1. ANNOUNCER: Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers!

2. MUSIC: THEME

3. ANNOUNCER: In scores of ranger stations and lookout posts, faithful dogs
4. are often the only companions of the men whose duty it is to
5. guard and protect our national forests. Many a time, these dogs
6. have helped to save lives, warn against danger, track down
7. malicious individuals who commit a crime against Uncle Sam with
8. axe or fire or in other ways help the Ranger in his work.
9. Surely our faithful canine friends deserve a tribute for their
10. part in helping to protect our forests, for peace or war...Now,
11. to the Pine Cone National Forest. Seems like Ranger Jim Robbins
12. has had more than his share of troubles this week. Lack of rain
13. and strong winds have made the forest tinder dry. And a 14. firebug is on the loose. So far, however, the prompt action of
15. the Pine Cone forces has kept the fires from doing much real
16. damage. But Ranger Jim is worried, and at the moment, we find
17. him and his assistant, Jerry Quick, at the Ranger Station,
18. working close by the phone, hoping for a break in the weather
19. but prepared for the worst. Here they are:

20. JERRY: Golly, Jim, I feel nervous as a jaybird.

21. JIM: Well, the boys are all on their toes. You switched that trail
22. crew over to Yellow Mountain didn 't you, Jerry?

ANNOUNCEMENT

In order of ranger stations and lookout posts, the only organization of the man whose duty it is to guard and protect our national forests. Many a time, these men have helped to save lives, warn against danger, track down marauding individuals who commit a crime against United States law or life or in other ways help the Ranger in his work.

Our faithful canine friends deserve a tribute for their part in helping to protect our forests, for pass on your side to the fine Game National Forest. Game like Ranger the Game has had more than his share of troubles this week. Last of all and strong winds have made the forest tinder dry. And a lightning is on the loose. So far, however, the prompt action of the Game Forest has kept the fires from doing much damage. But danger, as is worried, and at the moment, we are his and his assistant, Jerry Quigg, of the Ranger Station working close by the phone, hoping for a break in the weather but prepared for the worst. Here they are:

Golly, the I feel nervous as a Jewish.

Well, the boys are all on their toes. You switched the line over to Jerry Mountain didn't you, Jerry?

JERRY:

Yes

1. JERRY: Yeah, like you told me, Jim. But I don't get it. Seems to me
2. you're goin' overboard, puttin' so many crews in that section
3. of the woods. Doesn't that weaken us on the west side if this
4. bird shifts his fire-setting that way?
5. JIM: Well, unless I miss my guess, Jerry, our next incendiary fire
6. is going to hit somewhere in that Yellow Mountain country.
7. JERRY: Huh? What makes you so sure, Jim?
8. JIM: Here. Look at these red pins I got in the map here, marking the
9. locations of the fires that feller's given us this week. Notice
10. anything?
11. JERRY: Yeah, those fires were all set kinda in a semicircle starting
12. with Porcupine Ridge and working south. There was that one on
13. Tall Ridge and another on Pine Top.
14. JIM: Right. Those fires were set in a regular pattern; in a
15. semicircle, like you say.
16. JERRY: Yeah, but they weren't set in order, Jim - like those pins
17. might indicate. That fellow jumped back and forth; he didn't
18. keep moving south each time. And even though Yellow Mountain
19. is south of Pine Top I don't see how you can figure that's
20. where he'll strike next.
21. JIM: He set his fires with the wind, Jerry and the wind varied, see.
22. each day he gave us trouble.
23. JERRY: Holy smokes! I get it now! He's been trying to head those fires
24. down into the valley. Into the Pineville area. And that's
25. where.....

Yeah, like you said it, Jim. But I don't get it. Seems to me you're going 'overboard', buddy, so many crews in that section of the woods. Doesn't that weaken us on the west side in kind shifts in time-setting that way?

JIM:

Well, unless I miss my guess, Jerry, our next line-cutting is going to be somewhere in that Yellow Mountain country.
Huh? What makes you so sure, Jim?

JIM:

JERRY:

Here. Look at these red pine I got in the way here, working in locations of the lines that Jerry's given us this week. Jerry,
anything?

JIM:

Yeah, those lines were all set kinds in a semicircle starting with Porcupine Ridge and working south. There was that one on Tall Ridge and another on Pine Top.

