RAIL MEN GIVEN STRIKE WARNING

Shopmen Send Statement to Labor Minister

Montreal, Sept. 8.—That a strike of the railway shopmen on Canadian lines is inevitable from what can be seen at the present moment was the declaration made by an officer of Division No. 4, Railway Employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor, this morning, following the second day's deliberations on the findings of the board of conciliation, which upheld the wage cuts for shopmen. Men in shops in Canada are being circulated at all points and told to hold themselves in readiness for a general strike.

Settlement Desired. The circular being sent to all points states that the schedule committee in touch with the International headquarters, the Railway Employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor, with a view to finding an honorable settlement, but in the meantime the men should hold themselves in readiness to obey a strike call if it should come.

Not Received Yet. Ottawa, Sept. 8.—No reply has so far been received by the Minister of Labor, it is understood, to the message sent to Charles Dickie, secretary of Division No. 4, Railway Employees' Department, American Federation of Labor in response to the shopmen's protest against the market rate award of the board of conciliation.

New York, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press).—Any proposal for a general strike in protest against the railroad strike injunction obtained by United States Attorney-General Daugherty has been abandoned by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, according to information reaching New York from Atlantic City, where labor leaders are holding conferences preliminary to the opening of the council's sessions to-morrow.

$15,000 IS PLEDGED AND NEW COWICHAN LINE IS TO START

Cross-Island Railway to Haul Out Nitinat Timber

Planned to Operate Part of C.N.R. Line Which is Now Idle

Construction of the Cowichan Bay Railway, to compete in the hauling of timber from the Cowichan and Nitinat Lake districts, is to go ahead, it was announced to-day.

The announcement was made after Premier Oliver was officially informed by Henry C. Hall, K. C., Attorney for the promoters, that the necessary cheque for $15,000 in fulfillment of the terms of the charter.

At Cowichan Bay application has been made for the foreshore and it is planned to establish a terminus town there and set out a line of railway from the terminus into Cowichan Bay on the C. N. R. is about twenty miles.

Because of the way in which the C. N. R. island line is laid out it is impossible for it to compete in the timber hauling. While the C. P. R. has only a short cross-island haul the other line at present would have to bring timber all the way down the island to Stoke or Victoria to reach salt water.

Construction of this line follows the work Premier Oliver has done during the last year to get parts of the C. N. R. island line, now idle, working. The Dominion Government is now considering Premier Oliver's proposals of laying the steel on the right-of-way along the East side of the island line, now idle, working as far as Cottonwood so as to tap more directly other large bodies of timber. Steel has been laid only as far as Cowichan Lake but the road bed has been prepared for some distance further up the island.

SCHOOL BOARD'S FIRM ON FACE OF LEGAL THREATS

W. J. Taylor, K.C., Retained by Chinese to Block Segregation Plan

Pupils' Strike Broken, Trustees Believe; Chinese Attendance Grows

While leading Chinese have retained W. J. Taylor, K. C., to force the City School Board to abandon its plan to segregate Chinese from white pupils, the Board has no intention of abandoning its policy which, School Trustees believe, has the overwhelming support of the electors.

What action the Chinese will take through their counsel, Mr. Taylor, was not known at noon to-day. "I have not had time to examine the case sufficiently to say what will be done," Mr. Taylor stated. "Before legal action was launched, of course, letters would have to be exchanged with the School Board out of common courtesy. The Chinese have laid its views before me, and explained the reason why objection is taken to the segregated school policy of the Board, but I have had no opportunity of examining the legal phases of the situation. I am looking into these matters now, and expect to be able to make some announcement in a few days."

Rumor King Will Abdicate Current; Venizelos Might Be Premier; New Cabinet Now Being Formed; Greeks Must Accept Turks' Armistice Terms.

Paris, Sept. 8.—Rumors that King Constantine of Greece intends to abdicate are current in several European capitals. They are considered here to have been given some color by the sudden recall of the Greek heir-apparent, Prince George, to Athens from Bucharest.

King Constantine's abdication is regarded here as an increasing possibility, particularly as it is considered the only method of getting former Premier Venizelos, Greece's wartime leader, to return to Athens, form a coalition Government, make an effort to restore order in Greek affairs and regain a part of Greece's lost prestige.

Fears Declared to be Groundless. Indian State Council Declines to Attack Lloyd George's Recent Speech. London, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press Cable).—Following a keen debate, the Indian Council of State rejected by a large majority, without a division, a motion expressing apprehension and disappointment over Premier Lloyd George's speech relative to India's future, according to a Reuters dispatch from Simla.

Indian State Council Declines to Attack Lloyd George's Recent Speech. The rejection of the resolution was the result of an earnest appeal from the Indian member of the Council of State to their colleagues to drop the matter as their fears were groundless, an appeal from Sir William Vincent, representing the Home Department of the Executive Council of the Government-General, for the maintenance of the House's reputation for sobriety and wisdom.

One Indian member declared that the moderates wanted the civil service for years to come. There were cries of "no" when Sir William Vincent asked whether the House wished to cease recruiting British officials.

NO HOPE NOW FOR ENTOMBED MINERS

Jackson, Cal., People Await Removal of Bodies

No Entrance to Mine for a Week Yet

Jackson, Cal., Sept. 8.—Hope for the entombed Argonaut miners seems to have died completely. The people of Jackson, with calm resignation, now await removal of the bodies.

Very discouraging progress has been made during the past twenty-four hours in the attempts to re-open old drifts leading to the lower levels of the Argonaut from the 3,600 and 3,300-foot levels of the Kennedy Mine. Instead of opening up as the crews slowly dug their way forward, the drifts have been found worse clogged than ever.

The rescue crews who flocked to Jackson following the spreading of reports that forty-seven men were entombed in a burning gold mine are building up their oxygen helmets and departing for their respective homes.

Unofficial estimates place the time of breaking through to the Argonaut fully a week hence. By that time nearly three weeks will have passed since the disaster occurred. In the meantime the flames which are still burning in the Argonaut shaft are creeping slowly downward, and the gas fumes undoubtedly will begin to penetrate to the lower levels.

No Signals. A most thorough investigation indicates that no signals ever have been heard from the forty-seven entombed miners who were trapped August 27, mine officials announced to-day. Sounds believed to have been signals must have been either in the imagination of the rescue crews or else made in the Kennedy Mine from which the rescue work is being attempted.

INVESTIGATE COAL BUNKERING SCHEME

Chamber of Commerce Committee Busy on Matter

It was finally decided that all possible data should be gathered respecting the cost of installing the necessary equipment, as well as the estimated cost at which vessels could be bunkered at this port.

The committee will further investigate the feasibility of establishing coal bunkers and latest equipment at the Outer Docks and will report again at a later date.

The polling will be held at the Oak Bay High School, commencing at 10 a.m. under R. E. Blandy as returning officer, and Major Grey, deputy returning officer.
The by-law was submitted previously to the ratepayers some years ago and lost by a narrow margin of one vote. It is felt that the decision will be different. The Oak Bay Park comprises over ten acres at the end of the Oak Bay carline, much of which is now used as an athletic park. The land is valued at $10,000 on terms over four years without interest. The full details of the transaction proposed by the by-law have been published in these columns previously.

NO VANCOUVER DRYDOCK PLANNED
Hon. J. H. King Makes Position Plain to Mainlanders
Vancouver, Sept. 8.—Although there is hardly a possibility of Vancouver getting a drydock in the immediate future, the gates are not closed to this city for a large project of that kind. Devoting its attention to the building up of the marine trade on the point by increased harbor and elevator facilities, which in turn will automatically bring a drydock, the Government of Canada to-day is prepared to give every encouragement and to carry out every possible project in keeping with the policy of development to build up the port of Vancouver.
An inspection will be made in the near future, the question of increased elevator capacity and grain handling facilities and other projects will be looked into, and Vancouver can rest assured that her interests will not be neglected. The Liberal Government at Ottawa is fully alive to and in sympathy with the needs of the port.
Briefly, this was the reply of Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, to representations made to him at a luncheon at the Empress Hotel, when representations regarding a drydock and other proposals were put forward.
Taking the stand that the late Government had already entered into a contract for the completion of a drydock at Esquimalt and that thousands of money had already been expended on that project, Dr. King pointed out that whatever difference of opinion might exist as to the suitability of that location, at the present time, when economy was the greatest need of Canada, it would not be advisable after so much money had been expended on that contract, with the certainty of a suit for heavy damages.
At the same time, it would not be following on the policy of economy to duplicate the drydock here at the present time.

So far there have been 2,209 forest fires in the Province this year, one-third of the total for the same period in the last year, and the Lower Mainland.

The officer's reports showed the Order on Vancouver Island to be in very good condition, both numerically and financially.
The following officers were elected and afterwards installed by Bro. W. F. Fullerton, P. D. C. R.:
Past District Chief Ranger, Bro. A. E. Greenwood, Victoria.
District Chief Ranger, Bro. T. P. Barry, Cobble Hill.

EVICION CASE FINALLY SETTLED
The Smith eviction case in Saanich was settled to-day when A. E. Jones accepted $250, raised by subscription, for property occupied by Mrs. F. G. Smith. Mrs. Smith and her family would apparently have been evicted from this property, but for the action of local citizens in raising money to buy it. The land will be held in the name of Mrs. Smith and a trustee.
LIQUOR RAID.

ESQUIMALT TAX SALE.
The annual tax sale of Esquimalt municipality will open at the municipal hall on Monday at ten o'clock. Some eighty parcels of land will pass under the hammer unless they be redeemed in the meantime. Do You Know?
That a question recently issued to thousands of college women asking what they read brought out the fact that the majority per cent read the store advertisements?
Do You Know what this means to you, Mr. Merchant?
It Means
That the modern young woman not only knows what she wants and when she wants it, but she knows, and is still learning, where to get what she wants.
The young girls just entering college learn to read the store advertisements from the seniors and by the time they graduate they will know where to get what they want.
The graduates, entering into business or home management, will still read the store advertisements. They are efficient, time and labor-saving hunters, those youngsters, and if you want them for your own you'll have to show them that you have what they want when they want it—and also, that they want what you have.
Big thing, isn't it, what these young folks are reading!

TO DEBATE VOTES FOR EAST INDIANS

Parliament of Canada Will Consider Request

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—Parliament is to be invited to consider the extension of the Dominion franchise to natives of India resident in Canada.

In a letter, dated September 5, to Rt. Hon. Srinivasa Sastri, a member of the Council of State of India, who is visiting Canada, Premier King, said:

"In reply to the representations made by you at the interview with my colleagues and myself on Friday of last week, and which were the subject of a further conference between us yesterday, I desire to assure you that at the earliest favorable moment the Government will be pleased to invite the consideration of Parliament to your request that natives of India resident in Canada be granted a Dominion parliamentary franchise on terms and conditions identical with those which govern the exercise of that right by Canadian citizens generally."

