WASHINGTON TAKES OPENING GAME 4-1

SEAPLANE CARRIES HUSBAND IN PURSUIT OF FLEEING WIFE

Irate Japanese Overtakes President Jefferson by Air and Demands Wife; Brother of Woman Borne to Sea Against His Wish.

Pilot Hubbard and the Seattle-Victoria aerial mail plane played the unusual role of Nemesis last evening, when the Seattle airman speeded after the Admiral Oriental liner President Jefferson with the husband of a woman who was on the boat.

K. Shedagake, a sad-faced little Japanese woman, her brother, Z. Itoh, and one child, the party on board, were astonished to see the woman's husband on the dock at Victoria when the President Jefferson threw out her lines and warped in to the dock here.

The brother, a learned Japanese professor now returning to the Orient from a mission of scientific research in England, accompanied his sister, who took one child with her. Three children and the husband were left at Seattle.

The aerial mail plane landed in Victoria long before the Jefferson pulled in to the wharf and the irate husband was standing on tip-toes on the dock when she dove in sight.

DRAMA UNFOLDED
A torrent of words, followed by a torrent of tears, and some terse official dicta followed, with the net result that Mrs. Shedagake and her child were placed in the detention shed of the Immigration Bureau here overnight while the President Jefferson eastbound, carried her brother away.

Shedagake claimed his wife this morning and the disconsolate party left on board the steamship Sol Duc returning to Seattle. Eddie Hubbard has assisted at a wedding before but this is the first time his machine has been used to play the role of the pursuer in an avenging husband's drama. Meanwhile the President Jefferson is carrying 200 miles out to sea with Professor Bush, brother of the runaway wife, padding the deck and fretting against the U.S. immigration order which stopped his embarkation here.

166 PLANES TO BE SEEN IN AIR AT SAULT STE. MARIE
Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 7.—When the seaplanes of the Ontario air service assemble in Sault Ste. Marie just before the freeze-up makes it impossible to continue their patrol flying there will be staged here manoeuvres which will be the biggest formation flights of flying boats in action yet staged by a non-military flying body in the history of Canada.

There will be 166 planes in the flight, which will be conducted over the St. Mary River.

KINGSTON DEATH
Kingston, Ont., Oct. 7.—J. Morgan Shaw, sixty-eight, a former mayor of Kingston, died yesterday after a long illness.

WAR VICTIM
St. Louis, Oct. 7.—Voluntary exposure to poison gas is said by physicians to have caused the death yesterday of William Roth from tuberculosis. He was a private in a training camp in Arkansas during the war when volunteers were called for to live in chambers with varying mixtures of gas in their atmosphere. Volunteers were warned of possible fatal results.

SUGGESTION MADE ECONOMIC BARRS IN EUROPE BE ENDED

Interparliamentary Union Passes Resolution in Washington For Freer Trade Organization to Work Out Scheme For Reduction of World Armaments

Washington, Oct. 7.—The Interparliamentary Union, at its annual session here today, of its annual conference, adopted a resolution calling for an investigation of economic barriers between European nations with a view to their ultimate extinction.

Among the achievements of the union during its meeting here were decisions to sponsor movements for world disarmament and protection of troublesome nations, and the Japanese and British groups declaring their governments were ready to join with others in a concerted action for further reduction of armaments.

The resolution on armament reduction, reported by Dr. R. P. Munch of Denmark yesterday, expressed regret that expenditures for armaments by most countries showed a "serious increase," stated the necessity of giving a feeling of security, and called for a thorough examination of the reduction of armaments, including the drafting of a technical scheme to bring this about. It was adopted without dissent.

DEMILITARIZED ZONES
The demilitarized zone resolution, presented by Eick-Gep. E. L. Spears of Great Britain, placed the Union's committee on reduction of armaments at the disposal of national groups participating in the conference, with a view to the conclusion of treaties.

SUIT IS ECHO OF MURDER OF CZAR

New York, Oct. 7.—A faint echo of the assassination of the czar, when Czar Nicholas II. of Russia and his family were assassinated, was heard in surrogate court here today, when application was made for letters of administration of credits held to the czar's account in the United States.

The petition was brought by ex-Prince Serge Glebovitch Romanovsky, a cousin and claiming to be nearest of kin of the late czar. The ex-prince is now a resident of New York.

