CALL FOR LAW AND ORDER IN IRELAND

Issue Manifesto

Say Ministry Will Perform Its Duty

Dublin, June 27 .- The Irish From State Provisional Govern-ment issued a manifesto this evening denouncing outrages against peace and security in Ireland, declaring the boycott of Belfast had no legal existence, and announcing that the Government would resolutely perform its duty to maintain law and order. The co-operation of citizens in this was invited.

Warning.

London, June 27.—The Evening News says the British Government sent a warning last Saturday to the Irish Free State Provisional Government, declaring that if the latter Government's authority to restore order were not exercised the British-Government would have to take action.

The British communication, according to the newspaper, requested the Provisional Government "to act promptly and vigorously to break up the organization for intimidation and murder which is designed to wreck the treaty and is directed, in the opinion of this Government, from the Four Courts building in Dublin."

lim."
"If the provisional government, now that the election shows they possess the support of the majority in the South." the warning continued; "do not exercise their authority to restore order, the Imperial Government will be obliged to take action."

Thrust Turned.

Thrust Turned.

Thrust Turned.

London, June 27.—Premier Lloyd George and Colonial Secretary Churchill have apparently turned the edge of the Opposition's thrust based on the Irish policy.

A virtual vote of confidence was given in the House of Commons last night when it defeated 342 to 75 a motion proposed by the "die-hards" for a reduction in the salary of the Chief Secretary for Ireland in disapproval of the Government's policy and the fallure properly to protect Field-Marshal Wilson.

The Secretary for the Colonies made it clear in his statement that Southern Ireland would not be allowed to coerce Ulster, and that the Provisional Government in Dublin now must assert complete-authority, the alternative being that the British Government would resume complete freedom of action.

The Premier, again outlining the policy toward Ireland, said the elections had shown that the Provisional Government had the people behind it, and that it now must prove whether it was fit to govern.

POLICE CHIEFS MR. LARKIN WILL CONTINUE TO SERVE CANADA IN LONDON

Paris, June 27.—A huge war reparations plan under which the Germans would reconstruct France and also build the long planned tunnel under the English Chanel has been submitted by the Minister of Public Works, M. Letrocquer, to Premier Poincare, who has laid it before the French member of the Reparations Commission. The plan involves the use of German labor and materials to the extent of 20,000,000,000 francs. The newspapers assert that if Germany is able to carry on the construction of railways and telegraph lines at home, she is able to reconstruct the war torn areas of France and also to help build the canals, electric power plant and railways which are needed in France and which are now under partial construction.

REQUEST FOR LEEK ON CANADIAN COAT-OF-ARMS

Ottawa, June 27.—(Canadian Press)—That the leek should be included in the Canadian coat-of-arms as the national symbol of Wales was a request made in the House of Commons this morning by John Evans, Progressive, Saskatoon.

"The symbols of four of the greatest races in the world, the English, Scottish, Irish and French, have been included." he said, "but the leek of my native Wales, which gives his name to the heir to throne, has been omitted."

Manson Appeals for Action as Vital to Stop Bootlegging

Ottawa, June 27.—The House of Commons yesterday refused to accept the Senate amendments to the Canada Temperance Act, the chief amendment to which exception was taken being that which prohibited private importation of liquer into the Province of British Columbia.

L. J. Ladner, Conservative, Vancouver South, spoke in support of the motion of Hon. D. D. McKenzie, to reject the Senate amendments, and it was carried without dissent.

The House accepted the amendments made by the Senate to six other bills.

bill to amend the Canada Temperance Act has brought the situation to an impasse.

As the bill originally left the House of Commons, it contained a clause for making importation of liquor into British Columbia a monopoly of the Eritish Columbia a monopoly of the Eritish Columbia Government and thus prohibiting importation into the Province by private individuals. The clause would also have removed any doubt as to the right of the Quebec government to exercise the monopoly in importation at now exercises.

The Senators, however, struck this clause from the bill, and the Commons having refused to accept the Senate amendment, the bill for the ime being stands.

This afternoon, the Senate will be made acquainted with the position taken by the House of Commons, and the question again, will come under discussion in the Upper House.

Unless an agreement between the Houses is reached the bill will not become law and the present status in the two provinces regarding importation of liquor will continue.

