Foreword

The year is done and here is the chronicle of its events. Through the pages of this volume we have sought to reflect as much of the spectacle of university days as time and space permit. Our design was to pattern the book closely after this motif and thus present a panoramic view of college. We hope, though Time moves onward and dims memories, that this yearbook has succeeded in catching and depicting enough of the story to keep vivid our recollections of the whole. If it is as full of interest to the readers as it has been of pleasure to us in producing it, we shall be gratified.

♦ Dedication ♦

WITH sincere admiration we dedicate this book to Paul Green, whose achievements in the field of the American drama place him eminently among the few who have contributed greatly to the enrichment and progress of the University. Though youthful in years, he has forged to the front with a maturity of conception and a depth of insight into human values which distinguish him as one of America's leading playwrights. As a professor of philosophy, he has stirred his students in their thinking to a deeper appreciation of the things about them and has been one of the most compelling inspirations of our college days. For his admirable love of knowledge and his fearless search after the truth, we take genuine pleasure in presenting this volume as a token of our esteem.

President's Message

HERE is a record of a year on the University campus. More than three thousand of us, students and faculty, have lived here together. It is a colorful thing, this life of ours. Men thronging into classrooms, lonely seekers for new truth in laboratories, teams struggling on athletic fields, men making music and drama, building new universes late at night, meeting, organizing, failing, succeeding, dreaming, playing, working, building lives, planning careers. We have come together from many places; we go out from here to scatter widely. But from now on we shall always have something in common. We have been parts of a living, growing enterprise—a university with a fine tradition, a significant present, and a hopeful future. This book, through the years that follow, will be a link that binds us all together. May the memories it shall bring strengthen the bond that links you forever to the University of North Carolina.

The University

Prosaic dormitories masquerading as bits from a medieval tapestry

Strands of ivy are the sedate robes of tired old buildings

Such fragmentary landscapes are imbued with all the languor of a gypsy's dream

The home was dignified by the architect, and the owner is dignified—by Jove

Minor phase from a symphony in shadow

On such slopes one finds the hoof prints of the great god Pan

An object lesson in the quietness of splendor

Here Elmer Gantry holds a nightly liaison with Madame Bovary

Thin towers of whispering silence

Where one may yearn for cream puffs—and get another helping of hash

A cloister where the sun kneels in pensive prayer

Proving that some light is shed on the paths that lead to knowledge

A Sonnet for Class Day

ON such a day, bards sing the man and maid,
The conquerors of pedants and slow years,
Discarding doubtful certainties and fears,
They wing out free, untried and unafraid.
Strew roses on the fading trail they made,
And force a sigh for laughable past tears.
On this one day, the gyre of distant spheres
Coils in youth's hands, and youth is undismayed.

Forget how soon they gain their destined dower,
Their dreams may end in selling shoes or hay,
And bald pates gloom at evanescent power,
And wrinkles twist where laughter lines once lay.
As very gods, they live this one short hour,
Strew roses, stripped of thorns, upon their way.

KATHERINE JOHNSON.

The Debate Council

THE Debate Council is the body selected to manage all student intercollegiate contests of a forensic nature—oratory and debating—engaged in by the University. Beginning with the scholastic year 1927-28, with the consent of the University administration, the two Literary Societies, and the student body, the Debate Council was organized in its present form, which is essentially as follows: It is composed of four students and three faculty members; two of the student members are elected by the student body at large and one each is appointed by the two Literary Societies; the three faculty members are appointed by the President of the University. The President of the Debate Council is always a student and one of the faculty members is always Executive Secretary, the latter office continuing from year to year.

The present composition of the Debate Council is as follows: Ralph W. Noe, President; Professor George M. McKie, Executive Secretary; Professor Howard M. Jones; Professor Albert Coates; Taylor Bledsoe; H. B. Parker; and J. H. Harrell.

Debate Between the University of North Carolina and the National Union of Students (British)

NOVEMBER 22, 1927

THE debate between the University of North Carolina and the National Union of Students was held in Memorial Hall, November 22, 1927, before an audience of approximately fifteen hundred people. The Oxford style of debating with split teams, with the audience voting, was followed. The query discussed was:

Resolved, That the only effective way to prevent war is by an uncompromising pacifism.

Votes were taken before and after the debate; there was an apparent change of four votes in favor of the negative.

The representatives of the National Union were Frank O. Darvall, University of Reading; Andrew Haddon, University of Edinburgh; John Ramage, London School of Economics. The representatives of the University were Mercer Blankenship, James Stanley, and John Wilkinson.

The Mary D. Wright Debate

THE Mary D. Wright Memorial Medal was begun years ago by the late Mr. P. E. Wright of Landis, N. C., and is now continued by his estate through the agency of Mr. F. E. Wright of Landis, N. C. It is awarded to the best speaker on the winning team in the annual debate between the Philanthropic Assembly and the Dialectic Senate.

The debate for the scholastic year 1927-28 was on the question,

Resolved, That the governmental policies of Mussolini are for the best interests of Italy.

The representatives of the Philanthropic Assembly were E. W. Morgan and John Wilkinson, who took the negative side of the question. The representatives of the Dialectic Senate were H. J. Galland and Trent Harkrader, who took the affirmative side of the question. The negative side won and John Wilkinson was awarded the medal.

Debate Between the University of North Carolina and the University of Virginia

THE query of the debate between the University of North Carolina and the University of Virginia was:

Resolved, That the increased power of the Federal Government as shown during the past decade indicates a beneficial tendency.

Virginia took the affirmative side of the question and was represented by A. L. Cooke and Herbert Hoover. Taylor Bledsoe and D. E. Hudgins, Jr., upheld the negative side for Carolina.

The debate was won by the affirmative team.

Alabama-Tulane-Carolina Debate

THE annual triangular debate between the University of North Carolina, Tulane University, and the University of Alabama was held March 31, 1928, the Carolina affirmative team remaining at home to meet Alabama's negative, and the negative team going to Tulane to meet Tulane's affirmative. The question was one of great interest at the time:

Resolved, That Governor Alfred Smith of New York should be elected President of the United States.

Carolina's affirmative team was composed of Taylor Bledsoe and J. A. Williams; on the negative team were Charles R. Jonas and John H. Mebane.

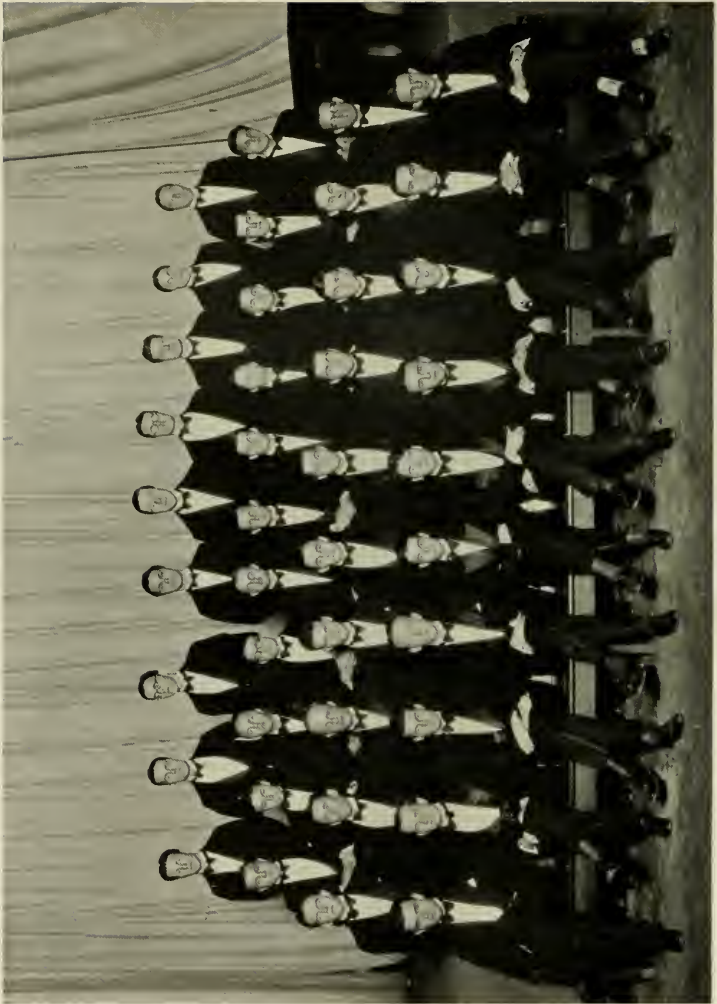

Both debates were won by Carolina.

