AG 000.5 - B

SUBJECT: Statistical Report on Illegal Traffic in the 24th Infantry Division Z/R.

TO : Commanding General
I Corps
APO 301
Attention: AC of S, G-2

1. Reference: Ltr, this Headquarters, AG 000.5-B, Subj: Statistical Report on Illegal Traffic in the 24th Infantry Division Z/R. Dtd: 27 July 1949.

2. Attached in inclosures 1 - 11 hereto is a compilation of information on illegal Korean entry into and exodus from the 24th Infantry Division Z/R, i.e. Kyushu and adjacent small islands and Yamaguchi and Shimane Prefectures on Southern Honshu, during the period July - September 1949. This report was compiled from information available in the files of AC of S, G-2, this headquarters, based on reports from the Japanese Maritime bureau, Japanese Police, Military Government, Unit S-2's, CCD and CIC.

3. Inclosure 12 hereto is a compilation of information on all illegal entry or exodus within the 24th Infantry Division Z/R during the period July - September 1949 involving nationalities other than Korean. This includes Chinese, Formosan, Okinawan, Oshiman, etc. These figures are not extensive enough to indicate any definite trends and thus are not broken down in the same fashion as Korean figures. These figures are compiled from the same sources as indicated in par 2 above.

4. Due to the continued high incidence of such illegal traffic in Kyushu and the addition of Yamaguchi and Shimane Prefectures to the 24th Infantry Division Z/R, it is believed that this report will be of particular value to higher headquarters as a basis for future planning in the suppression of illegal entry and smuggling activity.

5. The current economic and political situation in China is expected to bring about a definite increase in Chinese illegal entry into the lightly patroled Western and Southern Prefectures of Kyushu during the year 1949.

6. This headquarters will continue to prepare quarterly illegal traffic reports during 1949.

8 October 1949

SUBJECT: Petition from Parents of Boy
Held for Illegal Entry

TO: Commanding General
Eighth Army, APO 343
ATTN: Civil Affairs Section

Enclosed is a petition from Mr. and Mrs. Ri, parents of a 17 year old Korean boy who is being held at Hario Deportation Center for illegal entry into Japan. The parents beg that he be allowed to rejoin them in their home Suita City, Osaka Prefecture. Osaka Civil Affairs officials concur in this request as does the Chief of the Osaka Prefectural Central Child Consultation Center.

a. Names

	Ri, Hei Sen, father	(36 years old)
	Ri, Girei, Mother	(37 years old)
	Ri, Wa Kin	(17 years old)	now held at Hario Deportation Center.
(daughter)	Ri, Haruko	(13 years old)
(son)	Ri, Arita	(11 years old)
(son)	Ri, Kintaro	(8 years old)

1 child dead, 2 not listed on birth certificate.

b. Ri, Wa Kin is the oldest son, born 16 November 1931, in Higashiyodogawa ward, Osaka City.

c. Address of parents: 2381 Suita City - Osaka Prefecture

d. Occupation: Ice Candy and Confection Factory owned and operated by the boy's father.

e. Statement of compassionate reason:

Ri, Wa Kin, attempted to make an illegal entry into Japan from Korea to return to his parents. He was arrested by Japanese plice at Izuhara, Tsushima, Nagasaki Prefecture 8 September 1949 and sent to Hario Deportation Center. His parents visited him there and talked with Lieutenant Grant, Commanding Officer there, who refferred them to Osaka Civil Affairs Team.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775013

Ltr., Hq Osaka Civ Aff Team subject: "Petition from Parents of Boy Held for Illegal Entry dtd 8 October 1949

The delay in time of submission of this appeal was caused by the parent's not knowing what to do or how to proceed prior to the interview with Lieutenant Grant in late September. Then the father waited to get official certificates from Suita City verifying the birth, school attendance of the boy into the 7th grade, legal residence of the family and legal departure to Korea with his grandfather in March 1946. He called at this office 5 October 1949 with the attached appeal and certificates.

In Korea, his grandfather's address was: - Zenra Nando Reigen Gun Sairamen Sohori 111 where the grandfather supported them by farming until his death some months ago. This left the boy alone and he finally embarked upon the course which led to his arrest by the police.

Ri, Wa Kin has lived all his life in Japan and reached the 7th grade in Japanese public schools. His parents and brothers and sister (his only close relatives) have their residence here -- the parents were married and have lived in Japan for thirty years. The father owns and manages an ice candy and confection factory which supports the family comfortably. They are very anxious to have their first born son with the family again where they can care for and educate him.

f. After investigation, the Chief of the Prefectural Central Child Consultation Center approved the request that Ri, Wa Kin, be permitted to return to his parents because it seems best for him to be with his parents. Osaka Civil Affairs Welfare Officer has interviewed the father, visited the home and studied the situation and concurs with the request.

