WILL MAKE NO EXTENSION

Mr. J. W. M. Burton, manager of the Glendale & Montrose railroad, makes the announcement that the company is not contemplating the extension of the road beyond the present terminal, Los Angeles avenue in La Crescenta. The company went to road beyond Verdugo park more than year ago, also in making the road standard guage, and they now claim that the auto busses have injured the business of the road so that they are now operating at a loss. Hence, it is not reasonable to suppose that the company is contemplating further improvements or extensions.

FIGHTING TO A FINISH

"It is estimated that at the present moment 20,000,000 men are under arms, and those who, in their wicked dream, wish for a fight to a finish, to the final exhaustion, to a finish, to the final exhaustion, to a collective suicide, are talking of levies en masse which would bring up the effective armies to 40,000,000 combatants destined to become 40,000,000 corpses or invalids.

"It must finish some day, unless in their turn the mothers and daughters are armed, and already in London women have shouldered the rifle and are being trained for the impious work of death, they who are sacrificed his fortune by destiny and duty, the creators of life. An end must be put to the young, the growing and the adults in all the force of their experience and development. An end must be rifice extravagance and start your own indemost brilliant artists, the highest in-telligences. An end must be put to the age-long devotion of men in lov-ing and trusting. An end must be put to shining prospects and splen-did hopes. Under the impassive stars and the triumphant sun, an end must be put to the human race. That is the real meaning of the fatalistic cry which is hypnotizing the world. Let humanity rise and shout, in an access of noble passion and clear vision, 'Enough, enough.'
