

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

STUDENTS RECEIVE COVETED HONORS AT LAST ASSEMBLY OF YEAR

Yesterday marked the formal closing of the 1916-1917 school term, the last session being held in the auditorium at about ten o'clock. The students were supposed to assemble at nine o'clock, but as several of the teachers had not completed making out their grades at that time, the doors weren't opened until an hour later. Attorney Cass of Los Angeles was given the first ten minutes of the assembly for a short talk on the American Red Cross Society, in which he urged every student who possibly can to immediately become a member of the famous life-saving proposition.

Mr. Moyle then made several announcements concerning library books, locker keys, etc., after which the meeting was turned over to Mr. E. H. Wight, the athletic instructor of the school. Mr. Wight took the occasion to award the big "G," which is the school's symbol of athletic victory, to the boys who have represented the school in athletics by winning a certain number of games throughout the year. The first time that a student wins such honors he is presented with a large black "G," and every time thereafter he receives a small red star. The first boys to receive their awards were the members of the basketball team. They were Dan Hagin, Carleton West, Miller Fishel, Tom McIver, Wad McIver and Arville Williams, of which the first three received stars. The members of the newly organized lightweight basketball team, including Myron Powers, Frances Powers, Guy Richards, Dean Bryant, Walter Beach and Roland Brown, then received small black and red monograms for their services.

The next group to receive the highly coveted honors were the members of our championship tennis team, the first three being given stars and the last one a "G." They were William Balthis, Carleton West, Lehman Crandall and Roscoe Puffer. They were followed by the awarding of the symbols to the four track men who won the required units. These were Dan Hagin, Merle Eckles, Harry Glazier and Ed Seay, the first three receiving the star, and last one the letter. Last, but not least, nine members of the baseball team were given their honors. Lehman Crandall, Emerson Padelford, Miller Fishel, Carleton West, Merle Eckles and Howard McGillis received the star for their services, while John Sharpe, Olin Wilson and Wilbur Lee were awarded theirs for the first time.

Mr. Moyle then awarded the five activity pins to as many students who have made themselves generally useful around school during their course in G. U. H. S. Paul Williams was given one for his electrical help throughout the past four years, Bessie Mook for her typewriting for the school, and Harold Venske, Kenneth Belden and Mildred Wight for being just "hustlers."

School was then dismissed for the students to go to their class rooms and receive their year's report cards, after which they all left school, most of them to return next fall.

RED CROSS PARTY

BENEFIT AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. CHARLES H. TOLL WAS HUGE SUCCESS

(By Special Reporter)
Yesterday afternoon over three hundred, young and old, thronged the lovely foothill grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Toll on Kenneth Road and enjoyed what was repeatedly called "the best yet" in local entertainment.

The wonderful singing of Madame Ellen Beach Yaw fitted in with the sunshine, the birds and the trees for, you know, a lark indoors is not at its best advantage. Lark Ellen outdid herself, as many who had heard her indoors remarked. Most of the songs were of her own composition, songs of California, the famous Lark Song or that beautiful old song, "The Last Rose of Summer." After six or eight lovely pieces, the songstress finally wandered through the garden trilling a bird song without words that was a wonder. Lark Ellen certainly did her bit for the Red Cross yesterday.

Then the other items on the program were splendid and evoked much applause. The esthetic outdoor dances by little Miss Edith Lindsay of Hollywood accompanied by Miss Gertrude Champlain were much appreciated. Miss Lindsay is an apt pupil of Mme. LeGal and Ruth St. Denis and is planning further studies under Theodore Kasloff of the Imperial Russian school.

Some well executed violin solos were played by Miss Fuiks, who came from Los Angeles with her accompanist, Miss Ruth Bronson, to assist.

Dr. McCrea gave a stirring talk and Dr. Hanover also spoke. Later he was given an opportunity to read a letter received in Glendale on Wednesday from the trenches in France. The writer, M. Maurice Boudaux, told of the great need of supplies, little knowing that his letter to his wife would be read at such a gathering. Little Jean Boudaux was present and was decorated with a beautiful Red Cross ribbon which is to be sent as a souvenir to her daddy in France.