JERRY:

Right. Those lines were set in a regular pattern; in a semicircle, like you say.

JIM:

Yeah, but they weren't set in order, Jim - like those pine right indicates. That fellow jumped back and forth; he didn't keep moving south each time. And even though Yellow Mountain is south of Pine Top I don't see how you can figure that there he'll strike next.

JERRY:

He set his lines with the wind, Jerry and the wind vector
each day he gave us trouble.

JIM:

Holy smokes! I get it now! He's been trying to head those lines down into the valley into the Phuvilla area. And that's where.....

JERRY:

1. JIM: Yeah, and that's where that new war plant is.
2. JERRY: Gee, I was blind as a bat, Jim. Of course. And that's
3. sabotage, pure and simple. Why, a big fire would.....
4. JIM: That's what I'm afraid of Jerry. And I'm not taking any
5. chances. I've phoned the folks at the plant and they're on the
6. alert too.
7. JERRY: But, Jim, who'd be so low-down, mangy, and rotten as to be
8. pulling a stunt like that?
9. JIM: Anybody that wanted to put a crimp in the plant's production
10. or, worse, to knock the place out completely. Somebody with a
11. grudge against the plant, or maybe with a grudge against Uncle
12. Sam.
13. JERRY: (EXCITED) Well, good gravy, Jim, what're we doin' just waitin'
14. here? We ought to be up there at Yellow Mountain searching the
15. country with a fine tooth comb.
16. JIM: (CHUCKLING) Hold your horses, Jerry. I've got some of the guar
17. on foot patrol up there. Our job is here, right now. Besides,
18. I told Captain Holt to send his dog and handler up here to the
19. Station so we can send him out fast if trouble strikes again.
20. JERRY: Dog? What dog you talking about, Jim?
21. JIM: By George, I didn't tell you, did I? We're getting a
22. bloodhound up here, Jerry. To help track down that firebug. I
23. made all the arrangements with Captain Holt of the State Guard
24. Last night. Guess it kinda slipped my mind this morning.
25. JERRY: A bloodhound? Say, ain't that a kinda vicious animal?

... and that's what we're going to do.

See, I was billed as a poet, Jim. Of course. And that's what I'm afraid of Jerry. And I'm not taking any chances. I've passed the folks at the plant and they're on the about you.

But, Jim, who'd be so low-down, mean, and rotten as to pull a stunt like that?

Somebody that wanted to put a cork in the plant's production or, worse, to knock the place out completely. Somebody who grudge against the plant, or maybe with a grudge against the boss.

(IMITATED) Well, good golly, Jim, what're we doing, just sitting here? We ought to be up there at Nelson Mountain searching for country with a fine tooth comb.

(CHUCKLING) Hold your horses, Jerry. I've got some of the best on foot patrol up there. Our job is here, right now. Besides,

I told George to send the dog and handler up here to the station so we can send him out with the trouble maker again.

Now, what do you think about, Jim?

By George, I can't tell you, Jim. It's like getting a bladder up here, Jerry. To help track down that trouble maker all the arrangements with Captain Holt of the State last night. Guess he kinda slipped my mind this morning.

A bladder? Say, Jim, that's kinda funny animal!

1. JIM: (CHUCKLES) You must've been reading Uncle Tom's Cabin, Jerry.
2. Ever since that story came out, bloodhounds have had a bad
3. name. I worked with 'em in the South, though, and I found 'em
4. a mighty fine breed of dog, gentle and kindly as you could
5. ask for. But give 'em a job to do, and they're all business.

6. JERRY: But, Jim. What are folks gonna say about us using a bloodhound
7. here on the Pine Cone?

8. JIM: Jerry, remember that old saying? Do no evil, fear no evil? Well,
9. I guess they'll know that if we put that dog on a trail it'll
10. be to track down a criminal, not to hound innocent folks. And I
11. reckon most folks around here are just as anxious to see that
12. fire-setter caught as we are.

13. JERRY: Yeah, that's true...You said something about a handler, Jim.
14. Would that be the dog's trainer?

15. JIM: Yeah, trainer, and handler on the trail. Captain Holt says the
16. prison trusty who handles Texas Tess - that's this dog's name -
17. is one of the best bloodhound handlers he's...

