ONTARIO URGED TO SUPPORT VICTORY LOAN

Toronto, Oct. 16.—The people of Ontario are urged by the Premier, Sir William Hearst, to sustain the enviable record of the province for war effort by subscribing liberally to the Victory Loan of 1919. Sir William's statement is as follows: "I unhesitatingly recommend to the people of Ontario, who have taken second place to none in every war effort, the forthcoming 1919 Victory Loan, which is so vital to the continued prosperity of this province and the Dominion. "Every man, woman and child will, I feel sure, desire to buy a Victory

Bond, and thus add their share toward caring for and re-establishing in civil life the men who so valiantly fought for them."

VATICAN AND SOCIALISM.

London, Oct. 16.—The recent statement of the Bishop of Liverpool that Rome was reconsidering its attitude toward Socialism is denied by the Vatican authorities. ### REGISTRATION OF ONTARIO SOLDIERS

Arrangements for Late Arrivals to Vote in General Election

Guelph, Ont., Oct. 16.—Sir William Hearst, Premier of Ontario, last night announced that the Government had made arrangements for last-minute registration of returned soldiers for the coming Provincial general election.

"At the request of the various soldiers' organizations, the Government has issued instructions to the chairmen of the voters' registration boards, wherever soldiers still desire to be placed on lists, to hold sittings at the latest possible moment for returned soldiers only," said the Premier.

These sittings will be held as late as Saturday of this week, in order that every soldier who has returned to the country or who may return in time to vote on Monday will have an opportunity to vote.

Toronto, Oct. 16.—Sir William Hearst is busy helping Conservative candidates in various constituencies in the provincial general election campaign and apparently taking his own election in Sault Ste. Marie for granted. J. B. Cunningham, the labor candidate at the Soo, evidently is not disturbing the Premier, who continues to pursue the course he adopted early in the campaign, and is giving his assistance where he deems it most needed. Yesterday afternoon he made a flying visit to St. Catharines, where he addressed a gathering on behalf of the Conservative candidate in West Middlesex, D. J. McKenzie.

Hon. H. S. Cody, Minister of Education, yesterday afternoon addressed 300 women voters of North-east Toronto, where he was received by acclamation on Monday, and warned the electors that to have a strong Government, Ontario must have a Parliament in which the groups are not too big.

"At a big Liberal rally last night in Massey Hall here, where all the Liberal candidates in the city, including H. H. Dewar, the Liberal Leader, took part, a small sensation was sprung by ex-Alderman Joseph Singer, a Jew. He charged that attempts had been made on behalf of the Government to bribe the staff of The Hebrew Journal to quit work until after the election. He also charged that in one day, 150 bottles of "vishnick," which Mr. Dewar recently called "cherry brandy," was delivered to one address in Government vendors' wagons, the prescriptions for which had been made out for caretakers and sextons of syn-

SUPREME COUNCIL INVITES NEUTRALS TO JOIN THE LEAGUE

Paris, Oct. 16.—The Supreme Council yesterday approved the text of a notification to be addressed to the neutral powers which will be asked to join the League of Nations, setting forth the conditions under which they may adhere to the covenant of the League.

The Council also approved the draft note to be sent to Germany demanding the surrender to the Allied and Associated Powers of German ships which were turned over during the war to companies in the Netherlands and which are at present in German ports. The note declares that the sales are void because of their irregularity.

Another draft note to Germany, regarding German representations on the subject of alliance of Memel on the Eastern Baltic frontier of Germany, declares that the Allies decline to discuss the destiny of Memel with Germany, which renounced its rights over this territory by the Treaty of Versailles.

The solution of this question, it is said, concerns only the Associated and Allied Powers.

CLEMENCEAU WON FIGHT IN CHAMBER

"Tiger's" Cabinet Was Upheld on Vote by 324 to 132

Paris, Oct. 16.—The Clemenceau Ministry was sustained in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday afternoon by a vote of 324 to 132. The Premier thus victoriously emerged from the bitterest and best organized assault which the Ministry had ever faced. The Chamber adopted the Cabinet's policy on the chronological order of the elections, placing the legislative elections first, on November 16.

For the first time, Aristide Briand, former Premier, came out openly in leading the opposition forces, but M. Clemenceau's majority was the largest he had ever received when the question of confidence was presented.

In addition to fixing upon November 16 for the election of the members of the Chamber of Deputies, the Chamber decided on the following dates for other elections:

Municipal, November 30; councillors general, December 14, and Senatorial, January 11, 1920.

A Duel.

Premier Clemenceau had a bitter oratorical duel with M. Briand.

The result of the vote makes it positive that Clemenceau's platform will go before the people, the avowed intention of forcing a postponement of the mandate of the Chamber having failed.

Some newspapers here point out that the vote in the Chamber marks the virtual end of the present Parliament, the only matter still to be decided upon being the amnesty bill. Many newspapers, in commenting upon the vote in the Chamber, emphasize the success secured by the Premier, who, they say, was able to convince the Chamber "of the necessity of consulting the country as soon as possible."

SOVIET IDEA NOT POPULAR IN BUFFALO

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Complete returns compiled on the municipal primaries here show that the Communist Party, appearing on a ballot here for the first time and running on a platform calling for the Soviet form of Government, polled an average of less than 300 votes for its three candidates. The total vote cast was 54,000.

DE VALERA NOT TO SPEAK IN ARMORY

Tacoma, Oct. 16.—Use of the Tacoma State armory here for a meeting to be addressed by Eamonn de Valera was refused in a letter received last night by the Central Labor Council from Harvey J. Moss, Adjutant-General of the state.

De Valera is scheduled to speak here under union labor auspices November 12 and the Council announced last night that an appeal will be made to Governor Louis F. Hart to overrule the Adjutant-General's decision.

General Moss in his letter states that it is his understanding that the address is to be directed against the constituted Government of Great Britain, and for that reason the application of the Council and the Irish societies of this city must be denied.

FOOD CRISIS NOW THREATENS HUNGARY

Vienna, Oct. 15.—Via London, Oct. 16.—The food reserves of Hungary, depleted by Rumanian seizures, have been reduced to the danger point, and a most serious crisis is threatened, according to Budapest advices.

The Rumanians to-day, the advices state, attempted to seize some of Premier Friedrich's immediate following, and directed the arrest of Government officials.

The Inter-Allied Mission protested against this and other actions by the Rumanians, which were objected to. Reports from the trans-Danube region declare that the Rumanians, as their evacuation has proceeded, have systematically released the supporters of the Bolshevik regime who had been imprisoned.

Couldn't Get to Sleep Before Three in Morning; Gains Sixteen Pounds Taking Tanlac

"It's a fact I've gained sixteen pounds since I started taking Tanlac and don't feel a trace of my old troubles," said R. N. Miller, Alberta Loan Apartments, Calgary, Alberta, in an interview recently.

"Last fall I had a spell of the flu," continued Mr. Miller, "and it left me in a weakened run-down condition, and none of the medicines I took seemed to do me a bit of good. My stomach was out of order, and I couldn't digest my food, and after nearly every meal gas would form on my stomach and float me up so tight that I could hardly breathe. For several days at a time I couldn't eat a thing at all but cereals and milk, and even then I would have severe, cramping pains in my stomach and all of a sudden would break out in cold sweats. I had spitting headaches, would ache so hard I could feel the throbs with every beat of my heart, and almost every day I would have terrible pains all through my chest. I just hated to see night come because I was never able to go to sleep, hardly a single night, until after 3 o'clock in the morning, and I lost about fifteen pounds in weight and got so weak that I could hardly drag around."

"A friend advised me to take Tanlac and I tried it, and I'll tell you right here I've never seen anything in the world to beat it. I have taken five bottles, and why, already I've gained sixteen pounds and feel better and stronger than I did before I had the flu. In fact I don't feel like the same man at all I'm so much improved. I eat anything that's set before me now, and never have the least bit of trouble with my stomach, and when I go to bed I sleep like a log and have to have an alarm clock to wake me up in the morning. I haven't had a headache since I started taking Tanlac, and the pains in my chest and stomach have completely disappeared, and I don't have those cold sweats any more. Oh yes, go ahead and publish this statement for every word I've said is the truth, and I am too well pleased with Tanlac not to stick up to everything I have said and more too."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas—Advt.

A $250,000 FIRE IN TERMINAL CITY

Plant of B. C. Fir and Cedar Lumber Company Destroyed

Vancouver, Oct. 16.—Fire last night practically destroyed the plant of the B. C. Fir and Cedar Lumber Company, Sixth and Laurel Streets, with a loss estimated at over $250,000. The mill was burned to the piling on which it was erected, and the flames made their way into the yards and licked up 3,000,000 feet of lumber. The engine room is a total loss, while the greater part of the storage sheds fell prey to the blaze. The first alarm was turned in at 10:50 by Malcolm Smith, night engineer of the Chew Lumber Company, which plant adjoined that of the B. C. Fir plant on the western side. At one o'clock the fire was practically under control.

According to A. Morin, night engineer at the plant, the fire originated in the filling room over the boilerhouse.

Shed Burned.
A storage shed belonging to the Alberta Lumber Company, which adjoined the burning plant on the eastern side, was destroyed. It was only by strenuous efforts of the employees of that mill and the firemen that the Alberta plant was saved.

Several C. P. R. box cars loaded with lumber burned fiercely and added to the dangerous work of the firemen, who were imperilled by falling lumber and heavy timbers of the plant. There was danger of a 2,200-volt line into the mill coming down through the posts being burned.

The sash and door factory of the Martin-Johnson Company on Sixth Avenue was threatened for a time, as were also a number of residences on this street, the heat being terrific and sparks and embers flying in profusion.

PLANE LANDED AND PILOT WAS ARRESTED

Toronto, Oct. 16.—If A. L. Janney had not landed his flying machine at Cornwall to increase his supply of gasoline, he would not have been arrested on information telegraphed from Toronto. He is alleged to have presented a worthless cheque for $3,000 for a flying machine.

HOW WOULD HE DO IT?

Mr. Barnard says if the electors will send him to Ottawa he will make such a noise there that the Government either will change conditions or will lock him up. Major Burde declares the election of a few men like Mr. Barnard would be followed by a sudden drop in the price of commodities.

We do not challenge Mr. Barnard's sincerity in the way he has envisaged himself as a member at Ottawa, but we can assure him that for a considerable time he would make so little noise at Ottawa he scarcely would hear it himself. He would be given a seat on the back benches, where newcomers usually sit, and would discover that he would have to begin his noise-making with the soft pedal down. He would have to conform to the rules of the House, both as to the manner and matter of his remarks, as well as to the occasion of them, and if he did not observe them he would be removed by the Sergeant-at-Arms. A member cannot speak whenever he wants to speak or say whatever he wants to say.

Mr. Barnard is not the first political aspirant to declare on the hustings that if he were returned to Parliament he would make such a noise that Parliament and the Government would have to mend their ways. And if he were elected he would not be the first to make the unpalatable discovery that he was only a tyro, who had everything to learn; and who would have to linger for some time in comparative obscurity while he was building up influence in Parliament. The House of Commons is not a campaign platform. Mr. Barnard's inference that he would have as much influence upon the policy of the Government in respect of its attitude towards this constituency as Dr. Tolmie, a Cabinet Minister, is not a little amusing to anybody familiar with conditions at Ottawa.

Major Burde's prediction that the election of a few Barnards would be followed by a reduction of the prices of commodities is equally entertaining, especially in view of the Major's charge that the drydock is being used by Dr. Tolmie for election bait. What kind of bait is the Major's promise that a vote for Mr. Barnard means a step towards the reduction of the cost of living? He knows, of course, that the election in Victoria can have no more influence upon the cost of commodities than his own election to the Legislature as member for Alberni had a short time ago. How would it affect the price of wheat, for instance? If Mr. Barnard were running as a farmer in a farming constituency he probably would assure his constituents that if he were elected he would see that the price was made higher. Would the price of commodities in the United States, France and the United Kingdom drop also if Mr. Barnard were elected as the representative of Victoria in the Canadian Parliament?

Finally, in regard to Mr. Barnard's appeal for Labor support, how would he be able to assist that element at Ottawa? Could he persuade the Government to provide employment for the unemployed here, for instance, better than Dr. Tolmie, a member of the Government? How would he go about it? By making speeches? His opportunities for these would be sadly limited and they would have no influence upon the Government. By joining the official Opposition? The Government has a majority of more than fifty, and the official Opposition might not subscribe to Mr. Barnard's views at all, for he is not fighting under its colors. Mr. Barnard ought to furnish the public with more details of just how he would proceed to work the miracles he and Major Burde have promised would take place if the former were elected as member for this city.

THE NEW ENGLAND SALE.

