, the board of drainage commissioners of said district shall cause bonds in the amount stated in the order for the election to be executed and delivered together with the assessment list, to the treasurer of the county of Yolo. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars; they shall be signed by the president of the board of drainage commissioners of said district and attested by the secretary of said board, and shall be numbered consecutively as sold, and bear date at the time of their execution, and shall bear interest at such rate as may be fixed by said board of drainage commissioners, but not to exceed the rate of seven per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year, at the office of said county treasurer of Yolo county upon the presentation of the proper coupons therefor. If any coupon shall not be paid when presented because there are no funds, said county treasurer shall indorse such coupon "not paid for want of funds," and thereafter the amount due on such coupon shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, compounded semi-annually. Coupons for each installment of interest shall be attached to said bonds and shall be numbered with the same number as the bonds, and attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary of said board. The principal of said bonds shall be payable at such times as said board of drainage commissioners may prescribe, which time must be expressed in said bonds; but not less than ten per centum of the whole amount of bonds issued, according to their consecutive numbers, shall be paid in ten years from the date of their issue, and no less than five per centum thereof each succeeding year thereafter until all are paid. All bonds must be made payable either on the first day of July or the first day of January. If any bond shall not be presented for payment when the same becomes due, it shall cease to draw interest, but, if presented at such time and not paid for want of funds, the said county treasurer shall so indorse it and thereafter such bond shall draw interest until paid at said rate therein provided, until funds shall have been provided for its payment, which bonds shall be substantially in the following form:

bonds.

The treasurer of said county of Yolo shall place the bonds prepared pursuant to this act to the credit of said district and shall, when directed by the board of drainage commissioners of the district, sell any of said bonds for the best price obtainable therefor. Before making a sale of said bonds, notice shall be given by said county treasurer that he will sell a specified amount of said bonds, and stating the day, hour and place of such sale. Such notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by him for the purchase of said bonds or any part thereof till the day and hour named in the notice. Such notice shall be given at least twenty days before such sale, by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of Yolo, and in such other newspaper or newspapers as the board of drainage commissioners may designate. At the time appointed said county treasurer and board of drainage commissioners shall open the bids and award the purchase of the bonds to the highest and best responsible bidder. Said board may reject any and all bids. In case no bid is received and accepted, as herein provided, or a sufficient amount of bonds shall not be sold to carry on the work of construction as contemplated, the board of drainage commissioners of said district may enter into and make contracts for constructing the drainage works of said district, payable in said bonds, at par, and may use such bonds in payment for labor or services performed for, or materials or property furnished to, said district, for the purpose of constructing the drainage works thereof and the expenses necessarily incident thereto; and in making such payments in bonds, the board of drainage commissioners of said district may draw orders upon said county treasurer, payable in bonds, to the amount therein named, for such labor, materials or services so rendered, which order shall thereafter be paid with bonds at par by said county treasurer, upon presentation, to the amount therein provided for, if such bonds then remaining in the treasury be sufficient to pay the same. Any money derived from the sale of said bonds by said county treasurer shall be placed in the treasury of the county of Yolo to the credit of said district, and a proper record of such transaction shall be placed upon the books of said county treasurer. The board of drainage commissioners of said district may draw orders upon the said county treasurer to pay any legal charge against said district out of the funds provided by sale of said bonds, which orders must be paid by said county treasurer out of any money, excepting the bond redemption fund, then remaining in said treasury to the credit of said district, and no order upon the said county treasurer shall be issued by the board of drainage commissioners unless there are sufficient funds in said treasury to the credit of said district to pay said order. The principal of said bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid by revenue derived as follows: Ninety days before any sum or sums shall become due or payable on account of the principal or interest or both of said bonds, the board of drainage commissioners of the district shall direct that such installment of the assessment theretofore levied on the lands of said district and upon which the bonds were issued, as may be necessary to pay the same, shall be collected in the manner hereinabove provided and paid into the county treasury to the credit of the bond fund of said district. Should default be made in the payment of any such installment hereinbefore provided for, or any part thereof, the same shall be collected in the manner provided for by law, and the laws providing for the collection of reclamation assessments, or for installments thereof, are hereby made applicable to and available for the collection of the installments herein provided for. No part of the money collected upon the assessment or assessments, for which said bonds were issued, shall be used for any purpose other than the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, and all sums received by the treasurer from said assessments shall be set apart as a separate fund to be known as the bond fund for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon, such payments must be made upon the principal of said bonds in the order of their maturity.

All sums to be paid to the treasurer of any county, other than the treasurer of the county in which the greater part of said district is situated, shall immediately be paid by said treasurer to the treasurer of the county in which the greater part of the district is situated, who shall place the same to the credit of the district, as hereinabove provided. Upon a sale of any of said bonds, said county treasurer is hereby authorized to accept valid outstanding warrants of such district, with the accrued interest thereon, in payment for said bonds. No county assessor, tax collector, auditor or clerk shall receive any fee for any service required to be performed by them under the provisions of this act. All expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid out of any funds in the county treasury, excepting the bond fund, to the credit of said district, upon the order of the board of drainage commissioners of said district. The bonds of said Knight's Landing ridge drainage district, issued pursuant to this act, may be lawfully purchased or received in pledge for loans by banks, trust companies, guardians, executors, administrators and special administrators, or by any public officer or officers of this state, or of any county, city, or city and county, or other municipal or corporate body within this state having or holding funds which they are allowed by law to invest or loan. If the assessment in said district, upon which bonds may have been issued, proves inadequate to provide funds to pay the principal and interest of said bonds in full, or if any deficiency arises, another assessment must be made upon the lands in such district sufficient to pay such deficiency and assessments must be made from time to time to meet any deficiency arising in the payment of such bonds. If the drainage commissioners deem it advisable, they may order a special election to be held prior to the making of an assessment, to determine whether or not bonds shall be issued for an amount to be stated in the order for such election, but no bonds shall, in such instance, be issued until an assessment for the amount of the bonds authorized at such election shall have been made and filed with the county treasurer. If the authority to issue bonds shall be determined at such special election held prior to making the assessment, the bonds may be issued for the amount of the assessment remaining unpaid after the lists are returned to the board of drainage commissioners by the county treasurers of the respective counties, or for any less sum. Should, at any time, the amounts realized from the sale of bonds be inadequate to pay the cost of the works required by the plans of drainage, then the said board of drainage commissioners may dispense with the further sale of bonds and proceed to collect the unpaid assessments in installments as hereinbefore provided in this act.

County officers to receive no fees.

Should reclamation board be abolished.

SEC. 10. Nothing in this act shall be construed to in any way authorize or empower said board of drainage commissioners to in any way interfere with the management or control of reclamation districts Nos. 108, 730 and 787, or any other reclamation districts situate within the boundaries of said district, or to supersede the powers of such districts.

SEC. 11. In case the reclamation board shall at any time be abolished by the repeal of the act creating the same, or in any other way, or in case said reclamation board shall for any reason be unable to act under the powers and duties conferred and required of it by this act, all powers and duties vested in it by this act shall be vested in the board of drainage commissioners of said Knight's Landing ridge drainage district, except that as to the first election provided in section 3 hereof for five commissioners to be held forty days after this act goes into effect, the board of supervisors of Yolo county shall have jurisdiction and perform all acts and duties enjoined on said reclamation board.

SEC. 12. The board of drainage commissioners may, at any time after the issue of any bonds or the levy of any assessment herein provided for, bring an action in the superior court of the county of Yolo, to determine the validity of any such bonds of such levy of assessments; such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons at least once a week for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in said county of Yolo, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings. Jurisdiction shall be complete within ten days after the full publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any one interested may at any time before the expiration of said ten days appear and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such bonds or assessments. Such action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring such matter so contested either valid or invalid. Either party may have the right to appeal to the supreme court at any time within thirty days after the rendition of such judgment, which appeal must be heard and determined within three months from the time of taking such appeal. If no such proceeding shall have been brought by the board of drainage commissioners, then, at any time within thirty days after the levy of any assessment or issue of bonds under the provisions of this act, any district assessment payer may bring an action in the superior court of the county of Yolo, to determine the validity of any such assessment or such bonds. The board of drainage commissioners shall be made parties defendant and service of summons shall be made on the members of the board personally. Said board shall have the right to appear and contest such action. Such action shall be speedily tried, with right of appeal to either party within the time and manner herein provided for the bringing of actions by the board of drainage commissioners to determine such matters. Such appeal shall be heard and determined in the manner and within the time therein provided. If more than one action shall be pending at the same time concerning similar contests in this act provided for, they shall be consolidated and tried together. The court hearing any of the contests herein provided for, in inquiring into the regularity, legality, or correctness of such proceedings, must disregard any error, irregularity, or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action or proceeding.

Validity
of bonds.

The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are applicable to all actions or proceedings herein provided for. The motion for a new trial of any such action or proceeding must be heard and determined within ten days from the filing of the notice of intention. The costs of any hearing, or contest herein provided for, may be allowed and apportioned between the parties, or taxed to the losing party, in the discretion of the court. No contest of any thing or matter herein provided shall be made other than within the time and manner herein specified.

SEC. 13. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

An act creating a reclamation district to be called and known as "Reclamation District No. 1500;" providing for the management and control thereof and dissolving all levee districts, swamp land districts, and reclamation districts, lying wholly within the boundaries of said Reclamation District No. 1500, providing for the liquidation and winding up of said dissolved districts, and excluding from any levee district, swamp land district and reclamation district any land lying within the boundaries of said Reclamation District No. 1500..

[Approved April 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A reclamation district is hereby created to be called and known as "Reclamation District No. 1500," and the boundaries of said reclamation district shall be as follows: Beginning at a point on the section line between sections thirteen (13) and twenty-four (24), township thirteen (13) north, range two (2) east, M. D. B. and M., said point being 700 feet west of the southeast corner of said section thirteen (13), thence south 51 degrees 20 minutes east 4144 feet, thence south 39 degrees 48 minutes east 19,574 feet, thence south 5 degrees 58 minutes east 11,332 feet to a point 580 feet east of the southwest (S.W.) corner of the northwest quarter (N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section fifteen (15), township twelve (12) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M., thence along a meander line parallel to and 5665 feet from the right bank of the Feather river to a point 200 feet east of the northeast (N.E.) corner of the southeast quarter (S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section seventeen (17), township eleven (11) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M., thence south 3 degrees 43 minutes east 4120 feet, thence south 13 degrees 37 minutes west 3025 feet, thence south 23 degrees 52 minutes west 2460 feet to a point which bears west 70 feet from the northwest (N.W.) corner of the southeast quarter (S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$) of the northeast quarter of section twenty-nine (29), township eleven (11) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M., thence south 34 degrees 52 minutes west 2354 feet to a point on the left bank of the Sacramento river at Kinney's bend, thence south 34 degrees 52 minutes west to a point on the left bank of the Sacramento river at Wild Irishman bend, thence following the meanderings of the left bank of the Sacramento river up-stream to the south line of section twenty-six (26), township fourteen (14) north, range one (1) east, M. D. B. and M., thence east to the southeast (S.E.) corner of section twenty-five (25), township fourteen (14) north, range one (1) east, M. D. B. and M., thence east to a point on the section line between sections twenty-seven (27) and thirty-four (34), township fourteen (14) north, range two (2) east, M. D. B. and M., said point being 3875 feet west of the southeast corner of said section twenty-seven (27), thence south 14 degrees 2 minutes east 13,080 feet, thence south 51 degrees 20 minutes east, 13,605 feet more or less to the point of beginning. The purpose for which the said district is created is to reclaim the lands situated within the boundaries thereof, or such part thereof as may be deemed necessary by the board of trustees thereof, and for this purpose the board of trustees thereof shall adopt plans, as in its judgment it may deem best, for the reclamation of said lands, or such part thereof as it deems desirable. It shall be the duty of said reclamation district No. 1500 to construct a levee, forming the south side of Tisdale by-pass, and a portion of the westerly side of the Sutter basin by-pass, the center line of which levee shall be substantially along the following lines; the same having been approved by the state reclamation board March 31st, 1913: Beginning at a point eighty feet (80) from the left bank of the Sacramento river in section thirty-five (35), township fourteen (14) north, range one (1) east, M. D. B. and M., said point being at the intersection of the center lines of the proposed Sacramento river levee and the existing south Tisdale weir levee and approximately two hundred (200) feet south of the south end of Tisdale weir, thence in a north-easterly direction along the center line of the existing south Tisdale weir levee to a point two hundred and forty (240) feet south of the south line of section twenty-five (25), township fourteen (14) north, range one (1) east, M. D. B. and M., and approximately one thousand two hundred (1200) feet east of the southwest (S.W.) corner of said section twenty-five (25), thence east on a line parallel to and two hundred and forty (240) feet south of the section line between sections twenty-five (25) and thirty-six (36), township fourteen (14) north, range one (1) east, and between sections thirty (30) and thirty-one (31), twenty-nine (29) and thirty-two (32), twenty-eight (28) and thirty-three (33), twenty-seven (27) and thirty-four (34), township fourteen (14) north, range two (2) east, M. D. B. and M. to a point two

D. B. and M., thence south fourteen (14) degrees two (2) minutes east twelve thousand nine hundred (12,900) feet, thence south fifty-one (51) degrees twenty (20) minutes east, thirteen thousand two hundred (13,200) feet to a point on the section line between sections thirteen (13) and twenty-four (24), township thirteen (13) north, range two (2) east, M. D. B. and M., said point being west one thousand and ten (1010) feet from the southeast (S.E.) corner of section thirteen (13), township thirteen (13) north, range two (2) east, M. D. B. and M., thence south fifty-one (51) degrees twenty (20) minutes east four thousand eight hundred (4800) feet, thence south (S.) thirty-nine (39) degrees forty-eight (48) minutes east (E.) nineteen thousand three hundred (19,300) feet, thence south (S.) four (4) degrees twenty (20) minutes east eleven thousand one hundred (11,100) feet to a point two hundred (200) feet east (E.) of the southwest (S.W.) corner of the northwest quarter (N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section fifteen (15), township twelve (12) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M., thence along a meander line parallel to and approximately six thousand (6000) feet from the right bank of the Feather river to a point fifty (50) feet west of the northeast (N.E.) corner of the southeast quarter (S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section seventeen (17) township eleven (11) north, range three (3) east (E.), M. D. B. and M., thence south (S.) three (3) degrees forty-three (43) minutes east (E.) four thousand and thirty (4030) feet, thence south (S.) thirteen (13) degrees thirty-seven (37) minutes west (W.) three thousand (3000) feet, thence south (S.) twenty-three (23) degrees fifty-two (52) minutes west (W.) two thousand five hundred and thirty (2530) feet to a point which bears west (W.) three hundred (300) feet from the northwest (N.W.) corner of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter (S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty-nine (29), township eleven (11) north, range three (3) east M. D. B. and M., thence south (S.) forty (40) degrees eight (8) minutes west (W.) two thousand five hundred (2500) feet to a point four hundred and ten (410) feet from the left bank of the Sacramento river at Kinney's bend, thence south thirty-four (34) degrees fifty-two (52) minutes west (W.) to a point eighty (80) feet from the left bank of the Sacramento river at Wild Irishman bend; the line of said levee to be located on the ground by the state department of engineering, and it shall be the duty of said reclamation district No. 1500 to continue the construction of a levee along the left bank of the Sacramento river, or adjacent thereto, from the said Wild Irishman bend, up-stream, to the place of beginning. It shall also be the duty of said reclamation district No. 1500 to construct a levee through levee district No. 1, forming a portion of the easterly side of the Sutter basin bypass, the said levee beginning at the southeast corner of the southwest quarter of section two (2), township thirteen (13) north, range two (2) east, M. D. B. and M., and extending thence south 51 degrees 20 minutes east sixteen thousand nine hundred four (16,904) feet to the southeast corner of section eighteen (18), township thirteen (13) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M., and when said last mentioned levee shall have been constructed, it shall be the duty of said reclamation district No. 1500 to remove those portions of the existing levee of levee district No. 1, lying between the last named levee and the easterly levee of said reclamation district No. 1500, and full power and authority are hereby conferred upon said reclamation district No. 1500 to do any and all of said acts. No part of the land which may lie outside of any of said levees mentioned in this act, nor any portion thereof, nor any easement, nor right of way therein, or thereover, or in connection therewith, shall be deemed dedicated to the public use.

SEC. 2. The management and control of said reclamation district No. 1500 is hereby made subject to the provisions of article I of chapter I of title VIII of part III of the Political Code of the State of California relating to swamp and overflowed lands and reclamation districts, or any amendments or additions thereto, except as otherwise provided in this act, the management and control of said reclamation district No. 1500 shall be vested in five trustees, who shall hold office for a term of four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. F. W. Kiesel, Edward H. Gerber, Charles F. Silva, P. J. Hiatt and A. T. Spencer are hereby appointed trustees for the said reclamation district to act until their successors are elected and qualified. An election of five trustees shall be held in said district on the third Tuesday in October, 1917, and on the third Tuesday in October every four years thereafter, and the term of office shall be four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. In case of any vacancy in the office of trustee of said district, the governor of the state shall appoint a qualified person as trustee, who shall hold said office for the portion of said unexpired term. The office of said district shall be in the city of Sacramento and in such place as the board of trustees thereof may from time to time fix. The board of supervisors of the county of Sutter shall have jurisdiction of all matters concerning said district to the same extent as if the said district was formed under the provisions of the said Political Code of the State of California, except as otherwise provided in this act. All funds of said district shall be deposited in the county treasury of said county of Sutter and shall be disbursed by the treasurer of said county in payment of the warrants of said district. Said district shall have power to make by-laws in conformity with the provisions of law, and shall have all the rights and powers, which are now, or may hereafter be, conferred by the provisions of the Political Code, or by other laws of the State of California upon reclamation or swamp land districts, and shall also have the right and power of purchasing real and personal property and rights of way within the boundaries of said district, or outside thereof, as may be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of said district, or to acquire the same by condemnation proceedings in the manner provided by law, and shall also have the right and power to join with other reclamation districts, levee districts or swamp land districts or other persons in the construction and maintenance of levees and reclamation works, and to contract for the same, and also to do all other acts and things that may be incident to or necessary to the reclamation of the lands of said district, as the board of trustees thereof may determine. All of the provisions of the Political Code of the State of California, unless inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are made a part of this act, and shall be deemed to be incorporated herein. The said reclamation district hereby created shall have the power, in addition to the power hereby conferred, to do all other acts or things that any reclamation district or swamp land district within the State of California has power to do under any existing law or any law hereafter enacted.

dissolved.

SEC. 3. All reclamation districts, levee districts or swamp land districts wholly situated within the boundaries of said reclamation district are hereby dissolved, except for the purpose of liquidation and the disposition of its property, and for this purpose only the existence of said districts are continued. Any land situated within the boundaries of reclamation district No. 1500 that is situated within any reclamation district, levee district or swamp land district, is hereby excluded from any such reclamation district, levee district or swamp land district, but such lands so excluded shall be liable for the just proportion of the indebtedness of such reclamation district, levee district or swamp land district to be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of law. Each of the said reclamation districts, swamp land districts or levee districts that is dissolved by the provisions of this act shall pay all legal outstanding indebtedness that each may respectively owe, and may cause the assessments or taxes to be levied and collected therefor, as may be authorized by law. Any reclamation district, levee district or swamp land district mentioned in this section shall have the right to grant and sell to the said reclamation district No. 1500 any levees, reclamation works, rights of way, easements or other property owned or controlled by any such reclamation district or levee district or swamp land district, and the said reclamation district No. 1500 is authorized and empowered to purchase the same or any part thereof; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to take away any power from the state reclamation board; and provided further, that the lines of levee described in this act shall not be changed, except by the legislature, but shall remain as herein provided.

Levees.

SEC. 4. The said reclamation district No. 1500 shall have the right to construct levees or any of its works of reclamation, either within or without the boundaries of the reclamation district, for the purpose of promoting the reclamation of the lands within said district. Any land outside of the said reclamation district may be incorporated within said reclamation district upon the written consent of the owners of such land and of the board of trustees of said reclamation district, filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county of Sutter, State of California, and thereupon the said lands shall be deemed incorporated within the boundaries of the said reclamation district to all intents and purposes, as if the same was originally included therein.

SEC. 5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 101.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the establishment and quieting of title to real property in case of the loss or destruction of public records, approved June 16, 1906, as amended by an act approved March 6, 1909, as amended by an act approved February 3, 1911," so as to repeal section 18 thereof relating to the time within which actions may be commenced.

[In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18 of an act entitled "An act to provide for the establishment and quieting of title to real property in case of the loss or destruction of public records, approved June 16, 1906, as amended by an act approved March 6, 1909, as amended by an act approved February 3, 1911." is hereby repealed, it being the intention of the legislature of the State of California to remove the limit of time within which actions may be commenced under the provisions of this act. Section 18
repealed.

[Became a law, under constitutional provision, without Governor's approval, May 9, 1913.]

CHAPTER 102.

An act appropriating money for the development and extension of the water system at the California Polytechnic School.

[Approved May 5, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be used in accordance with law for the development and extension of the water system at the California Polytechnic School. SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV, of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 104.

An act to amend that certain act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, designated the "bank act," as amended February 6, 1911, April 21, 1911, December 18, 1911, and December 24, 1911, by amending sections 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 12a, 14, 15, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28, 31, 32, 34, 35, 37, 41, 42, 43, 44, 47, 48, 49, 50, 60, 61, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 80, 82, 83, 84, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 101, 102, 103, 105, 106, 121, 123, 124, 127, 128, 130, 131, 133, 134, 136, 137, 138, 139, and 145 thereof and by repealing sections 13, 18, 33, 100, 104 and 113 thereof and by adding new sections thereto to be numbered sections 12b, 12c, 21a, 31a, 54, 55, 56, 61a, 107, 130a, 135a, 136a and 136b and by repealing section 135 thereof and adding a new section thereto to be numbered section 135, all relating to the definition and regulation of the business of banking.

[Approved May 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An Act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known as the "bank act," and shall be applicable to all corporations specified in the next section. "Bank act."

Sec. 2. Section two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. The word "bank" as used in this act shall be construed to mean any incorporated banking institution which shall have been incorporated to conduct the business of receiving money on deposit, or transacting a trust business as hereinafter defined. The soliciting, receiving or accepting of money or its equivalent on deposit as a regular business shall be deemed to be doing a commercial or savings bank business whether such deposit is made subject to check or is evidenced by a certificate of deposit, a pass book, a note, a receipt or other writing; provided, that nothing herein shall apply to or include money or its equivalent left in escrow or left with an agent, pending investment in real estate or securities for or on account of his principal. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, partnership, firm or individual to engage in or transact a banking business within this state except by means of a corporation duly organized for such purpose. Banks are divided into the following classes: "Bank" defined.

- (a) Savings banks;
- (b) Commercial banks; and
- (c) Trust companies.

Sec. 3. Section three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. Corporations may be formed by any number of natural persons, not less in any case than three, under the laws of this state to conduct, as provided in this act, and not otherwise, any one or more or all of the businesses mentioned in divisions (a), (b), and (c) of section two, of this act. Formation of corporations.

Sec. 4. Section six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6. The term "trust company," when used in this act, means any corporation which is incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of conducting the business of acting as executor, administrator, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee under appointment of any court or by authority of any law of this state, or as trustee for any purpose permitted by law. "Trust company" defined.

Sec. 5. Section seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7. No foreign corporation shall transact a banking business in this state without first complying with all the requirements of the laws of this state relative to banks as defined in this act, and without having assigned to its business in this state the amount of paid-up capital and surplus required by this act for the transaction of such business within this state. No foreign banking corporation shall transact business in this Foreign corporations.

state until such corporation has made the assignment of capital required by this section and has received a certificate from the state superintendent of banks. Any foreign banking corporation transacting business in this state shall become subject to the supervision of the state superintendent of banks. Every foreign banking corporation, including those which were on January second, nineteen hundred thirteen, transacting business in this state, which receives any deposits or transacts any other banking business or transacts its business in such a manner as might lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank, shall conduct all its business in accordance with the statutes governing incorporated banking institutions organized under the laws of this state. The capital of any such foreign banking corporation assigned to its business in this state and all funds and deposits of money received by any such corporation in this state or for or in connection with its business in this state and all accounts and transactions of said business transacted by any such foreign corporation in this state shall be kept separate and apart from the general business, assets and accounts of such foreign corporation in the same manner as if the business of such foreign corporation conducted within this state was that of a separate and independent corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of doing a banking business and all of the provisions of this act affecting investments, loans of money, receiving deposits and conducting business in any respect shall be deemed to apply to such assigned capital, investments, loans, deposits, assets, funds and business in the same manner as if such assigned capital, investments, loans, deposits, assets, funds and business were that of such separate and independent corporation; provided, that loans may be made by any such foreign corporation based on its entire paid-up capital and surplus in case such foreign corporation shall have assigned to its business in this state a paid-up capital and surplus as above provided equal to twenty per centum of the deposit liability of such branch agency or office to residents of this state. Such funds and investments or loans thereof shall be appropriated solely to the security and payment of such deposits, and shall not be mingled with the investments of the capital stock or other money or property belonging to such corporation or be liable for the debts or obligations thereof. All income received from the investment of said funds over and above such funds as may be paid to depositors as interest or shall be carried to the surplus fund, as provided in section twenty-one of this act, shall accrue as profits to the corporation and may be transferred to its general funds. No such foreign corporation shall transact any banking business in this state until it has executed and filed with the superintendent of banks a written instrument appointing such superintendent or his successor in office, its true and lawful attorney, upon whom all process issued by authority of or under any law of this state may be served, with the same effect as if such corporation was formed under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein. Such service upon such attorney shall be deemed personal service on such corporation. The superintendent of banks shall forthwith forward by mail, postage prepaid, a copy of every process served upon him under the provisions of this section, addressed to the manager or agent of such corporation, at its principal place of business in this state. For each copy of process, the superintendent of banks shall collect the sum of two dollars, which shall be paid by the plaintiff or moving party at the time of the service, to be recovered by him as a part of his taxable costs if he succeed in the suit or proceeding. No foreign corporation shall have or exercise in this state the power to receive deposits of trust moneys, securities or other personal property from any person or corporation or any of the powers specified in section six of this act, nor have or maintain an office in this state for the transaction of, or transact, directly or indirectly, any such or similar business, except that a trust company incorporated in another state may be appointed and may accept appointment and may act in this state as executor of or trustee under the last will and testament of any deceased person, upon giving the bond required in such cases of individuals unless waived by the last will and testament making such appointment and by taking and subscribing an oath for faithful performance of such trust by the president, vice-president, secretary, manager or trust officer of said corporation; provided, that similar corporations organized under the laws of this state are permitted by law to act as such executor or trustee in the state where such foreign corporation was organized; and provided, further, that such superintendent of banks, for the time being, shall be the attorney of such foreign corporation qualifying or acting in this state as such executor or trustee, upon whom process against such foreign corporation may be served in any action or legal proceeding against such executor or trustee, affecting or relating to the estate or property represented or held by such executor or trustee, or any act or default of such foreign corporation in reference to such estate or property, and it shall be the duty of any such foreign corporation so qualifying or acting to file in the office of said superintendent of banks a copy of its articles of incorporation, or of the statute chartering such corporation, certified by its secretary under its corporate seal, together with the post office address of its home office, and a duly executed appointment of said superintendent of banks as its attorney to accept service of process as above provided, and said superintendent of banks, when any such process is served upon him, shall at once mail the papers so served to the home office of such corporation; and provided, further, that no foreign corporation having authority to act as executor of or trustee under the last will and testament of any deceased person shall establish or maintain, directly or indirectly, any branch office or agency in this state, or shall in any way solicit, directly or indirectly, any business as executor or trustee therein, and that for any violation of

SEC. 6. Section eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Copy of articles of incorporation. Affidavit. Section 8. Every corporation, at the time it applies for a certificate of authority to do a banking business, must file with the superintendent of banks a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or of the statute chartering such corporation, a certified copy of its by-laws, and also a certified copy of all instruments amending or altering such articles of incorporation or charter or by-laws. Thereafter a certified copy of each amendment or certificate shall likewise be so filed before such instrument takes effect. There must also be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks before he shall issue his certificate a certified copy of the affidavit required by section two hundred ninety a of the Civil Code. Each certification required by the provisions of this section other than that of by-laws must be by the secretary of state.

SEC. 7. Section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Opening of branch office. Capital. Fee. Savings banks in schools. Section 9. No bank in this state, or any officer or director thereof, shall hereafter open or keep an office other than its principal place of business, without first having obtained the written approval of the superintendent of banks to the opening of such branch office, which written approval may be given or withheld in his discretion, and shall not be given by him until he has ascertained to his satisfaction that the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the opening of such branch office; provided, that no bank or any officer or director thereof, shall open or maintain any such branch office unless the capital of such bank, actually paid in, in cash, shall exceed the amount required by this act by the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars for each branch office opened and maintained. Every bank, before it opens a branch office, shall obtain the certificate of authority of the superintendent of banks for the opening of each of said branch offices. The applicant shall pay for such certificate a fee of fifty dollars; provided, however, that, in order to encourage saving among the children of the schools of this state, a bank may, with the written consent of and under regulations approved by the superintendent of banks and, in the case of public schools, by the board of education or board of school trustees of the city or district in which the school is situated, arrange for the collection of savings from the school children by the principal or teachers of such schools or by collectors. The principal, teacher or person authorized by the bank to make collections from the school children shall be deemed to be the agent of the bank and the bank shall be liable to the pupil for all deposits made with such principal, teacher or other person, the same as if the deposits were made by the pupil directly with the bank. Every bank and every such officer or director violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the people of the state the sum of one hundred dollars for every day during which any branch office hereafter opened shall be maintained without such written approval. Penalty.

SEC. 8. Section ten of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 10. No person shall be eligible for election as director of a bank having a capital stock unless he is a stockholder of the bank, owning, in his own right, shares thereof of the par value of at least five hundred dollars; and every person elected to be director who, after such election, shall cease to be the owner in his own right of the amount of such stock aforesaid, or shall hypothecate or in any way pledge such stock as security for any loan or debt shall immediately notify the superintendent of banks in writing of such sale or hypothecation and such director may be removed from the office of director by the superintendent of banks. If a bank be organized without capital stock, no person shall be eligible as a director thereof unless he is both a member and a depositor of such bank. Directors.

SEC. 9. Section eleven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 11. The board of directors of a bank must hold a meeting at least once a month. Each director, when appointed or elected, shall take an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves on him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such bank, and will not knowingly violate or wilfully permit to be violated any of the provisions of law applicable to such bank, and that he is the owner in good faith and in his own right of shares of stock of the par value required by section ten of this act, subscribed by him or standing in his name on the books of the bank, and that the same to an amount equal to the par value of at least five hundred dollars, are not hypothecated or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt. Such oath shall be subscribed by the director making it, certified by the officer before whom it is taken, and immediately transmitted to the superintendent of banks and filed and preserved in his office. Nor shall any person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation, domestic or foreign, not subject to the supervision of the superintendent of banks, and not required by the provisions of this act to report to him, and which has not received from the superintendent of banks a certificate to do a banking business, hereafter transact business under any name or title which contains the word "bank," or "banker," or "banking," or "savings bank," or "savings" or "trust" or "trustee" or "trust company"; provided, that this section shall not apply to the corporate name of any building and loan association now or heretofore doing business in this state; and provided, further, that any such association having in its corporate name words not clearly indicating the nature of its business shall, on all signs, letterheads and advertising matter, state "This is a building and loan association" or words to that effect; and provided, further, that any building and loan association may borrow money, issue investment certificates or evidences of indebtedness, stating the rate of interest and terms and conditions of repayment, and do such other business as may be authorized by the laws of the state relating to building and loan associations; and provided, further, that no such association shall advertise or hold itself out to the public as a savings bank. Any person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation, domestic or foreign, violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to the state one hundred dollars a day for every day or part thereof during which such violation continues. Upon action brought by the superintendent of banks the court may issue an injunction restraining any such person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation from further using such words in violation of the provisions of this section

SEC. 11. Section twelve^a of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 12^a. Every person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation, domestic or foreign, advertising that he or it is receiving or accepting money or savings, and issuing notes or certificates of deposit therefor, or advertising that he or it is transacting the business of a bank, savings bank or trust company, or making use of any office sign at the place where such business is transacted, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or other words indicating that such place or office is the place or office of a bank or trust company, or that deposits are received there or payments made on check, or that interest is paid on deposits, or that certificates of deposit, either with or without interest are being issued, or that any other form of banking business is transacted, and every person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation, domestic or foreign, making use of or circulating any letterheads, billheads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates or circulars, or any written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, paper, whatever, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or advertising that such business is the business of a bank, savings bank or trust company, must have the proper capital stock paid in and set aside for the purpose of transacting such business, and must have received from the superintendent of banks, as provided for in this act, a certificate to do a banking business. Pre-requisites to advertising as bank.

Any person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation, domestic or foreign, violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to the state one hundred dollars a day for every day or part thereof during which such violation continues. Upon action brought by the superintendent of banks the court may issue an injunction restraining any such person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation from further violating any provision of this section, and may make such further order or decree as equity and justice may require. Every person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation doing any of the things or transacting any of the business defined in this section, must transact such business according to the provisions of the bank act, and the superintendent of banks or his deputy or examiners shall have authority to examine the accounts, books and papers of every such person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation, domestic or foreign, in order to ascertain whether such person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation has violated or is violating any provisions of this section; provided, that this section shall not apply to the corporate name of any building and loan association now or heretofore doing business in this state; and provided, further, that any such association having in its corporate

SEC. 12. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered twelve b, and to read as follows:

Not applicable to life insurance companies.

Section 12b. Nothing in this act shall be construed or held to apply to any corporation organized under the laws of any other state which is authorized by its charter or articles of incorporation to transact the business of life insurance and also to be known as and to transact business as a trust company and which shall have complied with the laws of this state affecting the transaction in this state of the business of life insurance by a foreign corporation and which shall have heretofore engaged in such business of life insurance in this state, in such manner as to forbid or prevent its making use of its corporate title in its life insurance business in this state in any such way and to any such extent as it might have made use of the same if this act had not been passed.

SEC. 13. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered twelve c, and to read as follows:

Foreign corporations may lend money in state.

Section 12c. Any corporation organized under the laws of any country or state other than this state which has complied with all of the laws of this state pertaining to foreign corporations and is not engaged in the business of banking or receiving money on deposit in this state may lend money in this state and, for that purpose, may maintain offices in this state, and sue and be sued in this state under its proper corporate name, notwithstanding any prohibitions contained in this act as to the use of any words in the name, signs or advertising matter of corporations not under the supervision of the superintendent of banks.

SEC. 14. Section thirteen of said act is hereby repealed.

SEC. 15. Section fourteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Advertising capital, resources, liabilities, etc.

Section 14. No bank, or officer thereof, shall advertise in any manner, or publish any statement of the capital authorized or subscribed, unless it or he advertise and publish in connection therewith the amount of capital actually paid up. No bank shall publish a statement of its resources or liabilities in connection with those of any other bank, unless such statement shall show the resources and liabilities of each bank separately; nor shall surplus and undivided profits be advertised as an aggregate.

SEC. 16. Section fifteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 15. All amounts of money heretofore or hereafter deposited with any bank to the credit of depositors who have not made a deposit on said account or withdrawn any part thereof or the interest and which shall have remained unclaimed for more than twenty years after the date of such deposit, or withdrawal of any part of principal or interest, and for which no claimant is known or the depositor cannot be found, shall, with the increase and proceeds thereof, be deposited with the state treasurer in the same manner and subject to the same distribution as provided for in section one thousand two hundred thirty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure. The president or managing officer of every bank must, within fifteen days after the first day of January of every year, return to the superintendent of banks a sworn statement showing the names of depositors known to be dead, or who have not made further deposits, or withdrawn any moneys during the preceding twenty years and at the same time it shall be the duty of the president or managing officer of every bank to furnish to the state controller a list of the names of all depositors to whom said moneys belong or to whom said bank owes the same. Such statement shall show in detail the following matters, viz:

Deposits unclaimed for 20 years.

First—The name and last known place of residence or post office address of the person making such deposit;

Statement to controller.

Second—The amount and date of such deposit and whether the same are in moneys or securities, and if the latter, the nature of the same;

Third—The interest due on such deposit, if any, and the amount thereof;

Fourth—The sum total of such deposit, together with the interest added thereto due from such bank on account of such deposit or deposits and interest thereon to such depositor, but nothing contained herein shall require any corporation or person renting lock boxes or safes in vaults for storage purposes to open or report concerning property stored therein. Such report itemized as aforesaid shall be signed by the person making the same and shall be sworn to before a person competent to administer oaths as a full, complete and truthful statement of each of the items therein contained. The president or managing officer of every bank must, within fifteen days after the first day of January of every odd numbered year, return to the superintendent of banks a sworn statement showing the names of depositors known to be dead, or who have not made further deposits, or withdrawn any moneys during the preceding ten years. Such statements shall show the amount of the account, the depositor's last known place of residence or post office address, and the fact of death, if known to such president or managing officer. Such president or managing officer must give notice of these deposits in one or more newspapers published in or nearest to the town or city where such bank has its principal place of business, at least once a

This section does not apply to any deposit made by or in the name of a person known to the president or managing officer to be living, or which, with the accumulation thereon, is less than fifty dollars. The superintendent of banks must incorporate in his subsequent report such returns made to him as provided in this section. If any president or managing officer of any bank neglects or refuses to make the sworn statement required by this section such bank shall forfeit to the State of California the sum of one hundred dollars a day for each day such default shall continue. Any president or managing officer of any bank who violates any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the State of California the sum of one hundred dollars a day for each and every day such violation shall continue. For the purposes of this section all deposits received by any bank under the provisions of section thirty-one or section thirty-one a of this act shall be deemed to have been deposited with such bank at the time the deposit was made with the bank from which the deposit was transferred; provided, that any bank which shall make any deposit with the state treasurer in conformity with the provisions of this section shall not thereafter be liable to any person for the same and any action which may be brought by any person against any bank for moneys so deposited with the state treasurer shall be defended by the attorney general without cost to such bank.

SEC. 18. Section nineteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Capital and deposit liabilities.

Section 19. The aggregate of paid-up capital together with the surplus, of every commercial bank, must equal ten per centum of its deposit liabilities; such deposit liabilities shall not be increased when such proportion of paid-up capital and surplus is wanting, and in no event shall said paid-up capital be less than the minimum paid-up capital provided by this act; provided, however, that the aggregate of paid-up capital and surplus of every savings bank having a capital stock, and the reserve fund of every savings bank without a capital stock, must equal the following percentages of its deposit liabilities:

Of savings banks.

(a) Ten per centum of any amount up to and including two million dollars.

(b) Seven and one half per centum of any amount in excess of two million dollars up to and including five million dollars.

(c) Five per centum of any amount in excess of five million dollars up to and including fifteen million dollars.

(d) Two and one half per centum of any amount in excess of fifteen million dollars up to and including forty million dollars.

(e) One per centum of any amount in excess of forty million dollars.

The deposits shall not be increased if such proportion of paid-up capital and surplus or reserve fund to deposit liabilities is not maintained.

SEC. 19. Section twenty of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 20. Every commercial bank receiving deposits as a depository bank of other banks shall have at all times as its lawful money reserve an amount equal to twenty per centum of the aggregate amount of its deposits. Two fifths of such reserve shall be in its own keeping in lawful money of the United States, or gold certificates or silver certificates of the United States. The remaining three fifths thereof may consist of moneys on deposit subject to call with any bank or banks in this state other than a savings bank; or one half of such three fifths or any less portion thereof may consist of moneys on deposit subject to call with any bank or banks in the cities of New York, Chicago or St. Louis, other than a savings bank, and the balance of such three fifths, of moneys on deposit subject to call with any bank or banks in this state other than a savings bank. Every commercial bank not receiving deposits as a depository bank of other banks shall have at all times as its lawful money reserve, an amount equal to fifteen per centum of the aggregate amount of its deposits. Two fifths of such reserve shall be in its own keeping in lawful money of the United States, or gold certificates or silver certificates of the United States. The remaining three fifths thereof may consist of moneys on deposit subject to call with any bank or banks in this state other than a savings bank; or, one half of such three fifths or any less portion thereof may consist of moneys on deposit subject to call with any bank or banks in the cities of New York, Chicago or St. Louis, other than a savings bank, and the balance of such three fifths, of moneys on deposit subject to call with any bank or banks in this state other than a savings bank. If the lawful money reserve of any bank shall be less than the amount required by this section, such bank shall not increase its liabilities by making any new loans or discounts, otherwise than by discounting bills of exchange on sight, or by paying any dividends from profits until the full amount of its lawful money reserve has been restored. The superintendent of banks may notify any bank whose lawful money reserve shall be below the amount herein required, to restore such reserve; and, if it shall fail for thirty days thereafter to restore such lawful money reserve, such bank shall be deemed insolvent and may be proceeded against under the provisions of this act; provided, that all deposits of money herein permitted or required shall comply with the provisions of section forty-three of this act.

or under its agreements with depositors, but every such bank shall, before the declaration of any such dividend, carry at least one tenth part of the net profits of the stockholders for the preceding half year, or for such period as is covered by the dividend, to its surplus, until such surplus shall amount to twenty-five per centum of its paid-up capital stock. The whole or any part of such surplus, if held as the exclusive property of the stockholders, may at any time be converted into paid in capital, in which event such surplus shall be restored in the manner above provided until it amounts to twenty-five per centum of the aggregate paid-up capital stock. Subject to the provisions of section nineteen of this act, any losses sustained by any such bank in excess of its undivided profits may be charged to and paid from its surplus, in which event such surplus shall be restored in the manner above provided, to the amount required by law; provided, however, that any bank which has invested any portion of its surplus in its bank premises, furniture and fixtures, vaults, or safe deposit vaults and boxes necessary or proper to carry on its banking business shall not be permitted to charge any loss to that portion of its surplus so invested. A larger surplus may be created and nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibitory thereof. existing banks.

The foregoing classification shall not apply to any bank already in existence which has received from the superintendent of banks a certificate to do a banking business; nor to any bank the location of which shall have been included by annexation or consolidation within the limits of a city of a class requiring a larger capitalization, but no bank thus excepted shall be permitted to establish any new branch office as provided in section nine of this act or to remove its place of business from the original limits of the city or township wherein it was located prior to such annexation or consolidation until it shall have the capital required of banks in such city not within said exception. Such excepted banks may not in any case decrease their capital stock but may increase the same in the manner provided by law to an amount either greater or less than that required of banks in such city not within said exception. The capital stock referred to herein shall be increased from time to time and to the same extent as provided for in section nineteen of this act. For the purposes of this act, the population shown and determined by the last preceding federal census, or any subsequent census compiled and certified under any law of this state, shall be deemed to be the population of any city in which any such bank is to be organized. If the principal place of business of any bank so organized is located outside of the corporate limits of any city, then the population of that portion of the judicial township in which said bank is to have its principal place of business, which is not included within the boundaries of any municipal corporation, as such population is shown and determined by such federal or subsequent official census, shall be the basis for classification under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 24. Section twenty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Opening
new department.

Section 24. Every bank, before it commences to do business or before it opens a new department and commences to transact business in or under such new department, shall obtain the certificate of the superintendent of banks for the opening of each of the departments specified. Each certificate herein provided for shall be given when the superintendent shall, by the examination required by this act, have satisfied himself that the proper amount of cash has been paid in as capital and the provisions of this act complied with. The applicant shall pay ^{Fee.} for the certificate for each department a fee of fifty dollars.

SEC. 25. Section twenty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 25. Every bank shall maintain for each department a lawful money reserve equal in amount to that required by this act for the respective business conducted, and shall keep separate and distinct the lawful money reserve of any department from that of any other department; and all deposits made with other banks, whether temporary or otherwise, shall be assets of the respective departments by which they were made, and shall be so carried on the books of such other banks, and shall be repaid only upon the order of the department to whose credit they stand. No department shall receive deposits of any other department of the same corporation; except that a trust department may make deposits of trust or any other funds under its control with the commercial or savings department of the same corporation; provided, however, that any bank having departments shall have the right to sell and transfer any bonds, securities or loans from one department to another upon receipt of the actual value thereof, if such bonds, securities or loans are, under the provisions of this act, a legal investment for the department purchasing the same.

Department reserve and deposits.

SEC. 26. Section twenty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 27. All money and assets belonging to each department, whether on hand or with other banks, and the investments made, shall be held solely for the repayment of the depositors and other claimants of each such department, as herein provided, until all depositors and other claimants of each such department shall have been paid, and the overplus then remaining shall be applied to any other liabilities of such bank.

Assets to repay department depositors.

SEC. 27. Section twenty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 28. Every bank in this state must, on all its window signs and in advertising, and on letterheads and other stationery on which its business is transacted, use the word "savings" if it conducts a savings business, or the word "trust" if it conducts a trust business, and the word "commercial" if it conducts a commercial business.

SEC. 28. Section thirty-one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 31. Any bank may sell the whole of its business or the whole of the business of any of its departments to any other bank which may purchase such business after obtaining the consent of the stockholders of the selling and of the purchasing banks holding of record at least two thirds of the issued capital stock of each of such corporations; such consent to be expressed either in writing executed and acknowledged by such stockholders and attached to the instrument of sale, or to a copy thereof, or by vote at a stockholders' meeting of each of such banks called for that purpose. The selling and purchasing banks must for such purposes enter into an agreement of sale and purchase, which agreement shall contain all the terms and conditions connected with such sale and purchase. Such agreement shall contain proper provision for the payment of liabilities of the selling bank or of the department sold, and in this particular shall be subject to the approval of the superintendent of banks; and shall not be valid until such approval is obtained. Such agreement may contain provisions for the transfer of all deposits to the purchasing bank, subject, however, to the right of every depositor of the selling bank to withdraw his deposit in full on demand after such transfer, irrespective of the terms under which it was deposited with the selling bank. The rights of creditors of the selling bank shall not in any manner be impaired by any such sale, nor shall any liability or obligation for the payment of any money due or to become due, or any claim or demand, in any manner, or for any cause existing against such selling bank or against any stockholder thereof, be in any manner released or impaired, and all the rights, obligations and relations of all the parties, creditors, depositors, trustees and beneficiaries of trusts shall remain unimpaired by the sale, but such bank to which the other shall sell all its business or all the business of any of its departments, shall succeed to all such relations, obligations, trusts and liabilities and be held liable to pay and discharge all such debts and liabilities and to perform all such trusts of the selling bank in the same manner as if such bank to which the other had sold had itself incurred the obligation or liability or assumed the relation of trust, and the stockholders of the respective corporations so entering into such agreement shall continue subject to all the liabilities, claims and demands existing against them as such at or before such sale. Immediately after the execution of such agreement of sale and purchase notice thereof shall be published for at least four successive weeks in a newspaper in each of the counties of the state in which either of such banks shall have its principal place of business; provided, however, that no action can be brought against such selling bank or any of its stockholders on account of any deposits so transferred after the expiration of one year from the last day of publication herein required. An affidavit showing such publication shall be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks within ten days after the last publication thereof. The affairs of such selling bank, or selling department of a bank, shall remain subject to the provisions of this act.

SEC. 29. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered thirty-one a, and to read as follows:

Section 31*a*. Any bank incorporated under the laws of this state may consolidate with one or more banks incorporated under the laws of this state, its capital stock, properties, trusts, claims, demands, contracts, agreements, obligations, debts, liabilities and assets of every kind and description, upon such terms and in such manner as may be agreed upon by their respective boards of directors, a copy of which agreement must be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks; provided, that such agreement shall be subject to the approval of the superintendent of banks and shall not be valid until such approval be obtained; provided, further, that no such consolidation shall take effect until such agreement shall have been ratified and confirmed in writing by the stockholders of the respective banks holding of record at least two thirds of the issued capital stock of their respective banks, or such agreement may be submitted to the stockholders of each of such corporations at a meeting thereof to be called upon notice specifying the time, place and object thereof, addressed to each stockholder at his last known post office address and deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, at least two weeks prior to the date fixed for said meeting, and published for at least two successive weeks, prior to the date of said meeting, in a newspaper in each of the counties of the state in which any of such banks shall have its principal place of business, and if such agreement shall be approved at each of such meetings of the respective stockholders separately by the vote or ballot of the stockholders owning at least two thirds of the stock of each such bank, the same shall be the agreement of such banks. In case of such consolidation "articles of incorporation and consolidation" must be prepared, setting forth:

Consolidation of banks.

Ratification by stockholders.

Publication of notice.

Articles of incorporation and consolidation.

First—The name of the new corporation;

Second—The purpose for which it is formed;

Third—The place where its principal business is to be transacted;

Fourth—The term for which it is to exist, which shall not exceed fifty years;

Fifth—The number of its directors (which shall not be less than three) and the names and residences of the persons appointed to act as such until their successors are elected and qualified;

Sixth—The amount of its capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided;

Seventh—The amount of stock actually subscribed, and by whom;

Eighth—The names of the constituent corporations.

Said articles of incorporation and consolidation must be signed and countersigned by the president and secretary of each constituent corporation and sealed with their corporate seals. There must be annexed thereto the approval of the superintendent of banks and memoranda of the ratification and confirmation thereof by the stockholders of each constituent corporation, which must be respectively signed and acknowledged by stockholders representing at least two thirds of the capital stock of their respective corporations. When completed as aforesaid said articles must be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which is located the principal place of business of the new corporation, and a copy of the articles of incorporation and consolidation certified by such county clerk must be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and a copy of the articles of incorporation and consolidation certified by said secretary of state must be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks, and also in the office of the county clerk of any county in which were filed the original articles of incorporation of either of the constituent corporations, and thereupon each constituent corporation named therein must be deemed and held to have become extinct in all courts and places, and said new corporation must be deemed and held in all courts and places to have succeeded to all their several capital stocks, properties, trusts, claims, demands, contracts, agreements, assets, choses and rights in action of every kind and description, both at law and in equity, and to be entitled to possess, enjoy, and enforce the same and every thereof, as fully and completely as either and every of its constituents might have done had no consolidation taken place. Said consolidated or new corporation must also, in all courts and places, be deemed and held to have become subrogated to its several constituents and each thereof, in respect to all their contracts and agreements with other parties, and all their debts, obligations, and liabilities, of every kind and nature, to any persons, corporations, or bodies politic, whomsoever, or whatsoever, and said new corporation must sue and be sued in its own name in any and every case in which any or either of its constituents might have sued or might have been sued at law or in equity had no such consolidation been made. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to impair the obligation of any contract to which any of such constituents were parties at the date of such consolidation. All such contracts may be enforced by action or suit, as the case may be, against the consolidated corporation, and satisfaction obtained out of the property which, at the date of the consolidation, belonged to the constituent which was a party to the contract in action or suit, as well as out of any other property belonging to the consolidated corporation, and the stockholders of each constituent corporation so entering into such agreement shall continue subject to all the liabilities, claims and demands existing against them at or before such consolidation to the same extent as if the same had not been made. The right of said new corporation to increase or decrease its capital stock, to change the number of its directors, to amend its articles of incorporation, to change its principal place of business, or its name, or to effect any other organic change shall be governed by the general corporation laws of this state and by the bank act, and the procedure to effect any such change shall be that defined by the general corporation laws and the bank act.

SEC. 30. Section thirty-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 32. Any bank receiving trust funds in accordance with the provisions of this act relating to trust companies must not mingle such trust funds with the other assets of the corporation, except as otherwise provided in section twenty-five of this act, and such funds shall not be carried or counted as any part of the lawful money reserve provided for in this act. The officers of any bank who knowingly violate or consent to the violation of this provision shall be guilty of a felony.

Not to mingle trust funds.

SEC. 31. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 32. Section thirty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 34. No bank shall purchase or invest its capital or surplus or money of its depositors, or any part of either, in shares of its own capital stock; nor loan its capital or surplus or the money of its depositors, or any part of either, on shares of its own capital stock, unless such purchase or loan shall be necessary to prevent loss to such bank on debts previously contracted in good faith. Every person or corporation violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to the people of the state twice the nominal amount of such stock.

Not to invest in own stock.

Penalty.

SEC. 33. Section thirty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 35. No director, or officer, or employee, or controlling stockholder of any bank shall, directly or indirectly, for his own account, for himself, or as the partner or agent of others, sell or transfer, or cause to be sold or transferred to the bank of which he is a director, officer, employee, or controlling stockholder, any note or bond secured by any mortgage or trust deed on real estate or any contract arising from the sale of real estate in which such director, or officer, or employee, or controlling stockholder is personally or financially interested, without the consent in writing of the superintendent of banks. Any director, or officer, or employee, or controlling stockholder of any bank who knowingly violates or consents to the violation of this provision shall be guilty of a felony.

Officer not to sell notes to bank.

Penalty.

SEC. 34. Section thirty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 37. No bank shall purchase or invest its capital or surplus or money of its depositors, or any part of either, in the capital stock of any corporation unless the purchase or acquisition of such capital stock shall be necessary to prevent loss to the bank on a debt previously contracted in good faith. Any capital stock so purchased or acquired shall be sold by such bank within six months thereafter if it can be sold for the amount of the claim of such bank against it; and all capital stock thus purchased or acquired must be sold for the best price obtainable by said bank within one year after such pur-

SEC. 35. Section forty-one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Officer not to purchase obligation at discount.

Section 41. No officer, director, agent, or other employee of any bank shall directly or indirectly, for his own personal benefit, purchase, or be interested in the purchase of any obligation of said bank for a less sum than shall appear upon the face of such obligation to be the value thereof. Every person violating any provision of this section, shall for each offense forfeit to the people of the state, three times the face value of any such obligation so purchased.

SEC. 36. Section forty-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Officer not to purchase assets at discount.

Section 42. No officer, director, agent or other employee of any bank, shall directly or indirectly, for his own personal benefit, purchase, or be interested in the purchase of any of the assets of said bank for a less sum than the current market value thereof. Every person violating any provision of this section, shall for each offense, forfeit to the people of the state, twice the nominal amount of any such assets so purchased.

SEC. 37. Section forty-three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Deposit of funds in another bank.

Section 43. No bank shall deposit any of its funds in any other bank unless such other bank has been designated as a depository for its funds by the vote of a majority of the directors or trustees of the bank making the deposit, exclusive of the vote of any director who is an officer, director, or trustee of the depository so designated; provided, however, that any bank may designate any other bank its depository by vote of a majority of its directors, including the vote of any director or trustee who is an officer, director or trustee of the depository so designated, if such bank has secured the previous approval of the superintendent of banks, which approval he may at any time revoke for proper cause.

SEC. 38. Section forty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Loan on stock of another bank.

Section 44. No bank shall hereafter make a loan secured by the stock of another bank, if by making such loan the total stock of such other bank held by such loaning bank as collateral will exceed in the aggregate twenty-five per centum of the capital stock of such other bank; provided, that no loan upon the capital stock of any bank shall be made unless such bank has been in existence at least two years and has earned and paid a dividend upon its capital stock; and provided, further, that no bank may loan more than five per centum of its assets upon the capital stock of any corporation whatsoever as collateral security.

SEC. 39. Section forty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 47. No commercial bank shall, except for the purpose of facilitating the sale of property owned by the bank Loan on real estate.

 make any loan on the security of real estate, unless it is a first lien and is either

(1) Made for a period of time not exceeding six months and upon security worth fifteen per centum more than the market value of the real estate taken as security; or

(2) Made for a period of time exceeding six months and not exceeding ten years and does not exceed sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate taken as security.

No commercial bank shall loan in the aggregate more than Limit on real estate loan.
 thirty-five per centum of its assets on real estate loans of the character specified in subdivision two of this section. These provisions, however, shall not prevent any bank from taking another and immediately subsequent mortgage or deed of trust thereon when it already holds a first mortgage or deed of trust on such real estate, nor from accepting a second lien on real estate to secure the repayment of a debt previously contracted in good faith; nor shall it prevent subsequent liens of any kind from being taken to secure the payment of a debt previously contracted in good faith when, in the judgment of the directors of such bank, such subsequent liens are necessary further to secure the payment of any debts and save such bank from loss.

SEC. 40. Section forty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 48. Any national bank in this state receiving the Examination of national banks.
 deposits of any bank organized and conducting business under this act, must, at the request of the superintendent of banks, submit to an examination by him, or his duly appointed examiners, should the superintendent of banks in his discretion deem it necessary or desirable that such examination be made: and the expense of such examination shall be paid by such national bank; and if any such national bank shall refuse to permit such examination to be made by, or under the direction of the superintendent of banks, then the superintendent of banks shall notify in writing every bank depositing its funds with such national bank, to withdraw its deposits therefrom, and all such banks shall comply with such order.

SEC. 41. Section forty-nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 49. It shall not be lawful for any commercial bank, Commercial bank not to advertise as savings bank.
 individual, trust company, association, firm, stock company, copartnership or corporation, to advertise or put forth a sign as a savings bank, either directly or indirectly or in any way to solicit or receive deposits or to transact business in the way or manner of a savings bank, or advertise that he or it is receiving or accepting savings, or in any way which might lead the public to believe that such deposits are received or invested under the same conditions or in the same manner as deposits in savings banks, except in the case of savings banks or banks having savings departments, subject to the provisions of this act. Any commercial bank, individual, trust company, Penalty.

association, firm, stock company, copartnership or corporation, violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to this state one hundred dollars a day for every day during which such violation continues.

SEC. 42. Section fifty of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Posting certificate.

Section 50. Every bank shall post in a conspicuous place in its banking room or branch office the last certificate obtained from the superintendent of banks under the provisions of either section nine or one hundred twenty-seven of this act.

SEC. 43. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered fifty-four and to read as follows:

Real estate to be sold within five years.

Section 54. All real estate purchased by any bank at sales under pledges, mortgages or deeds of trust for its benefit for money loaned and such as may be conveyed to it by borrowers in satisfaction and discharge of loans made thereon and all other real estate owned or held by it, which is not necessary for carrying on its business, must be sold by such bank within five years after title thereto shall have vested in it by purchase or otherwise. Parcels of such real estate not sold within said time may be purchased by any person wanting the same upon the conditions and proceedings following: The intending purchaser may file a petition in the superior court in and for the county wherein said real estate or any portion thereof is situated; upon the filing of such petition a citation shall be issued out of said court directed to the bank owning such real estate requiring such bank to show cause on a day certain which shall be not earlier than ten days after the service of such citation, why commissioners should not be appointed by said court for the purpose of appraising the value of the real estate described in the petition and of selling the same at public auction under the provisions of this section. If there shall be any liens or encumbrances of record against such real estate the person or persons holding such liens or encumbrances shall likewise be cited and the court shall in its final decree distribute the proceeds of such sale, if a sale thereof shall be made, according to the equities of the parties. If it shall appear at the hearing of such petition that the real estate therein sought to be purchased is held by such bank in violation of the provisions of this section or of the constitution of this state, the court shall appoint three commissioners to appraise the value thereof and sell the same at public auction at the county seat of the county wherein said real estate or any part thereof is located. Notice of which said sale shall be given to the bank owning said real estate and to any other persons interested therein as shown by the records of such county at least ten days before the date of such sale and shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county where such real estate or any part thereof may be located or if no newspaper shall be published in such county then in a newspaper published in some neighboring county. Such notice shall state the time and place of such sale and shall describe the real estate to be sold with common certainty and state the value thereof as fixed by the appraisement of such commissioners and state that no bid less than such appraised value will be received therefor. No sale shall be made for an amount less than the appraised value of such real estate fixed by said commissioners and in the event that no bid is received at such sale at least equal to said appraised value of said real estate no intending purchaser can institute the proceedings provided for in this section within one year thereafter. In case of any sale made under the provisions of this section and of the refusal of any bank owning such real estate or of any lienholder or encumbrancer to execute the conveyances or releases necessary or proper to vest the title of such bank, lienholder or encumbrancer in the purchaser thereof the court shall have power in such proceedings to direct said commissioners to execute such deeds, conveyances or releases upon the payment to them of the purchase price therefor. The fees of such commissioners and cost of sale shall be fixed by the court, upon making such appointment but the entire expense thereof shall not exceed one hundred dollars. The cost of any such proceedings shall be borne by the intending purchaser if no sale shall be made but if a sale shall be made the costs of such proceedings shall be borne by the purchaser of the property and the person who filed the petition and advanced the costs of such proceedings shall be reimbursed in case he shall not become such purchaser. All sales hereunder shall be returned to the court having jurisdiction of the matter in the same manner as in the case of sales, by commissioners, of real estate on foreclosure of mortgages. Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to affect the power of the superintendent of banks to require the writing down of the value of real estate held by any bank, at any time, when such writing down shall be proper.

Minimum price.

Fees and cost.

SEC. 44. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered fifty-five and to read as follows:

Section 55. Receiving deposits, issuing certificates of deposit, checks and bills of exchange, and the like, in the transaction of the ordinary business of a bank, must not be construed to be the creation of debt within the meaning of the phrase "create debt" in section three hundred nine of the Civil Code, nor of indebtedness within the meaning of the phrase "the capital stock cannot be diminished to an amount less than the indebtedness of the corporation" in section three hundred fifty-nine of the Civil Code, except that no bank shall reduce its capital stock to an amount less than is required by this act to be maintained by such bank, or less than any indebtedness of such bank other than such deposits.

Receiving deposits not creation of debt.

The terms "real estate," or "real property," or "personal property," when used in this act shall have the meaning defined in, and shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of title I of part I of division second of the Civil Code.

"Real estate" defined.

SEC. 45. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered fifty-six, and to read as follows:

National reserve
association.

Section 56. Any bank organized and existing under the laws of this state is hereby authorized and empowered to join or associate itself with any "national reserve association of the United States" or branch thereof, or any plan now or hereafter created or established by act of congress whether such banking or currency association or plan be created by congress under the above or any other name. Nothing in this act shall prohibit any such bank from joining or associating itself with any such association or plan or branch thereof nor from investing any part of its capital or surplus in the stock of such association, plan or branch thereof in accordance with the terms and provisions of such act of congress; provided, however, that such investment shall in no case exceed the minimum amount required to join or associate itself with such association, plan or branch thereof. Any bank joining or associating itself with such association, plan or branch thereof, shall be permitted to conform to and transact its business in accordance with the terms and provisions of such act of congress creating the same and the rules and regulations of such association, plan or branch thereof, anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 46. Section sixty of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Capital stock of savings
banks.

Section 60. Every savings bank hereafter organized must have paid up in cash a capital stock of not less than

(a) Twenty-five thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any locality the population of which does not exceed five thousand persons;

(b) Fifty thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any city the population of which is more than five thousand persons, but does not exceed twenty-five thousand persons;

(c) One hundred thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any city the population of which is more than twenty-five thousand persons but does not exceed one hundred thousand persons;

(d) Two hundred thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any city the population of which is more than one hundred thousand persons but does not exceed two hundred thousand persons;

(e) Three hundred thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any city the population of which is more than two hundred thousand persons.

Without capital
stock.

Excepting that any savings bank organized without capital stock must have a reserve fund of at least one million dollars. Until the capital stock or reserve fund hereinbefore required shall be actually paid in, the superintendent of banks shall refuse to issue the certificate required by this act. The foregoing classification shall not apply to any savings bank already in existence which has received its certificate to do a banking business from the superintendent of banks; nor to any bank the location of which shall have been included by annexation or consolidation within the limits of a city of a class requiring a larger capitalization, but no bank thus excepted shall be permitted to establish any new branch office as provided in section nine of this act or to remove its place of business from the original limits of the city or township wherein it was located prior to such annexation or consolidation until it shall have the capital required of banks in such city not within said exception. Such excepted banks may not in any case decrease their capital stock but may increase the same in the manner provided by law to an amount either greater or less than that required of banks in such city not within said exception; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to affect the provisions of section nineteen of this act relative to the proportion of capital and surplus to deposits or of section twenty-three of this act relative to the capital stock required of banks doing a departmental business. The provisions of section twenty-three of this act, as to population, shall apply to any bank organized under the provisions of this section.

Without capital stock.

SEC. 47. Section sixty-one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 61. Any savings bank may purchase, hold and convey real or personal property as follows:

Property savings banks may purchase.

1. The lot and building in which the business of the bank is carried on; furniture and fixtures, vaults and safe deposit vaults and boxes necessary or proper to carry on its banking business; such lot and building, furniture and fixtures, vaults and safe deposit vaults and boxes shall not, in the aggregate, be carried on the books of such bank as an asset to an amount exceeding its paid-up capital and surplus; and hereafter, the authority of a two-thirds vote of all of the directors shall be necessary to authorize the purchase of such lot and building, or the construction of such building.

2. Such as may have been mortgaged, pledged or conveyed to it in trust for its benefit in good faith, for money loaned in pursuance of the regular business of the corporation.

Mortgaged property.

3. Such as may have been purchased at any sales under pledge, mortgage or deed of trust made for its benefit for money so loaned and such as may be conveyed to it by borrowers in satisfaction and discharge of loans made thereon. No savings bank shall purchase, own, or sell personal property, except such as may be requisite for its immediate accommodation for the convenient transaction of its business, notes or bonds secured by trust deeds or mortgages on real estate, bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness, public or private, gold or silver bullion and United States mint certificates of ascertained value, and evidences of debt issued by the United States. No savings bank shall purchase, own, hold or convey bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness, public or private, except as follows:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the Bonds.

Bonds. United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest;

(b) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of the State of California are pledged for the payment of principal and interest;

(c) Bonds of any state in the United States that has not, within five years previous to making such investment by such bank, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest;

Sewer,
etc.,
bonds.

Limitation.

(d) Bonds of any county, city and county, city or school district of this state; bonds of any permanent road division in any county issued in pursuance of the provisions of article IX, chapter II, title VI, part III of the Political Code; bonds of any sewer district, drainage district, reclamation district, protection district, or sanitary district organized under the laws of this state; and any irrigation district bonds which the law may now or hereafter authorize to be used as security for the deposit of public moneys; provided, that the total amount of bonds so issued by any such sewer district, drainage district, protection district, or sanitary district, does not exceed fifteen per centum of the value of the taxable property in said district as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the county in which said district is located; and provided, further, that the total amount of bonds issued by any such irrigation district does not exceed sixty per centum of the aggregate market value of the lands within such district, and of the water, water rights, canals, reservoirs, reservoir sites and irrigation works owned or to be acquired or constructed with the proceeds of any of such bonds, by said district, such facts in reference to bonds of irrigation districts to be determined by a commission now or hereafter authorized by law to ascertain and report upon such facts.

and city bonds of other states.

(e) Bonds of any county, city and county, city or town, in any state of the United States other than the State of California, issued under authority of any law of such state, which county, city and county, city or town, had, as shown by the federal or state census next preceding such investment, a population of more than twenty thousand inhabitants; provided, however, that the entire bonded indebtedness of such county, city and county, city or town, including such issue of bonds does not exceed fifteen per centum of the value of the taxable property therein as shown by its last equalized assessment roll; and provided, further, that such county, city and county, city or town, or the state in which it is located has not defaulted in payment of either principal or interest due upon any legally authorized bond issue within five years next preceding such investment.

Railroad
bonds.

(f) (1) Bonds of any railroad corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of California and operating exclusively therein, provided said corporation has had, for its fiscal year next preceding such investment, net earnings, after payment of all maintenance charges, operating expenses and taxes sufficient to pay the interest on all of its outstanding mortgage indebtedness; or

(2) Bonds of any railroad corporation incorporated under the laws of any other state in the United States, operating at least five hundred miles of standard gauge track exclusive of sidings; provided, said corporation has had for its fiscal year next preceding such investment, net earnings after the payment of all maintenance charges, operating expenses and taxes, amounting to at least one and one half times the interest on all its outstanding mortgage indebtedness; or

(3) Bonds of any railroad corporation, the payment of which has been guaranteed, both as to principal and interest, by a railroad corporation meeting the requirements of either subdivision (1) or (2) of paragraph (f) of this section; the income of which latter corporation, together with the income of any corporation whose bonds it has guaranteed, shall have been sufficient to pay all its maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and interest on all its outstanding mortgage indebtedness and, in addition thereto, interest on the total outstanding mortgage indebtedness of any other corporation the payment of which it has guaranteed, for the periods specified in the respective subdivisions of this paragraph relating thereto; provided, that the excess of income of any corporation whose bonds have been so guaranteed, over its maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and interest on its outstanding mortgage indebtedness, shall not apply to or be included in determining the income so required. In determining the income of any corporation specified in paragraph (f) of subdivision three of this section, there shall be included the income of any corporation or corporations out of which it shall have been formed through consolidation or merger, and of any corporation or corporations, the entire business and income producing property of which the corporation issuing such bonds has wholly acquired. All bonds authorized for investment by paragraph (f) of subdivision three of this section must be secured by a mortgage or trust deed which is at the time of making such investment either a first mortgage or deed of trust, a refunding mortgage or deed of trust providing for the retirement of all prior lien mortgage debts of said corporation, or an underlying or divisional closed mortgage or trust deed of property which forms a part of the operating system of the corporation then owning said property. No savings bank shall purchase the bonds of any railroad corporation deriving less than twenty per centum of its gross receipts from passenger revenues. The term "railroad corporation," when used in paragraph (f) of subdivision three of this section, shall have the meaning defined in the "Public Utilities Act" approved December 23, 1911.

power; electrical; telephone; telegraph; or telephone and telegraph corporation or of any other "public utility" incorporated under the laws of the State of California; and

(1) Operating exclusively in the State of California; provided, said corporation has had, for its fiscal year next preceding such investment, net earnings, after the payment of all maintenance charges, operating expenses and taxes, amounting to one and one-half times the interest on all its outstanding mortgage indebtedness; or

(2) Operating its property in part within the State of California; provided, said corporation has had, for each of its two fiscal years next preceding such investment, net earnings, after the payment of all maintenance charges, operating expenses and taxes, amounting to one and one-half times the interest on all of its outstanding mortgage indebtedness; or

(3) The payment of which is guaranteed, both as to principal and interest, by a public utility corporation meeting the requirements of either subdivision (1) or (2) of paragraph (g) of this section, the income of which latter corporation, together with the income of any corporation whose bonds it has guaranteed, shall have been sufficient to pay all its maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and interest on all its total outstanding mortgage indebtedness, and in addition thereto, interest on the total outstanding mortgage indebtedness of any other corporation the payment of which it has guaranteed, for the period specified in the respective subdivisions of this paragraph relating thereto; provided, that the excess of income of any corporation whose bonds have been so guaranteed, over its maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and interest on its outstanding mortgage indebtedness shall not apply to or be included in determining the income so required. In determining the income of any corporation specified in paragraph (g) of subdivision three of this section, there shall be included the income of any corporation or corporations out of which it shall have been formed through consolidation or merger, and of any corporation the entire business and income producing property of which the corporation issuing such bonds has wholly acquired. All bonds authorized for investment by paragraph (g) of subdivision three of this section must be secured by a mortgage or trust deed which is at the time of making such investment; either

I. A closed first mortgage or deed of trust; or

II. A first mortgage or deed of trust containing provisions restricting the issuance of further bonds until such time as the income of said corporation shall have been at least sufficient, during the twelve months next preceding the issuance of any additional bonds, to pay all maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and one and one-half times the interest on all its mortgage indebtedness then outstanding and on the additional bonds then proposed to be issued; or

III. A refunding mortgage or deed of trust providing for the retirement of all prior lien mortgage debts of said corporation, and restricting the issuance of further bonds until such time as the income of said corporation shall have been at least sufficient, during the twelve months next preceding the issuance of any additional bonds, to pay all maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and one and one half times the interest on all its mortgage indebtedness then outstanding, and on the additional bonds then proposed to be issued; or

IV. An underlying or divisional closed mortgage or trust deed of property which forms a part of the operating system of the corporation then owning said property. In the case of bonds secured by an underlying or divisional closed mortgage or trust deed, the net income required by this section shall be based exclusively upon the income, maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and mortgage indebtedness of or against the property covered by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or trust deed, or on the proper proportionate share of such property in the general income, maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and mortgage indebtedness of the corporation then owning such property; provided, however, that if the payment of the bonds secured by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or trust deed shall be guaranteed or assumed by the corporation then owning the property securing the same, such bonds shall be legal investments for savings banks, if the net income of such corporation from all sources after paying all of its maintenance charges, operating expenses, taxes and mortgage indebtedness shall equal the amount herein required, notwithstanding any insufficiency of the income derived from the property covered by such underlying or divisional closed mortgage or trust deed to meet the requirements of this section.

Trust deed on operative property.

The term "street railroad corporation," "pipe line corporation," "gas corporation," "electrical corporation," "telephone corporation," "telegraph corporation," "water corporation," and "public utility," when used in paragraph (g) of subdivision three of this section, shall each have the meaning defined in the "Public Utilities Act" approved December 23, 1911.

Definitions.

(h) Notes or bonds secured by first mortgage or deed of trust or other first lien upon real estate, improved or unimproved; provided, that the entire note or bond issue shall not exceed sixty per centum of the market value of such real estate, or such real estate with improvements, taken as security; and provided, further, in case the said note or bond issue is created for a building loan on real estate, that at no time shall the entire outstanding note or bond issue exceed sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate and the actual cost of the improvements thereon taken as security.

Notes secured by first mortgage.

(i) Collateral trust bonds or notes when secured by either:

(1) Deposit of bonds authorized for investment by this section, of a market value at least fifteen per centum in excess of the par value of the collateral trust bonds or notes issued; or

(2) Deposit of bonds authorized for investment by this section, and other securities, of a combined market value at least twenty per centum in excess of the par value of the collateral trust bonds or notes issued; provided, that the par value of said collateral trust bonds or notes shall in no case exceed the market value of that portion of the security represented by bonds authorized for investment by this section.

Legal investments in New York and Massachusetts.

(j) Bonds legal for investment by savings banks in the states of New York or Massachusetts; provided, however, that as to bonds of the character specified in paragraph (c) or (e) of subdivision three of this section, such bonds shall also conform to the requirements of either of such paragraphs.

Certificates on real estate.

(k) Certificates issued by a corporation organized under the laws of this state with a paid-up capital stock of not less than one hundred thousand dollars, evidencing and conferring participation to an indicated amount in a first mortgage on real estate and the debt secured thereby, and guaranteeing the payment of the principal of the mortgage debt at its maturity or within some specified time thereafter and agreeing to pay interest on the amount of the participation at some specified rate, the mortgage however and debt thereby secured to be assigned to a trust company and held by it as security for the payment of said mortgage certificates and for the performance of all conditions imposed thereby upon the corporation issuing the same; provided, the said first mortgage indebtedness shall not exceed sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate taken as security; and provided, further, that the trust company shall certify on each certificate that the aggregate amount of the certificates issued evidencing and conferring participation in any one such mortgage and mortgage debt does not exceed the principal of the said mortgage debt; but provided, nevertheless, that, unless such certificates are made legal investment for savings banks by other law of this state, no savings bank shall purchase any such certificates until the corporation issuing the same has first obtained the written approval of the superintendent of banks to such certificates as an investment for savings banks. The actual expense of investigating any issue of such certificates presented to the superintendent of banks for approval shall be paid by the corporation presenting the same, and the superintendent of banks, before making such investigation may require a cash deposit of such amount as he may deem necessary to cover such expense. The superintendent of banks may accept and act upon the opinions and appraisements of any title insurance or abstract company, attorneys or appraisers which may be presented by such corporation so applying, and the reports of any of the executive officers of the corporation issuing such certificates, on any question of fact concerning or affecting such certificates, the security thereof, or the financial condition of the corporation issuing the same. In lieu of or in addition to such opinions, appraisements and reports, the superintendent of banks may, if he deems proper, have any or all such matters passed upon and certified to him by attorneys, appraisers or accountants of his own selection at the expense of the applicant. The superintendent of banks shall keep an official list of all issues of such certificates approved by him.

No notes, bonds, or other securities, the payment of which is secured by any mortgage or deed of trust executed after September 1, 1913, shall be deemed to come within or conform to the requirements of either of paragraphs (f), (g) or (i) of subdivision three of this section, unless such notes, bonds or other securities shall, in the manner provided in this act, have been certified by the superintendent of banks, to come within and fully conform to the requirements of one or the other of said paragraphs.

Notes, etc., certified to by superintendent of banks.

The legality of investments heretofore lawfully made pursuant to the provisions of this section, or of any law of this state as it existed on and subsequent to July 1, 1909, shall not be affected by any amendments to this section or this act: nor shall any such amendments require the changing of investments once lawfully made under this act.

Legality of investments not affected.

Any bonds authorized by this section as a legal investment for savings banks may be carried on the books of said bank at their investment value based on their market value at the time they were originally bought, unless the superintendent of banks shall require any or all of the bonds which may thereafter have a market value less than the original investment value to be written down to such new market value which shall be done gradually if practicable and in such manner as he may determine; or he may, by a plan of amortization to be determined by him, require such gradual extinction of premium as will bring such bonds to par at maturity.

No savings bank shall hereafter purchase or loan money upon any bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any "public utility," subject to the jurisdiction, regulation or control of the railroad commission of this state under the provisions of the "Public Utilities Act," approved December 23, 1911, unless each such bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness was either:

Bonds of public utilities.

(a) Issued prior to the taking effect of the "Public Utilities Act"; or

(b) Issued under authority of the railroad commission, in accordance with the provisions of said act; or

(c) A note issued for a period not exceeding twelve months, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b) of section fifty-two of said act.

No provision of this act, and no act, or deed, done or performed under or in connection therewith, and no finding made or certificate issued under any provision thereof, shall be held or construed to obligate the State of California to pay, or be liable for the payment of, or to guarantee in any manner whatsoever, the regularity or the validity of the issuance of any stock or bond certificate, or bond, note, or other evidence of indebtedness certified under any provision of this act, by the superintendent of banks, as being in conformity with the requirements of any paragraph of subdivision three of this section.

SEC. 48. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered sixty-one a, and to read as follows:

Superintendent of banks may investigate bonds.

Section 61*a*. The superintendent of banks shall have power, when any issue of bonds or securities is presented to him for that purpose, to investigate and ascertain whether such bonds or securities come within and fully conform to all the requirements of paragraphs (f), (g), (h) or (i) of subdivision three of section sixty-one of this act, or of either of said paragraphs. He may also investigate and ascertain for what period of time, and upon what conditions, any franchise granted to or held by any corporation issuing any such bonds or securities will remain in force. The actual expense of investigating any issue of bonds or securities so presented shall be paid by the person or corporation presenting the same for investigation, and the superintendent of banks, before making such investigation may require a cash deposit of such amount as he may deem necessary to cover such expense. The superintendent of banks may accept and act upon the opinions and appraisements of any attorneys or appraisers which may be presented by such person or corporation so applying, and the reports of any of the executive officers of the corporation issuing such bonds or securities, on any question of fact concerning or affecting such bonds or securities, the security thereof, the franchise conditions herein mentioned, or the financial condition of the corporation issuing the same. In lieu of or in addition to such opinions, appraisements and reports, the superintendent of banks may, if he deems proper, have any or all such matters passed upon and certified to him by attorneys, appraisers or accountants of his own selection at the expense of the applicant. If the superintendent of banks shall find from such investigation that the bonds or securities so presented come within and fully conform to all the requirements of any of said paragraphs of subdivision three of section sixty-one of this act, and is satisfied from such investigation as to such franchise conditions, he shall so certify, otherwise a certificate shall be refused. The superintendent of banks shall keep an official list of all bonds and securities certified by him.

SEC. 49. Section sixty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Time and condition of repayment of deposits.

Section 64. Each savings bank must prescribe by its by-laws, or by contract with its depositors, the time and conditions on which repayment is to be made to depositors, except as in this act otherwise provided. In all cases the by-laws or contracts shall provide that notice of at least thirty days may, at the option of any such bank, be required to be given of intention to withdraw any deposit or part thereof, but whenever there is any call by depositors for repayment of a greater amount than the bank may have disposable for that purpose, the directors or officers thereof must not make any new loan or investment of the funds of the depositors or of earnings thereof until such excess of call has ceased. The directors of any such bank having no capital stock shall, before the declaration of any dividend, carry at least one tenth part of the net profits of such bank, for the preceding half year, or for the period covered by said dividend, to its reserve fund. Subject to the provisions of section nineteen of this act, any losses sustained by any such bank may be charged to and paid out of its reserve fund. A larger reserve fund may be created and nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibitory thereof. The assets of any such bank are a security to its depositors. Any such bank organized without capital stock, may provide by its by-laws for the disposal of any amount in its reserve fund in excess of the amount required by section nineteen of this act and may also provide for final disposal upon the dissolution of the bank of its reserve fund or the balance thereof remaining after payment of any losses of such bank.

Reserve fund.

SEC. 50. Section sixty-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 65. No loan shall be made, directly or indirectly, to any director or officer of any savings bank by such bank or on the endorsement, surety or guaranty of any such officer or director, except that loans may be made to any corporation in which any director or officer of such savings bank may own or hold a minority number of shares of stock, upon authorization of a majority of all the directors of such savings bank and the affirmative vote of all directors of such savings bank present at the meeting authorizing such loan; provided, however, that such loan shall in all other respects conform to and comply with all other provisions of this act. Such interested director or officer shall not vote or participate in any manner in the action of the board on such loan. Such authorization shall be entered upon the records or minutes of such savings bank. The fact of making such loan, the names of the directors authorizing such loan, the corporate name of the borrower, the name of each director or officer of such bank who is a member, stockholder, or director of the corporation to which such loan is made, the amount of such loan, the rate of interest thereon, the time when the loan will become due, the amount, character and value of security given therefor and the fact of payment, when made, shall be forthwith reported in writing by the cashier or secretary of such savings bank to the superintendent of banks. A loan may be made to any agent or employee, other than an officer or director, of any savings bank by such bank upon authorization of a majority of all the directors of such savings bank and an affirmative vote of all directors of such savings bank present at the meeting authorizing such loan; provided, however, that such loan shall in all respects conform to and comply with all other provisions of this act. Such authorization shall be entered upon the records or minutes of such savings bank. The fact of making such loan, the names of the directors authorizing such loan, the name of the borrower, the nature of his employment, the amount of such loan, the rate of interest thereon, the time when the loan will become due, the amount, character and value of the security given therefor, and the fact of payment, when made, shall be forthwith reported in writing by the cashier or secretary of such savings bank to the superintendent of banks. Any officer or director of any savings bank, who knowingly procures a loan from such savings bank, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a felony. In case of the neglect or failure of the secretary or cashier of any such bank, to report to the superintendent of banks, as herein provided, any of the facts so required to be reported, the bank shall be liable therefor and shall forfeit to the people of the State of California twenty-five dollars per day for each day, or part thereof, during which such neglect or failure continues.

Penalty.

SEC. 51. Section sixty-six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

No loan exceeding 50 per cent of stock.

Section 66. No savings bank shall hereafter make any loans to any person, firm, co-partnership or corporation to an amount exceeding fifty per centum of the actual paid-up capital stock and surplus of such bank, or in the case of a bank organized without capital stock, to an amount exceeding fifty per centum of the reserve fund of such bank; provided, however, that any savings bank having a paid-up capital and surplus of less than fifty thousand dollars, but not less than twenty-five thousand dollars, may make any such loan on real estate security to an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars; and provided further, that any savings bank having a paid-up capital and surplus of less than twenty-five thousand dollars may make any such loan on real estate security to an amount not exceeding its paid-up capital and surplus, if each such loan in all other respects conforms to the provisions of this act. The renewal or extension of any loan heretofore legally made by any savings bank shall not be construed to be a "loan hereafter made" within the meaning of the provisions of this section. The legality of investments heretofore lawfully made pursuant to the provisions of this act as it existed on and subsequent to July 1, 1909, shall not be affected by the provisions of this section. For the purposes of this section an endorser or guarantor shall be deemed to be a borrower.

Renewal of loan.

SEC. 52. Section sixty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Limitation on loans.

Section 67. 1. No savings bank shall loan money except on adequate security of real or personal property, and no such loan shall be made for a period longer than ten years; provided, that no such loan shall be made on unsecured notes.

Not more than 5 per cent in bonds.

2. No savings bank shall invest or loan more than five per centum of its assets on any one bond issue, except bonds of the United States, of the State of California, bonds for which the faith and credit of the United States or of the State of California are pledged, or bonds of any county, city and county, city or school district in this state, or bonds of any irrigation district such as are legal for investment by savings banks.

3. No savings bank shall loan money :

(a) On bonds of the character specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of subdivision three of section sixty-one of this act, unless such bonds shall have a market value of at least ten per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; or,

Loans on bonds.

(b) On bonds of the character specified in paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) or on bonds or notes of the character specified in paragraph (i) of subdivision three of section sixty-one of this act, unless such bonds or notes shall have a market value at least fifteen per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; or,

(c) On bonds legal for investment by savings banks in the states of New York or Massachusetts, unless such bonds shall have a market value at least fifteen per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; or,

(d) On personal property unless such personal property shall have a market value at least fifty per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; or,

(e) On other bonds, or on the capital stock of any corporation, unless such bonds or stock shall have a market value at least fifty per centum in excess of the amount loaned thereon; provided, however, that no loan shall be made upon the capital stock of any bank unless such bank has been in existence at least two years and has earned and paid a dividend on its capital stock.

4. No savings bank shall make any loan on the security of real estate, except it be a first lien, and in no event to exceed sixty per centum of the market value of any real estate taken as security except for the purpose of facilitating the sale of property owned by such savings bank; provided, that a second lien may be accepted to secure the repayment of a debt previously contracted in good faith; and, provided, also, that any savings bank holding a first mortgage or deed of trust on real estate may take or purchase and hold another and immediately subsequent mortgage or deed of trust thereon, but all such loans shall not exceed in the aggregate sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate securing the same; provided, further, that a savings bank may loan not to exceed ninety per centum of the face value of a note or bond secured by a first mortgage or deed of trust on real estate, but in no event shall any such loan exceed ninety per centum of sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate covered by said mortgage or deed of trust.

Loans on real estate.

5. No savings bank shall purchase, invest or loan its capital, surplus or the money of its depositors, or any part of either, in mining shares or stock. Any president or managing officer who knowingly consents to a violation of any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony.

No loans on mining stock.

SEC. 53. Section sixty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 68. Every savings bank or savings department of a bank, shall at all times maintain a lawful money reserve equivalent to four per centum of the aggregate amount of its deposits; one half of such lawful money reserve shall be kept on hand in lawful money of the United States or gold certificates or silver certificates of the United States, and one half may consist of bonds of the United States or of lawful money of the United States or gold certificates or silver certificates of the United States, on hand or on deposit subject to call with any reserve bank provided for in section twenty of this act; provided, however, that no savings bank or savings department shall be required to maintain in its own keeping a lawful money reserve in excess of four hundred thousand dollars, and when such lawful money reserve in its own keeping reaches that amount, the balance of cash necessary to make up the four per centum may be kept on deposit subject to call with any reserve bank provided for in section twenty of this act. No new loan shall be made during any deficiency in the lawful money reserve. Deposits with any commercial bank, or commercial department of a bank, on open account, to facilitate business transactions, as provided in this section, shall be permitted, and shall not be construed as loans. Not more than five per centum of the deposits of any savings bank shall be deposited with any one bank, except with the consent of the superintendent of banks. Not more than fifteen per centum of the deposits of any savings bank shall be deposited with all other banks, except with the consent of the superintendent of banks. No savings bank or savings department shall receive deposits of other banks other than savings deposits and such deposits shall not be treated or considered as a part of the lawful money reserve of such depositing bank; provided, that the sum so deposited shall not exceed ten thousand dollars.

Reserve of savings banks.

Deposits with commercial
banks.

SEC. 54. Section eighty of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 80. No commercial bank shall make any loans to any person, firm, co-partnership or corporation, to an amount exceeding the following percentages of its capital stock actually paid in and surplus:

Loans of commercial banks.

Without
security.

1. Ten per centum without security, except where such capital stock and surplus is less than twenty-five thousand dollars, in which event an amount not to exceed twenty per centum of such capital stock and surplus may be loaned without security, and where such capital stock and surplus is greater than twenty-five thousand dollars and does not exceed fifty thousand dollars, a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars may be loaned without security. Nothing herein shall prohibit any commercial bank from taking or receiving any kind, character or amount of security whatsoever, either real or personal, for the protection of any loan made under the provisions of this subdivision, but no such loan or any part thereof shall be considered or construed as a secured loan unless the whole thereof is loaned upon security worth at least fifteen per centum more than the amount of such loan; or,

2. Fifteen per centum, in addition to the amount that may be loaned under the provisions of subdivision one of this section, upon security worth at least fifteen per centum more than the amount of such loan so secured; provided, however, that a separate note or notes shall be taken for the unsecured loans and a separate note or notes shall be taken for the secured loans, and the secured and unsecured loans shall not be combined in any way within one note, or notes; or,

3. Twenty-five per centum upon security worth at least fifteen per centum more than the amount of its loans so secured; provided, however, that when secured loans to this amount or any amount in excess of fifteen per centum are made, then no unsecured loans shall be permitted in addition to such secured loans.

A commercial bank may buy from, or discount for, any person, firm, co-partnership or corporation, or loan upon bills of lading or bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actual existing value an amount not exceeding seventy-five per centum of the paid-up capital and surplus of such bank; and may also buy from or discount for any person, firm, co-partnership or corporation, commercial or business paper actually owned by the person, firm, co-partnership or corporation negotiating the same, an amount not exceeding twenty-five per centum of the paid-up capital and surplus of such bank; but the discount of bills of lading or bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actual existing value, and the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person, firm, co-partnership or corporation negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed by the person, firm, co-partnership or corporation selling or discounting the same.

SEC. 55. Section eighty-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 82. Every commercial bank hereafter organized must have paid up in cash a capital stock of not less than,

(a) Twenty-five thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any locality the population of which does not exceed five thousand persons;

(b) Fifty thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any city the population of which is more than five thousand persons but does not exceed twenty-five thousand persons;

(c) One hundred thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any city the population of which is more than twenty-five thousand persons but does not exceed one hundred thousand persons;

(d) Two hundred thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any city the population of which is more than one hundred thousand persons but does not exceed two hundred thousand persons;

(e) Three hundred thousand dollars if its principal place of business is located in any city the population of which is more than two hundred thousand persons.

Not applicable to existing banks.

The foregoing classification shall not apply to any commercial bank already in existence which has received its certificate to do a banking business from the superintendent of banks; nor to any bank the location of which shall have been included by annexation or consolidation within the limits of a city of a class requiring a larger capitalization, but no bank thus excepted shall be permitted to establish any new branch office as provided in section nine of this act or to remove its place of business from the original limits of the city or township wherein it was located prior to such annexation or consolidation until it shall have the capital required of banks in such city not within said exception. Such excepted banks may not in any case decrease their capital stock but may increase the same in the manner provided by law to an amount either greater or less than that required of banks in such city not within said exception; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to affect the provisions of section nineteen of this act relative to the proportion of capital and surplus to deposits or of section twenty-three of this act relative to the capital stock required of banks doing a departmental business. The provisions of section twenty-three of this act, as to population, shall apply to any bank organized under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 56. Section eighty-three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Loans to officers,
etc.

Section 83. No loan shall be made, directly or indirectly, to any officer of any commercial bank by such bank, or on the endorsement, surety, or guaranty of any such officer, except as hereinafter provided in this section. Loans to any director, agent, or other employee, or to any firm, co-partnership, or corporation of which any director, officer, agent or other employee is a member, stockholder, director, agent or other employee, or to any person, firm, co-partnership or corporation on the endorsement, surety, or guaranty of any such director other than an officer, agent or other employee, can be made by any commercial bank only on authorization of, or confirmation within thirty days after making such loan, by a majority of all the directors of such bank and the affirmative vote of all directors of such bank present at the meeting authorizing or confirming such loan. Such interested director shall not vote or participate in any manner in the action of the board on such loan. The board of directors of any such bank may fix the total amount of credit that may at any one time during the twelve months next succeeding be given to any director, agent, or other employee, or to any firm, co-partnership or corporation in which any director, officer, agent, or other employee is a member, stockholder, director, agent or other employee, and any or all loans made within or up to the total amount of such authorized credit may at any time during said twelve months, be renewed from time to time, in whole or in part, by the officers of the bank without any further vote or action on the part of the board of directors. Each such authorization shall be entered upon the records or minutes of said bank. No director shall vote or participate in any manner in such action of the board fixing the total amount of credit that may at any one time be given to himself or to any firm, co-partnership or corporation in which he is a member, stockholder, director, agent or other employee. The fact of making such loan, the names of the directors authorizing such loan, the name of the director, agent, or employee, obtaining such loan, or the name of the firm, co-partnership or corporation in which such director, officer, agent, or employee is interested, obtaining such loan, the amount of such loan, the rate of interest thereon, the time when the loan will become due, the amount, character and value of security given therefor, if any, and the fact of payment when made, shall be forthwith reported in writing by the cashier or secretary of such bank to the superintendent of banks. In case of a loan so made without the previous authorization of the directors, the action of the board of directors, in confirming or refusing to confirm such loan within thirty days thereafter, shall be reported in the same manner. Any officer, director, agent, or employee of a commercial bank, who knowingly procures a loan from such commercial bank contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a felony. In case of the neglect or failure of the secretary or cashier of any such bank, to report to the superintendent of banks, as herein provided, any of the facts so required to be reported, the bank shall be liable therefor and shall forfeit to the people of the State of California twenty-five dollars per day for each day, or part thereof, during which such neglect or failure continues.

Section 91. Any court having jurisdiction of any executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee, upon the application of any such officer or trustee, or upon the application of any person having an interest in the estate or property administered by such officer or trustee, after such notice to the other parties in interest as the court may direct, and after a hearing upon such application, may authorize such officer or trustee to deposit any moneys then in his hands, or which may come into his hands thereafter, until the further order of said court, with any such trust company, and upon deposit of such money, and its receipt and acceptance by such trust company, the said officer or trustee shall be discharged from further care or responsibility therefor. Such deposit shall be paid out only upon the order of said court.

SEC. 60. Section ninety-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Deposit of

istrator.

Section 92. Any public administrator may deposit any or all moneys of any estate upon which he is administering, not required for the current expenses of such administration, with any such trust company having its principal place of business in the county, or city and county in which he is acting as such administrator. Any court having jurisdiction of an estate being administered by a public administrator, may direct such administrator to deposit all or any part of the moneys of said estate with any such trust company. Such deposit shall relieve the public administrator from depositing with the county treasurer the moneys so deposited with such trust company. Moneys so deposited by a public administrator may be drawn upon the order of such administrator, countersigned by a judge of the superior court, when required for the purposes of administration, or otherwise.

