

Geneva May 14th 1853

Mr R. P. Hunt

Dear Sir yours of the 10th is at hand and contents noted the Bill referred to was not forgotten but I did not send you the bill because it was a hard one for me I Paid cartage there & freight on the 2<sup>d</sup> cartage here & making 4- I made on the batting after deducting Sack of - so you see after the cartage was paid I was 2<sup>d</sup> behind the sheeting I bought I did not care so much for because I purchased after I sold two bales here at a less price. But the interest on the $<sup>96</sup>/<sub>100</sub> will amt to the 2<sup>d</sup> by this time so I send you the enclosed six dollars that will pay the Bill & postage on this letter and balance the ac I will call and see the sheeting when next in the city of Waterloo.

Yours Most Respt
A. W. Putnam

Wm. D. Hunt
35
41

Wm. D. Hunt

Mr. W. D. Hunt

Dear Sir
I at home and contrary to the to your not forgetting that the bill because it was a Mr. J. Fair's carriage there carriage being making of of the deducting back of carriage may have of two of I thought I did not care so after I wrote the paper for I was but the interest on I went to the office for the I gave the enclosed bill the bill of exchange on this balance the rate of will I thought when next in the

Wm. D. Hunt