18. JERRY: Prison trusty! Golly, this is getting more complicated all the
19. time. First it's some rat who's trying to sabotage the works;
20. and now it's a prison convict that's goin' to help us catch him.
21. I give up....

22. JIM: (CHUCKLING) Well, I 'spect the dog'll be here pretty soon now,
23. Jerry, so we better get ready. Anything might pop later on in
24. the (FADE) heat of the day.

25. PAUSE:

FADE IN BUZZ SOUND, REPEAT AT ONE SECOND INTERVALS

(UNKNOWN) You must've been reading Uncle Tom's Cabin, Jerry

JERRY:

Ever since that story came out, bloodhounds have had a bad

name. I worked with 'em in the South, though, and I found 'em

a mighty fine breed of dog, gentle and kindly as you could ask for. But give 'em a job to do, and they're all business.

JERRY:

But, Jim, that one like gonna say about us using a bloodhound here on the Pine Coast?

JERRY:

Jerry, remember that old saying? Do no evil, fear no evil? Well,

I guess they'll know that if we put that dog on a trail

he to track down a criminal, not to hound innocent folks because most folks around here are just as anxious to see that fire-eater caught as we are.

JERRY:

Yeah, that's true. You said something about a handler, Jim.

Would that be the dog's trainer?

JERRY:

Yeah, trainer, and handler on the trail. Captain Holt says the prison trusty who handles Texas Toss - that's this dog's name is one of the best bloodhound handlers he's...

JERRY:

Prison trusty? Well, this is getting more complicated all the time. First it's some man who's trying to nab the trusty; and now it's a prison convict that's going to help us catch the

I give up...

JERRY:

(GRUNTLING) Well, I expect the dog'll be here pretty soon now.

Jerry, so we better get ready. Anything might pop later on in the (WAVE) heat of the day.

JERRY:

WAVE IN BUREAU SOUND, REPEAT AT ONE SECOND INTERVALS

1. JERRY: Wind's up again, Jim. What do you.....

2. PHONE RINGS, REPEATS URGENTLY

3. JIM: Turn off that wind guage meter, Jerry. That's the phone ringin,

4. JERRY: O.K.

5. CLICK, BUZZES OUT, PHONE RINGS, RECEIVER UP

6. JIM: All right, Ranger Station...Yeah, go on, Tom...Two sets so far
7. huh?...H-mm, that's not so good...O.K., Tom, stay with it...
8. Mrs. Robbins'll take over here...Right...S'long...(RECEIVER
9. DOWN) It's Yellow Mountain all right, Jerry.

10. JERRY: I'll load that fellow, Bob and his bloodhound in my pick-up,
11. Jim. They're right outside.

12. JIM: Yeah, you go on ahead with the dog, Jerry. I'll start pouring
13. the crews into that country, and line up Bess as dispatcher
14. here. Join you soon as the fire's under control...I want to get
15. in touch with the Sheriff on this, too.

16. JERRY: O.K., Jim. We'll give the dog a fling where the fire started.
17. The way the wind's blowing there won't be much backfire, so
18. maybe she can pick up a trail....

19. JIM: That's the stuff...Now, better get (FADE) going, Jerry...

20. PAUSE:

21. FADE IN CRACKLING FIRE, OFF, SUSTAIN: DOG SNIFFING AND WHINING

22. JERRY: What do you think, Bob? Will she find anything?

23. BOB: Don't worry about Texas Tess, Mr. Quick. If that rascal that
24. set this fire went through here at all, Tes'll find his trail.
25. She's been trained for fire work.

What's up again, Jim, what's your...

PHONE RINGS, REPEATS URGENTLY

JIM: Turn off that wind gauge meter, Jerry. That's the phone...

JERRY: O.K.

JIM: All right, Ranger Station... Yeah, go on, Tom... Two sets on...

Jim: M-m-m, that's not so good... O.K., Tom, stay with it...

Jim: Well, Hobbins'll take over here... Right... Strong... (RECEIVES)

DOWN) It's Yellow Mountain all right, Jerry.

JERRY: I'll load that Yellow, Bob and his bloodhound in my place...