Vigorous campaign by telegraph to counteract the work of the Senate in turning down on Saturday the amendment to give B. C. complete control over imports, was launched yesterday by the Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney-General.

Mr. Manson telegraphed Premier Mackenzie King and members of the

An offertory in ald of those Protestants who have lost their homes in the present strife will be taken.

Session at Ottawa

Says Premier King.

Six days before the Crow's Nest rates on grain and flour become effec-tive under the bill now before the Senate, a general reduction of 20 per cent. in the West and 25 per cent. in the East is scheduled to come into effect, unless further action is taken by the Railway Commission.

Increases.

The situation in brief is this:
Under a general order issued in September, 1920, the Railway Commission ordered an advance in raisin addition to advances already conceded of 35 per cent, in Western territory and 40 per cent, in the East,
With that order the peak of the rate increases over the Crow's Nest rates was reached. The order provided, however, for a decrease of 5 per cent,
on January 1, 1921. Further, orders,
on January 1, 1921. Further, orders, of 10 per cent, and that the duration of the remainder of the increase granted in September, 1920, should be limited to July 1, 1922. Thus further action by the Railway Commission is awaited. In the meantime a general reduction of 20 per cent, in the West and 25 per cent, in the will come into effect on next Friday, most continually since he was wounded.

Twenty-four of his operations were major ones and twenty-four others were classed by surgeons as minor. Eighteen machine gun bullets had been taken from his body and he carried two, grown into his jugular-vein, to his death. In the operations fourteen ribs had been entirely removed, and a portion of one shoulder blade and a collar bone had been taken out.

His case is said by specialists to be one of the most remarkable in American surgery. Until two months ago he had recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital for short perioda. McCarty had been cited for extreme bravery, his citation stating he was dragging bodies of his comrades back from exposed positions when wounded.

Alsace, learned this when she arrived here on the Cunard liner Saxonia yesterday.

She produced a marriage certificate signed by County Judge Wilbur E. Bryan of Cedar County, Nebraska, showing that she was the wife of Lester M. Mabeus, once a soldier with the United States army in France, now of St. Helena, Nebr., and asked that she be permitted to enter the United States as Mrs. Mabeus.

She was informed she would have to have a regular marriage and the authorities will watch over her until it is performed.

Mabeus met Mile, Hahn while he was serving with the American forces in Alsace. He was suddenly sent back to the United States. A short time ago, Judge Bryan sent this cable to the madamoiselle:

"Do you take Lester Mabeus to be your lawfully wedded husband?"

The answer "I do" came by mall and Judge Bryan forwarded the certificate to Alsace.

PRINCE FUSHIMI

DIED IN JAPAN

Events in Honor of Visiting Americans Cancelled

June 27. — The impourning to Tokio. June 27. — The imperial court of Japan is in mourning to-day for Prince Yorlhito Higashi-Fushimi, who died yesterday at Hayama of influenza. Consequently the receptions and other_events planned for Secretary of the Navy Denby and officers of the American navy now en route here to attend a reunion of the Annapolis class of 1881 will be cancelled or curtailed. Prince Higashi-Fushimi, the sevententh son of the late Prince Kuniiye, served some thirty years in the Japanese navy, attaining the rank of full admiral in 1917. He contracted influenza last November and the court ceremonies incident to the visit of the Prince of Wales proved a heavy strain upon his weakened constitution. He took to his bed a short time after the departure of the Prince of Wales and never arose. The prince was 55 years old.

The body will be brought to Tokio to-day.

Baxter and Caldwell Had Difference of Opinion

Other Members of the House Restored Peace

Ottawa, June 27.—Two members of the House of Commons from New Brunswick, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter and T. W. Caldwell, almost came to blows shortly after last midnight. The quarrel arose over statements made previously in the House by both members in regard to the creation of new polis in Mr. Caldwell's riding.

Quiet Restored.

The quarrel was rapidly approaching a violent stage when members intervened.

The two men were eventually persuaded to leave the corridor and return to the House.

Hon. J. B. M. Baxter is Conservative member for St. John, N.B., and T. W. Caldwell is Progressive member for Victoria and Carleton, N.B.

