1. Request that 800 hydrogen and/or oxygen cylinders (Reparations Objedt) be released on a temporary basis to the Central Meteorological Observatory, Ote-machi Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, until o/a 1 November 1951. Cylinders with a capacity of approximately 40 liters are required immediately.

2. The Central Meteorological Observatory has been contracted to operate a weather station at Marcus Island (Procurement Demand JPMT-U.S. Dollars from Air Force appropriations.

3. Since limited funds are available for this project, it is necessary to be as economical as possible. An investigation has revealed that if CMO had to purchase new hydrogen cylinders, the current price would be 8,000 yen each, plus 450 yen for each valve. This would run the total cost to 6,760,000 yen, or $18,777 for 800 cylinders.

4. Per verbal authority G-4, GHQ, this headquarters contacted the Civil Property Custodian to determine the availability of requested reparations object. Information received indicated that over 3,000 cylinders were available for release in the Chiba and Kanto areas. A portion of these cylinders has been inspected and found to be satisfactory for the contemplated use.

b. Letter, Headquarters Kokura Ordnance Depot, APO 3, subject: "Request for Reparations Materials", dated 22 September 1950.

2. First Indorsement of reference 1b above authorized the Kokura Ordnance Depot to move and use three hundred and twenty two (322) reparations items located in arsenals listed below:

Arsenal	Code No.
Kokura Military Arsenal	07-13
" " " , Hita Factory	30-03
" " " , Itoguchiyama Factory	30-04

3. In the latter part of October, this headquarters was notified that the Kokura Ordnance Depot was closing. Permission was requested by the Depot for movement of some reparations equipment to the Tokyo Ordnance Depot. This headquarters had informed the commanding officer that since authorized use was approved in reference 1b above, transfer to Tokyo would only involve a change in records of accountability and that the Logistical Command could change the account numbers for this equipment from Camp Kokura and credit them to the Tokyo Ordnance Depot account.

4. A report was later submitted to this headquarters by the Kokura Ordnance Depot listing fifty eight (58) reparations items shipped to Tokyo. Checking this report against that which was authorized under reference 1b above, revealed that twenty two (22) were authorized and thirty six (36) items were not authorized for movement or use.

SUBJECT: Movement and Use of Reparations Equipment

5. This headquarters recommends that the thirty six (36) items listed in paragraph 4b above be placed in authorized use with the Tokyo Ordnance Depot, for the following reasons:

a. This equipment is now located in Tokyo. Disapproval would involve movement to Kyushu at the expense of Occupation Forces.

b. All items were originally listed to be scrapped by the equipment was used to produce wooden rifle stocks. During the destruction of special purpose machinery, attachments to this equipment were destroyed rendering it unserviceable. However, Ordnance technicians have stated that they could use the equipment by casting new parts.

c. Memo for Record, dated 8 November 1950, subject: Authorized Use of Reparations Equipment by Occupation Forces

1. Check sheet referenced above states that return of reparations equipment will be reported to CPC GHQ. Miss Dambroski and Mr. Roller stated that they requested CAS to obtain this report from the tactical forces and submit it through our section to them.

2. Major Freeman discussed this with Mr. Mandel and personnel of the Kinki CAR in conference at Kinki, and they decided that the best way to handle the report would be for the CAR to obtain copies from the tactical units and submit them to the CAS.

JOHNSON

Mandel said this was argued at CPC at time of writing C.N. and that finally it was not CPC intent for CAS to transmit the report. However, at Osaka Mandel was convinced that CAR should see the report in order to advise where items should be returned - inspect if necessary - and correct their records.

Roller stated he would coordinate with major commends.