The occasion was used to best advantage to secure new members and Mrs. Menzo Williams, Mrs. R. E. Chase, Mrs. A. M. Beamon, Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker and Mr. McCrea secured numerous applications, possibly more than 50 or 40 being signed up.

The refreshment department under the direction of Mrs. Herman Payne and a corps of attractive assistants did a rushing business with ice cream and home-made cake and after all expenses were paid netted a profit of nearly $40.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower, who was responsible for the entertainment, was the recipient of many congratulations for the excellent program, but "puts the blame" on Mrs. Ocker and the generous performers. He reports a paid attendance of over 250 and a net income of about $70.

An amusing feature of the entertainment must not be forgotten. Mrs. George H. Marsh brought a sweet little white angora kitten for auction and Dr. Harrower sold it with some amusement (and noise) for $5. The lucky buyer was Mrs. William Porter of North Brand boulevard. Altogether Glendale should be proud of an organization which is able to accomplish so fine an effort in so worthy a cause and we feel sure that our congratulations are in order.

MRS. WEBB ENTERTAINS

A very pleasant party, which was in the nature of the reunion of old friends, was given by Mrs. Henry Webb of Orange street, when she entertained for Mrs. Paul Butterfield, who is visiting here. Mrs. Butterfield formerly lived in Glendale, a talented musician and very popular with the younger set. Mrs. Webb's guests were: the honored guest, Mrs. Paul Butterfield, and her sister, Miss Rita Kimball of Chino, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby, Miss Helen Wright, Miss Margaret Lusby, Mr. Harold Salisbury, Dr. Ralph W. Lusby and Mr. Wilbur Lee. Music furnished the entertainment largely and the hostess served most delicious refreshments later in the evening.

GOV. STEPHENS TO SPEAK

Dr. Jessie A. Russell, chairman of publicity Los Angeles Woman's City club, announces that the meeting for Monday, June 25th, will be open to the general public. Gov. William D. Stephens will be the speaker, taking as his subject, "Work of the National and State Councils of Defense." The program begins at 1 p. m. sharp, Blanchard Hall, Broadway, between Second and Third.

MUST CONSERVE OIL AND COAL

SECRETARY DANIELS SAYS WAR IS TO DEPEND ON SUPPLY OF OIL—NEW FIELDS MUST BE OPENED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, June 23.—It is only a question of a very short time before the government must commandeer all oil and coal, Secretary Daniels told the Senate Public Lands committee to-day. The oil situation is serious, he said. The fuel supply must be regulated and the government must be empowered to fix the price. He declared that oil will be the basis for conducting this war and that everything depends on the oil supply. Fresh supplies must be originated and he suggested opening new oil and coal fields, but protested against opening the naval oil reserves in California until pending litigation is settled. He claims many hold dummy titles to oil reserve lands.

ANOTHER SUBMARINE FIRED ON

VESSEL ARRIVING AT AMERICAN PORT REPORTS SIGHTING AND FIRING ON GERMAN SUBMERSIBLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
NEW YORK, June 23.—That another submarine was fired on and hit by an American vessel, was reported when the vessel reached an American port to-day. The fighting occurred near Genoa, when the U-boat appeared on the surface about 600 yards off and launched a torpedo which missed the American vessel. The American gunners fired at the U-boat and destroyed its periscope. The submarine then disappeared.

FOOD BILL MAY PASS HOUSE TONIGHT

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS DECLARE ONLY "DRY FIGHT CAN BLOCK PASSAGE OF MEASURE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, June 23.—Only a "dry fight" will prevent the passage late this afternoon of the administration food bill in the House. Administration leaders are confident that the entire liquor element has not strength enough to block the bill, but in the Senate a small clique is intending to delay the passage of the measure in the upper house.

