Modern Bank Building

The Bank of Campbell to Have a Fine New Home

Work was begun last week on the elegant new building to be the future home of the Bank of Campbell. The building will be located on the southwest corner of Campbell and Central avenues, the best site in town for bank purposes. The walls, floors and foundation will be of cement and the front faced with pressed brick, which will make a beautiful structure. The inside measurement will be 30x52 feet for the portion to be occupied by the bank. On the west side of the building there will be a storeroom 20x52 feet. It is not definitely decided just who will occupy this fine room.

The contract was taken by F. A. Curtis, of San Jose, and provides that the work will be completed by November 1st.

Mizpah Class Picnic

The "Mizpah" Class of the Methodist Sunday school had a rather unique and delightful celebration last Tuesday evening. In response to the following invitation sent out by Russell Kennedy, Chairman of the Entertainment committee of the class, the company started on foot from the Kennedy home at 6:30 o'clock: On Tuesday evening, July 5th the Social committee of the "Mizpah class" will have to make sum fun for it. Its hard times sometimes to have good times, but we shor hav to get sum fun somehow. Here's how. If you can walk a mile we air going to make it worth yur whil. E. R. Kenneky, komite.

The crowd was preceded by Driver Jesse Hayes and the rig carrying the eatables. At the tressle they all took to the creek bed and walked a mile or more to the spot previously started for a camp. Here campfires were built and coffee and tamales prepared to accompany the contents of generous lunch baskets into the many hungry stomachs. After the repast two huge bonfires made from the abundance of drift-wood collected in the creek-bed furnished light for the games and pastimes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Alison, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dick. The Misses Matilda Hayes, Crissy Woodward, Bessie Palmer, Muriel Palmer, Gertrude and Della Cook, Emma Beattie, Cora Rodeck, Floy Lloyd, Harriet Clark, Agnes Macy, Florence, Ernestine and Beth Kennedy, Lydia Hutchins of San Francisco, Virginia Bartlett, Miss McBride and Miss Carr; Messrs. E. R. and Avery Kennedy, Dr. T. L. Blanchard and Jesse Hayes.

As Sunday and party manners were left at home everybody entered heartily into the games and sports and had a thoroughly good time. This was the first outing of the Mizpah class and others are expected to follow. The class meets each Sunday morning at 9:45 at the Methodist church. All young people over eighteen years of age not otherwise connected with Sunday school work are invited to be present. Rev. Trezone, a very able Bible student, is instructor of the class and presents the lesson in a manner always interesting.

Old School House For Sale

The old building formerly occupied by the Campbell Grammar School will be sold to the highest bidder, and must be moved from the premises before September 1st, 1910. Bids will be opened by the Board on Wednesday, August 3rd, 1910. Enquire for information and send all bids to J. D. SAWYER, Clerk of the Board of Trustees.

E. and Evening service being merged. Miss Winnie Fablinger, leader, general Topic: "A Model Society." This will be a Convention Echo Meeting, reports will be given of the Great State C. E. Convention just held in San Jose. The Pastor will occupy the last few minutes of the meeting and the Theme: "What the World has a right to expect of Young People." All cordially invited. Geo. E. Atkinson, Pastor.

A good storeroom for rent. Newly finished. Fine location. Apply at this office.

Mrs. Butts is recovering from her severe illness. The family have only good words of praise for Dr. Blanchard and his attentions.

NEWS OF WEEK FROM ALL THE COAST STATES

Occurrences Along the Pacific Slope Presented in Compensious Array.

Passing Events Among Your Neighbors Briefly Told in Short, Newsy Paragraphs.

Salinas.—The big sugar factory at Spreckels is being overhauled and put in readiness for the beet crushing season.

San Francisco.—The California Development Board has received an exhibit of Santa Clara county products to be placed in the exhibit room at the Ferry building.

Douglas, A. T.—Florence May was shot and killed at his mining camp in Chiricahua mountains by Earl Sands, a neighbor, with whom he had previously had trouble as a result of goats owned by the latter trespassing on his land.