Fraternities and Social Orders

Fraternity Superlatives

Delta Kappa Epsilon—First to be founded on campus; most often to be found off campus.

Beta Theta Pi—Most versatile; same house with different location every fall.

Phi Kappa Sigma—Most hospitable; most noisy after taps.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Most snappily dressed; forever ready to meet a horse.

Zeta Psi—A doll's house; stronger for women than Ibsen.

Chi Phi—White House of student body president; teapots, lots of gas, no oil.

Alpha Tau Omega—Most members in faculty; most freshmen not initiated.

Kappa Alpha—Most quiet: sometimes.

Phi Delta Theta—Building new house; now using Patterson's drug store.

Sigma Nu—The foot of fraternity court, the mouth of campus politics.

Sigma Chi—Most cheerful; always in good spirits.

Kappa Sigma—Have collegiate standards; day in, night out.

Pi Kappa Alpha—Sigma Nu's to the right of them, Sigma Chi's to the left of them, theirs not to reason why.

Pi Kappa Phi—Friends of peace, enemies of rest.

Delta Sigma Phi—Most unassuming; least assumed upon.

Theta Chi—Most active: on week-ends.

Delta Tau Delta—On the rim of the campus, on the verge of evil.

Delta Psi—The runt of St. Anthony; out of the East came three wise men.

Pi Beta Phi—Most social; also most Ho-ho!*

Chi Omega—Lots of dates; very few prunes.

Mr. John O. Allison,

Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for the pleasure of looking over the photographs you sent to me. As most of the photography does not, I feel sure, do justice to most of the subjects, the only way I could judge of the beauty of the young ladies was from a photographic viewpoint-so I earnestly hope I have thus not hurt the feelings of those who are very likely much prettier than their photo would lead one to believe.

COACH BOB FETZER

COACH QUINLAN

EARL DONNAHOE

After being out of school three years Earl Donnahoe returned to the squad and soon established himself as an outstanding guard.

RAY FARRIS

Shifted about from one position to another, Ray Farris finally found his true calling as a guard. His speed and power easily earned him a place on every all-state team picked.

BILLY FERRELL

Billy Ferrell made up in spirit and fight what he lacked in size, and played a whale of a game all year. In the Maryland game his punting was phenomenal.

EDISON FOARD

A good man to back up a line and also a hard line smasher, "Sat-chel" Foard was an important asset in several games.

Football

It cannot be said that the 1927 football season at Carolina was a "howling success." A team that wins four games out of ten played cannot be branded as a champion. However, well earned victories in the last two games of the season over two such stalwart teams as Duke and Virginia, crowned a rather mediocre season with a wreath of satisfaction.

No lack of material marred the chances of the Tar Heels of 1927. When the call for practice was issued on the first day of September, eighteen lettermen were found among the squad of sixty or more who trotted out for inspection by Coaches Collins, Cerney, and Fetzer. Our line of the past season had only two vacancies. Our backfield returned to us intact, pleasantly reinforced by the appearance of several capable freshman ball-carriers. After three weeks of grinding practice the season opened with Wake Forest furnishing the opposition.

For three years, Wake Forest had ridden her jinx to a victory over the University. It was time the worm had changed. But it was not so decreed. Wake Forest won 9 to 8. Carolina collected her score and a touchdown that came in the closing four minutes of play. A Wake Forest end blocked Captain Morehead's placement kick for the point that would have meant a tie.

The statistics tell their own story of Carolina's play: 11 first downs to Wake Forest's 3 (1 by penalty)! 303 yards from scrimmage against the Baptists' 96! Rookies on both teams were crowned as the heroes of the fray. Odell Sapp and Earl Donnahoe were the shining lights of the game.

STEVE FURCHES
Steve Furches started off the season rather slow but finished it in a whirlwind manner. He proved his worth as a hard-fighting, peppy quarterback.

TOMMY GRESHAM
A clever blocker, as well as a nifty side-stepper, Gresham was always watched closely by opposing teams.

NELSON HOWARD
"Shine" Howard's fighting spirit and powerful frame made him a strong bulwark in the Tar Heel line at Tackle.

HARRY LASSITER
Harry Lassiter, a hard driving halfback, was one of the toughest men on the squad to stop.

It was generally expected that the powerful eleven from the University of Tennessee (their strongest eleven in years) would trounce the Tar Heels on Emerson Field; and they did—by a score of 26 to 0. The game was decided by the fortunes of the air, as the Volunteers rode to victory on either completed or intercepted heaves. First downs were even at 6 all.

The real tragedy of the game is found in the fact that no less than eight of the Tar Heel passes found their way into the magnet-like hands of the Vols. However, less than twenty yards were gained through the Carolina line during the sixty minutes of play by the famous plunging Dodson and the vaunted Tennessee offense.

The following Saturday, a splendid fighting team from Maryland came down to Chapel Hill with the dope pointing to Carolina's third straight defeat. While five thousand fans shivered and dripped in a cold, driving rain, the Tar Heels kicked the dope bucket sky high and defeated the Old Liners 7 to 6 in the biggest upset of the 1927 season. All the scoring was done in the first quarter when the field was dry. Captain Morehead, Ferrell, Schwartz, and Albert Whisnant were the Carolina men who handled themselves unusually well in the lakes and quagmires.

Next week found the Tar Heels in Columbia doing battle with the South Carolina Gamecocks. North Carolina swept up and down the field at will, piling up first downs after first downs, until reaching a

JIMMY WARD GETS GOING AROUND END AGAINST WAKE FOREST

CHARLES LIPSCOMB
Charlie Lipscomb a big, lefty tackle, although handicapped by injuries this year, proved his worth on more than one occasion.

GARRETT MOREHEAD
All the essentials of a real leader were found in Captain "Bo" Morehead. He has been an outstanding performer for the past three seasons, and is rated as one of the best tackles ever to wear a Carolina uniform.

GEORGE MCDANIEL
George McDaniel has been a reliable wingman on the Tar Heel eleven for the past two years and has always given all he had for Carolina.

SAM PRESSON
Sam Presson, one of the hardest tacklers on the squad, made right end a place that the opposing backs always wanted to avoid.

scoring position within the South Carolina five or ten yard line. There the Gamecocks held, and the final score of the game found South Carolina cheerfully sitting on the long end of a 14 to 6 score—the second victory of the South Carolinians over a period of nearly thirty years.

Georgia Tech, Southern Champion and one of the strongest teams in the country, was host to the Tar Heels in Atlanta on the following Saturday. Tech won 13 to 0, but considered themselves lucky. The Tar Heels dashed a dazzling running attack, mixed with a short passing drive that carried them four times into the shadow of Tech's goalposts. The same nemesis that stopped us inches from victory against South Carolina a week previous was still with us against the Golden Tornado.