"The subject is necessarily one which Parliament alone can determine. It will be submitted to Parliament for consideration when the franchise law is under revision. In conveying to the Government of India an expression of the attitude of the Government of Canada in this matter, we hope that you will not fail to make it clear that at the present time in eight of the nine provinces of which our Dominion is composed, the Federal franchise is granted to natives of India resident in Canada on terms which are identical with those applicable generally to Canadian citizens."

LABOR DISPUTE ARBITRATION IN AUSTRALIA

London, Sept. 8.—In the Australian House of Representatives yesterday, Premier Hughes stated that his Government emphatically favored settlement of industrial disputes by arbitration, but added that the tribunal system used in various Australian states was superior to the present unsatisfactory arbitration act, says a Reuter dispatch from Melbourne.

CANADIAN GENEVA LABOR DELEGATES

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—Announcement of the names of the four Canadian delegates to the International Labor Conference which will open at Geneva on October 8 was made following a lengthy sitting of the Cabinet yesterday afternoon and evening. As already announced, the two Government delegates will be Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, and Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Marine and Fisheries. The latter is at present in Europe attending the meeting of the League of Nations.

In addition to a single direct representative each, both employers and workmen are allowed to send a person to act as adviser to their delegate. H. W. Macdonell, of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, has been selected as adviser to the employers' delegate, and J. W. Bruce, of Toronto, will fill a similar position in relation to the workmen's representative. The provinces have been invited by the Federal Government to send representatives at their own expense to act in an advisory capacity toward the Canadian delegates, but so far none have announced their selection.

YOUNG MOTHER NOW STRONG

Her Mother's Faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound led Her to Try it

Kenosha, Wisconsin.—"I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother had great faith in it as she had taken so much of it and when I had trouble after my baby was born she gave it to me. It helped me so much more than anything else had done that I advise all women with female trouble to give it a fair trial and I am sure they will feel as I do about it.—Mrs. Essie F. Havens, 553 Symonds St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

A medicine that has been in use nearly fifty years and that receives the praise and commendation of mothers and grandmothers is worth your consideration. If you are suffering from troubles that sometimes follow child-birth bear in mind that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles. The letters we publish ought to convince you; ask some of your women friends or neighbors—they know its worth. You will, too, if you give it a fair trial.

Industries Asked To Aid Stability

INDUSTRIES ASKED TO AID STABILITY

Resolutions Passed at National Unemployment Conference

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—The following resolution was passed unanimously at the National Conference on Unemployment:

"In connection with the attention which has been given by this conference to the subject of unemployment and the measures which may be deemed necessary by the public authorities in Canada to provide for the relief of unemployment, the conference hereby places on record, as an expression of its views, that the problem of unemployment is primarily one of industry, and that every effort should be made in industry to prevent the occurrence of unemployment."

It is recognized that the causes of unemployment in some cases may be outside of particular industries and in part due to causes which are international. This conference, however, urges upon those engaged in industry the necessity of regulating employment in the interests alike of employer and employee.

Regulation of Work. The second resolution, moved by Hon. B. E. Finn and seconded by Hon. C. W. Robinson, also received the unanimous endorsement of the conference. It follows: "Whereas, in departments of government, both Federal and local, there are avenues open for employment; and whereas, the Canadian Railway Board is the manager and operator of the Canadian National Railway and the Canadian Government system; and whereas there are boards administering under legislative authority special departments of public works in the various provinces; and whereas there are recurring periods of unemployment, therefore, this conference recommends that the respective Governments, the National Railway Board and the boards administering the special departments of public works in the various provinces should regulate and carry on their public work and railway operation so as to distribute the work in such a manner as to relieve unemployment to the greatest possible extent throughout Canada."

The conference ended shortly before last midnight.

Doles. "The conference," said Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, after the meeting, "expressed the opinion that the practice of handing out doles is wrong in principle and often harmful in effect, and should not be resorted to until all other measures fail."

Improvement. On the question of unemployment relief, Mr. Murdock said that the view was expressed by representatives that the work of unemployment had passed.

The hope was further expressed, he said, that there would be no unemployment necessitating Government assistance, if there should be unemployment, the view of the conference was that no additional means, other than those which had been taken in the past, would be necessary to deal with it.

It was stated that there had been unanimity on all the points mentioned. The unemployment question was thoroughly canvassed, and the difficulties of the various provinces discussed.

Provision is made in the bill for proportionate benefits in the case of partial disablement.

MR. DUFF TALKS

After spending a comparatively short time upon an investigation of fishery conditions in this Province Mr. William Duff, M. P., seems to have made up his mind that "such extremely pessimistic views as have been expressed" are not justified.

Mr. Duff is obviously correct about the Fraser; he may be equally correct in his references to the rivers of the North. Nevertheless it may be as well to consider how long it took to rub the Fraser "off the list."

Mr. Duff is obviously correct about the Fraser; he may be equally correct in his references to the rivers of the North. Nevertheless it may be as well to consider how long it took to rub the Fraser "off the list."

In other words in less than a decade the Fraser has dwindled from the greatest producer of salmon in the world to a condition aptly described by Mr. Duff as "off the map."

We shall hesitate to believe that the member for Lunenburg will furnish his colleagues in the Government with a report flavored by what has all the appearance of the result of a superficial survey of a very serious condition.

OAK BAY'S PARK

It is neither the business nor duty of this newspaper to endeavor to suggest what is good for the residents of Oak Bay municipality. It is merely its pleasure and satisfaction to learn that our enterprising neighbor does not propose to allow certain definite advantages to escape it if sufficient public interest can be aroused to prevent it.

It can be said without hesitation that many modern cities possess too few open spaces. Lack of parks and recreation area is more acutely felt as soon as it is realized that it is too late to complain.

THE DAIL TO MEET

To-morrow's gathering of the Dail Eireann is scarcely likely to produce anything of a sensational nature. For the most part it can be assumed that the assembly will be composed of supporters of the Treaty and Collins-Griffith policy.

gent members who have been actively engaged in open warfare against the forces of law and order may take their places without interference from the Government. But their attendance under existing conditions could only be made to serve the rebel cause if the immunity which the provisional Government has extended could be utilized to harass the new ministry.

Very few of those who represent the republican element would have had a ghost of a chance in a straight fight at the polls. In any event the Government is now in a position to reaffirm its adherence to the Collins-Griffith policy. It can also issue a new and more pointed appeal to its supporters to lend their aid in crushing the rebellion.

PANIC IN ATHENS

There is nothing very surprising in the resignation of the Greek Cabinet. Nothing shakes the reputation of any Government like a serious military reverse. Yet no real occasion exists for either Great Britain or France to get excited over the fate of the Greeks.

THE STEEL PLANT

It goes without saying that the people of this Coast cannot expect an iron and steel plant to be established in British Columbia before a good deal of intensive investigation has been carried out. The plan which is now officially before the three governments involved is obviously nearer to practical realization than any proposal that has been advanced in recent years.

These are the essential conditions upon which the enterprise may be launched. But the first consideration of the British Government is very naturally the commercial aspect of the proposal. Before the Board of Trade will recommend its participation it will require to be assured that both Dominion and British Columbian Governments are satisfied in this respect.

ation of the commercial phases of the proposal. It is not necessary to emphasize the benefits that should be derived from the establishment and operation of an enterprise of this kind. Successful development in this connection would transform British Columbia into a thriving industrial Province.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Who is the "Sick Man of Europe now?" The Turk surely seems to be hale and hearty.

This is a curious old world. The front pages of the newspapers these days give equal prominence to the war between Turkey and Greece and the deliberations of the League of Nations now in session at Geneva.

United States Congressmen want to impose a duty of twenty-five cents per thousand on shingles in order to eliminate Canadian competition. This can be taken as a signal for a protest from the consumer who recognizes that a country's business is never built up by erecting high tariff walls.

Germany's mistakes were by no means confined to what was once the Fatherland. Austria has gone. Bulgaria is much worse off than she was. These were partners in the big blunder—and Greece's penalty was earned by triekery and a belligerent neutrality.

Unless former Premier Venizelos receives "a solemn call" uttered by the united will of the Greek people, it is unlikely that he will return to Athens. He may get the call quicker than he expects if dispatches from the battlefield do not get more hopeful. King Constantine must be wondering whether he will be able to retain his grip upon his once vacated throne.

Other People's Views

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short and legibly written. The longer an article is, the shorter the chance it has of appearing in the paper.

OAK BAY PARK

To the Editor.—I am very glad that Mr. Henry Holt, who from his address does not appear to be a resident of Oak Bay and whose name is not on the voters list, has taken sufficient interest in the affairs of the municipality to write to the daily press giving us some advice.

The assessed value of taxable land in the municipality for 1922 is $4,995,770. The amount of taxes paid in 1922 on the land proposed to be bought was $1,617. This is quarter mill. It will require $2,000 each year for the next four years to meet the payments. This is another half mill.

Mr. Holt states that the taxpayers of Oak Bay cannot pay the present rate of taxes because a tax sale is being held. This statement is absolutely untrue. As over 95 per cent of the year's taxes and 25 per cent of arrears have already been paid. Does he know of any business that collects all its bills or is he able to do so in his own business?

CANNERY MAN STATED VIEWS

Vancouver, Sept. 8.—The Royal Fisheries Commission, under the chairmanship of William Duff, M.P., held its first session here this morning. There were about 100 people on hand, including a sprinkling of Japanese members.

The chief witness this morning was W. H. Barker, president of the B.C. Fishing and Packing Company, which operates canneries all along the coast. This witness made several exhaustive statements regarding various points in the industry and stated that there were too many men, too many boats and too many fishermen to make a living out of the meagre supply of fish.

Mr. Barker felt the Government was absolutely right in its methods of conservation, but he felt that it had gone far enough in the matter of making regulations. He advised strongly the conservation of the natural spawning grounds and the destruction of the birds and fish which prey on the salmon.

Speaking of the outlook in the future, Mr. Barker was emphatic in his belief that the fishing in the north would be good for a good many years to come.

HEALTH CENTRE WORK EXPLAINED

Garden City Women's Institute Hears Report on Flower Show

The monthly meeting of the Garden City Women's Institute was held in the Marjorie Hall on Thursday, Mrs. Harrison occupied the chair, and twenty-two ladies were present.

A very satisfactory financial statement of the flower show was given by the secretary, after which the prizes were awarded.

Mrs. Lawrence, who had thirty-one entries in the exhibition, was the winner of one of the Government books. Mrs. Chambers came second with twenty-seven entries. Mrs. Munro, with nine entries in the basketry section, is another winner of a special book.

Mr. Brennan was the lucky winner of the cake kindly donated by Mrs. Bates. Mrs. Ramsay guessed the correct number of beans. The social committee is very busy planning for the winter season, and other committees are desirous of forming evening classes.

Those wishing to join a dressmaking class are asked to send their names to Mrs. Lawrence or Mrs. Chambers, while Mrs. Dewar will supply information regarding a class in raffia-work and basketry.

Mrs. C. A. Lucas, nurse superintendent of the Spanish War Memorial Health Centre, gave a talk on the work of that institution and expressed the wish to form classes in the different districts to teach home nursing. The various clinics held at the centre were enumerated and the work explained.

