SET LOTS IN ORDER

CITY MANAGER WARNS OWNERS OF WEED-COVERED PROPERTY ACTION WILL BE TAKEN

No longer will the rank weeds that now wander at will over the sidewalks and vacant lots of many of Glendale's public streets be permitted that freedom. The deadly nightshade, the berries of which in luxuriant clusters may be seen all over the city; the false jimson weed, a species of datura, the pinkish blossoms of which are known as the angel's trumpet, and also as the thorn apple, which blooms diligently in every vacant lot in the city; the wild sunflower, the suncup, the white morning glory, the mullein, the Canadian and Russian thistle, the tumbleweed and a hundred more that flourish with vigor and persistence, rain or no rain, must all disappear. The city of Glendale has issued its fiat and all must go.

At the adjourned meeting of the board of trustees, which will be held Thursday, a resolution will be passed declaring weeds growing upon or in front of certain lots in Glendale a public nuisance. This resolution is in accordance with the provisions of assembly bill No. 1283, which was approved May 26, 1915. That bill provides that "weeds which bear seeds of a downy nature or which have attained such a large growth that the same have become a fire menace or are otherwise noxious and dangerous and are growing upon the streets and sidewalks in front of property can be declared to be a public nuisance."

"This bill was passed by the last state legislature and the city of Glendale is about to take advantage of its provisions to clean up the offending property," said City Manager Watson to a representative of the Glendale Evening News today. "The bill also provides that the city shall instruct its officials to notify the offending owners by posting a notice setting forth the above provisions of the bill and intimating to the owners that the expense of cleaning up the lots will constitute a lien on the property."

"The bill went into effect August 28. When the notice has been placed on a lot, should the owner pay no attention, five days having elapsed, the street superintendent will be instructed to remove the weeds at the expense of the owners. The expense of this proceeding will be made part of the taxes on the individual properties thus handled for that year. The street superintendent will keep an account of the expense of abating the nuisance and this will be assessed on the property."

"I would advise owners who are aware that their property comes under the scope of the bill to get busy and clear their property before the city takes action. Early next week the city will begin to place the notices on the various properties concerned and those intending to clear their properties themselves should begin work at once and at the same time should make provision for the parking of their sidewalks."

Lists of property involved in this ordinance have been already prepared and the work will be proceeded with without delay. The city has ample powers conferred on it to carry out the work and it will be done very promptly. Chief Herald can show a large number of complaints concerning the condition of vacant lots by property owners who fear fire from the weeds. Those complaints have hitherto been neglected, but now that the city has power to proceed, it will have no hesitation in abating the nuisance.

JITNEY INJURY SUFFICIENT

John Hart, a teamster of San Francisco, stole a coat from a clothing dummy and ran into the street, where he was first run over by a jitney bus and later arrested. "To be run over by a jitney bus is sufficient punishment," said Police Judge Oppenheim; "case dismissed."

HEAT CAUSES QUEER ANTICS

Word received from Oroville says that it is hot there as elsewhere these days. The heat caused Ah Lewis, a Chinaman, to jump into the river three times to cool his fevered brow. He was rescued. Mrs. D. C. Palmer, Magnolia, allegedly set fire to herself, and Fred Lapoint was arrested on a charge of insanity after having tried to kill a woman.

MARRIES AGAIN

John D. Spreckles, Jr., of San Francisco, recently divorced, has obtained a license to marry Sidi Wirt, a dancer.

KNIGHTS TO PICNIC

FOUR THOUSAND PEOPLE EXPECTED TO ATTEND OUTING LABOR DAY

The chairman of the Knights of Pythias picnic committee spent some time in Glendale today attending to some of the final details relative to the picnic to be held at Verdugo park Labor Day, September 6. He says that there are about 4000 people expected to attend the picnic. They will come from over thirty-five different lodges in Southern California. They will have an extensive program of athletic sports for which there will be over 65 prizes awarded.

Among the prizes and trophies that will be awarded are two beautiful loving cups presented by the city of Glendale to the lodges having the largest attendance present. The Chamber of Commerce of Glendale is giving a trophy for the best drilled company of Uniform Rank and over twenty merchants of the city of Glendale have contributed different prizes to be awarded on that date.

In addition to these and other prizes which have been donated there will be several cash prizes. Among the interesting features of the day will be the hill climbing contest, orange eating contest, slow walking contest; there will also be a full schedule of foot races for the men, women and children. In addition to the athletics there will be exhibition drills given by the Dramatic Order of Knights of Khorassan Patrol, by the Pythian Sisters, temple 73, drill team, by the White Star Elks' Patrol of Glendale, a competitive drill between companies of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias, in which the crack company of Southern California from San Diego will take part.

