

TRUSTEES' MEETING

IVANHOE BRIDGE APPROPRIATION—VERDUGO CANYON WATER SUPPLY

The board of trustees met in regular session at the City Hall at 8:20 p.m., June 21, 1917. All members present at roll call.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and after making a correction in the report of the manager of the Public Service Department, the same were approved.

An application was received for a permit to conduct a dry cleaning establishment at 425 1/2 South Brand boulevard by L. Delonco, which being approved by the Building Inspector and the City Manager was, on motion of Trustee Jackson, granted.

An application was read from Minnie L. Seaman for permit to run a motor bus, and on motion of Trustee Muhleman, it was laid over for one week.

A petition was presented to the board dated May 29, signed by a large proportion of the business men and business establishments in the city, asking that the trustees set aside in the budget for the coming fiscal year, "the sum of $2000, to be paid to the Glendale Municipal Band, P. M. Hicks, bandmaster, for giving the usual series of season concerts, together with concerts on other proper occasions." On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the petition was ordered to be received and filed and laid over for one week in order to give opponents of the proposition and others a chance to address the board.

Demands were presented and on motion referred to the Finance Committee.

The City Manager read a letter from Ex-Councilman Topham of Los Angeles, stating that the Finance Committee of that city has appropriated the sum of $7500 as a first contribution for the construction of the Ivanhoe bridge with the probability that a further appropriation will be made, and suggesting the advisability of the city of Glendale taking steps to keep in touch with the action of the Council for the purpose of insuring the completion of this project.

The City Manager recommended that the sum of $548.88 be transferred from the general fund to the lot cleaning fund, and on motion of Trustee Grist, it was so ordered.

He further recommended that the sum of $700 be transferred from the dog fund to the general fund. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, this transfer was authorized.

In connection with certain applications for permits to excavate for pipe lines in Verdugo Canyon, pipes to be used for conveying water to be run through certain ornamental ditches, the City Manager desired to ascertain the wishes of the board in regard to the granting of such permits. Trustee Woodberry expressed the opinion, based upon the language of the decree appropriating the waters of the east side stream, that said water cannot be made use of by property owners in the canyon except for domestic purposes, for the use of stock and for irrigation. On motion of Trustee Woodberry, the Street Department was instructed not to issue permits for excavations in any street or streets for water pipe intended for the conveyance of water, for any other purposes than those set forth in the Decree of Partition in 1871.

On motion of Trustee Grist, it was ordered that when the board adjourns, it be to meet at 7:30 p.m. June 22 next.

On motion, Resolution No. 952, "A resolution of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale ordering certain improvements to be made on a portion of Grand View avenue in said city," was taken up for reading.

On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the same upon being read, was adopted by the following vote: Ayes—Grist, Jackson, Muhleman, Thompson, Woodberry. Noes—None.

The City Engineer reported in regard to the improvement of Elrose avenue, that certain trees would have to be removed, but that he had instructed the contractor to leave one large pepper tree. On motion of Trustee Woodberry, the contractor was authorized to remove apricot and orange trees which stand in the way of the improvement.

Mr. C. L. Chandler presented a petition from the Parent-Teachers' Association, signed by about 175 petitioners, requesting that the trustees look into the condition of the public library, calling attention to the inadequate space and the conveniences for the children's work, which the librarian desires to carry on. On motion of Trustee Grist the

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

HIGH SCHOOL CLOSES—COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES HELD IN METHODIST CHURCH.

Today is the only day of the year in which there is no senior class enrolled in the school, at least until about 10 o'clock this morning, when the juniors will receive their report cards and will leave their lowly standing for one of a high and mighty senior! This peculiar mix-up came about all because of the fact that the graduating class of 1917 received their diplomas last evening and in that way they have become G. U. H. S. alumni members. The exercises, which turned out quite successful from every viewpoint, took place in the large auditorium of the Methodist Church, beginning at about 8 o'clock. The large hall, with an approximate seating capacity of 1400, was filled to its utmost, and it is estimated that there were at least 1500 people in the audience. The lower floor was reserved, the first five rows for the graduates and the remainder for their particular friends, while the entire space in the gallery was open to the general public, it being filled long before the program began.

At exactly 8:15 o'clock the high school orchestra struck the first note of the march "La Reine de Sabe," and immediately thereafter the members of the class appeared in two lines, one on each side of the rostrum, being led by four girls of the junior class. The young ladies, in their beautiful white dresses, and the boys wearing dark suits, formed one of the prettiest, yet sad, processions ever presented by a graduating class of Glendale High School. After marching around the aisles once they assembled at their respective places in the front of the auditorium and were seated. Rev. Vernon H. Cowser of the First Baptist Church then led the audience in prayer, after which Miss Evangeline Hunchberger, a member of the class of '17, rendered two most excellent vocal solos, she well deserving the enthusiastic applause which followed her performance.

