Dear Sir

In my last letter I told you about a party here getting me to order things on approval and not buying any, well I told you this was last time I was going to bother with him, It was the party who got me to order The Greek coins & Columbia 25¢ & 50¢ and not buying any What I ordered I ~~got~~ kept all but sent 1795 and 1/2 cent with these 2 and 1/2 cents from 1807 to 1867 I ordered, Now I want a few coins on approval (for myself, will not bother with him any more. The following us coins

1/2 Cents. 1795- If you can get good Condition 1802 and 1811 - 1808 - 1793 all in good Condition & not corroded; if you have them in above shape

Thin die cents 1795<sup>n</sup> - 1800 - 1802 - 1803 - 1806 - 1808 1821 - 1823 <sup>and</sup> 1816 - 1817 - 1818 - 1819 - 1820 in same condition,

If you have not got all in stock send what you can.

Make price as reasonable as you can for good pieces.

What price do you want for a good cent 1804 and 1809.

Yours truly

JOHN TURNBULL,

4 Issue - 10¢ - 15¢

Fine condition & well centered.
Also send a selection of used currency in good condition including 50¢ of 1-2-3 Issue & other issue.

In your last letter you ask why I did not keep part of coins & etc. The reason I did not keep any was I order them for a friend of mine here and he wished them in perfect condition.

and in finer shape than ones you sent.

In regard to my want list I wish a few pieces if condition and prices suit. Give price ~~and condition~~ on following -

Dear Sir,

We are in receipt of your letter regarding ~~specimen~~ quotation on notes. We are taking the liberty of sending you what we have of those you ask for as it is much more satisfactory to see them than to try to describe them. Do not have the Fractional currency you ask for.

Hope some of the notes sent will meet with your approval.

Yours very truly