RAINS BENEFIT MANITOBA CROPS

Wind Did Damage, But Mois-ture Was Needed

Winnipeg, June 27.-Crop prospects throughout Manitoba, far from being reduced, have been materially being reduced, have been materially enhanced by the torrential rains which accompanied and followed the cyclonic storm of last Friday morning, according to reports published in The Winnipeg Tribune based on reports received from staff correspondents.

"The fact is very evident that the area which suffered crop loss or damage from hail or wind is but a fractional percentage of the total crop acreage of Manitoba, states the newspaper.

"A strip about nine to 12 miles wide and 30 miles long through the centre of the Portage Plains suffered most, and even there the damage represents far from total loss, save in individual cases. Taken as a whole, for every acre of standing crop damaged, hundreds of acres have been benefitted and some, indeed, actually saved from the burning up which was threatened before the downpour."

Vote Following Debate on ireland 342 to 75

Lloyd George, Churchill and Others Spoke

Marshai Wilson, was dereated we're to 75.

Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies, in a statement on Irish affairs, made it clear that the British Government would expect the Irish Free State Provisional Government, now that it had heard the people's mandate, to take the necessary steps to assert its complete authority, and with equal frankness emphasized that the British Government would not allow the coercion of Ulster by the South Failure to observe the treaty would mean that the British Government would resume complete freedom of action.

Premier Lioyd George spoke.

Fremier Lioyd George, in a brief speech winding up the debate, repeated the familiar arguments in decrate of the Government's policy and contended that the Irish Free State Provisional Government now had the people of Ireland behind it, and what it did or failed to do would be the real test of whether it was fit to govern.

Must Show Authority.

Must Show Authority.

The speech of Mr. Churchill, the Colonial Secretary, was interpreted as indicating that what amounted to an ultimatum had been sent to the Irish Free State Provisional Government and it was generally supposed that the test of the Provisional Government's good faith would be whether it would be able to expel the dissidents from the Four Courts building in Dublin.

A cryptic sentence at the end of the Premier's speech seemed to suggest that the Government would resign if it failed to secure the adhesion of the House to the treaty. But it was also admitted that the sentence was capable of another interpretation.

To See it Through.

Mr. Bonar Law contended that the Irish signatories of the treaty had failed to carry it out in good faith and that the British Government when it handed over the government of Ireland to the provisional body, had taken a great responsibility which had turned out to be wrong. He believed, however, that the Government meant to see the thing through. If not, he would be against the Government and he hoped Parinament would be against the Government too.

Home Secretary Shortt, in his defence, disclosed that when it had been decided to withfraw police protection, written notification was sent to all those concerned, intimating that withdrawal would be subject to their own consent, and they had all accepted. The Government since then had received secret information that thefts, explosions and incendiarism might be expected, but there was a distinct belief, that there would be no organized murder.

"As if I loved you," I broke in, sob-"As if I loved you." I broke in sob-bing. "I do love you! I've never loved anyone else. . What does a stupid engagement matter? I'd rather marry you without a shilling to vour name than—than anyone else. ." My pride was down. I had for-gotten that it was he who had sent me away. I only knew that he was the man for me, and that without him I could rot bear my life. And I waited for what seemed an eternity of silence, broken only by his bard breathing. Then he gave a little in-articulate sound and moved towards me.

"Sally."

It was his voice that spoke my name, but it was another voice that caught it up from the curtained door of the greenhouse—caught it up on a note of unbearable pain, and disbelief—and swinging round with a stifled cry, I saw Lionel Champion standing there.

For a moment nobody spoke, then Lionel took a quick step towards me; his face was white, but he spoke composedly.

"This is my dance, I think."

He absolutely ignored Mark.
I drew back putting my hands behind me.

hind me.

"No... I lean't dance with you again." I said breathlessly.

My heart was beating like a wild thing. I hated him for having come at that moment; I wanted to be with Mark, to hear him say that he loved me, and to forget the misery of the least weeks.

past weeks.

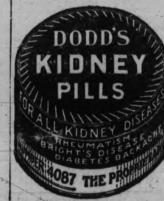

Lionel drew himself up. He looked at Mark for the first time, and then back again at me.

"This is not the time or the place for a scene," he said, and I knew that it was hard work for him to speek so.

This is not the time or the place for a scene," he said, and I knew that it was hard work for him to speak so quietly. "You are engaged to me for this dance, Sally, and if there is anything you—or this gentleman herewish to say to me it can be said afterwards, at a more suitable time." I looked at Mark, but he stood unmovable, and I broke out painfully: "It must be said now—at this moment, Lionel, I——" I stopped, and looked at Mark with agonized eyes. Would he never speak?