Genoa, Nev.—Fire destroyed over half of this town, where Mark Twain lived in his historic cabin. Among the buildings burned was the courthouse of Douglas county.

San Francisco.—It is understood the saloon interests are back of a plan to present a monster petition to the Supervisors, asking the restoration of the slot machines.

Los Angeles.—Labor unionists who want to boycott local storekeepers who do not sympathize with the strikes now on, and who also wish to stop paying wages to landlords who favor the open shop, secured a tract of eighty-seven acres just outside the city limits.

Seattle.—Lieutenant Colonel S. W. Miller, commander at Fort Lawton, a few days ago issued an order permitting the negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth United States Infantry, stationed here, to leave the reservation.

Santa Cruz.—The preliminary examination of Mary Cavanaugh for extortion was held before Justice Gardner. She and H. T. Farnsworth are charged with extortion in forcing John Hodges to sign a $500 promissory note at the point of a pistol.

Seattle.—J. D. Lowman, president of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce and of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the Pacific Coast, has been decorated by the Emperor of Japan with the Imperial Order of the Sacred Treasure in recognition of his courteous treatment and personal attentions to the honorary Japanese Commercial Commissioners in their journey throughout the United States last year.

Long Beach.—The family of Peter Martens, a wealthy resident of this city, who started for Palestine recently to prepare for the second coming of Christ, received a telegram from him last week asking for funds with which to get home.

Sacramento.—A. M. Ham, a San Bernardino merchant, has been authorized by State Controller Nye to bring suit against the board of managers of the Southern California hospital to force them to accept his bid on 360,000 pounds of potatoes, which was the lowest, but was rejected.

BOY JUMPS FROM BROOKLYN BRIDGE FOR A SMALL PRIZE

$250 and Three Suits for Pinwheeling Through Air for 135 Feet.

New York.—A sharp featured, undersized youth in ragged swimming trunks, with a skimpy coat and an old pair of trousers thrown over them, dived successfully from the center span of the Brooklyn bridge to the East river, 135 feet below, for $250 in cash, three new suits of clothes and whatever fame the world may hold in store for a bridge jumper.

The late Steve Brodie acquired fame as a jumper, and long ran a Bowery saloon on the strength of it, but many say it was never proved that Steve really jumped. Several would-be suicides have been fished out of the river unhurt, after jumping, but Otto Eppers is the first to jump with unquestioned witnesses as part of a pre-arranged plan.

The boy's first words when he was fished out of the river by the crew of a passing tug, were: "Gee! But I hit hard!"

Eppers is 17 years old, the son of a lithographer. He weighs about 110 pounds. Recently he heard that a Brooklyn merchant was willing to pay $250 to the first man who would jump from the bridge into East river. Otto has jumped 104 feet from a bridge once before, and the addition of a few more feet never caused him so much as a thought. He meant to dive in one long, sweeping arc, "but," he told afterward, "I started to twist and then I couldn't stop."

Passengers on the ferryboats who saw him said he turned like a pinwheel. He was found on his back, half stunned and paddling feebly.

Roosevelt's Criticisms May Bear Fruit.

London.—Former President Roosevelt's criticisms of Egyptian affairs are likely to bear fruit, according to the Daily Telegraph, which states that Sir Eldon Gorst, the British agent at Cairo, will become Ambassador at Constantinople, whence Sir G. A. Lowther will go to St. Petersburg to replace Sir A. Nicholson, who has just been appointed permanent Under Secretary of the Foreign office.

Bandit Forger Caught.

Seattle.—Thaddeus E. York, who was arrested here by detectives who had traced him all over the country, is said to be the most energetic bandit forger of a decade. In addition to the charge of which he was arrested, that of defrauding by forgery a Klamath Falls (Ore.) bank out of $8,500 by forged drafts, he is accused by the detectives of having worked a Chicago bank for $5,000, a Bellingham (Wash.) bank for $2,500, and a Seattle bank for $1,329, all within the past year.

Rattlesnakes Invade Town.

Plymouth, Cal.—The country in and about this place is infested with rattlesnakes. They appear to be larger and are in greater numbers than ever known in this vicinity. The snakes have actually invaded the town and every day several are killed within the town limits. The theory of old timers is that a den was washed out of the mountains by the recent heavy rains.