The next number on the program was the address of the evening, given by Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe of Los Angeles, which was, without a doubt, the most interesting and valuable message ever given to the students. The subject of the address was "A Message to Garcia," it being taken from an event which happened in the Spanish-American War in 1898. However, it is needless to further mention the affair at this time, as Judge Bledsoe's entire speech will be published in tomorrow's News.

Mr. Julius Kranz, who is one of Glendale's most talented citizens, then enraptured the audience by several inspiring violin solos. His performance was followed by the presentation of the class memorial (a large flag pole for the high school's front lawn,) by Ed Seay, who is the class president. Although rather "fussed" Ed finally pulled himself together and finished his speech in fine shape. The senior girls' glee club then sang two appropriate songs, one being written by Janet Wilson, who is a member of the class, following which Mr. Moyses presented the class to Dr. A. L. Bryant, the president of the school board. Dr. Bryant then gave a few words of appreciation to the class of '17, concluding with the presentation of the seventy-five diplomas to as many students. Two of the members of the class could not be present, however, and their diplomas were given out to relatives. The two members are both boys, and the reason for their absence was that they are both in the service of Uncle Sam. They are William Dreyer, who is in the navy at San Francisco, and Walter Hawkins, who is in the aviation corps in Houston, Tex. The orchestra then played another march for the recessional and the class of 1917 were no longer members of the Glendale Union High School!

TELEPHONE STRIKE THREATENED

OPERATORS, ELECTRICAL WORKERS AND LINEMEN MAY WALK OUT TO-NIGHT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SEATTLE, Wash, June 22.—A general strike of telephone operators and electrical workers, which may practically tie up all Pacific coast lines is feared to-night, as a result of a lockout of nineteen girls at Aberdeen. Electrical workers and linemen are well organized, but girl operators seek the right to organize and to be guaranteed four days work a week at a dollar and a half a day while learning and $1.75 when proficient. If a walk-out is declared, electrical workers and linemen will call a sympathetic strike. It means practical cessation of all telephone business.

PARIS, June 22.—Another violent German assault near Mont Teton, on a quarter-mile front, penetrated French advance trenches. The Germans were later repulsed with sharp fighting. Successful French raids south of La Sere brought many prisoners. British forces made successful raids on the Germans at widely scattered points, southwest of Queant, in Neuville Chapelle neighborhood, inflicting casualties and capturing prisoners.

JOLLIFICATION DAY

MUTUAL BENEFIT READING CIRCLE ENJOYS DIVERSITY OF PROGRAM, WEDNESDAY

Not because they are intending to take a vacation, but because it seems to be the rule for all clubs and societies to "jollify" as the school holiday season approaches, the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle laid aside their usual work Wednesday and enjoyed a diversity of program. This was all the more pleasant perhaps because it was somewhat unexpected, the members not taking part not having been let into the plans.

Nearly all members present responded to the roll call with a helpful quotation referring to the care of children. When Mrs. S. C. Maranville's name was called, the name of her little son, Louis Jerome, was also called, and those present who had not heard of it before, were told that he is "Circle Baby Number Two." A charming selection, "Such a Little Fellow," delightfully sung by Alma Gluck, was given on the Victrola in honor of little Louis' first visit to the circle.

Entirely enjoyable were the piano numbers given by Mrs. J. S. Jackson and Mrs. N. C. Kelley, and the vocal solo, "My Love's Like a Red, Red Rose," charmingly rendered by Mrs. H. V. Henry.

At noon tea and orangeade were served, and the members dispersed to shady nooks in the grounds to enjoy the picnic luncheons which are always a delightful feature of these meetings.

After luncheon, the leader introduced Mrs. Minette Sherman, who last summer accomplished so much worth while work with the boys and girls of her immediate neighborhood, giving them inspiration to see and enjoy the natural wonders with which every child in this rich California Southland is surrounded. Mrs. Sherman made a strong plea for every mother to do what she can to help her own children to waken to the beauties about them, and told what such an awakening means to the children in development. She then proceeded to tell how they had set about the formation of their bird club, and how the interest grew, and what they did. The members were delighted with the exhibition of the note-books kept by the young students, with their beautiful drawings of birds and flowers, and their neatly written descriptions of the birds they saw and studied, and the trips they took, and what they enjoyed on these jaunts. Many mothers present, realizing what a valuable disposition of the vacation time this proved, were eager with questions, and afterwards declared that they were going to undertake similar work this summer in their neighborhoods.