As a final event on the parade ground at 4:30 p. m. there will be a regimental dress parade and color ceremonial. The committees from Miradero lodge of Glendale, Visor lodge of Tropic and La Halla temple Pythian Sisters of Tropic are making great preparations for receiving the crowds. There are 148 automobile loads of Pythians and their friends coming from the southern part of Los Angeles county and from Orange county. There will be special trains on the Pacific Electric from Los Angeles, San Pedro, Long Beach and various other cities in Los Angeles county. There is also a large delegation coming from San Diego as well as Pomona, Chino, Ontario, Monrovia, Whittier and Pasadena. Some of the trophies which will be awarded will be on exhibition in Glendale on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

GOLD MEDAL AWARD

The Salt Lake Route-Union Pacific building at the Panama-California exposition at San Diego has been awarded a gold medal for the unique features of their building and the attractive displays therein.

The structure is known as the Salt Lake Route-Union Pacific building, and was erected for the purpose of serving as an international transportation center and to provide information to world travelers and comfort to exposition visitors. The building contains a rest-room for ladies and children, with maid in attendance; information bureau and telephone-booths, smoking-room for gentlemen and other accommodations.

At either end of the main reception-room large painted maps of the Salt Lake route and Yellowstone national park are shown on the walls with the exact topography of the country tributary. The entire front of the building is of glass transparencies showing the natural resources of the country traversed by the Salt Lake route and the Union Pacific system.

This is said to be the first building of its kind ever erected at any exposition for a publicity exhibit. The special rest-room provided for the entertainment of visiting railroad men is one of the prominent features.

At the close of the exposition the building will probably be donated for use of the exposition park officials.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 1.—Germany replied today to the administration's last Lusitania note. The Kaiser accepts all of the American demands regarding submarine warfare. Great concessions are made to the United States, Germany promising to visit, search and warn all vessels, before torpedoing them, except those that try to escape.

Ambassador von Bernstorff, at first delivered Germany's reply orally to Secretary Lansing; later he put it in the form of a brief note.

Germany practically admits that the sinking of the Lusitania was a violation of international law. The Kaiser's government is evidently determined to avoid further friction with the United States.

TRIBUTE OF SORROW

APPROPRIATE EULOGY ON WILLIAM HERMAN WEST READ AT ELKS' LODGE

Few men in any community have been better liked or more generally esteemed than the late William Herman West. To manifest their sense of the loss they have sustained in his death, his brethren of the Glendale Elks' lodge held a session of sorrow Monday night at which the following beautiful eulogy was read by Willis M. Kimball:

It is with misgivings and a sense of failure to express myself as I would desire that I respond to the request to say a few words of eulogy for our departed friend and brother.

And perhaps this simple phrase, "friend and brother," is the highest tribute which can be paid to one who was all that it implies—a true friend and a kind and loving brother.

In our ritual of the dead service we say upon the death of a brother, "a noble Elk has fallen." And how true this is when we apply it to our beloved brother, William Herman West, for he was the ideal Elk, who loved and honored the order, whose members in return loved and honored him.

We shall miss the pleasant smile, the cheery word and the clasp of his hand, but the remembrance of these will act as an inspiration and remain with us, deeply engraved on the tablets of love and memory.

Our friend and brother was a true optimist and for him the clouds did not exist and if by chance one floated by, he only saw the silver lining and to him it only seemed to show more clearly the brightness of the day.

We shall miss his always welcome songs as we shall miss the singer, and to many of us what a new significance to that dear old English song was given by his rendition of "Annie Laurie."

Another strong characteristic of our friend and brother was his love of children. You who were present on Big Brother Day will recall that when the multitude of little ones almost overwhelmed the efforts of your committee, that it was our dear brother who saved the day with his effective service. With songs and with stories and then the entertaining of the little ones in this room, encouraging them to add their own mite to the general entertainment until they went to their homes contented and happy.

Our brother needed not the admonition, "Suffer little children to come unto me," for he reversed the command and was ever ready to come to them.

And if we only knew how many unfortunate families in the San Fernando valley today, with tears in their eyes and "God bless you" on their lips, are thinking of our dear friend and of the loving and courteous manner in which he relieved their pressing needs with either the necessities or articles of Christmas cheer distributed by him for the Glendale lodge of Elks.

To him justice, brotherly love, charity and fidelity were not mere ritualistic words, but had a living significance and his rule of life was well expressed by these lines:

"If you have a song to sing—sing it now;

Let the tones of gladness ring Clear as the song of bird in spring. Let every day some music bring—sing it now.