JIM: Yeah, you go on ahead with the dog, Jerry. I'll start pouring...

the crew into that country, and line up here as dispatch...

here take you soon as the fire's under control... I want to...

in touch with the sheriff on this, too.

JERRY: O.K., Jim. We'll give the dog a ring where the fire started.

The way the wind's blowing there won't be much backfire, so...

maybe the sheriff is a trail...

JIM: That's the sheriff... Now, better get (TRADE) going, Jerry.

HAUNT:

TRADE IN CRACKLING FIRE, OUT, SUSTAIN: DOG SNIFFING AND WHINING

JERRY: What do you think, Bob? Will she find anything?

BOB: Don't worry about Texas Lee, Mr. Quick. It just passed that...

and this fire went through here at all, Tom'll find his trail...

She's been trained for this work.

1. JERRY: Is she all right off the leash?
2. BOB: Yep. I'll snap it back on her if she picks up a hot trail.
3. (CALLING) Thata girl, Tess. Good girl. (DOG WHINES) Find it,
4. baby...Find it...
5. JERRY: Say, she doesn't fool around any, does she? Look at her
6. sniffing the ground back and forth, back and forth... She sure
7. works fine for you, Bob.
8. BOB: Thank you sir. We get along, Texas Tess and me...(CALLS) Go to
9. it, gal...Good dog...(STRAIGHT) Say, I'm wonderin' about this
10. fire, Mr. Quick. You reckon...?
11. JERRY: We've got a good sized crew down there at the head of it, Bob.
12. They'll take care of the fire all right. The Ranger's going to
13. join us soon's things are under control.
14. BOB: It must take a pretty low sort of guy to set the woods afire
15. like this...Maybe I'm a fine one to be sayin' that, seein' as
16. how I'm doin' time in the pen myself...but the worst I ever do
17. was beat out some bills....
18. JERRY: This fellow we're after is more than just a fire setter, Bob.
19. He's gunning for big game...one of Uncle Sam's war plants....
20. DOG WHINES TAKE ON LOUD NOTE
21. BOB: Well, doggone that rascal. Look at Tess! (CALLS) Get it, Tess..
22. Go, dog...Good gal...(DOG HOWLS LONG AND LOUD, THEN BARKS, OFF,
23. STEADILY) This is it, brother. This is it! She's on the scent.
24. (CALLS) Tess? Hold, Tess...Hold, gal.
- 25.

Is she all right off the bench?

JERRY:

Yes, I'll snap it back on her if she picks up a hot trail.

BOB:

(CALLING) That's girl, Texas. Good girl. (DOG WHINES) Find it body... Find it...

Say, she doesn't fool around any, does she? Look at her sniffing the ground back and forth, back and forth... She sure works fine for you, Bob.

JERRY:

BOB:

Thank you sir. We get along, Texas. Texas and me... (CALLS) Go to

it, gal... Good dog... (STRAIGHT) Say, I'm wonderin' about this fire, Mr. Quick. You reckon...?

JERRY:

We've got a good sized crew down there at the head of it, Bob.

They'll take care of the fire all right. The Ranger's going to join us soon. Things are under control.

BOB:

It must take a pretty low sort of guy to set the woods afire like this... Maybe I'm a fine one to be sayin' that, seein' as

He's gunning for big game... one of Uncle Sam's war plants...

DOG WHINES TAKE ON LOUD NOTE

BOB:

Well, doggone that rascal. Look at Texas! (CALLS) Get it, Texas

Go, dog... Good gal... (DOG HOWLS LONG AND LOUD, THEN BARKS, OFF

STEADILY) This is it, brother. This is it! She's on the scent

(CALLS) Texas! Hold, Texas... Hold, gal.

