BASEBALL TEAM TO PLAY SANTA BARBARA—WALLACE CRAMER VISITS H. S.

The members of the baseball team are feeling quite happy as a result of the good news imparted to them Tuesday by Mr. Wight, the coach. He has arranged with the coach at Santa Barbara High School for a series of two games, the first to be played on their grounds on Saturday, May 12, and the latter at home on the following Saturday. It has not been decided as to how the boys will make the trip, but in all probability they will go in automobiles, starting at six o'clock Saturday morning, they should get there shortly before noon and have a few hours in which to rest prior to the game. They will then stay over night in Santa Barbara, and return to Glendale the next day. All this sounds most excellent to those who are lucky enough to get to go, and they are all looking forward very impatiently to the date set for the occasion. The team has been playing exceptionally well the last few weeks and they are planning on coming out on the long end of the score in both contests. They are now tied for second place in the Central League, and stand an excellent chance of ending in first place. The next league game is scheduled for next Saturday with Covina on our own grounds, and in the case that they win this contest they will be practically tied with South-Pasadena for first place. What the boys need is support, and the only way to support them is to come out and root. So all of you Glendale patriots "come alive" Saturday afternoon and help them win a championship.

Several of the upper class men were pleasantly surprised Tuesday by the sudden appearance of Wallace Cramer, a former member of the class of '15. Cramer has been working in the oil refineries in and around Taft, Cal. He has joined the Coast Artillery at Bakersfield and leaves to-day for San Francisco, where he will go into training.

MAY LUNCHEON

A little coterie of friends who lunch together semi-occasionally were the guests of Mrs. Chas. H. Temple, 301 S. Orange street, on Tuesday. This most artistic hostess delighted her guests with a luncheon table in the most exquisite pastel colors. A miniature Maypole with marine bow with tiny butterflies fluttering over it and streamers leading to the candles and May baskets, was the unique decoration.

The place cards were little ladies carrying baskets of flowers and the favors were tiny baskets. Little market baskets containing strawberries in their own leaves were served as the first course. Tiny cakes, each decorated with a small silk flag were the finale of this most delightful affair. The guests were Mrs. Chas. Evans, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger, Mrs. Albert Pearce, Mrs. H. P. Goodwin, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, Mrs. Walter Stamps and Mrs. R. J. Morrell of Los Angeles.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

The candles numbered seventeen which lighted the birthday cake adorning the table at a charming dinner given by Mrs. J. H. Orth of 435 S. Central avenue in honor of her daughter, Miss Marcella Orth, Monday evening. A color scheme of pink was carried out by a mound of Killarney roses in the center of the board and corsage bouquets of Cecil Bruner roses for each guest at their places. The guests on this happy occasion were Louise Gonzales, Jane Snyder, Edna Burson, Annabel McClellan, Elizabeth Allen and Hettie Orth. Following the dinner the party, chaperoned by Mrs. Orth, attended the Palace Grand.

W. C. T. U. COUNTY CONVENTION

If you were not among the fortunate ones who enjoyed the hospitality of the good people of Whittier and received the enthusiasm of the Convention, you should not fail to hear the glowing reports of the delegates, which will be given at the regular W. C. T. U. meeting on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Miss Hester Noland, 239 S. Isabel street.

PROGRAM DELIGHTS

JAMES BURROUGHS AND MRS. SLOAN APPEAR AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Those who were fortunate enough to be present at the entertainment given at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening pronounce the program one of the finest ever given in Glendale. James Burroughs more than met the expectations of his audience; his solos were every one gems of rarest beauty and his manner of rendition was absolutely flawless. His humorous Irish songs were very good and perhaps the selection that appealed the most was Kipling's "Route Marchin'." The singer's voice lent admirably to the illusion of soldiers marching in the distance, drawing near, passing and receding.

Our own Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan gave another proof of her matchless skill as an entertainer. In her dialect selections she ran the gamut of expression, sweeping the heart strings of her hearers as a master musician sweeps the keys of his instrument. Mrs. Sloan's wonderful dramatic ability is always a new surprise every time she is heard. One of the most delightful numbers on the program was the song by little Miss Florence Rattray, who sang without accompaniment, "Somewhere a voice is calling." This young lady's performance was spoken of by many as being very remarkable. Her clear, sweet tones were pure and true, not an easy feat without the aid of an instrument.

All of the numbers on the program, including the piano solo by Miss Lillian Mason and the Greek poses by Misses Shirley Chase, Alma Beckman and Florence Rattray, pupils of Mrs. Sloan, were highly enjoyable, and the affair netted a very neat sum for the Camp Fire Girls, under whose auspices the program was given.