The aldermen who criticized the sale of the New England property and the circumstances under which the arrangement was carried out on behalf of the city were on firm ground. The property, which had reverted to the municipality from the tax sale, was disposed of to the present purchaser for $7,000, the amount of the charges against it, the original owner, of course, having the right to redeem it by discharging that liability within a year. On the face of it the transaction was poor business and not in the public interest. The city could have held the property until the period allowed for its redemption had expired and then offered it for sale, preferably by public tender. In any case it should not have been disposed of for $7,000. It is valuable property, its assessment on land and building being $50,000, which will be found to be moderate enough when normal conditions are restored here.

Alderman Fullerton was quite right in demanding that transactions of this kind should be ventilated in open Council meeting, instead of being determined in the private sessions of the Finance Committee. No alderman should be expected to vote upon such a matter merely on the strength of a recommendation of the Finance Committee, to whose deliberations he may not have been a party. This transaction should have been first dealt with by the Council as a whole and then referred to the Finance Committee for investigation, while the report of the Committee should have been sufficiently illuminating to permit of the fullest discussion when it was submitted to the Council.

WHEREIN LIES THE ANALOGY?

We fail to catch the application of Major Burde's recital of the little sporting episode at Alberni, in which he and a doughty veteran of the ring were the leading actors. According to the Major, the contest between them had been "framed up," as a burlesque, to be a draw, but that he (the Major) unintentionally and unexpectedly knocked his adversary out in the second round. The Major's comparison between this incident and Dr. Tolmie and the drydock project, however, is so far off that few people will be able to see it. Besides, somebody might be rude enough to ask the Major if he is still diverting himself with burlesque.

HURRY THE SUGAR ALONG.

It is gratifying to know that Dr. Tolmie is doing his best to get more sugar for this Province, but unless Federal action is quickened to the point that will start a shipment from the eastern refineries there will be precious little preserving possible and a good deal of that section of British Columbia's fruit crop, set aside for the purpose, will be wasted. There was a certain amount of novelty during the first few days of a return to the rationing plan; but the continued absence of sweetening material is not only limited to an ordinary household annoyance; it means that bottled fruit, upon which the average housewife depends to no mean extent to relieve the strain on domestic finance, will be a scarce commodity where the late season fruits are concerned. Surely the Board of Commerce must realize the effect of this and a gentle hint to Canadian Trade Commissioner Fairburn, who has wired Dr. Tolmie that he hopes to have a favorable report by the end of this week, should result in speedy relief to a situation which no longer possesses any novelty.

ILLICIT STILLS.

It never can be said that the Dominion Government lacks matter for reflection during its treatment of temperance legislation. Senator Wilson's inquiry in the Senate elicited the startling reply that from April of the present year to date 424 illicit stills had been in operation in Canada, and that 318 had been seized by the authorities.

In the years 1916-17 thirteen stills were operating and ten of them were seized; in 1917-18 a slight increase took place, the numbers being fourteen and twelve respectively; as "dry" law became practically nation-wide 1918-19 saw an alarming leap in the volume of illicit manufacture; 191 new stills were in operation and 149 were duly accounted for. The most startling figures, however, are those for the six months of the present year.

According to size and ratio of population and opportunity "private enterprise" is fairly evenly distributed throughout the country, and out of the seventy stills doing business in this Province for the six months of the present year referred to, sixty-one were garnered in Ontario without doubt shocked to learn that its provincial escheatone is besmirched with the record of 129 new stills in operation from April to date, forty-six more than any other Province in the Dominion.

A USEFUL MISSION.

According to Mayor Brown, of Medicine Hat, the time has arrived when the business men of the country must lead in the development of its natural resources. Too much dependence, he says, has been placed upon the Governments of the various provinces hitherto. His Worship is correct in his statement and his particular knowledge of Alberta and British Columbia has encouraged him to a mission of co-operation between the two neighbors east and west of the Rockies.

In an interview with the press, Mr. Brown explained the reason for his visit to the Pacific Coast. He is the President of the Alberta Industrial Development Association, and he seeks to interest British Columbia business men in the formation of an association designed to secure capital and manufactures for the development of resources virtually in the back yards of the two Provinces.

Mr. Brown may be sure of support in Victoria for his plans. As far as the Government of this Province is concerned its financial means are too limited to permit of its launching out into enterprises more properly belonging to the realm of commerce. However, through its Department of Industries—a pioneer governmental enterprise—it seeks to aid the native sagacity of her returned citizens or such concerns as may assist in the employment phase of British Columbia's own repatriation problems. Beyond that official support must necessarily confine itself to the elimination of "red tape" in connection with all bonafide development plans and the maintenance of a vigilant eye for the commercial adventurer, whose creative genius invariably erects a monopoly detrimental to the interests of the people as a whole.

It is obvious, however, that if British Columbia develops agriculturally the natural carollory is expansion industrially. If the Government takes the lead in the former, private enterprise should have sufficient faith in the future to see that the smokestack keeps pace with the farm.

The Morning Post, of London, bewails the passing of the lauds of England to "men without culture, without knowledge, without mercy, without mercy, without tradition." This is how King John must have lamented the passing of liberty from the exclusive possession of himself and his favorites to the people of England.

COOKE ON STAMM AT TERMINAL CITY

Minister Speaks of Vancouver Wholesalers at Commerce Board Inquiry

Vancouver, Oct. 16.—Quoting at length from statements made in the examinations for discovery in the lawsuits of Chess Bros. vs. Oppenheimer and Chess Bros. vs. McNair, Rev. A. E. Cooke contended at the cost of living inquiry here yesterday that sufficient evidence had been given there to show that a combine existed among the Water Street wholesalers, and that this "ring," as he had termed it in his sermon preached from the pulpit of the First Congregational Church and since printed in pamphlet form, had excluded a boycott over one firm of produce dealers on the street, not a member of the Vancouver Fruit and Produce Association.

In regard to his charges that large quantities of foodstuffs had been destroyed at the city incinerator, and that this had been part of the scheme to maintain prices, he said that while he did not charge that there had been wholesale destruction of foodstuffs fit for consumption, he did maintain that produce was held for higher prices until it had become unfit for food.

Three Witnesses. Commissioner Hulme, just before adjournment in the afternoon, intimated that as a result of the examination of Mr. Cooke, three witnesses, whose names were handed in by Mr. Cooke to the Commissioner, would be called to the stand and examined regarding their knowledge of foodstuffs burned or otherwise destroyed by the alleged wholesale "ring" in Vancouver.

S. S. Taylor, K.C., who is appearing on behalf of the wholesalers of Water Street who are members of the Vancouver Fruit and Produce Association, cross-examined Mr. Cooke, who was supported by Wm. Savage, who appeared as counsel for him, but Mr. Cooke required little assistance.

Government Control. In the opinion of Mr. Cooke, the proper solution of the high cost of living is the elimination of middlemen in business altogether, and the establishment of Government-controlled storages and Government and municipally-controlled public markets. Mr. Cooke also expressed opinion that, apart from very valuable publicity, the present Commission would not present any solution of the problem, nor affect conditions in any way.

The evidence of Mr. Cooke consisted of a statement to the Dominion Government counsel, J. B. Partullo, K.C., of the stories that had been told him of the alleged practices followed by Water Street merchants in holding food for high prices or destroying it altogether, and quotations from the sermon which has been printed in pamphlet form and which alleges that large quantities in of food were destroyed in the city incinerator.

Price Fixing. Questioned by Mr. Taylor, the witness stated that he did not see anything wrong in the Association dealing with credits provided it was done fairly and honestly, but he distinctly thought it was wrong for the Association to fix prices to the detriment of the general public.

"Are you against trade unions, Mr. Cooke?" asked Mr. Taylor. "No," answered the witness. "Even if they exist to fix a price for their labor?" suggested counsel. "Their object is to secure a fair living wage," returned the witness. "And the middleman's object is to secure reasonable profits as a means of livelihood," said Mr. Taylor. Dealing with the charges made by the witness both in his printed sermon and on the witness stand before the Commission, counsel for the wholesalers asked the witness: "Can you point out any profit fixed in Vancouver by any wholesale firm that was not proper?"

"No, I cannot," replied Mr. Cooke. "Then until you can we are not getting anywhere, are we?" asked Mr. Taylor.

"You and I are not getting anywhere in any event," Mr. Taylor, returned the witness.

How to Kill Dandruff So It Won't Return

By a Specialist.

That the dandruff germ is responsible for nearly all the diseases to which the scalp is heir, as well as for baldness and premature gray hair, is a well-known fact. We appreciate, therefore, the importance of any agent that will destroy its power. For this reason it is a pleasure to give herewith the prescription which a famous scalp specialist states he has found after repeated tests will completely destroy the dandruff germs in from one to three applications. It will also almost immediately stop falling hair and it has in numerous cases produced a new hair-growth after years of partial baldness. This prescription can be made up at home, or any druggist will put it up for you—4 ounces Bay Rum, 2 ounces Lavender Compound, one-half drachm Menthol Crystals, Mix thoroughly, and after standing an hour is ready for use. Apply night after night, morning, rubbing into the scalp with the finger tips. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. While this preparation is not a dye it is unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color.

MAY MOVE HOIST FOR G. T. P. PLAN

Liberals Object to Government's Scheme Under Present Conditions

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—The Liberals may move that the Government's proposed Grand Trunk Railway legislation be given a six-months' hoist. This is regarded as a probable development in the light of the skirmish in the Commons yesterday afternoon when the matter came up. To a motion that consideration of the resolution be taken up in the committee, the Liberals made serious objections and divided the House. The Government won the first round with a majority of 20, the vote for the motion standing at 68 to 38 against. With many members, more particularly those from Ontario, absent, the list of pairs was a long one.

Information Wanted. In committee the discussion did not take the form of a set debate, but developed into a quest for information. Many questions were asked and answered. Apparently the Liberals were feeling their way and endeavoring to lay the groundwork for the set speeches they will deliver when the principles underlying the Government's proposals are discussed on the second reading of the bill based upon the resolution. The question of nationalization of railways was not broached, and Mr. Robb, in a brief speech, reiterated the statement he had made after the Liberal caucus in the forenoon. He thought the matter of taking over a huge system of railways might under present circumstances be left over until next session.

Replying to questions as to the probable value of the stock, the worth of which is to be fixed by arbitration, Hon. Arthur Meighen said that in one way it is not worth anything, because no dividends ever have been paid upon it. He gave market quotations to show that it is quoted from 9 to 11 in London. Hon. J. D. Reid pressed the argument that if the Grand Trunk was not taken over it would be necessary to spend from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 in branch lines and terminals for the Government roads in the East during the next few years. Replying to a question by Mr. Vien, he stated that the Grand Trunk is being taken over because of the difficult position it finds itself in with regard to the Grand Trunk Pacific.

List of Shareholders. The Opposition pressed for a complete list of shareholders, but Mr. Meighen could not see how the House was concerned in such a list, whereupon Joseph Archambault remarked that "there must be a nigger in the woodpile." Mr. Meighen assured him that there was not. Referring to the rise in the value of Grand Trunk stocks on the London market, Mr. Meighen stated that these stocks will be increased by arbitration would be disappointed. Rowell's Opinion. Hon. N. W. Rowell declared that opposition to the Government's proposal was confined to the C. P. R.

and certain interests in Montreal, West of the Ottawa River, three-quarters of the people favored it.

D. D. McKenzie argued that it was absurd for the Grand Trunk to dictate terms when it was on the verge of a receivership. There was no valid reason, he said, why the company should not go into the hands of a receiver.

Dr. Reid maintained that if forced into liquidation, the Grand Trunk would fall into the hands of the C. P. R.

At question time Mr. Duff inquired what the cost had been of the publication of the Canadian Official Record, including salaries.

Mr. Rowell replied that the first number had appeared on October 1, 1918, and the last on April 28, 1919. The total cost had been $40,134.

Mr. Sutherland asked if any explanation had been required from the Board of Commerce in regard to the alleged statement by Mr. O'Connor that all vendors of milk who increased the price would be punishable by a fine of $1,000 and two years' imprisonment.

No explanation had been asked for, was the reply, as this seemed to have simply been a warning of the Commissioner with an indication of possible penalties for disobeying orders that may have been passed by the Board.

Replying to a question by Mr. Gauvreau, Mr. Rowell said that an advisory board had been appointed by the Government to comply with the Patent Medicines Act passed last session. It was the intention of the Government to ask this board to report on Tanlac.

In Senate. Ottawa, Oct. 16.—That the policy of the Government with respect to existing railways was defective, was alleged by Senator Power in the Senate yesterday.

Sir James Loughheed said he would have a Government bill next week which would lead to a large discussion of the Canadian railway situation. Until then he would defer discussion.

B. C. AND ALBERTA INDUSTRIAL CONGRESS

Vancouver, Oct. 16.—Unanimous endorsement has been given by the Vancouver Board of Trade to the proposal to hold a joint industrial congress of British Columbia and Alberta next year. Mayor Brown of Medicine Hat, president of the Alberta Industrial Association, brought the matter to the attention of the Board, having been invited to British Columbia by representatives of this Province who took part in the Industrial Congress held at Edmonton and Calgary this summer.