If you have kind words to say—say them now;

Tomorrow may not come your way Do a kindness while you may—Loved ones will not always stay—say them now.

If you have a smile to show—show it now;

Make hearts happy, roses grow. Let the friends around you know The love you have before you go—show it now."

In the religious belief which our dear brother honored I believe death is not recognized, but only as a means of passing to a more complete existence, and I cannot but feel that the manner of his departure was as he would have desired, simply as one who "wraps the drapery of his couch around him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Our dear friend and brother had no fear of what men call death. To him it was as natural and essential as life, simply the universal order and his thoughts and feelings may be expressed by the following sentiments:

"I cannot make it seem a day to dread

When from this dear earth I shall journey out

To that still dearer country

THREE MORE DAYS

LAST HOURS OF CONTEST MAY MAKE ALTERATION IN CANDIDATES' STANDING

Thursday, Friday and Saturday are the only days remaining for the Evening News and Tri-City Progress contestants to do more work than they have done since the contest opened. These will be truly three days of work and to the most diligent will go the best prizes. There is nothing of value gotten in this world without an effort on the part of the person into whose possession comes that something of real worth.

A Maxwell five-passenger touring car is a prize well worth striving for. It represents $750 in cash and the contestant who wins it should turn in nearly $3000 of business, figuring on 25 per cent commission basis.

The Schiller piano is a high-grade piano and cannot be bought for less than $350 cash. It is an excellent prize and the winner gets it at a bargain if he turns in less than $1400 worth of business.

The trip to San Francisco or $75 in cash pays for a steady month's work and should on a 25 per cent commission basis bring $300 into the Evening News office.

The $50 certificate of deposit given by the First National bank of Glendale is a prize well worth winning and should be worth $200 worth of business.

The $75 scholarships in the Isaac-Woodbury Business college of Los Angeles, considered from the standpoint of a profitable investment, are the best prizes offered. In the right hands one of these scholarships may yield 1000 per cent on the investment.

The increased work being done by certain contestants will likely bring about many changes in the position of the contestants from that of the published list last Saturday. The names of the contestants are:

- Newton McGillis.
- Miss Ruth Wright.
- Morse Freeman.
- Mrs. J. C. May.
- Miss Cora Hickman.
- Miss Virginia Graham.

ATTENTION LUTHERANS

It is not often a congregation is so highly favored by the visit of one high up in the church. But the First English Lutheran church of Glendale will have the great favor of meeting the Rev. Dr. L. B. Wolf, general secretary of the foreign mission board of the Evangelical Lutheran church of the general synod of the United States. Dr. Wolf will be in Glendale tomorrow, Thursday, evening at the home of the pastor, Rev. W. Mottern of the local Lutheran church, 340 South Central avenue. Dr. Wolf will be glad to meet all who are interested in the Lutheran church and tell them much of interest of our work in India, where he was a missionary for over twenty years. During part of the time he was president of the India Lutheran college there. All who heard Miss Brewer in June were delighted; others sorry they missed it; this is an additional opportunity. All welcome, both young and old, members and friends.

A. J. COINTE DEAD

Mr. A. J. Cointe, who died Tuesday, August 31, at his residence, 119 East Park avenue, at the age of 63, was a native of France. Mr. Cointe leaves a wife and son. The funeral services will be held in the Scovena-Letton-Frey parlors Thursday, September 2, at 2 p. m. The Rev. Ryder will officiate. Interment in Forest Lawn cemetery.

WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair tonight and Thursday; westerly winds.

of the dead
And join the lost ones so long dreamed about;
I love this world, yet I shall love to go
And meet the friends who wait for me, I know.

"I never stand above the bier and see
The seal of death on some well-loved face
But that I think, one more to welcome me
When I shall cross the intervening space
Between this land and that one over there,
One more to make the strange beyond seem fair."

And so, dear friend and brother, for a short time we join in saying, "Hail and Farewell."

PEACE POSSIBLE ANY MOMENT

It has already been pointed out in these columns that there are signs that the nations are sick of the fighting and that peace may come at any moment. Just at present there are indications that Germany would be glad to get out of the war with any reasonable saving of her face. Great Britain, too, conscious of the strain the war is exerting on her resources and doubtless moved by the fact that there is danger of the money center of the world moving to the United States, would apparently welcome peace on some basis that would leave her in the strong position commercially that she occupied before the war.