GERMANS IN COUNTER OFFENSIVE

ASSAULT ON FRENCH LINES AT MANY POINTS IS SIGNAL FOR VIOLENT FIGHTING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, June 23.—Germany's assault on French lines reached the stage of a general counter offensive to-day with violent fighting around Vaux-Haillon, Felain, Royier, Froimont Chevigny, Chevreux and other points. A terrific night bombardment following a series of enemy attacks all along the line. The French inflicted heavy losses.

SUFFRAGETTES ARRESTED

ESCAPE POLICE LINE AND PLANT DENUNCIATORY BANNERS IN FRONT OF WHITE HOUSE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, June 23.—Two militant suffragettes escaped the police line outside of suffrage headquarters to-day and planted a denunciatory banner squarely in front of the White House. Policewomen proceeded to arrest them.

WAR WORKERS CROWD WASHINGTON

PROSPERITY HAS HIT NATION'S CAPITAL—NEW GOVERNMENT OFFICES SPRING UP ALL OVER CITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, June 23.—War prosperity has hit Washington and those who have rooms to rent are getting rich. The capital's population is growing rapidly. Every train brings its load. War talk fills the air. The government and the various industries that have established war headquarters here will need 50,000 more clerks before the dog days, according to conservative estimates. Already there is a famine in stenographers. Uncle Sam commanded them. Now government offices are springing up all over the city. Department offices which for generations have been small, quiet affairs have suddenly become bloated to 20 times their usual size. This means more employees. The restaurants are busier than Coney Island chowder kitchens. The street cars are almost always jammed to the guards and frequently blockaded. Apartment houses have been made into hotels—residences into apartments. In some cases startling prices are demanded for cots. All rents are upward bound. The telephone service is swamped—the messenger service overwhelmed. Streets are crowded and the aged hackmen are investing in Liberty Bonds. Now Uncle Sam is meditating commandeering more office space and ousting private firms. It's a seething situation—but—as the French say: "C'est la guerre."

INTERMEDIATE CLOSES

NINETY-EIGHT RECEIVE DIPLOMAS ADMITTING THEM TO HIGH SCHOOL

The graduation exercises of the Glendale Intermediate school were held at the High School auditorium last evening before an audience that crowded even that capacious room to its utmost. The class was the largest ever graduated from the Intermediate, numbering ninety-eight members, and Superintendent Richardson D. White and his corps of teachers have reason to be proud of this magnificent class which they have so well prepared to enter the High School.

At eight o'clock, to the music of the well-trained orchestra, the class, the girls in middie suits and the boys in white duck, with ties of their class colors, purple and white, entered two by two and in a dignified way took their places in the front of the auditorium.

An orchestral selection, "Water Lilies," by Floyd J. St. Clair, was followed by two charming numbers by the girls' glee club, members of the class. This number was followed by a violin solo, "Kulawlak," Henri Wieniawski, which was very well rendered by Helen Beach and so enthusiastically received that an encore, "Traumerel," was also given by this most promising little violinist.

In introducing the speaker of the evening, Miss Mary P. Putnam, of Jefferson High School, Los Angeles, Supt. White paid a high tribute to her, saying that she was one of the three eminent educators who were sent east three years ago to investigate and study schools in order to bring the best to us here and that we were to be congratulated on being able to hear this talented teacher. Miss Putnam has a charming personality and contrary to the usual custom her talk was to the boys and girls only. It was a practical talk, suitable to the understanding of her chosen audience.

Two whistling solos were rendered by Eva Green in a very sweet manner and delighted her listeners. In the absence of Mrs. Charles Hulbert Toll, the president of the school board, the diplomas were presented to the class by Supt. Richardson D. White.

As the class filed upon the stage they were each presented with their diplomas, which they received from the hands of Supt. White, assisted by members of the Intermediate faculty, accompanied by the vigorous applause of admiring parents and friends. It was an inspiring sight.

Following the presentation, a number, "Diana Overture," Ascher, was well rendered by the orchestra and the program proper closed with the song, "The Water Lily," Robert Kahn, by the entire class.

The audience were invited to join the school in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner," which most fittingly closed the exercises.