1. JERRY: You goin' to put the leash on her, Bob?
2. BOB: You bet. She'd lose us in a minute if we let her run alone.
3. (DOG WHINES URGENTLY) Here, let me snap the old strap on you,
4. Tess. (SOUND OF SNAP) There. Now go to it, Tess...Stay with it,
5. gal...(DOG YIPES AND HOWLS) We're in for a run, Mr. Quick.
6. When she gets on a trail hot as this, there's no holding her
7. back.
8. JERRY: Go ahead. I'll try to keep up.
9. BOB: Go, Tess...Go Texas gal...Let's find him...
10. DOG BARKS AND HOWLS, CRASHING IN BRUSH, FADE OUT
11. PAUSE
12. FADE IN DOG BARKING, CRASHING IN BRUSH, BRING ON FULL, THEN CRASHING OUT,
13. BARKS GO TO WHINES, SUSTAIN
14. JERRY: (COMING ON BREATHELESS) What's the matter, Bob? Why did she stop.
15. Oh, oh, the creek... The water's got her stumped, huh?
16. BOB: (BREATHELESS) Yeah...That feller went through here. He mighta
17. just crossed here to the other side, or then again, he mighta
18. heard Tess here and beat it up or down the creek itself.
19. JERRY: Then he's outsmarted us?
20. BOB: Can't tell yet...I'm gonna try the other side of the stream and
21. see...(CALLS) Come, Tess. Let's go across...(DOG WHINES) That's
22. it. Come on, gal (SPLASHING IN WATER, WHINES SLIGHTLY OFF)
23. JERRY: (CALLING) I'll wait here, Bob. Good luck...
24. BOB: (OFF) O.K.
25. JIM: (OFF) Jerry! Yo, Jerry...

JERRY:

You goin' to put the leash on her, Bob?

BOB:

You bet. She'd lose us in a minute if we let her run alone.

(DOG WHINES URGENTLY) Here, let me snap the old strap on you.

(SOUND OF SNAP) There. Now go to it, Tess... Stay with it.

Gal... (DOG YIPES AND HOWLS) We're in for a run, Mr. Quick.

When she gets on a trail hot as this, there's no holding her back.

JERRY:

Go ahead. I'll try to keep up.

BOB:

Go, Tess... Go Texas Gal... Let's find him...

DOG BARKS AND HOWLS, CRASHING IN BRUSH, FADE OUT

BRUSH

FADE IN DOG BARKING, CRASHING IN BRUSH, BRING ON TULL, THEN CRASHING OUT,

BARKS GO TO WHINES, SUSTAIN

JERRY:

(COMING ON BREATHLESS) What's the matter, Bob? Why did she stop

Oh, oh, the creek... The water's got her stumped, huh?

BOB:

(BREATHLESS) Yeah... That fellow went through here. He might just crossed here to the other side, or then again, he might heard Tess here and beat it up or down the creek itself.

JERRY:

Then he's outsmarted us?

BOB:

Can't tell yet... I'm gonna try the other side of the stream and see... (CALLS) Come, Tess. Let's go across... (DOG WHINES) That's

it. Come on, Gal (SPLASHING IN WATER, WHINES SLIGHTLY OFF)

JERRY:

(CALLING) I'll wait here, Bob. Good luck...

BOB:

(OFF) O.K.

JIM:

(OFF) Jerry! Yo, Jerry...

1. JERRY: (CALLS) Hi, Jim...
2. JIM: (COMING ON) Thought I heard you and the dog up this way.
3. JERRY: (GLUMLY) Yeah. It looks bad for our side right now, Jim...
4. How's the fire?
5. JIM: All under control, Jerry. Just the two sets...I figured I
6. could join you and Bob now. Heard the hound howling all over
7. the place and it sounded like she was on a good trail.
8. JERRY: She was, up to now, Jim. Look, there's Bob bringing her back.
9. (SPLASHING, DOG WHINES OFF)
10. JIM: Look, Jerry. The dog's pulling Bob over there to those bushes
11. upstream.
12. (DOG HOWLS OFF, THEN BARKS STEADILY)
13. JERRY: Doggone, Jim. She's got the trail again. See? The scent must
14. be on those bushes hanging over the creek where our firebug
15. brushed against 'em.
16. BOB: (OFF) YOU better hurry if you're coming with us...
17. JIM: (UP) We're with you, Bob. Go ahead...C'mon, Jerry...
18. SPLASHING IN WATER, DOG HOWLS AND BARKS, OFF, FADE OUT
19. PAUSE:
20. FADE IN DOG BARKING, CRASHING IN BRUSH, BARKS GET STRONGER
21. BOB: (BREATHLESSLY) Good girl...Go it, Tess...
22. JERRY: (BREATHLESSLY) HOW YOU DOIN', Jim?
23. JIM: (BREATHLESSLY) She sure gives you a race, doesn't she?
24. BOB: It won't be long now. We're almost on 'im.....
- 25.