P.-T. A. LUNCHEON

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, entertained the Executive Board of that organization and the presidents of the P.-T. A. of the various schools at an elaborate luncheon at her home, 200 S. Orange street, Tuesday at one o'clock. Pink-shaded lights enhanced the setting of the beautifully decorated rooms. May baskets filled with Cecil Bruner roses decorated the small tables at which the guests were seated. The hand-painted place cards pictured May baskets also. In lighter vein a flower guessing contest was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Arthur Brown was the winner. An advertising picture gallery also afforded much entertainment. Mrs. Hagin was the prize winner in this.

The serious business of the day was a full discussion of the playground question. Plans were made for utilizing the school grounds for that purpose this summer. Further notice will be given when their plans are matured.

Professor Howe presented a set of resolutions concerning the co-operation of the Federation with the garden societies. These resolutions will be given to the press in a few days.

The officers of the P.-T. A. Federation present were: Mrs. Richardson D. White, recording secretary; Mrs. Fred Hagin, auditor; Mrs. S. K. Myton, treasurer; Mrs. H. W. Yarrick, historian; Prof. Howe, chairman, program; Mrs. A. S. Chase, chairman courtesy; Mrs. A. A. Barton, chairman domestic science; Mrs. Arthur Brown, chairman emergency; Miss Daniels, chairman visiting; Mrs. Chas. Grist, chairman patriotism; Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, chairman membership; Mrs. Geo. Adams, chairman publicity; Mrs. N. C. Kelly, chairman education; presidents: Mrs. R. W. Meeker, Intermediate; Mrs. John Robert White, Columbus street; Mrs. Ella Richardson, Pacific avenue; Mrs. Chas. Kurtz, Central avenue; Mrs. A. C. Anderson, Broadway; Mrs. M. E. Plasterer, Doran street. Six other guests were unable to be present on account of illness.

GARDEN SOCIETY TO-MORROW

Every member and friend of the Garden Society is earnestly urged to attend the meeting to-morrow, Thursday, evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Third street school. The persistent efforts of the Society for the past two years to arouse people to the importance of home gardening now find their justification in the food crisis of the world. The Society has accepted from the school trustees a mighty and onerous responsibility, which must be successfully carried on for the next three years at all costs. The officers appeal to every loyal patriot to attend this meeting and to co-operate in every way possible. Mrs. Nanno Woods will give a free stereopticon lecture upon Patriotic Gardening.

NATIONAL DEFENSE

PART OF WOMEN IN WAR TIME THEME OF PROGRAM AT STATE CONVENTION

PASADENA, May 2.—National defense and the part the club women, the schools and other institutions therein form the underlying theme of to-day's meeting of the annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. Particularly is this true of the session this afternoon when practically every paper will have bearing on the defense issue.

At this morning's session after a business session lasting about an hour and open forum with the subject "The Relation of the Federal to Other Organizations" was held. The part of the county federation in club organization was discussed by Mrs. Lillian Pray Palmer, Mrs. W. C. Mushet spoke as a representative of the National Council of Women and Mrs. Herbert A. Cable representing the Women's Legislative Council of California. Miss Nadine Crump and Mrs. S. L. Wiley spoke on subjects with bearing on the state university.

The morning session closed when the nominating committee made its report.

The program mapped out by the relief committee of the state council of defense was the opening subject for discussion on the afternoon's program. Dr. John R. Haynes, chairman of the relief committee, speaking "Civilian Relief" by Mrs. Seward A. Simons, "Red Cross and Concentration of Relief" by Miss Ethel Moore, "The Place of the Public Schools in National Defense" by President E. P. Clarke of the state board of education, and finally "Americanization as a Necessity to National Defense" by George L. Bell and "The Part of Women in a Defense Program" by Mrs. Shelly Tolhurst made up the program.

PIE SOCIAL

"Going! Going! GONE!" was the cry of the auctioneer at the social last evening in the Lutheran parsonage as the tempting pastry was knocked off to the highest bidder. Two classes of young people, the young ladies, taught by Mrs. John Esterly, and the young men's, taught by Mrs. Wm. Anderson, conducted this pie social, a novel affair, which proved to be one of the most successful every held under the fostering care of the Lutheran church of this city. Each young lady and all mothers and wives who came brought a home-baked pie which at the proper time was auctioned off to the highest bidder among the men in particular, the ladies not being allowed to bid. No woman's suffrage was tolerated in that part of it. The one who bought the pie shared its enjoyment with the one who baked it, hence there was much merriment in connection with it all. Dame "Formality" was cast aside and all enjoyed themselves to the fullest, especially with "pie." The earlier part of the evening was devoted to a musical program consisting of the following numbers: Piano duets, "Qui Vive," "Wind and Tide March," by the Misses Esterly; vocal solos, "Today" and "Who Knows" by Marian Addison; piano solos, "Valse in E Flat" and "Touvaloa," by George Anderson; violin and piano duets, "Humoresque" and "The Bubble," by Julius Eichhorn and Miss Esterly; piano duets, "Napoli" and "Norwegian Hunter's March," by Elizabeth Mottern and Eleanor Mellin; trio, "One Fleeting Hour" and "Mama's Little Coal Black Rose," vocal part, Helen Esterly, piano, Emma Esterly, violin, Julius Eichhorn. The evening thus spent was beyond compare. The hours sped all too swiftly, all declaring it a splendid success numerically, there being about 50 present, socially and financially.