In explaining the objects of the Association and the work that it was attempting to do through its congress, he advocated the abolition of politics in Western Canada for a period of ten years and the fullest co-operation of the business interests of the two most westerly provinces, in the development of the resources within their confines.

PROPOSED PLAN TO BRING MATERNITY
NURSES TO CANADA

To Combine Nursing and Household Duties in Rural Districts

From time to time the attention of women resident in the cities is forcibly drawn to the less happy lot of the women in the isolated rural communities. The influenza epidemic which swept through the country last year worked dreadful havoc in the outlying settlements where no doctors and nurses were available and where whole families were prostrated by the scourge with the result that many valuable lives which might have been saved with careful nursing were lost to the Nation. While it must be admitted that the conditions extant during the epidemic are, happily, infrequent, yet all who know of pioneer life in any community will realize that the question of an adequate nursing service is always a burning one.

Nursing and Household Work.
For this reason more than ordinary interest attaches to the proposal of the Overseas Nursing Association, which was endorsed at the meeting of the Lady Douglas Chapter recently, regarding nursing and household work. This scheme emanated from the Imperial Institute, London, England and is being sent to the various primary chapters of the I.O.D.E. as well as to the Canadian Red Cross for an expression of opinion as to its feasibility.

The proposal is to send out to Canada from England, under the auspices of the Overseas Nursing Association, competent trained maternity nurses for work in the outlying districts. These women differ from the ordinary graduate nurse in that they are trained in all classes of housework and undertake household duties and care of children, in order to give the expectant mother opportunity to rest during the pre-natal period, and the necessary recuperation after confinement. These nurses have proved invaluable in the outlying villages in Britain, being fully qualified to attend both mother and child, even without a doctor should urgent necessity arise.

25,000 War Brides.

As Mrs. J. D. Gordon explained in support of the proposal to the Lady Douglas Chapter, there are now 25,000 young war-brides in Canada, brought back from England by Canadian soldiers. Many of them have gone with their husbands into the outlying and sparsely settled communities to take up farming under pioneering conditions. It is in the interests of the nation that every provision should be made to build up the health of these women, the future mothers of Canadians, and to ensure that maternity comes to them under the best conditions possible. Many a pioneer woman is to-day suffering from the effects of lack of proper care at childbirth.

An Urgent Need.

Already in her brief tenure of the office of Director of the Homes Branch of the Soldiers' Settlement Board Mrs. Gordon has come in contact with this need for capable maternity nurses who would undertake household duties.

It has been found impossible to obtain such help in Canada where the graduate nurse is in such demand as to preclude the possibility of her going out to rural communities and working under these conditions. Nor does the Victorian Order of Nurses quite fill this particular need, for this splendid organization is limited strictly to visiting, the nurses not being available for a sojourn in the home of a patient.

Financial Plans.

Under the proposed scheme it is suggested that the maternity nurses be given a yearly salary and that her living expenses while out of employment be paid by a Maternity Nursing Committee. All fees, which should be on a sliding scale to suit the financial condition of the expectant mother, would then be handed to the Committee. It is probable that suitable women could be sent out under these conditions for a salary of about $40 to $50 per month.

The National Council has sent copies of the leaflet embracing full particulars of the proposed scheme to each primary Chapter for consideration. The covering letter from the National suggests that some of the money in the "Mary E. Gooderham Emergency Fund" might be used to assist the committees in paying the expenses of these nurses, in the event of the scheme being adopted.

Gartshore Gets Bail.—A. L. Gartshore was admitted to bail on his own recognizances of $1,000 and two sureties of like amount when the habeas corpus matter was argued before Chief Justice Bunter in Supreme Court Chambers yesterday afternoon by his solicitor, Charles Wilson, K. C., and A. M. Johnson, Deputy Attorney General. The facts of the charge laid against Gartshore under the Prohibition Act and the proceedings in Court have already been reported in The Times.

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE SQUASH PIE.
Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. (By Howard R. Garis.)

"How soon are we going to have some pumpkin pie, Nurse Jane?" asked Uncle Wiggly Longears of his muskrat lady housekeeper one morning.

"It's a little early for pumpkin pie," Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy answered, as she cleared away the breakfast dishes and prepared to sweep the hollow stump bungalow. "If you would get me a squash, though, I could make you a pie from that."

"Oh, yes, that's so! Squash pie is pretty good!" Uncle Wiggly said. "Well, I'll hop right along and see if I can find one. When will it be time for pumpkin pie, Nurse Jane?"

"About Hallowe'en," she answered. "But, I think you'll like the squash kind almost as well."

"I'm sure to if you bake it," spoke the bunnny gentleman, with a low and polite bow of his tail, silk hat.

Soon he was hopping away over the fields and through the woods to Grandfather Goosey Gander's farm, where the squash vines grew.

Grandpa Goosey was very glad to see Uncle Wiggly, and wanted the rabbit gentleman to stay and have lunch with him. But the bunnny said: "I had better hurry home to Nurse Jane with the squash for pie. When I have taken that to her I'll come back and see you."

"Please do," begged Grandpa Goosey, and he gave his rabbit gentleman friend one of the largest green squashes in the garden. A squash is not like a pumpkin, you see, it is green instead of being yellow.

"Will you be able to carry it, Uncle Wiggly?" asked Grandpa Goosey as

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

Social Personal

Mrs. Wentworth Wood, of Vancouver, is spending a few days in the city, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin S. Wheatley.

Mrs. Chas. E. Wilson and Mrs. Wallace Grime are among the Victorians who have registered at the Hotel Vancouver recently.

The Shrine Patrol, Gish Temple, A. F. and A. M., have planned to hold a social gathering to-morrow evening at the Alexandra Club ball-room.

Lt.-Col. and Mrs. C. A. Worsnop, who came over from Vancouver to attend the marriage of Col. Humble, returned to the mainland city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Trevor Han has returned to her home in this city after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Lindsay, Beach Avenue, Vancouver, for several weeks.

Mrs. J. MacDonald Fahay, who will leave with her husband for New York on Monday next, will receive at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. H. Lugin, 870 Esquimalt Road, to-morrow from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. McGregor, of Harrison Hot Springs, wife of James McGregor, Government Inspector of Metalliferous Mines for the Kootenays, has left for Vancouver after a short visit with Mrs. J. T. McDonald, of "Argyle," Terrace Avenue.

Mrs. George Ridgway, of Victoria, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Edward Betterton, and her brothers, Messrs. Sydney Betterton, of Eighth Avenue, and Phillip Betterton, Tenth Avenue West, Vancouver.

Miss Barker, of Vancouver, has been appointed by the Women's Institutes of Cowichan as district nurse at Duncan, her activities to cover a radius of five miles. Her duties will commence about November 1.

asked a rough voice, and there stood the bad old Skuddlemagoon. "I—I am going home, if you please," answered the rabbit gentleman.

"Well, I don't please, and you're not going home!" snapped the Skuddlemagoon. "You're coming with me to my den!"

"What for?" asked Mr. Longears, though full well he knew. "So I can bite some off your ears!" cried the Skuddlemagoon. "What have you there?" he asked.

"Squash—for pie!" answered the bunnny. But he was feeling so bad, that his voice trembled, and he sort of whispered in the middle, so all that the Skuddlemagoon heard were the words:

"Squash—pie." "Oh, ho! Squash pie; eh?" spoke the bad chap. "Well, hand that over first! Afterward we'll see about your sauce. Hand me that squash pie. Throw it here!" he cried, rough like and derogatory.

Uncle Wiggly thought quickly. He remembered how tough the squash was—almost like the Skuddlemagoon. Then, raising the green vegetable, which the bad chap thought was a soft pie, the bunnny threw it straight at the unpleasant creature.

"Biff! Bang! Crack!" went the squash on the end of the Skuddlemagoon's nose. Then the squash bounced off, hit the ground, bounced up again and was going to bang the bad chap a second time when the Skuddlemagoon cried:

"Oh, no; you don't! Once is enough for me! I don't like squash pie as much as I thought I would!" And, holding his sore nose, away he ran, not hurting Uncle Wiggly at all.

The bunnny picked up the squash, which was only scratched a little, and took it to Nurse Jane. She opened it with the axe, cooked the inside part nice and soft, and made a most delicious pie with molasses.

So that is the story of the squash. It teaches us that even onions may be of some use in this world. And if the gold fish doesn't go swimming in the gravy boat and make the sugar spoon fall into the salt cellar, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the mole.

He picked it up and carried it a little farther. Just as he reached the top of a big, steep hill the bunnny slipped and dropped the squash again.

Down it rolled, head over heels, bumpily bump and plunk-o it went! Right against a big rock.

"Oh, now it is surely spoiled!" thought Uncle Wiggly. "No squash pie for me!"

But when he ran down to the squash there it was, resting on a pile of leaves and not hurt in the least.

"Well, that squash is certainly hard," spoke the bunnny. "I don't see how Nurse Jane is ever going to make that into a tender pie. I guess I'd better wait for Hallowe'en and pumpkin time."

Still Uncle Wiggly had promised the muskrat lady to bring her a squash, and that he would do. He picked up the round, green vegetable, and, tucking it under his paw, once more he started off.

"I hope I have no more accidents," said the bunnny to himself. But as had not gone more than five hops and half a skip before, all at once, something jumped out from behind a tree and stood on the path in the woods right in front of Uncle Wiggly.

"Hold on! Where are you going?"

Members of the Lady Douglas Chapter, I. O. D. E., and representatives of various other chapters in the city assembled in the Empress ball-room yesterday afternoon to extend a welcome home to Lady Currie, a member of the chapter since its inception. Lady Currie, who was accompanied by her distinguished husband, General Sir Arthur Currie, returned many old friendships and made new acquaintances at the informal gathering.

On arrival the guests were received by Mrs. B. McMeeking, the regent, Mrs. W. J. H. Holmes, Mrs. A. N. Moutat, Mrs. Stewart Williams, Mrs. H. A. Whillans, Mrs. Rolston and Mrs. Colin Cummins. Tea was served at an array of small tables dotted about the ballroom, each centred with a vase of flowers, and presenting a festive appearance. Seated with Sir Arthur and Lady Currie were Mrs. McMeeking, Mrs. John Oliver, Mrs. W. J. Bowser, Lady McBride, Mrs. C. de V. Schofield, Mrs. D. M. Eberts, Mrs. Jos. Holmes, Mrs. Hamilton Gray, Mrs. Scriven and Mrs. McPhillips.

During the afternoon Mrs. McMeeking voiced the chapter's welcome to Sir Arthur and Lady Currie, and presented the latter with the 1914 war badge of the Order. In thanking the chapter on behalf of his wife, Sir Arthur paid eloquent tribute to the work of the I. O. D. E., citing numerous instances to show the value of the comforts sent by the Order to the men in France. He expressed the hope that the women would not cease their activities with the advent of peace, and suggested that they give their whole-hearted support to the forthcoming Victory Loan campaign.

Because of what they consider his staunch stand for constitutional and parliamentary methods instead of anything favoring of direct action, the Victoria Trades and Labor Council, which is the parent body of all the union organizations in the city, last night endorsed the candidature of Thomas A. Barnard against the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture.

Labor men were discussing the move to-day as the Council is not supposed to be a political body and theoretically refrains from any participation in elections. It is coming out flat-footed in this struggle, however.

Mr. Barnard spoke at the meeting after he left the down-town gatherings.

"It is no use trying any other methods until you have exhausted all constitutional methods," said Mr. Barnard for British constitutional methods against all that savors of direct action.

Same As Council's Stand. Christian Sivertz also spoke.

AERIAL DANCE WAS SOCIAL SUCCESS

Flags, colored bunting and the tasteful decorations of the electrolers imparted a brilliant aspect to the dance held under the auspices of the Aerial League of Canada at the Alexandra Club last night. Last night's function was the third of the series arranged by the League and the outstanding success fully justified the members' reputation as admirable hosts.

Over two hundred were in attendance and danced till an early hour to the strains of "jazz" supplied by Heaton's orchestra. A novel feature was the introduction of "The Maxima," a grand dance with intricate steps in which four couples joined, while the less intrepid contented themselves with the role of spectators. Delicious supper was served in the downstairs cafe, where the ballroom decorative scheme was repeated.

Much credit for the success of the affair is due to the committee. Messrs. R. G. Christy, R. Greig, G. A. Cameron and W. Kirkpatrick-Crockett, who were responsible for the general arrangements.

Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

TELLS SAFE AND SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME.

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following remedy which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Earsol, a granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, dizziness, dulness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucous dripping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing is restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.

PARENTS CHARGE PUPILS OVERLOADED WITH SCHOOL WORK

Tell Trustees Teachers Want to Make Records For Themselves

Attacks on the practice of overloading with home work pupils in the High School entrance classes of the public schools of the city, particularly the Girls' Central School, are being made by parents. These complaints have been brought before individual members of the School Board, who are looking into the situation, as they say they are receiving complaints from all over.