There was a tragic silence; then Lionel said: "Sally, I beg of you, for your own sake, come with me now. This man can never be anything to you. If you knew as much as-I do about him you would not be here at this moment, humiliating yourself. I beg of you, ..." I staid passionately, I word him, and I we always loved him. "Its true," I said passionately, I word him, and I we always loved him. Mark—oh, Mark!"

He disengaged my hands from his arm very gently, but he kept them both in his as he spoke. "I think it is for Miss Slater to choose," he said. "And, as she has done me the honor to choose me—" Lionel gave an enraged cry. "The honor to choose me—" Lionel gave an enraged cry. "The honor to choose me—" Lionel gave an enraged cry. CREAMERY TAKES

Modern Institution Big Factor in Food Supply

When the average householder receives his or her daily supply of milk or cream little thought is given to the tremendous amount of detail and care attached to the business of handling it so that its purity and perfection may be guaranteed.

A visit to the Broad Street plant of the Northwestern Creamery Limited by a Times representative proved interesting, as well as instructive and it would be rather surprising to most people to know that the business of butter making, lee cream manufacture, milk and cream and other branches of the creamery business requires so much machinery tribute to the daily supply and upwards of 1,000,000 pounds of milk pass through the various processes at the creamery annually, while 48.7,000 pounds of butter are handled in the same period.

The development of the ice cream business has been a big factor in the creamery business and this year the Northwestern is specializing on "brick" ice cream, and the handy little "Polar Cakes" turned out at the big plant have become very popular. The creamery prides itself on its "quick service" in conhection with orders for parties or pionics of various kinds. If notice is given of the time the ice cream will be required, the creamery will see to it that delivery is made at the most suitable time.

Mr. Norton, in company with A. G. Snelling formed one of the first wholesale milk concerns in Victoria when in 1912 they began the business now known as the Northwestern Creamery. Last Fail Mr. Snelling retired and Mr. Norton became manager. He was joined by Mr. John Wassh, who is secretary of the company. Mr. Norton was formerly associated with the Victoria Creamery Company on Carey Road and he has been connected with that class of business for nineteen years. The Northwestern Creamery Company on Carey Road and he has been connected with that class of business for nineteen years. The Northwestern Creamery to the creamery to do a wholesale trade exclusively except for the retail distribution of ice cream. A cool and comfortable portion of the creamery has been set aside for the use of the parlor and counter, where weary pedestrians on a warm day may drop in and enjoy some cooling refreshment.

ance of the Sailors' Club was sub-nitted in the annual report of the executive committee of the Sailors' Club. A sum in the neighborhood of $1,500 will be required, it was stated, and for this purpose the committee will have to rely upon an average of $30 per month from the letting of rooms and a grant of $35 per month from the Toronto head-quarters of the British Foreign Sail-rors' Sarlety.

ser month from the Toronto headwarters of the British Foreign Salired Saciety.

These means of raising money were supplemented in the following ways:
The selling of holly at Christmas, the sum of $52 being realized. The hall was rented to the Dominion Government for a sum of $53 for the Federal elections in December of last year for the purpose of a poliing booth for Esquimalt and vicinity while a linen shower which was held in the hall netted $6.75 in cash and grany articles including pillow cases and towels. The total amount of money raised from this was $92.75.

The members of the organization contributed greatly toward the funds by raising money through various social events. During the month of Lecember Mr. Hadley was able to denate $25 as the result of an excellent einertainment given by him while through a series of whist drives Mrs. Rains raised the large same of $60 for the organization.
The crew of the H.M.S. Raleigh visited the club and expressed their gratitude and appreciation for the untiring efforts of Mrs. Ranns in their behalf. A considerable number of the crew was housed at the

TO ATTEND POTLATCH City Council Representatives to G

"Alderman Perry doesn't want to go over there and make the city obnoxious," said Alderman Patrick when the Council was considering last night the question of sending a delegation, and possibly a float to the Vancouver potlatch on July 1. "He had better do some thinking before he goes," Alderman Patrick continued.