Thousands of Jacket alumni squirmed in their seats as Ward and Tom Young flashed up and down Grant Field or while Odell Sapp snatched brilliant passes from the arm of Whisnant. The entire Carolina team played well, but Harry Schwartz played a super-game at center.

For the first time in five years N. C. State tasted a sweet victory over the mighty Tar Heels. The score read: State 19, Carolina 6; but it might more correctly have read "McDowell 19, Carolina 6"! Carolina's inability to fathom the aerial attack of McDowell and his cohorts, cost her the game. Was it that same nemesis that had haunted us through the South Carolina and Georgia Tech games that saw to it that the game ended with the ball in Carolina's possession on State's half-yard line with four downs to go!

JACK MCDOWALL, STATE'S PRIDE, JUST BEFORE HE WAS TUMBLED TRYING TO GET THROUGH THE CAROLINA LINE IN THE STATE-CAROLINA GAME AT RALEIGH

ODELL SAPP

"Cicero" Sapp, our all-state end, was heralded as one of the finest forward pass receivers in the South.

HARRY SCHWARTZ

One hundred eighty-five pounds of the finest bit of fighting football material below the Mason Dixon line, Captain Schwartz was picked as All-Southern center and mentioned on several All-American teams.

GRAYDON SHUFORD

"Ox" Shuford rounded out his third year on the Carolina team as a full-back, but was hampered by old injuries in the later games.

JAMES SHULER

"Bud" Shuler at guard was noted for his splendid interference and ability to open holes in rival lines.

Visions of the V. M. I. game in Lexington took on a doleful hue when it was learned that injuries in the State game would keep Billy Ferrell, Earl Donnahoe, and Charlie Lipscomb on the side lines. And the omens were true; V. M. I. set Carolina back in its sixth and final defeat of the year, 7 to 0. As in the South Carolina game, the Georgia Tech game, and the State game, the Tar Heels swept up and down the field in All-American fashion until they got within the scoring zones, and then the weekly nemesis struck and V. M. I. would kick out of danger. Donnahoe and Warren played outstanding hall in the line, and Jimmie Ward was the running star.

Carolina's brand new Kenan Memorial Stadium was all set for the annual clash with Davidson, and the Wildcats were swamped 27 to 0. Carolina presented a diversified attack that kept the opposition guessing. Ray Farris, a fighting sophomore guard, drew the spotlight to himself by playing one of the most brilliant individual games ever witnessed in this section. Other shining lights in the Tar Heel constellation were Schwartz, Young, and Gresham.

Heartened by the Davidson victory, the University student body moved twelve miles to Durham to cheer the Carolina eleven to victory over the most formidable aggregation in Duke's history. For thirty-four years, the men of Duke had been hoping for a victory over the Tar Heels, and they are still waiting! Tom Young

THE FAMOUS GRESHAM-TO-YOUNG PASSING COMBINATION FUNCTIONING IN THE CAROLINA-DAVIDSON GAME

JIMMY WARD

An accurate passer, the finest open field runner on the squad, and a fairly good punter, Jimmy Ward is one of the best triple-threat backs ever to play at Carolina.

ADDISON WARREN

Better known perhaps in fistie circles, "K. O." Warren has long been a dreaded barrier to opposing teams who attempted drives over his guard or tackle.

ALBERT WHISNANT

A heady quarterback as well as a forward passer of ability, Albert Whisnant's play in the first games of the season was worthy of note.

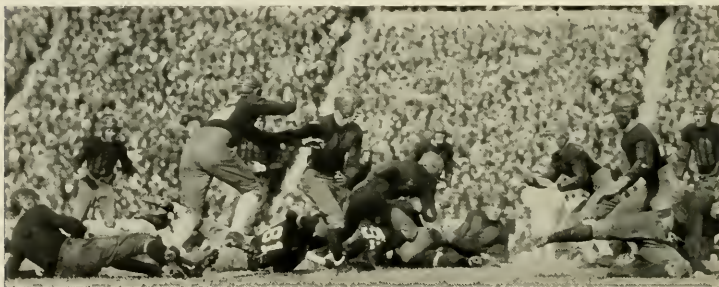

TOM YOUNG

Tom Young, a unanimous choice for all-state halfback, ran the ball brilliantly and was the greatest defensive back ever seen in North Carolina.

wrote his name all over the field with his brilliant running, uncanny receiving of Ward's passes, and sturdy defensive work. It was Tom's greatest game. Yes, it was a pretty contented student body that returned to the Hill that afternoon.

And Virginia, at home on Thanksgiving day! The gods could have picked no better day for the memorable struggle which was to conclude the Tar Heel season and dedicate the magnificent new Kenan Stadium. Twenty-eight thousand fans from all parts of the state flocked to Chapel Hill to witness the thirty-second annual renewal of the South's most picturesque grid rivalry and watched the Tar Heels win 14 to 13. Four minutes after the final quarter had begun, the Tar Heels enjoyed a 14 to 0 lead. But a burst of passes enabled the Cavaliers to score. The second Virginia touchdown came on the last play of the game. Ray Farris, his head wrapped in bandages, played a brilliant game at guard, while the work of Sapp and Presson on the flanks was of the highest order.

After the final, Virginia game, the question arose as to who should be successor to Captain Morehead. Certainly no one could fill that position better than our All-Southern center, Harry Schwartz, and to him went the honor. Max Barker was elected to handle the managerial reins for the varsity. Only four men will be lost from this year's varsity team, and thus Carolina looks forward to a great season in 1928!

Basketball

MORRIS

Captain "Pinky" Morris, a brilliant guard, was poison to his opponents all year round, and was a unanimous choice for all-state.

With the entrance of basketball onto the athletic stage, the attention of the entire Southland—from force of habit—was centered on Chapel Hill, the land of great basketball teams. And that attention was justified, for the same thing happened in 1923 that happened last year, the year before, and the years before that: Carolina again clearly demonstrated her superiority in the hardwood sport.

Jim Ashmore had a lot to do with the fact that this year's aggregation won 16 out of 18 games. He had four men back from his last year's varsity, which won 17 out of 24 games, and when the fifth blew into school—a lad who had already distinguished himself as an All-Southern basketballer for three years—things were "sitting pretty." Mr. Jim took that bunch of fast, shifty players, who could dribble and pivot with the best, and shoot fairly well, and molded them into one of the cleanest, most smoothly-working aggregations ever seen in this territory. But Fate had a terrible blow in store for him.

HACKNEY

Captain-elect Rufus Hackney was the team's leading scorer as well as a splendid defensive player.

We had successfully waded through a hard season of 17 games and had won 16 of them. We lost our only game to Tulane, 20 to 19, and retaliated by licking them twice, once by a 38 to 8 score. Naturally, we were favorites to cop our fifth Southern Championship since the conference tournament was inaugurated seven years ago. In the final game of the regular season, two days before the opening of the Southern Tourney in Atlanta, we met and defeated Wake Forest on our home court, 28 to 17. But what a costly victory! Bill Dodderer, our All-Southern guard, and Carr Purser, our six-foot-plus stellar center, suffered severely sprained ankles, and North Carolina's hopes for another championship went up in flames as L. S. U. downed the Tar Heels two days later in the first game of the tourney, 44 to 38, while Dodderer and Purser looked on from the bench.

