Two Ridings Choose M. P.'s. and Others Are to Vote Soon

Yamaska Elects Liberal and York-Sunbury a Meighen Man; By Elections Shortly in Medicine Hat, West York, Leeds and St. Antoine.

Yamaska, Quebec—M. A. Boucher, Liberal, elected to the House of Commons.

York-Sunbury, New Brunswick—R. B. Hanson, K.C., a supporter of the Meighen Government, elected.

Those were the results of the Federal by-elections held on Saturday.

The next tests of strength will take place in Medicine Hat, Alberta; West York, Ontario; Leeds, Ontario, and the St. Antoine Division of Montreal.

There was no satisfaction for the Farmers' Party in the by-elections of Saturday. The Farmers in both ridings going down to defeat. Observers interpret the results as indicating that the agrarian movement lacks strength east of Ontario.

One result of the outcome of the voting in the two constituencies on Saturday will be to increase the interest of the public at large in the forthcoming by-election contests.

Boucher's Lead. Montreal, May 30.—With several polls in outlying districts to be heard from, the majority of M. A. Boucher, Liberal candidate, was this morning placed at 1,716 as a result of the voting Saturday in the by-election to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons for Yamaska.

AD FOR GREEKS AGAINST TURKS

New Confusion May Cause Allies to Act.

British Indian Subject Hanged By Kemalites

Constantinople, May 29.—With Moscow dominating the Turkish Nationalist policy, as appears from recent developments, the whole Near Eastern political situation has again been thrown into confusion, with the possibility that France and Great Britain to some extent may stand back of the Greek campaign against Mustapha Kemal Pasha's forces.

The crisis has been accentuated by the execution in Ankara, of a British Indian subject, Mustapha Sahir, who was hanged as a spy.

Mustapha Sahir was sent to Ankara by the British Embassy, the British improving relations between Great Britain and the Turks. It is asserted here that he was tortured into a false confession, with the promise that his life would be spared, but that Russian Bolshevik influences were successfully exerted to secure his being hanged.

Objections. The French have objected decidedly to the recent Turkish Nationalist proposals for revision of the Franco-Turkish agreement. The army of some 80,000 which the French have in Syria is causing alarm to the Nationalists in view of the recent developments.

Mr. Clouston, who has passed his eightieth birthday, is the oldest Commoner in the chamber and his rank in the Privy Council gives him the right to use the title "Honorable" for the rest of his life.

Mr. Chariton was at Norfolk since 1911 and previous to that had been a member of the provincial legislature for some years.

NO LIQUOR STORES IN HOME DISTRICTS

Board Now Out Not to Encourage Drinking, It is Announced.

What British Columbians will have to pay for liquor has not yet been decided. It was stated at the Liquor Board offices to-day that the Board was still too busy with other important matters to settle the price question.

No announcement of appointments can be made yet, as the Board's time is too much occupied to get this part of their work completed. It was explained that the Liquor Board statement to-day came from Commissioner James H. Falconer, who gave out the announcement of the Board with regard to its earlier policy of multiplying stores and stimulating the sale of liquor.

Mr. Falconer made his announcement as a result of the steps taken by a Vancouver pastor and members of his congregation to ward off the establishment of a liquor store in one of the residential sections of Vancouver.

It is an endeavor to get along with as few stores as possible. Mr. Falconer announced. We will not open bars where they are to encourage the sale of liquor, but to control the traffic.

Mr. Falconer also announced that he has decided not to open liquor stores in the early Spring and the late autumn, or in the Oriental quarter of any other city in B. C.

The 500 men and women of the Jillywood and East Bay districts who formally petitioned the Board to open a liquor store in their district were informed by the Board to-day that their request could not be granted.

He leaves to mourn his loss one daughter, Mrs. Ada Coopman, of Oak Bay, and two sons, Alfred J., of Prince Rupert, and Arthur E., of Victoria.

The funeral will be held from the Sands Funeral Chapel on Wednesday at 2:30. Interment will be made at Ross Bay cemetery.

MAINLAND MEN INSPECT INDUSTRIES

Brickworks in Vicinity Visited by Delegation From Vancouver.

Because Vancouver Island is the main source of supply of brick, tile and clay products for Vancouver, a delegation of prominent Terminal City business men are to-day making a tour of the clay products plants of Victoria and the nearby district, under the direction of T. J. Goodlake, secretary of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

After an inspection of the works of the Victoria Brick Co. and the Baker Brick and Tile Co. in the city, each of which produces about 40,000 (Concluded on page 18.)

London, May 30.—(Canadian Associated Press).—Canadian beef cattle killed at Birkenhead are selling for eight shillings and eight pence per stone.

CUT IN WAGES.

Johannesburg, May 29.—The Chamber of Mines has announced that it proposes to reduce the wages of miners in the goldfields by 18 shillings weekly, owing to depression in the industry. The miners have requested time in which to consider the matter.

Canadian Trade With South Africa Growing

Vancouver, May 30.—Canadian trade with South Africa is increasing steadily, according to C. W. Francis Harrison, special commissioner for the Federation of British Industries in South Africa, who arrived here on the steamship Makura last night and will go on to England, having made a special investigation of trade opportunities in South and East Africa, Rhodesia, Uganda and Zanzibar.

Imports into Africa from Canada last year exceeded those from the nearer Commonwealth of Australia, he says. South Africa needs agricultural implements, hardware, steel products, timber, paper and box woods.

Mr. Harrison states that Australian flour has been driving Canadian flour out of the South African market in the last few years.

FIRST PAYMENT MADE BY GERMANY TO THE ALLIES

Paris, May 30.—The German Government to-day completed payment of the 1,000,000,000 gold marks due as the first payment on reparations under the peace treaty, when twenty German Treasury notes equivalent to 500,000,000 gold marks were handed to the Reparations Commission by a special courier of the German Government who brought the notes from Berlin. The courier arrived in Paris last night and delivered the wallet containing the notes to the Reparations Commission this afternoon.

'Bootleggers' Pilot' Cited As Legal Occupation

A pin dropped in the city police court to-day, during the trial of George H. Paine, charged with vagrancy, would have sounded like a bomb as the massed spectators awaited the verdict of the court.

The accused was described by prosecuting attorney C. L. Harrison as a "professional bootlegger's pilot," and admitted to the court that he had been paid $125 a trip to run liquor over to the United States. He had been at times engaged in this occupation since November of last year, and in that period had earned $700 to $800 clear money, aside from the expenses of clothing and food.

After the evidence Magistrate Jay dismissed the accused, but warned him to secure honest employment or he would find himself sooner or later in jail, if not here then on the other side.

SOME BELGIANS JOIN LENINITES

Brussels, May 30.—The long expected split in the Socialist party became definite yesterday when the extreme element of the party tried to constitute a Communist party, which will seek contact with the Third Internationale of Moscow. The leader of the new party will be M. Jacquemotte.

GOING TO LONDON.

Vancouver, May 30.—Hon. Joseph Baynes, an octogenarian rancher of Natal, bound for London, arrived here on the steamship Makura last night.

MEAN TO END IRISH DISORDERS

London, May 30.—Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons to-day that it was proposed to strengthen the crown forces in Ireland, and that a statement would be made to Parliament on the subject when the arrangements were completed.

Conference Rumored. London, May 30.—Number 10 Downing Street, the official residence of Premier Lloyd George, has been inundated with requests for confirmation or denial of reports from Belfast that Edmond de Valera and Mr. Lloyd George would make a definite yes or no to this query is being withheld. Those usually informed of the Premier's movements however, are reported to have made reports as to his whereabouts during the week-end of May 21, which fact is leading some to believe that a secret peace conference between the Irish "Republican" leader and the British Premier may have been held.

To Irish. London, May 30.—"Our policy is to hand Ireland over to the Irish people, not to Irish firebrands and assassins. Sir Hanna Greenwood made this emphatic statement to-day while correspondents were speaking with him about conditions in that distracted country.

We want the Irish people to govern themselves," he said. "The leaders of the North and South can meet at any time, but the British Government is not going to stand for the murder of individuals and destruction of property by any one group of Irishmen."

More Determined. The Chief Secretary, who has the confidence of the Cabinet and who is neither intimidated nor frightened, has not only despite recent events in Ireland, changed the fundamental principles of his policy in that country. The destruction of the Dublin Custom House and threats to destroy other Government buildings in Ireland have rather stiffened his determination and the determination of the Government to put a stop to the destructive activities of the body calling itself the "Irish Republican Army."

The Government knows from Sinn Fein documents themselves that the Sinn Fein war leaders have completed plans to burn, if possible, Dublin Castle, the law courts buildings and every building used by British officials in Ireland.

But from now on no chances are to be taken. If it is necessary martial law will be proclaimed.

LIST OF MURDERS GROWS IN IRELAND

Belfast, May 30.—A party of Ulster policemen was fired on yesterday morning from a hedge five miles outside the town of Tyrone. Constable Coulter was killed instantly and an old man with whom he was speaking was wounded and died a short time later. Another man also was wounded. The members of the attacking party escaped.

At Cork. Cork, May 30.—Two brothers named Fitzgerald, one a railwayman and the other a farmer, were shot and killed from their home here yesterday and shot. Their bodies were riddled with bullets.

Major Murdered. Dublin, May 30.—It was announced from Dublin Castle to-day that documents found during a raid of the premises in Mary Street, Dublin, used as an office by Michael Collins, head of the "Irish Republican Army" and who called himself the Sinn Fein "Minister of Finance," proved that Major Compston-Smith, who disappeared mysteriously from Cork in 1916, was murdered by the Sinn Fein. In a letter left for his wife, the statement added, Major Compston-Smith said he was prepared to die as a hero should.

Dublin Excited. Dublin, May 30.—Wild scenes were witnessed here last evening shortly after the curfew hour. Stone-throwing and shooting occurred between civilians and soldiers who were accompanying young women, the civilians trying to separate the girls from their military escort. Several of the combatants were wounded.

A fatal shooting occurred in Angelus Street, where a grocery clerk was shot in the chest and died shortly after.

As a result of these disturbances there was extraordinary activity by the police and cadets, exciting hold-ups occurring on O'Connell Street and O'Connell Bridge. Descendants of several lories, which accompanied an armored car, a party of auxiliaries rushed about, hustling along the young men, forcing them to retreat. Women and children ran away screaming from the locality.

The streets were cleared a half-hour before the curfew.

Sum of $1,300,000 Voted by Commons For New Drydock

Esquimalt Undertaking Is Assured of Funds Until Next Spring; Gigantic Operations This Year.

Estimates passed in the House of Commons at Ottawa late Saturday night included an appropriation of $1,300,000 for the work on the big drydock at Esquimalt. The new appropriation will cover the operations on the Federal Government scheme at Esquimalt for at least the ensuing year.

Peter Lyall & Sons, Ltd., contractors for the drydock, already have carried out considerable preliminary work on the site of the mammoth graving basin at Skinner's Cove, but owing to the gigantic nature of the operations and the enormous amount of dredging and rock blasting to be undertaken it will be some time before any appreciable progress is noticeable on the project.

The month of the cover will be closed in by a giant cofferdam and rock blasting will be feature of the operations during the next few months.

The dredging contract has been sub-let to the Pacific Construction Company and is well under way. The completed dock will cost $4,300,000.

JAPANESE PRINCE VISITING FRANCE

London, May 30.—Prince Hirohito, heir-apparent to the Japanese throne, said farewell to Great Britain yesterday after a three weeks' visit. He was bidden Godspeed at the Victoria Station by King George, the Prince of Wales, and other members of the royal household.

In the afternoon the Prince embarked at Portsmouth for Havre for his visit to France.

TEACHERS TO CHOOSE FINAL ROAD TO-NIGHT

Saanich Staff to Act on Demand For Contracts. Important results are expected from to-night's meeting of the teaching staff of the Saanich School Board, which will take place at the Saanich School, and finally decide what action shall be taken in view of the decision of the trustees not to accept the schedule of higher salaries which was laid before them on Friday last.

Teachers' Agreements. Of equal importance is the attitude towards the demand of the board for the signature by the individual teachers of agreements to serve the municipality for one year. The requirement is recognized as standing in the way of future applications of pressure of the type which was brought to bear at the beginning of this year.

A meeting of the teachers took place on Saturday morning, but although many aspects of the situation were discussed, it was then found impossible to come to a decision which would suit the teachers as a whole.

While no statement of what transpired has been given out, it is understood that the general opinion agreed upon by the teachers was that the arbitration proceedings had robbed the teachers of the strategically strong position they had held earlier in the year, and the main debate centered around the course to adopt in regard to the ultimatum of the trustees regarding the signing of yearly agreements.

The teachers are understood to be unit in denouncing as a breach of faith the action of the school board in declaring closed the proposed arbitration proceedings, the teachers maintaining that the fact that the hearings should have taken place in time to permit a referendum on the verdict to the people before June 1 was of little import, as they claim this could have been held later should the proceedings have been continued.

Trustees Face Problem of Date. In this connection the attitude of the trustees is of interest, as it has been found that to be effective, resignations must be received before June 1, otherwise the board may find itself involved in legal proceedings with dissatisfied ratepayers if they should replace teachers who resign after the proper date with higher paid employees.

There are members of the Saanich teaching staff who advocate the resignation of the whole of the teachers, and while this course will doubtless attract considerable attention, there is little likelihood that it will receive serious consideration from the bulk of the teachers.

Lenine Says Sovietism Completely Bankrupt

Riga, May 30.—According to a direct Moscow dispatch received to-day from independent sources, Nikolai Lenine, the Russian Soviet Premier, declared yesterday that Sovietism was in complete bankruptcy and asked the presiding officers of the All-Russian Central Executive Committee to approve the unlimited return of capitalism and the recall to Russia of the Constitutional Democrats and other parties to aid in rebuilding the state.