The Council had induiged in a lengthy discussion on the question, and had lapsed into a jocular mood when Alderman Perry offered the suggestion that two men could be employed to carry in the Vancouver parade a banner, with the slogan "Follow the Birds to Victoria." It was thought there was insufficient time in which to prepare a float.

When volunteers were asked for to represent Victoria at the Potlatch, Alderman Perry was the only one to respond. The whole matter was finally left in the hands of the Public Utilities Committee.

The Iron Trail," now at the Doon Theatre, is action, thrill and esome melodrama from start to that for a long time defied the efforts of the engineers to penetrate the rich gold country.

Murray O'Neil, the famous builder of railroads finds upon his arrival in Alaska that Curtis Gordon has a scheme started to build a railroad but learns that the plans cannot be successfully carried out, and that Gordon's project will fail. O'Neil disregarding Gordon's threats, starts, construction work and immediately meets most determined opposition.

Gordon resorts to trickery and treacherous methods and even sends for a newspaper writer to write up and blacken O'Neil's character. This newspaper writer proves to be Dan is O'Neil's atsunchest friend. The situation becomes more complicated because O'Neil has rescued Natalie, Gordon's step-daughter, from the wreck of a steamer off the Alaskan coast. This results in the crossed lines of having two beautiful giris, each lined up in the opposite camp to which they are related, by family ties.

In the course of the action of the story, there are mob fights, personal encounters, two alluring love themes, and the tremendous opposition of nature, that places great barriers in the way to the men attempting to cpen the way to t

DENIES IMPUTATIONS

Alderman Todd, on his return from the Greater Victoria committee's visit to Winnipeg, in City Council last evening, replied to remarks made by R. E. Collis at a meeting in Ward Five, Saanich, last week. Mr. Collis had stated that the ratepayers should beware of expanding American induence on the Island, and that the publicity bureau was managed by a man who until recently had been a citizen of the United States. Alderman Todd ridiculed the sugression that there was anything ulterior in the effort, and stated the remarks were untruthful and insulting.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO

Cannot Try Plan.

Municipat' Solfeitor G. H. Sedger weste the Council to the effect that prospective income must be ignored when considering the legality of making an agreement with the Hudson's Bay Co. for the use of the Macaulay Plains lands lie considered that the prospective expenditures could not come out of any existing funds, and only a by-law would validate matters. The proposal to operate the links until the end of the year as a means of obtaining data whereon to appeal to the ratepayers for authority to conclude a fifteen-year lease was quite out of order, he stated in effect.

E: H. Wilson, Lands Commissioner of the Hudson's Bay Co., offered to recommend to his London Head Of-fice an arrangement whereby the Council would be granted a fifteenhird the following year and re-on of the full taxes for the retremely favorable by Reeve Lockley. The United Services Golf Club offered to sell its club house to the Municipality for $1,000, and it was stated that the caretakers were prepared to waive all wage guarantees and look to the green fees as more than enough to pay them.

In the course of a summary of possible revenues, Reeve Lockley referred to last year's budges of the United Services Club, which showed a revenue of $8,000. E. H. Anderson of the Property Owners Protective Association declared that it would cost Esquimalt $6,000 yearly to operate the course, and although denying accuracy of these figures, Reeve Lockley showed that tax remission of $3,200, wages of $1,500 and water charges would still leave a possible profit.

It was stated that several applicants are trying to secure the use of the abandoned links and have been promised a definite reply by July 1, and Reeve Lockley will endeavor to secure a further extension of time from Mr. Wilson of the Hudson's Bay Co. to allow of submission of a bylaw should the suggested petition materialize.

Washington Second Many Swimming Galas Are In Thrilling Race

Forced Naval Crew to Establish New Record in One of Most Thrilling Boat keepsie - Best Showing Coast Crew Ever Made

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 27,-The United States naval academy eight-oared crew is still inter-collegiate rowing champion of America. In the greatest aquatic battle ever witnessed on the historic regatta course of the Hudson, the middles yesterday afternoon repeated their triumph of 1921 by winning the three-friumph of 1921 by winning the threemile varsity race from the greatest collection of colleges ever held or ever rowed in a similar race in the history of the sport.