Statistics show that from October to June 481 patients received dental treatment from January to June; these tonsil clinics were held and seventeen patients attended; seven chest clinics and sixteen baby clinics; thirty-nine newly born babies have been cared for by the nurses, and all mothers are encouraged to attend the clinics so that their children will grow up under the continuous supervision of doctors and nurses.

The work of the school nurse was explained, with special reference to the "Little Mothers League" and the excellent work it is expected to accomplish. School girls who earn their certificates in this branch of work are to be awarded a Spanish Health Centre badge. A completely fitted up baby's basket is needed for this work, and the women of the institute promised to donate all articles. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mrs. Lucas at the close of her address.

WILL LECTURE TO RAISE FARE HOME

Stranded Australian Veterans to Give Travelogue Next Thursday

Stranded in the city with insufficient funds to take them up the final stages of their journey home to Australia, two Anzac veterans, William Darwin, F. R. G. S., of Bendigo, and F. J. Williams, of Burnie, Tasmania, have arranged to give a joint lecture in the city on Thursday evening next to raise their passage money home. The lecture will be given in the Canadian Legion rooms and will be under the patronage of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. The subject will be "The World at a Glance."

Both men are veterans of the great war with considerable service to their credit. Mr. Darwin having the distinction of being the first Australian to join the Imperial forces after the outbreak of war. Since the armistice he has travelled extensively and lectured in many Old Country centres, winning eulogistic notices, and his address should prove unusually bright and interesting.

Their present difficulty followed their unexpectedly long stay in the United States, where they were held up for a considerable period in Omaha owing to the strike which practically exhausted. Tickets for the lecture may be obtained from the I. O. D. E. or the Canadian Legion, and are at a nominal figure only.

GIRL STUDENTS TOUR IN AIR EXPRESS

London, Sept. 8.—Sixty-four American girls students at the Wooster University, Ohio, have arrived at Croydon Aerodrome from Paris by the Instone air express.

The members of the party are carrying out a holiday tour of Europe. They have been on the Continent since July 1, and have visited many of the battlefields of France, as well as southern Switzerland and Italy. They will spend a week in London, and then pay a visit to Scotland before leaving for the United States towards the end of the month.

None of the girls had travelled by aeroplane before they left the aerodrome at Le Bourget, near Paris, for London. All of them declared that they had thoroughly enjoyed the trip, "I did not expect to see the beautiful fields so clearly as I did this morning," said one. "I always thought aeroplanes were too high up for that."

The trip was undertaken as an educational experiment in modern transport.

The last two air expresses carrying the party were held up by adverse weather in France and did not reach the London air station until after dusk. The students had the unique experience of seeing the last part of their journey through the darkness in the air liner's electrically lit sections, and of seeing London's pyramids of lights from the air prior of landing at the London air station by the aid of the night-flying illuminations.

PLAN TEAS IN AID OF SAILORS

The Ladies' Guild for Sailors met yesterday and made arrangements for a Birthday Tea to be held October 5 in the Seaman's Institute and for a Bridge Tea at the Dallas Hotel, October 21. A vote of condolence to the widow and family of the late Joshua Kirgham, who was a member of the women's committee of the Guild, was passed. Mrs. Thompson presided.

IF WINTER COMES

By A. S. M. HUTCHINSON
INSTALMENT NO. 49

Copyrighted—Published by arrangement with British & Colonial Press, Ltd.

The news of Tuesday morning caused him at six o'clock in the evening to have been standing two hours in the great throng that filled Market Square, gazing towards the offices of the County Times. Our mobilization, our resolve to stand by France if the German Fleet came into the Channel, lastly, most awfully pregnant of all, our obligations to Belgium, that had been the morning's news, conveyed in the report of Sir Edward Grey's statement in the House of Commons. That afternoon the Prime Minister was to make a statement.

A great murmur swelled up from the waiting crowd, a great movement pressed it forward towards the country times offices. On the first-floor balcony men appeared dragging a great board faced with paper, on the paper enormous lettering. The board was pulled out endways. The men last through the window took a step forward and swung the letters into view.

CHAPTER IV.

He approached Penny Green and realized for the first time the hard pace at which he had been riding. And realized also the emotions which subconsciously had been driving him along. All the way he had been saying "War!" What he wanted, most terribly, was to say it aloud to some one. He wanted to say it to Mabel. He had a sudden great desire to see Mabel and tell her about it and talk to her about it. He felt a curiously protective feeling towards her. For the first time in his life he pedaled instead of free-wheeling the conclusion of the ride. He ran into the house and into the morning room. Mabel was not there. It was almost dinner time. She would be in her room. He ran upstairs. She was standing before her dressing table and turned to him in surprise.

PREMIER'S STATEMENT

ULTIMATUM TO GERMANY EXPIRES MIDNIGHT

Sabre said aloud, "My God! War!" As a retreating wave harshly withdrawing upon the reluctant pebbles, there sounded from the crowd an enormous intake of the breath. An instant's stupendous silence, the wave poised for return. Down! A shattering roar, tremendous, wordless. The figure of Pike appeared upon the balcony, in his shirt sleeves, his long hair wild about his face, in his hands that which caught the roar as it were by the throat, stopped it and broke it out anew on a burst of exultant clamour. A Union Jack. He shook it madly with both hands above his head. The roar broke into a tremendous chant. "God Save the King!"

Sabre pressed his way out of the Square. He kept saying to himself "War... War..." He found himself running to the office; no one was in the office, then getting out his bicycle with frantic haste, then riding home—hard.

And he kept saying, "War!" He thought, "Otway!" and before his eyes appeared a vision of Otway with those little beads of perspiration on his nose, couldn't get any further than that. Like the systole and diastole of a slowly beating pulse, the word kept on forming in his mind and falling away in a tide of

Come and Help Sam! Scott Move His Store!

The news is out! The lease of Sam Scott's present store has been purchased by the Bank of Montreal and at the end of September this Boys' Store will occupy new premises in the Woolworth Building, Douglas Street. The purchase of our lease means that we must move our entire stock, and move it quickly. We know that the only way to do this is to cut prices to the limit and the Bank's purchase of our lease makes this possible. Women who know the exceptionally high quality of the boys' clothing we sell will need no second bidding to come and outfit their sons with everything they are likely to need this Winter. It is inconceivable that another such opportunity will be offered for many months to come, and it would not occur now, but for the fact that our entire stock of Winter clothing is here and it is more economical for us to sell it rather than pack and move it.

SAANICH MAKES ADVERTISING GRANT

Publicity Bureau Awarded $1,000 After Deputation Interviews Council

A large delegation last evening waited on the Saanich Council to appeal for assistance to the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, and secured a grant of $1,000, in aid of the work to be carried out this year in the Prairie Provinces.

Ex-Reeve George McGregor, introducing the appeal, pointed out that the Bureau had done an immense amount of work. "We have really put Victoria on the map, Saanich has benefited more than any other district from this work, having secured a large proportion of the new residents and been viewed by the great majority of the automobile tourists attracted."

"The directors have taken the attitude that the municipalities will support our work if we produce the goods, and this year we can certainly make good on that claim," declared Mr. McGregor.

City Council Views.
Alderman Patrick pointed out that "City aldermen took at every dollar two or three times before passing it, yet the city has granted $25,000 to the Publicity Bureau."

"The Anacortes ferry has brought well-to-do visitors, not by hundreds, but by thousands, and every tourist brought here means, not only an introduction to Victoria, but also to Saanich."

Prairie Prospects.
He foresaw a big influx from the Prairies this year as a result of the good crop harvested, but declared the Bureau funds to be almost expended, and advertising on the Prairies was a necessary preliminary to visitors arriving.

New Ferry Success.
Secretary George Warren showed that this year the Bureau had expended over $23,000 in publicity work. The Anacortes ferry had brought 2,500 cars to Vancouver Island together with 14,000 passengers.

"Saanich has not this year given a cent towards this work, Victoria has given $25,000. I submit this is hardly fair." He suggested a grant of at least $1,500 should be made, as a per capita grant on the same basis as that of Victoria would amount to nearly $8,000.

H. M. Dignon recalled that, some years ago, when ward appropriations were only $2,000 apiece, Saanich had granted $500 to the Bureau on condition Saanich was mentioned in the advertising.

Victoria Outgrown.
Looking ahead twenty years, he anticipated Saanich would be more populous than Victoria, basing this on the comparative growth of the two cities. "It is believed much of this progress is due to advertising, and urged that Saanich should pay for benefits gained."

Most of the attractions of Victoria, beaches, Observatory, the Gorge, Brentwood, all are in Saanich," he reminded the Council.

George McGregor mentioned the support of Oak Bay and urged Saanich to appoint a director to the Bureau.

Personal Propaganda.
Alderman Reid remarked, "there is nothing so good as a little encouragement; these men have been working hard and deserve your aid." He stated that Secretary Warren would, early in October, visit the Prairies and, in at least eleven cities, give lantern lectures about Southern Vancouver Island, as a part of this year's propaganda.

Mr. Todd pointed out that this advertising would have a direct bearing on the widening of the market for carload shipments of fruit from Saanich.

Reeve Supports Aid.
Reeve Watson praised the work done by the Bureau, declared he had been "a consistent supporter of a grant being made, and hoped some of the councillors would experience a change of heart."

Councillor Brooks later suggested that Saanich would not be expected to do more than provide the good roads used by the tourists. "They spend no money in Saanich," he said.

Councillor McWilliam disagreed, "settlers are what we want, the Bureau brings them and deserves aid."

Councillor Macnicol recalled his earlier opposition had been based on Victoria being a closed town on Sundays, and as this condition had ended, and the Bureau had done excellent work, he would reverse his earlier action. He then seconded Councillor McWilliam's motion to grant $1,000.

Councillor Vantreight demanded, "what does Saanich get out of this?"

Reeve Watson pointed to numerous splendid residences now being erected in Saanich by newcomers.

Councillor Horner said, "if I can be convinced that we can meet this suggested grant I am willing to support it." After Reeve Watson had raised this aspect of affairs, "It is a very foolish thing to vote

"I am not going to vote any money to get tourists here while our roads are in the condition they are," was Councillor Brook's ultimatum.

Councillors McWilliam, Macnicol and Horner voted in favor of the grant, Councillors Brooks and Vantreight opposing.

FIRST PARTY FROM SAN JUAN TO USE NEW MOTOR FERRY

Mr. and Mrs. Norton and party of Oress Island, who were at the Dominion Hotel the other day, have the distinction of being the first automobile party from the San Juan Islands to use the Anacortes-Sidney ferry for car traffic.

From the opening of the new ferry this Summer efforts have been made to have the ferry steamers stop at one or two points on the Haro archipelago, and various suggestions have been forthcoming to enable this to be done when a better service is available. However, throughout the season the traffic has been through from Mainland to Vancouver Island, so that in bringing their own car by the ferry the Norton family pioneered the development.