Empire Clubs in Foreign Countries Are Planned

Vancouver, May 30.—A concrete plan for organization of communities of British Empire citizens in foreign countries is to be launched in connection with the forthcoming conference of Empire Prime Ministers in London. F. L. Lowther, of Sydney, Australia, will present a proposal in London for increased activities for the promotion of Empire clubs and associations wherever there are Britons under another flag, similar to the Canadian Clubs in the United States.

The scheme has the endorsement of such statesmen as Viscount Bryce and Viscount Milner, Sir Edward Carson, Sir George Foster and Premier Hughes of Australia, says Mr. Lowther, who arrived in Vancouver on the steamship Makura last night and will proceed at once to London.

One definite aim of the scheme is to promote good fellowship between the British Empire and foreign countries where groups of Britishers happen to live, and to combat the propaganda there of the Empire's enemies.

Would Have Legislature Cancel Increases of Sessional Indemnities

Largely Attended Meeting of Protest Against Ministerial Salary Increases and Reduction of Workmen's Wages.

About nine hundred people gathered at the Pantages Theatre yesterday afternoon to consider the sessional increases to members of the Legislature and increased ministerial salaries, and the reduction of workmen's wages. The meeting approved a resolution moved from the platform to ask the Legislature to amend the Constitution Act at its next session, and one moved from the floor of the theatre to circulate petitions throughout the Province to bring the subject formally before the Lieutenant-Governor for action in the House again.

Alderman E. S. Woodward presided, and on the platform was Col. C. L. Flick, D.S.O., and J. H. Hawthornthwaite, the speakers; R. Mc-Nicol, chairman of the committee of nine organizations which promoted the meeting, and members of that committee.

After the formal motions had been put the meeting was thrown open, and many in the audience aired their views, the principal suggestion coming from H. S. Webb to circulate a petition so that the general opinion of the electors could be secured on the matter.

Canon Hinchliffe, Mr. Woodward read the following letter from Canon Hinchliffe, M. P. P., who apologized for absence through being away from the city:

"In regard to your invitation to the meeting on Sunday afternoon I should like to say that you may add my voice to the protests against reduction in wages of laborers, and against the decision to withhold the usual increase to Civil Servants."

"As you are doubtless aware, the members of the Opposition in the House have no power or say in regard to these things."

"I should like to point out, however, that during the session of the Legislature I took more than one opportunity of urging the Government to give the usual advances to the Civil Servants."

Mr. Jackson's View. A letter from M. B. Jackson, K. C., M. P. P. was read as follows:

"I have this morning your letter of the 23rd inst. inviting me to a meeting to be held at the Pantages Theatre on Sunday, 29th inst., and at which you state that some Committee, of which you are a member, proposes to discuss the recent amendments to the Constitution Act, and also to discuss the reduction in wages of day laborers."

"I expect to be out of town on Sunday, but let me hasten to say that even if I were in town I am still too Presbyterian to join in active politics, or the pursuit of worldly ambitions on Sunday, and, furthermore, since having the honor to represent a rural constituency I have refrained from being associated with partisan politics in the City of Victoria or elsewhere, and confine myself strictly to the business and interests and opinions of my own constituency."

"I note that your kind letter does not invite my views either at your meeting or otherwise on the matters which you state your committee propose to discuss next Sunday, but I anticipate that an opportunity will present itself of doing so at the proper time and place, which I conceive to be during the session of the Legislature and on the floor of the House."

The following resolution, moved by Mrs. Sutton, and seconded by Mrs. Chambers, was adopted:

The wages of Government day workers have been cut from seventy-five cents to one dollar per day, thereby setting a standard to municipal and private employers. And whereas, the statutory bonus to civil servants has not been granted, and whereas, critical financial conditions are entailing privation, hardship and want on many families in B. C., yet the Government, in the face of existing social distress, has shown a spirit of indifference with regard to the preservation of the safety, peace and prosperity of the people it purports to represent, in raising the salaries of Cabinet Ministers and increasing the sessional indemnities of members, in spite of repeatedly advocating the strictest economy to the general public.

Be it resolved, that we, electors of Victoria and district, realizing that wages must be largely determined by the cost of living, and the fact that the prices of nearly all necessities required by working people are still excessive, request the Executive Council to instruct the Minister of Public Works immediately to restore the wages of Government day workers to their former level, and in the case of those men still employed, such adjustment to be retroactive to the time of reduction, and in the case of those employees who have been working since March 20 on the Victoria Indian Reserve, and since April 1 on road and bridge work, the restoration be made effective for the portion of time such men have been so employed.

Be it resolved, that we condemn the action of the Legislature in diverting over $30,000 per year additional of public funds to the use of the members of the Executive Council and thirty-nine private members, at a time when poverty is rampant throughout the Province, such action being impolitic and unjust.

And that this meeting petitions that the action complained of be reversed by the repeal of Sections 3 and 5 of the "Constitution Act Amendment Act, 1921."

Be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Hon. the Premier and members of the Executive Council of British Columbia.

The chairman announced that R. H. Pooley, M. P. P., had indicated that he had already addressed his constituents on the subject before the meeting, and therefore did not think it desirable to attend.

The chairman announced that R. H. Pooley, M. P. P., had indicated that he had already addressed his constituents on the subject before the meeting, and therefore did not think it desirable to attend.

Col. Flick.

Col. Flick said he spoke as a representative of the returned soldiers of Vancouver Island and elsewhere. As a representative of them he had attended many delegations to Cabinet Ministers, and to others high in authority recently. And he could tell them that "returned soldiers will not plead, we will not cajole, we will not beg any longer, nor will we sing revolutionary songs." The Colonel expressed the opinion that Cabinet Ministers here replied to representations of returned men as though their hearts were not with them.

"We as returned men will help the electors of this Province to turn the Government out," said the Colonel. In making that statement the Colonel instanced the deputations to the Executive Council for a grant in aid of the militia, made during the session by commanding officers of the various units, which said the speaker had been accorded for forty years, and also the alleged refusal by the Executive Council to contribute to the Red Cross workshop on Fort Street, which Colonel Flick stated was doing a great work for the returned men. Both those applications had been refused, observed the speaker, because they were told there was no money available.

"Yet," continued Col. Flick, "as soon as an opportunity comes, members fill the pockets of Cabinet Ministers and legislators. It will be the policy of the returned men to defeat such a political move as that." (Applause.)

"It is for these reasons," concluded the Colonel, who spoke briefly, "that since I came back I have done what I could to bring soldier organizations into line, so that they may proceed in a united way through amalgamation to express our policies."

Mr. Hawthornthwaite.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite said he had been advised to direct his course towards Presbyterianism, but after Mr. Jackson's letter, he felt constrained to resist that tendency (laughter) lest he might be robbed of partaking of political meetings on Sunday. For four months he had kept out of politics, yet he felt he ought to participate in such a gathering, for he judged public opinion demanded consideration of the issue. Mr. Jackson was fond of quoting Latin in the House, and so the member for the Islands would commend him for quoting "Vox Populi, Vox Dei" on an occasion of that kind. (Renewed laughter.)

Mr. Hawthornthwaite stated his opinion of Hon. John Oliver as an "honest" well meaning man, of great native ability, but said Mr. Oliver had lived too busy a life on his farm and elsewhere to make that study of economic causes which was changing the whole character of civilization today.

When the speaker entered the House members were paid $500 indemnity, and it had risen to $1,000 when the speaker left it some years ago. Now members judged their services so highly as to demand $2,000. Those men in the House, who now valued their services so highly, were not cognizant of the new economic conditions which were shaking to their foundations, Mr. Hawthornthwaite stated.

In cutting the salaries of day workers, the speaker gave the Government credit for "not realizing what they were doing."

Mr. Hawthornthwaite declared that since the Government was in for four or five years, any alteration of the situation would be difficult.

A voice: Put petitions through the country.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite: A fat lot of good that would do you. The only way I know would be to petition the Lieutenant-Governor.

The speaker then turned to the question of the cost of labor, and living, reported elsewhere.

Na-Members Present.

Before the resolution was put to the meeting, Mr. Woodward inquired if there were any members of the Legislature in the theatre who would care to address the meeting, but there was no response.

He then went on to explain that on the $50,000 which had been borrowed from the Government, the taxpayers had to pay interest and the principal had to be paid back, though every dollar of the money had been used for relief work.

A member of the audience contradicted this statement, however, explaining that the money had been spent on necessary city public works.

Mr. Woodward continued that it would have been better to have let the city have the $30,000 that went into salary increases for the Government Members to help carry on relief work, as every cent of the money spent must come from the pockets of the wage earners.

He said that many of the local institutions had carried out their charitable work too well, as it had resulted in the real condition of unemployment not being brought to the attention of the civic and provincial governments.

When suggestions were asked for as to what steps should next be taken, following the passing of the resolution quoted above, H. S. Webb, of the G. W. V. A. moved that a petition should be circulated throughout the province asking the Lieutenant-Governor to see that the question of increased indemnities for the members and decreased wages for the Government wage earners be again taken upon the floor of the House, and the resolution was carried.

The meeting adjourned after the singing of the National Anthem.

ENROLL IN THE RED CROSS

THE RED CROSS IS CALLING YOU

THIRTY-ONE NATIONS of the civilized world have Red Cross Societies signatory to the Red Cross League of Nations. They are about to conduct a campaign for increased membership enrollment. The membership drive of the British Columbia Division will commence on Monday, June 6th. In this situation it is felt that as the public is being invited to enlist in the Red Cross, the fullest possible publicity should be given to the Red Cross movement in this Province—the present work and future objectives of the Society.

The Red Cross accomplished a stupendous work during the war, but it is now called upon to perform an even more stupendous work. In connection with its Post War Work, in British Columbia, the Red Cross is completing its work among the disabled soldiers still in hospitals and sanitariums. It is endeavoring to increase the number of workshops for these men, so that they may become self-supporting—an achievement which the majority of them cannot accomplish in pursuit of their former lines of work.

The Red Cross has four salient missions to fulfill in its Peace Time Work:—1st, to provide and maintain public health nurses in the rural districts, especially the sparsely settled pioneer sections; 2nd, to provide emergency service and outfits in all sections of the Province, to render first aid and alleviate suffering in case of great disasters; 3rd, to improve the living conditions and general health of the sick and needy throughout the Province, and teach them the fundamental rules of good health; 4th, and by no means least in importance, to enlist the sympathies and help of the youth of this land, and to instill in their minds the great value of Red Cross principles and practices.

In order to carry on this great work for the uplift of mankind which the Red Cross has pledged itself to accomplish, it is necessary for YOU—every man, woman and child in British Columbia—to give your fullest sympathy—lend your greatest aid to this world-wide organization.

The Red Cross does not expect you to give lavishly of your funds, but it does expect you to contribute $1.00 as an enrollment fee, thereby showing your desire to better the health and general living conditions of those less fortunate than yourself.

This enrollment is not an appeal for funds—it is a plea to secure the whole-hearted support and endorsement of every red-blooded British Columbian in the Post War Work and Peace Time Policy of the Red Cross. Can you, as a good, true citizen, refuse such a plea?

SAYS SOMETHING MUST BE DONE TO SAVE SITUATION

With the country full of surplus goods Governments are afraid to make the manufacturers disgorge them because it would put the business man out of business and the working man out of a job," said J. H. Hawthornthwaite at yesterday's meeting at the Pantages Theatre protesting against the increased Sessional Indemnities.

J. Hawthornthwaite took occasion to refer to the serious condition of the country with regard to unemployment and hardship. He criticized the British Columbia Government for increasing members' salaries at a time when it had reduced its employees' wages.

How about next winter. Is it going to be any better than last? Personally, I believe that it is going to be worse.

"In the United States there are hundreds of thousands of hides worth $4 or $5 that to-day cannot be sold for four or five cents apiece. There is beef on the hoof at ten cents a pound that cannot be sold. "The United States has millions of tons of tinned meats which, if realized, would put everything out of business."

"For twenty-one years of my life I have been studying conditions and trying to find a solution whereby a man will get full value for his work and what he produces."

Days of Barter.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite then referred to the good old days when people bartered something they had for something they wanted, and everybody was satisfied. That, he said, was putting the true value on labor, because if one article took two days to make it would be exchanged for two of something else that took a day each to produce, and so on.

To-day, however, the employee sells his labor to the employer, who makes capital out of it, he asserted. "Everybody is selling some, even the members of the Legislature, who increased their salaries, are selling 'law' power for two months."

The Government put down labor employed by them in the Province twenty-five per cent, and what did it mean? It meant that the B. C. Electric followed suit, and every other corporation throughout the country did the same, thus raising the profits of the employing class twenty-five per cent.

"Had the Government done what was fair, they would have allowed the laws of labor and the market to work themselves out. It was their duty to wait until the prices of commodities came down before reducing wages. Had they increased wages of the employees at the time they raised their salaries this meeting would not have been called to-day, but, on the other hand, the Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce and the newspapers would have been practically unanimous in demanding that the Government be turned out."

"This meeting shows that the public has become alive to the situation and the question that everyone is asking to-day is 'What is to be done to remedy conditions?' Do we find the politicians taking the platform to help find a solution? I have been looking for the day when matters will be improved, and I say it will only be when a man gets what he is entitled to as the fruits of his labor."

Continuing his criticism of the Government, the speaker said: "I know, when the next election comes, you are going to turn the Government out. John Oliver is as good as gone. You cannot put them out now unless you go down there with a club, and that is not constitutional."

"The Liquor Bill is going to save the Province! It is pretty rotten reed to lean upon. I have been a life-long fighter against prohibition, but I would sooner vote for prohibition than the present Liquor Bill. All the wealthy Americans are coming over, but who will come with them? The American thug, the sharper, the ragsman and the white slave trafficker."

"If $1 a day was all it was worth to go overseas and ship bolts, why should we pay from $15 to $20 a day to Cabinet Ministers who can't stop a salary grab? The banner on the stage

THE BY-ELECTIONS.