SEC. 61. Section ninety-three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 93. Any court having jurisdiction of any estate in process of administration, or any other proceeding, may, on application of any person interested therein, or the person who has been selected by said court, or a judge thereof, as executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee, after such notice to the parties in interest as the court shall direct, or without notice if all parties in interest consent thereto, and a hearing on such application, order any executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee so selected or appointed, whether such person has duly qualified or not to deposit with any such trust company, for safe keeping, such portion or all of the personal assets of said estate as the court shall deem proper, and upon such deposit being made, the court shall by an order of record reduce the bond to be given or theretofore given by such officer or trustee, so as to cover only the estate remaining in the hands of said officer or trustee; and the property so deposited shall thereupon be held by such trust company, under the order and direction of said court.

SEC. 62. Section ninety-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 94. Such trust company shall not be required to give any bond or security in case of any appointment or deposit of moneys or other personal assets hereinbefore provided for, except as provided in this act, but shall be responsible for all investments which shall be made by it of the funds which may be entrusted to it for investment by such court, and shall be liable to the same extent as an individual, and as hereinafter provided. No bond required.

SEC. 63. Section ninety-five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 95. Such trust company shall pay interest upon all moneys so deposited with it at such rate as may be agreed upon at the time of its acceptance of any such deposit, or as shall be provided by the order of court and agreed to by such trust company. Interest on deposits.

SEC. 64. Section ninety-six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 96. Any such trust company, if its principal place of business is situated in a city the population of which does not exceed one hundred thousand persons, before accepting any such appointment or deposit, shall deposit with the state treasurer, as herein provided, at least fifty thousand dollars as security for the faithful performance and execution of all court trusts accepted by it, and shall also deposit with the state treasurer at least fifty thousand dollars as security for the faithful performance and execution of all private trusts accepted by it; and whenever any such trust company shall under the provisions of section 98 of this act be required to make the first additional deposit of securities with the state treasurer such trust company must also deposit with the state treasurer an additional fifty thousand dollars as security for the faithful performance and execution of all private trusts accepted by it; and any trust company if its principal place of business is situated in a city the population of which exceeds one hundred thousand persons, before accepting any such appointment or deposit, shall deposit with the state treasurer, as herein provided at least one hundred thousand dollars, as security for the faithful performance and execution of all court trusts accepted by it, and shall also deposit with the state Security deposit with state treasurer.

treasurer at least one hundred thousand dollars as security for the faithful performance and execution of all private trusts accepted by it. Any such deposit may be made either in lawful money of the United States, or in securities of either or any of the following classes:

(a) Bonds issued by the United States or by this state or by any county, city and county, city or school district therein;

(b) Bonds for the payment of which the faith and credit of the United States or of this state are pledged;

Exchange of securities.

(c) Notes or bonds secured by mortgage or deed of trust constituting a first lien on improved and productive real estate in the State of California; such improved real estate being worth at least double the amount of such lien. Such money or securities shall be first approved by the superintendent of banks and, upon his written order, deposited with the state treasurer for the respective purposes herein specified, and said treasurer shall give his receipt therefor, and thereafter, subject to the provisions of this act, shall hold such deposits of money or securities separately, each for the sole benefit of the beneficiaries of the class of trust business, for the security and protection of which the same was deposited, and said treasurer shall give his receipt therefor and the state shall be responsible for the custody and safe return of any money or securities so deposited. Said securities or money so deposited may, with the approval of the superintendent of banks, be withdrawn or exchanged from time to time for other like securities, or lawful money, receivable as aforesaid, and so long as the trust company so depositing said money or securities shall continue solvent, it shall have the right and shall be permitted by the state treasurer to receive the interest and dividends on any securities so deposited. Said securities and money shall be subject to sale and transfer, and to the disposal of the proceeds by said state treasurer, only on the order of a court of competent jurisdiction and for the benefit respectively of the beneficiaries of that class of trust business for the security and protection of which the same were deposited.

SEC. 65. Section ninety-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Mortgage of building.

Section 97. Any such trust company, having a capital and surplus of two hundred thousand dollars or more apportioned and set aside as security for the faithful performance and execution of all court trusts accepted by it, as provided in this act, and which is wholly or in part invested in the lot and building in which its business is carried on, may be permitted by the superintendent of banks to mortgage such lot and building to the state treasurer for such sum, up to its full market value, as the superintendent of banks may determine, and such mortgage may be deposited with said treasurer, and when so deposited it shall be included in the amount of securities herein required to be deposited with said treasurer as security for the faithful performance of all such court trusts.

SEC. 66. Section ninety-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 98. Whenever any trust company, the principal place of business of which is located in a city the population of which does not exceed one hundred thousand persons, receives from court trusts accepted by it, trust funds, as herein defined, to the amount of five hundred thousand dollars, it shall forthwith notify in writing the superintendent of banks of such fact, and within thirty days thereafter shall deposit with the state treasurer additional money or securities of the character mentioned and defined in section ninety-six of this act, approved as therein provided, in the amount of fifty thousand dollars; and whenever any trust company receives from court trusts such funds to the amount of one million dollars it shall further notify in writing the superintendent of banks of such fact and within thirty days thereafter shall deposit with the state treasurer additional money or securities of the character mentioned and defined in section ninety-six of this act, approved as therein provided, in the amount of fifty thousand dollars; and for each additional five hundred thousand dollars of such trust funds thereafter received by any trust company from court trusts a similar notification in writing shall forthwith be given to the superintendent of banks, and a further deposit in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars of such money or securities, or of securities provided for in section ninety-seven of this act likewise approved, shall be made, within thirty days thereafter, by such trust company with said state treasurer. The treasurer shall give his receipt for any money or securities so deposited and each and all of said deposits of money or securities, shall be held by said state treasurer for the sole benefit of the beneficiaries of the class of business for the security and protection of which same were deposited. The state shall be responsible for the custody and safe return of any money or securities so deposited with said state treasurer. The term "trust funds" when used in this section shall be deemed to mean and shall mean personal property and cash, whether received with the original trust property or as rent, income or proceeds thereof, or otherwise, in connection with the trust, and shall not be deemed to include and shall not include real property. Any trust company failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the State of California one hundred dollars a day for each day during which such failure or default shall continue. Upon making a request in writing to the superintendent of banks, any such trust company shall be entitled to withdraw from the state treasurer, from time to time, a sufficient amount of such securities so that at all times the amount of such securities so deposited shall conform to the requirements of this act, and so that at no time shall such trust company be required to have on deposit with the state treasurer an amount of securities in excess of the requirements of this act. Upon receiving such request in writing, and satisfactory proof of the facts warranting such withdrawal, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of banks to forthwith deliver to the state treasurer a written order directing the withdrawal of said securities so as to conform with the provisions of this section, and it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to comply with such written order. The validity or legality of any act or proceeding done or taken by any such trust company, relating to or in connection with the administration of any such trusts, shall not be affected or impaired by the neglect or failure of such trust company, or of any officer or employee thereof, to comply with any of the provisions of this act, but all such acts and proceedings done or taken prior to the revocation of its certificate of authority to do such business by the superintendent of banks, under the provisions of this act, or the revocation by any court or judge thereof of the appointment, order or decree theretofore entered in such trust matter shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as if any such neglect or failure had not occurred.

Sec. 67. Section ninety-nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Abstract
of title.

Section 99. When any part of the securities so deposited with the state treasurer consists of notes or bonds secured by mortgage or deed of trust, it shall be accompanied by a complete abstract of title or an unlimited certificate of title or a policy of title insurance prepared or issued by a person, company or corporation designated or approved by the superintendent of banks and authorized by law or otherwise found by the superintendent of banks to be competent to issue such evidence of title, which shall be examined and approved by or under the direction of said superintendent of banks. The fees for an examination of such evidence of title by counsel to be paid by the trust company making the deposit shall not exceed twenty dollars for each title examined, and the fee for each appraiser not exceeding two, shall not exceed five dollars for each mortgage or deed of trust.

Section 101. For the purposes of this act, all trusts permitted to be accepted or executed by any such trust company, under any provision of this act are hereby classified and defined as either:

- (a) Court trusts; or
- (b) Private trusts.

Court
trust.

A court trust is one in which any such trust company acts under appointment, order or decree of any court, as executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee, or in which it receives on deposit from a public administrator, under any provision of this act, or from any executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee, under any order or decree of any court, money or property. Any other trust is a private trust. The inspection and supervision of the superintendent of banks shall extend only to court trusts as herein defined. Private trusts shall not be subject to the inspection or supervision of the superintendent of banks, his attorneys, examiners or other assistants. In making the reports to the superintendent of banks required by this act, every trust company shall, in addition to the other facts to be reported by it, furnish only a list and brief description of the court trusts held by it, the source of appointment thereto, the authority by which the appointment or deposit was made, and the amount of real or personal property held by such trust company by virtue thereof.

SEC. 70. Section one hundred two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 102. Any corporation which desires to withdraw from and discontinue doing a trust business shall furnish to the superintendent of banks satisfactory evidence of its release and discharge from all the obligations and trusts hereinbefore provided for, and thereupon the superintendent of banks shall revoke his certificate of authority to do a trust business theretofore issued to such corporation, and the state treasurer shall return to said corporation all the securities deposited by such corporation and shall cancel any mortgage made by such corporation to said state treasurer as a part of such securities, and thereafter such corporation shall not be permitted to use and shall not use the word "trust" in its corporate name or in connection with its business.

Discontinuance of business.

SEC. 71. Section one hundred three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 103. Any trust company exercising the powers and performing the duties provided for in this act, shall, except as herein otherwise provided, keep inviolate all communications and writings made to or by said trustee touching the existence, condition, management and administration of any private trust confided to it; and no creditor or stockholder of any such trust company shall be entitled to disclosure or knowledge of any such communication or writing; provided, however, that the president, vice-president, manager, trust officer, secretary or regularly employed attorney of any such trust company shall be entitled to knowledge of any such communication or writing; and provided further, that in any suit or proceeding touching the existence, condition, management or administration of any such trust, the court wherein the same is pending may require disclosure of any such communication or writing.

business.

Section 106. Any such trust company desiring to do, or doing, a commercial banking business or a savings bank business, or both, in addition to its trust business shall have actually paid up, in cash, the amount of capital provided in section twenty-three of this act. Any title insurance company authorized by its articles of incorporation to do, or doing a trust business, in addition to its title insurance business, shall comply with all the requirements of any law governing trust companies, and shall have a capital stock actually paid in, in cash, of not less than two hundred thousand dollars, and in addition thereto, the capital stock required by law for doing a title insurance business. Such capital for each such department or class of business shall be increased from time to time in the same manner and to the same extent as though each such department or class of business was conducted by a separate bank, trust company or title insurance company, instead of as separate departments or classes of business. Any trust company and any title insurance company doing a departmental business as above provided shall comply with the provisions of this act governing each of such departments and with the provisions of any law governing each such class of business as to its deposits, reserve, surplus, investments and loans.

SEC. 75. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered one hundred seven, and to read as follows:

Departmental

company.

Section 107. Any corporation doing a departmental business as a title insurance company and as a trust company, shall, as to its trust department, be subject to the supervision and inspection of the superintendent of banks, and as to its trust department must make all reports to the superintendent of banks required to be made by trust companies by the provisions of this act, and as to its trust department such corporation shall also be subject to, and shall have the benefit of all other provisions and requirements of this act applicable to trust companies, and shall also be subject to and shall have the benefit of all of the banking laws and rules and regulations of the banking department of this state applicable to trust companies. The proportionate part of the state banking fund provided for by section one hundred twenty-three of this act, that shall be payable by such corporation, shall be based on the amount of capital and surplus of such corporation apportioned to its trust department.

SEC. 76. Section one hundred twenty-one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Employees of superintendent
of banks.

Section 121. The superintendent of banks shall employ a chief deputy, attorney and such examiners and other assistants as he may need to discharge in a proper manner the duties imposed upon him by law, none of which examiners or assistants or attorney shall be interested in any bank in this state as director, stockholder, officer or employee, and they shall perform such duties as he shall assign to them. He shall fix the compensation of the chief deputy, attorney, examiners and other assistants, which compensation shall be paid monthly on his certificate and on the warrant of the controller out of the state treasury. The chief deputy shall within fifteen days from the time of his appointment take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state. No person shall be appointed a chief deputy who has not had at least three years' active banking experience, either as an executive officer or employee of some bank in this state. In case of the absence or inability to act, or vacancy in the office of the superintendent of banks for thirty consecutive days, the chief deputy shall execute to the people of the state a bond in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars, with corporate surety or two sureties to be approved by the controller and treasurer of the state, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of the superintendent while such deputy acts as superintendent, and upon filing such bond such deputy shall have all the power and duties of superintendent of banks, until the inability of the superintendent shall be removed, or until a new superintendent of banks shall have been appointed by the governor. No superintendent of banks, chief deputy, or bank examiner, shall be or shall become indebted, directly or indirectly, either as borrower, endorser, surety, or guarantor, to any bank under his supervision or subject to his examination.

SEC. 77. Section one hundred twenty-three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 123. A fund is hereby created to be known as the state banking fund, and out of said fund shall be paid all the expenses incurred in and about the conduct of the business of the banking department, including the salary of the superintendent, chief deputy, attorney, examiners and other assistants, traveling expenses, furnishing of rooms and rent. Each bank shall pay annually its share of eighty-seven thousand five hundred dollars, to be determined by the proportion which the capital and surplus which shall include all reserve and contingent funds, of any incorporated bank or the surplus, reserve and contingent funds of any bank organized without a capital stock bear to the capital, surplus, reserve and contingent funds in the aggregate of all such banks receiving certificates of authorization from the superintendent of banks, as shown by the last report of such bank to the superintendent of banks. All moneys collected or received by the superintendent of banks, under and by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall be by him delivered to the treasurer of the state, who shall deposit the same to the credit of said banking fund, and the unexpended balances of all moneys heretofore paid into the state treasury by any of the bank commissioners or the superintendent of banks, shall be retained and become a part of said fund; provided, however, that the superintendent shall have authority to retain in his possession and under his control the sum of five hundred dollars to be used by him as a revolving fund for the benefit of the state banking department until the end of the fiscal year at which time he shall make full settlement with the treasurer of the state. If any such bank shall fail to pay such charges as are herein required, the superintendent shall forthwith cancel the certificate of said bank.

SEC. 78. Section one hundred twenty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Inspection
of banks.

Section 124. Every bank and the trust department of every title insurance company doing a trust business, shall be subject to the inspection of the superintendent of banks. The superintendent of banks, the chief deputy, or some competent person or persons to be appointed by the superintendent of banks, to be known as examiners, shall visit and examine every bank at least once each fiscal year. On every such examination inquiries shall be made by him as to the condition and resources of the bank, the mode of conducting and managing its affairs, the action of its directors, the investment and disposition of its funds, the safety and prudence of its management, the security afforded to those by whom its engagements are held and whether the requirements of its articles of incorporation and the law have been complied with in the administration of its affairs, and as to such other matters as the superintendent may prescribe. Whenever, in the judgment of the superintendent of banks, the condition of any bank renders it necessary or expedient to make an extra examination or to devote any extraordinary attention to its affairs, the superintendent of banks shall have authority to make any and all necessary extra examinations and to devote any necessary extra attention to the conduct of its affairs; and such bank shall pay for all such extra services rendered by the superintendent of banks at a price to be fixed by the superintendent of banks but not to exceed twenty dollars per day. The superintendent of banks shall also have power to examine, or cause to be examined, every agency located in this state of any foreign bank or banking corporation, for the purpose of ascertaining whether it has complied with the laws of this state, and for such other purposes and as to such other matters as the superintendent may prescribe. The superintendent, chief deputy, and every such examiner shall have the power to administer an oath to any person whose testimony he may require on the examination of any bank, or on the examination of any agency of any foreign bank or banking corporation, and to compel appearance and attendance of any such person for the purpose of any such examination. When a bank shall have been examined by any examiner, and he finds securities therein which are, in his judgment, of doubtful value, he shall report the same to the superintendent of banks, who thereupon shall be authorized to employ appraisers at the expense of such bank to appraise said securities, at a compensation to be fixed by the superintendent of banks. The superintendent of banks shall, whenever requested to do so by any bank, provide an auditor to make an audit of the affairs of such bank. The compensation for making such audit shall be paid by the bank direct to the person making the audit. Nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize or require the superintendent of banks to inspect or supervise the private trust business or title insurance business of any corporation doing a trust business.

SEC. 79. Section one hundred twenty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 127. No bank shall transact any business in this state without the written approval of the superintendent of banks, and without his written certificate stating that it has complied with the provisions of this act, and all the requirements of law, and that it is authorized to transact, within this state, the business specified therein; which certificate may be withheld by the superintendent of banks whenever he has reason to believe that the bank is being formed for any other than the legitimate objects contemplated by this act or whenever he has reason to believe that the public convenience and advantage will not be promoted by the opening of such bank, or whenever he has reason to believe that the corporate name assumed by such bank, by reason of the use by it of any one or more of the words "commercial," "trust," or "savings," in conjunction with any other word or words, resembles so closely as to be likely to cause confusion, the name of any other bank previously formed under the laws of this state. Before issuing such certificate the superintendent of banks shall examine, or cause an examination to be made, in order to ascertain whether the requisite capital of such bank has been paid up in cash or the requisite reserve or surplus fund has been accumulated. The superintendent of banks shall not authorize such banks to commence business until it appears from such examination, or other evidence satisfactory to him, that the requisite capital has been, in good faith, subscribed and paid in, in cash, or that the requisite surplus or reserve fund has been accumulated or paid in, in cash, and until said bank shall have paid a fee of fifty dollars for each department to be operated by said bank.

SEC. 80. Section one hundred twenty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 128. When the certified copy of articles of incorporation of any bank shall have been filed with the secretary of state, and application made for the issuance of a certificate to do business as a bank, the superintendent of banks, provided he has not withheld granting his certificate for any of the reasons set forth in section one hundred twenty-seven hereof, shall ascertain, from the best sources of information at his command, whether the character and general fitness of the persons named as stockholders are such as to command the confidence of the community in which such bank is proposed to be located, and, if so satisfied, he shall, within sixty days after such application has been made to him, issue, under his hand and official seal, the certificate of authorization required by this act. The superintendent of banks shall transmit a duplicate of such certificate of authorization to the county clerk of the county in which the principal place of business of such bank is located, and he shall file the same in his office. The superintendent of banks shall also file a duplicate of such certificate in his own office.

SEC. 81. Section one hundred thirty of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

tendent of
banks.

Section 130. Every bank, organized under the laws of this state, shall, whenever required by the superintendent of banks, make a report in writing to him, verified by the oath of its president and its secretary or cashier, or two principal officers. Such reports shall show the actual financial condition of the bank making the report, at the close of any past day designated by the superintendent, and shall specify the following:

1. The amount of its capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided.

2. The names of the directors and the number of shares of stock held by each.

3. The total amount of capital actually paid in, in cash, and the total amount of surplus, reserve and any other funds.

4. The total amount due the depositors.

5. The total amount and character of any other liabilities it may have.

6. The amount at which the lot and building occupied by the bank for the transaction of its regular business stands debited on its books; also the market value of all other real estate held, whether acquired in settlement of loans or otherwise, the original cost to the bank, the date when acquired, the amount at which it stands debited on the bank books, in what counties situated, and in what name the title is vested, if not in the name of the bank itself.

7. The amount loaned on real estate, specifying the amount secured on real estate in each county separately; also specifying the name of the person in whose name the property is held in trust or as security, in case it is held in any name other than that of the bank and the instrument creating the security does not itself disclose the name of the bank.

8. The amount invested in bonds, designating the name and amount of each particular kind.

9. The amount loaned on stocks and bonds, designating each particular class and the amount thereof.

10. The amount of money loaned on other securities, with a particular designation of each class and the amount loaned on each.

11. The amount and kind of money on hand or deposited in any other bank or place, with the name of the place where deposited and the amount in each place.

12. Any other property held, or any amount of money loaned, deposited, invested or placed, not otherwise herein enumerated, and the place where situate and the value of said property, and the amount so loaned, deposited or placed.

13. The date on which examination of the bank was last made by its board of directors and the date on which report of such examination was filed, as required by section one hundred thirty-nine of this act. Report to superintendent of banks.

14. The outstanding and unpaid amounts of any loans made by the bank, which under the provisions of either section sixty-five or eighty-three of this act are required to be reported to the superintendent of banks.

15. Any overdrafts and any loans, investments, acts or omissions violative of or not in conformity with any provision of this act which may be specifically called for.

Every foreign corporation transacting the business of banking in this state shall make the report herein required as far as such report may relate to the affairs of such corporation in this state, and every foreign corporation must particularly render the report required by subdivisions three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen of this section. Such report shall be made in writing and verified by the oath of one of its duly authorized officers or managers residing in this state. The oaths of the officers and the statements above required shall state that they and each of them have a personal knowledge of the matters therein contained, and that they believe every allegation, statement, matter, and thing therein contained is true. Any wilful false statement in the premises shall be perjury and shall be punished as such. Report of foreign corporation.

SEC. 82. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered one hundred thirty a, and to read as follows:

Section 130*a*. In addition to the information obtained from the report required by the provisions of section one hundred thirty of this act, the superintendent of banks shall also have the power to require any bank to furnish a special report in writing verified as required by section one hundred thirty of this act, whenever in his judgment such special report is necessary to inform him fully of the actual financial condition and affairs of such bank. Any wilful false statement in the premises shall be perjury and shall be punished as such. Special reports.

SEC. 83. Section one hundred thirty-one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 131. The superintendent of banks shall call for the reports specified by section one hundred thirty of this act at least three times each year. The "past day designated by the superintendent" of banks under the provisions of section one hundred thirty of this act shall be as nearly as possible the day designated by the comptroller of currency of the United States for reports of national banking associations. Three reports each year.

SEC. 84. Section one hundred thirty-three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 133. Whenever it shall appear from the report of any bank, or the superintendent of banks shall have reason to believe that the capital of any bank is impaired or reduced below the amount required by law, it shall be the When capital is impaired.

duty of the superintendent of banks and he shall have the power to examine said bank and ascertain the facts, and in case he finds such impairment or reduction of capital, he shall require such bank to make good the deficiency so appearing within sixty days after the date of such requisition. The directors of every such bank, upon which such requisition shall have been made, shall levy an assessment upon the stock thereof to repair such deficiency, and shall cause notice of such requisition to be given to each stockholder of the bank and of the amount of the assessment which he must pay for the purpose of making good such deficiency, by a written or printed notice mailed to such stockholder at his last known address or served personally upon him. If any stockholder shall refuse or neglect to pay the assessment specified in such notice within thirty days from the date of mailing or serving such notice as aforesaid, the directors of such bank shall have the right to sell to the highest bidder at public auction the stock of such stockholder, after giving a previous notice of such sale for ten days in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the principal place of business of such bank is located, and a copy of such notice of sale shall also be served on the owner of such stock by being served personally on him or by mailing to his last known address ten days before the day fixed for such sale; or such stock may be sold at private sale and without such public notice; provided, however, that before making such private sale thereof an offer in writing shall first be obtained and a copy thereof served upon the owner of record of the stock sought to be sold, either personally or by mailing a copy of such offer to his last known address; and if, after service of such offer, such owner shall still refuse or neglect to pay such assessment within two weeks from the time of the service of such offer, the said directors may accept such offer and sell such stock to the person making such offer, or to any other person or persons making a larger offer than the amount named in the offer submitted to the stockholder; but such stock shall in no event be sold for a smaller sum than the valuation put on it by the superintendent of banks in his determination and requisition as to said assessment, nor for less than the amount of said assessment so called for and the expense of sale. Out of the avails of the stock so sold, the directors shall pay the amount of assessment levied thereon, and the necessary costs of sale, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the person or persons whose stock has thus been sold. A sale of stock as herein provided shall effect an absolute cancellation of the outstanding certificate or certificates evidencing the stock so sold, and shall make the same null and void, and a new certificate shall be issued by the bank to the purchaser thereof.

Sec. 85. Section one hundred thirty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 134. If it shall appear to the superintendent of banks that any bank has violated or failed to comply with the provisions of its articles of incorporation, or any law of this state, he may, by an order under his hand and official seal, which seal must be adopted by him, addressed to such bank, direct such bank to discontinue such violation and to comply with the law; or, if it shall appear to the superintendent of banks that such bank is conducting business in an unsafe or injurious manner, he may, in like manner direct the discontinuance of any such unsafe or injurious practices. Such order shall require such bank to show cause, before the superintendent of banks, at a time and place to be fixed by him, why said order should not be observed. If upon such hearing it shall appear to the superintendent of banks that such bank is conducting business in an unsafe or injurious manner, or is violating or failing to comply with the provisions of its articles of incorporation, or any law of this state, then the superintendent of banks shall make such order final, and such bank shall immediately comply with such order made by the superintendent of banks. Such bank shall have ten days after any such order is made final in which suit may be commenced to restrain enforcement of such order, and unless such action be so commenced and enforcement of said order be enjoined within ten days, by the court in which such suit is brought, then such bank shall comply with such order.

SEC. 86. Section one hundred thirty-five of said act is hereby repealed and a new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 135 and to read as follows:

Section 135. Whenever the superintendent of banks shall deem it expedient he may call a meeting of the stockholders of any bank organized under the laws of this state, by a personal notice of such meeting for fifteen days previous thereto. All necessary expense incurred in the serving of such notice shall be borne by the bank whose stockholders are required to convene.

SEC. 88. Section one hundred thirty-six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Superintendent of banks may take possession of bank violating law.

Section 136. Whenever it shall appear to the superintendent of banks that any bank has violated the provisions of its articles of incorporation or any law of this state, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, or if the capital of any bank is impaired, or if any bank shall refuse to submit its books, papers and concerns to the inspection of any examiner, or if any officer thereof shall refuse to be examined upon oath touching the concerns of any such bank, or if any bank shall suspend payment of its obligations, or if from any examination or report provided for by this act the superintendent of banks shall have reason to conclude that such bank is in an unsound or unsafe condition to transact the business for which it is organized, or that it is unsafe and inexpedient for it to continue business, or if any bank shall neglect or refuse to observe any order of the superintendent of banks specified in sections one hundred thirty-three or one hundred thirty-four of this act, the superintendent of banks may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such bank and retain such possession until such bank shall resume business, or its affairs be finally liquidated as herein provided.

Notice to other banks.

On taking possession of the property and business of any such bank the superintendent of banks shall forthwith give notice of such fact to any and all banks, trust companies, associations and individuals, holding or in possession of any assets of such bank. No bank, trust company, association or individual knowing of such taking possession by the superintendent of banks, or notified as aforesaid, shall have a lien or charge for any payment, advance or clearance thereafter made, or liability thereafter incurred against any of the assets of the bank of whose property and business the superintendent of banks shall have taken possession as aforesaid. Such bank may, with the consent of the superintendent of banks, resume business upon such conditions as may be approved by him. Upon taking possession of the property and business of any such bank the superintendent of banks shall have authority to collect moneys due to such bank and do such other acts as are necessary to conserve its assets and business, and shall proceed to liquidate the affairs thereof as hereinafter provided.

Resumption of business.

Collection of debts.

The superintendent of banks shall collect all debts due and claims belonging to it, and upon the order of the superior court may sell or compound any bad or doubtful debts. If a purchaser for any bad or doubtful debts cannot be obtained and it appears improbable that recovery thereon can be had and that the costs of actions to enforce collection of the same would probably be lost, the court may direct that suits thereon need not be brought. On like order he may sell any real or personal property of such bank on such terms as the court shall direct; and may, if necessary to pay the debts of such bank, enforce the constitutional individual liability of stockholders by action to be brought within three years after the date of his taking possession of the affairs of such bank. The superintendent of banks shall determine the necessity of such action and the amount necessary to recover from the stockholders to fully pay all liabilities of such bank. Such action may be in equity and against all stockholders upon whom service of process in the State of California can be had, and the court may therein determine and provide for any equities as between the stockholders including the proportions of each stockholder to any surplus of money or assets that may remain after the payment of all liabilities and the expenses of liquidation. The superintendent of banks may also maintain an action against any stockholder residing out of the state or upon whom service of process cannot be had within the state, in any court of the United States or of any state or country. Any judgment so obtained by the superintendent of banks against such or any of such stockholders which is of doubtful value may be compromised and compounded by the superintendent of banks on such terms and conditions as the superior court may direct or authorize. The superintendent of banks shall file a notice of pendency of action in the county recorder's office of the county where such action is brought. At any time prior to the trial of any such action, any creditor may serve upon the superintendent of banks and file with the court wherein such action is pending, notice that he elects to maintain an action against the stockholders or any of them, in his individual capacity and thereupon the amount sued for in such action shall be reduced accordingly and such creditor shall not be entitled to share in the proceeds resulting from such action brought by the superintendent of banks. For the purpose of executing and performing any of the powers and duties hereby conferred upon him, the superintendent of banks may, in the name of the delinquent bank or in his own name, prosecute and defend any and all suits and other legal proceedings and may, in the name of the delinquent bank or in his own name as trustee execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all deeds, assignments, releases and other instruments necessary and proper to effectuate any sale of real or personal property or sale or compromise or compound authorized by order of the court as herein provided; and any deed or other instrument, executed pursuant to the authority hereby given, shall be valid and effectual for all purposes, as though the same had been executed by the officers of the delinquent bank by authority of its board of directors. In case any of the real property so sold is located in a county other than the county in which the application to the court for leave to sell the same is made, the superintendent of banks shall cause a certified copy of the order authorizing or ratifying such sale to be filed in the office of the recorder of the county in which the said real property is located. The superintendent of banks may, under his hand and official seal, appoint one or more special deputy superintendents of banks, as agent or agents, with the powers specified in the certificate of appointment hereinafter mentioned, to assist him in the duty of liquidation and distribution, the certificate of appointment to be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks, and a certified copy in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of such bank is located.

Special deputy.

The superintendent of banks may from time to time, by a certificate of appointment under his hand and official seal, specifying the powers conferred, authorize a special deputy superintendent to perform such duties connected with such liquidation and distribution as the superintendent of banks may deem proper. Such certificate of appointment shall be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks and a certified copy in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of such bank is located.

Counsel.

The superintendent of banks may employ such counsel and procure such expert assistance and advice as may be necessary in the liquidation and distribution of the assets of such bank, and for that purpose may retain such of the officers or employces of such bank as he may deem necessary. The superintendent of banks shall require from a special deputy superintendent and from such assistants such security for the faithful discharge of their duties as he may deem proper.

Notice by publication.

The superintendent of banks shall cause notice to be given by advertisement, in such newspapers as he may direct, weekly for three consecutive months, calling on all persons who may have claims against such bank to present the same to the superintendent of banks, and make legal proof thereof at a place and within a time, not earlier than the last day of publication, to be therein specified.

mail.

The superintendent of banks shall mail a similar notice to all persons whose names appear as creditors upon the books of the bank. If the superintendent of banks doubts the justice and validity of any claim, he may reject the same, and serve notice of such rejection upon the claimant, either by mail or personally. An affidavit of the service of such notice, which shall be prima facie evidence thereof shall be filed with the superintendent of banks.

Action
on rejected claim.

Any action upon a claim so rejected must be brought within six months after such service. Claims presented after the expiration of the time fixed in the notice to creditors shall be entitled to share in the distribution only to the extent of the assets in the hands of the superintendent of banks equitably applicable thereto.

Inventory.

Upon taking possession of the property and assets of any bank, the superintendent of banks shall make an inventory of the assets of such bank in duplicate, one to be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks, and one with the papers in said proceeding in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of such bank is located; upon the expiration of the time fixed for the presentation of claims the superintendent of banks shall make in duplicate a full and complete list of the claims presented, including and specifying such claims as have been rejected by him, one to be filed in the office of the superintendent of banks, and one with the papers in said proceeding in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal office of such bank is located. Thereafter he shall make and file in said offices as above provided at least fifteen days before each application to the court for leave to declare a dividend a supplemental list of the claims presented since the last preceding list was filed, including and specifying such claims as have been rejected by him, and in any event he shall make and file as above provided such a list at least once every six months after the filing of the original list, as long as he shall remain in possession of the property and business of any such bank. Such inventory and list of claims shall be open at all reasonable times to inspection. The compensation of the special deputy superintendents, counsel and other employces and assistants, and all expenses of supervision and liquidation, shall be fixed by the superintendent of banks and shall upon the certificate of the superintendent of banks be paid out of the funds of such bank in the hands of the superintendent of banks. All such expenses must be reported by the superintendent of banks to the superior court of the county where the principal place of business of such bank is located and settled by such court upon notice to such bank. The moneys collected by the superintendent of banks shall be from time to time deposited in one or more state banks of deposit, savings banks or trust companies, and, in case of the suspension or insolvency of the depository, such deposits shall be preferred before all other deposits. At any time after the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims the superior court may by order authorize the superintendent of banks to declare out of the funds remaining in his hands after the payment of expenses one or more dividends, and after the expiration of one year from the first publication of notice to creditors he may declare a final dividend, such dividends to be paid to such persons, and in such amounts, and upon such notice, as may be directed by the superior court of the county in which the principal office of such bank is located. Objections to any claim not rejected by the superintendent of banks may be made by any party interested by filing a copy of such objections with the superintendent of banks, who shall present the same to the superior court at the time of the next application to declare a dividend. The court to which such application is made shall thereupon dispose of said objections or may order a reference for that purpose, and should the objections to any claim be sustained by the court or by the referee, such claim shall not be allowed by the superintendent of banks until the claimant shall have established his claim by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The court must make proper provision for unproved or unclaimed deposits.

Compensation of special deputies, etc.

Moneys collected.

Dividends.

Objection to claims.

Should any bank at the time the superintendent of banks takes possession of its property and business, have in its possession, as bailee for safekeeping and storage, any jewelry, plate, money, specie, bullion, stocks, bonds, securities, valuable papers or other valuable personal property or should it have rented any vaults, safes or safe deposit boxes or any portion thereof for the storage of property of any kind, the superintendent of banks may at any time thereafter cause to be mailed to the person claiming to be or appearing upon its books to be the owner of such property, or the person in whose name the safe, vault or box stands, a notice in writing in securely closed, postpaid registered letter, directed to such person at his post office address as recorded upon its books, notifying such person to remove, within a period fixed by said notice and not less than sixty days from the date thereof, all such personal property and upon the date fixed by said notice, the contract, if any, between such person and bank for the storage of said property or for the use of the said safe, vault or box shall cease and determine, and the amount of the unearned rent or charges, if any, paid by such person shall become a debt of the bank to said person. If the property be not removed within the time fixed by the notice, the superintendent of banks may make such disposition of said property as the superior court, upon application thereto, shall direct. And the superintendent of banks may cause any safe, vault or box to be opened in his presence or in the presence of one of the special deputy superintendents of banks, and of a notary public not an officer or in the employ of the bank or of the superintendent of banks, and the contents thereof, if any, to be sealed up by such notary public in a package upon which such notary public shall distinctly mark the name and address of the person in whose name such safe, vault or box stands upon the books of the bank and shall attach thereto a list and description of the property therein; and the package so sealed and addressed, together with the list and description, may be kept by the superintendent of banks in one of the general safes or boxes of the bank until delivered to the person whose name it bears, or until otherwise disposed of as directed by the court. Whenever any such bank of whose property and business the superintendent of banks has taken possession as aforesaid, deems itself aggrieved thereby, it may, at any time within ten days after such taking possession, apply to the superior court in the county in which the principal office of such bank is located to enjoin further proceedings; and said court, after citing the superintendent of banks to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined, and hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties and determining the facts may, upon the merits, dismiss such application or enjoin the superintendent of banks from further proceedings, and direct him to surrender such business and property to such bank. An appeal as above provided shall operate as a stay of the judgment of the superior court, and no bond need be given if the appeal be taken by the superintendent of banks; but if the appeal be taken by such bank, a bond shall be given, as required by section nine hundred forty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure. Whenever the superintendent of banks shall have paid to each and every depositor and creditor of such bank whose claim or claims as such creditor or depositor shall have been duly proved and allowed, the full amount of such claims, and shall have made proper provision for unclaimed and unpaid deposits or dividends, and shall have paid all the expenses of the liquidation, the superintendent of banks shall call a meeting of the stockholders of such bank giving notice thereof for thirty days in one or more newspapers published in the county where the principal office of such bank is located. At such meeting the stockholders shall determine whether the superintendent of banks shall be continued as liquidator and shall wind up the affairs of such bank, or whether an agent or agents shall be elected for that purpose, and in so determining the said stockholders shall vote by ballot, in person or by proxy, each share of stock entitling the holder to one vote, and the majority of the stock shall be necessary to a determination. In case it is determined to continue the liquidation under the superintendent of banks, he shall complete the liquidation of the affairs of such bank, and after paying the expenses thereof, shall distribute the proceeds among the stockholders in proportion to the several holdings of stock in such manner and upon such notice as may be directed by the superior court. In case it is determined to appoint an agent or agents to liquidate, the stockholders shall thereupon select such agent or agents by ballot, a majority of the stock present and voting, in person or by proxy, being necessary to a choice. Such agent or agents shall execute and file with the superintendent of banks a bond to the people of the state in such amount, with such sureties and in such form as shall be approved by the superintendent of banks, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of his or their trust, and thereupon the superintendent of banks shall transfer and deliver to such agent or agents all the undivided and uncollected or other assets of such bank then remaining in his hands; and upon such transfer and delivery, the said superintendent of banks shall be discharged from any and all further liability to such bank and its creditors. Such agent or agents shall convert the assets coming into his or their possession into cash, and shall account for and make distribution of the property of said bank as is herein provided in the case of distribution by the superintendent of banks, except that the expenses thereof shall be subject to the direction and control of a court of record of competent jurisdiction. In case of the death, removal or refusal to act of any such agent or agents, the stockholders, on the same notice, to be given by the superintendent of banks upon proof of such death, removal or refusal to act being filed with him, and by the same vote hereinbefore provided, may elect a successor, who shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities and duties as the agent originally elected. Dividends and unclaimed deposits remaining unpaid in the hands of the superintendent of banks for six months after the order for final distribution shall be by him deposited with the state treasurer in the same manner and subject to the same disposition as provided for in section one thousand two hundred thirty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure. The superintendent of banks may pay over the moneys so held by him to the persons respectively entitled thereto upon being furnished satisfactory evidence of their right to the same. In cases of doubt or conflicting claims he may require an order of the superior court authorizing and directing the payment thereof.

SEC. 89. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered 136a and to read as follows:

Bank ceasing to exist.

Section 136a. Any bank which has ceased to do a banking business whether through voluntary action on its part or through expiration of its corporate existence, shall immediately liquidate its affairs and any unclaimed deposits or dividends shall be paid into the state treasury in the manner and for the purposes provided in section one hundred thirty-six of this act within six months after the date such bank ceased to conduct a banking business, and in case the superintendent of banks shall have reason to conclude that the liquidation of such bank is not being safely or expeditiously conducted, he may take possession of the property of such bank and liquidate its affairs in the same manner as provided in section one hundred thirty-six of this act. Whenever any bank of whose property the superintendent of banks has taken possession as aforesaid, deems itself aggrieved thereby, it may within the time and in like manner and effect as provided in section one hundred thirty-six of this act apply to the superior court to enjoin further proceedings.

SEC. 90. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered one hundred thirty-six b and to read as follows:

Jurisdiction in superior
court.

Section 136b. In any action or proceeding brought under any provision of this act, exclusive original jurisdiction shall be vested in the superior court of the county in which is located the principal place of business of the bank affected thereby, and all proceedings relating to the same matter, under any provision of this act, including proceedings for liquidation of the affairs of any such bank, shall be filed with and treated as a part of the record in such original proceedings, and all papers relating to any such action or proceeding, including the copy of certificate of appointment of any special deputy and the inventories required to be filed in the matter of any such liquidation, shall be filed with and made a part of the record of such original proceeding, without the payment of any additional fees therefor, and in any such action no damage may be awarded, but the action otherwise shall be tried and determined according to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 91. Section one hundred thirty-seven of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

dissolve.

Section 137. 1. Any bank shall have the right, on application of the stockholders or members to apply to the superior court of the county wherein its principal place of business is situated, to dissolve said bank in the manner provided for in title six, part three of the Code of Civil Procedure.

2. At the expiration of four months after the settlement of the final account of the receiver of any bank appointed prior to July 1, 1909, any dividends due depositors, or other creditors, or stockholders of such bank and remaining unpaid or uncalled for and in the hands of such receiver may be paid by him into the treasury of the county in which such bank is situated which money shall be held in the treasury of said county, and at the same time it shall be the duty of such receiver to furnish to the county treasurer of said county a list of names of all depositors or other persons to whom such money belongs or who are entitled thereto and thereupon such receiver shall be entitled to his discharge.

Discharge of receiver.

3. The moneys referred to in subdivision two of this section shall be paid out on the order of the court appointing such receiver.

4. All moneys paid under subdivision two of this section, uncalled for within five years after being paid in, shall by operation of law, and without action had, escheat to the state. All moneys held by any county treasurer under subdivision two of this section, when such moneys have escheated to the state as hereinbefore provided, shall be paid by the county treasurer into the state treasury, and thereafter only be drawn out in such manner as may be provided for by law for the estates of deceased persons escheated to this state.

SEC. 92. Section one hundred thirty-eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 138. If any bank shall fail to make any report required by the provisions of section one hundred thirty or one hundred thirty a of this act, within ten days from the day designated for the making thereof by the superintendent of banks, or to include therein any matter required by the provisions of either of said sections, it shall forfeit to the people of the state the sum of one hundred dollars for each day that any such report shall be so delayed or withheld by the failure or neglect of such bank. In the event of the failure of any such bank to make any such report required from it, the superintendent of banks may, in his discretion, immediately cause the books, papers and affairs of such bank to be examined at the expense of such bank.

Penalty
for failure to report.

SEC. 93. Section one hundred thirty-nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 139. It shall be the duty of the board of directors of every bank to examine fully into the books, papers and affairs of the bank of which they are directors, and particularly into the loans and discounts thereof, with a special view to ascertaining the value and security thereof, and of the collateral security, if any given, in connection therewith, and into such other matters as the superintendent of banks may require; such examination to be made at least once a year, but no such subsequent yearly examinations shall be made within three months of the next preceding examination. Such directors shall have power to employ such assistance in making such examinations as they may deem necessary. Within ten days after the completion of such examination, a report in writing thereof, sworn to by the directors making the same, shall be made by the board of directors of such bank, and placed on file with the records of said bank, and shall be subject to examination by the superintendent of banks. Such report shall particularly contain a statement of the assets and liabilities of the bank examined, as shown by its books, together with any deductions from the assets, or additions to liabilities, which such directors or committee, after such examination, may determine to make. It shall also contain a statement, in detail, of loans, if any, which in their opinion are worthless or doubtful, together with their reasons for so regarding them; also a statement of loans made on collateral security, which in their opinion are insufficiently secured, giving in each case the amount of the loan, the name and market value of the collateral, if it has any market value, and, if not, a statement of that fact, and its actual value as nearly as possible. Such report shall also contain a statement of overdrafts, of the names and amounts of such as they consider worthless or doubtful, and a full statement of such other matters as affect the solvency and soundness of the bank. If the directors of such bank shall fail to make such examination or fail to cause it to be made, or shall fail to file such report of such examination in the manner and within the time specified, the superintendent of banks shall have authority to make or cause to be made an extra examination of such bank at the expense of such bank.

ments were made or transactions had, shall not be affected by the provisions of this act, except that any such investments made prior to July 1, 1909, when not complying with the provisions hereof, shall be changed to conform hereto; but such change shall be made gradually and in such manner as to prevent loss or embarrassment in the business of such bank, or unnecessary loss or injury to the borrowers on such security; provided, further, that in any event, all investments and securities and excess in investments made prior to July 1, 1909, which are not in conformity with the provisions and spirit of this act and which have been acquired and are now held by any bank, must be written off as assets of such bank prior to July 1, 1918; and no bank holding any such investments or securities acquired prior to July 1, 1909, shall after July 1, 1918, be permitted to pay any dividends to its stockholders until it shall have written off all such non-conforming investments or securities; and provided, further, that the legality of any investments heretofore lawfully made, pursuant to the provisions of this act as it existed on and subsequent to July 1, 1909, shall not be affected by the provisions of this section.

Conformity by July 1, 1918.

CHAPTER 105.

An act to amend section 290a of the Civil Code of the State of California relating to corporations authorized to act as executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee or to engage in the business of banking.

[Approved May 8, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 290a of the Civil Code of the State of California, is hereby amended to read as follows:

290a. Before the secretary of state issues any certificate of incorporation to any corporation, authorized in its articles of incorporation to conduct the business of acting as executor, administrator, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, depository, or trustee under appointment of any court or by authority of any law of this state, or as trustee for any purpose permitted by law, and before he files any amended articles of incorporation authorizing such purposes if the principal place of business of such corporation is in a city of which the population does not exceed one hundred thousand persons, there must be filed in his office the affidavit of all the directors of such corporation that at least one hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock has actually been subscribed and paid in in cash to a person named in such affidavit, for the conduct of such trust business and for the exclusive benefit and protection of the creditors of such trust business, and if the principal place of business is in a city, the population of which exceeds one hundred thousand persons, there must be filed in his office the affidavit of all the directors of such corporation that at least two hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock has actually been subscribed and paid in in cash to a person named in such affidavit, for the conduct of such trust business and for the exclusive benefit and protection of the creditors of such trust business and before he issues any certificate of incorporation to any corporation authorized in its articles of incorporation to engage in the business of banking, or of receiving the money of others on deposit, there must in like manner be filed the affidavit herein that a capital stock, as follows, has actually been subscribed, and paid in in cash to a person named in such affidavit, for the benefit of the corporation:

Capital stock of trust companies in cities of less than 100,000.

In cities of more than 100,000.

In places of less
5,000.

(a) In any locality in which the population does not exceed five thousand persons, not less than twenty-five thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact either a commercial or savings business or both, or not less than one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact both a commercial and trust business, or not less than one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact both a savings and trust business and not less than one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact a commercial, savings and trust business.

In cities of more than 5,000.

(b) In any city in which the population is more than five thousand persons but does not exceed twenty-five thousand persons, not less than fifty thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact either a commercial or savings business or both, or not less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact both a commercial and trust business, or not less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact both a savings and trust business, and not less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact a commercial, savings and trust business.

In cities of more
25,000.

(c) In any city in which the population is more than twenty-five thousand persons, but does not exceed one hundred thousand persons, not less than one hundred thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact either a commercial or savings business or both, or not less than two hundred thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact both a commercial and trust business, or not less than two hundred thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact both a savings and trust business, and not less than two hundred thousand dollars if it is incorporated to transact a commercial, savings and trust business.

An act making an appropriation to pay the claim of the California Highway Construction Company against the State of California.

[Approved May 8, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of fifty thousand seventy-five and 22/100 dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the claim of the California Highway Construction Company, a corporation, against the State of California.

Appropriation:
California Highway Construction Co.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant for the sum herein made payable to the California Highway Construction Company, a corporation, and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same; it is, however, provided, that before the said warrant be issued there shall be filed with the state controller the approval of said claim by the state department of engineering and the state board of control.

CHAPTER 107.

An act appropriating money for the completion of a dam and reservoir at Mendocino State Hospital.

[Approved May 8, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Appropriation:
Mendocino State Hospital.

SECTION 1. The sum of twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be used in accordance with law for the completion of a dam and reservoir at Mendocino State Hospital.

CHAPTER 108.

An act appropriating money to provide a cash revolving fund for the use of the state engineer and defining its use and the liability therefor.

[Approved May 8, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Appropriation:
revolving fund,
department.

SECTION 1. The sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to provide the state engineer with a cash revolving fund to facilitate the work of the department of engineering. All or any part of said money may be drawn from the state treasury upon approval of the state board of control without the submission of receipts, vouchers or itemized statements and used by the state engineer in advancing cash payments for labor, material and supply bills where such payments are necessary for the proper conduct of the business of the department, said bills to be subsequently paid for out of the appropriation against which they are a proper charge and the money returned to the cash revolving fund. The state engineer shall be liable on his bond for the money so advanced to him and may, to protect himself, require sufficient bond of the different employees under him who use and disburse the same for him. He must account for the money herein appropriated at any time upon demand of the state board of control or state controller.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant on the state treasury for the amount herein appropriated and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution, take effect immediately. Current expenses.

CHAPTER 109.

prison.

SECTION 1. The sum of five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated for the support and maintenance of the state prison at Folsom.

Current expenses.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 112.

An act to amend section eight hundred seventeen of the Penal Code, relating to peace-officers.

[Approved May 17, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eight hundred seventeen of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Peace-
officers.

§17. A peace-officer is a sheriff of a county, or a constable, marshal, or policeman of a township, city, or town, or inspectors of the California state board of pharmacy, not exceeding ten in number.

CHAPTER 113.

An act relating to the rights, powers and disabilities of aliens and of certain companies, associations and corporations with respect to property in this state, providing for escheats in certain cases, prescribing the procedure therein, and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent or in conflict herewith.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Ownership of land
by aliens.

SECTION 1. All aliens eligible to citizenship under the laws of the United States may acquire, possess, enjoy, transmit and inherit real property, or any interest therein, in this state, in the same manner and to the same extent as citizens of the United States, except as otherwise provided by the laws of this state.

SEC. 2. All aliens other than those mentioned in section one of this act may acquire, possess, enjoy and transfer real property, or any interest therein, in this state, in the manner and to the extent and for the purposes prescribed by any treaty now existing between the government of the United States and the nation or country of which such alien is a citizen or subject, and not otherwise, and may in addition thereto lease lands in this state for agricultural purposes for a term not exceeding three years.

Right to acquire and lease lands.

SEC. 3. Any company, association or corporation organized under the laws of this or any other state or nation, of which a majority of the members are aliens other than those specified in section one of this act, or in which a majority of the issued capital stock is owned by such aliens, may acquire, possess, enjoy and convey real property, or any interest therein, in this state, in the manner and to the extent and for the purposes prescribed by any treaty now existing between the government of the United States and the nation or country of which such members or stockholders are citizens or subjects, and not otherwise, and may in addition thereto lease lands in this state for agricultural purposes for a term not exceeding three years.

Corporations, majority of members aliens, may acquire and lease lands.

SEC. 4. Whenever it appears to the court in any probate proceeding that by reason of the provisions of this act any heir or devisee can not take real property in this state which, but for said provisions, said heir or devisee would take as such, the court, instead of ordering a distribution of such real property to such heir or devisee, shall order a sale of said real property to be made in the manner provided by law for probate sales of real property, and the proceeds of such sale shall be distributed to such heir or devisee in lieu of such real property.

Probate court may order lands sold.

SEC. 5. Any real property hereafter acquired in fee in violation of the provisions of this act by any alien mentioned in section two of this act, or by any company, association or corporation mentioned in section three of this act, shall escheat to, and become and remain the property of the State of California. The attorney general shall institute proceedings to have the escheat of such real property adjudged and enforced in the manner provided by section 474 of the Political Code and title eight, part three of the Code of Civil Procedure. Upon the entry of final judgment in such proceedings, the title to such real property shall pass to the State of California. The provisions of this section and of sections two and three of this act shall not apply to any real property hereafter acquired in the enforcement or in satisfaction of any lien now existing upon, or interest in such property, so long as such real property so acquired shall remain the property of the alien, company, association or corporation acquiring the same in such manner.

Lands illegally acquired to escheat to state.

SEC. 6. Any leasehold or other interest in real property less than the fee, hereafter acquired in violation of the provisions of this act by any alien mentioned in section two of this act, or by any company, association or corporation mentioned in section three of this act, shall escheat to the State of California. The attorney general shall institute proceedings to have such escheat adjudged and enforced as provided in section five of this act. In such proceedings the court shall determine and adjudge the value of such leasehold, or other interest in such real property, and enter judgment for the state for the amount thereof together with costs. Thereupon the court shall order a sale of the real property covered by such leasehold, or other interest, in the manner provided by section 1271 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Out of the proceeds arising from such sale, the amount of the judgment rendered for the state shall be paid into the state treasury and the balance shall be deposited with and distributed by the court in accordance with the interest of the parties therein.

Leasehold illegally acquired to escheat to state.

Act not limit on power of state.

SEC. 7. Nothing in this act shall be construed as a limitation upon the power of the state to enact laws with respect to the acquisition, holding or disposal by aliens of real property in this state.

SEC. 8. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent, or in conflict with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 114.

An act to amend section two thousand nine hundred eighty-one of the Political Code relating to the meetings of the state board of health and the duties of the secretary thereof.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand nine hundred eighty-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Meetings
of state
health.

2981. The board must meet at least once in every three months, at Sacramento, unless otherwise hereafter provided by law. Four members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. Special meetings may be held upon the call of the president or secretary. Notice of all meetings must be given by the secretary, by mailing such notice to the members of the board at least three days prior to the date of such meetings. The members must elect from their own number a president, a vice-president and a permanent secretary. In the absence of the secretary, or a vacancy in his office, the vice-president shall perform the duties of and exercise the powers of the secretary. The secretary shall be a civil executive officer and shall also be the executive officer of the board. He must devote his entire time to the duties of the office, and his office shall be kept at the same place where the meetings of the state board of health are required by law to be held. The members of the board shall receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses while in the service of the board. Such expenses shall be paid out of the general fund of the state treasury.

An act to amend section one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the estimate of tax for building high schools and to making additions thereto.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1755. It shall be the duty of every high school board to make and file with the board of supervisors of each county in which any part of their high school district is situated, on or before the first Monday of September next succeeding the formation of said district, an estimate of the cost of purchasing a suitable lot, of procuring plans and specifications and erecting a suitable building, of supplying the same with furniture and necessary apparatus, and of fencing and ornamenting the grounds, for the accommodation of the school, unless such high school board shall have secured or leased temporary quarters for the use of such high school, as provided in section seventeen hundred forty-one, or unless bonds shall have been voted for said purposes. If such high school board shall have secured or leased such temporary quarters, they shall, on or before the first Monday of September next before the termination of such lease or arrangement, either make another arrangement for temporary quarters, as provided in section seventeen hundred forty-one, or make and file with the board, or boards of supervisors aforesaid, an estimate of the cost of purchasing a suitable lot, of procuring plans and specifications, and of erecting a suitable building, of supplying the same with furniture and necessary apparatus, and of fencing and ornamenting the grounds for the accommodation of the school, or for making additions or improvements to such buildings when once erected, or for buying new or additional furniture, or for the purchase of additional school grounds, or for providing any other school facilities, unless bonds shall have been voted for said purposes. Every county board of education, acting as trustees of a county high school, shall make and file with the board of supervisors of their county the estimates required by this section. Should the trustees of any county high school, or the high school board of any high school district, fail to make the estimate provided for in this section, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of schools of such county, or having jurisdiction over such high school district, to make and file such estimate on or before the second Monday of September; provided, the total tax for high school purposes shall not exceed seventy-five cents on each one hundred dollars assessed valuation, exclusive of bond and interest rate.

An act to amend section seventeen hundred and seventy-three of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California - relating to guardians.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seventeen hundred and seventy-three of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Inventory of ward's estate.

1773. Every guardian must return to the court a verified inventory of the estate of his ward within three months after his appointment. He must annually thereafter, and at such other times as directed by the court, render a verified account of the estate of his ward. All the estate of the ward described in the first inventory must be appraised by appraisers appointed, sworn, and acting in the manner provided for regulating the settlement of the estates of decedents. Such inventory, with the appraisal of the property therein described, must be recorded by the clerk of the court in a proper book kept in his office for that purpose and whenever any ward is or has been during the guardianship confined in a state hospital for the insane in this state a copy of said inventory must be served upon the secretary of the state commission in lunacy or its attorney. Whenever any other property of the estate of any ward is discovered, not included in the inventory of the estate already returned, and whenever any other property, has been succeeded to, or acquired by any ward, or for his benefit, the like proceedings must be had for the return and appraisal thereof and the service of the same as are herein provided in relation to the first inventory and return. If within the time prescribed, or within such further time, not exceeding two months which the court or judge shall for reasonable cause allow, the guardian neglects or refuses to return the inventory or render his account, the court, may, upon notice, revoke the letters of guardianship and the guardian shall be liable on his bond for any injury to the estate, or any person interested therein, arising from such failure.

Refusal of guardian to return inventory.

CHAPTER 126.

An act to amend section seventeen hundred and seventy-four of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to guardians.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seventeen hundred and seventy-four of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1774. The guardian must upon the expiration of a year from the time of his appointment and as often thereafter as he may be required, present his account to the court for settlement and allowance; provided, that no account of the guardian of any insane person, who is or has been during such guardianship confined in a state hospital in this state, shall be settled or allowed unless notice of the settlement of said account shall have been first given to the secretary of the state commission in lunacy or its attorney at least five days before the hearing. The termination of the relation of guardian and ward by the death of either guardian or ward or by the ward attaining his majority or being restored to capacity shall not cause the court to lose jurisdiction of the proceeding for the purpose of settling the accounts of the guardian.

Account of guardian.

CHAPTER 127

An act to amend section seventeen hundred and seventy-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to guardians.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seventeen hundred and seventy-seven of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1777. When the income of an estate under guardianship is insufficient to maintain the ward and his family or to maintain and educate the ward when a minor, or to pay for his care, treatment and support, if confined in a state hospital for the insane, his guardian may sell his real or personal estate, or mortgage the real estate for that purpose, upon obtaining an order therefor; provided, that no such order shall be granted when the ward is or has been, during the guardianship, confined in a state hospital for the insane in this state unless notice of the proceedings shall have been given to the secretary of the state commission in lunacy or its attorney at least five days before the hearing.

When income from ward's estate is insufficient.

CHAPTER 128.

An act to amend section two thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine and one half of the Civil Code, relating to the manner of satisfying mortgages by foreign executors, administrators and guardians.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine and one half of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Satisfying mortgages by foreign executors.

2939½. Foreign executors, administrators and guardians may satisfy mortgages upon the records of any county in this state, upon producing and recording in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such mortgage is recorded, a duly certified and authenticated copy of their letters testamentary, or of administration or of guardianship, and which certificate or authentication shall also recite that said letters have not been revoked.

CHAPTER 129.

An act to amend section nine hundred forty-six of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the release, by undertaking and appeal, of property under levy.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section nine hundred forty-six of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Release of property under levy, on appeal.

946. Whenever an appeal is perfected, as provided in the preceding sections of this chapter, it stays all further proceedings in the court below upon the judgment or order appealed from, or upon the matters embraced therein, and releases from levy property which has been levied upon under execution issued upon such judgment; provided, however, said property shall not be released from the levy, if the respondent excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties within five days after the giving of the undertaking staying execution until such sureties, or others, justify in the manner prescribed by law; but the court below may proceed upon any other matter embraced in the action and not affected by the order appealed from. And the court below may in its discretion, dispense with or limit the security required by this chapter, when the appellant is an executor, administrator, trustee, or other person acting in another's right. An appeal does not continue in force an attachment, unless an undertaking be executed and filed on the part of the appellant by at least two sureties, in double the amount of the debt claimed by him, that the appellant will pay all costs and damages which the respondent may sustain by reason of the attachment, in case the order of the court below be sustained; and unless, within five days after the entry of the order appealed from, such appeal be perfected.

CHAPTER 130.

An act to amend section 370 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to parties to civil actions when a married woman is a party.

[Approved May 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 370 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

370. When a married woman is a party, her husband must be joined with her, except:

1. When the action concerns her separate property, including action for injury to her person, libel, slander, false imprisonment or malicious prosecution, or her right or claim to the homestead property, she may sue alone.

2. When the action is between herself and her husband, she may sue or be sued alone.

3. When she is living separate and apart from her husband by reason of his desertion of her, or by agreement, in writing, entered into between them, she may sue or be sued alone.

CHAPTER 131.

An act to amend the Civil Code of the State of California, by adding a new section thereto to be known and numbered section 171a, relating to husband's liability for wife's torts.

[Approved May 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code of the State of California to be known and numbered section 171a to read as follows:

171a. For civil injuries committed by a married woman, damages may be recovered from her alone, and her husband shall not be liable therefor, except in cases where he would be jointly liable with her if the marriage did not exist.

CHAPTER 132.

An act to amend the Civil Code of the State of California, by adding a new section thereto, to be known as section 196a, relating to the support and education of an illegitimate child.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby created to be added to the Civil Code and to be known as section 196a thereof, to read as follows:

Support of illegitimate child.

196a. The father as well as the mother, of an illegitimate child must give him support and education suitable to his circumstances. A civil suit to enforce such obligations may be maintained in behalf of a minor illegitimate child, by his mother or guardian, and in such action the court shall have power to order and enforce performance thereof, the same as under sections 138, 139 and 140 of the Civil Code, in a suit for divorce by a wife.

CHAPTER 133.

An act to amend section 367c of the Penal Code of the State of California, relating to the duties of drivers and persons in charge of vehicles when the same collide with a person or another vehicle containing a person, and prescribing a penalty for the failure to perform such duty.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 367c of the Penal Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duty of drivers in vehicles in collision.

367c. Whenever an automobile, motor cycle, or other motor vehicle, or any vehicle whatsoever, regardless of the power by which the same may be propelled or drawn, strikes any person, or collides with any vehicle containing a person, the driver of, and all persons in, such automobile, motor cycle or other motor vehicle, or other vehicle, who have or assume authority over such driver, shall immediately cause such automobile, motor cycle, or other motor vehicle, or other vehicle, to stop, and shall render to the person struck, or to the occupants of the vehicle collided with, all necessary assistance including the carrying of such person or occupant to a physician or surgeon for medical or surgical treatment, if such treatment be required, or if such carrying is requested by the person struck or the occupant of the vehicle struck; and such driver, and person having or assuming authority over such driver, shall further give to the occupants of such vehicle or person struck, the number of such automobile, motor cycle, or other motor vehicle, or other vehicle, if the same have a number, together with the name and address of the driver of such automobile, motor cycle, or other motor vehicle, or other vehicle, also the name of the owner thereof and the name of the passenger; or passengers not exceeding five in such automobile, motor cycle, or other motor vehicle, or other vehicle at the time of such striking or collision. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Penalty.

CHAPTER 134.

An act to amend sections 1160 and 1164 of the Political Code, relating to time of opening and closing the polls.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1160 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1160. The polls must be opened at six o'clock a.m. of the day of election, and must be kept open until seven o'clock p.m. of the same day, when the polls shall be closed, except as provided in section 1164 of this code. Opening and closing of polls.

SEC. 2. Section 1164 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1164. When the polls are closed, that fact must be proclaimed aloud at the place of election; and after such proclamation, no ballot must be received; provided, however, that if at the hour of closing there are any other voters in the polling place, or in line at the door, who are qualified to vote and have not been able to do so since appearing, the polls shall be kept open a sufficient time to enable them to vote. But no one who shall arrive at the polling place after seven o'clock in the afternoon shall be entitled to vote, although the polls may be open when he arrives. Proclamation on closing.

CHAPTER 135.

An act to amend section 427 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to joinder of causes of action.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 427 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 427. The plaintiff may unite several causes of action in the same complaint, where all arise out of— Joinder of causes of action.

1. Contracts, express or implied;
2. Claims to recover specific real property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof, or for waste committed thereon, and the rents and profits of the same;
3. Claims to recover specific personal property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof;
4. Claims against a trustee by virtue of a contract or by operation of law;
5. Injuries to character;
6. Injuries to person;
7. Injuries to property;
8. Claims arising out of the same transaction, or transactions connected with the same subject of action, and not included within one of the foregoing subdivisions of this section.

Causes to belong to one class,
etc.

The causes of action so united must all belong to one only of these classes, and must affect all the parties to the action, and not require different places of trial, and must be separately stated; but an action for malicious arrest and prosecution, or either of them, may be united with an action for either an injury to character or to the person; provided, however, that in any action brought by the husband and wife to recover damages caused by any injury to the wife, all consequential damages suffered or sustained by the husband alone, including loss of the services of his said wife, moneys expended and indebtedness incurred by reason of such injury to his said wife, may be alleged and recovered without separately stating such cause of action arising out of such consequential damages suffered or sustained by the husband.

CHAPTER 136.

An act to amend section ten hundred eighty-three of the Political Code relating to the qualifications of electors.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten hundred and eighty-three of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Qualifications of electors.

1083. Every native citizen of the United States, every person who shall have acquired the rights of citizenship under or by virtue of the treaty of Queretaro, and every naturalized citizen thereof, who shall have become such ninety days prior to any election, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of the state one year next preceding the election, and of the county in which he or she claims his or her vote ninety days, and in the election precinct thirty days, and who has conformed to the law governing the registration of voters, shall be a qualified elector at any and all elections held within the county, city and county, city, town, or district within which such elector resides.

CHAPTER 137.

An act to amend section 1203 of the Penal Code of the State of California relating to the probation of persons arrested for crime after a plea or verdict of guilty and the suspending of the imposition or execution of sentence during the term of probation, and the disposition of such accusation after full compliance with the terms of probation.

[Approved May 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203 of the Penal Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1203. After plea or verdict of guilty, where discretion is conferred upon the court as to the extent of the punishment, the court, upon oral suggestions of either party, or of its own motion, that there are circumstances which may properly be taken into view, either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment, may in its discretion refer the same to the probation officer, directing said probation officer to investigate, and to report, recommending either for or against release upon probation, at a specified time, and the court shall hear the same summarily at such specified times, and upon such notice to the adverse party as it may direct. At such specified time, if it shall appear from the report furnished by the probation officer, or otherwise, and from the circumstances, of any person over the age of eighteen (18) years, so having pleaded guilty, or having been convicted of crime, that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment, or that the ends of justice shall be subserved thereby, the court shall have power, in its discretion, to place the defendant upon probation in the manner following:

Hearing
on probation.

1. The court, judge or justice thereof, may suspend the imposing, or the execution of sentence, and may direct that such suspension may continue for such period of time not exceeding the maximum possible term of such sentence, except as hereinafter set forth, and upon such terms and conditions as it shall determine, which terms and conditions may include, in the discretion of the court, the requirements of bonds for the appearance of the person released upon probation before the court, at any time that the court may require such appearance in the investigation of any alleged violation of said terms and conditions of probation and such bonds may be at any time by the court exonerated without affecting any of the other terms or conditions of such probation; and in case of such suspension of imposition or execution of sentence, the court shall place such person on probation and under the charge and supervision of the probation officer of said court, during such suspension; provided, however, that where the maximum possible term of such sentence is less than two years, then such period of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence may, in the discretion of the court, continue for not over two years. Where the offense consists of a violation of section 270 or 270a of the Penal Code of the State of California, such suspension of imposition or execution of sentence may, in the discretion of the court, continue for not over five years.

Opportunity to pay fine.

2. If the judgment is to pay a fine, and the defendant be imprisoned until it be paid, the court, judge, or justice, upon imposing sentence, may direct that the execution of the sentence of imprisonment be suspended for such period of time, not exceeding the maximum possible term of such sentence, and on such terms as it shall determine, and shall place the defendant on probation, under the charge and supervision of the probation officer during such suspension, to the end that he may be given the opportunity to pay the fine; provided, however, that upon the payment of the fine being made, judgment shall be satisfied and the probation cease.

Rearrest.

3. At any time during the probationary term of the person released on probation, in accordance with the provisions of this section, any probation officer may, without warrant, or other process, at any time until the final disposition of the case, rearrest any person so placed in his care and bring him before the court, or the court may, in its discretion, issue a warrant for the rearrest of any such person and may thereupon revoke and terminate such probation, if the interest of justice so requires, and if the court, in its judgment, shall have reason to believe from the report of the probation officer, or otherwise, that the person so placed upon probation is violating the conditions of his probation, or engaging in criminal practices, or has become abandoned to improper associates, or a vicious life. Upon such revocation and termination, the court may, if the sentence has been suspended, pronounce judgment after the said suspension of the sentence for any time within the longest period for which the defendant might have been sentenced, but if the judgment has been pronounced and the execution thereof has been suspended, the court may revoke such suspension, whereupon the judgment shall be in full force and effect, and the person shall be delivered over to the proper officer to serve his sentence.

May pronounce judgment.

Court may revoke order.

4. The court shall have power at any time during the term of probation to revoke or modify its order of suspension, of imposition or execution of sentence. It may, at any time, when the ends of justice will be subserved thereby, and when the good conduct and reform of the person so held on probation shall warrant it, terminate the period of probation and discharge the person so held, and in all cases, if the court has not seen fit to revoke the order of probation and impose sentence or pronounce judgment, the defendant shall, at the end of the term of probation, be by the court discharged.

5. Every defendant who has fulfilled the conditions of his probation for the entire period thereof, or who shall have been discharged from probation prior to the termination of the period thereof, shall at any time prior to the expiration of the maximum period of punishment for the offense of which he has been convicted, dating from said discharge from probation or said termination of said period of probation, be permitted by the court to withdraw his plea of guilty and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and in either case the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusation or information against such defendant who shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense or crime of which he has been convicted.

of plea.

6. The same probation officers and assistant probation officers and deputy probation officers shall serve under this act as are appointed under the act known as the juvenile court law, and entitled "An act concerning dependent and delinquent minor children, providing for their care, custody, and maintenance until twenty-one years of age; providing for their commitment to the Whittier State School and the Preston State School of Industry, and the manner of such commitment and release therefrom, establishing a probation committee and probation officers to deal with such children, and fixing the salaries of probation officers; providing for detention homes for said children; providing for the punishment of persons responsible for, or contributing to, the dependency or delinquency of children; and giving to the superior court jurisdiction of such offenses, and repealing inconsistent acts," approved March 8, 1909, or under any laws amending or superseding the same.

Probation officers to serve.

7. Whenever any person is released upon probation under the provisions of this act, the case may be transferred to any court of the same rank in any other county, or city and county, of this state in which such person resides, or to which such person may remove, and such court shall thereupon commit such person to the care and custody of the probation officer of the county, or city and county, to which such person has been transferred; such court shall thereafter have entire jurisdiction over such case, with like power to make transfer whenever to such court such transfer may seem proper.

Transfer
of case.

8. At the time of the plea or verdict of guilty of any crime of any person over eighteen years of age, the probation officer of the county of the jurisdiction of said crime shall, when so directed by the court, inquire into the antecedents, character, history, family environment, and offense of such person, and must report the same to the court, and file his report in writing in the records of said court. His report shall contain his recommendation for or against the release of such person on probation. If any such person shall be released on probation and committed to the care of the probation officer, such officer shall keep a complete and accurate record in suitable books or other form in writing, of the history of the case in court, and of the antecedents.

name of the probation officer, and his acts in connection with said case; also the age, sex, nativity, residence, education, habits of temperance, whether married or single, and the conduct, employment, and occupation, and parents' occupation, and condition of such person so committed to his care during the term of such probation and the result of such probation. Such record of such probation officer shall be and constitute a part of the records of the court, and shall at all times be open to the inspection of the court, or of any person appointed by the court for that purpose, as well as of all magistrates, and the chief of police, or other head of the police, unless otherwise ordered by the court. Said books of record shall be furnished for the use of said probation officer of said county, and shall be paid for out of the county treasury.

Report of
officers.

8a. Every probation officer, within fifteen days after the 30th day of June, and within fifteen days after the 31st day of December, of each year, shall make in writing and file as a public document with the county clerk a report to the superior court of the county or city and county in which such probation officer is appointed to serve, and shall furnish a copy of such report to each judge in said county or city and county who has released any person on probation who at the time of such report remains on probation; and a further copy to the secretary of the state board of charities and corrections. Such report shall state, without giving names, the exact number of persons, segregating male and female, and segregating misdemeanors and felons, who have been released on probation to such probation officer, as such number exists, deducting all cases of expiration, discharge, dismissal, and restoration of rights, on said 30th day of June and said 31st day of December; and such report shall further segregate such persons as having been released on probation, as the case may be, in 1903, 1904, 1905, and so on, up to and including the calendar year in which such report is made and filed.

Statement of terms of probation.

9. The probation officer shall furnish to each person who has been released on probation, and committed to his care, a written statement of the terms and conditions of his probation, unless such statement has been furnished by the court, and shall report to the court, judge or justice, releasing such person upon probation, any violation or breach of the terms and conditions imposed by such court on the person placed in his care.

Powers of peace
officers.

10. Such probation officer shall have, as to the person so committed to the care of said probation officer, the powers of a peace officer.

CHAPTER 138.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code to be numbered section 1083a, relating to the signing up of certain petitions and nominating papers.

[Approved May 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be numbered 1083a, and to read as follows:

1083a. Wherever, by the constitution or laws of this state, any initiative, referendum, recall or nominating petition is required to be signed by qualified electors, only an elector who is a registered qualified elector at the time he signs such petition, shall be entitled to sign the same.

Qualifications for signing petitions.

CHAPTER 139.

An act to amend sections 1230 and 1235 of the Political Code relating to the challenging of voters.

[Approved May 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1230 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1230. A person offering to vote may be orally challenged by any elector of the county upon either or all of the following grounds:

Grounds for challenging voters.

1. That he or she is not the person whose name appears on the register.

2. That he or she has not resided within the state one year next preceding the election.

3. That he or she has not been a naturalized citizen of the United States for ninety days prior to the election.

4. That he or she has not resided within the county for ninety days preceding the election.

5. That he or she has not resided within the precinct for thirty days next preceding the election.

6. That he or she has before voted that day.

7. That he or she has been convicted of an infamous crime.

8. That he or she has been convicted of the embezzlement or misappropriation of public money.

9. That he or she can not read as required by the constitution, and does not appear by statement in the affidavit of registration to be entitled to vote notwithstanding such inability.

SEC. 2. Section 1235 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1235. If the challenge is on the ground that the person

[Approved May 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1285 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Abstract
returns.

1285. When there are officers, other than representatives in congress, members of the state board of equalization, and justices of district court of appeals voted for, who are chosen by the electors of a district composed of two or more counties, each of the county clerks of the counties composing such districts, immediately after making out the statement specified in section twelve hundred and eighty-two, must make a certified abstract of so much thereof as relates to the election of such officers.

CHAPTER 142.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code of the State of California to be known and designated as section 459a, relating to the giving of bonds by the deputy state treasurer, cashier, and bond officer of the treasurer and providing for the payment of premiums thereon.

[Approved May 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code of the State of California to be known and designated as section 459a, and to read as follows:

459a. The deputy state treasurer shall execute an official bond to the State of California in the sum of fifty thousand dollars; the cashier in the state treasurer's office shall execute an official bond to the State of California in the sum of ten thousand dollars; and the bond officer in the state treasurer's office shall execute an official bond to the State of California in the sum of five thousand dollars. The premium on each of said bonds shall be paid by the state in the manner now provided by law, or as may be hereafter provided.

Bonds of deputy state treasurer, cashier and bond officer.

CHAPTER 143.

An act to amend section 1288 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the certification of election returns by the county clerk.

[Approved May 23, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1288 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1288. When there has been a general or special election for officers chosen by the electors of the state at large, or for judicial officers (except justices of the peace), or for members of the state board of equalization, or for senators and members of the assembly, each county clerk so soon as the statement of the vote of his county is made out and entered upon the records of the board of supervisors, must make out a certified abstract of so much thereof as relates to the votes given or cast for persons for said offices to be filled at such election, together with a statement of the whole number of votes cast in the county as specified in section 1282. Whenever there is a general or special election held within this state, and any proposed constitutional amendment or proposition to be voted for by the electors of the state at large, each county clerk, so soon as the statement of the vote is made out and entered upon the record of the board of supervisors, must make out a certified abstract of such vote.

Certification of election returns.

SECTION 1. Section four hundred and fifty-nine of the Penal Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Burglary
defined.

459. Every person who enters any house, room, apartment, tenement, shop, warehouse, store, mill, barn, stable, outhouse or other building, tent, vessel, railroad car, mine, or any underground portion thereof, with intent to commit grand or petit larceny or any felony is guilty of burglary.

CHAPTER 145

An act to amend section three thousand eight hundred and four of the Political Code relating to taxes erroneously collected.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand eight hundred and four of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Erroneously collected taxes.

3804. Any taxes, penalties or costs thereon heretofore or hereafter paid more than once, or heretofore or hereafter erroneously or illegally collected, or any taxes heretofore or hereafter paid upon an assessment in excess of the actual cash value of the property so assessed by reason of a clerical error of the assessor as to the excess in such cases, or any taxes heretofore or hereafter paid upon an erroneous assessment of improvements on real estate not in fact in existence when said taxes become a lien, may, by order of the board of supervisors, be refunded by the county treasurer. Whenever any payment shall have been made to the state treasurer by the county treasurer as provided by section thirty-eight hundred and sixty-five and section thirty-eight hundred and sixty-six of this code, and it shall afterwards appear to the satisfaction of the board of supervisors that a portion of the money so paid should be refunded as herein provided, said board of supervisors may refund such portion of the said taxes, penalties and costs so paid to the state treasurer, to the person paying the same or to his guardian, or in case of his death, to his executor or administrator, out of the general fund, and upon the rendering of the report required by section thirty-eight hundred and sixty-eight of this code the auditor shall certify to the controller, in such form as the controller may prescribe, all amounts so revisors may refund.

funded, and in the next settlement of the county treasurer with the state, the controller, if satisfied of the legality of such refunding by the said board, shall give such treasurer credit for the state's portion of the amounts so refunded, as prescribed in section thirty-eight hundred and seventy-one of this code. When the taxes, penalties and costs hereinbefore referred to are levied in behalf of any school district or any municipal or other public corporation, and collected by the officers of the county, the same may be refunded upon order of the board of supervisors, and the county treasurer shall pay the amount to be refunded out of any money in his possession belonging to the appropriate fund of such school district or municipal or other public corporation. No order for the refund of taxes, penalties or costs under this section shall be made except upon a verified claim therefor verified by the person who has paid said tax, or by his guardian, or in case of his death, by his executor or administrator, which said claim must be filed within three years after the making of the payment sought to be refunded. In no case shall any judgment be rendered in favor of plaintiff in any action brought for the enforcement or allowance of any rights or claims under this section (except in actions brought by the county treasurer to enforce any credits hereinabove provided for) if the said action be brought by an assignee of the person paying said tax, or by any person other than the person who has paid said tax, or by his guardian, or in case of his death, by his executor or administrator.

In school district.

Verified claim.

CHAPTER 146.

An act to amend section three hundred and forty-five of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the extension of time of delinquent sale of stock in corporations.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and forty-five of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

345. The dates fixed in any notice of assessment or notice of delinquent sale, published according to the provisions hereof, may be extended from time to time for not more than thirty days, by order of the directors, entered on the records of the corporation, or by the secretary, or assistant secretary, of the corporation when delinquent sale is restrained by order of court, or by judge thereof; but no order extending the time for the performance of any act specified in any notice is effectual unless notice of such extension or postponement is appended to and published with the notice to which the order relates.

Extension of time of delinquent stock sale.

CHAPTER 147.

An act to amend section three hundred and twenty-one b of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the meetings of stockholders, who may vote thereat, and proxies.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and twenty-one b of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Voting at stockholders'
meetings.

321b. At all meetings of stockholders of corporations organized under the laws of this state, or in the case of corporations having no capital stock, then at all meetings of the members of such corporation, only the stockholders or members actually present shall be entitled to vote on any proposition, including the election of directors and other officers of the corporation, unless proxies from absent or non-attending stockholders or members shall be held by some person or persons present at such meeting and shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of this section. Every such proxy must be executed in writing by the member or stockholder himself, or by his duly authorized attorney. No proxy heretofore given or made shall be valid after the expiration of eleven months from the passage of this act, unless the member or stockholder executing it shall have specified therein the length of time for which such proxy is to continue in force, which must be for some limited period, and in no case to exceed seven years from the date of the execution of such proxy. No proxy hereafter to be given or made shall be valid after the expiration of eleven months from the date of its execution, unless the member or stockholder executing it shall have specified therein the length of time for which such proxy is to continue in force, which must be for some limited period, and in no case to exceed seven years from the date of the execution of such proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the person executing it; but a corporation having no capital stock may prescribe in its by-laws the persons who may act as proxies for members, and the length of time for which such proxies may be executed. Executors, administrators, guardians and trustees may give proxies.

Proxy.

Revoca-
tion.

CHAPTER 148.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code of the State of California, to be numbered one thousand and ninety-seven a, relating to elections and the registration of voters.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code of the State of California, to be numbered one thousand and ninety-seven a, and to read as follows:

1097a. The affidavit of registration of any person who is a citizen of the United States by virtue of his father being a citizen thereof at the time of his birth shall, in lieu of the statements regarding naturalization required by the provisions of sections one thousand and ninety-six and one thousand and ninety-seven of the Political Code, contain the following statement, to wit: I am a citizen of the United States by virtue of my father being a citizen thereof at the time of my birth, and my father has resided in the United States. Said affidavit of registration shall also contain the statement that said person is or would be an elector of the county, or city and county, at the next ensuing election, and shall also contain all the other statements required by said sections one thousand ninety-six and one thousand and ninety-seven of the Political Code, excepting those regarding naturalization. The name of such persons must thereupon be entered by the officer charged with the registration of voters.

Registration of person gaining citizen ship through father.

CHAPTER 149.

An act to amend sections three hundred and two and three hundred and three of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the attendance and examination of witnesses before the legislature and committees thereof.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred and two of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

302. If any witness neglects or refuses to obey such subpoena, or appearing, neglects or refuses to testify, or to produce upon reasonable notice any material and proper books, papers or documents in his possession or under his control, the senate, assembly or any committee thereof may by resolution entered on the journal of the senate or assembly or minutes of the committee, as the case may be, commit him for contempt; provided.

Failure of witness to appear, contempt.

however, that if any such contempt be committed before such committee during the session of the legislature, such committee shall report the contempt to the senate or assembly, as the case may be, for such action as may be deemed necessary by the senate or assembly.

SEC. 2. Section three hundred and three of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Warrant of arrest.

303. Any witness neglecting or refusing to attend in obedience to subpoena may be arrested by the sergeant-at-arms and brought before the senate, assembly or committee thereof, as the case may be. The only warrant or authority necessary authorizing such arrest, is a copy of a resolution of the senate, the assembly or committee signed by the president of the senate, speaker of the assembly or chairman of the committee as the case may be and countersigned by the secretary of the senate, the clerk of the assembly or a majority of the members of any such committee, as the case may be.

CHAPTER 150.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, to be known as section 426a, relating to the complaint in actions for divorce.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California to be numbered four hundred and twenty-six a and to read as follows:

Statement of facts in divorce complaint.

426a. In an action for divorce the complaint must set forth, for the statistics required to be collected by the state bureau of vital statistics, among other matters as near as can be ascertained the following facts:

- (1) The state or country in which the parties were married.
- (2) The date of marriage.
- (3) The date of separation.
- (4) The number of years from marriage to separation.
- (5) The number of children of the marriage, if any, and if none, a statement of that fact.
- (6) The ages of the minor children.

CHAPTER 151.

An act to amend section one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the minimum rate of interest, and sale of school bonds.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1886. Said bonds must not bear a greater amount of interest than six per cent, said interest to be payable annually or semi-annually, and said bonds must be sold in the manner prescribed by the board of supervisors, but for not less than par, and the proceeds of the sale thereof, together with any premium which may be received from the sale of said bonds, must be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the building fund of said school district, and be drawn out for the purposes aforesaid as other school moneys are drawn out. All the proceedings of every school district and of every board of trustees, board of education, board of supervisors, and of all officers of school districts and counties, purporting to have been taken under or by authority of sections one thousand eight hundred and eighty to one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, inclusive, of the Political Code, shall be valid in the same manner and to the same extent as if sections one thousand eight hundred and eighty and one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four of said code, at the time when such proceedings were taken, in express language empowered the governing body of all school districts, by whatever name such governing body should be known, to call elections for the purposes set forth in said section one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to receive and canvass returns, to cause a minute entry of the result of elections, and to certify proceedings to the board of supervisors, as provided by said section one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four. And all bonds of school districts purporting to have been issued under or by virtue of any or all of the following sections, to wit: sections one thousand eight hundred and eighty, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight of the Political Code, shall be valid in the same manner and to the same extent as if said sections used the words "board of education, board of trustees, or other governing body," in place of the words "board of trustees," whenever the words "board of trustees" occur in said sections.

Rate of interest.

Validity of proceedings.

Validity of district bonds.

CHAPTER 152.

An act to amend section eight hundred fifty of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the requisites for notice of hearing in justices' courts.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eight hundred fifty of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Notice of hearing.

850. When all the parties served with process shall have appeared, or some of them have appeared, and the remaining defendants have made default, the justice must fix the day for the trial of said cause, whether the issue is one of law or fact, and give notice thereof to the parties to the action who have appeared, but in case any of the parties are represented by an attorney, then to such attorney. Such notice shall be in writing, signed by the justice, and substantially in the following form (filling blanks according to the facts):

CHAPTER 153.

An act to amend section two thousand two hundred and thirty-six of the Political Code of the State of California relating to and changing the name of the California Institution for the Deaf and the Blind.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand two hundred and thirty-six of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 2236. The school of the deaf and dumb and blind located at Berkeley in Alameda county and heretofore known as the deaf, dumb and blind asylum shall hereafter be named and known and designated as the "California School for the Deaf and the Blind."

"California School for the Deaf and the Blind."

CHAPTER 154.

An act to amend section seven hundred sixty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to the sale or partition of interests in real property and the appointment of referees therefor.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section seven hundred sixty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

763. If it appears by the evidence, whether alleged in the complaint or not, that the property or any part of it is so situated that partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, the court may order the sale thereof; otherwise, upon the requisite proofs being made, it must order a partition according to the respective rights of the parties as ascertained by the court, and appoint three referees therefor, and must designate the portion to remain undivided for the owners whose interests remain unknown, or are not ascertained; or the court, with the consent of the parties, may appoint one referee instead of three, and he when appointed, has all the powers and may perform all the duties required of three referees; and the court must appoint as referee any person or persons to whose appointment all the parties have consented, and no person shall be appointed as referee who is disqualified from acting as an appraiser under the provisions of section fourteen hundred forty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure. When the site of an incorporated city or town is included with the exterior boundaries of the property to be partitioned, the court must direct the referees to survey and appraise the entire property to be partitioned by actual lots and subdivisions then existing in the actual possession of the several tenants in common, exclusive of the value of improvements thereon, first setting apart necessary portions of the property for ways, roads, and streets, as in section seven hundred sixty-four provided, and to report such survey and separate appraisement on each lot and subdivision to the court. The court may confirm, change, modify, or set aside the report in whole or in part, and if necessary appoint new referees. When, after the final confirmation of the report of such survey and appraisement, it appears by evidence to the satisfaction of the court that an equitable partition of the whole property is impracticable, and a sale of the site of such city or town, or any portion thereof, will be for the best interests of the owners of the whole property, it must order a sale thereof; provided, that within sixty days thereafter any tenant in common, or tenants in common, having improvements erected on any town or city lot or subdivision included in such order of sale, shall have the prior right to purchase the same at such appraised valuation, and may pay into court the amount so appraised as the value thereof, and upon such payment the title shall vest in such purchaser or purchasers, and the court shall cause to be executed by such referees a deed for such lot or subdivision in fee and in severalty to such purchaser or purchasers; such further proceedings shall then be had as to the remainder of the property, and the money so paid to the court, as by this chapter provided. If, during the pendency of the action, any of the parties die, or become insane, or otherwise incompetent, the proceedings shall not for that cause be delayed or suspended, but the attorney who has appeared for such party may continue to represent such interest; and in case any such party has not appeared by an attorney, the court must appoint an attorney to represent the interest which was held by such party, until his heirs or legal representatives, or successors in interest, shall have appeared in the action; and an attorney so appointed must be allowed by the court a reasonable compensation for his services, which may be taxed as costs against the share or interest represented by such attorney, and may be adjudged a lien thereon in the discretion of the court.

An act providing for the decoration of the rotunda on the main or ground floor of the state capitol building and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of ten thousand dollars for the purpose of decorating the rotunda of the main or ground floor of the state capitol building. The decoration of said rotunda shall consist of mural paintings with appropriate and harmonious ceiling designs, and the mural work shall depict historical epoch periods of California.

Appropriation: decorating capitol rotunda.

SEC. 2. The state board of control shall call for and receive bids upon such work of decoration and shall enter into contract for the performance of said work with such person as shall have been the successful bidder therefor. The manner of making the award upon bids shall be fixed and determined by said board which shall have entire control and supervision of said work of decoration.

Bids for work.

SEC. 3. The state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant for said sum of ten thousand dollars or such part or parts thereof, as may be authorized by the said state board of control, and the treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

CHAPTER 156.

An act to amend section 1332 and section 1333 of the Political Code of the State of California and to add four new sections thereto, to be numbered 1334, 1335, 1336 and 1337 relating to the election of senators in congress, and to repeal an act entitled "An act providing for placing the names of candidates for United States senator in congress upon the official ballot at general elections, for canvassing and making returns of the votes therefor, providing the method of notifying the legislature of the results of such election, and defining the duties of certain officers in relation thereto," approved April 7, 1911.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1332 and section 1333 of the Political Code of the State of California are hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1332. Elections for senators in congress for full terms must be held at the general election, at which members of the legislature are elected, next preceding the commencement of the term to be filled.

Election of United States senators.

Vacancy. 1333. Elections to fill a vacancy in the term of a United States senator must be held at the general election or any special election held throughout the state next succeeding the occurrence of such vacancy.

SEC. 2. Four new sections are hereby added to the Political Code of the State of California, to be numbered 1334, 1335, 1336 and 1337, and to read as follows:

Abstract of vote for United States senators. 1334. The clerk of each county, as soon as the statement of the vote of his county at such election is made out and entered on the records of the board of supervisors, must make a certified abstract of so much thereof as relates to the vote given for persons for senators in congress.

To secretary of state. 1335. The clerk must seal up such abstract, indorse it "Congressional election returns for senator in congress," and without delay transmit it by mail to the secretary of state.

Declaration of vote. 1336. On the sixtieth day after the day of election, or as soon as the returns have been received from all of the counties of the state, if received within that time, the secretary of state must compare and estimate the votes given or cast for such persons for senator, and certify to the governor the person having the highest number of votes in the state as duly elected.

Governor's certificate. 1337. The governor must upon the receipt of such certificate, transmit to such person a certificate of his election, sealed with the great seal and attested by the secretary of state.

Repealed. SEC. 3. An act entitled "An act providing for placing the names of candidates for United States senator in congress upon the official ballot at general elections, for counting, canvassing and making returns of the votes therefor, providing the method of notifying the legislature of the results of such election, and defining the duties of certain officers in relation thereto," approved April 7, 1911, is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 157.

An act to amend section thirteen hundred and thirty-three of the Penal Code of the State of California, relating to the manner of producing before a superior court, grand jury or magistrate a witness who is a prisoner in a state prison or county jail.

[Approved May 21, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand three hundred and thirty-three of the Penal Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Prisoner as material witness for people. 1333. When the testimony of a material witness for the people is required in a criminal action, before a court of record of this state, or in an examination before a grand jury or magistrate for an offense triable in the superior court and such witness is a prisoner in a state prison or in a county jail, an order for his temporary removal from such prison or jail, and for his production before such court, grand jury or magistrate, may be made by the superior court of the county in which such action or examination is pending or by a judge thereof; but in case the prison or jail is out of the county in which the application is made, such order shall be made only upon the affidavit of the district attorney or other person, on behalf of the people, stating that the testimony is material and necessary; and even then the granting of the order shall be in the discretion of said superior court or a judge thereof. The order shall be executed by the sheriff of the county in which it shall be made, whose duty it shall be to bring the prisoner before the proper court, grand jury or magistrate, to safely keep him, and when he is no longer required as a witness, to return him to the prison or jail whence he was taken; the expense of executing such order shall be a proper charge against, and shall be paid by, the county in which the order shall be made.

Sheriff

CHAPTER 158.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and forty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to what must be ascertained or assessed by the court, jury or referee at the trial of proceedings under title VII, part III of the Code of Civil Procedure.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred forty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1248. The court, jury, or referee must hear such legal testimony as may be offered by any of the parties to the proceedings, and thereupon must ascertain and assess:

1. The value of the property sought to be condemned, and all improvements thereon pertaining to the realty, and of each and every separate estate or interest therein; if it consists of different parcels, the value of each parcel and each estate or interest therein shall be separately assessed;

Value of property.

2. If the property sought to be condemned constitutes only a part of a larger parcel, the damages which will accrue to the portion not sought to be condemned, by reason of its severance from the portion sought to be condemned, and the construction of the improvement in the manner proposed by the plaintiff;

Damages

the plaintiff; and if the benefit shall be equal to the damages assessed under subdivision 2, the owner of the parcel shall be allowed no compensation except the value of the portion taken; but if the benefit shall be less than the damages so assessed, the former shall be deducted from the latter, and the remainder shall be the only damages allowed in addition to the value;

Benefits
by diversion of
water.

4. If the property sought to be condemned be water or the use of water, belonging to riparian owners, or appurtenant to any lands, how much the lands of the riparian owner, or the lands to which the property sought to be condemned is appurtenant, will be benefited, if at all, by a diversion of water from its natural course, by the construction and maintenance, by the person or corporation in whose favor the right of eminent domain is exercised, of works for the distribution and convenient delivery of water upon said lands; and such benefit, if any, shall be deducted from any damages awarded the owner of such property.

Fences.

5. If the property sought to be condemned be for a railroad, the cost of good and sufficient fences, along the line of such railroad, and the cost of cattle-guards, where fences may cross the line of such railroad;

Removal of structures.

6. If the removal or relocation of structures or improvements is sought, the cost of such removal or relocation and the damages, if any, which will accrue by reason thereof;

7. As far as practicable, compensation must be assessed for each source of damages separately.

Mortgage on property.

8. When the property sought to be taken is encumbered by a mortgage or other lien, and the indebtedness secured thereby is not due at the time of the entry of the judgment, the amount of such indebtedness may be, at the option of the plaintiff, deducted from the judgment, and the lien of the mortgage or other lien shall be continued until such indebtedness is paid.

CHAPTER 159.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and forty-eight a of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the removal or relocation of railroad, street, or interurban railway tracks on property sought to be taken under title VII, part III, of the Code of Civil Procedure.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred forty-eight a. of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Condemnation of land for railroads.

1248a. In any proceeding taken under the provisions of this title, where any railroad, street or interurban railway tracks are situated on, upon, along or across any lands or rights of way sought to be taken therein, for road, highway, boulevard, street or alley purposes, or for the purposes of a right of way for any public utility to be constructed, completed and maintained by a county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town, or by a municipal water district, the plaintiff shall, if the complaint contains a prayer therefor, and shows the matter hereinafter provided, obtained a final judgment of condemnation ordering, in addition to the condemnation of such lands or right of way for the purposes set forth in the complaint, the relocation or removal of any railroad, street or interurban railway tracks thereon. Where the removal or relocation of such tracks is sought in any such proceedings, the complaint must contain a description of the location and proposed location of such tracks, and must be accompanied by a map showing such location and the proposed location of such tracks. The compensation to be paid for such relocation or removal of tracks shall be ascertained and assessed in the action, as in other cases, and separately from other sources of damage.