SCHOOL BOARD IS FIRM IN FACE OF LEGAL THREATS

together, do not learn the English language as easily as they do when in constant contact with white children.
The school authorities are taking no notice of these developments officially, however. They believe that the public is behind them in their effort to establish separate Chinese schools and are confident that the attempt of Chinese children to boycott the new separate schools has failed. The children who refused to attend the school early this week are gradually returning to their classes, it was stated at the School Board offices today.

Take No Action.
In fact, the School Board has not thought it necessary to instruct its Turant Officer to take the matter in hand, it is expected that all the Chinese children will be back in their classes within a day or two as they are anxious to get on with their studies, so that they will not be behind in their year's work.
Open in Two Weeks
The new Railway Street School for Chinese will be opened in two weeks, it was stated today. Meanwhile accommodation for all the Chinese boys and girls is being provided at the Rock Bay and King's Road Schools. Sixty students will be accommodated in the Railway Street School as soon as it is opened, six teachers have been allocated to the Chinese schools.

Chinese Attendance Up
Attendance of Chinese pupils at city schools alone is increasing, it was explained at the School Board offices. No increase in the attendance of white children has been noted with the opening of the Fall term. Only 6,000 children have enrolled so far, as against 22,000 last year. While late arrivals may bring the registration up to that of last year, it is certain that there will be no increase in the number of Chinese students has been noted. How great this increase will not be known exactly, of course, until all the Chinese students have returned to their classes.

Increase in the Chinese school population, in the fact of a slight decrease in the white school population, is regarded as significant by the school authorities. This increase, which has been going on for years, is one of the reasons for the segregated school policy, it was explained today.
That the City School Board policy of segregation of Chinese pupils below the grade of the entrance class had created a strong resentment in the local Chinese community, and was freighted with international complications was stated to the Times today by Chan Yu San, managing editor of The New Republic. The New Republic, one of the few dailies printed in the Chinese language in this country, has devoted considerable space to the actions of the board and the views of the leading members of the Chinese settlement here.
The segregation of the Chinese pupils at this late stage was unjust, held Mr. Chan Yu San, and highly prejudicial to international goodwill. The policy of the board was warmly resented by parents. Chinese students and though no concerted action was planned, several measures were taken to protest this stand by the School Board.

Not Parental Action.
The parents individually—in some cases have permitted their children to remain from school, it is understood, but the people who disabused while en route to the new school did so on their own initiative, stated Mr. Chan Yu San. The disappearance of the marching columns of Chinese pupils, carried out at a given signal has not prevented the parents from their initiative. That the aid of the courts would be invoked if possible, said Mr. Chan, who stated that legal advice was being sought now as to what measures could be taken to modify the attitude of the board. An injunction may be sought, it is understood.

Seek Peaceful Settlement.
Meanwhile representative Chinese business men are considering the advisability of opening further negotiations with the School Board to see if some amicable settlement of all differences cannot be arranged.
NO USE IN PA'S CASE.
Johnny—"Why are you putting camphor on those fur's?"
Mamma—"To keep the moths out of them."
"What will the moths do if they get into the fur's?"
"Oh, they'll eat the hair off."
"Well, why didn't you put camphor on pa's head to keep the moths off it?"

News from the Ocean Lanes

SEATTLE HELD OFF OCEAN RACE

But Empress of Australia Is Scheduled Here Day After President Jefferson

As was expected, Seattle is already fixing on the President Jefferson crossing the Pacific ahead of the Empress of Australia, and the first installment comes over the wire from Seattle as follows:
"Radio dispatches received here say that the President Jefferson, operated by the Pacific Steamship Company, and the Empress of Australia of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Service are running a race across the Pacific Ocean from Yokohama to Puget Sound, with the Jefferson in the lead. Both left Yokohama at the same time. The Jefferson has been on the trans-Pacific run 15 months, and the Empress of Australia has never crossed the Pacific."
What is purported to be a race, exists only in the minds of the Seattle speculators. The Empress of Australia is now completing her round maiden voyage to the Orient and has been making 16 knots. In the matter of speed she does not begin to compare with the other Empress voyagers, but in luxury and comfort she is ahead of anything afloat on the Pacific. With a sea speed of 17 knots the Empress of Australia would at no time attempt to engage in a speed test with the "President" liners, which have a reputed sea speed of 17½ knots, and in recent trans-Pacific voyages, have been making about 19 knots.

The President Jefferson and the Empress of Australia sailed from Yokohama on September 2. The Empress of Australia is scheduled to arrive here on Tuesday morning, while the schedule of the C. P. S. S. ship calls for her arrival on Wednesday next. From this it would not seem that a race is in progress.
The speed record for the Pacific is still held by a Canadian ship, the Empress of Russia, which negotiated the distance of Yokohama to Victoria in 8 days, 18 hours and 21 minutes.

MANILA MARU IN PORT FROM EAST

Japanese Liner Brought 3,400 Bales of Raw Silk This Voyage

Included in the cargo of the Osaka Shosha Kaisha liner Manila Maru, which arrived in port this morning from the Orient, was a consignment of 3,400 bales of raw silk, which will be shipped by special train over the Chicago-Milwaukee system to New York.
The Manila Maru carried a total of 3,579 tons of general Oriental freight.
The Japanese ship was thirteen days crossing the Pacific from Yokohama, and with the exception of three days of fog, a fine passage was reported by her officers.
The freight movement from the Orient, which has been very slack during the past summer, now shows signs of picking up, the Manila Maru coming in with about twice the amount of freight that has been handled by the vessels of the company in recent months.

Railway Men Aboard.
Among the passengers arriving here today on the Manila Maru were A. F. Chapman, Jr., general passenger agent of the Chicago & North Western Railway, Seattle; Mr. Chapman and George P. Stolp, Oriental freight agent of Chicago. These gentlemen have been looking into the Orient passenger and freight situation and developing business connections. Mrs. Chapman went out on the liner Hawaii-Maina and met her husband at Yokohama.
The Manila Maru brought in a total of 87 passengers, including 11 in the first cabin. Forty-two steerage passengers came ashore here.
The vessel sailed from Yokohama on the evening of August 25, and made quarantine at 4 o'clock this morning, being passed at daybreak. She docked at 7 a. m. today.
The ship left here following the arrival of the steamer Sol Duc from Seattle, carrying Dr. Boulton, American quarantine officer at Port Townsend, who returned across the Straits aboard the Japanese liner.

GOES TO ORIENT AS C.P.R. MANAGER; ALLAN CAMERON

Montreal, Sept. 6.—Judgment for $25,000 has been awarded to the Canadian Government Merchant Marine by the admiralty division of the superior court for services rendered and damages sustained by the Canadian Trooper, in towing the steamer Otter, when in disabled condition, 800 miles to Halifax in October last. Of the total amount $12,000 is awarded to the merchant marine and the balance to the officers and crew of the Trooper.

PLANS FOR MOTOR FERRY TENTATIVE, SAYS CAPT. TROUP

"We have tentative plans, but until they have been approved the whole thing is in abeyance," said Capt. J. W. Troup, manager of the British Columbia Coast Steamship Service when questioned this morning concerning the proposal of the company to build a new automobile ferry to handle the increasing summer motor traffic between the mainland and Vancouver Island.
The company is cognizant of the fact that the growing automobile traffic to and from Vancouver Island will necessitate a more direct and speedy service to handle in the future the increasing motor travel, and plans are being made accordingly. In the past the Canadian Pacific has demonstrated that where the business is offering the company is prepared to take care of it in a satisfactory manner.
When the plans of the company have fully materialized a short route will be established with the mainland and a regular service maintained by a modern ferry.

LARGE MOVEMENT OF CANADIAN TOURISTS TO SOUTH PREDICTED

John Hooper, President of Canadian Tourists' Association, Optimistic

Seattle, Sept. 8.—The southern movement of Canadian tourists will be unusually large this winter, in the opinion of John Hooper, president of the Canadian Tourists' Association, who is here on his annual trip to California. He points out that the Canadian grain-crop has been phenomenally large, that there is a scarcity of coal on the prairie on account of the recent strike, and that the Canadian dollar has come back to par. Mr. Hooper will leave for the Dorothy Alexander Saturday night.
Travel to California continues heavy. The Admiral Schley left last night for San Francisco only with a full passenger list. The Dorothy Alexander, leaving to-night, is booked to capacity.
With 3,000 tons of steel rails from Halifax, the Norwegian steamship Ravanger is to berth here today.
The steamship Nika, which was severely damaged by running ashore at Vancouver Island, has discharged her cargo, with which she returned to port here, and is to shift to drydock at Victoria, in time she is to reload the cargo.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS AT PORT OF MONTREAL

The Montreal Harbor Commissioners have announced their plans for harbor improvements, involving an estimated expenditure of $4,500,000. The plans cover the creation of an additional capacity of 2,000,000 bushels, with the intention of increasing the capacity, ultimately, to 5,000,000 bushels, at an approximate cost of $2,347,000 for the first unit to be built; preparations for a new bridge over the extension of the high level quay walls, between sections 25 and 35, at $15,000; extension of wharves by 500 ft., $250,000; extension of Jacques Cartier pier, $200,000; extension of Alexandra pier, $400,000; extension of King Edward pier, $450,000; improvement of channel approach to Berkedale pier, $97,849.95; and paving and extension of the harbor railway terminals to new wharf levels east of section 25, $50,000. MONTEAGLE MAY GO TO AUSTRALIA

Rumors Floated That Former Oriental Carrier May Load on Atlantic for Melbourne

With the arrival of the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia here from Vancouver yesterday on her way out to the Orient a report was in circulation among the ship's complement to the effect that the steamship Monteaagle, which will shortly leave this coast with a lumber cargo for Montreal, may later be operated in the Australian trade from the Canadian Atlantic coast.
It was generally accepted aboard the Empress of Russia that the Monteaagle had been fixed for a voyage to Melbourne after completing her lumber cargo to the Orient.

