TO ASSIST AND DIRECT TRAVELERS.

A corps of uniformed attendants meet the trains of N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., on their arrival at Grand Central Terminal, New York, and South Station, Boston, whose duties are: to assist passengers with their hand baggage, to direct them to the Street Car Lines, to call Cabs for those who wish them, to assist feeble persons, and to render such other assistance as may be reasonably required. These men, however, will not do Porters' work or handle heavy baggage.

These attendants wear a gray uniform and a red cap. They are perfectly reliable, and any passenger who is unfamiliar with the surroundings of these stations may call on them for advice or aid, with confidence.

To the patrons of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., the service of these attendants is entirely FREE.

LOST AND FOUND ARTICLES.

Application for recovery of articles left in stations and on trains should be made to representatives of the Company, who will refer applicant to proper receiving depot.

Inquiry for articles lost in Parlor, Dining or Sleeping Cars should be addressed to the Supt. P. S. and D. Cars, Grand Central Terminal, New York.

Finders of articles may leave them with Ticket Agents or Trainmen, to be sent to receiving depot, awaiting claimant.

Any article not returned to owner in ninety days will be delivered to finder on application.