A portion of the chapter, "The School Girl's Vacation," in William A. McKeever's valuable book, "Training the Girl," was read. This gave specific suggestions for the disposition of the vacation time of the girl, so that she would feel delightfully occupied with work and play, and with wholesome activities that make for a strong body and a well-stored mind. A list of helpful books dealing with suggestions for a profitable and pleasurable use of the vacation time was given to each mother of girls present. As many of these books are obtainable in the Glendale or Los Angeles Public Libraries, no mother need lack assistance in helping her daughter to pass a delightful vacation wherever she may be, whether at home, in the mountains or at the seashore.

It was announced that the Circle had obtained permission to use the Central avenue school on Wednesdays throughout the summer as a meeting place. Miss Alice McCoy has been engaged by the Circle as playground instructor during the time of meetings, so that every mother may feel free to bring her little ones or older children to play on the grounds during the session of the Circle, knowing they will be well cared for. The Circle will raise by contribution the necessary funds to provide for this supervision. The meetings will be held as always at 11 a. m. and will close at 2 p. m. Everyone interested in this line of work,—learning how to best care for the children, how to become more efficient mothers, how to meet and solve the problems that daily arise in the contact with the young, is cordially welcomed into membership with the Circle. No dues are required, no educational qualification is necessary. Regular attendance is desirable, and attention to what is read. The members accomplish much work of various sorts during the sessions, darning, mending, knitting, crocheting, and sewing during the reading period.

AT BARTLETT HOME

MRS. BARTLETT GIVES LUNCHEON TO EXECUTIVE BOARD OF TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

A most delightful luncheon given by the retiring president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, to the members of her executive board, marked the close of a most successful year. It was in the nature of a family party, as under the leadership of this much loved president, harmony has prevailed at all times and a spirit of co-operation has developed for the uplift of all concerned.

In keeping with the spirit of the times and with the well known patriotism of the hostess, the beautiful home of Mrs. Bartlett on Brand boulevard was most artistically decorated with our country's flag and the national colors were reproduced by a beautiful bouquet of red and white carnations and blue corn flowers, which centered the luncheon table, while each guest found at her place a small cut glass vase filled with the same fragrant flowers as a souvenir of this most happy occasion.

Tiny little letters served as place cards and later were found to contain amusing conundrums for the guests to solve between courses.

Another guessing contest furnished much amusement later. Good fellowship and the intimacy that comes from long association, made the day almost too short and while they will meet again around the table on next Tuesday at the annual club luncheon, yet this occasion seemed to mark the parting of the ways to the regret of all.

The ladies who enjoyed Mrs. Bartlett's hospitality were Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. H. P. Goodwin, Mrs. David Black, Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, Mrs. C. E. Harlan, Mrs. S. C. Packer, Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy, Mrs. E. H. Willisford, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, who served on the board the first half of the year, was also a guest.

COOPER-GREEN WEDDING.

The Misses Lela and Alice McCoy were Glendale guests at a very pretty home wedding at La Canada Thursday evening when Miss Rowena Green, daughter of D. J. Green, was united in marriage to Mr. Edwin Cooper, also of La Canada.

Miss Green formerly resided in Glendale, attending school here. Her sister, Miss Lulu Green, who acted as her bridesmaid, is a graduate of Glendale Union High School.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Scott, pastor of the Congregational Church at La Canada, in the presence of the immediate family and a few intimate friends. The beautiful ring ceremony was used. The bride was lovely in white satin with filmy veil and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The attendants were Miss Lulu Green, sister of the bride, and Mr. Robert Cooper, brother of the groom. The home of the bride was most artistically decorated with white carnations and greenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper left immediately for a short honeymoon and on their return will be at home in La Canada.

THIS WAR UNPRECEDENTED

History is making so fast these days that it is more than usually difficult to get the true perspective of events. Looking back to the revolution and to the diverse parts which England and France played in it there was a peculiar significance in the tributes paid by Mr. Balfour and M. Viviani at Mount Vernon to the memory of Washington. No more impressive illustration of the common purpose which now moves the allies could have been imagined. Yet the visit of the Italian commissioners to lay a wreath upon the tomb of our national hero is in one sense a fitter symbol of the course which destiny has marked out for us. With Italy, too, we must hereafter have the closest ties. Nothing could have been more felicitous than the address of the Prince di Udine on this occasion. It had a sustained note of noble feeling and high resolve. That is indeed a via dolorosa upon which the champions of humanity have entered. Great sacrifices have been made; greater sacrifices may be to come. In what Washington did and dared we find the best example. "We come to this tomb," said the prince, "to seek purification," to dedicate ourselves anew to a holy cause. It is a cause in which Italy has already won great triumphs. Her representative tells the latest of the allies that she will never falter in its service. "We shall never lay down our arms," he declared, "until our liberties and the liberties of the people who are suffering with us shall be rendered safe against all surprises and all violence."

