haben. Durch Vermittlung Globkes und Bühlers kam dann Eichmann in den Besitz des Hohen-Kreuz-Passes, der ihm die Flucht nach Argentinien ermöglichte.

Unter den Teilnehmern der Konferenz befand sich auch Jesu, genannter Brian Anderson.

Antisemitische Ausschreitungen in Westberlin

Berlin (NZ/ADN). Das Lebensmittelfachgeschäft des jüdischen Kaufmanns Spiegel an der Ecke Matarmen- und Naumburgerstraße in Westberlins Bezirk Kreuzberg ist in der vergangenen Woche mit antisemitischen Heftparolen besudelt worden. Das Westberliner Polizeipräsidium hat den unerhörten Vorfall bisher verschwiegen. Frontstuhlhänger hatten über die Schaufensterscheibe des Ladens einen verdeckt geschriebenen Diebstahlsvermerk alarmiert. Die vierwöchige Polizeidivision 108 hat die wachhabende Offizier unternehmen jedoch keine energischen Schritte zur Ermittlung der Täter. Er entsandte lediglich einen Beamten, der die Schriftgröße der Mordparole maß und ein Protokoll anfertigte.

Von den noch nicht nach Westdeutschland zurückgekehrten Nazi-Verbrechern hatte sich der SS-Führer Otto Skorzony, der Beauftragte Eichmanns zur Lösung der Judenfrage in Frankreich, nach Beirut geschicktes Organisationsleiter der Konferenz war der Adjutant Eichmanns, Alois Brunner, der sich unter dem Namen Dr. George Hagith in Damaskus vorlegte.

Auf der Konferenz berichtete Zech-Nentwig, daß er enge Kontakte zu Eichmanns Verteidiger Servatius unterhalte und ständig die Praxestaktik mit ihm berate. Er brüstete sich ferner mit seinen guten Beziehungen zu Globke.

Auch die Mitwisserschaft Globkes an Eichmanns Flucht wurde durch die Konferenz bekannt. Danach soll der Beichtvater Globkes, Prälai bis Ende dieses Jahres vor dem Eichbühler, Eichmann auf Fersprache von Globke empfangen und an Stellen des Vatikans weitergeleitet

1. The names of Alois BRUNNER, former assistant to Adolf EICHMANN, and Dr. George FISCHER, a German refugee living in Damascus, have been tied frequently together, but we are not aware of any positive identification between the two. In view of recent information it seems appropriate to clarify this matter as already stated in Reference A. 2. The principals involved are: a. Alois Anton *BRUNNER [ ] [ ] aka Anton Alois BRUNNER aka Adlatus BRUNNER possibly aka Dr. George FISCHER DPOB: possibly circa 1918, Germany OCC: Former SS Major, assistant to Adolf EICHMANN who allegedly was hanged in Vienna in May 1946 following sentence by the People's Court (Soviet Sector). b. Dr. George *FISCHER aka Otto FISCHER aka Dr. George SMITH aka G. FISCHER possibly aka Alois BRUNNER DPOB: possibly circa 1914, Germany OCC: Businessman, Damascus, since circa 1947 who is allegedly an ex-SD member and now an agent and advisor to the General Investigations Department of the Syrian Ministry of Interior (GID). 3. The only evidence we have which would contradict the identity of these two is the alleged hanging of BRUNNER in 1946. However, if he was not then executed, but was in the hands of the Soviets, it raises the speculation that he might have become a Soviet agent. Further, if he is indeed FISCHER in Damascus, this may be one of the Soviet ties into the complex which has developed out of the [ ] [ ] /Schaefer entanglements. 4. In favor of the identity of BRUNNER and FISCHER are: a. BRUNNER drops out of sight in 1946, but there are sporadic reports on an Alois BRUNNER in Austria until 1948.

b. Otto FISCHER appears about this time as a Bavarian refugee living in Syria and works with Franz RADEMACHER aka ROSSELLO ( [ ] )

c. Der Spiegel in 1960 alleges FISCHER in Damascus is BRUNNER.

d. Hermann SCHAEFER makes the same allegation, although he and Der Spiegel are probably using the same source material.

e. [ ] was told by RADEMACHER that FISCHER is BRUNNER; and if anyone in Damascus should know about FISCHER's background, it is RADEMACHER.

f. UPHILL has mentioned that BRUNNER allegedly was in Cairo in late 1960 and early 1961.

g. East German newspapers in April 1961 allege BRUNNER aka Dr. George SMITH is living in Damascus.

5. During an informal discussion in March 1961 @LUECKRATH of UPHILL claimed that the grand council of the Egyptian SS group held meetings in Cairo in October and December 1960 and on 11 January 1961. The last meeting was attended by Fritz *KATZMANN (Note: see Book Dispatch 1069, 2 February 1959: Frederick KATZMANN), Johannes *von LEERS ( [ ] ), Alois BRUNNER ( [ ] ) and two Egyptian army officers, one a Major from the Egyptian IS and the other a Lieutenant Colonel from the Ministry of Information. Allegedly BRUNNER had a long list of Jews who had collaborated with the SS during the Endloesung, who are for the most part wealthy and now living in Europe, the United States and Canada. The council is now considering ways of blackmailing these persons for financial support, but if not successful, von LEERS reportedly would like to publish the list world-wide.