HOT IN FILLMORE

The following letter, written by Mrs. E. B. Davey to friends in Glendale, will be of interest:

Have you been having hot weather there? Last Thursday it went to 115 in the shade and hung around that every day, until Sunday it went to 120. Everyone went to the beach who could, and Ed and I stood in the kitchen and poured water all over us—made a beach of the place.

Saturday night it was so hot and such a hot wind blowing from the forest fire that is only a few miles from here that we had to go to bed with wet towels. Saturday we couldn't get a bit of ice in town and did not till Monday noon.

The big forest fire is burning this way and yesterday the forest rangers came in town and took all the young fellows who could possibly leave to help fight it. To-night the sky is sure red and pretty.

Friday five men were overcome with heat on Ed's job, so they shut down, and Saturday three more got the nosebleed so they could not stop it, so they shut down again. One man burnt blisters on his hand picking up the iron-handled wheel-barrow that had stood in the sun less than five minutes. We had to put wet towels on the chairs and bed before we could sit down or lie down. Had to hold the dishes, knives and forks under the faucet to cool them. Oh, some hot in Fillmore!

All the beans burned up and all the fruit was rotted on the trees.

The green oranges and lemons are soft as over-ripe ones. Where we are living are two nice apple trees loaded, and they were baked brown. New thing, baked apples. The apricots are all ruined and the walnuts are all roasted.

A MESSAGE TO GARCIA

ADDRESS DELIVERED BY JUDGE BENJAMIN F. BLEDSOE TO HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

"Commencement Day" in our land, whether it be of college or of high school, marking the end of a substantial period devoted to education, is one characterized by well high universal rejoicing and congratulation. Fond mothers, proud fathers, jubilant and enthusiastic communities, join in one glad acclaim of our boys and girls who have successfully mounted this rung of the ladder of progress and experience. As a people and with propriety we are given to an all pervading sense of pride in our ancestry—our forefathers—those who have gone before, and who have made it possible, by their efforts and their sacrifices, for us to share in bounteous blessings—free schools, free speech, an unflinching conscience and genuine democracy—that are our heritage and portion. But our pride in our ancestry should swell up no higher than does our well founded confidence in our posterity.

Once in a great while it is permitted to an individual to be inspired. Acting under the influence of such inspiration, and in obedience to its promptings, he renders a service to society as lasting in its effect as it is world-wide in its scope. Such an individual was Elbert Hubbard, and his one inspired service to humanity, in my judgment, was the publication of his essay entitled: "A Message to Garcia."

Hubbard tells us that at the inception of the Spanish-American War it became necessary for President McKinley to communicate with Gen. Garcia, the leader of the Cuban forces, advising him of our immediate plans, etc. Garcia was somewhere in the mountain fastnesses of Cuba—no one knew where—beyond the reach of telegraph or rail and in a country traversed by hostile Spaniards.

Someone suggested to the President that there was a fellow by name of Rowan who would find Garcia and deliver the message to him if such could be done. Rowan was summoned and the message placed in his hands. Alone, unaided, overcoming well-nigh insurmountable obstacles, in the minimum of time, he penetrated Cuba, passed through the Spanish lines, found Garcia and delivered the packet containing the message, without, as Hubbard says, stopping long enough even to inquire: "Where is he at?"

This was the story of Rowan—given a message by McKinley to deliver, he delivered it, without delay and without asking any fool questions. Hubbard, and this is where the inspiration came in, made the story of Rowan's achievement the text and theme of an essay on doing that which is set before you to be done, as Rowan did—loyally, conscientiously, interestedly, successfully and properly. With consummate skill, inspired he shows how performance of any duty, no matter how menial, is but carrying a message to Garcia—that much of the sorrow, discomfort, unhappiness and discontent in the world comes from the "slipshod assistance, foolish inattention and dowdy indifference" of those who, given a message to Garcia to deliver, fail to deliver it.