The result of the by-elections in Yamaska and York-Sunbury shows no change in the political complexion of those constituencies. In Yamaska, Quebec, a Liberal oppositionist succeeds a Liberal, while in York-Sunbury, N. B., a Unionist takes the place of Col. McLeod, who was a supporter of the Meighen Administration.

In Yamaska it was a foregone conclusion that the Government candidate would be snowed under. His only plea for election while in deference to public sentiment, he had to vie with his opponent in attacking the Government because of its association with conscription.

The most interesting feature of the election in York-Sunbury was the size of the vote polled by the Progressive candidate. His supporters totalled 6207 against 7170 polled by the Government champion.

A TUBERCULAR COLONY.

Although the Prime Minister and various members of his Cabinet have been supplied with details for the establishment of a tubercular colony on a part of the Indian Reserve at Kamloops through whose operation different forms of sheltered employment might be provided for those former members of the C. E. F. who have been compelled to undergo a period of institutional treatment at the Provincial Sanatorium—it has remained for the Committee on Pensions to take the initiative and recommend an immediate investigation into the proposal.

It is possibly just as well that the suggestion for action should come from an official body of this kind, partly because it has based its recommendation upon a report made for the director of soldiers' civil re-establishment by five of the leading experts on tuberculosis, and partly by virtue of the fact that the Committee on Pensions has had ample opportunity to study the needs of those returned men whose reward for war service includes an attack of this dreaded malady.

British Columbia has set the pace in state care of its tubercular population by its acquisition of the King Edward Sanatorium at Tranquille. Why should it not be feasible for the Dominion Government to confer with the Provincial authorities upon the subject of after care without the development of which the state may not assume but a part of its obligation? That this Province intends to extend the operation of its official institution by adding the necessary activities to the initial programme involved in its ownership and administration of Tranquille goes without saying. But much valuable time would be saved and quicker and more beneficial results would be achieved if the two Governments could agree upon a trial of joint action as far as this Province is concerned. Under such an arrangement the fate of the returned man would be vastly improved by reason of the larger colony that would be necessary to accommodate arrested cases in general.

To launch a proposal of this kind would entail a fair amount of outlay and involve a good deal of cost in its early stages; but there is no reason why a properly administered tubercular colony should not support itself within a very short space of time. Sooner or later the nation as a whole will have to accept the obligation which this Province has decided to interpret—in such stages as the public treasury shall permit—as its own. British Columbia's progress should make it much easier for the Dominion Government to set up the colony now recommended either as an independent venture or—much to be preferred—through Provincial co-operation.

GET THE GUILTY ONES.

Judged by her conduct of the first trial it looks as if Germany would observe that provision of the Treaty of Versailles which obliges her to try those of her soldiers who are charged with violations of international warfare. Very naturally the sentence of ten months' imprisonment in the case of Sergeant Heyner has appealed with varying force to the Republican and the reactionary press of the Fatherland. Neither is satisfied. Vorwaerts would count among the "wholesale war criminals" those whose violent minds conceived and issued the orders to destroy whole districts and not so much the "tools" involved in the execution of those orders. It would select for initial treatment the originators of the Belgian deportations in order that "an inextinguishable spot on Germany's honor should not be condoned," and it regrets that no German public prosecutor has yet had the courage and initiative to put these men in the defendants' box.

The reactionary newspapers assert that Heyner was wrongly convicted inasmuch as he was obeying orders inseparable from war. In other words the junker press sets out to assume that the uses of warfare were not overstepped. Its comment appears to condone the sinking of the Lusitania and other helpless passenger vessels without warning, the poisoning of wells, the slaughter of defenceless women and children out of sheer lust for blood on the part of German soldiery. Either it repudiates these charges or it accepts the theory that the originators, and not the tools, should be punished—and it cannot repudiate them.

THE DISABLED WORKER.

It goes without saying that the disabled veteran can neither live without sympathy nor funds; but it is equally true that if he may employ his time at a task which does not overtax his physical or mental capacity he will improve his condition and regain a measure of the independence which his war hurts have denied him. What is more he will naturally take a new interest in life and arrive at the conclusion that some of the agony endured at a dollar ten a day has meant something to those who have reaped and will continue to reap the benefit of his sacrifice. These are only the elementary reasons why the magnificent work carried on by the Red Cross at its disabled soldiers' workshop on Lower Fort Street should beget the support of the general public in this city. It is all very simple to say that the Government should take care of these men and remove their obligation to work at all. But the thing is impracticable. Nine-tenths of the men would rebel at enforced idleness as long as they possess the capacity to do something for themselves. And until the perfect Government comes into existence private enterprise will have to look after the exceptional case for which the laws of the land do not provide. That is the mission with which the Red Cross has entrusted itself; the task which it is discharging by the assistance of its willing charges—so admirably.

THE ONLY COURSE.

If the "republican" leaders in Ireland are desirous of curbing the activities of the murder gang and are unable to do so there will be no objection to a more vigorous attempt on the part of the British Government to put an end to them. But if there is no desire for a change of tactics there is all the more reason why military forces should be employed on a scale sufficient to bring some sort of order out of the chaos which now obtains whether the republican elements as a whole will or not. Southern Ireland may have its own parliament and conduct its own business as long as it will agree to drop its demand for absolute independence. It may follow the example of the North in the interests of the people themselves. If it does not choose to do so the British Government does not propose that murder and pillage shall go on indefinitely if it is within its power to bring it to an end. In other words it will follow the course that would have been adopted in the United States and other countries under similar circumstances long ago.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It has been announced that the wild lands of British Columbia are about to be colonized. Nobody will grumble about the first complaint of rural overcrowding.

After the large volume of free publicity to which it has been treated there will be general disappointment over the doubt whether the Pons-Winnecke comet will even be visible to the naked eye.

One of the Dominion Inspectors who wages war on the mosquito in the Fraser Valley has taken an aeroplane flight to seek "new angles on the habitat of the pestiferous insect." The mosquito shows a similar interest in the human species.

Somebody has heard that a "high official" at the British Foreign Office is greatly pleased with Colonel George Harvey's recent speech to the Pilgrim Society. There is no necessity for anybody to get "upshish" on the point; it would be safe to say that Great Britain as a whole was "tickled to death" with the American Ambassador's honest candor.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

MISSION OF SAVINGS BANKS (From The Brooklyn Daily Eagle) It is the new mission of savings banks to go out among the people and establish such contracts and a mutual understanding that will make for better service.

The thought is not that the banks have been failing in their duty to the depositors and the public in the past; far from it. But what was not been somewhat cold and officious. The new purpose is to fix in the minds of the savers the realization that the savings banks are the institutions. Mutual aid is the essence of their existence. Helpfulness in thrift is their effort.

NOT IN TOUCH WITH THE

(From The Brooklyn Daily Eagle) U. S. Ambassador Harvey, at the pilgrims' dinner in Harvey, at the U. S. helped the Allies to shorten the war, and that was all they claimed to have done. "It is feared that Hon. Mr. Harvey has not been keeping in touch with the modest efforts of his native land."

HOROSCOPE

MONDAY, MAY 30, 1921. (Copyright, 1921, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate) This is an unfortunate day, according to astrology. Mercury, Saturn, Mars, Venus and Uranus are all in malefic aspect. Jupiter glooms in the mind.

During this configuration the mind may be disturbed by conflicting emotions and impulses. Jupiter seems to promise success and benefits for the army, and this should be a favorable way for preaching since it inclines hearers to serious reflection.

This is a day in which to think and act. Plans are subject to the whims of the stars, but they should not be committed to paper, since Mercury is strongly hostile. Writings should be carefully gone over, lest they be misunderstood. For there is a sinister sign that indicates danger may lurk in letters.

Love misuses are subject to a menacing government of the stars, which may encourage many a girl to misunderstand the most kindly of men. Engagements are easily broken under this way. Mars is in a place that is not an auspicious one for the stars, but they should not be committed to paper, since Mercury is strongly hostile.

Women should be exceedingly circumspect under this rule, which may cause men to misunderstand their best motives. Authors may experience a period of hazy lack early in the Autumn when Publishers are hard to please.

Courtships to-day may bring only disappointment, for the stars foretell early disillusionment for women who will quickly detect slight faults in their suitors. Marriages will show a decrease in numbers at this time, but there will be many glad romances in the coming summer months, which will be marked by a series of happy events. Children born on this day may be restless, and fond of travel. Many adventurous spirits are born under this sign.

"BOOTLEGGERS" PILOT" CITED AS LEGAL OCCUPATION

(Continued from page 1.) The unfolding of the story was heard by nearly 150 spectators who crowded into the court. Many dramatic incidents occurred with witnesses in the box making statements that appeared from time to time equally damaging to both the crown and the defence.

The main evidence came from the accused himself who stated he had been employed in November last in a power schooner to pilot the craft from here to the American side by local agents. He American side by, however, nothing to do with the whisky on board, nor did he own the boat. He was acting merely in the capacity of pilot, for which he was paid at the rate of $125 a trip. He had never been seized, he said, on any of his excursions, and made the run variously from Victoria beaches to beaches near Anacortes, in Discovery Bay off Port Angeles and along the coast near Port Townsend. He had made several trips in the launch Neuraud, which was subsequently seized while another pilot was making the run. Accused said two other boats, both of them Columbia river boats, were used with auxiliary engines, he had piloted upon occasion, and had been equally successful in making the trips undetected by the U. S. marshals. On the trip upon which the launch Neuraud was seized, he had received a telephone message from an informant who told him he did not give that it would be unsafe to sail.

This he had told the owner, who he alleged was a man named Crane, professional man in Portland, Oregon. The liquor was brought down in automobile to the beach which was picked out for him, where he loaded the cases and got away to the beach which he picked out for himself on a chart.

He did not clear the boat, but it had been cleared in his name at the customs every time by the local agents. The longer an article telephonic and telegraphic messages from the United States and they were private business and he would not tell them.

An Extensive Organization. Asked by City Prosecutor Harrison if he had ever told the U. S. marshals or the Seattle Burns detective agency of the departure of any boats here, witness denied he had. He had a friend in the Burns agency, but that was in Vancouver and he was a personal friend. He knew the Seattle marshal but not in person. He denied also that he had ever acted as a stool pigeon for the U. S. marshal among the other members of the liquor smugglers here or that he had ever "squealed" on anyone in the business of exporting liquor to the States.

Nature of His Work. Accused denied any connection with the export liquor trade other than as an occasional pilot to the power launches in use for the work. He did not know the owner nor the local operators other than when they had come to his house and requested him to pilot such and such a place over from such and such a place to the American side. He estimated the amount taken to be in the neighborhood of 120 cases, as far as his piloting was concerned. Witness testified that he had been accused by the detectives of putting liquor on board the San Francisco boats, but he had never done so, and he said he had a friend in the Burns agency who stole the 48 cases from the Rithet Wharf recently.

Difference or Distinction? At one point of the trial where he was referred to by the prosecuting lawyer as a bootlegger, witness was being loudly refuted the appellation. "Excuse me, I am not a bootlegger—I am a pilot," he stated to which Mr. Harrison responded that it matters little, and that he would not insist on a distinction between the witness then as a "professional bootlegger."

He had never been seized, and had cleared some $600 on the trips, but if he had been seized his owners would have paid the fines, stated witness. On the question of the visit of the detectives the witness was emphatic in his declaration that they had tried to make him talk. "They gave me six hours to get down to the station, and when I arrived there they said: 'now are you ready to talk?' you got that stuff from the Rithet wharf, and we know as well as we are standing which wharf it was."

Detectives McDonald and Phipps gave evidence of accused's associates. The former said that before going overseas accused had been engaged in smuggling between Hamburg and New York. Phipps said he had interviewed the accused, who stated that prior to this he had been bootlegging back East, and stated he had made $2,000 since last Fall.

Not Unlawful Occupation. Mr. Love moved for dismissal on the ground of lack of evidence to the charge of vagrancy. The man had employment, which, though perhaps not of the best, was nevertheless sufficient to keep him open before the court on a charge of this nature. Accused was employed as a pilot of the boat and not therefore engaged in any unlawful occupation. It was a matter of spite at not being able to get the accused to admit connection with the Rithet liquor theft that had caused his arrest on this charge in ferred counsel for the defence. "There is nothing illegal in exporting liquor to the other side, nor in piloting the vessel that is taking it," finished Mr. Love. "To my way of thinking," stated Mr. Harrison for the Crown, this man is a professional bootlegger, and there is no doubt but that you have been consorting with bootleggers, and you cannot blame the police for looking on your occupation with suspicion. You are a married man and it is up to you for the sake of wife and child to get honest employment. I will give you this chance but I warn you if you do not get honest employment one day sooner or later you will find yourself in jail, if not here then on the other side.

The accused's brother, John Faine, faced a charge of vagrancy with less evidence, and was released with a similar warning.

"FOR COUNTRY."

To the Editor:—Life is a long drama, and as the curtain is about to fall we look backward through the many episodes of the play and alternately smile, rave, wonder if it is worth the price we have paid for it, and we are convinced that it was well worth it, and our consolation lies in the fact that each declining era is the beginning of a new one, far freer and purer.

I will turn back to the period when the shadow of the "Hundred Years" had been cast over the world, and a ravishment of the world, too gruesome for repetition here, was taking place. Europe seemed to be tottering on its foundations; valuable property must be saved upon the citizens, and Canada unto the sea.

It is a big time the City Council gave concentrated attention to the water supply, and saw that the residents of their own jurisdiction were supplied with a reliable and unpolluted supply of water. The whole of the Council are well aware of the precarious condition of the city water supply, and their tinkering with the present apogee for a dam, to say nothing of the source and run-off of the supply, is simply showing away money which would be far better utilized in the work of providing pure and sufficient supply of a permanent character.

Year after year we have the spectacle of the water being turned off owing to the scarcity, yet no determined effort is made to improve either the quality or the supply. The usual factitious method of leaving matters for a future occasion is always followed—the water for months, but nothing has been done to furnish a supply. Although aware that the "Dry" Act is still in force, one hardly expects that the

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Facts About Your Name: Its History; Its Meaning; Whence It Was Derived; Its Significance; Your Lucky Day and Lucky Jewel. By Mildred Marshall. (Copyright, 1921, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) PATIENCE.

