To the Editor of the New Orleans Times:
In an editorial notice of the "Crescent City Ghallight Company," which appeared in Bunday's Times you state that the charter of the New Orleans Gaslight Company will the price in January, 1870. We had supposed that the publication of the law passed in March, 1860. extending the 1860, would have put as and to the evident intention which exists on the part of interested persons to mislead, the public on this point.

As the law was published for several lays on the editorial page of the Tasse, it weems strange that you should give currency to report which the advertisement is your journal was expressly intended to correct; and in justice to this currection.

The following extrasts contain the very currection. From and Tricket Act. Good Hospertulends The base of the second of the Currency Bill Adopted. Hamman Plantin The New Orleans Firemen in York. A.