Cases of overloading have been brought to the attention of High School teachers who have declared the condition to be "a crime."

Parents who are making the protests assert that the children in their school work are judged solely on the points they make day by day on their home work. This has led to the loading more and more on the pupils in their efforts to make a good showing for themselves before the inspector at the end of the year. Parents declare that the over-loading results in the pupils having no time for recreation, to study music or art or to help around the house.

Parents have submitted to School Trustees and made public one night's quota of work that a Girls' Central School teacher ordered her class to do this week. It has been submitted to authorities in the High School who declare that they themselves could not do the tasks in less than two hours.

A sample of this Girls' Central quota of work for one night for girls of twelve years of age follows:

1. Write on the "Petition of Right," its date and chief provisions.
2. Write account of the long parliament, dates and chief numbers.
3. Explain fully the causes, that led to the Civil War in the reign of Charles I. Give events with dates. What was the outcome of the war.
4. Give brief notes on Land, Wentworth, Hampden, Ship-money, Cavaliers, Roundheads and Ironsides.
5. Arithmetic; page 208. Number 14 and 15. Notes on Discount.
6. Spelling, exercise 24.
7. History—Charts I. written review. Bring in corrected papers.
8. Lady of the Lake—in stanza.
9. Memory—Review Canto I—Stanza 18, down to "snow."
10. Grammar—Exercise on case and analysis page 113. Learn definition of noun in apposition and nominative of address.

There were in the neighborhood of 100 employees under Lieut.-Colonel J. S. Harvey, when the transfer was made, and with the work of handling men returning from overseas rapidly diminishing, the staff is now reduced to about twenty. The transfer was made Tuesday, and Lieut.-Colonel Harvey and his staff are now housed in the Army on Bay Street with the other offices of M.D. No. 11. A sub-depot under Lieut. Arthur Hudson will be conducted on the mainland. Soldier patients in the mainland hospitals have been discharged or turned over to the S.C.R. for treatment. The office of the representative of the A.A.G. in Vancouver was also closed down yesterday.

ISLAND IS FAVORED FOR SHEEP RAISING

Prospects Will Be Investigated and Flocks Will Be Established

Possibilities of sheep raising on Vancouver Island on a large scale are arousing a great deal of interest at the present time, and a number of visitors from outside points are making investigations in the matter, according to J. G. Thomson, of the Victoria and Island Development Association, who has been requested to furnish information as to the available land for such an enterprise.

"Vancouver Island is wonderfully adapted to sheep ranching and the district is favored in that there is an absence of large numbers of wild animals which in some countries prove such a detriment to sheep raising," says Mr. Thomson.

Woolen manufactures, textile works and knitting mills are industries that should be thriving in a city like Victoria and in addition to the wool raised on Vancouver Island the supply of material to meet the demand in the situation could be imported from Australia. Mr. Thomson points out that the knitting mills of Vancouver cannot supply the demand, and he also emphasizes the fact that much of the woolen goods used in the East is made from Australian wool, and the goods are shipped all the way back to the Pacific Coast, where the people have to pay the additional transportation charges on everything they use.

The climatic conditions, which are so favorable, and the fact that Vancouver Island has many acres of logged-off lands that are now lying idle, are the factors which have developed among visitors to the island who are expert in matters pertaining to sheep raising and have made up their minds to investigate the possibilities of establishing some large flocks.

Mr. Sloan made a short stay at Nelson, where he met the Board of Trade for the purpose of discussing the affairs of the French Complex Ore Reduction Company, Ltd. This company, it was pointed out, has received support from the Provincial Government to the extent of approximately $65,000, its bonds having been guaranteed first for $40,000 by the McBride administration and later by the present Legislature, for an additional $25,000. The object was to permit the demonstration of the French electrolytic process in the handling of the complex ores of the Kootenay districts. The commercial feasibility of such a process in the treatment of silver-lead-zinc ores has now been established. Under the circumstances Mr. Sloan could not comment that the Government's contribution behind the French Complex Reduction Company in a financial sense to any greater extent.

One Month's Grace

To the Nelson Board of Trade the relationship between the Government and the company was explained clearly and in detail by Mr. Sloan. He expressed himself as sympathetic with those who had put their money into the French Reduction Company and trusted that they would be able to reorganize and to put the plant on a producing basis. To give them an opportunity to do this, Mr. Sloan said that the Government would take no action with regard to the mortgage held by the Province for at least a month.

Answering questions asked by members of the board he stated that, should the Dominion Government consider that the Fairview plant can be used for the ore testing plant it is proposed to establish in British Columbia, and in the event of the French Company's directors failing to reorganize and arrange for the launching of a self-supporting industry, the Provincial Government, he thought would be disposed to turn over to the Federal authorities the Fairview plant and buildings at a nominal rental.

The members of the board took up other matters of mining interest to the Kootenays with Mr. Sloan, such as the appointment of another district engineer or the provision of an assistant to Mr. Langley, who is in charge of the entire East Kootenay area. They were assured by Mr. Sloan that, while no action had been taken, yet he appreciated the necessity and it was not forgotten. They also were told that he had in mind further assistance to prospectors by the placing in offices of gold commissioners and mining recorders or players of minerals not commonly known in this Province.

The board, at the conclusion of the conference, tendered Mr. Sloan a unanimous vote of thanks.

In the Sloan

Speakers of the Sloan, it was stated by Mr. Sloan that there could be no doubt that mining conditions there were most satisfactory. He inspected several of the well-known silver-lead properties, among which was the Silvermith, the old Sloan Star, entering the mine at the tenth level, he explored the workings up to the eighth level. He saw one of the prettiest ore showings that has been seen for sixteen years on this property.

The Clarence Cunningham concentrator at Alamo was reported to be working smoothly and good progress is being made on the 200-ton concentrator, which is being built for the Noble Five property. The McAllister, Ivanhoe and Surprise properties were mentioned by Mr. Sloan as being promising, while it was stated that the S. Standard, formerly the banner producer, is being developed in some new areas.

Fernie and Michel

In Fernie and Michel the coal mines of the Crown's Nest Pass Coal Company were found by Mr. Sloan to be working steadily. While production had not yet got back to normal, following the recent strike, it gradually was arriving at that point. With reference to labor troubles, the Minister stated that the loss in wages alone, through strikes in the Crown's Nest Pass field amounted to close to $1,000,000 in the past four years.

MINISTER OF MINES BACK FROM INTERIOR

Hon. William Sloan Declares Mining Prospects to Be Exceedingly Bright

That the coal mines of the Crown's Nest field are gradually regaining their normal daily output after the recent strike and that conditions generally, particularly with reference to the silver-lead properties of the Sloan and other sections of the Kootenays, are very gratifying, is the opinion expressed this morning by Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines, in summing up his impressions after a tour of the province which took him through the eastern and some of the southern mining divisions.

INFLAMED GUMS—CAUSE OF LOOSE TEETH

Pyorrhea, is undoubtedly a vital danger to both gums and teeth. Tender gums indicate it, and with it come loosening teeth. Imperceptibly, at first, the gums recede from the normal gum line. They inflame. They present many tiny openings for millions of bacteria to attack the unguarded tooth base. Tooth-base decay quickly follows. Even if the cavity be filled and the tooth saved, the gums continue to recede. Remember, too, that inflamed and bleeding gums not only many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infecting joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.

Against this Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease) ordinary tooth-pastes are powerless. Yet Pyorrhea attacks four out of five people who are over forty, and many under this age. But Forhan's is used in time and used consistently—positively prevents Pyorrhea. It is a scientific tooth cleaner as well. Brush your teeth with it. See how promptly bleeding or gum tenderness ceases and how your teeth are kept white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 35c and 60c tubes. All Druggists.

"KIND OF REDS" ON BARNARD'S PLATFORM

War Veterans' Field Secretary Takes Issue With Frank Higgins

Announcing that on his return to Victoria October 22 he will appear on the platform for T. A. Barnard, the labor candidate, ex-Sergeant Major Jimmy Robinson, D.C.M., Field Secretary for British Columbia of the Great War Veterans' Association on Tuesday, he expressed his regret at the recent speech made by Frank Higgins. "It is owing to the remarks which have appeared on the papers about men of the Barnard type that I am going to appear on the labor candidate's platform," says Robinson. In view of the remarks made about red and anarchists I would like to quote my career as a "red."

Robinson pointed out that he joined the British Army in 1877, served in the Zulu War under Lord Chelmsford in 1879, at Sakakula, 1879 and part of 1880. Was in the first Boer War, 1880-1881, being in the 94th Infantry Regiment in each of the above campaigns. He served in India with the Second Royal Dublin Fusiliers and in the last Boer War served with a Natal Indian Regiment, and the Prince of Wales Light Horse, winning two medals and nine clasps.

Robinson went overseas for the great conflict just ended with the 7th Battalion in 1914 and was among the first Canadians to be decorated with the D. C. M.

"That man has no right to speak of me and men like me as a 'Red,'" commented Robinson.

The NAVY LEAGUE of CANADA
Its Vital Work for Canada

THE Navy League of Canada fosters the splendid spirit that made the British the greatest of maritime nations. It organizes loyal Canadians so that practical work may be accomplished for the development of Canada's direct interests at sea.

The human side of Canada's mercantile marine is the League's especial interest—training Canadian boys to become the sturdy type of British manhood that won its laurels again and again in the great war—relieving distress among victims of the submarine warfare—and giving the sailor ashore an alternative place for rest and recreation to the peace of doubtful entertainment that abound in port.

Why the $500,000 is Needed

On Nelson Day, October 21st, starts a 3-day campaign throughout the Dominion to raise $500,000 necessary to finance the coming year's work of the Navy League of Canada. Help the work by giving liberally. As a nation whose expanding trade will depend on exports, we must educate our boys to the highest type of seamanship so that they will be equipped to man our ships to carry our exports to foreign markets.

You will do your part in this work by contributing liberally to the support of the Boys' Naval Brigades, the organizations by which the Navy League trains boys for our merchant marine.

Every dollar subscribed will be used to further the work of the Navy League in Canada—the work in which you are personally interested as a patriotic citizen. Help by giving.

THE VICTORIA BOY SCOUTS ASSOCIATION
By an Old Member.

Some ten years ago a copy of Baden-Powell's "Scouting for Boys" drifted into Victoria and was passed round from one to another until perhaps half a dozen men had come under its inspiring and compelling influence. And the Victoria Boy Scouts Association came into being.

Without available advertisement, and unknown to the majority of the people, ever since it has exercised its powerful and deep influence on the life of the community, impregnating the sense of patriotism, chivalry, honor and unselfishness, not only in the boys but in the scoutmasters and even in the older men on the executive committee.

There was a wonderfully rapid growth, considering how little the directing minds really appreciated either what they were doing or how to do it. But they built much more substantially than they knew.

It was not smooth sailing, the principles of the movement were bitterly assailed by one of the most prominent leaders of the Socialist party, who thought he saw something antagonistic to his political views, in the enunciation of principles of patriotism, chivalry, honor and unselfishness. Many of his followers adopted his views.

Some people thought they saw incipient militarism, or some equally horrible "ism" which if successful would inevitably lead to results contrary to their pet theories. None of these phantasies did any real harm, they were too absurd. Boyish sense of honor came into play and was sufficient answer.

Then narrow sectarianism tried to show its head and make trouble for a while. Probably if the then leader had known his work a little better he would have put the trouble down much quicker by heavy hand. But it died out and is forgotten now, except by those who have tried to profit by the lesson.

A camp of over 200 scouts took place with most satisfactory results. Baden-Powell came, inspected the scouts and inspired the scoutmasters to greater effort and self sacrifice.

Sir Robert addressed a crowded meeting in the old theatre, but without obvious result. Some good people offered money, but the scouts did not want money, they wanted something much more costly, much harder to give, personal interest, effort and work. Money might have been useful, had the executive known as much and as they know now, but it was men and ability for work which seemed to be the need. The scouts continued with their work, twice they were able to turn out by the hundred to assist in the search for lost persons, many times Troops were of service in putting out bush fires and numerous acts of individual bravery in rescue from drowning took place. The principles of preparedness for public service and self sacrifice had early taken a deep hold.

The scouts steadily increased in numbers until there were 18 Troops and nearly 400 scouts in Victoria and its suburbs.

And then, what some had long foreseen, came, that great test of patriotism, chivalry, honor and self sacrifice: August 4, 1914. Every scout had promised to honor God and King and had assimilated something of the great principles of the movement. As they could, when they could make recruiting officers believe they were old enough to pass for eighteen, some when they could make medical officers accept them as young enough not to be over age; as their consciences directed, to the number of over 200, scouts, scoutmasters and executives answered the call. None became draftees.

It appeared that the Victoria Association must fall to pieces, but it was only an appearance, under tremendous disadvantages of the consequent disorganization, but with the tradition of accomplishment, the Victoria Association carried on, held a nucleus together, still working quietly, still unknown to the bulk of the people.

