International Volunteer Support - Logic Model

Situation There are many working groups and networks within the movement, comprising various topics, projects and movement roles. However, there is no systematic international exchange concerning one of our number one strategic spheres of action:

standing

experience in volunteer support. We want to share and expand such learnings within the wider movement.

Priorities

International exchange of expertise and experiences Collaboration on common issues and tasks Increased volunteer / effectiveness community of volunteer support. The support DACH chapters programs have long-

INPUTS OUTPUTS

Participants - Activities - Direct Products

OUTCOMES - IMPACT

Short term - Intermediate -Long-Term

What we invest

Board time

Staff time

Know-how

Who we reach	What we do	What we create Volunteer supporters	Establish and maintain	Mailing list from Wikimedia	common	Hub page for shared chapters, user groups and	channels	resources other affiliates	Face to face meetings and/or workshops in the context of international Wikimedia	Working groups for specific issues events

Create

common resources for volunteer

support

Results: Learning	Results: changing Action	Results: changing Conditions Assessment of	Increase	Improved relevant needs	effectiveness of	on- and and deeds	local volunteer	offline support	working
Success models	structures	conditions for Shared	Support the	volunteers learning from	spirit of	in Wikimedia failures	innovation in volunteer	projects Co-developed	support	Increased learning	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	diversity patterns		Enhanced spirit of international collaboration

Assumptions

External Factors

Evaluation

Identification – Design – Implementation – Completion/Follow-up