No war has ever been quite like this war. Whatever its immediate or ultimate causes, whatever ambitions or resentments may have been involved in its beginnings, it has become a union against a peril that threatens all they hold most dear. No one can fail to be moved by the horrors of it; to wish for an ending of them. Never, as the prince said, has there been a conflict more abounding in sorrow. But the definition of the purpose of tragedy, to purge the soul by pity and terror, suggests that after all our via dolorosa may lead to the City of Peace. Unless this were so, unless the world is to be made a better world to live in, then the present suffering would be of a truth in vain. If we are to have any faith in the future we must believe that "the complaining millions of men darken in labor and pain" only until this agony be overpast. That is what our Italian visitor bids us believe. He could have said no more appropriate word. It has been hard for us, so long apart from the conflict, to realize all that is required of us. Italy, who has sealed her devotion with blood and tears, shows us, too, how to endure to the last.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

MAKING LIFE WORTH WHILE

To possess the friendship and affection of one sincere and loyal human being, to put the welfare of another ahead of your own, finding happiness in that, and to feel when the time comes to fall off into the grave you have done all that you could, have not neglected those that had a right to count on you—that makes life worth while and wipes out its disappointments.

What every man must learn, unless his life is to be a failure, is to control himself and put his selfish desires and feelings in second place.

The man who controls himself through his will, who realizes that shortness of life increases responsibility for the use of every hour, and who finally lives day by day as he would live if he knew that day was the last—such a man is happy and his life worth while.—Chicago Examiner.

KILL FLIES; SAVE LIVES!

Kill at once every fly you can find and burn his body.

Observers say that there are many reasons to believe there will be more flies this season than for a number of years. The killing of just ONE fly now means there will be billions and trillions less during the coming summer.

The fly is the tie that binds the unhealthy to the healthy! The fly has no equal as a germ carrier. As many as five hundred million germs have been found in and on the body of a single fly. It is definitely known that the fly is the carrier of the germs of typhoid fever; it is widely believed that it is also the carrier of other diseases, including possibly infantile paralysis.

Do not wait until the insects begin to pester; anticipate the annoyance. This is the best time to conduct an anti-fly campaign.

The United States government makes the following suggestion for the destruction of house flies: Formaldehyde and sodium salicylate are the two best fly poisons. Both are superior to arsenic. They have their advantage for household use. They are not poison to children; they are convenient to handle, their dilutions are simple, and they attract the flies.

A formaldehyde solution of approximately the correct strength may be made by adding three teaspoonfuls of the concentrated formaldehyde solution, commercially known as formalin, to a pint of water. Similarly, the proper concentration of sodium salicylate may be obtained by dissolving three teaspoonfuls of the pure chemical (a powder) to a pint of water.

Other simple preventatives: Any odor pleasing to man is offensive to the fly and vice versa, and will drive them away. Take five cents worth of oil of lavender, mix it with the same quantity of water, put it in a common glass atomizer and spray it around the rooms where flies are. In the dining room spray it lavishly, even on the table linen. The odor is very disagreeable to flies but is refreshing to most people. Geranium, mignonette, heliotrope, and white clover are offensive to flies. They especially dislike the odor of honeysuckle and hop blossoms.

To clear the house of flies, burn pyrethrum powder. This stupefies the flies, but they must be swept up and burned. Dead flies carry no germs.—Mystic Worker.

SALYER'S AT IT AGAIN!

Never can hold him steady very long at a time. Salyer is at his price cutting on pianos again. This man Salyer ought to know better—old enough, sold enough and ought to hold up prices, if for no better reason than to help the other fellows out who sell at long prices.

Plenty of customers take pride in paying a large sum for a piano. Why should Salyer figure them out of it?

He says his expenses are light and that is so; says he does his own selling—granted; claims he can sell more goods, make more friends and all that so you might as well not argue with him. Let him have his fling. He will subside in a few days. Just now Salyer is at it again.

The Entre Nous Club of which Mrs. J. T. Crampton is president, has been for some months devoting their funds and time at their regular meetings to sewing for the Red Cross. SACRAMENTO, June 22.—That rabies in California has been practically eradicated is indicated in the application from Modoc county to the State Board of Health asking that the quarantine be lifted on dogs. Modoc and Lassen counties were the center of trouble last year when thousands of coyotes infected with rabies terrorized all of rural California and Nevada.

STATE NEWS.