Forced to terrible speed by the repeated challenges of Cornell, Washington and Syracuse, the sailors from the Severn finally emerged victors by one length over the University of Washington eight, champlons of the Pacific Coast. Scarce a length behind the far coast shell came Syracuse and Cornell, so closely locked that it was only after a long discussion among the judges at the finish that the former was awarded the third place over the lithaca combination.

Outdistanced almost from the start, Columbia and Pennsylvania fought out a duel of their own to avoid last place and in this New York collegians were successful.

Forced to Lower Record.

collegians were successful.

Forced to Lower Record.

So bitter and gruelling was the struggle almest from the start and forward through the last mile in a lane lined with yachts, excursion steamers, submarines and submarine chasers, that the middy sweepswingers were forced to shatter all collegiate rowing records in their efforts to hold the lead. As the prow of the navy shell shot across the line, the timers caught the crew in the remarkable figures of 13 minutes, 25 3-5 seconds, thus shattering by more than half a minute the record made by the sailor shell when they won last year by a full five lengths from California in 14 minutes and 7 seconds.

Seattle Inside Former Record.

The Seattle collegians after one of the mose desperate spurts ever witnessed in an inter-collegiate rowing association regatta finished in 13 minutes 36-1-5 seconds.

Dashing under the raliroad bridge one mile from the finish, the Navy led by half a length, having dropped its stroke to a long powerful 34 while Cornell was in second place, a half length ahead of Washington with the Westerners three-quarters of a length ahead of Syracuse. At this point Columbia and Pennsylvania had passed almost entirely out of the picture.

Washington Makes Bid.

Washington Makes Bid.

Coming from under the shadows of the bridge Washington, just as California did a year ago, made its bid for victory. Putting unexpected lift and drive into every stroke, the Western shell began to creep up on Cornell which was prematurely showing signs of fatigue under the exertion of savage sprints.

Fifty-four starts—fifty-four races—and never a winner. And, in all those years the best fortune that has be-fallen the Mound City is one second place club and five third places. Washington is also pennantless, but its grief is not so polgnait, nor so sustained as that of St. Louis. For the Washington disappointments have been only half so numerous as those of the Missouri metropolis.

Toronto, June 27.—A cable to Toronto, June 27.—A cable to the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen from London yesterday states that no Oxford or Cambridge crew or a composite crew from both great English universities will come to Canada to compete against Canadian-crews at the National exhibition this year. The trip has been postponed for one year.

Middies Sensed Danger.

Washington's spurt gradually carried them by Corpell and gaining what appeared to be an inch or two at a beat they set out after the flying Annapolis shell, the oarsmen of which suddenly awoke to the fact that they had the battle of their lives on their hands.

Coxyswain Gwinn barked an order to stroke Frawley and the middles flung every ounce of power into their blades, just as they did at Brussels in 1920 when they won the Olympic championship from the famous English Leander Club in a hair-raising lish Leander Club in a hair-raising finish. ment.

August 19—Dominion Swimming championships, at Gorge, under direction of B. C. branch of C. A. S. A.

August 26—Times long distance swim through Victoria.

Local swimmers are invited to take part in the Potlatch gala at Vancouver on Saturday and may send in their entries to J. H. Camm, secretary of the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club.

With a calendar of the season's activities before them the local swimmers will get down to serious training. Most of the clubs have been holding handicap swims for several weeks and the water birds are making very good time in the various events. They will get plenty of drilling from the coaches and club captains from now on.

If any local swimmers intend going East to compete for the Canadian championships allotted to Toronto, they are reminded that the date for that gala will be August 12. The events in Toronto will be the 220 and 440 yards free style for men as well as the high and low board diving. For ladies there will be the 50 and 100 yards free style, both titles at present being held by local mermaids, Kathleen Wellburn winning the fifty and Audrey Griffin the hundred last year.

Leonard Fouled Welterweight Champion in Thirteenth Round, Striking Him When on One Knee-Jack Would Have Won Fight on Points Had It Gone Limit, Say

New York, June 27.—Benny Leonard, the second lightweight campion in twerty-seven years to attempt the lifting of the welterweight title, failed last night when, after being outpointed for twelve rounds, he fouled Jack Britton, the thirty-seven-year-old champion and was disqualified.

After two minutes and forty-two seconds of fighting in the thirteenth round Britton suddenly went down seconds of fighting in the thirteenth round Britton suddenly went down on one knee and the referee started counting over him. Then Leonard walked over and struck Britton with a left to the body. The referee said he had not seen a foul blow struck before Britton went gown, although Britton claimed one.