The season opened with a practice game that resulted in a 45 to 12 victory over Salisbury Y. On their way to New Orleans, for a three-game series with Tulane during the Christmas holidays, the Tar Heels stopped off in Charlotte and spanked a team of former Carolina stars known as the Monogram Men, 33 to 30. "Red" Price suffered a leg injury that kept him out until mid-season.

Heralded as the finest team in Dixie, the Tar Heels arrived in New Orleans and won the first game of the series from Tulane 23 to 21. The following night Tulane nosed out the boys from Carolina 20 to 19 in what proved to be the only setback of the Tar Heels' regular season. In the final and decisive game on the next night, the Tar Heels woke up and, flushing the form for which they are famous, decisively avenged the defeat of the preceding night by trouncing the Tulane Greenies 38 to 8.

The Monograms went down to their second defeat at Chapel Hill in Carolina's first game of the 1925 year, 43 to 31. Practically every man on the Carolina squad got into the game.

DODDERER

Bill Dodderer, our other all-state guard, was really the backbone of the team. It was his super-playing that brought us such a splendid season.

VANSTORY

Billy Vanstory will go down in history as one of Carolina's most versatile players, starting at forward, center, and guard.

PURSLER

Carr Pursler played a bang-up game at Center always getting the fullest advantage of his height and reach.

In another important state championship battle at Raleigh, the Phantoms successfully repelled a spirited State College aggregation, 31 to 21.

The largest crowd that ever piled indoors to witness an athletic event in North Carolina—5,000 people—witnessed the basketball epic of the year in the Tin Can, when the undefeated Duke team was overwhelmed by a glorious Carolina team, 27 to 14. Carolina journeyed to Charlottesville for a return game with Virginia, minus the services of "Big Bill" Dodderer, who had been left in Greensboro with an infected hand. The Cavaliers threw a scare into the Tar Heel camp when they held the Heels to a 26 to 22 score.

In a return engagement with Duke at Durham, the Heels clearly demonstrated their right to the 1923 state championship by squelching the Methodists 32 to 23. Bill Dodderer got back in uniform with his hand bandaged and played for a few minutes.

State coach at Chapel Hill determined to make one more strenuous attempt to break the Tar Heel winning streak. In a loosely played game, the Heels emerged victorious by exactly the same score as that of the first game, 31 to 21. State failed to take the lead a single time during the night.

"Red" Price injured his knee early in the season, but once back in shape he proved to be a very important cog.

Guilford was the next team to fall before the White Phantoms, 42 to 23. Georgia, the team which eliminated us in the semi-finals at the tournament last year, came to the Hill, and the Phantoms gleefully avenged the old defeat by turning back the Georgians 35 to 29. Satterfield's entrance into the game after the first ten minutes had gone brought new life into the Tar Heels. At Raleigh, the Tar Heels put in their first move for the state championship when Bill Dodderer blazed the way in a 38 to 22 win over Wake Forest. The Virginia Cavaliers were the next to invade Chapel Hill, and they went away on the small end of a 37 to 21 score. The work of the two Tar Heel guards, Dodderer and Captain Morris, was particularly good. Rufe Hackney ran wild and swished 18 points through the net. Bunn Hackney, last year's captain, brought the Nighthawks to the Hill, and, with his brother Rufus counting 15 points for the Tar Heels, saw his team taste defeat, 43 to 21. "Red" Price, who had been out since the holidays with a sprained knee, reappeared in the Tar Heel line-up.

The Tar Heels ended their regular seasonal schedule with a costly victory over Wake Forest at Chapel Hill, 29 to 17—costly because of the injuries sustained by Bill Dodderer and Carr Pursler.

The appearance of the Tar Heels at the tournament in Atlanta two days later greatly resembled a reunion of World War veterans as Dodderer and Pursler hobbled around on crutches. If the Tar Heels could weather the first couple of games, the trainers hoped to get the two big boys in shape for the finals. But it is history now how Louisiana, a comparatively weak team pulled the biggest surprise of the year when they eliminated the favorites 44 to 38 in the first game. It was a tough dose for the Heels to swallow, especially for Dodderer and Morris, who thus were cheated out of another year on the All-Southern team.

SATTERFIELD

Henry Satterfield, our diminutive little stick of dynamite, is the kind of forward that makes basketball an enjoyable game to watch.

CATHEY

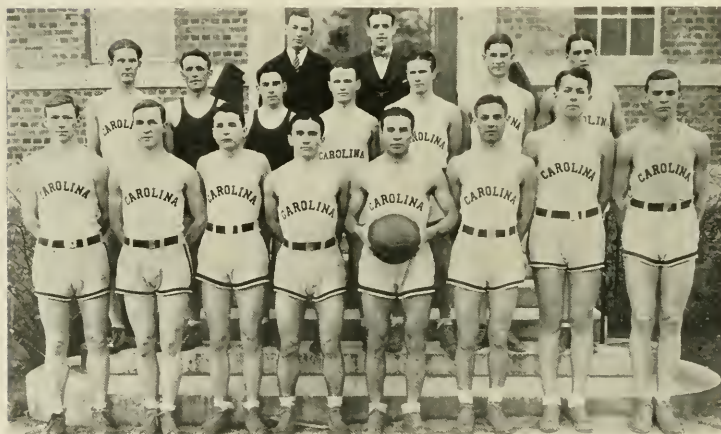

George Cathey is one of those steady, dead shots, that coaches always must have on a well rounded squad.

STATISTICS

Statistics for the year revealed the fact that Rufe Hackney led the team in scoring with 148 points. He was followed by Satterfield with 113 points; Vanstony with 81; Purser with 80; Dodderer with 75; Morris with 52; Price with 29; and Cathey with 23. Hackney's points came as a result of 60 field goals and 28 fouls, while Satterfield collected 51 field goals and 11 fouls. "Long George" Cathey had a perfect foul shot record with seven points out of seven free throws. Bill Dodderer had the best foul shooting percentage of the regulars with 17 points out of 30 shots.

NEXT YEAR

Rufus Hackney of Durham was elected to captain next year's quint. Under his capable leadership, and with such men as Satterfield, Cathey, Purser, and Price back, and with Neiman, Captain Sher, Marpett, Brown, Edwards and Crouch coming up from this year's powerful freshman team, who knows but what the Tar Heels may collect their fifth championship next year.

1928 VARSITY BASEBALL SQUAD

HATLEY

Captain "Hat" Hatley, all-state center fielder for three years, will long be remembered for his hitting and fielding ability.

MACKIE

Ed Mackie, the club's leading hitter with an average of over .400 covered right field like the proverbial blanket.

For several reasons the 1927 squad may be regarded as one of the most deserving clubs ever to represent the University. From the standpoint of games won and lost, the aggregation turned in a percentage of 636, the highest winning percentage of a Carolina baseball team over a period of four years. The state baseball championship was safely tucked away, and the University of Virginia again tasted defeat in the annual three-game series between these fine old rivals.

In early March, Coach Jim Ashmore took charge and the critics sat back to see what this man from the West—making his debut to North Carolina baseball followers—could show. The prospects were perhaps better than average. Batting was the team's strong point with the following men hitting within the charmed 300-circle: Mackie, Young, Hatley, Cox, and Sharpe. The fielding, mediocre enough in spots was on the whole rather good. The mound work was fairly consistent with Westmoreland, Ellison, and Whisnaut bearing the brunt of the burden. "Lefty" Westmoreland in particular, by winning 11 out of 13 games, including a no-hit performance against Davidson, proved to be a veritable God-send to the Tar Heel nine.

The high standard of play maintained by the Carolina team is clearly evidenced in the all-state mythical nine selected for the Associated Press by the big five coaches. Westmoreland was a unanimous choice for the hurling staff. The other Carolina players honored were Young 1 B, Captain Hatley, C. F., Mackie, R. F., and Sharpe, catcher.