A Troop had so assimilated through their scoutmasters, those principles for which the movement stands, that they earned hundreds of dollars by their work and paid it into Red Cross funds, although the scoutmaster and 80 per cent. of their members were on active service. They did not solicit a ten cent piece from anyone. At the very time they were serving this money for the Red Cross, some of them wrote that it was doubtful if they would be able to have a camp as they feared they would not have money enough. How like a scout. How unlike most men, to work out of hours for public service to earn money but in doubt if they could afford the annual camp, the big event of their year.

How many in Victoria know the name of this scoutmaster? The scouts do not advertise, their good turns are, as a matter of honor, kept secret. Those who want to know, providing they have the type of manhood which can take up this work, may hear his name some day accidentally, when needing encouragement.

Some think the time has arrived for a more active forward movement in Victoria; if it has and there are men worthy and willing, the nucleus of the Association provides the means.

A Womans' Warning

Why will women continue to drag around in misery, suffering with the ailments peculiar to their sex, that drag them down to misery and despair, with backache, nervousness, the blues, derangements and irregularities, when there is a proved remedy for just such conditions?

For more than forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming these ailments until it is now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

For Twenty Years the Friend of This Woman

Akron, Ohio.—"I am fifty-one years old and going through the Change of Life, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing me lots of good. I felt run-down and weak but since taking the Vegetable Compound I am much stronger and better. I can eat and sleep, am gaining flesh and can do more work than I have for some time. I twenty years ago your Vegetable Compound helped me during childbirth. I wish you would print this in your paper so that other women may read it. ## WOMEN'S CLUB AID MANY EX-SOLDIERS

Nearly $10,000 Disbursed by Canadian Club in Loans

Since the commencement of the war the Women's Canadian Club has, with the aid of the generous public, collected and disbursed $10,000 for its work among the returned soldiers. Practically all of this money has been disbursed in the form of loans to returned soldiers and their dependents, the money tiding them over the difficult period between discharge and their re-entry into civil occupation, or bringing welcome relief to widows struggling under a financial handicap.

Help For Soldiers.
 A glimpse of the magnificent work done by the Club in this direction was revealed in the report of the Returned Soldiers' Fund Committee read by Mrs. R. R. Taylor at the annual meeting of the Club yesterday.

"The following ladies constituted the committee: Mesdames McDiarmid, Jenkins, Andrews, Galliber, Mout, Bevan, Paterson, Gordon, Parfitt, Gordon Smith, Taylor and Miss Ringland.

"The committee has held thirty-four meetings under the convener-ship of Mrs. McDiarmid until her resignation in May, when Mrs. Andrews was made convener. The attendance at all these meetings was very good; $3,622.12 has been disbursed in loans and donations. Many loans have been altogether repaid since the men received their war gratuity. A monthly donation has been made to the Military Hospital, a totally disabled soldier. A small amount is contributed from time to time to the Vocational School for returned men. A wheel chair has been purchased, and is loaned to a returned soldier's paralytic wife.

Aid in Epidemic.

The fund was especially useful during the influenza epidemic, many nurses were provided where soldiers were unable to pay for same. Wood, coal and extra bedding was sent to severe cases. In this connection thanks are due to the different wood and coal dealers, and to David Spencer Co. for special prices and prompt delivery.

"Donations have been made to war widows to relieve immediate distress. The year-end report of the committee has been considerably helped by the formation some months ago of the Federated Service Council. This council strictly investigates every case before handing it over to the committee.

"The committee has been encouraged on several occasions by the grateful letters from returned men who have received help from this fund.

"I think the Women's Canadian Club should feel gratified with the response which the public has always made to our various appeals for this fund. $10,000 having been collected since the fund was first created in 1915.

"There has been no cost whatever in the administration of this fund, the ladies of the committee having at all times given freely of their time and efforts.

"In conclusion, I would say that the Women's Canadian Club of Victoria may have satisfaction in the thought that with their Returned Soldiers' Fund they have helped a great many of our brave boys who came from the battlefields to find financial worries awaiting them."

FINANCES SOUND

Mrs. J. J. Galliber, the club treasurer, presented a financial statement showing the receipts covering membership fees and dues, lecture proceeds, rummage sale and contributions to the club's service flag, totalling $1,047.53, while the disbursements were, for printing, stationery, advertising, stamps, $125.68; sundries, $62.56; flags, bunting, etc., $62.95; High School service flag, $250.50; purchase of membership pins, $25.00; expenses lectures, teas, etc., $358.95; donations, $35.00; Princess Patricia's wedding gift, $25.00; Christmas cheer, $72.80; balance at bank, $22.00. The bank balance October 1, 1918, was $2,371.22.

The Hospital Trust—Receipts amounted to $748.03; from donations, $5.00; bank interest, $20.35, and the bank balance of $717.68 on hand October 1, 1918. The disbursements included $383.65 for nurses' and hospital fees; balance at bank, $359.38.

The statement of the war relief box fund showed a total of $31.10, covering collections of $14.40, bank interest and balance of October 1, 1918, amounting to $16.61. The disbursements included relief, $20.00; leaving a balance of $11.10 in the bank.

MUNICIPAL GOLF PLAN PROGRESSING Rotary Club Confident That Course Will Be Established Next Year

Judging by statements made at the Rotary Club luncheon to-day, a municipal golf course for Victoria is pretty nearly assured. President J. F. Scott told the Club that by next Monday a meeting of the various Municipal Councils concerned with the matter probably would be held in order that they might arrange what was to do. Alderman Patrick, Mr. Scott informed the Rotarians, was of the opinion that there was no doubt that a by-law on the question would be passed by the electors. Reeve Wilson of Oak Bay, had also informed him that the authorities of that municipality were willing to reduce the taxes on the proposed golf course, thus helping to make it a paying proposition. Since the matter was last discussed members of the Rotary Club have investigated the proposed golf course near the Uplands and have laid a plan for the holes and fairways.

NOW IS TIME FOR SOUND GOVERNMENT BY SAVE CANADIANS

Disruption, Would Follow Opponent's Platform, Declares Dr. Tolmie

DEALS WITH WORK OF UNION GOVERNMENT

A powerful defence of the Union Government and a modest account of his own work for the good of Victoria were voiced by Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, at an organization meeting of Ward 1, Union supporters in the Tolmie committee rooms last night. The Minister dealt briefly with the most serious problems facing the nation at present; declared that "we must not think so much of to-day's dollar as of the future of Canada"; asserted that "these are the days for sound government by good, sane Canadians," and warned his audience that if the planks of his opponent's platform were carried out he could see "nothing but disruption and very serious results from one end of Canada to the other."

Disruption Would Follow

Greeted with enthusiastic applause when he entered the room, Dr. Tolmie got right down to the subject under consideration. "I feel," he commenced, "that we ought to do all in our power to maintain a stable, reliable government in this country if we are to recover from the effects of the war. The present condition of things must cause you all to do a good deal of thinking," observed the Minister, referring to the arguments of his opponents. "If the planks of my opponent's platform are carried out I can see nothing but disruption and very serious results from one end of Canada to the other."

"These are days," he said, summarizing his whole platform in one powerful sentence, "for sound government by good, sane Canadians."

"We must not think so much of to-day's dollar as of the future generations and of Canada as a whole."

A Genuine Proposition

Turning to the drydock scheme, Dr. Tolmie observed that "attempts had been made to throw cold water on the whole idea. I don't think that the men who are doing this really believe what they are saying," declared the speaker. "I don't believe that they mean it when they say that the Union Government is made up of bootleggers and crooks who are trying to milk the country with the greatest possible speed. No, from the assurances of the Government, I am absolutely satisfied that the drydock is a genuine, bona fide proposition."

The Drydock Fight

Dr. Tolmie then proceeded to outline the fight for the dock at Esquimalt, a fight in which he and his colleagues were faced with serious and powerful opposition from the mainland members. He recalled how Hon. F. B. Carvell, then Minister of Public Works, has opposed the establishment of a government-owned dock, but had finally yielded to the pressure brought to bear by the island members, assisted by R. F. Green, M. P. for Kootenay. The initial estimate for the work of building the dock finally had been voted and boring on the dock site had proceeded. It had been found during the last few months, the Doctor stated, that Lang's Cove was not the most suitable site for a dock. Subsequently investigations had seemed to indicate, however, that Skinner's Cove near by was an ideal location for the dock.

Will Finish Job

"The next few days will show us whether the dock should be constructed there or not," the Minister declared. "As for the continuance of the work, the Executive assured me before I left for the coast that it was determined to continue. If we cannot believe these men, we cannot believe anybody. I fully believe that the dock will be constructed at Esquimalt, and that Esquimalt is the best site for such an institution on the whole Pacific Coast. Moreover, as I told the Cabinet when we were fighting for the dock, if the Province as a whole is to develop it will not do to concentrate the expenditure of all public moneys in Vancouver."

Steel Ships

As further evidence of his work for the city at the Capital, Dr. Tolmie

HELPLESS WITH RHEUMATISM

Until He Took "Fruit-a-tives" The Fruit Medicine

R. R. No. 1, Lorne, Ont.
"For over three years, I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. I treated with doctors, and tried nearly everything without benefit."

Finally, I tried "Fruit-a-tives." Before I had used half a box I saw improvement; the pain was easier and the swelling started to go down. I continued taking this fruit medicine, improving all the time, and now I can walk about two miles, and do light chores about the place."

mentioned the placing of contracts by the Federal Government for the construction in this city of two steel ships in the negotiations for which he had taken a leading part.

Outfitting Here

Again he had helped to get the Foundation Company of B. C. Ltd. to outfit its wooden ships at Ogden Point instead of taking them to Tacoma. The work at Ogden Point had provided employment for many Victoria men and had assisted very materially in maintaining the prosperity of the city.

Public Money Scarce

"It is a might difficult thing to get the Government to spend public money just now," continued the speaker. "There are hundreds of post offices, custom houses and other works promised in all parts of Canada, but they are not being built."

He Got Dredging

Turning to the question of harbor dredging, the speaker declared that pre-war dredging operations would be resumed as soon as conditions had become more settled. In the meantime he had been able to get the Government to start dredging at the quarantine station. This work would proceed at an early date.

"I am going to do my best to see that this work is carried on to as great an extent as possible by returned men and by British subjects, not aliens," declared the Minister amid applause.

Care in Immigration

"Canada should be careful in the selection of her immigrants," Dr. Tolmie asserted in discussing the immigration problem. "We have been too careless in the past in welcoming with open arms everyone who came along. The evil results of this policy have shown themselves during the war on the prairies and elsewhere. Every immigrant who comes into this country should be a hand-picked immigrant. We should have none who cannot assimilate with Canadians. This policy may retard the settlement of the country to a certain extent, but in the end it will be far better for the Dominion. We have sufficient agitators and soap box orators in the country now for all practical and recreational purposes," the Doctor stated. "What we need is more production and less talking!"

The H. C. of L.

"The Union Government is blamed for the High Cost of Living," pursued the speaker. "If we found this condition in Canada only we might blame the Government justly. But we don't. Now the high cost of living is an inevitable result of the war, the retarding of production owing to the absence of a great part of the male population and the overwhelming demands of the army in the field. This condition still prevails to a certain extent. Production is retarded by the fact that a large proportion of young farmers are attracted by high wages to the city, thus increasing competition for jobs and decreasing the production of necessities."

Same in Other Countries

"Just glance over the prices of necessities in other countries," said the Doctor, "and you will see that those prevailing in Canada compare favorably with them. As for the charge that the Union Government is doing nothing, the Government is doing a great deal. It has created a Board of Commerce which is investigating cases of alleged profiteering, and it has passed legislation aiming at unjust profits. But we cannot expect a sweeping change in the general situation until production is increased." Here the Doctor quoted figures to show that the Government was showing initiative and assiduity in the collection of taxes fixed at large profits.

Need Capital

"We should not assail capital from all sides," declared Dr. Tolmie in considering the question of capital and labor. "We need it in Canada. Our vast resources can only be developed by capital, and the danger of taxing capital too heavily is that capitalists will take their money to the United States and South America."

Turning to the returned soldier problem, the Doctor declared "Canada has been more generous in her treatment of the returned boys than any other country engaged in the war. The pensions are larger and the Government has instituted a more liberal land settlement scheme than any other Government. Now a special committee of the house has been appointed to look into the whole question of rehabilitation and to suggest changes in whatever weak parts may be found."

In conclusion, the Doctor said that he had never expected to receive a Cabinet position when he was nominated in 1917. If he were returned, however, he would do his best to continue to represent Victoria with his best interests at heart and to fill his new post with credit to the city and to himself.