SACRAMENTO, June 22.—In order to meet emergencies arising out of the war, high school boards may declare a vacation to allow pupils to work on the farms and at the same time permit those pupils who do not desire to engage in such work to attend school until the regular closing time without losing to the school its just apportionment on the basis of average daily attendance. This important opinion has been rendered to Will C. Wood, commissioner of high schools, by Atty-Gen. U. S. Webb. It will be good news to boards throughout the State as many have desired to excuse boys short, but hesitated, fearing that in so doing the apportionment for attendance would be lost. In his opinion Webb declares that the school law requiring schools to be open for a uniform period throughout the year and providing for the apportionment of school moneys for the average daily attendance, is to enable the children of the State to secure equal schooling advantages and to provide a just apportionment. All laws of this nature are subject to modification when special necessities for emergencies arise, says Webb.

SACRAMENTO, June 22.—California's high school system, which has produced a wonderful growth in attendance in the past four years, has attracted the attention of the East to such an extent that educators of the East now desire an insight into the remarkable system. To impart the workings of the system to the East, Will C. Wood, commissioner of high school, has been granted a two-months' leave of absence by the State to go to Columbia University, New York, to give two six-weeks' courses dealing with administration problems of high schools with special reference to California methods. Wood says that under the system in vogue in California the enrollment in the high schools has increased from 48,000 in 1912 to 96,000 in 1916, placing the State second to New York in the number of pupils attending high schools. The system is recognized as one of the best in the United States. Wood will begin his work at the university July 2.

SACRAMENTO, June 22.—Realizing that the draft will take away many of their male employees, Sacramento merchants already are beginning to "break in" women on men's jobs. In the city's largest department store women are being taught how to run the elevators so that they will be ready to fill in whenever the men are called.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—A complete army field kitchen has arrived in San Francisco from New Zealand as a model for the building of 3000 more by the Pine-Thong Machine Company, Oshkosh, Wis. A contract for building field kitchens had been let to that firm by the New Zealand government. The kitchen is in two parts with oven and cooking portion in front and compartments for supplies in the rear. It is horse drawn.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—New Zealand with an estimated population of less than 700,000 is sending 4000 men a month to the European trenches under its new conscription law, according to passengers arriving from there in San Francisco. Conscription went into effect in New Zealand a few months ago and covers all males aged 19 to 38, including natives. About 200,000 people were over age or exempt and out of the eligibles 4000 thousand for the army are selected each month. Slackers are few, the travelers report. The law provides that men of military age must report twice daily to the registration offices, making it practically impossible for shirkers to escape. Seamen from vessels in port at Wellington or other harbors are required to register and report regularly during their stay, while not all seamen are exempt as indicated by the presence of nineteen boys, aged 14 to 17, in the crews of vessels from New Zealand. These youths had taken the places of men called to the colors. When a man is exempted if he is found suited to duties other than on the battlefield he is sent to the munitions factories while the most skilled of this class are sent to England to make munitions there. Frederick Williams headed a party of munitions workers which arrived in San Francisco but a short time ago bound for England, all wearing the official "munitions workers" badges.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Returning from the Far East to the European trenches where he already has served two years, Sergeant Adrian Lapage, one of the men distinguished for bravery in the battle of the Marne and decorated with the War Cross for distinguished service at Verdun, passed through San Francisco this week. He had been granted a fifty-day leave from the army and went to the Orient and Tahiti where his parents reside.

SAN DIEGO, June 22.—San Diego's Friendship Fiesta opened here this morning with representative delegations attending not only from neighboring cities but even from Lower California. Three hundred Los Angeles business firms have sent one representative each from that city, while four pretty Los Angeles girls, selected by Mayor Woodman, join with similar representations from other cities and towns, in forming the "Court of Honor" for the fiesta.

CONSOLIDATION VS. TROPICO AND LOS ANGELES AND TROPICO AND GLENDALE.

What will happen if Tropico decides to go in with Los Angeles? Tropico boys and girls at present attending union high school at Glendale will either have to pay tuition at the high school or pay car fare to Los Angeles schools and also as in case of San Pedro, the fire department at Tropico may have the fine fire engine taken away and replaced with horse driven engine. But in the event of Tropico going into Glendale they will have the benefit of improved schools and streets and the making of a fine city from the railroad to the mountains, with the probabilities of a union depot at Brand and the railroad crossing and less rates and taxes. The only logical thing to vote on when the time comes is Tropico into Glendale. About 90 per cent. of Tropico residents favor this plan.

F. BOOTH.

W. C. T. U.

The making of comfort bags for our soldier and sailor boys will be one of the subjects taken up at the W.C.T.U. meeting Tuesday. BILLY SUNDAY DOCTRINE.