Surrogate John P. O'Brien suggested that an amended petition be filed incorporating more specific facts and making the public administrator a party to the action in the interest of non-competent heirs who are entitled to share in the estate. The value of the holdings here was not stated.

IS FIGURE AT AIR RACES IN U.S.; COL. W. A. BISHOP

Mitchell Field, N.Y., Oct. 7.—Aviation's international celebrities were either at this flying centre or headed this way by train and plane today for the United States national air races, which are to open tomorrow with military and civilian pilots participating in what may be the largest air meet in history.

Col. W. A. Bishop, U.S. Army, was here for the races.

Five hundred aeroplanes are expected to bring army and navy aviators and civilians from various parts of the country.

"Citizens in an 'On-to-New York' race, ending today, furnished the preliminary to a three-day racing programme of ten events, which is to start tomorrow and end with the Pulitzer speed classic Saturday afternoon.

As to the refusal of Mr. Justice Morrison to adjourn the trial to enable the defence to produce what was the entire superstructure of the boat had been rebuilt after the crime, so the jury would have been able to form an opinion as to the actual conditions which prevailed on the night of the murder.

BOAT ALTERED
Failure to produce the Denman II, the boat in which Paul Stromkins swore he had ferried the two accused men to the scene of the crime, Mr. Johnson said was due to the fact that the entire superstructure of the boat had been rebuilt after the crime, so the jury would have been able to form an opinion as to the actual conditions which prevailed on the night of the murder.

MISTAKE MADE
Mr. Johnson admitted the filing of his memorandum of new evidence as an exhibit had been wrong, but contended no harm had been done.

"I only intended it to be filed on the record and not to go to the jury as an exhibit," he said. "But suppose it did go to the jury. My intention is no worse than if I had made the same statements in my opening address and had failed to bring the evidence in support. As a matter of fact, the points on which the evidence did not coincide with the memo were immaterial."

REMBRANDT PAINTING BOUGHT AT LOW FIGURE

San Francisco, Oct. 7.—Capt. Shirley Falcke of King George's Royal Horse Guards, who arrived here yesterday on the steamship Sonoma from Australia, is the possessor of an original Rembrandt painting, "The Good Samaritan," which he purchased in Brisbane, Australia, from a secondhand dealer "for a song," and which is said to be worth anywhere from $100,000 to $500,000.

Capt. Falcke's story is verified by the fact that the picture was admitted duty free. Originals may be brought into the United States without duty impost.

Campaign to Increase Trees On Canada's Prairie Farms

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—"In more than 7,000 miles of travel by the tree planting car of the Canadian Forestry Association this year, we did not encounter a single farmer who had migrated from a well-treed farm. The secret of stable population on the prairies is closely identified with tree planting."

This statement was made in an interview by Angus G. Gooch, who has just returned after a season's work as assistant on the tree planting lecture car of the Canadian Forestry Association.

With 7,077 miles of prairie railway covered this season and audiences totalling 58,500 persons, with 323 public meetings held in 146 communities, the tree planting car of the association is back in winter quarters here in Ottawa.

GERARD CHAPMAN APPEAL

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 7.—The appeal of Gerard Chapman, super-bandid under sentence of death, was heard in the Connecticut Supreme Court today. No decision on the appeal is expected for several weeks.

MAN WAS ACQUITTED

Montreal, Oct. 7.—Charles W. M. Wise was acquitted yesterday by a jury of the charge of murdering his brother-in-law, Richard Schroeder, on June 6 last. The fatal shooting occurred in Wise's home while he and his brother-in-law, who was boarding there, were struggling for possession of a revolver following a quarrel concerning Mrs. Wise. Evidence showed Schroeder was intoxicated at the time of his death.

EVERY DOG IS ALLOWED A BITE

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 7.—Magistrate W. E. Gundy today ruled a dog is entitled to one bite before it can be considered vicious. This decision was made in the case of Joseph Ponessa, who was accused of keeping a vicious dog, the animal having bitten a woman.

"I cannot make a conviction because, according to Canadian law, every dog is entitled to one bite before it can be considered vicious," was the court's ruling.

SAYS EVIDENCE AT BAKER TRIAL PROPERLY USED

A. M. Johnson Argues Before Appeal Court Against New Trial on Murder Charge

P. Maranoff's Statement on Hijacking Disputes; Harry Sowash's Counsel Heard

Vancouver, Oct. 7.—Striking at the roots of R. C. Lowe's argument for a new trial of Owen Baker on the charge of murdering Capt. W. J. Gillis in the hijacking of the launch Beryl G. A. M. Johnson, K.C., this morning contended before the Court that the evidence presented at the trial was properly used.