The quaint old-fashioned name of Patience has a doubly worthy significance. Not only does it represent an abstract virtue which religion deems all-desirable, but it is also one of the names of holiness. It means "bearing up" and is regarded entirely as an English name though its origin is with the Latin.

The title Plus, applied first to faithful little love as the "Aeneid" came to have a higher significance with the advent of Christianity. Under Antonius Plus it became the name of the martyr, and later was used most frequently in the form of the appellatives, Pius. In the female, it is still in use in Italy.

The English translated the virtue expressed in the title of Plus into the name of Patience, occasionally varying it with Plety and Prudence, which they seem to consider identical. The Puritans responsible for the vogue of Patience in early times, and in this country, the great Christian poet.

The turquoise is the talismanic stone assigned to Patience. It will protect her Tuesday is her lucky day and her lucky number is, especially from accidents, number.

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

MR. RAT IS CARELESS

It all happened because Mr. Rat was careless and left the end of his tail hanging out of his door.

He went sound asleep. He was so sleepy that he dropped right down on the floor and went sound asleep.

He did not notice that he left the end of his tail outside, for there had never been any reason to be very careful and so Mr. Rat slept peacefully until it happened.

And what happened was this: Old Madam Duck was strolling about that morning and not having found a worm to the barn to see if there was anything there she would like for her breakfast.

She did not expect to find any worms there, and when she saw what she thought was a nice, fat worm on the floor her eyes popped with wonder.

Mrs. Duck wasted no time; she waddled over and with her sharp bill snapped at the end of Mr. Rat's tail—for, of course, it was his tail and so Mr. Rat was his tail.

Mr. Rat awoke with a loud squeak and tried to pull away, but Madam Duck held him fast with her strong bill.

She tugged to get the worm out of the hole and Mr. Rat tugged to get his tail free; but when he found he could not Mr. Rat turned around and faced his tormentor.

As he jumped out of the hole old Madam Duck was more surprised than when she thought she had found a worm in the barn.

VACATIONS SHOULD BE SPENT IN CANADA

Beauty Spots Invite Canadians to Visit Them This Summer

"Planning vacation trips is one of the pleasures in the average Canadian home. The approaching holiday season tempts the mind to wander to shady nooks, to the seaside, to the fishing ground and the camp," says "Conservation."

"Canada offers to her people all the attractions it is possible to desire, either for recreation or change. We have all conditions of temperature and altitude from the sea level to the mountain heights. In our inland lakes and streams we have almost every variety of fresh water fish, with boating and bathing to satisfy the most exacting."

"Why, then, should we look beyond our borders for Summer resorts? There is an old saying that 'the fishing is always better on the other side of the creek' can it be that this is the reason why so many Canadians cross to the United States each year to spend their vacations, regardless of the superior attractions at home?"

"Canada wants us to see our own country. By spending their money at home, Canadians will realize more fully what a wonderful heritage we possess, and will help to overcome the discount to which our money is subjected on the other side of the line."

LUMBER PRICES ARE SHOWING DECLINE

W. D. Connor, President of Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company, Here

On a periodical inspection visit W. D. Connor, of Marshfield, Wisconsin, President of the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber & Timber Co., arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, and will be here for some days.

Mr. Connor is unable to report any substantial movement in the lumber business since his last visit, although he states that building conditions have improved in a number of cities. Some of the essential occupations to construction, however, have not kept pace with the fall in lumber, and high prices in-house fixtures have held many people back.

Mr. Connor stated it as the policy of the company to keep the mill here open as far as possible, in order to retain Eastern connections, the company having established selling agencies in the East, whose activities they desire to keep working, even if business were not remunerative at a period of depression in the trade, as is the case now.

Mr. Connor, whose business interests impose on him considerable travelling, said the resorts in Florida and California have been exceedingly busy during the Winter, and he believes that there will be a large movement of travel into British Columbia this Summer. In that movement he believes Victoria and Vancouver Island will have a full share.

Mrs. Macduff, Sudbury, was fined $50 for selling a bottle of beer for fifty cents.

A GAMBLE IN BEAUTY

By NANCIBELLE HALE.

ONE LOVE STORY YOU NEVER CAN FORGET.

The Romances of Two Sisters, Both Beautiful, One Demure, the Other Vampish—With Thrills in Every Chapter and an Unexpected Denouement.

"Didn't she have a stunning sister?" he asked.

"Oh, yes! That's what every one says. Nina is beautiful, but utterly selfish and self-centred. She's the most awful vamp I've ever known!" She stopped suddenly and a painful flush crept up her cheeks.

"I remember," he said slowly.

"Nina's the sweet one. Once you've met her you never forget her; dreamy blue eyes and a delicate charm."

"Molly nodded.

"But that sister—what was her name? I remember she—Oh, well, that's another story. But I never could stand the type of woman who flirted with every man she met."

"There was a little pause and Molly studied the toe of her suede slipper.

"Could you?" he asked bluntly.

"But there might be some excuse for her?" Molly asked, her gray eyes misty.

"Excuse? Absolutely none! Show me the girl who likes to play with a man's heart, and you'll see the girl who's bad all through."

"Oh, no," Molly begged. "There's Nina; she's not bad all through. She's really affectionate, she just can't help being spoiled."

"Thank God you're not that kind," Molly said simply.

Molly looked at him, at his lean brown face, with the steady frank eyes, the wide, firm mouth, his broad shoulders and brown hands. She felt a lump grow in her throat. Under those honest eyes she felt mean and small, and she wondered how she could have lived in the tangle she had contrived during the last weeks.

"I'm only going to be in New York three days," Andrew Bruce said abruptly.

"Why? I thought—"

"No, I'm going right back to Arizona—that's the only country worth living in, Molly."

Molly, who had risen suddenly and was staring down at the doctor's desk, was fighting a great temptation.

As Nina walked uptown to her apartment on the Drive, a little flower of hope grew in her heart.

Stranger things had happened than for a man to fall in love with his wife. John didn't hate her now, or else he never would have married her.

Perhaps if she wore always her prettiest frock for him, and her house so carefully and never let him see, not once, that she was in love with him, why it might actually come about!

How carefully she would manage this bit of acting with Adam. Adam was so safe, and could do the part to perfection.

She remembered how once she had played her lover in tableaux and how they teased him when all the time he had known and she had known that it had not been her heart, to a girl from the South.

"I won't go too far, not a bit," Nina told herself, "but just so that John will see that other people do like me."

She felt a little down-hearted when she thought she was trying to win her husband's love, but she shrugged her shoulders and began to think of the immediate future of her dinner, and the long evening she would have alone with John.

She was even in a hurry to get home and dress and be ready for his coming.

"If I only win!" thought Nina, as she walked rapidly on up the Drive. "And if I lose—" she knew she could not think of the end.

CHAPTER IX.

Nina turned away from the mirror as the bell rang. She had put on a new frock that had just come home, a golden brown tulle with a vivid girde of orange.

"To-night she had ordered a special dinner, and she had had John liked. She had chosen the steak herself and made those tart of which he had spoken last week.

Perhaps it had been her fancy, but this morning he had seemed to look at her differently, a quizzical kind of look that enveloped her and made her hot one moment and cold the next, long after he had left for the office.

"Oh, here you are!" Nina drawled, coming into the room.

Nina lifted her lips but Nina brushed her cheek with a kiss.

"Is this your room?" was her first remark, as she turned and looked curiously around. "Awful looking dressing table, Varia. Lost your taste since your marriage? No curtains, and no nice picture of the Madonna. However you can stand that sort of thing about."

Nina pretended to straighten the shell toilette articles on her dressing table, while Nina, turning from her observation, saw that Varia's face was hot with color.

"Nina!" Nina said expressively, "you keep your things in your room, John has his in the other!"

"Let's go into the living-room," Varia put in, hurrying ahead. "I wanted to show you."

—But a taunting little smile played about Nina's lips and when she had thrown herself down on the wide couch she merely asked, "Any cigarettes?"

"I've called up twice this week and couldn't get you," Varia declared.

"But Nina, you're looking awfully look rotten, Varia. You're losing your complexion; it was the best thing you had. Pretty thin too for your height."

"No, I think it's only this dress. It slopes off the shoulders so, and then it's so flimsy it makes me look thinner."

And Nina only arched her brows and threw a malicious gleam from her long, dark eyes.

"But I'm dying to hear about you, Nina. What have you been doing and where have you been?"

Nina shrugged.

"Did you get that frock? I thought so. You're wearing that frock that I saw when you were in New York? Tell me! I want you to do something for me, will you? Tell me! I've got to have my allowance. It's simple, it's simple, it's simple for him to act the way he has been doing, just because I wasn't married in white satin and pearls! I've been there twice and he's impossible. But you can work him, Varia; you always could."

Then as she caught the expression on Varia's face she sat up straight for the first time.

"He's said something to you! What is it? Tell me!" she demanded.

"I'd much rather tell you—no—I know he'll get over his feeling, he always does in the end. But he said—"

"Oh, Nina, dear, don't tell me!" Nina demanded harshly.

the province where business is to be secured.

This year, however, it was decided to extend invitations to every Board of Trade in the Province to participate in a joint trip to northern points for the purposes of pleasure only and the wives and families of members are also invited to take in the trip that has been arranged.

New Westminster has taken a good allotment of reservations and it is hoped that Victoria will send at least twenty-five members of the Chamber of Commerce as representing the business interests of this city. So far Victoria is way below New Westminster in the number of representatives who will take in the excursion, for which a special reduced rate has been arranged, and Mr. Beatty pointed out the necessity of this city sending a good strong quota along with the representatives of other cities in the Province. This is one of the most beautiful and attractive tours on the Pacific Coast, and those who go from Victoria will be serving a double purpose, that of enjoying a very pleasant holiday and of showing that we are alive and enterprising," said Mr. Beatty.

Those who are desirous of making reservations for the trip are requested to send in their names at once, to Gordon Scott, managing secretary of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

Rev. Mr. Ecclestone, Lucknow, was appointed pastor of the combined parishes of Belmont and Glen-worth.

NO FOUNDATION FOR REPORT OF SEIZURE OF JAPANESE SEALER

Tokio, May 20.—The Foreign Office to-day said it had no confirmation concerning the destruction of a Japanese schooner alleged to have been caught sealing in Canadian waters recently by the steamer Malaspina, as reported in dispatches from Prince Rupert, B.C., on Friday last. The Japanese Consul in Vancouver has been asked to investigate the report. Foreign Office officials said. Vancouver, May 30.—There is no foundation to the report from Prince Rupert that the Dominion fisheries cruiser Malaspina captured a Japanese schooner recently and confiscated seal skins, according to a wireless message received by a local paper from Captain Holmes Newcombe of the Government vessel. Twice a Month Service Is Promised to Orient With New Ships on Run Liners Empress of Canada and Empress of China Will Be Added to C. P. O. S. Fleet on Pacific This Year.

With the addition to its trans-Pacific fleet of the new liner Empress of Canada and the recently acquired ex-German liner which will be known as the Empress of China, the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Ltd., will be in a position to give a twice-a-month service between this coast and the Orient.

According to a statement issued from C. P. O. S. headquarters the former German twin-screw steamship Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm, purchased from the British Ministry of Shipping and renamed Empress of China, will be in operation on the trans-Pacific route in the near future. The Empress of China is a vessel of 17,082 gross tons, 589.9 feet in length, 68.3 feet beam and 28.6 feet deep. She is capable of developing a sea speed of 18 knots an hour.

CUNARDER VENUSIA FIRST AT MONTREAL

Captain Michael Doyle Presented With Gold-headed Cane

The captain of the first trans-Atlantic liner to reach Montreal after the ice melts each Spring is presented with a gold-headed cane. This year it was the good fortune of Captain Michael Doyle, of the Cunarder Venusia, to win the coveted prize. As she came into port the steamship was met by representatives of the Harbor Board and the press, and a lunch, at which Captain Doyle was the host, was served to the visitors. The Venusia was decorated for the presentation ceremony, and President W. G. Ross, of the Montreal Harbor Commission, in a complimentary speech, presented the gold-headed cane to Captain Doyle. Moving picture men were present to register the event, which was of general interest in the Eastern port.

PUAKO WAS MANNED BY SPLENDID CREW

Capt. C. E. Helms Sorry to Lose Men Who Served Him Loyal on Voyage

"The best crew I have had under me for many a long day, and I am sorry to lose them," declared Captain Charles E. Helms, master of the American Victory, at the time of the Puako, after paying off the men who sailed with him on the recent voyage of the four-masted windjammer now lying at anchor in Esquimalt harbor. The Puako is now laid up here awaiting instructions from her owners, and as there is little likelihood of the vessel being fitted for another voyage just now, owing to the unsatisfactory state of the cargo, the crew has been paid off and the American members sent across the border to the United States. Several of the Americans in the Puako's crew were signed on at Newcastle, N. S. W., and they all proved to be good sailors.

Good windjammer men are not plentiful these days, and when the master of a sailing craft lines up a good squad he is reluctant to let them go. Faced by the immigration laws of this country, however, Captain Helms had no alternative but to break up his happy family, and the last of the American members of the crew of the Puako left this afternoon by the steamship Queen for San Francisco. Four of the crew of thirteen were signed on here prior to the departure of the Puako last Fall for Australia, and they are remaining on this side. The Puako's crew are unanimous in their praise of Captain Helms, and maintain that a more type of sailing master never paced the poop deck of a windjammer. He gave his men a square deal, and the crew was ever ready to carry out his orders.