HAMILTON'S VACATION

SUPERVISOR JUSTIFIES SHORT REST BY RECORD OF TWO YEARS' ATTENDANCE

Los Angeles, May 1.—After thirteen months' strenuous service in his office, in addition to his campaign for flood control and much county work outside the Hall of Records, Supervisor John J. Hamilton will get ready this week to spend a couple of weeks in the mountains, seeking absolute rest.

In reply to Los Angeles newspaper criticism that a supervisor should not take his regular vacation now, when county employees are being laid off, Chairman Hamilton said: "This is the only time in the year I can get away. The budget and board of equalization will require every minute of my spare time, and much night work, in June, July and August. As for a square deal for the employees, I still stand by my proposal that the 110 county employees, the supervisors included, who receive over $150 per month, be reduced 25 per cent. until July 1, no one to be reduced below $150 by the cut. It is fair and no more than fair.

Another phase of this vacation question should be considered, declared Mr. Hamilton. "I attend all the meetings of the board and remain throughout the sessions, while the established custom of the office is to be absent many whole days and to leave the sessions frequently to attend to other county business. Here is the record of the 348 meeting days of 1915 and 1916.

Days present	Days absent
Hamilton	341
Norton	304
Woodley	317
Hinshaw	310
Pridham	282

"In justice to Supervisors Norton and Pridham it should be said that Mr. Norton had two severe illnesses and that Mr. Pridham had protracted illness in his family; but it should be said in justice to me that four of my seven days absence in two years were during the one short vacation I had previously had. I took none whatever in 1915."

MONTHLY MASONIC MEET

Dr. Samuel E. Burke of Los Angeles, Past Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of Masons, delivered the monthly Masonic address before a large audience at the Temple on Tuesday evening. Dr. Burke was introduced by Bro. Mattison Boyd Jones, who spoke of the Masonic achievements and the high esteem in which Bro. Burke is held throughout our state.

The subject, "The Trend of Modern Masonry," was handled by the speaker in a masterly fashion. Seldom has there been heard in Glendale a more thoughtful and inspiring address. This, coupled with the Doctor's native eloquence, won for him a high place in the minds of his hearers.

These educational addresses, which form a part of the monthly program of Unity Lodge No. 368, are proving most attractive and beneficial to members and guests. Any Mason in good standing may enjoy the privilege of hearing them.

At the close of the address Worshipful Master Nash announced that a special Third Degree would be conferred Thursday, May 3, at 7:30 p. m. The refreshment committee furnished the closing number on the evening's program. The aforesaid number was cordially received.

His office is one of the finest equipped in Southern California, being fitted up with a large number of the electrical appliances known in modern dentistry.

MAKING ONE'S WAY IN THE WORLD

The boy who asks for his first job at the New York public library employment bureau has his troubles.

The placement clerk provides him with a vocational guidance application blank containing 86 questions.

Our mind has both concentrated and skipped around this and the other 85 questions, but invariably circles back here:

Is it better for a boy to be placed in a job some expert thinks he will fit?

Or—is it better for him to make his own place in the world?

I'd hate to see any young fellow do all the things I've done, make all the mistakes I've made," says J. Leonard Regiole a millionaire steel magnate, who went to work for $3.50 a week when he was 12 years of age.

But it's probable that if this rich man had been "placed" in his youth according to vocational guidance rules, he would not be explaining his fortune today.

And the very experiences he has gone through, the mistakes he has made are undoubtedly responsible in large part for his phenomenal financial career.

There is a fatality about accepting other people's judgment of what is good for us. It robs us of our power to judge for ourselves; it takes from us initiative, responsibility; it does not give us the benefit of our own mistakes.

Mistakes aren't to be shied at, especially. How much better it is to make a mistake than not to get into action for fear of committing an error!

The big league manager keeps the shortstop on the team who goes after every ball hit in his direction. The error of commission oftentimes counts in favor of the baseball star; the error of omission always counts against the man on the diamond.

And so it is in life. There's a fatality about being "placed" by somebody else. It inclines a body to "stay put."—Fresno Herald.

HOW HE WAS CAUGHT

He had no stomach for the army, but presented himself for examination with a "sure trick" up his sleeve to "work his ticket."

"First class physically," pronounced the doctor, but when the medical man applied the eye tests the would-be recruit's sight appeared much worse than when the sergeant had him in hand.