Steveston, B.C., Oct. 7.—Falling from a scow on which he was working, William Cutler, fifty-six years old, a war veteran and Lulu Island chicken rancher, was drowned in the Fraser River near here early this morning.

CADET TRAINING

London, Ont., Oct. 7.—The city council at a meeting last night decided nine to four against submitting by-laws to the electors to ask an expression of opinion as to whether cadet training should be continued in the city at the expense of the electors.

TWO-YEAR TERM FOR SHOOTING

Vancouver, Oct. 7.—Andy Brown was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Magistrate Shaw this morning for shooting Nettie Armstrong in the groin at the hotel on the evening of September 5.

The woman, though wounded seriously enough to spend some time in a hospital, escaped serious defence when he was placed on trial.

CONTRACT FOR FRASER RIVER BRIDGE IS LET

Vancouver Firm to Install Foundations of Big Viaduct on New Highway

Linking of All B.C. by Road Makes Splendid Progress Under Difficulties

Following rapid progress of the great Trans-Province Highway project during the past summer, the Public Works Department has awarded to Palmer Brothers of Vancouver the contract for the installation of the foundations of the Alexandria suspension bridge, the largest bridge on the new road. When the foundations are completed, the department will install the superstructure of the bridge itself by day labor unless lower tenders than those now available are received.

It is planned to open the highway next year in time for the annual tourist rush. When the road is complete it will be possible to drive an automobile from Vancouver to the prairies without leaving Canadian territory.

Engineering obstacles of a formidable character were overcome in the highway work during the last few months. At one point it was necessary to carry the road over a tunnel on the cliffs above the Fraser River. Huge retaining walls of stone had to be built at other points to carry the road around difficult curves.

The difficulties of the work were increased by the fact that the Canadian Pacific Railway and Canadian National Railway grades also cling to the walls of the Fraser Canyon and the danger of undercutting them in some places and of hurling rock down upon them in others was a constant obstacle to the engineers.

HUNDREDS SHARE IN SEARCH FOR ARABIAN

Mail Carrier and His Plane Missing in Pennsylvania Since Last Thursday Night

Clarion, Pa., Oct. 7.—Confidence that the fate of Charles H. Ames, missing air mail pilot, would be known within the next twenty-four hours was expressed today as the searchers took the air and the woods for their six days' hunt for the lost flier. Five companies of National Guardsmen, including three cavalry troops and two infantry, were ready to take up the work today with the other hundreds of volunteers who for five days have scoured the precipitous and trapped-through almost impenetrable places without finding a trace of Ames or his aeroplane.

Ames was last reported at Hartleton, twenty miles east of Bellefonte and more than 100 miles from Clarion, at 11:25 Thursday night. He was on his way from New York to Chicago.

CONFERENCES HELD

The agreement has been completed following a conference September 21 between the British Ministry of Agriculture and the Canadian department, represented by Mr. Wilson and Dr. Barker. A few days later a second conference was held, at which representatives of the Department of Marine, shipowners and cattlemen were also present.

Until the present, ever since the British embargo was removed from Canadian cattle, the shipload limit work on the Atlantic seaboard has been carried out under what is considered improved arrangements.

MURDERER HUNTED

Aberdeen, Wash., Oct. 7.—Discovery today of a revolver in a berry bush near the South Aberdeen home where Berilla M. Din, thirty-seven, white wife of a Hindu laborer, was shot three times and killed Monday night, has given the police their first clue in the murder. The assassin, from all indications, escaped in an automobile. Mrs. Din was shot while reading in bed.

IS EXPECTED SOON TO VISIT CHICAGO; CARDINAL GASPARRI

The Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Gasparri, will probably travel to Chicago shortly as the Pope's personal legate to the forthcoming Eucharistic Congress there. The trip, it is expected, will be one of Cardinal Gasparri's last official acts, as he is seventy-three and is not in the best of health. This is his most recent photograph.