Britton Had Best

Britton Had Best
Britton had held all the best of the contest last night, and it was evident that he would have won the judges' decision had the contest gone the limit of fifteen rounds.

The contest was interesting at all stages, with both men appearing to be lighting their best. Despite his thirty-seven years Britton displayed no end of activity, and, when called upon brought all of his famed ring generalship to bear against his opponent. The result prevented Leonard from achieving his greatest ambitton to become holder of both the lightweight and welterweight world titles.

Fight by Rounds.

Britton on Offensive.

Round 13—Britton, on the offensive, backed Leonard into a neutral corner with rights and lefter re-head and body. In coming out of this trouble, Leonard tripped on his own foot and fell backward to the canvas as Britton stepped away. The lightweight champ regained his feel and then Britton started another Struck Untimely Blow.

Leonard backed around the ring and they fell into a clinch in Britton's corner. There were a few blows passed to the head and, as the referee walked around, Britton broke away and went down to his knee, facing his corner. He motioned to his seconds to blaim a foul. Then Leonard, who had walked to the other side of the ring, walked around the referee, struck Britton a light blow to the body and shouted to the referee to count. The seconds of both referee to count. The seconds of both men rushed into the ring and Haley, the referee, waved both men to their corners. It was then announced that Fish; J.B.A.A. Regatta (Times Correspondence) Shawnigan Lake, June 25.—A trawberry social in aid of the Methodist Church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Phillips home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Phillips on Saturday evening. It proved a most enjoyable affair and financially a great success. The proceeds, some $40, will be devoted towards building an annex to the church. In addition to the strawberries and cream, a programme of song and recitation was given. Rev. A. E. Stephenson, pastor of the church, acted as chairman and spoke feel-ingly of the support given to him by the Shawnigan residents.

ingly of the support given to him by the Shawnigan residents.

Miss H. Skinner, of Vietoria, contributed several Scottish recitations in the real accent; Mrs. J. Medlands sang and recited, Mr. J. J. Phillips and Miss Agnes Phillips sang several favorite numbers and Mrs. J. Baker recited.

During the evening a mystery package was presented to Mr. J. J. Phillips, which caused much merriment. The ladies of the friendly aid turned out in force to help Mrs. Phillips. The success of the affair was most gratifying.

Duncan boys' cricket eleven visited Shawnigan Lake on Wednesday to Play Mr. C. W. Lonsdale's School.

The visitors battled first, but were soon dismissed for 19. Groves with four wickets for one run bowled very well for the home team. The school teplied with a total of 62, of which 38 was contributed by Morris, who hit freely all round the wicket. In their second innings Duncan did much better with 64. P. Tisdale making 22 and M. Lamb 13. The home team were able to obtain the required runs for a win with the loss of four wickets.

"Thursday," "Reception Day," under which heading afternoon tea was served, with other attractions such as ice-cream and sundries, was under the management of Mrs. H. R. Brown, assisted by Mrs. Coomber and Mrs. Witty.

The "reception" room had been prettily decorated with yellow lupin and roses, and set out with small tables, making a delightfully cosy retreat, after the rush of "shopping." "Friday booth," which was really intended for mending and darning, etc., but developed into a regular "examination of supplies," contained a number of very beautiful articles, besides the many bargains in ladies and children's wear, usually to be found at local sales of work. Mrs. F. Comley, assisted by Miss Pesgy Brown, attended to this booth, and the proceeds at the end of the day justified the amount of work and energy spent upon its preparation, "Saturday." "Shopping day," was under the management of Mrs. H. C. Helgesen, assisted by Mrs. Howard, and contained home cooking of every description, of which there was an excellent display.

The monthly meeting of the Shawnigan and Cobble Hill branch of the Duncan Board of Trade was held in the S. I. A. A. Hall on Wednesday, Col. F. F. Oldham in the chair. Most of the Shawnigan members were present. The question of better present. The question of better present. Will Refer Issue Back.

"I am sorry that the aldermen see fit to take this step and I hereby give notice that I shall, within the legal time stipulated, refer this matter back to the Council for reconsideration," said Mayor Marchant.