MAKURA BROUGHT EXTRA PASSENGER

Arthur Nelson Worrall Overton First Saw Light of Day Off Fijian Islands

Arthur Nelson Worrall Overton arrived as a passenger by the Canadian-Australasian liner Makura, but he was not recorded on the passenger list and nothing concerning him was known to the immigration authorities when the liner cleared from Auckland. His arrival at Victoria was no secret. In fact, Arthur Nelson Worrall Overton was rather a distinguished traveler to the country. The little fellow first opened his eyes under the sunny skies of the South Pacific as the steamship Makura was steaming between Auckland and Suva. Indifferent to the attractions of Victoria, he was calmly sleeping in a comfortable berth in the ship's hospital, when the Makura docked here from Australia. The proud mother was taking her watch over the sleeping boy and thought him the finest baby it was possible to conceive.

Young Arthur Nelson Worrall Overton was ushered into the world on Friday, May 13, off the Fijian Islands, and he was exactly fifteen days old when the liner departed at this port. Dr. Fairbairn, ship's surgeon, testified to the health of the unheralded passenger and he experienced no difficulty in securing admittance to the country. Mr. and Mrs. Overton were third-class passengers by the Makura and are returning to Seattle after several years' residence in Australasia. Captain L. C. H. Worrall, commander of the Makura, had no objection to the boy taking his name, so he will be duly christened Arthur Nelson Worrall Overton.

NEW ZEALAND LOOKS TO CANADA FOR HER BUILDING METHODS

A. E. Rowse Sent Here by Southern Government to Study Home Architecture

Investigation of Canadian town planning systems and the latest methods of building construction, is the mission of A. E. Rowse, representing the architectural branch of the New Zealand Government railway department, who arrived here by the liner Makura from Auckland. The New Zealand Government, Mr. Rowse says, is making provision for the erection of homes to house the State employees in New Zealand. Mr. Rowse has been instructed by the New Zealand Government to inquire into and report on the best system in Canada for the erection of houses, also town planning and settlement schemes.

He will also investigate factory management and the latest developments in labor-saving manufacturing and agricultural machinery. Hon. Joseph Baynes, C. M. G., former Minister of Lands and Works in Natal, and C. W. F. Harrison, commissioner in South Africa for the Federation of British Industries, arrived by the Makura from Durban, via Australia. Hon. Mr. Baynes is one of the pioneers of South Africa and has been prominently identified with the farming industry since 1865.

ALL STEEL DINERS FOR WESTERN LINES

New Series of Cars Have Many New Features and Improvements

The mechanical excellence of the car-builder, combined with the deft touch of the artist, is reflected in the new 1921 series of all steel dining cars built recently for the Canadian National Railway. Five of these cars were assigned this week to Western lines, and are now part of the equipment of the "Continental Limited," which operates daily between Vancouver and Montreal.

Ventilation, lighting and refrigeration are features which were given special attention, and the new cars embody other improvements suggested by dining car crews for the convenience of themselves, as well as of the traveling public. All are equipped with automatic electric heaters, which snap on when the door opens. There are specially built-in refrigerators for meat, for fish, for fowl, for salad stuff, for milk and cream. The stove has two huge ovens and steam tables beside it to hold the cooked food. Two copper tanks near the kitchen ceiling collect any drips of water from the preparing of three meals. Dishwashing is done by hand, machines having been proved impracticable, because of the hot summer days. After the meal, every utensil is tucked in its place and the tables and ledges are bare as a ship's decks.

In the pantry, connected with the kitchen by sliding windows, there are more ice chests, a ventilated bread board, cup and plate warmer, dish racks and running water, which is filtered by the latest approved processes. The dining room is finished with light ceiling and light oak walls, almost bare of decoration, simplicity being the present style edict for diners. There are dust-proof ventilators and ciner deflectors for the windows. The four electric fans rotate so that they keep the air in motion without causing a noticeable blast. One of the features that will appeal to mothers with small children is the tiny chair of oak, upholstered in leather like the large chairs and made lighter to them, answering the purpose of a high chair. At the steward's end of the car is the emergency heating system which can be used if the car is cut off from the train and the emergency lighting apparatus, for use if the electric plant fails. There is a cigar locker with humidifier and an ice locker for soft drinks. At the rear is a personal locker for the crew and a certified alcove where a passenger can lie down. Electricity for lighting is generated by the speed of the train by means of a dynamo swung below the car. The power being held in storage batteries. There is also a reserve bin of coal below the car. In fact, when the diner starts on his trip it is a self-contained commissariat, fitted to run for days, if necessary, without taking on supplies.

BRIEF LOCALS
Kiwanis Club-The Civic Question from the 'American Viewpoint' will be the subject of an address by Rev. H. H. Gowen, D.D., of Seattle, before the Kiwanis Club to-morrow at the Dominion Hotel.
Picnic at Mt. Douglas-A very enjoyable picnic was held last Saturday afternoon at Mount Douglas Park by about forty members of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church. Cars for the occasion were kindly loaned by Captain McGregor, Fred McGregor, Alex. Bell, Mr. Patterson, Mr. McKillop and Mr. Skillings. All children of Junior age are cordially invited to join this Society.
Enjoyable Gathering-In the Orange Hall Saturday night a successful military five hundred drive was conducted by the Queen of the Island Lodge, for which prizes were awarded. After the card playing was ended dancing was indulged in by the large number present to the strains of music provided by Mrs. Ridgard's orchestra. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Mrs. C. Guphill, Mrs. G. W. Dinsley and Mrs. M. Stevens.
Knights of the Thistle-A social gathering will be held in the Cathedral Hall, View Street to-morrow evening, commencing at 8.30 o'clock, by the Knights of the Thistle. The first part of the evening will be occupied in a whist tournament, for which excellent prizes will be awarded the successful contestants. The evening will be rounded off with dancing, for which the music will be supplied by Wallace's orchestra.

St. Columba Social-The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Columba Presbyterian Church will hold a 'Get Together' at the church, 1301 Douglas Street, Mitchell and Granite Streets, Oak Bay, Wednesday evening, June 1, at 8.30 o'clock. All members of the community are most heartily invited. Ladies will please bring boxes containing enough supper for two, and their cards. These will be sold to the men for one dollar each. Tea and coffee will be furnished by the society. An enjoyable evening is anticipated, and it is hoped a large number will attend.
Victoria Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F.-At the last meeting of this Lodge two brothers completed their membership by taking the big Chemainus mill to southern interests was off. The option on the mill and timber limits taken by the southern interests, which were negotiating for the purchase of the property, had expired. Mr. Palmer said, and the plant would remain under its present control.
Mr. Palmer announced also that he had retired from active management of the concern with which he has been associated for many years. He will remain at Chemainus, however, to exercise general supervision of the mill, with J. D. Long as his assistant and active manager.

Earthquake Felt Locally-The record of an earthquake, lasting twenty-two minutes, was made at the Gonzales Dominion Meteorological Observatory as having taken place shortly after noon Saturday, commencing at 12.55 p. m., standard time. The wireless operator at Alert Bay, and the chief pilot at Bull Harbor, both recorded feeling slight shocks for a period of some seconds, while nothing was felt at the Estevan station. From the report it is argued that the tremor took place under water at some point within the vicinity of the first named two stations. Mr. Napier, Denison, director of the local observatory, places the disturbance at a distance of some 200 miles from Victoria. A point north of the island, or perhaps in Queen Charlotte Sound, were assigned as the possible location of the disturbance.

MITCHELL AND FOOD ARE SPOON WINNERS
The 16th Scottish Rifle Association held their weekly shoot on Saturday under excellent weather conditions. Sergeant W. E. Mitchell won the 'A' class spoon and Pte. A. B. Food the 'B' class spoon. There was also a team shoot between H.M.C.S. Aurora and the 16th Scottish, the latter winning by 72 points.

Lame Back? Stiff? Achy?
The man who gets up in the morning all out of sorts with lame back, stiff limbs, a dull 'achy' head, better look out for himself-maybe his kidneys are to blame.
Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists.
As a remedy for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation caused by uric acid-as scalding urine, backache and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gout, it is simply wonderful how quickly An-uric acts.
An-uric (anti-uric acid) is a recent scientific discovery by Doctor Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y. Send 10c. there for a large trial package, or sold by druggists, 60c.

Maccabees 50 Drive-Reviews No. 1 and No. 11, of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees, will hold a military 500 in the dining-room of the Clarence Hotel, through the kindness of the proprietress, Mrs. Allen, on Wednesday at 8.30 p. m. There will be good scrip prizes given.

DEAL FOR SALE OF CHEMAINUS MILL OFF
E. J. Palmer, head of the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Company, of Chemainus, announced to The Times to-day that the deal involving the sale of the big Chemainus mill to southern interests was off. The option on the mill and timber limits taken by the southern interests, which were negotiating for the purchase of the property, had expired. Mr. Palmer said, and the plant would remain under its present control.
Mr. Palmer announced also that he had retired from active management of the concern with which he has been associated for many years. He will remain at Chemainus, however, to exercise general supervision of the mill, with J. D. Long as his assistant and active manager.

FRUIT SETTING WELL
Bloom Disappearing As Development Proceeds; Shower Helped Out.
Bloom on all varieties of fruit on Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands is gradually disappearing and the fruit appears to be setting well, with the exception of pears, according to the report issued to-day by the Horticultural Branch of the Department of Agriculture.
Strawberries are at the height of the bloom and fruit from the early blossom is well set. Excellent growth weather has prevailed during the week, the report goes on. May 24 was one of the warmest days experienced. There was a nice shower on the morning of the 25th and it has turned colder.
MISSIONARY NOTES.
Dr. and Mrs. Baird, who have been on a year's furlough in Eastern Canada, left to-day by the Empress of Russia for their mission field in Honan, China.
The members of Knox Church Mission Band held on Thursday an open meeting and entertainment for their parents and friends. This Mission Band, while only in its third year, returned second in the Province, being next to Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian Church, Vancouver, which at the recent convention in that city, received the banner for the year.
St. Paul's Union Band held a similar meeting this week, when the children did exceptionally well with a varied programme of songs, recitation and drills. A large gathering of friends were present.

ATTRACTIVE FETE AT ST. MARGARET'S
Delightful Affair Saturday
Netted About $150 For School Library.
Golden broom gave a pretty touch of color to the garden fete at St. Margaret's School on Saturday afternoon, when the combined efforts of the teaching staff and pupils resulted in the raising of about $150 for the new school library fund.
The Misses Barton, principals, directed the general arrangements, and each class took a share in the varied attractions.
The girls of the second-year High School were in charge of all games and competitions, tennis, clock golf, Aunt Sally, hidden treasure and lighting candles. Annie Miller was in charge of the tennis, the prizes in which were won by two 'Old Girls,' Gwen Hudson and Arline Stewart Williams. Clock golf was won by Annie Miller, candle lighting was won by Avis Stacey. Butterfly painting, another of the competitions, was won by Noel Wolf, and Rev. G. H. Andrews won the baby doll by correctly guessing her name, 'Mary Louise.' Avis Stacey was in charge of this competition.
The first year High School girls were in charge of the home cooking table, which did a brisk business, the third year High School served tea in the dining room, making a great success of their department.
The tiny tots and Second Form girls gave an entertainment in the gymnasium; the Kindergarten children superintended the flower stall, and the Entrance class sold ice cream and lemonade, while the Lucky Goose netted much money for the Third Form girls.
The affair was largely attended by parents and friends of the students and was one of the most successful affairs ever organized at the school.

FINE VANCOUVER HOTEL RE-OPENED
Elysium, Remodeled, Is Now Palatial Hostelry
An addition to Vancouver's hostelry was made Saturday by the opening of the Elysium Hotel at 1149 Pender Street as a modern tourist hotel, in anticipation of the coming season's tourist traffic. Parties are arriving now from San Francisco and Seattle to take up residence, though the official opening will not take place until Tuesday night, when a supper-dance will be given by the management.
Exquisite taste and lavish expenditures of the refurbishing and redecorating of the house have made the Elysium one of the show places in the city. The ninety rooms, forty of which have a wonderful view up and down the Inlet, have all been redecorated in white enamel and French grey, with selected mauve roses and light blue tones and cretonne hangings to match the carpet. The furniture is in walnut throughout. The exterior is now being redecorated, and is to be further beautified with flower beds and boxes of geraniums and margsuerites.
Beautiful Decorations.
The rotunda has been treated with Venetian green marble pillars and pilasters surmounted by ceiling decorations in white and gold, relieved by concealed lights behind art glass panels. The walls are done in walnut and maroon panels. A series of 104 cluster lights illuminate the rotunda. The indoor room, leading from the rotunda, is treated in old rose tones, with lace netted curtains. French style furniture and piano with old rose cretonne coverings.
Fraser Christie, joint manager, is the chief clerk, assisted by Capt. A. Pearce. The restaurant and dining-room has been taken over by Robert Petrie, for eleven years captain on the Hotel Vancouver staff. The dining-room with its 70 feet of length, white-out pillars and its single fireplace, is treated in white and maroon.
The Elysium was built ten years ago for residential hotel purposes. Until taken over recently and renovated and refurbished by the Elysium Hotel Company it had done good service for several years as the Returned Soldiers' Club; its array of field guns at the entrance making it an attraction for visitors on the way to Stanley Park.

Thompson Holds Yakima In Check and Caps Win

Victoria Defeated Fruit-Pickers Yesterday By 9-3; Capitals On Great Hitting Spree With Gatewood, As Clean-up Hitter, Gathering Three Singles; Thompson Struck Out Twelve Men; Homer Won Saturday's Game.

Yakima, Wash., May 30.—Victoria turned loose its heavy artillery here yesterday and played havoc with the offerings of Pat Eastley. It was the opening game of the initial series here between the Capitals and Fruit-Pickers. Yakima has had such a triumphant tour on the road that 2,500 fans turned out to welcome home the league leaders. The stage was all set for a big show, but Victoria acted altogether unlike tail-enders and swamped the locals, the final score being 9-3.

Thompson, a hefty southpaw, worked for Victoria and he stood the hard-hitting locals on their heads and spun them around for good measure. Thompson's slants were a complete puzzle and he struck out no less than twelve men. He walked four men and yielded eight hits which turned in three runs.

