TUESDAY AFTERNOON ORGANIZATION TAKES IN $296.00 FOR CLUB HOME

A little atmosphere of excitement and stir of expectancy marked yesterday's assembly at the Tuesday Afternoon Club even after it was called to order and settled itself to listen to reading of minutes and announcements. Late comers had the privilege of a pre-exhibition look at the pageant which occupied the stage early in the program and at some of the special makeups that figured in the skits which announced details of high finance by which the club treasury became a beneficiary, for this was the "Earned Dollar Day" of the club, and curiosity mounted high as to ways and means and amounts.

One announcement incorporated in the preliminary business was made by the president, Mrs. Tower, which was of special interest. It was her statement that the Executive Board of the Club is very favorably disposed toward the proposed club site at Orange and Harvard streets and that in all probability it will soon be brought to vote. It consists of three lots upon a corner and is in a locality in which there are no building restrictions to be overcome.

Rev. Mottern asked for and was granted an opportunity to speak for the Jewish Relief Campaign, the needs of which he set forth with considerable eloquence, declaring that he was not present to ask for money but for workers to canvass the town. Glendale's quota, he stated, is $2500.

The president then turned over the meeting to Mrs. Charles Temple, Chairman of Ways and Means, with the announcement that the Literary Section desired to present a gift to the club. Accordingly the doors were thrown open and members.

AUTO WRECKED AND CAR AT FAULT SPED ON

There was quite a bad auto smash-up near the corner of Grand View Avenue and Kenneth Road yesterday afternoon. As reported to the police and also an Evening News reporter, a Mr. Ecks and three companions were bound to Bakersfield from Los Angeles and took the wrong road at the north end of the N. Broadway bridge and went out Pasadena Ave., later coming into Glendale by way of Eagle Rock. Here they were misdirected when they asked how to get to San Fernando Road and went north, coming out on Kenneth Road. They were making the turn south into Grand View Avenue when a big Packard car swept along at fully 60 miles an hour, it seemed to them and also to Mrs. Dr. Kate Black, who saw it, and in trying to avoid the Packard Mr. Ecks steered his Overland into the curb. The other car sped on north without even slackening speed and turned west on Tenth St. The Overland had every wheel damaged and the body badly smashed. In fact it was almost a complete wreck, apparently, but the engine was not damaged and it was able to proceed after the wheels were repaired.

A. R. BOYDEN SAYS CALIFORNIANS ARE PIKERS COMPARED WITH NEW YORKERS

A. R. Boyden of 925 North Louise street, who came to Southern California about a year ago to recuperate from injuries received in the great war during overseas service, is becoming an enthusiastic gardener and is convinced that is the way to solve the H. C. L. problems and that California is the place par excellence in which to work them out. He seems to think California has a good deal to her credit and in that connection mentioned rent profiteering in the East. Compared with the high handed proceedings of landlords in New York California lessors are mere pikers, he declares. He quoted the case of his sister who is coming to California next month to live, giving up her residence in New York. Her rent has been raised four times within the past year, he says, and the last raise was $30 per month with an ultimatum to either get out or sign a lease for one year. Mr. Boyden is a newspaper man, a feature writer for the New York Globe.

SOLD LOS ANGELES HOME TO BUILD A FINE FOOTHILL HOME

Thomas Hinton and wife started moving into their beautiful new home at 1334 North Maryland Avenue yesterday. It was commenced last November and has just been completed, at a cost of $8000. It has seven rooms downstairs and one, a sunroom upstairs, being built Swiss chalet style. The interior finish is very beautiful. Mr. Hinton came to Los Angeles from Pittsburgh, Pa., several years ago and has been employed ever since in a clothing store there. He has long wanted to live in Glendale and some years ago bought the lot on which the new house now stands. When he sold his Los Angeles home last summer he determined to build so employed his son-in-law, H. C. Wright, a well-known contractor, to construct the house. They have been living in part of Mayor Muhleman's house, 111 West Maple, for the past five months, while building was going on. Mrs. Hinton is a native Californian. She says that quite a number of Mr. Hinton's fellow employees live in Glendale, most of them owning their homes, and that more are coming.

PULLIAMS RETURN FROM FRESNO

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Pulliam returned Sunday afternoon from a week's auto trip to Fresno on which they were accompanied by Mr. Markey, father of Mrs. Pulliam, who wished to look over a hundred-acre fig ranch which he had under consideration and which he purchased while there. The Pulliams also visited their grain ranch at Chowchilla, Mr. Markey going north to San Francisco when the Pulliams returned. Mrs. Pulliam says it was a rather hard trip in some respects as they ran into a cloudburst just as they were entering Fresno and the weather was not particularly pleasant during their stay there.

AFTERNOON TEA

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Richard Wells of West Broadway entertained with a charming afternoon tea in honor of her sister, Mrs. Stordrader, who has been her guest for about three months and who is leaving soon for her home in Colorado. The hostess decorated her home most beautifully with spring flowers in honor of the occasion and in the delightful environment thus provided a pleasant afternoon was spent by the guests in social chat over their fancy work. The ladies entertained were: Mrs. William Justema, Miss Gladys Justema, Mrs. William Woods, Mrs. C. W. Dudley, Mrs. Edgar Hitchcock, Mrs. Charles Wells, Mrs. J. G. Huntley, Mrs. Seymour Smith and Mrs. James L. Flint.

PATRONS OF TEACHERS' ENTERTAINMENT COURSE ENJOY DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

The last but one of the series of entertainments included in the Teachers' Course was given at the High School Tuesday evening and drew an excellent audience. Three young women furnished the program which proved to be one of the most enjoyable in the music line that has been given in Glendale this winter. It was a recital of folk songs by Alice Muma, mezzo-soprano, who has a beautiful presence and a full, sweet voice with the addition of considerable dramatic power which made her interpretations so pleasing to the audience that she was warmly encored after every group of songs with unmistakable sincerity. Her enunciation was wonderful and the fact that every word she sang could be understood added in no small degree to the enjoyment of the performance. Also, her songs while removed from what might be termed the "popular" class reached the hearts of listeners and delighted them. This was perhaps to be expected from "folk songs" which, as she explained, "were not made. They flew hither and thither over the land like cobwebs and were sung in a thousand places at the same time. We find our own experiences and our own sorrow in these songs. It is as if we all helped in the composition of them." She was especially delightful in the group of English.

HOME RULE BILL PASSES

VOTE ON MEASURE OF PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE AT THE SECOND READING 348 TO 94

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, March 31.—Premier Lloyd George's home rule bill for Ireland passed at its second reading today. The vote was 348 to 94. During the final debate Sir Edward Carson, Irish Unionist leader said he had been warned by Scotland Yard that six Clan na Gael members had returned from America with the avowed intention of assassinating him.