OTTAWA GOVERNMENT ARRANGES WITH BRITAIN FOR SHIPOAD LIMIT OF 1,100 HEAD

Limit up Till Now 500; Ships to be Altered For the New Traffic

Saskatoon, Oct. 7.—In order to stimulate the exportation to Great Britain of Canadian cattle by providing transportation facilities designed to permit of the shipment of cattle in large lots, the Federal Department of Agriculture has secured the verbal consent of the British Board of Trade and Ministry of Agriculture to the admission to Great Britain of cattle shipped in lots of 1,100 instead of the present shipload limit of 500. Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, announced here this morning.

MESSAGE RECEIVED

Mr. Motherwell was in receipt of a cable from W. A. Wilson, former deputy commissioner of Saskatchewan and now Canada's agricultural products representative in Great Britain, announcing the agreement.

The cable said: "Verbal agreement reached with Board of Trade and Ministry of Agriculture and Jensen's shipowners, regarding the interior construction of four-deck cattle ships."

"Four steamships are to be fitted for which owners will submit plans and specifications within two weeks for formal approval. Construction work on the steamships will start next week and work will be completed and the steamship in Quebec by November 20 with a capacity of 1,100 head. Stearns, Jensen, of the same capacity, will be ready about twenty days later. All conditions originally planned are being carried out under what is considered improved arrangements."

NEW LABOR PLAN IN ITALY OPPOSED BY THE SOCIALISTS

Rome, Oct. 7.—The Italian General Confederation of Labor, a Socialist organization, yesterday adopted a resolution refusing to recognize the accord announced between the General Confederation of Industry and the Confederation of Fascist Labor Unions, hailed as the most revolutionary step in the treatment of labor problems in Italy this generation.

The General Confederation of Industry, announced that the employers and the Fascist labor organization agreed to recognize each other as the only bodies with which either would deal in questions of wages and employment. The Socialist labor organization yesterday voted that the accord had not been recognized as affecting its members.

Premier Mussolini declared October 1, the date the accord was concluded, would go down in history as marking the collapse of the concept that inevitable class war was a feature of the relations of labor and capital.

WALTER JOHNSON HOLDS MIGHTY PITTSBURG TO FIVE SCATTERED HITS

Hitting Rally in Fifth Swings Verdict in Favor of Champions; Joe Harris and Traynor Crash Home-Runs Into Bleachers; Pirates Can Do Nothing With Speed Ball of Johnson; Sluggers Strike Out.

Forbes Field, Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 7. (Associated Press)—Walter Johnson pitched the world's champion Washington Senators to brilliant victory over the Pittsburg Pirates today, 4-1 in the first game of the 1925 championship series.

A vast and colorful crowd of 45,000, filling the field to capacity, saw the downfall of their favorites and National League champions, who were baffled and held to five hits by Johnson while the Senators hit Lee Meadows, bespectacled Pirates flinger, and his successor, Johnny Morrison, for eight safeties, most of them when they counted most.

The Pirates, who entered the series with the batting averages in their favor, could do nothing with Johnson's fast ball. Their great slugging outfield, consisting of Cuyler, Carey and Barnhardt, was held in subjection by the old master. Cuyler struck out twice and each of his brother gardeners went out once on whiffs.

The strategy of Stanley Harris, youthful leader of Washington, was again in evidence. In the ninth inning he pulled a move that caused much speculation. He took Joe Harris, who had scored the first run of the series on a four-base walkup and contributed another single, from the outfield, moved Sam Rice back to his old place at right and sent Earl McNeely to centre field.

This was purely a defensive move. The champions were leading by three runs and, with Johnson going great guns, there appeared little chance of Pittsburg breaking through. Joe Harris, though a great hitter, is slow on his feet. McNeely, a weak hitter, is a speed marvel. This meant that the Washington outfield was as fast as lightning. McNeely, whose bat won the series for the champions last year, made the final put-out today. With two Pirates on base McNeely raced in after a fly ball and nailed it.

Washington took the lead in the second inning, when Joe Harris punched the ball into the bleachers for a homerun. The Senators scored two more runs in the fifth on a great hitting rally. Joe Harris led off with a single and Bleuge followed along. Sam Rice chased the two of them home with a long single to centre field.

Traynor scored Pittsburg's only run on a homerun in the fifth.

The Pirates threatened in the eighth and ninth innings. Morrison replaced Meadows and was as fast as lightning. Morrison singled, took second on Judge's sacrifice and crossed the plate on Bleuge's single.

Washington's line-ups were: Washington—Rice, c.; S. Harris, 2b.; Goslin, 1f.; Judge, 1b.; J. Harris, r.f.; Bleuge, 3b.; Peckinpaugh, s.s.; Ruel, c.; Johnson, p.

