(7) Kyushu (Fukuoka, Saga, Nagasaki, Kumamoto, Oita, Miyazaki and Kagoshima prefectures).

2 A person qualified for election (hereinafter referred to as "a voter") shall belong to the district where his working place is located. However a voter who is not working shall belong to the district where his dwelling place is located.

3 In case a voter has more than one working place located in different districts, it shall be decided by the place where he mainly works.

Article 3. The applicant for registration in accordance with Article 18 of the Law shall submit the registration-card mentioned in the attached form No. 1, together with the materials necessary for authorization as provided for by Article 17 paragraph 2 of the Law, to the Election Returning Committee of the Science Council of Japan (hereinafter referred to as "the Returning Committee"), during the period from may 21 to July 20 of the year of election.

Article 4. The Returning Committee may ask professional societies or research institutes to submit the lists of their members who can be admitted as qualified, during the period from April 11 to May 20 of the year of election, and urge their registration by sending them registration-cards.

2 The professional societies or research institutes referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be authorized by the Returning Committee.

Article 5. The Returning Committee shall conduct examination of the qualification of the application by way of the registration-cards and other materials attached thereto and shall, on the basis of above examination, prepare the list of qualified persons classified by divisions.

2 The above list of qualified persons shall be exhibited to voters for the period from September 11 to September 20 of the year of election.

3 Anyone who has objection to the statement in the list of qualified persons, he may raise it to the Returning Committee within ten days beginning from the day following the expiration of the exhibition period.

Article 6. Qualified persons can run or be recommended for candidacy in the national and district contituency simultaneously.

2 Recommenders provided for in the preceding paragraph shall be three or more qualified persons, a professional society or a research institute.

3 Candidates themselves, in respect of candidacy, or recommenders with the consent of the recommended person in respect of recommendation shall report to the Returning Committee of their candidacy, during the period from September 21 to October 5 of the year of election.

Article 7. The Returning Committee shall prepare the lists of the above candidates and recommended persons classified by divisions and send them to the voters of the divisions respectively.

2 The list provided for in the preceding paragraph shall contain the name, age, address, profession and outlines of personal history or brief statement of the opinion of candidates or recommended persons.

Article 8. The election date shall be 40 days prior to the expiration of the tenure of office of the members.

2 The above date must be publicly announced by 90 days ahead of the election date at the latest.

Article 9. The election shall be conducted by voting.

2 A voter shall have only one vote both in the national and the district constituency elections.

Article 10. A voter shall personally write the names of the persons he wishes to elect (hereinafter referred to as "candidates") on the ballot-paper mentioned in the attached form No. 2, and send it directly to the Returning Committee so that it will reach there by the date of election.

2 A voter must not write his own name on the ballot-paper.

Article 11. The opening of the ballot shall be done on the day following the election date.

Article 12. A voter may cast his vote to any qualified person of the division to which he belongs, regardless of the candidacy or recommendation.

2 A voter shall vote only for the qualified persons of the district to which he belongs, in the case of district constituency election.

3 A voter may cast his vote for the same person both in national and district constituency elections.

Article 13. A voter shall write names of three persons in the case of national constituenoy election, one from the profession to which he belongs, and two from his division regardless of profession.

Article 14. In district constituency, election shall be made on single balloting system regardless of profession, from among those who belong to the same division as the voters.

Article 15. The votes obtained in the national constituency election shall be counted by aggregating those classified by professions and those not classified by professions, and the priority in decision being given to the fixed number classified by professions.

Article 16. A person who has obtained the highest effective votes shall be elected.

Article 17. The following votes shall be ineffective:
(1) Those cast by persons not using the fixed ballot-paper;
(2) Those reaching the Returning Committee after the date of election;
(3) Those cast by persons violating the provision of Article 10;
(4) Those stating candidates in greater number than it is stipulated in Articles 13 and 14;
(5) Those for which it is impossible to distinguish the name of candidates is written on the ballot-paper.

Article 18. When one person is elected both in national and district constituency, he shall be regarded as being elected in the national constituency.

Article 19. In case the equal number of votes is obtained by different persons either in national or district constituency election, priority shall be given to the elder person.

Article 20. When the elected persons are decided, the Returning Committee shall immediately notify the persons that they are elected and simultaneously publish the names of the elected persons.

Article 21. An elected person may resign within ten days counting from the day he received the notification of being elected. However, this shall not apply to persons who ran for candidacy or who accepted recommendation.

Article 22. The preceding Article shall apply mutatis mutandis to the person who obtained the next highest votes referred to in Article 27 of the Law.

Article 23. In case a voter has any objection to the election, he may raise it to the Returning Committee within twenty days counting from the day when the name of the elected persons were published.

2 The decision in regard to the above objection shall be made by the Returning Committee.

Article 24. Anyone who acted illicitly in respect of registration and election shall lose his qualification both for voting and candidacy.

2 Whether or not a person did the above illicit conduct as well as how long the period of his disqualification will last shall be decided by the Returning Committee.

Article 25. Anyone who has objection to the decisions prescribed in the preceding two Articles, may demand re-examination from the Science Council of Japan within twenty days counting from the date of the decision.

Article 26. In case natural calamity or any other unavoidable obstruction occurs, the Returning Committee may take necessary measures, such as alteration of the election date, etc., prescribed in this Regulations.

Supplementary Provision:

These Regulations shall come into force as from the day of its promulgation.

(Form shall be omitted.)

MASUDA Kaneshichi

1. This table shows the screening result made by the Prime Minister in accordance with the Imperial Ordinance concerning the Exclusion, Retirement, etc. from Public Office (Imperial Ordinance No. 1 of 1947), Matters concerning the Exclusion from the Candidature for Mayor of City, Headman of Town or Village and Others (Imperial Ordinance No. 3 of 1947), Matters concerning the Enforcement of Imperial Ordinance No. 1 of 1947 (Cabinet and Home Minister Ordinance No. 1 of 1947) and provisions of Cabinet Order No. 62 of 1948.
2. This table is to be most widely made public. The office of a city, ward, town or village shall, when received of this official report, placard the very table. This table shall, at least, be placarded for a month, and it shall, upon receipt of the next official report, be replaced by a new one. The old report replaced, shall not be destroyed, and be preserved after binding at the office of the city, ward, town or village, to make it possible for public perusal.
3. The Questionnaires of the persons who were published on this table and of whom the screening has been completed may be offered for the public perusal at the Inspection Section of the Cabinet Secretariat or offices of the To, Do, Fu or prefecture concerned.
   Any one may freely peruse Questionnaires of the preceding paragraph, at his request.
4. Result of the screening is as follows:
   (1) Number of persons subjected to screening: 3,934 persons
      1) Persons decided not coming under the Memorandum: 3,873 persons

(A) Persons Scheduled to be Appointed or Promoted.
Public Offices and Names of Persons to be Newly Appointed.
