

IROQUOIS INDIAN GAMES AND DANCES

.... DRAWN BY

JESSE CORNPLANTER, SENECA INDIAN BOY

1. Game of Peach Stones and Bowl.
2. Women's Foot-Ball Game.
3. Game of Javelin.
4. Game of Snownakes.
5. Great Feather Dance.
6. Hands-joined Dance.
7. Seneca Indian War Dance.
8. Fish Dance.
9. Green Corn Dance.
10. False-face Dancers (two are Doorkeepers).
11. Husk-face Dancers.
12. False-face Dancers crawling into the Council House.
13. False-face Dancers arriving at the Council House.
14. False-face Dancers sitting in the Council House.
15. The Doorkeepers' Dance.

KLEY
BOOKS
rk St.
ORE.

E99
I7C75

Game of peach-stones and bowl.

Copyright-Frederick Starr 1903

953207

100
100
100

Woman's foot-ball game.

Copyright—Frederick Starr—1903

Game of javelin.

Copyright Frederick Starr, 1903.

Game of snowsnake

Copyright Frederick Starr-1901

Great feather dance.

Copyright - Frederick Starr - 1903

Hands-joined dance.

Copyright-Fredereck Starr-1908

Seneca indian war dance.

Copyright - Fredericka Starr - 1903

Fish dance.

Copyright-Frederick Starr 1903.

Green-corn dance

Copyright-Fredereck Starr-1903

False-face dancers: two are doorknockers

Husk-face dancers.

Copyright - Frederick Starr 1903.

Copyright-Fredorich Starr-1901.

False-face dancers crawling into the council house.

Copyright - Frederick Starr - 1903

False-face dancers arriving at the council house.

False-face dancers sitting in the council house.

Copyright - Frederick Starr - 1903

The door-keepers dance.

Copyright - Frederick Starr, 1903