Pittsburg—Moose, 2b.; Carey, c.f.; Cuyler, r.f.; Barnhart, 1f.; Traynor, 3b.; Wright, s.s.; Grantham, 1b.; Smith, c.; Meadows, p.

Empires—At plate, Richter, National; Owens, American; first base, McCormick, National; second base, Moriarty, American; third base, First 2 p.m. Eastern standard time.

FIRST INNING
Senators—Wright threw out Rice. Harris took third. Harris's homer and got him at first. Goslin flied out to Grantham. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Pirates—Moose flied out to Rice. Carey was out on arm by Johnson's speed ball. Carey went out stealing. Cuyler fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

CITY LIBERALS PLAN THREE BIG MEETINGS HERE

Friday Night Rally in Royal Victoria Theatre First of Series

Liberal campaign plans in Victoria, announced today call for three big rallies in the centre of the city before the election of October 29. The first of these will be held in the Royal Victoria Theatre Friday night when the speakers will be Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, Brig-General Victor Odium of Vancouver, and William McK. Ivel, the Liberal candidate here.

Dates and places of the other two big meetings have not been fixed yet. They will be announced in the next few days, but will number of meetings in the various wards of the city also be announced.

Dr. King, who left here last night to fulfil speaking engagements in North Vancouver today, will return to the city Friday morning for the big Royal Victoria Theatre meeting that evening. He will then answer some of the statements made by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen in his speech here last night. General Odium will speak at the first of the political utterance in the city except as a member of the Legislature. He is regarded as one of the most accomplished public speakers in the Provincial House.

Mr. Meighen left the city last night, to speak in Vancouver today. After his Vancouver speaking engagements he will start his campaign vigorously. His speeches being devoted chiefly to an explanation of his party's attitude on freight rates.

Among the most active campaigners in the Province is under way in Nanaimo riding with almost nightly meetings in the interests of both parties. C. H. Dickie, the Conservative candidate, spoke with Mr. Meighen in Nanaimo yesterday, urging Canadians to give the manufacturers a chance. "Give your manufacturers a chance," he said, "and then money will be circulated to the working men, the farmers and, in fact, to all classes."

ANTI-BOLSHEVIST LABOR DECLARATION

W. Green, President, Says American Federation Not Russians' Friends

Will Not Cast in Lot With Those Who Would Destroy United States Ideals

Atlantic City, Oct. 7.—Amid scenes of great enthusiasm, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared here this afternoon at the annual convention of the organization, that American labor would never affiliate with the Russian labor movement, "that stands for a philosophy of overthrowing the government." His statement was made in response to a hope expressed

SECOND INNING Senators—Judge went out Wright to Grantham. Joe Harris hit a long drive to right for two bases. It almost went into the bleachers for a home run, and the umpire ruled that it hit into the stands and bounced out and Harris was given a home run. Bluege fanned, Peck flied out to Carey. One run, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING Senators—Traynor robbed Ruel of a two-bagger with a leaping catch of a hard hit ball. Johnson went out Wright to Grantham. Rice got a single to right. Rice was picked off first. Meadows to Grantham. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FOURTH INNING Senators—Stan Harris was hit by a pitched ball. Grantham took George's line and doubled Stan Harris at first. Judge went out, Moore to Grantham. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FIFTH INNING Senators—Joe Harris got a hit to deep short. Bluege singled into left. Joe Harris stopped at second. Morning to now, assuming up for Bluege. Peck singled into left. Harris going to third and Bluege to second. The bases were filled and no one was out. Ruel fanned. The Pittsburgh infield played back busy for a double play. Some spectators hopped over the boxes and the game was halted until the field was cleared. The crowd was frantic. Joe Harris and Bluege scored on Rice's single to centre. Peck went to second. Traynor threw out Stan Harris at first. Two runs, four hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING Senators—Smith took Goslin's pop. Max Carey went back and took Judge's long-holt. Carey took Joe Harris' high fly. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING Senators—Bluege tried to bunt but fouled the ball. Bluege went out on strikes. Grantham ran to home. Grantham Meadows claimed that Ruel struck at the ball. Ruel went out Meadows to Grantham. No runs, no hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING Senators—The crowd gave Johnson a big ovation. Wright made a leaping catch of Johnson's soaring hit. Wright threw out Rice at first. Wright took Stan Harris's grounder and threw him out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