SINN FEIN RESCUES FEARED

SOLDIERS WITH MACHINE GUNS AND ARMORED CARS GUARD LONDONDERRY PRISON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DUBLIN, March 31.—Soldiers armed with machine guns supported by flying squadrons of armored cars today are guarding Londonderry prison following outbreaks by Sinn Feiners imprisoned there and reports that an effort might be made to rescue them. Minor clashes were reported from several districts. In Dublin James Sweeney, M. P., was arrested.

CORK, March 31.—A large party of armed men attacked the police barracks at Durrus, 45 miles south and west of here early today. The raiders were driven off after a three-hour fight. Two policemen were injured.

HOOVER IN THE OPEN

FORCED TO PREMATURELY DECLARE HIS REPUBLICAN AFFILIATIONS TO CALIFORNIA CLUB

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, March 31.—The presidential primary, though regarded by many politicians as ineffective, forced Herbert Hoover to make a premature declaration of his alignment with the Republican Party, it was learned today. This announcement was made "conditional on the understanding that the republican party with the independent element with which I was naturally affiliated adopt a forward-looking liberal, constructive platform on the treaty and on our economic issues which is neither reactionary nor radical," in a telegram from Hoover to the Hoover Republican Club of California.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Discussion of Herbert Hoover's presidential candidacy as a republican broke out in the Senate today. Senator McKellar of Tennessee, democrat, called attention to Hoover's statement in his telegram to his California friends that the republican platform must be on sound economic issues.

DESPONDENT WOMAN SLAYS CHILDREN

CUTS THROATS OF HER FIVE OFFSPRING AND THEN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ELK CITY, Okla., March 31.—Mrs. E. J. Bowarth, despondent and in ill health, cut the throats of her five children and then slashed her own throat this morning. The five children, ranging in age from four months to twelve years, are dead. Mrs. Bowarth is in the hospital here unconscious from loss of blood and will probably die.

CHICAGO CITY EMPLOYEES STRIKE

FIREMEN TO JOIN WAGE DEMAND WALK-OUT OF STEENOGRAPHERS, CLERKS AND OTHERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, March 31.—City firemen today were expected to join striking clerks, bookkeepers, stenographers and other municipal employees whose demands for higher pay were refused by the City Council here. Activities in municipal affairs were at a stand-still here again today. Pickets were on duty at the City Hall. The indications were that sewer department employes, draughtsmen, architects and milk inspectors would walk out unless wage demands were granted. The City Council was to meet today to reconsider the salary increase budget which has split the body into two factions.

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT IN DELAWARE

SUPPORTERS OF MEASURE SAY ENOUGH VOTES ARE ASSURED TO SECURE RATIFICATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DOVER, Del., March 31.—Supporters of the resolution to ratify the Woman's Suffrage Amendment now before the Delaware legislature, today claimed that victory was assured. They stated that at a caucus of republican leaders an agreement was reached which assured sufficient votes to pass the ratification resolution when it is taken up late today. The House was to start consideration of the bill at the opening of the afternoon session. After action there, if the vote is favorable, it will be rushed to the senate and an attempt will be made to procure a vote there before adjournment.

SURPRISE SHOWER

PRETTY SOCIAL AFFAIR GIVEN FOR MISS JUSTEMA BY MRS. SEYMOUR SMITH

Mrs. Seymour Smith entertained last Saturday afternoon with a nee-work party at her pretty home on North Central Avenue in honor of Miss Gladys Justema, who is soon to become the bride of Dwight W. Stephenson. It will be remembered that these young people were bridesmaid and best man at the wedding of the hostess last year. The affair proved to be a surprise miscellaneous shower for the guest of honor who worked as diligently as any of the ladies present on the towels provided by the hostess which were supposed to be for Mrs. Smith and which were embroidered with the initial S. About the middle of the afternoon the door bell rang and there was a call for Miss Justema, who went to the door to find there a messenger carrying a huge suitcase said to be for her. It was decorated with white satin streamers, orange blossoms and tiny wedding bells. Though considerably bewildered Miss Justema had the presence of mind to receive it and the company then had a great deal of sport watching her open and remove the many pretty gifts it contained. When that pleasant task was finished the towels upon which guests had been at work were presented to her.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out with sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses with which the living room and the refreshment table were decorated and in the menu and appointments of the delicious two-course luncheon served at the close of the afternoon. The hostess was assisted in the entertainment of her guests by her mother and sister, Mrs. J. G. Huntley, and Miss Virginia Huntley, and by Mrs. J. Herbert Smith. Those present were: Miss Gladys Justema, guest of honor; her mother, Mrs. William Justema; Mesdames Andrew Stephenson, John A. Logan, John Hobbs, Noble Ripley, J. L. Flint, C. W. Dudley, J. Herbert Smith, John Legge, C. O. Pulliam, J. G. Huntley, Misses Dorothy Hobbs, Myrtle Pulliam, Mary Logan and Virginia Hurley.

YEARLY ASSESSMENT

DIRECTIONS BY DEPUTY RUGGLES AS TO PROPER PROCEDURE IF HE MISSES YOU

On March 1 C. F. Ruggles, deputy county assessor, with two assistants, began assessing the property in Glendale. A considerable portion of the territory has been gone over, but the work is hampered by so many people being away from home when called upon, particularly in the afternoon. In all such cases a blank is left at the house, which should be carefully filled out as far as possible, then taken to Mr. Ruggles' home, 220 North Belmont, for completion and filing. On failure to do this an arbitrary assessment will have to be made without consulting the property owner. Mr. Ruggles is at home from 5 to 8 p. m. every evening except Wednesday and Saturday. He and his assistants can not go to a home twice, so those who are away from home when the call is made should not fail to go to Mr. Ruggles' home, 220 North Belmont, and make out the assessment papers, thus assuring what they regard as a fair rating.

Remember you will be assessed whether the assessor succeeds in finding you or not. If he fails it is then your duty to look him up and give in your property at what you regard as a fair rating.

RESIDENCE CHANGES

Mrs. C. D. Woods and family who have been residing at 1136 East Colorado Street have been obliged to vacate the house they have been occupying because it has been sold by its owners—Mr. and Mrs. High—to Mrs. Pritchard of Hollywood, who takes possession tomorrow, April 1. The Woods are building a beautiful home on Grand View Avenue in N. Glendale, which is not quite completed. That the workmen may have plenty of time to properly finish it, the owners will spend several weeks at the Fairmont Hotel in La Crescenta to which they are moving tomorrow. Mrs. Pritchard comes to Glendale to be near her married son who resides on East Broadway, and the Highs have bought property at 345 West Cerritos Avenue, of which they are taking possession the first. It is the house for some time occupied by J. W. Ashton and family.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS

PLAIN STATEMENTS ON LIVE SUBJECT OF INTEREST TO ALL CITIZENS

Editor Glendale Evening News: Dear Sir: May I be allowed a few plain words through the medium of your columns on a very live subject?