In Germany there is a strong anti-annexation movement. Sensible Germans know that the world will not stand for the annexation of Belgium or even of Russian Poland by Germany and that if it is known that Germany is ready to restore Belgium to its antebellum status peace would readily be made. The first steps toward this most desirable consummation were taken when Earl Grey, the British Foreign minister admitted that it was possible to discuss the freedom of the seas, and when also Germany consented to modify her submarine campaign.

One of the London newspapers, the London Economist, says that Earl Grey's statements regarding the improved treatment of prisoners and Germany's modified methods of submarine warfare suggest a letting down of tension for "high diplomatic purposes." Reference to "high diplomatic purposes" undoubtedly means overtures for peace negotiations.

Germany also wants peace. She has lost, it is stated, about 3,000,000 men and has expended an amount of treasure that will go far to offset any gain she has made in commerce. She has lost all her foreign possessions and a very large section of her fleet. Her submarines have been met and kept in hand, and even now, it is stated, that more effective methods of dealing with the under sea menace have been invented.

Under these circumstances it would seem a good time for Germany to discuss peace. Russia, humiliated and driven out of Poland and Galicia, might yet recover herself. The constant retreats on the part of the Russians seem too easy and the German forward movement appears to be too much of an unopposed march. At any moment, the latent force of Russia might be developed and the mighty armies of Germany hurled back.

From the allies' point of view it may not be very palatable to give up the efforts to capture Constantinople; but it is not certain that there is much enthusiasm in the western nations for the project of continuing to sacrifice valuable lives in order to make a present of the Dardanelles to Russia now down in defeat.

It is true that the capture of Constantinople would greatly enhance Britain's military reputation; but Britain thinks it does not need any such victory. The British fleet has undoubtedly brought such pressure to bear on Germany that that country is already feeling the economic pinch no matter what may be said to the contrary. Britain has saved the allies by means of her fleet and has done enough for prestige. Such is the talk in many circles and many think it may presage a peace congress before long.

KOREA'S NEW DEVELOPMENT

Korea, the Hermit nation, has come out of its cell. Under Japanese tuition the Koreans have rapidly become modernized. That they take well to the new conditions is a matter of surprise to many who remember how the Korean, like the lotus eater, desired only to be left alone in his seclusion and his comfortable untidiness.

Japan has changed the nature of the whole nation. The streets of Seoul, the capital are no longer littered with indescribable filth and pestilence-breeding heaps of decaying refuse. The Korean women, formerly a byword for their untidiness are now almost as neat and tidy as the Japanese themselves. Everywhere there is an air of activity and alertness throughout the nation that speaks well for the wise rule of the invaders who have absorbed the country.

Japan seems to have a natural capacity for ruling oriental people. To have awakened Korea from her slumber of centuries and to have given her a new ambition is a feat that will always rank high in national accomplishment.

It is now five years since Korea was annexed to Japan and to commemorate the annexation, the Koreans under Japanese tuition, are arranging an industrial exposition to demonstrate the progress the country has made under the control of that country. Special buildings are being erected and Korea, that is Japan, invites the world to see the wonderful changes that have been wrought by the new rulers of the land. It may not be a very impressive sight to behold a nation rejoicing in its subjection; but it has many lessons that may be valuable in these days of military aggression.

MANUAL TRAINING IN SCHOOLS

It has been noted that much of the work done in the school of mechanical arts in Glendale Union High school is of a very high grade. This was specially seen both in the finished products of the torge and of the carpenter and cabinet making shops. Authorities who had seen the work done in most of the public schools California had no hesitation in saying that the work done by the Glendale pupils was much in advance of that done elsewhere.

At the same time it is not realized that this work is not necessarily done for the purpose of training boys to become forger men or cabinet makers. It is really educational and part of the system of general scholastic development; and it also affords any student who desires it an opportunity to train himself in the mechanic arts for the purpose of applying them in his life's vocation.

Molders, blacksmiths, tanners, plumbers, etc., are not recruited from the high schools. They are recruited from the elementary schools and usually the boys who will ultimately take up these trades cannot enter the high schools under the present scholarship restrictions upon matriculation. It is felt that if it is desired to teach these subjects as vocations, that tuition must be given in the grammar grades of the elementary school and that boys will have to be admitted to these courses upon age rather than upon scholarship qualification.

It is undoubted that the present manual training and manual arts course in both the elementary and the secondary schools are serving a good purpose. In fact they have in the urban communities become an essential part of the general educational system. Occupying a place as they do in the preparation of the pupils for all future vocational courses, and being general in character, they may be made a means to the proper exposure of the children to the vocations of the community and may thus perform invaluable service in aiding the guidance of youth in selecting suitable future occupations.