Answers Questions

In answer to the questions of a returned soldier in the audience, Dr. Tolmie declared that the Union Government could not be blamed for the Ross rifle and Oliver equipment scandals, because these had occurred before it had assumed control. As for the return of the soldiers from the front, he thought that the manner in which the boys and their dependents had been brought home had never been excelled by any country. This was, in fact, an extraordinary achievement for a nation the size of Canada. As a matter of fact, the Government had outdone itself in this matter, for General Masbourn, Minister of Militia, had told him some time ago that it would take a year from the present time to return all soldiers from Europe. Regarding the pensions paid to soldiers' widows, the Doctor pointed out that the Royal Commission looking into the whole returned soldier problem undoubtedly would examine carefully into this phase of it. This commission, he remarked, included a number of returned soldiers in its personnel, and it certainly would have the interests of the returned man at heart.

Why Elect a Stranger?

"I don't know anything about Mr. Barnard personally," said J. L. Beckwith, "but it is a strange thing that he comes here backed by the hopes, if nothing stronger, of a section of the mainland which has always sought to retard the progress of this city. In the face of conditions here it is impossible that the right-thinking people of the city will deliberately forsake their interests by electing a stranger who, even if elected, can have no influence at Ottawa, nor can adequately represent a constituency he does not know."

Joshua Kingham addressed the meeting shortly, urging the ward committees to perfect their organization before election day.

Beaumont Boege pointed to Dr. Tolmie's splendid service for the city during his years at Ottawa.

William Mable, chairman of the ward committee, presided.

thirteen years in Alberni. I managed Clements' campaign and got him across. I know something about the political power they use and how it is framed up. Who supposes that Dr. Tolmie was really responsible for the drydock? Experts probably had something to say about it and so did the Admiralty. It is putting it a little too strong for me to say that only through the efforts of Tolmie and McIntosh was the drydock brought here. It is all bunk. I know something of how these things are put across."

Only Sympathy For Soldiers

Coming to the treatment meted out to returned soldiers the Major said: "We can get all sorts of sympathy from the Hon. Dr. Tolmie, but we can't get anything more. He won't make any definite statement. What had they for the most of us when we came home. Three cheers, a little music and a farm. And they had these farms all planted for us and some of them were away out God only knows where."

Sin For Soldiers to Return

"There is a lot of difference between 1914 when the cry was your King and Country need you, and 1919 when the war is over and you are coming back to tell you that they are going to stop these red devils coming here," said Mr. Barnard, the candidate. "It ill becomes these gentlemen, Andrews and Higgins and Gaunce at Dr. Tolmie's meeting to talk like that."

I have rendered just as valuable service to my country as either of these men. And I am not so sure that if they had been so anxious to go out to defend the old flag there would not have been found a way for them to do it. There were older men than they in service.

"It seems to be the greatest mistake of our lives, the great unpardonable sin for us to come back again. These gentlemen who were so loyal and patriotic, if you dig down you will find they have been looking after themselves while we were in France."

For British Methods

"We are sorry that gentlemen who are supposed to have the education of these men would stoop to tactics so mean and low, and try to pull some line that behind closed doors about a person who has done in the war at least as much as they have. I stand for British methods and I am prepared to stand for the old flag again as I did on the battlefields of France. Labor demands that the system that has resulted in a war in which 21,000,000 of its choicest men have been slaughtered must be changed. We have no hesitation in saying that such a condition of affairs must never

Back of Canada's Victory Bonds

WHEN you loan money you make sure the borrower is able to repay the loan and that he will pay you the interest regularly as it falls due.

When you loan money to Canada you know your money is absolutely safe.

Back of Canada's Victory Bonds is the entire wealth that Canada possesses—all her industries and all her resources in minerals, fisheries, forests and lands.

Canada has one-third of the area of the whole British Empire; she is larger than thirty United Kingdoms; twice the size of India; eighteen times as large as France. She is practically as large as all of the European countries put together.

Canada is larger than the United States including Alaska (Canada, 3,729,665 square miles; United States and Alaska, 3,617,673 square miles).

Canada has over 440,000,000 acres of farm lands—and only one-eighth of it is yet under cultivation.

Canada has the most extensive and best stocked fisheries in the world—232,000 square miles of fishing waters.

Canada has over 225,000,000 acres of commercial timber—she is the great forest resource of the Empire.

Canada's mineral deposits have scarcely been scratched—yet her mines yielded $210,204,970 last year.

Canada's field crops have doubled in five years—from $552,771,500 to $1,367,909,970.

Canada's people have increased their cash balances in Banks and Post Offices nearly seventy per cent. in five years—from $1,086,013,704 to $1,740,462,509.

Canada's trade has more than doubled in five years—from $1,085,175,572 to $2,564,462,215. Canada emerges from the war one of the world's greatest and strongest nations—her natural wealth equals $2,000 for each man, woman and child of her population.

Canada's Victory Bonds are the finest possible investment where safety is the chief consideration.

Moreover, when you loan your money to Canada you know that the interest will be paid every six months—all you have to do is to go to the nearest Bank and get it.

Canadians will soon be given another opportunity to buy Victory Bonds.

This will probably be the last time you will be able to purchase Canada's bonds on such favorable terms.

Prepare to buy—All Canada is Your Security.

occur again. Labor proposes to change conditions from one of competition to one of fraternity and co-operation. We believe that that is the only way of saving the world from another chaos.

Old Conditions Never Again. If they want to call us nasty names for that we have no objection. But never again will the working men allow themselves to go back to conditions as they were in 1913. Conditions as they were before the war worked out to benefit about five per cent. of the population.

"Then immediately you get up to suggest any change in the old system they yell Bolshevik, you are supplied with German money, you stand for the overthrow of Canada. The workers of the Old Country pricked the bubble of Bolshevism as it was applied to them and we in Canada are going to do it. We stand for British constitutional methods of obtaining the legislative ends of labor. Surely you are not going to be camouflaged by shiny politicians who are looking for a fine political job. Men have been refined on the battlefields and they have come to the conclusion that never again will they allow the old conditions to be perpetuated. This fact the Government has not grasped."

"I do stand for the overthrow of that Canada that persecutes the workers, of that Canada that ruthlessly profiteered."

"Ask Dr. Tolmie why a private's wife is not entitled to as much as a colonel's. In France you have seen the graves in long rows with R.I.P. on the little headstones, a colonel's wife here, then a private, then a maprivate's wife and $151 for a colonel's."

"If you send me to Ottawa, I'll guarantee that I will make so much noise down there that they will either lock me up or change conditions."

Robert Doniach, who was chairman, said that whether Major Burde was charged with being a Bolshevik or a Conservative, "he has a reputation behind him that the parties that accuse him can't lay claim to."

"For the sake of your own sake if you can't throw the yoke of this system off, then get down and vote for Tolmie," he said.

The rallying call is sent out by President John Moway and Secretary Percy Watson for all those interested in the amateur race this season to assemble at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock. A lot of important business has to be discussed before the league opens as it is anticipated there will be an extra number of applications this year and it will be found necessary to either eliminate some of the entries or to make arrangements for a longer use of ice this season. The affiliation with the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association through the B. C. Association has also created several new angles which will have to be given consideration.

WAR VETERANS THANKS.

To the Sporting Editor:—The G. W. V. A. sports committee wishes to convey thanks to all those who assisted to make their dance at the Alexandra ball room on Thanksgiving night, October 13 such a success. To all the theatres who kindly placed a space on their screens to advertise the dance, special praise must be given: also to all the merchants who gave space in their stores to advertise the dance and help to sell the tickets; also to the Women's Auxiliary of the Great War Veterans' Association, who attended to the refreshments and to say it was a success is to put it mildly. The ball room looked beautiful with its decorations, the banner of the Great War Veterans' Association holding a prominent position at the head of the room. The five-piece orchestra was another part of the Association. They own a place as the G. W. V. A. orchestra, and gave a very magnificent display for which they were complimented on every hand. There would be close on 250 present and as dancing started on time there was four hours dancing, which was enjoyed to the full, and as before mentioned, everything was a success, and after such a response the Great War Veterans' Association sports committee hopes to put another of the same, or if possible a better one on the night of the Armistice, November 11. Thanking you again for past favors. JAMES ROSS.

Wednesday evening two games of basketball were played at the Y. M. C. A., officially opening the basketball season.

The first was an exhibition game for the benefit of the boys of the city who were interested in seeing the activities in the gymnasium. The game was between the Tuxis boys and the Employed boys. The Tuxis boys, L. Fatt, J. Dangerfield, A. McIntyre, J. Brindley, S. Moore; Employed boys, E. Squire, S. Hole, J. Renfrew, R. Bass, J. McDonald.

The class of play was good for the start of the season, but on the whole the players depended too much on their own efforts and neglected passes which would have made the game far better. The Tuxis boys won with a score of 35 to 13. After the game the link and a group of swimmers were the centre of interest, the swimmers giving an exhibition of the perfect ease they are able to feel in the water.

League Opened.

The second game started at 9 o'clock and was the first game of the Y. M. C. A. House League. The teams playing were: The Dreadnoughts and Whisbangs, the latter winning by 41 to 30.

The teams were: Dreadnoughts—S. Young (capt.), Couthorne, Howell, McKinnon, Hopkins, McCachren.

Whisbangs—Stewart (capt.) Middleton, Gilly, Yates, Dickson, McIntyre.

Even First Half.

The game sawawed one way and then the other, the score being at half-time 18-17 in favor of the Dreadnoughts. In the second half the Dreadnoughts drew away, the game finishing with a score of 41 to 30.

Both teams showed good combination, and although the shooting was poor at first it improved considerably during the game.

To-night the Swimming Club holds its weekly handicaps, the events this week being the 100 yards dash and the dive for distance. These handicaps are very interesting for the participants, as everybody has a chance. Several events are held every week. The future events will be announced each week.

VERNON CAN CINCH MINOR PENNANT TO-DAY

Los Angeles, Oct. 16.—"Wheeler" Dell star pitcher of the Vernon team, was sent to the mound to-day to oppose Dan Griner, of the St. Paul club, in the eighth game of the western minor league baseball championship series, being played here. A victory for Vernon to-day would clinch the championship for the Pacific Coast League pennant winners. The series stood four to three in favor of Vernon at the close of yesterday's battle. St. Paul will be the home team to-day.

WAR VETERANS PREPARE FOR WINTER SPORTS

There will be a meeting of the G. W. V. A. sports organization, J. Ross announces, at the club rooms, 612 Fort Street, Friday night, at 8 p. m., all players and those interested in Association and Rugby, also every kind of sport, are invited to attend.

Two New Forwards.

Two forwards, who have never played in Victoria before—the Randall brothers, will also appear in the V. I. A. A. colors. Both men learned their rugby in the public schools of England. B. Moffat, wing, three-quarter for Vancouver, old county team, has also thrown in his lot with the V. I. A. A.

A Practice of the Island Club Players Will Be Held at the Victoria West Hall to-night and Harry Boyd is sending out an urgent message for the players to attend, and get into trim for the opening games.

LOOKING THINGS OVER

Should Receive Consideration.

A plea for two Victoria sportsmen anxious to get back into the amateur ranks is made by A. P. Garvey in The Vancouver Province. The writer says: "Victoria has one or two athletes who have been under the ban for several years, but who are now anxious to return to the amateur fold. We refer to 'Cotton' Brynjolfsson, manager of the Foundation lacrosse team, and 'Boss' Johnson, an all-round star. Both are war veterans. They have the class of professional sport, but their sympathies lie with the amateurs and they would, we are sure, follow the principles of amateurism if granted reinstatement. This is the type of athlete to be granted consideration."

A Coast League Team.

In a special dispatch from Vancouver to The Seattle Daily Times, the possibility of Vancouver being the home of a Pacific Coast baseball club is mentioned. The dispatch reads: "Will Vancouver be in the Pacific Coast Baseball League next season? This is a question which Vancouver fans are asking each other daily. An agitation has sprung up here for real baseball, and with reports from Portland that Judge McCredie is in favor of Vancouver being awarded a franchise, local fans fail to see why this city will not be included in the Coast League make-up next season. A recent story from Portland credited McCredie with the statement that he was in favor of dropping either Salt Lake or Sacramento and substituting Vancouver, thus saving considerable in transportation as well as in other details.

Bob Brown, president of the old Vancouver club of the Northwestern International League, recently made a trip East in connection with the sale of a couple of his players, who finished the season with the Western Canada League, and at the same time it is said he interviewed several Coast League moguls with regard to a franchise for this city next season. Brown is reticent regarding the matter, but it is reported that he was received favorably by the Coast League heads, and that his mission was not an entire failure.

Sold Three Players.

There has been no professional baseball in Vancouver since early summer. The Northwestern International League, otherwise known as the Industrial League, failed miserably, closing down a few weeks after it commenced operations. Vancouver fans did not take kindly to baseball on three days a week only, and plainly showed it by non-attendance at the games. Letters to President Brown and to local sport writers. They demanded high-class baseball, which set Brown to figuring that Vancouver was just about ripe for Coast League ball, and he has been working towards this end ever since. Just what will happen will not be known until the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast League is held.