In the face of a bitter, cold April wind that played havoc with fly balls, the Tar Heels ushered in the season with a surprise 8 to 7 victory over Elon, rated as one of the strongest teams in the state. The game with N. C. State was called off when the clay diamond on Emerson Field disappeared somewhere under a heavy shower which fell for two days. Four days later, with the diamond still muddy from the heavy rains, Peen State slid off with a 3 to 0 victory in spite of the fact that Westmoreland fanned 10 of the invading northmen. Mackie proved his ability as a premier mid hall hitter by collecting exactly half of Carolina's six hits. The University of Pennsylvania was lucky to get a 2 to 2 tie with the Tar Heels. Ellison held the visitors to two hits, one of the infield variety, but his teammates fielded like old women in the first inning and handed the northerners the two runs which saved them from defeat. The game was called after the ninth because of lack of light.

In the annual Easter Monday game at Salisbury, the Davidson Wildcats were subdued by a 6 to 1 score.

The Tar Heels next invaded the lair of the Duke Blue Devils in Durham, and in a game that resembled a grammar school contest lost the first game of the three game series to the Methodists by a score of 8 to 7. Duke collected 7 runs in the fifth inning, which proved to be just enough to win.

WESTMORELAND

Captain-elect Joe Westmoreland pitched through a glorious season that included a no-hit affair against Davidson.

YOUNG

The heavy-hitting Tom Young came in from the outfield to play first base and developed into the best first sacker in the state.

MACKIE HITS A HIGH BALL TO LEFT FIELD

SHARPE

A powerful throwing arm, a clever batting eye, and a clear, steady head made Bill Sharpe an A number one catcher.

COXE

Tom Cox broke up so many ball games with home runs that he was forthwith nicknamed "Casey."

Next day, the Tar Heels evened the series with Duke when they found the Methodists helpless before the hurling of Westmoreland. The final score was: Carolina 10, Duke 1.

Continuing their excellent work, the Carolina team nosed out a fighting Wake Forest aggregation 4 to 3. The Tar Heels went into the ninth inning on the small end of a 3 to 2 score, but two Deacon errors paved the way for Mackie to break up the game with a smashing triple that sent over the two runs needed to win.

The game with Guilford, scheduled for Greensboro, was called off on account of rain.

The team arrived in Charlottesville on the following day to face the Cavaliers in the first game of the three-games which would really determine whether or not the 1927 season was a success. After 10 innings of a curious sort of baseball, the statisticians found Carolina on the safe end of a 10 to 7 score.

Returning to Chapel Hill after the long Easter trip, the Tar Heels took on Hampden-Sidney and won by the same score, by which Virginia had been defeated, 10 to 7.

Coach Ashmore's cohorts looked like major leaguers against Davidson, romping on the Wildcats to the tune of 11 to 0.

The V. P. I. Cadets broke Carolina's winning streak of five straight games by handing the Heels a 7 to 4 defeat. Fulcher started for the Tar Heels, but was relieved in the fifth by Ellison, who struck rough sledding in the seventh inning when he was touched for four runs. The defeat was Carolina's first conference setback.

The Tar Heels packed up bag and baggage and set sail for Georgia, the famed baseball state. Georgia Tech won the first of the two-game series from the invaders, when they scored one run in the ninth inning to win by the score of 9 to 8. The following day they found Carolina's hurlers in a state of ineffectiveness, and the final count of the second game was: Georgia Tech 12, Carolina 4.

Apparently angered by the two-game setbacks at the hands of Tech, the Tar Heels marched over to Athens and soundly thrashed the Georgia Bulldogs 4 to 1.

The Tar Heels showed their delight at returning to North Carolina soil by blanking the Wake Forest Club 30 to 0.

Virginia came to Chapel Hill for the second clash of the year and trounced the Tar Heels by a 6 to 2 score.

As on the previous occasion when the two rivals met in Charlottesville, Tom Young proved to be the big noise within the stick for Carolina.

SATTERFIELD

Henry Satterfield at shortstop branded himself as one of the neatest fielders ever to don a Tar Heel uniform.

BURT

Ed Burt played dependable, heady baseball around second base and was a valuable man to Coach Ashmore.

A TENSE MOMENT IN THE CAROLINA-PENNSYLVANIA GAME

ELLISON

"Red" Ellison was another big gun on the pitching staff.

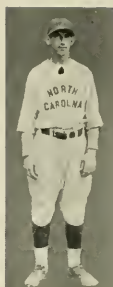

With the series standing at one all, the scene of the Carolina-Virginia third and final clash was shifted to Greensboro. Nine thousand people, the largest crowd ever to attend an athletic contest at Greensboro, packed the new Greensboro Memorial Stadium and watched Carolina nose out its ancient rival, 11 to 10. Tom Young was the nemesis of the Virginians, scoring three runs and driving in a couple more.

The next opponent was Wake Forest, who went down to their third defeat by a 3 to 2 score, which came as a result of Tommy Cox's timely homer in the tenth inning.

The state championship was cinched three days later when the Tar Heels, acting as hosts in the final game of the three-game series with their neighbors from Duke, trounced the Methodists 6 to 4.

In the final game of the regular collegiate season, State College went down under a 6 to 2 score at Raleigh. Ellison was at his best on the mound, and the hitting of Young, Mackie, and Jonas helped materially in the victory.

For 1928, Joe Westmoreland, of Canton, N. C., succeeds "Hat" Hatley as captain, and Rufus Little, of Greensboro, takes up the place of varsity manager, relinquished by Tom Pearsall.

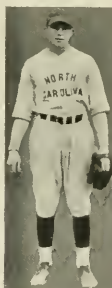

HEAVNER

Heavner came into his own near the end of the season as regular third baseman.

JONAS

Don Jonas, the fastest man on the squad, used his speed in collecting numerous base knocks.

WEISNANT

"Red" Weisnant won his laurels playing one of the most difficult of roles—that of a relief pitcher.

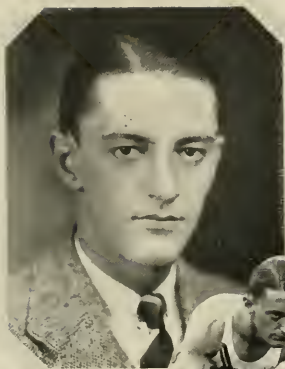

GREEN

"Monk" Green gave some nifty exhibitions of clever work behind the plate and wielded a dangerous bat.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE MEET

L. S. U. 45, Ga. Tech 44, Miss. A. & M. 32, Carolina 24.

CAPTAIN MCPHERSON

Gus holds the University records in the 100 and the 220, and for the past four years has been classed among the leading sprinters in the South.

ELLIOTT

Elliott, is the greatest runner the South has ever produced. He is called a sure bet in the Olympic tryouts this summer.

The University of North Carolina, Southern Conference track champions of 1926, started its 1927 season facing the handicaps which follow all champions. Great things were expected of the champs, and no matter what they did, they were disappointing. Every team that the Tar Heels met was inspired by the honor that would be won if the champions were dethroned. Yet in spite of these admitted handicaps, in spite of the stiffest schedule ever arranged for a University track squad, and in spite of the fact that ten letter men from the previous championship team were gone, the Carolina track squad of 1927 marched through a very successful season, and was recognized as the most perfect, well-balanced and well-rounded aggregation below the Mason Dixon line.