In similar fashion the work in the domestic arts is doing much good. It is intensely practical because it is easier to duplicate in the school the indoor occupations of the home, than it is to duplicate those of the outside commercial, industrial or agricultural world. There is a tendency, however, in the teaching of the domestic branches to run to fancy work both in sewing and cooking. That should be remedied and, indeed, various influences are already at work to counteract this tendency.

One thing can be noted that also requires attention. The time devoted to manual training and domestic courses is usually too short. The courses should be expanded and ample time given pupils for their accomplishment.

EAGLE ROCK

Misses Ruth and Birdie Crandall of Avenue Forty-six are spending a month of their school vacation at Paso Robles. They will return in time to attend school.

A large number of Eagle Rock people will attend the Illinois state society's annual picnic to be held this coming Saturday at Eastlake park.

Prof. Campbell of San Francisco was a guest last week at the W. Cook home on Hill avenue.

Mrs. Anna Pennycook of East Sycamore avenue, who has been taking care of little Mary Jane Booth for over a year, is visiting relatives in Nevada. During her absence Miss Fischler is caring for the child.

Mrs. Thew and Miss Jessie Thew of Sault Saint Marie, Canada, have returned to their home after having spent a most delightful time here visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Bessie Thew Miller of West Sycamore avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reed and little daughter have gone to Fresno, where he has a position. They rented their home here to a family from Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and children, Lola and Joe, of East Hill avenue, are in San Francisco taking in the fair this week.

A. A. House has a crew of men putting in a cement job at South Pasadena. He also is putting in gutters and steps at the wall job on Colorado boulevard, which is about completed. This adds greatly to the beauty of Mr. Diddock's home.

Much has been said about annexation of late and last week, Friday evening, also the Friday evening before, meetings were held for the purpose of talking this matter over. It has not been decided as yet.

The union services held this summer have proved most successful and were inspiring to all. The last union meeting will be held this Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church and Rev. Knopf, Congregational pastor, will preach. This will conclude the twice around services at the three churches and has worked up a most friendly feeling between all. May it continue so.

Rev. Smith of Tropico will occupy the pulpit here Sunday at the Methodist church, while his son, the Eagle Rock Methodist pastor, will take his father's place at Tropico.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. G. Sprague of Adams avenue entertained the ladies of the Congregational church with an afternoon tea. The receipts from the same were added to the church treasury.

Mrs. A. Hitchcock and little son, Lowney, and sister, Miss Myrtle Martsoff, who have been at the beach for some time, were calling on friends Saturday and Sunday prior to leaving for their home at Blythe. Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock lived in Eagle Rock until a few months ago, when they moved onto their ranch. Their many friends were glad to see them as these people are greatly missed by all.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller and sons, Hubert and Frederick, have returned to their home on West Eagle avenue, having spent a delightful two weeks' vacation at the beach.

Miss Ellen Galpin of Adams avenue left last week for Stanford university, where she will attend school.

ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

One year ago today events were proceeding with considerable rapidity in the field of war. The reports of that time show that the Turks were diligently preparing for the possibility of an attempt to force the Bosphorus. The French were valourously forcing back the German troops from Paris and events were framing themselves for the deadlock that exists to the West.

Intention to move capital to Bordeaux officially announced in Paris. Fighting reported within forty miles of city. Germans reported to have lost enormously.

Germans reported strongly fortifying Brussels. Berlin dispatch says seige of Antwerp will begin immediately.

Russia reports sweeping victory over Austrians in Russian Poland. Lemberg evacuated by Austrians. Russia claims that fall of Allenstein will not hamper advance into Germany. Berlin still believed to be objective.

Turkish ambassador in Washington admits mobilization of troops on both sides of Bosphorus, but denies that it is directed against Greece. Germany justifies burning of Louvain on ground that German soldiers had been killed by civilians.

The ride took the party through Alhambra, Pomona, Riverside, Ontario and Elsinore, a distance of 99 miles. The journey was made in four hours. An enjoyable dinner was provided at the ranch and the drive back was made in the cool of the evening.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP

The co-partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, R. J. Kennedy and W. B. Cook, doing business under the name and style of the Overland Auto and Sales Company, in the City of Glendale, County of Los Angeles, State of California, was on the 26th day of August, 1915, dissolved by mutual consent.

All persons who are debtors to the said firm for goods and materials or for work and labor performed since July 15, 1915, are requested to pay the same to the said W. B. Cook, who will continue the business at the same location at 1312 W. Broadway in the City of Glendale, State of California. Dated this 27th day of August, 1915.