"No, no, my man; with sight like that you're no use for the army," said the medico.

"Do you now?" said the doctor, with sarcasm.

LUMINOUS WATCH DIAL

The first thing to do is to procure an ounce of calcium sulphide, luminous. The cost since the war is $1 an ounce, but you can fix perhaps 50 watches with that amount.

CHIMNEY COMPARATIVELY NEW

The chimney is something that is relatively new in architecture. Many of the old castles and other buildings of Europe which were constructed before the fifteenth century have no chimneys.

Do you guarantee these colors fast?" asked the customer at the hosiery counter.

"Certainly not, madam," replied the new clerk in the fullness of his knowledge.

"What a beautiful dog, Miss Ethel!" exclaimed her bashful admirer.

"Is he affectionate?" she asked archly.

"Yes?"

"Well, I just hope they do. Having your telephone ring every time a neighbor puts in a call is a perfect nuisance."

MARTIAL LAW FOR GERMANS

Stringent rules governing the conduct of Germans or other allied enemies of the United States were drafted by Attorney-General Gregory.

United States district attorneys in all jurisdictions of the United States will be supplied with copies of the rules and instructed to enforce them to the letter.

The rules amplify the regulations laid down in President Wilson's proclamation and are so rigid as to amount to martial law in their effect on Germans.

Under these rules, alien enemies must remove from the neighborhoods of government property by June 1 next, or before that time if ordered.

Those remaining beyond that date will be summarily arrested.

EVEN WORSE HAS HAPPENED

A gentleman farmer tells of a city lad who once worked for him.

The lad was called one winter morning before dawn and told to harness the mule to the dearborn.

"Billy, what are you doing?" "I can't get the collar over the mule's head," yelled back the boy.

"His ears are frozen."—Collier's Weekly.

THAT HELD HIM

"Good morning, Mrs. Murphy," said Mrs. Rogers to the new cook.

"He was that," complained Mrs. Murphy, "but I fixed him this time. I sez, 'Who in blazes do you think you're talking to? This is Mrs. Rogers.'"

DURING THE LULL

Traveling through a new country in which a raw boom town had sprung up almost overnight, a deputy put up one night in a so-called hotel, where the thin partitions of a range of bedrooms stopped like the stalls of a stable, half-way to the ceiling.

It was no straight-ahead affair, robust, monotonous, but full of sudden and awful variations. Sometimes strangulation seemed imminent; then in the middle of a fantasia the agony stopped suddenly and there was silence.

SHAKE, ELLEN!

"I insist on the strictest honesty," said the fat mistress to the new servant, "and I trust, Ellen, that you are always truthful."

"In me own affairs," assured Ellen, "I am always truthful, and I lie only when me boss makes me tell the visitors she ain't at home when she is."

MILITARY NEWS

"Fifteen hundred men from Southern California for Camp Throop, Pasadena, by May 10," was the order received yesterday at the Military Training Camp headquarters, 749 South Spring street, from the commanding officer of the Western Department of the United States Army.

Enrollments will start this morning and applications will be received from men between the ages of seventeen years and nine months and forty-three years and nine months.

Throop Camp is planned as a supplementary camp to the Officers' Training Camp at the Presidio, which will be established under the War Department's authority upon the campus of the Throop College of Technology.

Upon completion of the three months' course each applicant will be given a certificate of his military efficiency and also the recommendation of the camp commander which will be credited according to his record and advancement in the camp.

Capt. Louis R. Ball, U. S. A. (retired), has been designated to command at the camp and in addition to the officials of Throop College, will be given a competent corps of military men to give instruction in infantry and cavalry organization and tactics, aviation, engineering and camp sanitation.

The Government is providing all arms, equipment, instruction and material for carrying on the work of the camp. It is believed each applicant will be required to furnish his uniform, transportation to the camp and his board expenses, which will be at a very low rate.

The uniforms will be of the regular army type and the cost of each complete is estimated at about $10.

I. G. Pattinson of Pasadena has been appointed quartermaster of the camp and has already started arrangements for the immediate erection of the tents and mess equipment for 1500 men.

LABOR SHORTAGE IN NORTHWEST

ST. PAUL, May 2.—With farmers and agricultural experts co-operating to raise the largest crop in the history of the Great Northwest, a labor crisis which may defeat the carefully laid plans to increase production is developing serious proportions.

So serious is the labor shortage that plans to furlough hundreds of men who will be attending summer training camps at Fort Snelling and pour them into the harvest fields of the Northwest have been suggested.

Attention will be turned immediately to stemming the tide of immigration into Canada.

Secretary of War Baker, who is chairman of the council, issued the call upon governors for delegates to the conference. It will meet criticism which has been frequent of late, that preparedness measures are conflicting, by co-ordinating methods of mobilizing man power, coping with the food situation and collecting military and industrial census data.
