

536 1/2

Boston, Mass.

Dec. 29. 1893

Dr. Malcolm Storer

Asks description of Medal of Fisheries
Exhibition of Tokio.
1883.Recd Dec. 30th 1893

DR. MALCOLM STORER,

476 BOYLSTON STREET,

Boston Mass

Dec 29- '93

Dear Sir -

With apologies for troubling you may I beg for a description of the Medal of the Fisheries Exhibition of Tokio 1883, to which you referred in a recent number of the Am. J. Numismatics.
I have seen several references to it but thus far no complete description & should esteem it a favor if you can oblige me - I

Am now interested in all medals bearing in any way on nautical affairs -

Sincerely
Malcolm Stree.

Japanese Medal for Tokyo Exhibition, Tokio 1873

Rev. The Cyprianthum, ~~flower~~, The National flower, surrounded by leaves and flowers.

Rev. Two men, walking hands joined, underneath
a representation of water, above clouds. The man on the left pointing with his right hand.

A legend of Japanese Characters.
Size $2\frac{3}{4}$ inches.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 184

[Abstract:] Asks description of medal of Fishery Exhibition of Tokio 1883.

Dr. Malcolm Storer,
476 Boylston Street,
Boston, Mass.

December 27, 1893

Dear Sir –

With apologies for troubling you, may I beg for a description of the medal of the Fisheries Exhibition of Tokio 1883, to which you referred in a recent number of the Am. J. Numismatics. I have seen several references to it but thus far no complete description & should esteem it a favor if you can oblige me. I am now interested in all medals hearing in any way in nautical affairs.

Sincerely,
Malcolm Storer

[Enclosed letter:]

U.S. Treasury Department.

Japanese medal for Fishery Exhibition Tokio 1883, obv. The Chrysanthemum. The National flower, surrounded by leaves and flowers. Rev. two men, walking hands joined, underneath a representation of water, above, clouds. The man of the left pointing with his right hand.

A legend of Japanese characters.

Size 2 5/8 inches.