Although the Tar Heels failed to capture again the conference meet, they conquered the cream of the conference by winning every one of their dual meets. Carolina has not tasted defeat in a single dual meet for the past four years. Twenty-three consecutive wins in dual meets, is a record that will stand for many years as one of the worthiest achievements of University athletes. This feat stands out as still more phenomenal when it is realized that at the time Coach Bob Fetzter came to Carolina a scant seven years ago, the University of North Carolina was unknown as far as the track world was concerned. Today it stands at the top, with a mark of consistent performances that are not only unsurpassed, but also are envied by practically every college in the South.

During the season, four new University records were established. Hoyt Pritchett, Captain-elect, lowered the two mile record from 9 min. 58 sec. to 9 min. 48 sec. "Tiny" Harper shattered the old discus record of 127 ft. 9 in., and set up the remarkable new mark of 133 ft. 7 in. Galen Elliott brought the half-mile record down from 1 min. 59 3-5 sec. to 1 min. 58 sec. Elliott also finished a close second to Ray Conger when the new N. C. A. A. record of 4:17.6 was established in the mile run. Elliott's time of 4:18.2 in this event was better than the old N. C. A. A. record and three seconds lower than his own Southern Conference Record.

The Tar Heels started the season March 26 in a rather nervous fashion by barely noosing out Duke University 63 1-2 to 62 1-2. When the final event, the broad jump, rolled around, the Blue Devils were sitting on the long end of a 59 1-2 to 57 1-2 score. "Mac" Gray came through on his last jump with a leap of 21 ft. 5 1-2 in. to win the event and the meet. Gus McPherson, Captain and dash star, was absent from the meet and his Byng feet were sorely missed. Johnny Pearson led the Carolina scoring with 9 points.

CAPT. ELECT PRITCHETT

Hoyt first starred on the cross-country team and since then has been breaking his own two-mile records so often that there is no predicting where he will end.

HARPER

"Tiny" in his first year on the squad walked off with a new state record and the Southern championship in this event.

GIERSCH

Opponents of the Tar Heels will breathe a sigh of relief when "Scratch," sensational hurdler-sprint-jumper, passes on.

"Soap," due to his remarkable versatility, piled up a total of 52 points in the javelin, hurdles, and broad jump.

V. P. I. invaded Chapel Hill, and lost to the Tar Heels by the close count of 69 to 57. The meet was a particularly fast one. Two conference records and one state record were shattered by the cindermen. Lund of V. P. I. tossed the discus 141 ft. 10 3/4 in. to break his own Southern mark by over six feet. Pritchett gave a splendid exhibition of running in the two mile event. When he breezed through, over two hundred yards ahead of the second man, in the magnificent time of 9 min. 50 sec. Carolina collected nine out of the fourteen first places. Sandlin of Carolina was high scorer of the meet with 11 points.

The following Saturday found Coach Bob and a few of his prize athletes at Atlanta for the Tech relays. Carolina again copped the four mile championship for the third year in succession. This relay team, composed of Russ, Rhinehart, Daniels and Elliott, finished over a half a lap ahead of the second place team. Hoyt Pritchett copped third place in the special two mile race.

On the Thursday before the Easter holidays, Carolina met her old rival, Virginia, on Emerson Field, and for the third consecutive year the Cavaliers were defeated. The Tar Heels came from behind by taking 35 out of a possible 45 points in the last five events of the day, and downed the invaders by the final score of 67 2-3 to 58 1-3. Hoyt Pritchett and Galen Elliott continued their brilliant running. The former turned in his best time of the year in the two mile, 9 min. 48 sec., a new record. Not to be outdone, Elliott, after winning the mile, came back in the half and set a new state record of 1 min. 59 sec.

Coach Bob packed up his squad during the Easter holidays and took them off to Georgia. In a meet with the University of Georgia, the North Carolinians captured 34 out of a possible 36 points in the last four events of the meet and triumphed by a count of 74 to 52. Elliott, for the first time ran the half-mile without having previously run the mile, and established a new University record of 1 min. 58 sec.

Three days after the Georgia meet, the Tar Hee's licked Georgia Tech in Atlanta, by the score of 65 to 61. The high jump proved the nemesis of Carolina's opponents. Carr Purser leaped to heights he had never previously reached and reaped in the first place, which meant victory. Johnny Pearson also starred in this meet.

The Tar Heels' next victim was N. C. State College, who bowed to the Carolina cindermen on Riddick field to the score of 77 1-3 to 48 2-3. The Wolfpack was only able to collect 4 out of 14 first places. The Tar Heels cleaned up all three places in the half-mile, the mile, and the two mile.

PEARSON

Pearson was unusually skilful in the low hurdles and the high jump, but he proved to be a top-notch performer in the high hurdles.

RHINEHART

"Rhiny," one of our most reliable men came through admirably whenever points were most needed.

ELLIOTT, FISHER, BARCLAY, AND WRENN COASTING THROUGH A FAST HALF

DANIELS

Daniels developed from a mediocre runner to one of the brightest stars on the squad. He learned to work hard while captain of the cross-country team, and was a consistently good performer in the two mile.

Ten days later, Carolina entered the State Track meet in Greensboro and annexed its sixth consecutive state championship. The champs collected 71 1-2 points, Duke had 49 1-2 points, State 38 1-3, Wake Forest 17 1-2 points, Lencir Rhyne 14, and Davidson 13 1-2. Eleven new records were established by the athletes of the various colleges. Carolina contributed three new marks when Elliott ran the mile in 4 min. 26.6 sec., Pritchett ran the two mile in 9 min. 57 sec., and Harper threw the discus 131 ft. 7 in. Four Carolina runners finished among the first five in the half mile run.

The climax to the season came a week later when Carolina took eight men to the flood district in Baton Rouge, La., to participate in the conference meet. The tremendous expense attached to the trip prevented Coach Bob from taking more men, but his flying squadron came through beautifully and finished in fourth place with 24 points. Harper won first in the discus, Elliott won first in the mile run and Pritchett set a new Southern record in winning the two mile. Elliott also placed third in the half-mile event, just ahead of Rhinehart in fourth place. Captain McPherson finished fourth in the 220, and Sandlin and Giersch tied for fourth in the low hurdles.

WILLIAMS

Zack was the most consistent shot putter ever to don a Carolina uniform. His hard work enabled him to set a new shot record for the University.

The high point men for the season:

1. Elliott .....	58	Points
2. Sandlin .....	52	Points
3. Pearson .....	49 5-6	Points
4. Giersch .....	42	Points
5. Pritchett .....	40	Points

Hoyt Pritchett of Greensboro was elected to Captain the 1928 team. Dick Freeman of Salisbury was elected manager and Charlie Burns of Wadesboro and Fred Johnson of Raleigh were chosen as assistants.

Cross-Country 1927

CAPTAIN ELLIOTT

Building upon a foundation of four veteran letter men from last year's squad, Dale Ranson, skillfully fashioned another Southern Conference championship cross-country team! Captain Galen Elliott, Hoyt B. Pritchett, Henry N. Brown, and Howard Cox furnished the nucleus of the aggregation that captured the southern crown for the second successive year. Aside from the Southern Conference meet the Tar Heels also romped home ahead in every other meet in which they participated.

The Tar Heels started the season with a bang when, in the first meet of the year in competition with N. C. State, they placed men in the first six finishing positions, Pritchett, Henderson, Gallagher, Barkley, Fisher, and Cox coming in in the order named. Capt. Elliott, the sensation of the South, was unable to run in this first meet.

Following the curtain raiser with State, the hill-and-dalers next encountered the Duke harriers in Chapel Hill. Again the Tar Heels captured the honors when Pritchett, Henderson, and Fisher crossed the mark in respective order.

