PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE & MINISTERIAL ORDINANCE

Prime Minister's Office and Ministry of Finance Ordinance No. 2

December 2, 1947

Matters concerning the payment of the entire cash of the Special Supply Office to the National Treasury in accordance with the Special Supply Office Law shall be determined as follows:

Prime Minister
KATAYAMA Tetsu
Minister of Finance
KURUSU Takeo

Payment of the entire cash of the Special Supply Office to the National Treasury

Article 1. The payment of the entire cash of the Special Supply Office to the National Treasury under Article 19, Paragraph 5 of the Special Supply Office Law shall be effected in accordance with the provisions of the present Ordinance.

Article 2. With regard to the entire cash as at the end of first term, the Special Supply Office shall pay to the National Treasury the amount corresponding to the cash mentioned above within fifteen days of the receipt of approval from the Director-General of the Economic Stabilization Board concerning the statement of assets, statement of affairs and statement of profit and loss account for the term. As for the entire cash as at the end of second term, it must be paid at a rough estimate within one month after the lapse of the business year concerned.

If, in the case mentioned in the latter part of the preceding paragraph, the amount paid to the National Treasury at a rough estimate proves deficient on the balance of accounts of second term, the deficient amount must be paid to the National Treasury within fifteen days of the receipt of approval from the Director-General of the Economic Stabilization Board concerning the statement of assets, statement of affairs and statement of profit and loss account of second term. In case of overpayment, the amount overpaid may be reimbursed.

Article 3. The entire cash in the present Ordinance means the amount corresponding to the balance, as at the end of each term, of the whole income (Government subsidy and miscellaneous receipts) belonging to the term concerned and the whole expenditure (personnel expenditure and business expenses) belonging to the term concerned.

Supplementary Provision:

The present Ordinance shall come into force as from the day of its promulgation.

Prime Minister's Office and Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry Ordinance No. 5

December 2, 1947

In accordance with the Imperial Ordinance No. 541, 1945 (Orders to be issued in consequence of the acceptance of Postdam Declarations), the Registration Regulation of Fishing Boats shall be provided for as follows:

Prime Minister
KATAYAMA Tetsu
Minister of Agriculture and Forestry pro tempore
Prime Minister
KATAYAMA Tetsu

Article 1. Whenever used in this Ordinance, the term "fishing vessel" means any vessel used for fishing industry, craft used for the exclusive purpose of transporting fish or fishery products, and boat used for the exclusive purpose of fishery experiment, investigation, guidance, or patrol, which is equipped with fishing facilities.

Article 2. Any fishing vessel owner shall not lend or operate the vessel, unless it has been registered in accordance with this Ministerial Ordinance.

In case any person who has acquired a fishing vessel wishes to have his fishing vessel registered in accordance with the preceding paragraph, he shall file an application including the following detailed informations on each vessel with a prefectural governor who controls over its main home port within two weeks of the date on which he has acquired the vessel:

1. Name or title and address of applicant;
2. Name of vessel;
3. Gross tonnage;
4. Length, beam and depth of vessel;
5. Hold capacity;
6. Type of construction (wood, steel, composite);
7. Date launched;
8. Name and location of shipyard;
9. Type of engine, horsepower, number of cylinder, diameter of cylinder, kind of fuel oil;
10. Type and output of wireless equipment;
11. Name or title and address of operator of vessel;
12. Main home port;
13. Type of fishery.

In addition to the document in the preceding paragraph, a prefectural governor may order the applicant to present any necessary document.

Article 3. In case a prefectural governor receives the application of the preceding paragraph, he shall verify the declarations thereon, enter them in the register and deliver to the applicant a registration card specified in Form No. 1.

Article 4. In case a fishing vessel owner has received a registration card in accordance with the provisions of the preceding Article, if he is an operator of the fishing vessel, he shall keep it aboard the vessel, and, if he is not an operator of the fishing vessel, he shall deliver the registration card to the operator of the fishing vessel. In case the operator of the fishing vessel has been delivered the registration card in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, he shall keep it abroad the vessel.

Article 5. Any operator of a fishing vessel shall mark the registration number as referred to in Form No. 2 of the annexed sheet in the most conspicuous place on each side of the wheel-house or bridge (or on each side of the bow if no such superstructure exists) within two weeks of the date on which he received a registration card in accordance with Article 3 (or in accordance with the provisions of the preceding Article, Par. 2 in case of the latter part of the first paragraph of the same Article).