Some time ago the citizens of Glendale who attended certain mass meetings at the High School auditorium were misinformed concerning the matter under debate, by the non-resident architect who, it seems reasonable under the circumstances to conclude, would have drawn the plans and supervised the erection of the new buildings had the plans of the school trustees been carried out, and as such supervising architect he would have secured a small fortune from the district taxpayers in fees.

The High School Trustees announced that the mass meetings indicated that the citizens demanded the establishment of a half million dollar school plant in our business district and along the lines mapped out by the trustees and the architect above mentioned.

The school laws of California seem admirably adapted to allow the rule of the minority by restricting publicity and increasing effort required to exercise the right of franchise, nevertheless conditions sometimes arise when a good vote is polled and the heavy majority against the bonds showed conclusively what the people thought of the proposition.

At the election last Friday the people were again misinformed, this time concerning one of the candidates. Though both candidates were Masons and men of high standing in the community some one "stooped to conquer" by circulating a malicious falsehood about Mr. Chandler.

The successful candidate publicly ascribes his election as a settlement by the people of the entire question of supporting the policy of the trustees; on the contrary it may prove to be true that neither one of the premises regarding the causes which produced that "splendid majority" is the right one, that is, if the Board still persists in forcing its half million program on the people.

Yours for less unnecessary taxation, more publicity in matters pertaining to our educational system and a more conservative expenditure of public money.

G. B. WOODBERRY.

DEATH OF MISS HAHN

Few winter guests have made more friends than did Miss Lillian Hahn of Omaha, Neb., who came to Southern California with her mother and spent a year here hoping the climate would correct a weakness of the heart from which she suffered. A good portion of their stay was spent in Glendale, where many charming qualities endeared Miss Hahn to all who made her acquaintance. It will therefore be a grief to these friends to learn that she died of heart trouble at her Omaha home about three weeks ago, following a brief illness.

BUSINESS CHANGE

MRS. ANNA HEWITT SELLS SHAMPOO PARLORS AND WILL VOYAGE TO HONOLULU

Mrs. Anna Hewitt of 103-A North Brand, owner of the Glendale Shampoo Parlor, has sold her establishment to recent arrivals from the East, Miss Eurith Goold and Miss Marion R. Cartwright of Niagara Falls, N. Y. Mrs. Hewitt is leaving Glendale for a much needed rest, going directly to Long Beach where she will make her home until complete arrangements can be made for a trip to Honolulu in the near future. She will be greatly missed by her many friends and patrons in Glendale, all of whom she wishes to thank for their patronage in the past and takes pleasure in recommending to them the young women who succeed her.

Chas. L. Chandler who recently moved to the new home in Glendale Heights, has taken out a permit for the addition of one room to the house, the estimated cost of which is $1000.

WEATHER FORECAST: Somewhat cooler, unsettled weather with probably showers tonight and Thursday.

MUNICIPAL SEWER SYSTEM, NEED OF THE HOUR

The time is here when Glendale has reached a population of 15,000, building activities are progressing very rapidly and a sewer system is needed. The question of providing a sewer system for Glendale was taken up about nine months ago and the discussion culminated with a mass meeting in the High School auditorium at which Engineer Frank Olmstead gave a very instructive address explaining how Glendale might obtain a municipal sewer system. At that time a committee was appointed to recommend that immediate steps be taken by the Board of Trustees to employ a competent engineer whose duty it would be to bring in a report as to methods and costs of a modern sewer system.

The recommendation of the committee was heeded to the extent that the Board of City Trustees employed the engineering firm of Olmstead & Gillean to make the needed surveys and later furnish the Board of Trustees with a complete report as to their findings. We understand the report has been in the hands of the city officials for several months and as soon as the Board is organized after the city election, action undoubtedly will be taken on this important question.

It would seem quite in place at the present time while there are six candidates in the field for election on April 12 that the people demand of them how they stand on the sewerage question. It would seem wise indeed at this time to elect men or women who are wide awake as to the necessity of handling this great problem in a prompt and judicious manner. There is an instance at the present time of a $250,000 building improvement being held up on account of lack of sewerage outlet. There are many minor instances that in the aggregate make a need equally as important as the one mentioned. The columns of the Glendale Evening News are open to any constructive discussion that may be offered along the line of obtaining a sewer system for Glendale.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEW THOUGHT LECTURER TO MAKE DEBUT IN GLENDALE

It is of interest to note the advent of New Thought into the religious and philosophical circles of Glendale. Lou LaBlonde Whitcomb, state organizer for the National New Thought Association, Inc., will give a series of free lectures on New Thought Philosophy, the first one to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Blair, 1611 Gardena Avenue, Friday evening, April 2, at 8 p. m. Subject, "Your Faculties and How to Use Them, From a Physical, Mental, Financial and Spiritual Unfoldment."

NOTICE FROM ASSESSOR

C. F. Ruggles, deputy county assessor, will be at home, 220 N. Belmont, every evening in the week except Wednesday and Saturday from 5 to 8 p. m. All persons not at home when assessors call or who are missed in any other way should see him at once and have papers made out.

THE SPIRIT OF MEMORIALS

As the spring blossoms into summer, we feel, some of us, the absence of those dear ones who have passed to "the beyond." We miss their kindnesses, their caresses. Ought we not give actual expression to the loving remembrance in which they are held? We cannot honor our loved ones more effectively than by erecting a monument or marker properly cared, as a lasting tribute to our affection for them.

Easter markers can be had by placing your order at once with Glendale Monument Works, H. J. Reinhard, Proprietor, 1411 S. San Fernando Boulevard, near Forest Lawn. Phone Glendale 1246 or residence, 742-W.

CONTINUE MEETINGS

Easter-Tide services will be held at the Congregational Church tonight, also Thursday and Friday evenings, at 7:45 o'clock. The speakers are Revs. Holland, R. Burr, A. O. Pritchard and E. S. Evans. Mrs. Charles A. Parker will sing tonight.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of the late brother William C. Bradley will be held under the auspices of Unity Lodge No. 368 F. & A. M., Glendale, Cal., Thursday, April 1 at 2 p. m. at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Members of Unity Lodge and all sojourning Master Masons are requested to assemble at Masonic Temple at 1:30 p. m. on said date.

FREDERICK BAKER, W. M.

MOSES OR CHRIST

"Are We Living Under the Ten Commandment Law?" This question will be discussed tonight by Evangelist C. C. Root at the Christian church. The baptism of a number of adults will be administered tonight. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this service.

CLIFFORD A. COLE, Minister.

AS HONORED GUESTS

MISS MARY CARR MERRITT ENTERTAINS MOTHER AND SISTER OF NOTED ADMIRAL

On Saturday last Miss Mary Carr Merritt of 210 South Louise had the great pleasure of entertaining Mrs. Enrique Palmer and daughter, Eselle, of Washington, D. C., mother and sister of her long-time and honored friend, Rear Admiral L. C. Palmer. They are touring California and had been especially enjoined by Admiral Palmer to not fail to visit her when they reached Los Angeles.