Purity League Fail to Oust Mayor.

Santa Barbara.—The efforts of the Purity League to oust Mayor Clio Lloyd from office on account of the alleged failure to enforce city ordinances against the redlight district ended in defeat. Judge Walter Bordwell of Los Angeles, before whom the case was tried in the Superior Court here, decided in favor of Lloyd.

Killed Monster Panther.

Santa Rosa.—Sheridan and U. G. Peterson came in from their ranch near Skaggs Springs with two coyote skins and the skin of a monster panther, which they had slain on the ranch. The coyote skins bring a $5 bounty each from the county, while the panther skin brings a $20 bounty from the State.

Must Pay Heavy Penalty.

Vallejo.—W. H. Dunning, the former superintendent of the Orphans' Home, just north of town, and who in October last was convicted in the Superior Court of this county upon accusations of debased conduct, was taken to San Quentin last week there to commence serving his thirty years' term.

Would Not Obey Orders.

Redding.—Disregarding a warning not to touch a power line on the pole where he was working, Edward Baker, a lineman, was instantly killed when a 20,000-volt current short circuited through his body.

Long Retirement Made Jeffries Easy Mark for Johnson

That James J. Jeffries cannot fight as he did six years ago is the general opinion of those closest associated with the game. He was outfought, all admit. The better man won.

None, save perhaps Jeffries himself, mourned over his defeat more than his wife. But she found consolation in defeat—the public no longer has a hold on him.

The principals gave their views of the combat as follows:

By Jack Johnson—I won just as I thought I would. Right from the start I knew that I would win. I outboxed him at every point. I was stronger than he was and was in better condition. He landed several hard body blows on me during the fight, but they did not bother me at all. I don't feel the least bit damaged in any way. I didn't expect to win in such a short time, but when I saw that my blows were taking effect I knew that I need not fear for the title. It may have looked easy, but Jeffries was certainly a tough one to put away. As I stated before the fight, I will immediately start for New York to keep my engagement at Hammerstein's on the 11th. I will probably stop off a few days at Chicago. I want to thank the people of Reno again for the cordial reception they have given me. It is one of the things I shall always remember.

By James J. Jeffries—My stomach went back on me. I entered the ring in the best shape I could possibly put myself in. I felt confident and trained as faithfully as any man could. The people demanded that I return to the ring after my long retirement to face Johnson and I went through a long siege of work before I announced that I would fight. I thought I could regain my old form and I worked hard in an effort to get into the best possible shape. Johnson is a great fighter and the people cannot imagine how clever he is. I have nothing to say against Johnson. He fought fairly and won the battle strictly on its merits. As early as the third round I found my stomach troubling me, and I did not have the speed and strength I thought had. I was not knocked out completely, but I was all in, and it did not matter whether the fight ended in that round or the next, as I was exhausted.

By "Tex." Rickard—After Johnson colored Jeff's eye with that left hook in the second round, I knew that it was the negro's fight. No other man in the world but Jim Jeffries could have stood up under that blow. Jim put in some nice work in one or two of the later rounds, but Johnson hit harder and cleaner as the fight progressed. I awarded the fight to Johnson after Jeffries went down the second time, because he was lifted to his feet and pushed back to the middle of the ring by Berger, Attel, and, I think, Choyinski. But before I could get between them they were fighting again, and Jeff went down the third time.

It was the cleanest fight ever fought and the easiest to referee. Once Jeff pushed the colored man's head back, and twice Johnson held on when perhaps he had no right to. I cautioned them and the slight breach was never repeated by either.

All Signs Favor San Francisco as Exposition City

San Francisco.—The American Institute of Banking has refused to endorse New Orleans' claim to hold the Panama-Pacific Exposition in celebration of the completion of the Panama canal, but has accepted an invitation to hold its national convention of 1915 in San Francisco.

The American Institute of Banking, while in convention in Chattanooga, Tenn. had a resolution submitted to the convention by the New Orleans delegation, requesting the convention to endorse New Orleans as the logical place to hold the exposition in celebration of the completion of the Panama canal. Upon a test vote the convention refused to consider the resolution.