CHAPTER 160.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and fifty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to when a plaintiff in eminent domain proceedings must pay the sum of money assessed.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred fifty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1251. The plaintiff must, within thirty days after final judgment, pay the sum of money assessed. In case the plaintiff is the State of California, or is a public corporation, and it appears by affidavit that bonds of said state or public corporation must be issued and sold in order to provide the money necessary to pay the sum assessed, then such sum may be paid at any time within one year from the date of such judgment; provided, further, that if the sale of any such bonds cannot be had by reason of litigation affecting the validity thereof, then the time during which such litigation is pending shall not be considered a part of the one year's time in which such payment must be made. In case the use is for railroad purposes, the plaintiff may, at the time of or before payment, elect to build the fences and cattle-guards; and if he so elect, shall execute to the defendant a bond, with sureties to be approved by the court in double the assessed cost of the same. to build such fences and cattle-guards within eighteen months ment, the accounts of the person employed to bring back such fugitive must be audited by the board of control and paid out of the state treasury; provided, however, that the state shall not pay the expenses of any such person so employed where the fugitive returned is not placed on trial, but such expense shall be a charge upon the county asking the requisition.

CHAPTER 165. ... 1681

An act to provide indemnity to persons erroneously convicted of felonies in the State of California.

[Approved May 24, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any person who, having been convicted of any crime against the State of California amounting to a felony, and having been imprisoned therefor in a state prison of this state shall hereafter, on a retrial of the case, or on reversal on appeal of the final judgment of conviction, be acquitted or discharged for the reason that the crime with which he was charged was either not committed at all, or, if committed, was not committed by him, or who shall hereafter be granted a pardon by the governor of this state for either of the foregoing reasons, or who, being innocent of the crime with which he was charged for either of the foregoing reasons, shall have served the term for which he was imprisoned, may, under the conditions hereinafter provided, present a claim against the state to the state board of control for the pecuniary injury sustained by him through such erroneous conviction and imprisonment. Claim of persons erroneously convicted.

SEC. 2. Such claim, accompanied by a statement of the facts constituting the claim, verified in the manner provided for the verification of complaints in civil actions, must be presented by the claimant to the board of control within a period of six months after judgment of acquittal or discharge given, or after pardon granted, or after release from imprisonment, and at least four months prior to the next meeting of the legislature of this state; and no claim not so presented shall be considered by the board of control. Presented to board of control.

SEC. 3. Upon presentation of any such claim, the board of control shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the claim, and shall mail notice thereof to the claimant and to the attorney general of this state at least fifteen days prior to the time fixed for such hearing. Hearing on claim.

SEC. 4. On such hearing the claimant shall introduce evidence in support of the claim, and the attorney general may introduce evidence in opposition thereto. The claimant must prove the facts set forth in the statement constituting the claim, including the fact that the crime with which he was Proof of claimant.

charged was either not committed at all, or, if committed, was not committed by him, the fact that he did not, by any act or omission on his part, either intentionally or negligently, contribute to the bringing about of his arrest or conviction for the crime with which he was charged, and the pecuniary injury sustained by him through his erroneous conviction and imprisonment.

Board to report approved claim to legislature.

SEC. 5. If the board of control shall be satisfied from the evidence that the crime with which the claimant was charged was either not committed at all, or, if committed, was not committed by the claimant, and that the claimant did not, by any act or omission either intentionally or negligently, contribute to the bringing about of his arrest or conviction, and that the claimant has sustained pecuniary injury through his erroneous conviction and imprisonment, it shall, with the sanction of the governor of this state, report the facts of the case and its conclusions to the next legislature of this state, with a recommendation that an appropriation be made by the legislature for the purpose of indemnifying the claimant for such pecuniary injury; but the amount of the appropriation, so recommended shall not exceed in any case, the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Statement to controller.

SEC. 6. The board of control shall make up its report and recommendation and shall give to the controller of this state a statement showing its recommendations for appropriations under the provisions of this act, as provided by the law in cases of other claimants against this state for which no appropriations have been made.

Rules.

SEC. 7. The board of control is hereby authorized to make all needful rules and regulations consistent with the law for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 166.

An act to amend section six hundred and forty of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to the ordering of a reference by a court or judge, the qualifications of the referees, and the residence qualifications of the referees when a state, county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town or municipal water district is the plaintiff in an eminent domain proceeding.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred forty of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

640. A reference may be ordered to the person or persons, not exceeding three, agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree, the court or judge must appoint one or more referees, not exceeding three, who reside in the county in which the action or proceeding is triable, and against whom there is no legal objection, or the reference may be made to a court commissioner of the county where the cause is pending; provided, that in any action brought under title VII of part III of this code, if the plaintiff is the state, a county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town, or a municipal water district, the referees are not required to be residents of the county in which the action or proceeding is triable. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing any law of this state giving jurisdiction to the state railroad commission to ascertain the just compensation which must be paid in eminent domain proceedings.

CHAPTER 167.

An act to provide for the indicating of the net quantity of foodstuffs and stuffs intended to be used or prepared for use as food for human beings when sold or offered or exposed for sale in containers and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

[Approved May 24, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known as the net container act.

Net container act.

SEC. 2. This act is designed to protect purchasers of any commodity within its provisions against deception as to the quantity or amount of the commodity purchased, and as against the seller shall be strictly construed with a view to effect its object.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this act apply to foodstuffs and stuffs intended to be used or prepared for use as food for human beings and shall apply to any commodity intended to be eaten or drunk by human beings; provided, that it shall not apply to any commodity intended so to be used solely for medicinal purposes.

Applicable to foodstuffs.

SEC. 4. Whenever any of the commodities within the provisions of this act are sold, or offered or exposed for sale, in containers, the net quantity of the contents of the container shall be plainly and conspicuously marked, branded, or otherwise indicated on the outside or top thereof or on a label or tag attached thereto.

Net quantity plainly marked.

SEC. 5. The designation of the quantity of the commodity required by section four of this act shall be according to weight, measure or numerical count, subject, however, to the following provisions:

Designation of quantity.

(a) The designation used shall be such as is most feasible and suitable to the character of the commodity, or, if there is a trade custom as to the measure of the quantity of the commodity, the designation shall be in accordance with the custom.

(b) If the designation is by weight, it shall be in terms of pounds, ounces, or fractions of either, avoirdupois, standard of this state.

(c) If the designation is by liquid measure, it shall be in terms of gallons, quarts, pints or fractions of any of said units, standard of this state for liquid measure.

(d) If the designation is by solid measure, it shall be in terms of bushels, pecks, or quarts, or fractions of any of said units, standard of this state for solid measure.

(e) If the designation is by numerical count, it shall be in English words or Arabic numerals.

The words "net contents" or the words "net weight" or the words "net measure" or the words "net count" shall appear with and as a part of the designation of the quantity of the commodity as required by the provisions of this act.

Act not applicable.

SEC. 6. The provisions of this act shall not apply:

(a) To any sale of a commodity within the provisions of this act when such sale is made from bulk and the quantity is weighed, measured, or counted for the immediate purpose of such sale.

(b) To a sale of any container of an ornamental or symbolic character with which a quantity of some commodity is sold as merely incidental.

(c) To a sale of a commodity in a quantity that is sold for less than eleven cents, at retail.

Violation defined.

SEC. 7. It shall not be held to be a violation of the provisions of this act when a commodity in a container is sold, or offered or exposed for sale, and there is a discrepancy between the actual quantity of the commodity in said container and the net quantity of the contents thereof indicated on the container as herein prescribed, provided such discrepancy is due to unavoidable leakage, shrinkage, evaporation, waste, or causes beyond the control of the seller acting in good faith.

No violation.

SEC. 8. It shall not be held to be a violation of the provisions of this act when a commodity in a container is sold, or offered or exposed for sale, and there is a discrepancy between the actual quantity of the commodity in said container and the net quantity of the contents thereof indicated on the container as herein prescribed; provided, that the seller purchased said commodity in said container, in good faith relying upon the said indication of the net contents thereof, and sold said commodity in said container without altering the contents thereof or the indication of the contents thereof: and provided, further, that the exemption of this section shall not apply to any sale unless the container had the name of a packer, manufacturer, wholesaler, or jobber thereon at the time the seller purchased it.

"Person."

SEC. 9. The term "person" used in this act shall include every person, firm, company, copartnership, society, association and corporation.

SEC. 10. The term "container" used in this act is hereby defined to be any receptacle into which a commodity is packed or put for sale or to be offered or exposed for sale. "Container."

SEC. 11. Every person, who by himself or his agent, servant or employee violates or causes or permits to be violated, any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Penalty.

SEC. 12. This act shall be in force and effect from and after April 1, 1914. In effect.

CHAPTER 168.

Powers of district.

Said drainage district is hereby declared to be a body corporate and politic and shall have power to sue and to be sued; to acquire, own, hold, use and enjoy for the purposes mentioned in this act, any and all properties herein mentioned, or necessary for the purposes of said district.

SEC. 4. Sixteen new sections are hereby added to said act, to be known as sections five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, sixteen and one half, seventeen, eighteen and nineteen, and to read as follows:

Reclamation board to control.

SEC. 5. The management and control of said drainage district shall be vested in the reclamation board which shall hereafter consist of seven members, at least three of whom shall be residents or land owners of that portion of the San Joaquin valley included within said district. The members of the present reclamation board shall be members of the board as hereby enlarged. The remaining members shall be appointed by the governor of the state within thirty days after this act shall take effect. All the members, whether herein named or appointed by the governor, shall hold office at the pleasure of the governor. In case of a vacancy, the same shall be filled by the governor of the state.

Secretary.

SEC. 6. The reclamation board may employ a secretary, who may be a member of said board, and such other assistants, employees and advisors as may appear necessary and shall fix their compensation.

Maintenance of levees.

SEC. 7. The State of California and the people thereof are hereby declared to have a primary and supreme interest in having erected, maintained and protected on the banks of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers and their tributaries and the by-passes and overflow channels mentioned herein, good and sufficient levees and embankments or other works of reclamation, adequately protecting the lands overflowed by said streams, and confining the waters of said rivers, tributaries, by-passes and overflow channels within their respective channels, and it shall be the duty of the reclamation board at all times to enforce on behalf of the State of California and the people thereof the erection, maintenance and protection of such levees, embankments and channel rectification as will, in their judgment, best serve the interests of the State of California. The purposes and objects of this act are to carry into effect the plans of the California debris commission for the control of the flood waters of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers and their tributaries, and to vest in said reclamation board control and jurisdiction over said plans and such other plans as may be adopted by said board, excepting such portions of said plans as relate to channel excavation, enlargement, rectification and control in the Sacramento river and the construction of weirs; it being the intent of this act that all work and control in the said stream and the construction of weirs shall remain with the United States and the State of California, concurrently, but this exception does not apply to the San Joaquin river and its tributaries.

This act and every part thereof shall be liberally construed to promote its objects and to carry out its intents and purposes.

liberal construction.

SEC. 8. It shall be unlawful for a member of the board to vote upon any contract or other matter in which he may have an interest or share, or for any employee of said board to receive directly or indirectly for his own use or benefit any portion or share of the money or other thing paid under any contract; but having an interest in lands within said drainage district shall not disqualify a member for voting to execute any part of said plans of flood control, or carrying out the objects of this act.

Members not to be interested in contract.

SEC. 9. The reclamation board shall have its office at the city of Sacramento, and shall elect one of its number as president. The regular meetings of said board shall be held on such dates as shall be fixed by the board, and a majority of the board shall constitute a quorum, but no action of said board shall be effective unless the same shall be concurred in by a majority of the members thereof. Special meetings may be called at any time by the president or by a majority of the members after twelve hours' notice by mail to the members. It shall be the duty of the reclamation board to keep full and correct minutes of all proceedings and transactions of all meetings of the board, which minutes shall be open for public inspection during office hours. Any other meeting of the board, at its office, when all of the members are present, shall be considered a legal meeting at which any business may be transacted. Each member of the board shall receive the necessary expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties, and twenty dollars for each day attending the meetings of the board, but such per diem shall not exceed one thousand dollars in any one year.

Office, meetings, etc.

Compensation.

SEC. 10. The reclamation board shall require the owners of any railroad, electric railroad, wire line, wagon road or other structure crossing any of the by-passes or overflow channels herein provided for, to provide and maintain one or more suitable draws or other appliances within any such by-passes or overflow channels to permit the passage of water craft, dredgers or other machines used in the construction of reclamation works and to open said draws or appliances upon reasonable notice given by any person desiring to pass the same. Said draws or appliances shall be located at such points as shall be designated by said board. A failure of the owner of any of said structures to comply with this section shall render such owner liable to any person for the damages caused to such person by such failure.

Draw-bridges over by-passes.

Plans to be submitted to board.

SEC. 11. Any plan of reclamation, drainage or other improvement that includes or contemplates the construction of any new levee, embankment, canal or other excavation along or near the banks of the said rivers or their tributaries or connected therewith, or upon any lands adjacent thereto or within any of the overflow basins thereof, or upon lands subject to overflow therefrom, must, unless approved by said board prior to the taking effect of this act, be approved by the reclamation board before such plan shall have been adopted by the trustees of any reclamation, levee, protection or drainage district or by any person, corporation or association. Any such plan shall be void unless first approved by said board, and the construction of any levee, embankment, canal or other works of reclamation at any of the places hereinbefore mentioned, without such approval, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and the reclamation board is hereby empowered to prosecute any suit or suits in the name of the people of the State of California for the prevention or abatement of such nuisance. This provision shall not apply to the enlargement of existing levees. No levee, embankment or other structure within any by-pass or overflow channel adopted by said board shall be raised or altered without the permission of the reclamation board, and any person who shall raise or alter any such levee, embankment or other structure without such permission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

board.

SEC. 12. The reclamation board shall have power to acquire either within or without the boundaries of the district by purchase, condemnation or by other lawful means in the name of the district, from private persons, corporations, reclamation, swamp land, levee, protection or drainage districts, or other organizations or associations, all lands, rights of way, easements, property or material necessary or requisite for the purpose of by-passes, weirs, cuts, canals, levees, overflow channels and other necessary purposes; to construct, clear and maintain by-passes, levees, canals and overflow channels; to make contracts to indemnify or compensate any owner of land or other property for any injury or damage necessarily caused by the exercise of the powers by this act conferred, or arising out of the use, taking or damage of any property for any of such purposes; to maintain actions to restrain the doing of any act or thing that may be injurious to any of the works necessary to said plan of flood control or that may interfere with the successful execution of said plan or for damages for injury thereto; to establish a standard of levee construction; to do any and all things necessary or incident to the powers hereby granted or to carry out the objects specified herein; to compel by injunction, the owner or owners of any bridge, trestle, wire line, viaduct, or embankment or other structure which shall be intersected, traversed or crossed by any by-pass, drainage canal, or overflow channel, so to construct or alter the same as to offer a minimum of obstruction to the free flow of water through any such by-pass, drainage canal, or overflow channel, and wherever necessary in the case of existing works, to compel the removal or alteration of any such embankment or other structure; to maintain actions to restrain the diversion of the waters of any stream that will increase the flow of water in said Sacramento or San Joaquin rivers or their tributaries, and such diversion of the waters of any stream into said rivers or any of their tributaries is hereby declared to be a public nuisance which may be prevented or abated by the reclamation board. Upon application

by any reclamation or drainage district or any owner of swamp land that has issued or that proposes to issue bonds of such district or upon such lands, the reclamation board shall examine said district or such lands and shall certify the facts relative to the value of such lands and the sufficiency of the security afforded for such bonds. No liability shall attach to the State of California by reason of such certificate.

SEC. 13. Whenever, in the opinion of said board it shall be necessary to levy an assessment upon any lands within said drainage district for any of the purposes herein specified, said board shall cause an assessment to be levied upon the lands within said drainage district for such purposes. The plans to be carried out shall be divided by said board into separate portions or projects in such manner as will in its judgment best facilitate the levying of assessments for each particular portion or project in a just and equitable manner according to benefits upon the lands in said district. Said board shall enter in the minutes of the board, a resolution to the effect that the execution of each such separate portion or project which they may determine upon is a public necessity. Each such particular portion or project shall be designated by the board in such resolution by name and number. All assessments, plans and funds intended for or connected with the execution of each particular portion or project shall be designated by such name and number and shall be kept separate and shall be used only for the purpose of carrying out such particular portion or project. For the purpose of making any such assessment the board shall appoint three assessors who shall be disinterested persons, and shall have no interest in any real estate within said drainage district, and each of whom, before entering upon his duties, shall make and subscribe an oath that he is not in any manner interested in any real estate within said district, directly or indirectly, and that he will perform the duties of an assessor to the best of his ability. Said assessors must assess upon the lands within said drainage district the said sums so estimated by the board, and shall apportion the same according to the benefits that will accrue to each tract of land in said district, respectively, by reason of the expenditure

Report. of said sums of money. After said assessors have examined the plan or plans of the works contemplated and the said estimates of the cost, they shall make a preliminary report to the reclamation board indicating the exterior boundaries of the lands that in their opinion will be benefited by the expenditures. The assessors shall then appoint a time and place in each county in which any of said lands are situated, when and where they will hear objections to the said report and also evidence concerning the manner in which said assessment should be apportioned. They shall give twenty days' notice of said hearings by publication in a newspaper published in each county. They shall exclude any land that will not be benefited by the expenditure of said sums and shall assess all lands that will be benefited thereby. Said assessors shall make a separate list of the lands so assessed in each county, which list shall contain a description of the tracts of land assessed, by swamp land surveys, legal subdivisions, or other boundaries or references sufficient to identify the same; the name of the owner, if known, or if unknown, that fact, and the amount of the charge assessed against each tract. No mistake in the name of the owner, or supposed owner, of any real estate shall invalidate the assessment. Said lists when completed shall be filed with the secretary of the board and said secretary shall forward to the county treasurer of each county in which any lands in said district are situated, the assessment list for such county, and the same shall be open for inspection by the public for at least thirty days. The compensation of said assessors shall be fixed and allowed by the board. The reclamation board shall appoint a time and place not less than thirty days after said list has been filed with the said treasurer when and where it will meet in each county for the purpose of hearing objections to said assessments, and notice of such hearing shall be filed with the county treasurer and published for two weeks in some newspaper published in each of said counties. At any time before the date of such hearing any person interested in any real estate upon which any charge has been assessed, may file in the office of the secretary of the board written objections to such assessment, stating the grounds of such objections, which said statement shall be verified by the affidavit of such person or some other person who is familiar with the facts. At such hearing the board shall hear such evidence as may be offered touching the correctness of such assessment or the manner of its apportionment, and may modify or amend the same, and may reapportion all or any part of the entire assessment. If said assessment shall be reapportioned, the board shall give two weeks' notice as before and proceed to hear objections in each county affected, as before, and shall then reconsider said assessment and make an order approving said assessment as finally fixed; and the decision of said board shall be final, and thereafter said assessment list shall be conclusive evidence, except in the suit hereinafter provided, that the said assessment has been levied and apportioned according to law. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the board approving said assessment may commence an action against the district in the superior court of the county in which said land or the greater part thereof is situated, to have said assessment modified or annulled. Such action must be commenced within thirty days after the reclamation board has approved such assessment and shall have preference over all civil actions in fixing the time of trial. No objection to said assessment shall be considered by the court unless such objection shall have been made in writing to the reclamation board as hereinbefore prescribed, and, excepting in the action above mentioned, no action or defense shall ever be maintained attacking the said assessment in any respect.

Appeal to court.

SEC. 14. After such hearing has been had by the board in any county, said assessment list shall be certified by the secretary of the board to be correct, and said list shall be deposited in the office of the county treasurer of said county, and such assessment shall thereafter constitute a lien upon the lands so assessed and shall impart notice to all subsequent purchasers or incumbrancers or other person acquiring any interest in or lien upon said land, and all unpaid assessments shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, and shall be paid to the county treasurer in separate installments of such amounts, and at such times, respectively, as the board, from time to time, in its discretion, may, by order entered in its minutes, direct; if any such installment shall remain unpaid at the expiration of thirty days from the date of the order, then said installment shall become delinquent, together with the accrued interest thereon, and ten per cent of the amount of said installment and interest shall be added thereto, and collected for the use of the district; provided, that if an action is pending in any court to have the assessment on any tract of land reviewed, modified or annulled, as provided herein, such assessment, if not annulled in said action, shall become delinquent thirty days after any judgment rendered therein shall become final. Immediately after the said installment has become delinquent, the board must publish a notice at least once a week for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the land is situated, which notice shall contain a description of the property assessed, the name of the person to whom it is assessed or a statement that it is assessed to unknown owners, if such is the fact, the amount of the delinquent installment, the amount of the interest at the date of delinquency, the amount of the penalty that has been added as above provided, and notice that the property assessed will be sold on a date therein stated, in front of the courthouse of said county, to pay said installment with accrued interest and the penalty hereinbefore specified. At the time stated in said notice or such other time to which said sale may have been postponed, the board must cause said property to be sold to the highest bidder for gold coin of the United States. the proceeds of said sale the board must pay the amount of said installment with accrued interest thereon and the penalty herein provided for to the county treasurer of such county, and the board must pay to the owner of said property any surplus remaining after such payment to the county treasurer. The board may postpone said sale from time to time by a written notice posted at the place of sale. If no bid is made for said property equal to the amount of said installment, accrued interest and penalty, the district shall become the purchaser, and the said property must be struck off to the district for the amount of said installment, accrued interest and penalty. A certificate of such sale shall be executed by the president of the board to the purchaser, or to the district, if the property shall have been struck off to the district, and said certificate of sale shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the land is situated. Any person interested in said property may redeem the same at any time within one year after the date of said sale, by paying to the county treasurer the amount for which said property was sold, and interest on the said sum at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the date of said sale. If no redemption shall be made within said one year, the purchaser, or the district, if said property shall have been sold to the district, shall be entitled to a deed executed by the president of said board, after notice to any incumbrancer of said land whose incumbrance is of record, and the right of such incumbrancer to redeem said land shall continue for a period of thirty days after such notice. The effect of such deed shall be to convey said property free of all liens and incumbrances, excepting state, county and municipal taxes, assessments levied or assessed by statutory authority and the unpaid balance of assessments made by said drainage district, which said balance must be called in and collected in the same manner as other assessments; provided, that where property shall have been deced to the district and shall not have been sold, the same shall not be offered for sale for subsequent installments of assessments so long as the district shall remain the owner of said property, but the board may sell said property at any time at public auction after notice given for the same period and in the same manner as herein provided for sale for delinquent installments, but not for a sum less than all delinquent unpaid installments with accrued interest and penalties, and the deed executed in pursuance of such sale shall convey said property free of all incumbrances, except state, county and other municipal taxes, assessments levied or assessed by statutory authority and the unpaid balance of said assessments of said drainage district, which balance must be called in and collected in the same manner as other assessments.

SEC. 15. All money collected upon sales or otherwise shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the land is situated, and said money, together with all other money collected by the treasurer shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of said drainage district in a fund which is hereby created and known as the Sacramento and San Joaquin drainage district fund specifying the number of the assessment from which such money was derived, and shall be paid out upon warrants of the state controller, and the controller is hereby directed to issue warrants upon said funds whenever drafts of the reclamation board shall be presented to him, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay such controller's warrants when there is sufficient money in the funds of said drainage district; provided, that all moneys collected from assessments, shall be paid out only on warrants issued for works or other expenses covered by the assessment from which such money was derived, which assessments must be numbered consecutively, to the end that all moneys raised by assessment upon any of the lands embraced in said drainage district, shall be expended only for works of reclamation or other expenses beneficial to the lands so assessed, and for the payment of warrants issued for the construction of the works and other expenses for which such assessment was levied and each warrant must designate the number of the assessment from which it is to be paid. In case there are not sufficient funds for such purpose, the state treasurer shall endorse on such warrants the date of presentation and register the same, and thereafter such warrants shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, and must be paid in the order of their registration. Such warrants shall be considered as contracts in writing for the payment of money by said district, and the period prescribed for the commencement of an action upon said warrants is four years from the date thereof. Said warrants shall be received in payment of any assessment for work or expenses for which such warrants were issued. The reclamation board may extend the period for payment of any warrant for an additional period of four years upon application of the owner of such warrant. Whenever there is sufficient money in the treasury applicable to the payment of any outstanding warrants of the district, the state treasurer shall give notice that there is money in the treasury to pay certain warrants, giving their numbers in the order of their registration; said notice shall be published for ten days in one newspaper published in the city of Stockton and one published in the city of Sacramento. After the last publication of said notice the warrants therein mentioned shall cease to bear interest. The board shall designate a paper in each of said cities which shall be the official papers of said district for the purpose of such publication.

SEC. 16. In all cases in which an assessment shall be levied upon the lands embraced within said district, and if the assessment upon any tract or tracts of land shall have thereafter been adjudged invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, or, if for any reason, such tract or tracts of land shall not have been legally charged with said assessment, then such tract or tracts of land shall be charged in any subsequent assessment with such proportion of the former assessment as the benefits derived by said land from the purposes for which said former assessment was levied bears to the whole amount of said former assessment; or a subsequent reassessment of such tract or tracts of land may be made separately for the purpose of charging said land with its proper proportion of the said assessment.

First projects.

Estimate of costs.

SEC. 16½. One of the first projects to be considered by said board shall be that portion of the plans of the California debris commission relating to the Sacramento river and Cache slough below the junction of Yolo basin by-pass and Cache slough known as the project to enlarge the outlet of the Sacramento river. In the estimate of the sum necessary for the project last named, the board shall also ascertain the amount of any expenditures that have heretofore been made by the State of California, any municipal corporation, reclamation district, and by any owner of lands within said drainage district, or by any of them, for the purpose of purchasing rights of way for the enlargement of the outlet of the Sacramento river and actually applied to said purpose, which said sums so expended shall be legal claims against said district upon execution by the claimant of a quitclaim deed of rights of way to the district, and shall be paid from the moneys arising from the assessment for the project in this section first above mentioned. The governor is hereby authorized to execute such quitclaim deed on behalf of the State of California.

Maintenance of levees.

Costs.

Board may let contract.

SEC. 17. It shall be the duty of the reclamation board to promote the construction, completion, maintenance and repair of levees along all streams and by-passes where, in the opinion of the board, such levees are insufficient or necessary. If the owner or owners of land adjoining any stream or the outer margin of any by-pass, shall fail to construct, repair or maintain suitable levees along such stream or by-pass where such levee is in the opinion of said board necessary, the reclamation board shall notify such owner or owners that such levee is insufficient or necessary, and that unless the construction, repair or completion of such levee shall be commenced within three months and thereafter constructed, repaired or completed with reasonable diligence, the reclamation board will construct, repair or complete such levee, and will cause an assessment to be levied to pay the cost thereof to be assessed upon the lands within said drainage district directly or indirectly benefited by such levee. In said notice the board shall specify the dimensions and method of construction required for such levee. In case the construction, repair or completion of such levee shall not be commenced within three months and thereafter completed with reasonable diligence, the reclamation board is hereby empowered to let a contract or contracts for the construction or repair of said levee or the completion thereof, if construction has been previously commenced and the board shall cause an assessment to be levied to pay the cost of such levee, to be assessed upon the lands within said drainage district, and apportioned upon the lands directly and indirectly benefited by such levee according to such benefits; said assessment shall be levied, equalized and collected in the same manner as other assessments are levied, equalized and collected pursuant to the provisions of this act. If in the opinion of the board a case of emergency exists, requiring immediate action to preserve life or property, the board may cause necessary work to be done immediately without giving the notice herein mentioned, and may cause an assessment to be levied as above prescribed to pay the cost thereof, and to pay for any damage that may have been done by the performance of such work. Emergency.

SEC. 18. Notwithstanding any provision in this act, any reclamation district, levee district, drainage district or municipal corporation within the said drainage district, now or hereafter existing shall have the right with the permission of the reclamation board to acquire by grant or eminent domain or otherwise, any right of way or other easement included in the plans of the California debris commission, hereinbefore referred to or any amendment thereto or any modification thereof for controlling the floods of the Sacramento river or its tributaries or included in any plan for the flood water of said river adopted by the board, and required by the plans of any such reclamation, levee or drainage district or municipal corporation for the consummation of its purpose as authorized by law, together with the right to construct such levees, cuts, canals or gates as may be required to complete any by-pass, and the title to any such right of way or other easement or levees, cuts, canals or gates shall be conveyed to the said drainage district upon compensation being made at the actual reasonable cost thereof. If any reclamation district, levee district, drainage district, municipal corporation, private corporation, association, or person within said drainage district, with the consent of the reclamation board, has provided or left, or shall hereafter provide or leave, any land for a by-pass or waterway for the purpose of complying with the plans, as set out in the report of the California debris commission, referred to in section 1 of this act, any amendment thereto, or any modification thereof, or shall hereafter erect any levee or levees along said by-pass or waterway, the said by-pass and levees shall be considered as a part of the work to be done pursuant to the provisions of this act and proper compensation shall be made for the right of way or easement through such by-pass and for the actual reasonable cost of construction of said levees, cuts, canals or gates. When such compensation shall have been made, such reclamation district, levee district, drainage district, municipal corporation, association, private corporation or person shall convey to the said drainage district a perpetual easement in said by-pass and levees for all purposes necessary to accomplish the objects of said report of California debris commission. In the event that any such reclamation district, levee district, drainage district, municipal corporation, private corporation, association, or person, shall with the consent of the reclamation board expend Rights of existing districts, cities, etc.

Claim against districts for cost of right of way, etc.

any sum of money in the acquisition of such right of way or other easement, or in the construction of such levees, cuts, canals or gates and shall convey the same to the district, or in the event that it, he or they has or have allowed, or shall allow, any land to be used for the purpose of a by-pass or waterway to comply with the plans of said California debris commission herein referred to, or shall construct levees along any line of any such by-pass, and shall convey a perpetual easement therein to said drainage district, it, he or they shall have a claim against the said drainage district for the reasonable cost of such right of way or other easement or of such levees, cuts, canals or gates and an assessment shall be levied upon the lands in said drainage district benefited thereby so that the same may be paid, or such cost may be included as one of the items in any assessment that may be levied in the said drainage district.

Appropriation.

SEC. 19. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars, in addition to the sums heretofore appropriated, is hereby appropriated for the use of the reclamation board, at least twenty thousand dollars of which shall be used by the board to pay the expenses of the state engineer in carrying out the directions of this act. The controller is hereby directed to draw warrants upon the state treasurer whenever drafts of the reclamation board are presented to him, and the treasurer is hereby directed to pay said controller's warrants. In the first assessment levied in said district the sum of fifty thousand dollars shall be levied, collected and paid to the state treasurer as reimbursement of one half of the above appropriation.

The State of California shall not be liable, directly or indirectly, for any obligation, claim, or liability of any kind or character, arising under, or by reason of this act, or any of the provisions thereof, in excess of the one hundred thousand dollars in and by this act appropriated.

Liability of state.

CHAPTER 174.

An act to provide for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg; appointing a commission in connection therewith; and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved May 31, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Gettysburg anniversary commission.

SECTION 1. The governor of the State of California is hereby empowered to appoint a commission consisting of three citizens of this state which commission shall co-operate with the department commander of the department of California and Nevada, Grand Army of the Republic, for the purpose of aiding in the planning and conducting of a public celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg in the State of Pennsylvania on and during the first four days of July, 1913.

Transportation of veterans.

SEC. 2. Said commission shall represent this state at the said anniversary and is hereby authorized to obtain, so far as possible, the names and addresses of all the veterans now residing in the State of California who took part in the battle of Gettysburg, and to make preliminary arrangements for the transportation of such veterans to the battlefield of Gettysburg so that said veterans may attend the memorial exercises and anniversary to be held at said battlefield of Gettysburg, during the first four days of July, 1913.

Veterans eligible.

SEC. 3. Only such veterans of the civil war who actually took part in the battle of Gettysburg, and who are recommended by the said commission, whether such veterans fought with the Confederate or the Union or northern armies, shall be eligible under this act to receive free transportation to and from the battlefield of Gettysburg.

Appropriation.

SEC. 4. The sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated to be used by said commission appointed pursuant to this act, to carry out the provisions of this act. Said sum of money is to be disbursed under the direction and with the approval of said commission. Said commission shall keep an accurate record of all its proceedings and transactions, and shall file with the governor of this state a full, true and complete report thereof. Said commission shall have full power to provide any system or systems for the carrying into effect of this act.

Report.

Issuance of warrants.

SEC. 5. The controller of the state is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant or warrants in favor of the commission created pursuant to this act upon itemized requisition of said commission up to the amount of money appropriated by this act and the state treasurer is hereby ordered and directed to pay such warrant or warrants out of said appropriation.

Current expenses.

SEC. 6. This bill, inasmuch as it provides for the usual current expenses of the state, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution of the State of California, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 175.

An act making an appropriation for the legislative printing fund.

[Approved June 2, 1913. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of thirty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of legislative printing, said amount to be paid into the legislative printing fund. Appropriation: legislative printing.

CHAPTER 176.

An act to promote the general welfare of the people of this state as affected by accident causing the injury or death of employes in the course of their employment, by creating a liability on the part of employers to compensate such employes and their dependents for such accidental injury or death irrespective of the fault of either party, and providing the means and methods of enforcing such liability; and creating a "state compensation insurance fund" to insure employers against such liability and providing for its administration and regulating such insurance by other insurance carriers; and requiring safety in all employments and places of employment in this state and providing the means and methods of enforcing such safety; and requiring reports of industrial accidents; and providing penalties for offenses by employers, their officers, agents, and by employees and other persons and corporations; and creating an industrial accident commission, providing for its organization, defining its powers and duties and providing for a review of its orders, decisions and awards; and appropriating moneys to carry out the provisions of this act; and repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

[Approved May 26, 1913. In effect January 1, 1914.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known, and may be cited, as the "workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act" and shall apply to the subjects mentioned in its title. "Workmen's compensation act."

SEC. 2. The following terms as used in this act shall, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, be construed as follows:

"Commission."

(1) The term "commission" means the industrial accident commission of the State of California.

"Commissioner."

(2) The term "commissioner" means one of the members of the commission.

"Compensation."

(3) The term "compensation" means compensation under this act and includes every benefit or payment conferred by sections twelve to thirty-six, inclusive, of this act upon an injured employee, or in the event of his death, upon his dependents, without regard to negligence.

"Damages."

(4) The term "damages" means the recovery allowed in an action at law as contrasted with compensation under this act.

"Person."

(5) The term "person" includes an individual, firm, voluntary association or a corporation.

"Insurance carrier."

(6) The term "insurance carrier" includes the state compensation insurance fund herein created and any private company, corporation or mutual association authorized under the laws of this state to insure employers against liability for compensation under this act.

"Compensation provisions."

(7) The phrase "compensation provisions of this act" means and includes sections twelve to thirty-five, inclusive, of this act.

"Safety
provisions."

(8) The phrase "safety provisions of this act" means and includes sections fifty-one to seventy-two, inclusive, of this act.

Industrial accident
commission created.

SEC. 3. There is hereby created a board to consist of three members who shall be appointed by the governor from the state at large and which shall be known as the "industrial accident commission" and shall have the powers, duties and functions hereinafter conferred. Within thirty days prior to the first day of January, 1914, the governor shall appoint the three members of said commission, one for the term of two years, one for the term of three years and one for the term of four years. Thereafter, the term of office of each commissioner shall be four years. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment in the same manner for the unexpired term. Each commissioner shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars. Each commissioner shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office.

Salary.

Organization of commission.

SEC. 4. The commission shall organize by choosing one of its members as chairman. A majority of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, for the performance of any duty or for the exercise of any power or authority of the commission. A vacancy on the commission shall not impair the right of the remaining members to perform all the duties and exercise all the power and authority of the commission. The act of the majority of the commission, when in session as a commission, shall be deemed to be the act of the commission, but any investigation, inquiry or hearing, which the commission has power to undertake or to hold, may be undertaken or held by or before any member thereof or any referee appointed by the commission for that purpose, and every finding, order, decision, or award made by any commissioner or referee, pursuant to such investigation, inquiry or hearing, when approved and confirmed by the commission and ordered filed in its office, shall be deemed to be the finding, order, decision or award of the commission.

SEC. 5. The commission shall have a seal, bearing the following inscription: "Industrial Accident Commission State of California. seal." The seal shall be affixed to all writs and authentications of copies of records and to such other instruments as the commission shall direct. All courts shall take judicial notice of said seal.

SEC. 6. The commission shall keep its principal office in the city and county of San Francisco, and shall also keep an office in the city of Los Angeles, and shall provide itself with suitable rooms, necessary office furniture, stationery and other supplies. For the purpose of holding sessions in other places, the commission shall have power to rent temporary quarters.

SEC. 7. The commission shall have full power and authority:

(1) To appoint as its attorney an attorney-at-law of this state, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission. It shall be the right and the duty of the attorney to represent and appear for the people of the State of California and the commission in all actions and proceedings involving any question under this act or under any order or act of the commission and, if directed so to do by the commission, to intervene, if possible, in any action or proceeding in which any such question is involved; to commence, prosecute and expedite the final determination of all actions or proceedings, civil or criminal, directed or authorized by the commission; to advise the commission and each member thereof, when so requested, in regard to all matters in connection with the jurisdiction, powers or duties of the commission and members thereof; and generally to perform all duties and services as attorney to the commission which may be required of him.

(2) To appoint, and it shall appoint, a secretary, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep a full and true record of all the proceedings of the commission, to issue all necessary processes, writs, warrants and notices which the commission is required or authorized to issue, and generally to perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe. The commission may also appoint such assistant secretaries as may be necessary and such assistant secretaries may perform any duty of the secretary, when so directed by the commission.

Manager of insurance fund.

(3) To appoint a manager of the state compensation insurance fund who shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission. It shall be the duty of such manager to manage, supervise and conduct, subject to the general direction and approval of the commission, the business and affairs of the state compensation insurance fund and to perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe. Before entering on the duties of his office, he must give an official bond in the sum of $50,000, and take and subscribe to an official oath. Said bond must be approved by the commission, by written endorsement thereon, and be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

(4) To appoint a superintendent of the department of safety, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission and who shall perform such duties as the commission shall prescribe.

Other employees.

(5) To employ such other assistants, officers, experts, statisticians, actuaries, accountants, inspectors, referees and other employees, as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, or to perform the duties and exercise the powers conferred by law upon the commission.

Compensation of employees.

SEC. 8. All officers and employees of the commission shall receive such compensation for their services as may be fixed by the commission and shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission and shall perform such duties as are imposed on them by law or by the commission. The salaries of the members of the commission, its attorney, secretary and assistant secretary, as fixed by law or the commission, shall be paid in the same manner as are the salaries of other state officers. The salary or compensation of every other person holding office or employment under the commission, as fixed by law or by the commission, shall be paid monthly, after being approved by the commission, upon claims therefor to be audited by the state board of control. All expenses incurred by the commission pursuant to the provisions of this act, including the actual and necessary traveling and other expenses and disbursements of the members thereof, its officers and employees, incurred while on business of the commission, either within or without the state, shall, unless otherwise provided in this act, be paid from the funds appropriated for the use of the commission, after being approved by the commission, upon claims therefor to be audited by the board of control; provided, however, that no such expenses incurred outside of the state shall be allowed unless prior authorization therefor be obtained from the board of control.

Expenses.

Departmental expenses.

SEC. 9. In all cases in which salaries, expenses or outgoings of one department under the jurisdiction of the commission are expended in whole or in part on behalf of another department the commission may apportion the same between such departments.

Blank forms.

SEC. 10. The commission shall cause to be printed and furnished free of charge to any employer or employee, or other person, such blank forms as it shall deem requisite to facilitate or promote the efficient administration of this act; it shall provide a book in which shall be entered the minutes of all its proceedings, a book in which shall be recorded all awards made by the commission and such other books or records as it shall deem requisite for the proper and efficient administration of this act; all such records to be kept in the office of the commission.

Minute book.

SEC. 11. The commission shall also have power and authority:

Powers.

(1) To charge and collect the following fees: for copies of papers and records not required to be certified or otherwise authenticated by the commission, ten cents for each folio; for certified copies of official documents and orders filed in its office or of the evidence taken on proceedings had, fifteen cents for each folio.

Fees.

(2) To publish and distribute in its discretion from time to time, in addition to its annual report to the governor of the state, such further reports and pamphlets covering its operations, proceedings and matters relative to its work as it may deem advisable.

Reports.

(3) To fix and collect reasonable charges for publications issued under its authority.

(4) The fees charged and collected under this section shall be paid monthly into the treasury of the state to the credit of the "industrial accident fund" and shall be accompanied by a detailed statement thereof.

Fees paid into fund.

SEC. 12. (a) Liability for the compensation provided by this act, in lieu of any other liability whatsoever, shall, without regard to negligence, exist against an employer for any personal injury sustained by his employees by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment and for the death of any such employee if the injury shall proximately cause death, in those cases where the following conditions of compensation concur:

When liability exists against employer.

(1) Where, at the time of the accident, both the employer and employee are subject to the compensation provisions of this act.

Subject to act.

(2) Where, at the time of the accident, the employee is performing service growing out of and incidental to his employment and is acting within the course of his employment as such.

Performing service.

(3) Where the injury is proximately caused by accident, either with or without negligence, and is not so caused by the intoxication or the wilful misconduct of the injured employee.

Not caused by misconduct.

(b) Where such conditions of compensation exist, the right to recover such compensation pursuant to the provisions of this act, shall be the exclusive remedy against the employer for the injury or death, except that when the injury was caused by the employer's gross negligence or wilful misconduct and such act or failure to act causing such injury was the personal act or failure to act on the part of the employer himself, or if the employer be a partnership on the part of one of the partners, or if a corporation, on the part of an elective officer or officers thereof, and such act or failure to act indicated a wilful disregard of the life, limb, or bodily safety of employees, any such injured employee may, at his option, either claim compensation under this act or maintain an action at law for damages.

Other conditions.

(c) In all other cases where the conditions of compensation do not concur, the liability of the employer shall be the same as if this act had not been passed.

"Employer."

SEC. 13. The term "employer" as used in sections twelve to thirty-five, inclusive, of this act shall be construed to mean: The state, and each county, city and county, city, school district and all public corporations therein, and every person, firm, voluntary association, and private corporation, (including any public service corporation) who has any person in service under any appointment or contract of hire, or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, and the legal representatives of any deceased employer.

"Employee."

SEC. 14. The term "employee" as used in sections twelve to thirty-five, inclusive, of this act shall be construed to mean: every person in the service of an employer as defined by section thirteen hereof under any appointment or contract of hire or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, including aliens and also including minors, but excluding any person whose employment is both casual and not in the usual course of the trade, business, profession or occupation of his employer, and also excluding any employee engaged in farm, dairy, agricultural, viticultural or horticultural labor, in stock or poultry raising or in household domestic service.

Compensation schedule.

SEC. 15. Where liability for compensation under this act exists such compensation shall be furnished or paid by the employer and be as provided in the following schedule:

Medical treatment.

(a) Such medical, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, medicines, medical and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and within ninety days thereafter, to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury, the same to be provided by the employer, and in case of his neglect or refusal seasonably to do so, the employer to be liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same.

Disability indemnity.

(b) 1. If the accident causes disability, a disability indemnity which shall be payable for one week in advance as wages on the fifteenth day after the injured employee leaves work as a result of the injury, and thereafter on the employer's regular payday, but not less frequently than twice in each calendar month, unless otherwise ordered by the commission, subject, however, to the following limitations:

(1) If the period of disability does not last longer than two weeks from the day the employee leaves work as the result of the injury, no disability indemnity whatever shall be recoverable.

(2) If the period of disability lasts longer than two weeks from the day the employee leaves work as the result of the injury, no disability indemnity shall be recoverable for the first two weeks of such disability.

2. The disability indemnity payable shall be as follows:

(1) If the accident causes temporary total disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings during the period of such disability; Temporary disability.

(2) If the accident causes temporary partial disability, sixty-five per cent of the weekly loss in wages during the period of such disability;

(3) If the temporary disability caused by the accident is at times total and at times partial, the weekly disability indemnity during the periods of each such total or partial disability shall be in accordance with paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subdivision respectively;

(4) Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this subdivision shall be limited as follows: aggregate disability indemnity for a single injury causing temporary disability shall not exceed three times the average annual earnings of the employee, nor shall the aggregate disability period for such temporary disability in any event extend beyond two hundred forty weeks from the date of the accident. Aggregate indemnity.

(5) If the accident causes permanent disability, the percentage of disability to total disability shall be determined and the disability indemnity computed and allowed as follows: for a ten per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of forty weeks; for a twenty per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of eighty weeks; for a thirty per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of one hundred twenty weeks; for a forty per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of one hundred sixty weeks; for a fifty per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of two hundred weeks; for a sixty per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of two hundred forty weeks; for a seventy per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of two hundred forty weeks, and thereafter ten per cent of such weekly earnings during the remainder of life; for an eighty per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of two hundred forty weeks, and thereafter twenty per cent of such weekly earnings during the remainder of life; for a ninety per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of two hundred forty weeks and thereafter thirty per cent of such weekly earnings during the remainder of life; for a hundred per cent disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for a period of two hundred forty weeks and thereafter forty per cent of such weekly earnings during the remainder of life. Permanent disability.

Intermediate schedule.

(6) The indemnity for permanent disabilities intermediate to those fixed by the foregoing schedule shall be computed and allowed as follows: if under seventy per cent, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for four weeks for each one per cent of disability; if seventy per cent or over, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings for two hundred forty weeks and thereafter one per cent of such weekly earnings for each one per cent of disability in excess of sixty per cent to be paid during the remainder of life.

Determination of injury.

(7) In determining the percentages of permanent disability, account shall be taken of the nature of the physical injury or disfigurement, the occupation of the injured employee and his age at the time of such injury.

Incapacity due to illness.

(8) Nothing contained in the foregoing schedule of permanent disability indemnity shall be held to limit the amount of compensation recoverable for any such permanent injury during any period of total incapacity due to illness resulting from that injury, but any sum so received shall be deducted from the compensation payable in accordance with the said schedule.

Total disabilities.

(9) The following permanent disabilities shall be conclusively presumed to be total in character: Loss of both eyes or the sight thereof; loss of both hands or the use thereof; an injury resulting in a practically total paralysis; an injury to the brain resulting in incurable imbecility or insanity. In all other cases, permanent total disability shall be determined in accordance with the fact.

Death of injured
employee.

3. The death of the injured employee shall not affect the liability of the employer under subsections (a) and (b) of this section, so far as such liability has accrued and become payable at the date of the death, and any accrued and unpaid compensation shall be paid to the dependents, if any, without administration, or if there are no dependents, to the personal representatives of the deceased employee or other person entitled thereto, but such death shall be deemed to be the termination of the disability.

Death benefit

(c) If the accident causes death, either with or without disability, a death benefit which shall be payable in installments equal to sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings of the deceased employee, upon the employer's regular pay-day, but not less frequently than twice in each calendar month, unless otherwise ordered by the commission, which death benefit shall be as follows:

Leaving
wholly dependent;

(1) In case the deceased employee leaves a person or persons wholly dependent upon him for support, the death benefit shall be a sum sufficient, when added to the disability indemnity which, at the time of death has accrued and become payable, under the provisions of subsection (b) hereof, to make the total disability indemnity and death benefit equal to three times his average annual earnings, such annual earnings to be taken at not less than three hundred and thirty-three dollars and thirty-three cents nor more than one thousand six hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-six cents.

(2) In case the deceased employee leaves no person wholly dependent upon him for support, but one or more persons partially dependent therefor, the death benefit shall be such percentage of three times such average annual earnings of the employee as the annual amount devoted by the deceased to the support of the person or persons so partially dependent bears to such average annual earnings; provided, that the death benefit shall not be greater than a sum sufficient, when added to the disability indemnity which, at the time of the death, has accrued and become payable under the provisions of subsection (b) hercof to make the total disability indemnity and death benefit equal to three times his average annual earnings, such average annual earnings to be taken at not less than three hundred and thirty-three dollars and thirty-three cents nor more than one thousand six hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-six cents.

leaving person partially dependent;

(3) If the deceased employee leaves no person dependent upon him for support, the death benefit shall consist of the reasonable expenses of his burial not exceeding one hundred dollars and such further death benefit as may be provided by law.

leaving no person dependent.

(d) Payment of compensation in accordance with the order and direction of the commission shall discharge the employer from all claims therefor.

SEC. 16. (a) Unless compensation is paid or an agreement for its payment made within the time limited in this section for the institution of proceedings for its collection, the right to institute such proceedings shall be wholly barred.

limitation of actions.

(b) The periods within which proceedings for the collection of compensation may be commenced are as follows:

(1) Proceedings for the collection of the benefit provided by subsection (a) of section fifteen or for the collection of the disability indemnity provided by subsection (b) of said section fifteen must be commenced within six months from the date of the accident, except as otherwise provided in this act.

Within six months.

(2) Proceedings for the collection of the death benefit provided by subsection (c) of said section fifteen must be commenced within one year from the date of death, and in any event within two hundred forty weeks from the date of the accident, and can only be maintained when it appears that death ensued within one year from the date of the accident, or that the accident causing death also caused disability which continued to the date of the death and for which a disability indemnity was paid, or an agreement for its payment made, or proceedings for its collection commenced within the time limited for the commencement of proceedings for the recovery of the disability indemnity.

Within one year.

(c) The payment of the disability indemnity or death benefit, or any part thereof, or agreement therefor, shall have the effect of extending the period within which proceedings for its collection may be commenced, six months from the date of the agreement or last payment of such disability indemnity or death benefit or any part thereof.

Payment extends period.

In case of minor dependents.

(d) If an injured employee, or in the case of his death, one or more of his dependents, shall be a minor or incompetent at any time when any right or privilege accrues to such person under the provisions of this act, a general guardian, appointed by the court or a guardian ad litem or trustee appointed by the commission or a commissioner may, on behalf of any such person, claim and exercise any such right or privilege with the same force and effect as if no such disability existed; and no limitation of time provided by this act shall run against any such minor or incompetent unless and until such guardian or trustee is appointed.

Refusal of medical treatment.

(e) No compensation shall be payable in respect of the death or disability of an employee if his death is caused, or if and so far as his disability is caused, continued, or aggravated, by an unreasonable refusal to submit to medical treatment, or to any surgical treatment, the risk of which is, in the opinion of the commission, inconsiderable in view of the seriousness of the injury.

Previous injury no bar.

(f) The fact that an employee has suffered a previous disability, or receives compensation therefor, shall not preclude him from compensation for a later injury, or his dependents from compensation for death resulting therefrom, but in determining compensation for the later injury, or death resulting therefrom, his average annual earnings shall be fixed at such sum as will reasonably represent his annual earning capacity at the time of the later injury.

Payment during incapacity not admission of liability, etc.

(g) Any payment, allowance or benefit received by the injured employee during the period of his incapacity, or by his dependents in the event of his death, which by the terms of this act was not then due and payable or when there is any dispute or question concerning the right to compensation, shall not, in the absence of any agreement, be construed to be an admission of liability for compensation on the part of the employer, or the acceptance thereof as a waiver of any right or claim which the employee or his dependents may have against the employer, but any such payment, allowance or benefit may be taken into account by the commission in fixing the amount of the compensation to be paid.

Average weekly and annual earnings.

SEC. 17. (a) The average weekly earnings referred to in section fifteen herof shall be one fifty-second of the average annual earnings of the employee; in computing such earnings his average annual earnings shall be taken at not less than three hundred and thirty-three dollars and thirty-three cents, nor at more than one thousand six hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-six cents and between said limits shall be arrived at as follows:

In same employment one year.

(1) If the injured employee has worked in the same employment, whether for the same employer or not, during substantially the whole of the year immediately preceding his injury, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily earnings, wage or salary which he earned as such employee during the days when so employed.

(2) If the injured employee has not so worked in such employment during substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily earnings, wage or salary which an employee of the same class, working substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year, in the same or a similar kind of employment, in the same or a neighboring place, earned during the days when so employed.

Less than one year.

(3) In every case where for any reason the foregoing methods of arriving at the average annual earnings of the injured employee cannot reasonably and fairly be applied, such annual earnings shall be taken at such sum as, having regard to the previous earnings of the injured employee, and of other employees of the same or most similar class, working in the same or most similar employment, in the same or neighboring locality, shall reasonably represent the average annual earning capacity of the injured employee at the time of the injury in the kind of employment in which he was then working, or in any employment similar thereto.

Other cases.

(b) In determining such average weekly earnings, there shall be included the market value of board, lodging, fuel and other advantages received by the injured employee, as part of his remuneration and which can be estimated in money, but such average weekly earnings shall not include any sum which the employer paid to the injured employee to cover any special expenses entailed on him by the nature of his employment.

Items included in estimate.

(c) If the injured employee is a minor, and his incapacity, whether total or partial, is permanent, his average weekly earnings shall be deemed, within the limits fixed, to be the weekly sum, that under ordinary circumstances he would probably be able to earn after obtaining the age of twenty-one years, in the occupation in which he was employed at the time of the injury, if he had not been injured.

Estimate in case of minor.

SEC. 18. The weekly loss in wages referred to in section fifteen hereof shall consist of the difference between the average weekly earnings of the injured employee, computed according to the provisions of said section, and the weekly amount which the injured employee, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, will probably be able to earn during the disability, to be determined in view of the nature and extent of the injury. In computing such probable earnings due regard shall be had to the ability of the injured employee to compete in an open labor market.

Weekly loss in wages.

SEC. 19. (a) The following shall be conclusively presumed to be wholly dependent for support upon a deceased employee:

Persons wholly dependent for support.

(1) A wife upon a husband with whom she was living at the time of his death.

(2) A husband upon a wife upon whose earnings he is partially or wholly dependent at the time of her death.

(3) A child or children under the age of eighteen years (or over said age, but physically or mentally incapacitated from earning) upon the parent with whom he or they are living at the time of the death of such parent or for whose maintenance such parent was legally liable at the time of his death, there being no surviving dependent parent.

Dependency question
of fact.

(b) In all other cases, questions of entire or partial dependency and questions as to who constitute dependents and the extent of their dependency shall be determined in accordance with the fact, as the fact may be at the time of the death of the employee.

Persons not dependents.

(c) No person shall be considered a dependent of any deceased employee unless a member of the family of such employee or unless such person bears to such employee the relation of husband or wife, child, adopted child or stepchild, father or mother, father-in-law or mother-in-law, grandfather or grandmother, brother or sister, nephew or niece.

Division of benefit between persons wholly and partially dependent.

(d) 1. If there is one or more persons wholly dependent for support upon a deceased employee, such person or persons shall receive the entire death benefit, and any person or persons partially dependent shall receive no part thereof, unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

2. If there is more than one such person wholly dependent for support upon a deceased employee, the death benefit shall be divided equally among them, unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

3. If there is more than one person partially dependent for support upon a deceased employee, and no person wholly dependent for support, the amount allowed as the death benefit shall be divided among the persons so partially dependent in proportion to the relative extent of their dependency, unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

Commission may apportion
benefits.

(e) The death benefits shall be paid to such one or more of the dependents of the deceased, or to a trustee appointed by the commission, or a commissioner, for the benefit of the person or persons entitled, as may be determined by the commission, and the commission may, anything in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, apportion such benefits among the dependents in proportion to their respective needs and as may be just and equitable, and may order payment to a dependent subsequent in right, or not otherwise entitled, upon good cause being shown therefor. The person to whom the death benefit is paid for the use of the several beneficiaries shall apply the same in compliance with the findings and directions of the commission.

Notice to employer of accident.

SEC. 20. No claim to recover compensation under this act shall be maintained unless within thirty days after the occurrence of the accident which is claimed to have caused the injury or death, notice in writing, stating the name and the address of the person injured, the time and the place where the accident occurred, and the nature of the injury, and signed by the person injured or some one in his behalf, or in case of his death, by a dependent or some one in his behalf, shall be served upon the employer; provided, however, that actual knowledge of such accident and injury on the part of such employer, or his managing agent or superintendent in charge of the work, upon which the injured employee was engaged at the time of the injury, shall be equivalent to such service; and provided, further, that the failure to give any such notice, or any defect or inaccuracy therein, shall not be a bar to recovery under this act if it is found as a fact in the proceedings for the collection of the claim that there was no intention to mislead or prejudice the employer, and that he was not in fact misled or prejudiced thereby.

Actual knowledge.

SEC. 21. (a) Whenever in case of injury the right to compensation under this act would exist in favor of any employee, he shall, upon the written request of his employer, submit from time to time to examination by a practicing physician, who shall be provided and paid for by the employer, and shall likewise submit to examination from time to time by any physician selected by the commission or any member or referee thereof.

Examination by physician.

(b) The request or order for such examination shall fix a time and place therefor, due regard being had to the convenience of the employee and his physical condition and ability to attend at the time and place fixed. The employee shall be entitled to have a physician provided and paid for by himself present at any such examination. So long as the employee, after such written request of the employer, shall fail or refuse to submit to such examination or shall in any way obstruct the same, his right to begin or maintain any proceeding for the collection of compensation shall be suspended, and if he shall fail or refuse to submit to such examination after direction by the commission, or any member or referee thereof, or shall in any way obstruct the same, his right to the weekly indemnity which shall accrue and become payable during the period of such failure, refusal or obstruction, shall be barred. Any physician who shall make or be present at any such examination may be required to testify as to the results thereof.

Refusal to submit to examination.

SEC. 22. Upon filing with the commission by any party in interest of an application in writing stating the general nature of any dispute or controversy concerning compensation, or concerning any right of liability arising out of, or incident thereto, jurisdiction over which is vested by this act in the commission, a time and place shall be fixed for the hearing thereof, which shall be not less than ten days nor more than forty days after the filing of such application. The person filing such application shall be known as the applicant and the adverse party shall be known as the defendant. A copy of said application, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing thereof, shall forthwith be served upon all adverse parties and may be served either as a summons in a civil action or in the same manner as any other notice that is authorized or required to be served under the provisions of this act. A notice of the time and place of hearing shall also be served upon the applicant.

Application for hearing on dispute.

Defendant's answer.

SEC. 23. If any defendant desires to disclaim any interest in the subject-matter of the claim in controversy, or considers that the application is in any respect inaccurate or incomplete, or desires to bring any fact, paper or document to the attention of the commission as a defense to the claim, or otherwise, he must within five days after the service of the application upon him, file with or mail to the commission his answer setting forth the particulars in which the application is inaccurate or incomplete, and the facts upon which he intends to rely. A copy of such answer must be forthwith served upon all adverse parties.

Pleadings, testimony, etc.

SEC. 24. (a) No pleadings, other than the application and answer, shall be required. The hearing on the application may be adjourned from time to time and from place to place in the discretion of the commission. Either party shall have the right to be present at any hearing, in person or by attorney or by any other agent, and to present such testimony as shall be pertinent under the pleadings, but the commission may, with or without notice to either party, cause testimony to be taken, or inspection of the premises where the injury occurred to be made, or the time-books and pay roll of the employer to be examined by any commissioner or any referee appointed by the commission, and may from time to time direct any employee claiming compensation to be examined by a regular physician; the testimony so taken and the results of any such inspection or examination to be reported to the commission for its consideration.

Stipulation of facts.

(b) The parties to a controversy may stipulate the facts relative thereto in writing and file such stipulation with the commission. The commission may thereupon make its findings and award based upon such stipulation, or may in its discretion set the matter down for hearing and take such further testimony or make such further investigations as may be necessary to enable it to completely determine the matter in controversy.

Findings and award.

SEC. 25. (a) After final hearing by the commission, it shall, within thirty days, make and file (1) its findings upon all facts involved in the controversy and (2) its award which shall state its determination as to the rights of the parties.

Compensation.

(b) The commission in its award may fix and determine the total amount of compensation to be paid and specify the manner of payment, or may fix and determine the weekly disability indemnity to be paid and order payment thereof during the continuance of such disability.

Nominal disability indemnity.

(c) If, in any proceeding under sections twelve to thirty-five, inclusive, of this act, it is proved that an accident has happened for which the employer would be liable to pay compensation if disability had resulted therefrom, but it is not proved that any incapacity had resulted, the commission may, instead of dismissing the application, award a nominal disability indemnity, if it appears that disability is likely to result at a future time.

(d) The commission shall have continuing jurisdiction over all its orders, decisions and awards made and entered under the provisions of sections twelve to thirty-five, inclusive, of this act and may at any time, upon notice, and after opportunity to be heard is given to the parties in interest, rescind, alter or amend any such order, decision or award made by it upon good cause appearing therefor; provided, that no award of compensation shall be rescinded, altered or amended after two hundred forty-five weeks from the date of the accident. Any order, decision or award rescinding, altering or amending a prior order, decision or award shall have the same effect as is herein provided for original orders, decisions or awards.

Orders may be rescinded, altered or amended.

SEC. 26. (a) Any party affected thereby may file a certified copy of the findings and award of the commission with the clerk of the superior court for any county, or city and county, and judgment must be entered by the clerk in conformity therewith immediately upon the filing of such findings and award.

Findings may be filed with court.

(b) The certified copy of the findings and award of the commission and a copy of the judgment shall constitute the judgment roll. The pleadings, all orders of the commission, its original findings and award, and all other papers or documents filed in the cause shall remain on file in the office of the commission.

Judgment roll.

(c) The commission, or any member thereof, may stay the execution of any judgment entered upon an award of the commission, upon good cause appearing therefor and upon such terms and conditions as may be imposed. A certified copy of such order shall be filed with the clerk entering such judgment.

Stay of execution.

(d) Satisfaction of a judgment entered upon the award of the commission may be entered in the manner provided by law for the satisfaction of judgment. When a judgment is satisfied in fact, otherwise than upon an execution, the commission may, upon motion of either party or of its own motion, order the entry of satisfaction of the judgment to be made, and upon filing a certified copy of such order with the said clerk, he shall thereupon enter such satisfaction.

Satisfaction of judgment.

SEC. 27. The orders, findings, decisions or awards of the commission made and entered under sections twelve to thirty-five, inclusive, of this act may be reviewed by the courts specified in sections eighty-four and eighty-five hereof and within the time and in the manner therein specified and not otherwise.

Review of decisions by courts.

SEC. 28. No fees shall be charged by the clerk of any court for the performance of any official service required by this act, except for the docketing of awards as judgments and for certified copies of transcripts thereof. In all proceedings under this act before the commission, costs as between the parties shall be allowed or not in the discretion of the commission, and the commission may in its discretion, where payments of compensation have been unreasonably delayed, allow the beneficiary thereof interest thereon, at not to exceed one and one half per cent per month, during such period of delay.

Costs.

Interest.

Assignment of claim.

SEC. 29. (a) No claim for compensation shall be assignable before payment, but this provision shall not affect the survival thereof, nor shall any claim for compensation, or compensation awarded, adjudged or paid, be subject to be taken for the debts of the party entitled to such compensation, except as hereinafter provided.

Commission may allow attorney's fee, etc.

(b) The commission may fix and determine and allow as a lien against any amount to be paid as compensation:

(1) A reasonable attorney's fee for legal services pertaining to any claim for compensation or application filed therefor and the reasonable disbursements in connection therewith.

(2) The reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the injured employee and for which the employer is liable under the provisions of subsection (a) of section fifteen hereof.

(3) The reasonable burial expenses of the deceased employee, not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars.

Notice to employer of lien.

(c) If notice in writing be given to the employer setting forth the nature and extent of any claim, that may be allowed as a lien, the said claim shall be a lien against any amount thereafter to be paid as compensation, subject to the determination of the amount and approval thereof by the commission. The commission may, in its discretion, order the amount of such claim as fixed and allowed by it paid directly to the person entitled, either in a lump sum or in installments.

Claim for legal services limited.

(d) No claim or agreement for the legal services or disbursements mentioned in paragraph (1) of subsection (b) hereof, or for the expense mentioned in paragraph (2) of said subsection (b), in excess of a reasonable amount, shall be valid or binding in any respect.

Claim for compensation given preference.

(e) A claim for compensation for the injury or death of any employee, or any award or judgment entered thereon, shall have the same preference over the other unsecured debts of the employer as is given by law to claims for wages. Such preference shall be for the entire amount of compensation to be paid, but this section shall not impair the lien of any previous award.

Principals' liability.

SEC. 30. The liability of principals and contractors for compensation under this act, when other than the immediate employer of the injured employee, shall be as follows:

(a) The principal, any general contractor and each intermediate contractor who undertakes to do, or contracts with another to do, or to have done, any work, shall be liable to pay to any employee injured while engaged in the execution of such work, or to his dependents in the event of his death, any compensation which the immediate employer is liable to pay.

(b) The person entitled to such compensation shall have the right to recover the same directly from his immediate employer, and in addition thereto the right to enforce in his own name, in the manner provided by this act, the liability for compensation imposed upon other persons by this section, either by making such other persons parties to the original application or by filing a separate application; provided, however, that payment in whole or in part of such compensation by either the immediate employer or other person shall, to the extent of such payment, be a bar to recovery against the other by any person entitled to such compensation.

Recovery from immediate employer.

(c) When any person, other than the immediate employer, shall have paid any compensation for which he would not have been liable independently of this section, he shall, unless he caused the injury, be entitled to recover the full amount so paid from the person primarily liable therefor.

Recovery from person primarily responsible.

(d) The liability imposed by this section upon such principal, general contractor and intermediate contractor shall be subject to the following limitations:

Limitation of liability against principal.

(1) Such liability shall exist only in cases where the injury occurred on or in or about the premises on which the principal, general contractor or intermediate contractor has undertaken to execute any work, or when such premises or work are otherwise under his control or management.

(2) Such liability shall not exist in the event that the immediate employer, or other person primarily liable for the compensation shall, previous to the happening of such accident, have taken out, and maintained in full force and effect, compensation insurance with any insurance carrier, covering his full liability for compensation to the injured person or his dependents.

(3) The commission may, in its discretion, order that execution against the principal, general contractor and any intermediate contractor, be stayed until execution against the immediate employer shall be returned unsatisfied.

Sec. 31. The making of a lawful claim against an employer for compensation under this act for the injury or death of his employee shall operate as an assignment to the employer of any right to recover damages which the injured employee, or his personal representative, or other person, may have against any other party for such injury or death, and such employer shall be subrogated to any such right and may enforce in his own name the legal liability of such other party. The amount of compensation paid by the employer, or the amount of compensation to which the injured employee or his dependents is entitled, shall not be admissible in evidence in any action brought to recover damages, but any amount collected by the employer, under the provisions of this section, in excess of the amount paid by the employer, or for which he is liable, shall be held by him for the benefit of the injured employee or other person entitled.

Claim operates as assignment of right.

No exemption by contract.

SEC. 32. (a) No contract, rule or regulation shall exempt the employer from liability for the compensation fixed by this act, but nothing in this act contained shall be construed as impairing the right of the parties interested to settle, subject to the provisions herein contained, any liability which may be claimed to exist under this act on account of such injury or death, or as conferring upon the dependents of any injured employee any interest which such employee may not divert by such settlement or for which he, or his estate, shall, in the event of such settlement by him, be accountable to such dependents or any of them.

Measure of responsibility.

(b) The compensation herein provided shall be the measure of the responsibility which the employer has assumed for injuries or death that may occur to employees in his employment when subject to the provisions of this act, and no release of liability or settlement agreement shall be valid unless it provides for the payment of full compensation in accordance with the provisions of this act or until and unless it shall be approved by the commission.

Release to be filed with commission.

(c) A copy of any such release or settlement agreement signed by both parties shall forthwith be filed with the commission. When such release or settlement agreement is filed with the commission and approved by it, the commission may of its own motion, or on the application of either party, without notice, enter its award based upon such release or settlement agreement.

Execution of release.

(d) Every such release or settlement agreement shall be in writing, duly executed and attested by two disinterested witnesses, and shall specify the date of the accident, the average weekly wages of the employee, determined according to section seventeen hereof, the nature of the disability, whether total or partial, permanent or temporary, the amount paid or due and unpaid to the employee up to the date of the release or agreement or death, as the case may be, and, if any, the amount of the payment or benefits then or thereafter to be made, and the length of time that such payment is to continue. In case of death there shall also be stated in such release or settlement agreement the date of death, the name of the widow, if any, the name and ages of all children, if any, and the names of all other dependents, if any, and whether such dependents be total or partial, and the amount paid or to be paid as a death benefit and to whom such payment is to be made.

Commission may commute compensation to lump sum.

SEC. 33. (a) At the time of making its award or at any time thereafter the commission on its own motion, either with or without notice, or upon application of either party with due notice to the other, may in its discretion, commute the compensation payable under this act to a lump sum, if it appears that such commutation is necessary for the protection of the person entitled thereto, or for the best interest of either party, or that it will avoid undue expense or hardship to either party, or that the employer has sold or otherwise disposed of the greater part of his assets, or is about to do so, or that the employer is not a resident of this state, and the commission may order such compensation paid forthwith or at some future time.

(b) The amount of the commuted payment shall be determined in accordance with the following provisions: Rules governing commutation.

(1) If the accident causes temporary disability, the commission shall estimate the probable duration thereof and the probable amount of the temporary disability indemnity payable therefor in accordance with the provisions of section fifteen hereof and shall fix the lump sum payment at such amount so determined.

(2) If the accident causes permanent disability or death, the commission shall fix the total amount of the permanent disability indemnity or death benefit payable therefor in accordance with the provisions of said section fifteen and shall estimate the present value thereof, assuming interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, disregarding the probability of the beneficiary's death in all cases except where the percentage of permanent disability is such as to entitle the beneficiary to a life-pension, and then taking into consideration the probability of the beneficiary's death only in estimating the present value of such life pension.

(c) The commission in its discretion may order the lump sum payment, determined as hereinbefore provided, paid directly to the injured employee or to his dependents, or deposited with any savings bank or trust company authorized to transact business in this state, that will agree to accept the same as a deposit bearing interest at not less than four per cent, per annum, or the commission may order the same deposited with the state compensation insurance fund. Any such amount so deposited, together with all interest thereon, shall thereafter be held in trust for the injured employee, or in the event of his death, for his dependents, who shall have no further recourse against the employer. Payment direct, or deposit in trust. Payments from said fund, when so deposited, shall be made by the trustee only in the same amounts and at the same times as fixed by the order of the commission and until said fund and interest thereon shall be exhausted. In the appointment of the trustee preference shall be given, in the discretion of the commission, to the choice of the injured employee or his dependents. Upon the making of such payment, the employer shall present to the commission a proper receipt evidencing the same, executed either by the injured employee or his dependents, or by the trustee, and the commission shall thereupon issue its certificate in proper form evidencing the same, and such certificate, upon filing with the clerk of the superior court in which any judgment upon an award may have been entered, shall operate as a satisfaction of said award and shall fully discharge the employer from any further liability on account thereof. Payments from trust fund.

SEC. 34. (a) Nothing in this act shall affect the organization of any mutual or other insurance company, or any existing contract for insurance or the right of the employer to Mutual insurance companies not affected.

insure in mutual or other companies, in whole or in part, against liability for the compensation provided for by this act; or, to provide by mutual or other insurance, or by arrangement with his employees, or otherwise, for the payment to such employees, their families, dependents or representatives, of sick, accident or death benefits, in addition to the compensation provided for by this act.

Compensation not affected by insurance.

(b) Liability for compensation shall not be reduced or affected by any insurance, contribution, or other benefit whatsoever due to or received by the person entitled to such compensation, except as otherwise provided by this act, and the person so entitled shall, irrespective of any insurance or other contract, except as otherwise provided in this act, have the right to recover such compensation directly from the employer, and in addition thereto, the right to enforce in his own name, in the manner provided in this act, either by making the insurance carrier a party to the original application or by filing a separate application, the liability of any insurance carrier, which may, in whole or in part, have insured against liability for such compensation: provided, however, that payment in whole or in part of such compensation by either the employer or the insurance company shall, to the extent thereof, be a bar to recovery against the other of the amount so paid; and provided, further, that as between the employer and the insurance company, payment by either directly to the employee, or to the person entitled to compensation, shall be subject to the conditions of the insurance contract between them.

Insurance carrier liable to employee.

(c) Every contract insuring against liability for compensation, or insurance policy evidencing the same, must contain a clause to the effect that the insurance carrier shall be directly and primarily liable to the employee and, in the event of his death, to his dependents, to pay the compensation, if any, for which the employer is liable; that, as between the employee and the insurance carrier, the notice to or knowledge of the occurrence of the injury on the part of the employer shall be deemed notice or knowledge, as the case may be, on the part of the insurance carrier; that jurisdiction of the employer shall, for the purpose of this act, be jurisdiction of the insurance carrier and that the insurance carrier shall in all things be bound by and subject to the orders, findings, decisions or awards rendered against the employer under the provisions of this act.

Employee has first lien on amount due employer.

(d) Such policy must also provide that the employee shall have a first lien upon any amount which shall become owing on account of such policy to the employer from the insurance carrier and that in case of the legal incapacity or inability of the employer to receive the said amount and pay it over to the employee or his dependents, the said insurance carrier may and shall pay the same directly to the said employee or his dependents, thereby discharging to the extent of such payment the obligations of the employer to the employee, and such policy shall not contain any provisions relieving the insurance carrier from payment when the employer becomes insolvent or is discharged in bankruptcy, or otherwise, during the period that the policy is in operation or the compensation remains owing.

(e) 1. If the employer shall be insured against liability for compensation with any insurance carrier, and if after the happening of any accident such insurance carrier shall serve or cause to be served upon any person claiming compensation against such employer a notice that it has assumed and agreed to pay the compensation, if any, for which the employer is liable, and shall file a copy of such notice with the commission, such employer shall thereupon be relieved from liability for compensation to such claimant and the insurance carrier shall, without notice, be substituted in place of the employer in any proceeding theretofore or thereafter instituted by such person to recover such compensation, and the employer shall be dismissed therefrom. Such proceeding shall not abate on account of such substitution but shall be continued against such insurance carrier.

Insurance carrier may relieve employer of responsibility.

2. If at the time of the happening of an accident for which compensation is claimed, or may be claimed, the employer shall be insured against liability for the full amount of compensation payable, or that may become payable, the employer may serve or cause to be served upon any person claiming compensation on account of the happening of such accident and upon the insurance carrier a notice that the insurance carrier has, in its policy contract or otherwise, assumed and agreed to pay the compensation, if any, for which the employer is liable, and may file a copy of such notice with the commission. If it shall thereafter appear to the satisfaction of the commission that the insurance carrier has, through the issuance of its contract of insurance or otherwise, assumed such liability for compensation, such employer shall thereupon be relieved from liability for compensation to such claimant and the insurance carrier shall, after notice, be substituted in place of the employer in any proceeding theretofore or thereafter instituted by such person to recover such compensation, and the employer shall be dismissed therefrom. Such proceeding shall not abate on account of such substitution, but shall be continued against such insurance carrier.

Notice of employer of insurance carrier's liability.

(f) Where any employer is insured against liability for compensation with any insurance carrier and such insurance carrier shall have paid any compensation for which the employer was liable, or shall have assumed the liability of the employer therefor, it shall be subrogated to all the rights and duties of the employer and may enforce any such rights in its own name.

Insurance carrier subrogated to employer's rights.

Sec. 35. (a) If any insurance policy shall be issued covering liability for compensation, which policy shall contain any limitation as to the compensation payable, such limitation shall be printed in the body of such policy in boldface type and in addition thereto the words "limited compensation policy"

"Limited compensation policy."

shall be printed on the top of the policy in boldfaced type not less than eighteen point in size.

Damages recoverable at law not insurable.

(b) No insurance carrier shall insure against the liability of the employer for damages recoverable at law by the injured employee under the optional provisions contained in section twelve hereof, and any insurance carrier liable to any such injured employee for compensation upon the payment of the same shall have the same option given by said section twelve to such employee and shall be fully subrogated to his rights, and may enforce such liability for damages against the employer in its own name, anything in the insurance contract to the contrary notwithstanding.

"State compensation insurance fund" created.

SEC. 36. There is hereby created and established a fund to be known as the "state compensation insurance fund," to be administered by the industrial accident commission of the state, without liability on the part of the state beyond the amount of said fund, for the purpose of insuring employers against liability for compensation under this act and insuring to employees and other persons the compensation fixed by this act for employees and their dependents.

Revolving fund.

SEC. 37. (a) The state compensation insurance fund shall be a revolving fund and shall consist of such specific appropriations as the legislature may from time to time make or set aside for the use of such fund, all premiums received and paid into the said fund for compensation insurance issued, all property and securities acquired by and through the use of moneys belonging to said fund and all interest earned upon moneys belonging to said fund and deposited or invested, as herein provided.

Charges against fund.

(b) Said fund shall be applicable to the payment of losses sustained on account of insurance and to the payment of the salaries and other expenses to be charged against said fund in accordance with the provisions contained in this act.

Self-supporting.

(c) Said fund shall, after a reasonable time during which it may establish a business, be fairly competitive with other insurance carriers, and it is the intent of the legislature that said fund shall ultimately become neither more nor less than self-supporting.

Commission vested with full power over fund.

SEC. 38. (a) The commission is hereby vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction over the state compensation insurance fund and may do and perform any and all things whether herein specifically designated, or in addition thereto, which are necessary or convenient in the exercise of any power, authority or jurisdiction over said fund in the administration thereof, or in connection with the insurance business to be carried on by it under the provisions of this act, as fully and completely as the governing body of a private insurance carrier might or could do.

To fix rates.

(b) The commission shall have full power and authority, and it shall be its duty, to fix and determine the rates to be charged by the state compensation insurance fund for com-compensation insurance, and to manage and conduct all business and affairs in relation thereto, all of which business and affairs shall be conducted in the name of the state compensation insurance fund, and in that name, without any other name or title, the commission may:

(1) Sue and be sued in all the courts of the state in all actions arising out of any act, deed, matter or thing made, omitted, entered into, done, or suffered in connection with the state compensation insurance fund, the administration, management or conduct of the business or affairs relating thereto. Powers of commission.

(2) Make and enter into contracts of insurance as herein provided, and such other contracts or obligations relating to the state compensation insurance fund as are authorized or permitted under the provisions of this act.

(3) Invest and reinvest the moneys belonging to said fund as hereinafter provided.

(4) Conduct all business and affairs, relating to the state compensation insurance fund, whether herein specifically designated or in addition thereto.

(c) The commission may delegate to the manager of the state compensation insurance fund, or to any other officer, under such rules and regulations and subject to such conditions as it may from time to time prescribe, any of the powers, functions or duties, conferred or imposed on the commission under the provisions of this act in connection with the state compensation insurance fund, the administration, management and conduct of the business and affairs relating thereto, and the officer or officers to whom such delegation is made may exercise the powers and functions and perform the duties delegated with the same force and effect as the commission, but subject to its approval. May delegate powers.

(d) The commission shall not, nor shall any commissioner, officer or employee thereof, be personally liable in his private capacity for or on account of any act performed or contract or other obligation entered into or undertaken in an official capacity, in good faith and without intent to defraud, in connection with the administration, management or conduct of the state compensation insurance fund, its business or other affairs relating thereto. Not liable personally.

SEC. 39. In conducting the business and affairs of the state compensation insurance fund, the manager of the said fund or other officer to whom such power and authority may be delegated by the commission, as provided by subsection (c) of section thirty-eight hereof, shall have full power and authority: Powers of insurance fund manager.

(1) To enter into contracts of insurance, insuring employers against liability for compensation and insuring to employees and other persons the compensation fixed by this act.

(2) To sell annuities covering compensation benefits.

(3) To decline to insure any risk in which the minimum requirements of the commission with regard to construction, equipment and operation are not observed, or which is beyond the safe carrying of the state compensation insurance fund, but shall not have power or authority, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, to refuse to insure any compensation risk tendered with the premium therefor.

(4) To reinsure any risk or any part thereof.

(5) To inspect and audit, or cause to be inspected and audited the pay rolls of employers applying for insurance against liability for compensation.

(6) To make rules and regulations for the settlement of claims against said fund and to determine to whom and through whom the payments of compensation are to be made.

(7) To contract with physicians, surgeons and hospitals for medical and surgical treatment and the care and nursing of injured persons entitled to benefits from said fund.

Rates for compensation insurance.

SEC. 40. (a) It shall be the duty of the commission to fix and determine the rates to be charged by the state compensation insurance fund for compensation insurance coverage as herein provided, and such rates shall be fixed with due regard to the physical hazards of each industry, occupation or employment and, within each class, so far as practicable, in accordance with the elements of bodily risk or safety or other hazard of the plant or premises or work of each insured and the manner in which the same is conducted, together with a reasonable regard for the accident experience and history of each such insured, and the means and methods of caring for injured persons, but such rates shall take no account of the extent to which the employees in any particular establishment have or have not persons dependent upon them for support.

How determined.

(b) The rates so made shall be that percentage of the pay roll of any employer which, in the long run and on the average, shall produce a sufficient sum, when invested at three and one half per cent interest:

(1) To carry all claims to maturity; that is to say the rates shall be based upon the "reserve" and not upon the "assessment" plan;

(2) To meet the reasonable expenses of conducting the business of such insurance;

(3) To produce a reasonable surplus to cover the catastrophe hazard.

Rates either limited or unlimited.

SEC. 41. The insurance contracts entered into between the state compensation insurance fund and persons insuring therewith may be either limited or unlimited and issued for one year or, in the form of stamps or tickets or otherwise, for one month or any number of months less than one year, or for one day or any number of days less than one month, or during the performance of any particular work, job or contract; provided, that the rates charged shall be proportionately greater for a shorter than for a longer period and that a minimum premium charge shall be fixed in accordance with a reasonable rate for insuring one person for one day. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any person applying for compensation insurance from being covered temporarily until the application is finally acted upon, or to prevent the insured from surrendering any policy at any time and having returned to him the difference between the premium paid and the premium at the customary short term for the shorter period which such policy has already run. The state compensation insurance fund may at any time cancel any policy, after due notice, upon a pro rata basis of premium repayment.

SEC. 42. The state compensation insurance fund may issue policies, including with their employees, employers who perform labor incidental to their occupations, and including also members of the families of such employers engaged in the same occupation, such policies insuring to such employers and working members of their families the same compensations provided for their employees, and at the same rates; provided, that the estimations of their wage values, respectively, shall be reasonable and separately stated in and added to the valuation of their pay rolls upon which their premium is computed. Such policies may likewise be sold to self-employed persons and to casual employees, who, for the purpose of such insurance, shall be deemed to be employees within the meaning of sections twelve to thirty-five, inclusive, of this act.

Policies for employers, etc.

SEC. 43. The treasurer of the state shall be custodian of all moneys and securities belonging to the state compensation insurance fund, except as otherwise provided in this act, and shall be liable on his official bond for the safe-keeping thereof. All moneys belonging to said fund collected or received by the commission, or the manager of the state compensation insurance fund, under and by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall be delivered to the treasurer of the state or may be deposited to his credit in such bank or banks throughout the state as he may, from time to time, designate, and such moneys when so delivered or deposited shall be credited by the treasurer to the said fund and no moneys received or collected on account of such fund shall be expended or paid out of such fund without first passing into the state treasury and being drawn therefrom as provided in this act. In like manner there shall be delivered to the treasurer all securities belonging to said fund which shall be held by him until otherwise disposed of as provided in this act.

State treasurer custodian of fund.

SEC. 44. (a) The commission shall submit each month to the state board of control an estimate of the amount necessary to meet the current disbursements from the state compensation insurance fund during each succeeding calendar month and, when such estimate shall be approved by the state board of control, the controller is directed to draw his warrant on said fund in favor of said commission for such amount, and the treasurer is authorized and directed to pay the same.

Monthly estimate to board of control.

(b) At the end of each calendar month the commission shall account to the state board of control and the state controller for all moneys so received, furnishing proper vouchers therefor.

Monthly accounting.

(c) During the months of January and of July of each year the state board of control or the commission shall cause a valuation to be made of the properties and securities which have been acquired and which are held for said fund, and shall report the results of the same to the state controller, whose duty it shall be to keep a special ledger account showing all of the assets pertaining to the state compensation insurance fund. In the controller's general ledger this fund account may be carried merely as a cash account, like other accounts of funds in the state treasury, and therein only the actual cash coming into the state compensation insurance fund shall be credited to such fund.

Semi-annual valuation of properties.

Investment of surplus.

SEC. 45. (a) The commission shall cause all moneys in the state compensation insurance fund, in excess of current requirements, to be invested and reinvested, from time to time, in the securities now or hereafter authorized by law for the investment of funds of savings banks.

(b) The commission shall, from time to time, submit to the state board of control an estimate of the amount required by it for investment, which estimate shall be accompanied by a full description of the kind and character of the investments to be made and, when such estimate shall be approved by the state board of control, the controller is directed to draw his warrant on the state compensation insurance fund in favor of the commission for such amount and the treasurer is authorized and directed to pay the same.

(c) At the end of each calendar month the commission shall account to the said board of control and the state controller for all moneys so received, furnishing proper vouchers therefor.

(d) All moneys in said fund, in excess of current requirements and not otherwise invested, may be deposited by the state treasurer from time to time in the banks authorized by law to receive deposits of public moneys under the same rules and regulations that govern the deposit of other public funds and the interest accruing thereon shall be credited to the state compensation insurance fund.

Counties may insure.

SEC. 46. Each county, city and county, city, school district or other public corporation within the state, may insure against its liability for compensation, with the state compensation insurance fund and not with any other insurance carrier unless such fund shall refuse to accept the risk when the application for insurance is made, and the premium therefor shall be a proper charge against the general fund of each such political subdivision of the state.

Schedules of rates to be furnished certain officers.

SEC. 47. When the premium rates for insurance in the state compensation insurance fund shall have been established the commission shall furnish schedules of rates and copies of the forms of policy to the commissioner of labor, to the clerk and to the treasurer of every county, city and county, and city in the state, and it shall be the duty of every public officer to whom the foregoing may be furnished to fill out and transmit to the manager of the state compensation insurance fund applications for compensation insurance in such fund and to receive and transmit to said manager all premiums paid on account of any policy issued or applied for.

SEC. 48. The commission shall each quarter make to the governor of the state, reports of the business done by the state compensation insurance fund during the previous quarter, and a statement of the fund's resources and liabilities, and it shall be the duty of the state board of control to audit such reports and to cause an abstract thereof to be published one or more times in at least two newspapers of general circulation in the state. The commission shall likewise make to the state insurance commissioner all reports required by law to be made by other insurance carriers.

Quarterly report to governor.

SEC. 49. Any employer who shall wilfully misrepresent the amount of the pay roll upon which his premium under this act is to be based shall be liable to the state in ten times the amount of the difference in premium paid and the amount the employer should have paid had his pay roll been correctly computed, and the liability to the state under this section shall be enforced in a civil action in the name of the state compensation insurance fund and any amount so collected shall become a part of said fund.

Penalty for misrepresenting pay roll.

SEC. 50. Any person who wilfully misrepresents any fact in order to obtain insurance at less than the proper rate for such insurance, or in order to obtain any payments out of such fund, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Other misrepresentation, misdemeanor.

SEC. 51. The following terms, as used in sections fifty-one to seventy-two, inclusive, of this act, shall, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, be construed as follows:

Definitions:

(1) The phrase "place of employment" shall mean and include every place, whether indoors or out or underground, or elsewhere, and the premises appurtenant thereto, where, either temporarily or permanently, any industry, trade, work or business is carried on, or where any process or operation directly or indirectly related to any industry, trade, work or business, is carried on, and where any person is directly or indirectly employed by another for direct or indirect gain or profit, but shall not include any place where persons are employed solely in farm, dairy, agricultural, viticultural or horticultural labor, in stock or poultry raising or in household domestic service.

"place of employment";

(2) The term "employment" shall mean and include any trade, work, business, occupation or process of manufacture, or any method of carrying on such trade, work, business, occupation or process of manufacture in which any person may be engaged, except where persons are employed solely in farm, dairy, agricultural, viticultural or horticultural labor, in poultry or stock raising or in household domestic services.

"employment";

(3) The term "employer" shall mean and include every person, firm, voluntary association, corporation, officer, agent, manager, representative or other person having control or custody of any employment, place of employment or of any employee.

Definitions: "employer";

"employee"; (4) The term "employee" shall mean and include every person who may be required or directed by any employer, in consideration of direct or indirect gain or profit, to engage in any employment, or to go to work or be at any time in any place of employment.

"order"; (5) The term "order" shall mean and include any decision, rule, regulation, direction, requirement or standard of the commission or any other determination arrived at or decision made by such commission under the safety provisions of this act.

"general order"; (6) The term "general order" shall mean and include such order made, under the safety provisions of this act, as applies generally throughout the state to all persons, employments or places of employment, or all persons, employments or places of employment of a class under the jurisdiction of the commission. All other orders of the commission shall be considered special orders.

"local order"; (7) The term "local order" shall mean and include any ordinance, order, rule or determination of any board of supervisors, city council, board of trustees or other governing body of any county, city and county, city or of any school district or other public corporation, or an order or direction of any other public official or board or department upon any matter over which the industrial accident commission has jurisdiction.

"safe," "safety"; (8) The terms "safe" and "safety" as applied to an employment or a place of employment shall mean such freedom from danger to the life or safety of employees as the nature of the employment will reasonably permit.

"safety device"; "safeguard"; (9) The terms "safety device" and "safeguard" shall be given a broad interpretation so as to include any practicable method of mitigating or preventing a specific danger.

Duty of employer. SEC. 52. Every employer shall furnish employment which shall be safe for the employees therein and shall furnish a place of employment which shall be safe for employees therein, and shall furnish and use such safety devices and safeguards, and shall adopt and use such practices, means, methods, operations and processes as are reasonably adequate to render such employment and place of employment safe, and shall do every other thing reasonably necessary to protect the life and safety of such employees.

Employee not to go into unsafe place. SEC. 53. No employer shall require, permit or suffer any employee to go or be in any employment or place of employment which is not safe, and no such employer shall fail to furnish, provide and use safety devices and safeguards or fail to adopt and use methods and processes reasonably adequate to render such employment and place of employment safe, and no such employer shall fail or neglect to do every other thing reasonably necessary to protect the life and safety of such employees, and no such employer shall occupy or maintain any place of employment that is not safe.

Unsafe structures. SEC. 54. No employer, owner or lessee of any real property in this state shall construct or cause to be constructed any place of employment that is not safe.

SEC. 55. No employee shall remove, displace, damage, destroy or carry off any safety device or safeguard furnished and provided for use in any employment or place of employment, or interfere in any way with the use thereof by any other person, or interfere with the use of any method or process adopted for the protection of any employee in such employment, or place of employment, or fail or neglect to do every other thing reasonably necessary to protect the life and safety of such employees.

Removing safety device prohibited.

SEC. 56. The commission is vested with full power and jurisdiction over, and shall have such supervision of, every employment and place of employment in this state as may be necessary adequately to enforce and administer all laws and all lawful orders requiring such employment and place of employment to be safe, and requiring the protection of the life and safety of every employee in such employment or place of employment.

Supervision of places of employment.

SEC. 57. The commission shall have power, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, by general or special orders, rules or regulations, or otherwise:

Powers.

(1) To declare and prescribe what safety devices, safeguards or other means or methods of protection are well adapted to render the employees of every employment and place of employment safe as required by law or lawful order.

safety devices.

(2) To fix such reasonable standards and to prescribe, modify and enforce such reasonable orders for the adoption, installation, use, maintenance and operation of safety devices, safeguards and other means or methods of protection, to be as nearly uniform as possible, as may be necessary to carry out all laws and lawful orders relative to the protection of the life and safety of employees in employments and places of employment.

standards of safety.

(3) To fix and order such reasonable standards for the construction, repair and maintenance of places of employment as shall render them safe.

standards of construction.

(4) To require the performance of any other act which the protection of the life and safety of employees in employments and places of employment may demand.

protection of life.

(5) To declare and prescribe the general form of industrial accidents reports, the accidents to be reported and the information to be furnished in connection therewith, and the time within which such reports shall be filed. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent the commission from requiring supplemental accident reports.

forms of accidents reports.

SEC. 58. Upon the fixing of a time and place for the holding of a hearing for the purpose of considering and issuing a general safety order or orders as authorized by section fifty-seven hereof, the commission shall cause a notice of such hearing to be published in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation published and circulated in the city and county of San Francisco, and also in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation published and circulated in the county of Publication of hearing on general safety orders.

Los Angeles, such newspapers to be designated by the commission for that purpose. No defect or inaccuracy in such notice or in the publication thereof shall invalidate any general order issued by the commission after hearing had.

May order places, etc, made safe.

SEC. 59. Whenever the commission, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, shall find that any employment or place of employment is not safe or that the practices or means or methods or operations or processes employed or used in connection therewith are unsafe, or do not afford adequate protection to the life and safety of employees in such employments and places of employment, the commission shall make and enter and serve such order relative thereto as may be necessary to render such employment or place of employment safe and protect the life and safety of employees in such employments and places of employment and may in said order direct that such additions, repairs, improvements or changes be made and such safety devices and safeguards be furnished, provided and used, as are reasonably required to render such employment or place of employment safe, in the manner and within the time specified in said order.

Time for complying with order

SEC. 60. The commission may, upon application of any employer, or other person affected thereby, grant such time as may reasonably be necessary for compliance with any order, and any person affected by such order may petition the commission for an extension of time, which the commission shall grant if it finds such an extension of time necessary.

May investigate unsafe places.

SEC. 61. Whenever the commission shall learn or have reason to believe that any employment or place of employment is not safe or is injurious to the welfare of any employee it may, of its own motion, or upon complaint, summarily investigate the same, with or without notice or hearings, and after a hearing upon such notice as it may prescribe, the commission may enter and serve such order as may be necessary relative thereto, anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duty of employer, etc, to comply with orders

SEC. 62. Every employer, employee and other person shall obey and comply with each and every requirement of every order, decision, direction, rule or regulation made or prescribed by the commission in connection with the matters herein specified, or in any way relating to or affecting safety of employments or places of employment, or to protect the life and safety of employees in such employments or places of employment, and shall do everything necessary or proper in order to secure compliance with and observance of every such order, decision, direction, rule or regulation.

Review of orders by court.

SEC. 63. The orders of the commission, general or special, its rules or regulations, findings and decisions, made and entered under the safety provisions of this act, may be reviewed by the courts specified in sections eighty-four and eighty-five of this act and within the time and in the manner therein specified and not otherwise.