If anyone has a duty of any sort to perform, he has a message to Garcia; if Johnnie must needs hoe the flowers in the garden, or Mary is put to the task of washing the evening dishes, each has been entrusted with a message to Garcia, and using Hubbard's title in a figurative way, any duty to be performed may be said to be the carrying of a message to Garcia.

It is a fact that hundreds upon hundreds of thousands of copies of Hubbard's essay were printed by the heads of great corporations in our country and sent out to their numerous employees that the lesson of obedience to duty might be seen in a new light. So, also, the Emperor of Japan, we are told, reading or hearing of Hubbard's inspiration, had it translated into the Japanese language and a copy was furnished to each member of his mighty army then engaged in its struggle with Russia.

So, tonight, young ladies and gentlemen, you who are just stepping from young womanhood and young manhood to maturity—you who are soon to take from our shoulders the burdens of citizenship and the reins of government, and who, in a space that will seem all too short, will yourselves be gazing into the rapt faces of young boys and girls enthusiastic with the prospect of assuming, in turn, the responsibilities that now are about to be undertaken

Personals

Mrs. Mae Brown of Seattle, Wash., was a recent guest of Miss Addie Midcalf, 344 Orange street.

Miss Elda Eggert of the Glendale Union High School faculty left for her home near Sacramento to-day.

Miss Clara Midcalf is still very weak as the result of heat exhaustion last Saturday while attending a school picnic at Griffith Park. She is unable to leave her home and her doctor has ordered a long rest from all activities.

Mrs. R. H. Beveridge and two children, of 301 South Louise street, with Miss Carrie Northrop, who is visiting from Chicago, have rented a cottage for the next month at Ocean Park, and will leave to-day to spend their vacation at that place.

Mr. Robert Kolts, a former resident of Glendale, but who now lives in Los Angeles, was the guest of local friends last evening, attending the farewell dance of the high school seniors at the Masonic Temple.

Miss Marcia Hovey, who has just completed her sophomore year at Pomona College, is the week-end guest of her cousin, Miss Eunice Peart, of 1111 West Seventh street. Miss Hovey leaves next week for El Centro, where she will spend the summer 'on her parents' ranch of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gardiner of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Myer of Santa Monica, Thursday and Friday this week. These relatives came up to attend the commencement exercises of the Glendale High School and to witness the graduation of their niece, Miss Evangaline Hunchberger.

Several of the Glendale young men who belong to the Coast Artillery, which has its headquarters in and around Los Angeles, have announced their big dance, which takes place next Friday, June 29, at eight o'clock. The affair will take place at the Shrine Auditorium in the city, and should prove to be the feature social event of Los Angeles of the week.

Miss Helen O. Wright, the kindergarten teacher at the Broadway school, entertained her small pupils in a most enjoyable way at her home, 235 S. Louise street. A large truck brought the little folks from the school and they enjoyed their kindergarten games on the lawn and after bountiful refreshments in the way of ice cream cones and other good things, the "carry-all" returned them, safely to the school.

A group of Glendale boys, mostly members of the high school, are planning on leaving to-night for Big Bear Lake, where they will spend the next week by fishing and recuperating after their strenuous school work. They are going by machine and will leave Glendale at about midnight. Those who will constitute the party will be Allen Williams, Paul Richardson, Joe Fishel, Miller Fishel, Russell Tummel and Howard McGillis.

Miss Alpha Clement of 1321 N. Pacific avenue invited a few friends to luncheon on Thursday to meet Mrs. J. E. Mitchell, better known as Georgia Morland, who is visiting her old home, Glendale. The guests at this very pleasant reunion were Mrs. J. E. Mitchell, the honoree, Mrs. Alex Mitchell, Miss Barbara Mitchell and Mrs. N. Liftman, Miss Clement's house guest.

- Dist. 11, Mrs. Chambers, 11.
- Dist. 13, Miss Layton, 27.
- Dist. 14, Mrs. Nichols, 19.