Gatewood As Clean-up Hitter.

Manager Blankenship got a bunch during the trip over from Victoria and decided to give Gatewood another trial in the field. So far this season Gatewood's batting average hasn't amounted to much more than a string of zeros, but yesterday he took the clean-up position in the batting order and clouted out three singles and trips to the plate. Gatewood drove in runs with each of his bingles.

Messner, Shoots and Bankhead also hit well. Messner collected three hits, one a double, in six times up, while Shoots and Bankhead collected two hits. Bankhead annexed a pair. Dempsey was unable to do anything with the offerings of Eastley and Tipton and took the count on five different occasions.

Yakima Muet Fight.

Victoria played bang-up ball in the field and looked like the old team which won the championship last year. Yakima will have to fight hard to take this series. Yesterday's loss came as a hard blow to Yakima as the team had won ten consecutive victories.

The teams will play a double-header here to-day.

The box score follows:

Victoria	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Messner, 2b.	5	2	3	2	0	0
Shoots, c.f.	4	1	2	0	0	0
Bankhead, 1b.	4	1	2	0	0	0
Gatewood, r.f.	5	0	3	0	0	0

Homer Did Trick.

Handley's thrilling home run over the right centre field fence on Saturday afternoon broke up a thrilling tussle between Tacoma and Victoria. The ninth inning waltzed around and the Capitals were lagging behind by two runs.

Messner drew a pass. Shoots popped out to Stevens and Bankhead's long drive to right field was taken care of by Robke. With two away the prospects for a win were none too bright. Then Hansen managed to draw a pass and Dempsey rapped out a single which scored Messner.

Manager Mullen thought that Hovey was slipping and sent him to the dugout and called Cross to the mound. It was a critical moment, for with Handley at the bat there were possibilities for most anything. Cross shot a fast ball down the heart of the batter and Handley's bat caught it a terrible clout. The ball went high and cleared the fence by a good margin.

England Behind On First Innings With Australians

London, May 30.—(Canadian Press)—England was retired for a total of 112 runs at the close of play in the hundredth test match against Australia, which started Saturday at Nottingham before a large crowd of spectators. The Australians had lost six wickets for 167 runs with Andrews, Hendry and MacDonald still to bat.

The day's play was entirely interesting. The Australians certainly had an advantage, but the game is still open.

The chief feature was undoubtedly the Australians' bowling. Armstrong bowled three overs and took six wickets for 58 and MacDonald three for 42. Gregory took three English wickets in five balls when only 18 runs had been scored.

Rain stopped the play temporarily after an hour's play with 48 scored.

Holmes played faultlessly until lunch when he was clean bowled after a performance showing true test match form. Gregory bowled throughout the innings, making with MacDonald, perfect form.

Australians Took No Risks.

Faced with an small total, the Australians took no risks. The English fielding was excellent. Jupp, Holmes and Rhodes being especially noticeable. McCarty's score of 20 was an excellent display of batting.

Air Craft Will Watch Traffic On Way to Epsom on Wednesday

Great Crowd Expected to Witness Running of Derby Despite Restricted Train Service; Craig-an-Erna Still Favorite for Race; Alan Brock Is Now Second Choice.

London, May 30.—Police aeroplanes will co-operate with an airship in watching and regulating highway traffic between this city and Epsom Downs on Wednesday, when the Derby will be run. The activities of this new traffic squad will add a novel feature to Derby Day this year.

Restricted Train Service, which has been ordered as a result of the coal strike, is expected to bring thousands of additional motor cars and buses to the Epsom Downs Road, which in normal times is packed with every sort of vehicle journeying to and from the popular race.

Fear Congestion.

Fearing serious congestion of traffic the authorities have invoked the aid of the air force, and have established hundreds of telephone posts, which will promptly attend to any necessary diversion of traffic.

A huge temporary motor repair shop has been established at the Downs and automobile associations have provided relief motors.

The usual catering arrangements have been made to provide luncheons for 50,000 persons.

The race will have an international character, the horses entered including A. K. Macomber's United States racer The Bohemian.

Twenty-five starters.

To-day's list showed 25 entrants, but some may be withdrawn before Wednesday.

Toronto Tried Hard But Scotch Footballers Won

Fifteen Thousand Spectators Amazed at Manner in Which Scoties Placed Ball; Halliwell, Toronto Goalie, Played Sensational Game; McMenemy Was Brains of Scots' Attack; Score, 4 Goals to 1.

Toronto, May 30.—The Scottish football team now touring Canada added to their list of successes on Saturday when they defeated a selected Toronto eleven by 4 goals to 1. Fully 15,000 spectators attended the game, which was played under ideal weather conditions on the grounds of the Toronto baseball club.

In every department of the game the Scottish professionals outshone their plucky opponents, their forwards and halfbacks at times appearing to toy with the Toronto defence. The local eleven lacked cohesion, and because of this, many golden opportunities were lost. In summing up the game, however, it is only fair to state that the two goals scored by the Scotsmen in the first half came at a time when the Toronto team was playing with only ten men.

SASEENOS

A SUBDIVISION OF 1,000 ACRES ON THE INNER HARBOR OF SOOKE

SASEENOS. There is a station near the sea in the heart of the property; freight trains are in operation. We hope passenger trains will soon be.

Land in Saseenos is Suitable for Mixed Farming, Large and Small Fruit Growing and Poultry Raising

It is sheltered from the north and east winds by Mount Shephard and adjoining hills. The slopes in general are to the south and west.

HUNTING, SHOOTING AND FISHING

SASEENOS is in the centre of a good game country. Willow and blue grouse are numerous quail are shot in the hills adjoining SASEENOS. Deer are plentiful, and from Billings' Spit some of the finest sport can be obtained when duck is in season. Sooke River is said to be the fourth best trout stream on the south half of Vancouver Island, and in the sea and straits many varieties of fish, including large quantities of salmon, are caught.

A PLEASURE RESORT

SASEENOS will develop into one of the most attractive pleasure resorts adjacent to Victoria. BECAUSE the inner basin of Sooke Harbor, on which the property fronts, contains four square miles of sheltered inland sea, where boating and bathing can be safely indulged in; SASEENOS has over two miles of sea frontage with excellent beaches; the property is at the mouth of the Sooke River, one of the prettiest streams on Vancouver Island.

LEAVES TO ATTEND BIG CONVENTION OF ASSOCIATED BOARDS

Joshua Kingham, President of the Associated Boards of Trade of British Columbia, left yesterday for Invermere to attend a convention of the Southeastern Boards of Trade of the Province. He will attend the gathering simply as head of the Associated Boards, though he is a director of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce. On this account, he is not planning to introduce any matters of particular interest to this district.

It is expected that the question of Oriental competition in the farming industry will be discussed at the convention as this has been a live issue in the interior for many years. Mr. Kingham, accompanied by Mrs. Kingham, will proceed to Invermere by way of Seattle, Spokane and Cranbrook and on his return will visit Nelson, Penticton, Summerland, Vernon, Kelowna, Armstrong and Kamloops. He will be out of the city two weeks.

UP-ISLAND HOLIDAY SEASON NOW OPENS; MANY FISH CAUGHT

Cowichan Lake Is Already Crowded; Weather Hot;
Fishing Good

Cowichan Lake, May 29.—After the fine weather of the last ten days, the summer season here is now fully under way. Dad Jane's Cowichan Lake Apartment Hotel is already full after being renovated and painted. The new Riverside Hotel will not be ready for opening until June 7.

Fishing started in the lake from Dad Jane's on May 24, and since then big hauls have been made. Champion fishermen of the week ending last night were A. B. McIlvride and Al Stevens, both of Victoria. Mr. McIlvride made his big catch on May 24, when he came in with forty, many of them being five and six pounders. One of his trout ran just under eight pounds and another went seven pounds. Although yesterday was very hot he went out in the morning and came back shortly after noon with eight.

Al Stevens has been busy gathering in the trout with S. McClure and party. Their big session of the week netted them three boxes of fish of all sizes.

The Blanshard boys are set down as the second best fishermen operating here last week. They brought in forty-two trout, counting only those above two pounds.

After the Blanshards comes E. W. Jenkins, who has been making some fat hauls with his party.

Expect Beneficial Shower.

Experts on the lake, including Dad Jane, say that the fishing will be good from now on. The last few days have been hot, but late Sunday afternoon a breeze came down from the mountains at the southwest, which still have snow on their tops, and stirred up the water. Such a breeze is usually taken as a forerunner of a few good showers. This is what the fishermen are praying for as a break in the hot spell. Fishing after the showers will be particularly good as the fish then will go after anything.

The best fishing generally has been found to be along the sides of the lake quite close into shore during the early morning and evening. Some remarkable baskets have been taken in a short time up at the head of the lake, but most persons do not get up there, as it is a long trip.

Motor Parties Pour In.
There were fourteen motor cars parked at Dad Jane's Sunday, all the boats were out during the whole day with parties fishing or boating, while others stayed in the shade of the verandahs and the trees of the grounds.

Detective Harry Macdonald and W. F. Lenfesty with their families have been here on a fishing outing, and returned to Victoria Sunday night.

A party of Victoria girls who have put on rompers, taken their own dining room and kitchen and have been making gay, consists of Miss Ida McIntosh, Miss May Frank, Miss Margaret Frank, Miss Croft and Miss Fleet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Todd, of Victoria, are also at the Cowichan Lake Apartments.

Mrs. Kingsley, of Shawnigan Lake, motored in yesterday with her two sons, George and Harry, and some friends. They will stay for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McGeary and their children, also of Shawnigan Lake, are here.

O. H. Dorman, Mrs. Dorman and Miss Dorman, H. F. Norris, Mrs. Norris and Master Norris all motored up from Victoria on Sunday, and have taken rooms at the apartments until Wednesday. They are after a rest and fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brennan, of the Canadian Pacific, have arrived at the lake, and are taking a holiday at Dad's.

R. Buchanan, of Victoria, has been here with his motor speedster, and T. L. Leally. Between attempts at burning up the roads they have been out hauling in fish.

C. E. Sherwood is here from Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Shillam, Miss Shillam, A. B. McIlvride, W. A. Glendinning, Mrs. Glendinning and Miss Glendinning, all of Victoria, are holidaying here and taking in the fishing and sport generally.

Surprise Party.

Nanaimo—Miss Gladys Hindmarsh was tendered a surprise party by the students from the High School at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hindmarsh, Finlayson Street, Friday night. The party, which numbered about forty, spent a most enjoyable evening.

New Police Chief.

Nanaimo—John Shirras was appointed chief of police last night at a meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners, to succeed the late Chief of Police J. Neen.

The new chief has had considerable experience in police work, both in England and on the local force, having been sergeant for some years prior to going overseas. He is a capable and reliable man and his appointment will meet with general favor.

The Police Commissioners instructed Clerk Hackwood to forward a letter of condolence to the family of the late Chief Neen, expressing the board's sympathy with them in their bereavement.

King's Daughters.

Duncan—At the meeting of the Scattered Circle of King's Daughters held Friday afternoon, all officers were re-elected as follows: President, Mrs. W. H. Elkington; first vice-president, Mrs. F. G. Christmas; second vice-president, Mrs. J. L. Hird; recording secretary, Miss Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Whitton; secretary, Mrs. Fry.

Plans were discussed in reference to the convention which will be held in Duncan on June 3 and 4. The following were appointed as delegates from the Circle: Mrs. J. H. Whitton, Mrs. F. S. Leather, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. B. Rice, Mrs. H. N. Watson, Mrs. R. S. Henderson, Miss Mutter, Mrs. W. Blythe, Mrs. W. H. Dell, Hopkins, Mrs. J. L. Hird, Mrs. Thurn, Miss Simpson, Mrs. Chris. Dobson, Mrs. W. Provost, and Mrs. W. H. Elkington, and Miss Wilson by virtue of their office as members of the executive.

Spelling Bee.

Comox.—The Comox District Teachers Federation has issued an invitation to all the schools of the district to send candidates to a spelling contest in Cumberland on June 10. The rules and words are the same as will be used in Vancouver by the Kiwanis Club in the school contest there. Three classes of words will be given and the best pupil of each school in the second, third and fourth grades will go to Cumberland for the final, says the Comox Argus. Unlike the old Spelling Bee the words given will not be catch words but will be taken 50 per cent from the respective readers and 20 per cent words in common use. So that such standbys as xanthomelanite and phosphoranylite will be thrown out as unimportant.

Courtenay, Cumberland, Bevan, Union Bay, Royston and Sandwich have already signified their intention of competing and others will no doubt come in later.

Prizes are being given by the Cumberland and Courtenay Parent-Teachers Associations.

To Reside in California.

Port Alberni: Mr. and Mrs. Waring Alberni, left on Saturday last for California, where they will take up their residence and engage in fruit ranching. Mr. Waring recently returned from a fifteen months' voyage on a sailing ship to Australia.

For Dominion Day.

Port Alberni: The next national holiday will be on Dominion Day, and it will be celebrated as in years past by the citizens of the old town of Alberni, the people of Port Alberni and other parts of the district taking part in the proceedings. The programme will be full of variety and long enough to keep the crowds attracted from morning till evening.—Port Alberni News.

Memorial Arch.

Cumberland: The Memorial Arch here was unveiled on Tuesday at the Empire Day celebration. The arch is a 15th century portal, with an arch opening ten feet wide and eleven feet high at the apex. The supporting pillars contain recessed panels in which is space for cast bronze tablets. Owing to delay in shipping these tablets from Montreal they did not arrive in time and substitutes had to be used. These bronze tablets will contain the names of the twenty-eight men in whose honor the arch is erected. The pediment contains three recessed arched panels, the centre one having the year of erection upon it. In the centre, between two pillars, is a modern sanitary drinking fountain. From either side of the arch is arranged a fence composed of short concrete pillars and heavy chains, giving a pleasing finish to the arch. W. A. Owen, construction engineer for the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd., designed the memorial and supervised the construction of it, and to him great credit is due for the artistic appearance of the structure.