Miss Carr became acquainted with young Palmer when he was a mere youth, living in St. Louis. An aunt, Mrs. C. C. Montgomery, lived then in Cincinnati, Ohio, and was a near neighbor of Miss Carr. Leigh Palmer, visiting this aunt, became acquainted with Miss Carr, and they soon became fast friends. He was appointed to the Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1892. Upon his graduation he took the usual two years' training cruise and was then assigned to a ship. In 1906, though he was a simple lieutenant on the battleship Vermont, he was assigned the high honor of representing the United States on the occasion of the marriage of King Alfonso of Spain. In 1908, when the Atlantic Fleet visited the Pacific coast, he was ordnance officer on the Vermont, and he sent Miss Merritt a special invitation to visit the fleet when it anchored off San Pedro harbor, met her in his own launch and conveyed her on board his own ship, then escorted her to the other ships of the squadron. He was married in 1910 and has one child, a little girl. He became a lieutenant commander and then commander of the New York, then the flagship. By this time he had become known as an officer of singular ability and great initiative. He it was who, in 1908, suggested to President Roosevelt that target practice should not be conducted in fair weather only, but should be kept up in the midst of violent storms, as a naval battle would not cease because of a storm. He was commended for the suggestion and his advice was adopted. Subsequently at target practice in Manila Bay his ship carried off the highest honors for the greatest number of hits in fair and foul weather, and he was publicly commended.

In August, 1916, when it was seen that war with Germany was impending, he was chosen as chief of the Bureau of Navigation, and was Rear Admiral, succeeding Rear Admiral Victor S. Blue. He was bumped clear over the heads of several other rear admirals and over the grade of captain. He made all the appointments for the navy while in the Bureau of Navigation. His high spirit chafed at inaction while his country was at war and he importuned Secretary Daniels time and again to relieve him and allow him to take part in the conflict. His prayers were granted at last and when he was about to leave the Port of New York there was a grand banquet given him at which 60 admirals and many other naval officers were present. After the banquet moving pictures were shown of him at various duties, also of his mother, wife and child. One of the latter, labeled "The Admiral Reporting to His Superior Officer on Return from Duty," showed his little daughter greeting him at the front door of his home. Captain Palmer, (for he fell back to the rank next in line of promotion when he went on sea service) was in the North Sea as captain of the Georgia when the armistice was signed and he had the pleasure of witnessing the surrender of the German fleet. He is now stationed at Mare Island Navy Yard still as captain of the Georgia, and it will not be long until he is admiral again, it is freely predicted. Indeed, his brother officers still address him as admiral except on ceremonial occasions. A few days ago he was ordered to Washington to give evidence in the investigation of Admiral Sims' charges, and his boldness in opposing Secretary Daniels and his frank acknowledgment of having more than once used his own judgment when it showed the Secretary of the Navy to be in the wrong, has been much commented on. Notwithstanding these differences of opinion he and the secretary are the warmest of friends, the latter nearly always calling him by his first name when they are alone together.

Miss Merritt is very proud of her friendship with this distinguished officer, especially so as he was personally decorated by King Albert of Belgium when in this country, as one man who had contributed by his original plans of work in hastening the conclusion of the war.

A rancher near Chino cut down a tree that fell on a high voltage wire and broke it, which fell on a barbed wire and electrified it, which touched a cow and electrocuted her, which shocked the owner, but not so badly but that he sold her to the butcher for beef. The Ontario Report wonders if pre-cooked beef and boiled milk will soon be on sale at that butcher shop.

CONSOLIDATED PRECINCT 10, comprising those portions of No. 1 precinct which were formerly in Verdugo Precinct No. 1 and in Burbank Precinct; being the "Grand Avenue District" as annexed to Glendale by election of January 20th, 1919; and the voting place thereof shall be at Garage of C. H. Ellsperman, Sixth Street.

The polls will be open between the hours of 6 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. J. C. SHERER, City Clerk. Glendale, Cal., March 15th, 1920.

FUNERAL OF MRS. A. E. VALLIER

The funeral services for Mrs. A. E. Vallier occurred at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Cemetery, at 2 p. m. Tuesday, March 30, 1920. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Part of the choir of the Tropic Presbyterian Church sang two hymns, viz., "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "God Will Take Care of You." The pastor, Rev. O. P. Rider, gave words of comfort to the bereaved from the text found in John 14:1-3, and also read the following sketch of the life of Mrs. Vallier:

Charlotte M. Bennett, daughter of John and Letitia Bennett, was born in Oxford township, county of Grenville, Ontario, a little over 50 years ago.

At the age of eighteen she was married to A. E. Vallier. Their residence was in Newmanville for about twelve years, where both Mr. and Mrs. Vallier were active in the Canadian Methodist church of which they were members, especially active in choir work, Mrs. Vallier being organist for years. Twenty years ago they moved to Kemptville where they resided until 1910, when they went to Rouleau, Saskatchewan, where they lived five years. In that cold country she contracted gripe which developed into lung trouble.

It was hoped that the climate of Southern California might restore her health, but God ruled otherwise, and she passed from this earth in the early morning of last Saturday, March 27. Mrs. Vallier bore her suffering and weakness with great patience and resignation to her heavenly Father's will, saying many times that if it were not for her husband's sake she would be glad to go. Even in her utmost weakness she thought first of him. She was a woman who made friends wherever she lived and witnessed to them of her trust in God.

In the last moments of her life in response to her husband's question, "Do you feel Jesus near?" she answered, "Yes."

Since coming to Glendale Mr. and Mrs. Vallier have been affiliated with the Tropic Presbyterian church and as Mrs. Vallier's pastor I have visited her many times. I found her always patient and hopeful, glad to hear the word of God and prayer.

For her I feel only joy; for her there is "no more death nor mourning nor crying nor pain and God, hath wiped away every tear from her eyes." She sees her Savior face to face and is like Him. Our loss is her gain.

O. P. RIDER.

FOLK SONG RECITAL

lish and Shakespearean songs which included: "It was a Lover and His Lass," "Orpheus and His Lute," "Where the Bee Sucks," "Raggle Taggle Gypsies," which was followed by "Nature's Holiday" as an encore number. No less interesting were the sea chanties as sung by sailors at their work to promote unity of action or team work. As she explained, the charity man sings the verse, his mates joining in the refrain. Under this grouping she sang: "Hoodah-day," "Leave Her Johnny," "A-roving," "Blow the Man Down," and for an encore "The Snowdrop." Her third group was what are now termed "Negro Spirituals," the camp meeting songs of the Southern blacks, her selection including: "Deep River," "I Stood on the River Jordan," "Nobody Knows de Trouble I Seen," and included with them was: "I Had an Old Black Mammy." Her encore following this group was: "I Saw a Little Bird." The song program closed with a group of Scotch lyrics, their charm enhanced by a beautiful harp accompaniment by Miss Esther Rhoades, the other soloist of the program. These Scotch songs were all old favorites and the more enjoyed for that reason: "I'm Wearin' Awa' Jean," "Lass of Killain," "Callin' Herrin'," and "Afton Water," followed by the encore, "Robin, Robin, Sing Me a Song."

