RHODODENDRON

Pictures scheduled and rescheduled! Layouts drawn and redrawn! Pots of coffee, dozens of worn pencils, dozens of aspirins, and bundles of frayed nerves—all these things and more went into the showing of Appalachian's emotions. Temper everything with the kindness and help from all the staff members and interested ASU students—then it is all worthwhile.

THE APPALACHIAN

"The news and editorial voice of Appalachian", the purpose behind ASU's weekly newspaper—stressing the giving of complete and usually unbiased information, the aim—student voices heard (by all means!)—a large circulation—member of the Associated Collegiate, the Inter-Collegiate, and the Carolina Collegiate Press Associations.

*Emotions tall small Emotions rise fall
Emotions up down
Emotions grow where the heart abounds.*

*High's only high
Low's only low
Real's truly real
Show's truly show
Emotions guide
Do YOU not see
Each moment's view of reality?*

Emotions develop as the college student matures through his experiences. Whether these emotions are hidden or expressed openly, they are within the character of each person every moment of the day constituting the foundation of his life. These emotions can be found in social, mental and physical aspects in the life of every ASU student. We hope that the 1968 Khodosendron will help depict what each one of you wants to remember.

Jean and Lana
