3 States two assistant surgeons-general, with the rank, pay 4 and allowances of colonels of cavalry; one medical in-5 spector-general with the rank, pay and allowances of a
6 colonel of cavalry, and such number of medical inspec-
7 tors, not exceeding twelve, with the rank, pay and allow-8 ances of lieutenant-colonels of cavalry.

1 SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That there may be

2 assigned to each army in the field or military depart-
 3 ment one surgeon as medical director, who, for the time
 4 so occupied, shall be entitled to the rank, pay and allow-5 ances of a lieutenant-colonel of cavalry; that there may 6 be assigned to each division one surgeon as division-sur-
 7 geon, and to each brigade one surgeon as brigade-sur-
 8 geon and two assistant surgeons for staff or other duty.

1 SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That to each regiment
 2 of cavalry or infantry, there shall be assigned one surgeon
 3 with the rank of major, and two assistant surgeons, each
 4 with the rank of captain.

1 SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That there shall be en-
 2 listed and mustered into service an infirmary corps of 3 able-bodied men, to be composed of fifty men to each
 4 brigade of an army in the field, and said infirmary corps
 5 shall be organized into companies of fifty and officered
 6 with one first lieutenant and one second lieutenant, two 7 sergeants and two corporals, and paid in like manner as 8 commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers and sol-
 9 diers of the Confederate service.

1 SEC. 6. The appointment of a medical officer of the 2 regular army to any office created by this act shall not 3 affect his rank in the regular army.
