WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 4; 1834.

We are highly gratified to state that a general meeting tne france of Josu B. Dawson takes place on Saturday evening next, at Davis's Ball Room. His supporters relying with confidence upon his known capacity and fitness for the station, his integrity and patriotism, nething more is necesery than harmenious organization to ensure entire success in involves great and important re-Las approaching class sults. It is a contest for principle, and for every thing that ed ar and precious to the patriot; and every one who really lover Louisiana sa the land of his birth or adoption, and de sires har prosperity, should forego personal views, and sacri fice seifich interests upon the momentous occasion. Lot us rally around J. B. Dawson-not through blinded zeal or parprejudice, but from the sineers conviction that his election will be a fasting benefit to the State.

A. PICHOT Esq. is a sandidate for Alderman of the ith ward, in the place of J. Agniese, resigned.

By the northern mail of yesterday, we have Europea intelligence of the most exciting interest. We refer the reader to the proper head.

We have nothing local of passing moment. Our Washngton papers did not come to hand.

The Poster faction "calculate without their host," they suppose that because their Magnus Apollo supports White, that every other lrishman, merely from that circum stance, will do the same. made to support his opinion and give it currency? None. This gentleman had not the least foundation on which to build his foolish and erreneous opinion. I will then maintain that a spirit of revenge united to his i_norance was alone sufficient to make him sublish such nonsense as could have effect only on the ignorant valgar. But the persons of sense scoffed at such an opinion; they entertained the highest contempt for the great ignorance of the doctor in his profession or in any other which he would intend to exert. The truth is that those prophets of the intend to exert. The fruits is that those prophets of the epidemic disease, with their fa'all predictions, spread consternation and dismay among the people, and give them currency at the cost of the ignorance and credulary part of the population. As a proof that soda water is a sovereign antidate against the cholera, I will express the different analysis of the professor of the interface of the ferent opinion of the professors of this city of New-Orteans quite the opposite of the absurd system of the Tampican professor; which is that in the most dreadful days of this disastrous disease, the professor in medicine, Dr. Manuel Gutierez and others of the same faculty residing in this city ordered to their patients in the crisis of the disease soda water as a special antidote which obtained admirable results.