PETITION

TO: Chief of Kagoshima Civil Affairs Team

PETITIONER: Haku-Rakuko, Date of birth: 12 December 1910
Permanent domicile: No. 4242, Kahoku-ri, Saishu-yu, Saishu-do, Zenranan-do, Korea
Present Address: No. 151, 4-chome, Higashi Momodani-cho, Ikuno-ku, Osaka City

Sir:

I came to Japan in December of 1927 and engaged in can making at No. 33, 2-chome, Sakae-cho, Osaka. In 1940, I turned my works to an iron-works, according to the government policy of industrial switch-over. In the meantime, I got a baby girl, Gyokujun, on October 2, 1932. She went to Sakae-machi Primary School and later to Sakai Girls Commerical School. In March of 1945, I lost both my home and two factories in a fire caused by the first air raid in Osaka. Therefore, I sent Gyokujun to my home village, Kahoku-ri, Saishu-yu, Saishu-do, Zenranan-do, Korea. There, she went to Koshu Girls High School under the care of her uncle and aunt. However, both the uncle and aunt died in January this year and having nobody to take care of her, she left there for Japan to join us. She landed at Sata, Kagoshima-Ken, but was arrested by Japanese Police. I am now running a iron-works at Kunikubo, Yoshiwara City, Shizuoka-Ken and a toy factory at Ikuno-Ken, Osaka City. I want to take her in my care, cure her chronic tymgranitis and send her to some school in Japan. I am very sorry that she made an illegal entry to this country. But she has no means to live in Korea. So, I humbly petition to have my daughter in my care, through your kind consideration of our circumstances.

TO: Chief of Kagoshima Civil Affairs Team

FROM: Yo Junhin, Date of birth: 2 June 1911

Permanent Domicile: 4243, Jihokuri, Saishu Yu, Saishu Do, Korea
Present Address: 151, 4 Chome, Higashimomotani Cho, Ikuno Ku, Osaka City

Husband: Haku Rakko

31 August 1949

I married Haku Kakko at 33, 2 Chome, Sakae Machi, Naniwa Ku, Osaka City in 1930 and gave birth to Haku Gyokujin, eldest daughter, on 2 December 1932. We sent her to the Sakae-machi Primary School (Naniwa Ku, Osaka City). After completing the same school course, she entered the Sakai Girls Commercial School. In March, 1945, our owned two works were reduced to ashes by air raid. For family reasons, we sent to my native land (Jihokuri, Saishu Yu, Saishu Do, Korea) Haku Gyokujun where was in the first grade of Sakai Girls Commercial School. She entered the Koshu Girls High School and was supplied with her school expenses by her grandparents. But both of them died in January 1949, so the supply for school expenses was cut off. I, receiving her letter to the effect that she was greatly troubled due to her helpless condition, wished to take her in and care for her and consulted with my husband about it. But he rejected it for the reason that it was impossible under the current situation. I worried about it. When my husband went to a works at Kunikubo, Yoshihara City, Shizuoka Ken on business around the middle of July, I left my house without his leave and went over to Tsushima Island, Nagasaki Ken. Haku Gyokujun reached Tsushima by ship on about 13 August. I went on board her ship and talked with her. The ship, however, began unexpectedly to run while I talked with her. She and I asked the seamen to let us off there. But they rejected it for the reason that it was dangerous. Thus, we landed on Sata, Kimotsuki Gun, Kagoshima Ken on about 15 August. But we were apprehended soon after by police and were examined. At that time, I showed my foreigner registration certificate and other available certificates to the detectives, so they told me that I should be released at once. But I was anxious about my daughter, so was detained with her at the Kagoshima police Station. But after that I got ill and now am in hospital. I appeal to you for our release upon consideration of the above special reason.

FROM: Haku, Gyokujun (Sakiko Mizuhara)

Permanent Domicile: 4243 Seido, Tohokuri, Saishu-yu, Saishu-Do
Present Address: 151, 4-chome, Higashi-Nomotani Cho, Ikuno Ku, Osaka City

Age: 18.

I was born at No. 33, 2-Chome, Sakae Machi, Naniwa Ku, Osaka City on 2 December 1932.

At the age of 8, I entered the Higashisakae Primary School in Osaka City. After completing the same school course, I entered the Sakai Girls Commercial School in Osaka Fu. But I was unavoidably sent to my grandfather in Korea while in school, because the air raid became serious. My father and mother remained in Osaka in order to adjust the works affairs.