Miss Rhoades had the hearts of her audience from the moment she steered the beautiful big harp before the curtain until she bowed her final adieus. She is very young, girlish and unaffected in manner, and played charmingly, her solo numbers being: "Arabesque" (Debussy), "Serenade" (Le Bano), and Mazourka (Verdallo) her encore number being a "Spanish Caprice" by Paderewski. The audience would have been glad to hear her in a more extended program.

The work of Miss Olga Orth, the piano accompanist, contributed in no small degree to the success and interest of the program. She is wonderfully sympathetic and subordinates her work just the proper degree to make it the finished performance of a true artist.

SWARMS OF BUTTERFLIES

Immense swarms of butterflies have invaded the region around La Canada the last day or two and some of them have come down this way. Considerable numbers of them have been noticed in various parts of the city, especially on East Broadway and nearly all day yesterday and day before they were seen flying west along the street by twos and threes. Naturalists assert that butterflies migrate from north to south and back just as some birds do.

CLUB HOUSE FUND

(Continued from Page 1) bers of the Literary Section, uniquely garbed, entered as a procession headed by Mrs. Jesse Joseph, arrayed as a Colonial Dame. On reaching the platform it was discovered that these ladies represented the twelve seasons of which Santa Claus was in charge as director general. As the close observers caught glimpses of the eyes of Santa Claus they had their suspicions which were confirmed when the good saint addressed and brought to the footlights each representative with a verse aptly descriptive, for the voice was the voice of the curator, Mrs. Hutchinson. The cast for the little pageant was:

January—Mesdames Plasterer and Burnham garbed in heavy coats and furs.

February—Mrs. Jesse Joseph, as a Colonial Dame.

March—Mesdames Adams and Goldthwaite wearing green pinafores and introduced as Sinn Feners.

April—Mesdames Willisford and Franklin in raincoats and carrying a spread umbrella.

May—Mrs. Bartlett flower crowned and carrying a basket of flowers.

June—Bridal pair with Mrs. Rowe taking part of groom, Mrs. Dunn the bride.

July—Mesdames McKee and Hunt as Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia.

August—Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Hayward as beach resort girls.

September—Mesdames Ocker and Chambers as school girls.

October—Mesdames Anna and A. E. Williams in Hallowe'en costumes.

November—Mrs. David Gregg with horn of plenty.

December—Mrs. Hutchinson as Santa Claus.

The verses, which were all written by Mrs. Hutchinson, were very clever. With a final verse telling how it was done, and giving credit to Mrs. Hayward, the acting curator, Mrs. Hutchinson presented to Mrs. Temple the gift of her section, totaling $100, amid great clapping of hands and manifestations of approval on the part of club members. Mrs. Temple was equal to the occasion and made her acknowledgments in verse. After the procession of the months had passed, Mrs. Temple contributed her own dollars to the fund with a gay little poem composed in intervals of housework about the "Cross Buns," which she had made and sold.

The next most entertaining stunt was put on by Mrs. Daniel Campbell with two babies as confederates borrowed from Mrs. Tower and Mrs. Evans. She announced herself as an ad writer and began by requesting the gentlemen to temporarily leave the hall, which they did reluctantly while she divested herself of her party gown and donned in its stead one of the Williams Wear dresses. At her right upon the platform stood a Bluebird Washing Machine loaned by the Newton Electric Company. In persuasive verse she set forth its merits as a friend in need which she had tried and found not wanting. But lest she might do injustice to the Glendale Laundry she read an appreciation of that institution, also in verse. For each of these, she explained, she had received $5, the poems to be owned and used by the buyers at their discretion. Two more poems were dedicated to the Williams Wear and the Irish Linen Store, still another was written for the Easter service of the Glendale Presbyterian Church as follows:

"On the coming glad Easter morn,
In the Presbyterian church at eleven,
I'll worship as always I do
Because I get so close to Heaven.

The Knights-Templar and their friends,
From Hollywood and Glendale, too,

Will worship there, and hearts
Will sing and pry as they used to do.

If you have no place to worship
On this grand day of all the year,
You'll find a seat and kindly welcome

Have your hope revived, get courage and good cheer.

Whatever your creed or notion,
Forgive me if I hint,
Go to your church and get a blessing,

For it's wisdom, don't you think?"

For all this Mrs. Campbell turned over to Mrs. Temple in checks and money $15.75.

Next on the program was an amusing act in which Mrs. A. H. Montgomery as Lena Sophie Olson, born in Sweden, was interviewed by Mrs. Harry Greenwalt as registrar of voters. Lena was at the wash-tub and had a temper which flared frequently. She came near refusing to register but thought better of it when she considered voting for Mrs. Bartlett as trustee. This was, of course, part of Mrs. Greenwalt's explanation of the origin of her dollar.

Mesdames Ayars, Parker, Arnold and Hagood gave a musical tea last week to earn their dollars, which multiplied to about fifteen. Mrs. Ayars told part of the story in verse, introducing the other three who told the rest in song—operatic style—with Mrs. Hagood at the piano. It was decidedly original and smart

Make the Children Happy

It takes so little to make a child happy. A basket of candy eggs on Easter morning will do it.

Easter won't be Easter either, unless the kiddies do find some Easter eggs.

A toy bunny, a fluffy yellow chick and a basket of candy eggs may not impress you much, but unless you are very old you can look back to your own childhood and remember how little it took to delight your childish heart.

We Made Special Preparation For the Children Again This Year

With our usual big stock of Easter candy and all kinds of Easter novelties and cards.

You don't need to be afraid to give the children our candy either. It is pure and wholesome; no more harmful than pure sugar. In fact it is pure sugar colored with harmless vegetable coloring.

THE COUNTY HEALTH OFFICER

"No office" in Los Angeles County is of more importance to the people than the Health Office." At least this is the opinion of Supervisor Jonathan S. Dodge.

"The County Health Department particularly looks after the enforcement of all sanitary laws, the control of contagious disease, and maintenance of a system of records relating to vital statistics in all the wide expanse of territory not included in incorporated cities.

"Los Angeles County was the first county west of the Mississippi River to employ a health officer on full time. Most counties, and all small cities, usually employ a busy health physician who gives only a part of his time to the work, and who is paid only a small salary.

"During the last three years the Health Department has been made a constructive force in county affairs, and its standard has been raised to a point where it is largely copied by other cities of the United States.