On November 19, at Chapel Hill, runners from North Carolina, Georgia Tech, Georgia, Virginia, Maryland, Washington and Lee, and N. C. State took the field in competition for the Southern Conference title. In this meet Galen Elliott finished first for the second consecutive time, bettering his own conference mark by 19 seconds. He covered the five mile course in 26 minutes and 26 seconds. Henderson, Fisher, and Pritchett, teammates of Elliott, followed their captain over the line in consecutive order, thereby netting Carolina the first four places, an unprecedented accomplishment. Brewer, Georgia Tech, and Young, Georgia, finished next in order, while Barkley and Gallagher, both of Carolina, came in seventh and eighth respectively. U. N. C. led in the team scoring with a score of 17, the lowest score ever to win a conference meet.

In the state championship meet held at Raleigh, Tuttle of Duke placed first. However, the U. N. C. runners showed their heels to the remainder of the field. Captain Elliott, Pritchett, Cox, and Barkley followed each other to the tape in rapid succession to clinch this meet for the Tar Heels. The score was as follows: Carolina, 23; Duke, 51; State, 52.

The following men earned their letters in cross-country this year: John M. Henderson, Minor Barkley, C. Wrenn, Junius V. Fisher, Phillip H. Gallagher. The following veterans of last season's team earned stars: Captain Galen Elliott, Hoyt B. Pritchett, Howard E. Cox, and Henry Brown.

The state championship meet was the final episode in the cross-country careers of two of the greatest runners in the South, Captain Elliott and Hoyt Pritchett. Captain Elliott, by virtue of his two wins in conference meets is the only runner ever to be crowned champion of cross-country for two consecutive years.

Boxing

Carolina entered the Southern Tournament at Charlottesville, Virginia, trailing Virginia as favorites, and piled up 20 1-2 points to emerge from the fracas as Southern Champions. Four Tar Heels went to the finals in the tournament and three men, Rufus White, featherweight, Charlie Brown, middleweight, and Ox Shuford, heavyweight, emerged as champions of their weights in the South. Archie Allen lost to the Southern Champion lightweight in the form of Captain Gilmer of Virginia. Captain Ed Butler lost a heartbreaking fight to Weed of Virginia who later went to the finals and took first place. The new Champions, entering seven men, won three firsts, one second, and three third places. The outstanding feature of the tournament was the fact that the Carolina boxers, with one exception, met and defeated men who had previously beaten them in dual meets. Virginia finished in second place, Florida third, Georgia fourth, and V. P. I. fifth.

CAPTAIN ABBOTT

Led by the stellar work of Abbott and Thompson, the wrestling team completed a fairly successful season, considering the fact that every lighter man from last year's team was lost. Under the expert tutelage of Coach Percy Quinlan, decisive victories were won from N. C. State, Virginia, and Concord Y. M. C. A.

Peyton Abbott went undefeated the entire year. Out of seven matches he won five and contested the other two to a draw. Thompson, Abbot's teammate in the 125 pound class, closely pushed the leader for top honors, winning six starts and losing one.

Harold Davis managed the team.

Dedication

Having found it necessary to dedicate all things: year books, stadiums, feature sections, and hair looms, we affectionately commend the contents of the ensuing pages commonly termed, or termed commonly, the Feature Section to Orphan Annie. Whose orphan she is, nobody knows but a few people are strongly suspected. Perhaps this gentle mortal in parts for the Gargantuan remaining sheets of the truthfully say that she when she naively said, "A permanent, by Gawd," cut it off, and framed it in gone bye—and of things we

Me, I, Myself

Gaze, gentle reader, on my fair face, figure, and my fortune. Notice my broad shoulders, my charming personality. Since I am not in training, I am permitted to smoke this two-bit cigar presented to me by our dear President for my glorious work in the big game the other day. He knows merit when he sees it. As concrete evidence (these are two words I picked up on at these medals. class today), look about me in the still, let me tell you about this write-up paper, better you about myself.

I was asked to come here for my fame had spread over the entire country, and out of sheer love for this school, I gave up many better chances and came to this institution for a four years' sojourn (I picked up that word in a newspaper, better you about myself). I play the love of it and thus will my name go down in history as one who loved a fair battle. I realize that this sounds boastful but given where credit is due and thus I reap my share. See, I have gained my renown from my agile figure, delicate but powerful contours (that's a term used in geology, I think) and my easy posture. Therein lies the secret of my success. I could talk for hours about my many victories but time prohibits (I've known that word quite a while because it has something to do with some commandment or something). Not only have I power on the field of battle but I have also intelligence. My teacher once said that it was impossible to learn me anything. See, that proves my point, for I knew as much as she did.

And I'm quite a hand with the ladies. They all fall for this athletic stuff anyway but they fall more for the big guys like me. You can't fool the ladies (see how respectful I am). No, sir! They know something good when they see it and I have 'em hanging on me all the time. That's the secret and then too I'm pretty good looking. Oh it may sound—what is it?—thanks, egotistical, (I knew the word all along but my tongue got twisted) but there's no use beating about the bush (say, that's clever if I did say it). Well, I've got to go. See you later when I can tell you something about myself.

Lo! The Poor Editor

Caught in an off moment on his way to the daily grind, we extract a few caustic points from this queer student. Unlike his companions, he cavorts about the campus, goes to Greensboro and Durham and lies abed mornings while the campus eagerly awaits the infant of his brain. There is an inherent characteristic about this specimen: his work is all done in one night without the assistance of his staff.

Lookee! Notice the of his pipe, the latest in all three with his salary) which he carries. He is fraternity grip in which many and divers articles, usually wet. He toils not, neither does he spin when his ear is in the shop. Voicing the opinions of the campus always, he makes no enemies and the same amount of friends. There is something about him that is strangely magnetic—perhaps it is the lead in his system or his iron head. A lover of co-eds, he succumbs to their every wish and in turn is loved by all the gal-children on the Hill—that is when a dark corner can be found. He can always be found when wanted—and he is usually wanted, and found wanting. He never submits to raillery, especially when tar and feathers are included. He is a model young man—and usually of granite or marble.

Synonym: Egotism

Of course I'm human—and a female, naturally. It logically follows, you know, but that isn't what I started to say. This business of going to college and keeping up with one's social affairs is simply too heart-rending for words. Here Mother expects me to keep up with my classes and everything and she hasn't the least idea how often I'm asked out or to in order that I might keep my the boys just won't let me study asking me for dates and other places and dinner and it's that and keep up with my much trouble on classes the professor simply adores women and he occasionally course I give it to him even with Sam who I told was the takes me out and we have quite neck a little but how is a girl and not study if she doesn't do and then and then someone beg and beg me for a date and don't happen to have one at will beg me all the more and break over and break a date pins I've gathered during my quite excellent but not so good I but I suppose that I'll do better this spring feel more inclined to give away things and feel silly and loving and a girl can get most anything from a man when he feels like that so you see I'm quite sophisticated and know quite a bit about the world but if I didn't then I wouldn't be able to get along as well as I do which is quite remarkable don't you think considering all the competition I have but then there aren't any girls here as pretty as I so it really makes very little difference but just the same I really believe that I am the most sought-after girl on the campus and I believe that's really the truth.

how many dances I must go to social prestige and all that and one bit because they're always wanting me to go to shows and so very hard for me to do all classes but I don't have so very because I know I'm pretty and pretty and accomplished young asks me for a date and of though I do have to break one 'one and only' and the Prof. a big time and of course we expected to pass her courses something like that every now will come along and simply usually I have one but if I that time I say that I do so he then I finally pretend that I for him and look at the frat short stay here which is really for a girl who is as popular as