W. B. COOK.

SANTA MONICAN WAR VICTIM

Morris Burmeister of Santa Monica has been killed while fighting along with the British forces in the Dardanelles. A cablegram received in that city Tuesday announced his death. Burmeister was a captain of the third battalion of the Essex regiment. His wife and daughter are in Santa Monica.

TROPICO

A large and merry party danced and danced Tuesday evening at the K. of P. hall to secure funds for the municipal playgrounds. The party was announced as a hard-time dance and each guest was requested to appear in as poverty-stricken a costume as a clever person could conceive. Mrs. Robert Danner, dressed in a faded blue morning dress, was the personification of poverty and won first prize. Claude Hill was certainly everything that poverty and penury implies and acted his role to perfection. He received gentlemen's first prize for the best and most unique poverty costume. The music for dancing was furnished by Mrs. Timmons and Mr. Dible and was declared the best which has been given in the hall recently. This was all the more pleasing as Mrs. Timmons and Mrs. Dible are residents of Tropico.

Miss Eulalia Richardson and her brother, Burt Richardson, accompanied by their house guest, Mr. Gould of New York City, left for San Francisco Monday morning, where they will join Mrs. Ella W. Richardson and sons, who are visiting the exposition. Mr. Burt Richardson, after visiting in San Francisco, will enter Stanford university, where he will spend the year in study.

Mrs. Salome Hapgood, who has been spending the past year at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Delia Hapgood, on West Tropico avenue, will return shortly to her home in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Hapgood, though 94 years of age, has made the trip across the continent several times. Each visit to California this remarkable woman declares will be the last she will enjoy, as she intends to remain permanently in Tropico, but her longing for Boston and old friends is greater than her resolution and each time she returns east.

Edward Ayers of Palmer avenue, who but recently returned from a visit to San Francisco, spent at least ten days visiting the Panama-Pacific exposition and characteristic of Mr. Ayers, who is a keen, close and always an interested spectator, he saw and realized more than a large number of visitors who but hurriedly visit the great exposition and return home saying the fair is a failure.

CLOTHES AND THE MAN

To extract the romantic picturesque out of modern male attire is as impossible as raising the hollyhock in asphalt. It does not grow. Statues of great men all remind us that wherever their greatness may have resided, it was certainly not in their clothes. Some days ago, when the monument to Wendell Phillips was dedicated, an art critic observed:

"There is something humiliating in the powerlessness of sculpture to cope with the contemporary costume of man."
The aim of men these days is to dress all alike. He is well dressed whose clothes attract the least attention, either for shabbiness or elegance. What we have lost is color and individuality. Colors survive at the edges, in shirts or neckties, and in the dark browns, blues and grays of our suitings. (Imagine a man coming to his office in a flame-pink business suit!)

He who wears an unusual garment even somber of hue, is a target for stares and snickers. The garment may be comfortable, convenient and even beautiful in itself, but if it is not generally worn, a thin skinned person will be happier out of it.

The supreme virtue of modern clothes is that they are democratic. Railroad president and office clerk dress much alike. Such clothes tend to erase social distinction. Americans instinctively dislike a uniform, and if obliged to wear one, they generally climb back into "civilians" as quickly as they can. It takes a shrewd observer to guess the average man's occupation from his clothes.—Boston Globe.

A pretty young woman stepped into a music store the other day. She tripped up to the counter where a new clerk was assorting music, and in her sweetest tones asked, "Have You Kissed Me in the Moonlight?"

The clerk turned half way around, looked at her and said: "It must have been the man at the other counter. I've only been here a week."

The Germans are turning in their spiked helmets, as the brass on them is needed for guns. In other words, they will now make their guns talk through their hats.

CATTLE QUARANTINE LIFTED

Governor Johnson has issued a proclamation lifting the quarantine against cattle being shipped into the state from other states. The quarantine was laid when the foot and mouth disease raged. The proclamation will admit of fine live stock being shipped to the expositions.

LA CRESCENTA

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cobb entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. Lull and son from Chicago last week and this week. Motoring trips were taken to the beaches and other points of interest. Mr. Cobb was formerly a partner of Mr. Lull, who is prominent in the hotel business in Chicago.

Grant Leenhouts is spending the week with his cousin in Calabasas.

Miss Kate E. Smith is resting at her summer bungalow on New York avenue this week before she assumes her position as teacher at the Polytechnic high school this fall.

Mrs. Leenhouts is entertaining Mrs. Van Cammon and daughter from Grand Rapids, Mich., with box parties at the Morosco and automobile tours through the surrounding country.