The San Francisco delegation extended a cordial invitation to the American Institute to hold its convention of 1915 in San Francisco and the invitation was accepted.

K. L. Bernard, an exposition man and former resident of Louisiana, is in San Francisco on business. Bernard is interested in aviation and will have charge of the International Aviation Meet in New York and the Aeronautical Show to be held in Chicago next December. As an exposition man Bernard has viewed all the great expositions held since the Cotton Centennial in 1884 and possesses a first-hand knowledge of things where expositions are concerned.

Washington.—Freight rates on lemons from the producing territory in southern California to eastern destinations have been reduced by the Interstate Commerce Commission from $1.15 per hundred pounds to $1. The new rates will become effective September 1st. The order of the commission was made in the case of the Arlington Heights Fruit Exchange and others against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, and practically all of the railway lines in the country operating east and west.

New York.—According to unofficial observations, Captain Thomas S. Baldwin broke the world's aeroplane speed record for sustained flight at Mineola, L. I., by flying ten miles in nine minutes and twenty seconds. This is equal to a mile in 56 seconds. Hamilton's best mile in the air was made over a measured course at Jacksonville, Fla., in one minute and ten seconds.

New Speed Record for Flying.

Los Angeles.—Peanuts enough to have supplied the demand at a hundred circus performances were scattered over the countryside near Rowland, twenty miles east of here, when a Salt Lake freight train left the rails and was wrecked. Six hundred feet of track was torn up and the road tied up for the day. Nine freight cars were destroyed.

Peanuts in Railroad Wreck.

Washington.—Secretary MacVeagh sent to Richard Parr, the New York customs deputy, a Treasury warrant for $20,000 in part payment of the award to him of $100,000 for his vigilance in detecting sugar underweighting at New York. For the remaining $80,000 the Secretary will ask Congress to make a special appropriation.

Richard Parr Gets First Payment.

Washington.—Secretary MacVeagh sent to Richard Parr, the New York customs deputy, a Treasury warrant for $20,000 in part payment of the award to him of $100,000 for his vigilance in detecting sugar underweighting at New York. For the remaining $80,000 the Secretary will ask Congress to make a special appropriation.

Drowned Amidst Companions.

Seattle.—While nearly a score of bathers were swimming around him, unconscious of his predicament, George D. Bowe, aged 22, sank in the swimming pool at the Luna Park pleasure resort here and was drowned. His companion finally missing him, dived for him and recovered the body.

Died as Pauper With $200,000.

San Bernardino.—George A. Shepard, who was considered eccentric, died a few days ago after having been confined to the County Hospital for eight months. It was learned that he left an estate estimated at $200,000.

MINIMUM PENALTY ASSESSED FOR S. P. RAILROAD REBATES

Federal Court at San Francisco Acts on Agreement Made at Washington.

San Francisco.—An agreement made at Washington by the Department of Justice was carried out in the United States District Court in this city last week when the Southern Pacific Company pleaded guilty to 18 of the 140 counts in three sets of indictments filed against it in 1907 because of alleged violations of the interstate commerce law in giving rebates.

A fine of $1000 on each count, $18,000 in all, was imposed by United States District Judge Van Fleet, this being the minimum penalty provided by the interstate law, which authorizes a maximum fine of $20,000 for each offense. District Attorney Robert T. Devlin said that the other counts in the indictments would be dismissed, in accordance with instructions from Washington.

Everybody seemed pleased. The Southern Pacific's representative was professionally insistent that the company was guilty merely of technical offenses and that it would eventually have defeated the indictments, but, nevertheless, he was glad that it had escaped so lightly. The Government's representative, on the other hand, was satisfied with the admission of the Southern Pacific that it had run counter to the law, and he regarded the fine of $18,000 as a substantial enough warning to the railroad corporation not to sin in the same way again.

Nine of the counts on which the company pleaded guilty were for rebates on shipments of matting from Kobe, Japan; eight related to rebates on shipments of lumber from Verdi, Nev., for the California Pine Box and Lumber Company, and one concerned a concession on a wool shipment for Miller & Lux.