SEC. 64. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to deprive the board of supervisors of any county, or city and county, the board of trustees of any city, or any other public corporation or board or department, of any power or jurisdiction over or relative to any place of employment; provided, that whenever the commission shall, by order, fix a standard of safety for employments or places of employment, such order shall, upon the filing by the commission of a copy thereof with the clerk of the county, city and county, or city to which it may apply, establish a minimum requirement concerning the matters covered by such order and shall be construed in connection with any local order relative to the same matter and to amend or modify any requirement in such local order not up to the standard of the order of the commission.

County and city authorities not deprived of power.

SEC. 65. The commission shall have further power and authority:

(1) To establish and maintain museums of safety and hygiene in which shall be exhibited safety devices, safeguards and other means and methods for the protection of the life and safety of employees, and to publish and distribute bulletins on any phase of this general subject.

Museums of safety.

(2) To cause lectures to be delivered, illustrated by stereopticon or other views, diagrams or pictures, for the information of employers and their employees and the general public in regard to the causes and prevention of industrial accidents, occupational diseases and related subjects.

Lectures on accidents.

(3) To appoint advisers who shall, without compensation assist the commission in establishing standards of safety and the commission may adopt and incorporate in its general orders such safety recommendations as it may receive from such advisers.

Advisers on standards of safety.

SEC. 66. Every order of the commission, general or special, its rules and regulations, findings and decisions, made and entered under the safety provisions of this act shall be admissible as evidence in any prosecution for the violation of any of the said provisions and shall, in every such prosecution, be conclusively presumed to be reasonable and lawful and to fix a reasonable and proper standard and requirement of safety, unless, prior to the institution of the prosecution for such violation or violations, proceedings for a rehearing thereon or a review thereof shall have been instituted as provided in sections eighty-one to eighty-five, inclusive, of this act and not then finally determined.

Orders, etc., as evidence.

SEC. 67. Every employer, employee or other person who, either individually or acting as an officer, agent or employee of a corporation or other person, violates any safety provision contained in sections fifty-two, fifty-three, fifty-four or fifty-five of this act, or any part of any such provision, or who shall fail or refuse to comply with any such provision or any part thereof, or who, directly or indirectly, knowingly induces another so to do is guilty of a misdemeanor. In any prosecution under this section it shall be deemed prima facie evidence of a violation of any such safety provision, that the accused has failed or refused to comply with any order, rule, regulation or requirement of the commission relative thereto and the burden of proof shall thereupon rest upon the accused to show that he has complied with such safety provision.

Penalty for not complying with orders.

Separate offenses.

SEC. 68. Every violation of the provisions contained in sections fifty-two, fifty-three, fifty-four, or fifty-five, of this act, or any part or portion thereof, by any person or corporation is a separate and distinct offense, and, in the case of a continuing violation thereof, each day's continuance thereof shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

Fines paid into fund.

SEC. 69. All fines imposed and collected under prosecutions for violations of the provisions of sections fifty-one to seventy-two inclusive of this act, shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the "accident prevention fund," which fund is hereby created.

May not divulge confidential information.

SEC. 70. It shall be unlawful for any member of the commission, or for any officer or employee of the commission, to divulge to any person not connected with the administration of this act any confidential information obtained from any person, concerning the failure of any other person to keep any place of employment safe, or concerning the violation of any order, rule or regulation issued by the commission. Any member of the commission or any officer or employee of the commission divulging such confidential information shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Employers' reports of accidents to employees.

SEC. 71. (a) Every employer of labor, and every insurance carrier, is hereby required to file with the commission, under such rules and regulations as the commission may from time to time make, a full and complete report of every accident to an employee arising out of or in the course of his employment and resulting in loss of life or injury to such person. Such reports shall be furnished to the commission in such form and such detail as the commission shall from time to time prescribe, and shall make specific answers to all questions required by the commission under its rules and regulations. Any such employer or insurance carrier who shall furnish such report shall be exempt from furnishing any similar report or reports authorized or required under the laws of this state.

Answers to questions of commission.

(b) Every employer or insurance carrier receiving from the commission any blanks with directions to fill out the same shall cause the same to be properly filled out so as to answer fully and correctly each question propounded therein; in case he is unable to answer any such questions a good and sufficient reason shall be given for such failure.

Information not open to public.

(c) No information furnished to the commission by an employer or an insurance carrier shall be open to public inspection or made public except on order of the commission, or by the commission or a commissioner in the course of a hearing or proceeding. Any officer or employee of the commission who, in violation of the provisions of this subsection, divulges any information shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 72. (a) The commission shall investigate the cause of all industrial accidents occurring within the state in any employment or place of employment, or directly or indirectly arising from or connected with the maintenance or operation of such employment or place of employment, resulting in personal injury or death and requiring, in the judgment of the commission, such investigation; and the commission shall have the power to make such orders or recommendations with respect to such accidents as may be just and reasonable, provided that neither the order nor the recommendation of the commission, nor any accident report filed with the commission, shall be admitted as evidence in any action for damages or any proceeding to recover compensation, based on or arising out of such injury or death.

Commission to investigate all industrial accidents.

(b) For the purpose of making any investigation which the commission is authorized to make under the provisions of this section, or for the purpose of collecting statistics or examining the provisions made for the safety of employees, any member of the commission, inspector or other person designated by the commission for that purpose, may enter any place of employment.

May enter places of employment.

(c) Any employer, insurance carrier or any other person who shall violate or omit to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or who shall in any way obstruct or hamper the commission, any commissioner or other person conducting any investigation authorized to be undertaken or made by the commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Penalty for obstructing investigation.

SEC. 73. (a) All proceedings for the recovery of compensation, or concerning any right or liability arising out of or incidental thereto, or for the enforcement against the employer or an insurance carrier of any liability for compensation imposed upon him by this act in favor of the injured employee, his dependents or any third person, or for the determination of any question as to the distribution of compensation among dependents or other persons or for the determination of any question as to who are dependents of any deceased employee, or what persons are entitled to any benefit under the compensation provisions of this act, or for obtaining any order which by this act the commission is authorized to make, shall be instituted before the commission, and not elsewhere, except as otherwise in this act provided, and the commission is hereby vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction to try and finally determine all such matters, subject only to the review by the courts in this act specified and in the manner and within the time in this act provided.

Proceedings before commission.

(b) All orders, rules and regulations, findings, decisions and awards of the commission in conformity with law shall be in force and shall be prima facie lawful; and all such orders, rules and regulations, findings, decisions and awards shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable and lawful, until and unless they are modified or set aside by the commission or upon a review by the courts in this act specified and within the time and in the manner herein specified.

Orders law full.

Service of notice.

SEC. 74. (a) Any notice, order or decision required by this act to be served upon any person or party either before, during or after the institution of any proceeding before the commission, may be served in the manner provided by chapter V, title XIV of part II of the Code of Civil Procedure of this state, unless otherwise directed by the commission or a member thereof, in which event the same shall be served in accordance with the order or direction of said commission or member thereof.

Secretary and inspectors have powers of peace
officers.

(b) The secretary, assistant secretary and the inspectors appointed by the commission shall have all of the powers conferred by law upon peace officers to carry weapons, make arrests and serve warrants and other process in any county or city and county of this state.

Notices
state, etc.

(c) Any such notice, order or decision affecting the state or any city and county, city, school district or public corporation therein, shall be served upon the same officer, officers, person or persons, upon whom the service of similar notices, orders or decisions is authorized by law.

SEC. 75. The commission shall have full power and authority:

Rules of practice.

(1) To adopt reasonable and proper rules of practice and procedure;

Appearance of minors.

(2) To regulate and provide the manner, and by whom, minors and incompetent persons shall appear and be represented before it;

Guardian
ad litem.

(3) To appoint a trustee or guardian ad litem to appear for and represent any such minor or incompetent upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper; and such guardian or trustee must give a bond in the same form and of the same character required by law from a guardian appointed by the courts and in such an amount as the commission or a commissioner may fix and determine, such bond to be approved by the commission or a commissioner, and such guardian or trustee shall not be discharged from liability until he shall have filed an account with the commission or with the probate court and such account shall have been approved. The trustee or guardian shall be entitled to receive such compensation for his services as shall be fixed and allowed by the commission or by the probate court;

Joinder of
persons.

(4) To provide for the joinder in the same proceeding of all persons interested therein, whether as employer, insurance carrier, employee, dependent, creditor or otherwise;

Notices.

(5) To regulate and prescribe the kind and character of notices, where not otherwise prescribed by this act, and the service thereof;

Evidence.

(6) To regulate and prescribe the nature and extent of the proofs and evidence.

Reference of cases.

SEC. 76. (a) The commission may by order entered upon its minutes, upon the agreement of the parties, upon the application of either, or of its own motion, and either with or without notice, direct and order a reference in the following cases:

(1) To try any or all of the issues in any proceeding before it, whether of fact or of law, and to report a finding, order, decision or award to be based thereon.

(2) To ascertain a fact necessary to enable the commission to determine any proceeding before it or to make any order, decision or award that the commission is authorized to make under this act, or that is necessary for the information of the commission.

(b) The commission may appoint one or more referees in any proceeding, as it may deem necessary or advisable, and may refer separate matters arising out of the same proceeding to different referees. It may also, in its discretion, appoint general referees who are residents of the county or city and county for which they are appointed and who shall hold office during the pleasure of the commission. Any referee appointed by the commission shall have such powers, jurisdiction and authority as is granted under the law, by the order of appointment and by the rules of the commission and shall receive such salary or compensation for his services as may be fixed by the commission. Referees.

(c) Any party to the proceeding may object to the appointment of any person as referee upon any one or more of the grounds specified in section 641 of the Code of Civil Procedure and such objection must be heard and disposed of by the commission. Affidavits may be read and witnesses examined as to such objections. Objection to referee.

(d) Before entering upon his duties, the referee must be sworn before an officer authorized to administer oaths, faithfully and fairly to hear and determine the allegations and evidence of the parties in relation to the matters in the reference, and to make just findings and report according to his understanding. Oath of referee.

(e) The referee must report his findings in writing to the commission within twenty days after the testimony is closed. Such report shall be made in the form prescribed by the commission and shall include all matters required to be included in the order of reference or by the rules of the commission. The facts found and conclusions of law must be separately stated. Referee's findings.

(f) Upon the filing of the report of the referee, the commission may confirm, adopt, modify or set aside the same or any part thereof and may, either with or without further proceedings, and either with or without notice, enter its order, findings, decision or award based in whole or in part upon the report of the referee. Action on report.

Sec. 77. (a) All hearings and investigations before the commission or any member thereof, or any referee appointed thereby, shall be governed by this act and by the rules of practice and procedure adopted by the commission, and in the conduct thereof neither the commission nor any member thereof nor any referee appointed thereby shall be bound by the technical rules of evidence. No informality in any proceeding or in the manner of taking testimony shall invalidate any order, Rules of procedure and of evidence.

decision, award, rule or regulation made, approved or confirmed by the commission.

Deposition of witnesses.

(b) The commission or any member thereof or any party to the action or proceeding may, in any investigation or hearing before the commission, cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior courts of this state, and to that end may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, documents, papers and accounts.

Power to administer oaths.
Issue sub-pœnas,
etc.

SEC. 78. The commission and each member thereof, its secretary and referees, shall have power to administer oaths, certify to all official acts, and to issue subpœnas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents and testimony in any inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding in any part of the state. Each witness who shall appear, by order of the commission or a member thereof, or a referee appointed thereby, shall be entitled to receive, if demanded, for his attendance the same fees and mileage allowed by law to a witness in civil cases, which amount shall be paid by the party at whose request such witness is subpoenaed, unless otherwise ordered by the commission. When any witness who has not been required to attend at the request of any party is subpoenaed by the commission his fees and mileage may be paid from the funds appropriated for the use of the commission in the same manner as other expenses of the commission are paid. Any witness subpoenaed, except one whose fees and mileage may be paid from the funds of the commission, may, at the time of service, demand the fee to which he is entitled for travel to and from the place at which he is required to appear, and one day's attendance. If such witness demands such fees at the time of service, and they are not at that time paid or tendered, he shall not be required to attend before the commission, member thereof, or referee as directed in the subpoena. All fees or mileage to which any witness is entitled under the provisions of this section may be collected by action therefor instituted by the person to whom such fees are payable.

Fees and mileage of witnesses.

Superior court may compel witnesses to attend.

SEC. 79. The superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which any inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding may be held by the commission or any member thereof or referee appointed thereby, shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, the giving of testimony and the production of papers, including books, accounts and documents, as required by any subpoena issued by the commission or member thereof or referee. The commission or the member thereof or the referee before whom the testimony is to be given or produced, in case of the refusal of any witness to attend or testify or produce any papers required by such subpoena, may report to the superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which the proceeding is pending, by petition, setting forth that due notice has been given of the time and place of attendance of said witness, or the production of said papers, and that the witness has been subpoenaed in the manner prescribed in this act, and that the witness has failed and refused to attend or produce the papers required by the subpoena, or has refused to answer questions propounded to him in the course of such proceeding, and ask an order of said court, compelling the witness to attend and testify or produce said papers before the commission. The court, upon the petition of the commission or such member thereof or referee, shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed by the court in such order, the time to be not more than ten days from the date of the order, and then and there show cause why he had not attended and testified or produced said papers before the commission, member thereof or referee. A copy of said order shall be served upon said witness. If it shall appear to the court that said subpoena was regularly issued by the commission or member thereof or referee, the court shall thereupon enter an order that said witness appear before the commission or member thereof or referee at a time and place to be fixed in such order, and testify or produce the required papers, and upon failure to obey said order, said witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court. The remedy provided in this section is cumulative, and shall not be construed to impair or interfere with the power of the commission or a member thereof to enforce the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, and to punish for contempt in the same manner and to the same extent as courts of record.

Order to attend.

Remedy cumulative.

SEC. 80. (a) The commission is hereby vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction to do and perform any and all things, whether herein specifically designated, or in addition thereto, which are necessary or convenient in the exercise of any power, authority or jurisdiction conferred upon it under this act.

Power to do all things necessary.

(b) The commission and each member thereof shall have power to issue writs of summons, warrants of attachment, warrants of commitment and all necessary process in proceedings for contempt, in like manner and to the same extent as courts of record. The process issued by the commission or any member thereof shall extend to all parts of the state and may be served by any persons authorized to serve process of courts of record, or by any person designated for that purpose by the commission or any member thereof. The person executing any such process shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the commission, not to exceed the fees now prescribed by law for similar services, and such fees shall be paid in the same manner as provided herein for the fees of witnesses.

May issue all necessary process.

SEC. 81. (a) Any party or person aggrieved directly or indirectly by any final order, decision, award, rule or regulation of the commission, made or entered under any provision Application for rehearing.

contained in this act. may apply to the commission for a rehearing in respect to any matters determined or covered by such final order, decision, award, rule or regulation and specified in the application for rehearing within the time and in the manner hereinafter specified, and not otherwise.

When cause of action accrued in court.

(b) No cause of action arising out of any such final order, decision or award shall accrue in any court to any person until and unless such person shall have made application for such rehearing, and such application shall have been granted or denied; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the enforcement of any such final order, decision, award, rule or regulation in the manner provided in this act.

Matter contained in application.

(c) Such application shall set forth specifically and in full detail the grounds upon which the applicant considers said final order, decision, award, rule or regulation is unjust or unlawful, and every issue to be considered by the commission. Such application must be verified upon oath in the same manner as required for verified pleadings in the courts of record and must contain a general statement of any evidence or other matters upon which the applicant relies in support thereof. The applicant for such rehearing shall be deemed to have finally waived all objections, irregularities and illegalities concerning the matter upon which such rehearing is sought other than those set forth in the application for such rehearing.

Service
on adverse parties.

(d) A copy of such application for rehearing shall be served forthwith on all adverse parties, if any, and any such adverse party may file an answer thereto within ten days thereafter. Such answer must likewise be verified. If there are no adverse parties, such application may be heard ex parte or the commission may require the application for rehearing to be served on such parties as may be designated by it.

Action on application.

(e) Upon filing of an application for a rehearing, if the issues raised thereby have theretofore been adequately considered by the commission, it may determine the same by confirming without hearing its previous determination, or if a rehearing is necessary to determine the issues raised, the commission shall order a rehearing thereon and consider and determine the matter or matters raised by such application. Notice of the time and place of such rehearing shall be given to the applicant and the adverse parties, if any, and to such other persons as the commission may order.

Commission may modify original order.

(f) If after such rehearing and a consideration of all the facts, including those arising since the making of the order, decision or award involved, the commission shall be of the opinion that the original order, decision or award or any part thereof, is in any respect unjust or unwarranted, or should be changed, the commission may abrogate, change or modify the same. An order, decision or award made after such rehearing, abrogating, changing or modifying the original order, decision or award shall have the same force and effect as an original order, decision or award, but shall not affect any right or the enforcement of any right arising from or by virtue of the original order, decision or award, unless so ordered by the commission. An application for a rehearing shall be deemed to have been denied by the commission unless it shall have been acted upon within thirty days from the date of filing; provided, however, that the commission may upon good cause being shown therefor, extend the time within which it may act upon such application for rehearing for not exceeding thirty days.

Application deemed denied.

SEC. 82. (a) At any time within twenty days after the service of any final order or decision of the commission awarding or denying compensation, or arising out of or incidental thereto, any party or parties aggrieved thereby may apply for such rehearing upon one or more of the following grounds and upon no other grounds:

Time and grounds for rehearing on award.

(1) That the commission acted without or in excess of its powers.

(2) That the order, decision or award was procured by fraud.

(3) That the evidence does not justify the finding of fact.

(4) That the applicant has discovered new evidence, material to him, and which he could not, with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the hearing.

(5) That the findings of fact do not support the order, decision or award.

(b) Nothing contained in this section shall, however, be construed to limit the right of the commission, at any time within two hundred forty-five weeks from the date of its award, and from time to time, after due notice and upon the application of any party interested, to review, diminish or increase, within the limits provided by this act, any compensation awarded upon the grounds that the disability of the person in whose favor such award was made has either increased or diminished or terminated.

Not limitation on commission.

SEC. 83. (a) At any time within twenty days after the service of any other final order, decision, rule or regulation made by the commission under the provisions of this act, any party or parties, person or persons aggrieved thereby or otherwise affected, directly or indirectly, may apply for such rehearing upon one or more of the following grounds and upon no other grounds:

Time and grounds for rehearing on other order, etc.

(1) That the commission acted without or in excess of its powers.

(2) That the order or decision was procured by fraud.

(3) That the order, decision, rule or regulation is unreasonable.

(b) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the right of the commission, at any time and from time to time, to adopt new or different rules or regulations or new or different standards of safety, or to abrogate, change or modify any existing rule, regulation, or standard, or any part thereof, or to deprive the commission of continuing jurisdiction over the same or to prevent the enforcement in the manner provided by this act, of any rules, regulations or standard of the commission, or any part thereof, when so adopted, or changed, or modified.

No limitation on commission.

Appeal to supreme court.

SEC. 84. (a) Within thirty days after the application for a rehearing is denied, or, if the application is granted, within thirty days after the rendition of the decision on the rehearing, any party affected thereby may apply to the supreme court of this state or to the district court of appeal of the appellate district in which such person resides, for a writ of certiorari or review (hereinafter referred to as a writ of review) for the purpose of having the lawfulness of the original order, decision or award or the order, decision or award on rehearing inquired into and determined.

Return of writ.

(b) Such writ shall be made returnable not later than thirty days after the date of the issuance thereof, and shall direct the commission to certify its record in the case to the court. On the return day the cause shall be heard in the court unless for good cause the same be continued. No new or additional evidence may be introduced in such court but the cause shall be heard on the record to the commission as certified to by it. The review shall not be extended further than to determine whether or not:

- (1) The commission acted without or in excess of its powers.
- (2) The order, decision or award was procured by fraud.
- (3) The order, decision, rule or regulation is unreasonable.
- (4) If findings of fact are made, whether or not such findings of fact support the order, decision or award under review.

Findings of fact conclusive.

(c) The findings and conclusions of the commission on questions of fact shall be conclusive and final and shall not be subject to review; such questions of fact shall include ultimate facts and the findings and conclusions of the commission. The commission and each party to the action or proceeding before the commission shall have the right to appear in the review proceeding. Upon the hearing the court shall enter judgment either affirming, modifying or setting aside the order, decision or award.

C. C. P. inapplicable.

(d) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure of this state relating to writs of review shall, so far as applicable and not in conflict with this act, apply to proceedings in the courts under the provisions of this section. No court of this state (except the supreme court and the district courts of appeal to the extent herein specified) shall have jurisdiction to review, reverse, correct or annul any order, decision or award of the commission or to suspend or delay the operation or execution thereof, or to restrain, enjoin or interfere with the commission in the performance of its duties; provided, that a writ of mandamus shall lie from the supreme court or the district courts of appeal in all proper cases.

SEC. 85. (a) The filing of an application for a rehearing shall have the effect of suspending the order, decision, award, rule or regulation affected, in so far as the same applies to the parties to such application, unless otherwise ordered by the commission, for a period of ten days, and the commission may, in its discretion and upon such terms and conditions as it may by order direct, stay, suspend or postpone the same during the pendency of such rehearing.

Suspension of order during rehearing.

(b) The filing of an application for, or the pendency of, a writ of review, shall not of itself stay or suspend the operation of the order, decision, award, rule or regulation of the commission subject to review, but the court before which such application is filed may, in its discretion, stay or suspend in whole or in part the operation of the order, decision, award, rule or regulation of the commission subject to review upon such terms and conditions as it may by order direct.

Court may stay order.

SEC. 86. (a) Whenever this act, or any part or section thereof, is interpreted by a court, it shall be liberally construed by such court.

Act liberally construed.

(b) If any section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, subdivisions, sentences, clauses or phrases is declared unconstitutional.

If section be declared unconstitutional.

(c) This act shall not be construed to apply to employers or employments which, according to law, are so engaged in interstate commerce as not to be subject to the legislative power of the state or to employees injured while they are so engaged, except in so far as this act may be permitted to apply under the provisions of the constitution of the United States or the acts of congress.

Not applicable to interstate commerce.

SEC. 87. (a) Any employer, having in his employment any employee not included within the term "employee" as defined by section fourteen of this act or not entitled to compensation under this act, and any such employee, may, by their joint election, elect to come under the compensation provisions of this act in the manner hereinafter provided.

Election to come under act.

(b) Such election on the part of the employer shall be made by filing with the commission a written statement to the effect that he accepts the compensation provisions of this act, which, when filed, shall operate, within the meaning of section twelve of this act, to subject him to the compensation provisions of this act, and of all acts amendatory thereof, for the term of one year from the date of filing, and thereafter without further act on his part, for successive terms of one year each, unless such employer shall, at least sixty days prior to the expiration of such first or any succeeding year, file in the office of the commission a notice in writing that he withdraws his election.

Notice by employer.

Such acceptance shall not be held to include employees whose employment is both casual and not in the usual course of the trade, business, profession or occupation of the employer, unless expressly mentioned therein.

When employee is deemed subject to compensation provisions.

(c) Any employee in the service of any such employer, shall be deemed to have accepted, and shall, within the meaning of section twelve of this act, be subject to the compensation provisions of this act, and of any act amendatory thereof, if, at the time of the accident for which liability is claimed:

(1) The employer charged with such liability is subject to the compensation provisions of this act, whether the employee has actual notice thereof or not; and

(2) Such employee shall not, at the time of entering into his contract of hire, have given to his employer notice in writing that he elects not to be subject to the compensation provisions of this act; or, in the event that such contract of hire was made in advance of the election by the employer, such employee shall have given to his employer notice in writing that he elects to be subject to such provisions, or without giving either of such notices, shall have remained in the service of such employer for thirty days after the employer has filed his election.

Annual report to governor.

SEC. 88. The commission shall, not later than the first day of December of each calendar year, subsequent to the year 1913, make a report to the governor of the state covering its entire operations and proceedings for the previous fiscal year, with such suggestions or recommendations as it may deem of value for public information. Such report shall be printed and a copy thereof furnished to all applicants within this state.

Appropriation.

SEC. 89. The sum of one hundred eighty-seven thousand four hundred seventy dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to be used by the industrial accident commission in carrying out the purposes of this act, and the controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant on the general fund from time to time in favor of said industrial accident commission for the amounts expended under its direction, and the treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same.

SEC. 90. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Prior injury.

SEC. 91. The compensation provisions of this act shall not apply to any injury sustained prior to the taking effect thereof.

In effect.

SEC. 92. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after the first day of January, A. D. 1914.

CHAPTER 177.

An act providing for the organization and management of mutual workmen's compensation insurance companies and defining the same and regulating the transaction of the business of mutual workmen's compensation insurance in the State of California.

[Approved May 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The term "compensation" as used in this act shall mean and include any liability imposed upon any or all employers of labor to compensate their employees and the dependents of such employees for any injury sustained by the said employees by accident arising out of and in the course of their employment irrespective of the fault of either party. The term "employer" as used in this act shall be construed to mean: Every person, firm, voluntary association and private corporation, (including any public service corporation) who has any person in service under any appointment or contract of hire or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, and the legal representatives of any deceased employer. The term "employee" as used in this act shall be construed to mean: Every person in the service of an employer as defined by this act under any appointment or contract of hire or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, including aliens and also including minors.

SEC. 2 (a) Mutual associations of any number of employers, not less than five, may, subject to the approval of the insurance commissioner, be formed by incorporating under the laws of this state, for the purpose of insuring their members against liability for compensation and insuring to the employees of such members the payment of such compensation.

(b) It shall be within the power of the insurance commissioner to limit the membership of any such mutual association to those employers engaged in the same general character of industry or to employers within a limited part of the state, whenever in his judgment such limitation shall be required for the protection of the members of such association or persons insured.

SEC. 3. Before the articles of incorporation shall be filed, a copy thereof shall be submitted for the approval of the insurance commissioner. Such articles shall set forth:

First—The names of the employers entering into such association, their places of residence, the nature of the business in which they are engaged and the number of persons employed by each.

Second—The name by which such association shall be known, which name shall include the word "mutual," and, if the liability of members is limited, the words "limited mutual."

Third—The period for which such association is incorporated, which shall not exceed fifty years.

Fourth—The number of directors, which shall not be less than five (5) nor more than eleven (11), and the names and residences of the directors for the first year.

Fifth—The location of the principal place of business, which shall be in this state.

Such articles must be executed, acknowledged, and filed as provided by law for the formation of other corporations.

By-laws.

SEC. 4. The members of any company organized under this act shall have power to make such by-laws, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, as may be deemed necessary for the government of its officers and members, for the admission of new members, for the assessment and collection of premiums and assessments and in general for the proper conduct of its affairs. Such by-laws shall not be effective until a copy thereof has been filed with the insurance commissioner and approved by him.

Employer's liability.

SEC. 5. Every employer accepting a policy in any company organized under this act shall thereby become a member of such company and shall become liable for his proportionate share of losses and operating expenses as hereinafter provided.

When policies
issued.

SEC. 6. No policy shall be issued by any company organized under this act until subscriptions for insurance have been received from at least one hundred employers having an annual pay roll of at least $500,000.00 or having in their employment at least one thousand employees, nor until an amount in cash shall be in hand over and above all liabilities other than the unearned premium reserve of not less than fifteen thousand dollars and in any event not less than one full annual premium upon each risk. If at any time the number of employers insured shall fall below one hundred or if the annual pay roll of said employers shall fall below $500,000.00 and the number of their said employees shall fall below one thousand then no further policies shall be issued until subscriptions have been received sufficient to comply with the requirements of this section.

Premiums

SEC. 7. No single risk shall be insured by any company organized under this act upon which the premium charged is more than two per cent of the premiums charged upon all the policies that the company has in force.

Established rate

SEC. 8. After a compensation insurance rate shall have been established by the state workmen's compensation insurance rating bureau no mutual company organized under this act shall charge a lesser rate upon any risk than the gross bureau rates applicable thereto.

Members' liability for excess loss.

SEC. 9. Every company organized under this act shall in its by-laws and policies fix the contingent mutual liability of its members for the payment of losses in excess of its available cash funds; but such contingent liability shall not be less than an amount equal to one annual premium in addition to the annual premium charged.

SEC. 10. Every company organized under this act shall be subject to all the general provisions of the law relative to other insurance companies and also to the general provisions of law applicable to all other corporations in so far as such provisions are not inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this act. Companies subject to law

SEC. 11. If any company organized under this act is not possessed of cash funds above its unearned premium reserve and claims reserve and other liabilities sufficient for the payment of incurred losses and expenses it shall make an assessment for the amount needed to pay such losses and expenses upon its members liable to assessment therefor in proportion to their several liabilities. The company shall cause to be recorded in a book kept for that purpose the order for such assessment and the amount of the assessment called for, together with a statement setting forth the condition of the company at the date of the order, the amount of its cash assets and contingent funds. Such record shall be made and signed by the directors or other persons who voted for the order and approved by the insurance commissioner before any part of the assessment is collected and any person liable to assessment may inspect and take a copy of the same. Assessment to pay losses.

SEC. 12. The directors of every such mutual company shall each year set aside as a surplus an amount equal to at least twenty-five per cent of all available profits until such surplus shall be an amount not less than the amount of all premiums charged upon all insurance in force after deducting therefrom the amount of premiums charged for any risks which have been reinsured in other insurance carriers. After setting aside the amount of profits required to be set aside by this section as a surplus fund, the directors of every such mutual association, at such times as their by-laws provide, must make, declare and pay to their members dividends of so much of the additional available profits accrued from the business of the association and interest on moneys invested as to them appears advisable; provided, however, that no such dividend shall be declared or paid unless there is then on hand a surplus of not less than $15,000 and equal to at least twenty-five per cent of all premiums charged upon all insurance in force after deducting therefrom the amount of premiums charged for any risks which may have been reinsured in other insurance carriers. Surplus fund.

SEC. 13. No assessment shall be levied and no dividend shall be declared until such assessment or such dividend has been approved by the insurance commissioner. Dividends.

SEC. 14. The funds of any company organized under this act shall be invested in the manner allowed for the investment of the funds of other insurance companies. Approval of insurance commissioner

SEC. 15. The expenses for any calendar year of any company organized under this act, including commissions and fees Investment of funds.

Limitation of expenses.

to agents and officers, but not including expenses incurred for the prevention of injuries, shall be limited to thirty per cent of the gross premiums actually received during that year. A violation of this provision shall render the officers and directors and all persons having similar powers jointly and severally liable to such company for any amount used for expenses in excess of the amount provided for in this section. In the event that such company fails or refuses to recover such moneys so paid the insurance commissioner may sue for and recover the same from any one or all of the officers or directors and all persons having similar powers of such company for the benefit of its members. No officer or other person, whose duty it is to determine the character of the risks, and to decide what applications shall be accepted and what applications shall be rejected by such company, shall receive as any part of his compensation a commission upon the premiums, but his compensation shall be a fixed salary and such share of the net profits as the directors or trustees may determine.

When insolvent.

SEC. 16. Whenever the liabilities of any company organized under this act for losses reported, expenses, taxes, unearned premium reserve and claims reserve are greater than its admitted cash assets then such company is insolvent.

Annual statement.

SEC. 17. Every company organized under this act shall file with the insurance commissioner on or before the first day of March of each year, its financial statement exhibiting its condition on the thirty-first day of December next preceding. Such statement shall be made as provided for in the blanks furnished by the insurance department.

Rules for prevention of injury.

SEC. 18. The directors of any company organized under this act shall make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations for the prevention of injuries on the premises of members and for this purpose the inspectors of the company shall have free access to all such premises during regular working hours. Any employer or employee aggrieved by any such rule or regulation may petition the industrial accident commission for a review, and it may affirm, amend or annul the rule or regulation.

Wages accounts.

SEC. 19. Auditors, inspectors and other agents of the company shall have free access to the wages accounts and pay rolls of members for the purpose of verifying pay rolls.

Notice of withdrawal.

SEC. 20. Any member of any company organized under this act may withdraw at any time by giving thirty days written notice of his intention to withdraw and surrendering his policy; provided, however, that he shall discharge all his obligations to the company at the time of his withdrawal. The termination of such insurance shall not act to release the member withdrawing from liability for the payment of his assigned share of all assessments then or thereafter made to make up deficiencies due to accidents happening while he was insured in such company. The premium for such surrendered policy shall be returned to the member withdrawing less the customary short term premium for a time during which the policy was in force. The company shall have power to cancel or determine any policy by giving the insured five days' written notice to that effect and returning to the insured his pro rata part of the premium.

SEC. 21. Any company organized under this act shall have power to amend its articles of association and by-laws at its regular annual meeting or at special meetings called and held as provided in its by-laws, but said amendments shall, before they become operative, be approved and filed in the same manner as the original articles and by-laws. Amendment of by-laws.

SEC. 22. Any company organized under this act shall have power to own, hold and acquire such real and personal property as shall be necessary for the transaction of its business. May own property.

SEC. 23. Any company organized under this act may sue and be sued in any court of law or equity, with the same rights and obligations as a natural person, and in addition to the powers hereinbefore enumerated, shall possess and exercise all such rights and powers as are necessarily incidental to the exercise of the powers expressly granted herein. May sue.

SEC. 24. This act shall not apply to contracts made between persons, firms or corporations of this state, and others of this state and other states for the protection of their own property under the plan known as reciprocal insurance or interinsurance, nor to unincorporated inter-indemnity compacts. Not applicable to contracts.

CHAPTER 178.

An act appropriating moneys in the "accident prevention fund" for the purpose of enforcing and promoting safety in employment and places of employment.

[Approved May 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All moneys which are paid into the state treasury for the credit of the "accident prevention fund" are hereby appropriated to be used by the industrial accident commission for the enforcement of the laws relative to safety in employment and places of employment and for the promotion of such safety, and the controller is hereby directed to draw his warrants on said fund, from time to time, in favor of the industrial accident commission for the amounts expended under its direction for such purposes, and the treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same. "Accident prevention fund" for enforcing laws.

CHAPTER 179.

An act creating an "industrial accident fund" and appropriating moneys therein.

[Approved May 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

"Industrial accident fund"
created.

SECTION 1. There is hereby created and established a fund to be known as the "industrial accident fund" into which shall be paid all fees collected by the industrial accident commission and all moneys received by it for transcripts of testimony, certified copies of records and all other moneys received by it and not otherwise provided for, which said fund shall be a revolving fund.

SEC. 2. All moneys which are paid into the state treasury for the credit of said fund are hereby appropriated to be used by the industrial accident commission for its contingent expenses, and the controller is hereby directed to draw his warrants on said fund, from time to time, in favor of said commission for the amounts expended under its direction for such purposes, and the treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same.

CHAPTER 180.

An act appropriating moneys to the use of the state compensation insurance fund.

[Approved May 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Appropriation:
compensation insurance
fund.

SECTION 1. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be credited to the "state compensation insurance fund" and to be used by the industrial accident commission in the manner authorized by law for the use of said fund.

SEC. 2. The state controller and the state treasurer are hereby authorized and directed to transfer said sum of one hundred thousand dollars from the general fund of the state to the "state compensation insurance fund."

CHAPTER 181.

An act to amend section ten of an act entitled "An act providing for the laying out, constructing, straightening, improvement and repair of main public highways in any county, providing for the voting, issuing and selling of county bonds, and the acceptance of donations to pay for such work and improvements, providing for a highway commission to have charge of such work and improvements, and authorizing cities and towns to improve the portions of such highways within their corporate limits and to issue and sell bonds therefor," approved March 19, 1907, and amended March 6, 1909.

[Approved May 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10 of an act entitled "An act providing for the laying out, constructing, straightening, improvement and repair of main public highways in any county, providing for the voting, issuing and selling of county bonds, and the acceptance of donations to pay for such work and improvements, providing for a highway commission to have charge of such work and improvements and authorizing cities and towns to improve the portions of such highways within their corporate limits and to issue and sell bonds therefor," approved March 19, 1907, and amended March 6, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 10. All improvements constructed under this act shall be of a durable and lasting character; provided, that said commission shall have the power to determine how said highways shall be improved and constructed, and the character of the materials to be used in the improvements and construction thereof. If said commission shall determine that said highways, or any of them, shall be macadamized or paved, then the macadamized or paved portion of the roadbed constructed or any highway or portion thereof improved under this act shall not exceed sixteen feet in width, unless donations are made to the highway commission for that purpose, in which case such donations shall be used to defray the increased cost of constructing such macadamized or paved roadbed more than sixteen feet wide on any part of such highway specified by the donors, but no part of the proceeds of any bond issue shall be expended for such purpose, except to build shoulders or marginal protections to said highways where the same are macadamized or paved, and which shoulders or marginal protections thereto shall not exceed two feet in width on each side of said macadamized or paved highway. No railroad, electric railroad, or street railroad shall be constructed along or upon such highway, or any portion thereof, improved under the provisions of this act, except for crossings duly authorized by the board of supervisors or other legislative body having control thereof; nor shall any board of supervisors or other legislative body have power to grant any franchise for the construction of any railroad, electric railroad or street railroad along or upon any such highway or portion thereof, except for crossing; provided, that when any such highway or portion thereof shall, after the improvement of the same under the provisions of this act, be included within the boundaries of any incorporated city, city and county or town the foregoing provisions of this section shall not prohibit the granting of any such franchise by the proper municipal authorities along, upon or across any such highway, or portion thereof so included, within the boundaries of any such incorporated city, city and county, or town. Any such franchise shall be granted only upon the express condition that the grantee thereof will pay to the county for the benefit of the general fund thereof an amount equal to the cost of the improvement or construction of such portion of the roadbed or highway constructed or improved under the provisions of this act as shall be occupied by the track or tracks of such railroad, electric road or street railroad.

CHAPTER 182.

An act regulating the sanitation and ventilation in and at camps where five or more persons are employed; and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

[Approved May 29, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Camps to be kept clean.

SECTION 1. In or at any camp where five or more persons are employed, the bunkhouses, tents and other sleeping places of such employees shall be kept in a cleanly state, and free from vermin and matter of an infectious and contagious nature, and the grounds around such bunkhouses, tents or other sleeping places shall be kept clean and free from accumulations of dirt, filth, garbage and other deleterious matter.

Air space.

SEC. 2. Every bunkhouse, tent or other sleeping place used for the purpose of a lodging or sleeping apartment in such camp, shall contain sufficient air space to insure an adequate supply of fresh air for each person occupying such bunkhouse, tent or other sleeping place. The bunks or beds shall be made of iron, canvas or other sanitary material and shall be so constructed as to afford reasonable comfort to the persons occupying such bunks or beds.

Duty of employer.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of any person, firm, corporation, agent or officer of a firm or corporation employing persons to work in or at such camps and the superintendent or overseer in charge of the work in or at such camp to carry out the provisions of sections one and two of this act.

Power of state board of health.

SEC. 4. The state board of health shall have the right and power to condemn any camp coming under the provision of this act as dangerous to the public health.

Any person, firm, corporation, agent or officer of a firm or corporation, or any superintendent or overseer in charge of the work in or at any camp coming under the provisions of this act, who shall violate or fail to comply with the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Penalty.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the state board of health to enforce the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 183.

An act to legalize bonds to be issued and sold by municipalities where authority for such issuance has already been given by the vote of not less than two thirds of the electors of such municipalities voting upon the question of incurring such indebtedness.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all cases where the legislative branch of any municipality in the State of California organized under an act of the legislature of said state, entitled: "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved the 13th day of March, 1883, has deemed it necessary to incur an indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purpose for which such indebtedness is to be incurred and has called a special election of the qualified electors of such municipality to determine whether such indebtedness as specified in the resolution or ordinance calling such election, shall be incurred and where at such election not less than two thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, and such legislative branch of such municipality shall have passed an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness, and of paying the same, and the mode of creating such indebtedness has been by the proposed issuance of the bonds of such municipality, all the proceedings of such municipality leading up to and including the issuance and the proposed issuance of such bonds are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared valid to all intents and purposes. And all such bonds sold either before or after the passage of this act for not less than their par value are hereby legalized and declared to be legal and valid obligations of and against such municipality so issuing and selling the same; and the faith and credit of such municipality is hereby pledged for the prompt payment and redemption of the principal and Municipal bond issues legalized.

interest of such bonds; provided, that this act shall not operate to legalize any bonds of any municipality that have not at the time of the passage of this act been authorized by the votes of not less than two thirds of the qualified electors of such municipality, voting at any such election, or any bonds which have been sold for less than their par value.

CHAPTER 184.

An act to amend "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to provide for the burial of ex-union soldiers, sailors and marines in this state who may hereafter die without leaving sufficient means to defray burial expenses,' approved March 15, 1889, and to extend the operation of said act to all honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army and navy of the United States,' approved March 23, 1901, by extending the operation of said act to widows of all such honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army or navy of the United States,'" approved March 24, 1911, by amending section four thereof.

[Approved May 28, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four of an act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to provide for the burial of ex-union soldiers, sailors and marines in this state who may hereafter die without leaving sufficient means to defray burial expenses,' approved March 15, 1889, and to extend the operation of said act to all honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army and navy of the United States,' approved March 23, 1901, by extending the operation of said act to widows of all such honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army or navy of the United States,'" approved March 24, 1911, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the board of supervisors, upon receiving the report and statement of expenses provided for in this act, to transcribe in a book kept for that purpose, all the facts contained in such report respecting such deceased soldier, sailor, or marine, or the widow of such soldier, sailor or marine. It shall also be the duty of said clerk, upon the death and burial of any such soldier, sailor or marine, to make application to the proper authorities under the government of the United States, for a suitable headstone, as provided by act of congress, and to cause the same to be placed at the head of such soldier, sailor, or marine's grave, the expenses of which shall not exceed the sum of five dollars for cartage and properly setting each stone, and it shall be the duty of the board engaged in such underground mines for other purposes, or who are employed or engaged in any other underground workings whether for the purpose of tunneling, making excavations or to accomplish any other purpose or design, or who are employed in smelters and other institutions for the reduction or refining of ores or metals, shall not exceed eight hours within any twenty-four hours, and the hours of employment in such employment or work day shall be consecutive, excluding, however, any intermission of time for lunch or meals; provided, that, in case of emergency where life or property is in imminent danger, the period may be a longer time during the continuance of the exigency or emergency.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. Any person who shall violate any provision of this act, and any person who as foreman, manager, director or officer of a corporation, or as the employer or superior officer of any person, shall command, persuade or allow any person to violate any provision of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300.00), or by imprisonment of not more than three months. And the court shall have discretion to impose both fine and imprisonment as herein provided.

SEC. 3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 187.

An act to amend section three hundred thirty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the time of commencing certain actions.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred thirty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

339. Within two years:

Actions commenced within two years.

1. An action upon a contract, obligation or liability not founded upon an instrument of writing, other than that mentioned in subdivision two of section three hundred thirty-seven of this code; or an action founded upon an instrument or writing executed out of the state; or an action founded upon a contract, obligation or liability, evidenced by a certificate, or abstract or guarantee of title of real property, or by a policy of title insurance; provided, that the cause of action upon a contract, obligation or liability evidenced by a certificate, or abstract or guarantee of title of real property, or policy of title insurance shall not be deemed to have accrued until the discovery of the loss or damage suffered by the aggrieved party thereunder.

2. An action against a sheriff, coroner, or constable upon a liability incurred by the doing of an act in his official capacity and in virtue of his office, or by the omission of an official duty, including the non-payment of money collected upon an execution. But this subdivision does not apply to an action for an escape.

CHAPTER 188.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure to be numbered one thousand three hundred ten, relating to the probate of wills detained beyond the jurisdiction of the state.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure to be numbered one thousand three hundred ten to read as follows:

1310. If it is alleged in any petition that any will of any person who at the time of his death was a resident of this state is detained beyond the jurisdiction of the state, in a court of any other state or foreign country, and that such will cannot be produced for probate in this state, and the court is satisfied that the allegations are true, a copy of the will duly authenticated may be proved, allowed and admitted to probate in this state in lieu of the original will, and have the same force and effect as the original will. The same proof shall be required in order to admit the will to probate in this state as would be required under the provisions of this title if the original will were produced. The court may authorize a photographic copy of the will to be presented to the subscribing witness upon his examination in court, or by deposition as provided in section thirteen hundred and eight, and such witness may be asked the same questions with respect to it and the handwriting of himself, the testator, and the other witness, as would be pertinent and competent if the original will were present.

Probate of will detained outside state.

Photographic copy.

front of or adjoining the same, or constructs any areas, or vaults, or cellars, or rooms, under said sidewalks, or makes any improvements in connection therewith, has a lien upon said lot or tract of land for his work done and materials furnished; provided, that in cases where the improvement made or work done is subject to acceptance by any municipal board or officer, the time for filing claims of lien shall not commence to run until after such acceptance shall have been made.

CHAPTER 190.

An act to amend section 67a of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the number of superior court judges and providing for the appointment of six additional superior court judges in counties of the first class and providing for their compensation.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 67a of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Judges in counties of first class.

67a. In counties of the first class there shall be eighteen judges of the superior court, any one or more of whom may hold court, and there may be as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are judges thereof. The said judges shall choose from their own number a presiding judge, who may at any time be removed as presiding judge and another judge chosen in his place by a vote of any twelve of them. The presiding judge shall distribute the business of the court among the judges thereof, and prescribe the order of business and perform such other duties as the judges of the said court may by rule provide. The judgments, orders and proceedings of any session of the superior court held by any one or more of the judges of said court shall be equally as effective as if all the said judges of said court presided at such session.

Appointment of six additional.

Within thirty days after this act goes into effect, the governor shall appoint six additional judges of the superior court in counties of the first class in addition to the twelve superior court judges already provided by law in and for the said counties of the first class who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, 1915. At the next general election to be held in November, A. D. 1914, six additional judges of the superior court shall be elected in counties of the first class, who shall be successors of the judges appointed hereunder, to hold office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law. The salaries of said additional judges shall be the same in amount and be paid in the same manner and at the same time as the salaries of the other judges of the said counties of the first class now authorized by law.

CHAPTER 191.

An act to amend section twelve hundred eighteen of the Civil Code, relating to the recording of copies of the record of instruments affecting titles to real property and the effect of such recording.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1218 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1218. A certified copy of an instrument affecting the title to real property, once recorded, or a certified copy of the record of such instrument may be recorded in any other county, and, when so recorded, the record thereof has the same force and effect as though it was of the original instrument.

An act to amend section 16 of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, amended, approved April 21, 1911.

[Approved May 31, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16 of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, amended, approved, April 21, 1911, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

16. When any deposit with a bank shall be made by or in the name of any married woman or minor, the same shall be held for the exclusive right and benefit of such depositor, and free from the control or lien of all other persons, except creditors, and shall be paid, together with the dividends, if any, and interest, if any, thereon to the person in whose name deposits shall have been made, and the receipt or acquittance of such minor shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge for such deposit, or any part thereof, to the bank. When any deposit with a bank shall be made by any person in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given in writing to such bank, in the event of the death of the trustee, the same or any part thereof, together with the dividends or interest, if any, thereon, may be paid to the person for whom the deposit was made. When a deposit with a bank shall be made by any person in the names of such depositor and another person or persons, and in form to be paid to either or the survivor or survivors of them, such deposit thereupon,

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code of the State of California to be numbered section six hundred and thirty-four and one half, relating to the protection of fish.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California to be numbered section six hundred and thirty-four and one half and to read as follows:

634½. Every person who takes, catches, or kills any fish except with hook and line in the manner commonly known as angling within three miles of shore line of Santa Catalina island, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person found guilty of any of the provisions of this section must be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail of the county in which the conviction shall be had, not less than ten days nor more than one hundred and fifty days, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment; and all fines or forfeitures imposed and collected for any violation of any of the provisions of this section must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund. Nothing in this section prohibits the United States fish commission and the fish and game commission of this state from taking at all times such fish and in such manner as they deem necessary for purposes of propagation or for scientific purposes.

created.

District No. 10, from which point the quarter section corner between sections 30 and 31, township 17 north, range 4 east, Mount Diablo meridian, bears south 24 degrees 30 minutes east, distant 2363 feet, thence northerly to the outer or northern toe of the levee of said Protection District No. 10 where the same joins the embankment of said railroad; thence westerly and southerly following the outer toe of said levee, and following the meanders thereof, and of all other embankments forming a part of said levee to a point where said levee connects with the embankment of the Southern Pacific Railroad; thence easterly along said railroad embankment to a point where the outer toe of the southeasterly levee of said Protection District No. 10 connects with said railroad embankment; thence north-easterly along the outer toe of said levee to a point where the same connects with the embankment of the Western Pacific Railroad; thence northerly along the westerly side of the embankment of said railroad to the point of beginning.

Management.

SEC. 2. The management and control of said reclamation district is hereby made subject to the provisions of the Political Code of the State of California and other laws of this state, relative to reclamation districts formed under the provisions of said Political Code.

Protection District No. 10 dissolved.

SEC. 3. Protection District No. 10 of Yuba county, California, is hereby dissolved, excepting that said protection district shall continue to exist solely for the purpose of discharging any indebtedness thereof, that may be outstanding, and for the purpose of discharging such indebtedness said protection district shall continue to exercise all of the powers heretofore belonging to it. All of the rights, rights of way, levees and other works of reclamation of said Protection District No. 10, are hereby vested in the reclamation district hereby created.

SEC. 4. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 195.

An act creating a reclamation district to be called and known as "Reclamation District No. 1600;" providing for the management and control thereof and dissolving all reclamation districts lying wholly within the boundaries of said reclamation district No. 1600, and providing for the liquidation and winding up of said dissolved districts, and excluding from any reclamation district any land lying within the boundaries of said reclamation district No. 1600.

[Approved May 26, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Reclamation district No. 1600 created.

SECTION 1. A reclamation district is hereby created to be called and known as "Reclamation District No. 1600," and the boundaries of said reclamation district shall be as follows:

Beginning at a point where the section line between sections twenty-seven (27) and twenty-eight (28), township eleven (11) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M., intersects the right or southerly bank of the Sacramento river, and running thence south along the west section line of sections twenty-seven (27) and thirty-four (34) of township eleven (11) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M., and sections three (3) and ten (10) and section fifteen (15) of township ten (10) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M., to the quarter-section corner on west line of section fifteen (15), township ten (10) north, range three (3) east, M. D. B. and M.; thence southwesterly to the junction of the Tule canal with the canal from Cache creek at or near the center of section twenty-one (21), township ten (10) north, range three (3) east; thence along the Tule canal to the northwest corner of reclamation district No. 827; thence along the north line of reclamation district No. 827 to the Sacramento river; thence northerly along the Sacramento river, and following the meanders thereof, to the point of beginning.

Sec. 2. The management and control of said reclamation district is hereby made subject to the provisions of the Political Code and other laws of the State of California relative to reclamation districts formed under the provisions of said Political Code. The management and control of said reclamation district No. 1600 shall be vested in three trustees. A. A. Merkle, A. M. Mull and Louis Caffaro are hereby appointed as trustees of the said reclamation district, to act until their successors are elected and qualified. An election of three trustees shall be held in said district on the third Tuesday in October, 1918, and on the same date every two years thereafter, and the term of office shall be two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. In case of any vacancy in the office of trustee of said district, the board of supervisors of the county of Yolo shall appoint a qualified person as trustee, who shall hold said office for the date of said unexpired term. The office of said district shall be in the city of Woodland and in such place as the board of trustees thereof may from time to time fix. The board of supervisors of the county of Yolo shall have jurisdiction of all matters concerning said district to the same extent as if the said district was formed under the provisions of the said Political Code of the State of California. All funds of said district shall be deposited in the county treasury of said county of Yolo and shall be disbursed by the treasurer of said county in payment of the warrants of said district.

Sec. 3. All reclamation districts, wholly situated within the boundaries of said reclamation district, are hereby dissolved, except for the purpose of liquidation and the disposition of its property, and for this purpose only the existence of said districts are continued. Any land situated within the boundaries of reclamation district No. 1600 that is situated within any reclamation district is hereby excluded from any such reclamation district, but such lands so excluded shall be liable for the just proportion of the indebtedness of such reclamation district, to be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of law. Each of the said reclamation districts that is dissolved by the provisions of this act shall pay all legal outstanding indebtedness that each may respectively owe, and may cause the assessments or taxes to be levied and collected therefor, as may be authorized by law.

CHAPTER 196.

An act for the promotion of the viticultural industries of the state; dividing the state into viticultural districts; appointing a state board of viticultural commissioners; providing for the selection of its officers; defining its powers and duties; and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved May 28, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Viticultural commissioners.

SECTION 1. There shall be appointed by the governor a state board of viticultural commissioners to consist of nine members, three to be appointed from the state at large, and one to be appointed from each of the six viticultural districts, which shall be designated and constituted as follows:

Sixth—The San Joaquin district, which shall include the counties of San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Merced, Fresno, Kings, Tulare, and Kern.

Residence and qualifications
of commissioners.

SEC. 2. The nine commissioners, excepting the three appointed by the state at large, shall be residents of the district from which they are appointed, and shall be specially qualified by practical experience and study in connection with the industries dependent upon the culture of the grapevine in this state. They shall each hold office for the term of four years, Term. excepting four, to be determined by lot, of the first nine appointed, who at the end of two years shall retire when their successors shall be appointed by the governor.

Sec. 3. The state board of viticultural commissioners shall Officers. elect from among their own number, a president, a vice-president, and a treasurer and they shall have a secretary, who shall not be one of their number, and whose salary shall not exceed two hundred dollars per month. And the board shall determine and fix the amount of bonds that shall be given by the treasurer and secretary for the faithful performance of their duties.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the board to meet not less Meetings. often than semiannually to consult and to adopt such measures as may best promote the progress of the viticultural industries of the state. It shall be their duty to collect and disseminate Duties. useful information relating to viticulture, including the best methods of growing grapes and handling the grape and its products. It shall be its duty to select and appoint competent and qualified persons to deliver at least one lecture each year in each of the viticultural districts as named and designated in section 1 of this act: to give especial attention to the diseases and pests of the vineyards and methods of control; to collect viticultural statistics of the state; to study and foster methods of co-operation among grape growers and manufacturers of grape products; to arrange for meetings, shows and conventions, where those interested in the viticultural industries of the state may meet to further their mutual interests. Reports. The board shall issue semiannual reports of its various activities and make such recommendations as in its judgment it may deem best for the protection and for furthering the interests of the table, raisin and wine grape vineyards.

Sec. 5. The commissioners constituting the board shall Compensation. serve without compensation and shall be allowed only their actual traveling expenses to and from their places of residence when attending the meetings of the board. In no event, however, shall allowance be made to them for more than seven meetings during a year. If the board finds it necessary to hold meetings to a greater number than seven during a year, no allowance will be made for any meetings in excess of seven.

Sec. 6. The office of the board shall be in the city of Sacramento, and shall be kept open to the public, subject to the rules of the board, every day, excepting legal holidays and shall be in charge of the secretary during the absence of the board. Office.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the secretary to attend all Duties of secretary. meetings of the board, and to preserve records of proceedings and correspondence, to collect books, pamphlets, periodicals, and other documents containing valuable information relating to viticulture, and to preserve the same; to collect statistics and other information showing the actual condition and progress of viticulture in this state and elsewhere; to collect information concerning lands suitable for viticulture, and to impart to the public, upon proper demand being made, information concerning localities of such lands, prices, cost of cultivation, and means of transportation; provided, that he shall receive no fees for such services; to correspond with agricultural and viticultural societies, colleges, schools of agriculture and particularly the University of California and the university farms, and to disseminate information, printed or otherwise, as he may be directed by the board of viticultural commissioners; and to prepare as required by the board, semi-annual reports for publication.

University to co-operate.

SEC. 8. And for the further promotion of the viticultural interests, it shall be the duty of the board of regents of the University of California to co-operate in every way possible with the state board of viticultural commissioners; to continue and extend the work of instruction and investigation which they are now carrying out, and to aid the state board of viticultural commissioners by making such needful analyses and laboratory researches as their laboratories and experiment stations render possible.

Appropriation.

SEC. 9. There is hereby appropriated for the purpose mentioned in this act the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars annually and the state controller shall draw his warrants upon the state treasurer in favor of the treasurer of the said state board of viticultural commissioners, upon proper demand being made for same.

CHAPTER 197.

An act in relation to fences and other structures erected to annoy, and for the abatement of nuisances.

[Approved May 28, 1913 In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

CHAPTER 199.

An act to amend section twenty-two and one half of an act entitled, "An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of sanitary districts in any part of the state, for the constructing of sewers and other sanitary purposes, the acquisition of property thereby; the calling and conducting of elections in such districts; the assessment, levy, collection, custody and disbursement of taxes therein; the issuance and disposal of the bonds thereof, and the determination of their validity, and making provision for the payment of such bonds, and the disposal of their proceeds," approved March 31, 1891, amended March 9, 1909.

[Approved May 29, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twenty-two and one half of an act entitled, "An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of sanitary districts in any part of the state, for the construction of sewers, and other sanitary purposes; the acquisition of property thereby; the calling and conducting of elections in such districts; the assessment, levy, collection, custody and disbursement of taxes therein; the issuance and disposal of the bonds thereof, and the determination of their validity, and making provision for the payment of such bonds, and the disposal of their proceeds," approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Alteration of boundaries.

Section 22½. The boundaries of any sanitary district may be altered, and outlying contiguous territory in the same county as such sanitary district annexed thereto in the manner following:

Petition.

A petition signed by the owner or owners representing more than one half of the assessed valuation of such contiguous territory proposed to be annexed as shown by the last equalized assessment book of the county in which said sanitary district is situated, designating specifically the boundaries of such contiguous territory proposed to be annexed, and the assessed valuation thereof as shown by said last equalized assessment book, and stating that such territory is not within the limits of any other sanitary district, and asking that such territory be annexed to said sanitary district, shall be presented to the sanitary board thereof, together with a duly executed bond for the sum of not less than one hundred dollars, to be approved by said sanitary board and filed with the county treasurer as security for the payment by said petitioners of the reasonable costs of the election hereinafter provided for, in the event that at said election less than two thirds of the votes cast are in favor of the annexation of the proposed territory to the sanitary district.

Bond.

Order of election.

When such petition is presented and a bond approved and filed as above provided for, the sanitary board must within thirty days thereafter order that an election be held for the purpose of determining whether or not such proposed territory shall be annexed. The order must fix the day of such election, which must be within sixty days from the date of the order, and must show the boundaries of the proposed district. This order shall be entered in the minutes of the sanitary board and shall be conclusive evidence of the due presentation of a proper petitioner, and of the fact that each of the petitioners was at the time of the signing of the petition and the presentation thereof a resident and freeholder within the limits of the proposed district to be annexed.

A copy of such order shall be posted for four successive weeks prior to the election, in three public places within the proposed district, and shall be published for four successive weeks prior to the election in some newspaper published in the district, if there be one, and if not, in some newspaper published in the county. It shall be sufficient if the order be published once a week. At any time prior to the day fixed for the election, the board shall select one and may select two polling places within the sanitary district, appoint officers of election, and make all necessary and proper arrangements for holding the election. The ticket shall contain the words, "For Annexation to the Sanitary District," and "Against Annexation to the Sanitary District." The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same shall be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Every qualified elector resident within the district for the length of time necessary to enable him to vote at a general election shall be entitled to vote at the election above provided for. After the votes shall have been announced the ballots shall be sealed up and delivered to the secretary or president of the sanitary board which shall, as soon as practicable proceed to canvass the same, and shall enter the result upon the minutes. Such entry shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and regularity of all prior proceedings of every kind and nature provided by this act or by law, and of the facts stated in such entry. If at said election less than two thirds of the votes cast be in favor of the annexation to the proposed territory to the sanitary district the signers of said petition shall, within ten days after canvassing of the votes of said election, pay to the sanitary board a sum of money covering the reasonable costs of said election, and if said sum of money is not so paid within ten days as aforesaid, the sanitary board shall have the right of action under said bond to recover the reasonable costs of said election, and the sanitary board shall, by order disapprove said petition and enter the same in the minutes of said board and no other proceedings shall be taken in relation thereto until the expiration of one year from the presentation of said petition except to collect the costs of said election as herein provided, and if, at such election, two thirds of the votes cast be in favor of the annexation of the proposed territory to the sanitary district, the sanitary board shall pay the expenses of said election from the proper funds of the sanitary district and shall make and cause to be entered in the minutes of said board and endorsed on said petition an order approving said petition, and said petition shall thereupon be transmitted to and filed with the board of supervisors of the county in which such sanitary district is situated. Said board of supervisors, at its next regular meeting after the filing of said petition, shall by an order alter the boundaries of said sanitary district and annex thereto the contiguous territory described in said petition. Such order shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of all prior proceedings leading to such annexation and recited in said order, and from and after the same such territory shall become and be a part of such sanitary district. The property within such territory so annexed shall be taxed, together with the remainder of said district, to pay its proportion of the unpaid bonded or other indebtedness of such sanitary district existing at the time of such annexation incurred for the cost of construction, estimated as hereinafter provided, of main sewers already constructed in said district, and also to pay the running expenses of said district. The engineer of such district shall, when required by the sanitary board thereof, estimate the unpaid cost of construction of all main sewers, already constructed in said district at the time of such annexation, and such estimate when approved by the sanitary board shall be final and conclusive and shall be the basis upon which said sanitary board shall tax said annexed territory.

The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state so far as the same shall be practicable, except as herein otherwise provided.

Every qualified elector, resident within such annexed territory for the length of time necessary to enable him to vote at a general election, shall be entitled to vote at the election above provided for.

After the votes shall have been announced the ballots shall be sealed up and delivered to the secretary or president of the sanitary board, which shall, as soon as practicable, proceed to canvass the same, and shall enter the result on its minutes. Such entry shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and regularity of all the prior proceedings of every kind and nature provided by this act or by law, and of the facts stated in such entry, and if at such election two thirds of the votes cast be in favor of the issuance of bonds as proposed by the sanitary board, the said board shall thenceforth have full power and authority to issue and dispose of bonds as proposed in the order calling the election.

Ballots delivered to secretary.

Two-thirds vote.

All bonds so issued shall be of such denomination as the sanitary board may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars. Such bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States at the office of the county treasurer of the county wherein said district is situated and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, which interest shall be payable semiannually in like gold coin. Not less than one twentieth part of the total issue of bonds shall be payable each year on a day to be specified by the sanitary board, but no bond shall be payable in installments, but each bond issued hereunder shall be payable in full on the date specified therefor by said board. Each bond shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the sanitary board, and said bonds shall be numbered consecutively beginning with number one, and shall have coupons attached referring to the number of the bond to which they are attached, which coupons shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of said board.

Denomination of bonds.

Interest.

Signed by president.

The bonds must be disposed of by the sanitary board in such manner and in such quantities as may be determined by such board in its discretion, but no bond must be disposed of for less than its face value.

Sale.

The proceeds of such sale shall be deposited with the county treasurer and shall be by him placed in the fund to be called "the sewer construction fund of annexed territory of ----- sanitary district" (naming it). The money in such fund shall be used for the purposes indicated in the order calling the election upon the question of the issuance of the bonds, and for no other purpose; provided, that if after such purposes are entirely fulfilled any balance remains in such fund, such balance may by the order of the sanitary board be transferred to the "bond, interest and redemption fund" for the redemption of bonds and the payment of interest thereon, issued under the provisions of this section.

Fund.

If the result of the election be against the issuance of bonds no other election upon the question shall be called or held for a period of one year.

Against bonds.

Tax for interest and principal.

It is hereby made the duty of the sanitary board to levy each year upon the property within the said annexed territory a sufficient tax to pay off the interest accruing upon said bonds for the respective year as each falls due, and also to pay at least one twentieth of the principal of said bonds so that the entire amount of the principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid within twenty years from the date of the issuance of said bonds; and it is hereby made the duty of the tax collector, or such other person as may be charged with the duty of collecting the sanitary district taxes, to collect the tax so to be levied, and the duty of the sanitary board to order the same paid in manner and form as provided by this act, and the duty of the county treasurer to pay the same. If, for any reason, any portion of the tax for any year remains unpaid, and in consequence thereof any portion of the interest or principal due for any year remains unpaid, the same shall be added to and levied for the next year, and be collected and paid accordingly.

Payment
within
years.

The payment of the whole amount of the principal and interest of all of said bonds, within twenty years from their issuance, is hereby made the imperative duty of the annexed territory; and, if necessary for that purpose, a special tax shall be levied by the sanitary board on the property situate in said annexed territory; and it is hereby made the duty of every officer and board to do his respective part towards the levy, collection and payment of such tax; and mandamus shall issue from the superior court of the county in which the district is situated, or from any other competent court upon the application of any party interested for the purpose of compelling the performance of the duty imposed by this act upon any and all boards and officers.

Action
to determine validity
of bonds.

If the result of any election upon the question of the issuance of bonds for such annexed territory be in favor of such issuance, the sanitary board may, in their discretion, before such issuance, commence in the superior court of the county a special proceeding to determine their right to issue such bonds and the validity thereof, similar to the proceedings in relation to irrigation bonds provided for by an act entitled, "An act supplemental to 'An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes,' approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and to provide for the examination, approval, and confirmation of proceedings for the issue and sale of bonds issued under the provisions of said act," and all the provisions of said act shall apply to and govern the proceedings so to be commenced by the sanitary board, so far as the same are applicable; and said proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of said act so far as the same are applicable, and the judgment in such proceedings shall have the same effect as a judgment in relation to irrigation bonds under the provisions of said act.

SEC. 2. All acts, and parts of acts, in conflict with this act, or any portion thereof, are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 200.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and forty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the county in which all proceedings under title VII of part III of the Code of Civil Procedure may be commenced and tried.

[Approved May 20, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred forty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1243. All proceedings under this title must be commenced in the superior court of the county in which the property sought to be taken is situated; provided, that where, of any one piece or article of property, or of any one interest in or to property, sought to be taken, a portion thereof is situated in one county and another portion thereof is situated in another county, the plaintiff may commence such proceedings in any of the counties where any portion of such piece or article of property, or interest in or to property, is situated, and the county so selected is the proper county for the trial of such proceedings; and provided, further, that when the plaintiff is a county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or a municipal water district, and the property sought to be taken is situated in more than one county, then the proceeding may be brought, at the option of the plaintiff, in any county wherein is situated any of the property sought to be taken, and said proceeding may be tried in said county, with reference to any property situated in the state; provided, however, that the right in this section granted to any plaintiff to commence and try an action in any county other than the county in which may be located any property in said action sought to be taken, shall be limited to property which is owned by the defendant, or by the defendant in common with the other defendants, or some of them. All such proceedings must be commenced by filing a complaint and issuing a summons. The provisions of this code for the change of place of trial of actions shall apply to proceedings under this title except as in this section otherwise provided. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal any law of this state giving jurisdiction to the state railroad commission to ascertain the just compensation which must be paid in eminent domain proceedings. A lis pendens shall be filed at the time of the commencement of the action in every county in which any of the property to be affected shall be located.

CHAPTER 201.

An act to amend section six hundred one of the Penal Code, relating to the malicious use of explosives and providing penalties therefor.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred one of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Malicious use of dynamite.

601. Any person who maliciously uses, puts, places, deposits, explodes, or attempts to explode, at, in, under, or near, or takes into or near any building, vessel, boat, railroad, tramroad, or cable-road, or any train, or car, or any depot, stable, car-house, theater, schoolhouse, church, dwelling-house, or other place where human beings usually inhabit, assemble, frequent, or pass and repass, any dynamite, nitroglycerin, vigorite, giant or hercules powder, gunpowder, or other chemical compound or explosive, with the intent to injure or destroy such building, vessel, boat, or other structure; or with the intent to injure, intimidate, or terrify any human being, or by means of which any human being is injured or endangered, is guilty of a felony, and punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not less than one year.

Penalty.

CHAPTER 202.

An act to amend section three hundred seventy-two of the Code of Civil Procedure providing for a compromise of suits by guardians.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred seventy-two of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Appearance
of infant, etc., by guardian.

372. When an infant, or an insane or incompetent person is a party, he must appear either by his general guardian or by a guardian ad litem appointed by the court in which the action is pending, in each case. A guardian ad litem may be appointed in any case, when it is deemed by the court in which the action or proceeding is prosecuted, or by a judge thereof, expedient to represent the infant, insane, or incompetent person in the action or proceeding, notwithstanding he may have a general guardian and may have appeared by him. The general guardian or guardian ad litem so appearing for any infant, or insane or incompetent person in any suit shall have power to compromise the same and to agree to the judgment to be entered therein for or against his ward, subject to the approval of the court in which such suit is pending.

May compromise.

CHAPTER 203.

An act to amend an act, entitled, "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvements within municipalities and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27, 1893, by adding thereto four new sections to be numbered 10 to 13 inclusive.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act, entitled, "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvements within municipalities and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27, 1893, is hereby amended by adding thereto four new sections to be numbered ten to thirteen inclusive, under the heading of part II, and to be in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Section 10. The public work provided to be done under the act may be performed under the provisions of this act in unincorporated territory in counties, and all of the provisions of this act shall apply with equal force to such work subject to the definitions and modifications hereinafter contained. Wherever the words "municipality," "municipalities" or "city" shall appear in this act, they shall be and are hereby defined as including cities, cities and counties and counties, and are hereby expressly declared to be interchangeable with any or either of these terms. Wherever the terms "city council" or "council" shall appear in this act, they shall be and are hereby defined as including the board of supervisors of a county, and are hereby expressly declared to be interchangeable with these terms; and all of the provisions of this act extending authority to or imposing duties or obligations upon the city council or council shall apply with equal force to the board of supervisors. Wherever the terms "street" or "streets" shall appear in this act, they shall be and are hereby defined as including highway, or highways, and are hereby expressly declared to be interchangeable therewith; and all of the provisions of this act relating to street or streets shall apply with equal force to highway or highways. Wherever the terms "city clerk," "clerk of the city council," "clerk of the council" or "clerk" shall appear in this act, they shall be and are hereby defined as including the county clerk of a county, and are hereby expressly declared to be interchangeable therewith; and all of the provisions of this act extending authority to or imposing duties or obligations upon the city clerk, clerk of the city council, clerk of the council or clerk shall apply with equal force to the county clerk. Wherever the terms "city treasury" or "municipal treasury" shall appear in this act, they shall be and are hereby defined as including the county treasurer, and are hereby expressly declared to be interchangeable with any or either of these terms. Wherever the terms "treasurer" or "city treasurer" shall appear in this act, they shall be and are hereby defined as including the county treasurer of a county, and are hereby expressly declared to be interchangeable therewith; and all of the provisions of this act extending authority to or imposing duties or obligations upon the treasurer or city treasurer shall apply with equal force to the county treasurer. Wherever the term "corporate limits" shall appear in this act, it shall be and is hereby defined as including the county boundary; and is hereby expressly declared to be interchangeable therewith; and all of the provisions of this act referring to corporate limits shall apply with equal force to the county boundary.

County street superintendent.

Sec. 11. The board of supervisors of any county in which it is desired to perform work under the provisions of this act shall be and they are hereby authorized to appoint a person to be known as the street superintendent of the said county who shall have all of the authority and perform all of the duties and obligations herein imposed upon the street superintendent, and shall be considered as designated wherever the words "street superintendent" or "superintendent of streets" are used in this act; and the board of supervisors may appoint as many deputies for the said street superintendent of the county as in their judgment may be proper and necessary, the said street superintendent to receive a compensation of six dollars per day, and his deputies to receive a compensation of four dollars per day for their time actually expended. The office of the street superintendent shall be the office of the county surveyor, and, at any time when no work is actually being conducted under the provisions of this act, or when the street superintendent shall not be in his office, the county surveyor shall have charge of the records in the street superintendent's office and perform such duties as are herein imposed upon the street superintendent, and have such other authority as is herein granted to the street superintendent; and all of the provisions of this act extending authority to or imposing duties or obligations upon the street superintendent or superintendent of streets shall apply with equal force to the superintendent of streets appointed by the board of supervisors.

Compensation.

Phraseology of bonds changed.

Sec. 12. In any bonds provided to be issued under the terms of this act, the phraseology of the said bonds shall be changed to conform to the designation of a county instead of city, and the officers hereinbefore mentioned on the part of the county shall be and they are hereby authorized to perform all of the duties herein by the provisions of this act or the provisions of the said bond specified to be performed.

Payment from general fund.

Sec. 13. If the board of supervisors shall determine that the whole or any part of the cost and expenses of the work mentioned in this act shall be paid out of the treasury of the county, such payment, or any part of the same, may be made from the general fund of the county or general road fund of the county, or from the road district fund of the road district in which the said improvement shall be constructed.

CHAPTER 204.

An act to amend an act entitled, "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, by adding thereto six new sections to be numbered fifty-seven to sixty-two inclusive.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, is hereby amended by adding thereto six new sections to be numbered fifty-seven to sixty-two inclusive, under the heading of part IV, and to be in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Section 57. The public work provided to be done under this act may be performed under the provisions of this act in unincorporated territory in counties, and all of the provisions of this act shall apply with equal force to such work subject to the definitions and modifications hereinafter contained. Wherever the terms "treasurer" or "city treasurer" shall appear in this act, they shall be and are hereby defined as including the county treasurer of a county, and are hereby expressly declared to be interchangeable therewith; and all of the provisions of this act extending authority to or imposing duties or obligations upon the treasurer or city treasurer shall apply with equal force to the county treasurer. Wherever the terms "mayor" or "mayor of said city" shall appear in this act, they shall be and are hereby defined as including the chairman of the board of supervisors of a county, and are expressly declared to be interchangeable therewith; and all of the provisions of this act extending authority to or imposing duties or obligations upon the mayor or mayor of said city shall apply with equal force to the chairman of the board of supervisors.

County street superintendent.

Section 58. The board of supervisors of any county in which it is desired to perform work under the provisions of this act shall be and they are hereby authorized to appoint a person to be known as the street superintendent of the said county who shall have all of the authority and perform all of the duties and obligations herein imposed upon the street superintendent, and shall be considered as designated wherever the words "street superintendent" or "superintendent of streets" are used in this act; and the board of supervisors may appoint as many deputies for the said street superintendent of the county as in their judgment may be proper and necessary, the said street superintendent to receive a compensation of six dollars per day and his deputies to receive a compensation of four dollars per day for their time actually expended. The office of the street superintendent shall be the office of the county surveyor, and, at any time when no work is actually being conducted under the provisions of this act, or when the street superintendent shall not be in his office, the county surveyor shall have charge of the records in the street superintendent's office and perform such duties as are herein imposed upon the street superintendent, and have such other authority as is herein granted to the street superintendent; and all of the provisions of this act extending authority to or imposing duties or obligations upon the street superintendent or superintendent of streets shall apply with equal force to the superintendent of streets appointed by the board of supervisors.

Compensation.

Phraseology of bonds changed.

Section 59. In any bonds provided to be issued under the terms of this act, the phraseology of the said bonds shall be changed to conform to the designation of a county instead of city, and the officers hereinbefore mentioned on the part of the county shall be and they are hereby authorized to perform all of the duties herein by the provisions of this act or the provisions of the said bond specified to be performed.

Section 60. If the board of supervisors shall determine that the whole or any part of the cost and expenses of the work mentioned in this act shall be paid out of the treasury of the county, such payment, or any part of the same, may be made from the general fund of the county or general road fund of the county, or from the road district fund of the road district in which the said improvement shall be constructed.

Payment from general fund.

Section 61. If any public highway lighting system shall be installed under the provisions of this act, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide, at any time before, after or during the proceedings under this act, that the cost of maintaining the said public highway lighting system, including the cost of necessary repairs, replacements, fuel, current, care and other items of like nature, shall be paid, either partly or wholly, by the district upon which the assessment shall be levied to pay the cost of the installation of the same. The ordinance shall contain a description of the district to be assessed to pay for the installation of the said lighting system and to be assessed to pay for the maintenance thereof, and also shall contain a designation or name of the said district by which it may be referred to in all subsequent proceedings, and a copy of the said ordinance shall be filed in the office of the county assessor. The county assessor shall thereafter, in making up the assessment roll, segregate the property included within the district described in the said ordinance on the assessment roll under the designation contained in the said ordinance. The board of supervisors shall thereafter, in each year prior to the time of fixing the county tax rate, estimate the cost of maintaining the said public highway lighting system during the ensuing year, and shall decide whether or not the cost of the same shall be borne wholly or partially by the said assessment district, and shall, in addition to all other taxes, fix a special tax rate for the property within said assessment district sufficient to raise an amount of money to cover all of the portion of the expense of maintaining the said public highway lighting system to be borne by said district as the board of supervisors may determine.

An act to amend section ten hundred ninety-five of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to the recovery of damages and awarding of costs in mandate proceedings, and said section as hereby amended providing for the recovery of damages and the awarding of costs against the state, counties and municipal corporations in certain cases.

[Approved May 31, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten hundred ninety-five of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1095. If judgment be given for the applicant, he may recover the damages which he has sustained, as found by the jury, or as may be determined by the court or referee, upon a reference to be ordered, together with costs; and for such damages and costs an execution may issue; and a peremptory mandate must also be awarded without delay; provided, however, that in all cases where the respondent is a state, county or municipal officer, all damages and costs, or either, which may be recovered or awarded, shall be recovered and awarded against the state, county or municipal corporation represented by such officer and not against such officer so appearing in said proceeding, and the same shall be a proper claim against the state, or county, or municipal corporation for which such officer shall have appeared, and shall be paid as other claims against the state, county or municipality are paid; but in all such cases, the court shall first determine that the officer appeared and made defense in such proceeding in good faith.

CHAPTER 207.

An act to amend section one thousand seven hundred and forty-six of the Political Code, relating to the issuance of bonds of high school districts.

[Approved June 1, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand seven hundred and forty-six of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1746. If it appears that two thirds of the votes cast

When two at said election were cast in favor of issuing such bonds, then such high school board shall cause an entry of that fact to be made upon its minutes, and shall certify to the board of supervisors of the county whose superintendent of schools has jurisdiction of said high school district all of the proceedings had in the premises, and thereupon said board of supervisors shall be and it is hereby authorized and directed to issue the bonds of such high school district, in accordance with such proceedings, payable out of the building fund of such high school district, naming the same; provided, that the total amount of bonds so issued shall not exceed five per cent of the taxable property of the high school district as shown by the last equalized assessment of the county or counties in which such district is located. The board of supervisors, by an order entered upon its minutes, shall prescribe the form of said bonds and of the interest coupons attached thereto, if any, and must fix the time when the whole or any part of the principal of said bonds shall be payable, which shall not be more than forty years from the date thereof. If the notice calling the election shall have provided that the bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, the bonds shall be made payable in such gold coin, as to principal and interest. If the notice calling the election shall have provided that the bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable in lawful money of the United States, the bonds shall be made payable in lawful money of the United States as to principal and interest. If the notice shall have made no such specific provisions, the board of supervisors shall have power in the order prescribing the form of the bonds either to make the bonds payable in gold coin of the United States as to principal and interest, or to make them payable in lawful money of the United States as to principal and interest. Said board of supervisors may make the principal and interest of said bonds payable at the office of the treasurer of the county, or at such other place within the United States as the board may designate, or at such treasurer's office or such other designated place, at the option of the bond holder; which place of payment shall be specified in the bonds; and this provision shall apply to all such bonds not yet issued when this section takes effect, regardless of the time when the election therefor was held. The expense of paying such principal and interest elsewhere than at the office of the treasurer shall be a charge against the high school district funds, to be paid out of the tax for the payment of the bonds. Said bonds must be sold at the times and in the amounts prescribed by the board of supervisors, but for not less than par. and the proceeds of the sale thereof must be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the building fund of the said high school district, and be drawn out for the purposes aforesaid as other high school moneys are drawn out. Before selling said bonds, or any part thereof, the board of supervisors must advertise for bids therefor for at least two weeks in some daily or weekly newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or if there is no such newspaper published in the county, in some such newspaper published in some other county in the state. If satisfactory bids are received, the bonds offered for sale must be awarded to the highest bidder. If no bids are received, or the board determines that the bids received are not satisfactory as to price or responsibility of the bidders, the board may reject all bids received, if any, and either readvertise or sell said bonds at private sale.

CHAPTER 208.

An act confirming and validating the organization of school districts.

[Approved June 1, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Where the board of supervisors of any county have purported to establish a school district situated within such county and such district has acted as a school district for a period of one year previous to the taking effect of this act, all acts and proceedings taken for the purpose of creating such district are hereby legalized, validated and declared to be sufficient, and such school district is hereby declared to be duly incorporated and as such school district under its appropriate name shall have all the rights and privileges and be subject to all of the duties and obligations of a duly incorporated school district. School districts validated.

CHAPTER 209.

An act to validate bonds of school districts and high school districts, and to provide for the levy and collection of taxes to pay the principal and interest on such bonds.

[Approved June 1, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Where in any school district, or high school district of any kind or class, including union high school districts and joint union high school districts, proceedings have been taken for the purpose of issuing and selling bonds of such district, for any purpose or purposes, all the acts and proceedings of the board of trustees, board of education or other governing body of such district, and all the acts and proceedings of the board of supervisors of the county within which such district is situated, leading up to and including the issuance School bonds validated.

of such bonds if they have heretofore been sold, and all such acts and proceedings heretofore had although the bonds are not yet sold, are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and validated to all intents and purposes, and the power of such district and of the board of supervisors of the county in which such district is situated, to issue such bonds, is hereby ratified, confirmed and declared, and the bonds heretofore sold are declared to be, and the bonds hereafter sold shall be, the legal and binding obligations of and against the district having heretofore issued, or hereafter issuing, such bonds, and the faith and credit of such district is hereby pledged for the prompt payment and redemption of the principal and interest of said bonds.

Power to levy tax for payment.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of paying the interest on such bonds as it becomes due and the principal thereof at maturity, the assessors, treasurers, boards of supervisors, and other officers of the respective counties, shall have the same powers and shall perform the same duties as are provided by law relative to the assessment, levy, and collection of taxes, and custody of funds, for the payment of the principal and interest of bonds of school districts and high school districts of every kind or class, respectively.

Must be
par.

SEC. 3. This act shall not operate to legalize any bonds which have been sold for less than par, nor to legalize any bonds the issuance of which has not received the assent of two thirds of the qualified electors of such district, voting at an election held for the purpose of determining whether such indebtedness should be incurred, nor to legalize any bonds which mature at a date more than forty years from the time of their issuance.

CHAPTER 210.

An act to amend section one thousand five hundred and ninety-seven of the Political Code, relating to the time that polls shall be open at elections in school districts.

[Approved June 1, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand five hundred and ninety-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Opening and closing of polls in school elections.

1597. In districts in which the average daily attendance as shown by the teachers' register, exceeds four hundred, the polls must be open at eight o'clock a.m., and kept open until six o'clock p.m. In other districts the polls must not be opened before nine o'clock a.m., nor kept open less than four hours; provided, however, in all elections held for the purpose of authorizing the incurring of any bonded indebtedness the polls must be opened at eight o'clock a.m., and kept open until six o'clock p.m.

CHAPTER 211.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to regulate the manufacture, sale, adulteration and misbranding of insecticides or fungicides or materials used for insecticidal or fungicidal purposes, and to provide penalties for the infraction thereof, approved May 1, 1911," by adding a new section thereto to be known as section fourteen a.

[Approved June 2, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The act known as chapter 653 of the Statutes of 1911, of the State of California, is hereby amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as 14a and to read as follows:

Section 14a. The following insecticides and fungicides or materials to be used for insecticidal or fungicidal purposes may be sold by grocers and dealers generally without restriction and without the registration fee, permit or license being required of them, viz: Insect powders, poison fly paper, sticky fly paper, borax, moth balls, gum camphor, spirits of camphor, blue ointment, oil of eucalyptus, castor oil, ant poison, sheep dip, lice killer, sulphur, bluestone.

Insecticides sold without license.

CHAPTER 212.

An act to provide for the payment of compensation of additional help in the county clerk's office of the various counties throughout the state.

[Approved June 2, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In any county where it was necessary for the county clerk to employ help in addition to that prescribed by law, in order to provide for the necessary work in registering voters, entailed by the adoption of the constitutional amendment extending the right of suffrage to women, the board of supervisors shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to allow the demand of any person for services so rendered at the request of the county clerk of the said county upon a certificate of the county clerk that the services were necessary to conduct the work of his office by reason of the increased work occurring, as above set forth, at the rate of three dollars for each day of eight hours that any such person was so employed in rendering such services; provided, however, that no demand for such services shall be allowed or paid unless the same was filed with the board of supervisors prior to the first day of May, 1913.

Additional help for county clerks.

CHAPTER 213.

An act authorizing and empowering the directors of the state board of agriculture to set aside a site and to grant to any person or persons the right and privilege to erect in the state fair grounds at agricultural park in the city of Sacramento a building or other structure as a memorial, providing for the approval of the plans and specifications therefor and for the acceptance and maintenance thereof.

[Approved June 2, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Memorial buildings in agricultural park.

SECTION 1. The directors of the state board of agriculture are hereby authorized and empowered to set aside a suitable site and to grant to any person or persons the right and privilege to erect in the state fair grounds at agricultural park in the city of Sacramento a suitable building or other structure as a memorial to any person, who during life, was identified with the work of advancing and promoting the interests of the State of California. The plans and specifications for such memorial building or other structure shall be approved by the state engineering department as to strength of design and materials and by the directors of the state board of agriculture before the right or privilege to erect the same shall be granted, and when erected and accepted by the directors of the state board of agriculture, such building or other structure shall be under the sole control and direction of the directors of the state board of agriculture the same as other buildings in said state fair grounds, and shall be maintained by the State of California as an integral portion of the said state fair grounds.

CHAPTER 214.

An act to amend "An act regulating the employment and hours of labor of children, prohibiting the employment of minors under certain ages, prohibiting the employment of certain illiterate minors, providing for the enforcement hereof by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, and providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved February 20, 1905, approved April 14, 1911, as amended.

[Approved June 2, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled, "An act regulating the employment and hours of labor of children, prohibiting the employment of minors under certain ages, prohibiting the employment of certain illiterate minors, providing for the enforcement hereof by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, and providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved February 20, 1905, approved April 14, 1911, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. No minor under the age of eighteen years shall be employed in laboring in any manufacturing, mechanical, or mercantile establishment, or other place of labor, more than eight hours in one day, except when it is necessary to make repairs to prevent the interruption of the ordinary running of the machinery, or when a different apportionment of the hours of labor is made for the sole purpose of making a shorter day's work for one day of the week, and in no case shall the hours of labor exceed forty-eight hours in a week.

Hours of labor of minors under 18.

SEC. 2. No minor under the age of eighteen years shall be employed or permitted to work between the hours of ten o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the morning.

Not to work 10 p.m. to 5 a.m.

SEC. 3. No minor under the age of fifteen years shall be employed in any mercantile institution, office, laundry, manufacturing establishment, workshop, place of amusement, restaurant, hotel, apartment house, or in the distribution or transmission of merchandise or messages, unless such minor is supplied with a permit to work as hereinafter provided.

Minors under 15 not to work in laundry, etc.

SEC. 4. The superintendent of schools of any city, or of any city and county, or of any county (over such portions of any such county as are not within the jurisdiction of any superintendent of city schools) shall have authority to issue a permit to work to any minor between the ages of twelve and fifteen years, in any of the following circumstances:

Permit to work.

(1) Where such minor has completed the proscribed grammar school course, and is physically fitted for the labor contemplated; or Completed grammar school.

(2) Where upon the sworn statement being made by the parent, or foster-parent, or guardian, of such minor, that such minor is past the age of twelve years, that the parent or parents, or foster-parent or foster-parents, or guardian, of such minor is incapacitated for labor through illness or injury, or that through the death or desertion of the father of such minor, the family is in need of the earnings of such minor, and that sufficient aid cannot be secured in any other manner. The person authorized to issue such permit shall make a signed statement in granting such permit that he, or a competent person designated by him for this purpose, has carefully investigated the conditions under which the application for such permit has been asked, and has found that in his judgment the earnings of such minor are necessary for such family to support such minor, and that in his judgment sufficient aid can not be secured in any other manner.

Parents incapacitated.

SEC. 5. No permit as specified in section 4 of this act shall be issued except upon written evidence that suitable work is waiting for such minor, and such permit shall specify the kind of labor. Permits issued under subdivision (2) of said section 4 shall in no case be issued for a longer period than shall seem necessary, nor for longer than six months, at the end of which period such superintendent shall see that such minor returns to school, unless a new permit to labor is issued. Such permit shall be kept on file by the person, firm or corporation employing the minor therein designated, during the term of said employment, and shall be given up to such minor upon his quitting such employment. Where such minor works for himself and not for others, such minor shall keep in his possession such permit. Such permit shall be issued on forms in accordance with this act, which shall be prepared and provided by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics of the State of California. Such permit shall be subject to revocation at any time by such commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, or by the authority issuing such permit, whenever such commissioner, or the authority issuing such permit shall find that the conditions for the legal issuance of such permit do not exist. Such permit shall be always open to the inspection of the attendance and probation officers, or of the officers of the state bureau of labor statistics. A duplicate copy of each permit to work granted under the provisions of this act shall be kept by the person issuing such permit, such copy to be filed with the superintendent of schools of the city, or city and county, or county, as the case may be; provided, that all copies of permits issued between June 25th and December 25th of any year shall be filed not later than December 31st of such year; and those issued between December 25th and June 25th of the ensuing year shall be filed not later than June 30th of each year. Corresponding semiannual reports of all such permits issued shall be made by such superintendents in such form as may be required by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics of the State of California.

Kind of labor specified.

Inspection of places of employment.
Work during vacations.

SEC. 6. The attendance officer of any county, city and county, or school district in which any place of employment, in this act named, is situated, or the probation officer of such county, shall have the right and authority, at all times to enter into any such place of employment for the purpose of investigating violations of the provisions of this act, or violations of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to enforce the educational rights of children and providing penalties for the violation of the act," approved March 24, 1903, and any act amending or superseding the same; provided, however, that if such attendance or probation officer is denied entrance to such place of employment, any magistrate may, upon the filing of an affidavit by such attendance or probation officer setting forth the fact that he has a good cause to believe that the provisions of this act, or the act hereinbefore referred to, are being violated in such place of employment, issue an order directing such attendance or probation officer to enter said place of employment for the purpose of making such investigations: and provided, that any such minor over the age of twelve years may be employed at any of the occupations mentioned in this act on the regular weekly school holidays, or during the regular vacation of the public schools of the city, county, or city and county, in which the place of employment is situated, upon the production of a permit signed by the principal, vice-principal of the school, or secretary of the board of school trustees or board of education of the school which such minor is attending, or has attended during the term next preceding any such vacation. Such permit shall contain the name and age of the minor to whom it is issued, and when issued for the regular vacation, the date of the termination of the vacation for which it is issued, and in any case shall be kept on file by the employer during the period of employment, and at the termination of such employment shall be returned to the minor to whom it was issued.

SEC. 7. No minor who is under sixteen years of age shall be employed or permitted to work at any gainful occupation during the hours that the public schools of the city, town or school district in which his place of employment is situated are in session, unless he or she has completed the prescribed grammar school course, or unless he or she is a regular attendant for the then current term at a regularly conducted night school: provided, however, that if the bodily or mental condition of said minor is such as to render inadvisable attendance at school or application to study, a certificate from any licensed physician that said minor should not attend school shall be sufficient excuse for such non-attendance.

Work during school hours.

SEC. 8. Every person, firm or corporation employing minors under eighteen years of age, in any manufacturing establishment, shall post and keep posted, in a conspicuous place in every room where such minors are employed, a written or printed notice stating the number of hours per day for each day of the week required of such minors.

Notice of hours of labor posted.

SEC. 9. Every person, firm, or corporation, agent or officer of a firm or corporation, employing or permitting minors under sixteen and over fifteen years of age to work in any mercantile institution, office, laundry, manufacturing establishment, workshop, place of amusement, restaurant, hotel, apartment house, or in the distribution or transmission of merchandise or messages, shall keep a record of the names, ages, and places of residence of such minors, and shall have on file a certificate of age and schooling, as provided in this act, for every such minor so employed, said record and certificate to be open at all times to the inspection of the school attendance and probation officers of the city and county, city, or county, in which the place of employment is situated, or of the officers of the state bureau of labor statistics.

Employer to keep record of minors employed.

SEC. 10. An age and schooling certificate shall be approved only by the superintendent of schools of the city or county and county, or by a person authorized by him in writing, or where there is no city or city and county superintendent of schools, by a person authorized by the local school trustees: provided, that the superintendent or principal of any school of recognized standing shall have the right to approve an age and schooling certificate, and shall have the same rights and powers as the superintendent of public schools to issue the certificate herein provided for the children attending such schools. The person authorized to issue age and schooling certificates shall have the authority to administer the oaths necessary for carrying out the provisions of this act, but no fees shall be charged for issuing such certificates.

Power to issue certificates.

No fee.

Issued on written request.

An age and schooling certificate shall be issued only upon the written request of the prospective employer of such minor, which written request shall be filed by the person issuing the certificate.

Evidence of age.

An age and schooling certificate shall not be approved unless satisfactory evidence is furnished by the last school census, the certificate of birth or baptism of such minor, the public register of birth of such minor, or in some other manner, that such minor is of the age stated in such certificate. A duplicate copy of each age and schooling certificate granted under the provisions of this act shall be kept by the person issuing such certificate, such copy to be filed with the county superintendent of schools in the county where the certificate is issued; provided, that all such copies of certificates issued between June 25th and December 25th of any year shall be filed not later than December 31st of such year; and those issued between December 25th and June 25th of the ensuing year, shall be filed not later than June 30th of each year. The county superintendent of schools of each county shall file with the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, a report showing the number of age and schooling certificates issued to male and female minors and such other detailed information as the commissioner may require. Said report to be filed during the months of January and July of each year for the preceding six months, ending June 25th and December 25th of each year, and cover certificates issued during said periods and on file in the office of the county superintendent of schools as described in this section.

Duplicate kept.

Semi-annual report.

Form of certificate.

SEC. 11. Age and schooling certificates shall be issued on forms which shall be prepared and provided by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics of the State of California, and shall be substantially in the following form, to wit:

Age and schooling certificate. This certifies that I am the (father, mother, or guardian) of (name of the minor) and that (he or she) was born at (name of the city or town), in the county of (name of county, if known), and state (or country) of (name) on the day (day and year of birth), and is now (number of years and of months) old.

Signature, as provided in this act.

City or town, and date.

There personally appeared before me the above named (name of person signing) and made oath that the following certificate by (him or her) signed is true to the best of (his or her) knowledge and belief.

I hereby approve the foregoing certificate of (name of minor), height (feet and inches), complexion (fair or dark), hair (color), having no sufficient reason to doubt that (he or she) is of the age therein certified, and I hereby certify that (he or she) (has or has not) completed the prescribed grammar school course.

Signature of the person authorized to sign, with his official character and authority.

Town or city and date.