6. An interesting aspect of the information in BRLN 3276 (see attachments) is that it reveals the to-be-expected East German interest in BRUNNER, but identifies him as Dr. George SMITH. Nonetheless, SMITH is almost certainly identical with Dr. George FISCHER, since both are linked to the same Damascus address. However, since FISCHER's name has been publicly tied to BRUNNER's in the past and certainly is no secret to the East Germans, one wonders how SMITH comes into the act. Secondly, does Hermann*SCHAEFER ( [ ] ) who is suspected of having ties with the East, especially with the East Germans, have any connection with the intercepted letter (BRLN 3276)?

7. Although traces on BRUNNER and FISCHER were requested in Reference A, please note that G. RISCHE and Dr. George SMITH should be considered as probable aliases of FISCHER.

PERTINENT INFORMATION ON FISCHER

1. EGFA 18713, 25 October 1957: Otto FISCHER is from Bavaria and has been living in Syria since 1947. He works with RADEMACHER aka ROSELLO (Note:  ). Franz RADEMACHER aka F. Bartolome ROSSELLO).
2. EGF 2517, 12 November 1957: Otto FISCHER is a Bavarian refugee who has lived in Syria about 10 years. His economic situation is not very good and he is cautious about discussing his business activities. He is a contact of RADEMACHER.
3. Book Dispatch 1069, 2 February 1959: lists Otto FISCHER, a Bavarian refugee living in Syria, as a contact of RADEMACHER.
4. NSDA 3507, 27 June 1960: Damascus asks for traces on the following ex-SD personalities now living in Damascus, whom  states are frequently employed as advisors and agents by the General Investigations Department of the Ministry of Interior (GID). They collaborate closely with  Franz RADEMACHER, Adlatus BRUNNER, fnu WITZKE, and Dr. fnu FISCHER. It described "Dr. fnu FISCHER (possibly Georg), age 46, as an associate of Dr. Said IMAM, age 56, a Syrian in a commercial office in Damascus.
Dr. IMAM has been a long time collaborator with German services before and during WWII." (Note: IMAM is  . fnu WITZKE is  )
5. NSDA 3507 also forwarded as an attachment a copy of an article from Der Spiegel, issue Nr. 23 of 1960, which deals with Adolf EICHMANN. Pertinent extracts on FISCHER are: In Damascus there is an import-export firm called "Kathar Office" at Rue George Haddat 22. Its business manager is "Mr. FISCHER", who wears a small moustache, speaks perfect German, and whose passport is in the name of "Dr. Georg FISCHER". In reality he is Alois BRUNNER and was a trusted helper of Adolf EICHMANN. He was active in the final solution to the Jewish problem program during WWII in France and Greece. Adlatus BRUNNER (Note: evidently the same man, although both names appear in the article) along with EICHMANN and other went to Syria after the war via Rome with the help of Fascists in Italy who had survived the war's end. Early in 1959 BRUNNER was operating an import firm "Kathar Office" which he had founded sometime earlier in Damascus.
6. NSDA 3515, 11 July 1960: Toma aka Torma ROSSELLIO aka RADEMACHER and Dr. George FISCHER are both known as ex-SD members and are employed as agents and advisors of the Syrian GID. Both interviewed  in mid-1960 shortly after his arrival in Damascus.
7. NSDA 3531, 25 July 1960:   was told by RADEMACHER aka ROSELLO that Hermann SCHAEFER had arrived in Damascus in early 1959 and became associated with a group of German refugees, among whom was Dr. (fnu) FISCHER aka BRUNNER, a former SD member and assistant to Adolf EICHMANN.
8. ESDW 1875, 12 August 1960: same info as in "1" and "2" above.
9. EGMA-52089, 16 November 1960 (also attachment B to EGMA-52396, 6 December 1960):  reports that Kurt WITZKE (Note: certainly   is an agent of SCHAEFER (Note: Hermann SCHAEFER  ) and is charged with watching FISCHER's every step in Damascus and reporting when he travels to Beirut.
10. Attachment F to EGMA-52396, 6 December 1960:   reports that Egon HEYMANN, a German Journalist (Note: UPHILL has admitted contact with the latter) visited Georg FISCHER who lives at Georg Hadda Nr. 22/7, Damascus, on 14 November 1960. He claimed to have been referred to FISCHER by Hermann SCHAEFER, and made numerous remarks about SCHAEFER to FISCHER.

