My Business has been more favorable to day than before - My Sales have been 7 or 8 dollars, but not much gain. S. Smith has visited me several times and appears somewhat inquisitive to know my prices; tho' friendly - I have not charged one dollar yet, but taken several Dutchills - I left a bill of some articles that I wanted, ^{with} L. Loring - and mentioned that J. Thom expected to be down there soon, to whom I have spoken to fetch them. But please to forward them the first opportunity; as the time of his coming is rather indefinite - Please annex your retail price to each article -