NINTH INNING Senators—Morrison went in the last for Grantham and Coach took Smith's place as catcher. Goslin got a single into right. Judge sacrificed. Grantham to Moore. Goslin on second. Harris struck out. Morrison's bunt curve, rolling him. Goslin scored on Judge's single to centre. On the throw-in Bluege went to second. Morrison threw out Perrera at first. One run, one hit, no errors.

with cheers. Mr. Coolidge's statements that "nobody says now Americans cannot fight," that he was in a policy of adequate military preparation, that "the country can rest assured that if security lies in military force it was prepared to secure before in all its history," and his advocacy of a selective service act applying to both persons and materials.

CIVIL AUTHORITY President emphasized his remarks, particularly when he deplored the wave of religious intolerance which, he said, had swept the United States and which he declared that he was preparing the nation for emergency military power must be subordinated to civil authority.

WARREN'S APPEAL Mr. Johnson dealt with the attack on the judge's charge to the jury this afternoon, after which R. D. Harvey opened his argument in behalf of Harry Sowash on different grounds.

YESTERDAY'S HEARING Of the fifty odd grounds on which Baker's appeal is based, one or two appeared to make a pronounced impression upon the court during the sitting yesterday.

MARANOFF'S EVIDENCE Baker in cross-examination by the prosecuting counsel was asked whether he had ever hijacked Pete Maranoff in Tacoma. Baker denied it. Mr. Johnson later put Maranoff in the box and Maranoff contradicted Baker. This was the proceeding to which Mr. Lowe objected.

REMOVAL ASKED The resolutions were presented by James M. Lynch of the International Typographical Union, William S. Company of the Pittsburgh Central Labor Union, and James F. Holland, of the New York State Federation of Labor. One resolution called for Mr. Carter's removal from office and the others asked President Coolidge and Congress to make an investigation.

RESOLUTIONS CONSIDERED The convention was in session less than two hours yesterday, transacting routine business, receiving seven resolutions and listening to an address by Fritz Tarnow of Berlin, spokesman for a delegation of fifteen German trade unionists now in the United States investigating industrial conditions. The resolutions committee held a session last night and received many more resolutions.

FILED AS EXHIBIT Counsel stated Mr. Johnson had given him a synopsis of new evidence that when the memorandum was under discussion it had been filed as an exhibit, thus making it a part of the evidence before the jury. That is absolutely unprecedented," said Mr. Justice Martin. Mr. Lowe contended his client was prejudiced, as the witnesses did not say all that was in the memorandum.

ANTI-BOLSHEVIST LABOR DECLARATION (Continued from page 1) earlier by Arthur A. Purcell, a member of the British Parliament, that the labor forces of this continent would establish close relations with the Russian labor movement. In his oration Mr. Green pounded the speaker's table and shouted: "We are not willing to pay the price by casting our lot with that class that would destroy us if they could."

NEW IDEAS "We must not be afraid of new ideas," Mr. Purcell had said. "It has often struck me that while the Americans have been the most advanced, the most receptive of ideas concerning mechanical invention and business organization, they have been most slow in accepting new social and political ideas. Just as British workers have sent delegations to Russia, so I hope and trust the American Federation of Labor will do the same."

GREETINGS FROM CANADA Fraternal greetings of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada were conveyed to the convention to-day by Donald Dear, a delegate from the Dominion. RESOLUTIONS CONSIDERED The convention was in session less than two hours yesterday, transacting routine business, receiving seven resolutions and listening to an address by Fritz Tarnow of Berlin, spokesman for a delegation of fifteen German trade unionists now in the United States investigating industrial conditions. The resolutions committee held a session last night and received many more resolutions.

VANCOUVER ISLAND NEWS

Sidney

Special to The Times Sidney, Oct. 7.—The first card party of the winter season was held by the Deep Cove Social Club in their club hall on Monday evening. Seven tables were occupied. Progressive 500 was played. Winners of the first prizes were Miss May Coplin, thorne and A. Calvert. Prize winners were Mrs. S. Roberts and B. Meigs. Supper was in charge of Mrs. Calvert and Mrs. Mears. Before the card party started a meeting of the lady members was held in connection with the bazaar, which is to be held early in November. There was a good attendance. Mrs. G. McLean was in the chair. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. P. Thomas and adopted. A large quantity of beautiful work was handed in. It was decided to hold the next meeting at the end of October.