11. Attachment to EGMA-52780, 28 December 1960: from [ ] report. Hermann SCHAEFER first made himself suspicious in ROSSELLIO's eyes when he said that he was seeking the former German co-worker of EICHMANN from the RSHA, a certain Alois BRUNNER who had worked in France and Greece against the Jews. SCHAEFER knew from Bonn that BRUNNER, under the name of Dr. Georg FISCHER, was living in Damascus. Before his departure from Germany FISCHER had met with the CDU Bundestag member VOGEL (Note: probably Dr. Rudolf *VOGEL, DPOB: 18 April 1906, Beuthen, Germany). VOGEL had worked with BRUNNER in Greece against the Jews and this had been reported to [ ] by Bonn. VOGEL tried to buy FISCHER off with 300 DM which FISCHER refused. Allegedly SCHAEFER wanted to start a press campaign against MERTEN (Note: Dr. Max *MERTEN, DPOB 8 Sept 11 in Berlin) who is a former Kriegsverwaltungsrat and who is now in Athens. (Note: as far as we know MERTEN is still in Berlin). To do this he needed a statement from BRUNNER about VOGEL in order to get VOGEL to start an attack against MERTEN. SCHAEFER was not successful in making contact with BRUNNER-FISCHER at this time.

12. EGOA-14075, 3 April 1961, and EGMA-54517, 20 April 1961: G. RISCHER, P. O. Box 635, Damascus, Syria, in mail contact with Wilhelm BEISNER [ ], Munich, Germany.

PERTINENT INFORMATION ON BRUNNER

1. From The Final Solution written by Gerald Reitlinger and published by Vallentine, Mitchell in 1953 in London, SS Major Alois Anton BRUNNER aka Anton Alois BRUNNER is described as Adolf EICHMANN's most successful Jewish deportation expert. In December 1942 he, whom EICHMANN had appointed to the emigration office, arrived in Berlin from Vienna. He is described as "looking like a Jew, small, ill-formed, delicate in health, with an expressionless face, but small, spiteful eyes, speaking in a monotonous voice which was seldom raised." He arrived 6 February 1943 in Salonika, Greece, from Vienna. From July 1943 until sometime in 1944 he was at Drancy Camp in France. On 25 September 1944 he was in Slovakia having been transferred there from France following the fall of Paris to the Allies. He was condemned to death on 21 May 1946 by the Volksgericht (Russian Sector) in Vienna, and supposedly hanged in May. (Pages 160, 306, 371, 393).

2. From The German Intelligence Services, 1944:

BRUNNER, Hauptsturmfuehrer: "reported to have been in Abteilung IV B Sipo and SD" (Note: responsible for Jewish activity) and in charge of the concentration camp at Drancy until towards the end of 1943, when he was removed after a B. B. C. broadcast for fear of reprisals: described as brutal and a typical thug who is said on one occasion to have 'disinfected' Vienna."

3. EASW 652, 14 January 1954 cites a USFA intelligence report, #R-69-48 dated 4 August 1948 which lists a Dr. Alois BRUNNER as a former SD member stationed in Maribor, Yugoslavia, during the German occupation; was confined and later released by the Partisans. BRUNNER was reported to be living illegally in Graz and was submitting regular intelligence reports to Yugoslavia through Franz DRENOVAC of the Yugoslav News Agency TANJUG in Vienna. (Note: the original DOI for this item is 28 August 1947).

4. EASA 2606, 7 December 1953; a USFA G-2 file V-26839 dated 2 January 1952 lists a Dr. Alois BRUNNER as a member of the Israeli Intelligence operating in Austria. BRUNNER was a former SS candidate and a deputy of EICHMANN's in Vienna. His wife was employed by the Gestapo (presumably in Vienna). He has dark curly hair, blubber lips, and a large mouth, bony and vivacious. He was employed by a cheese factory in Fuerstenfeld, Styria, Austria.

5. NSDA-3507, 27 June 1960: Damascus requested traces on the following ex-SD personalities now living in Damascus.

a. RADEMACHER (Note:

b. Adlatus BRUNNER, age 40, associate of EICHMANN. Disappeared from Damascus circa 1 June 1960:

c. (fnu) WITZKE (Note:

d. Dr. (fnu) FISCHER (possibly Georg), age 46, associate of Dr. Said IMAM (Note:

6. NSDA-3531, 25 July 1960: Damascus reported that   had been told by RADEMACHER that Hermann SCHAEFER has become acquainted with Dr. (fnu) FISCHER aka BRUNNER, former SD member and assistant to EICHMANN and now living in Damascus.

7. Attachment to EGMA-52780, 28 December 1960: in a [ ] report Alois BRUNNER, former aide to EICHMANN, is identified by SCHAEFER as being identical with Dr. Georg FISCHER in Damascus.

8. BRLN-3276, 26 April 1961, and EGMA-68439, 26 April 1961: on 19 and 20 April 1961 East German newspapers carried a story about an alleged rally of 30 ex-SS types in Beirut in "early April" organized by BRUNNER who is living under the name Dr. George SMITH in Damascus. The articles were evidently based primarily on a news-report/propaganda type letter dated 30 March 1961 (and intercepted by CALLIKAK) from an unidentified East German reporter writing from Beirut to Ernst HANSCH, Chief Editor of the East Berlin tabloid Berliner Zeitung am Abend. This listed SMITH's address as Rue George Haddat 22, Damascus.