This certificate belongs to the minor in whose behalf it is drawn and it shall be presented to (him or her) whenever (he or she) leaves the services of the person, firm, or corporation holding the same.

The certificate as to the birthplace and age of the minor under sixteen years of age shall be signed by his father, his mother, or his guardian; if a minor has no father, mother, or guardian living in the same city or town, his own signature to the certificate may be accepted by the person authorized to approve the same. Every person authorized to sign the certificate prescribed by this act, who knowingly certifies to any false statement therein, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Signed by father, etc.

Sec. 12. No minor having a permit to work, as described in sections 3, 4, and 5 of this act, and no minor having an age and schooling certificate, as described in sections 9, 10 and 11 of this act, and no other minor under sixteen years of age, who would by law be required to attend school, shall, while the public schools are in session, be and remain idle and unemployed for a period longer than two weeks but must enroll and attend school; provided, that within one week after any minor having such a permit to work or such age and schooling certificate shall have ceased to be employed by any employer, such employer shall, in writing, giving the latest correct address of such minor known to such employer, notify the county superintendent of schools of such county, that such minor is no longer employed by such employer; and such county superintendent of schools, shall thereupon immediately notify the attendance officer having jurisdiction in the place of such minor's residence, giving the said latest known correct address of such minor, that such minor is neither at work nor in school; and provided, further, that no such minor shall be permitted to cease school attendance, without securing a permit to work, or an age and schooling certificate as provided in this act.

Not to remain idle during school hours.

Sec. 13. Any person, firm, corporation, agent, or officer of a firm or corporation that violates or omits to comply with any of the foregoing provisions of this act, or that employs or suffers or permits any minor to be employed in violation thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, for each and every offense. A failure to produce any age and schooling certificate or permit to work or to post any notice required by this act, shall be prima facie evidence of the illegal employment of any minor whose age and schooling certificate or permit to work is not produced, or whose name is not so posted. Any fine collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the school funds of the county, or city, or city and county in which the offense occurred; except such fines imposed and collected as the result of prosecutions by the officers of the bureau of labor statistics. In such cases one half of the resultant fine or fines shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the contingent fund of the bureau of labor statistics, and one half paid into the school funds of the county, or city, or city and county in which the offense occurred.

SEC. 14. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the employment of minors at agricultural, horticultural, or viticultural, or domestic labor during the time the public schools are not in session, or during other than school hours. For the purpose of this act, horticultural shall be understood to include the curing and drying, but not the canning, of all varieties of fruit. Nor shall anything in this act be construed to prohibit any minor between the ages of fifteen and eighteen years, who is by any statute or statutes of the State of California, now or hereafter in force, permitted to be employed as an actor, or actress, or performer in a theatre, or other place of amusement, previous to the hour of ten o'clock p.m., in the presentation of a performance, play or drama, continuing from an earlier hour till after the hour of ten o'clock p.m., from performing his or her part in such presentation as such employee between the hours of ten and twelve o'clock p.m.; provided, the written consent of the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics is first obtained. Nor shall anything in this act prevent, or be construed to prohibit, the employment of any minor, whether resident or nonresident, in the presentation of a drama or dramatic play with the written consent of the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, but no such consent shall be given unless the officer giving it is satisfied that the environment in which the drama or dramatic play is to be produced is a proper environment for the minor, and that the conditions of such employment are not detrimental to the health of such minor, and that the minor's education will not be neglected or hampered by its participation in such drama or dramatic play, and every such written consent shall specify the name and age of the minor together with such other facts as may be necessary for the proper identification of such minor, and the dates when, and the theatres or other places of amusement in which, such dramas or dramatic plays are to be produced, and shall specify the dramas or dramatic plays in which the minor is permitted to participate, and every such consent shall be revocable at the will of the officer giving it.

SEC. 15. The bureau of labor statistics shall enforce the provisions of this act. The commissioner, his deputies and agents, shall have all the powers and authority of sheriffs or other peace officers, to make arrests for violations of the provisions of this act, and to serve any process or notice throughout the state.

sioner.

CHAPTER 215.

An act to repeal an act entitled "An act directing the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics to collect certain statistics, and present them in biennial reports, and making it the duty of certain officers to furnish such statistics in compliance with the provisions of this act," approved March 18, 1905.

[Approved June 2, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act directing the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics to collect certain statistics, and present them in biennial reports, and making it the duty of certain officers to furnish such statistics in compliance with the provisions of this act," approved March 18, 1905, is hereby repealed.

Repealed.

CHAPTER 216.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts and places forming the exterior boundaries of any municipality, whether partly, or wholly, within or without said boundaries, and providing for the construction of sewers, drains and sidewalks thereon and in connection therewith," approved April 21, 1911, by adding a new section thereto, to be numbered thirty-six, making the provisions of the act applicable to work upon streets forming the boundary line between municipalities.

[Approved June 2, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts and places forming the exterior boundaries of any municipality, whether partly, or wholly, within or without said boundaries, and providing for the construction of sewers, drains and sidewalks thereon and in connection therewith," approved April 21, 1911, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section, to be known as section 36, and to read as follows:

Improvement of street on boundary line.

Section 36. The provisions of this act shall apply to and authorize the improvement of any street in or along which the boundary line between two municipalities extends. The city councils of such municipalities shall have concurrent jurisdiction of all proceedings under the act to effect the improvement of such streets to the same extent and in the same manner and form as herein provided for the council and the board of supervisors in respect to streets referred to in the act. The council passing the resolution of intention shall thereafter have exclusive jurisdiction of all work and proceedings covered by said resolution, the same as provided in section 3 of the act.

CHAPTER 217.

An act to enlarge the powers of the board of state harbor commissioners, and to authorize said board to locate, construct, maintain, operate and extend public dry-docks and appurtenances thereto, in and about such portion of the bay of San Francisco under its jurisdiction, and to fix, regulate, impose and collect tolls or compensation for and upon the use of the same and to regulate the use therefor.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Dry-docks in San Francisco bay.

SECTION 1. The board of state harbor commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered (in addition to the powers now granted, or which may hereafter be granted to it by law) to locate, construct, maintain, operate and extend public dry-docks in and about such portion of the bay of San Francisco under the jurisdiction as defined in section two thousand five hundred and twenty-four of the Political Code.

Tolls.

SEC. 2. The said board shall fix, regulate, impose and collect tolls or compensation for and upon the use of such public dry-docks and regulate the use thereof.

Disposition of money collected.

SEC. 3. All money collected for tolls as compensation for use of such public dry-docks and all expenditure made in the maintenance and construction thereof shall be subject to the same provision as other moneys collected and expended by the said board.

CHAPTER 218.

An act to regulate the organization of fraternal insurance associations.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Fraternal fire insurance associations.

SECTION 1. Secret, fraternal societies, having lodges, councils or granges in this state, and conducting their business and securing their membership on the lodge, council or grange system exclusively, and having ritualistic work and ceremonies in their societies, lodges, councils or granges, may form an association of the members of their order or society, binding themselves to contribute to each other's loss by fire.

SEC. 2. Such association shall be formed by filing a verified certificate in the office of the secretary of state and by filing a like certificate in the office of the clerk of each county in which a member has property insured in said association; such certificate shall state generally the objects of the association, and shall state its principal place of business, the names of its officers, who shall be members of said association having property insured therein; such certificates shall be signed by said officers and verified by at least three of them.

Formation.

SEC. 3. An association formed as prescribed in sections one and two of this act may insure the property of its members against loss or damage by fire for an amount not exceeding forty-five hundred dollars on any one risk, and no risk of more than thirty-five hundred dollars shall be binding until risks to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars have been written and all premiums paid thereon, and no risk of more than fifteen hundred dollars shall be binding until risks to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars have been written and all premiums paid thereon, and no risk of any amount shall be binding until risks to the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars have been written and all premiums paid thereon. And no risk shall be written by such association except for members in good standing on the books of the order or society forming the association and a suspension or withdrawal from membership in such order or society will suspend the insurance risk until the member is restored to good standing in said order or society and in said association; provided, that a restoration to membership after suspension therefrom shall in no case be construed as extending the term of the risk. No risk written by such association shall be for an amount in excess of seventy-five per centum of the cash value of the property insured, and no concurrent or additional insurance shall be allowed.

Limit on insurance.

For members only.

75% cash value.

SEC. 4. Such association by and in its own name may sue and be sued, may loan such funds as it may have on hand in such manner as its articles of association and its by-laws have provided for; may own sufficient real estate for its business purposes, and such other real estate as may be necessary to purchase on foreclosure of its mortgages; provided, such real estate so obtained by foreclosure shall be sold and conveyed within five years from the time title vests in said association.

Powers

SEC. 5. Such association may make such by-laws, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, as may be necessary for its government and for the transaction of its business, and such association merely creating a mutual bond and agreement of its members to participate in each other's loss by fire does not come under the insurance laws of California.

By-laws.

Outside of the requirements of this act, their own regulations and those of the order to which they belong are sufficient.

Obligation to pay pro rata.

SEC. 6. All persons insured shall give their obligation to the association, binding themselves, their heirs and assigns, to pay their pro rata share, proportioned to the amount of insurance in the association held by them, at the time of the loss to the association, of the necessary expenses and of loss by fire which may be sustained by any member thereof during the time for which their respective policies are written, and said policies may be cancelled by either party thereto, in which case settlement or adjustment shall be made in accordance with the terms of the by-laws of the association, and they shall also at the time of effecting the insurance pay such a percentage in cash, and such other charges, as may be required by the rules or by-laws of the association.

Classification of property.

SEC. 7. All such associations must classify the property insured therein at the time of issuing policies thereon under different rates, corresponding as nearly as may be to the greater or less risk from fire loss which may be attached to the several kinds of property insured. No such association shall issue policies of insurance on any property within the limits of cities of the first, first and a half, second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth classes; provided, that no dwelling shall be insured within the corporate limits of any city or town exposed by any other building within one hundred feet or by any risk other than a dwelling or private barn within two hundred feet of the risk assured.

Not to insure property in cities.

Ascertainment of loss.

SEC. 8. Such association shall provide in its by-laws for the ascertainment of loss or damage by fire, and for the payment thereof.

CHAPTER 219.

An act to provide for the reforestation, the cutting of fire lanes and fire trails on the Angeles national forest, and to make an appropriation therefor.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Appropriation: forest fire protection, San Bernardino mountains.

SECTION 1. The sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, which money shall be used and expended for the purpose of cutting fire lanes and fire trails to protect the timber now standing or that may be planted upon the San Bernardino mountains, in the State of California.

Contract with U. S. forest service.

SEC. 2. The state board of control is hereby empowered to enter into a contract or contracts with the forest service of the United States government for the purpose of cutting fire lanes and fire trails for the protection of the forest and brush specified in section one of this act; provided, however, that these expenditures for such purposes shall not be in excess of the amount or amounts to be expended by the forestry department of the federal government in collaboration with the specific work named above; and provided, further, that in case the forestry department of the federal government above mentioned does not contribute the fund for said co-operation, that the state board of control shall not have power to enter into such contract or contracts with the said department for the expenditure of the said money.

CHAPTER 220.

An act to increase the number of judges of the superior court of the State of California, in and for the county of Orange, to provide for the appointment of an additional judge and for his compensation.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The number of judges of the superior court of the State of California, in and for the county of Orange, is hereby increased from one to two. Judges in Orange county.

SEC. 2. Within ten days after the taking effect of this act the governor shall appoint one additional judge of the superior court of the State of California, in and for the county of Orange, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, A. D. nineteen hundred and fifteen. At the next general election to be held in November, 1915, one judge of said court, in addition to the present number provided by law for said county, shall be elected in said county who shall be the successor of the judge appointed hereunder to hold office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law. Appoint-
additional.

SEC. 3. The salary of said one additional judge shall be the same in amount, and shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the salary of the other judge of the said superior court now authorized by law. Salary.

CHAPTER 221.

An act to amend section eight hundred and fifty-eight of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations."

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eight hundred and fifty-eight of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations" is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Meetings,
organization, etc., of trusttees.

SECTION 858. The board of trustees shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the date of said general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, shall choose one of their number president, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month at such time as they shall fix by ordinance, and may adjourn any regular meeting to a date certain, which shall be specified in the order of adjournment, and when so adjourned, such adjourned meeting shall be a regular meeting for all purposes. Special meetings may be called at any time by the president of the board or by three trustees by written notice delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting; all meetings of the board of trustees shall be held within the corporate limits of the city at such place as may be designated by ordinance and shall be public.

CHAPTER 222.

An act for the relief of purchasers of school lands.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Relief of school land purchasers.

SECTION 1. When application has been made to purchase lands from this state and payment of the full purchase price or twenty per cent thereof has been made to the treasurer of the proper county for the same and a certificate of purchase was issued on or after May 1, 1911, to the applicant therefor and such applicant has failed to pay the interest on the unpaid balance of the purchase price of such land, said certificate shall be in full force and effect; provided, all interest due on the balance of the purchase price is paid to the proper county treasurer on or before December 31, 1913.

CHAPTER 223.

An act to amend section twenty of an act entitled "An act to provide for laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, or closing up in whole or in part any street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within municipalities, and to condemn and acquire any and all land and property necessary or convenient for that purpose," approved March 6, 1889.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twenty of an act entitled "An act to provide for laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, or closing up in whole or in part any street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within municipalities, and to condemn and acquire any and all land and property necessary or convenient for that purpose," approved March 6, 1889, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 20. If after the sale of the property for delinquent assessments there should be a deficiency, and there should be unreasonable delay in collecting the same, or if for the purpose of equalizing the assessments supplying a deficiency, or for any cause it appear desirable, the commissioners may so report to the city council, who may order them to make a supplementary assessment and report the same in manner and form as the original, and subject to the same procedure. If by reason of such supplementary assessment, or for any cause, a surplus should remain after all claims against the improvement fund have been paid, the city council may appropriate said surplus and declare a dividend pro rata to the parties paying the same, and they, upon demand, shall have the right to have the amount of such pro rata dividends refunded to them, or credited upon any subsequent assessment for taxes made against said parties in favor of said city; provided, the city council may appropriate and transfer the said surplus to the general fund of the fiscal year in which the surplus exists, if said surplus does not exceed five per cent of the total amount expended out of the improvement fund; and, provided, further, that said surplus so transferred shall in no case exceed one thousand dollars.

Supplementary assessment to meet deficiency.

Pro rata dividend.

CHAPTER 224.

An act authorizing board of supervisors of any county, or city and county, or the trustees or other governing body of any municipality in the State of California to receive devises, bequests, donations and gifts, also to levy taxes, for the purpose of erecting monuments in memory of California pioneers.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of any county, or city and county, or the trustees or other governing body of any municipality, in the state, may receive devises, bequests, donations and gifts, for the purpose of erecting within such county, or city and county, or city, a monument in memory of California pioneers.

Gifts for pioneer monuments.

SEC. 2. When, in the opinion of such board of supervisors or of such trustees or other governing body of a municipality, the devises, bequests, donations and gifts received are sufficient therefor, they may erect such monument.

Erection of monuments.

Question of tax levy for monuments.

SEC. 3. Such board of supervisors, or trustees, or other governing body of a municipality, may submit to the qualified electors of the county, or city and county, or of the city, as the case may be, whether taxes for the erection of a monument to the California pioneers shall be levied on the taxable property of the county, or city and county, or city, as the case may be. The question of levying such tax for such purpose shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the county, or city and county, or municipality, as the case may be, at a general or other election that may be held in such county, or city and county, or municipality. Twenty days' notice thereof shall be previously given by posting in at least three public places in such county, city and county, or municipality. Such notices shall state specifically the amount to be raised and the purpose. If a majority of all the votes cast at such election are in favor of such proposal, the tax herein provided for shall be considered authorized.

Ballots.

SEC. 4. The electors voting at such election shall have placed on their ballots the words "Tax for pioneer monument—Yes" or "Tax for pioneer monument—No."

Levy of tax in county.

SEC. 5. When such tax has been voted in a county, or city and county, the board of supervisors in the next annual levy of taxes, shall levy a tax on the property in such county, or city and county, sufficient to produce the amount voted for for the purpose, and the same shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected.

Levy of
city.

SEC. 6. When such tax has been voted in a city, the trustee or other governing body thereof in the next annual levy of taxes, shall levy a tax on the property in such city, sufficient to produce the amount voted for for the purpose, and the same shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected.

Duty of supervisors and trustees.

SEC. 7. The board of supervisors in case of monuments for a county and the trustees or other governing body of a city, in case of monuments for a city, shall when the taxes so raised and collected are available, proceed to carry out the purpose for which the money was voted by the county, or city and county, or city.

CHAPTER 225.

An act to prevent the importation into the State of California of horses, mules, asses, or cattle which are affected with any infectious or contagious disease; to provide for the inspection of such animals before they are brought into the state; to repeal an act entitled, "An act to prevent the importation of neat cattle for dairy or breeding purposes affected with tuberculosis into the State of California," approved March 7, 1911; to repeal an act entitled, "An act to prevent the importation of horses, mules and asses affected with glanders into the State of California," approved March 7, 1911.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company or corporation, their agents and servants, to bring into the State of California any horses, mules, asses, or cattle, unless such animals have been examined and found free from infectious or contagious diseases, which freedom from disease shall be established by a certificate of health signed by a regularly qualified and practicing veterinarian who is a graduate of a duly recognized and accredited veterinary college of good standing: provided, however, that in case of cattle over six months of age intended to be used for dairy or breeding purposes, said certificate of health shall also state and certify that each individual animal thereof has been personally and carefully inspected and subjected to a physical and clinical examination and also subjected to the tuberculin test, and that each individual animal thereof has been found free from any suspicious symptoms of tuberculosis, or of any infectious or contagious disease other than tuberculosis, and also that each individual animal thereof failed to react to the tuberculin test. Said certificate shall also include a complete temperature record of each animal during the period while undergoing the tuberculin test. The certificate of health and tuberculin test record, as provided for in this act, shall be in duplicate, one copy of which must be attached to the waybill of the shipment, and the other copy shall be forwarded to the state veterinarian of the State of California on the day the shipment is made; provided, further, that any person, firm, company or corporation, their agents and servants, wishing to bring cattle into the State of California for exhibition at fairs, may, by making application to the state veterinarian of the State of California, receive permission to bring such cattle into the State of California for such purpose without the tuberculin test as provided for herein, but in all such cases said permit must be attached to the waybill accompanying the shipment of such cattle; and provided, further, that in case any of such

Penalty.

SEC. 2. Any person, firm, company or corporation, their agents, servants and employees, that shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding one hundred and eighty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Repealed.

SEC. 3. That certain act of the legislature of the State of California entitled, "An act to prevent the importation of neat cattle for dairy or breeding purposes affected with tuberculosis into the State of California," approved March 7, 1911, is hereby expressly repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 4. That certain act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled, "An act to prevent the importation of horses, mules and asses affected with glanders into the State of California," approved March 7, 1911, is hereby expressly repealed.

SEC. 5. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 226.

An act to amend section 1 of an act entitled "An act regulating the hours of labor of conductors, engineers, firemen, brakemen, train dispatchers and telegraph operators employed by any corporation or receiver operating a line of railway, in whole or in part, in the State of California, and presenting penalties for violation of this act" approved April 21, 1911.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of an act entitled "An act regulating the hours of labor of conductors, engineers, firemen, brakemen, train dispatchers and telegraph operators employed by any corporation or receiver operating a line of railway, in whole or in part, in the State of California, and presenting penalties for violation of this act, approved April 21, 1911, is amended to read as follows:

Section 1. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any corporation or receiver operating any line of steam, electric railroad, or other railway, in whole or in part, in this state, or any officer, agent or representative of such corporation to require or knowingly permit any conductor, motorman, engineer, fireman, brakeman, train dispatcher, or telegraph operator to be or remain on duty for a longer period than sixteen consecutive hours. And whenever any such employee of such common carrier shall have been continuously on duty for sixteen hours he shall be relieved and not required or permitted again to go on duty until he has had at least ten consecutive hours off duty; and no such employee who has been on duty sixteen hours in the aggregate in any twenty-four-hour period shall be required or permitted to continue or again go on duty without having had at least eight consecutive hours off duty; provided, that no operator, train dispatcher, or other employee who by the use of the telegraph or telephone dispatches, reports, transmits, receives or delivers orders pertaining to or affecting train movements shall be required or permitted to be or remain on duty for a longer period than nine hours in any twenty-four hours, in all towers, offices, places, and stations continuously operated night and day, nor for a longer period than thirteen hours in all towers, offices, places and stations operated only during the daytime, except in case of emergency; when the employees named in this proviso may be permitted to be and remain on duty for four additional hours in a twenty-four hour period or not exceeding three days in any week; provided, that the provisions of this act shall not apply in any case of casualty or unavoidable accident, or the act of God; nor where the delay was the result of a cause not known to the carrier or its officer or agent in charge of such employee at the time said employee left a terminal, and which could not have been foreseen; and provided, further, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the crews of wrecking or relief trains.

CHAPTER 227.

An act to create the office of attorney for the state bureau of labor statistics.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Attorney
for state bureau of labor statistics.
Duties.

SECTION 1. The office of attorney for the state bureau of labor statistics is hereby created. Said attorney shall be appointed by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of such attorney to act for and represent the state bureau of labor statistics and the commissioner thereof in all legal matters which may require the attention of such state bureau of labor statistics and the commissioner thereof, and to specially represent and act for and in co-operation thereof, when required, in the prevention of all acts and things which, in the judgment of the state bureau of labor statistics or the commissioner thereof, as will best subserve and carry out the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to establish and support a bureau of labor statistics," approved March 3, 1883; and also, all other acts which have been or may be hereafter designated by the legislature to be enforced by said state bureau of labor statistics or the commissioner thereof, and in all other matters pertaining to the welfare of minors and labor generally and to assist and aid the said bureau and the commissioner thereof with his advice, and to represent and act for the same in court.

Salary.

SEC. 3. The salary of such attorney shall be twenty-four hundred dollars per annum and shall be paid out of the state treasury, upon warrants drawn by the controller, in the same manner as the salaries of other state officers are paid.

SEC. 4. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 228.

An act to validate the organization and incorporation of municipal corporations.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Municipal corporations
validated.

SECTION 1. All municipal corporations, the organization and incorporation of which have been authenticated by an order of a board of supervisors in this state, declaring the same incorporated as municipal corporations of the classes to which such corporations may respectively belong, and a certi-filed copy of which order has been filed by such board of supervisors in the office of the secretary of state, and which corporations thereafter have acted in the form and manner of municipal corporations under the provisions of "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and the amendments thereto are hereby declared to be and to have been municipal corporations from the date of filing the certified copy of said order of the board of supervisors with the secretary of state; and all acts of the said municipal corporations heretofore performed according to the act aforesaid, are hereby validated, and declared to be legal; provided, however, that all municipal corporations shall be excepted from the operation of this act where the right to act as such is being contested or inquired into in any legal proceeding brought within six months after the certified copy of the order of the board of supervisors was filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Except in cases of contest within six months after organization.

CHAPTER 229.

An act to enlarge the powers of the board of state harbor commissioners, and to authorize said board to locate, construct, maintain, and operate the state railroad and railroad tracks and appurtenances through, over, under and upon state lands, and lands within its jurisdiction or the water front, and city streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, places or property, or lands or property of the United States, or private property, in the city and county of San Francisco, and to obtain licenses, grants, permits or easements or rights of way therefor, and to construct tunnels, bridges, drawbridges and other appurtenances as incident thereto, and to impose tolls or compensation for and upon the use of the same and to regulate the use therefor.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of state harbor commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered (in addition to the powers now granted, or which may hereafter be granted to it by law) to locate, construct, maintain, operate and extend the state railroad, and railroad tracks, through, over, under and upon any state lands, or lands within its jurisdiction, or the water front as defined in section 2524 of the Political Code, or through, over, under and upon any streets, avenues, alleys, lanes, places or property of the city and county of San Francisco, or lands or property of the United States of America, or private property in said city and county of San Francisco, in which and where it may then have a license, permission, easement or right of way therefor, together with all necessary trackage, switches, spurs, turnouts, fills, cuts, tunnels, trestles, bridges, drawbridges, signals and other appliances, appurtenances and incidents necessary to make the same complete and convenient for use.

Rights
from Panama-Pacific Company.

SEC. 2. The powers conferred by this act shall include:

(1) Power and authority to obtain from Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company, a corporation, an assignment of its rights under an act of congress approved June 28, 1912, entitled, "An act granting a right of way to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company, or such successors or assigns as may be approved by the secretary of war, across the Fort Mason military reservation in California."

Approval of secretary of war.

(2) Power and authority to obtain the approval of the secretary of war to such assignment, and to locate a railroad and tunnel upon and across said reservation and to ordain regulations therefor and for the use thereof and to obtain the approval of the secretary of war thereto.

Tolls and charges.

(3) Power and authority to construct such railroad and tunnel upon and across said reservation as a part of and incident to said state railroad and railroad tracks; provided, that said board shall impose such tolls, charges and compensation for passage through said tunnel upon all freight and upon all passenger cars passing therethrough (which tolls shall be exclusive of and in addition to the ordinary compensation for the use of said railroad and railroad tracks) as shall provide within a limited time for the repayment of the cost of the construction of such tunnel. Such tolls and charges shall be in conformity with the requirements and subject to the approval of the secretary of war in that behalf and shall be so charged, imposed and collected until the cost of the construction of such tunnel shall have been repaid.

Grants
from San Francisco.

(4) Power and authority to obtain from the city and county of San Francisco proper and necessary grants, license or permission to extend, construct, maintain and operate the said state railroad and railroad tracks along, over and upon such public streets, avenues, alleys or property of said city and county of San Francisco as may be necessary for the extension of said state railroad or railroad tracks.

Acquisition of rights of way.

(5) Power and authority to acquire rights of way and lands necessary for such extension from the owners of private property, either by grant or by condemnation proceedings; and in that behalf the provisions of law relating to the exercise of the right of eminent domain shall apply and inure [inure] to the benefit of said board, and to such proceedings.

Use of road and tunnel.

(6) Power and authority to permit the passage over and through, and the use of said railroad and tunnel to any corporation or association, person or persons for passenger street cars for such time and under such rules and regulations and at such compensation as said board may determine.

(7) Power and authority to obtain license and permission from the United States government to extend, locate, construct, operate and maintain the said railroad and railroad tracks in and through the Presidio reservation in said city and county in such location and subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the United States government.

Through Presidio reservation.

SEC. 3. The enumeration of powers contained in section 2 of this act shall not be deemed exclusive or to limit the general powers conferred by section 1 hereof.

CHAPTER 230.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the creation of a board of parole commissioners for each county in this state, for the paroling of prisoners confined in county jails, and authorizing and empowering such boards to make rules and regulations in relation thereto," approved March 25, 1909, by amending section 1 of said act so as to make said act applicable to all jails, and to all prisoners imprisoned for misdemeanor, whether in county jails or in city prisons.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The act known as chapter 452 of the Statutes of 1909 is amended to read as follows:

Section 1. A board of three parole commissioners for each county in this state, consisting of the sheriff and the district attorney of each said county and the chief of police (or other chief or sole peace officer) of every city which now is or hereafter may be the county seat of any such county, is hereby created for each such county, which board shall and must as a board of parole commissioners for and in each county, and make and establish rules and regulations under which any prisoner who is now or hereafter may be imprisoned in the county jail of said county, or in the city jail of any city in any county, or in any jail as the prisoner of any city, or in any other jail in any such county, after judgment of conviction for the commission of a misdemeanor, may be allowed to go upon parole outside of any jail in which he is or may be hereafter imprisoned, but to remain, while on parole, in the legal custody and under the control of the board of parole commissioners establishing the rule and regulations for his parole, and subject, at any time, to be taken back within the enclosure of any such jail. Full power to make, establish and enforce such rules and regulations, and to retake and imprison any prisoner so upon parole, is hereby conferred upon each such board of parole commissioners: and its written order shall be a sufficient warrant for all officers named in such order to authorize them, or any of them, to return to actual custody any conditionally released or paroled prisoner. It shall be and is hereby made the duty of all chiefs of police, marshals of cities and villages, sheriffs of counties, constables, and all other police and peace officers of this state to execute any such order in like manner as ordinary criminal process. If any prisoner so paroled shall leave the county in which he was or is or hereafter may be so imprisoned without permission from the board of parole commissioners granting his parole, he shall be arrested as an escaped prisoner and held as such.

To succeed former board.

SEC. 2. The board of parole commissioners created by this amendment of said act shall be the successor to and the substitute for the board of parole commissioners specified in section 1 of said act prior to this amendment thereof, and shall have, possess and enforce the powers, rights and duties as to prisoners paroled by such former board, as such former board had, possessed and could enforce. Upon the taking effect of this act, such former board of parole commissioners shall cease to exist.

CHAPTER 231.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act authorizing any incorporated town, city or municipal corporation to permit the construction and maintenance of any state or county highway or boulevard over highways or streets in its incorporated limits, or any portion thereof, by the supervisors or highway commissioners of the county," approved March 19, 1909, and permitting boards of supervisors to construct and maintain such bridge or bridges on such highways or boulevards as they may deem necessary and to permit such boards of supervisors to macadamize or pave or gutter such highway or boulevard, and providing the manner in which the cost and expense thereof shall be paid.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act authorizing any incorporated town, city or municipal corporation to permit the construction and maintenance of any state or county highway or boulevard over highways or streets in its incorporated limits, or any portion thereof, by the supervisors or highway commissioners of the county," approved March 19, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Use of streets as part of

An act to provide for the issuance and sale of state bonds to be known as "state building bonds," to provide a fund for the erection and equipment of state buildings in the city of Sacramento for state purposes, creating a commission to determine the amount to be expended for furnishing and equipping said buildings and accepting a suitable site, creating a sinking and interest fund for the payment of interest on said bonds and the redemption of the same, making an appropriation therefor, making an appropriation of five thousand dollars for the expenses of printing and lithographing said bonds and providing for the submission of this act to a vote of the people.

*Sacramento
Relig 1913
Bonds*

[Approved June 5, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of creating and providing a fund for the indebtedness hereby authorized to be incurred,

Bonds
for state

as hereinafter provided, the state treasurer shall immediately after the issuance of the proclamation of the governor, provided for in section ten hereof, prepare six thousand suitable bonds of the State of California, in the denomination of five hundred dollars each. The whole issue of said bonds shall not exceed the sum of three million dollars, and said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum from the date of issuance thereof, and both principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the present standard of value, and they shall be payable at the office of the state treasurer, at the expiration of fifty years from their date. Said bonds shall bear date the second day of July, 1915, and shall be payable on the second day of July, 1965. The interest accruing on such of said bonds as are sold shall be due and payable at the office of the state treasurer on the second day of January and on the second day of July of each year after the sale of the same. At the expiration of fifty years from the date of said bonds all bonds sold shall cease to bear interest, and the state treasurer shall call in, forthwith pay and cancel the same out of the moneys in the sinking and interest fund provided for in this act. All bonds issued shall be signed by the governor, and countersigned by the controller, and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer, and the said bonds shall be so signed, countersigned, and endorsed by the officers who are in office on the second day of July, 1915, and each of said bonds shall have the seal of the state impressed thereon. The said bonds signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed as herein provided when sold shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, though the sale thereof be made at a date or dates after the person signing, countersigning and endorsing, or any or either of them, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of such office or offices.

SEC. 2. Interest coupons shall be attached to each of said bonds, so that such coupons may be removed without injury to or mutilation of the bond. Said bonds shall be consecutively numbered, and shall bear the lithographed signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the second day of July, 1915. But no interest on any of said bonds shall be paid for any time which may intervene between the date of any of said bonds and the issue and sale thereof to a purchaser, unless such accrued interest shall have been, by the purchaser of said bond, paid to the state at the time of such sale.

SEC. 3. The sum of five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared.

SEC. 4. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be sold by the state treasurer at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in such parcels and numbers as shall be directed by the governor of the state; but the state treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date and he may, by public announcement, at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. When a sale is continued, as hereinabove provided, no notice need be given other than the public announcement of the continuance, as hereinabove provided. Before offering any of said bonds for sale, the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured before the date fixed for such sale. (Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in one newspaper published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, once a week during four weeks prior to such sale.) In addition to the notice last above provided for the state treasurer must give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expenses and costs of such additional notice shall not exceed five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised. The costs of such publications shall be paid out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated on controller's warrants duly drawn for such purpose. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds, except such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon, shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the state treasury, and must be by him kept in a separate fund, to be known and designated as the "state buildings fund" which fund is hereby established. Any and all sums which may have been paid as accrued interest shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the state treasury, and must be by him kept in a separate fund to be known and designated as the "state buildings sinking and interest fund," which fund is hereby established.

able to the state board last above created, shall be donated or given to the state, the title thereto to be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances; the number of buildings and their location on the lands to be donated shall be determined by said board in this subdivision of this section mentioned; the plans and specifications for said buildings, and each of the same, shall be prepared under the direction and control of said board in this subdivision of this section provided for.

Annual
principal
appropriation.

SEC. 6. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of fifty thousand (50,000) dollars annually, to pay the principal of the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act. Said annual appropriation to continue until the same, together with the accrued interest on the investment thereof, shall be sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds at the maturity thereof.

Annual
interest
appropriation.

There is also hereby appropriated from any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated such sum annually as will be necessary to pay the interest on the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act.

State revenue to be collected.

There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other state revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the other revenues of the state, as shall be required to pay the principal and interest on said bonds as herein provided and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collection of said revenue to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum.

Semi-
annual transfer of funds.

On the 2d day of January and on the 2d day of July of each year, after the sale of any bonds as herein provided for, the state treasurer and state controller shall transfer from the moneys hereby appropriated to the state buildings sinking and interest fund, a sufficient sum of money to pay all interest due and payable on any bonds sold and said transfer shall continue to be so made up to the date of maturity of such bonds and it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay the same when the same falls due. On the first Monday in July of each year, after the sale of any of the bonds as in this act provided the state controller and state treasurer are hereby authorized and directed to transfer the moneys hereby appropriated for the payment of the principal of said bonds to the said state buildings sinking and interest fund. The moneys so transferred to the said state buildings sinking and interest fund for the payment of the principal of said bonds, shall be invested from time to time by the state treasurer in United States or state bonds. All interest payable on such bonds so invested shall be paid into the said state buildings sinking and interest fund and be applied and held for the payment of the principal of said bonds or reinvested in other bonds for the payment of such principal, as herein provided.

Investment of funds.

Payment of principal and interest.

The principal of all of said bonds sold shall be paid at the time the same becomes due, from the "state buildings sinking and interest fund" and the interest on all bonds sold shall be paid at the time said interest becomes due from said fund and the faith of the State of California is hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of said bonds so sold and the interest accruing thereon.

The state controller and the state treasurer shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

Annual report of controller and treasurer to governor.

SEC. 7. When the bonds provided for by this act are redeemed, the state treasurer shall mark the same cancelled, and shall, in the presence of the governor destroy the same by burning the said bonds.

Redeemed bonds destroyed.

SEC. 8. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the thirty-first day of December, 1914, as to all its provisions excepting those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall go into effect ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature passing the same.

In effect December 31, 1914.

SEC. 9. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election to be holden in the month of November, nineteen hundred and fourteen, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon the words "For the state's buildings bonds" and such other designation as may be necessary to properly identify this act. In a square immediately below the square containing said words there shall be printed on said ballot the words "Against the state buildings bonds." Opposite the words "For the state buildings bonds" and "Against the state buildings bonds," there shall be left spaces in which the voters may make or stamp a cross to indicate whether they vote for or against this act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the state buildings bonds" and those voting against said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the state buildings bonds." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Section 1. Every candidate who is voted for at any public election held within the state shall, within fifteen days after the day of holding such election, file, as hereinafter provided, an itemized statement, showing in detail all moneys paid, loaned, contributed, or otherwise furnished to him, or for his use, directly or indirectly, in aid of his election, and all money contributed, loaned, or expended by him, directly or indirectly by himself or through any other person, in aid of his election. Such statement shall give the names of the various persons who paid, loaned, contributed, or otherwise furnished such moneys in aid of his election, and the names of the various persons to whom such moneys were contributed, loaned or paid, the specific nature of each item, the service performed, and by whom performed, and the purpose for which the money was expended, contributed or loaned. If the candidate seeks to avoid the responsibility of any illegal payment made by any other person in his behalf, he shall set out such illegal payment and disclaim responsibility therefor. Candidates for office to be filled by the electors of the state, or of any political division thereof greater than a county, and for members of the senate and assembly, representative in congress, or members of the state board of equalization, or state board of railroad commissioners, shall file their statements in the office of the secretary of state. Candidates for all other offices shall file their statements in the office of the clerk of the county wherein the election is held, and within which the duties of the office for which the candidate is voted for are to be exercised. The statement of a committee or candidate shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder, and shall, after being filed, become a public record, and open at all times to public inspection and no fee or charge whatsoever shall be collected or made by any officer herein specified for filing or recording any statement required to be filed or recorded under the provisions of this act. Vouchers must be filed for all expenditures, except in the case of sums under five dollars. Vouchers.

CHAPTER 239.

An act to provide for the payment of municipal bonds before maturity.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The legislative body of any municipality of this state proposing to incur indebtedness by the issuance of bonds may, in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds and prescribing the manner in which the same shall be payable, also provide that a certain portion of such bonds, to be determined and specified in such ordinance or resolution, will be paid by the municipality each year after the incurring of such bonded indebtedness and prior to maturity of such portion of said bonds, at the option of the holders thereof, subject, however, to the conditions hereinafter prescribed. Such advance payment of bonds shall be in addition to and exclusive of the payment, at maturity, of bonds of the same issue. Payment of bonds before maturity.

SEC. 2. The legislative body of the municipality shall, in the ordinance or resolution wherein provision is made for the payment, prior to maturity, of bonds of such municipality, also prescribe the method or procedure for determining the particular bonds to be so paid, and the manner in which the same shall be so payable, and also fix the amount to be paid by the municipality in lieu of interest on such bonds accrued but not due at the time of the payment of the bonds, which amount shall not exceed the amount of such accrued interest. Determination of bonds to be paid.

SEC. 3. In case provision shall be made for the payment of bonds of a municipality in advance of the maturity thereof, as hereinabove prescribed, such municipality, through its proper officers, shall levy and collect each year, until all such bonds are paid, or until there shall be a sum in the treasury of such municipality, set apart for that purpose, to meet all sums due or to become due on the principal of such bonds, a tax which, with any other funds in such treasury, set apart for the purpose, shall be sufficient to pay the portion of such bonds which may become payable, under the terms of the ordinance or resolution aforesaid, before the maturity thereof and prior to the time for fixing the next general tax levy. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied and collected for municipal purposes and for meeting payments on the principal and interest of such bonded indebtedness as they fall due, and shall be levied and collected. Tax to meet such payment.

at the time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and be used for the purpose of paying bonds prior to the maturity thereof, as hereinabove provided, and for no other purpose.

From what able.

SEC. 4. The amount fixed by such legislative body to be paid in lieu of interest, accrued but not due, on bonds, as provided in section two of this act, shall be paid by the municipality out of the fund provided in its treasury for meeting sums coming due for interest on such bonds, and, at the time of the payment of such bonds, said amount, together with all interest due and unpaid thereon, shall be paid by the municipality upon presentation and surrender of all outstanding coupons for interest on such bonds.

CHAPTER 240.

An act authorizing municipalities of the fifth and sixth classes to declare weeds growing upon public streets to be a nuisance, providing a means for the abatement of said nuisance, and collecting the cost of removing such weeds from the owners of abutting land.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Weeds on streets.
nuisance.

SECTION 1. Municipalities of the fifth and sixth classes of the state are hereby authorized to declare all weeds growing upon any public street including the sidewalks thereon in such municipalities to be a public nuisance, to abate such nuisance in the manner herein provided and to collect the cost of removing such weeds from the street from the owners of abutting land thereon.

Resolution by city
trustees.

SEC. 2. The legislative body of any municipality of the fifth and sixth classes whenever weeds are growing upon any street in such municipality, may, by resolution adopted by such legislative body, declare the same to be a nuisance, which said resolution shall specify the street or streets or any portion of said street upon which such nuisance exists; such resolution shall direct the superintendent of streets or person performing the duties of street supervision, to give the notice required by the section succeeding hereto.

Publication not necessary.

SEC. 3. The resolution may be passed at the meeting in which it is first introduced, and without publication thereof, and the superintendent of streets shall cause to be immediately posted along the line of street or streets or portion of streets named in such resolution, a notice substantially in the following form:

Notice to be posted.

NOTICE TO DESTROY WEEDS.

The board of trustees of the city of _____ having on the _____ day of _____, declared by resolution that all weeds growing on ----- street, or portion of ----- street, in said city, are a public nuisance, and having commanded the abatement of the same,

Notice is hereby given to all owners of property fronting upon the street above named, in front of which property such nuisance exists, to abate the same within ten (10) days from the date of this notice by the removal of such weeds.

Upon failure to abate the same as herein required such weeds will be removed by the municipal authorities of said city, and the cost of such removal will be made a legal charge against the owner of the land abutting the street on the side of the street, on which side said weeds were removed, in favor of the city of ----- and said city may collect the cost of removing said weeds from the owner of said land by an action brought in the recorder's court of said city.

Dated this ----- day of -----

 Superintendent of streets of city
 of -----

The above notice shall be posted along the line of the street or portions of street named therein, at intervals of not less than fifty feet. and said notices shall be posted for ten (10) days prior to the time stated therein as the time at which failure to abate such nuisance will give these municipal authorities the right to abate the same. where posted.

SEC. 4. If upon the expiration of ten (10) days after the posting of the notice required to be given by the preceding section, the owner or owners of real property fronting the street named therein, in front of which such nuisance exists, fails or neglects to abate the same, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets of such city to abate the same by the removal of such weeds. He shall keep an account of the cost of abating such nuisance in front of each separate lot or parcel of land fronting such street, including the cost of printing the notices, particularly specifying the cost of abatement to be charged against each such separate lot or parcel of land. He shall file such statement or account with the legislative body of the city, and such legislative body shall pay such cost out of the general fund of such municipality. The superintendent of streets thereupon shall send a notice by mail to said owners of lots or parcels of land in front of which said weeds have been removed by the municipal authorities, demanding the payment of the amount of the cost of removing said weeds, and if said owner does not pay the same within ten days after the date of said notice demanding the payment of said costs of removal of said weeds said city may institute an action against said owner of land for the collection at law of said costs of removal of weeds in the recorder's court of the city where said weeds were removed. After ten days street superintendent to remove weeds.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect immediately. Notice to owner of cost.

CHAPTER 241.

An act to amend section 650 of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the terms and powers of the trustees of colleges and seminaries of learning.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and fifty of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Classification of trustees.

650. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation the board of trustees shall, as soon as organized, so classify themselves that one fifth of their number shall go out of office every year, and thereafter the trustees shall hold office for five years. A majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where the number of trustees exceeds thirteen they may, in the by-laws, provide that not less than seven shall constitute a quorum. The office of the corporation shall be at the college or seminary or at such place as shall be designated by the board of trustees.

Quorum.

Powers.

The trustees shall have the power:

1. To elect, by ballot, annually one of their number as president of the board.
2. Upon the death, removal out of the state, or other vacancy in the office, or expiration of the term of any trustee, to elect another in his place who shall hold office for the time and under the conditions prescribed in the by-laws of the corporation; provided, that where there are graduates of the institution, such graduates may, under such rules as the board shall prescribe, nominate persons to fill vacancies in the board of trustees. Such nominations shall be considered by the board, but it may reject any or all such nominations, and of its own motion appoint others.
3. To elect additional trustees; provided, the whole number elected shall never exceed thirty at any one time.
4. To declare vacant the seat of any trustee who shall absent himself from eight succeeding meetings of the board.
5. To receive and hold, by purchase, gift, devise, bequest, or grant, real or personal property for educational purposes connected with the corporation, or for the benefit of the institution.
6. To sell, mortgage, lease and otherwise use and dispose of the property of the corporation in such manner as they shall deem most conducive to the prosperity of the corporation.
7. To direct and prescribe the course of study and discipline to be observed in the college or seminary.
8. To appoint a president of the college or seminary, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the trustees.
9. To appoint such professors, tutors, and other officers as they shall deem necessary, who shall hold their offices during Powers. the pleasure of the trustees.

10. To grant such literary honors as are usually granted by any university, college, or seminary of learning in the United States and in testimony thereof to give suitable diplomas under their seal, and the signature of such officers of the corporation and the institution as they shall deem expedient.

11. To fix salaries of the president, professors, and other officers and employces of the college or seminary.

12. Subject to the consent and approval of the organization, society or church to which it is required by the articles of incorporation that said trustees shall belong, to make all by-laws and ordinances necessary and proper to carry into effect the preceding powers and necessary to advance the interests of the college or seminary; provided, that no by-laws or ordinances shall conflict with the constitution or laws of the United States, or of this state.

CHAPTER 242.

An act to amend section one thousand five hundred and seventy-six of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to cities constituting separate school districts and to the annexation of additional territory thereto.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand five hundred and seventy-six of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1576. Every city or incorporated town, except cities and towns of the sixth class, unless subdivided by the legislative authority thereof, shall constitute a separate school district, which shall be governed by the board of education or board of school trustees of such city or incorporated town; provided, that whenever a city or town shall be incorporated, except a city or town of the sixth class, the board of supervisors of the county may annex thereto, for school purposes only, the remainder, or any part of the remainder, of the district or districts from which such city or incorporated town was organized, whenever a majority of the heads of families residing therein, shall petition for such annexation; and provided, further, that the board of supervisors may include more territory than the remainder of the district or districts from which the city or incorporated town was organized, whenever a petition for such purpose is presented to them, signed by a majority of the heads of families residing in such additional territory. When said remainder or part thereof, or said additional outside territory, has been annexed to said city or incorporated town, it shall be deemed a part of said city or incorporated town for the purpose of holding the general municipal election, and shall form one or more election precincts, as may be determined by the legislative authority of said city or incorporated town, the qualified electors of which shall vote only for the board of education, or the board of school trustees; and such outside territory shall be deemed to be a part of said city or incorporated town for all matters connected with the school department thereof, for the annual levying and collecting of the property tax for the school fund of said city or incorporated town; and for all purposes specified in sections one thousand eight hundred and eighty to one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight of this code, inclusive; provided, however, that the last assessment roll made by the county assessor shall be the only basis of taxation for such school district on the property outside the corporate limits so annexed for school purposes.

CHAPTER 243.

An act to amend sections two, three, ten, twelve and fifty-five of an act entitled, "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, and adding a new section to said act to be known as section 12 1-1, relating to re-assessments.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of an act entitled, "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the city council is hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole or any portion, either in length or width, of any one or more of the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places, boulevards, highways, crossings, intersections or public ways of any such city graded or regraded to the official grade, planked or replanked, paved or repaved, macadamized or remacadamized, graveled or regraveled, piled or repiled, capped or recapped, oiled or recoiled, and to order the construction or reconstruction therein of sidewalks, crosswalks, culverts, bridges, gutters, curbs, steps, parkings and parkways, sewers, ditches, drains, conduits and channels for sanitary and drainage purposes or either or both thereof, with outlets, cesspools, manholes, catch basins, flush tanks, septic tanks, connecting sewers, ditches, drains, conduits, channels and other appurtenances, pipes, hydrants and appliances for fire protection, tunnels, viaducts, conduits and subways, breakwaters, levees, bulkheads and walls of rock or other material to protect the same from overflow or injury by water, and poles, posts, wires, pipes, conduits, lamps and other suitable or necessary appliances for the purpose of lighting the same, the planting of trees thereon, and the construction or reconstruction in, over or through property or rights of way owned by such city, of tunnels, sewers, ditches, drains, conduits and channels for sanitary and drainage purposes or either or both thereof, with necessary outlets, cesspools, man-holes, catch basins, flush tanks, septic tanks, connecting sewers, ditches, drains, conduits, channels and other appurtenances, pipes, hydrants and appliances for fire protection and breakwaters, levees, bulkheads and walls of rock or other material to protect the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places, public ways and other property in any such city, from overflow by water, and to order any work to be done which shall be deemed necessary to improve the whole or any portion of such streets, avenues, sidewalks, lanes, alleys, courts, places or public ways or property or rights of way of such city, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, maintenance or repair of any public utility owned or proposed to be acquired by any municipal corporation, or the pipes, wires, conduits and other appliances and appurtenances for the operation thereof; provided, that such acquisition of any public utility already installed, and any of the appliances and appurtenances thereof shall not be included in the same proceeding with any of the other improvements mentioned in this section.

Acquisition of public utility.

SEC. 2. Section three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. Before ordering any work done or improvement made, which is authorized by section 2 of this act, the city council shall pass a resolution of intention so to do, and describing the work, which shall be posted conspicuously for two days on or near the chamber door of said council, and published by two insertions in one or more daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspapers published and circulated in said city and designated by said council for that purpose. Whenever the construction of culverts, bridges, gutters, curbs, steps, parkings and parkways, sewers, ditches, drains, conduits and channels for sanitary and drainage purposes, or either or both thereof, together with appurtenances, pipes, wires, conduits and other appliances and appurtenances, constitutes the work or improvement or any portion thereof mentioned in the resolution of intention, such resolution of intention shall be sufficient if it mentions the fact that the construction of said improvements, or such of them as it be desired to have done in the work or improvement, is embraced in the said work or improvement, briefly describes the same and refers to plans and specifications on file with the city engineer or city clerk for particulars. The street superintendent shall, after the passage of the resolution of intention, cause to be conspicuously posted along all streets and parts of streets or other public places and rights of way where any work is to be done or improvement made at not more than three hundred (300) feet apart but not less than three in all, or when the work to be done is only upon an entire crossing or any part thereof, in front of each quarter block and irregular block liable to be assessed, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notices shall be headed "Notice of Street Work," in letters of not less than one inch in length, and shall, in legible characters, state the fact of the passage of the resolution, its date and briefly describe the work or improvement proposed, and refer to the resolution for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice similar in substance, to be published by two insertions in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city, and designated by said city council, or in cities where there is no daily newspaper by one insertion in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated. In case there is no such paper published in said city, said notice shall be posted for six days on or near the chamber door of said council, and in two other conspicuous places in said city, as hereinafter provided. The city clerk shall immediately upon the passage of said resolution of intention mail, postage prepaid, to each property owner whose property is to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses of said improvement at his last known address as the same appears upon the tax rolls of said city, or when no address so appears, to the general delivery, a postal card containing a notice which shall be in the following or substantially the following form (filling blanks):

"You are hereby notified that on the ----- day of -----, 19--, the council of the city of -----, California, by virtue of an act commonly known as 'the Vrooman act,' passed a resolution of intention providing for the improvement of ----- street between ----- street and ----- street. You are hereby referred to the said resolution for further particulars. Property belonging to you is to be assessed for this improvement.

----- City Clerk."

If any lots or parcels of land in the assessment district be assessed to "unknown owners" on the tax rolls of said city, no postal cards containing such notice need be mailed to the owners thereof. The city clerk shall, upon the completion of the mailing of said postal cards, file in the office of the superintendent of streets an affidavit setting forth the time and manner of the compliance with this requirement; provided, that the failure of the city clerk to mail said cards, or the failure of the property owners to receive the same, or the failure of the superintendent of streets to post the notices of street work, shall in no wise affect the validity of the proceedings or prevent the city council from acquiring jurisdiction to order the work; provided, however, that the city council may require affidavits to be filed showing the posting and mailing of notices before it adopts the resolution ordering the work. The owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on said proposed work or improvement where the same is for one block or more, may make a written objection to the same within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication and posting of said notice, which objection shall be delivered to the clerk of the city council who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him, and such objections so delivered and indorsed shall be a bar for six months to any further proceedings in relation to the doing of said work or making said improvements, unless the owners of one half or more of the frontage, as aforesaid, shall meanwhile petition for the same to be done. At any time before the issuance of the assessment roll, all owners of lots or lands liable to assessment therein, who, after the first publication of said resolution of intention, may feel aggrieved, or who may have objections to any of the subsequent proceedings of said council in relation to the performance of the work mentioned in said notice of intention, shall file with the clerk a petition of remonstrance, wherein they shall state in what respect they feel aggrieved, or the proceedings to which they object; such petition or remonstrance shall be passed upon by the said city council, and its decision therein shall be final and conclusive. But when the work or improvement proposed to be done is the construction of sewers, manholes, culverts, or cesspools, crosswalks, or sidewalks, curbs and gutters, and the objection thereto is signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage liable to be assessed for the expense of said work, as aforesaid, the city council shall, at its next meeting, fix a time for hearing said objections, not less than one week thereafter. The city clerk shall thereupon notify the persons making such objections, by depositing a notice thereof in the postoffice of said city, postage prepaid, addressed to each objector, or his agent, when he appears for such objector. At the time specified said city council shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive, and the said bar for six months to any further proceedings shall not be applicable thereto. And when not more than two blocks, including street crossings, remain ungraded to the official grade, or otherwise unimproved, in whole or in part, and a block or more on each side upon said street has been so graded or otherwise improved, or when not more than two blocks at the end of a street remain so ungraded or otherwise unimproved, said city council may order any of the work mentioned in this act to be done upon said intervening ungraded or unimproved part of said street, or at the end of a street, and said work upon said intervening part, or at the end of a street, shall not be stayed or prevented by any written or other objection unless such council shall deem proper. And if one half or more in width or in length, or as to grading, one half or more of the grading work of any street lying and being between two successive main street crossings, or if a crossing has been already partially graded or improved as aforesaid, said council may order the remainder improved, graded or otherwise, notwithstanding such objections of property owners. time of said publication by said street superintendent, and at the expiration of twenty-five days after the advertising and posting, as aforesaid, of any resolution of intention, if no written objection to the work therein described has been delivered, as aforesaid, by the owners of a major frontage of the property fronting on said proposed work or improvement, or if any written objection purporting to be signed by the owners of a major frontage is disallowed by said council, as not of itself barring said work for six months, because in its judgment, said objection has not been legally signed by the owners of a majority of said frontage, the city council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order any of the work to be done, or improvement to be made, which is authorized by this act; which order, when made, shall be published for two days, the same as provided for the publication of the resolution of intention. Before passing any resolution for the construction of said improvements, plans and specifications and careful estimates of the costs and expenses thereof shall be furnished to said city council, if required by it, by the city engineer of said city; and for the work of constructing sewers, specifications shall always be furnished by him. Whenever the contemplated work or improvement in the opinion of the city council, is of more than local or ordinary public benefit, or whenever, according to estimates to be furnished by the city engineer, the total estimated costs and expenses thereof would exceed one half the total assessed value of the lots and lands assessed, if assessed upon the lots or land fronting upon said proposed work or improvement, according to the valuation fixed by the last assessment roll whereon it was assessed for taxes for municipal purposes, and allowing a reasonable depth from such frontage for lots or lands assessed in bulk, the city council may make the expense of such work or improvement chargeable upon a district, which said city council shall, in its resolution of intention, declare to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof. Said resolution of intention shall in general terms describe the said district and refer to a plat or map approved by the city council, which shall indicate by a boundary line the extent of the territory to be included in said assessment district, which plat or map shall be on file in the office of the city engineer before said superintendent of streets shall proceed with the publication and posting of the notices of street work, and shall govern for all details as to the extent of the said assessment district. Objections to the extent of the district of lands to be affected or benefited by said work or improvement, and to be assessed to pay the cost and expenses thereof, may be made by interested parties, in writing, within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication of the notice of the passage of the resolution of intention. The city clerk shall lay such objections before the city council, which shall, at its next meeting, fix a time for hearing said objections not less than one week thereafter. The city clerk shall thereupon notify the persons making such objections by depositing a notice thereof in the postoffice of said city, postage prepaid, addressed to each objector. At the time specified the city council shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive. If the objections are sustained, all proceedings shall be stopped; but proceedings may be immediately again commenced by giving the notice of intention to do the said work or make said improvements. If the objections are overruled by the city council, the proceedings shall continue the same as if such objections had not been made.

SEC. 3. Section ten of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 10. The contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall call upon the persons assessed, or their agents, if they can conveniently be found, and demand payment of the amount assessed to each. If any payment be made, the contractor, his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall receipt the same upon the assessment in presence of the person making such payment, and shall also give a separate receipt if demanded. Whenever the person so assessed, or his agent, cannot conveniently be found, or whenever the name of the owner of the lot is stated as "unknown" on the assessment, then the said contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall publicly demand payment on the premises assessed. Demand for payment of assessment. The warrant shall be returned to the superintendent of streets within thirty days after its date, with a return indorsed thereon, signed by the contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, verified upon oath, stating the nature and character of the demand, and whether any of the assessments remain unpaid, in whole or in part, and the amount thereof. Thereupon the superintendent of streets shall record the return so made, in the margin of the record of the warrant and assessment, and also the original contract referred to therein, if it has not already been recorded at full length in a book to be kept for that purpose in his office, and shall sign the record. The said superintendent of streets is authorized at any time to receive the amount due upon any assessment list and warrant issued by him, and give a good and sufficient discharge therefor; provided, that no such payment so made after suit has been commenced, without the consent of the plaintiff in the action, shall operate as a complete discharge of the lien until the costs in the action shall be refunded to the plaintiff; and he may release any assessment upon the books of his office, on the payment to him of the amount of the assessment against any lot with interest, or on the production to him of the receipt of the party or his assigns to whom the assessment and warrant were issued; and if any contractor shall fail to return his warrant within the time and in the form provided in this section, he shall thenceforth have no lien upon the property assessed; provided, however, that in case any warrant is lost, upon proof of such loss a duplicate can be issued, upon which a return may be made, with the same effect as if the original had been so returned, provided, further, that the Return of warrant to superintendent of streets. street superintendent may for cause shown on written petition from the contractor or his assigns filed in his office prior to the expiration of said thirty days from the date of the warrant, extend the time for the making of said return for a period not to exceed thirty days additional, which extension shall, with its date, be noted on the warrant. After the return of the assessment and warrant as aforesaid, all amounts remaining due thereon shall draw interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid.

Interest on assessment overdue.

SEC. 4. Section twelve of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Contractor may sue on overdue assessment.

Section 12. At any time after the period of thirty-five days from the day of the date of the warrant as herein provided or if an appeal is taken to the city council as provided in section eleven of this act, or an extension of time is granted to the contractor in which to make his return as provided in section ten of this act, at any time after five days from either the decision of said council or the expiration of said extension or after the return of the warrant or assessment, after the same may have been corrected, altered or modified as provided in said section eleven (but not less than thirty-five days from the date of the warrant), the contractor or his assignee may sue, in his own name, the owner of the land, lots, or portions of lots, assessed on the day of the date of the recording of the warrant, assessment, and diagram, or any day thereafter during the continuance of the lien of said assessment, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining unpaid, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid. And in all cases of recovery under the provisions of this act, where suit has been brought after one year from the date of the assessment or after personal demand has been made on the owner as hereinafter provided, the plaintiff shall recover the sum of fifteen dollars, in addition to the taxable costs as attorney's fees, but not any percentage upon said recovery; but no suit shall be brought for the recovery of any such assessment and no attorney's fees or costs shall be recovered until a demand in writing has been served personally on the owner of the lot or parcel of land assessed and such owner has failed to pay such assessment before the expiration of ten days after the service of such demand, or unless one year has elapsed from the date of the assessment.

Demand in writing prerequisite.

Proof of service.

Proof of service of such demand shall be made by affidavit in like manner as proof of service of summons in a civil action. If the contractor or his agent or any person acting in behalf of the contractor shall, prior to the filing of a complaint for the recovery of any assessment as herein provided, make any written demand upon or present any bill or notice in writing to such owner, demanding, requesting or notifying such owner to pay or that there is due, attorney's fees or court costs in connection with the collection of such assessment, then the contractor shall forfeit to such owner the amount of such assessment and the superintendent of streets is authorized, upon written demand of such owner, accompanied by the affidavit of such owner, that such written demand, bill or notice for the payment of attorney's fees and costs, or either thereof, prior to the commencement of suit. to mark said assessment "paid," and such assessment shall thereby be deemed to be paid and the lien thereof released. When the ownership of two or more lots or parcels of land on which assessments in the same proceeding have not been paid is identical, one action may be brought to collect the assessments on all of said lots or parcels of land, and in case more than one action is brought against the owner of more than one lot or parcel of land where the ownership is identical, as aforesaid, the court shall, upon the motion of such owner or owners, consolidate such actions, and in the event of such consolidation of actions and recovery therein, only fifteen dollars as attorney's fee shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, be recovered; and when suit has been brought as in this section provided, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have and recover said attorney's fee, and taxable costs, notwithstanding that the suit may be settled or a tender may be made before a recovery in said action, and he may have judgment therefor. Suit may be brought in the superior court within whose jurisdiction the city is in which said work has been done, and in case any of the assessments are made against lots, portions of lots, or lands the owners of which cannot, with due diligence, be found, the service of summons in each of such actions may be had in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. The said warrant, assessment, certificate, and diagram, with the affidavit of service of demand and non-payment shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets and city council upon which said warrant, assessment and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The court in which said suit shall be commenced shall have power to adjudge and decree a lien against the premises assessed, and to order such premises to be sold on execution, as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of said court: and on appeal, the appellate courts shall be vested with the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and to order such premises to be sold on execution or decree as is conferred on the court from which an appeal is taken. Such premises, if sold, may be redeemed as in other cases. In all suits now pending, or hereafter brought to recover street assessments, the proceedings therein shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this act, and also, when not in conflict herewith, by the codes of this state. This act shall be liberally construed to effect the ends of justice.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to said act to be known as section 12½ and to read as follows:

Section 12½. Whenever any assessment made and issued under the provisions of this act, or whenever any bond or bonds issued to represent the amount of any such assessment in accordance with the provisions of "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27, 1893, and all acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof, have been set aside by any court of competent jurisdiction, or such court has refused to enforce any assessment, or has decreed any bond or bonds issued under the above mentioned statute approved February 27, 1893, not to constitute valid and subsisting liens against the lots, pieces or parcels of land upon which the assessments represented by them have been levied, then the superintendent of streets shall cause a new assessment to be made for the same purpose for which the former assessment was made, whether any of the assessments have been paid or not, and new bonds shall in regular course thereafter issue in the event that bonds were issued under or provided for in the original assessment. It is hereby made the duty of any court of competent jurisdiction in rendering its judgment holding invalid any assessment or assessments hereafter made or issued, or of any bond or bonds hereafter made or issued to represent the amount or amounts of any such assessment, to make a finding as to whether or not the issuing of such assessment was entirely without the power of the said city to issue, and if not, then what omission, irregularity, illegality, informality or non-compliance with the requirements of the statute of which this is amendatory has occurred in the proceedings upon which said assessment or assessments and bonds rest, and what effect shall be given to them in making the re-assessment. In the event that the court shall find that the work, the expenses of which are represented by said assessment or bonds, was done in good faith under the contract made pursuant to a resolution of the city council providing for such improvement to be paid for by a special assessment, it shall be the duty of the said court to order the making of a new assessment, which assessment shall be delivered to the contractor or his assigns, or the holder or holders of the bonds representing the assessments, as the case may be. The city council may, at the request of the contractor, his assigns or the holder of the bonds representing the assessments, by resolution duly passed, set aside any assessment or assessments and bonds, as the case may be, and order a new assessment or assessments and bonds, to be made and issued without any decree having been obtained of or from any court regarding said matter, if in its opinion the assessment be invalid, and it may take all necessary steps and make and pass all necessary orders or ordinances to re-assess and re-levy such assessment, and may re-assess and re-levy the same with the same force and effect as an original levy. Such re-assessment, whether made after decree of court has been rendered, or pursuant to a resolution of the council, shall be based upon the special and peculiar benefit of the work or improvement to the respective lots, pieces or parcels of land assessed at the time of the making of the re-assessment, and its total amount shall not exceed the total amount of the original assessments. Such re-assessment so made shall become a charge upon the property upon which the same is levied, notwithstanding any omission, failure or neglect of any officer, body or person to comply with the provisions of this statute, relating to or connected with the improvement and the issuing of the assessment or the bonds, and notwithstanding the fact that the proceedings of the city council, board of public works or any officer of the city or agent of the contractor or other person connected with such work, may have been irregular, illegal, informal, or defective, or not in full conformity with the requirements of this statute. It is hereby declared to be the true intent and meaning of this section to make the cost and expense of all local improvements actually made in the attempted exercise of the powers conferred upon municipalities under this statute, payable by the real estate benefited by such improvement by making a re-assessment therefor which shall equitably apportion to each lot, piece or parcel of land thereby benefited the amount of the actual benefits derived from said improvement, notwithstanding that the proceedings of the city council and other officers or agents of the city, or of the contractor, may have been irregular, illegal or defective, or not in full conformity with the requirements of this statute. Such re-assessment shall be made without a repetition of the proceedings had prior to the issuance of the assessment and shall be made and issued in the following manner: The superintendent of streets shall, upon the entering of a decree of court directing the re-assessment, or upon the passage of a resolution of the city council directing a re-assessment, proceed at once to make a re-assessment in accordance with the said decree of court, or said resolution of the city council. Such re-assessment shall be made upon the property fronting on the improvement or upon the district described in the resolution of intention for said work or improvement, as the case may be, and in the event that there shall have been informalities, uncertainties or ambiguities in the description of the limits of said district, then upon the district which the court or council shall find to be that actually benefited by said improvement, but in so finding said court or council shall follow the lines described in the resolution of intention so far as the same can be ascertained, and in all cases of uncertainty or ambiguity they shall give regard to the lines described and make such a determination as to the lines where there is any uncertainty or ambiguity in the resolution of intention as may be just and equitable. In the event that a portion of the work or improvement has been found to have been entirely without the power of said city to order done, then said assessment shall be for the remainder of the work or improvement only, and the benefits arising from the work entirely without the jurisdiction of the city to order shall not be considered in making the re-assessment. Upon the completion of the re-assessment it shall be presented to the city council and a day of hearing shall be fixed by it which shall be at least twenty (20) days after the filing of the re-assessment. The city clerk shall then advertise the fact of said filing by publishing a notice in the newspaper in which the notice of award of contract was published, or in such other paper as the council may direct, by five (5) insertions if the paper be a daily, or by two (2) insertions if it be a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, stating the fact that the re-assessment has been filed with him and that objections to said re-assessment will be heard at the time specified by the city council. At the time fixed for said hearing, or at such time or times to which the same may be thereafter adjourned, the city council shall consider the objections to said re-assessment and in its discretion revise, correct and modify such re-assessment in such manner as is most equitable, and it shall thereupon pass a resolution approving and confirming such re-assessment and such decision shall be a final determination of all matters relating to the actual benefits derived from the improvement by the respective lots, pieces and parcels of land enumerated in the re-assessment. Said re-assessment shall thereupon be recorded by the street superintendent and it shall in all respects have the same effect and weight as the original assessment, and shall be enforced in the same manner. All payments made upon the original assessment shall be credited upon the re-assessment and in the event that the re-assessment in any instance is less than the amount of the original assessment, the excess shall be payable to the owner by the contractor.

Section 55. In all resolutions, notices, orders and determinations subsequent to the resolution of intention a description of the assessment district by reference to the resolution of intention shall be sufficient, and in all resolutions, notices, orders, and determinations subsequent to the "notice of street work" a description of the work by reference to the resolution of intention shall be sufficient.

CHAPTER 244.

An act to amend sections three hundred sixty-eight, six hundred ninety-nine and twenty-five hundred one of the Political Code, relating to the appointment of certain executive officers of the state, and to the powers, duties, appointment and number of port wardens.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three hundred sixty-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

368. The following executive officers shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate:

1. The directors of the insane asylums; the trustees for the asylum for the deaf, dumb and blind; the insurance commissioner; the members of the state board of health; the fish and game commissioners.

Executive officers appointed by governor.

2. The port wardens, when port wardens and their appointment are not otherwise provided for by law; the pilot commissioners; and the pilots for each harbor where there is not a board of pilot commissioners, and when the appointment of pilots is not otherwise provided for by law.

3. All other executive officers whose appointment is provided by law to be made by the governor.

SEC. 2. Section six hundred ninety-nine of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

699. The powers and duties of port wardens are prescribed in title six of part three of this code, and such port wardens shall have such further powers and perform such other duties as may be otherwise prescribed by law.

Powers and duties of port wardens.

SEC. 3. Section twenty-five hundred and one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2501. There shall be four port wardens of the port of San Francisco, and such number for each and every other port of entry within this state as may be prescribed by law: provided, however, that there shall be at least one port warden for each such port. The port wardens shall be appointed by the governor, except the port wardens of ports whose appointment is otherwise provided for by law.

Number of port wardens.

CHAPTER 245.

An act declaring that all tide lands and submerged lands within the boundaries of the city of Los Angeles are required, and requiring such lands, for public purposes of commerce, navigation and fishing, and for purposes in aid thereof, and ratifying, approving and confirming the acts of the attorney general in bringing and prosecuting certain suits in the name of the people of the State of California, for the purpose of quieting title to, and for the recovery of the possession of said lands.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That all tide lands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, within the present boundaries of the city of Los Angeles, a municipal corporation of this state, and situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific ocean, or of any harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water within the present boundaries of said city, are hereby declared to be, and the same are hereby, required for the public purposes of commerce, navigation and fishing, and for purposes in aid thereof.

SEC. 2. That the acts of the attorney general of this state in bringing and prosecuting certain suits in the courts of this state, in the name of and in behalf of the people thereof, against all persons, partnerships or private corporations claiming or possessing the tide lands and submerged lands described in section one of this act, for the purpose of quieting, in the State of California, the title to said lands, and for the recovery of possession of said lands by said state, be and the same are hereby ratified, approved and confirmed.

CHAPTER 246.

An act to amend sections three, eight, nine, thirteen, nineteen and thirty-two of "An act to provide for the acquisition by municipalities of land for public park or public playground purposes by condemnation, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of acquiring such land," approved April 22, 1909, and to add to said act a new section, to be numbered three and one half, relating to the manner of effecting certain local improvements.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of "An act to provide for the acquisition by municipalities of land for public park or public playground purposes by condemnation, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of acquiring such land," approved April 22, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. The street superintendent shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted as near as may be along the exterior boundary lines of the land proposed to be condemned, as described in the ordinance of intention, at not more than one hundred feet in distance apart notices (not less than three in all) of the passage of said ordinance. Said notice shall be headed "Notice of Public Improvement" in letters not less than one inch in length, shall be in legible characters, and shall state the fact and date of the passage of said ordinance, and briefly describe the improvement proposed and refer to said ordinance for further particulars. Said street superintendent shall also cause a notice similar in substance to be published for a period of five days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said municipality and designated by said city council for that purpose, or if there is no such daily newspaper so published, then by four successive insertions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, so published, circulated and designated. The city clerk shall immediately upon the passage of said ordinance mail, postage prepaid, to each owner of property in the district to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses of

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered three and one half and to read as follows:

Section 3½. Upon the completion of the posting of the notices as provided in section three, the street superintendent shall cause to be made and filed in his office an affidavit of the person or persons who posted said notices to the effect that said notices were posted as near as possible along the exterior boundary lines of the land, as described in the ordinance of intention, which it is proposed to condemn, at not more than one hundred feet apart and not less than three in all, and shall cause a notice to be published by one insertion in a daily, weekly or semi-weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city stating in substance that the affidavit or affidavits of posting said notices as near as possible along the exterior boundary lines of the land described in the ordinance of intention, which it is proposed to condemn, has been filed in his office, specifying the date of such filing and that all persons desiring to object to the sufficiency of such posting shall file written objections thereto with the city council not more than twenty days after the publication of said notices. Any property owner in the assessment district shall have the right to object to the sufficiency of the posting of said notices within twenty days after the publication of said notice that the affidavit or affidavits of the posting of notices has been filed. If any such objection shall be filed within the time herein provided the city council shall set a time for the hearing of the same, which time of hearing shall not be later than ten days after the expiration of said twenty days herein allowed for the filing of the objections to the sufficiency of the posting of said notices, and the clerk of the city council shall, in writing, notify each protestant of the time and place of such hearing. At such hearing the city council shall have power to overrule or sustain any such objection and its determination thereon shall be final and conclusive as to the sufficiency of said posting. If the city council shall sustain any such objection it shall direct the street superintendent to post or repost the notices as near as possible along the exterior boundary lines of the land proposed to be condemned as described in the ordinance of intention, whereon it shall have been determined by the city council that the posting of said notices was insufficient. Upon being so directed, the street superintendent shall post notices as directed by the city council and cause to be made and filed in his office an affidavit to the effect that said notices have been posted in the manner and location designated by the city council in its order directing the said notices to be so posted or reposted. He shall also cause to be published by one insertion in a daily, weekly or semi-weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, a notice to the effect that such posting has been made in accordance with the direction of the city council and notifying all owners of property within the assessment district that they have ten days from the date of the said publication in which to file any protest provided for in section 4 of this act, and any owner of property within the assessment district may within ten days file such protest. Any protest filed must comply with the provisions of section 4 hereof in all respects, except as to the time of the filing of the same, and shall have the same force and effect as protests as those provided for by said section 4. Upon the filing of such protests the city council shall fix a time and place for the hearing thereof, which shall be not later than fifteen days from the filing of such protests. Upon such hearing the city council shall pass upon such protests in the manner and with the effect provided in section 4 of this act and if an ordinance ordering said improvement has been passed prior to the filing of any objection to the sufficiency of the posting of notices and on such subsequent hearing it is found that the protests are signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within the assessment district, or if said city council shall sustain such protests such ordinance ordering the work shall be repealed. If any such objections are filed and the city council, after hearing, determine that the posting of said notices was sufficient, it may pass an ordinance ordering the work provided no such ordinance has already been passed. If no objections to the sufficiency of the posting of the notices are filed within the time herein allowed for the filing of such objections, or if objections are filed and overruled by the city council, as herein provided, all persons shall forever be precluded from raising any objection to the validity of the pro-

SEC. 3. Section eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8. When all parties defendant to the action have answered, or have been served with summons, and their default entered, the plaintiff or any party defendant to the action whose default has not been so entered, may, upon five days' notice to the parties, except defendants in default, move the court to set the action for trial. If, upon the hearing of such motion, a trial by jury or by the court without a jury is not demanded by the defendants, or any of them, or by the plaintiff, such trial shall be deemed to be waived, and the court must appoint three disinterested persons referees, to ascertain the compensation to be paid to such defendants so waiving a trial by a jury, or by the court without a jury. Such referees must be residents, of the municipality where such improvement is to be made, and over the age of twenty-one years, and must take and file with the court an oath to discharge their duties faithfully and impartially. If any of such referees fails to qualify, or resigns, or is removed by order of court, or is or becomes unable to act, the vacancy so created shall be filled by the court. The referees shall at once proceed to view the lands sought to be condemned, and ascertain the compensation proper to be paid to such of the parties interested in each parcel thereof as have waived a trial by a jury, or by the court. They shall have power to examine witnesses under oath, to be administered by any of them, and may have subpoenas issued by the clerk of the court, requiring the attendance of witnesses, or the production of evidence before them. They shall make and file with the court a written report of their findings, and of their necessary expenses, within thirty days after the date of their appointment; provided, however, that the time so allowed may be extended, upon good cause shown, by the court or judge thereof, but such extension shall not exceed ninety days; and provided further, that if any vacancy in the referees is created and filled as provided in this section, or if new referees are appointed, or if a new report from the same referee is ordered, as provided in section nine of this act, the time herein specified for the filing of such report shall be deemed to be thirty days from the date of the order filling such vacancy, or appointing new referees, or ordering a new report from the same referees, and the same may be extended accordingly, as above provided. Any two of such referees who agree thereto, may make such report. For the purpose of assessing the compensation and damages the right thereto shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the order appointing referees or of the order setting the cause for trial, as the case may be, and its actual value at that date shall be the measure of compensation for all property to be actually taken, and the basis of damages to property not actually taken, but injuriously affected, in all cases where such damages are allowed by the provisions of this act. No improvements placed upon the property proposed to be taken, subsequent to the date of the publishing of the notice of the passage of the ordinance of intention, shall be included in the assessment of compensation or damages. The referees, or court, or jury, as the case may be, shall find separately:

Value of property.

First—The value of each parcel of property sought to be condemned, and all improvements thereon pertaining to the realty, and of each separate estate or interest therein;

Damages
to remainder.

Second—If any parcel of property sought to be condemned is only a part of a larger parcel, the damages which will accrue to the portion not sought to be condemned, and to each separate estate or interest therein, by reason of its severance from the portion sought to be condemned, and the construction of the improvement in the manner proposed by the plaintiff. Such damages must be fixed irrespective of any benefit from such improvement.

SEC. 4. Section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Hearing
on report.

Section 9. Upon the filing of such report the court must, upon motion of any party, appoint a day for hearing the same, not less than twenty days thereafter. Notice of the time and place of said hearing must, at least ten days before the time so appointed, be served on all the other parties, except defendants whose default has been entered. The plaintiff, or any defendant who has answered, may file exceptions in writing to said report, specifying the grounds upon which such exceptions are based, at any time within not less than one day prior to the hearing; and any such party so filing exceptions to said report, may appear at the hearing of said report and contest the same. In addition to the notice hereinbefore provided, the clerk of the court must give notice of the filing of said report, and of the time and place appointed for the hearing of the same, to all persons owning or having an interest in any property, included within the assessment district for said improvement described in the ordinance of intention, by causing said notice last mentioned to be published for five days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in the city; or, if there be no such daily newspaper, then by two insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated. Any publication of such notice shall commence at least ten days before the time appointed for the hearing of the report. Said notice shall require all persons owning or having an interest in any property included within said assessment district for said improvement to intervene in said action, and file, in the office of the clerk of said court, his exceptions in writing to said report, if any he has, specifying the grounds upon which such exceptions are based. Said notice shall also contain a description of the said assessment district as set forth in the ordinance of intention. At any time within not less than one day prior to the hearing, any person not a party to the action, owning or having an interest in any property included within said assessment district, may intervene in the action, and file his exceptions in writing to said report, specifying the grounds upon which such exceptions are based; and any such person so intervening may appear and contest the said report, and introduce evidence in support of such exceptions. After hearing the report, and any exceptions thereto, the court may confirm the report, or may modify it and confirm it as modified, or may set it aside and order a new report from the same referees, or from any referees to be appointed. If new referees are appointed, the same proceedings shall be had as upon the first reference. If there be a trial of the action by a jury, or by the court without a jury, the clerk of the court must give notice of the time and place of such trial to all persons owning or having an interest in any property within said assessment district for said improvement. Said notice shall be published in the same manner and for the same time as the notice hereinbefore in this section required to be given by said clerk, and shall require all persons owning or having an interest in any property included within said assessment district for said improvement, to intervene in said action, and to appear at the trial thereof and introduce evidence relative to the compensation and damages to be awarded to the defendants therein. At any time within not less than one day prior to the trial, any person not a party to the action, having an interest in any property included within said assessment district, may intervene in the action, and, upon the trial thereof, may appear and introduce evidence relative to the compensation and damages to be awarded to the defendants therein. The cost of the publication of the notices required by this section shall be paid by the plaintiff, and allowed as costs in the action. When a time has been appointed for hearing the report of the referees, or for the trial of the action, and notice thereof has been given by the clerk by publication as in this section provided, if the hearing or trial be postponed or continued by the court to any subsequent date, no such notice need be given by the clerk of the hearing or trial upon any such postponement or continuance. Upon the confirmation of the report of the referees, or receipt of the verdict of the jury, or the filing of the findings of the court, the court shall make and enter an interlocutory judgment in accordance with such report, verdict or findings, adjudging that upon payment to the respective parties, or into court for their benefit, of the several amounts found due them as compensation, and of the costs allowed to them, the property involved in the action shall be condemned to the use of the plaintiff, and dedicated to the use specified in the complaint. The court shall allow to the referees, as costs to be paid by the plaintiff, a reasonable compensation for their services, the amount of which compensation shall be fixed by the court upon the hearing of the report, and their necessary expenses.

The street superintendent upon receiving the said diagram, shall proceed to assess the total expenses of the proposed improvement upon and against the lands, including the property of any railroad or street railroad within said assessment district, except the land to be taken for such improvement, in proportion to the benefits to be received from said improvement. The street superintendent shall complete said assessment within ninety days after the receipt by him of said diagram; provided, however, that the city council may, by resolution, extend the time for completing said assessment for a period not exceeding sixty days additional.

Completion of assessment. The total expense of the improvement so to be assessed shall include the amounts awarded to the defendants by the interlocutory judgment in the action for condemnation, and all other costs of the plaintiff in such action the expenses of making the assessments and all expenses necessarily incurred by said municipality, in connection with the proposed improvement, for maps, diagrams, plans, surveys, searches and certificates of title to the property to be taken, and all other matters incident thereto.

SEC. 6. Section nineteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Delinquent assessment list.

Section 19. The street superintendent shall, within thirty days from the date of such delinquency, begin the publication of a list of the delinquent assessments, which list must contain a description of each parcel of property delinquent, and opposite or against each description, the name of the owner as stated in the assessment roll, and the amount of the assessment, penalty, and costs due, including the cost of advertising, which last shall not exceed the sum of fifty cents for each lot, piece or parcel of land, separately assessed. The street superintendent shall append to and publish with said delinquent list a notice that unless each delinquent assessment, together with the penalty and costs thereon, is paid, the property upon which such assessment is a lien, will be sold at public auction at a time and place to be specified in the notice. The publication must be made for a period of ten days, in some daily newspaper published and circulated in the municipality, or for three weeks in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated. The time of sale must not be less than five days, nor more than ten days, after the expiration of the period of publication of said list, and the place of sale must be in, or in front of, the office of the street superintendent.

SEC. 7. Section thirty-two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

How designated.

Section 32. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to promote the objects thereof. This act may be designated and referred to as the "park and playground act of 1909."

CHAPTER 247.

An act to provide for the acquisition, installation, construction, reconstruction, extension, repair and maintenance by municipalities of water works, electric power works, gas works, lighting works, and other public works and utilities; for the assessment of the cost and expenses thereof upon the property benefited; and for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent such assessments, and to repeal an act entitled "An act to provide for the lighting of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts and places in municipalities, and for the assessment of the costs and expenses thereof upon the property benefited thereby," approved March 21, 1905.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the city council of any municipality in the state shall have full power and authority to order water mains, pipes, conduits, tunnels, hydrants and other necessary works and appliances, for the purpose of providing water service; lines, conduits, and other necessary works and appliances, for the purpose of providing electric power service; mains, pipes and other necessary works and appliances, for the purpose of providing gas service; poles, posts, wires, pipes, conduits, lamps and other necessary works and appliances, for lighting purposes; or any of said improvements, or any works, utility or appliances necessary or convenient for providing any other public service, to be installed, constructed, reconstructed, extended, repaired or maintained in and along the whole or any part of any one or more of the public streets, alleys or other places in such municipality, or in and along any right of way owned or held by said municipality for the purpose; also to order any works or appliances already installed in or along the whole or any part of any one or more of the public streets, alleys, or other places in such municipality, and which are necessary or convenient for the purpose of supplying such municipality or its inhabitants with water, electricity, gas, or other means of heat, illumination or power, or with any other public service, together with any plants, lands and rights of way, whether located within or without the city, necessary or convenient for the use and operation thereof, to be acquired, or to order the use of any such works, appliances and other property to be acquired; also to order electric current, gas, or other illuminating agent, to be furnished for such power or lighting service, in the manner and under the proceedings hereinafter described.

Cities may maintain public utility.

Sec. 2. Before ordering any improvement to be made which is authorized by section one of this act, the city council shall adopt a resolution declaring its intention to do so,

Resolution of intention.

- briefly describing the proposed improvement, and specifying the exterior boundaries of the district to be benefited by said improvement and to be assessed to pay the cost and expenses thereof, and to be known as the assessment district; provided, however, that the city council may, in its discretion, order, in said resolution of intention, that a certain portion or percentage of the cost and expenses of said improvement, the amount of which portion or percentage shall be specified in said resolution, shall be paid out of the treasury of the municipality, from such fund as the city council may designate. Said proposed improvement may include any or all of the different kinds of work mentioned in section one of this act; provided, however, that the maintenance of appliances or the furnishing of electric current, gas, or other illuminating agent, shall be for a period stated in the resolution of intention, but not exceeding two years. The city council shall also, in the same resolution, refer the proposed improvement to the board, commission or officer of the city having charge and control of the construction of public improvements of the kind described in such resolution, or to the city engineer, or to such other board or officer of the city, or competent person employed by the city for the purpose, as the council may name in said resolution, and direct such board, commission, officer or person to make and file with the clerk of the council a report in writing, presenting the following:
- Kinds of work.
- Reference to officer for report.
- Plans and specifications.
- Estimate of cost.
- Diagram of district.
- Assessment according to benefits.
- Amount paid out of treasury deducted.
1. Plans and specifications of the proposed improvement, excepting in so far as said improvement includes the acquisition of works or appliances already installed and any other property necessary or convenient for the operation thereof, or the acquisition of the use of any such works, appliances and property, as provided for in section one of this act, as to which works, appliances and property such report shall contain a general description thereof.
 2. An estimate of the cost of said improvement and of the incidental expenses in connection therewith.
 3. A diagram showing the assessment district above referred to, and also the boundaries and dimensions of the respective subdivisions of land within said district as the same existed at the time of the passage of the resolution of intention, each of which subdivisions shall be given a separate number in red ink upon said diagram.
 4. A proposed assessment of the total amount of the cost and expenses of the proposed improvement upon the several subdivisions of land in said district in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by such subdivisions, respectively, from said improvement; provided, that whenever any portion or percentage of the cost and expenses of such improvement is ordered to be paid out of the treasury of the municipality, as hereinbefore provided, the amount of such portion or percentage shall first be deducted from the total estimated cost and expenses of such improvement, and the assessment upon property, proposed in said report shall include only the remainder of said estimated cost and expenses. Said assessment shall refer to such subdivisions upon said diagram by the respective red ink numbers thereof, and shall show the names of the owners, if known, otherwise designating them as unknown. No mistake in the name of the owner of any parcel of land shall affect the validity of the assessment thereon.

Sec. 3. Upon the filing of the report provided for in section two of this act, the said clerk shall present the same to the city council for consideration, and said council may modify the same in any respect, and, in case of any such modification, the report, as modified, shall stand as the report for the purpose of all subsequent proceedings. Thereafter, the council, by resolution, shall appoint a time and place for hearing protests in relation to the proposed improvement, which time shall not be less than twenty days from the date of the passage of said resolution, and shall direct the clerk of the city council to give notice of said hearing, and shall designate a daily or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city in which such notice shall be published.

Consideration of report.

Hearing of protests.

Sec. 4. After the passage of the resolution of intention, the clerk of said city council shall cause to be conspicuously posted along all streets and parts of streets or other public places and rights of way held or owned by the municipality, as aforesaid, where any work is to be done or improvement made or acquired, at not more than three hundred feet apart, but not less than three in all, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notice shall be headed "Notice of Local Improvement," in letters of not less than one inch in length, and shall, in legible characters, state the fact and date of the passage of the resolution of intention and of the filing of said report and the date set for the hearing of said protests, and briefly describe the improvement proposed to be made or acquired, and refer to said resolution and report for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice similar in substance to be published by two successive insertions in a daily or weekly newspaper, published and circulated in said municipality, and designated by said council for that purpose. Said notices must be posted and published, as above provided, at least ten days before the date set for the hearing of said protests.

Sec. 5. Any person interested, objecting to said improvement, or to the extent of the assessment district, or to the proposed assessment provided for in section two of this act, may file a written protest with the clerk of the city council at or before the time set for the hearing referred to in section three hereof. The clerk shall endorse on every such protest the date of its reception by him, and, at the time appointed for the hearing above provided for, shall present to said council all protests so filed with him. If such protests be against said improvement and said city council find that the same are signed by the owners of a majority or more of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district, all further proceedings under said resolution of intention shall be barred, and no new resolution of intention for the same improvement shall be passed within six months after the presentation of such protests to the city council, unless the owners of a majority or more of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district shall be in the mean time petitioned therefor. If such protests are against the improvement, and the council find that they are not signed by the owners of a majority or more of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within the assessment district, or if such protests are against the extent of the assessment district, the council shall hear said protests at the time appointed therefor, as above provided, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and pass upon the same and its decision shall be final and conclusive, and if such protests are sustained the proceedings shall be abandoned, but may be renewed at any time, and if such protests are denied the proposed assessment shall be confirmed. If such protests are against the proposed assessment, the council shall hear said protests at the time appointed therefor, as above provided, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and may confirm, modify or correct said proposed assessment.

Decision final.

Order of improvement.

When, upon the hearing, said proposed assessment is confirmed, modified or corrected, or in case no protests are filed, the report provided for in section two hereof shall be adopted as a whole, with any modifications or corrections that have been made therein, and the city council shall, by resolution, order said proposed improvement to be made or acquired, and declare its action upon said report and assessment, which resolution shall be final and conclusive on all persons, and the assessment shall be thereby levied upon the respective subdivisions of land in the assessment district.

Contest of validity.

SEC. 6. The validity of an assessment levied under this act shall not be contested in any action or proceeding unless the same is commenced within thirty days after the time said assessment is levied, and any appeal from a final judgment in such an action or proceeding must be perfected within thirty days after the entry of such judgment.

Diagram to city collector.

SEC. 7. Upon the passage of the resolution provided for in section five hereof, the clerk of said city council shall transmit to the city tax collector the diagram and assessment provided for in subdivisions three and four of section two hereof, and any modifications or corrections thereof made by said city council.

Diagram recorded.

SEC. 8. Upon receipt of the diagram and assessment referred to in the last preceding section, the tax collector shall record the same in a substantial book, to be kept for that purpose, in his office, and shall thereupon fix a day not less than twenty, nor more than thirty, days from the date of the receipt by him of said diagram and assessment after which all assessments unpaid shall become delinquent, and ten per cent shall be added to the amount thereof, and shall also fix a day for the sale of the various parcels of land upon which the assessments are unpaid, which said date shall be not less than fifty days, nor more than sixty days, from the date of the receipt by him of said diagram and assessment.

Assessments delinquent.

SEC. 9. The tax collector shall, within ten days after the date of such delinquency, begin the publication of a notice of sale of the property upon which the assessments have not been paid, which publication must be made by two insertions in a daily or weekly newspaper, published and circulated in the city. The description of the various parcels of land need not be set out at length, but they may only be designated in such notice by the respective numbers of the same as they appear upon the assessment and diagram, which shall be properly referred to therein. Opposite the description or designation of each parcel of land shall be set out in such notice, the name of the owner as stated in the assessment, the amount assessed against the same, the penalty for delinquency, and its portion of the costs of the sale.

Notice of sale for delinquency.

At any time after such delinquency, and prior to the sale of any parcels of land assessed and delinquent, any person may pay the assessment thereon, together with the penalties and costs due thereon, including the cost of advertising, if such payment is made after the first publication of the notice of sale.

Payment prior to sale.

At the time and place fixed therefor, the tax collector shall proceed with such sale, commencing at the head of the list of lands contained in such notice, and continuing in the numerical order thereof until all the property is sold; provided, that he may postpone or continue the sale from day to day until the sale is completed. The tax collector shall separately sell each parcel of land listed in such notice, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to realize the amount assessed against the same, together with the penalties and costs as aforesaid, and fifty cents for a certificate of sale. In case there is no other purchaser, the same shall be struck off to the city as purchaser.

Sale of land.

SEC. 10. The tax collector shall issue for each sale an original and duplicate certificate of sale, referring to the proceedings, describing the parcel sold, and giving the name of the purchaser and the amount for which said parcel was sold. The original certificate he shall deliver to the purchaser, and the duplicate he shall keep on file in his office, in the form of a stub, in the certificate book.

Certificate of sale.

SEC. 11. At any time before the expiration of one year from the date of the sale, any property sold under the provisions of the preceding sections may be redeemed by the payment to the tax collector of the amount for which the property was sold, with an additional penalty of twenty per cent of said amount. Said redemption money shall be paid by the tax collector to the person holding the original certificate of sale upon his delivering up the same and receipting for the amount received from the tax collector therefor. Upon redemption of any parcel of land the tax collector shall enter the fact and date of such redemption upon the duplicate certificate of sale thereof.

Deed to property.

SEC. 12. If the property is sold, and is not redeemed within said period of twelve months from the date of the sale, the tax collector shall execute to the person named in the original certificate, or to his assignee, a deed of the property described in said certificate, which said deed shall refer in general terms to the proceedings under which the same is issued, and shall contain a description of the property. Such deed shall convey title in fee to said property, and the grantee is immediately, upon the receipt thereof, entitled to possession of the property described therein.

Special improvement
fund.

SEC. 13. The funds collected by the tax collector under the proceedings herein provided for, either upon voluntary payment or as the result of sales, shall be paid by said tax collector, as fast as collected, to the treasurer of the city, who shall place the same in a special fund designated by the name of the improvement proceeding, and payment shall be made out of said special fund only for the purposes provided for in this act. To expedite the making of any such improvement, the city council may, at any time, transfer into said special fund, out of any money in the general fund, such sums as it may deem necessary, and the sums so transferred shall be deemed a loan to such special fund, and shall be repaid out of the proceeds of the assessments provided for in this act.

SEC. 14. At any time after the funds for the proposed improvement, or any part thereof, shall be in the hands of said treasurer, the city council may let the contract or contracts for such improvement, or the respective parts thereof, and, in so far as said improvement includes the acquisition of works or appliances already installed and any other property necessary or convenient for the operation thereof, or the acquisition of the use of any such works, appliances and property, as hereinabove provided, the council may authorize such acts and proceedings as may be necessary for the purpose of effecting such acquisition. Every such contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder after notice published by two insertions in some newspaper published in such municipality, and designated by the city council for that purpose, or if there be no such newspaper, then by such posting as the city council may provide. Every bid shall be accompanied by a certified check, amounting to ten per cent of the bid, payable to the order of the clerk of said city council, and the same shall be forfeited to the municipality in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within fifteen days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the municipality for the work, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in such penal sum as the city council shall require, with sureties satisfactory to said council. The contract must provide that the work shall be done, and the work must be done, strictly in accordance with the plans and specifications contained in the report provided for in sections 2 and 3 of this act. The work must be done under the supervision of the board, officer or person by whom the report provided for in section 2 of this act was made, and no work shall be paid for until it has been accepted by said board, officer or person. If the contractor abandons the work, or fails to proceed with the same as rapidly as required by his contract, the said city council may relet the work in the same manner as in the case of the first letting thereof, and retain the amount of the cost of the same, and of any expense incidental to the reletting out of any funds due or to become due, to the contractor, and also hold him and his sureties responsible for such cost and expense, and for any damages resulting from such abandonment or failure upon his bond; provided, however, that the city council, in its discretion, may, at any time within ten days after the award of any contract, as above provided, or at any time within ten days after the time fixed for the opening of bids, if no bids have been received, order by resolution adopted by a vote of two thirds of all its members, that said proposed contract be not made, and that the municipality itself execute the work embraced therein, in accordance with the plans and specifications adopted for such work, and employ the labor, and provide the material, appliances, supplies and illuminating agent necessary therefor; and the cost and expenses of such work shall be paid out of the aforesaid funds; and provided further, that the amount appropriated and used from said funds for said purpose shall not exceed the amount of the bid upon which the award of contract aforesaid was made, or, if no bids have been received and the work is to be executed by the municipality itself, as herein provided, such cost and expense shall not exceed the amount of the estimate thereof provided for in section 2 of this act; and if such cost and expense shall exceed the amount of said bid, or of said estimate in case no bids are received, then such excess shall be met out of any moneys in the general fund in the treasury of said city.