"It was the Health Department of Los Angeles County which first discovered that the Japanese birth rate in rural communities was three times that of the white birth rate, and a special report was required of this one subject by the Immigration Department, at Washington.

"There are 37 incorporated cities in Los Angeles County, and almost as many unincorporated communities. Last year a law was passed in the Legislature which permitted these cities to combine for health work and the territory adjacent to Pomona has been the first to take advantage of this new law, and thereby has gained national attention through its progressive spirit.

"People temporarily residing in this county, as well as laborers and farmers in the rural districts, are demanding a much higher standard in sanitation than ever before, and the taxpayer may rest assured that the money invested in county health work is not only saving the lives of people, but is safe-guarding the health and reputation of the county."

L. W. CHOBES CAR RUN INTO AND DAMAGED

Dr. H. W. Jones of Pasadena, while driving west on Colorado at about 7:30 last evening, ran into L. W. Chobe's Buick as the latter was backing out from his garage. Six spokes in the rear left wheel of Mr. Chobe's car were broken and the fender bent.

Personals

Dr. F. M. Collier has been seriously ill at his home, 130 Franklin Court.

Mrs. Mary Walkins is having a $600 addition made to her residence at 112 South Everett.

G. L. McNaught is having a room built for an auto washery at his oil station, Louise and Colorado.

Dr. A. L. Ferguson and wife, formerly of Glendale but now living in Los Angeles, were visiting old friends here yesterday.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones is driving a handsome new Nash coupe purchased from the Thomas G. Widmeyer Agency, 207 North Brand Boulevard.

A. B. Heacock and family of Compton were in Glendale yesterday visiting relatives and old friends and stayed for the revival meeting at the Christian church.

J. J. Burke took out a permit yesterday for the erection of a temporary frame building in Glendale Heights for L. C. Miles, who will later have a large residence built.

Mrs. J. H. Sayres of Los Angeles came out yesterday to visit and aid her old friend, Mrs. W. C. Bradley, of 523 Oak Street, whose husband was then at the point of death.

Ormond Bradley and Howard Bradley were hastily summoned from El Segundo yesterday afternoon on account of their father's dying condition and arrived in time to be recognized by him.

Friends of Mrs. R. F. Kitterman of 311 North Kenwood Street will be rejoiced to hear that very favorable reports are coming from her bedside in the Westlake hospital, where Dr. T. C. Young operated upon her yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harrison of 1009 North Columbus Avenue have sold their home to L. E. Chase of Minnesota who will take possession about May first. The Harrisons do not anticipate leaving Glendale but will purchase another home here in the near future.

R. A. Blackburn and son Robert are motoring today to Coachella valley where they will make improvements on ranch property and engage in cotton production. Their holdings are not far from those of Thomas Oggs, H. E. Bartlett and other Glendale men. Mrs. Blackburn will remain in Glendale for the present.

Frances Andrews, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Andrews of 211 North Cedar Street, underwent an operation upon her feet at the Angelus Hospital in Los Angeles last Wednesday to relieve contraction of tendons which has interfered with her walking. She has been brought home and is making an excellent recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Blair of 1611 Gardena Avenue are entertaining Friday evening, April 2, in honor of Lou La Blonge Whitcomb, of Los Angeles. About fifty guests are invited. Mrs. Whitcomb is a lecturer upon new thought philosophy and a portion of the evening will be devoted to an informal discussion of the fundamentals of the teachings.

Pupils in the Glendale City Schools are looking forward to a great treat promised them by the Nature Club which has secured Mr. Hutchins, the bird man, for a colored chalk talk before the children and while the drawing is in progress he will give wonderful imitations of the songs of the birds illustrated. The demonstration will take place in about a week and will be effectively announced.

BEWARE OF SILVER-TONGUED STRANGER

A Glendale woman, who has been badly duped by a silver distributing company, gives the following story as a warning to other housewives of this city: The agent who approached her stated that she could get a forty-dollar set of Sterling silver by paying one dollar a week. Each week some woman's name was selected and the silver presented whether she had paid a very small amount or not. He assured her that, owing to her prominent position, it would be to their advantage to see that she got it very soon for advertising purposes.

After continuing her payments until almost the full forty dollars had been paid to the collector, she went to the company's headquarters in Los Angeles to inquire about it and was rudely informed that the company was going out of the retail business and that she could pay the difference and take her silver or lose the entire amount she had put into it. She then went to choose her silver, but found that they carried no Sterling silver and the plated sets were of inferior quality, such as could be purchased elsewhere for about thirty-five dollars, and when she selected a set she was told it was not one of the sets allowed for forty dollars, and she found she had paid fifty-one dollars for a thirty-five dollar set of plate. Further inquiry disclosed the fact that the distributing company is already being sued by a number of people in adjacent towns who have been swindled out of forty or fifty dollars.

WANT HALF HOLIDAY

GROCERS, MEAT MARKET PROPRIETORS AND EMPLOYEES FAVOR FEW HOURS OFF

A movement was started recently among the proprietors and employees of Glendale grocery stores and meat markets to close all such stores from 12:30 on, Thursday afternoons. The employees all favor it, of course, and nearly all the employers so far seen. While the Chaffee and Acme store managers favor it the final decision, of course, rests with the head of the corporation. Some proprietors say they are heartily in favor of it if all will come into the agreement and others say they are for it if a considerable majority of the stores agree.

The reasons for the move are that workers in such lines of business have long hours and little recreation. This half holiday would allow them a little rest and would also give time for more gardening with a consequent reduction in the cost of living. It is very probable that if the two classes of stores carry the plan through others will join in and a general half holiday for employers and employees result.

It depends greatly on the people to carry such a program through successfully. If customers of all the stores will give hearty assent and encouragement to the project and agree to do their purchasing and phone their orders in early on Thursday mornings, it undoubtedly can be carried through. Tell your grocer and meat market proprietor what you think of it and promise them your hearty support if you agree to it. If you don't, state to them your objections. Nearly 100 people will be affected in the two lines of business named, and many others in all lines should join in. This would mean a lot of extra garden truck raised.

GROWING IN INTEREST

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH CROWDED LAST NIGHT BY RAGED HEARERS

The entire auditorium and lecture room were filled last night at the Christian Church to hear Evangelist Clayton C. Root in his sermon "Where Will I Spend Eternity?" Special music was furnished by a delegation from the Van Nuys Christian Church of which Mr. Root is the pastor. E. C. Monroe of Los Angeles also sang a bass solo. Two more persons were added to the membership of the church.

After proving that the human individual has but two alternatives in the choice of an eternal abode— heaven or hell,—the preacher laid particular stress on the fundamental scriptural teaching that each is a place and not a state of mind. Many passages from the Bible were used to prove this fact. The condition of the existence, the fellowship of either place and the preparation necessary to reach and enjoy heaven, were emphasized.