SEA SLED BUILT IN CANADIAN YARD

REMARKABLE CRAFT Was Constructed by Canadian Vickers, Ltd., at Montreal Plant

A sea sled, built by the Canadian Vickers, Ltd., of Montreal, for demonstration purposes, is at present attracting a great deal of interest on the St. Lawrence River. The sea sled recently made a trip from Montreal to Toronto.
The dimensions are length, moulded, 55½ feet; breadth, 11 ft. 2 in.; breadth, moulded, 7½ ft.; breadth, extreme over guards, 8 ft. 1 in. Features of the hull design are the inverted V shape bottom and straight vertical sides, with the chines curving up forward like sleigh runners. There are two cockpits, the forward one being particularly roomy and well appointed, the upholstery and finish being on a par with the highest class of automobile and motor boat work. The remainder of the hull is decked over, and divided by transverse bulkheads, forming, together with the engine spaces, separate watertight compartments, thereby adding considerably to safety in case of damage. The framework, including the keel and chines, are mostly of white oak, specially designed for lightness and strength combined. The planking of the bottom, sides and deck is mahogany, with a double inner skin on the bottom of cedar, worked diagonally. The fastenings are brass screws, the framing and copper bolts in the fore and aft seams, there being about 36 fastenings per sq. ft. of surface.
The propelling machinery consists of two 6-cylinder model G.R.S. Stirling marine motors, fitted with electric starting systems, and fuel tanks of Tobin bronze 2½ in. in dia. and run out through a heavy shaft log built into the transom at the stern, with specially designed heavy bronze bearing and stuffing box on inside and force feed lubrication to all bearings. The two propellers are of manganese bronze 32 in. dia. of special pattern, in accordance with the surface propeller system of propulsion. In winter there are no outboard fittings of any description on the boat's bottom, and only half the propeller blades are immersed. The propellers are claimed to be free from fouling, shallow draft, shaft protected and lubricated; freedom from vibration; greater mechanical efficiency than any other speed boat design.
The steering gear is of special design, and consists of bronze rudder plates, one on each side of the drawing gear, fitted on outside of transom, and a line shaft steering column, which is claimed to be of superior efficiency than any other speed boat design.
The deck equipment comprises running lights and searchlights, glass windshields, flagpoles, masts and rigging. The bottom is painted in bronze, the topsides and deck and superstructure are of polished mahogany and steel, with polished brass fittings and high class workmanship throughout, gives a very pleasing and highly finished result.

PLAN ATTRACTIONS FOR CITY'S PARK

Chamber of Commerce Group Discuss Gorge Improvements

Plans for improving and extending the attractions of the city park at the Gorge were discussed at a luncheon of the Tourist Trade Group of the Chamber of Commerce. It is felt that the development of the park as an entertainment centre and swimming resort would add greatly to the attractions of Victoria.

The scheme of improvement as outlined by Alderman Leeming is as follows:

To thoroughly dredge the water lying in the bay formed between present bathing house and bridge and fill up to proper depths with sand.

To build cement broadwalk at just above high water level, extending around shore line from bathing house to Gorge Bridge; to have below this walk either steps or gradual slope of cement to below low water mark.

To construct a circular amphitheatre of the banks surrounding the bay and to have proper seating accommodation and steps provided thereon.

To erect a band stand on the lap of the bank and adjoining same a dancing platform or pavilion to accommodate 500 couples.

To build required amount of booths for the sale of candies, ice cream, fruit and other commodities, and amusement booths such as shooting galleries, etc.

To provide necessary accommodation for tea and dining rooms, etc., and also open-air tables, covered in, as may be required.

To build a first class scenic railway.

To fence the entire area on land boundaries with entrances provided with turnstile gates, so that charge for admission could be collected when any special event is being given.

To have the park or three acres nearest the city made into a proper up-to-date camp grounds, to be provided with all the necessary equipment for visiting tourists, with bathing facilities provided at this portion of the grounds.

Music to be provided daily, afternoon and evening, from May 20 to end of season; to be made for use of seats and dancing; booths to be rented and the gardens to be rented as a concession subject to supervision.

DEPRECATES "CASUAL" TAX SALE NOTICES

Actual Personal Notice of Intention to Sell Is Urged

Arising out of the Smith tax sale case, copies of resolution drafted by the protest meeting on Wednesday, will be presented to each member of the Executive Council. After setting out the Smith case, the motion urges the Government "at the earliest opportunity to amend the Municipal Act so as to compel municipalities to give to owners of land who are delinquent in payment of taxes actual personal notice of intention to sell, and further personal notice after sale of such owner's right to redeem and within what time and for what amount such redemption can be made. And further after considering the clauses in the said Act dealing with such sales this meeting views with alarm the casual and informal notices at present required and deprecates the policy of the Act which permits the property rights of an individual to be seriously interfered with if order to save a minimum of tax and to escape to the Municipality in the collection of its debts."

INVENTS IMPROVED TYPE OF SOFT COLLAR

Frank Rattenbury, member of a prominent British Columbia family, to-day announced the invention of an all-B. C. collar for men and young men. He made the announcement at the Parliament Buildings where he was conferring with Government officials about details of his plans for establishing a new industry here.

The Rattenbury invented collar has already been passed on by sartorial experts, and has officially been named the "Rabbit's Ear". The reason for this is the artistic shape of the wings and the softness of the texture. The collars are made of duck in a simple white or a delicate and beautiful blue color. Mr. Rattenbury explained, "One of the many improvements in that this soft collar will not crinkle—we have discovered the way to stop that—and the wings which are longer and straighter than any other known collar will not curl, and informal notices at present required and deprecates the policy of the Act which permits the property rights of an individual to be seriously interfered with if order to save a minimum of tax and to escape to the Municipality in the collection of its debts."

Elks Meeting Loco For B. C. Bai Title

First Game of Series For Amateur Championship Will Be Staged at Stadium To-morrow Afternoon; McIvride Will Try and Hang Up His Third Straight Victory In Play-Off; Elks Are Ready For Fray; Vancouver Sending Very Strong Team

For the first time in two years a Vancouver amateur ball team will be seen in action in Victoria to-morrow afternoon. Loco, champions of the mainland, will be here for the opening match in the series which will determine the British Columbia amateur ball champions. The Elks are to provide the opposition for loco and the game will commence promptly at 4 o'clock.

The match has aroused much interest and if the weather holds good the stadium will no doubt be crowded when the first ball is tossed. Both clubs are exceptionally strong and will provide one of the best games, either professional or amateur, seen here for a long time.

The Elks are just getting to go. They have been training hard and expect to be able to take the visitors into camp. The Elks want the opening game to be a close one, and they are going to go on in their game in Vancouver the following week. Walt Lorimer went over to the mainland on Wednesday to see the Vancouver team in action, but owing to the rain the game was called off. Loco, however, defeated Hanbury last night and won the right to meet Victoria.

Must Be Good. "I don't know what those Vancouver boys are like, but to win a championship against such a large number of teams they must have something," declared Walter this morning. "We aren't looking for any apple-pie, we are looking for a real game, and we are to win, we will have to be out there fighting every second. The Elks are in good shape and I believe that they will perform well. I am hoping for a win and hope there will be a big crowd of fans out to help us along."

The Elks will be the first team that successfully turned back Lady-smith in the series for the Island championship. It is expected that "Deacon" McIvride will do the thing in their first game of the series with the miners. "Deacon" was called upon to start his season's fighting and he hung up two straight victories. Now the "Deacon" will go forth to try and tame the Vancouver slugger. This however, may prove a more difficult task. The Elks have "Red" McIntyre ready to take up the burden should the "Deacon" falter.

The fast-finding and hard-hitting short-stop, Harry Copas, will be on deck. Harry has been hitting nearly 1,000 in the play-off series. Last week he hit five trips to the plate he slapped out two doubles and two singles and drew a pass.

The teams will line up as follows: Victoria Pitcher — Robinson; Catcher — C. Cross; First Base — N. Cross; Second Base — G. Freshfield; Left Field — Cameron; Right Field — Dowling; Short-stop — Solloway; Turpel; Guard Field — Dowling; Whitt-Whitt; Elks' rub their eyes if his arm is right.

The double umpire system will be in effect to-morrow. Mickey McIvride will come over from Vancouver and will work with Allie McGregor.

Hockey Moguls in Deadlock Over Question of Territorial Rights

Calgary, Sept. 8.—The question of territorial rights and the arrangements of a new agreement being considered here yesterday by the "Big Three"—Frank Calder, President of the N. H. A.; Frank Patrick, President of the Pacific Coast League, and E. L. Richardson, President of the Western Canada League, were at deadlock stage at a conference lasting six hours.

The conference terminated at midnight with no decision being arrived at. Another attempt will be made to-day to arrange the renewal agreement between the N. H. A. and Western Canada League, regarding territorial rights, and the signing of new players.

The two western hockey loops are demanding more territory. According to the agreement between the P. C. H. A. and the N. H. L. which was in effect last year all hockey material west of the Great Lakes was looked upon as the property of the Coast League, while the N. H. L. had the right to everything east of the Lakes. This was all right until the Western Canada League was taken into organized hockey. With two leagues in the western field the new hockey talent west of the Lakes became practically negligible. The scope of the N. H. L., however, was not decreased. This meant that more than two-thirds of the population of Canada to draw from. The western moguls went to the Calgary conference determined to force the N. H. L. to make concessions. What the nature of those demands are is not known but it is intimated that the Westerners would like the N. H. L. to name certain amateurs in the East that they would like to sign and then let the Western clubs go after the rest.

The East is not making the concession without a fight. If President Calder holds out it may mean a hockey war. Interesting developments are expected.

International Soccer Match To-morrow for Muir Fund

Victoria soccer fans will get their first chance of the season to see a pitch get the wind knocked out of it when the Veterans' Alliance and Seattle Legion engage in a battle at the Royal Athletic Park to-morrow afternoon. The kick off will be at 3 o'clock.

The Veterans' Alliance is an all-star team of the local all-stars who saw service overseas. The Seattle team is from the American Legion, which has many prominent soccer players. The game is being staged for the benefit of the "Billy Muir" and Keeping Faith Funds.

Owing to the international aspect of the match and also the worthy object for which it is being staged it is expected that a very large crowd of fans will be at the park.

The local team has been well picked and will be strong in all departments. Just how good is the Seattle side is not known, but they have a splendid record of victories across the border and are anxious to add a Victoria "win" to their number.

The teams will line up as follows: Victoria — Position — Goal — Fletcher; Full Back — Daley; Right Back — Daley; Left Back — Smith; Half Back — Weston; Forward — Cohor; Forward — Bupns; Small — Forward — Hephop; Forward — Postward; Forward — Clarkson; Forward — Kempton; Victoria reserves — Church; Harwood and Watts.

All players are requested to meet at the Veterans of France clubrooms at 2:30 o'clock. Manager Neary is anxious that any player who intends to go to the park and not call at the clubrooms will phone him at 528X. Jack does not want a score of not having a full team out should some players proceed directly to the field.

In the tying run, Hale was knocked unconscious and had to be carried off the field. The accident so unnerved Wallace that Manager Killier substituted Thomas and Poll hit him for a dinky infield single that McAuley could not quite handle, but scored the winning run. Hale tonight had regained consciousness, but physicians could not say how seriously his injury may prove.

Wallace twirled for Victoria in the Pacific International League last year.

Cyril Tolley, Latest Victim of Knepper

Last of English Players Eliminated in Desperate Struggle By Sensation of U. S. Amateur Golf Tournament; Knepper's Victims Now Number Torrence, Ouimet and Tolley; Meets Evans To-day; Sensational Play

Brookline, Mass., Sept. 8.—A stymie stopped Jesse P. Guilford's attempt to hole out another national golf championship yesterday. The title holder was defeated by Jesse Sweetzer, Metropolitan champion, when he failed in an attempt to jump the obstacle which the latter imposed on the fifteenth green.

This sensation in the first of the four-36-hole matches completed in the round of the title tournament immediately preceding the semi-finals was matched in the last. Cyril J. H. Tolley, winner of the British championship at Muirfield two years ago, was conquered two up by little Rudy Knepper, senior at Princeton University, and citizen of Sioux City, Iowa. With Tolley's defeat was marked the complete collapse of the British expedition to capture the American title.

Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, champion of the South, went ahead to the semi-finals over Billy McPhail, of Boston, who played well yesterday over the course where not long ago he caddied. Chic Evans, Chicago, accomplished the defeat of E. A. Godchaux, of New Orleans, completing the card for the semi-finals to-day. This will be Sweetzer against Jones; Evans meeting Knepper.

Three of the four match yesterday ended on the fifteenth green at 4 up, three holes to play. It was there that Sweetzer's prettily played putt stymied the champion. It was there that Jones achieved victory against the former caddy, who had held him safely until a few holes before. It was there in turn that Evans stormed the successes of young Godchaux, which had carried the New Orleans player from 5 down to 2 down, through consecutive victories at the short twelfth, the long thirteenth and the longer fourteenth holes.

It was a different story in the Tolley-Knepper match. The British champion of two years ago and the youngster who had put out Tolley's compatriot, W. T. Torrence, two days since, and Evans Ouimet on Wednesday, came up to the home hole for decision.

Two down at the close of the forenoon round and five down at the sixth green in the afternoon, the six-holed green in a courageous, with flashes of brilliant golf intermixed with remnants of erratic play that Knepper's hole in the hole, which he struck at the thirty-second hole. The Irish, Mississippi champion, sensation of the tournament, seemed in danger of cracking.

A Lucky Shot. His drive from the fourteenth had landed on the edge of bounds in brush and mud and he was obliged to pick up. With a one-hole advantage, he received a break of luck when his drive, heading for the tall timber, struck a boy and bounded back to a smooth spot on the edge of the fairway. His second shot put him on the green and made possible a putt for a birdie three and a two up advantage.

On the seventeenth Knepper's iron shot was in a trap and two futile attempts to get out of the trap failed. He cut his lead to a lonely one, and the way Tolley was then shooting gave the Englishman a chance to square the match on his home hole. Knepper then called again on his fighting spirit and steadiness. On the far side of the green in two from a hundred feet, he putted to the hole, but the ball passed over it. Tolley made a desperate attempt to equal in his third shot with a chip from the left of the green, but when he missed a curving putt, he conceded the hole and match.

Tolley Was Sick. The English player was wild all afternoon, due in part to illness, it was said, but he made no reference to this handicap, although playing far above par. He was not much better in the afternoon, mixing long wild drives, sinking a hard putt one minute and missing an easy one shortly after. Undoubtedly the sensational shot of the match was his 200-yard drive on the seventeenth hole in the afternoon when he almost made a hole in one. The ball dropped within three inches of the pin for a birdie two.

Jesse Guilford, Woodland, Golf Club's leading member, did not vacate his title without a struggle. After a morning round more or less of a nightmare to his supporters, ending with the champion one down, his galliard game of the young challenger from Yale, Jesse Sweetzer, tightened up. Bad putting marred the match, but he was brightened at places by splendid, almost impossible play.

The champion's siege gun boomed at intermittent intervals but it was not often that his drives were far ahead of Sweetzer's. The drive of both was good, but their approaches were uncertain and until the afternoon round their putting was poor.

Dormie gave him the thirty-second, the champion won the hole with a birdie "60". It was a last titanic effort to retain his crown, but the odds were too great. With all hope of winning gone when he was stymied and his mashie failed him in an attempt to jump his opponent's ball, the champion picked up both balls, smiled his characteristic way, quickly, almost seriously, shook his head with his conqueror and stepped down from his throne.

Sweetzer, with feeling, remarked that he was sorry that it had to be Guilford who went down in his way.

Just College Boys. Brookline, Mass., Sept. 8.—Three college youths who have not cast their first votes and an odd master of 33 years contested in the semi-finals of a national amateur golf championship tournament to-day in further argument over the year's amateur supremacy in what used to be called an "old man's game," by those who did not play or know about it.

The programme was Yale vs. Harvard; Princeton vs. Northwestern; New York vs. Atlanta; Sioux City vs. Chicago. In other words, Jesse Sweetzer, who is a senior at Yale and New York's metropolitan champion, played Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, who is soon to enter Harvard, while Rudy Knepper, of Sioux City, who is a senior at Princeton played the former champion Chick Evans, who is an alumni of the Northwestern and used to caddy.

The quarter-finals had stern tasks to reach the semi-finals, and Sweetzer's work in detroning Jesse Guilford, of Boston, as champion and Knepper's taming in his defeat of W. B. Torrence, the British team, Francis Ouimet and the redoubtable Cyril Tolley of England on successive days, attracted the most attention.

measured at the Scarborough Club on Wednesday, will be completed to-day. The big feature of the day is the international match between the United States and Canadian teams, fifteen players a side, which started this morning. All but one of the visiting teams have handicaps of ten or under.

The sky was heavily clouded when the players started this morning but gradually cleared away this morning. In addition to the international match there is a foursome competition this afternoon open to members of both associations and several ties in connection with the various events of Wednesday and Thursday will be played off. The tournament has been a great success, the best held to date.

PASS UP CRITICISM OF SOCCER REPORT

D.F.A. Adopts Financial Statement of Roy Despits Its Short-comings

Winnipeg, Sept. 8.—In the interests of peace and the future of the game, the council of the Dominion Football Association in session here yesterday adopted the much-discussed financial statement of the Scottish tour.

Resolved that, having received the secretary-treasurer's report and statement in respect to the Scottish tour, we regret to have to report our disappointment that same is not in accordance with the oft-repeated promise of both the president and secretary-treasurer that a full and comprehensive statement in connection with the tour would be placed before this general meeting, and that since we have considered such statement as presented, we desire, entirely in the interests of peace and the future of the game, to recommend to the meeting that the statement, notwithstanding the fact that the auditors declined to sign same, be adopted and accepted, and that we devote our energies to the rehabilitation and development of the game.

The annual meeting of the Dominion Football Association was formally adjourned this afternoon without any further business being transacted.

Look at "Chick." Brookline, Mass., Sept. 8.—"Chick" Evans, of Chicago, playing par golf both in and out, was six up on Rudy Knepper, of Sioux City, at the end of the morning round.

Jesse Sweetzer, of New York, was five up on Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, at the end of the first eight holes of their 36-hole match in the semi-finals of the National Amateur Golf Championship Tournament to-day.

Moreover, he bettered all previous performances over his career when, holding out every putt but one, he went around in 69 strokes, two under par.

DOMINION

Charles A. Stevenson, who plays with Gloria Swanson in "Her Gilded Cage," which will be seen at the Dominion Theatre, is seventy-one years old and despite his fifty years' stage experience, is still actively in the game. In this picture, he portrays a man of about fifty-five years of age.

There are several well known screen players who support Gloria Swanson in "Her Gilded Cage." These include among others Harrison Ford, Walter Hill and Anne Cornwall.

COLUMBIA

Tom Mix hit the bull's eye again in his latest William Fox production, "Trailin'," which is the attraction at the Columbia Theatre for a run of three days. The first showing audience made no secret of their enthusiastic approval.

Max Brand wrote the stirring story of which the play is based. Lynn F. Reynolds adapted the story and directed the picture. The result is noteworthy.

It seemed peculiar to see Mix in the role of a tenderfoot, but he soon demonstrated that he was not so tender after all. Steve Nash, the bad man, and a few others who attempted to interfere with his plans were soon convinced of the hero's superiority at their own tricks. Incidentally Mix walked in and practically took the villain's sweetheart from under his very nose as though there were nothing unusual about it.

A deep mystery connected with the story is not cleared until the last scene. Tom Mix did not fall his host of admirers at any point. He was most assuredly "all there" with his horsemanship, his athletic stunts and his fighting ability.

ROYAL VICTORIA

Among the most charming scenes to be seen in "Smilin' Through," the splendid First National attraction which is playing to capacity audiences at the Royal Victoria Theatre this week, are those in which Norma Talmadge, the star, and members of her company revive some of the beautiful old time English dances on the screen.

Norma, exquisitely costumed, dances an 1860 polka, an English waltz and the old lancers with an appealing grace. The scenes of this moving and colorful photoplay, adapted from Alice Langdon Martin's famous stage production, are laid in Ireland and England and Norma gives a wonderful performance.

The whole production is a masterpiece, made under the direction of Sidney Franklin, and is more fascinating and stirring than its highly successful predecessor on the stage.

CAPITOL

Motion pictures have been developed in America to a degree that far outstrips those of any other country, according to Paramount, the world's greatest producer and distributor of motion pictures.

From its studios in New York and California Paramount has sent lighting equipments and cameras with their companies on location in England, Scotland, France, Germany, Italy, Egypt and Africa in order to get the appropriate settings for the screen dramas being produced as Paramount pictures.

Film men in all other countries except America marvel at the powerful sunlight arc, a recent American invention which makes possible the taking of photographs by night. This scorchlight develops a light of 2,000,000 candlepower.

It was this American invention which made possible the filming of the tremendous battle scenes of "The Loves of Pharaoh," in which thousands of invading Ethiopians sweep across the valley into the ancient Egyptian stronghold where thousands of invading Ethiopians fight for the defence of their sphinx and pyramids.

Ernest Lubitsch, creator of "Passion" and "Detection" who directed the tremendous spectacular scenes in "The Loves of Pharaoh," in which more than one hundred thousand people appear, insists that without this American invention, which he invariably uses for night photography, it would not have been possible for him to achieve such extraordinary photographic effects.

AT THE CAPITOL THIS WEEK

LEON LEONIDOFF

not easy of definition. It has been described as a "due mixture of different qualities, or the result," and also as the "physical and mental constitution peculiar to the individual." Neither description, however, is very enlightening, nor makes it very clear what this artistic temperament really is. It is not that an artist has manners or peculiarities different from his fellows, but, perhaps, he has an understanding of doing and saying things, which, if the average man had, he would hide by reason of a bashfulness non-existent more or less with his Bohemian flow. And peculiarly, too, most people of artistic inclination, who in a measure, lack something of this elusive quality of doing and saying things, will tolerate it, and even wish for it in others. A composer, a conductor, a singer, a pianist, a violinist, without temperament bears very largely the same relation to him who has it as Godowsky or an Ornstein. It is surely owing to the large share of temperament possessed by such artists as de Pachmann, Rubinstein, von Bulow, Nikisch, Sir Hubert Parry, Sir Arthur Sullivan, and that magnetic Pole, Paderewski, that countless stories are told of their so-called eccentricities, their keen sense of humor and their genial traits of character.

At the fifteenth annual convention of the National Association of Organists in Chicago at the beginning of August, T. Tertius Noble, organist of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, New York, was elected president. Mr. Noble was born at Bath, England, and is one of the most distinguished musicians of the present day. He came to America some time after resigning his position as organist at York Minister in 1913. He has acted as adjudicator at many Canadian festivals including the Alberta festivals of the West.

