The Hagerstown Torch Light has issued an extra furnishing particulars of the truly deplorable conflagration, which proves to be full more scrious than anticipatid. The discress is represented to be harrowing beyond description; a great proportion of the cirizons were left with description; a great proportion of the cirizens were left with the bare apparel on their persons. Seventy-five buildings were consumed, embracing private dwellings, stores, tayerns, drug-shops, a banking house, and two printing offices. The fire originated in a cabinet maker's shop. The loss is roughly averaged at $300,000. The inhabitants are absolutely destitute.