1. JERRY: Almost, nothing! There he is!...Look, Jim...Up there in that
2. tree, up ahead, see?

3. CRASHING OUT

4. JIM: By George, you're right, Jerry. There's a man up there, sure
5. enough...

6. BOB: I'll hold Tess here, Ranger. That bird might have a gun...
7. Hold, gal...That's a good Tess...Hold it...

8. BARKS OUT, DOG WHINES

9. JIM: (CALLS) All right, you. Come on down outa that tree.

10. JERRY: (SOTTO) Jim, what if he does have a gun? We're unarmed.

11. JIM: There won't be any fight in that feller, Jerry. He's whipped.
12. They usually are when they head for a tree that way...(CALLS)

13. Well, are you coming down, or do we come up there after you?

14. MACK: (OFF, SHAKY) I...I'll come down.. if you keep that hound away
15. from me...

16. JIM: (CALLS) We'll take care of the dog. Just get down out of that
17. tree...

18. SOUND OF SLIDING DOWN TREE, THUMP...

19. MACK: Keep him away...Keep that dog away.

20. DOG WHINES PLAYFULLY

21. JIM: You're under arrest, Mack Taylor...And you better come along
22. peaceable.

23. JERRY: Mack Taylor? How did you know who he is, Jim?

24. DOG WHINES PLAYFULLY

JERRY: Almost, nothing! In me he fell... look, Jim... by there in that tree, no sound, see?

GRAVING OUT

JIM: By George, you're right, Jerry. There's a man up there, sure enough...

BOB:

I'll hold Tens here, Ranger. That bird might have a gun.
Hold, gal... That's a good Tens... Hold it...

BARKS OUT, DOG WHINES

JIM:

(CALLS) All right, you. Come on down onto that tree.
(GOTO) Jim, what if he does have a gun? We're unarmed.

JERRY:

There won't be any fight in that fellow, Jerry. He's without them really are when they head for a tree that way.

JIM:

Well, are you coming down, or do we come in there after you?
(OK, SHAKY) I... I'll come down. If you keep that hand over your me...

JACK:

(CALLS) We'll take care of the dog. Just get down out of that tree...

JIM:

BOUNCE OF SLIDING DOWN TREE, THUM...

JACK:

Keep him away... Keep that dog away.

DOG WHINES PLAYFULLY

JIM:

You're under arrest, Mark Taylor... And you better come along peaceable.

JERRY:

Mark Taylor? How do you know who he is, Jim?

DOG WHINES PLAYFULLY

1. MACK: I'll come with yuh...only keep that dog away from me...
2. BOB: Aw, shut up. This dog ain't goin' to hurt you. It's just a
3. game of tag to her and you're it. Game's over, far's she's
4. concerned (STERN)....Only you better not try to run again,
5. brother.....
6. JERRY: (PRESSING) Jim, how did you know who this fellow is?
7. JIM: I've seen him around, Jerry. Lives out of Pineville...
8. JERRY: But..but you sounded almost as though you knew it was goin'
9. to be him when he came down onto the tree.
10. JIM: Yeah. I got the folks at the plant to send me pictures of all
11. the workers they'd laid off during the past month. Mack here
12. was one of the men they fired for poor work and downright
13. inefficiency. The only one of the lot who knows this country
14. well...so I put two and two together and.....
15. MACK: (SULLENLY) They coulda give me another chance before they fired
16. me.....Just 'cause I left some powder out was no reason for...
17. BOB: No? And supposin' that powder'd blown up a lot of other
18. fellas....Brother, you're nuts...I ain't no angel, but I
19. deserve more chance than you did... I never set the woods

brother.....

(PHEASING) Jim, how did you know who this fellow was?

JERRY :

I've seen him around, Jerry. Lives out of Riverside...

JIM :

But... but you sounded almost as though you knew it was going to be him when he came down onto the trees.

JERRY :

Yeah. I got the folks at the plant to send me pictures of all the workers they'd laid off during the past month. Yeah, some

JIM :

was one of the men they fired for poor work and downright

inefficiency. The only one of the lot who knows this country

well... so I put two and two together and.....

(SQUALLY) They couldn't give me another chance before they