Mrs. Joseph C. Thomson left Sunday for Sherman, where he will be an indefinite length of time. The young folks of the valley will miss Mr. Thomson very much during his absence.

Mr. Wm. Scheuner went to Los Angeles on a business trip last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Buitt and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cate and two sons of Los Angeles spent Tuesday with the S. Rheinschild family on Ramsdale avenue. The ladies are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Rheinschild.

The Misses Viola Fowler, Juanita Thompson and Marguerite Hauber and the Messrs. Niles Thompson, Louis Maranville and Trahn Johnson composed a merry party who took a hike the first of the week, first visiting the castle and then picnicking in Pekins or as it is sometimes called, Briggs canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks of Los Angeles were week-end visitors with the J. Hawkins family. Mr. Hicks is manager of the General Film company.

Fairmount hotel is keeping up its reputation as a favorite stopping place for tourists and others. The register shows the following names since our last report: Mrs. Gerette Himes, Mrs. Elizabeth Cooper, Irving E. Fellmore and C. W. Pyne of Los Angeles; Marr B. Ennis of San Francisco; Miss Lelia Turner of New York; Mrs. L. H. Sherman and her daughters, Misses Adah V., Helen S. and Edna V., of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pierce of Chicago.

Mrs. Fraley was the victim of a near serious accident last week. She stopped to rest at Dr. Cloud's and inadvertently rocked off the porch, falling a distance of about four feet. While no bones were broken, yet she was badly bruised. Mrs. Fraley is quite an elderly lady, which makes the accident more serious, but at last report she was recovering slowly.

Mrs. G. J. Smith of Gramercy drive, Los Angeles, spent Tuesday with her cousin, Mrs. A. W. Brown of Los Angeles avenue.

Mrs. V. B. Clafin and daughter have opened up an ice cream and confectionery establishment in the La Crescenta realty building near the postoffice. They handle Christopher's ice cream, candies, cold drinks and magazines and later will also serve lunches. They have a pleasant and convenient location and without doubt will have a good trade. In connection with this business Mrs. Clafin will handle real estate and already has a nice list of properties for sale or rent. See the advertisement in this issue and notice the "special bargain for this week." Mrs. Clafin is a pleasant business woman and is highly recommended by her many friends here.

The Goss Canyon Water company held a meeting on August 28 and voted to make an assessment of $2 per share of its stock for the purpose of extending its tunnel a distance of 100 feet or more into the mountains. They also instructed the manager to have meters installed for all users of the water.

Joe Hawkins, our real estate man, reports the sale of a five-acre tract above Michigan avenue since our last visit.

Workmen are busy on the foundation trenches of the new school building and a carload of lumber and one of cement are on the grounds. Mr. Addison, the contractor, is pushing the work right along.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell are stopping over at Santa Anita for the present, where Mr. Russell is superintending the building of a new home for the Oliver Russell family on their recent purchase of acreage there.

E. Teitsworth and wife were the victims of an accident recently which, while bad enough for all concerned, might easily have had more serious results. While Mrs. Teitsworth was driving a spirited horse along Honolulu avenue the bit broke and the horse ran away and was only stopped by his collision with an electric light pole. Mrs. Teitsworth was thrown from the buggy and sustained severe bruises, it being at first thought that several ribs were broken, while the buggy required professional services to repair them.

P. Escalle has a force of men and teams at work clearing and grading the acres on the corner of Honolulu and Los Angeles avenues. He will have an artistic stone wall built around it.

A Clever Scheme

A smooth stranger worked a clever trick on one of La Crescenta's ranchers recently, whereby he and his horse got free board and lodging for about ten days.

The stranger, who gave his name as P. A. Moore of Buffalo, stopped at the ranch, attracted as he said by the "for sale" sign displayed. He examined everything carefully and expressed himself as satisfied. In fact, it just suited him, everything was just right. He had some friends coming from the East who would take half and he would take the other half, or would take it all if necessary. He represented himself as quite wealthy, having an income of $1500 a year rental from a farm in the East. While waiting for his friends to come he made himself perfectly at home at the ranch. He drove a bay horse and a light open buggy and made trips to Glendale and San Fernando, but always returned, and of course the people never thought of asking him for board money. He claimed to have ordered hay, first from Glendale, and when that could not be got, ordered from San Fernando, and was expecting it every day. He never got tired of praising up the ranch and telling how well he liked it and how everything suited him perfectly. He left August 19, saying he would soon be back, but so far has failed to return, and his hostess now has concluded that it was only a clever trick to get board and lodging for himself and horse. Perhaps they were fortunate to get off that cheaply, without being worked for money also.