San Francisco vocal teachers are favoring the movement to have all vocal teachers throughout America "standardized." John C. Freund, an Englishman, and editor of "Musical America," advanced this plan some years ago, and advocated the licensing of vocal teachers. It is said that out of the 50,000 voice students who go to New York every year for tuition all but a few come to grief.

The foremost conductors to-day with one or two exceptions, are the English conductors. Following in the footsteps of such masters as Sir Charles Halle and Sir August Manns, are Albert Coates, who was guest conductor last season with the London Symphony Orchestra, Sir New York Symphony Orchestra, Sir Landon Ronald, termed "a stylist of the baton," the famous Sir Henry Wood, Percy Pitt, Sir Thomas Beecham, and Sir Alexander Mackenzie.

Dame Nellie Melba has added further names to her "discoveries." She prophesies great futures for Lillian Gibson, a contralto, and Alfred Benjamin, a bass, of Sydney, Australia.

A story is going the rounds concerning Paderewski. Soon after the Armistice a general asked the brilliant Pole to come to Warsaw for a conference. The soldier when meeting him was at a loss as to how he should greet the future premier. Hesitatingly, he asked, "Would you mind playing something for us?" "Certainly not," replied Paderewski, "if you will dance to the tune I play."

Beneath the massive walls and in the shadows of the historic Warwick Castle an open-air performance was recently given of Gluck's "Orpheus." The whole presentation is spoken of as one of the most beautiful and moving spectacles within the memory of music lovers in the district.

It was recently estimated that at a Saturday morning concert given in Philadelphia, by the Fairmount Park Symphony Orchestra, over 1,000 children deserted the baseball diamonds, tennis courts and swimming ponds to hear its excellent programme. On the following day, Sunday afternoon, a peculiar circumstance arose, the heat was so excessive and sweltering that the band and symphony concerts were cancelled. The temperature in the band shell was 108 degrees.

Myra Hess, the English pianist, and the London String Quartette, are to tour England and Scotland in the Fall. What a wonderful combination is here!

Peculiarly enough Wales, though famous for its annual Eisteddfod and her unrivalled chorus rarely touches the music of any other country. There is no symphony orchestra in Wales of its own, and the Welsh composer is still dominated by Mendelssohn. During the past two years, however, a movement is on foot throughout the most populated districts to organize a Welsh National Symphony Orchestra, and the London Symphony has played more than once at Swansea, Cardiff, Mountain Ash and elsewhere, and with the newly formed Welsh Musical Festival, most of the music for the first time in its history, a great portion of the programmes have witnessed the works of contemporary composers, and represented thereon have been Elgar, Holst, Goossens, Delius, Sibelius, Granville Bancock, Cyril Jenkins and others.

TO START SOAP FACTORY HERE

Experienced Maker Will Establish Local Plant

J. W. Fox, late of the Hearle Soap Manufacturing Company, Montreal, is shortly to open up a similar industry here under his own name. Following recent tests a small output made at his private premises, 1524 Slater Street, was placed on the local market by Mr. Fox with success. A suitable site has been offered by Mayor Marchant and Alderman Harvey of the Industrial Committee of the Council, where the Fox Soap Manufacturing will shortly see its inception. Though the site has not yet been finally selected, Mr. Fox intends to import a large quantity of machinery and manufacture on an extensive scale.

Familiar with the commercial processes of soap making from early boyhood Mr. Fox is an expert chemist with a knowledge of 73 different kinds of soap. It is stated, already the projected soap manufacturing has been promised an extensive support, and will primarily seek local markets.

SAANICH PLANS JITNEY CONTROL

Gorge Bus Line in Peril, So Council Plans Action

The Saanich Council last night passed and tabled a by-law to control bus lines or jitney operators within the municipal limits.

The by-law had been prepared at the instance of Reeve Watson, who had been warned of possible discontinuance of the Gorge service, operated until recently given a service to Lake Hill.

Councillor Macfiecol stated that he and Councillor Vantreight had interviewed jitney men on the Lake Hill run and had been promised that the operators would get together and submit proposals for control of the business by next Thursday's session. The draft proposals included fees for drivers and cars, and at once aroused opposition by Councillor Macfiecol, who stressed the need of control, but believed fees should be nominal. MANY JOBS CALL, BUT NOT RIGHT KIND

Jobs are going begging all over the Province while men remain in Victoria and Vancouver with their names on the unemployed lists, according to a statement issued by the Dominion Government Employment Bureau. In Victoria 369 men have their names on the list but to no care to go out to jobs until the right one comes along.

Here are some of the opportunities the Bureau lists as offering to-day:

"Employment agencies are being besieged by farmers and mining concerns for men."

"C. P. R. Telegraph here had a notice in its window for some days indicating that it wanted men."

"Victoria firms have been running advertisements in Vancouver papers for blacksmiths, draughtsmen and others."

"The Bureau has a good demand from Island farmers for 'hands' for farmers—all local demands."

"Other jobs are going begging at Kimberley in the Kootenays." So badly does the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. want men at Kimberley that it is prepared to refund their transportation after they have been at work two months. Wage of ferred for construction labor is $3.55 for an eight-hour day. Men are charged $1.10 a day for board leaving them with $2.25 a day clear profit after expenses. The jobs there will be open all winter.

"The Tidewater Copper Co. on the West Coast is calling for twenty machine miners at once at $4.25 a day, charged $1 per day board."

"Last week owing to some rush work at Yarrows and the Victoria Machinery Depot almost any man who wanted work could get it."

"It is the old difficulty of bringing the right jobs to the right men and the right men to the right jobs. Most of the unemployed at the local bureau are what is known as 'casual labor,' while such work as machine mining comes under the heading of 'skilled labor.' Scores of men are waiting for jobs, even while the jobs which they seem unfitted to fill are going begging."

INTEREST GROWING IN MISSION AT ST. AIDAN'S

Rev. J. S. Patterson and Wesley Choir Assisted Last Evening

Interest in the Mission of Evangelism in progress at St. Aidan's Presbyterian Church, Mt. Tolmie is steadily growing. Rev. Dr. Hector Maclean, evangelist, and T. H. Nichol, soloist and director of song, both of the staff of the Department of Evangelism, Presbyterian Church in Canada, are in charge of the mission.

Last evening Rev. J. S. Patterson, of St. Paul's Church, Victoria West, with his church choir, rendered splendid assistance, which was manifestly appreciated. To-night's meeting will open with a song service at 7.45 o'clock. On Sunday Rev. John Garden and Rev. Peter Fisher, who are visiting the city, will assist the evangelists.

Arrangements have also been made for a meeting of the children and young people of the district at 3.30 p. m., Monday in the church. On Tuesday night, Rev. J. P. Dimick, pastor of Wesley Methodist Church, and his choir are expected. Mr. Nichol's solo work is an attractive feature of the mission. All who may be willing to assist in the choir are kindly asked to meet in the church this evening at 7.45.

Reggie: "I am just crazy when I am away from you."

Dorothy: "Ah, yes, out of sight, out of mind; you know."

RETAILERS STATE LIMIT OF TAXATION HAS BEEN REACHED

Commission on Trade Licenses Will Be Urged

Fall Style Show Is Mooted on Extensive Scale

At a special meeting of the Retail Group of the Chamber of Commerce, held last night in the Board room of the Belmont Building, a resolution urging on the directors of the Chamber of Commerce the necessity of forming a Trade License Commission was carried after considerable discussion. J. D. O'Connell presided.

The meeting opened with five members present, which led the chairman to express keen disappointment. By a gradual process the number swelled until there were twenty present. The gathering also appointed a committee composed of P. B. Scurrah, R. B. Price and William Maynard to investigate the possibility of starting a Fall style show on an elaborate scale, which led the chairman to express keen disappointment. The resolution proposed by H. S. Stevenson read as follows:

"Whereas the City Council is endeavoring to raise more money for current expenses by higher taxation, and whereas the City Council will probably seek legislative powers to bring this into effect at the next annual sitting of the Legislature, be it resolved that we, the Retail Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, submit the following recommendations to our Board of Directors:

"First: That a trade license commission be formed, consisting of delegates from the following trades and professions, namely, two from each of the following: Lumber mills, factories (this to include all who manufacture and sell and exclusively by wholesale), laundries, wholesale warehouses (this to include fruit, general groceries, dry goods and commission merchants), real estate firms (this to include insurance companies), retail merchants in the downtown districts, department stores (this to include business office building proprietors, automobile and accessory dealers, peddlers and hawkers, professional men (this to include doctors, lawyers, etc.), banks, transportation companies, which will include the taxis and cars for hire; soft drink manufacturers.

"Second: Arrangements for the appointment and calling together of the delegates will be made by the committee on committees who will appoint its chairman (preferably a member of the City Council) and its chairman may be selected from the delegates at their first meeting. Delegates should come prepared with instructions from the trades and professions to recommend an applicable tax license which could then be submitted by the commission to the City Council who could deal with it as they see fit."

Situation Elsewhere.

In opening the meeting the chairman introduced figures that had been obtained from other cities in Canada on the question of business and other taxes. Winnipeg businesses paid 6 and 2.5 per cent. on the rental value of each premises, he showed. Calgary paid ten per cent. on the rental value. Hamilton paid

25 per cent. on the rental value tax basis. Edmonton in 1916 paid 6 per cent. on the rental value. Saskatoon merchants paid on a varying rate based on floor space. Regina merchants giving the same. General taxes were collected either monthly or quarterly in most of the Canadian cities of note, it was found. Income tax collectable for civic revenue was noted in several cities mainly in the East.

"One thing seems to me to be inevitable, the city has got to have more money," stated J. D. O'Connell. They claim that the land will not carry any more taxation, and the accessible place is the retail merchant's premises. It is true that a great portion of the city's property has reverted through inability of the landowner to meet his taxes. The civic fathers have decided that the merchant is the logical source of extra taxation. Now the question is 'can the merchant stand any more taxation?'

"The retail merchant is the backbone of the community, and the country. (Cries of hear, hear). The property least in arrears in the city to-day is retail business property, on which the taxes are paid directly or indirectly by the retail merchant. I am of the opinion that Victoria and Canadian merchants generally do not realize their importance in the community, get together on this, see if the merchant can stand more taxation, and if he cannot then fight the thing to the last. We will pay our fair share, but not be responsible for everybody's business, whether the city is in a jackpot or not," concluded Mr. O'Connell.

Obstacles in Way.

H. S. Stevenson pointed out many obstacles that lay in the path of a retail value tax among them being that other merchants would find out what an individual merchant paid for a choice site, and overbid him to the landlord. Mr. Stevenson suggested a tax on window space rather than on rental value. The downtown district should be zoned, he said, and a tax paid on a scale per footage of window space. Every business man with a tax to pay should co-operate now and submit a budget to the city before that corporation secured powers from the legislature to pass additional taxation that might fall too heavily on the one class.

Mr. Stevenson then introduced his resolution asking for the appointment of a Trade License Commission to arrive at an equitable trade license tax.

H. A. Davis said he thought the downtown merchant was meeting all the tax that he could carry. If conditions had been such that he could not have held, he held. On his garage he paid a trade license of $100 and an additional $50 for a street gasoline pump.