A crowd of about ninety couples attended the annual senior farewell dance given last night at the Masonic Temple by the class of 1917 of the Glendale Union High School. Dancing began at eight-thirty o'clock and lasted until quite a late hour, when the guests became too tired out to continue their pleasure. The hall was artistically decorated in the class colors, which are black and orange, and also in several flags strewn over the walls. I. N. McVea's Howdy Band, that well-known colored orchestra, furnished the music for the evening, and "they certainly did play" last night.

A most interesting trip has been planned by Miss Myra Bartlett, 231 S. Louise street, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McElroy, 712 S. Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Wash Hunt of 1114 W. Second street. The party will leave Saturday afternoon in Miss Bartlett's Buick Six for the Yosemite Valley. Miss Bartlett and Mr. McElroy are to act as chauffeurs and have solemnly agreed to land the party safely at their destination. They will tour the Yosemite in a leisurely way, stopping at the various hotels and, as they put it, return to Glendale when they get ready. No doubt the trip will prove a most enjoyable one to all concerned.

Mrs. J. E. Mitchell, formerly Miss Georgia Morland of Glendale, is visiting friends in Glendale and Los Angeles.

George Mitchell and family of Kenneth Road, who always spend the summer on their ranch in Wyoming, left this week on their annual vacation.

Professor and Mrs. Elmer Merrill are spending the summer with Mrs. Merrill's mother, Mrs. M. Z. Valentine of Kenneth Road. Professor Merrill comes from the University of Chicago.

The young ladies will return to Tropic next year, however, in order to matriculate in the Glendale High School.

The committee in charge of the Tuesday Afternoon club annual luncheon on Tuesday are promising a very attractive program and those attending will be afforded a very great treat. Reservations may be made up till 9 o'clock Monday morning, and members are urged to make reservations at once. Mrs. Herbert Cable, state president of Women's Clubs, will be present, and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, district president, will speak. Julius Kranz will play and Mrs. Catherine Shank is to sing. Miss Charlotte Powers of Los Angeles and Doris Packer of Glendale will read.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Farrell of 123 E. Broadway will entertain at dinner to-morrow Mr. Farrell's aunt, Mrs. Huckins, and her daughter, Mrs. Nellie T. Richardson. Mrs. Huckins has three daughters, all of whom are married to army men, so she has come to Glendale to live and will make her home at Arbor Rest on East First street. Mrs. Richardson leaves Monday to join her husband at Fort Benjamin Harrison at Indianapolis. Mrs. Huckins' other daughters are at Honolulu and West Point. Mr. and Mrs. Farrell will entertain their guests with a motor trip and show them the scenic wonders of Glendale and surrounding country, to-morrow.

THE LAW

of average and compound interest are the two great factors in life insurance.

This law of average is the scientific principle which not only reckons the mortality charge but also renders the investments safe.

No company could safely insure a few lives or invest in a few localities only, but in numbers and diversity the business is made the safest in the world.

Only financial men and actuaries realize the wonders of compound interest!

Be prudent. Protect your families and conserve your estate in the safest, best way.

I will show you how.

Resolved, an expression of thanks be given Mr. and Mrs. Ewins for the use of their spacious and beautiful grounds, in which the annual picnic was held.

Resolved, that a vote of thanks be given Dr. Lulu Peters for her helpful and instructive talk, given the day of our annual picnic; also to Scovern-Letton-Frey, Pulliam and Jewel City Undertaking companies for the use of their chairs; to Dr. Jessie Russell, Mrs. A. TO ALL NEW RED CROSS MEMBERS

All persons who have become members of the Glendale Red Cross will receive a properly signed official receipt at the earliest date possible. The delay is not because of the lack of organization in Glendale, but Los Angeles has not supplied us with a sufficient number of receipt books. We have endeavored to obtain them, but have been unsuccessful and the branch organization has no authority to print them. MRS. R. E. CHASE, Chairman Membership.

ONE EFFORT WASTED

"Willie," said his mother, very sorrowfully, "every time you are naughty, I get another gray hair."
Willie looked at his grandpa, whose head was snowy white.
"Gee, mother," he remarked, "you must have been a terror. Look at grandpa."