Here, students dear, is Pedanticus himself, the other half, if not the better half, of your dear old Alma Mater. He is not an absent-minded-professor, oh no, he is so typical! An eight-thirty is to him as much as a quart, three dollars, and a bun to Durham are to us poor brain-brats. Well, to be frank about it, though his real name is Jim, the essence of this whole objet d'art is an attempted answer to that age-old question: Do professors ever think? ## Social Old Man

What, fond perusers, recognize you not this specimen? Verily, it is none other than Harry Handihoof, social light, Black Bottom, St. Vitus Dance, latest man—pardon, ladies' man—par excellence. Such as he is, he represents those high and shining lights that scintillate in our social whirl. He invariably wears the last things out; in fact they appear to have an ex-garbage man. them out, oh, yes.

see, dear listener, you don't know what his body looks like. Ah, yes, a perfect fit. Take the shoes—and throw them away if you choose, but perhaps you don't choose—anyway, take the shoes. Look at 'em. Such a petite foot; such graceful lines, what a form, their spic-and-spanness (especially the span) but we can go on no more. We grow homesick for our dear battleship Oregon.

And lastly but not leastly, cast your fun-loving eye over his graceful form—the form that made a thousand women kill themselves—and seventy elephants swell with pride—and look at the swan-like movements of his hands. Could anything be sweeter? Isn't he just too cunning? And such a romantic necker—like a chicken with the lumber neck. Praise unto Allah! And those who came to scoff remained to pray. Be kind, dear vedience, he needs your prayers.

CHAIRMAN: Gentlemen—

CONSCIENCE: Liar!

CHAIRMAN: Come to order.

CHAS. WOOLEN: Yes, order a thousand more seats for next year's Virginia game.

J. BOOKER: And about fifty less for my classroom. There are too many fool students there now.

SHADE OF STUDENT: True, brother, true!

PROF. LEARNED: Students! I give mine hell! If they make a "D" I flunk them on principle.

VOICE: What principle have you?

PROF. HIBBARD: We must be tolerant with the young men—

OS COFFIN: That reminds me—

DOUG MACMILLAN: Yes, there's a good one about James Thomson. He—He—I've forgotten the point but look it up. It's good.

J. BOOKER: I heard a new one the other day. It seems there were two Irishmen—

H. M. JONES: Wait, I want to talk about my two books—these fool young intellectuals—

PROF. STAAB: Now what we are in the UNIVERSITY FOR—!!

PROF. TAYLOR: Will someone lend me a handkerchief?

OS COFFIN: That reminds me—

CHAS. WOOLEN: Lord, there were about ten dead-heads at that football game. Think of the money lost.

T. J. WILSON: No, you cannot be excused from that.

PROF. CRITTENDEN: Mr. Payne, lower your hand.

OS COFFIN: That reminds me—

MCCARTHY: That dumb bird Smith was lucky yesterday. I threw my quiz papers down the steps and his was the only one that stayed on the top one. I give all "A's" that stay on the top step and so on down.

PROF. KOCH: Now I've traveled a great deal and I am the only one—

CHAIRMAN: Gentlemen—

CONSCIENCE: LIAR!

CHAIRMAN: Come to order.

BEFORE

Before the portals of his school,
Before he ever learned a rule,
Before he ever pledged a frat,
Before he ever got a grat,
Before he ever dreamed of Sin.
In short, before they took him in,
The freshman stands before you
dazed,
Green, astounded, half amazed,
Scared also and quite elated,
Proud as hell,—matriculated.

AFTER

No more slickers, no more gin,
No more week-ends, co-eds, Sin.
He wears a derby now; he'll sell
Many bonds a month as well;
He'll carry cards, drag a cane,
Wear red cravats, and try in vain
To sell himself as well as bonds,
Give up his "damns" for discrete "darns."
How proud he was matriculated—
He's sadder now, he's graduated.

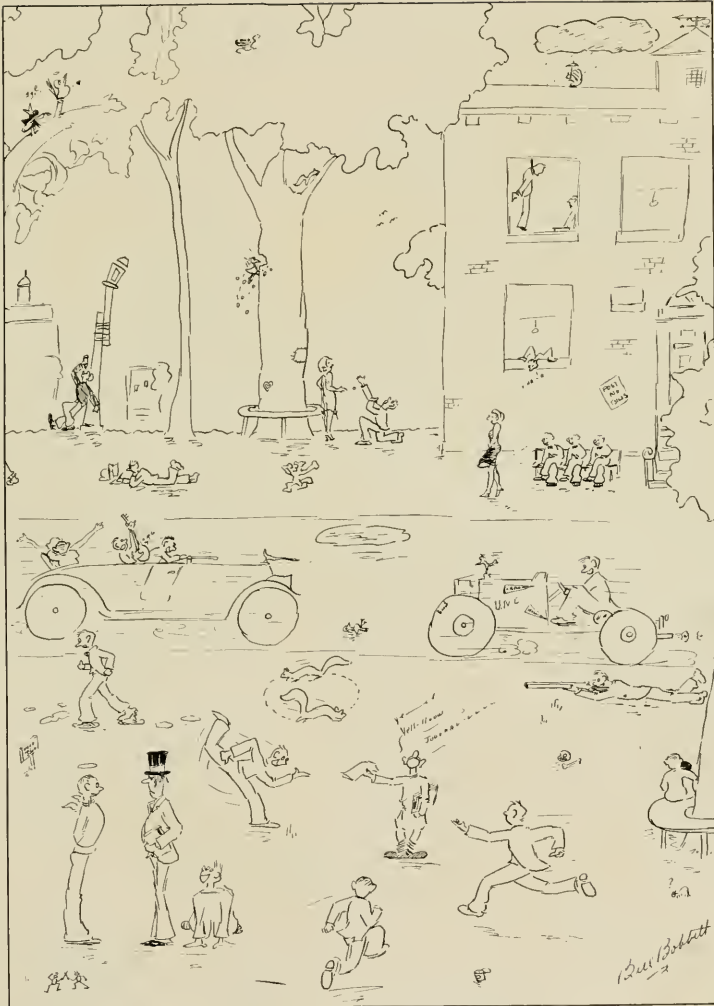

DURING

During four long years of Pain,
O'er-worked, distracted, tout
insane,
He's turned from green to slightly pink,
Forsaken women, took to drink,
Forward-passed and griped at large,
Slept in a church and a garage.
A Senior now, he sez sans heat:
"I say, pipe the blonde broad,
Pete!"
O sad, O sad! in truth he knows
Just how the whole dam' business goes.

Picture of a freshman smoking the latest thing in pipes. The figure behind is a senior—he's an ass to remain in college four years.

“ELECTRIC POWER—A Consumer Owned Industry”

It is estimated that during 1926, nearly four hundred thousand customers bought over three million shares in the electric power companies serving them. All told, over thirteen and a half million shares of stock have been purchased by the customers of these companies. These owners are found in every walk of life. Two companies alone report nearly fourteen thousand customer stockholders, representing 269 separate occupations.

The movement toward customer ownership of industry finds its largest expression in the electric power companies because of the high sense of responsibility developed by these companies in their dealings with the public.

Operated under the American principle of individual initiative, and directed by a personnel of tested integrity and public-mindedness, these companies have so definitely identified themselves with the interest of the public, that the structure of America's prosperity and progress rests to a large degree upon their service.

America's unequaled level of comfort and prosperity, made possible through cheap, abundant power, developed under the American principle of individual initiative, is the best of reasons why that principle should be preserved and perpetuated.