Article 6. In case of immobilization of a registered fishing vessel for transformations or repairs for a period exceeding three months, the person who had the vessel registered, (or the operator of the fishing vessel in case the person who has the fishing vessel transformed or repaired is an operator of the fishing vessel) within one week of the date on which the fishing vessel is laid up for transformation or repairs, shall declare it to the prefectural governor concerned and request him to keep the registration card of the vessel for the while.

In this case, the prefectural governor shall deliver a custodial certificate thereof to him.

In case the transformations or repairs of the fishing vessel prescribed in the preceding paragraph have been completed and do not cause any alteration on the Items numbered 3 to 5 inclusive, 9 or 10 of Article 2, Par. 1, the prefectural governor shall return the said registration card to the truster of the card by his application.

Article 7. In case a registered fishing vessel owner has made any alteration on the Items numbered 1 to 5 inclusive, 9 to 13 inclusive of Article 2, Par. 2, he shall request the prefectural governor to renew the registration card stating the reasons within one week of the date on which the alteration was made (or, in case of Par. 2, the date on which he received the notification of the same paragraph).

In case the fishing vessel owner is different from the operator of the fishing vessel, when the operator of the fishing vessel make any alteration of the vessel on the Items numbered 2 to 5 inclusive and 9 to 13 inclusive of Article 2, Par. 2, the operator shall notify it without delay to the fishing vessel owner.

Article 8. In case any person who received a registration card has lost or damaged it, he shall apply for redelivery of a registration card stating the reasons.

Article 9. The registration of a fishing vessel shall be invalid in the following cases:

1. In case of person who had his vessel registered being dead or dissolved;
2. In case of a registered fishing vessel discontinuing fishing operation permanently;
3. In case of a registered fishing vessel being lost or sunk, or losing its nationality;
4. In case of a registered fishing vessel being transferred;
5. In case of alteration of the registration authorities effected on account of change of the main home port of a vessel.

Article 10. In case the registration has been invalid, the registration card shall be returned to the prefectural governor concerned and the registration number marked in accordance with the provisions of Article 5 shall be erased.

In case a registered fishing vessel owner can not return his registration card in accordance with the preceding paragraph, he shall submit an information to the prefectural governor stating the reasons therefor.

In the case of the preceding Article, Item 1, the successor or liquidator (in case of dissolution caused by amalgamation, a juridical person existing after the amalgamation or a representative of a juridical person established by the amalgamation) shall take the procedures prescribed in the preceding two paragraphs.

Article 11. In case a fishing vessel owner applies for registration in accordance with the provisions of Article 2, Par. 1, or renewal of the registration card in accordance with the provisions of Article 7, Par. 1, or redelivery of the registration card in accordance with the provisions of Article 8, the applicant shall pay fee as specified in the annexed sheet No. 3.

Such fee shall be paid in a revenue stamp posted on the application.

The prefectural governor shall mark to cancel the posted revenue stamp prescribed in the preceding paragraph upon verifying suitability.

Article 12. Any person who has violated the provisions of Article 2, Par. 1 shall be subject to an imprisonment with hard labor for a period not exceeding three years or to a fine not exceeding 5,000 yen.

Article 13. Any person who has violated the provisions of Article 4, Article 5, Article 6, Par. 1, Article 7, Article 8, Article 10, Par. 1 or Par. 2 shall be subject to an imprisonment with hard labor for a period not exceeding one year or to a fine not exceeding 3,000 yen.

Article 14. In case a representative of any juridical person, or an agent, employee or worker of any juridical person or individual has violated the provisions of the preceding two Article regarding to the registration in the name of the juridical person or individual the juridical person or individual shall be subject to a fine prescribed in each of the Article, in addition to the principal party being punished.

Supplementary Provisions:

The present Ordinance shall come into force as from the day of its promulgation.

In case any person who owns a vessel at the time of enforcement of this Ordinance, files an application for registration in accordance with the provisions of Article 2, Par. 1 by December 10, 1947 in the case of a powered vessel, and at the latest by March 31, 1948 in the case of a nonpowered vessel notwithstanding the provisions of Par. 2 of the same Article.
