BERLIN B. SAUNDERS, of Ace Saxon Company, a cigarette vending firm, confidentially advised on 6/21/62, that INDELICATO told him that he had an interest in the Coinair, Inc., a cigarette vending company run by EDDIE FLAUM.

MM 509-C on 6/9/62, furnished information concerning the daily movements of RICHARD MARGOLIS, one of the main employees of AL MONES (Miami File 92-386) prior to his going to their bookmaking office. According to MM 509-C, MARGOLIS parks his car behind the Patio Bridge Club around 9:00 AM, then goes to the Concord Cafeteria; from there he goes to the Esquire Tobacco Shop and leaves there around 11:00 AM for the bookmaking office.

On 6/12/62, MM 509-C advised JERRY ZAROWITZ (Miami File 165-75) on 6/12 or 6/13/62, was to leave with his family for Lake Tahoe, California, where he was told they rented a cottage for the summer. He was also told that ZAROWITZ just recently purchased a piece of the Cal-Neva Lodge at Lake Tahoe, California. He said that SANFORD WATERMAN, who also has a piece of the Cal-Neva Lodge, returned to Miami the first week of June, planned to remain about a week and then return to Lake Tahoe.