Soldiers' Housing.

Nanaimo—Acting on the request from the local branch of the Great War Veterans' Association, the Local Council of Women wired Premier Meighen and J. C. McIntosh, M.P., endorsing the G. W. V. A.'s application for a further loan under the Better Housing Act, and urging them to use their influence to include British Columbia in their estimates.

The following communication which reached the corresponding secretary Friday is self explanatory:

Ottawa, Ont., May 29.
Mrs. Pearl Reynolds, Corresponding Secretary Local Council of Women, Nanaimo, B. C.

Dear Madam:—On behalf of the Prime Minister I beg to acknowledge your telegram of the 18th of May, indicating the endorsement by the Nanaimo Council of Women of the application of the Great War Veterans' Association for a further loan for housing purposes in British Columbia. This matter will receive consideration. I might say that a special Parliamentary Committee on Re-establishment of which Major Hume Cronyn is chairman, is now giving attention to the question of housing for returned men. The whole subject is to be thoroughly gone into, after which the committee will submit its report to Parliament.

Yours sincerely,
GEORGE BUSKARD,
Private Secretary.

Courtenay—Courtenay will crown her May Queen to-morrow (Tuesday).

Miss Dorothy Hames has been by a vote of the school elected Queen of the May and her court will consist of the following:

Maids of Honor—Honor Fechner, Christine Millard, Elenor Cameron, Dorothy Sutherland.
Flower Girls—Doris McKenzie, Margaret Cook, Kathleen Hagarty, Irene Annand, Margaret Brown, Saxon Sutherland, Helen Cokely, Phyllis Prain, Ruth Pidcock, Edith Emde, Alice Hurford, Deanie Cameron, Annie Rushton, Annie Cudmore, Herald—Sidney Stocks.
Master of Ceremonies—Mayor Simms.

The procession will leave the school at 2:30 and will make its way to the Agricultural Grounds where the crowning ceremonies will take place and the planting of the may-poles undertaken.

"ERMINIE" TO-NIGHT FINAL PERFORMANCE

Charming Musical Offering in Two-Act Comedy at Royal Victoria Theatre

"Erminie," the comic opera by Jacobowski, will be staged at the Royal Victoria Theatre to-night by the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society, and box office returns indicate that there will be a crowded house. The performance begins at 8.15 o'clock and will take the form of a benefit to Miss Eva Hart, who is playing in the title role.

"Erminie" is a wonderful composition and the entire opera is noted for its beauty and grace. A beautifully-gowned chorus supports the talented local artists who carry the principal parts.

So popular was the opera that the seating capacity of the Little Theatre Oak Bay, was totally inadequate to accommodate the demand, and even after a two weeks' run in Oak Bay there were so many people disappointed at not getting tickets that the society, in response to numerous requests, decided to put the opera on at the Royal Victoria Theatre for one night only. To-night's performance of the opera will positively be the last.

Miss Eva Hart has done so much to help worthy causes in Victoria that the society decided that it would be an appropriate thing to do to make this performance a benefit affair in her honor, and it is felt that the public will appreciate the situation and approve of this tribute.

The scenery in "Erminie" is very attractive and the dancing by a bevy of pretty girls is alone worth the price of admission, while the music and words of the opera are most tuneful and appropriate. In "Erminie" the local society has offered theatre-goers a treat that will not be seen here again for a long time.

NOW AT DOMINION

Star of "The City of Silent Men" Stays at Sing Sing

Sing Sing prison is not such a bad place after all, according to Thomas Meighan, Paramount star, who is now playing at Dominion Theatre in his latest starring vehicle, "The City of Silent Men." Mr. Meighan and his company spent more than two weeks at the famous penitentiary, taking scenes for the new picture, and in many of these the warden and the guards, and even some of the prisoners, appear.

"Prison conditions are now different from what they used to be," said Mr. Meighan. "The men are treated more like human beings. They all seem cheerful, they are not compelled to have their heads shaved, or to wear stripes, and they can furnish and decorate their cells to suit their own fancies. They have their periods of recreation, and their games, such as baseball and handball; have their own motion picture theatre, publish their own prison newspaper, and have many other means of diversion."

In his new production, Mr. Meighan plays the role of a country youth who is sent to serve a term in Sing Sing, and to secure the utmost realism, the scenes were taken in the exact locale of the story. The direction was by Tom Forman and the supporting cast includes Lois Wilson, Kate Bruce, Paul Everton, George MacQuarrie and Guy Oliver.

THE SAGE HEN IS TALE OF GOLD RUSH DAYS

Edgar Lewis Film at Pantages Recalls Old West

"The Sage Hen" is the picture offering at Pantages Theatre to-day and to-morrow. Edgar Lewis is the producer, and in this play, as in others he has presented, the dominant idea is the story and for that reason no attempt has been made to play up any individual star. The cast, as a whole, is well balanced and effective, and the story a romantic tale of the Old West.

Because she lived alone with her baby son and took no one into her confidence, Jane Croft was looked upon by the people of Silver Creek as a thing unclean and indecent. The "Sage Hen," they called her, and drove her, with sticks and stones, from the village. Only Mrs. Rudd, who longed for a child of her own, showed kindness. She rode after Jane with her pet horse, which would return home when turned loose, a rig, food and a rifle. Jane lost the main road across the desert. Indians attacked and wounded her. To save her son she strapped him to the horse's back and headed the animal toward Silver Creek.

George Sanson, riding by, found her unconscious and took her to the far distant town of Keno. He had a motherless baby daughter, and when she learned that the Rudds had adopted her son and been driven out of town, therefore, leaving no address, she became Sanson's housekeeper and gave his daughter a mother's care.

Stella Sanson grew up into a beautiful young woman, ever protected from the sordidness of the rough world in which she lived by Jane, whom the girl called "Mother." When Sanson died he left his store, hotel, saloon and daughter in Jane's care, and she had become a rich woman. Her wealth grew when a Chinaman she had grub-staked struck it rich and gave her half his claim. The Chinaman's find brought the world's adventures to Keno, and from this point develops a dramatic plot.

The screen probably knows no other actress more splendidly fitted for the title role than Gladys Brockwell. As the young mother fighting to keep her son, and later, as the woman driven to the supreme sacrifice of all because of her love for her boy and the girl they both love, she is magnificent. Miss Brockwell has many splendid characterizations to her credit, but this is her greatest role.

Lillian Rich, whose beauty and charm was greatly in evidence in "Felix O'Day," "Dice of Destiny," "Half a Chance," and others, upholds the romantic end of the story.

WILLIAM FARNUM IN "IF I WERE KING"

Fox Motion Picture Will Be Lavish in Costuming

William Fox motion pictures are noted for their lavishness in costuming, but William Fox outdid himself in the special film production of Justin Huntly McCarthy's famous book, and stage play, "If I Were King," in which William Farnum stars, and which will be presented at the Variety Theatre to-day. The costumes worn by Mr. Farnum in this masterpiece are among the most magnificent ever shown on the screen. They were made especially for the popular Fox star. One in particular is made of the finest of brocade satins, trimmed with real ermine. With this costume Mr. Farnum carries a jeweled dagger and a sword, made of the finest Toledo steel.

POPULAR PIANIST TO APPEAR IN RECITAL HERE TO-MORROW

"GOING UP" HERE AT PRINCESS

Is Next Offering of Mildred Page Players

The Mildred Page Players, after much consideration, have decided that instead of closing the Yates Street theatre for the summer, that they will produce a line of up-to-date musical comedy successes. This is a new departure for the talented stock company and is warranted to please the patrons of the Princess, and in fact, the many friends and admirers made by them during their long stay in Victoria.

"Going Up" is the pay chos-a, begin the new policy. Many are familiar with the catchy tunes and clever lines which made "Going Up" such a decided success several years ago and those of you who haven't seen it cannot afford to miss what promises to be the greatest treat of the season. Pretty girls, pretty gowns, classy stage settings, and good music; with a splendid play as a background, for a combination hard to beat.

Guessing contests for "grown-ups" and kiddies will continue through the summer season.

M. CHERNIAVSKY HERE IN RECITAL

Notable Programme For Concert With Mrs. Green To-morrow

There can be no doubt, when Mischel Cherniavsky, who is here prior to joining his brothers in Australia, appears in recital to-morrow evening at the Empress Hotel ballroom, he will meet with a cordial reception. Few cellists produce such a super quality of tone, immaculately sweet is it, and rich in volume. Moreover, the programme will prove exceptionally interesting and an artistic treat, from the further fact that Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green will be at the piano throughout the evening. It is no surprise, therefore, that the cellist decided to substitute the Beethoven Sonata (Andante-Allegro) in place of the Boccherini, a work, abounding in wonderful color contrasts and technical requirements on the part of both artists. It is pleasurable, too, to note that Mr. Cherniavsky speaks most eulogistically of Mrs. Green's playing and says: "She is remarkable and one of the foremost pianists of the day." This sonata is one of Beethoven's noteworthy compositions.

The "Kol-Nidrei" (Brother Bruck) is one of the best known of this violinist's rich solos, and is a melody based

The Romance in F is one of the two famous romances of Beethoven and is known to all violinists.

"Papa" Haydn is represented on the programme by one of his lovely minuets, and the "Mazurka" by the famous cellist, David Popper (1843-1913), whose compositions for this instrument are so eminently idiomatic, is a great favorite with cellists. The "Variations Symphoniques," written for cello and orchestra, is by Leon Boellmann (1842-1897) a remarkable continental organist, and make large demands upon both players.

BREWSTER'S MILLIONS APPEARS AT ROMANO

Popular McCutcheon Story Now on Film

Could you spend a million dollars in one year, and come out at the end of that time flat broke, with no assets, and no wife to help you spend it? This is no easy task, as Fatty Arbuckle, noted comedian, proves in his latest Paramount picture, "Brewster's Millions," which will be shown at the Romano Theatre the first three days of this week.

The picture is an adaptation of the widely read novel of the same title by George Barr McCutcheon, and the famous play by Melville Stone and Winchell Smith. Mr. Arbuckle plays the role of Monte Brewster, fatherless, with two wealthy grandfathers. One of the grandfathers is an aristocrat and the other a self-made man. Each wants the boy reared in his own way. When Monte is twenty-five, Grandfather Brewster gives him one million dollars. Grandfather Ingraham comes back with a proposition to Monte that if he will spend Brewster's million in one year he will give him five million in stock. From this grows one of the funniest and fastest plots that has ever been put on the screen.

Walter Woods adapted the picture from the book and play and Joseph Henbery directed. Betty Ross Clark is the leading woman and Fred Huntly, Marlon Skinner, James Corrigan, Jean Acker, Charles Ogilvie, Neely Edwards, William Boyd and others are in the cast.

OLD TIME ENGINEER GOES BACK ON JOB

Had Given Up Hope of Ever Pulling Another Throttle, Says Skinnick

"Although I am past seventy-six years of age I am working every day for Tanlac has put me back on the job after I had given up all work and didn't think I could ever get well," said C. L. Skinnick, 520 Maryland Street, Winnipeg, recently. Mr. Skinnick has spent the greater portion of his life on the sea, being Chief Engineer on several of the largest ocean liners plying the Atlantic. Twenty years ago he gave up the sea and is now employed as stationary engineer by the Canadian National Railway.

"There is one thing I hope I never have again," he went on, "and that is rheumatism. It simply had the best of me and I was practically helpless. It had started four years before and I was so crippled up I couldn't do a lick of work. My knees were actually as stiff as boards, and of mornings I had an awful time trying to get clothes on. Why, the pains nearly killed me. My appetite went back on me and I got so I didn't want to eat a thing. I didn't know what a good night's rest meant and I was as weak as a baby."

"But it's all over with now, thank goodness. Tanlac has simply made a clean sweep of all my troubles, and I feel like a man made all over again. Those pains have all disappeared and so has that stiffness and I am eating hearty and sleeping fine like I used to years ago. I take pleasure in speaking a good word for Tanlac. It has certainly done great work for me."

PIERROTS AT GORGE

The Lewis Pierrot Troupe has just completed its opening week of entertainment at the Gorge Park, where its efforts were appreciated by large audiences, and added greatly to the entertainment of the Summer attractions at the Gorge. Aiding Miss Peggy Lewis is Miss Kathleen McDonald, contralto; Miss Sarah McIntyre, in Scottish, Irish and other dances; Syd Crossley, comedian; Dave Dumbleton, comedy and dancing; Joe Haigh, tenor, and Bert Zale, accompanist. There will be a change of programme this week, with a matinee at 3 p. m., and an evening show at 8.30 o'clock, daily. The troupe is making a very favorable impression at the Gorge Park and presents a programme that has been rounded out to appeal to the holiday tastes of all.

Notwithstanding the magnitude of the production of "The Son of Wallingford," the George Randolph Chester story which is being filmed by Vitagraph at its Hollywood studio under the direction of the author, the actual filming of the scenes will be completed within three weeks. Before the first scene was taken, Mr. Chester laid out a certain sequence for the work before the camera and to this he has strictly adhered.

FOREST FIRES RAGE

The first weekly fire report issued by the Forest Branch of the Department of Lands to-day shows that there have already been 33 fires in the Province, although the Summer weather is just beginning.

Conditions to date are better than last year, however, the report says.

The number of fires in each district and the weather conditions are given as follows: Prince George, 5, hot, occasional showers; Nelson, 5, dry and windy, rain promising; Kamloops, 12, hot, high winds, light showers; Cranbrook, 3, dry, indications of rain; Cariboo, 3, warm, light showers; Prince Rupert, 2, weather uncertain, light rain. There are no reports yet from the Vernon or Vancouver districts.

Late Police-Inspector Buried To-day

Members of the local and provincial police joined with a big concourse of the sympathetic public, in paying a last tribute to the late Frank Richard Murray, Inspector of Provincial Police, whose remains were laid at rest this morning in Ross Bay Cemetery.