LA CANADA

Stockholders of the Valley Water company are notified that the meeting which was to have been held last Saturday has been postponed until next Saturday, August 4, at the club hall at 4 p. m. See official call elsewhere.

Our readers will be interested in knowing that Prof. Germond's big forty-five-piece military and concert band of Pasadena has been made the first official municipal band of that city. But what will interest our La Canada readers the most is the fact that one of our own young men, Manton L. White, has been given the position of first flute player in the organization. Mr. White is a young man, only nineteen years of age, and the responsible appointment comes as a reward for merit, the result of three years' industrious practice.

Mrs. W. G. McMullin is spending a few days with her daughter in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lillie Howard, who has been visiting this past week with her cousin, Mrs. John Armstrong, has started for her home in Texas. She will soon resume her work as teacher in the El Paso schools.

The school district meeting was postponed until next Saturday evening.

Mrs. Queen Whitcher of Kansas has been visiting her brother, Mr. C. D. Bolton. Another sister, Mrs. Lizzie Page, will accompany her home, going by way of the San Francisco exposition.

Dr. McDonald, La Canada's resident dentist, is meeting with gratifying success in the practice of his profession. A satisfied and grateful patron tells us of a recent difficult treatment of a young patient, which shows the kindness and gentleness of Dr. McDonald, as well as his proficiency in up-to-date methods. The case in question was that of a young girl who had been treated without success about two years ago by another dentist and as a result was most nervous and afraid of further treatment, but is now rejoicing over the complete success of the operation and is accordingly most grateful.

Misses Eva and Helen Gould of Glendale and Misses Sara and Ada Stoneham of Los Angeles visited with Mrs. H. R. Gould last week.

A church social was held in the church Thursday evening for which the following program had been prepared: Piano solo, Elsa Anderson; recitation, Alma Armstrong; violin solo, Irvin Potts, song, Miss Betty Garoutte; recitation, Florence Pate; Japanese song, Roma Penfield. Mrs. W. F. Metzger will act as accompanist and refreshments will be served.

OAKDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cowles and family of Ottumwa, Iowa, arrived in Los Angeles the first of the week, where they have taken rooms. They are expected soon to visit at Audubon, as Mrs. Cowles is a granddaughter of Mrs. J. B. Russell.

Mrs. Dodd of Honolulu is suffering from a severe attack of poison oak. We are glad to say that she is improving.

Miss Edna Welborn of Honolulu avenue spent a few days last week at San Diego viewing the fair and enjoying the surf.

Walter Clarke has been doing quite a jitney business the past week. He has a good machine and if you want to be sure of getting there, get him to take you.

Fred J. Young, Oakland's busy bee keeper, saw the representative of this paper coming his way Friday morning last and dropped everything long enough to rush into the house, and then met us at the fence with a silver wheel in his hand to apply on his subscription. That's the kind of a reception the newspaper man appreciates.

The prayer meeting met at Mrs. L. M. Clarke's Wednesday evening and was well attended.

J. E. B. Jones and family of Sycamore street were quite surprised Saturday to have four of their Louisiana friends call on them.

Glenn Sheritt and Allan Macnabb of Huntington Park are spending a few days with Miss Clara E. Jones of Sycamore avenue. The boys are her pupils and are enjoying to the limit the hikes and picnics arranged for their benefit.

A marshmallow roast was given last week on Thursday evening at the Oakdale picnic grounds in honor of Miss Viola Flower of Redondo, who has been the guest at the S. J. Thompson home on Honolulu for the past two weeks. After the roast they adjourned to the Thompson home and enjoyed a musical hour. Those present were Walter, Gertrude and Norman Hawkins, Roberta and Theodore Hopping, Violet Brown, Alberta Bertram, Dorothy Cookson, Katherine Klassen, Joe Thompson, Geo. Dyer, Trahn Johnson, Louis Maranville, Herbert Scheuner, Marguerite Hauber, Esther Conely, George Lewenstein, Guendaline Clafin, Geo. Skow, Carrol Foy, Walter Clarke and the Thompson family—Niles, Wanita, Gladys and Isabel—the hostesses.

A woman lecturer says "the two most pitiful creatures of society today are the hotel child and the cafeteria husband."

Women now vote in Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Washington, California, Kansas, Arizona, Oregon, Nevada, Montana and virtually in the state of Illinois.

Prof. Albe of Lahore, India, claims to have invented a "phonoscope" to enable the totally deaf to perceive sounds as speech and music by means of the eye.