Someone raised a question recently about the patriotism of Rev. Billy Sunday and took the trouble to send him a telegram from Los Angeles to New York asking him where he stands. The answer was sane and satisfactory, but I find in the New York Sun of May 31 last a report of a prayer which he offered at one of his meetings on the day previous which seems to cover the subject thoroughly, even while it raises another question of greater importance. Ordinarily the language used would not be admitted to your columns, but as it was addressed to the Almighty it does not become us to be squeamish.

"Lord, damn a country that will do the things our enemy is doing," he cried in his closing prayer yesterday afternoon. "I won't pray for a land like that; the sooner it's damned the better. . . hasten the day. Jesus, when that nation that has plunged millions into war may be defeated—that nation which has used human bodies to make glycerine for explosives and has ground human bones to make fertilizer. Oh, God, don't let seeds sprout that are fertilized that way. Lord damn a country that will do those things. . . help us to end this terrible struggle, Jesus. Prayers wouldn't do any good when we tried them, so, gosh, we've got to use bullets now."

The question raised here by Mr. Sunday's own language is this—is he preaching the doctrine of Jesus Christ whom he claims to follow, or is it a twentieth century improvement on the gospel of forgiveness? J. C. SHERER.

LA CANADA.

Started by the unusual sound of crackling flames, Mrs. A. G. Williams of North School street was led to investigation early last Saturday morning while dressing, to find the entire attic of her home in a blazing mass of flames. Without stopping to complete her toilet Mrs. Williams was at work. A stiff breeze, directly from the hot mountains, whipped the flames into an unconquerable blaze before the slightest impression could be made. Realizing the impossibility of saving his home Mr. Williams, aided by Mr. J. H. Armstrong and two men from the Murphy ranch, carried the most valuable pieces of furniture from the burning house. Mr. Williams is not certain as to the cause of the fire. The house was wired for electricity several years after it was built. In this way he thought it might have been caused by defective wiring. Mrs. Williams had collected a large supply of wool and cotton goods which were stored in the attic. The possibility of spontaneous combustion might also have been the cause, according to those who saw the burning. This is the second house burned in this way in La Canada during the past four months. The old home of Mr. Jesse Knight on North Haskell street was found in flames in the middle of the night several months ago. It was not discovered what caused the fire. Mr. and Mrs. Williams are living in their garage. The furniture saved from the fire is sufficient, at least for the present. Mr. Williams has his own machine, consequently is not completely isolated from modern conveniences.

Industrial work throughout Japan was the theme of Miss Denton's talk as she came before the members of the La Canada Improvement Association last Saturday night at the school house. Miss Denton, as introduced by Mrs. D. Scott, is one of the leading educators of today and has inspired intellectual enlightenment throughout the Orient. She told many details of her work, bringing out the joys and hardships of work among those fascinating orientals.

Because of the heat there was an unusually small attendance Saturday night. Nevertheless they thoroughly appreciated the interesting experiences as related by Miss Denton.

Before the association adjourned to the program the school trustees gave their report on the building as complete.

In spite of the terrific heat last Thursday afternoon the La Canada Thursday Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. B. Anderson. Contrary to expectations there was an unusually good attendance. About twenty members were present.

Last Thursday was the day set for election of officers. Mrs. Penfield, the retiring president, was succeeded by Mrs. Wilbur Seright. Mrs. Penfield, according to the active workers in the club, has made an excellent chairman for the past year. She has been thoroughly interested in the welfare of the Thursday Club and has put forth every effort to give of her best to its interest and progress.

Instead of having the usual annual evening meeting, the Thursday Club has decided to turn the money over to the interests of the Red Cross.

Under pressure of between 106 and 115 degs. for four days last week the fruit and vegetable crops here in La Canada were sadly impaired. Several of the ranchers declare that the intense heat wave has cost at least $500 in loss of crops. In spite of the fact that many kept the ground moist during the hot spell the damage was inevitable. The lemons, which had grown to market size, were badly scorched. The little lemons, which were to come on this summer, suffered a bad setback.

Much of the deciduous fruit which was ready for picking, was either burned to the pit or scorched until unmarketable. The sudden change in weather Sunday night saved several hundreds of dollars damage.

In the presence of the immediate family and thirty-seven guests, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Slutman of Catalina street, Redondo, formally pioneers of La Canada, celebrated their fiftieth anniversary on Wednesday, June 20. Among the guests were three—Mrs. Cockingham and her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Young—who had been present upon the occasion of the Slutman's wedding in 1867 in the State of Indiana. The Slutmans came to California in the early days of the occupation of the new West.