It was only after the greatest difficulty that the straight issue came before the Council for balloting. Resolutions and counter resolutions were offered thick and fast, and at one time matters became so confused that Alderman Patrick shouted: "I don't know what I am voting on." The meeting was not without its bitterness, and feeling reached a warm pitch on several occasions.

Lacks "Backbone."

Lacks "Backbone."

Aldermen Patrick and Leeming led the opposing forces, and insisted repeatedly that the question of parimutuel horse racing had been settled by the Council and could not be revived. "Has this Council any backbone at all. Is, it a jelly-fish, vaciliating combination. Is their principle for sale? Has it any stamina behind it?" was the way Alderman Leeming challenged the Council to stick to its previous decision.

"There is more influence being brought to bear on the aldermen new than there ever has been," Alderman Patrick claimed in supporting Alderman Leeming's contention that the Council had no right to open the question ago in.

Observing that the question was about to go to a vote, Aldermen Leeming and Woodward then attempted to postpone the discussion by proposing that nothing should be done until the Retail Merchants' Association could be heard at a meeting of the Council on Friday afternoon. It was explained that the reliable merchants are opposed to the races as they claim for a consider.

"We allowed the other side to come here and present their case. Now we should be fair and allow the Retail Merchantse to come before us and state their views on this question before we deal with it," said Alderman Leeming. The vote on this proposal was taken and lost.

It was then apparent that the Andros-Gillespie motion to grant the B. C. Agricultural Association's application would carry and before the matter was put to a vote-Alderman Woodward was on his feet demanding to know why Alderman Harvey had "switched." Cries of "You're out of crder" were raised and Alderman Harvey rose to explain that there had been no switching to it. He had been nonsistent in his attitude throughout, he asserted. He recalled that from the first he had said he was in favor of horse racing if it were conducted properly and had voted against previous applications because he was not satisfied that they should be granted.

"This is the first application we have had before us from the B. C. Agricultural Association, and I am voting for it." explained Alderman Harvey.

Rules.

Mayor Marchant insisted at last night's meeting of the City Council that procedure should be carried on in a more parliamentary manner. Consequently, when Alderman Andros offered an amendment to a motion in the good old fashioned way there was trouble right away. "Be Parliamentary," said His Worship. "In proposing your amendment you should move that all the words after 'that' in the original motion be struck out and then add your amendment," explained His Worship.

"I'll do nothing of the sort! I'll put it the way I want to put it and you can take it or leave it alone but so long as I am alive that's the way I'm going to do it. It's the way we've always done it and I don't see what's the matter with it," indignantly retorted Alderman Andros.

The incident presseges trouble over the Mayor's proposed new rules of order for Council meeting procedure. He has worked for some time on these rules and last night passed around copies of his draft suggestions for the perusal of the aldermen, who will be asked to express their opinion regarding the same

There were several letters from M. Paul Leduc, the city's legal agent at the Federal capital.

Writing under date of June 7. Mr. Leduc stated: "I had an interview after lunch to-day with. Sir Lomer, Gouin. He does not seem to think there is much chance of putting through any legislation such as this during the present session. I pointed out to him that public sentiment in Biritish Columbia, and more especially in Victoria, was strongly against the law as it is, and as it is applied now, and I called his attention to the fact which was reported in the press recently—that a good many merchants of Victoria are to be sued for infringement of the law.

"I confess that I expected the initiative to be taken by a member of the House, in which case I would probably have been able to get the support of the majority of the Quebec deputation who are, for the most part, in favor of a broader interpre-

"I am afraid that the answer of Sir Lomer Gouin will not be satisfac-tory, and that it will be necessary to work between now and the next ses-sion to have the amendments passed then. It would be well, therefore, to have all the cities or towns of British Columbia which have Boards of Columbia which have Boards of Police Commissioners, and who are if favor of these amendments, to pas when the ballot was taken and the advocates of horse racing won, Alderman Leeming picked up his had and walked out, firing a parting shot at his opponents as he went.

D. Todd. a resident of Island Road, to the Oak Bay Council last night. The Council viewed the advocacy of this suggestion favorably and endorsed the project. Mri Todd, in the letter, explained that he would seek to have a petition circularized by the residents affected by such a belt line to lay before the company. Choice of route and details of the plan are left open but a very real need of the linking up of the two lines in question was urged by the writer of the letter in advancing his suggestion.