Although Brown failed to keep the Northwestern International League in operation, he was successful in selling three players, Wally Hood, Spranger and Henon, to the majors. These players went to the Western Canada League when operations were closed here, but Brown kept a string on them, and as a result gets a split on the coin.

and help with your support, to make sports department of the association a success. Those interested in an intermediate team are asked to attend.

RUGBY MEN EXPECT TO OPEN OCT. 25TH

Two Games Will Be Played Each Week at Oak Bay; New Players

Saturday, October 25 will probably see the opening games in the rugby series played, two matches each week on the Oak Bay pitches being the present plans of the oval ball experts. A meeting will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the K. of C. Hut when final arrangements to start the season will be completed and a draw made from the opening series. The goal posts are up at Oak Bay park, the grass has been cut and everything is in readiness for the first battles.

At Equimatt.

Two friendly games are down for Saturday. The Wanderers play the Naval College at Equimatt, and although the latter fifteen are classed as intermediates they are believed to be strong enough to give the stars a hard fight. Rugby is the popular game with the naval men and between fifty and sixty players are fighting for a place on the team.

Although intermediates, in the opinion of some of those who have sized up the aggregation, they are of senior league calibre.

At Oak Bay.

The High School players will meet the V. I. A. A. squad and the Island Club are not looking for an easy win. Several returned men who are taking a post discharge course at the High will strengthen the school team. The Clark brothers, old county players filling the half and forward positions, Millard, who played half for the V. I. A. A. last season, Arthur Lewis, a 185-pound forward, another last year's V. I. A. A. player are among this year's High School team. Dal Thomas will referee the game which will be played on the Oak Bay field starting at 2.45.

The V. I. A. A. has signed up an old Victoria Welsh player who made the representative teams, in Sam Reece, who takes his place among the forwards. Reece is a player of the pure Welsh type. While overseas he played for Aberavon. He has been serving on the mystery ships during the war and only returned to Victoria a few days ago. Reece was leading stoker and won the Distinguished Service medal for a gallant piece of work during the war. When the crew had been put out of action by a submarine, he and another stoker manned the guns and gave battle with the enemy. They succeeded in getting four hits and sank the submarine. Only a few weeks later the ship Reece was on was submerged.

Two New Forwards.

Two forwards, who have never played in Victoria before—the Randall brothers, will also appear in the V. I. A. A. colors. Both men learned their rugby in the public schools of England. B. Moffat, wing, three-quarter for Vancouver, old county team, has also thrown in his lot with the V. I. A. A.

A practice of the Island club players will be held at the Victoria West Hall to-night and Harry Boyd is sending out an urgent message for the players to attend, and get into trim for the opening games.

LEITH BACK FROM NATIONAL MEETING

B. C. Delegate Thoroughly Satisfied With Result of Conference

"Professional athletes, including men who have seen overseas service, should bear in mind when filing their applications for reinstatement, that in the event of the ban being lifted that they will be restricted to provincial competition and will under no circumstances be permitted to engage in national events such as Mann Cup contests between East and West, track and field meets, baseball, basketball, etc., or any other inter-provincial sport," declares Dave Leith, of Vancouver, vice-president of the Amateur Athletic Union, who has returned from the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada meeting, where he was the British Columbia delegate. "I have already been approached by several Vancouver professionals who intend filing applications for reinstatement. Some of them expect to return to amateur lacrosse and play for the Mann Cup, but I want to point out that while they would be permitted to play in provincial competitions they will not be able to enter inter-provincial or national competitions."

In connection with the application of two Victoria professionals, "Boss" Johnson and "Cotton" Brynjolfsson, who are making application for reinstatement, it is hinted that they hope that they will be able to add strength to the Foundation team, Mann Cup holders, but Mr. Leith, in the course of an interview on the Mainland, declares that the A. A. U. of C. will not sanction their playing against eastern challengers, which means that Victoria's efforts to bolster up the present Mann Cup team will go for naught. In the case of Mickey MacKay and Barney Stanley, Vancouver professionals, hockey players now in Alberta, both of whom have secured amateur cards, they will have to satisfy the Alberta officials regarding their bona fides, and even should they be permitted to play there, they will not be allowed to compete in the inter-provincial or Allan Cup competitions.

Mr. Leith attended the annual convention of the A. A. U. of C. on behalf of British Columbia and returned thoroughly satisfied with the results of the various sessions. "I believe we have made a good start," he observed. "There are many problems for which we must find a solution, but on the whole I believe that we have at last accomplished something that the various teams in the province will not doubt be deluged with applications for reinstatement the members of the four western provinces feel that the members charged with the responsibility of granting such reinstatements will be able to apply all applications with a full sense of responsibility for the maintenance of the amateur spirit."

A meeting of the provincial executive is to be called to consider the applications and to receive Mr. Leith's report on the eastern conference.

Among the applications which will be filed in Vancouver are those of "Punch" Burns, Bob Murray, "Snip" Hershler, Earl Matheson, all former members of the V. I. A. A. lacrosse team who have been in the professional ranks for the past five or six years. They are returned men, Bill Brand, Vancouver ballplayer, will be another applicant. Several hockey players, too slow for the big circuit and stars in amateur company will also ask to have the whitewash brush applied.

Mr. Leith brings word along that the A. A. U. of C. committee has plans for the Olympic team to go to Belgium next year, well in hand and the trials will probably be held at Winnipeg, the leading men to be selected to represent Canada at the world's big athletic meet in Europe. The A. A. U. of C. is again a real live organization, states the Vancouver officials and all of the affiliated bodies have promised their co-operation in the development of amateur sport throughout the country.

WITH THE SOCCER MEN

The Fragments will hold a meeting to-night at 7.30 o'clock in the Commodore Club. All members and those interested are requested to be present as the business is important.

Those interested in the G. W. V. A. intermediate team are asked to attend a meeting at the G. W. V. A. rooms Friday night.

Officers of the Army and Navy Veterans Club have been elected as follows: President, G. A. Kirk; vice-president, H. J. Young; secretary, W. J. M. Telfer; trainer, Sgt.-Major Bradley; manager, Percy Reeves; captain, J. Cronin; vice-captain, Gordon Leeming.

The Army and Navy players will practice Wednesday evenings, starting at 5.30 at Work Point Barracks.

Gordon Leeming will be out of the Veterans' line-up next week, the injury he sustained in the last game preventing him from taking his usual place as net custodian.

The following team will represent the Army and Navy Veterans against the Comrades of the Great War on Saturday at the Jubilee Hospital ground, kick-off at 3 p. m.: Liddell, Church and Piggott; Dowell, another and Cronin—Grimes, Hiller, Gale, Franchin and Anderson. Reserves, Fillmore and Wilcox.

The intermediate team to represent the Army and Navy Veterans against the Firemen at Work Point Barracks on Saturday at 3 p. m. will be: Miller, Barry, Webster, Walls, Teen, Simms, Sharcott, Christian, Dowds (capt.), Quanton and Cull. Reserve, E. Mouton.

VANCOUVER IS AFTER INTER-CITY RUGBY

The Vancouver Rugby Union are out after rep. games. Negotiations are being carried on with Victoria for inter-city matches, and the secretary instructed Tuesday night to write to Stanford and Berkeley universities to see if any arrangements could be made for games for the Cooper-Keith trophy. At the present time the southern varsities are playing the American game, so that there is little prospect of any success along these lines.

Delegates at the Vancouver meeting were enthusiastic over the showing made by the various teams in the games on Thanksgiving Day, and are all confident of a big season. They report the various teams as practicing steadily this week in preparation for the coming matches.

GAY COSTUMES AT MASQUERADE BALL

Knights and ladies, clowns and plectretted dancers together last night at the Foundation Club house on the occasion of the grand masquerade ball held under the auspices of the Foundation Swimming Club. The hall was lavishly decorated for the occasion, flags and green and white bunting forming a gay background for the crowd of dancers, the majority of whom wore costumes and masks. So large was the crowd that it was necessary to requisition both gymnasium and dining room for dancing. The committee responsible for the very excellent arrangements comprised L. D. Lord, chairman; Mrs. Richdale, Mrs. Lord, Mrs. J. Bertram, Messrs. E. Goldsmith, James Meaher, Ernie McFarlane, Leo Verolin.

To Mrs. H. Humber, Mrs. W. Burris, Messrs. Vipond and Oliver fell the difficult task of judging, the prizes being awarded as follows: Best dressed lady, Mrs. Cooper, a Russian skater, Gentleman, Mr. Maars, a Highlander.

Best sustained character: Lady, Mrs. Welch, a squaw, Gentleman, Mr. Welsh, Uncle Tom.

Best original character: Lady, Mrs. Ralph Harvey, Foundation Shipbuilding, Gentleman, Mr. Brennan, Eskimo.

Best comic character: Lady, Miss Tressie Hunt, an old maid, Gentleman, Mr. Wurde, a tramp.

A lady representing "Shipyards Shavings" received special commendation.

COMPULSORY HEALTH INSURANCE URGED

Vancouver, Oct. 16.—Compulsory health insurance, as one of the most necessary means for keeping down the cost of living by increasing production as an essential factor of the prosperity, happiness and advancement of civilization, was urged by E. S. H. Winn, chairman of the British Columbia Workmen's Compensation Board, in an address before the Vancouver Board of Trade.

Health conservation is not only a problem of bacteria, drugs and operations, he urged, but of wiser standards in eating, sleeping and housing—in short, newer standards of living.

"At the present time Canada and the United States have the only two great industrial nations without compulsory health insurance," he said.

Three of Shotwell's gang leap from an overhead bridge on to the top of the coach in which Belle is riding, and by forming a sort of human chain from the top of the coach down its side to the window, make a desperate attempt to recover the Tiger Idol. But as the lowest member of the chain reaches through the coach window for the handbag, the top man of the chain loses his hold and all three bandits are swept from the coach to the ground, while this is going on, the bag containing the

Marie Walcamp, star of the new Universal 18-part serial, "The Red Glove," directed by J. P. McGowan, has been given the sobriquet of "Marie Walcamp" in the title role. J. McCallum is simply immense, his portrayal of the part being beyond criticism, and which causes roars of laughter to emanate from the delighted patrons. The rest of the excellent company which has been secured for this production, including as it does Mrs. F. Bielby, Miss M. Butler, and Messrs. R. N. Hincks, S. G. Clark, A. M. D. VARIETY
Charlie Chaplin may throw all the pies and break all the dishes he pleases in pictures, but "from this day forth" he must conduct himself in a gentle, dignified manner at home. For, be it known, Charlie now is the husband of demure little Mildred Harris, the talented little girl who created a sensation in filmdom by her work in "The Price of a Good Time," "The Doctor and the Woman," "For Husbands Only," and "Borrowed Clothes," and who now is appearing in "When a Girl Loves," a thrilling six-reel Jewel production, written by Lois Weber and directed by Miss Weber and Phillips Smalley.

PRINCESS
"The New Boy" is indeed a great laugh-producing farce as played by R. N. Hincks and company at the Princess Theatre. In the title role, J. McCallum is simply immense, his portrayal of the part being beyond criticism, and which causes roars of laughter to emanate from the delighted patrons. The rest of the excellent company which has been secured for this production, including as it does Mrs. F. Bielby, Miss M. Butler, and Messrs. R. N. Hincks, S. G. Clark, A. M. D. PANTAGES
It is to laugh—to squirm and scream with delighted hilarity to watch the Three White Kuhns at their musical antics at the Pantages this week. These three singers combine those rare qualities, admirable singing voices, with an instinct for clean, sheer comedy which has made them a premier act in vaudeville. They play their own accompaniments on a variety of instruments. That other variety of musical entertainment, instrumental presentation of the best of modern melodies, also is to be found at the Pantages. The Revue de Vogue is a galaxy of seven girls with the assistance of a male artist. As seasoning of a musical programme comes a delectable farce, presented by Stan and May Laurel, a thrilling routine of intricate tumbles by a world famed troupe of acrobats, the Bonsettis. Classical music, vocal and instrumental, will be dispensed artistically by Gertrude Long and Spencer Ward. A pair of flying acrobats with a lightning act of superhuman dexterity, "The Leovans," open the show and it is closed by America's premier acrobats and hand balancers, the Three Bartos, in a fast and brilliant routine of feats.

WHOLESALE FINED BY HIS FELLOWS

Disciplined by Group for Cutting Prices, Says Vancouver Witness

Admitted Fact When Asked by Witness; Evidence at Inquiry

Vancouver, Oct. 16.—The charge made against local wholesale produce men by Rev. A. E. Cooke, who stated that a "ring" existed among the merchants of Water Street and that a "lesser member of the combine" had been fined for selling produce at a price lower than that fixed by the "ring," was given corroboration by one of the witnesses examined at the cost of living inquiry here this morning.

