In testimony whereof, I, ROBERT A. LOVETT,

Robert A. Lovett
Acting Secretary of State.

By J. P. Chauvin
Authentication Officer, Department of State.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

President of the United States of America.

To His Excellency

President of the German Reich.

Great and Good Friend:

Mr. Frederic M. Sackett, who has for some time past resided near the Government of Your Excellency in the character of Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States of America, having resigned his mission, and being unable to present his letters of recall in person, I have entrusted to his successor the duty of placing them in the hands of Your Excellency.

I am pleased to believe that Mr. Sackett during his mission devoted all his efforts to strengthening the good understanding and the friendly relations which have happily so long existed between the Governments of the United States of America and Germany, and I entertain the hope that while fulfilling satisfactorily the trust imposed upon him, he succeeded in gaining Your Excellency's esteem and good will.

Your Good Friend,

By the President:

/S/ Franklin D. Roosevelt

/S/ William Phillips

Acting Secretary of State.

Washington, June 23, 1933.