Drowned Amidst Companions.

Seattle.—While nearly a score of bathers were swimming around him, unconscious of his predicament, George D. Bowe, aged 22, sank in the swimming pool at the Luna Park pleasure resort here and was drowned. His companion finally missing him, dived for him and recovered the body.

This Aspirant for Citizenship May Have Right Dope

Oakland.—Nathan Savin missed a chance to become a citizen because he took too great an interest in muckraking. After satisfying the Government attorneys as to his qualifications for naturalization, Judge Harris undertook a cross-examination.

"The Southern Pacific," promptly replied Savin. Upon recovering composure Judge Harris asked him who was the greatest President.

"Teddy Roosevelt," answered Savin. "Application denied," announced the Court; "come again when you have forgotten some of the muckraking you have read."

"Who elects the Governor?" asked the Court.

Cure Your Dandruff

Why? Because it is annoying, untidy. And mostly, because it almost invariably leads to baldness. Cure it, and save your hair. Get more, too, at the same time. All easily done with Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula. Stop this formation of dandruff!

Does not change the color of the hair. Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

The new Ayer's Hair Vigor will certainly do this work, because, first of all, it destroys the germs which are the original cause of dandruff. Having given this aid, nature completes the cure. The scalp is restored to a perfectly healthy condition.

THE FIRST ROLLER SKATES.

Mishap That Befell Man on Wheels in Soho, London, in 1760.
It is said that the first roller skates were introduced into England so long ago as the year 1760. The inventor was a Fleming, who was attached to the suite of the Spanish ambassador, and came with him that year to London. We are told that "mounted on a pair of his contrivances and playing a violin, he mixed in the motley throng at the celebrated Mrs. Cornelly's masquerade at Carlisle House, Soho square, when, not having provided the means of retarding his velocity, nor of commanding its direction, he impelled himself against a very valuable mirror, dashed it to atoms, broke his instrument to pieces and wounded himself severely." This grievous mishap to the hilarious inventor probably put back roller skating a century or so. We have improved on the "contrivances" since then, but even now no one has been able to retard velocity by means of pneumatic brakes. We leave this hint to present-day inventors for their consideration.

The first book had pages printed on one side only, the sheets being pasted back to back.

"RUBBER NECKS" IN THE AIR?

Reason to Believe That Sightseeing Airships Are Coming Soon.
"Sightseeing aeroplanes or sightseeing dirigible balloons are possibilities which will develop into probabilities in a few years," said Vincent F. Le Queuse at the Willard.

"Imagine yourself seated in an aeroplane, flying over our big cities, with a megaphone man pointing out the sights of interest below, all for a nominal sum," said Mr. Le Queuse. "Such a thing is easily possible, and is delayed only by the perfecting of flying machines."

"So far as I know, there is no company at present considering the feasibility of showing sights by flying machines. Aeroplanes and dirigibles of a type to carry a few passengers are too expensive now to make such a plan possible. The cost of passage would be too high for the average citizen. Then, the natural temerity of the public in trusting life and limb to the dangers of aeroplaning must be taken into consideration. No, it will be years (I do not know how many) before we have sightseeing airships, but they will follow the sightseeing automobile, just as the automobile followed the street car and the street car followed the sightseeing coach."

Mr. Le Queuse is probably the most prominent "sightseeing" man in the country. He directs the operation of about fifty sightseeing aeroplanes carrying more than 250,000 persons a year, in New York, Philadelphia and Washington. In New York he operates steam yachts and coaches as well as automobiles for sightseeing purposes.—Washington Post.

Literary Censorship in Russia.