SEC. 15. In case the first assessment for any improvement provided for in this act proves insufficient, a supplemental assessment may be made to raise the deficit, in the same manner as nearly as may be, as the first assessment, except that protests may only be made against such supplemental assessment, and so on until sufficient money shall have been realized to pay for such improvement.

Supplemental assessment.

SEC. 16. If at any time an assessment for any such improvement shall realize a larger sum than is necessary therefor, the excess shall be refunded pro rata to the parties by whom it was paid.

upon which it is levied paramount to all other liens, except prior assessments and taxation, and such lien shall continue until such special assessment is paid, or until the property is sold and a deed is made therefor to the purchaser, as hereinbefore provided, and all parties shall have constructive notice of such lien from the date of the passage of the resolution referred to in section five hereof.

Improvement
bonds.

SEC. 18. The city council may, in its discretion, at or before the time of levying an assessment in proceedings taken under the provisions of this act, determine, by resolution or ordinance, that improvement bonds may issue to represent assessments included in such levy, and amounting each to twenty-five dollars or over, and whenever such determination is made, the provisions of an act entitled "An act providing for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent certain special assessments for public improvements, and providing for the effect and enforcement of such bonds," approved April 27, 1911, or of any act or acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, shall, except as to the minimum amount of any such bond, be applicable in respect to the issuance, effect and enforcement of such bonds; provided, that any bonds not sold after advertisement for bids, as provided in said act, shall be deposited in the fund of the improvement for which said assessments were levied, and be deemed and treated, at their par value, as so much money in said fund, and shall, upon final acceptance of the improvement by the city, be issued to and accepted by the contractor in payment, pro tanto, of the contract or purchase price, or shall, in case the city performs the work, be issued to and accepted by the city in payment, pro tanto, of the cost and expenses of said improvement; and provided further, that when said bonds, or any thereof, are so issued and accepted, the contractor, or city, or other person taking the same, shall have the same rights with reference thereto as other purchasers.

Definitions.

SEC. 19. The following words and phrases shall, where used in this act, have the following meanings:

(1) The term "improvement" includes all work and improvements mentioned in section one of this act.

(2) The terms "municipality" and "city" includes every incorporated city, city and county or other corporation organized for municipal purposes.

(3) The terms "city council" and "council" include any body or board in which by law is vested the legislative power of any city.

(4) The terms "treasurer" and "city treasurer" include any person or officer who has charge and makes payments of the city funds.

Repealed.

SEC. 20. That an act entitled "An act to provide for the lighting of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts and places in municipalities, and for the assessment of the costs and expenses thereof upon the property benefited thereby," approved March 21, 1905, and the amendments thereof, are hereby repealed; provided, that proceedings commenced thereunder prior to the taking effect of this act may be continued to completion in the same manner, and with the same force and effect, as if said act and the amendments thereof were not hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 248.

An act to amend sections two, three, four, sixteen and thirty of an act entitled "An act to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, or straightening, in whole or in part, of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, courts and places within municipalities, for the condemnation of property necessary or convenient for such purposes, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of such improvement," approved March 24, 1903, and to add two new sections to said act to be numbered sections twenty-six (a) and thirty-three (a), relating to reassessments and the form of certain notices, resolutions, orders and determinations.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of an act entitled "An act to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening or straightening, in whole or in part, of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, courts and places within municipalities, for the condemnation of property necessary and convenient for such purposes, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of such improvement," approved March 24, 1903, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. Before ordering any improvement to be made which is authorized by section one of this act, the city council shall pass an ordinance, declaring its intention to do so, describing the improvement and the land necessary or convenient to be taken therefor, and specifying the boundaries of the district to be benefited by said improvement and to be assessed to pay the expense thereof and to be known as the assessment district. Said city council may also in its discretion declare in said ordinance of intention that the city shall pay a percentage of the expense of said improvement where the same is for the opening or widening of a public street or boulevard as follows: Where said street or boulevard after being opened or widened as proposed will be not less than one hundred feet wide, the city may contribute not more than ten per cent of the total expense of such improvement, and where said street or boulevard after being opened or widened as proposed will be not less than one hundred twenty feet wide, the city may contribute not more than twenty-five per cent of the total cost of such improvement.

SEC. 2. Section three of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Notice
to be posted.

Section 3. The street superintendent shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along all streets and parts of streets or other public places or rights of way where any property is to be taken for the widening or straightening thereof, and along or upon any private unimproved property which is to be taken for the opening or extending of any street or other public place, at not more than three hundred feet apart, notices (not less than three in all) of the passage of said ordinance. Said notices shall be headed, "Notice of Public Work," in letters not less than one inch in length, shall be in legible characters, and shall state the fact and date of the passage of said ordinance and briefly describe the improvement proposed, and refer to said ordinance of intention for a description of the assessment district and for further particulars. He should also cause a notice similar in substance to be published by two insertions in a daily, weekly or semi-weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city and designated by the city council for that purpose. The city clerk shall, immediately upon the publication of the notice required by this section, mail, postage prepaid, to each property owner in the assessment district, at his last known address as the same appears on the tax rolls of said city, or when no address so appears, to the general delivery, a postal card containing a notice which shall be in the following or substantially the following form, (filling blanks), to wit:

"You are hereby notified that on the _____ day of _____ 19__ the legislative body of the city of _____, California, by virtue of the street opening act of 1903, passed an ordinance of intention numbered _____, for the opening and widening of _____ street between _____ street and _____ street. Written protests may be filed with the city clerk within ____ days after the ____ day of _____ 19__. Your property is in the district to be assessed for this improvement.

City Clerk.

Affidavit
of clerk.

If any lots or parcels of land in the assessment district be assessed to "unknown owners" on the tax rolls of said city, no postal cards shall be mailed to the owners thereof, but the notice of public work by the publication as herein provided shall be deemed legal notice to such owners of such contemplated improvement. The city clerk shall immediately upon the completion of the mailing of said postal cards file, or cause to be filed in the office of the superintendent of streets an affidavit stating the time and manner of compliance within this requirement, but the names of the persons to whom said postal cards were addressed need not be set forth in said affidavit. The failure of the city clerk to address said postal cards or any thereof to the proper owners of said property or to mail said cards, or the failure of said property owners to receive the same shall not affect the validity of the proceedings or prevent the legislative body from acquiring jurisdiction to order the work; provided, that the legislative body shall not pass any ordinance ordering the improvement until such affidavit is made and filed as herein prescribed.

SEC. 3. Section four of said act above mentioned is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. Any person interested, objecting to said improvement, or to the extent of the assessment district, described in said ordinance of intention, may file a written protest with the clerk of the city council, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice required by section three of this act. Every such protest must contain a description of the property in which each signer thereof is interested, sufficient to identify the same, and must set forth the nature of his interest therein, and must be accompanied by the affidavit of one of the signers thereof that each signature thereof is the genuine signature of the person whose name is thereto subscribed; and in case any signature is made by an agent, there must be attached to the protest the affidavit of the agent that he is duly authorized to sign such protest. Any protest not complying with the foregoing requirements, shall not be considered by the city council. In the case of property held by tenancy in common, if any co-tenant sign such protest, only the proportionate share of the frontage thereof represented by his interest therein, shall be counted in determining the amount of frontage represented by such protest. The clerk shall endorse on every such protest the date of its reception by him, and, at the next regular meeting of the city council, after the expiration of the time for filing protests, he shall present to said city council all protests so filed with him. If such protests are against said improvement, and said city council finds that the same are signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district, all further proceedings under said ordinance of intention, excepting in the cases hereinafter otherwise provided, shall be barred, and no new ordinance of intention for the same improvement shall be passed within six months after the presentation of such protest to the city council, unless the owners of a majority of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district shall in the mean time petition therefor. For the purpose of passing upon and determining the sufficiency of such protests in cases where by a resolution of intention it is declared that the city shall pay a percentage of the expense of the improvement, the city shall be deemed to be the owner of frontage within the assessment district, bearing the same proportion to the whole frontage therein as the proportion of the expense which it is to pay, and the actual frontage of property within such district shall be increased by the addition of such amount as is necessary to produce said result, and the amount of frontage as so increased shall be the total frontage to be used in determining whether a protest is signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district. If such protests are against the improvement, and the council finds that they are not signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district, or if such protests are only against the extent of said assessment district, or if the proposed improvement is for the opening or extending of a street for a distance of not more than two blocks intervening between the terminations of two different streets, or two portions of the same street, existing at the time of the passage of the ordinance of intention for the proposed improvement, each of said different streets or said portions of the same street being at least five blocks in length, and the opening or extending of the street described in the ordinance of intention through such intervening block or blocks will, together with such different streets or portions of the same street so existing, make one connecting or continuous street, as nearly as may be practicable, or if the proposed improvement is for the opening or extending of a street into a different street, for a distance of not more than one block intervening between the termination of such street so proposed to be opened or extended and such different street, when the street so proposed to be opened or extended through such intervening block exists, at the time of the passage of the ordinance of intention, for a distance of at least five blocks, or if the proposed improvement is for the opening or extending of a public street, lane, alley, court or place through the remainder of a block when such public street, lane, alley, court or place exists, at the time of the passage of the ordinance of intention for the proposed improvement, for at least one half of the distance through such block, the city council shall thereupon fix a time for hearing said protests, not less than ten days after the meeting of the council at which such time is so fixed, and shall cause notice of the time of such hearing to be published for at least five days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, or if there be no such daily newspaper, by at least two insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated, the city council shall hear said protests at the time appointed, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and pass upon the same, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If any such protests are sustained, no further proceedings shall be had under said ordinance of intention, but a new ordinance of intention for the same improvement may be passed at any time. If the protests are denied, the proceedings shall continue as if such protests had not been made. At the expiration of the time within which protests may be filed, if none are filed, or if protests are filed, and after hearing are denied, as above provided, then upon such

SEC. 4. Section sixteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 16. The city engineer shall deliver said diagram to the street superintendent and shall endorse thereon the date of such delivery. The street superintendent upon receiving the said diagram shall proceed to assess the total expenses of the proposed improvement (first deducting from such total expenses such percentage thereof, if any, as the city council may have declared by the ordinance of intention that the city shall pay) upon and against the lands, including the property of any railroad or street railroad, within said assessment district, except the land to be taken for such improvement, in proportion to the benefits to be derived from said improvement. The street superintendent shall complete said assessment within sixty days after the receipt by him of said diagram; provided, however, that the city council may by order extend the time for completing said assessment for a period not exceeding ninety days additional. The total expense of the improvements so to be assessed shall include the amounts awarded to the defendants by the interlocutory judgment in the action for condemnation, together with their costs, the compensation and expenses of the referees, as allowed by the court, and all other costs of the plaintiff in such action, the expenses of making the assessment, and all expenses necessarily incurred by said city, in connection with the proposed improvement, for the publication of ordinances, posting and publication of notices, for maps, diagrams, plans, surveys, searches and certificates of title to the property to be taken, and all other matters incident thereto.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered section 26a and to read as follows:

Section 26a. Whenever any assessment made and issued under the provisions of this act, or whenever any bond or bonds issued to represent the amount of any such assessment in accordance with the provisions of "An act providing for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent certain special assessments for public improvements, and providing for the effect and enforcement of such bonds," approved April 27, 1911, and all acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof, have been set aside by any court of competent jurisdiction, or such court has refused to enforce any assessment, or has decreed any such bond or bonds issued under the above mentioned statute, approved February 27, 1911, not to constitute valid and subsisting liens against the lots, pieces or parcels of land upon which the assessments represented by them have been levied, then the superintendent of streets shall cause a new assessment to be made for the same purpose for which the former assessment was made, whether any of the assessments have been paid or not, and new bonds shall in regular course thereafter issue in the event that bonds were issued under or provided for in the original assessment. It is hereby made the duty of any court of competent jurisdiction in rendering its judgment holding invalid any assessment or assessments hereafter made or issued, or of any bond or bonds hereafter made or issued to represent the amount or amounts of any such assessment, to make a finding as to whether or not the issuing of such assessment was entirely without the power of the said city to issue, and if not, then what omission, irregularity, illegality, informality or noncompliance with the requirements of the statutes of which this is amendatory has occurred in the proceedings upon which said assessment or assessments and bonds rest, and what effect shall be given to them in making the reassessment. In the event that the court shall find that the improvement, the expenses of which are represented by said assessment or bonds, was commenced in good faith and carried on pursuant to an ordinance or resolution of the city council providing for such improvement to be paid for by a special assessment, it shall be the duty of the said court to order the making of a new assessment. The city council may, at the request of any interested party, or on its own motion, by resolution duly passed, set aside any assessment or assessments and bonds, as the case may be, and order a new assessment or assessments and bonds, to be made and issued without any decree having been obtained of or from any court regarding said matter, if in its opinion the assessment be invalid, and it may take all necessary steps and make and pass all necessary orders, resolutions or ordinances to reassess and relevy such assessment, and may reassess and relevy the same with the same force and effect as an original levy. Such reassessment, whether made after decree of court has been rendered, or pursuant to a resolution of the council, shall be based upon the special and peculiar benefit of the proposed improvement to the respective lots, pieces or parcels of land assessed. The total amount of the reassessment shall not exceed the total amount of the original assessment. Such reassessment so made shall become a charge upon the property upon which the same is levied, notwithstanding any omission, failure or neglect of any officer, body or person to comply with the provisions of this statute, and notwithstanding the fact that the proceedings of the city council, board of public works or any officer of the city or other person connected with such proceedings, may have been irregular, illegal, informal, or defective, or not in full conformity with the requirements of this statute. It is hereby declared to be the true intent and meaning of this section to make the cost and expense of all local improvements actually made or proposed to be made in the attempted exercise of the powers conferred upon municipalities under this statute, payable by the real estate benefited or to be benefited by such improvements by making a reassessment therefor which shall be equitably proportioned to each lot, each piece or parcel of land thereby benefited the amount of the actual benefits derived or to be derived from said improvement, notwithstanding that the proceedings of the city council or other officers or agents of the city, or other persons connected therewith may have been irregular, illegal or defective, or not in full conformity with the requirements of this statute. Such reassessment shall be made without a repetition of the proceedings had prior to the issuance of the assessment and shall be made and issued in the following manner: The superintendent of streets shall, upon the entering of a decree of court directing the reassessment, or upon the passage of a resolution of the city council directing a reassessment, proceed at once to make a reassessment in accordance with the said decree of court, or said resolution of the city council. Such reassessment shall be made upon the district described in the ordinance of intention for said improvement, and in the event that there shall have been informalities, uncertainties or ambiguities in the description of the limits of said district, then upon the district which the court or council shall find to be that actually benefited by said improvement, but in so finding said court or council shall follow the lines described in the ordinance of intention so far as the same can be ascertained, and in all cases of uncertainty or ambiguity they shall give regard to the lines described and make such a determination as to the lines where there is any uncertainty or ambiguity in the ordinance of intention as may be just and equitable. In the event that a portion of the improvement has been found to be entirely without the power of said city to order, then said assessment shall be for the remainder of the improvement only, and the benefits arising from the improvement entirely without the jurisdiction of the city to order shall not be considered in making the reassessment. Upon the completion of the reassessment it shall be presented to the city council and a day of hearing shall be fixed by it which shall be at least twenty (20) days after the filing of the reassessment. The city clerk shall then advertise the fact of filing by publishing a notice in the official newspaper, or in such other paper as the council may direct, by five (5) insertions if the paper be a daily, or by two (2) insertions if it be a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, stating the fact that the reassessment has been filed with him and that objections to said reassessment will be heard at the time specified by the city council. At the time fixed for such hearing, or at such time or times to which the same may be thereafter adjourned, the city council shall consider the objections to said reassessment and in its discretion revise, correct and modify such reassessment in such manner as is most equitable, and it shall thereupon pass a resolution approving and confirming such reassessment and such decision shall be a final determination of all matters relating to the actual benefits derived or to be derived from the improvement by the respective lots, pieces and parcels of land enumerated in the reassessment. Said reassessment shall thereupon be recorded by the street superintendent and it shall in all respects have the same

All payments made upon the original assessment shall be credited upon the reassessment and in the event that the reassessment in any instance is less than the amount of the original assessment, the excess shall be payable to the persons who paid the original assessments.

Section 30. The street superintendent shall from time to time pay over to the city treasurer all moneys collected by him on account of any assessment made under the provisions of this act. The city treasurer shall on receipt thereof place the same in a special fund, designating such fund by the name of the improvement for which the assessment was made. The city council shall on or before the time when said assessments become delinquent, cause to be transferred from the general or other appropriate fund of the city to said special fund the percentage of the total expense of such improvement to be paid by the city as provided in the ordinance of intention.

In all resolutions, notices, orders and determinations subsequent to the ordinance of intention a description of the assessment district by reference to the ordinance of intention shall be sufficient, and in all resolutions, notices, orders, and determinations subsequent to the "notice of street work" a description of the work by reference to the ordinance of intention shall be sufficient.

CHAPTER 249.

An act to amend section 4017 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to consolidation of county offices.

[Approved May 22, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4017 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Consolidation of county offices.

4017. In counties where the board of supervisors by proper ordinance so elect, except as otherwise provided in this title, the duties of certain of the offices mentioned in section four thousand thirteen are hereby consolidated as follows: sheriff and tax collector; auditor and recorder; county clerk, auditor and recorder; county clerk and recorder; county clerk and auditor; treasurer and tax collector; treasurer and recorder; assessor and tax collector; public administrator and coroner; district attorney and coroner; sheriff and public administrator.

CHAPTER 250.

An act authorizing and empowering any municipal corporation to which tide lands and submerged lands, situated within the limits thereof, have been granted by the State of California, to grant portions of such lands to the United States for public purposes and validating and confirming grants of such lands made by such municipal corporations to the United States.

[Approved May 28, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any municipal corporation to which tide lands and submerged lands situated within the boundaries thereof have been granted by the State of California, is hereby authorized and empowered to grant portions of such lands to the United States, for public purposes of the United States; provided, however, that no such grant shall be made unless authorized and approved by a vote of a majority of the electors of such municipal corporation voting upon the proposition of making such grant at an election therein, at which such proposition shall have been submitted.

Tide lands may be granted to United States by cities.

SEC. 2. Any grant heretofore made by any municipal corporation to the United States, of any portion of the tide lands or submerged lands, situated within the boundaries of such municipal corporation, which grant was authorized by a vote of the majority of the electors of such municipal corporation, voting upon the question of authorizing such grant, at an election held therein, is hereby confirmed, legalized and declared to be valid; and in any case where a proposed grant of such lands to the United States by a municipal corporation has heretofore been authorized by such vote, but such grant has not been made or completed, such municipal corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to make and complete such grant.

Former grants validated.

CHAPTER 251.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code of the State of California to be known as section 532a, relating to the making and use of false statements for the purpose of obtaining property or credit, and prescribing the punishment therefor.

[Approved May 28, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code to be numbered 532a, and to read as follows:

532a. Any person,

(1) Who shall knowingly make or cause to be made, either directly or indirectly, or through any agency whatsoever,

Making false statement of financial condition.

any false statement in writing, with intent that it shall be relied upon, respecting the financial condition, or means or ability to pay, of himself, or any other person, firm or corporation, in whom he is interested, or for whom he is acting, for the purpose of procuring in any form whatsoever, either the delivery of personal property, the payment of cash, the making of a loan or credit, the extension of a credit, the discount of an account receivable, or the making, acceptance, discount, sale or indorsement of a bill of exchange, or promissory note, for the benefit of either himself or of such person, firm or corporation ;

or

Benefiting by false
statement.

(2) Who, knowing that a false statement in writing has been made, respecting the financial condition or means or ability to pay, of himself, or such person, firm or corporation in which he is interested, or for whom he is acting, procures, upon the faith thereof, for the benefit either of himself, or of such person, firm or corporation, either or any of the things of benefit mentioned in the first subdivision of this section ; or

Reaffirming false
statement.

(3) Who, knowing that a statement in writing has been made, respecting the financial condition or means or ability to pay of himself or such person, firm or corporation, in which he is interested, or for whom he is acting, represents on a later day in writing, that such statement theretofore made, if then again made on said day, would be then true, when in fact, said statement if then made would be false, and procures upon the faith thereof, for the benefit either of himself or of such person, firm or corporation, either or any of the things of benefit mentioned in the first subdivision of this section ; shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 252.

An act to amend section eight hundred fifty-seven of the Civil Code, relating to express trusts.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eight hundred fifty-seven of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Purposes of express trusts.

857. Express trusts may be created for any of the following purposes:

1. To sell and convey real property and to hold or reinvest or apply or dispose of the proceeds in accordance with the instrument creating the trust.

2. To mortgage or lease real property for the benefit of annuitants, or devisees or legatees, or other beneficiaries, or for the purpose of satisfying any charge thereon.

3. To receive the rents and profits of real property, and pay them to, or apply them to the use of any person, whether ascertained at the time of the creation of the trust or not, for himself or for his family during the life of such person, or for any shorter term, subject to the rules of title II of division II of part 1 of this code.

4. To receive the rents and profits of real property and to accumulate the same for the purposes and within the limits prescribed by the same title; or

5. To convey, partition, divide, distribute or allot real property in accordance with the instrument creating the trust, subject to the limitations of the same title.

CHAPTER 253.

An act to amend the Political Code of the State of California by adding thereto a new section to be known as and numbered 2167b, relating to and providing for the parole of mentally sick or psychopathic patients out of the lunacy court or the superior court sitting as a lunacy court in each county providing for the care, custody and maintenance of such psychopathic patients while on parole until recovered, and providing for psychopathic parole officers, fixing their salaries and providing for the payment thereof.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby added to the Political Code of the State of California a new section to be known and numbered 2167b, to read as follows:

2167b. This act shall be known as the psychopathic parole act and shall apply to persons mentally sick and bordering on insanity but not dangerously insane.

1. The office of psychopathic probation officer may be created in any county in this state by the board of supervisors thereof. The psychopathic probation officers and deputy psychopathic probation officers to serve hereunder shall be nominated and appointed by the judge of the superior court by written order entered in the minutes of said court. The term of office of the psychopathic probation officers and deputy psychopathic probation officers shall be during the pleasure of the court and may at any time be removed by said court in its discretion. Such psychopathic officers shall devote their entire time and attention to the duties of their office. It shall be the duty of the clerk of said court before any mentally sick or insane person is brought before the court under the provisions of this act to notify one of the probation officers of said court.

2. The said psychopathic probation officer shall inquire into the antecedents, character, family history, environment and superinducing cause of the mental sickness or insanity of every alleged mentally sick or insane person brought before the court and shall make his report to the judge thereof, in writing or verbally in open court or in chambers as directed by the judge of said court. Every psychopathic probation officer, assistant psychopathic probation officer and deputy psychopathic probation officer shall have the powers of peace officers at any time at his or her discretion; such officer may bring any mentally sick or insane person committed to the care of such psychopathic probation officer before the court for such further other action as the court may deem proper.

Probation
officers.

3. In each county where the office of psychopathic parole officer has been created under the provisions of this act, the judge of the superior court shall have power to appoint two psychopathic probation officers, and as many deputies as may be convenient or necessary may from time to time be appointed by the judge of the superior court; and, providing, further, that such deputies shall serve without compensation. Each of said psychopathic probation officers shall receive such salary as may be determined upon by the board of supervisors, and the salaries of such psychopathic probation officers shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county of which they are appointed respectively and in the same manner as county officers.

which court has jurisdiction and said expense shall be paid out of the county treasury upon a written order of the judge of the superior court of said county, directing the county auditor to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer specifying the amount of such expense.

6. This act shall be liberally construed to the end that its purpose may be carried out, to wit: that the humane care and custody of the mentally sick or near-insane persons, as defined in this act, shall be provided for that restoration of such patients to a normal mental condition be as rapid as possible without committing said patient to an insane hospital. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

PURPOSE
of act.

CHAPTER 254.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the State of California, except municipal corporations of the first class, and to provide for the consolidation and abolition of certain municipal offices and to provide that their duties may be performed by certain officers of the county, and fixing the compensation to be allowed for such county officers for the services so rendered to such municipal corporations," approved March 27, 1895, and amended by an act approved March 20, 1905, by amending sections one, four, eight and nine thereof, and by adding a new section thereto to be known as section 9a thereof relating to the consolidation of other county and municipal offices in counties organized under a charter framed under the provisions of section seven and one half of article XI of the constitution.

[Approved May 31, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the State of California, except municipal corporations of the first class, and to provide for the consolidation and abolition of certain municipal offices and to provide that their duties may be performed by certain officers of the county and fixing the compensation to be allowed for such county officers for the services so rendered to such municipal corporations," approved March 27, 1895, and amended by an act approved March 20, 1905, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Any municipal corporation or city in this state, except municipal corporations of the first class, shall have power to elect, by ordinance adopted by the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body, or the electors, of

Levy and collection

such city or municipal corporation, that the duties of assessing property and collecting taxes provided by law to be performed by the assessor and the tax collector of such city or municipal corporation shall be performed by the county assessor and the county tax collector of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated. A certified copy of such ordinance shall be filed with the auditor of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated on or before the first Monday in the month of February immediately following the adoption of such ordinance, and thereafter all assessments made by the county assessor, as the same may be equalized or corrected by the board of supervisors or state board of equalization, shall be used as a basis for the levy of the taxes of such city or municipal corporation, and said taxes shall be collected by the assessor and tax collector of such county at the same time and in the manner county taxes are collected, until such city or municipal corporation shall by ordinance elect not to have such duties performed by said assessor and tax collector for any longer time. Whenever any city or municipal corporation shall elect to avail itself of the provisions of this act relative to assessments and collection of taxes, the board of trustees, common council or other legislative body of such city or municipal corporation shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, before making the levy provided to be made by section 4 hereof, to fix by ordinance the amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation upon the taxable property therein as a revenue to carry on the various departments of such municipal corporation or city for the current year, not to exceed the limit fixed by law, and to pay the bonded or other indebtedness of such municipal corporation or city, or any portion or district thereof; and, whenever, in any municipal corporation or city electing to avail itself of the provisions of this act relative to assessment and collection of taxes, there is any district or portion of said municipal corporation or city in which there must be levied a rate of taxation different from the rate to be levied in any other district or portion of such municipal corporation or city, the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation or city shall cause to be filed on or before the first Monday of July of each year with the county auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated, a description of the exterior boundaries of each district or portion of such municipal corporation or city in which there must be levied a rate different from the rate to be levied in any other district or portion of such municipal corporation or city, and the said county auditor shall transmit to the said board of trustees, common council or other legislative body, at the same time that he shall transmit a statement in writing of the total assessed valuation of all property within said municipal corporation or city, as required by section 3 hereof, a statement in writing showing separately the total assessed valuation of all property in each of said districts or portions of such municipal corporation or city.

To fix amount to be raised.

SEC. 2. Section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. Each board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such city or municipal corporation, shall, not later than the last Tuesday in August of each year, fix the rate of taxes, or rates of taxes, if different portions or districts require different rates, designated in the number of cents upon each one hundred dollars, using as a basis the value of the property as assessed by the county assessor as the same may be equalized, and so returned to such board by the county auditor as required by section three of this act, which rate, or rates, of taxation shall be sufficient to raise the amount so fixed by such board as required by section one of this act, and the expense of collection, which acts by said board are declared to be a valid assessment of such property and a valid levy of such rates so fixed. Such city or municipal board must immediately thereafter transmit to the county auditor of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated a statement of such rate or rates so fixed by said body.

Rates fixed each year.

SEC. 3. Section eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8. Whenever any municipal corporation or city shall have availed itself of the provisions of this act relative to assessments and collection of taxes, all duties other than the assessing of the property of such city or municipal corporation theretofore performed by the city assessor shall be transferred to, and be performed by, the clerk of such city or municipal corporation, or such other officer as such city or municipal corporation by ordinance shall determine, and all duties other than the collection of taxes theretofore performed by the city tax collector shall be transferred to, and be performed by, the city marshal or chief of police of such city or municipal corporation, or such other officer as such city or municipal corporation shall by ordinance determine; and thereafter the offices of city assessor and tax collector may by ordinance be abolished. And whenever any city or municipal corporation shall have availed itself of the provisions of section 2 of this act the office of city treasurer may be by ordinance abolished.

Duties of assessor and collector transferred.

Offices abolished.

SEC. 4. Section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 9. The collection of unpaid taxes levied on any property by any city or municipal corporation that shall have elected to avail itself of the provisions of this act relative to assessments and collection of taxes, shall be enforced by the sale of such property in the same manner and at the same time, and upon the same penalties, as property sold for non-payment of county taxes, and real property so sold may be redeemed within the same time and upon the same terms as property sold for the non-payment of county taxes; and whenever any real property situate in such city or municipal corporation has been sold for taxes and has been redeemed, the money paid for such redemption shall be apportioned by the county auditor to such city or municipal corporation in the proportion which the tax due such city or municipal corporation bears to the total tax for which such real property was sold.

Collection of unpaid taxes.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Consolidation of offices with counties under charter.

Section 9a. Any county organized under a charter for its own government, framed under the provisions of section seven and one half of article XI of the constitution of the State of California; or any city or town situated within said county, organized or incorporated under the provisions of section six of said article; or any city or town situated within said county heretofore or hereafter organized by charter authorized by section eight of said article shall have the power to prescribe, whenever such county charter so provides and the said county consents thereto, such other consolidation of county and municipal officers and the assumption and discharge of such functions thereof, as may be consistent with, and subject to said constitution.

CHAPTER 255.

An act to provide for the registration of factories, workshops, mills and other manufacturing establishments.

[Approved June 2, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Registration of factories.

SECTION 1. The owner of any factory, workshop, mill or other manufacturing establishment, where five or more persons are employed, shall register such factory, workshop, mill or other manufacturing establishment with the bureau of labor statistics, giving the name of the owner, the name under which the business is carried on, the location of the plant, the address of the general offices or principal place of business and such other information as the commissioner of labor shall require. Such registration of existing factories, workshops, mills or other manufacturing establishments shall be made on or before January 1, 1914. All factories, workshops, mills or other manufacturing establishments hereafter established shall be so registered within thirty days after the commencement of business. Within thirty days after a change in the location of a factory, workshop, mill or other manufacturing establishment the owner thereof shall file with the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics the new address.

Enforcement of act.

SEC. 2. The bureau of labor statistics shall enforce the provisions of this act. The commissioner, his deputies and agents, shall have all the powers and authority of sheriffs or other peace officers, to make arrests for violations of the provisions of this act, and to serve any process or notice throughout the state.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. Any person, firm or corporation who violates or omits to comply with the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdeemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. All fines imposed and collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the contingent fund of the bureau of labor statistics.

CHAPTER 256.

An act to permit counties to acquire rights of way for state highways and to pay part of the expense of constructing state highways and bridges within their limits and authorizing the state to accept the same.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever it is determined by a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors of any county that the interests of the county would be promoted thereby, the board of supervisors, upon the recommendation of the advisory board of the department of engineering of the State of California, may, by resolution passed by a four-fifths vote of said county board, determine to acquire by purchase, donation or dedication, or lease any right of way, rock quarry or land needed for state highway purposes and described in such recommendation, and shall proceed, if necessary, to condemn under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to such proceedings any right of way, rock quarry or land recommended to be acquired as aforesaid. The title to such property may be taken in the name of the state or the county. The order of the board of supervisors shall be the only preliminary procedure required prior to the acquisition of such property or the commencement of such condemnation action or actions.

Acquisition of rights of way and rock quarries for state highways authorized.

SEC. 2. Whenever it is determined by a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors of any county that the interests of the county would be promoted thereby, the board of supervisors may, upon the written request of the advisory board of the department of engineering of the State of California, by resolution passed by a four-fifths vote of said county board, determine to contribute bridges, fencing, money, labor, materials and other appurtenances toward the expenses of constructing state highways within their limits.

Counties may contribute bridges, etc.

SEC. 3. The cost of such acquisition of property mentioned in section one of this act and the contributing of bridges, fencing, money, labor, materials, or other appurtenances mentioned in section two of this act may be charged to the general county fund, the general road fund or the district fund of the district or districts benefited.

Cost charged to general fund.

SEC. 4. The state is hereby authorized to receive and use the benefits provided under this act, and any money contributed

State authorized to receive.

by a county shall be paid into the state fund designated by the board of supervisors in the resolution determining such donation.

CHAPTER 257.

An act authorizing municipalities to grant permits for the construction and maintenance of passageways or other structures under or over public alleys for the purpose of connecting buildings located on abutting property.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Passageways over alleys permitted.

SECTION 1. Whenever the legislative body of any municipality in this state shall determine that the public interest or convenience require the construction and the maintenance of passageways or other structures under or over any public alley or alleys in such municipality, for the purpose of connecting buildings located on abutting property and facilitating the public use of the street or streets with which such alley or alleys connect, such legislative body shall have power to grant permits for the construction and maintenance of such passageways or other structures. Such passageways or other structures shall be so constructed and maintained as not to interfere with public traffic on the surface of the alley, and the use of such passageways or other structures shall at all times be subject to the regulation and control of the municipality. Each such permit shall be revocable at the pleasure of the legislative body.

CHAPTER 258.

An act authorizing counties, cities and counties and municipalities to levy a tax necessary to pay principal and interest on bonds authorized and unsold at the time the annual tax levy is made.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Tax levy for interest on unsold bonds.

SECTION 1. The legislative body of any county, city and county or municipal corporation, at the time of the fixing of the annual tax levy shall estimate the amount of money required to meet the payment of the principal and interest on any bonds the issuance of which may have been authorized by the electors, and which have not been sold but which in the judgment of the legislative body will be sold prior to the making of the next subsequent tax levy, and may levy a tax sufficient to raise the money to pay the principal and interest so estimated. In case any bonds are declared invalid or for any reason are not issued, any tax levied as herein provided shall be refunded.

CHAPTER 259.

An act to amend sections eleven and eighteen of an act entitled "An act to allow unincorporated towns and villages to establish, equip and maintain systems of street lights on public highways; to provide for the formation, government and operation of highway lighting districts; the calling and holding of elections in such districts; the assessment, collection, custody and disbursement of taxes therein; and the creation of ex officio boards of supervisors," approved March 20, 1909, relating to the duties of supervisors, the fixing of rates to be paid, and the disposition of property on dissolution of district.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven of an act entitled "An act to allow unincorporated towns and villages to establish, equip and maintain systems of street lights on public highways; to provide for the formation, government and operation of highway lighting districts; the calling and holding of elections in such districts; the assessment, collection, custody and disbursement of taxes therein; and the creation of ex officio boards of supervisors," approved March 20, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 11. The board of supervisors of the county wherein lighting districts have been established under the provisions of this act, shall be and they are hereby designated as and empowered to act as ex officio the board of supervisors of each and all of such lighting districts which may hereafter be established within such county under the provisions of this act; serving without compensation; and said boards of supervisors shall be authorized and they are hereby empowered, and it shall be their duty:

Supervisors to act for lighting
districts.

First—To make all rules, regulations and laws necessary for the administration, operation and maintenance of the lighting districts situated within their county.

Powers
and duties.

Second—To supervise, and plan a system of street illumination for any and all lighting districts within their county, and to determine and decide upon the kind and manner of illuminant most feasible for the district; but nothing herein shall prevent the board of supervisors from installing and maintaining electric lights on highways in such districts, and to pay for the same out of the general road fund of the county or district road fund.

Third—To indicate the placing and installation of the lights and any and all subsequent additional lights.

Fourth—To receive bids, award and make contracts with lighting companies to the very best advantage of the district, for the installation and maintenance of poles, wires, lights and other accessories; and for the supplying of electric current, gas, or such other illuminant as may be determined upon; and for any and all other things that may be necessary to carry out the full meaning and provisions of this act.

Fifth—To determine the number of employecs, if any, necessary to properly care for and maintain the lights; to prescribe their duties and fix their compensation, which said employecs shall hold their positions at the pleasure of the board.

Sixth—Upon the application, by petition, of twenty-five or more taxpayers and residents of such lighting district, asking for the installation and maintenance of additional lights, which said petition must be filed on or before the first day of September in any year; to immediately estimate the cost of installing and maintaining such additional lights, and to include in the tax levy for the ensuing fiscal year a tax upon the taxable property within such lighting district, at the equalized value thereof for that year, sufficient to pay the cost of installing and maintaining such additional lights; after which to proceed with the installation of such additional lights.

Seventh—To designate the hours for lighting such districts.

Eighth—To perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this act.

Advertising for bids, etc.

Ninth—To, within ten days after the establishment of such district, proceed with carrying out the provisions of this act by advertising for bids for installing, caring for and maintaining the lights determined upon; and for supplying the district with all the gas, electricity or such other illuminant as has been determined upon, necessary for operating and maintaining any and all of the lights which have been already installed or which are to be installed within such district. The contract to be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder; provided, however, that the rates to be paid therefor must not exceed in any event the rates paid at that time by said county for highway lighting in other portions of said county. The rates to be paid must not be fixed for a term exceeding five years, and the board of supervisors must reserve the right to abrogate such contract whenever gas or electric current is offered to be supplied at two thirds of such fixed contract price.

SEC. 2. Section eighteen of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Dissolu-
tion.

Section 18. The district may at any time be dissolved upon the vote of two thirds of the qualified electors thereof, at an election called by the board of supervisors, upon the question of dissolution. Upon a petition signed by fifty or more property owners and residents of such lighting district, asking for the dissolution of said district, the board of supervisors shall within thirty days after receiving said petition, by resolution, order that an election be held in the said district, for the determination of the question, and appoint three qualified electors thereof to conduct said election. Such election shall be called and conducted in the same manner as other elections of the district. Upon such dissolution, any property which may have been acquired by such lighting district shall vest in any incorporated town or city where said lighting district shall be wholly within, or be identical with the corporate limits of such incorporated town or city; and the property in the territory of said district outside of the limits of such incorporated town or city shall vest in the county board of supervisors; and if there be no such incorporated town or city, then such property shall vest in the board of supervisors of the county wherein such lighting district is situated until the formation of such incorporated town or city; provided, however, that if at the time of the election to dissolve such district there be any outstanding indebtedness of such district, then, in such event, the vote to dissolve such district shall dissolve the same for all purposes excepting only the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of such outstanding indebtedness of such district; and from the time such district is thus dissolved until such indebtedness is fully paid, satisfied and discharged, the legislative authority of such incorporated town or city, or the board of supervisors, if there be no such incorporated town or city, is hereby constituted ex officio the board of supervisors of such district. And it is hereby made obligatory upon such board to levy such taxes and perform such other acts as may be necessary in order to raise money for the payment of such indebtedness, as herein provided.

Outstanding indebtedness.

CHAPTER 260.

An act to provide one additional judge of the superior court of the county of Contra Costa.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The number of judges of the superior court of the county of Contra Costa is hereby increased so that on and after the first Monday in January, A. D. 1915, there shall be two judges of said superior court in the said county of Contra Costa.

Judges in Contra Costa county increased.

SEC. 2. At the next general election to be held in November, A. D. 1914, there shall be elected in said county of Contra Costa, in addition to the judge of said superior court of said county of Contra Costa now provided by the constitution of this state for said county of Contra Costa, another judge of said superior court in said county to hold office beginning on the first Monday in January, A. D. 1915, for the term prescribed by the constitution and laws of this state, so that after the first Monday in January, 1915, there shall be two judges for said county.

Additional judge elected in 1914.

SEC. 3. The salary of said one additional judge shall be the same in amount, and shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the salary of the other judge of the superior court of said county now authorized by law.

Salary.

CHAPTER 261.

An act to provide for the incorporation and organization of public utility districts, authorizing such districts to incur bonded indebtedness for the purpose of the construction of works and the acquisition of property, and to levy and collect taxes to pay the principal and interest on bonds and for carrying on their operations, and providing for the powers, management and government of such districts.

[Approved June 5, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Organization of public utility
districts.

SECTION 1. A public utility district may be organized, incorporated and managed as herein provided, and may exercise the powers herein expressly granted, or reasonably implied therefrom. Such a district may include municipalities only or both incorporated and unincorporated territory, whether such municipalities or such territory are in the same or in different counties, but no municipal corporation shall be divided in the formation of such a district.

Ordinance.

SEC. 2. When any municipality in the State of California desires to organize such a public utility district as herein provided for, the legislative body of such municipal corporation at any regular meeting of such body may pass an ordinance reciting:

1. The name of the city adopting the ordinance.

2. That the public interest requires the incorporation of a public utility district.

3. The boundaries of the proposed district, and the names of the municipalities included within the proposed district. If such proposed district includes only municipalities, it shall be sufficient to state the names thereof without further setting forth the boundaries of the district.

4. The name of the district which shall include the words "public utility district."

5. An estimate of the preliminary costs and expenses of organizing the proposed district, and a proposed apportionment of the aggregate of such costs and expenses among the municipalities to be included within the district.

SEC. 4. Within forty days after the receipt of such certified copy of such ordinance by any municipality named therein, or by any board of supervisors of any county, unincorporated territory of which is proposed to be included in such district, the legislative body of such municipality and the board of supervisors of such county shall, by ordinance, either approve or disapprove the said ordinance without alteration or amendment. A failure on the part of any municipality or of any board of supervisors of any county to act as herein provided, shall be deemed a refusal to approve such ordinance.

SEC. 5. After the passage and going into effect of said ordinance required to be passed by section 4 hereof, the clerk of the municipality or of the board of supervisors acting thereon, shall forthwith forward a certified copy of such ordinance to the municipality initiating the proceedings. Notice to city initiating.

SEC. 6. Within thirty days after the receipt of all of said ordinances, if it shall appear that said initiatory ordinance has been approved by all of the municipalities named therein and by all such boards of supervisors, the legislative body of the municipality initiating the proceedings shall fix a day for holding a special election in each of the municipalities that have approved of said ordinance and in the unincorporated territory proposed to be included in such district, at which shall be submitted to the electors thereof the proposition of organizing such public utility district, and shall also provide for holding a similar election within its own municipality. In case the initiatory ordinance has not been approved by all of the municipalities and by all the boards of supervisors no further proceedings shall be had but new proceedings may be taken as provided in section 2 hereof. Special election.

SEC. 7. The date for such special election shall be certified to all of the municipalities and boards of supervisors which have adopted the ordinance herein provided for, and the legislative body of each such municipality and each of the boards of supervisors which have approved said ordinance, shall call and provide for the holding of a special election in their respective municipalities, and in the unincorporated territory, on the day so fixed, and such an election shall be held and conducted in the manner and form required by law for the holding of special elections within such municipalities and counties, respectively. The election in the unincorporated territory proposed to be included in such district shall be confined to the limits thereof. Prior to the holding of said election the municipalities named in such ordinance shall pay to the municipality initiating such proceedings, the amount apportioned to it for preliminary costs and expenses by the ordinance provided for in section 2 hereof. The cost of holding such election shall be paid by the municipality initiating such proceedings, from moneys received as herein provided. Each municipality contributing money as herein provided, shall be entitled to credit with the district for the amount of its contribution. The ballot used at such election shall contain the words "Proposition to organize a public utility district," or words of similar purport, and the words "Yes" and "No" so placed that a voter may indicate his wish in this connection as either in favor of or against said proposition. Date of election.

Such ballots shall be counted and returns thereof made by the Apportionment of costs.

Certificate of results.

SEC. 8. Within ten days after the canvass of votes cast at such election, the boards or officers canvassing the same shall certify the result thereof to the legislative body of the municipality initiating the proceedings.

Certificate to secretary of state.

SEC. 9. Within thirty days after the receipt of the certificates showing the result of the election held in the several municipalities and in unincorporated territory, if it appears therefrom that the proposition submitted has been approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon in each municipality wherein such election is held, and in the unincorporated territory in each county wherein such an election is held, the legislative body of the municipality receiving such certificates shall certify to the secretary of state the passage of the ordinance provided for in section 2 hereof, its subsequent approval by the several municipalities and boards of supervisors approving the same in the manner aforesaid, and the result of the election held as herein provided.

Secretary of state to issue certificate of organization.

SEC. 10. Upon the receipt of the certificate mentioned in the foregoing section, the secretary of state shall, within ten days, issue his certificate reciting that the public utility district (naming it) has been duly incorporated according to the laws of the State of California, and that such district is composed of the municipalities of ----- (naming all the municipalities which have approved at the election such organization), and of unincorporated territory (describing the same). A copy of such certificate shall be transmitted to each of the municipalities comprising such district and to the board or boards of supervisors of the county or counties, unincorporated territory of which is included in such district. From and after the date of such certificate, the district named therein shall be deemed incorporated as a public utility district with all the rights, privileges and powers set forth in this act and reasonably or necessarily incident thereto.

Informality not to invalidate.

SEC. 11. No informality in any proceedings, or informality in the conduct of any election, not substantially affecting adversely the legal rights of any citizen shall be held to invalidate the incorporation of any public utility district and any proceedings wherein the validity of such incorporation is denied or questioned shall be commenced within three months from the date of the certificate of incorporation, otherwise said incorporation and the legal existence of said public utility district and all proceedings in respect thereto, shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestible.

Powers of district.

SEC. 12. Any public utility district incorporated as herein provided, shall have power:

1. To have perpetual succession.

2. To sue and be sued except as otherwise provided herein, or by law, in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

3. To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

4. To take by grant, purchase, gift, devise or lease, hold, enjoy and to lease or dispose of real and personal property of every kind within or without the district necessary to the full or convenient exercise of its powers.

5. To acquire, construct, own, operate, control or use within or without, or partly within and partly without the district, works for supplying the inhabitants of said district with light, water, power, heat, transportation, telephone service or other means of communication, or for the disposition of garbage, sewage, storm water or refuse matter, or parks, and do all things necessary or convenient to the full exercise of the powers herein granted.

6. To have and exercise the right of eminent domain and in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of private property for public use, to take any property necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers herein granted, whether such property be already devoted to the same use or otherwise. In proceedings relative to the exercise of such right the district shall have the same rights, powers and privileges as a municipal corporation.

Right of eminent domain.

7. To construct works across or along any street or public highway, or over any of the lands which are now or may be the property of this state, and to have the same rights and privileges appertaining thereto as have been or may be granted to the municipalities within the state. To construct its works across any stream of water or water course. The district shall restore any such street or highway to its former state as near as may be and shall not use the same in a manner to unnecessarily impair its usefulness.

Works on streets.

8. To borrow money and incur indebtedness and to issue bonds or other evidences of such indebtedness; also to refund or retire any indebtedness or lien that may exist against the district or property thereof; provided, however, the incurring of any indebtedness or liability shall be subject to the provisions of section 18, of article XI of the constitution; and provided, further, no district shall incur any indebtedness which shall in the aggregate exceed fifteen (15) per cent of the assessed value of all real and personal property included within the district.

Borrow money.

9. To levy and collect, or to cause to be levied and collected, taxes for the purpose of carrying on the operations and paying the obligations of the district.

Levy taxes.

10. To make contracts, to employ labor and to do all acts necessary or convenient for the full exercise of the powers herein in this act granted.

Employ labor.

SEC. 13. The powers herein enumerated shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be exercised by a board to be known as the board of directors of the named public utility district. Such board shall be composed as follows:

Members.

1. The mayor, or if there be no mayor then the president or chairman of the board of trustees or other governing body, of each municipality comprising the district, and the chairman of the board of supervisors of the county, unincorporated territory of which is included within the district, shall be ex officio a member of said board.

Additional directors.

2. Each municipality having at least five thousand legal and registered voters shall choose by and from the members of its legislative body, one additional director and each municipality for each and every ten thousand legal and registered voters over five thousand, shall choose by and from the members of its legislative body one additional director, all of whom shall serve during the pleasure of the body making the appointment; provided, that if any such member does not desire to serve as such director, said legislative body may choose any other person who is an elector and resident of such municipality; and provided, further, that if the number of the members of any such legislative body be less than the number of directors such municipality may be entitled to, then such legislative body may choose directors from the qualified electors of the municipality. When the unincorporated territory of any county included within the district shall have at least five thousand legal and registered voters the board of supervisors of such county shall choose by and from the members thereof one additional director, and for each and every ten thousand legal and registered voters over five thousand shall choose by and from its members one additional director, all of whom shall serve during the pleasure of the body making the appointment; provided, that if any such member does not desire to serve as such director said body may choose any other person who is an elector and resident of such unincorporated territory included within such district. The number of legal and registered voters in each municipality on the first day of November, 1912, and every two years thereafter, shall be taken as the basis for determining the representation of such municipality in the board of directors. The same shall hold true in determining the representation of unincorporated territory in such board of directors.

First meeting.

SEC. 14. The legislative body of the municipality initiating the proceedings for incorporating the district shall fix a time and place for the first meeting of the board of directors, which shall be within thirty days from the date of the incorporation of the district.

Commissioners of district.

SEC. 15. At such meeting of the directors or at such time to which the proceedings may be continued, the board of directors shall choose three commissioners who shall constitute the commissioners of the named public utility district, but no director shall be eligible to appointment to such commission. The said commissioners shall have the power to make and enter into all contracts, appoint a secretary, who may be a member

The secretary of the commission shall act as secretary of the board of directors. The directors shall receive for each day's attendance at the meetings of the board their necessary expenses of attending the meeting and shall receive no other compensation.

SEC. 17. The commissioners shall elect one of its members President, auditor, etc., of commissioners. president, who shall sign all contracts on behalf of the district and perform such other duties as may be imposed by the commissioners or the board of directors. They shall appoint an auditor, who shall not be a member of the board of directors, and who shall be charged with the duty of installing and maintaining a system of auditing and accounting that shall completely and at all times show the financial condition of the district. He shall draw warrants to pay demands made against the district when such demands have been first approved by at least two of the commissioners. The commissioners shall also designate a depository or depositaries to have the custody of the funds of the district, all of which depositaries shall give security sufficient to secure the district against possible loss, and who shall pay the warrants drawn by the auditor for demands against the district under such rules as the directors may prescribe. Depositaries of funds.

SEC. 18. Whenever the board of directors deem it necessary Bonds. for the district to incur a bonded indebtedness it shall, by resolution, so declare and state the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred and the amount thereof, and it shall direct the commissioners to take, or cause to be taken, such proceedings as may be necessary to incur such debt and in the manner herein provided.

SEC. 19. The commissioners shall adopt a resolution reciting the adoption of the resolution mentioned in the foregoing section, state the proposition to be submitted to the electors, the amount of debt proposed to be incurred, the maximum term the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not exceed forty years, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed six per cent per annum. They shall fix a date upon which an election shall be held for the purpose of authorizing said bonded indebtedness to be incurred, and shall transmit a certified copy of the resolution fixing such date to the officers or board having charge of the conduct of elections of each municipality comprising the district and to the board of supervisors of any county, unincorporated territory of which is included within the district. Resolution as to bonds. Election.

- Notice. It shall be the duty of such board or officers in each municipality and in each county, to provide for holding such special election on the day so fixed and in the manner and form as special elections are held and conducted within the municipality and county respectively. Such board or officers shall give notice of the holding of such election, which notice shall contain the resolution adopted by the commissioners of the public utility district, the location of polling places and the names of the officers selected to conduct the election, which shall consist of one judge, one inspector and two clerks. Such notice shall be published for two insertions, once a week, for two successive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation published in each municipality, or if there is no newspaper printed in such municipality then by posting such notice in three public places therein. The board of supervisors shall also cause such notice to be published in a like manner in a paper in which the official printing is done. All the expenses of holding such election shall be borne by the district and shall be paid or credited to each city and county upon the filing of a verified claim therefor, with the secretary of the commission.
- Publication. The returns of such election shall be made, the votes canvassed and the results thereof ascertained and declared as in the case of other special elections within such municipalities and counties respectively. The board or officers declaring the result of such election shall certify such result to the commissioners of the district. No irregularities or informalities in conducting such election shall invalidate the same if the election shall have otherwise been fairly conducted. In all respects not otherwise provided for herein, said election shall be called, managed and directed as is by law provided for special elections in the municipality and county respectively in which such election is to be held.
- Expenses. SEC. 20. If from such returns it appears that two thirds or more of the votes cast at such election were in favor of and assented to the incurring of such indebtedness, then the commissioners may, by resolution, at such time or times as they may deem proper, provide for the form of such bonds and for the issuance of the whole or any part thereof, and may sell or dispose of the bonds so issued at such times or in such manner as they may deem to the public interest, but no bonds shall be sold for less than their par value. The proceeds of such bonds shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the resolution of the commissioners calling the election. It shall be competent for the commissioners in the resolution herein provided for, to provide for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon at any place or places designated in the bonds.
- Canvass. SEC. 21. Any bonds issued by any district are hereby given the same force, value and use as bonds issued by any municipality and shall be exempt from all taxation within the State of California.

sixty days from the date of the resolution provided for by section 20 hereof, cause to be brought in the name of the district an action in the superior court of the county in which said district or the greater portion thereof is located, to determine the validity of any such bonds. Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons for at least once a week for three weeks in some paper of general circulation published in the county where the action is pending, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings. Jurisdiction shall be complete within ten days after the full publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any one interested may at any time before the expiration of said ten days appear and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such bonds. Such action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring such bonds to be valid or invalid. Either party may have the right to appeal to the supreme court at any time within thirty days after the rendition of such judgment, which appeal must be heard and determined within three months from the time of taking such appeal. After the expiration of ninety days from the date of the resolution provided for by section 20 hereof no action may be brought to contest or question the validity of said bonds and proceedings thereto. If there be more than one action or proceeding involving the validity of any such bonds, they shall be consolidated and tried together. The court hearing any proceeding or action inquiring into the regularity, legality or correctness of the proceedings leading up to the issuance of bonds or the validity of such bonds must disregard any error, irregularity, or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action or proceeding. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are applicable to all actions or proceedings herein provided for. The motion for a new trial of any such action or proceeding must be heard and determined within ten days from the filing of the notice of intention. The costs on any proceeding or action herein provided for may be allowed and apportioned between the parties, or taxed to the losing party, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 23. For the purposes of this act, the works authorized to be acquired, owned or operated by the district (except parks and works for the disposition of storm waters) are declared to be revenue producing utilities. So far as possible the commissioners shall fix such charges for commodities or service furnished by any revenue producing utility as will pay the operating expenses of the utility, the interest on any bonded debt incurred for the acquisition or construction thereof and provide a sinking or other appropriate fund for the payment of the principal of such debt as it may become due; it being the intention of this section that the district pay the interest and principal of its bonded debt incurred for the acquisition of any revenue producing utility from the revenues derived by the district from such utility. The commissioners so far as the nature of the utility will permit, shall, before any bonded indebtedness is incurred for the construction or acquisition of any revenue producing utility, enter into appropriate contracts with the respective municipalities proposed to be served by such utility providing for the use thereof by the respective municipalities during the life of the bonds proposed to be issued. The district and the municipalities included therein are hereby expressly authorized to enter into such contracts.

Cities may

funds.

SEC. 24. At any time after the initiation of proceedings for the organization of a public utility district, or at any time after the organization of such a district, any municipality proposed to be included within the said district, or included therein, may advance to the municipality initiating proceedings, or to the district, funds to meet the expenses of organization or the expenses of carrying on the work of the district as the case may be, and if the district is formed and its purposes carried out any such municipality so advancing funds shall be entitled to credit with the district for the amounts so advanced.

revenues are insufficient.

SEC. 25. If from any cause the revenues of the district shall be inadequate to pay the principal or interest on any bonded debt as it becomes due, or if funds are needed to carry out the objects and purposes of the district, then the board of directors may cause a tax to be levied for such purposes as herein provided. The board shall state the purposes for which such taxes are necessary.

Rate fixed.

SEC. 26. The board of directors shall determine the amount necessary to be raised by taxation and shall fix a rate of tax to be levied which will raise the amount of money required by the district. The commissioners shall thereupon, and within a reasonable time previous to the time for the fixing of the tax rate of the county or counties in which said district is located, certify to the board or boards of supervisors the rate so fixed with a direction that at the time and in the manner required by law for the levying of taxes for county purposes, such board or boards of supervisors shall levy and collect a tax in addition to such other tax as may be levied by such board or boards of supervisors at the rate so fixed and determined, and it is made the duty of the officer or body having authority to levy taxes within each county to levy the tax so required.

Duty of county
officers.

And it shall be the duty of all county officers charged with the duty of collecting taxes, to collect such tax in time, form and manner, as county taxes are collected and when collected, to pay the same to the district ordering its levy and collection. Such tax shall be a lien on all property within the territory comprising the district and of the same force and effect as other liens for taxes, and its collection may be enforced by the same means as provided for the enforcement of liens for state and county taxes. Any county collecting taxes as herein pro-

SEC. 28. Any commissioner may be recalled by the electors of the district at any time after he has held office for six months, in the manner herein provided. A petition demanding the appointment of a successor to the commissioner sought to be recalled shall be filed with the board of directors, which petition shall be signed by qualified voters equal in number to at least fifteen per cent of the entire vote cast within the district for all candidates for the office of governor of the state at the last preceding election at which a governor was chosen, and shall contain a statement of the grounds on which the recall is sought. No insufficiency of form or substance in such statement shall effect the validity of the election or proceedings held thereunder. Signatures to the petition need not all be appended to one paper. Each signer shall add to his signature his occupation and place of residence, giving street and number, or if no street or number exists, then such a designation of his residence as will enable the locality to be readily ascertained. To each separate paper of such petition shall be attached an affidavit made by a qualified elector of the district stating that the affiant circulated that particular paper and saw written the signatures appended thereto and that, according to the information and belief of the affiant each of said signatures is genuine and the signature of a qualified elector of the district. Within twenty days from the date of the filing of such petition the board of directors shall remove the commissioner whose recall is sought, or shall direct its secretary to determine from the records of registration whether or not said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified voters. If such direction is made the secretary shall, within fifteen days from the date of such direction, determine the sufficiency of said petition and attach thereto his certificate showing whether or not said petition is sufficient. If the petition shall be found to be sufficient the board of directors shall cause a special election to be held not less than thirty-five nor more than sixty days after the date of such certificate, to determine whether the voters shall recall such officer. Such election shall be called, held, and the result thereof determined in the manner provided by law for the holding of special elections in the county in which said district or the largest portion thereof is included. One petition is sufficient to propose the recall of one or more of the commissioners. Upon the sample ballot shall be printed in not more than two hundred words, the grounds set forth in the recall petition for demanding the recall of the officer, and upon such ballot in not more than two hundred words the officer may justify himself. There shall be printed on the recall ballot as to every officer whose recall is to be voted on, the following question: "Shall (name of person against whom the recall

If a majority of those voting on said question of the recall of any incumbent shall vote "No," said incumbent shall continue in said office. If a majority vote "Yes," said incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from such office upon the qualification of his successor. No commissioner who has been removed by the board of directors upon the recall petition being filed with such board, or who has been recalled, shall again be eligible to appointment as a commissioner.

Action only after claim is rejected.

SEC. 29. No suit shall be brought against the district on any claim for money or damages until a claim or demand therefor, setting forth with reasonable certainty the nature and various items of the claim or demand and verified by the claimant, or his authorized agent, has been presented to the commissioners and rejected in whole or in part.

Definitions.

SEC. 30. The term "municipality" as herein used shall be deemed, and is hereby declared to include any city and county or incorporated city or town. The word "district" as herein used, shall be deemed, and is hereby declared to mean a public utility district formed under the provisions of this act. The word "board" and the expression "board of directors," as herein used, shall be deemed, and are hereby declared to mean the board of directors of a public utility district. The word "commissioners" as herein used shall be deemed, and is hereby declared to mean the commissioners of a public utility district formed under the provisions of this act, and the commissioners shall be regarded as a board of commissioners. The expression "unincorporated territory" as herein used shall be deemed, and is hereby declared to mean territory not included within the corporate limits of any municipality.

How construed.

SEC. 31. This act and each and every provision thereof shall be liberally construed to carry out the purposes hereof. The rule of strict construction is hereby expressly declared to be inapplicable. The provisions of this act shall be deemed to be directory and not mandatory, except where it shall appear that this construction will work substantial injustice.

Intention of act.

SEC. 32. It is intended by this act to provide necessary machinery whereby municipalities and communities may act jointly in effecting public improvements and acquiring and operating works, the effecting, acquiring or carrying on of which by such cities or communities separately would be impracticable or disadvantageous by reason of the magnitude of such improvements or works, or the cost thereof, or by reason of the fact that said improvements or works are of common benefit to a series of cities or communities. It is not intended that a district formed hereunder shall construct or operate public improvements or works of a local character.

SEC. 33. This act shall not be deemed to repeal any other act dealing with the same subject-matter or any portion of the matters herein covered.

CHAPTER 262.

An act reappropriating nine hundred and sixty-four dollars and ninety-eight cents from the unexpended balance of the fund created by an act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act making an appropriation for the expenses of the national guard in case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, or imminent danger thereof," approved April 12, 1909, to pay national guardsmen for services rendered at Ocean Park fire in September, 1912.

[Approved June 5, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of nine hundred and sixty-four dollars and ninety-eight cents is hereby reappropriated from the unexpended balance of a fund created by an act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act making an appropriation for the expenses of the national guard in case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, or imminent danger thereof," approved April 12, 1909, to pay national guardsmen of the State of California for services rendered at the conflagration at Ocean Park, California, during the month of September, 1912.

Appropriation: services, national guardsmen at Ocean Park.

CHAPTER 263.

An act providing for the construction and maintenance by the state of state aid highways in counties and towns.

[Approved June 5, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of any county may on a not less than four-fifths vote of such board or governing body, petition the state department of engineering, hereinafter in this act called department, upon forms prepared by said department, or under its direction to have any main public highway in the said county, or town improved and maintained under the provisions of this act. Such petition shall contain a detailed description of the highway petitioned to be improved, a statement as to whether or not the rights of way for the said highway have been secured by the public; a statement of the kind of construction work with which it is sought to have the highway improved, and such other information and data as the department may prescribe.

Supervisors may petition that highway be improved by department of engineering.

Consideration of petition.

SEC. 2. Upon receipt of such a petition the department shall give careful consideration to the matters contained therein, and may authorize the body filing the petition to file an amended or modified petition conforming to such regulations and conditions as in the discretion of the department may be deemed just and proper.

Surveys, estimates, etc.

If said department determine that public necessity and convenience require that such highway should be laid out and be taken charge of by the state, it shall cause the engineer or surveyor of the county in which the road to be improved is located to make adequate surveys, plans, specifications and estimates thereof subject to the approval and acceptance of the department. Upon approval by the department, a copy of the petition, resolution or undertaking, plans, specifications and estimate shall be filed with the department and also in the office of the recorder of the county in which the highway is situated and thereafter it shall be a state highway, and shall be constructed and kept in good repair as the department shall direct, under the supervision of the engineer or surveyor of the said county, the expense for construction and repair of same to be proportioned and paid as hereafter provided. Such highways shall be known as state aid highways.

State highway.

Bridges and culverts constructed by county.

SEC. 3. The department shall not grant the prayer of any petition for the improvement of a highway under the provisions of this act unless all necessary bridges and culverts shall have first been constructed by the county, or town in which the highway is situated, in a manner satisfactory to the department, nor unless all necessary rights of way have been secured by the public. All expenditures under the provisions of this act shall be distributed equitably throughout the state.

Advertising and letting contract.

SEC. 4. When the department is prepared for construction it shall so notify the governing body of the town or county in which the highway is located and furnish them a verified copy of the approved plans and specifications and the said governing body shall proceed to advertise for bids and let the contract for construction in the manner provided for by the statutes for advertising and letting contracts for work on public highways by counties.

Bids may be rejected.

Should the bids for constructing the highways exceed the figure mutually agreed upon between the department and the county engineer as a reasonable compensation for the work the bids shall be rejected and the work be done as the department shall direct. In either case the county surveyor shall represent the department in the supervision of the construction. Whenever the department deems it necessary, it may appoint an inspector.

Payments.

SEC. 5. Payment for the work shall be made by the local governing body in the manner provided by law for the payments of claims against the county for work of this class, on presentation of bills verified by the supervising engineer and approved by the department. The cost of construction shall include therein the cost of the surveys, drafting, engineering, inspection and other necessary expenses as well as the cost of the actual work of construction. Two thirds of the cost of construction as shown by the bills approved by the department shall be paid by the county in which the highway is located and one third by the state. The cost of maintenance thereafter shall be equally divided between the state and the county, the work to be done as the department shall direct under the supervision of the county engineer. All bills for maintenance shall be approved and paid in the same manner as the cost of construction.

Two thirds cost paid by county.

On the tenth of each month following the month in which work of any kind has been done, or expenses of any sort have been incurred in connection with the construction or maintenance of a state aid highway, the treasurer of the county where the highway is situated shall present to the department a verified statement of the amounts paid for work performed during the previous month and a demand for a payment of the amount due from the state. Upon verification and approval of this demand the state treasurer shall forward the amount to the county treasurer. The amount to be paid by a county may be paid out of the proceeds of a bond issue, the general fund, the general road district fund or out of the district funds of the road district in which the said highway is located.

Monthly statement of expenditures.

The proportion of expense borne by the state shall be paid out of any fund now available, or which may hereafter be made available for the purpose, or out of special appropriations for the purpose made by the legislature.

Payable from any available fund.

Moneys shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state, upon demands made by the department and audited by the state board of control.

SEC. 6. The board of supervisors of any county may not, under the provisions of this act, petition for the improvement of any highway the estimated cost of which by the county surveyor or engineer of said county shall exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars, unless the same shall have been submitted to the electors of the county and approved. The board of supervisors is hereby authorized to issue bonds under the laws of this state for the construction of such highways and the approval of such bond issue by the electors shall authorize the board of supervisors to proceed with the construction of such highway under the provisions of this act.

Limit of cost.

Bonds.

SEC. 7. All of the provisions of law relating to state highways and to the department shall apply so far as they are applicable to all work done and to all methods employed under this act.

SEC. 8. This act shall be known and cited as the "State Aid Highway Act."

CHAPTER 264.

An act to add a new section to the Civil Code of the State of California to be known and numbered as section four hundred and twenty-two relating to the valuation of stocks and bonds held by insurance companies.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code of the State of California to be known and numbered as section four hundred and twenty-two, and to read as follows:

Report on stocks and bonds held by insurance companies.

422. If any domestic insurance corporation shall have invested any of its funds in or loaned any of its funds upon the stock, bonds or other evidences of debt of other corporations or of any nation, state, county, city, village, school district, municipality, or other civil division of any state, pursuant to the laws of this state, and the insurance commissioner shall have reason to believe that such stock, bonds or other evidences of debt are not amply secured or are not yielding an income, he may direct it to report to him under oath the amount thereof, the security therefor and its market value. No stock and no bond or other evidence of debt if in default as to principal or interest, or if not amply secured, shall be valued as an asset of the corporation above its market value. All bonds or other evidences of debt held by any insurance corporation authorized to do business in this state, if amply secured and if not in default as to principal or interest, may in the discretion of the insurance commissioner, be valued as follows: If purchased at par at the par value; if purchased above or below par, on the basis of the purchase price adjusted so as to bring the value to par at maturity and so as to yield the effective rate of interest at which the purchase was made; provided, that the purchase price shall in no case be taken at a higher figure than the actual market value at the time of purchase; and provided, further, that the insurance commissioner shall have full discretion in determining the method of calculating values according to the foregoing rule, and the values found by him in accordance with such method shall be final and binding; provided, also, that any such corporation may return such bonds or other evidence of debt at their market value or their book value, but in no event at an aggregate value exceeding the aggregate of the values calculated according to the foregoing rule.

CHAPTER 265.

An act amending section six hundred and two a of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the reserve of companies transacting liability insurance business.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and two a of the Political Code of the State of California, is hereby amended to read as follows:

602a. In estimating the condition of any company engaged in the business of liability insurance under the provisions of this article the insurance commissioner shall charge as liabilities all outstanding indebtedness of such company, and the premium reserve of policies in force, equal to the unearned portions of the gross premiums charged for covering risks, computed on each respective risk from the date of the issuance of the policy. The indebtedness for outstanding losses under insurance against loss or damage resulting from accident to or injuries suffered by an employee or other person and for which the insured is liable, and under insurance against loss from liability on account of the death of or injury to an employee not caused by the negligence of the employer, shall be determined as follows: Each corporation which writes policies covering any of the said kinds of insurance shall include in the annual statement a schedule of its experience thereunder, in the United States and foreign countries in the case of corporations organized in the United States, and in the United States only in the case of corporations organized outside of the United States giving each calendar year's experience separately, and crediting or charging each item to the year in which the policy to which it relates was written, as follows: (1) the earned premiums on all such policies written during the period of ten years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, being the gross premiums on all such policies including excess and additional premiums and premiums in course of collection, less return premiums and premiums on canceled policies, and less the unearned premiums on policies in force as shown in such annual statement; (2) the amount of all payments of whatsoever nature made by reason or on account of injuries covered by such policies written during said period. This amount shall include medical and surgical attendance, payments to claimants, legal expenses, salaries and expenses of investigators, adjusters, and field men, rents, stationery, telegraph and telephone charges, postage, salaries and expenses of office employes, home office expenses, and all other payments made on account of such injuries, whether such payments are allocated to specific claims or are unallocated; (3) the number of suits being defended at the date as of which the statement is made under policies written during said period, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured, and a charge of seven hundred and fifty dollars for each suit; (4) the number of deaths for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written during said period, and not paid for at the date as of which the statement is made and a charge of the amount necessary to pay for such deaths; (5) the number of unpaid claims at the date as of which the statement is made on account of nonfatal injuries for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written during said period, and a charge equal to the present value of the estimated future payments; (6) the loss ratio determined from the foregoing as to each year separately using as the divisor the earned premiums shown in item (1) and as the dividend the amount of payments shown in item (2) plus the amounts charged in items (3), (4) and (5); (7) the number of suits being defended at the date as of which the statement is made under policies written more than ten years prior to such date, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured; (8) the number of deaths for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written more than ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, and not paid for at such date; (9) the number of unpaid claims at the date as of which the statement is made on account of nonfatal injuries for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written more than ten years prior to such date. All unallocated payments in item (2) made in a given calendar year subsequent to the first four years in which a corporation has been issuing such policies shall be distributed as follows: Thirty-five per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, ten per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, ten per centum to the policies written in the third year preceding, and five per centum to the policies written in the fourth year preceding, and such payments made in the first four calendar years in which a corporation has been issuing such policies shall be distributed as follows: in the first calendar year one hundred per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, in the second calendar year fifty per centum shall be charged to policies written in that year and fifty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, in the third calendar year forty per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, and twenty per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, and in the fourth calendar year thirty-five per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, fifteen per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, and ten per centum to the policies written in the third year preceding, and a schedule showing such distribution shall be included in such annual statement. Each such corporation shall be charged with indebtedness for outstanding losses upon such policies determined as follows: (10) for all suits being defended under policies written more than ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured, one thousand dollars for each suit; (11) for all suits being defended under policies written more than five years and less than ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured, seven hundred and fifty dollars for each suit; (12) for all deaths for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written more than five years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, the amount necessary to pay for such deaths; (13) for all unpaid claims on account of nonfatal injuries for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence under policies written more than five years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, the present value of the estimated future payments; (14) for the policies written in the five years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made an amount determined as follows: multiply the earned premiums of each of such five years as shown in item (1) by the loss ratio ascertained as in item (6) on all the policies written in the first five years of the said ten-year period using as the divisor the sum of the earned premiums shown in item (1) for such first five years, and as the dividend the sum of the payments shown in item (2) for such first five years plus the sum of the charges in items (3), (4) and (5) for such first five years, but the ratio to be used shall in no event be less than fifty-two per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and thirteen, nor less than fifty-three per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, nor less than fifty-four per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and fifteen, nor less than fifty-five per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and sixteen, and from the amount so ascertained in each of the last five years of said ten-year period deduct all payments made under policies written in the corresponding year as shown in item (2), and the remainder in the case of each year shall be deemed the indebtedness for that year; provided, however, that if the remainder in the case of any year of the first three years of the five years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made shall be less than the sum of the three following items for that year at that date—(a) the number of suits, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured, being defended under policies written in that year and a charge of seven hundred and fifty dollars for each suit, (b) the amount necessary to pay for all deaths for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written in that year, and (c) the present value of estimated unpaid claims on account of nonfatal injuries for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written in that year—then the sum of said items (a), (b) and (c) shall be the indebtedness for that year. A corporation which has been issuing such policies for a period of less than ten years shall nevertheless include in its annual statement, a schedule as hereinbefore required for the years in which it shall have issued such policies, and shall be charged with an indebtedness determined in the same manner, but in determining the indebtedness for policies written in the five years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, the minimum ratio hereinbefore prescribed shall be used subject to the same deductions and provisions as in the case of corporations that have been issuing such policies for ten years or more.

CHAPTER 266.

An act prohibiting the borrowing of money from an insurance company by an officer of such company.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Officers prohibited from borrowing from insurance
funds.

SECTION 1. No officer of any insurance company shall directly or indirectly, for himself or as a partner or agent for others, borrow any of the funds of such insurance company; provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not be construed to prevent the borrowing by any insured upon the security of policies of insurance in accordance with their terms, nor prevent agents of life insurance companies from receiving advances under their agency contracts.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. Any officer who acts in violation of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 267.

An act to establish police courts in cities of the first and one half class, to fix the jurisdiction of said courts and to provide for the officers thereof, to prescribe the powers and duties of the officers of said courts, and to fix the compensation of certain officers thereof, and to repeal an act entitled "An act to establish police courts in cities of the first and one half class, to fix their jurisdiction and provide for officers of said courts and fix the compensation of certain officers thereof," which became a law under the provisions of the constitution of the State of California without the governor's approval, on the 5th day of March, 1901, and all acts amendatory of said act or supplementary thereto.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The judicial power of every city of the first and one half class shall be vested in a police court to be held therein by the city justices of such city, or one or more of them. Either of said justices may hold such court, and there may be as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are city justices in said city, and it is hereby made the duty of said city justices, in addition to the duties now required of them by law, to hold said police court, as judges thereof.

Judicial power of cities of first and one half class.

SEC. 2. Said police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment, committed in the city where such police court is held; and of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal; and of all actions for the collection of any license required by the ordinances of said city. In all cases of which said police court has jurisdiction it shall have power to try and determine the same; convict or acquit; pass and enter judgment and carry such judgment into execution as the case may require, according to law.

Jurisdiction.

SEC. 3. Each of the city justices while acting as judge of said police court shall be and have the powers of a police magistrate and shall have power and jurisdiction to issue warrants of arrest, search warrants, subpoenas, summons, writs of execution and all other writs, orders or processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of the powers and jurisdiction of said court: to punish persons guilty of contempt of said court, in like cases and by the same penalties as justices of the peace; to try all charges of misdemeanor offenses committed within its jurisdiction, as well as all charges for violation of city ordinances, and render judgment therein with full power to carry such judgment into execution; to make disposition of property taken under search warrant, in like cases and like manner as justices of the peace; to act as a committing magistrate, examine and hold to answer or discharge persons charged with the commission of felonies and make all necessary rulings, orders and commitments in that behalf; in all proper cases, to stay the execution of any judgment rendered by him in either civil or criminal cases.

Justices not to be interested.

SEC. 4. Neither of said justices shall sit in any case in which he is a party, or in which he is interested, or where he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; and in case of the absence, sickness or inability of the said justices, or either of them, either of said justices may call in any justice of the peace of the county to act in his place and stead.

Departments.

SEC. 5. The said police court shall be divided into as many departments as there are judges of said court. The judges of said court shall choose from their number a presiding judge, who shall serve for one year; provided, however, that the presiding judge first chosen hereunder shall serve until the first Monday in January, 1914: and provided, further, that the presiding judge may be removed at any time and another appointed in his place by a vote of the majority of said judges. The presiding judge shall assign the judges to their respective departments: but any judge may preside in any department in case of the absence or inability to act of the judge of such department. And in the absence or inability to act of the presiding judge, the remaining judges may select one of their number to act as presiding judge during such absence or inability; and whose official acts during such time shall have the same force and effect as though made or done by the presiding judge. The presiding judge shall have power to apportion the business of said court among the several departments and to transfer cases from one department to another, if necessary or convenient to facilitate the dispatch of business of said court. The judgments, orders and proceedings of any session of the court held by any one or more of the judges of said court shall be equally effectual as though all of the judges had presided at such session. The judges of said court shall have power, by a majority vote of all the judges of said court, to make rules not inconsistent with the constitution or laws of this state, for the government of said court and the officers thereof, and for conducting the business of said court. Such rules may be published by posting a copy of the same in each of the court rooms of said court and shall be in effect after having been so posted for a period of thirty days. Said court shall be governed in its proceedings by the provisions of law regulating proceedings in justices' courts and police courts so far as such provisions are not altered or modified by this act, and the same are applicable in the several cases arising therein, and no rules shall be made imposing any tax or charge on any legal proceeding or giving any allowance to any officer for services.

Clerks.

SEC. 6. Said police court shall have a clerk for each of the judges of said court, who shall be appointed by the judge of said court presiding in the department thereof in which the said clerk is to act, which said clerk shall hold office for the term of four years from the date of his appointment. Each such clerk shall be ex officio a clerk of the city justices of the peace. Each of said clerks shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Each of said clerks shall receive an annual salary of twenty-one hundred dollars, payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be full compensation for all services rendered by him. Each of the said clerks shall keep a record of the proceedings of said court and issue all processes ordered by the city justices or either of them, or by said police court or a judge thereof, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines imposed and collected by said court, and all forfeitures of cash deposited in lieu of bail in said court, and all other moneys which may come into his hands belonging to or payable to said city. They shall also render each month to the city council an exact and detailed account under oath of all fines imposed and collected and of all fines imposed and uncollected since their last reports. They shall prepare and approve bonds and may, in the absence of a judge of said court, fix the amount of bail to be required of any defendant charged in such court with any offense of which such court has jurisdiction. Such clerk may also justify bail, and may administer and certify oaths. Said clerks shall remain at the court rooms of said court during business hours and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for a proper performance of their duties. Before receiving any monthly payment of salary, each of said clerks shall make and file with the city auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come into his hands belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor. Said clerks shall keep, compile and be the custodians of the dockets, files and records of said court. Said dockets shall, in civil cases, be kept in conformity to the provisions of sections 911, 912, 913 and 914 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California. In criminal cases the docket shall contain in each case:

1. The title of the case;
2. The demurrer, if any;
3. The motion to dismiss, if any, based upon any defect of the complaint in substance or form;
4. The ruling of the court upon any demurrer or motion to dismiss;
5. The defendant's plea;
6. Any order of the court setting the time for hearing of any demurrer or motion, or setting case for trial;
7. The names of the witnesses sworn and examined at the trial;
8. The verdict;
9. The time set for rendering judgment, if judgment is not passed immediately after verdict or plea of guilty; and the waiver of time for sentence, if there be such waiver;

Prosecuting attorney.

SEC. 7. Said police court shall have a prosecuting attorney who shall be elected or appointed in such manner as the charter of said city shall provide. Said prosecuting attorney shall have as many assistants, deputies, clerks and stenographers as the legislative body of said city shall provide, all of whom shall be appointed by said prosecuting attorney, unless otherwise provided by the charter of said city. In case the charter of said city shall provide for the election or appointment of a city prosecutor, such city prosecutor shall have and exercise all the powers and duties of said prosecuting attorney. It shall be the duty of such prosecuting attorney, either in person or by his assistants or deputies, to draw complaints to be filed in said police court for misdemeanor offenses in which said court has jurisdiction, arising either from violations of the charter or ordinances of said city or from violations of the laws of the State of California. Such prosecuting attorney must attend the said police court, and conduct, either in person, or by his assistants or deputies, in behalf of the people, all prosecutions for public offenses of which such court has trial jurisdiction. Said prosecuting attorney shall attend to all appeals and proceedings on application for writs of habeas corpus, in connection with such prosecutions, and shall prosecute all recognizances and bail bonds forfeited in said court, and all actions for the recovery of fines, penalties and forfeitures accruing in said court; and the district attorney of the county in which said city is located shall have no power or authority in or over any of said prosecutions, actions or proceedings. Whenever any person, held in custody or restraint by any peace officer of said city, and charged with having committed any criminal offense against the provisions of the charter or ordinances of said city, or with having committed any offense in said city which is a misdemeanor under the laws of this state, shall apply for a writ of habeas corpus, a copy of the application for such writ shall be served forthwith upon the prosecuting attorney or upon one of his assistants or deputies. In any case where an offense has been committed in the said city that is triable in said court, and any person, whose attendance as a witness at the trial is necessary in the judgment of said prosecuting attorney, resides out of the county in which said court is located, or can only be served with a subpoena outside of said county, the said prosecuting attorney shall have the power to make and present to the said police court, an affidavit stating that he believes the evidence of such witness is material and that the attendance of such witness at the trial is necessary. And if a judge of the said police court shall, upon the presentation to him of such affidavit of said prosecuting attorney, endorse on the subpoena an order for the attendance of the witness named in such affidavit, the attendance of such witness may be enforced in the manner provided by sections 1330, 1331, and 1332 of the Penal Code.

Sec. 8. There shall be a bailiff in each department of said court, who shall be selected from the regular police force of said city and shall be appointed by the judge presiding in such department, and who by virtue of such selection and appointment shall rank as sergeant. It shall be the duty of the bailiff to attend all sessions of the department of such court for which he is appointed or assigned, and to preserve order therein; to serve or cause to be served and properly returned to said court, all warrants, subpoenas, writs, processes and orders, civil or criminal, issued by or out of or returnable to said court; to have charge of prisoners while in said court, and if committed to deliver them or cause them to be delivered to the proper officer; to perform such other duties in the conducting or facilitating the business of said court as a judge of said court may require; or as may be required by a rule of said court. Each of said bailiffs shall be a civil executive officer and in the performance of his duties as an officer of said court, within the city in which said court is situated, shall have all the powers and authority of a sheriff or other peace officer. He shall be subject to the orders of said court or a judge thereof and may be punished by said court or a judge thereof for contempt, or for the disobedience of any order of said court, or a judge thereof, or for neglect of duty. Any bailiff of said court, or person acting as or performing the duties of bailiff of said court shall not while such bailiff, or while so acting or performing such duties, be assigned to or required to perform any other duties without the consent of the judge presiding in the department in which such bailiff or officer is so acting or performing such duties. Each of said bailiffs shall receive a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city. Any police officer of said city may perform any of the duties of a bailiff of said court, and while in the performance of any such duties, is subject to the orders and discipline of said court as a bailiff.

Sec. 9. If at any time, in the opinion of the judges of said court, or a majority of them, the services of more than five men are required to perform the duties devolving upon the bailiffs of said court, or to facilitate the work of said court, the presiding judge may select and appoint one additional man from the police force of said city, who shall thereby become a bailiff of said court, or of any department thereof to which he may be assigned by the presiding judge, and who shall thereby be invested with all the powers and authority of a bailiff of said court, and who shall perform any of the duties of a bailiff of said court, required of him by the presiding judge, or a judge of said court; and such bailiff, while so acting, shall have the rank and receive the compensation of a bailiff of said court. He shall serve as such bailiff during the pleasure of the judges of said court or a majority of them.

Fines paid into treasury.

SEC. 10. All fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city in the police court shall be paid into the city treasury on the first Tuesday of each month.

Court rooms.

SEC. 11. The city council shall furnish suitable rooms for the holding of said police court, including jury rooms and offices for the judges, clerks and bailiffs, and shall also furnish the necessary dockets, blanks, stationery and supplies for the carrying on of the business of said court, requisition for such supplies to be issued by any judge for his department.

Quarterly selection of jurors.

SEC. 12. In the months of January, April, July and October of each year there shall be selected by the judges of said police court a list of jurors to serve as a term trial jury in said police court for the ensuing three months, and until a new term trial jury is selected. Said jurors shall be selected from the persons resident in the city in which said police court is held, and who are legally competent and suitable to serve as jurors therein, as follows: The judges of said court shall meet for the purpose of selecting a jury. The presiding judge shall preside at such meeting, and a majority of the judges of said court shall constitute a quorum. The judges shall estimate and designate the number of jurors required for the trial of cases in said court for the ensuing three months. From the names appearing on the last preceding completed assessment roll of the county in which said city is located, of persons assessed on property belonging to themselves and apparently competent and suitable to serve as jurors in such court, the judges shall select names which shall not be less than two, nor more than four, times the number designated as the number of jurors required as hereinbefore provided, which names shall be written on separate slips of paper, and said slips shall be folded so as to conceal the names thereon, and said slips shall be placed in a proper receptacle and thoroughly mixed. The presiding judge shall then draw from said receptacle, one at a time, as many slips as the number designated by said judges as the number of jurors required; and there shall be made two lists of said names so drawn and one of said lists shall be delivered to the presiding judge. The other list shall then be filed in the office of the presiding judge. The presiding judge shall thereupon make an order requiring the persons whose names have been so drawn to attend in said court at a suitable time and place in said order designated; and said order shall be signed by the presiding judge and the seal of the court attached. The clerk of the department of the presiding judge shall attach to said order a copy of the list of the names drawn as above set forth, and deliver said order with said list attached to one of the bailiffs of the said court or to any police officer of said city. The said bailiff or police officer shall without delay, and without further pay, serve and return said order to said court, in the manner provided in section 225 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Drawing of names.

Service.

At the time and place fixed in said order for the appearance of the persons so summoned, the presiding judge shall attend and shall call the names on said list and shall make a record of those present and those absent, and shall excuse such as shall appear to him to be not competent or eligible to serve as jurors, and such as appear to be exempt from jury duty in such cases as the exemption is pressed by the prospective juror as an excuse from duty, and such as appear to him to be entitled to be excused under the provisions of section 201 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The question of the competency or incompetency, or exemption from jury service, shall be determined according to the provisions of sections 198, 199 and 200 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Appearance of persons on list.

Any juror summoned as above provided, who fails to appear, may be attached by an order issued by said presiding judge, and served by one of the bailiffs of said court or any police officer of said city, and punished as provided in section 238 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Failure to appear.

The names of the persons attending, whether by original service or attachment, and not excused, shall be written on separate slips of paper, which slips shall be folded so as to conceal the names, and shall be placed in a box. If in the opinion of the presiding judge there is not in attendance a sufficient number of jurors for the trial of cases in said court for the ensuing three months, he may cause additional names to be drawn and the persons whose names are so drawn to be summoned in the manner hereinbefore provided, until the number of persons designated in the original order are in attendance and are qualified, and their names placed in a box; provided, however, that the drawing, or the attendance, or the qualifying of a greater or less number of jurors than that designated by the judges as hereinbefore provided shall not be a ground of challenge to the panel or to a juror, nor shall it affect the validity of any act as a juror of any persons so drawn and qualified.

Names on separate slips.

When a jury is required in any department of said court, the judge presiding in that department or any judge of said court, shall cause to be drawn from the box containing the names of the jurors attending, and not excused, a number of names estimated to be sufficient from which to select said jury. If the persons whose names are so drawn are not present in said court, they may by order of a judge of said court, be summoned by the bailiff of said court or a police officer in the manner hereinbefore provided. If said names so drawn are exhausted before the jury is completed, additional names shall be drawn in the same manner until the jury is completed or the slips in the box are exhausted. The slips containing the names so drawn shall be delivered to the clerk of the department in which the jury is to be selected, who shall without unfolding them, place them in a box and cause them to be thoroughly mixed; and shall then draw from said box, one at a time, said slips and call the name from each of said slips as it is drawn, until the jury box is filled. Thereupon the parties to the cause shall proceed to select a jury in the manner and under the rules laid down in sections 1055 to 1088, inclusive, of the Penal Code.

Jurors drawn.

Slips preserved.

The clerk of the court shall preserve the slips drawn as above required and shall retain in his possession all slips containing the names of jurors sworn to try the cause, until such trial is finished, when he shall return them to the presiding judge; and shall also return to the presiding judge the slips containing the names of those drawn and rejected. The slips so returned to the presiding judge shall not be replaced in the general panel box until the jury in the cause for which they were drawn has been completed, but may be placed in and drawn from, a separate box for use and service in another trial in any other department of said court. If for any reason the entire term trial panel of jurors is exhausted without completing a jury, the judge of the department in which the cause is being tried may issue an order or writ of venire and cause to be summoned additional talesmen, as provided in sections 230, 231 and 232 of the Code of Civil Procedure. From such of these additional talesmen as are qualified and eligible for jury duty, the jury may be completed as provided by law.

Additional
talesmen.

Jurors'
compensation.

Jurors shall be paid two dollars ($2.00) per diem for each day actually served in the trial of causes in said court, which compensation shall be payable from the treasury of the city. Each juror shall also be entitled to compensation for mileage actually traveled from his place of residence to said court where the distance between such place of residence and said court is more than ten miles, the sum of five cents per mile one way and such compensation shall be payable from the treasury of the city. The clerk of each department of said court shall keep an account of the time served by each juror and the distance traveled in attending said court by each juror, and shall, at the end of each month, certify to the presiding judge the number of days served by each juror and the amount of mileage fees due each juror, and the presiding judge shall thereupon deliver to each juror on the last day of each month a certificate over his signature and the seal of said court, showing the number of days served by each juror, the mileage fees due each juror, and the total amount due each juror, which certificate shall be a sufficient demand on the treasurer of such city.

Time served.

Court
open.

SEC. 13. The police court shall be always open during business hours, except upon non-judicial days, and then for such purposes only as by law permitted or required of other courts of this state.

Appeals.

SEC. 14. Appeals may be taken from any judgment of said police court to the superior court of the county in which such city may be located, on the same grounds and in the same manner in which appeals are taken from justices' courts in like cases.

Imprisonment of persons convicted.

SEC. 15. In all cases of the conviction in said police court of any person charged with any offense committed in the city in which such police court is held, and the imprisonment of any person so convicted, the person so to be imprisoned, or by ordinance required to labor, shall upon the order of the judge before whom such conviction is had, be imprisoned in the city jail, or a branch thereof, or in such other penal or reformatory institution as may be provided by the city for such purpose; or if required to labor, shall labor in the city or in such penal or reformatory institution, and the imprisonment in any branch city jail or in any such penal or reformatory institution shall be deemed an imprisonment in the city jail; provided, that if any person who is imprisoned in any branch city jail or any such penal or reformatory institution by judgment of said police court, shall escape therefrom, or shall fail or refuse to submit or conform to the rules of such penal or reformatory institution, such person may by order of the court or any judge thereof, be required to serve the unexpired portion of his term in the city jail. In such case only so much of the prisoner's term shall be deemed to have expired as has been actually served in the city jail, or a branch city jail, or in such penal or reformatory institution.

SEC. 16. Said court shall have a seal, to be furnished by the city. Seal.

SEC. 17. The city justices shall, on the first Tuesday of each month, make to the city council a full and complete report of all cases, civil and criminal, filed or acted upon since their last report, in which the city has an interest, or which are required to be entered in the city civil docket or the city criminal docket, such report to be made upon blanks furnished by the city council and in such form as they may require. Monthly report of justices.

SEC. 18. Certified transcripts of the dockets or files of said court, certified by the clerk of said court under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the contents of said docket or of said files, as the case may be; and all warrants and other process issued out of said court, and all acts done by said court and certified under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state. Certified transcripts as evidence.

SEC. 19. Each clerk of said court shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe an oath in the form prescribed in section 904 of the Political Code, before the city clerk of said city, and shall file his official bond with said city clerk. Oath and bond of clerks.

SEC. 20. An act entitled "An act to establish police courts in cities of the first and one half class, to fix their jurisdiction and provide for officers of said courts and fix the compensation of certain officers thereof," which became a law under the provisions of the constitution of this state, without the governor's approval, March 5th, 1901, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto are hereby repealed; provided, however, that such repeal shall not affect any actions or proceedings pending in the police court established by said act at the time of the taking effect of this act, nor shall such repeal affect the powers or duties of the said prosecuting attorney relative Repealed. Actions not affected.

thereto. All such actions and proceedings shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be ipso facto transferred to the police court established by this act, and upon the taking effect of this act and by reason thereof, all such actions and proceedings shall ipso facto be and become such actions and proceedings so pending in the police court established by this act, which last named court shall thereby have jurisdiction, power and authority to proceed with them to final judgment or other disposition, and to make and enforce judgment therein as fully, and with the same force and effect, as though said actions or proceedings had been originally instituted in said last named court.

Tenure of office not affected.

SEC. 21. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to interfere with, terminate or in any wise affect the tenure of office of any person now holding office under and by authority of the terms of an act entitled "An act to establish police courts in cities of the first and one half class, to fix their jurisdiction and provide for officers of said court and fix the compensation of certain officers thereof," which became a law under the provisions of the constitution of this state, without the governor's approval, March 5th, 1901, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto; and the police court established in any city of the first and one half class by this act, shall, to all intents and purposes, and for every, any and all purposes, be deemed to be and shall be the successor of the police court existing in any such city, at the time of the taking effect of this act, and established therein by the aforesaid act, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, repealed by this act; and the judges and all other officers of any such existing police court shall severally be and act as the judges and other officers respectively of the police court hereby established in any such city, until their successors are elected or appointed, and qualify, as provided by law.

CHAPTER 268.

An act to amend the Civil Code by adding a new chapter to be known as chapter VIII, of title II, of part IV, of division first, of said Civil Code, relating to mortgage insurance companies.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new chapter is hereby added to title II of part IV of division first of the Civil Code to read as follows:

CHAPTER VIII.

MORTGAGE INSURANCE.

- Sec. 453aa. Mortgage insurance companies subject to insurance laws and to insurance commissioner.
 Sec. 453bb. Policy of mortgage insurance defined.
 Sec. 453cc. Capital stock of mortgage insurance companies.

- Sec. 453dd. Kind and amount of securities that may be guaranteed.
- Sec. 453ec. Guaranteed mortgages and trust deeds to be legal investments. Premiums may be paid from income.
- Sec. 453ff. Must have certificate of insurance commissioner.
- Sec. 453gg. Loans and investments.
- Sec. 453hh. Quarterly reports to insurance commissioner.

