

Respectfully
R. P. Hunt

We have a small note due us from ~~the~~ of Lee & Townsend of $2548 and it being so small a one we thought it would not be best for them to send it to us but to give it to you and if you will give them a receipt for it - Our account against them including the interest is $70.96 - We told them a Mr. of White Lead which they say they let for some person in Waterloo and which they will see paid shortly, we should like you to speak to them and endeavour to get it settled as soon as possible. amount of the bill $91.92

The note you will please to take charge of and collect when it be ~~comes~~ due including us the above favour you would much oblige us and perhaps we may some time be able to return the same You to A. W. Underhill

The sum of
of the amount of made a note on the 1st of not to be paid for the same but to give it to your order and give them a receipt for it The account against them
The sum of $1000 - a bill of $1000 dated and they say they let for the same in exchange and what they will be forced to do I have like you to speak to them and see in order to get the money and as for the account of the bill The note you were given to the shop of course is not what it is I am sure as the other papers you would not change in any part in any way be all the same as the other