Taxation should be based upon earning power, commented the chairman, who cited the case where a local lawyer had taken two cases simultaneously to the Privy Council. The lawyer had won one and lost the other, and yet had been paid $15,000 for each, or a total of $30,000 for less than one month's work. The meeting, however, concluded the chairman, was not called to "pass the buck" to the professional men, but to see that the retail merchant did not have to carry everybody's share of the burden.

Poll Tax.

That earning capacity of the individual was the only fair basis was the opinion expressed by several present, who held that rental value or a space rate tax would be inequitable.

Mr. Price said that he had been accustomed to a "vote" on all over the age of 21 years, male and female, in the city where he was born, and suggested this as the only fair way. This led to a payment for the civic services rendered and also created a healthy condition where young people contributed to their share of the community in payment for the benefits they received. At the age of 21 the speaker held that his tax under this plan, that being $3.50, and when he left that city he was paying $25 from his salary annually. The tax was paid by all over age.

It was remarked at the meeting that the City Council had not called any business men into their councils when planning the "broadening of taxation." The sum of $100,000 including the $63,000 trade license now collected, was required by the city, it was stated, and if this were thrown on the merchant the rental value tax would be over 5 per cent.

License Restriction.

Others pointed out that for all the taxes paid the merchant was not granted protection, in that the number of licenses under any line of business was unrestricted. This should not be, it was felt. After further discussion the Stevenson resolution carried and will be submitted to the Chamber of Commerce Directors for action. On this committee, under the present plan, the retailers would have a representation of six members. It was pointed out that in opening the question of a Fall Style Show the chairman pointed out that such an event on a large scale in the Armory with every business represented would be a great drawing card for the city. If properly worked out it could advertise the business of every man in the city and could be made very attractive. Fashions were not the only material to be benefited as motor cars, furniture and all house accessories and services could be worked into the parade where live models would display the clothing. Even wall papering and motor cars could be taken care of in the plan, it was held. The plan met with some criticism on the ground that it might prove too expensive and not be worth while. A general feeling in favor of the Fall Style Show was exhibited in the appointment of a committee of Messrs. Scurrah, Price and Maynard to investigate and report. That a week of window displays and intensive advertising should take the place of the suggested fashion show was also made, and will be considered simultaneously by the same committee. The meeting then adjourned.

A LESSON FROM ANCIENT ROME

Two thousand years ago the athletes and fighting gladiators of the Roman Empire, to ensure speedy healthy healing of wounds, sores and injuries used magical herbal oils and balms.

Taking a lesson from the Ancients, an eminent firm of manufacturing chemists undertook a search to recover these lost secrets. Certain rich herbal oils and essences were at last found and a scientific means of blending and refining them was devised.

After lengthy and costly experiment a super-balm was evolved which contains these potent herbal saps in the most perfect form. To this new discovery was given the name zambuk, to indicate the highest achievement yet attained in the healing art.

Treatment of skin diseases and injuries has been revolutionized by zambuk. Its healing and antiseptic power is enhanced by the complete absence of rancid animal fats that distinguish ordinary salves. Eczema, ringworm, ulcers, piles, poisoned wounds, rashes, cold-sores, chaps, chilblains, children's scalp troubles, etc., yield rapidly to zambuk.

FOR CHILDREN
THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TONIGHT

MR. FOX TRIES TO FOOL MR. DOG

Mr. Fox had tried in vain to make friends with Mr. Dog, who had come to live at the farm where Mr. Fox did a great deal of hunting. It was no use. Mr. Dog was too wise and old to be tricked into friendship—he knew what Mr. Fox was up to and he barked and chased him every time he saw him.

There were other farms, of course, but this one had the finest poultry and the turkeys slept in the lowest boughs and Mr. Fox did not wish to be deprived of his food. Something must be done.

While he was thinking it over Mr. Fox was resting under some bushes near the corn field. He could see the old scarecrow lazily waving its arms and legs and he smiled as he saw Johnny Crow fly out of the field in a hurry, frightened by the scarecrow man's threatening manner.

"He does look like Mr. Man," thought Mr. Fox. "Johnny Crow will soon learn, though, that it is nothing but an old suit of Mr. Man's and he will not be driven away."

And then Mr. Fox had an idea. He would dress in those clothes and fool Mr. Dog. "He will never suspect it is I," thought Mr. Fox. "I will pull the hat over my face and he will be certain to think it is some Mr. Man. I guess I am smart enough for any Mr. Dog; I can fool the best of them."

Mr. Fox waited until it was dark and then crept into the field and dressed in the scarecrow clothes. He was so pleased with the shadow he made, because he thought he looked just like Mr. Man, that he was watching his shadow and not where he was going and before he knew it he was right beside the house where Mr. Dog lived.

Out came Mr. Dog with a bound.

CONFERENCE IN OTTAWA PLANNED
International Labor Conference Recommendation to Be Discussed

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—(Canadian Press) Another conference between the Federal and Provincial Governments is in prospect—a conference to discuss the important conventions and recommendations adopted at the International Labor Conferences of the League of Nations. The question was given considerable discussion at private sessions of the National Conference on Unemployment which concluded its sittings shortly before last night. It was felt that the primary subject before the conference was unemployment, and that the international labor conventions would be better discussed at a special conference to be called by the Federal Government on request from a majority of the Provincial Governments, "when this may be deemed necessary."

"Careful and sympathetic attention" was urged in the meantime. A resolution to this effect adopted unanimously at the unemployment conference was issued this morning.

NEW COMPANIES ARE INCORPORATED

Toronto, Sept. 8.—Authorized capital of $1,767,300 is represented by companies whose incorporations were reported to The Monetary Times during the week ended September 2, compared with $14,144,400 the previous week. A summary by the Western provinces for the week ended September 2 follows:

Ontario charters $1,748,400, Alberta and Saskatchewan none, British Columbia $279,900, Manitoba $50,000.

FALL OF THE MARK ROBS GERMAN BONDS OF VALUE AT HOME

Berlin, Sept. 8.—The falling mark has turned the German business world topsy-turvy. Government and railway securities, which formerly were considered gilt edged, are now regarded as a pest. The Germans are neglecting even their own substantial industrial securities and are scrambling for dubious foreign bonds. Even Hungarian and Turkish certificates are beginning to look attractive.

The banker raises their hands in despair when Americans come with a few hundred dollars, exchanging only 10 or 20 daily for marks, for the yield their dollars heavily a month ago when the mark had twice its present exchange value. A few Americans, however, are lured by the low prices of luxuries and real estate.

One hurried to the bank for marks and bore the day ended bought six houses in the suburbs of Berlin at an average of $1,000 each.

Shop prices have not yet advanced in proportion to the drop in the mark. Retail merchants are repricing their goods at a higher figure, but they are moving slowly because they are not sure which way the mark will go. But in every establishment the clerks are always busy changing the price tags on what goods still remain after the recent orgy of buying.

"One of the most prominent jewelers in Unter den Linden has marked all his prices in dollars. Many who sellers quote prices only in dollars and are asking New York prices. When the foreign buyers lose interest the local dealers become more perplexed than ever what to do with their goods. This is so even at the corner cigar store, where efforts to determine the proper sale price induces the owners to make a guess at the price to ask.

There is such a demand for paper money that the stock of bank notes is nearing exhaustion. The Reichsbank which had 9,000,000,000 marks in 20 mark notes in its basement some days ago, has emptied its vaults. This obliged the bank to begin reissuing patched up money which has been returned to a mutilated condition for withdrawal from circulation, as it was unable to print enough new notes to replace the old ones. Business interests demanded a note issue of 16,700,000,000 marks in new money.

In restaurants, clubs and hotel jobbers exchange rate discussions are carried on from morning to midnight. Foreign guests have got into the habit of waiting in the morning for the chambermaid or bellboy, who always can be relied upon to know how the dollar stands. The lowest caddy or policeman answers such questions without moment's hesitation.

Times Book Review
(By Professor W. T. Allison.)

Phil-H. Moore, author of "With Gun and Rod in Canada," left the Lawrence Scientific School, Harvard University, in 1899, and went to a mine in Northeastern Utah as an engineer. He spent two years exploring and prospecting in the Southwest and Mexico, then went East as manager of some gold mines in Nova Scotia. He joined the rush into Cobalt, Ont., in the same capacity. The year 1909 found him surveying from Cochran, Ontario, to Moose Factory, a Hudson's Bay post on James Bay. Later he became manager of the Mining Department of the Canadian General Electric Company at Toronto, and for several years travelled all over Canada, and into many of its far corners, investigating new fields and their commercial possibilities in relation to the electrical apparatus that the company manufactured. He had previously been made a licensed guide in Nova Scotia, and having owned considerable property, has always kept up this connection with the Game Commissioners.

The negro and the savage are receiving a good deal of attention in books at the present time. It is pure chance that this is so, so far as can be seen. The books have happened to come along, that is all. Eugene O'Neill's wonderful drama, "The Emperor Jones," published in his volume of plays, has a negro for its chief character. The remarkable French novel, "Bougainville," is now rendered into English, and published in a limited edition. A new novel of African native life, "White Doctors," by Charles Beadle, deals with native customs and worship—too doo and magic making—and the heart of Africa. Here a strong drama is played out between two white men, the only whites in a territory of many square miles.

"Savages," a tale of life among the cannibals of the Solomon Islands, and relating the adventures of one Harrington, a British sea-captain, is another "native" novel just published. Gordon Young is the author.

"White and Black" is a novel of the negro problem to-day in the Southern States of America. Here the attitude, unlike other novels on the color problem in America, is very sympathetic to the man of color. It is a powerful novel, and does not hesitate to give what the author considers to be a true picture of white man's failure to understand the negro, or even to let him alone.

Mr. Sherwood Anderson, who was born at Camden, Ohio, in 1876, has seen many sides of life. At one time he was a laborer, then a soldier, and finally went into business. He was successful and made money, but he revolted against the routine and so began to write. His novel, "Poor White," published in England last year. This year Mr. Jonathan Cape has published "Winesburg, Ohio" and "The Triumph of the Egg." The last-named was recently awarded the prize given by "The Dial" for the most important contribution to American literature published during the year.

All those who have a personal grievance against the habitual book-borrower, and who realize to what extent the practice of constantly reading books without ever paying for them robs the author, will rejoice at the recent action of a Swiss magistrate. A book-borrower of Babikon, a suburb of Zurich, was charged with failing to return a "borrowed" book, and was sentenced to two days' imprisonment and a fine of forty francs, in addition to the value of the book. The magistrate in passing sentence said: "A book is a family utensil, like furniture, and is necessary to the welfare of the family."

MAKING SURE OF A SMILE.
It was the first night of a new play.

"Oh, I thought it was the author to the manager," that seems Hiltner over there is a most peculiar looking fellow."

"Yes, he's an Eskimo," said the manager.

"An Eskimo. What on earth made you take him on?"

"Oh, I thought it was a con-artist to take one happy face. If the play turns out to be a frost!"