453aa. The insurance commissioner shall have the same power and authority regarding any mortgage insurance corporation that he may exercise in relation to other insurance corporations organized under the laws of this state, including the right to examine and inspect the financial condition and affairs of such company, and to compel compliance with the provisions of law governing any such corporation.

Power of insurance commissioner over mortgage insurance corporations.

453bb. A certificate or guaranty issued by a mortgage insurance company organized under the laws of this state, whether such certificate represents or refers to a particular note or bond secured by mortgage or trust deed in its entirety, or represents or refers to an undivided or other partial interest in a note or notes or in a bond or bonds secured by mortgage or trust deed or in a group of several such notes or bonds and in the mortgages and trust deeds securing the same, which certificate or guaranty purports to guarantee the payment of the principal, interest or other sums agreed to be paid under the terms of any such note or bond secured by mortgage or trust deed, or other sums secured under the terms of any such mortgage or trust deed and the guaranteeing or insuring, directly or indirectly, against loss thereon, shall be deemed a policy of mortgage insurance.

Policy of mortgage insurance defined.

When such certificate or guaranty represents or refers to an undivided or other partial interest as above stated, the policy containing the same may be referred to as and is hereby designated as a "mortgage participation certificate," and when such certificate or guaranty represents or refers to an entire interest as above stated, the policy containing the same may be referred to as and is hereby designated as a "mortgage guaranty" or an "entire mortgage guaranty."

Mortgage participation certificate.

453cc. No mortgage insurance company shall issue in California any policy of mortgage insurance without having a capital stock of at least one hundred thousand dollars fully paid in, in cash.

Capital stock.

453dd. No mortgage insurance company shall guarantee the payment of any note or bond secured by any mortgage or trust deed except the same be a first lien upon a marketable title in fee to the property covered thereby. No mortgage insurance company shall guarantee under any mortgage or trust deed a principal amount exceeding sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate taken as security therefor. No mortgage insurance company shall have at any time outstanding policies of mortgage insurance exceeding in amount of principal guaranteed thereunder twenty times the amount of its paid-in capital and surplus; and provided, also, that certificates so issued, or guarantees so made or policies so

First lien security.

60% of value.

Limit of loans.

issued by mortgage insurance companies organized under the provisions of this act shall not be deemed to be debts created by the directors in violation of, or contrary to the provisions of section three hundred nine of the Civil Code, nor make the directors or any of them liable thereon. No loan shall be made by any mortgage insurance company directly or indirectly to any of its officers or directors. A violation of any of the terms or provisions of this section shall not make any policy or guarantee of such company void or voidable, but any officer, director, agent or other employee of any such company who knowingly consents to any violation of any of the terms or provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

No loan to officers.

Penalty.

Legal investments for trust funds, etc.

453ee. Mortgages or trust deeds, guaranteed by any such mortgage insurance company, in compliance with the terms of this chapter, and the notes and bonds secured thereby, and mortgage participation certificates, mortgage guaranties and entire mortgage guaranties, as defined by section 453bb, shall be legal investments for all trust funds held by any executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or other person holding trust funds for investment, and for the funds of insurance companies, banks, banking institutions and trust companies, and all premiums paid on such guaranties and certificates may be charged to or paid out of the income from such notes or bonds; provided, however, that if any such investment be in a mortgage participation certificate or certificates, the mortgage or mortgages and deed or deeds of trust referred to in such certificates, together with the note or notes and bond or bonds secured by the same, shall be assigned to a trust company organized and doing business under the laws of this state, and shall be held by such trust company as security for the payment of said mortgage participation certificates, including all of the mortgage participation certificates secured by such mortgages and deeds of trust so assigned, and for the performance of all of the conditions of said mortgage participation certificates imposed thereby upon the mortgage insurance company issuing the same; and such trust company shall certify on each such mortgage participation certificate, that the aggregate amount of the certificates issued, evidencing and conferring participation in such mortgages and deeds of trust and in the notes and bonds secured thereby, does not exceed the principal of the debts evidenced and secured by such mortgages and deeds of trust; and provided, also, that such investment shall be accompanied by a copy of the appraisal and of the certificate of the directors filed or to be filed with the insurance commissioner as required by the provisions of this chapter.

Premiums.

Mortgage assigned to trust company.

Certificate of insurance commissioner required.

453ff. No corporation shall make any insurance contract or issue any policy of mortgage insurance, or engage in the business of a mortgage insurance company until it has obtained from the insurance commissioner his certificate that such company has complied with the provisions of this chapter and is duly authorized to do business as such mortgage insurance company; provided, that any corporation heretofore organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of guaranteeing the payment of mortgages shall have the right to transact business as a mortgage insurance company until the first day of January, A. D. 1914; provided, also, that the failure of such company to obtain the certificate of the insurance commissioner required by the terms of this act on or before said date shall terminate such right to transact such business until such certificate shall be obtained.

453gg. A mortgage insurance company may invest its capital and accumulations in the following named securities:

Investments of mortgage insurance companies.

1. In the purchase of, or loans upon interest-bearing bonds of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

2. In the purchase of, or loans upon interest-bearing bonds of any of the states of the United States not in default for interest on such bonds, including bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of the State of California are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

3. In the purchase of, or loans upon interest-bearing bonds of any of the counties and incorporated cities and towns, and duly organized school districts of any state or territory of the United States not in default for interest on such bonds.

4. In the purchase of, or loans upon interest-bearing bonds of irrigation districts as provided or authorized by section 8 of an act entitled "An act relating to bonds of irrigation districts, providing under what circumstances such bonds may be made legal investments for the funds of banks, banking associations, trust companies, insurance companies, and for the state school funds and trust funds, and providing for the deposit of such bonds as security for public moneys, and providing for a commission for approving certain bonds of irrigation districts, for a report thereon, for the filing of such report, for a certificate of the state controller, and for the recording of such bonds in the office of the state controller," approved December 18, 1911.

5. In loans secured by mortgage or deed of trust upon unincumbered real estate, improved or unimproved, or in the purchase of, or loans upon notes or bonds so secured; provided, that the principal so loaned, or the entire note or bond issue under such mortgage or deed of trust shall not exceed sixty per centum of the market value of such real estate with improvements taken as security; and provided, further, in case said loan is made, or said note or bond issue created for a building loan on real estate, that at no time shall the principal so loaned, or the entire note or bond issue, exceed sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate and the actual cost of the improvements thereon taken as security. No mortgage insurance company shall invest in, hold or own any of the capital stock of any other corporation, nor make any loan, in whole or in part, on the security of the capital stock of any other corporation.

Quarterly reports.

4537h. Every mortgage insurance company shall make a report in writing to the insurance commissioner, which report shall be made quarterly, and shall be verified by the oath of its president or vice-president, and its secretary or treasurer or of any two of its principal officers. Such report shall contain a statement of each new policy of mortgage insurance issued by such company since the last preceding report, stating specifically whether such policy relates to an entire mortgage guaranty, or to a mortgage participation certificate or certificates.

Facts covered in case of entire mortgage guaranty.

When such policy relates to an entire mortgage guaranty, such report shall specify separately the following facts regarding the loan on which the guaranty is based, and regarding the security therefor, namely:

1. The aggregate amount of principal loaned.

2. A description of the property securing the loan.

3. Separately, the market value of the land and the market value of the improvements thereon, if any, as shown by the appraisement provided for by the terms of this section, and the aggregate value of such land and improvements.

4. The book and page of the record of the mortgage or mortgages, and deed or deeds of trust securing the loan.

In case of mortgage participation certificates.

When such policy relates to a mortgage participation certificate or certificates, such report shall specify separately in connection with each such certificate, the following facts regarding the loan or loans on which the participation certificate or certificates are based, and regarding the security or securities therefor, namely:

1. The aggregate amount of principal loaned evidenced by the note or notes, or bond or bonds secured by the mortgage or mortgages, or deed or deeds of trust referred to in such certificate or certificates, and constituting the security on which such mortgage participation certificate or certificates are based, and, separately, the amount of principal secured by each such mortgage or deed of trust.

2. A description of the property securing the loan under each such security.

3. Separately, the market value of the land and the market value of the improvements thereon, if any, securing the loan under each such security, as shown by the appraisement provided for by the terms of this section, and the aggregate value of such land and improvements.

4. The book and page of the record of each such mortgage or deed of trust constituting such security.

5. The aggregate amount of such participation certificates issued against the mortgage or mortgages, or deed or deeds of trust forming the security for such participation certificate.

Appraisement of property.

There shall be filed with such report an appraisement of each separate parcel of property taken as security as mentioned in such report as above required, which appraisement shall be made by a person or corporation approved by the insurance commissioner. In such appraisalment the market value of each parcel of land and of the improvements thereon, if any, and the aggregate value of such parcel of land and improvements shall be stated, together with a general statement of the character of such land and of the kind and condition of such improvements, if any.

Such appraisalment shall be signed and verified by such appraiser, or by an officer of the corporation making such appraisalment, and shall be accompanied by a certificate signed and verified by at least three directors of such mortgage insurance company to the effect that in the opinion of the affiants, and each of them, such appraisalment is correct, and that in their opinion the amount thereof does not exceed the market value of the property, and that the principal amount loaned on the security of such property does not in their opinion exceed sixty per centum of the market value of such property and, also, to the effect that said company has in its possession or control evidences of title consisting of either a full abstract of title, a full certificate or guaranty of title, or a policy of title insurance, showing that the mortgage or deed of trust securing such loan is a first lien upon a marketable title in fee to the property covered thereby.

Appraisalment verified.

In case of the neglect or failure of any such mortgage insurance company to make any such quarterly report as herein provided, such company shall be liable therefor, and shall forfeit to the State of California ten dollars per day for every day during which such neglect or failure continues; provided, however, that the insurance commissioner shall have the authority to extend the time within which any such report may be filed for not exceeding a period of ten days.

Penalty for failure to report.

CHAPTER 269.

An act to amend section five hundred and ninety-four of the Political Code, relating to the classification of insurance business and to the capital stock of insurance companies.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 594 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

594. All insurance business in the State of California is hereby classified in the following sixteen kinds, namely:

1. Life insurance, including within its meaning insurance upon the lives of persons and every insurance appertaining thereto, and the granting, purchasing and disposing of annuities.

Life insurance.

2. Fire insurance, including within its meaning insurance against loss or damage by fire, lightning, windstorm, tornadoes or earthquakes.

Fire insurance.

Marine insurance.

3. Marine insurance, including within its meaning insurance upon vessels, freights, goods, wares, merchandise, specie, bullion, jewels, profits, commissions, bank notes, bills of exchange, and other evidences of debt, bottomry and respondentia interests, and every insurance connected with marine risks and risks of transportation and navigation, including the risks of lake, river and inland transportation and navigation.

Title insurance.

4. Title insurance, including within its meaning the issuance of guarantees and policies of insurance affecting titles to real estate, and guaranteeing or insuring owners of real or personal property, or others interested therein, or having liens or encumbrances thereon, against loss by reason of defective titles, encumbrances, or adverse claims of title, or otherwise.

Surety insurance.

5. Fidelity and surety insurance, including within its meaning the guaranteeing of persons holding places of public or private trust, and guaranteeing and executing all bonds, undertakings, and contracts of suretyship, and guaranteeing the performance of contracts other than insurance policies, and not including guaranteeing the payment of mortgages or trust deeds.

Accident insurance.

6. Accident insurance, and either sickness or health insurance, including within its meaning insurance against injury, disablement or death resulting from traveling or general accidents, and against disablements resulting from sickness and every insurance appertaining thereto.

Plate glass insurance.

7. Plate glass insurance, including within its meaning all insurance against breakage of glass, whether local or in transit.

Liability insurance.

8. Liability insurance, including within its meaning workmen's compensation insurance and all other insurance against loss or damage resulting from accident to or injury, fatal or nonfatal, suffered by an employee or other person, and for which the insured is liable.

Boiler insurance.

9. Boiler and machinery insurance, including within its meaning insurance upon steam boilers and pipes, fly wheels, engines and machinery connected therewith or operated thereby, against explosion and accident, and against loss and damage to life or property resulting therefrom, and against loss of use and occupancy caused thereby.

Burglary insurance.

10. Burglary insurance, including within its meaning insurance against loss by burglary or theft or both.

Credit insurance.

11. Credit insurance, including within its meaning insurance of merchants, traders, and those engaged in business and giving credit for loss and damage by reason of giving and extending credit to their customers and those dealing with them, and insurance or guarantee either by agreement to purchase uncollectible debts or otherwise, against loss or damage from the failure of persons indebted or to become indebted to the insured, or to meet existing or contemplated liabilities.

12. Sprinkler insurance, including within its meaning insurance against loss or damage by water to any goods or premises arising from the breakage or leakage of sprinklers, pumps or other apparatus placed for extinguishing fires, and of water pipes, and against accidental injury to such sprinklers, pumps, or other apparatus. Sprinkler insurance.

13. Team and vehicle insurance, including within its meaning insurance against loss or legal liability for loss because of damage to property caused by the use of teams or vehicles whether by accident or collision or by explosion of any engine or tank or boiler or pipe or tire of any vehicle, and also including insurance against theft of the whole or any part of any vehicle; the term vehicle as here used does not include ships or vessels nor boats nor any railroad rolling stock. Team insurance.

14. Automobile insurance, including within its meaning the insurance of the owners of or dealers in automobiles against any and all hazards incident to ownership, maintenance, operation and use of such automobiles. No company shall assume any hazard or risk upon an automobile unless authorized to assume hazards or risks of that character by its charter or articles of incorporation. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent a fire insurance company from issuing a policy of insurance upon an automobile covering the fire hazard only, nor be construed to prevent a marine insurance company from issuing a policy of insurance upon an automobile covering the marine hazard of transportation only, nor be construed to prevent a life insurance company which also transacts liability insurance from issuing a policy of insurance upon an automobile, covering the liability hazard only. Auto-mobilo insurance.

15. Mortgage insurance, including within its meaning the guaranteeing of the payment of the principal, interest and other sums agreed to be paid under the terms of any note or bond secured by mortgage or trust deed, or other sums secured under the terms of any such mortgage or trust deed, in its entirety, or of an undivided or other partial interest in any such mortgage or trust deed, or in a group of such mortgages or trust deeds, and the guaranteeing or insuring, directly or indirectly, against loss thereon. Mortgage insurance.

16. Miscellaneous insurance, including within its meaning lightning, windstorm, tornado and earthquake insurance, and any and all casualty insurance not included in any of the foregoing kinds, and which is a proper subject of insurance. Miscell-aneous insurance.

No company shall do any of the foregoing sixteen kinds of insurance unless authorized to do so by its charter. No company having a capital stock shall do life insurance in California without having a capital stock of at least two hundred thousand dollars, nor shall any such company do in California any other of said kinds of insurance, except the sixth and eighth classes; provided, that any such insurance company desiring to do either the sixth or eighth class, must have in addition to such two hundred thousand dollars of capital stock, at least fifty thousand dollars of capital stock for each class it desires. Requisites to do business.

Requisites

to do, and one hundred thousand dollars additional capital stock to do both such additional classes. No company having a capital stock shall do in California any fire insurance without having a capital stock of at least two hundred thousand dollars nor shall any such company do in California, any other of said kinds of insurance, except the third, ninth, twelfth, fourteenth and sixteenth classes. To do both fire and marine insurance such company must have a capital stock of at least four hundred thousand dollars, and to do any other class of insurance, such company must have an additional capital stock of at least fifty thousand dollars for each such additional class that it desires to do, in addition to the two hundred thousand dollars required if it does fire insurance or the four hundred thousand dollars required if it does both fire and marine insurance. No company having a capital stock shall do in California any of said third kind of insurance without having a capital stock of at least two hundred thousand dollars, nor shall any such company do in California any other of said kinds of insurance except the second, thirteenth, fourteenth and sixteenth classes. To do both fire and marine insurance such company must have a capital stock of at least four hundred thousand dollars, and to do any other class of insurance, such company must have an additional capital stock of at least fifty thousand dollars for each such additional class it desires to do, in addition to the two hundred thousand dollars required if it does marine insurance or the four hundred thousand dollars required if it does both marine and fire insurance. No company having a capital stock shall do in California any of the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth or sixteenth of said kinds of insurance without having a capital stock of at least one hundred thousand dollars for the first class of insurance such company desires to do, nor do any other of such classes without having in addition to such one hundred thousand dollars of capital stock at least fifty thousand dollars additional capital stock for each additional kind of insurance that it desires to do. Except as above prescribed, no company doing either the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth or sixteenth classes of insurance, shall do any of the first, second or third classes of insurance. No company doing the fourth class of insurance shall do any other class of insurance, and no company doing the fifteenth class of insurance shall do any other class of insurance, and no company doing any other class of insurance shall do either the fourth class or the fifteenth class of insurance.

Capital stock to be paid up.

Such capital stock required must be fully paid up before doing any such business in the State of California, except that companies incorporated under the laws of California, must have at least twenty-five per cent of their capital stock paid in previous to the issuance of any policies and the residue within twelve months of the filing of the articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. If such residue is not paid within twelve months, the insurance commissioner must cancel any certificate of authority previously issued to such company. The capital stock required must be unimpaired and shall be exclusive of all liabilities for losses reported, expenses, taxes and reinsurance of all outstanding risks as provided in sections six hundred and two and six hundred and two a of the Political Code. Every company organized or formed under the laws of any other state or country as a mutual or as a joint stock and mutual company having a capital stock less than as above prescribed must have in lieu of such capital stock available cash assets of at least two hundred thousand dollars above all liabilities for losses reported, expenses, taxes and reinsurance of all outstanding risks as provided in sections six hundred and two and six hundred and two a of the Political Code. No company shall do in California any title insurance without having at least one hundred thousand dollars of capital stock fully paid in in cash, previous to the issuance of any policy; and no company shall do in California any mortgage insurance without having at least one hundred thousand dollars of capital stock fully paid in in cash, previous to the issuance of any policy.

CHAPTER 270.

An act to amend the Civil Code by changing the headings of the title to chapter II, of title II, of part IV, of division first of said Civil Code, and to amend sections 421 and 429, of said Civil Code, and to repeal section 432 of said Civil Code forming part of said chapter II, and to add to said Civil Code a new chapter to be known as chapter VII, of title II, of part VI, of division first of said Civil Code relating to title insurance companies.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The headings of the title of chapter II, of title II, of part IV, of division first, of the Civil Code are hereby changed to read as follows:

CHAPTER II.

invest their capital and accumulations in the following named securities:

1. In the purchase of, or loans upon interest-bearing bonds of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

2. In the purchase of, or loans upon interest-bearing bonds of any of the states of the United States not in default for interest on such bonds, including bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of the State of California are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

3. In the purchase of, or loans upon interest-bearing bonds of any of the counties and incorporated cities and towns and duly organized school districts of any state or territory of the United States not in default for interest on such bonds.

4. In the purchase of, or loans upon interest-bearing bonds of irrigation districts as provided or authorized by section 8 of an act entitled "An act relating to bonds of irrigation districts, providing under what circumstances such bonds may be made legal investments for the funds of banks, banking associations, trust companies, insurance companies, and for the state school funds and trust funds, and providing for the deposit of such bonds as security for public moneys, and providing for a commission for approving certain bonds of irrigation districts, for a report thereon, for the filing of such report, for a certificate of the state controller, and for the recording of such bonds in the office of the state controller," approved December 18, 1911.

5. In loans secured by mortgage or deed of trust upon unencumbered real estate, improved or unimproved, or in the purchase of, or loans upon notes or bonds so secured; provided, that the principal so loaned, or the entire note or bond issue under such mortgage or deed of trust shall not exceed sixty per centum of the market value of such real estate with improvements taken as security; and provided, further, in case said loan is made, or said note or bond issue created for a building loan on real estate, that at no time shall the principal so loaned or the entire note or bond issue exceed sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate and the actual cost of the improvements thereon taken as security.

6. Companies organized for and engaged in the business of fire, life, health, accident and marine insurance, may, after the investment of two hundred thousand dollars, and companies duly formed or organized for the transaction of business in any other kind of insurance except mortgage insurance may, after the investment of one hundred thousand dollars, in the manner provided in subdivisions one, two, three, four and five of this section, invest the balance of their capital and any accumulations in the purchase of or loans upon the stock of any corporation (except mining companies) organized and carrying on business under the laws of the State of California which have at the time of investment a market value of not less than their paid in value, and which are rated as first-class securities, or in interest-bearing bonds of any corporation of any state or territory of the United States not in default for interest on such bonds; provided, that a two-thirds vote of all the directors of such corporation shall approve such investment. It shall be the duty of the officers of such corporation to report quarterly during the months of January, April, July and October of each year to the insurance commissioner a list of such investments so made by them, and the insurance commissioner may, if such investment, or any of them, seem injudicious to him, require the sale of the same. But no investment in the securities named in subdivisions one, two, three, four and six of this section must be made in an amount exceeding the market value of such securities, at the date of such investment.

7. Life insurance companies may loan upon their own policies; provided, that the amount so loaned upon each policy shall not exceed the reserve against said policy at the time said loan is made; provided, further, that no policy loans whatever shall ever be used as security which may be deposited with the insurance commissioner under section 634 of the Political Code; and provided, further, that whenever any such loan in any amount is made on a policy registered with the insurance commissioner under said section 634 of the Political Code, such registration shall be forthwith canceled.

Policy loans.

SEC. 3. Section 429 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

429. No corporation formed subsequent to April first, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, under the laws of this state, and transacting fire, marine or inland navigation insurance business, must make any dividends except from profits remaining on hand after retaining unimpaired:

Dividends from profits only.

1. The entire subscribed capital stock.
2. All the premiums received or receivable on outstanding marine or inland risks, except marine time risks.
3. A fund equal to one half of the amount of all premiums on all other risks not terminated at the time of making such dividend.
4. A sum sufficient to pay all losses reported or in course of settlement, and all liabilities for expenses and taxes.

SEC. 4. Section 432 of the Civil Code is hereby repealed.

SEC. 5. A new chapter is hereby added to the Civil Code, to be known as chapter VII, of title II, of part IV, of division first, of said Civil Code, relating to title insurance corporations, and to read as follows:

CHAPTER VII.

TITLE INSURANCE CORPORATIONS.

- Sec. 453a. Title insurance companies subject to insurance laws and to insurance commissioner.
- Sec. 453b. Guarantee fund and investments.
- Sec. 453c. Title insurance surplus fund.
- Sec. 453d. Policy of title insurance defined.
- Sec. 453e. Further powers of title insurance companies.
- Sec. 453f. Combined title insurance and trust company.

Sec. 453z. Loans to directors, officers and employees.
 Sec. 453y. Must have certificate of insurance commissioner.

Title insurance companies subject to insurance department.

453s. Every title insurance company shall be subject to and shall comply with all the requirements of the insurance laws and the rules and regulations of the insurance department of this state, and the insurance commissioner shall have the same power and authority regarding any such corporation that he may exercise in relation to other insurance corporations organized under the laws of this state including the right to examine and inspect the financial condition and affairs of such company relating to the insurance business of such company, and to compel compliance with the provisions of law governing any such corporation.

Guarantee fund securities.

453t. Every title insurance company, before issuing any guarantee or policy of insurance shall deposit as a "guarantee fund" for the benefit of the holders of such guarantees and policies of insurance, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars in the securities mentioned in subdivisions one, two, three, four and five of section 421 of the Civil Code, in which the capital and accumulations of insurance companies are allowed by the laws of this state to be invested. Said securities shall be subject to the approval of the insurance commissioner, and shall be deposited with the treasurer of state, and said treasurer shall give his receipt therefor, and the state shall be responsible for their custody and safe return. Said securities so deposited may be exchanged from time to time, with the approval of the insurance commissioner, for other securities receivable as aforesaid, and so long as the company so depositing said securities shall continue solvent, said company shall have the right and shall be permitted by the state treasurer to receive the interest and dividends on the securities so deposited. Said securities shall be subject to sale and transfer and to the disposal of the proceeds by said treasurer, only on the order of a court of competent jurisdiction, and for the benefit of the holders of such guarantees and policies of insurance. When any part of such deposit is made in bonds secured by mortgages or deeds of trust of real property, or in loans upon real property secured by mortgages or deeds of trust, such mortgages or deeds of trust shall be accompanied by evidence of title issued by a person, company, or corporation designated or approved by the insurance commissioner and authorized by law or otherwise found by the insurance commissioner to be competent to issue such evidence of title. Such evidence of title shall consist either of a full abstract of title, a full certificate of title, or a policy of title insurance, and such evidence of title shall be examined and approved by or under the direction of the insurance commissioner. The value of the property covered by each such mortgage or deed of trust, shall be appraised by one or more appraisers selected or approved by the insurance commissioner. The appraisers shall be residents of the county in which the property or some part thereof is situated. The reasonable cost of examining such evidence of title and of making such appraisalment, shall be paid by the title insurance company making such deposit, and shall not exceed twenty dollars for examining the title to the property covered by each mortgage or deed of trust, nor five dollars for each appraiser, not exceeding two, besides the necessary expenses of such appraisers. Any such corporation organized under the laws of this state and having a capital stock paid in, in cash, of more than one hundred thousand dollars and after depositing said guarantee fund as above provided, may invest an amount not exceeding fifty per cent of its subscribed capital stock in the preparation and purchase of materials or plant necessary to enable it to engage in such title insurance business; and such materials or plant shall be deemed an asset, valued at the actual cost thereof, in all statements and proceedings required by law for the ascertainment and determination of the condition of such corporation, or at such lesser value as may be estimated by such corporation in any such statement or proceeding, or omitted entirely therefrom. Cost of examination Plant.

453u. Every title insurance company shall annually set apart a sum equal to ten per cent of its premiums collected during the year, which sums shall be allowed to accumulate until a fund shall have been created equal in amount to twenty-five per cent of the subscribed capital stock of such corporation. Such fund shall be maintained as a further security to holders of the guarantees and policies of insurance issued by such corporation, and shall be known as the "Title insurance surplus fund"; and if at any time such fund shall be impaired by reason of a loss, the amount by which it may be impaired shall be restored in the manner hereinabove provided for its accumulation. The reporting of a loss shall be deemed an impairment of such fund for the purposes of this section. Such corporation must not make any dividends except from profits remaining on hand after retaining unimpaired: "Title insurance surplus fund."
Dividends.

1. The entire subscribed capital stock.
2. The amount set apart as a surplus fund under the provisions of this section.
3. A sum sufficient to pay all liabilities for expenses and taxes, and all losses reported or in course of settlement, without impairment of the title insurance surplus fund required to be set apart as hereinabove provided.

453v. Any written contract or instrument purporting to show the title to real property, or furnish information relative thereto, which shall in express terms purport to insure or guarantee such title or the correctness of such information, shall be deemed a policy of title insurance. Policy of title insurance defined.

453w. Every title insurance company organized under the laws of this state shall also have power to guarantee or insure the identity, due execution, and validity of any note or bond secured by mortgage or trust deed, and the identity, due execution and validity and recording of any such mortgage or trust deed, and the identity, due execution and validity of bonds, notes or other evidence of indebted- May guarantee notes and bonds.

business.

453x. Any title insurance corporation incorporated under the general incorporation laws of this state, authorized by its articles of incorporation to act as executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver, depository, agent or trustee, or to do a general trust business, and having a capital of not less than three hundred thousand dollars actually paid in, in cash, may also do business as a trust company, and maintain a trust department as well as a title insurance department, on compliance with the following conditions:

Consent of superintendent
of banks, and of
commissioner.

1. When such title insurance company desires to do such a departmental business, it shall first obtain the consent of both the superintendent of banks and of the insurance commissioner, and in its application for such consent, must file a statement making a segregation of its capital and surplus for each such department. At least two hundred thousand dollars of its capital must be apportioned by such statement to its trust department. The respective portions of such capital and surplus, when such apportionment has been approved by the superintendent of banks and by the insurance commissioner, shall be considered and treated as the separate capital and surplus of each such department respectively, as if each such department was a separate business.

laws.

3. Such company, as to its trust department, shall be subject to and shall comply with all the requirements of the banking laws and the rules and regulations of the state banking department of this state, and may invest its capital apportioned to its trust department, and the accumulations therefrom, and trust funds received by it, in accordance with the laws of this state relative to the investment of funds of trust companies.

453y. No corporation shall make any contract or issue any policy of guarantee or insurance affecting titles to real estate, or engage in the business of a title insurance company, until it has obtained from the insurance commissioner his certificate that such company has complied with the provisions of this chapter and is duly authorized to do business as such title insurance company; provided, however, that any corporation heretofore organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of issuing policies of insurance affecting title to real estate, or for the purpose of carrying on, and which is actually engaged in the business of title insurance, or of issuing policies of insurance affecting titles to real estate, shall be subject to and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a title insurance company under the provisions of this chapter, by depositing with the state treasurer the guarantee fund required to be deposited by title insurance corporations; provided, such deposit is made at any time prior to the first day of January, A. D. 1914, and any such corporation heretofore organized shall have the right to continue to transact such business until said date; and provided, also, that the failure to deposit said guarantee fund prior to said date shall be deemed an abandonment of all such rights and privileges.

Certificate of insurance commissioner necessary.

453z. No loan shall be made by any title insurance company, directly or indirectly, to any of its officers or directors or employees or to any member of the family of any officer or director. Any officer, director, agent or employee of any such company who knowingly consents to any violation of the terms or provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

No loans to officers.

Penalty.

CHAPTER 271.

An act amending section six hundred and two a of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the reserve of companies transacting liability insurance business.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and two a of the Political Code of the State of California, is hereby amended to read as follows:

602a. In estimating the condition of any company engaged in the business of liability insurance under the provisions of this article the insurance commissioner shall charge as liabilities all outstanding indebtedness of such company, and the premium reserve of policies in force, equal to the unearned portions of the gross premiums charged for covering risks, computed on each respective risk from the date of the issuance of the policy. The indebtedness for outstanding losses under insurance against loss or damage resulting from accident to or injuries suffered by an employee or other person and for which the insured is liable, and under insurance against loss from liability on account of the death of or injury to an employee not caused by the negligence of the employer, shall be determined as follows: Each corporation which writes policies covering any of the said kinds of insurance shall include in the annual statement a schedule of its experience thereunder, in the United States and foreign countries in the case of corporations organized in the United States, and in the United States only in the case of corporations organized outside of the United States giving each calendar year's experience separately, and crediting or charging each item to the year in which the policy to which it relates was written, as follows: (1) the earned premiums on all such policies written during the period of ten years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, being the gross premiums on all such policies including excess and additional premiums and premiums in course of collection, less return premiums and premiums on canceled policies, and less the unearned premiums on policies in force as shown in such annual statement; (2) the amount of all payments of whatsoever nature made by reason or on account of injuries covered by such policies written during said period. This amount shall include medical and surgical attendance, payments to claimants, legal expenses, salaries and expenses of investigators, adjusters, and field men, rents, stationery, telegraph and telephone charges, postage, salaries and expenses of office employees, home office expenses, and all other payments made on account of such injuries, whether such payments are allocated to specific claims or are unallocated; (3) the number of suits being defended at the date as of which the statement is made under policies written during said period, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured, and a charge of seven hundred and fifty dollars for each suit; (4) the number of deaths for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written during said period, and not paid for at the date as of which the statement is made and a charge of the amount necessary to pay for such deaths; (5) the number of unpaid claims at the date as of which the statement is made on account of nonfatal injuries for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written during said period, and a charge equal to the present value of the estimated future payments; (6) the loss ratio determined from the foregoing as to each year separately using as the divisor the earned premiums shown in item (1) and as the dividend the amount of payments shown in item (2) plus the amounts charged in items (3), (4) and (5); (7) the number of suits being defended at the date as of which the statement is made under policies written more than ten years prior to such date, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured; (8) the number of deaths for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written more than ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, and not paid for at such date; (9) the number of unpaid claims at the date as of which the statement is made on account of nonfatal injuries for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written more than ten years prior to such date. All unallocated payments in item (2) made in a given calendar year subsequent to the first four years in which a corporation has been issuing such policies shall be distributed as follows: thirty-five per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, ten per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, ten per centum to the policies written in the third year preceding, and five per centum to the policies written in the fourth year preceding, and such payments made in the first four calendar years in which a corporation has been issuing such policies shall be distributed as follows: in the first calendar year one hundred per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, in the second calendar year fifty per centum shall be charged to policies written in that year and fifty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, in the third calendar year forty per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, and twenty per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, and in the fourth calendar year thirty-five per centum shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per centum to the policies written in the preceding year, fifteen per centum to the policies written in the second year preceding, and ten per centum to the policies written in the third year preceding, and a schedule showing such distribution shall be included in such annual statement. Each such corporation shall be charged with indebtedness for outstanding losses upon such policies determined as follows: (10) for all suits being defended under policies written more than ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured, one thousand dollars for each suit; (11) for all suits being defended under policies written more than five years and less than ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured, seven hundred and fifty dollars for each suit; (12) for all deaths for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written more than five years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, the amount necessary to pay for such deaths; (13) for all unpaid claims on account of nonfatal injuries for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence under policies written more than five years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, the present value of the estimated future payments; (14) for the policies written in the five years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made an amount determined as follows: multiply the earned premiums of each of such five years as shown in item (1) by the loss ratio ascertained as in item (6) on all the policies written in the first five years of the said ten-year period using as the divisor the sum of the earned premiums shown in item (1) for such first five years, and as the dividend the sum of the payments shown in item (2) for such first five years plus the sum of the charges in items (3), (4) and (5) for such first five years, but the ratio to be used shall in no event be less than fifty-two per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and thirteen, nor less than fifty-three per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, nor less than fifty-four per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and fifteen, nor less than fifty-five per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and sixteen; provided, furthermore, that in the case of insurance covering liability for workmen's compensation the ratio to be used shall in no event be less than seventy per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and thirteen, nor less than seventy-two per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, nor less than seventy-four per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and fifteen, nor less than seventy-five per centum at and after December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and sixteen, and from the amount so ascertained in each of the last five years of said ten-year period deduct all payments made under policies written in the corresponding year as shown in item (2), and the remainder in the case of each year shall be deemed the indebtedness for that year; provided, however, that if the remainder in the case of any year of the first three years of the five years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made shall be less than the sum of the three following items for that year at that date—(a) the number of suits, except suits in which liability is not dependent upon negligence of the insured, being defended under policies written in that year and a charge of seven hundred and fifty dollars for each suit, (b) the amount necessary to pay for all deaths for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written in that year, and (c) the present value of estimated unpaid claims on account of non-fatal injuries for which the insured are liable without proof of negligence, covered by policies written in that year—then the sum of said items (a), (b) and (c) shall be the indebtedness for that year. A corporation which has been issuing such policies for a period of less than ten years shall nevertheless include in its annual statement, a schedule as hereinbefore required for the years in which it shall have issued such policies, and shall be charged with an indebtedness determined in the same manner, but in determining the indebtedness for policies written in the five years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, the minimum ratio hereinbefore prescribed shall be used subject to the same deductions and provisions as in the case of corporations that have been issuing such policies for ten years or more.

CHAPTER 272.

An act to authorize and empower municipal corporations which own or possess, or which may hereafter own or possess, tidal lands, or the title thereto, of any harbor or other navigable waters therein to establish harbor lines for such waters; to validate harbor lines heretofore established by such municipal corporations; to provide for the free and unobstructed navigation of such waters, and to authorize and empower such municipal corporations to provide access to such waters by public streets, highways and other public rights of way to such navigable waters and to prevent the exclusion or obstruction thereof; and to authorize and validate the filling in and improving of tidal lands between the mainland and harbor lines fixed by municipal or other authority.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any municipal corporation that, by grant from the State of California, or otherwise, owns, holds or possesses, or may hereafter own, hold or possess tide lands and submerged lands, or the title to such lands, situated within the boundaries of such municipal corporation and fronting on the waters of any harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water within the boundaries of such municipal corporation, is hereby granted power and authority, to be exercised by ordinance, to fix and establish harbor lines, both pier-head and bulkhead lines, in and for such harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water, and to change or abolish such harbor lines as the public interest or the needs of commerce and navigation may require. That the aforesaid power and authority is hereby granted and shall be exercised by any municipal corporation to the same extent to which the State of California might itself exercise the same, or to which it can grant such power to any such municipal corporation; provided, that no such harbor lines shall be fixed or established beyond or outside of any harbor lines established by the United States.

Cities may establish harbor lines.

SEC. 2. All ordinances of any municipal corporation of this state, holding and possessing tide lands and submerged lands or the title thereto, fronting on the waters of any harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water situated within the boundaries of such municipal corporation, which ordinances may have been adopted prior to the passage of this act, in the manner prescribed by law for the adoption of ordinances by such municipal corporation, and which ordinances fix or establish harbor lines upon or adjacent to such tide lands and submerged lands, are hereby confirmed, legalized and validated, in so far as the same purport to fix or establish harbor lines, and, except in so far as the harbor lines Ordinances confirmed.

so established may be located or extend beyond or outside of harbor lines established under the authority of the United States; and all such harbor lines so established, by any such municipal corporation, except as aforesaid, are hereby recognized as and declared to be harbor lines of the harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water for which they were so established; provided, however, that such harbor lines may be hereafter altered, modified or abolished by such municipal corporation as the public interest and the needs of commerce and navigation may require.

Waters to remain open to public

SEC. 3. That all navigable waters of any harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water situated within or adjacent to any municipal corporation, shall be and remain open to the free and unobstructed navigation of the public, and such waters and the water front thereof shall also be and remain open to free and unobstructed access thereto by the people from the public streets and highways within such municipal corporation, and public streets and highways and other public rights of way shall likewise be and remain open to the free and unobstructed use of the public from such waters and the water front thereof to such public streets and highways; and in order to secure to any such municipal corporation, and to the people generally, the benefits of this act and the benefits of the provisions of article XV of the constitution of the State of California, every municipal corporation in which there is situated any harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water, shall have, and is hereby granted power and authority to establish by ordinance, such public streets, highways and other public rights of way to such waters as are or may be required for any public purpose over, upon or along the tide lands or submerged lands in such municipal corporation, fronting on the waters of such harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water, for the purpose of connecting such navigable waters with public streets and other highways of such municipal corporation, or for any other public purpose, and to lay out, open, widen, narrow, close up, construct, maintain, and improve such streets, highways and other public rights of way; and to fill in or authorize to be filled in all or any part of tide lands and submerged lands lying between said streets and lying between the mainland and harbor lines established by said municipal or other authority; provided, that when any such lands are so filled in, sufficient streets shall be opened and maintained open through or adjacent to such lands so filled in to enable the public to have convenient and adequate access to and along the water front of such lands and to such navigable waters. That the power and authority hereby granted shall apply to, and be exercisable by any such municipal corporation, over, along or upon the water frontage or tide lands or submerged lands of any such harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water that is owned or possessed, or that may hereafter be owned or possessed, or the title to which is now or may hereafter be held by any such municipal corporation, and to any such water frontage or tide land or submerged land that is, or may be, claimed or possessed by any individual, partnership or corporation; and the ordinances of any such municipal corporation that may have heretofore been adopted, in the manner prescribed by law for the adoption of ordinances by said municipal corporation, for the laying out, establishing, opening, constructing, maintaining or otherwise improving of public streets, highways and other public rights of way of the character mentioned in this section, are hereby confirmed, legalized and validated.

Individuals may not obstruct right of way to waters.

SEC. 4. Whenever any municipal corporation, shall, by ordinance regularly adopted, declare, or shall have heretofore declared, that any right of way to the navigable water of any harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water in such municipality is required for any public purpose, over, upon or along the frontage of tide or submerged lands thereof, no individual, partnership or private corporation claiming or possessing such frontage or tide or submerged lands shall obstruct, hinder or impede such municipal corporation, or the officers thereof in any manner, in laying out, establishing, opening, constructing or otherwise improving, or maintaining such right of way, or exclude such right of way, or obstruct or prevent the free use thereof by such municipal corporation or the public generally.

CHAPTER 273.

An act to provide for the assessment of property in cities governed under freeholders' charters, framed under the provisions of the constitution of this state, for the municipal taxes of such cities, and for the equalization and correction of such assessment by county officers, for the collection and enforcement of the payment of such taxes, including delinquent taxes, by such officers, for the sale and redemption from sale of property sold for the non-payment of such taxes, and for the performance by county officers of the duties of officers of such cities respecting said matters; and to provide for the compensation to be paid to counties by such cities for the services performed by such county officers for such cities under the provisions of this act.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The duties of the officers of any city governed under a freeholders' charter framed, ratified and approved in accordance with the provisions of the constitution of this state, with respect to the assessment of property in such city for the municipal taxes thereof, to the equalization and correction of such assessment, to the collection, payment and enforcement of such taxes, including delinquent taxes, and to the redemption of such property from sale or other penalty for the non-payment of such municipal taxes, shall be performed by officers of the county in which such city is situated, when such performance is required of them as in this act provided.

Duty of county officers to assess, collect, etc., city taxes.

SEC. 2. Whenever the charter of any city mentioned in section one of this act, or any amendment to such charter, or any ordinance of such city authorized by and adopted under such charter or amendment thereto, shall provide that the duties of the council, or other legislative body, assessor, tax collector or other officers of such city with respect to the assessment of property in such city for the municipal taxes thereof, to the equalization and correction of such assessment, to the collection, payment and enforcement of such taxes, including delinquent taxes, and to the redemption of such property from sale or other penalty for non-payment of the municipal taxes of such city, shall be performed by certain designated officers of the county in which such city is situated, as set forth in such charter, or amendment thereto, or in such ordinance, it shall be the duty of such county officers so designated to perform such duties in accordance with the provisions of this act; provided, however, that the several county officers so designated to perform such duties for such city shall be officers who respectively perform duties of the same character as the officers of such city whose duties are to be performed by such county officers.

Copy of charter, etc., filed with supervisors.

SEC. 3. Upon the taking effect of any such charter, charter amendment or ordinance of such city, providing that the duties of the officers of such city with respect to the matters mentioned in section two of this act shall be performed by the officers of the county in which such city is situated, a copy thereof, certified by the city clerk of such city, shall be filed with the board of supervisors of such county, on or before the first Monday in February immediately following the taking effect of such charter, charter amendment or ordinance. The board of supervisors shall thereupon cause notice of such charter, charter amendment or ordinance to be given to the several county officers designated therein, and thereafter the assessment list of all property within such city, as contained in the assessment roll made annually by the county assessor and equalized and corrected by the county board of supervisors, of all property assessed for taxation for county purposes in such county shall be the assessment roll of the property within such city assessed for the purpose of the municipal taxes of such city, and such assessment roll shall be used as the basis for the levy of such municipal taxes. If, subsequent to the incorporation of such city, additional territory has been added thereto, as originally incorporated, either by annexation of new territory thereto, or by the consolidation of other municipal corporations therewith, it shall be the duty of the county assessor in making the assessment of the property in such city, to list separately the property situated within the limits of such city as originally incorporated, and the property situated within the boundaries of each such subsequent addition of territory thereto, and each such separate list shall be so headed and indicated in such assessment roll that all property within the original limits of such city shall appear therein as being so situated, and all property situated within any territory subsequently added thereto by any such annexation or consolidation, shall appear therein as being so situated, and the date of each such addition of territory shall also be specified therein. As soon as practicable after the first Monday in March next succeeding the taking effect of such charter, charter amendment or ordinance, the city clerk of such city shall deliver to the county assessor of such county, a statement in writing showing, separately, the exterior boundaries of said city, as originally incorporated, and the exterior boundaries of each body of new territory subsequently added thereto, as aforesaid, together with the date of each such addition of new territory; and as soon as practicable after the first Monday in March of each succeeding year, a like statement shall be so delivered showing the boundaries of any new territory so added to such city since the delivery of the last preceding statement, together with the date of such addition of new territory.

Statement showing separate boundaries.

SEC. 4. The county auditor of the county in which such city is situated must, on or before the second Monday in August of each year, transmit to the council or other legislative body of such city a statement in writing showing the total assessed valuation of all property within such city, which value shall be ascertained from the assessment roll of such county, equalized and corrected by the board of supervisors thereof in the manner provided by law, and showing the total assessed valuation of all property within the limits of such city as originally incorporated, and the total assessed valuation, separately, of all property in each body of new territory so added to such city subsequent to the original incorporation thereof. Upon the delivery to the county auditor, not later than the first day of September, of each year, of a statement, certified by the city clerk of such city, showing the levy, or rate or rates per cent of taxes levied by the council or other legislative body of such city, for all municipal purposes for such year, including amounts required for the payment of interest and sinking funds for the bonded indebtedness of such city, and showing separately, the rate of taxes so levied upon all property within the limits of such city as originally incorporated, and the rate upon all property within the boundaries of each portion of such city added thereto subsequent to the original incorporation thereof as aforesaid, the county auditor must compute and enter in a separate column in the assessment books of the property in such city, for such year, to be headed "City tax, city of ———," (stating name of city), the several sums in dollars and cents to be paid as a municipal tax on the property therein enumerated and assessed as being in such city, using the rate or rates of levy as fixed by the legislative body thereof, and the assessed value as found in such assessment books. Such taxes so levied shall be collected by the county tax collector, at the same time and in the same manner as the county taxes of such county. On Monday of each week, the county tax collector shall pay to the treasurer of such city, the amount of all taxes so collected by such county tax collector for and on behalf of such city, during the preceding week, after making the deduction therefrom hereinafter specified; and whenever any delinquent city taxes, together with costs and penalties thereon, have been paid to the county treasurer, or whenever any property in such city has been sold for the non-payment of the city taxes thereon, and has been redeemed, the county treasurer shall likewise pay to the treasurer of such city, on Monday of each week, the amount of such delinquent taxes, and all costs and penalties thereon so collected by such county treasurer during the preceding week, and the money collected for any such redemption, after making the deductions therefrom hereinafter specified.

SEC. 5. Whenever the duties of the officers of any city with respect to the assessment of property therein for the municipal taxes of such city and to the collection of such taxes, are performed by county officers under the provisions of this act, the collection of unpaid municipal taxes of such city, levied on any property by such city, shall be enforced by the sale of such property in the same manner and at the same time, and upon the same penalties, as property sold for non-payment of county taxes, and real property so sold may be redeemed within the same time and upon the same terms as property sold for the non-payment of county taxes; and whenever any real property situate in such city has been sold for taxes and has been redeemed, the money paid for such redemption shall be apportioned by the county auditor to, and shall be paid to, such city in the proportion which the tax due such city bears to the total tax for which such real property was sold; provided, however, that upon the taking effect of any charter, charter amendment, or ordinance to the effect mentioned in section two of this act, all taxes of such city that shall have been levied prior thereto, including delinquent taxes, shall be collected, the payment thereof enforced in the same manner and upon the same penalties, and property may be sold for the non-payment thereof and may be redeemed from such sale in the same manner and under the same conditions as provided by the laws in force in said city at the time of the taking effect of such charter, charter amendment or ordinance; and such officers of such city as may be provided under the charter or ordinance thereof, shall collect and enforce the payment of such taxes, including delinquent taxes, and do any and all things that may be necessary in the sale of property for the non-payment of such taxes and in the redemption thereof from such sale.

SEC. 6. Whenever any charter provision, or any ordinance of the character mentioned in section two of this act shall be repealed, the duties authorized by such charter provision or ordinance so repealed to be performed by officers of the county in which such city is situated, shall thereupon cease to be performed by such officers; provided, however, that upon such repeal, all taxes of said city that shall have been levied prior thereto, including delinquent taxes, shall, as in this act provided, be collected, the payment thereof enforced in the same manner and upon the same penalties, and property may be sold for the non-payment thereof and may be redeemed from such sale, in the same manner and under the same conditions as provided by laws applicable to the collection and enforcement of the payment of county taxes, including delinquent taxes, and to the sale and redemption from sale of property sold for the non-payment of county taxes; and the officers of such county shall have all the powers and perform all the duties relative thereto as may be provided by law in the case of county taxes and the sale and redemption from sale of property for the non-payment thereof.

Repeal of ordinance.

SEC. 7. The amount of compensation to be charged by and paid to any county for the performance of services contemplated by the provisions of this act, for and on behalf of any city in such county, shall be fixed by agreement between the board of supervisors of such county and the legislative body of such city; provided, however, that such compensation shall in no event exceed one half of one per cent of all moneys collected for such city as in this act provided. The board of supervisors shall, by an order spread upon its minutes, direct that the county tax collector and the county treasurer shall deduct from all taxes or moneys in their hands, collected for or on behalf of such city, and before the payment thereof to the treasurer of such city as in this act provided, the percentage thereof to be charged by such county for the services mentioned in this act, and such percentage so deducted shall be paid into or transferred to such fund of the county and in such manner as the board of supervisors shall direct.

Compensation of county.

SEC. 8. This act shall in no wise affect any other act or acts providing that duties of officers of cities may be performed by county officers; and if any such act or acts provide for or apply to the performance by county officers of the duties of officers of cities governed under freeholders' charters, this act is intended to, and does provide an alternative method by which the duties of the officers of any such city with respect to the matters mentioned in section two of this act may be performed by officers of the county in which such city is situated.

Act provides alternative method.

CHAPTER 274.

An act to amend sections one, two, eight, and twenty-four of an act entitled, "An act to provide for the formation, organization and government of storm water districts, for the purpose of protecting the land therein from damage from storm water and from the waters from any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash, or for the purpose of saving and conserving any storm, flood, or snow water for beneficial and useful purposes, for the construction of the necessary works of protection and conservation of such storm or flood waters by said district, and for the levying of taxes and assessments to pay for the cost of constructing, repairing and maintaining such improvements," approved March 15, 1909.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Formation of storm water
districts.

Section 1. Storm water districts may be formed under the provisions of this act for the purpose of protecting the lands in such districts from damage from storm water, and from the waters from any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon, or wash, or such districts may be formed for the purpose of spreading, conserving, storing, retaining or causing to percolate into the soil within such district any or all such waters.

Petition, owners of land.

When ten or more owners of land whose names appear as such upon the last assessment roll, in any district of land which lies in one body and is liable to damage from storm water or from the waters of any innavigable stream, canyon or wash, or when such owners desire to spread, conserve, store, retain, or cause to percolate into the soil within such district any or all of such waters, shall present a petition to the board of supervisors of the county in which said land lies, or if the same lies in more than one county, then to the board of supervisors of the county in which the greater area of such land lies, setting forth the exterior boundaries of said district and asking that the district so described be formed into a storm water district under the provisions of this act, the said board of supervisors shall pass a resolution declaring their intention to form and organize said portion of said county or counties into a storm water district for the purpose of protecting the lands therein from damage from storm water, and from the waters of any innavigable stream, canyon or wash, or for the purpose of spreading, conserving, storing, retaining or causing to percolate into the soil within such district any or all of such waters, and describing the exterior boundaries of the district. Said resolution shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the matter, not less than thirty days after the passage thereof, and direct the clerk of said board to publish a notice of the intention of the board of supervisors to form such storm water district, and of the time and place fixed for the hearing, and shall designate some newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in said proposed storm water district, or if there is no newspaper so published and circulated, then some newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in each county in which any part of said proposed district is situated in which said notice is to be published.

SEC. 2. Section two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. Thereupon said clerk shall cause to be published in the newspaper or newspapers so designated, for a period of twenty days before the date fixed for the hearing, a notice, which shall be headed "Notice of intention of the board of supervisors to form a storm water district." Said notice shall set forth the fact of the passage of such resolution with the date thereof, the boundaries of the proposed district, and the time and place for the hearing, and shall state that it is proposed to assess all property embraced in said proposed storm water district, for the purpose of paying the damages, costs and expenses of constructing and repairing such dikes, levees, ditches, canals, reservoirs, shafts and other improvements as may be necessary to protect the land in said district from damage from storm water and from waters of any innavigable stream, canyon or wash, or to sprcad. conserve, store, retain or cause to percolate into the soil within such district any or all of such waters, and the necessary expense of maintaining said district, and shall refer to the resolution for further particulars. Said clerk shall send a copy of said notice by registered mail, postage prepaid, to each owner of land in the proposed district whose name appears as such on the last assessment roll of the county or counties in which said proposed district lies, addressed to such owner at his address given on such assessment roll, or if no address is given, then at his last known address, or if it be not known then at the county seat of the county in which his land lies. Said clerk shall make and file in his office an affidavit of such mailing, showing the names and addresses of the persons to whom such notices were sent, which shall be prima facie evidence that such notices were mailed as herein required.

Publication of notice.

Copy of notice to each owner.

Clerks' affidavit.

SEC. 3. Section eight of said act is hereby amended as follows:

Section 8. Each storm water district shall have power to sue and be sued. The trustees thereof shall have power in the name and in behalf of the district to purchase, receive by donation, or acquire by condemnation any rights of way or other real or personal property necessary to carry out the purposes for which the district was formed, and for that purpose all the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to eminent domain are hereby made applicable to proceedings by such district to condemn property. The said board of trustees shall also have power to employ such engineers, surveyors and others as may be necessary to survey, plan, or locate, or supervise the construction or repair of, the improvements necessary to carry out the purposes for which the district was formed; to construct, maintain and keep in repair any and all improvements, requisite or necessary to carry out the purposes of the district; and to do any and all other acts and things necessary or required for the protection of the lands in said district from damage from storm waters and from waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash; or for the spreading, conserving, storing, retaining or causing to percolate into the soil within such district any or all of such waters; and to employ the services of any person, legal or otherwise, which in the judgment of said board of trustees may be necessary to carry out said purposes. All work of construction, repair, or maintenance, the cost whereof exceeds $500.00, shall be done by contract; and all contracts shall be let by the board to the lowest responsible bidder, who will give bond for the faithful performance thereof satisfactory to the board, after advertisement for bids published by their clerk for not less than ten days in some newspaper of general circulation, designated by the board and published in the county in which the district or some part thereof is situated, specifying the time and place for the opening of bids, and the particular work to be bid for; provided, however, that the board may reject all bids and readvertise, and may by unanimous action in cases of great emergency, the nature of which shall be entered on their minutes, proceed at once to replace or repair any of the works or improvements of the district without advertisement.

Work over $500 by contract.

May reject bids.

SEC. 4. Section twenty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Kinds of improvements.

Section 24. The improvements made under this act may include the widening, deepening and straightening of the channels of the innavigable streams, watercourses or washes, the construction of new courses therefor, and the construction of levees, banks, dikes, conduits, ditches, canals, reservoirs and the sinking of shafts, for the conveyance of storm waters of any innavigable stream, canyon or wash, or for confining such streams, watercourses or washes to their channel, or for the spreading, conserving, storing, retaining or causing to percolate into the soil within such district any or all of such waters, and said work may be done either within or without the boundaries of the district, as may be necessary in order to properly protect the land in said district from damage and secure a free outlet for such streams, watercourses, washes, and storm water, or to spread, conserve, store, retain or cause to percolate into the soil within such district any such waters.

CHAPTER 275.

An act to regulate the construction, operation, and maintenance of elevators in buildings during course of construction; providing for inspection of the same by the bureau of labor statistics; and providing for a penalty for violation thereof.

[Approved June 7, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The words and phrases used in this act shall for the purposes of this act, unless the same be contrary to or inconsistent with the context, be construed as follows: Definitions:

1. "Elevator" shall mean any means used to hoist persons or material of any kind on a building under course of construction, when operated by any power other than muscular power. "elevator,"

2. "Building" shall include structures of all kinds, regardless of the purposes for which they may be intended to be used, and whether such construction be below or above the level of the ground. "building."

SEC. 2. Every hoist hereafter used in buildings during the course of construction shall have a system of signals for the purpose of signaling the person operating or controlling the machinery which may operate the hoist. And it shall be the duty of the person in charge of said building to appoint one or more persons to give such signals, such person to be selected from those most familiar with the work for which said hoist is being used. In the event that a building shall be over fifty feet in height, then two persons shall be appointed to give such signals, one at the bottom of said hoist and the other at the top of said hoist, and the person at the bottom of said hoist shall signal the person at the top, who shall then signal the engineer or the person in charge of the machinery operating said hoist. In the event that the engineer or person in charge of the machinery operating said hoist is so situated that he has a clear and unobstructed view of the base of the elevator, then and in that event, regardless of the height of the building, no person shall be required to give signals at the bottom of said hoist. Signals and persons to give them.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics to inspect all hoists coming within the definition in section one of this act. And if any part of the construction or system of signals used on a hoist is defective or may endanger the lives of men working in the immediate vicinity of said hoist, he shall direct the person in charge thereof to remedy such defect, and such hoist shall not be used again until the order of the commissioner shall have been complied with. Inspection of hoists.

SEC. 4. Any person, firm, copartnership or corporation or any agent, superintendent or manager of a corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, shall upon con- Penalty.

viction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine not less than fifty dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days and not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 276.

An act relating to unfair competition and discrimination, making certain unfair and discriminatory practices unlawful, defining the duties of the attorney general in regard thereto, declaring certain contracts illegal and forbidding recovery thereon, providing for actions to enjoin unfair competition and discrimination and to recover damages therefor, making the violation of the provisions of this act a misdemeanor and providing penalties.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Unlawful to discriminate between different sections in sale of commodities.

Act does not prevent competitive rate.

Officers responsible.

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, doing business in the State of California and engaged in the production, manufacture, distribution or sale of any commodity of general use or consumption, or the product or service of any public utility, with the intent to destroy the competition of any regular established dealer in such commodity, product or service, or to prevent the competition of any person, firm, private corporation, or municipal or other public corporation, who or which, in good faith, intends and attempts to become such dealer, to discriminate between different sections, communities or cities or portions thereof of this state, by selling or furnishing such commodity, product or service at a lower rate in one section, community or city, or any portion thereof, than in another, after making allowance for difference, if any, in the grade, quality or quantity, and for cost differences between such places due to distance from the point of production, manufacture or distribution and expense of distribution and operation. This act is not intended to prohibit the meeting in good faith of a competitive rate, or to prevent a reasonable classification of service by public utilities for the purpose of establishing rates. The inhibition hereof against locality discrimination shall embrace any scheme of special rebates, collateral contracts or any device of any nature whereby such discrimination is, in substance or fact, effected in violation of the spirit and intent of this act.

Any person, who, either as director, officer or agent of any firm or corporation or as agent of any person, violating the provisions hereof, assists or aids, directly or indirectly, in such violation shall be responsible therefor equally with the person, firm or corporation for whom or which he acts. In the prosecution of any person as officer, director or agent it shall be sufficient to allege and prove the unlawful intent of the person, firm or corporation for whom or which he acts.

SEC. 2. If complaint shall be made to the attorney general that any corporation is violating section one of this act, he shall investigate such complaint and if, in his opinion, sufficient grounds exist therefor, he shall prosecute an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the proper court to annul the charter or revoke the license of such corporation to do business in this state, as the case may be, and to permanently enjoin such corporation from doing business in this state; and if in such action the court shall find that such corporation is violating this act, it may enjoin said corporation from doing business in this state for such time as the court shall order, or may annul the charter, or revoke the license of such corporation, and permanently enjoin it from transacting business in the state.

Duty of attorney general to prosecute.

SEC. 3. Any contract, express or implied, made by any person, firm or corporation in violation of the provisions of section one of this act for the sale or furnishing of any commodity, product or service at a rate greater than the lowest rate charged therefor by such person, firm or corporation in any other section, community or city in this state, after making allowance for the cost differences between such place and the place where under the contract such commodity, product or service is delivered or furnished and for difference, if any, in grade, quality or quantity, is declared to be an illegal contract, and no recovery thereon shall be had.

Illegal contract defined.

SEC. 4. Any person, firm, private corporation or municipal or other public corporation, may maintain an action to enjoin a continuance of any act or acts in violation of section one of this act and, if injured thereby, for the recovery of damages. If, in such action, the court shall find that the defendant is violating section one of this act, it shall enjoin the defendant from a continuance thereof; it shall not be necessary that actual damage to the plaintiff be alleged or proved. In addition to such injunctive relief, the plaintiff in said action shall be entitled to recover from the defendant three times the amount of the actual damages, if any, sustained.

Person injured may maintain action.

SEC. 5. Any person, whether as principal, agent, officer or director, for himself or for another person, or for any firm or corporation, or any corporation, who or which shall violate section one of this act, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall, if a person, be punished by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and, if a corporation, by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars.

Penalty.

SEC. 6. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional. The remedies herein prescribed are cumulative and in addition to the remedies prescribed by the public utilities act for discriminations by public utilities. If any conflict shall arise between this act and the public utilities act, the latter shall prevail.

Purpose
of act.

SEC. 7. The legislature declares that the purpose of this act is to safeguard the public against the creation or perpetuation of monopolies and to foster and encourage competition, by prohibiting unfair and discriminatory practices by which fair and honest competition is destroyed or prevented. The act shall be liberally construed that its beneficial purposes may be subserved.

CHAPTER 277.

An act to amend section six hundred and two of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to grounds on which challenges for cause may be made to jurors.

[Approved May 19, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred two of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Challenge of jurors for cause.

602. Challenges for cause may be taken on one or more of the following grounds:

1. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by this code to render a person competent as a juror;

2. Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to any party, or to an officer of a corporation, which is a party;

3. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, master and servant, employer and clerk, or principal and agent, or debtor and creditor, to either party, or to an officer of a corporation which is a party, or being a member of the family of either party; or a partner in business with either party; or surety on any bond or obligation for either party, or being the holder of bonds or shares of the capital stock of a corporation which is a party.

4. Having served as a juror in a civil action or been a witness on a previous trial between the same parties, for the same cause of action; or having served as a juror within one year previously in any civil action or proceeding in which either party was plaintiff or defendant.

5. Interest on the part of the juror in the event of the action, or in the main question involved in the action, except his interest as a member or citizen or taxpayer of a county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or other political subdivision of a county, or municipal water district.

6. Having an unqualified opinion or belief as to the merits of the action founded upon knowledge of its material facts or of some of them.

7. The existence of a state of mind in the juror evincing enmity against or bias to either party.

8. That he is a party to an action pending in the court for which he is drawn and which action is set for trial before the panel of which he is member.

CHAPTER 278.

An act to provide for the keeping of medical and surgical appliances in factories.

[Approved May 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person, firm or corporation operating a factory or shop, or conducting any business in which power machinery is used for any manufacturing purpose, except for elevators or for heating or hoisting apparatus, where five or more persons are employed, shall at all times keep and maintain, in some accessible place upon the premises upon which such factory, shop or business is located, free of expense to the employees, a medical or surgical chest which shall contain an adequate assortment of absorbent lint, absorbent cotton, sterilized gauze, plain and medicated, adhesive plaster, cotton and gauze bandages, also one tourniquet, one pair scissors, one pair tweezers, one jar carbolized petrolatum, one bottle antiseptic solution, and one first aid manual, all of which shall cost not less than six dollars, and to be used in the treatment of persons injured or taken ill upon the premises. Medical chests in factories required.

SEC. 2. Any person, firm or corporation violating this act shall be subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars for every week during which such violation continues. Penalty.

CHAPTER 279.

An act to amend section six hundred and seven f, of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the appointment, qualifications, duties and powers of humane officers.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and seven f of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

607f. Any such corporation incorporated for the purpose of the prevention of cruelty to animals may by resolution of its Appointment of humane officers.

board of directors or trustees duly entered on its minutes appoint any number of its members, who shall be citizens of the State of California as humane officers. Each appointment shall be by separate resolution. Such resolution shall state the full name and place of residence and the business or occupation of the person so appointed and the fact that he is a citizen of the State of California and shall also designate the number of the badge to be allotted to such officer. Every person so appointed must within ten days after his appointment present to the judge of the superior court in and for the county or city and county in which the corporation appointing such officer has its principal place of business a copy of such resolution duly certified to be correct by the president and secretary of such corporation and attested by its seal. The judge shall examine such appointee as to his qualifications and fitness to act as such officer and, if he approves such appointment, shall indorse his approval on said certified copy of said resolution. Said appointee shall thereupon and within said period of ten days file said certified copy with the judge's approval indorsed thereon in the office of the county clerk of said county or city and county and shall at the same time take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed for constables or other peace officers. The county clerk shall thereupon immediately enter in a book to be kept in his office and designated "Record of Humane Officers" the name of such officer, the number of his badge, the name of the corporation appointing him and the date of such filing. At the time of such filing the county clerk shall collect from such officer a fee of fifty cents, which shall be in full for all services to be performed by the county clerk under the provisions of this section. The corporation appointing such officer may revoke such appointment at any time by resolution of its board of directors or trustees, a duly certified copy of which resolution must within five days after its adoption be filed in the office of the county clerk in which the appointment of such officer is recorded and upon such filing the county clerk shall enter the fact of such revocation and the date of the filing thereof opposite the name of such officer in such record of humane officers. Such humane officers after qualifying as above provided shall have power at all places within the state lawfully to interfere to prevent the perpetration of any act of cruelty upon any dumb animal and may use such force as may be necessary to prevent the same and to that end may summon to their aid any bystander. They may make arrests for the violation of any penal law of this state relating to or affecting animals in the same manner as a constable or other peace officer and may carry such weapons as peace officers are authorized to carry; except that in cities and counties and cities of the first and first and one half classes no such humane officer shall carry any such weapon unless permission in writing so to do has first been granted to him by the board of police commissioners of such city or city and county. Every humane officer must when

CHAPTER 280.

An act to amend section six of an act entitled, "An act relating to revenue and taxation, providing for a license tax upon corporations, and making an appropriation for the purpose of carrying out the objects of this act," approved March 20, 1905.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six of an act entitled, "An act relating to revenue and taxation, providing for a license tax upon corporations, and making an appropriation for the purpose of carrying out the objects of this act," approved March 20, 1905, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6. Any corporation which failed to pay the license tax and penalty required by the act, or any amendment thereof, and of which this is amendatory, may pay all the said license taxes and penalties prescribed by section 1 of said act and the amendments thereto, and the license taxes and penalties that would have accrued if such corporation had not forfeited its charter or right to do business and any such corporation making such payment shall be relieved from the forfeiture prescribed by the act of which this act is amendatory, and all persons exercising the powers of any such corporation making such payment shall be relieved from the provisions of section 9 of said act of which this act is amendatory, and the secretary of state shall immediately after the first day of December in each year, transmit to the county clerk of each county in this state a list of the corporations so paying pursuant to the provisions of this section, which list shall be by said county clerk filed in his office; provided, the rehabilitation of a corporation under the provisions of this act shall be without prejudice to

CHAPTER 281.

An act to repeal an act entitled "An act to establish a uniform system of county and township governments," approved April 1, 1897, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto.

[Approved May 30, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Repealed

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to establish a uniform system of county and township governments," approved April 1, 1897, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. This act shall not be construed to affect or repeal any of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to repeal title II of part IV of the Political Code, and to add a new title II of part IV of said code in place thereof, relating to the establishment of a uniform system of county and township governments," approved March 19, 1907, or any acts amendatory thereof.

CHAPTER 282.

An act regulating private employment agencies, providing for a license for the operation thereof and a fee therefor, providing forms of receipts and registers to be used and kept, prohibiting any charge for registering or filing application for help or employment, prohibiting the dividing of fees, providing for the refunding of fees and expenses in the event of failure to procure employment, and granting the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics the power to prescribe rules and regulations to carry out the purpose and intent of this act.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 1. When used in this act the following terms are defined as herein specified: The term "person" means and includes any individual, company, society, association, corporation, manager, contractor, subcontractor or their agents or employees. Definitions-
"person,"

2. The term "employment agency" means and includes the business of conducting, as owner, agent, manager, contractor, subcontractor, or in any other capacity an intelligence office, domestic and commercial employment agency, theatrical employment agency, teachers' employment agency, general employment bureau, shipping agency, nurses' registry, or any other agency or office for the purpose of procuring or attempting to procure help or employment or engagements for persons seeking employment or engagements, or for the registration of persons seeking such help, employment or engagement, or for giving information as to where and of whom such help, employment or engagement may be procured, where a fee or other valuable consideration is exacted, or attempted to be collected, directly or indirectly, for such services, whether such business is conducted in a building or on the street or elsewhere. "employ-
agency,"

3. The term "theatrical employment agency" means and includes the business of conducting an agency, bureau, office or any other place for the purpose of procuring or offering, promising or attempting to provide engagements for circus, vaudeville, theatrical and other entertainments or exhibitions or performances, or of giving information as to where such engagements may be procured or provided, whether such business is conducted in a building, or on the street or elsewhere. "theatrical employment
agency,"

4. The term "theatrical engagement" means and includes any engagement or employment of a person as an actor, performer or entertainer in a circus, vaudeville, theatrical and other entertainment, exhibition or performance. "theatrical engagement,"

5. The term "emergency engagement" means and includes an engagement which has to be performed within twenty-four hours from the time when the contract for such engagement is made. "emergency engagement,"

6. The term "fee" means and includes any money or other "fee," valuable consideration paid or promised to be paid for services rendered or to be rendered by any person conducting an employment agency of any kind under the provisions of this article. Such term includes any excess of money received by any such person over what has been paid out by him for the transportation, transfer of baggage, or board and lodging for any applicant for employment; such term also includes the difference between the amount of money received by any such person who furnishes employees, performers or entertainers for circus, vaudeville, theatrical and other entertainments, exhibitions or performances, and the amount paid by him to the said employees, performers or entertainers whom he hires or provides for such entertainments, exhibitions or performances.

"privilege,"

7. The term "privilege" means and includes the furnishing of food, supplies, tools or shelter to contract laborers, commonly known as commissary privileges.

"commissioner of labor,"

8. The term "commissioner of labor" means commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics.

License necessary.

SEC. 2. A person shall not open, keep, maintain or carry on any employment agency, as defined in the preceding section, unless he shall have first procured a license therefor as provided in this article from the commissioner of labor. Such license shall be posted in a conspicuous place in said agency.

Penalty.

Any person who shall open or conduct such an employment agency without first procuring said license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as hereinafter provided.

Application for license.

SEC. 3. An application for such license shall be made to the commissioner of labor. Such application shall be written and in the form prescribed by the commissioner of labor, and shall state the name and address of the applicant; the street and number of the building or place where the business is to be conducted; whether the applicant proposes to conduct a lodging house for the unemployed separate from the agency which he proposes to conduct; the business or occupation engaged in by the applicant for at least two years immediately preceding the date of the application. Such application shall be accompanied by the affidavits of at least two reputable residents of the city to the effect that the applicant is a person of good moral character.

Investigation of applicant's character.

SEC. 4. Upon receipt of an application for a license the commissioner of labor may cause an investigation to be made as to the character and responsibility of the applicant and of the premises designated in such application as the place in which it is proposed to conduct such agency. The commissioner of labor may administer oaths, subpoena witnesses and take testimony in respect to matters contained in such application and in complaints of any character against the applicants for such license, and upon proper hearing may refuse to grant a license. Each application shall be granted or refused within thirty days from date of filing. No license shall be granted to a person to conduct the business of an employment agency in rooms used for living purposes, or where boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served, or where persons sleep, or in connection with a building or premises where intoxicating liquors are sold to be consumed on the premises, excepting cafés and restaurants in office buildings. Each license shall run to the thirty-first day of March next following the date thereof and no longer, unless sooner revoked by the commissioner of labor.

Expiration of license.

SEC. 5. Every license shall contain the name of the person licensed, a designation of the city, street and number of the house in which the person licensed is authorized to carry on the said employment agency, and the number and date of such license. Such license shall not be valid to protect any other than the person to whom it is issued or any place other than that designated in the license and shall not be transferred or assigned to any other person unless consent is obtained from the commissioner of labor, as hereinafter provided. If such licensed person shall conduct a lodging house for the unemployed separate and apart from such agency, it shall be so designated in the license.

License to contain name, etc.

SEC. 6. A license granted as provided in this article shall not be assigned or transferred without the written consent of the commissioner of labor. No license fee shall be required upon such assignment or transfer. The location of an employment agency shall not be changed without the written consent of the commissioner of labor.

Transfer of license.

SEC. 7. Every person licensed under the provisions of this act to carry on the business of an employment agency shall pay to the commissioner of labor a license fee of fifty dollars in cities of the first, first and one half and second classes, and a license fee of twenty-five dollars in cities of the third and fourth classes and a license fee of ten dollars in all other cities and towns. Such persons shall also deposit before such license is issued, with the commissioner of labor, a surety bond in the penal sum of two thousand dollars in cities of the first, first and one half and second classes, or a surety bond in the penal sum of one thousand dollars in cities of the third and fourth classes, or a surety bond in the penal sum of five hundred dollars in all other cities and towns. Such surety bonds to be approved by the commissioner of labor and such bonds shall be payable to the people of the State of California, and shall be conditioned that the person applying for the license will comply with the provisions of this act and will pay all damages occasioned to any person by reason of misstatement, misrepresentation, fraud or deceit or any unlawful acts or omissions of any licensed person, his agents or employees, while acting within the scope of their employment, made, committed or omitted in the business conducted under such license or caused by any other violation of this article in carrying on the business for which such license is granted. All moneys collected for licenses as provided herein and all fees

License fee.

Bond.

Contin-gent fund.

collected for violations of the provisions hereof shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the contingent fund of the bureau of labor statistics.

Suits
licensed person

SEC. 8. All claims or suits brought in any court against any licensed person may be brought in the name of the person damaged upon the bond deposited with the people of the State of California by such licensed person as provided in section seven, and may be transferred and assigned as other claims for damages in civil suits. The amount of damages claimed by plaintiff, and not the penalty named in the bond, shall determine the jurisdiction of the court in which the action is brought. Where such licensed person has departed from the state with intent to defraud his creditors or to avoid the service of a summons in an action brought under this section, service shall be made upon the surety as prescribed in the Code of Civil Procedure. A copy of such summons shall be mailed to the last known post office address of the residence of the licensed person and the place where he conducted such employment agency, as shown by the records of the commissioner of labor. Such service thereof shall be deemed to be made when not less than the number of days shall have intervened between the dates of service and the return of the same as provided by the Code of Civil Procedure for the particular court in which suit has been brought.

Register of applicants for employment.

SEC. 9. It shall be the duty of every licensed person to keep a register, approved by the commissioner of labor, in which shall be entered, in the English language, the date of the application for employment; the name and address of the applicant to whom employment is promised or offered, or to whom information or assistance is given in respect to such employment; the amount of fee received, and such other information as the commissioner of labor shall require. Such licensed person shall also enter in the same or in a separate register, approved by the commissioner of labor, in the English language, the name and address of every applicant accepted for help, the date of such application, kind of help requested, the names of the persons sent, with the designation of the one employed, the amount of the fee received and the rate of wages agreed upon, and such other information as the commissioner of labor may require. No such licensed person, his agent or employees, shall make any false entry in such registers.

Registers open to inspection.

SEC. 10. All registers, books, records and other papers kept pursuant to this act in any employment agency shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of the commissioner of labor and to any of his duly authorized agents or inspectors and every licensed person shall furnish to the commissioner upon request a true copy of such registers, books, records and papers or any portion thereof, and shall make such reports as the commissioner may prescribe.

Receipt given applicant.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of every licensed person conducting an employment agency to give to every applicant for employment from whom a fee shall be received a receipt in which shall be stated the name and address of such employment agency, the name and address of the person to whom the applicant is sent for employment, the name of the applicant, the date, the amount of fee, the kind of work or service to be performed, the general conditions of employment—including among other things the rate of wages or compensation, whether or not board and lodging is to be furnished, the hours of employment, the cost of transportation and whether or not it is to be paid by the employer, the time of such service, if definite and if indefinite to be so stated, and the name of the person authorizing the hiring of such applicant. There shall be printed on the face of the receipt in prominent type the following: "This agency is licensed by the commissioner of labor of the State of California." All receipts shall be made and numbered in original and duplicate. The original shall be given to the applicant paying the fee and the duplicate shall be kept on file at the employment agency. The receipts used by such licensed agencies shall be approved by the commissioner of labor.

SEC. 12. No such licensed person shall send out any applicant for employment without having obtained either orally or in writing a bona fide order therefor. In case the applicant paying such fee fails to obtain employment such licensed agency shall repay the amount of said fee to such applicant upon demand being made therefor; provided, that in cases where the applicant paying such fee is sent beyond the limits of the city in which the employment agency is located, such licensed agency shall repay in addition to the said fee any actual expenses incurred in going to and returning from any place where such applicant has been sent; provided, however, where the applicant is employed and the employment lasts less than seven days by reason of the discharge of the applicant, the employment agency shall return to said applicant the fee paid by such applicant to the employment agency.

Return of fee, etc.

SEC. 13. No licensed person conducting an employment agency shall publish or cause to be published any false or fraudulent or misleading information, representation, notice or advertisement; all advertisements of such employment agency by means of cards, circulars, or signs and in newspapers and other publications, and all letterheads, receipts, and blanks shall be printed and contain the licensed name and address of such employment agent and the word agency, and no licensed person shall give any false information, or make any false promise or false representation concerning an engagement or employment to any applicant who shall register or apply for an engagement or employment or help.

False
advertising prohibited.

SEC. 14. No licensed person conducting an employment agency shall send or cause to be sent any minor under the age of eighteen years as an employee to any house of ill fame or to any house or place of amusement for immoral purposes or places resorted to for the purpose of prostitution or gambling houses, the character of which such licensed person could have ascertained upon reasonable inquiry, or to any saloon or place where intoxicating liquors are sold to be consumed on the premises. No licensed person shall knowingly permit any persons of bad character, prostitutes, gamblers, intoxicated persons or procurers to frequent such agencies.

Children.

No licensed person shall accept any application for employment made by or on behalf of any child, or shall place or assist in placing any such child in any employment whatever in violation of the child labor law. No licensed person shall send an applicant to any place where a strike, lockout or other labor trouble exists without notifying the applicant of such conditions and shall in addition thereto enter a statement of such facts upon the receipt given to such applicant. No licensed person shall divide fees with any superintendent, manager, foreman or other employee of any person, firm or corporation to whom employees are furnished.

Fees not to be divided.

Theatrical employment agency.

Sec. 15. Every licensed person conducting a theatrical employment agency, before making a theatrical engagement, except an emergency engagement, for any person with any applicant for services in any such engagement shall prepare and file in such agency a written statement signed and verified by such licensed person setting forth how long the applicant has been engaged in the theatrical business. Such statement shall set forth whether or not such applicant has failed to pay salaries or left stranded any companies, in which such applicant and, if a corporation, any of its officers or directors, have been financially interested during the five years preceding the date of application and, further, shall set forth the names of at least two persons as references. If such applicant is a corporation, such statement shall set forth the names of the officers and directors thereof and the length of time such corporation or any of its officers have been engaged in the theatrical business and the amount of its paid-up capital stock. If any allegation in such written, verified statement is made upon information and belief, the person verifying the statement shall set forth the sources of his information and the grounds of his belief. Such statement so on file shall be kept for the benefit of any person whose services are sought by any such applicant as employer.

Theatrical contracts.

Sec. 16. Every licensed person who shall procure for or offer to an applicant a theatrical engagement shall have executed in duplicate a contract containing the name and address of the applicant; the name and address of the employer of the applicant and of the person acting for such employer in employing such applicant; the time and duration of such engagement; the amount to be paid to such applicant; the character of entertainment to be given or services to be rendered; the number of performances per day or per week that are to be given by said applicant; if a vaudeville engagement, the name of the person by whom the transportation is to be paid, and if by the applicant, either the cost of the transportation between the places where said entertainment or services are to be given or rendered, or the average cost of transportation between the places where such services are to be given or rendered; and if a dramatic engagement the cost of transportation to the place where the services begin if paid by the applicant; and the gross commission or fees to be paid by said applicant and to whom. Such contracts shall contain no other conditions and provisions except such as are equitable between the parties thereto and do not constitute an unreasonable restriction of business. The form of such contract shall be first approved by the commissioner of labor and his determination shall be reviewable by certiorari. One of such duplicate contracts shall be delivered to the person engaging the applicant and the other shall be retained by the applicant. The licensed person procuring such engagement for such applicant shall keep on file or enter in a book provided for that purpose a copy of such contract.

SEC. 17. Every licensed person shall post in a conspicuous place in each room of such agency a copy of this act. Such printed law to also contain the name and address of the officer charged with the enforcement of this act. The commissioner of labor shall furnish printed copies of this act to the employment agencies. Act to be posted.

SEC. 18. Any person, firm, corporation or their agents or representatives violating or omitting to comply with any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than two hundred and fifty dollars or by imprisonment for a period of not more than sixty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. Penalty.

SEC. 19. The commissioner of labor, his deputies and agents shall have the power and authority of sheriffs and other peace officers to make arrests for violations of the provisions of this act and to serve any process or notice throughout the state. Power of labor commissioner.

SEC. 20. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 283.

An act making the appropriation made by chapter 705, Statutes of 1911, "for printing, binding, ruling and all other work performed and materials furnished by the state printing office to be used for the compiling and publication of Blue Book (exempt from section four of this act) ten thousand dollars," available for the distribution of said Blue Book.

[Approved June 3, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The money appropriated by chapter 705, Statutes of 1911, "for printing, binding, ruling and all other work

Blue Book appropriation made available for distribution.

performed and materials furnished by the state printing office to be used for the compiling and publication of Blue Book (exempt from section four of this act) ten thousand dollars'' is hereby made available and any balance remaining therein after the cost of compiling and publication of said Blue Book is paid is hereby reappropriated for the use of the secretary of state for the additional purpose of distributing said Blue Book.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state shall, under the provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution of the State of California, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 284.

An act regulating headlights on all locomotives, and providing a penalty for violation of the provisions of this act.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Electric headlights on locomotives.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of every railroad corporation, or receiver or lessee thereof, operating any line of railroad in this state, within six months after the passing of this act, or within such additional time as may be prescribed by order of the railroad commission of California, after such railroad has made a proper showing of its inability to comply therewith, to equip all locomotive engines, used in the transportation of trains over said railroad, with electric or other headlights which will project sufficient light to enable the locomotive engineer to observe clearly a dark object the size of an average man, at a distance of not less than eight hundred feet on a dark, clear night while his train is running at a rate of speed not less than thirty miles per hour; provided, that this act shall not apply to locomotive engines regularly used in the switching of cars or trains; provided, further, that this act shall not apply to locomotive engines used exclusively between sun up and sun down, nor going to or from repair shops when ordered in for repairs, nor to locomotive engines used on short lines or local lines where in the judgment of the railroad commission, the headlight herein provided for is not necessary for the preservation of public safety.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. Any railroad company, or receiver or lessee thereof, doing business in the State of California, who shall violate the provisions of this act, shall be liable to the State of California for a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each offense; and suit shall be brought to recover such penalty in a court of competent jurisdiction, in the name of the people of the State of California, by the attorney general or by the district attorney of any county in or through which said railroad may be operated.

SEC. 3. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 285.

An act to declare certain contracts, combinations, arrangements and conspiracies between common carrier railroads and pipe lines for the transportation of crude oil, and pipe lines constructed for the transportation of crude oil, petroleum or the products thereof, to be in restraint of trade and unfair practices, contrary to public policy as tending to monopoly, and requiring such pipe lines to either become common carriers and public utilities or to procure license and pay fees, and fixing penalties for violations, and authorizing certain court proceedings.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any and every contract, combination in form of trust or otherwise, or arrangement of any kind, implied, tacit or otherwise, or conspiracy between a common carrier railroad which is equipped for the transportation of crude oil, petroleum or the products thereof, or which has filed, or may lawfully be required to file, a schedule of rates with the railroad commission of California for such transportation, and which operates from or through any crude oil or petroleum producing field or fields or shipping points in the vicinity of any thereof, in the State of California, for a distance of thirty-five miles or more in the aggregate, either continuously or otherwise, to any refinery or refineries of crude oil or petroleum or any of the products thereof, or to or through any selling, marketing, consuming or shipping points or the vicinity of any thereof, for such crude oil or petroleum or any of the products thereof, and any oil pipe line which is used or operated for the transportation of crude oil or petroleum or any of the products thereof, otherwise than as a common carrier, from or through the same, or any of the same oil or petroleum producing fields or shipping points or from the vicinity of any thereof, for a distance of thirty-five miles or more in the aggregate, either continuously or otherwise, and to or through the same, or any of the same refining, selling, marketing or reshipping points or the vicinity of any thereof, and which last mentioned transportation is accomplished in whole or in part by such oil pipe line, and whereby such oil pipe line secures, or is enabled to secure, or attempts to secure, or tends to secure any unreasonable control or monopoly of the purchase, sale or transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof, or is enabled to secure, or attempts to secure any unreasonable restraint on or over competition or trade in the purchase, sale or transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or of any of the products thereof, is hereby declared to be illegal.

Certain contracts between oil pipe lines and railroads declared illegal.

Treats upon which courts must declare contracts in unreasonable restraint of trade.

SEC. 2. In any and every action or proceeding under this act, whenever it shall appear to the court that any contract, combination, arrangement or conspiracy such as is described in section 1 hereof, exists, or that at the time of the commencement of such action or proceeding it did exist; and it further appears to such court that such oil pipe line is constructed, in whole or in part, upon, over, under or along the right of way of such common carrier railroad, continuously or otherwise, for a distance of five or more miles in the aggregate, with the permission, allowance or consent, actual, implied or otherwise, of such common carrier railroad, and that said oil pipe line is owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by said common carrier railroad, or that such oil pipe line and such common carrier railroad have any common or interlocking owner or owners, or director or directors; and it further appears that said oil pipe line is engaged in the business of purchasing, transporting and reselling such crude oil, petroleum or any thereof, or any of the products thereof, or of purchasing and transporting the same, or any thereof, or of purchasing, transporting and refining the same, or any thereof, for sale, or of producing, transporting and reselling the same, or any thereof, or of producing, transporting and refining the same for sale from its own or leased ground, or otherwise, or of producing and transporting the same, or any thereof; and it further appears that the schedule of rates, or any of them, for the transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof, filed by said common carrier railroad with the railroad commission of California, or that the rates, or any of them, published, fixed or charged by such common carrier railroad for such transportation of the same, or any of the same, are sufficiently high as compared with the actual cost of transportation between the same, or approximately or practically the same initial shipping, and the refining, selling, marketing, reshipping or terminal points, by such oil pipe line, as to tend to prevent the transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof, over or upon such common carrier railroad, or to tend to prevent competition in such transportation between such common carrier railroad and such oil pipe line, or to restrain such competition, or to tend to restrain competition among the producers of such crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof in the sale thereof, or of any of the same, or to tend to enable such oil pipe line, either alone or in conjunction with other oil pipe lines, to restrain competition in the sale or the purchase of such crude oil, petroleum or the products thereof, either among the producers or the consumers thereof, or to tend to enable such oil pipe line, either alone or in conjunction with other pipe lines, to secure the control or the monopoly of the purchase of such crude oil, petroleum or the products thereof, or to fix the selling price of any thereof at the oil fields or points of production of the same, or at the shipping points or at the vicinity of any thereof, or to secure the control or the monopoly of the transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or the products thereof from such oil fields or points of production, or from the shipping points or from the vicinity of any thereof, to such refining, selling or marketing points, or any thereof, then such contract, combination, arrangement or conspiracy is hereby declared to be an unfair practice, contrary to the public policy of the State of California, and the same shall and must be deemed by such court in all such actions or proceedings to be an unreasonable contract, combination, arrangement or conspiracy, in restraint of trade, and an unreasonable control or monopoly of the purchase, sale or transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or some of the products thereof, and an unreasonable restraint on or over competition and trade in the purchase, sale or transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or some of the products thereof, and the same shall and must be deemed illegal.

Sec. 3. In any and every action or proceeding under this act, whenever it shall appear to the court that any contract, combination, arrangement or conspiracy such as is described in section 1 hereof, exists, or that at the time of the commencement of such action or proceeding it did exist, and it further appears to such court that such oil pipe line is constructed, in whole or in part, upon, over, under or along the right of way of such common carrier railroad, continuously or otherwise, for a distance of five or more miles in the aggregate, with the permission, allowance or consent, actual, implied or otherwise, of such common carrier railroad, and it appears that said oil pipe line is engaged in the business of purchasing, transporting and reselling such crude oil, petroleum or any thereof, or any of the products thereof, or of purchasing and transporting the same, or any thereof, or of purchasing, transporting and refining the same, or any thereof, for sale, or of producing, transporting and reselling the same, or any thereof, or of producing, transporting and refining the same for sale from its own or leased ground, or otherwise, or of producing and transporting the same, or any thereof; and it further appears that the schedule of rates, or any of them, for the transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof, filed by said common carrier railroad with the railroad commission of California, or that the rates, or any of them, published, fixed or charged by such common carrier railroad for such transportation of the same, or any of the same, are sufficiently high as compared with the actual cost of transportation between the same, or approximately or practically the same initial shipping, and the refining, selling, marketing, reshipping or terminal points, by such oil pipe line, as to tend to prevent the transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof, over or upon such common carrier railroad, or to tend to prevent competition in such transportation between such common carrier railroad and such oil pipe line, or to restrain such competition, or to tend to restrain competition among the producers of such crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof in the sale thereof, or of any of the same, or to tend to enable such oil pipe line, either alone or in conjunction with other oil pipe lines, to restrain competition in the sale or the purchase of such crude oil, petroleum or the products thereof, either among the producers or the consumers thereof, or to tend to enable such oil pipe line, either alone or in conjunction with other pipe lines, to secure the control or the monopoly of the purchase of such crude oil, petroleum or the products thereof, or to fix the selling price of any thereof at the oil fields or points of production of the same, or at the shipping points or at the vicinity of any thereof, or to secure the control or the monopoly of the transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or the products thereof from such oil fields or points of production, or from the shipping points or from the vicinity of any thereof, to such refining, selling or marketing points, or any thereof, then such contract, combination, arrangement or conspiracy is hereby declared to be an unfair practice, contrary to the public policy of the State of California, and the same shall and must be deemed by such court in all such actions or proceedings to be an unreasonable contract, combination, arrangement or conspiracy, in restraint of trade, and an unreasonable control or monopoly of the purchase, sale or transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or some of the products thereof, and an unreasonable restraint on or over competition and trade in the purchase, sale or transportation of such crude oil, petroleum or some of the products thereof, and the same shall and must be deemed illegal.

"Unreasonable"
defined.

SEC. 4. The term "unreasonable" wherever used in this act means where the nature and extent of the control or restraint is such that the matter becomes of public consequence or is injurious to the public welfare, or where the nature and extent of the business is such that the public needs some use in the same, and the control or restraint so exercised prevents, obstructs or in any wise hinders such use.

Penalty.

SEC. 5. Every person who shall hereafter make any such contract or arrangement or engage in any such combination or conspiracy, or shall hereafter continue to execute any such contract or arrangement, or to do or perform any act in furtherance of any such combination or conspiracy without having first procured the license hereinafter provided for, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both said punishments in the discretion of the court.

Jurisdiction in superior courts.

SEC. 6. The several superior courts of the State of California are hereby vested with jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violations of this act; and it shall be the duty of the several district attorneys of the counties and of the cities and counties of the State of California in their respective counties and in their respective cities and counties, under the direction of the attorney general of the State of California, to institute proceedings in equity to prevent and restrain such violations. Such proceedings may be by way of petition setting forth the case and praying that such violation shall be enjoined or otherwise prohibited, and may be brought in any county or city and county in which the defendant or any one of the defendants resides, or in which such unlawful act or any overt act in pursuance of such unlawful contract, combination, arrangement or conspiracy was committed, or in which the defendant or any one of the defendants has his or its principal place of business. When the parties complained of shall have been duly notified of such petition, the court shall proceed, as soon as may be, to the hearing and determination of the case; and pending such petition, and before final decree, the court may at any time make such temporary restraining order or prohibition as shall be deemed just in the premises.

Proceedings in equity.

Temporary restraining order.

SEC. 7. Any person who shall be injured in his business or property by any other person or corporation or association of persons by reason of anything forbidden or declared to be unlawful by this act, may sue therefor in any superior court of the State of California in the county, or in the city and county, in which the defendant or any one of the defendants resides, or in which such unlawful act, or any overt act in pursuance of such unlawful contract, combination or conspiracy was committed, or in which the defendant, or any one of the defendants, has his or its principal place of business, and such petitioner shall recover threefold the damages by him sustained and the costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Person injured may recover damages.

SEC. 8. That the word "person" wherever used in this act shall be deemed to include corporations and associations existing under, or authorized by the laws of either the United States or the State of California, or of any of the territories, or of any state or of any foreign country.

"Person" defined.

SEC. 9. That the words "common carrier railroad" wherever used in this act, when the context so permits, shall be deemed to include any corporation, individual or association of individuals, either directly or indirectly owning, operating, managing or controlling, or participating, either directly or indirectly in the ownership, operation, management or control of any railroad which is operated as a common carrier within the State of California, or of any such railroad, any part of which is operated in the State of California; and the singular includes the plural.

"Common carrier railroad" defined.

SEC. 10. That the words "oil pipe line" wherever used in this act, when the context so permits, shall be deemed to include any private corporation, individual or association of individuals, either directly or indirectly owning, operating,

SEC. 13. The application by such oil pipe line for a permit to procure a license as provided for in section 12 of this act, to permit it to continue to transport crude oil, petroleum or any of its products so as aforesaid, otherwise than as a common carrier, shall describe in a general way the oil pipe line for the continued maintenance and operation of which such license is desired, stating the terminal points of such oil pipe line and the county and counties through which the same is constructed and maintained, and the aggregate number of miles thereof in each of such counties, and as nearly as may be, the places at which such oil pipe line is constructed or maintained over and along the right of way of such common carrier railroad, and the approximate distance thereof at each of such places, and such application shall also set forth the name of the private corporation, individual or association of individuals owning, operating, managing or controlling, either directly or indirectly, such oil pipe line and each and every part thereof.

Facts set forth in application.

SEC. 14. The railroad commission may authorize in writing the secretary of state to issue a license to such oil pipe line; and the license when so issued by the secretary of state shall describe such oil pipe line as the same is described in such application so filed with said railroad commission. At the time of procuring such license, the sum of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) must be paid to the secretary of state by such licensee.

Authority of secretary of state to issue license.

SEC. 15. Every oil pipe line required to procure the license hereinbefore provided for shall file with the railroad commission of the State of California on or before the tenth day of each calendar month, including and following the second calendar month after this act goes into effect, and in such form as said railroad commission shall require, a full, true and correct report showing the number of barrels (forty-two gallons to the barrel) of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof which were transported through such pipe line, or any part thereof, during the preceding calendar month. Such report shall be subscribed by such licensee or by its, his or their agent duly appointed in writing for such purpose, and shall be accompanied by the affidavit of such subscriber stating in substance and effect that he knows the contents thereof, and that he has had free access to the books and vouchers of such licensee relating to the same for the purpose of determining the truth of the statements contained therein, and that such statements, and each and all thereof are true according to his best information and belief. Said railroad commission shall examine said sworn report, and if it shall have no reason to doubt the correctness of the same, shall, within not less than ten days thereafter, certify it to the secretary of state, and thereupon there shall immediately become due and payable to the people of the State of California at the office of the secretary of state, the sum of fifty cents ($.50) for each such barrel of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof so transported through such oil pipe line. The delivery of such certified report by the railroad commission to the secretary of state shall be deemed notice as of the date of such filing to said licensee of the amount due as a license fee for such calendar month, under the provisions of this act.