With my granfather's permission, I entered the Zennan Girls Secondary School, Chol-Ra Nam Do, Korea and completed its fourth course. But I had no relation to turn to and no person took care of me in Korea.

Therefore, I couldn't but come to Japan reckoning on my parents' help. I went on board in Pu-San (I have not remembered of the date and time) and visited my uncle at Sata Mura, Kagoshima Ken. Although I was going to take a bus that day, storm prevented me from doing so. I was obliged to put up at Manyo Hotel. On the third day I was apprehended on the charge of stowing away at the hotel by two detectives of Hoshino District Police Station. The passage money was as much as ¥15,000.

Although I, born in Japan, was sent to Korea in the war time, I have become unable to come back to my parents in Japan on account of the termination of war and my sickness. If I cannot live with my parents in Japan, I who cannot make a living by myself in Korea shall be unable to help being reduced to beggary. But I don't like such a beggary.

I wish to live with my parents in Japan for the said reason.

During 1948, the grandparents died leaving no support for Kin Yuki. Therefore, at the first opportunity, she illegally entered Japan to rejoin her parents. The parents of Kin Yuki are legal residents of Japan.

NAME AND AGE: Yukiehi Kanda (Japan name) Yuki Kin (Korea name)
14 years

I was born at Morinomiya, Osaka City, on March 22, 1936 and had lived with my parents and brothers and sisters till the age of 10 since then. During the World War my parents sent me to my grandmother staying in Korea then, so that I could evade air raid, where I lived till she died in 1948.

There being no relative to bring me up in Korea, I thought I'd better go back home to Japan to live with parents again.

Taking the ship at Saisyu-do to go to Husan, where I got on board another ship to return to my dear ones under the condition that I get my parents to pay the charge for the passage for me as soon as I get to the capital of Japan. I can't tell when I left Husan, and when I landed on Oneshime of Kagoshima prefecture, I was arrested by the Japanese police on suspicion of committing smuggling.

Though I was born and brought up in Japan till I was asked to evacuate to Korea, I am not allowed to go back to Japan freely. If I were not allowed to live with my parents, brothers and sisters in Japan, I should be reduced to beggary in Korea where I can ask nobody for help for me.

I must settle in Japan but I'll leave it entirely to your discretion.

Kim, Yuki, 14, Second daughter of Kim, Shiyu
Permanent domicile: Ittori, Saishu-yu, Hoku-Saishu-gun, Saishu-do, Korea

The above-mentioned is my second daughter. She had been with me at Higashinari-Ku, Osaka until she was sent to the above-mentioned place for a temporary refuge from intensifying air-raid in May 1945. After the war's end, I wanted to call her back, but have failed until today. She has no relation down there to depend on, and what's worse, it is very dangerous to live there, as the circumstances are horribly insecure after the clash between the Government troops and rebellions. To escape the danger, she attempted secret entry into Japan but got arrested at Kagoshima by the police, who put her in its detention room. As I said, she has no protector at Saishu Island. If she is to be sent back, it means to her a death sentence. Of course, I know you must pay considérations to laws, but I beg your sympathetic steps to hand her over in my care.

FROM: Kin, Shiyu.
Permanent domicile: Ichitori, Saishuyu, Kitasaishudo, Korea.
Present Address: No. 270, 6-chome, Nippori-cho, Arakawa-ku, Tokyo.

Dear Sir:

I came to Japan in February 1928, settled at Morinomiya-cho, Higashinari-ku, Osaka-city, worked at steel manufactory, had been engaging in hardware business since 1936, had my second daughter Kin Yuki on March 22, 1935, who entered Morinomiya Elementary School. Our house and all other properties were burnt in the case of air-raid in March 1945 and we sent our second daughter Kin Yuki to her grandparents in Saishudo, my native country, after that I am engaging in sports goods manufacture in Tokyo.

Kin Yuki, our second daughter, was living with her grand-parents, but grandmother died on July 20, 1947 and grandfather also died in April 1949. As you know well, in Korea where she had no reliable acquaintance, the struggle between government forces and the rebels became more and more severe, by which buildings and houses were destroyed and burnt and the foodstuffs were very scarce.

She consulted with her acquaintance and left the native country because grandfather's house had also been burnt and she had no house to live in nor had food to eat, to say nothing of guarantee for future life, landed at Port "Sata" in the middle August, then arrested by police and is now being detained. She is emaciated very much due to her long trip and it means to sentence her death for us to make her be back Korea again, therefore, we desire, through your special disposition, to bring her back in order to live with us. We hereby humbly petition you to give your kind sympathy, inspect her antecedents and take steps for her co-living with us.