At 3:45 a brief service was held at the residence at 710 Linden Avenue by the Rev. Anselm Wood, after which the cortege proceeded to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where service was held at 9 o'clock. The casket, with its wealth of flowers, tribute from friends and associates throughout the Province, was escorted from the house to its final resting-place by the city police under Chief Fry and Deputy-Chief Palmer, and the Oak Bay police under Chief Syme, both bodies being in uniform. Representatives of the city detective force, the Provincial Police and the Knights of Columbus awaited the cortege at the church, where Rev. Father Wood conducted the impressive Mass and, in an impressive address, eulogized the late inspector.

The pallbearers were Superintendent W. G. McMyne, John Cochrane, Joseph Wilson, Frank Higgins, K.C., James Forman and J. D. O'Connell. Rev. Father Wood performed the last rites at the graveside.

SUSPICION NOW KEEPS GREAT FORCES APART

Joseph Clearihue Advocates
Formation of a Forum in
Address to Gyro Club

That suspicion is one of the greatest factors in keeping labor and capital apart, was the statement made by Joseph B. Clearihue, M. P. P., in an address on "Co-operation between Labor and Capital," at a luncheon given by the Gyro Club to-day.

Mr. Clearihue hoped that the day would come when this suspicion would be removed, and he thought that the creation in British Columbia of a forum, designed after the Whiteley Council of England, would go a long way to establish this desire. He did not think that councils could be established here to look after each industry, as was the case in England, but he thought that one council with committees to supervise the workings of each industry could be established. The forum would assist in settling all disputes between employers and employees and look into measures for increased production.

Mr. Clearihue spoke of the need of scientific production and advocated the use of more scientific engineers in the industry of this Province.

During the luncheon Harold Dighton and Jack Trace staged their interesting magician act, which went well. Mr. Trace's solo was greatly enjoyed.

B. C. MINERS RUSH TO PAY LICENSES

Two Thousand Have to Settle
Before To-morrow Evening

Miners and owners of mining claims will participate to-morrow in the last minute rush to pay their annual $5 license fees for miners' certificates.

Two thousand of the 10,000 mining men in B. C. will have to pay their fees to-morrow, which is the last day for renewal of licenses. Herbert Stanton, Provincial Gold Commissioner announced to-day. Payment has to be made to a Government agent or mining recorder. In Victoria licenses are renewed at the Department of Mines, Parliament Buildings. There are more than 150 out of the 100 mining men in this city who will have to pay up before 5 o'clock to-morrow.

Expenders of all claims under the mineral and placer mining acts, including companies, must pay for their license. The only exception is in the case of mineral claims that have been Crown granted.

MEAN TO END IRISH DISORDERS

Law will be proclaimed throughout every county. Despite the hopeful signs of the past two months—the meeting between Sir James Craig and Eamonn de Valera, the Prime Minister's invitations to de Valera to come to London for a conference and the Prime Minister's meeting with Flynn, formerly Governor of New York State—despite the hope which these events aroused that an Irish settlement was possible and might be effected, the Government is now determined to consider whether the time has not come to use every possible military, naval and air force to crush the rebellion and to ensure upon the Government to close all doors to settlement until the Sinn Fein acknowledges defeat in increasing numbers, but the words of Sir James Craig, formerly Governor of New York State, are reassuring to this extent, that despite recent events the Government has not changed its policy of turning Ireland over to the candidate of the National Liberal and Conservative Party, carried York-Sunbury on Saturday for the Meighen Government by a majority of nearly 1,000. Returns, with the exception of Northdale, located in the far north-eastern corner of the constituency, where there are only 57 eligible voters, 7,179 votes for Mr. Hanson and 6,207 for Ernest W. Stairs, the United Farmers' candidate.

With Northdale returns missing Mr. Hanson has a majority of 953. But it is expected Northdale will show about two to one in favor of Mr. Stairs, as the United Farmers' organization will vote with the nearest centre, has been active. The final majority of Mr. Hanson will probably be between 925 and 950.

URGENT COUNCIL MEET THIS WEEK

Arrival of British. The first detachment of the Black Watch are expected to-morrow. They will be followed by others. They will come a British officer of rank at least equal to that of the French general now in command.

The British officer will direct the British operations. British control officers have suggested that they be informed at forty-eight hours before any advance is commenced, so that they may have an opportunity to get the Polish civilians out of the towns where they are unpopular. Otherwise, it was said, the Poles probably would be shot as soon as it became known that British troops were about to re-establish Allied authority in the district.

THREE GROUPS

German forces centred at Kreuzberg are composed of three distinct organizations: volunteers, Einwohnerwehr and refugees.

The latter are extremely bitter, insisting on fighting and holding the trenches which encircle Rosenberg. The Poles in Rosenberg are maintaining artillery and machine gun fire on the German positions. The latter are replying with various weapons, including a dozen machine guns.

The Poles in Rosenberg are maintaining artillery and machine gun fire on the German positions. The latter are replying with various weapons, including a dozen machine guns.

WOMEN VOTED

Women electors and workers took a prominent part in the battle of ballots. The Government party had a specially active organization of women workers in every direction who claim that equally as many women as men voted in the city, and that at the up-town polls the eighty per cent of the women's votes for the Government. In the rural districts, the women voters were equally as numerous as the men.

COMMENTS

Newspapers comment as follows on the Yamaska and York-Sunbury results.

The Manitoba Free Press: "Saturday's by-election results created no surprise. The York-Sunbury contest could only end in a victory for the Government. The appearance of a considerable resort to side issues, including the war measures of 1917 and 1918.

"In Yamaska vigorous efforts were made to keep the French Liberal bloc in the contest. The maintenance of a political bloc of this character by this contest is not in the national interest. It would be far healthier if the electors of Quebec would forget the feuds and prejudices of the past and vote on the issues which have to deal with the future."

A TRIUMPH

Montreal Le Canada: "The Liberal Party has just won one of the finest triumphs of its history in Yamaska. We said 'Yamaska is not for sale,' and we were justified in counting on the honesty and conscientiousness of the people of Yamaska. The verdict is decisive. The people do not want Mr. Meighen and his Government and are anxiously awaiting the general election to drive them from power definitely."

Called Doubtful

Montreal Gazette: "The return of Mr. Boucher in Yamaska by a surprisingly large majority can be attributed to but one cause—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's name is still potent to charm and conscription has not been forgotten. The methods adopted in that contest and the signal success thereof, incite, if they do not invite, reprisals and there is real danger of reviving racial rancor so long as the French Liberals play on the passions and prejudices of their people to win an election. The Liberals have retained a seat by methods that may cost them dear in other provinces."

Bloc

Quebec Chronicle: "In so far as it is possible to reason from the local by-election, it must be regarded as probable that the 'solid bloc' in Quebec will continue to exist.

"The York-Sunbury by-election tends to prove that the administration has real vitality and encouraging support where the fight centres upon national principles rather than national prejudices."

St. John Standard: "Mr. Hanson owes his victory to the support he got in the urban districts."

Jutland Anniversary.—To-morrow the anniversary of the Battle of Jutland will be commemorated by the Navy League Chapter, I. O. D. E., the sale of tiny flags in a number of stores and office buildings in the business section. The proceeds will be devoted to the work of the Chapter for ex-soldiers and ex-sailors.

CHARGE LADYSMITH MAN WITH ISSUING CHALLENGE TO DUEL

But Assize Jury Finds Hugh Thornley Not Guilty.

After thirty-five minutes deliberating a jury in the Nanaimo Assize Court last week returned a verdict of "Not Guilty" in the case of Hugh Thornley, of Ladysmith, who was charged with sending a threatening letter to T. A. Spruston, of Ladysmith, this letter containing a challenge to fight a duel.

Taking the stand on his own behalf, Mr. Thornley said that he met Mr. Spruston near the coal bunkers at Ladysmith, and that after he had told him that he (Spruston) had caused all the trouble in his family, Spruston had retorted by saying "You get a gun, and I'll get one, and we will settle this thing."

Shortly after this Thornley was confined to the hospital, and after having been for seven months in bed, wrote the letters referred to by Mr. Spruston in his evidence, and produced by the Crown, but maintained that in these letters his object was simply to accept the challenge issued by Mr. Spruston at the meeting near the coal bunkers.

D. Nicholson called for the defence, stated that he had seen Mr. Spruston's car near Thornley's residence several times subsequent to the meeting of the accused and Spruston at the bunkers.

George Headerest, of Victoria, called by the Crown, stated that the accused had stayed at his home in Victoria, and had on many occasions been told by him of his troubles. The accused had finally said he was going to Ladysmith to clean up the bunch. Witness, in reply to a question as to what he had said when told this by the accused, said, "If I had had half of your troubles, I would have cleaned them up long ago."

A Unique Case.
In addressing the jury, Capt. MacKenzie, counsel for the accused, stated this was a unique case in the criminal annals of Canada; that is, where a charge of challenging to a duel was concerned, but that it was a very small matter to what had taken place in England during the war. In England, he said, there had been two cases, one in part, a Maliken case, wherein murder was charged, in which a returned soldier had killed the man who had been in his home during his absence and was acquitted by the jury. Mr. MacKenzie submitted there was no evidence but that Thornley had accepted the challenge thrown out by Spruston at their meeting at the coal bunkers.

The address by the Crown Prosecutor, Mr. Leighton, was short, as also was that of His Lordship, who pointed out that the laws of duelling were 200 years in abeyance, and that if the jury believed from the evidence, that the accused had issued a challenge to fight a duel, then it was their duty to bring in a verdict of guilty.

The jury, after an absence of 35 minutes, returned with a verdict of "Not Guilty."
His Lordship, addressing the prisoner, asked him to stand up, and said he had had a narrow escape, and advised him to write no more letters of the description submitted, nor to make threats against the life of any man, as by doing so he would find himself in a serious position. The prisoner was then discharged.

HAWAIIANS PREPARE FOR CONFERENCE

October 11-26 Set for Session of Delegates to "Press Congress of the World"

Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, May 29—(Special Correspondence) Between 450 and 500 publishers, editors and newspapermen from all parts of the world will gather at Honolulu, territory of Hawaii, better known as the "Crossroads of the Pacific" from October 11 to 25, inclusive as delegates to the Press Congress of the World, of which Dr. Walter Williams, dean of the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri, is president.

To Entertain Delegates
Persons of all races in the Hawaiian Islands are making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the delegates, and there is not to be one idle moment from the time the first contingent arrives until the time when the last has been sent aboard its ship bedecked with wreaths of flowers, the Hawaiian symbol of good-bye and good luck. Under present arrangements, four full days will be given over to the serious business of the Congress, and the remainder of the period will be devoted largely to sightseeing, the programme including visits to every island of the Hawaiian group.

The business sessions of the Congress will be held in the "Bishop" old throne room in the capitol at Honolulu, which was the home of the Hawaiian monarchs prior to the annexation of the islands to the United States, and it still retains all of the picturesqueness of formal days. This room, with its crystal chandeliers, life-size portraits of Hawaiian and foreign sovereigns, its huge mirrors and striking decorations, is now used as the biennial meeting place of the huge house of representatives of the Territorial legislature.

General Conference
At Honolulu there has been formed a general Press Congress committee, which is handling all of the general arrangements. It is of Wallace R. Farrington, general business manager of The Honolulu Star-Bulletin, chairman; Lorrin A. Thurston, publisher of The Honolulu Advertiser, vice-chairman; L. W. de Vis-Norton of the Hawaii Publicity Commission, secretary; and John H. Galt of the Hawaiian Trust Co., treasurer. Each island and every group of language newspapers has a vice-chairman to serve as a member of the executive committee.

Mr. Thurston is chairman of the general entertainment committee, and the programme now being arranged includes all of the most interesting tours to be made through the "Paradise of the Pacific." It is planned to charter a special steamer to carry the delegates to the outside islands of the Hawaiian group, and this trip will include a visit to the famous active crater of Hialeka, island of Maui, where one may walk for miles through huge depression which was once a seething sea of molten lava.

To Have Pageant
The beautiful native aspect of Hawaiian life will not be forgotten during the Congress, despite the fact that the territory is a highly modern integral part of the United States. It is planned to revive on this occasion some of the great Hawaiian pageants which are now extremely rare. The Hawaiian people themselves look upon the Congress also as an opportunity to show something of what the race was at the height of its glory and nobility. Among other things, the delegates will hear the finest Hawaiian music and will also see what is meant by the genuine hula-hula dance in contrast to the vulgarized version which has become rather sporadic away from the islands. One day during the Congress will be exclusively under the auspices of the Pan-Pacific Association, and it is planned to revive on this occasion the impressive flag ceremony of the Pacific nations represented in Hawaii.

Will Wilke, publisher of the Grey Eagle, Minn. Gazette, and retiring president of the National Editorial Association, has been elected by the executive committee of the Congress to be chairman of the committee on transportation. The 1921 session of the Hawaiian legislature appropriated $25,000 to consist in entertaining the delegates, and the citizens of the territory will raise an additional $25,000.

L. A. ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY

A very successful silver tea was given at the home of Mrs. B. B. Murray, 1227 Pandora Street, Saturday, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the St. Andrew's Society, and Caledonia Society, a fair sum being realized to aid in the formation of the Junior Pipe Band for the society. There was a good attendance, and some very fine vocal musical numbers were given during the afternoon by Miss Mary McIntosh, Mrs. Paterson and Mrs. Monteith. Mrs. Rigard accompanied on the piano. The committee in charge were Mrs. Murray, Miss Mary Murray and Mrs. McIntosh.

Refreshing as a Summer Breeze

Delicious candy-coated Chiclets add a new zest to sport—fit right in with youthful spirits and enthusiasm.

Fresh, fragrant Spearmint; refreshing, tingling Peppermint; luscious Tutti-Frutti—summer days and summer fun would be only half as good without them.

And they're good for you—good for teeth and nerves and digestion—good to allay thirst.

Adams Chiclets are "Really Delightful" anywhere—anytime. Sold by most stores, ten Chiclets for 5c.
