SPEECH OF GEORGE W. JULIAN, OF INDIANA.

Delivered in the House of Representatives, May 11, 1850. In Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, on the President's Message transmitting the Constitution of California.

Some of them are much blacker than this (he has) than has been heretofore. I call this legislation of the North... upon their rights? It is true, that Florida was purchased because it was demanded by the slaveholding interest. I omitted the fact, that under the treaty with Spain...

And Florida was likewise waged and carried on for the benefit of slaveholders. Of the necessity for this war at the time the great slaveholding cause or occasion has nothing to do with it... the war had its origin in the long continued previous interference of the Federal Government in Florida...