Also among the guests were two couples, besides the host and hostess, who had recently celebrated their golden anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Detrieh of Pasadena.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Slutman was tastefully decorated in Shasta daisies and roses. In the middle of the afternoon pictures were taken of the guests and of the bride and groom of fifty years. With her bride's bouquet of cosmos and fern, the guests declared that Mrs. Slutman was a young fresh little grandmother who carried her years with grace and dignity.

After the pictures, the hostess, aided by Mrs. Benedict of Sawtelle, served an ample dinner in pure Indiana style. The bride's cake was made by Mrs. Benedict, who has been a friend of the Slutmans since their earliest arrival in California.

As evening drew near the guests departed, wishing the happy couple years of continuous happiness.

Mrs. C. B. Anderson was hostess at last week's meeting of the Thursday Club at her pleasant home on Haskell street, the president, Mrs. James T. Penfield, in the chair.

This meeting rounded out the year's study program, Mrs. Howard Cooper giving the last of the series of papers on "Our Island Possessions," in a running story of the islands of the Atlantic coast, with particular reference to those of New York Harbor and Mrs. Max Green outlined Ludwig Thuille's fairy opera, "Merredance."

The annual election of officers, which took place earlier in the afternoon, resulted in Mrs. Seright being chosen president for the ensuing club year; Mrs. Brooks, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Granger, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Robert Waterman recording secretary. Mrs. Stultz, who by virtue of her office as vice-president during the year just ending, and the president of former years, would naturally have been the club's nominee for president this year, declined the office.

The club decided that instead of holding its regular annual open meeting this year, when an evening reception is given and the families and friends of the members are special guests of honor, that the money used in defraying the expenses of such an affair should be given this year to the Red Cross, as the club's offering in this time of stress. It was also decided that those members who had moved from La Canada and had been, therefore, compelled to resign from the club, should be allowed to retain a membership in a so-called honorary roll, which would entitle them to visit the club when opportunity offered. The question of dues was considered and the date of their payment arranged between the present and the beginning of the next club year in October. Mrs. Anderson, assisted by her sister, Miss Bretz, served cooling refreshments during the social hour that followed.

The annual picnic, where Mrs. Albert A. Lester will be the hostess, will be held this year in Brookside Park on July 12, when a basket luncheon will be spread at 12 o'clock. The only program scheduled is the roll call, when the response to the secretary's reading of the names will be a toast and the transaction, after luncheon, of the few minor matters of business relating to the club's closing year.

LA CRESCENTA

The building operations go on famously. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woolsey will build over on the Brown tract as soon as their wheat is cut and hauled away.

The Erharts house is up and will have its roof put on this week. With the cooler weather its advance will be rapid.

Mr. Gabrielle Queto, who has taken over the old Scott place on Michigan, has made quite a few additions and improvements.

finished work is looming up in goodly proportions, but we need more helpers. There are two sewing machines and plenty of tables and it is cool. Mr. Bessell kindly loaned his electric fan. Come out and give a day to "our boys" even if you are not a member (and you should be.)

Mr. Carl Andresen and his son Walter motored out to the Mojave Desert in their new Ford. They reported it very hot but at that time conditions were not favorable anywhere.

Miss Gwendolin Claffen spent the week-end at Laguna Beach.

Mrs. Levy is entertaining her sister from Chicago for the summer.

TRUSTEES' MEETING.

petition was ordered to be received, filed and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. C. L. Chandler reported in reference to the bridge over the wash at Brand boulevard, that the Board of Supervisors propose to visit the scene next Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. and look over the situation.

The manager of the Public Service Department, referring to the injunction proceedings brought by the Newport Company in Verdugo Canyon, desired the instruction of the board in the matter.

The City Attorney presented a resolution in reference to the case, which on motion of Trustee Jackson was adopted as follows:

Whereas, in view of certain conditions in Verdugo Canyon in connection with the recent injunction proceedings filed by the Newport Company against the Verdugo Canyon Water Company, restraining the said company from diverting a certain stream of water, the city of Glendale having a vital interest in the control of this water and the protection of its security, is necessarily interested in the outcome of this action.

Now, Therefore, be it resolved, that the City of Glendale unite with the Verdugo Canyon Water Company, the Title Guarantee & Trust Company, trustee, et al., and the Thom and Ross interests in defense of this action, and

Be It Further Resolved, that the City of Glendale unite with said parties in any other action necessary to be taken in order to protect the purity of the water, and also for the purpose of conserving the control of the same; and inasmuch as this water is now largely used for domestic purposes, making it imperative upon the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale and other distributors of the water for domestic purposes, to protect its purity, that the cost of such proceedings be distributed as follows:

The City of Glendale to pay 50% of the cost of all litigation, and the remaining 50% to be borne by the shareholders in the water in proportion to their respective holdings.