"Heaven is a prepared place for a prepared people; hell is a prepared place for an unprepared people."

The earth life, declared Mr. Root, is a probation, a preparation time. Faith in Christ, repentance toward God, obedience in baptism, the adding of the Christian virtues, constitute the requirements for citizenship in the Kingdom of Heaven.

The institution of baptism will be observed at tonight's services when the Evangelist will preach on "Moses or Christ, or Are We Living Under the Ten Commandment Law?"

W. C. BRADLEY PASSES

WAS PROMINENT RAILROAD MAN, BOTH IN U. S. AND MEXICO

W. C. Bradley died last night, 8:30 o'clock, at his home, 523 Oak Street. While it had been known by the family for several weeks that he could not recover, yet it was thought he would live a month or more. He suffered from Bright's disease and anemia and had been slowly failing in health for five years past, when he returned home from Mexico after 15 months of wearing suspense, during which he faced death every day.

William Cassius Bradley was born in Clarksville, Pa., in 1851. He spent his boyhood there and in Newcastle, Pa., but later moved with his parents to Steubenville, Ohio, where he grew to manhood, later moving to Denver, Colo., where on September 29, 1880, he married Miss Ella I. Dawson of that city. They moved to Las Vegas, N. M., and then to Mexico. Mr. Bradley was a railway conductor in this country and was employed in that capacity in Mexico at first but by his superior abilities he soon rose to the superintendency of the Southern division of the Mexican National Railways, with headquarters at Oaxaca. He moved his family to Glendale in 1908 but he remained in Mexico, even during the serious troubles between this country and Mexico, when Vera Cruz was occupied by American Marines. He was so highly respected there that bands of Federal soldiers, as well as Zapatists and other bandit gangs, allowed him to stay unmolested for a long time. He was finally forced to go to Mexico City and take refuge with an old and tried friend, a Spanish Hidalgo. Here he remained for many months and as he was unable to get any word to his family, they gave him up for dead. He finally escaped, however, and came home, about five years ago, but the months of anxiety and suspense had left their mark on him and he was but a shadow of his former self. He never fully regained his health, but he worked for the Standard Oil Co. at El Segundo as long as he could stand on his feet. He collapsed while at work the day before Christmas and was brought home. He gradually grew weaker from that time on. He took to his bed six weeks ago but it was only within the last two weeks that he realized that recovery was impossible. He suffered very little, but simply wasted away.

He is survived by his widow and three sons, Frank, who lives in Tela, Spanish Honduras; Ormond, whose home is still in Glendale, and Howard, who lives in Los Angeles. There are three grand-children. He was a thirty-third degree Mason, belonging in Mexico City, where he was raised to that degree, and an Elk. He belonged to the Order of Railway Conductors also. He left to his son, Ormond, as a precious relic, his jewel as a thirty-third degree Mason, which is magnificently ornamented and bears the intertwined flags of the U. S., France and Mexico. It is enclosed in a highly embossed and ornamented leather case with a fac-simile of his autograph on it.

Funeral services will be held at the Little Church of the Flowers tomorrow, 2 p. m., Rev. Cookman officiating, and the Masons will conduct the services at the grave. The Pulliam & Kiefer Undertaking Company is in charge. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. McElwee of 430 Pioneer Drive are about to say good-bye to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Chandler, who are leaving Glendale this week for their home in Marysville, Tenn. Mrs. Chandler and her little daughter have been here since January and were joined by Mr. Chandler about three weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. McElwee are comparatively new residents having come to our city about eight months ago from Manteca, near Stockton, Cal., their home before coming to California having been in Tennessee. They like Glendale very much and say they have no temptation to return to the north.

THE PROFITEER

A lady going out for the day locked everything up carefully, and for the grocer's benefit left a card on the back door.

"All out. Don't leave anything," it read.

On her return she found the house ransacked and all her choicest possessions gone. To the card on the door was added:

"Thanks. We haven't left much."

AFRICA DAY

GOAL OF ONE THOUSAND DOL-LARS REACHED—TWENTY-
SIX CHURCH APPLICANTSServices at the Seventh-day Adventist church (Isabel and California) Saturday, were unusually interesting and joyful throughout the entire day.It was plain to be seen that it was "Africa" day by the many curious African trophies displayed on the rostrum, and the various placards with slogans written thereon.
It being the last Sabbath in the quarter, every one was eager to see the goal of $1000 completed. Africa was the field to be helped through the Sabbath school offerings. A large drawing representing a row of dollars marching to Africa bore
the slogan: "We can do it—$1000
this quarter—$230 today." The after count showed the school more than a hundred dollars over the goal.A missionary program was carried out by the children and youth in song and recitation. Mrs. J. D.
Baker, a returned missionary from Africa, gave an interesting account of the African and his ways, displaying and explaining the curios at hand. There were primeval dental forceps, "safety" razors, medicine horns, head dresses, hats, beads, hunting and fighting spears and knives and many other articles.
Surely the ways of the wild are wonderful.The Sabbath School lessons for the quarter were reviewed in a unique way by Mrs. Jessie Moser.
Standing nearby was a tree bereft of its branches. As the theme of each lesson was developed a branch from the pile on the floor was stuck into a prepared socket on the tree trunk. One by one the branches representing the subjects were adjusted until at the close of the review the tree stood resplendent in its original beauty. Mrs. Moser is a teacher and writer of unusual ability in the line of Sabbath school methods.A concise selection of lesson seed thoughts by L. D. Andrews closed the school exercises.At the eleven o'clock service which followed, the ordination of Roy M. Baker to the office of deacon in the church was solemnized, Elder C. S. Prout officiating.Preparatory to the communion service which came next, Elder Prout made clear the conditions of heart and life necessary for an individual to partake of the ordinance ac-ceptably. In the first Lord's supper ever celebrated Jesus saw that the hearts of the disciples were not right toward each other. Each wished to be greatest and was unwilling to serve the other. To teach once and for all the great lesson of humanity, Jesus Himself washed the disciples' feet, leaving an example for Christians to follow thereafter
as a preparation for the partaking of the emblems which followed. To eat and drink unworthily would mean to do so with unforgiving hearts or with known sin unconfessed.At the afternoon service twenty-six applicants for church membership were baptized, Elder Prout performing the rite. Nearly all were young people and the look of consecration upon their earnest young faces as they went down into the water sent a thrill of joy through the hearts of relatives and friends.
The reception into church fellowship will take place next Saturday
at the morning service.