In an article on the literary censorship in Russia a writer in the Frankfurter Zeitung says that some of the queer examples of this work on the part of the czar's government are worthy of note. In a poem the line "Under strange skies we may be happy" was canceled, with the remark that "no sky can be more conducive to happiness than that which spreads over Russia." A biography of Sumarokov mentions the novel "Korev" as his first "creation." The sentence was blotted out because "God alone creates. Man may write, work, compose, etc., but he does not 'create.'" When the names of the gods of Greek mythology are written capital letters must not be used "except in the case of Mars. Our gracious czar has had so many wars that he owes Mars this compliment." A poem was suppressed because it contained the line, "To solitude devoted, I despise the world." The censor said: "Despising so generally includes also the czar. Thank me, writer, for saving you from Siberia."

Only Dead Seeds in Tombs.

Hitherto it has very generally been believed that seeds taken from ancient Egyptian tombs germinate readily when planted to-day. This, however, is declared to be an illusion by many experimenters. It has been proved by some that no seed over 100 years old will germinate. Living seeds as old as 80 years breathe, absorb oxygen, and emit carbonic acid gas, whereas those from ancient tombs do not. Those seeds, supposedly taken from ancient tombs, which have germinated upon being planted are said to have been adulterated by the natives that sold them, as much fresh seed being added as there was old. The Egyptian Egyptologist, Maspero, says that no seed ever taken by himself from a tomb could be induced to germinate.—Exchange.

Struck for Home.

Courage is believed to be a very necessary quality for the soldier, but a writer in Harper's Magazine tells of a private who ran at the first shot, and declared himself to be braver than those who faced the battle.
Pat was unmercifully laughed at for his cowardice by the whole regiment, but he was equal to the occasion.
"Run, is it?" he repeated, scornfully.
"Faith, an' I didn't, nayther. I just observed the general's express orders. He told us, 'Strike for home and yer country,' and I struck for home."
"Thim what struck for their country is there yet."

Rattled.

"What's your order, sir?" asked the waiter.
"Bring me," said the wild-eyed customer, "some medium boiled potatoes and some eggs with the jackets on."
"Sir?"
"I don't know whether I've got that right, or not, waiter," said the wild-eyed man, "but do the best you can with it. A big red automobile had to jump out of my way about two minutes ago to keep me from running over it, and I'm a bit flustered."—Chicago Tribune.

AN ODD SIGN OF PROGRESS

By E. JANES

One of the most interesting achievements of the last two sessions of Congress is the wonderful reform in the public printing. The reckless wastefulness with which documents and reports have been ordered to be printed, in editions of thousands and hundreds of thousands, has been one of the wonders of the government. Thousands of tons of printed matter lay in heaps so vast that no man could find anything in them. For generations complaint, ridicule, invective, reasoning,—all the weapons of reform, have been leveled against this absurdity, but, until recently, all in vain. Perhaps no more curious instance is on record of the persistence of a foolish, extravagant, absurd system, which had gradually grown up, and for which no one seemed to be blame. At last, however, the efforts of various committees have been crowned with success. Enormous masses of useless paper have been sent to the paper mill. The ordering of immense editions of public documents has been stopped. The departments have been warned not to make their reports so bulky. The government printing office is carried on a good deal more like an ordinary large publishing house than ever before. This seems to me a very interesting triumph of economy and common sense. I take pleasure in it, also, because it seems an indication of a new and better spirit, a more correct idea of what government is for and how its operations should be carried on, and how the people's money should be employed. A sense of responsibility seems to be slowly growing, among citizens and legislators and executive officers. May it grow and grow until it shall overshadow the whole earth.

PEACE AND PROGRESS

NOT "The Army and Navy FOREVER."