Be It Further Resolved, that the City Attorney, W. E. Evans, be and is hereby employed and instructed to take such action as in his judgment may be necessary for the protection of the best interests of the City of Glendale in prosecution or defense, by the following roll call:

Ayes: Grist, Jackson, Thompson, Woodberry.

Noes: None.
The Manager of the Public Service Department reported that the heaviest demand for water in the history of the city had been made upon his department during the recent hot spell of weather, and while some difficulty had been experienced in satisfying all the demands, he was of the opinion that the installation of the new pump, which will be completed in a short time, will make it possible for the department to supply all possible demands in the future, and that to do so it will be necessary to use the pumps not more than twelve hours out of twenty-four.

In reference to the contract for electrical power which expires July 1st, he recommended that the city advertise for bids, and on motion of Trustee Grist, the City Clerk was authorized to advertise for bids for supplying the City of Glendale with electric power for a term of years.

In regard to the insurance reserve fund, he desired that more definite instructions be given to the Treasurer, and presented the following resolution, which was upon being read, adopted on motion of Trustee Woodberry:

"That the treasurer be instructed to transfer each month the sum of $75.00 from the Public Service Fund and $75.00 from the General Fund to the Insurance Reserve Fund. That said transfer be made from the General Fund for the Month of May, 1917, and for each succeeding month thereafter, until further notice, and that the transfer be made from the Public Service Fund for the month of June, 1917, and for each succeeding month thereafter until further notice."

The City Attorney reported the case of Gardner vs. The City of Glendale, that the attorneys for the plaintiff had appealed the case and, as a consequence, the amount of the cost bill cannot at present be secured.

He reported that the matter of the opening and widening of Sycamore Canyon came up before the Superior Court on Monday last for confirmation of the referee's report, and that the same had been confirmed, except in the case of two protestants, Mrs. A. S. Wing and Orlando Waite, which cases would be tried on October 3rd next.

He further reported in the case of Moss vs. The City of Glendale, Judge McCormick had held that the laundry section of the license ordinance is declared invalid, and that as a consequence, no further licenses be collected from laundries at the present time.

Demands were reported back, and on motion of Trustee Muhleman, warrants ordered to be issued in payment of the same.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Fully recognizing the difficulties confronting parents and teachers as the long vacation approaches, and with the experience of previous years before her, Mrs. Danford, the librarian, has with her usual forethought made her plans to meet the conditions arising at this season.

These plans contemplate the establishing of the story hour as in previous years. At the story hour the friendship of the best authors may be cultivated and it, too, may serve the purpose of wholesome recreation.

The object of the story is to get the mind in a receptive mood so that teaching the use of catalog and practical use of the library may follow.

The first story hour will be held Tuesday, July 3, when flag day will be observed. There will be patriotic music and tiny souvenirs will be given to each little visitor.

The story hour is open to children outside the city limits and if the attendance justifies two classes will be formed. These classes will be conducted by Mrs. Danford and the library staff that a more intimate acquaintance and closer relation with the children may be established.

Although the age limit is 8 years, children at the story hour may secure cards at the age of 6.

During the vacation months when reference work and adult circulation is diminished, book reviews are thoroughly canvassed by the library staff and careful study given to the weak places of the library work which is being scientifically built up. Book lists are being prepared for future order.

In accordance with our motto "A Library for the People," requests for the purchase of special books are carefully considered and when possible, are granted. Organizations with study courses and the school are requested to furnish lists of books required for the coming year's work.

AN OVERWORKED WORD

There is a word that once possessed a vigor and a power that is altogether lost. "Verily, verily"—"in truth, in truth." Now it is "very," and, though it still means "in truth," it has become so weakened by usage that it conveys no force whatever.

You meet men on the street and say, "It is a very fine day." What do you mean? Probably you mean, "How do you do?" What you have said is simply a salutation. But if you should say to me, "It is a fine day," you probably mean it is a fine day. That little word "very" has been so weakened, so frayed at the edges, that it hampers rather than helps its companions.

So, gentle reader, I would say to you if I had arbitrary power over your speech, "This week I will allow you only two 'veries,'" and, though for a time such restraint may make you self-conscious, yet it will force you to grope about for musty treasures in the storehouse of your memory and furnish up old adjectives and adverbs, even drive you now and again to a careful appraisal of your best slang, and when this temporary self-consciousness shall pass, not only your vigor of speech, but your exactitude of thought will be the better for it. That is a gain that will be worth all the sacrifice.—Burgess Johnson in Century.

LOS ANGELES, June 22.—Gus Walker feared a water shortage later in the day, so early in the morning he filled his bathtub full, that he might have a supply against eventualities. "The scheme would have been a success," he reports. "Had not the floor given way and precipitated the tub into the basement."