Railroad commission may examine witnesses, etc., as to correctness of report.

SEC. 16. Whenever the railroad commission shall entertain any doubt of the correctness of such report so filed with it, said railroad commission may subpoena the subscriber of such sworn report, and require him to bring before the said commission the books and vouchers from which he secured the information set forth in said report, and may examine him under oath, and may subpoena such other witnesses and hear such other testimony in relation to such matter as it deems competent, material and relevant, and said commission shall proceed summarily in the matter and determine the true and correct number of such barrels of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof which were so transported by such licensee through such oil pipe line, and shall thereupon certify to the secretary of state its finding of the number of such barrels, and thereupon there shall immediately become due and payable to the people of the State of California, at the office of the secretary of state, the sum of fifty cents ($.50) for each of such barrels of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof so transported through such oil pipe line. The delivery of such certified finding by the railroad commission to the secretary of state shall be deemed notice as of the date of such filing to said licensee of the amount due from such licensee as a license fee under the provisions of this act. The railroad commission may revoke the license of such licensee if, upon such hearing, it finds that any material statement contained in such sworn report is false, and that such falsity was known to such licensee at the time such report was filed with said railroad commission, or that said licensee had reason to believe at such time that such report was false in any particular, or if it finds that such licensee wilfully aided or abetted the making of such false report, either directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever; and said railroad commission may thereupon direct the secretary of state to revoke such license and prohibit him from renewing the same and from issuing any new license to such oil pipe line within one year from the time the same was revoked.

Revocation of license.

Penalty

SEC. 17. Every oil pipe line, and every agent, attorney or employee of the same who knowingly or wilfully violates or fails to comply with, or who knowingly or wilfully aids and abets any violation of any of the provisions of this act, or who knowingly and wilfully fails to observe, obey or comply with any order, decision, rule, direction, demand or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, of the said railroad commission, or who knowingly or wilfully procures, aids or abets any failure to observe, obey or comply therewith, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 18. Any failure on the part of any licensee to pay within twenty (20) days after the same becomes due, the license fees or any portion thereof as required by and provided in the provisions of this act, shall operate to forfeit, ipso facto, such license, and to deprive such licensee of the right to continue to so transport, otherwise than as a common carrier, any crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof through such oil pipe line.

Failure to pay license fees

SEC. 19. The license fee, and each installment thereof, in this act provided for, upon the same becoming due, as herein provided, is hereby declared to be a lien upon the whole of the oil pipe line, for the privilege of maintaining and operating which said license is procured, as described in the application for such license, from the time that such license fee, and each installment thereof becomes due and payable; and such lien shall be enforceable in the same way that tax liens in the State of California are enforceable, and by the same procedure in so far as the same is or can be made applicable hereto.

Fees due become lien on oil pipe line.

SEC. 20. Any and every licensee under this act who pays a license fee of not less than fifty cents ($.50) per barrel of forty-two (42) gallons each, to the State of California under any other law of this state for the privilege of transporting or of engaging, either directly or indirectly, in the business of transporting crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof through a pipe line or pipe lines, is hereby exempted and relieved from the payment of the monthly license fees herein provided for by this act.

Licensees exempt from monthly license fees.

SEC. 21. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional

Constitutionality of act.

CHAPTER 286.

An act to require private corporations, individuals or association of individuals to procure licenses to permit them to continue to maintain pipe lines already constructed for the transportation of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof, for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or public road, which are intended to be used in whole or in part for such purpose for an aggregate distance of thirty-five or more miles, continuously or otherwise, and which pipe lines are operated other than as common carriers; and prohibiting the construction of any more such lines for such purposes for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or any public road; and providing for the issuance of such licenses; and fixing fees to be paid for and under such licenses, and establishing liens to secure same; and fixing penalties for violations of this act; and authorizing certain proceedings by and before the railroad commission in connection therewith; and authorizing certain court proceedings in connection therewith.

[Approved June 4, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Oil pipe lines required to secure license to continue operating.

SECTION 1. Every private corporation, individual or association of individuals owning, operating, managing or controlling, either directly or indirectly, or participating, either directly or indirectly, in the ownership, operation, management or control of any pipe line or pipe lines, or any part of any pipe line or pipe lines, plant or equipment for the transportation of crude oil or petroleum or of any of the products thereof, or engaged, either directly or indirectly in the business of transporting by pipe line or pipe lines, in whole or in part, continuously or otherwise, crude oil or petroleum or any of the products thereof from producing points or from points at, in or near any oil field or oil fields to any refinery or refineries, or to any distributing point or points, or to any marketing point or points, or to the vicinity of any thereof for an aggregate distance of thirty-five or more miles, within the State of California, otherwise than as a common carrier, and which said pipe line or pipe lines, or any part thereof, or of such plant or equipment is constructed or maintained for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or public road within the State of California, is hereby required within twenty days after this act goes into effect and before thereafter continuing or commencing to so transport, or to so engage in the business of transporting crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof through any part of such pipe line or pipe lines for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or public road, to procure a license from the secretary of state as hereinafter provided, permitting it, him or them to continue, or to commence and continue, to transport and engage in the business of transporting crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof through such part or parts of such pipe line or pipe lines as is or are constructed or maintained for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or public road.

SEC. 2. The secretary of state is hereby authorized to issue licenses permitting private corporations, individuals or association of individuals to continue to own, operate, manage or control any pipe line or pipe lines already constructed and now being maintained for the transportation of crude oil, petroleum or any of its products, otherwise than as a common carrier across, along, over or under any public highway or public road within this state, to the extent only to which such pipe line or pipe lines is or are now already so constructed, operated and maintained, upon payment of a fee of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) for each separate pipe line so already constructed and maintained for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or public road for such length of time only as such licensee shall comply with all the provisions of this act and of any and every other act which may hereafter be enacted in relation to this subject by the legislature of California; provided, further, that the fees hereinafter required to be paid for such permit may hereafter be increased or diminished at any time as the legislature may determine.

Secretary of state may issue license.

Fee.

SEC. 3. The construction hereafter of any pipe line or pipe lines intended for the transportation of crude oil, petroleum or any of its products, otherwise than as a common carrier for an aggregate distance of thirty-five or more miles within this state, continuously or otherwise, by means of such pipe line or pipe lines, in whole or in part, for any distance whatsoever, across, along, over or under any public highway or public road within this state is declared to be contrary to public policy and is hereby expressly prohibited.

Future construction limited to common carriers.

SEC. 4. The license herein provided for shall not be issued by the secretary of state unless and until a written application therefor shall first be filed with him by the private corporation, individual or association of individuals desiring to procure the same, which shall describe in a general way the pipe line or pipe lines for the maintenance and operation of which such license is desired, stating the terminal points of such pipe line or pipe lines and the county and counties through which the same is or are constructed and maintained, and the number of miles thereof in each of such counties, and as nearly as may be the point and points at which such pipe line or pipe lines is or are constructed and maintained across, along, over or under any public highway or public road and the approximate distance thereof in each instance, and which written application shall also set forth the name of the private corporation, individual or association of individuals owning,

SEC. 5. Every private corporation, individual or association of individuals required to procure the license hereinbefore provided for shall file with the railroad commission of the State of California on or before the tenth day of each calendar month, including and following the second calendar month after this act goes into effect, and in such form as said railroad commission shall require, a full, true and correct report showing the number of barrels (forty-two gallons to the barrel) of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof which were transported through each and every such pipe line so constructed, operated or maintained for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or any public road within this state during the preceding calendar month. Such report shall be subscribed by such licensee or by its, his or their agent duly appointed in writing for such purpose and shall be accompanied by the affidavit of such subscriber stating in substance and effect that he knows the contents thereof, and that he has had free access to the books and vouchers of such licensee relating to the same for the purpose of determining the truth of the statements contained therein, and that such statements, and each and all thereof, are true according to his best information and belief. Said railroad commission shall examine said report and if it shall have no reason to doubt the correctness of the same, shall, within not less than ten days thereafter, certify it to the secretary of state, and thereupon there shall immediately become due and payable to the people of the State of California at the office of, and through, the secretary of state, the sum of fifty cents ($.50) for each such barrel of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof so transported through such pipe line or pipe lines for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under such public highway or public road. The delivery of such certified report by the railroad commission to the secretary of state shall be deemed notice as of the date of such filing, to said licensee of the amount due as a license fee for such calendar month under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 6. Whenever the railroad commission shall entertain any doubt of the correctness of such report so filed with it, said railroad commission may subpoena the subscriber of such report and require him to bring before said commission the books and vouchers from which he secured the information set forth in said report, and may examine him under oath, and may subpoena such other witnesses and hear such other testimony in relation to such matter as it deems competent, material and relevant, and shall proceed summarily in the matter and determine the true and correct number of such barrels of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof which were so transported by said licensee through such pipe line so constructed, operated or maintained for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or public road within this state, and shall thereupon certify to the secretary of state its finding of the number of such barrels, and thereupon there shall immediately become due and payable to the people of the State of California at the office of and through the secretary of state, the sum of fifty cents ($.50) for each such barrel of such crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof so transported. The delivery of such certified finding by the railroad commission to the secretary of state shall be deemed notice as of the date of such filing to said licensee of the amount due as a license fee under the provisions of this act. The railroad commission may revoke the license of such licensee if, upon such hearing, it finds that any material statement contained in said sworn report is false and that such falsity was known to such licensee at the time such report was filed with said railroad commission, or that said licensee had reason to believe at such time that such report was false, or that such licensee wilfully aided or abetted the making of such false report, either directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, and said railroad commission may thereupon refuse to authorize the secretary of state to renew any such license, or to issue a new one to any private corporation, individual or association of individuals whose license has thus been revoked, within one year from the time same was revoked.

Revocation of license.

SEC. 7. Every individual and every member of any association of individuals, and every officer, agent, attorney or employee of any private corporation, who knowingly and wilfully violates or fails to comply with, or who knowingly and wilfully aids and abets any violation of any provision of this act, or who knowingly and wilfully fails to observe, obey or comply with any order, decision, rule, direction, demand or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, of the said railroad commission, or who knowingly or wilfully procures, aids or abets any failure to observe, obey and comply therewith, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty.

SEC. 8. Whenever the railroad commission shall entertain the belief that any private corporation, individual or association of individuals required by the provisions of this act to procure the aforesaid license, is transporting crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof, for any distance whatsoever, through any pipe line now constructed and maintained across, along, over or under any public highway or public road within this state without having procured the license herein provided for, or has or is about to construct any pipe line for the transportation of crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or any public road within this state, it shall direct the attorney of the commission to commence an action or proceeding in the superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which such pipe line or any part thereof is so constructed or maintained, or has been or is about to be so constructed, for any distance whatsoever, across, along, over or under any public highway or public road, or in the superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which the private corporation, individual or association of individuals so transporting or threatening to construct a pipe line or pipe lines for the purpose of transporting crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof, maintain or maintains it, his or their principal place of business, and said action or proceeding shall be brought in the name of the people of the State of California for the purpose of having such violation or threatened violation of the provisions of this act stopped and prevented by mandamus, injunction or other appropriate remedy, and for the purpose of recovering a judgment for such damages as may have been incurred by the people of the State of California for such violation or threatened violation of the provisions of this act.

petition.

It shall thereupon become the duty of the court to specify a time not exceeding twenty days after the service of the copy of the petition in which the private corporation, individual or association of individuals complained of must answer such petition, and in the mean time, said private corporation, individual or association of individuals may be restrained by said court from continuing such violation or threatened violation of any of the provisions of this act. In case of default in the answer, or after the answer has been filed by such defendant or defendants, the court shall immediately hear and determine the case. Such private corporation or individuals as the court may deem necessary or proper in order to make its judgment, order or writ effective, may be joined as parties. The final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that the writ of mandamus or injunction issue or be made perpetual as prayed for in the petition, or in such modified or other form as will give appropriate relief. An appeal may be taken to the supreme court from such final judgment in the same manner and with the same effect, subject to the provisions of this act, as appeals are taken from the judgments of the superior court in other cases involving mandamus or injunction.

Final judgment.

Failure to pay license fees.

SEC. 9. Any failure on the part of any licensee to pay within twenty days after the same becomes due, the license fees or any portion thereof as required by and provided in the provisions of this act, shall operate to forfeit, ipso facto, such license, and to deprive such licensee of the right to continue to transport any crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof through any part of any such pipe line or pipe lines for any distance whatsoever across, along, over or under any public highway or public road.

SEC. 10. The license fee, and each installment thereof, in this act provided for, upon the same becoming due, as herein provided, is hereby declared to be a lien upon the whole of the pipe line or pipe lines and plant and equipment used in connection therewith of which that part of such pipe line, for the privilege of maintaining and operating which said license is procured, is a part as described in the application for such license, from the time that such license fee, and each installment thereof, becomes due and payable; and such lien shall be enforceable in the same way that tax liens in the State of California are enforceable, and by the same procedure in so far as the same is or can be made applicable hereto.

License fee lien on pipe line.

SEC. 11. Any and every licensee under this act who pays a license fee of not less than fifty cents ($ 50) per barrel of forty-two gallons each to the State of California under any other law of this state for the privilege of transporting or of engaging, either directly or indirectly, in the business of transporting crude oil, petroleum or any of the products thereof through a pipe line or pipe lines, is hereby exempted and relieved from the payment of the monthly license fees herein provided for by this act.

Licensee exempt from monthly fees.

SEC. 12. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

CHAPTER 287.

An act to add a new section to the Civil Code to be numbered nine hundred fifty-five, relating to assignment of or orders for wages or salaries.

[Approved June 7, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code of the State of California to be numbered nine hundred fifty-five, and to read as follows:

955. No assignment of, or order for wages or salary shall be valid unless made in writing by the person by whom the said wages or salary are earned and no assignment of, or order for, wages or salary made by a married person shall be valid unless the written consent of the husband or wife of the person making such assignment or order is attached to such assignment or order; and no assignment or order for wages or salary of a minor shall be valid unless the written consent of a parent or the guardian of such minor is attached to such order or assignment. No assignment of, or order for, wages or salary shall measure.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1 of article IV of the constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency: Section 2349 of the Political Code of this state, of which this act is amendatory, now declares certain rivers and streams navigable in instances where such rivers and streams are not navigable in fact, thereby preventing the bridging of such rivers and streams by county or municipal authority where it is necessary for the traveling public to cross the same, which said condition is dangerous to public safety, and will be obviated by section 1 of this act.

CHAPTER 289.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof and providing a method for the payment of such bonds," (approved April 7, 1911), by adding a new section thereto to be numbered 77a, relating to the doing of work and making improvements upon railroad tracks and the roadbed thereof existing upon the streets of municipalities and the proceedings relating thereto.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to an act entitled "An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities, and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof and providing a method for the payment of such bonds," to be numbered 77a and to read as follows:

council may order railroad companies to improve roadbed, etc., in streets.

Sec. 77a. Whenever any railroad track or tracks of any description exist upon any street in any city which has been paved, macadamized, graveled, capped, or oiled either for the whole or any portion of the width of the roadway thereof along or near the line of such railroad track or tracks, and the roadbed thereof has not been improved similar in all respects to and with the same materials as such street along the line of such track or tracks; or where any portion of such roadbed, whether so improved or not is out of repair or is not on the official grade of such street or has small hummocks or ridges or loose rock upon or along such roadbed or the materials composing such roadbed next to the rails of such track or tracks are not flush with the top of such rails or the sides thereof, the city council of any city may, by resolution, require and order the person or company having or owning such railroad track or tracks to improve the roadbed thereof by making repairs or by bringing the roadbed to the official grade or removing the hummocks or ridges or loose rock upon or along such roadbed or making the roadbed and the materials thereof flush with the top or sides of the rails of such track or tracks. Such city council may require and order any or all of said work or improvement as may be designated in such resolution and to be done in the manner therein designated.

The city council may also require, by resolution, any person or company aforesaid to pave alongside of and contiguous to its rails with special type of brick or paving blocks or other material.

Special brick along rails.

The resolution to require and order said work or improvement shall be personally served upon the person or company having or owning such railroad track or tracks, or service thereof may be made upon any agent or representative of such person or company or any officer of such company, and upon such service being made, such resolution shall be construed and is hereby declared to be notice to said person or company of the intention to order the work or improvement as designated in such resolution.

Service of resolution.

Thereupon, it shall be the duty of said person or company to notify, in writing, the superintendent of streets of the city where such work or improvement is to be done, if such person or company elects to enter upon the direct performance of such work or improvement at his or its own charge or expense. Said notice must be delivered to the said superintendent of streets within ten days after the service of such resolution as aforesaid.

Notice of election to do work.

The omission or neglect to make such election by delivering such notice shall be construed as constituting the superintendent of streets the agent of the owner of said track or tracks with authority to enter into a contract made in accordance with the provisions of this section for doing said work and making said improvements.

Failure to give notice.

Said superintendent of streets shall thereupon be vested with authority to and he shall advertise for bids for said work or improvement for at least two days in some newspaper published and circulated in such city, and fix the time in such notice for receiving bids not less than five days from the first publication thereof.

Authority vested in superintendent of streets.

It shall be the duty of such city council to award the contract for doing said work or making said improvements to the lowest regular, responsible bidder.

Award of contract.

Check to accompany bid. All bids offered shall be accompanied by a check or by a bond and shall be delivered, opened and award of contract made, all as provided by section ten of said act, except that no notice of award shall be published.

Contract Upon the award being made, the superintendent of streets shall enter into a contract with the person to whom said contract was awarded for doing said work or making said improvement described in said notice inviting bids, and at the price stated in said bid.

Contractor's bonds. The contractor shall execute bonds in the manner required by section fifteen of said act. Upon the completion of the work and its acceptance, the street superintendent shall make a certificate of such completion, together with a statement of the amount due under the terms of said contract for the performance of said work. Such certificate shall be countersigned by the mayor of said city, and shall be recorded in the office

Contractor entitled to payment. of said superintendent of streets. The contractor thereupon shall be entitled to payment for the full amount of said contract price, and the recording of such certificate shall be sufficient notice to the owner of such track or tracks that said contract is due and payable. In the event that such amount is not paid within thirty days from the date of the recording of said certificate, the contractor may file a sworn statement to that effect with the superintendent of streets, who shall record the same in his office in the book in which the certificate of acceptance has been recorded. Said contractor shall thereupon have a cause of action against said person or company owning said tracks for the amount of said contract, together with a reasonable attorney's fee, to be fixed by the court, and shall also have as a security for the recovery of such amount, a first lien upon the track and franchises of said railroad contained within the corporate limits of the said city. In such suit, the certificate of the superintendent of streets, hereinbefore mentioned, shall be and constitute prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings, and of the right of the contractor to recover judgment against said person or company. Execution may be taken out upon the entry of judgment, and levied upon any property of said person or company subject to execution. In the event that said person or company shall file the written election to enter upon the direct performance of such work at its own cost and expense, no further proceedings shall be taken in the matter unless such person or company neglects or fails for thirty days, or for such further time as the city council may, by resolution, grant, to make and complete said work or improvement.

Work not diligently done In the event that the said work or improvement shall not be made with diligence as herein provided, the city council of said city may, by resolution entered upon its minutes, prescribe such terms and conditions as to it may seem fit and proper before permitting the said person or company to continue with the said improvement. If the said person or company shall, after three days' notice of the adoption of said resolution, fail to comply with the terms and conditions so prescribed, the city council may, at any time thereafter, declare said person or company to have forfeited its privilege of performing such work or improvement under its own direction. Whereupon the street superintendent shall advertise for bids for the performance of such work, or such portion thereof as may remain uncompleted, and the contract therefor shall be awarded and entered into in the same manner hereinbefore provided for the awarding and execution of contracts where said person or company has not elected to make the improvements under its own direction; and upon the completion of the improvement, the contractor to whom such contract may be awarded, or his assigns, shall be entitled to a certificate from the street superintendent similar to that hereinabove provided for, and shall have the right to collect from said person or company by suit the amount specified in said certificate in all respects the same as hereinbefore provided where the contract is let for such work or improvement in the first instance. The city council may, by ordinance, prescribe and enforce such additional regulations and penalties as it may deem necessary to compel the work or improvement as herein provided of any portion or portions of any such street or streets so occupied by any such railroad track or tracks.

Advertise for bids

Additional regulations and penalties.

The word "roadbed" herein used shall be deemed to embrace that portion of any street used by the track of any railroad between the rails and for two feet on each side thereof and between the tracks if there is more than one, including the rails of such track or tracks.

"Roadbed" defined.

CHAPTER 290.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code of the State of California relating to the regulation of loading and unloading of vessels, to be known as and numbered three hundred and sixty-eight a, of said code.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

[SECTION 1.] A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California to be known as and numbered three hundred sixty-eight a and to read as follows:

368a. Any person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of loading or unloading ships or vessels, or who contracts to load or unload a ship or vessel, or who shall be in charge of a ship or vessel while the same is being loaded or unloaded, or who is authorized to load or unload any ship or vessel, having a carrying capacity of fifty tons or greater, shall employ and supply upon every ship or vessel while being loaded or unloaded, a person over the age of twenty-one years

Hatch-tender for ships of 50 tons capacity.

to act as signal man or hatch-tender whose sole duty it shall be to observe the operations of loading or unloading of each working hatch on such ship or vessel, and to warn all persons engaged in the operation of loading or unloading of any possibility of any injury to any of the articles of which the cargo is composed, or of danger to any person engaged or being in or about the said ship or vessel while the same is being loaded or unloaded as aforesaid. Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Penalty.

CHAPTER 291.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and thirty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the public uses on behalf of which the right of eminent domain may be exercised.

CHAPTER 292.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and forty of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the private property which may be taken under title VII of part III of the Code of Civil Procedure.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred forty of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1240. The private property which may be taken under this title includes: Private property which may be taken.

1. All real property belonging to any person;

2. Lands belonging to this state, including tide and submerged lands, not within the corporate limits of any city, or city and county, or to any county, incorporated city, or city and county, village or town, not appropriated to some public use;

3. Lands belonging to the United States or owned or held by the United States in trust, or otherwise, for any purpose, except lands owned or held for lighthouses, post offices or other government buildings, forts, arsenals, or other military purposes; Lands of United States.

4. Property appropriated to public use; but such property shall not be taken unless for a more necessary public use than that to which it has already been appropriated; provided, that where any such property has been so appropriated by any individual, firm or private corporation, the use thereof for a public street or highway of a county, city and county, or incorporated city or town or the use thereof by a county, city and county, incorporated city or town or municipal water district, for the same public purpose to which it has been so appropriated, or for any other public purpose, shall be deemed more necessary uses than the public use to which such property has already been appropriated; and provided, further, that where property already appropriated to a public use or purpose, by any person, firm or private corporation, is sought to be taken by a county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, for another public use or purpose, which is consistent with the continuance of the use of such property or some portion thereof for such existing purpose, to the same extent as such property is then used, or to a less or modified extent, then the right to use such property for such proposed public purpose, in common with such other use or purpose, either as then existing, or to a less or modified extent, may be taken by such county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, and the court may fix the terms and conditions upon which such property may be so taken, and the manner and extent of the use thereof for each of such public purposes, and may order the removal or relocation of any structures or improvements therein or thereon, so far as may be required by such common use. But property appropriated to the use of any county, city and county, incorporated city or town or municipal water district, may not be taken by any other county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, while such property is so appropriated and used for the public purposes for which it has been so appropriated.

Property for public use.

Franchises for public utilities.

5. Franchises for any public utility, and all kinds of property of any nature whatsoever used, either during the existence of or at the termination of said franchise, to supply and furnish the service of such public utility, but such franchise or property shall not be taken except for a more necessary public use.

Rights
of way.

6. All rights of way for any and all the purposes mentioned in section one thousand two hundred and thirty-eight, and any and all structures and improvements on, over, across or along such rights of way, and the lands held or used in connection therewith shall be subject to be connected with, crossed, or intersected by or embraced within any other right of way or improvements, or structures thereon. They shall also be subject to a limited use, in common with the owner thereof, when necessary; but such uses, crossings, intersections, and connections shall be made in manner most compatible with the greatest public benefit and least private injury; no railroad main track crossing, outside the limits of any incorporated town, city or county, shall be at grade, unless the party proposing such crossing at grade shall, at its own sole cost and expense, protect such crossing by the construction, operation and maintenance of an interlocking plant, with suitable signals and derails; but either party to such crossing may insist upon a separation of grades, in which case the cost of constructing such crossing with separate grades shall be equally divided between the railroad companies concerned; and provided, further, that where any such crossing has been constructed at grade, either company may, at any time thereafter, require a separation of the grades at such crossing, each company paying one half of the expense of such separation; and provided, further, that the foregoing provisions shall not be construed as requiring a separation of grades where such separation is physically impracticable, and in case of any dispute or controversy as to the physical practicability of any undergrade or overhead crossing, the same shall be determined by the superior court of the county in which such crossing is situate in an action or proceeding brought by either party for that purpose;

7. All classes of private property not enumerated may be taken for public use, when such taking is authorized by law;

Proceedings to condemn state lands.

8. Proceedings to condemn lands belonging to this state are hereby authorized, and must be maintained and conducted in the same manner as are other condemnation proceedings provided for in this title; except, that in such proceedings the summons and a copy of the complaint must be served on the governor, attorney general, and surveyor general of this state.

9. Proceedings to condemn any of said lands belonging to the United States or owned or held by the United States in trust, or otherwise, for any purpose, are hereby authorized, and must be maintained and conducted in the same manner as are other condemnation proceedings provided for in this title; except, that in such proceedings, the summons and a copy of the complaint must be served on the United States district attorney for the district in which the land sought to be condemned is situated and also upon the United States surveyor general for this state.

Proceedings to condemn United States lands.

CHAPTER 293.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and forty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to what must appear before property can be taken under title VII or part III of the Code of Civil Procedure.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred forty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1241. Before property can be taken, it must appear:

1. That the use to which it is to be applied is a use authorized by law;
2. That the taking is necessary to such use; provided, when the legislative body of a county, city and county, or an incorporated city or town, shall, by resolution or ordinance, adopted by vote of two thirds of all its members, have found and determined that the public interest and necessity require the acquisition, construction or completion, by such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, of any proposed public utility, or any public improvement, and that the property described in such resolution or ordinance is necessary therefor, such resolution or ordinance shall be conclusive evidence; (a) of the public necessity of such proposed public utility or public improvement; (b) that such property is necessary therefor, and (c) that such proposed public utility or public improvement is planned or located in the manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good, and the least private injury; provided, that said resolution or ordinance shall not be such conclusive evidence in the case of the taking by any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, of property located outside of the territorial limits thereof.

Fact-necessary before condemnation.

Property already appropriated to public use.

3. If already appropriated to some public use, that the public use to which it is to be applied is a more necessary public use, provided, that where such property has been so appropriated by any individual, firm or private corporation, the use thereof for a public street or highway of a county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town, or the use thereof by a county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town, or a municipal water district for the same purposes to which it has been appropriated, or for any other public purpose, shall be deemed a more necessary use than the public use to which such property has been already appropriated; and provided, further, that property of any character, whether already appropriated to public use or not, including all rights of any nature in water, owned by any person, firm or private corporation may be taken by a county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town or by a municipal water district, for the purpose of supplying water, or electricity for power, lighting or heating purposes to such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, or the inhabitants thereof, or for the purpose of supplying any other public utility, or for any other public use. And such taking may be made, either to furnish a separate and distinct supply of such water, and such electricity for power, lighting or heating purposes, or to provide for any such separate and distinct other public utility or other public use; or to furnish such a supply or provide for any such other public utility or other public use in conjunction with any other supply or with any other public utility or other public use that may have been theretofore provided for or that may thereafter be provided for in so supplying or providing for such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or municipal water district or the inhabitants thereof; or in conjunction with any other supply or with any other public utility or other public use that may have been theretofore determined upon or that may thereafter be determined upon in accordance with law by the people of any such county, city and county, incorporated city or town or municipal water district. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as in any way limiting such rights as may be given by any other law of this state to counties, cities and counties, incorporated cities or towns or municipal water districts. But private property appropriated to the use of any county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, may not be taken by any other county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal district, while such property is so appropriated and used for the public purposes for which it has been so appropriated.

CHAPTER 294.

An act to amend sections six hundred and thirty-seven and six hundred and thirty-eight of the Civil Code, relating to building and loan associations.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and thirty-seven of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

637. Loans may be made upon the "mutual plan" or upon the "definite contract plan." Loans made upon the mutual plan shall be accompanied by a pledge of shares having a matured or par value equal to the face of the loan. Definite contract loans shall be repayable in a definite number of equal periodical installments, to be named in the note or obligation, each in an amount sufficient for the aggregate of all to repay the principal of the loan together with interest on the unpaid periodical balances, within the time and at the rate agreed upon. It shall be unlawful for any director or officer of any corporation governed by this title, directly or indirectly, for himself, or as a partner or agent for others, to borrow any of the funds of such corporation, and any officer or director violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony. Any officer or director of any such corporation who consents on behalf of such corporation to make a loan to any officer or director of such corporation shall be guilty of a felony, and shall also be personally liable to the corporation for the full amount thereof. It shall be unlawful for any building and loan association, corporation or society operating under the provisions of this title to loan any of its funds upon any of its own guarantee stock or upon its permanent nonwithdrawable capital stock as security. Any officer or director of an association who shall make any such loan for and on behalf of any association shall be personally liable to the corporation for the full amount thereof, and shall also be deemed guilty of a felony. It shall be unlawful for any building and loan association, corporation or society, operating under the provisions of this title, to loan any of its funds upon the security of, or to invest any of its funds in any mining shares or mining stocks, or in the stocks or bonds of any corporation, other than in this title provided; and any officer or director who, on behalf of any such corporation, shall make any such loan or investment, or who shall consent thereto, shall be personally liable to the corporation for the whole amount of any such loan or investment, and shall also be guilty of a felony.

Loans of building and loan associations.

Others may not borrow.

No loan on own guaranteed stock.

No loan on mining stock.

SEC. 2 Section six hundred and thirty-eight of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

638. For every loan made a note or obligation must be executed by the borrower, secured by a first mortgage or deed of trust upon unencumbered real estate having an appraised

Security for loans.

Interest.

value of not less than twenty-five per cent in excess of the face of the loan (except such loans as may be made upon the security of bonds specified in section six hundred and forty-seven); or in lieu of a mortgage or deed of trust, loans to the extent of not exceeding ninety per cent of the then withdrawable value, may be made upon the pledge of free shares or certificates as security for their repayment. The board of directors may from time to time fix the rate of interest to be charged on loans. A borrower may at any time repay his loan together with interest or arrears due thereon and upon the surrender of the shares, or certificates pledged as security therefor.

CHAPTER 295.

An act to amend section six hundred and thirty-three of the Civil Code, relating to building and loan associations.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and thirty-three of the Civil Code, relating to building and loan associations, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Powers of building and loan associations.

633. Building and loan associations as hereinafter, in this title defined, shall have power to receive money and accumulate funds to be loaned, and to loan the same to their shareholders, investors and others; to permit shareholders and investors to withdraw part or all of their payments, investments or stock deposits, and to prescribe the terms and conditions of such withdrawal; to cancel shares of stock, the payments on which have been withdrawn; to receive money and to execute certificates therefor, which must specify the date, amount, rate of interest, and when the principal and interest are payable, and also the withdrawal value thereof at the end of each year; to borrow money for the purpose of making loans and of paying withdrawals and maturities; and shall have such further powers as may be specifically set forth under this title: provided, however, that no such association shall, at any time, have or carry upon its books, for any member or investor, any demand, commercial or checking account or any credit to be withdrawn upon the presentation of any negotiable check or draft. Every such corporation hereafter formed, in setting forth for the purposes for which it is formed, shall state, in its articles of incorporation, that it is formed to encourage industry, frugality, home building, and savings among its shareholders and members; the accumulation of savings; the loaning to its shareholders and members of the moneys or funds so accumulated, with the profits and earnings thereon, and the repayment to each of his savings and profits, whenever they have accumulated to the full par value of the shares, or at any Purposes for which formed.

time when he shall desire the same or when the corporation shall desire to repay the same, as it may be provided in the by-laws; and shall also state that it is formed for all the purposes specified in this title.

CHAPTER 296.

An act to amend section six hundred and thirty-four of the Civil Code, relating to building and loan associations.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and thirty-four of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

634. The capital of every such corporation shall be divided into shares of the matured or par value of one hundred or two hundred dollars each, as provided by the articles of incorporation, and shall be paid in by the subscribers in the manner provided by the by-laws. All such payments shall be called dues. Certificates shall be issued to each shareholder on the first payment of dues by him. Shares pledged as security for the repayment of a loan shall be called pledged shares, and all others, free shares. All shares matured and surrendered or canceled, shall become the property of the corporation and may be reissued. The capital shall consist of the accumulated dues together with the apportioned profits of the corporation, and shall be accumulated by the issuance of shares in "installment" form and, where the by-laws shall so provide, in any or all the following forms, viz: "full paid," "pass-book or juvenile" and "guarantee."

a. Installment shares shall be either "serial" or "permanent" in form. When issued in "serial" form the periodical dues on shares in each series shall commence with the date of the issue of such series and the holder must pay such dues and such amounts per share and at such times as the by-laws may provide, and such payments must continue on each share until, with the profits allotted thereto, it reaches its matured value or is withdrawn or canceled. On all such issues the dividends shall be apportioned or credited equally to each share in each series. No share of a prior series shall be issued after the issue of shares in a new series, except by way of transfer. Shares issued in "permanent" form may be issued at any time and the dividends thereon may be credited in the pass-books of the members. Shares of either form may be issued in "classes" with a different periodical payment for each class designation, to be specified in the by-laws, and shall be issued with full participation in the profits subject to apportionment as dividends.

b. Full paid shares shall be shares upon which a single payment of dues amounting to one hundred or two hundred dollars per share shall be paid at the time of subscription and upon which the holder shall be entitled to either a full participation in the net profits or to an agreed rate of dividends not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable semiannually in cash, to be specified in the body of the certificate issued. All such shares may be issued in separate classes as to participation, under regulations to be provided in the by-laws and which must be fully set forth in or upon each certificate issued.

Pass-books shares.

c. Pass-books or juvenile shares are shares which shall participate in the apportionment of net profits and be credited therewith at a rate not less than seventy-five nor more than ninety per centum of the rate apportioned to installment shares, as the by-laws shall determine, and upon which the dues may be paid in at such times and in such amounts as the holder thereof may elect until said shares reach their matured value or are withdrawn. Such shares shall be withdrawable under rules to be provided in the by-laws and fully set forth in the pass-books issued. The matured value of this class of shares shall not exceed in volume twenty-five per centum of the matured value of all other shares in force. No membership fee, fine or forfeiture shall be chargeable against such shares.

Guarantee
stock.

d. Guarantee stock shall be stock, provided by the by-laws, to be set apart and sold as a fixed, permanent or guarantee capital. When any such stock has been once so set apart, sold and issued, it shall thereafter remain as a fixed, permanent and guarantee capital, and shall be subjected to all the conditions and liabilities attaching to the paid-in capital stock of other classes of corporations. Such guarantee stock shall protect and guarantee all other stockholders and creditors against any loss, and when once paid it must be kept unimpaired.

Reserve.

e. Every corporation specified in this title issuing installment or full paid investment certificates shall at all times have issued and fully paid for, either an amount of guarantee capital stock, or permanent nonwithdrawable capital stock, or both such guarantee capital stock and permanent nonwithdrawable capital stock equal to ten per cent of the aggregate amount of its liability on its said installment investment certificates, and full paid investment certificates, or shall have a reserve fund equal to ten per cent of its said aggregate liability on said installment and full paid investment certificates.

Directors.

f. Corporations specified in this title, issuing guarantee stock, may provide in their by-laws that a majority of the board of directors shall be selected from the holders of such stock.

Entrance
fee.

g. Every such corporation shall also have power, by its by-laws, to charge an entrance or withdrawal fee, for each share of stock it may issue, not exceeding one dollar on each share, and also to charge a transfer fee, not exceeding ten cents on each share, all of which fees shall be accounted for by the corporation like other funds of the association. No other fee, charge or deduction shall ever be made or permitted to be made against any shareholder, or against any of his shares hereafter issued, or the dues paid in thereon for the purpose of creating a fund to be used in the payment of current or running expenses.

CHAPTER 297.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California to be numbered five hundred twenty-one relating to claim and delivery of personal property.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California to be numbered five hundred twenty-one to read as follows:

521. After the property has been delivered to the plaintiff as in this chapter provided, the court shall, by appropriate order, protect the plaintiff in the possession of said property until the final determination of the action.

Protection of plaintiff in possession of property.

CHAPTER 298.

An act to amend section one thousand two hundred forty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure, relative to proceedings in eminent domain.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand two hundred forty-four of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1244. The complaint must contain:

1. The name of the corporation, association, commission, or person in charge of the public use for which the property is sought, who must be styled plaintiff.

Complaint in eminent domain proceedings.

2. The names of all owners and claimants of the property, if known, or a statement that they are unknown, who must be styled defendants.

3. A statement of the right of the plaintiff.

4. If a right of way be sought, the complaint must show the location, general route, and termini, and must be accompanied with a map thereof, so far as the same is involved in the action or proceeding.

5. A description of each piece of land, or other property or interest in or to property, sought to be taken, and whether the same includes the whole or only a part of an entire parcel or tract or piece of property, or interest in or to property. All parcels of land, or other property or interest in or to property, lying in the county, and required for the same public use, may be included in the same or separate proceedings, at the option of the plaintiff, but the court may consolidate or separate them to suit the convenience of the parties. When application for the condemnation of a right of way for the purpose of sewerage is made on behalf of a settlement, or of an incorporated village or town, the board of supervisors of the county may be named as plaintiff.

CHAPTER 299.

An act to amend sections three thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, three thousand seven hundred and seventy-one, three thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, three thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and three thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight of the Political Code of the State of California, and to add to said Political Code two new sections to be numbered three thousand seven hundred and seventy-three and three thousand seven hundred and eighty-five b, all relating to property sold to the state for delinquent taxes and providing for its disposal by sale and redemption.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand seven hundred and sixty-four of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3764. On or before the fifth day in June of each year, the tax collector must publish the delinquent list, which must contain the names of the persons and a description of the property delinquent, and the amount of taxes, penalties, and costs due, opposite each name and description, with the taxes due on personal property, the delinquent state poll, road, and hospital tax, the taxes due each school, road, or other lesser taxation district, added to the taxes on real estate, where the real estate is liable therefor, or the several taxes are due from the same person; provided, however, that before publication of said list the tax collector and auditor shall jointly arrange said list in such manner that said publication shall designate in some particular manner the property contained in said list which was sold to the state five years previous under the provisions of section three thousand seven hundred and seventy-one of this code, on which the taxes remain unpaid, or which property has not been redeemed or the sale thereof canceled, and which property the state would otherwise be entitled to a deed thereof after the lapse of five years from said previous sale.

SEC. 2. Section three thousand seven hundred and seventy-one of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3771. On the day and hour fixed for the sale, all the property delinquent, upon which the taxes of all kinds, penalties, and costs have not been paid, shall, by operation of law and the declaration of the tax collector, be sold to the state, and said tax collector shall make an entry, "Sold to the state," on the delinquent assessment list, opposite the tax, and he shall be credited with the amount thereof in his settlement, made pursuant to sections three thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, three thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight and three thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; provided, that on the day of sale the owner or person in possession of any property offered for sale for taxes due thereon, may pay the taxes, penalties, and costs due; and provided, further, that when the original tax amounts to the sum of three hundred dollars or more upon any piece of property or assessment delinquent, the state may bring suit against the owner of said property for the collection of said tax or taxes, penalties, and costs, as provided in section three thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine; and provided, further, that any property contained in the advertised list as provided for in section three thousand seven hundred and sixty-four of this code, which has not been redeemed from the sale made to the state five years previously, shall be sold by the tax collector at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States; but no bid shall be accepted at such sale for less than the amount of all taxes, penalties and costs due as shown in said advertised list. After such bid has been made and accepted the right of redemption shall cease, except as to the purchaser, who shall have thirty days within which to make redemption as provided in section 3785*b* of this code, and if not so redeemed or if no sale is had under the provisions of this paragraph, then said property shall be deeded to the state as provided in section 3785 of this code; and provided, further, when any property is to be sold at public auction as provided in this section, within five days after the first publication of said delinquent list the tax collector shall mail a copy of said list or publication, postage thereon prepaid and registered, to the party to whom the land was last assessed next before such sale, at his last known post office address. The money received hereunder shall be distributed as provided in section three thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight of this code. The charge for advertising shall be at the rate fixed by the board of supervisors for other advertising in said county.

Property sold to state.

Owner may pay on day of sale.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand seven hundred seventy-three, and to read as follows:

3773. When lands have been sold, or shall hereafter be sold, to the State of California by reason of non-payment of taxes, no owner or claimant of such lands, nor any other person, shall remove or destroy any building, fixture or other improve-

Improvements on land sold to state not to be removed.

ment on such lands, or cut or remove any timber, or do or cause to be done any other act which shall tend permanently to impair the value of the lands or the value of the improvements thereon; provided, this act shall not apply when such lands have been redeemed from sale or have been sold and disposed of by the state. Violation of any of the provisions of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor.

SEC. 4. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered three thousand seven hundred eighty-five b, and to read as follows:

Deed to purchaser

3785*b*. When property has been sold to a purchaser at delinquent tax sale, other than the State of California, in pursuance of section three thousand seven hundred seventy-one of this code, the tax collector must forthwith execute a deed to such purchaser, or his assigns, conveying said property; provided, no deed shall be delivered in any event until redemption has been made of such property and all taxes, penalties, interest and charges have been paid which may have been accrued by reason of any previous tax sale or delinquency. Said deed shall be in substance and may be in form as follows:

Form of deed

“This indenture, made the ----- day of -----, 19___, between -----, tax collector of the county of -----, State of California, first part, and-----, second party, witnesseth:

That whereas the real property hereinafter described was duly assessed for taxation in the year 19___ to ----- (stating name as on assessment roll) and was thereafter on the ----- day of -----, 19___, duly sold to ----- by -----, tax collector of said county of ----- for non-payment of delinquent taxes which had been legally levied in said year 19___, and were a lien on said real property, the total amount for which the same was sold being -----
And

Whereas, all taxes levied and assessed against said property prior to the year 19___ have been paid and discharged:

Now, therefore, the said first party in consideration of the premises, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided does hereby grant to the said second party that certain real property in the county of -----, State of California, more particularly described as follows, to wit: * *

In witness whereof said first party has hereunto set his hand the day and year first above written.

-----,
Tax collector of the county of -----.”

No charge for deed

No other matters need be recited in the said deed than those provided for in the above form, whether the sale is made before or after this act takes effect. No charge shall be made by the tax collector for the making of any such deed, and the acknowledgment of all such deeds shall be taken by the county clerk free of charge. The provisions of sections three thousand seven hundred eighty-six and three thousand seven hundred eighty-seven of this code are hereby made applicable to the deed herein provided for.

SEC. 5. Section three thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows: Tax deed conclusive evidence.

3787. Such deed, duly acknowledged or proved, is (except as against actual fraud) conclusive evidence of the regularity of all other proceedings, from the assessment by the assessor, inclusive, up to the execution of the deed. Such deed conveys to the state the absolute title to the property described therein, free of all incumbrances, except any lien of taxes levied for municipal purposes, and except when the land is owned by the United States, or this state, in which case it is prima facie evidence of the right of possession, accrued as of the date of the deed to the state.

SEC. 6. Section three thousand eight hundred ninety-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3897. Whenever the state shall become the owner of any property sold for taxes and the deed to the state has been filed with the controller as provided in section three thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, the controller may thereupon by a written authorization direct the tax collector of the county or city and county to sell the property or any part thereof as in his judgment he shall deem advisable in the manner following: He must give notice of such sale by first publishing a notice for at least three successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county or city and county, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then by posting a notice in three conspicuous places in the county or city and county, one of which shall be at the United States post office nearest the land, in addition to a notice conspicuously posted on the land itself for the same period. Such notices must state specifically the place of and the day and hour of sale and shall contain a description of the property to be sold and shall also contain a detailed statement of all the delinquent taxes, penalties, costs, interest, and expenses up to the date of such sale and shall give the name of the person to whom the property was assessed for each year on which there may be delinquent taxes against said property or any part thereof and said notice shall also embody a copy of the authorization received from the controller. It shall be the duty of the tax collector to mail within five days after the publication of said notice of sale a copy of said notice, postage thereon prepaid and registered, to the party to whom the land was last assessed next before the sale, at his last known post office address. At the time set for such sale, the tax collector must sell the property described in the controller's authorization and said notices, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States; but no bid shall be received or accepted at such sale for less than the amount of all the taxes levied upon such property and all costs and penalties for every year delinquent as shown by the delinquent rolls for said years to the date of the execution of the deed to the state, and all expenses accrued to the date of the sale under this section, together with interest at seven per cent per annum from the first day of July following delinquency in each of said years to the date of the sale hereunder, computed upon the aggregate amount of such delinquent taxes, penalties and costs: provided, however, that if the board of supervisors of the county, or city and county, in which any such property is situate, shall, by resolution entered upon their minutes, declare that, in their judgment, the property so owned by the state, and particularly described in said resolution, is not at that time of value great enough that it can be sold by the state for a sum equal to the amount of all taxes levied upon said property, and all interests, costs and penalties and expenses up to the date of such sale, and that it would be to the best interest of the state to sell the said property for a sum to be stated in said resolution less than the sum above named, upon receipt of a copy of said resolution, certified by the clerk of said board of supervisors, the state controller may thereupon, by written authorization, direct the tax collector of the county, or city and county, to sell the said property so described in said resolution for a sum not less than the sum stated in said resolution, together with the expenses of sale. The expense of giving the notice herein required shall be a charge against the property so advertised, and shall be collected by the collector, and no redemption of such property before said sale may be had without payment of such cost of advertising; and to secure the payment of such advertising cost the collector shall demand in advance from the party or parties seeking to purchase, a deposit with said officer of a sum sufficient to defray such cost of advertising, which deposit shall be forfeited in the event said party or parties fail or refuse to purchase at such sale: provided, that if the party or parties so depositing fail to secure such property on their bid, such deposit shall be returned, and such advertising cost shall be collected from the successful purchaser; provided, also, that if the board of supervisors of the county, or city and county, in which the property is situated shall by resolution entered upon the minutes, direct the tax collector to apply for an authorization of sale of any property which has been deeded to the state, and shall authorize him to order the necessary advertising to be done at county expense, the tax collector shall thereupon proceed as though a deposit had been made to cover advertising costs, and shall add a proportionate part of the total expense of advertising to the amount of taxes, penalties and interest chargeable against each tract or parcel sold. In any case in which no sale is made, the advertising shall be charged and paid as are other county charges.

SEC. 7. Section three thousand eight hundred ninety-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3898. 1. The moneys received from such sale shall be distributed as follows: the tax collector shall deduct the penalties, costs and other amounts received as expenses of such sale in such cases as the property so sold shall have been sold for a sum not less than the amount of all taxes levied thereon and all interest, costs, penalties and expenses up to the date of such sale, but where the property so sold shall have been sold for a sum less than said amount, the tax collector shall deduct only the amounts received as expenses attending such sale, and the balance shall be distributed between the state and the county, or city and county, in the proportion that the state rate bears to the county, or city and county, rate of taxation; said tax collector shall pay all amounts into the county treasury, and the treasurer shall account to the state for its portion in the settlement required by section three thousand eight hundred sixty-five and section three thousand eight hundred sixty-six.

2. On receiving the amount bid, as prescribed in the preceding section, the tax collector must execute a deed to the purchaser, which deed shall be in substance and may be in form as follows:

Deed to purchaser.

"This indenture, made the ----- day of -----, 19___, Form. between -----, tax collector of the county of -----, State of California, first party, and -----, of the county of -----, State of -----, second party, witnesseth:

That whereas, the real property hereinafter described was duly sold and conveyed to the State of California for the non-payment of taxes which had been legally levied and which were a lien upon said property under and in accordance with law; and

Whereas, in conformity with law the State of California, acting by and through -----, tax collector as aforesaid, did offer said property, hereinafter described, for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at which sale said second party became the purchaser of the whole thereof for the sum of $-----.

Now, therefore, the said first party in consideration of the premises and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, does hereby grant to the said second party, his heirs and assigns, that certain real property hereinbefore referred to, and situate in the ----- county of -----, State of California, more particularly described as follows, to wit:

* * * * *

In witness whereof, said first party has hereunto set his hand the day and year first above written.

Tax collector of the county of -----."

No other matters need be recited in the said deed than those provided for in the above form. No charge shall be made by the tax collector for the making of any such deed, and the acknowledgment of all such deeds shall be taken by the county clerk free of charge. Said deed shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts recited therein and shall operate to convey all of the interest of the state in and to said property.

No charge for deed.

3. Within ten days after each sale as provided in the preceding section the tax collector shall report to the assessor and recorder, giving the name or names of all persons to whom deeds have been issued under the provisions of this section, together with the dates of such deeds, the amount for which the property was sold, a description of the property conveyed, together with the numbers and dates of the certificates of sale and of the tax deeds by which title to such property so granted was conveyed to the state.

Recorder's notations.

4. The recorder shall note on the margin of each certificate of sale and of each tax deed involved in the sale and transfer of such property, the name of the purchaser, the date of the deed to the purchaser and the consideration named therein. The assessor shall use such report in his determination of the ownership of such property for assessment purposes.

Refund to purchaser not finally awarded property.

5. Whenever, in any action at law, it shall be determined by a court that the sale and conveyance provided for in this and the preceding section are void for any reason and that the purchaser from the state may not be finally awarded the property so purchased, no decree of the court shall be given declaring a forfeiture of the property until the former owner, or other party in interest, shall have repaid to the purchaser the full amount of taxes, penalties and costs paid out and expended by him, to be determined by the court, in pursuit of the state's title to the property so sold. The said purchaser may also present a claim against the county, in the manner provided by law, for a refund of the amount paid into the county treasury as the purchase price of such property in excess of the amount for which he may have been reimbursed for taxes, penalties, and costs as herein provided, and such excess shall be refunded in accordance with section three thousand eight hundred four of this code.

CHAPTER 300.

An act to amend the Political Code of the State of California by adding a new section thereto, to be numbered three thousand, five hundred twenty-four, providing for the re-issuing of patents to swamp and overflowed lands, where the original patent has been lost or destroyed, and not of record in the county where the land is situate.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code of the State of California, to be numbered three thousand five hundred twenty-four, and to read as follows:

Issuance of duplicate patent for swamp lands.

3524. When the original patent to swamp and overflowed land of the State of California has been lost or destroyed, and is not of record in the county where the land is situate, and no duplicate or copy thereof is in the office of the secretary of state or in the office of the register of the state land office, a patent is authorized to be issued to the original purchaser for the same land, as other patents are issued, when it is proven to the satisfaction of the register of the state land office of the State of California from the data in the office of the secretary of state of said state, or in the office of the register of the state land office, that an original patent has been lawfully issued to the original purchaser, and from other satisfactory proof that the same has been lost or destroyed, and is not of record in the recorder's office of the county in which the land is situated. The patent so reissued shall have the same force and effect as the original patent, and shall contain the clause "This patent is issued to take the place of the original patent issued for the same land, on the (give date of original patent, and by whom issued), and is not intended to change the title of the persons in whom said land is now vested and only to complete the record title from the State of California." The register of the state land office shall collect the same fee therefor as in issuing original patents.

Sec. 2. Any person having a vested interest in any swamp and overflowed land, covered by a patent lost or destroyed, and not of record in the county where the land is situated, in order to obtain the reissuing of the patent as provided in section 1, must make an affidavit and file the same in the office of the register of the state land office of this state, setting forth that he has a vested interest in the land, or a part thereof, to which he makes application for a patent to be reissued from the State of California, and must also state in the affidavit the chain of title from the original patentee to and including the present owners of the land described in the original patent.

Affidavit
of owner.

CHAPTER 301.

An act providing for the designation of money in the state treasury as surplus money, authorizing the investment and reinvestment of such money in certain classes of bonds, directing the disposal of interest or premium received therefrom and permitting the subsequent sale or exchange of the bonds so purchased.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any money in the state treasury which shall have been designated as surplus money under the provisions of this act may in the manner hereinafter provided be invested in bonds of any of the following classes:

Investment of surplus money in state
treasury.

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest;

(b) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of the State of California are pledged for the payment of principal and interest;

(c) Bonds of any county, city and county, city or school district of this state.

Designation of surplus money.

Maximum.

SEC. 2. The state treasurer, and the members of the state board of control shall at such times as they deem necessary, or upon request in writing of the state treasurer, meet and determine whether any portion of the money then in the state treasury is not necessary for immediate use, and if so, the amount thereof, which amount shall thereupon be designated as "surplus money;" provided, however, that the amount so fixed and determined as surplus money shall not at any time be in excess of seventy-five per cent of the least amount of money shown by the records in the treasurer's office to have been in the state treasury at the end of any day's transactions during the twelve months' period next preceding compiled in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred seventy-five of the Political Code. Upon the unanimous approval of said state officials, there shall be spread upon the minutes of the state board of control at each such meeting a resolution designating the amount of money so determined by them to be surplus money within the meaning of this act, and thereupon the state board of control shall proceed to invest the same in the purchase of bonds of any of the classes described in section one of this act.

Sale or exchange of bonds purchased.

Interest paid into "bond investment fund."

SEC. 3. Any bonds purchased or held under the provisions of this act may be sold or exchanged for other bonds of any of the classes described in section one of this act, and the money received from any such sale may be reinvested by the state board of control in the purchase of any such bonds; provided, that no such sale or exchange shall be made at a price which will result in a net loss to the state; and provided, further, that any interest or premium collected or received by the state from any bonds purchased or held under the provisions of this act shall be credited by the state treasurer to a fund to be known as the "bond investment fund" which fund is hereby established. The state treasurer shall semi-annually, on the last days of June and December, transfer one half of the amount then in said fund to the general fund, and shall transfer one half of the amount then in said fund to the state school land fund.

Certain funds not affected.

SEC. 4. This act shall not be construed as affecting the method of investing the state school land fund, the estates of deceased persons fund, the dissolved savings bank fund, or the sinking funds under the control of the state treasurer, and the laws relating thereto shall remain in full force and effect.

CHAPTER 302.

An act to amend section five hundred and ninety-eight of the Civil Code, relating to the selling, mortgaging, aliening, encumbering or granting of the real property of religious, social and benevolent corporations.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five hundred and ninety-eight of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

598. Before selling, mortgaging, aliening, encumbering or granting its real property, or any part thereof, except a burial plot situated in grounds dedicated to burial purposes, a corporation organized under this title must first make it appear that the same is for its interest to the satisfaction of the superior court of the county wherein said real property is situated. To this end said corporation shall file with the clerk of said court a verified petition, describing the property affected, showing that the selling, mortgaging, aliening, encumbering, or granting of said property is for its interest, and praying that leave therefor be granted. Thereupon the court shall make an order reciting that said leave has been prayed for, describing the property affected, and fixing a time and place for the hearing of the petition. Thereafter copies of said order shall be kept posted conspicuously for a period of ten days at the following places: (1) on the real property affected; (2) at the place where the court is held; (3) at any other public place in said county where the said court shall direct. At the time set for the hearing the court must require proof that said notice has been faithfully given; and any member may appear and oppose or support the granting of the leave. If satisfied that it is for the interest of said corporation, said court shall thereupon grant said leave, and may authorize the said corporation to sell and convey its said property and to incur indebtedness and secure the same by deed of trust or mortgage upon its said real property; provided, however, that any such corporation shall have the power by resolution, entered upon the minutes of such corporation, to grant easements to municipal or other public corporations for public street, alley or highway purposes and rights of way for publicly owned utilities and public uses, upon the approval of the superior court of the county wherein the real property of such corporation is situated, obtained in the same manner as herein provided for the selling, mortgaging, aliening or encumbering of its said property.

CHAPTER 304.

An act to amend section one thousand three hundred and sixty-six of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the order of persons entitled to administer.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand three hundred and sixty-six of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows: Persons entitled to administer 1366. Of several persons claiming and equally entitled to administer, relatives of the whole blood must be preferred to those of the half blood.

CHAPTER 305.

An act to amend section seven hundred and fifty-two of the Political Code, relating to the fees to be collected by the clerk of the supreme court.

[Approved June 10, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 752 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

752. The clerk of the supreme court must collect in advance the following fees: For filing the transcript on appeal, in each civil case appealed to the supreme court, ten dollars, in full of all services rendered in each case up to the rendering of the judgment or the issuing of the remittitur, when no petition for a rehearing has been filed; for filing a petition for a rehearing, and for all services to the issuing of remittitur to the court below, two dollars and fifty cents; for filing motion to dismiss appeal on clerk's certificate, two dollars and fifty cents; for filing petitions for writs of mandate, review, prohibition, and other original proceedings, seven dollars and fifty cents, in full for all services rendered in each case; for filing order extending time to file transcript, fifty cents; for certificate of admission as attorney and counselor, ten dollars; for filing each paper in writs of error to the supreme court of the United States, twenty-five cents; for making record in writs of error Fees collected by clerk of supreme court.

He shall administer oaths for verification of claims against the state without charge. For all other services not herein specified he must charge and collect the same fees as are prescribed by law for similar services by notaries public.

CHAPTER 306.

An act to amend sections one, two, three, four, six, eight and nine of an act entitled "An act requiring the recording of maps of subdivisions of land into lots for the purpose of sale, and prescribing the conditions on which such maps may be recorded and prohibiting the selling or offering for sale of land by reference to said maps unless the same are recorded," approved March 15, 1907, and repealing conflicting acts.

[Approved June 11, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act requiring the recording of maps of subdivisions of land into lots for the purpose of sale, and prescribing the conditions on which such maps may be recorded and prohibiting the selling or offering for sale of land by reference to said maps unless the same are recorded." approved March 15, 1907, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Whenever any tract or subdivision of land shall be laid out into lots for the purpose of sale, the owner or owners thereof shall cause to be made out and filed with the county recorder of the county in which the same is situated, an accurate map or plat thereof on cloth, drawn and attested to by a civil engineer or licensed surveyor from his own survey of the ground. Said engineer or surveyor shall, in making the surveys, leave sufficient permanent monuments so that another surveyor or engineer may retrace his work. The nature and location of these monuments shall be plainly shown on the map. The map shall also particularly set forth and describe:

First—All parcels of ground within such tract or subdivision used for public purposes or offered for dedication for public uses, whether they be intended for public highways, parks, courts, commons or other public uses, and their dimensions and boundaries and the courses of their boundary lines.

Map of subdivisions to be filed with county recorder.

Ground for public uses.

Second—All lots intended for sale, or reserved for private purposes and not offered for dedication to the public use, either by number or letter, and their dimensions and boundaries and the courses of their boundary lines. All parcels of land offered for dedication as public highways and not accepted by the proper authorities upon presentation to them, shall also be designated by number or letter. Lots for sale.

Third—The exact location of such tract or subdivision of land into lots with reference to adjacent subdivisions of land into lots, the maps or plats of which have been previously recorded, if any, or if none, then with reference to corners of a United States survey, or to some natural or artificial monument. Location of tract.

SEC. 2. Section two of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. Every such map or plat shall be on cloth and clearly and legibly drawn in all its details upon tracing cloth of good quality. The size of the sheets of drawing cloth must be 18 by 26 inches or 13 by 18 inches. Marginal lines must be drawn around the entire sheet, leaving a margin of one inch from the edges of the sheets, and the name, title, or other designation, and all drawings, affidavits, certificates, acknowledgments, indorsements, acceptances of dedication, and notarial seals must be within said marginal lines. The scale which the drawing is made must be large enough to show the details clearly, and two or more sheets must be used if one does not give sufficient room to accomplish this end. If more than one sheet is used, each sheet must be numbered, connections of one sheet to another clearly given and the number of the sheets used in the subdivision must be given in the affidavit. tract, subdivision, or any part thereof, is situate, and conditioned for the payment of all taxes which are at the time of filing thereof, a lien against any such tract, or subdivision, or any part thereof, but not yet payable. Upon every such map or plat which shows any parcels of land intended for public use and not previously dedicated therefor, there shall be indorsed a statement of the dedication of such parcels of ground intended for public use, executed by the owner or owners, and by all other persons whose consent is necessary to pass a clear title to such parcels of ground to the public, and acknowledged by all persons executing the same in the same manner as conveyances of real property.

SEC. 4. Section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. The map or plat so made, indorsed and acknowledged shall be submitted to the governing body of the city, city and county, or county having control of public highways in the territory shown on such map or plat, for the approval of such governing body, before such map or plat is filed for record in the recorder's office. Such governing body, after examination duly made, shall approve or disapprove such map or plat within thirty days after the same is submitted to it as above provided. If approved, the governing body shall indorse, or cause to be indorsed, on said map or plat its approval of the same. Without such approval the said map or plat shall not be filed for record or be recorded. Such governing body may require the public highways, if any, offered for dedication by said map or plat and the parcel or parcels of land, if any, therein reserved or indicated for highway or right of way purposes, and not offered for dedication to public use, to be as wide as and to conform, as near as practicable, to the adjoining, surrounding or neighboring streets or highways of said city, city and county, or county. If such map or plat offer for dedication any highways said governing body shall indorse thereon which of the highways so offered for dedication are accepted on behalf of the public, and thereupon such highways which have been so accepted, and no others, shall be and become dedicated to the public use.

SEC. 5. Section six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6. No map or plat referred to in this act shall be accepted by the county recorder for filing or recording, unless the same shall in all respects comply with the provisions of this act, and the recorder shall be entitled, before accepting or refusing such map or plat, to sufficient time to enable him to examine the same.

SEC. 6. Section eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8. No person shall sell or offer for sale any lot or parcel of land, by reference to any map or plat, unless such map or plat has been made, certified, indorsed, acknowledged and filed in all respects as provided in this act, or was filed or recorded prior to the taking effect of this act and in accordance with the laws in force at the time it was so filed or recorded, and no person shall sell or offer for sale any lot or parcel of land by reference to any map or plat other than such recorded map or plat or true and correct copy thereof.

SEC. 7. Section nine of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 9. Every person who violates any of the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and the recordation of any map or plat which is not executed and approved as herein required shall be null and void; provided, however, that any owner or owners of any such tract or subdivision, who prior to the taking effect of this act caused to be prepared proper maps or plats thereof in conformity with the provisions of the act mentioned in section one hereof, and thereafter, through inadvertence or excusable neglect, failed to record the same prior to conveying lots shown thereon, may, within one year after this act takes effect, petition the superior court of the county wherein such land is situate for an order permitting such map or plat to be filed and recorded as in said act provided; and the court may, upon the hearing of such petition, if satisfied that good cause exists therefor, make such order. A copy of the petition shall be served upon the county recorder at least ten days prior to such hearing, and a certified copy of such order, if any be made, shall be filed with the map. Penalty.
Owners failing to file map may petition court for permission to file.

SEC. 8. An act entitled, "An act requiring the recording of maps of cities, towns, additions to cities or towns, or subdivisions of land into small lots or tracts for the purpose of sale, and providing a penalty for the selling or offering for sale any lots or tracts in cities, towns, additions to cities, towns, subdivisions, or additions thereto, before such maps are filed and recorded," approved March 9, 1893, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed. Repealed.

CHAPTER 307.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the management and control of the state agricultural society by the state," approved April 15th, 1880.

[Approved June 11, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five of an act entitled "An act to provide for the management and control of the state agricultural society by the state," approved April 15, 1880, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Powers of state board of agriculture.

Section 5. The state board of agriculture shall be charged with the exclusive management and control of the state agricultural society as a state institution; shall have possession and care of its property, and be intrusted with the direction of its entire business and financial affairs. They shall define the duties of the secretary and treasurer, fix their bonds and compensation, and shall have power to make all necessary changes in the constitution and rules of the society; to adapt the same to the provisions of this act, and to the management of the society, its meetings, and exhibitions. They shall provide for an annual fair or exhibition by the society of all the industries and industrial products of the state, at the city of Sacramento; provided, that in no event shall the state be liable for any premium awarded or debt created by said board of agriculture; provided, further, that the collections and receipts from other sources than state appropriations shall be reported monthly by the secretary to the controller of state and shall be paid into the state treasury. Such receipts shall be credited to the state agricultural society contingent fund, which is hereby created, and shall be for the use of the society.

Receipts.

CHAPTER 308.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to insure the better education of practitioners of veterinary medicine, and to regulate the practice of veterinary medicine in the State of California, to provide for the creation of a board of five members who shall act under and in accordance with the provisions of this act; to provide for their appointment, and define their powers, duties and compensation; to define offenses committed by acts done contrary to the provisions of this act, and providing penalties for the violation thereof; providing for the revocation or suspension, in certain cases, of licenses issued hereunder, and to repeal an act entitled 'An act to regulate the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery in the State of California,' approved March 23, 1893, amended and approved March 20, 1903, and all other laws in conflict herewith," approved March 23, 1907, by adding thereto a new section, to be numbered thirteen, relating to the collection of fees.

[Approved June 11, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to insure the better education of practitioners of veterinary medicine, and to regulate the practice of veterinary medicine in the State of California, to provide for the creation of a board of five members who shall act under and in accordance with the provisions of this act; to provide for their appointment, and define their powers, duties and compensation; to define offenses committed by acts done contrary to the provisions of this act, and providing penalties for the violation thereof; providing for the revocation or suspension, in certain cases, of licenses issued hereunder, and to repeal an act entitled 'An act to regulate the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery in the State of California,' approved March 23, 1893, amended and approved March 20, 1903, and all other laws in conflict herewith," approved March 23, 1907, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered thirteen and to read as follows:

SEC. 13. All fees collected under section three of this act and all other fees, collections and receipts of all kinds coming into the possession of the board of examiners in veterinary medicine shall be reported, at the beginning of each month, for the preceding month, to the controller of state, and at the same time the entire amount of such collections shall be paid into the state treasury and shall be credited to a fund to be known as the contingent fund of the board of examiners in veterinary medicine. All salaries and expenses of every kind incurred by the board of examiners in veterinary medicine shall be paid out of said contingent fund upon claims to be presented and audited in the usual manner.

Section 14. Before any person can practice dentistry in this state, he shall obtain a license to do so from the board of dental examiners. Each application shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, which shall in no case be refunded. Such license shall be good until the following first day of May when it shall expire by limitation. An annual license fee of two ($2.00) dollars shall thereafter be paid annually by every person practicing dentistry in this state, and it shall be the duty of said board to issue to all regularly licensed dentists upon application and the payment of $2.00, if made before the expiration of the applicant's license, a new license which shall entitle said person to practice dentistry in this state for a period of one year, and which license shall expire upon the following first day of May. Said board shall have no authority to issue an annual license to any person who is not a regularly licensed dentist, and who has not paid such license fee of $2.00 on or before the date when his previous license expired. Every person who was a regularly licensed dentist and who failed to pay said annual license of $2.00 before the expiration of his license, shall be considered as if no license had ever been issued to him, and before he can again practice dentistry in this state, shall make a new application therefor as in the first instance and pay the regular fee of $25.00 therefor, except that he shall not be required to submit to any examination. All renewal fees collected under the provisions of this section, or an amount equal to the total of such collections, shall be used exclusively for the prosecution of violators of this act and for expenses of collecting said fees. It shall be the duty of the secretary of this board to report to the state controller on or before the tenth day of each month all fees, fines, licenses and other collections received during the preceding month and at the same time to pay the entire amount of such receipts into the state treasury. Such receipts shall be placed to the credit of the state board of dental examiners contingent fund, which is hereby created. All salaries and all expenses necessarily incurred by the board in the transaction of its business and in the enforcement of the law shall be paid out of such contingent fund upon claims to be presented and audited in the manner usual with other claims against the state.

CHAPTER 310.

An act conveying to the city of Vallejo certain tide lands and lands of the State of California lying under inland navigable waters within the boundaries of the said city, situate in the Napa creek, the Mare island straits and the straits of Carquinez, including the right to wharf out therefrom to the city of Vallejo, in furtherance of navigation and commerce and the fisheries, and providing for the government, management and control thereof.

[Approved June 11, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

WHEREAS, Since the admission of California into the Union, all tide lands along navigable waters of this state and all lands lying beneath the navigable waters of the state have been and now are held in trust by the state for the benefit of all the inhabitants thereof for the purposes of navigation, commerce and fishing; and Tide lands held in trust.

WHEREAS, It is the duty of the state to govern, administer and control such lands and to improve and develop navigation, commerce and fishing thereon and thereover; and

WHEREAS, The state has not the general power of alienation of such lands but may, when the interests of commerce, navigation and fishing require it, convey to municipalities limited and defined areas of such lands with the power to govern, control, improve and develop the same in the interests of all the inhabitants of the state; and State may not alienate.

WHEREAS, The conveyance to the city of Vallejo of the lands hereinafter described, together with the right to govern, control, improve and develop the same will result in great advantage and benefit to all the inhabitants of the state, it is provided:

Conveyance to city of Vallejo.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted and conveyed to the city of Vallejo, a municipal corporation, in the county of Solano, State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty in and to all the tide lands and lands lying under inland navigable waters within the boundaries of the present city of Vallejo, situate in the Napa creek, the Mare Island straits and the Straits of Carquinez, lying and being between the line of mean high tide and the pier head line in said straits, as the same has been or may hereafter be established by the federal government, and the right to wharf out therefrom to the city of Vallejo, to be forever held by said city and by its successors in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the expressed conditions following to wit: That said lands shall be used by said city and its successors, only for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon, for limited periods, for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods, for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California, and with the requirements of commerce and navigation at said harbor, for a term not exceeding twenty-five years, and on such other terms and conditions as said city may determine, including a right to renew such lease or leases for a further term not exceeding twenty-five years or to terminate the same on such terms, reservations and conditions as may be stipulated in such lease or leases, and said lease or leases may be for any and all purposes which shall not interfere with navigation or commerce, with revision to the said city on the termination of said lease or leases of any and all improvements thereon, and on such other terms and conditions as the said city may determine, but for no purpose which will interfere with navigation or commerce; subject also to a reservation in all such leases or such wharfing out privileges of a street, or of such other reservation as the said city may determine for a belt line railroad or other railroad where the same may be deemed necessary by the said city; and such other reservations as the city may require, and for sewer outlets, and for gas and oil mains and water mains, and for hydrants, and for electric cables and wires, and for such other conduits for municipal purposes, and for such public and municipal purposes and uses as may be deemed necessary by the said city; provided, however, that each person, firm or corporation or their heirs, successors or assigns now in possession of land or lands within the boundaries of the said city of Vallejo as hereinbefore firstly described, situate in the Napa creek, the Marc Island straits and the Straits of Carquinez, and lying and being between the line of mean high tide and the pier head line in said straits, as the same has been or may hereafter be established by the federal government, shall have a right to obtain a lease for a term of twenty-five years from said city of said land and wharfing out privileges therefrom with a right of renewal for a further term of twenty-five years pursuant to the provisions of this act and on such terms and conditions as said city may determine and specify, and said renewed lease may be terminated at any time by mutual agreement of the city and the lessee, on such just and reasonable terms for compensation for improvements as may be mutually agreed upon. Upon obtaining such lease and wharfing out privileges such person, firm or corporation, their heirs or assigns, shall quitclaim to said city any right they or any of them may claim or have to the said lands hereby granted. This grant shall carry the right to such city of the rents, issues and profits in any manner hereafter arising from the lands or wharfing out privileges hereby granted. The State of California shall have at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands or any part thereof, for any vessel or other watercraft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California. No discrimination in rates, tolls or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or its successors in the management, conduct or operation of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in this section. There is hereby reserved in the people of the State of California the right to fish in the waters on which said lands may front with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose.

Profits to city.

No discrimination in rates.

Right to fish reserved.

SEC. 2. The foregoing conveyance is made upon the condition that the city of Vallejo shall, within five years from the approval of this act, exclusive of such time as said city may be restrained from so doing by injunction issued out of any court of this state or of the United States, and exclusive of such further delay as may be caused by unavoidable misfortune or great public or municipal calamity, cause to be expended for harbor improvement purposes an amount not less than twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars. If said harbor improvement work be not done and if said amount be not expended for harbor improvement as herein provided, then the lands by this act conveyed to the city of Vallejo shall revert to the State of California.

Conveyance made on condition that harbor be improved.

CHAPTER 311.

An act to provide for the consolidation of municipal corporations.

[Approved June 11, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Municipal corporations situated in the same county may be consolidated in accordance with proceedings had and taken under the provisions of this act. Whenever municipal corporations are proposed to be consolidated under the provisions of this act, the one of such municipal corporations which has the greatest population as shown by the last federal census, or, in the event that any of said municipal corporations shall have been incorporated subsequent to the taking of the last federal census, the one of such municipal corporations which has the largest number of electors, as shown by the registration of electors of the county in which such municipal corporations are situated, shall, for the purpose of this act, be deemed to have the greatest population.

Consolidation of municipal corporations.

Petition.

SEC. 2. Whenever a petition, signed by not less than one-fourth in number of the qualified electors of any municipal corporation, as shown by the registration of electors of the county in which such municipal corporation is situated, is filed with the legislative body thereof, asking that such municipal corporation and any other municipal corporation contiguous thereto, designated in such petition, and having a greater population, be consolidated, such legislative body must, without delay call a special election and submit to the electors of such municipal corporation the question whether such municipal corporations shall be consolidated. Such legislative body shall cause notice to be given of such election by the publication of a notice thereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, if any such there be, printed and published in such municipal corporation so proposed to be consolidated with such other municipal corporation. at least once a week for a period of four successive weeks next preceding the date of such election. If there be no such newspaper, then such legislative body shall cause notice of such election to be given by the publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the county in which such municipal corporation is situated, and by posting such notice in three public places in such municipal corporation, at least four weeks prior to such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted, the names of the municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated, and the date of such election, which date shall be within twenty days after the expiration of the publication of such notice. Such notice shall direct the electors to vote upon the question of such proposed consolidation in the manner hereinafter provided. Such legislative body is hereby empowered to, and it shall be its duty, to establish, and in such notice to designate, the voting precinct or precincts and the place or places at which the polls will be open for such election, which place or places shall be that or those commonly used as voting places in the municipal corporation in which such election is held, if any such there be. The legislative body of such municipal corporation is hereby empowered to, and it shall appoint the officers of such election, who shall be, for each voting place, two judges and one inspector, each of whom shall be a qualified elector of the voting precinct in which he or she is appointed to act as an officer of such election. Upon the ballot to be used at such election, there shall be printed the words, "Shall the cities of (giving names of municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated) be consolidated?" And opposite such proposition to be voted upon, and to the right thereof, the words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed on separate lines, with voting squares. If an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "Yes" the vote of such elector shall be counted in favor of such consolidation; and if an elector shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the printed word "No," the vote of such elector shall be counted against such consolidation. The ballots used at such election, the opening and closing of the polls, and the holding and conducting of such election, shall be in conformity, as near as may be, with the general laws of this state concerning municipal elections, except as herein otherwise provided. The judges and inspector of such election for each polling place shall, immediately on the closing of the polls, count the ballots, make up, certify and seal the ballots and tally sheets of the ballots cast at their respective polling places, doing so, as nearly as practicable, in the manner provided in the laws of this state relating to general elections, and they shall thereupon deliver the ballots, tally sheets, and returns to, and deposit the same with the clerk of the legislative body of the municipal corporation in which such election was held. Such legislative body shall, at the time provided for its regular meeting next after the expiration of three days from and after the date of said election, meet and proceed to canvass said returns; and such canvass shall be completed at such meeting, if practicable, and in any event, as soon as practicable, avoiding adjournment or adjournments, until said canvass is completed. Immediately upon the completion of such canvass, said legislative body shall declare the result of such election and shall cause a record thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes, stating the proposition submitted, and showing the whole number of votes cast thereon in such municipal corporation, the number of votes cast therein in favor of consolidation, and the number of votes cast therein against consolidation.

SEC. 3. If it shall appear from the canvass of the returns of the election mentioned in section two of this act, that a majority of all the votes cast in the municipal corporation in which such election was held, upon the question of consolidation submitted at such election, are in favor of such consolidation, the clerk of the legislative body of such municipal corporation, shall forthwith make, under the seal thereof, and deliver to the clerk of the legislative body of the other of the municipal corporations proposed to be so consolidated, to wit, the municipal corporation having the greater population, a copy in duplicate of the record of such canvass, together with a statement of the proposition submitted at such election. The clerk of the legislative body of such municipal corporation so having the greatest population shall present one such copy of said record and said statement to such legislative body without delay, and retain the other to be filed as hereinafter provided. Upon receiving the copy of such record so presented such legislative body must then submit to the electors of such other of the municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated and having the greatest population, the question whether such consolidation shall be effected. Such question may be so submitted at the next general municipal election to be held in such municipal corporation, or it may be so submitted prior to such general election, either at a special election called therein for that purpose, or at any other special municipal election therein, except an election at which the submission of such question is prohibited by law. Whenever such question is submitted at any election in such municipal corporation, such question shall be stated in the notice of such election and on the ballots to be used at such election, and the electors shall vote thereon, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of the election mentioned in section two of this act. And whenever such question is submitted at any such municipal election, general or special, as provided in this section, it shall be submitted and voted upon as other questions are required by law to be submitted and voted upon at such elections, except in particulars otherwise in this act set forth; and the laws applicable to and governing the time and manner of giving notice, conducting, holding, canvassing the returns, and declaring the result of any such election shall apply to and govern the submission of such question to the electors of such municipal corporation at any such election.

result.

SEC. 4. Immediately upon the completion of the canvass of the returns of any election in the municipal corporation having the greater population of two municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated, at which the question of such consolidation was submitted, as provided in section three of this act, the legislative body of such municipal corporation having the greater population shall declare the result of such election, and shall cause a record to be made and entered upon its minutes, stating the proposition submitted, and showing the total number of votes cast in such municipal corporation upon the question of such consolidation at such election, the number thereof cast in favor of consolidation, and the number thereof cast against consolidation. If it shall appear from the canvass of the returns of such election, that a majority of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation, voting on the question of such consolidation, are in favor thereof, the clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk of the legislative body of such municipal corporation shall promptly make and certify, under the seal thereof, and transmit to the secretary of state, a copy of the record of the canvass of the returns of the election in such municipal corporation having the greater population, at which the question of such consolidation was submitted, and entered upon its minutes as aforesaid, and one copy thereof delivered to him as aforesaid, of the record of the canvass of the returns of the election in the other of the municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated, together with a statement showing the date of each such election in each such municipal corporation, and the time and the result of the canvass of the returns of each such election. Said document shall be filed in his office by the secretary of state immediately upon receipt thereof. Upon the filing of said document in the office of secretary of state, such consolidation shall be deemed to be complete and such municipal corporations shall be deemed to be consolidated, and the one of such municipal corporations not having the greatest population, shall be deemed to be, and shall be, annexed and joined to and merged into the one of said municipal corporations having the greatest population.

SEC. 5. Whenever any two municipal corporations are proposed to be consolidated, under the provisions of this act, and the one of such municipal corporations having the greatest population shall have theretofore incurred, or authorized the incurring of, any bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement or improvements, the petition provided for in section two of this act may contain a request that the question to be submitted to the electors of the municipal corporation whose legislative body receives such petition shall be, whether such municipal corporations shall be consolidated, as hereinbefore in this act provided, and the property in the municipal corporation not having the greatest population, shall after such consolidation, be subject to taxation, equally with the property in such other municipal corporation designated in such petition and having the greatest population, to pay any such bonded indebtedness to be specified in said petition, of such other municipal corporation, outstanding at the date of such consolidation, or theretofore authorized. If such request be made in such petition, proceedings shall be had thereon and the question of such consolidation shall be submitted to the electors in such municipal corporation not having the greatest population, the same in all respects as upon a petition presented under the provisions of section two, excepting that the notice of election shall, in addition to the matters required by said section, distinctly state that it is proposed that the property in such municipal corporation not having the greatest population shall be taxed to pay such bonded indebtedness of such other municipal corporation having the greater population so outstanding or authorized at the date of such consolidation, equally with the property within such other municipal corporation. The said notice shall, in addition, distinctly specify the improvement or improvements for which such indebtedness was so incurred or authorized, and state the amount or amounts of such indebtedness already incurred, outstanding at the date of the first publication of such notice, and the amount or amounts of such indebtedness theretofore authorized, and to be represented by bonds thereafter to be issued, and the maximum rate of interest payable, or to be payable on such indebtedness.

Question of taxation to pay bonded indebtedness.

Notice to specify improvements.

The returns of such election held in pursuance of such notice shall be canvassed, as provided in section two of this act, by the legislative body of the municipal corporation in which such election was held, and immediately upon the completion of such canvass, such legislative body shall declare the result of such election and shall cause a record of such canvass to be made and entered upon its minutes, as provided in said section two, and there shall be included in such record a statement of such bonded indebtedness of the one of the municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated having the greater population incurred and outstanding, or authorized, as set forth in the notice of such election, for the payment of which the property in the municipal corporation in which such election was held, shall be subject to taxation as set forth in the notice of such election. If it shall appear from such canvass that two thirds of all votes cast at such election upon the question of such consolidation, are in favor thereof, the clerk of such legislative body in which such election was held shall forthwith deliver a copy in duplicate of such record and statement to the clerk of the legislative body of the other of the municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated, and having the greatest population. Thereupon the question of such consolidation shall be submitted to the electors of such other municipal corporation at an election therein, and in the same manner in all respects as provided in section three of this act. And upon the canvass of the returns of such election, if it shall appear therefrom, that a majority of the votes cast at such election in such other municipal corporation having the greater population, upon the question of such consolidation, are in favor thereof, the same proceeding shall be had as provided in section four of this act, and such consolidation shall be deemed to be, and shall be, completed in the same manner, and with the same effect as in said section provided. After the completion of the consolidation of such municipal corporations, as hereinbefore provided, the property in the one of such municipal corporations so consolidated, not having the greater population, shall thereafter be taxed equally with the property in the one of such municipal corporations having the greater population and that originally incurred, or authorized the incurring of the bonded indebtedness specified in the petition for such consolidation.

SEC. 6. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent the submission to the electors of any municipal corporation having a greater population than either of the other municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated therewith, as separate propositions to be voted upon separately at one and the same election in the municipal corporation so having the greater population, of the questions of the consolidation therewith of two or more such other municipal corporations, each of which is contiguous to such municipal corporation having the greatest population. Whenever, upon proceedings had and taken, and at elections called and held in accordance with the provisions of this act, the electors of each of two or more such other municipal corporations have voted in favor of the consolidation thereof with the same municipal corporation, having the greatest population, the legislative body of such municipal corporation must submit to the electors thereof, as separate propositions, each to be voted upon separately and without regard to any of the others, the question whether each such other municipal corporation shall be consolidated with such municipal corporation so having the greatest population. Such questions may be so submitted at the next general municipal election to be held in such municipal corporation, or they may be so submitted prior to such general election, either at a special election called therein for that purpose, or at any other special election therein, except an election at which the submission of such questions is prohibited by law. The notice of such election shall state, as separate propositions to be submitted at such election, the question of the consolidation of each such other municipal corporation, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of the notice of an election in such municipal corporation at which the question of the consolidation of only one other municipal corporation therewith is submitted; and the question, as to each such other municipal corporation, shall be printed upon the ballots to be used at such election and the same shall be voted upon, separately, in like manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of the submission of the question of the consolidation therewith of one such other municipal corporation. The provisions of this act shall apply to the holding and conducting of such election in all respects the same as in the case of an election when only one such question is submitted; provided, however, that the consolidation of such municipal corporation having the greatest population and any other municipal corporation or corporations, upon the question or questions of which consolidation a majority of votes cast thereon at such election shall have been cast in favor thereof, shall not be affected or prejudiced in any manner, in the event that a majority of the votes cast at such election upon the question or questions of the consolidation of such municipal corporation having the greatest population and any other municipal corporation or corporations shall have been cast against such consolidation. If it shall appear from a canvass of the returns of such election, that a majority of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation having the greatest population, voting separately upon the question of the consolidation of the same and any one or more other municipal corporations are in favor thereof, the clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk of the legislative body of such municipal corporation having the greatest population shall promptly make and certify, under the seal thereof, and transmit to the secretary of state, a copy of the record of the canvass of the returns of the election in such municipal corporation having the greatest population at which the questions of such consolidations were submitted, and entered upon its minutes as aforesaid, and one of the copies, delivered to him as aforesaid, of the record of the canvass of the returns in each of the other municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated, together with a statement showing the date of the elections in such municipal corporations and in each such other municipal corporation proposed to be consolidated therewith, and the time and result of the canvass of the returns of such elections; provided, however, that the aforesaid record and statement as to any number of such consolidations may be included in one document. Upon the filing of said document in the office of the secretary of state, each such consolidation shall be deemed to be, and shall be complete, and each municipal corporation so consolidated with the municipal corporation having the greatest population, shall be deemed to be, and shall be consolidated with, annexed and joined to and merged into the one of such municipal corporations having the greatest population.

SEC. 7. Whenever a petition for the consolidation of any two municipal corporations has been received by the legislative body of one of them as in section two of this act provided, no other petition asking for the consolidation of the municipal corporation, whose legislative body received such petition, to any other municipal corporation shall be presented to the legislative body of such municipal corporation, and such legislative body shall not submit the question of the consolidation of such municipal corporation to any other municipal corporation, until the question of the consolidation of the municipal corporation whose legislative body received the petition first in this section mentioned shall have been submitted to the electors residing therein, and a majority of electors voting upon such question in such municipal corporation, shall have voted against such consolidation; or, in the event that a majority of the electors of such municipal corporation shall have voted in favor of such consolidation, until the question of such consolidation shall have been submitted to the electors of the one of such municipal corporations having the greater population and a majority of the electors of such last mentioned municipal corporation voting upon such question, shall have voted against such consolidation.

SEC. 8. Upon the completion of the consolidation, under the provisions of this act, of one or more municipal corporations with another municipal corporation having a greater population than any of the municipal corporations so consolidated therewith, each such municipal corporation so consolidated, other than the municipal corporation having the greatest population shall ipso facto be deemed to be and shall be dissolved and disincorporated, and any freeholders' charter thereof shall be deemed to be, and shall be surrendered and annulled. In the event that the one of any municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act, having the greatest population, is governed under a freeholders' charter framed and adopted under the authority of the constitution of this state, and the other municipal corporation or corporations so consolidated therewith, shall be deemed to be, and shall be merged therein and shall be thereafter governed in the name of, and under the freeholders' charter of, and as a part of, such municipal corporation having the largest population; and in the event that the one of any municipal corporations, consolidated under the provisions of this act, having the greatest population, shall be incorporated and organized as a municipal corporation under the general laws of the state providing for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations, the other municipal corporation or corporations so consolidated therewith shall be deemed to be, and shall be, merged therein and shall be thereafter governed in the name of, and as a part of the municipal corporation having the greatest population, which shall continue as a municipal corporation of the class, under such laws, to which such municipal corporation so having such greatest population belonged at the time of such consolidation; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any such consolidated municipal corporation, so governed under a freeholders' charter from framing and adopting a new charter, after such consolidation, or to prevent any such consolidated municipal corporation so governed as a municipal corporation under said general laws, from changing its class under such laws or from framing or adopting a freeholders' charter for its government, after such consolidation.

SEC. 9. Whenever municipal corporations are consolidated under the provisions of this act, the one of such municipal corporations having the greatest population shall be deemed and taken to be, and shall be the successor of each of the other municipal corporations consolidated therewith; and the title to any property owned or held by each such other municipal corporation, or in trust therefor, or by any officer or board thereof, in trust or otherwise for public use, shall upon such consolidation being completed, as hereinbefore provided, ipso facto be vested in the one of such municipal corporations so consolidated having the greatest population, or in such officer or board thereof as has the power to hold, or control, such property under the freeholders' charter or other law under which the one of such municipal corporations so consolidated having the greatest population was theretofore governed. Upon the completion of such consolidation, all persons then occupying or possessing the several offices of, or under the government of, each of the several municipal corporations so consolidated, other than that of the municipal corporation having the greatest population, shall immediately quit and surrender the occupancy or possession of such offices, which shall thereupon cease and terminate, and they shall severally forthwith deliver all moneys, funds, books, papers, archives and records in their custody, and all other property of such municipal corporations respectively, in their hands, or under their control, to the proper officers of such municipal corporation so consolidated having the greatest population.

debt, demand, liability or obligation of any kind may be involved, or any action or proceeding brought by or against any such municipal corporation prior to such consolidation; but all such proceedings shall be continued and concluded, by final judgment or otherwise, in all respects the same as if such consolidation had not been effected. All ordinances of any municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act, except those of the one having the greater or greatest population, shall immediately, upon such consolidation being effected, be deemed to be repealed and of no further force and effect; provided, however, that such repeal shall not operate to discharge any person, from any liability, civil or criminal, then existing, nor to affect any prosecution then pending for any violation of any such ordinances; and all cases then pending in any justices' court, police court or court of any recorder, or other judicial municipal magistrate or officer of any of the municipal corporations so consolidated, except of the one having the greater or greatest population, shall, upon such consolidation being effected, ipso facto be deemed to be and be transferred to the justices' court, police court or court of any recorder, or other judicial municipal magistrate or officer of the one of such municipal corporations having the greater or greatest population which has jurisdiction of proceedings or misdemeanors or of other actions civil or criminal of the character so transferred; provided, further, that such repeal shall not apply to ordinances under which vested rights have accrued, or to ordinances relating to proceedings for street or other public improvements, or to proceedings for opening, extending, widening or straightening streets or other public places, or to proceedings for changing the grade thereof, all of which proceedings shall be continued and conducted by and under the authority of the municipal corporation so consolidated having the greater or greatest population, with the same force and effect as if continued and conducted by and under the authority of the municipal corporation by which they were commenced. And all ordinances of the one of the municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act having the greater or greatest population, shall, upon the completion of such consolidation, ipso facto have full force and effect in and throughout the consolidated municipal corporations.

SEC. 11. That no property in any of the municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of any of the other such municipal corporations, contracted or incurred prior to or existing at the time of such consolidation, unless the proceedings for such consolidation shall have been had in accordance with the provisions of section five of this act, in which event the property in such municipal corporations shall be taxed as provided in said section. The legislative body of the one of the municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act, having the greater or greatest population, shall provide for the payment of the indebtedness or liability of each of the other municipal corporations consolidated therewith, and shall levy and collect the necessary taxes therefor, and for that purpose, and for all other purposes, such greater or greatest in population of any municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act, and its officers, shall be deemed the successor and successors of such other municipal corporations so consolidated therewith and their respective officers.

SEC. 12. In the event that the greater or greatest in population of any municipal corporations, consolidated under the provisions of this act, shall be operating under a freeholders' charter, which charter shall at any time provide that a borough or boroughs may be established in any territory, or incorporated city or town, annexed to or joined to or consolidated with such municipal corporation, nothing in this act contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent any other municipal corporation, or any portion thereof so consolidated with the municipal corporation so operating under such freeholders' charter, from becoming a borough under such freeholders' charter, to be established and governed as therein provided.

Borough government.

SEC. 13. All proper expenses of proceedings for the consolidation of municipal corporations under this act, shall, if such consolidation be made and completed, be paid by the consolidated municipal corporation; and if such consolidation be not completed, each municipal corporation shall pay the expenses of calling and holding any election within such corporation at which the question of such consolidation was submitted.

Expenses of proceedings.

SEC. 14. This act shall in no wise affect an act entitled "An act to provide for the annexation of municipal corporations," approved March 11, 1899, or acts amendatory to said act, and this act shall not apply to proceedings had or taken thereunder, but is intended to and does provide an alternative method for the consolidation of municipal corporations. When any proceedings for the consolidation of municipal corporations are commenced under this act, the provisions of this act, and of such amendments thereof as may hereafter be adopted, and none other, shall apply to such proceedings. This act may be designated and referred to as the "Municipal Annexation Act of 1913."

CHAPTER 312.

An act to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory to municipal corporations, for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part thereof, and for the districting, government and municipal control of such annexed territory.

[Approved June 11, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The boundaries of any municipal corporation may be altered and new territory annexed thereto, incorporated and included therein, and made a part thereof, upon proceedings being had and taken as in this act provided.

City council to call election.

SEC. 2. The legislative body of any municipal corporation, upon receiving a written petition therefor, signed as herein-after provided, containing a description of the new territory proposed to be annexed to such municipal corporation, and asking that such territory be annexed thereto, must, without delay, call a special election, and submit to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such municipal corporation the question whether such territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in and made a part of such municipal corporation. Such petition shall be signed by not less than one fourth in number of the qualified electors residing within the territory described therein, as shown by the registration of voters of the county in which such territory is situated. Such legislative body is hereby empowered to, and it shall be its duty to cause notice to be given of such election by the publication of a notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation, if any such there be, printed and published outside of such municipal corporation, but in the county in which the territory so proposed to be annexed is situated, at least once a week for a period of four successive weeks next preceding the date of such election. If there be no such newspaper, then such legislative body shall cause notice of such election to be given by the posting thereof in three public places within the territory so proposed to be annexed at least four weeks next preceding the date of such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the date of such election, and the proposition to be submitted, to wit, that it is proposed to annex to, incorporate in, and make a part of such municipal corporation the territory sought to be annexed, specifically describing the boundaries thereof. In addition to said description, such territory shall also be designated in such notice by some appropriate name or other words of identification, by which such territory may be referred to and indicated upon the ballots to be used at any election at which the question of such annexation is submitted as in this act provided. The electors in such territory shall be directed by such notice to vote upon such question in the manner hereinafter set forth in this section. Such legislative body is hereby empowered, and it shall be its duty to establish, and in such notice of election to designate, the voting precinct or precincts and the place or places at which the polls will be open for such election in such territory so proposed to be annexed, which said place or places shall be that or those commonly used as voting places within such territory, if any such there be. The legislative body of such municipal corporation is empowered to, and it shall, appoint the officers of such election, who shall be, for each voting place in such territory, two judges and one inspector, each of whom shall be a qualified elector of the voting precinct in which he is appointed to act as an officer of such election. Upon the ballots to be used at such election, there
