THE LIVER QUESTION.
Correspondence from St. Louis, Oct. 29, 1893.
To the Editors of the Bee:—The "Liver Question" published by Governor Wainwright and addressed to the Police Jury of the different parishes of the State, will be seen in a conspicuous part of your paper, as if, in spite of contrary assurances of the Liver Company, which claims to be a corporation, it were a public document. What are the plates to believe under the circumstances? Which is the correct opinion? That both are wrong, or that both are right? In the latter case, the Governor's opinion is the correct one, and the Police Jury's is the wrong one. The Police Jury's opinion is the correct one, and the Governor's is the wrong one. The Police Jury's opinion is the correct one, and the Governor's is the wrong one.