Thomas Fanning, who described himself as a machinist, employed at the Coughlin shipyards, informed the examiner that during the time he was employed by the firm of Oscar Brown & Company, the fact that one of the merchants on wholesale row had been fined for cutting prices was made a topic of considerable discussion among the men employed there.

"I met the man whose name was mentioned and said to him: 'Well, they asked you, eh?' and he admitted that he had been fined," said the witness in answer to a question by the examiner.

He said that while with Oscar Brown & Company, he was employed in the receiving department. He admitted giving Rev. Mr. Cooke certain information upon which certain based statements made by the witness in his sermon, one declaring that produce was held by wholesalers at a certain price and as a result had gone bad and had to be destroyed. One carload of potatoes received by his firm, he said, had resulted in a wastage of some six or seven bags to the ton. These potatoes had been received in November, 1917, and some of them were still there when he left the firm's employ in March, 1918.

"What was the name of the man?" demanded the examiner. "Should I tell the name?" queried the witness.

"I went out with the name. We are endeavoring to get to the bottom of this and we cannot do so unless a witness like yourself will give us the information," said the examiner. William Clark.

"Well, the man was William Clark, of the Clark Fruit and Produce Company," stated the witness.

Mr. Fanning said he had been employed on Water Street for about seven years, but spent only about six months in the wholesale fruit and produce business, being with Oscar Brown & Company during that period. He had left their employ of his own free will, he informed the examiner.

He said that firm owned a private incinerator, but also informed the examiner he had never seen any food, destroyed there that could be used for even pig feed. He said he understood that the firm was a member of the Vancouver Fruit & Produce Association, but had no proof of this fact.

"Are you a member of Rev. Mr. Cooke's church?" asked the examiner. "No, sir, I'm not a member of any church. I've only met Mr. Cooke once or twice," replied the witness.

"Well, you'll know more about incinerators if you don't join some church," advised the examiner. Could Have Sold.

"Could they have sold all of those potatoes?" asked J. B. Pattullo, K.C., counsel for the Federal Government. "Yes, if they had reduced the price," replied the witness.

"Why didn't they?" "I don't know. I suppose the price was fixed by the brokers." Witness stated that one man was engaged hauling produce that had gone waste, away from Water Street the whole of his time and that he was so busy at times other who needed him could not get him.

At Calgary. Calgary, Oct. 16.—Frankly admitting that he was out to make as much as possible "with decency," J. B. Douglas, of the Douglas American Shoe Store, gave evidence as to his method of carrying on business at the boot inquiry, which is being held at the City Hall by the local representative of the Board of Commerce. Mr. Douglas took the stand after the evidence of his wife had been completed. She gave information relating to the financial end of the business, and stated that she was not in a partnership but simply had loaned the money to start the present business, retaining as security a mortgage on the stock. The statement showed that the profits for the last year on a capital of about $30,000 were $5,500. The Commissioner, however, insisted that an item of about $2,000, which was charged as interest should be included in the net profits, in order to place the statement on the same basis as other stores which have been investigated.

DECLARES HE SHOT IN SELF-DEFENCE

Seattle Lawyer Says Italian, Now Dead, Was Drawing Revolver

Seattle, Oct. 16.—John Cloria, a Seattle café owner and prominent in Italian circles, died here to-day from the effects of a gunshot wound received Tuesday. Edward Kienstra, a Seattle lawyer, has admitted, police asserted to-day, that he shot Cloria. The shooting took place in a hall in front of Kienstra's office in a downtown building. Kienstra said he shot in self-defence when Cloria attempted to draw a revolver and also made a move to throw him down the stairway. A dispute between the two men in Cloria's café preceded the shooting.

Kienstra was arrested after the shooting and charged with assault. Yesterday, when it was thought Cloria would live, Kienstra was released on $4,000 bail. Cloria, before he died, denied he had struck at Kienstra or had attempted to draw a revolver.

CANADIANS WARNED TO ABBREVIATE TRAVEL

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—The Department of Immigration and Colonization has received by cable a warning from London that there are thousands of Canadians on the other side anxious to come home, but unable to secure return passage for at least six months. It is said this situation is being accentuated by the arrival of visitors from Canada. When the cable was sent from London rationing had been resorted to. The weekly allowance was: Butter, one ounce; sugar, six ounces; coal, 100 pounds; meat, 40 cents' worth.

Canadians who contemplate a visit to the Mother Country during the next few months should take into consideration the impossibility of returning within a few weeks after arrival there.

MILITARY SERVICE APPEAL AT MONTREAL

Montreal, Oct. 16.—Another phase in the matter of prosecution of military service evaders will be the appeals entered before the Court of King's Bench by the Dominion Police against judgments by Judges Leet and Lanctot. All the cases in which the accused were convicted and dismissed with a fine of less than $250 are being appealed. They number about 300 and include nearly all the judgments of Judge Leet, who gave as a rule a fine of $50, and of Judge Lanctot, whose ranged from $10 to $50. Only one point will be argued in these cases—the amount of the fine imposed.

Deporting People

London, Oct. 16.—A message received here from Admiral Kolchak's headquarters in Siberia, where it was filed October 13, says: The Bolsheviks are retreating along the whole line before the Kolchak forces. They are deporting the entire population between the ages of sixteen and sixty, and likewise are removing the cattle.

The message announces receipt of advice that the Committee of the People's Commissaries in Moscow issued an order outlawing Admiral Kolchak and his Ministers, and demanding the arrest of his agents and those of the Allies in Siberia.

The message also reports that a Bolshevik wireless dispatch had been received which admitted that at a plebiscite in Moscow the workmen had declared themselves against the soviet and as supporting Admiral Kolchak.

PARLIAMENT NOW IS AT LOW EBB

Asquith and A. G. Gardiner Agree About Condition in Britain

London, Oct. 16.—Speaking at a dinner in honor of A. G. Gardiner, retiring editor of the Daily News, former Premier Asquith gave the following description of the present state of Government in the United Kingdom:

"The Cabinet Government superseded, the parliamentary authority of a cipher House of Commons, itself a caricature of the real opinion of the nation. We live politically from day to day and from hand to mouth. We live upon phrases, expediency and improvisations." Mr. Gardiner said Mr. Asquith had no gift for advertising, which was a very important part of the make-up of the modern politician. Parliament was now at a lower ebb than at any previous time during the last 100 years.

COLCHESTER HONORS GENERAL LORD BYNG

London, Oct. 16.—General Lord Byng, who at one time commanded the Canadian army in Flanders, receiving the freedom of Colchester, said: "I have no special qualification. There is the simple fact that I have served my country."

COTTON CONFERENCE AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, La., Oct. 16.—The fourth and last day of the world's cotton conference here got under way to-day. One outstanding plan for benefitting the cotton industry is the proposal for the organization of a $100,000,000 United States cotton export financing corporation which, although not of domestic origin, is being pushed by the American Cotton Association, executives of which are attending the world's convention as delegates.

TRADE OF CANADA SHOWS DECREASE

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—A decrease of $22,575,418 in the grand total of Canadian trade for the six months of the fiscal year ended September 30 compared with the same period in 1918 is shown by the monthly trade statement issued through the customs department. The total value of Canadian trade for the six months' period this year was $1,054,857,462, while last year it was $1,087,232,880. The decrease was largely due to a fall of $32,762,804 in the value of merchandise imported into Canada. During the six months' period last year imports totalled $484,525,214, while this year they totalled $451,762,410.

THE ANGEL'S DESCENT.

A disheveled female, who had not altogether recovered from the effects of a jolly evening, was brought before the magistrate the next morning. "What is your name?" asked the latter, looking severely at the sad spectacle. "H'angel," was the reply. "How did you come from?" "E'aven," replied the facetious one. "Come, my good woman, no levity," reprimanded the magistrate. "How old are you?" "Seventeen," replied she of at least fifty summers.

"How did you come to be here?" added the magistrate, ignoring the previous answer. "Slithered down on a rainbow," "Very well," said the representative of the law, "you can take three months for skylarking."—Tit-Bits

VANCOUVER ISLAND WILL DO ITS DUTY

B. C. Chairman of Victory Loan Drive Compliments Island Organization

Duly impressed with the capable Vancouver Island organization which will handle the third Canadian Victory Loan campaign, W. H. Malkin, of Vancouver, chairman of the British Columbia organization, on a brief visit to Victoria, expressed great confidence in the result of the campaign about to be launched.

Returned soldiers will practically handle this year's canvass in all districts. Mr. Malkin says that on the Mainland there are entire sections solely in charge of returned men. Brigadier-General Odium will lead the Vancouver forces.

Mr. Malkin announces that next week a meeting of all the canvassers will be held when it is expected that workers from all parts of the Province will attend. Full instructions and pointers on selling will be given the canvassers at this meeting, the date of which has not been set definitely but of which due notice will be given.

Great interest is being displayed in the present loan, reports Mr. Malkin, who does not doubt for a moment that Vancouver Island will go over the top with her five million dollar allotment. He explains that the mere fact of the war being over does not mean that the expense in connection with the great struggle ended immediately with the signing of the armistice. There are innumerable matters that require attention before Canada's big army is rehabilitated and trade and living conditions get back to normal. While passing through this stage it is more essential than ever that Canada should stand in a good financial position. The expenses of the country's business has increased in proportion to everything else.

Mr. Malkin says that American financiers are taking a great interest in the forthcoming Victory Loan and he expresses the hope that the favorable terms of the Canadian Government bond sales will not be snapped up by outsiders instead of by the people of Canada. However, he does not anticipate anything of the sort, and prophesies that this loan will prove a more popular one and a bigger success than the last.

MONEY IS NEEDED TO MAKE SAILORS

Navy League's Nelson Day Campaign Is to Promote Great Object

A large portion of the proceeds from the Nelson Day Campaign will be devoted to the purpose of the Naval Brigades. These brigades have been established in the principal cities of the Dominion for the training of Canadian boys for service on the sea. Canada's future is bound up in its export trade and depends much upon merchant marine. It is vitally necessary that the Dominion should provide qualified sailors. The Navy League of Canada is giving the younger generation of Canadians the opportunity for free training in seamanship, and business men are agreed that the value of this work cannot be over-estimated.

The success of Boys' Naval Brigade hangs on the generosity of public support. It is important to every Canadian that this movement should not be handicapped by lack of funds. Public spirited citizens are called upon for a generous response to the Navy League appeal through the Nelson Day Campaign. The big drive will cover three days, commencing October 21.

In addition to the demands of the Naval Brigade the Navy League has to finance its sailors' Homes and Institutes in Canadian ports. All the money raised through the Nelson Day Campaign will be spent in Canada.

"I suppose you are going into the country for your holiday this year, as you always do?"
"No, not this year; our cook prefers the seaside."

Influenza Epidemics Come in Pairs

Another Outbreak This Fall

A second epidemic of influenza is practically certain this fall, according to Dr. Copeland, Commissioner of Health for New York.

He points out that influenza epidemics always swept countries in pairs. The last one in America, prior to last winter, was in 1891, which followed the terrible epidemic of 1890.

Dr. Copeland looks for the outbreak this year to be much lighter than last year, when practically everyone was affected.

Now that we all know that influenza will be prevalent and indeed has already appeared in many localities throughout Canada, it is wise to take every precaution against it.

Be sure to eat wisely. Bathe often. Sleep with the windows open. Keep the stomach clean, digestion sound, the eliminating organs regular and the blood pure. This can be easily accomplished by taking every morning a reliable saline like Abbey's Effervescent Salt. Good health is the best preventative against disease, and Abbey's effervescent salt promotes good health.

WAR TAX IS BASED ONLY ON INCOME

Taxes are with us always, so they say. And much could be made of the taxable feature of the Victory Loan 1919 issue of bonds by people more concerned with the saying than with the actual facts of the case.

Only the income of Victory Bonds 1919 is taxable.

Only a single person, without dependents, making more than $1,000 a year, is liable to war income tax.

Only a married man making more than $2,000 a year (less $200 for each child) is liable to war income tax.

Only if you come within these limits will you have to pay a tax on the income of the Victory Bonds you will buy this year.

Then it will be a matter of only four per cent., or $2.50 on every thousand dollars you invest, 22 cents on every hundred.

If your income is $5,000 a year, the war tax amounts to eight per cent., $4.40 on every thousand you invest in Victory Bonds.

If you left the money in the bank you would have to pay the tax on the interest.

The average man and woman, measuring their individual case in this way, will see that the taxable feature of 1919 bonds affects them not in the least.

Delegates Leave for Winnipeg. — Harry Charlesworth, president of the B. C. Federation of Teachers is leaving to-night for Winnipeg to attend the National Education Conference which meets October 20, 21 and 22. A. on October 31, at which he has been asked to speak on some subject to be selected later. J. H. Beatty, of the Sprout-Shaw School, Victoria, is also going from this city to the Education Conference as representing the Rotary Club of Victoria, and Mrs. Edwin M. Brown, yesterday, elected to the vice-presidency of the Women's Canadian Club at their annual meeting, will represent that body.