THAT DRIVE NOW ON

The campaign for the suffering, starving, needy women and children of Poland, Galicia, Russia, Rumania and Turkey, is now on here in Southern California. We are trying our very best to get Glendale
in line to do her bit, by organization. We should have been organized last week and join the onward march with the rest of Southern California, but as it looks today we will not get really started until next week. So very few workers have come forward and signified their willingness to help out in this work for the sake of humanity. There are so many excuses and indifference when approached to take part in the canvass, it reflects tremendously upon real human interest. A boy strayed away from home yesterday, everybody was out looking for him; people were stirred. They should be. In the above district are 800,000 starving boys and girls under 15 years who would be glad for the crusts our boys and girls leave on their plates, or cast away from their lunches, but they can't get them. "Give ye them to eat" is the command of the Great Christ. Our ability becomes our responsibility.The quota for Glendale is $2500; that means about 50 cents per home, a very small "crust" indeed, but some are unwilling to give that much. What Glendale does is well done. She has not fallen behind in any of the "drives" heretofore. But the whole affair now looks as though that reflection will be cast in our teeth unless more workers get out into the field and help to put this campaign through to success. The City of Los Angeles is looking to Glendale to do her part and if we fail, as it looks we will, she will read one more weak spot to her favor looking toward annexation. She reads the signs with open eyes.

COBWEBS

Early on one calm May morning,
When the dew was sparkling bright,
I arose to do some typing,
Hours before the dawn of light.
Long I worked and toiled and labored,
Over matter, wrought with care,
Till becoming tired of typing,
I stepped out to fresher air.
Thinking of the morning paper—
To relieve my mind a bit
Of the cobwebs there accruing,
I stepped down to secure it.
Walking through the old grape arbor,
In the faint streaks of the dawn
I relaxed my nervous system,
With a stretching and a yawn.
! ! ! ! !
Bolt of thunder from a clear sky;
Bomb and blast from hidden mine;
Sudden shock from perfect calm,
Bitterness from saccharine.
Deluge of oaths and adjectives;
Grimace, face distorted, wry;
I had closed, upon a spider,
And said spider had a fly.

DANISH SELF-DETERMINATION

So much has been said lately about the "blunders" and "injustices" of the Paris treaty that it is pleasant to record an indisputable act of fairness and sound judgment, provided for in the treaty and now accomplished. It is the carving up of the disputed Schleswig-Holstein province, in strict accordance with the principle of racial self-determination.

Schleswig-Holstein was taken forcibly from Denmark shortly before the Franco-Prussian war. At that time the German government promised to leave the final determination of sovereignty to a popular vote, but never fulfilled its promise. The Paris treaty undertook to remedy that old wrong. And in doing so, it sought neither to benefit one nation nor punish the other. The disputed territory was divided into three successive strips, shading gradually from the purely Danish population in the north to the purely German in the south.
In the plebiscite just held, the northern strip voted to join Denmark, and the middle strip to remain with Germany. Denmark thereupon gave up all claim to the southern strip, without a vote. The decision has been confirmed by the supreme allied council at Paris, and thus one long-standing international dispute is ended.

There are others to be ended in like manner, in the Saar valley, in Silesia and elsewhere. Need it be doubted, after this example, that they will be settled with equal justice, especially if the League of Nations comes into its proper functions and authority? And if all such disputes could be got rid of with a fair degree of satisfaction to the parties in controversy, a tremendous step would be taken toward insuring the world's peace; for most wars have arisen over disputed territory.

Jose Dalo and his landlady at Santa Ana got into an argument over the payment of his rent, and she shot him three times, and then he took the gun away from her and shot her through the stomach.
Aside from that the argument was quiet and peaceful.

Men and women the hungry cry aloud, they moan in subdued tones for the bare necessity that will keep soul and body together. They are gaunt, famished, lean and weary, sick and wounded; they hold their outstretched, empty hands toward us to help them. Will we refuse?

God grant not a man or woman of Glendale to whom this last appeal comes for helpers and workers, will further refuse as they have done. We have plenty of men and women who could help us. For the sake of hungry, needy humanity phone up 1218-J and signify your willingness to do your bit in putting this thing over. What do you say?

We want 15 more workers. Come on, friends, let us do it with a right good will and another crown will be added to the glory of Glendale.

ANOTHER FROM IOWA

S. A. TROWBRIDGE, FRUIT AND STOCK RAISER, MOVES HERE
FROM DES MOINES

S. A. Trowbridge, who bought the Robert Vint place at 437 Burchett a few months ago and a 100-acre ranch near Owensmouth, arrived last week with his wife, their son, Robert, and his wife and two children. They are now settled in the new home, which is one of the finest on that street. Robert Trowbridge bought a ranch near that of his father and will move to it as soon as the buildings can be repaired and made ready for occupancy. Mr. Trowbridge, Sr., has his ranch leased for this year but will take charge of it next year. It is to be entirely devoted to alfalfa. He has another son, who came to California ten years ago and bought extensively in the neighborhood of Bishop. He raised 4000 tons of alfalfa the past year and bought of his neighbors 5000 tons, so was able to conduct a large selling business in this high-priced staple. The only daughter of the house is attending Simpson College in Des Moines, Ia., and will join her parents here in June.

Mr. Trowbridge owned a 360-acre fruit and stock ranch partly in and partly adjoining Des Moines, having 65 acres of apple orchard and 25 acres devoted to grapes. He also had a large dairy and raised fine stock, feeding his animals from the products of his own fields. But the winters finally grew too severe for him and his family, so they decided to come to California, and after looking around considerably decided that Glendale was the most desirable residence city, so finally concluded a bargain for the Vint place.

In order to the sooner become acquainted with Glendale's people and business progress, Mr. Trowbridge ordered the Evening News sent to his home regularly.

There are so many angles to the suc-

any other stock and one of the most important is the feeding. You can't feed young stock in a haphazard way and expect it to develop as it should.

GERMAN ULTIMATUMS

BERLIN SOCIALISTS DEMAND REMOVAL OF GENERAL VON
WATTERS COMMANDING TROOPS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, March 31.—The French Foreign Office was advised from Berlin today that German Ruhr rebels have refused the ultimatum of General Von Watters, demanding that they give up their arms and disband their soviets. Meantime, the advices said, independent socialists of Berlin have declared an ultimatum to the government demanding the removal of General Von Watters, who is commanding the government troops which have taken the field against the rebels.

PEACE WITH GERMANY

HOUSE NOT TO ADJOURN GOOD FRIDAY BUT TO MAKE PEACE RESOLUTION SPECIAL ORDER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The resolution to declare peace between the United States and Germany will be called up in the House
Friday, Chairman Campbell of the Rules Committee, and Chairman Porter of Foreign Affairs Committee, said today. The final draft of the resolution has been agreed to by republican leaders and it will be introduced in the house today, they said. Consideration and a favorable report by the Foreign Affairs Committee is expected tomorrow, and the Rules Committee, Campbell said, is ready to make it a special order in the House the following day.

The original plan of the House leaders was to adjourn over Good Friday but it has been decided that this will be a fitting day to consider a resolution declaring peace. Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin conferred with House leaders this morning and is understood to have approved the plan.
