"The Jewish question in Berlin is still not yet completely solved. . . . I do not want Jews with the Jewish star running around the Reich capital. Either one must take the Jewish star away and privilege them, or on the other hand once and for all evacuate them from the Reich capital."

--Goebbels Diary, 18 April 1943