Patriotism is not killing foreigners. The new patriotism means peace with all nations, and progress uninterrupted by wars. Both men and women are patriots. The flag has been a symbol of war. It now floats over the school houses of the nation. We shall soon hear no more of "civilized warfare," "human warfare," "Christian warfare." How can Uncle Sam keep his dinner pail full when he spends two-thirds of his entire income on wars and preparation for wars? This leaves only one-third for all the other purposes of government. The navy has two bogeys; nations which have never fought us; and England, Mexico, and Spain, who have once fought us. One big cannon shot costs $1700, including deterioration of weapon. One shot costs three and two-thirds years of a workingman's wages. One shot costs five and one-third years of a woman school teacher's salary, the average. One shot costs as much as a workingman's house. One shot costs as much as a college education at $425 a year for four years. Picture to yourself a village in which each householder spends most of his time fortifying his home. Whenever his neighbor buys a new blunderbuss, he rushes off and buys another catapult. He drills his children every day in the back yard, and makes them shoot at a mark. All night long they patrol the garden fence. Every cent is spent on powder and dynamite, while they are hungry and ragged. Yet these folks never fight, but are polite when they meet, even with guns in their pockets. Rifle practise in the public schools is promoted by the makers and sellers of guns and ammunition. It is condemned by the great body of educators. The new Boy Scouts have a military organization. Camping clubs of boys and girls could be organized with all out door advantages under a plan of peace. The organizers of boy scouts, and of girl scouts, (as camp cooks and camp nurses), are skillful in presenting the plan so that it looks like out door fun and freedom, but the ultimate object is a military one. It is time to leave off saying war, war. It is time to say Peace, Peace. California Human Press Bureau. Secretary, Palo Alto.

According to the annual report of the California Development Board, just issued, the industrial output of California for the year 1909 was valued at more than 1,005,000,000.

A Statement of Principles

Allison Ware, candidate for Republican nomination for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, visited this office last week and left a statement of the principles which he will stand for if nominated and elected. They read as follows:
1. All deputies, clerks and assistants in the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be appointed solely because of their special fitness for expert public service; and no influence save the welfare of the schools of California shall ever dictate to this office its action upon any educational issue or public question.
2. I believe that school textbooks should be selected, not upon pressure of book companies, or because of personal influences, but solely upon the principle that textbooks should give to the parents who pay for them and the children who use them the fullest degree of efficient service.
3. The office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction can do more to insure the efficient use of textbooks by sending to teachers practical suggestions as to their best use, than by encouraging frequent changes of texts for trivial reasons.
4. This office should exert its utmost efforts to secure the enforcement of the compulsory education law; and at the same time it should work to make the common schools of such self-evident value as training grounds for life that every boy and every parent in the State shall recognize their indispensable worth.

5. I believe that the greatest work of this office should be to bring and keep the common schools closer to the needs of the people. While the way to the university should always remain open to all who are able to follow it, at the same time a high school education which prepares directly for life must not remain forever closed to the overwhelming majority of our boys and girls.

6. Industrial and agricultural schools should be encouraged. Home management and household economy should be taught to our girls. Above all, the general culture work of our traditional high school should be reshaped so that a fuller measure of knowledge of living value in the highways of life may be found there by all comers.

7. This office shall not indulge in speculative fads. It shall be no place for hysteria. Neither shall it shirk the work that its position in the school system requires of it. But with all the energy at its command, it shall set itself to gather and appraise the best work of the best school workers everywhere; to the end that it may be a clearing house of useful information, and may be able to direct its force wisely, at all times, in behalf of a greater public service from our public schools.

How to Sleep Outdoors

"Directions for living and sleeping in the open air," is the title of a pamphlet being sent out to-day by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis to its local representatives in all parts of the United States.

The pamphlet is meant to be a handbook of information for anybody who desires to sleep out of doors in his own home. It emphasizes the fact that outdoor sleeping is as desirable for the well as for the sick. The booklet will be sent free of charge to anyone applying for it at the headquarters of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis in New York, or to the secretary of any local or state anti-tuberculosis association.

Some of the subjects of which the pamphlet treats are, how to take the open-air treatment in a tenement house; how to build a small shack or cabin on a flat roof in the city; how to make one comfortable while sleeping outdoors either in hot or cold weather; how to arrange a porch on a country house; and how to build a cheap porch; the construction of tents and tent houses; the kinds of beds and bedding to use in outdoor sleeping, and various other topics. The book is well illustrated and attractively prepared.

The object of the book is to suggest particularly to consumptives who cannot secure admission to a sanatorium how they can be treated at home under the direction of a physician. In view of the fact that there are less than 25,000 hospital beds in the United States for consumptives and fully 300,000 who should be in hospitals, the National Association urges that more attention be paid to sleeping in properly provided places at home, and that in every case the best be made of the patient's environment.