The North Saanich Social Club held their first card party on Saturday evening in the old schoolhouse, School Cross Road. Seventeen tables were in play. At nine tables 500 progressive was played. Winners of the first prize were Mrs. S. Roberts and B. Meigs. Supper was in charge of Mrs. Calvert and Mrs. Mears. Before the card party started a meeting of the lady members was held in connection with the bazaar, which is to be held early in November. There was a good attendance. Mrs. G. McLean was in the chair. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. P. Thomas and adopted. A large quantity of beautiful work was handed in. It was decided to hold the next meeting at the end of October.

Miss Bernice Brethour of Vancouver is staying for two weeks with her brother, Phillip Brethour, of Oaklands Avenue.

Miss Edith Larsen of Victoria spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Hearn.

Miss Kerr of Vancouver is staying with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gilman, Second Street.

J. T. Taylor was the winner in the men's singles in the tennis tournament, which was held by the Sidney Tennis Club, and Miss Margaret Cochran was the winner of the ladies' singles.

The harvest festival will be held at the Anglican churches on Sunday, October 11, when the churches will be decorated for the occasion. At the 11 o'clock morning service at Holy Trinity, Patricia Bay, the Rev. Harry Thomas will preach. At St. Andrew's at 7 o'clock in the evening the Rev. T. M. Hughes will preach.

Shawnigan

Special to The Times Shawnigan Lake, Oct. 7.—The regular monthly meeting of the Shawnigan Women's Institute was held in the Shawnigan Lake Athletic Association hall Thursday. The attendance was large. In the presence of Mrs. M. Macdonald, president, the report of the year's work of the institute, which will be heard at the district conference being held in Victoria this week, was presented and discussed and finally approved. The plan was met with enthusiasm by the members of the institute and the girls present, and there is a good prospect that a troop of scouts will be formed. A hearty vote of thanks was given Mrs. Kinlock for her able address. The question of a baby clinic was brought up, and it was arranged that one be held in the hall on Saturday, October 17, at 2 p.m., when it is hoped all mothers with children of pre-school age will attend. A juvenile tea will be held in conjunction with the clinic. The tea hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. M. A. Wyld and Miss Whyte.

LADIES' AID The Ladies' Aid of the United Church of Canada held their monthly meeting on Friday, October 2, at the home of Miss Whyte, who was hostess for the occasion. Mrs. G. Gibson, president, gave an encouraging report of the aid activities, much useful work being accomplished. Mrs. J. Medlands, secretary, reported the finances in good shape. It was decided to abandon the Halloween social owing to clashing dates, but to hold a social in the near future. A novel guessing contest took place, and Mrs. W. B. Sharp was the lucky winner. Rev. T. B. Barlow, pastor of the church, will hold services in the church as formerly.

MADE REGISTRAR M. A. Wyld has been appointed registrar of voters for the Shawnigan district, and has opened offices in the Strathcona Hotel. Quite a number of persons are availing themselves of the opportunity to register.

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall are spending a few days at their Summer camp.

and Mrs. Hall are in residence at their home on the West Arm of the Lake.

Mrs. Plovia and Miss Norris Plovia of Victoria were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Plovia over the week-end.

The Public Library has been well patronized during the last few months. During August 563 distinct books called and 422 books were issued. During September 400 visitors called and 413 books issued. In September the books loaned by the Provincial Library were changed and a splendid assortment was received.

Langford

Special to The Times Langford, Oct. 7.—The little church of St. Matthew's, Langford, was beautifully decorated for the Harvest Thanksgiving services held last Sunday. There was a profusion of flowers, vegetables and fruit given by members of the congregation which were afterwards sent to the Protestant Home. In view of the fact that the harvest festival will be held in the parish early in November a short service of prayer and preparation will be held on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.

Chemainus

Special to The Times Chemainus, Oct. 7.—The harvest festival was observed in the Church of St. Michael's and All Angels on Sunday evening. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit and vegetables and a large amount of bread which was a real work of art. The building was packed to capacity. The service was fully choral and the singing was very hearty. The Venerable Archdeacon E. P. Laycock of Victoria was the preacher and his interesting and uplifting sermon was much appreciated. Mrs. Maurice Haldaby officiated at the organ.

On October 5 the Women's Club resumed their physical culture classes in their picture house. There was quite a large attendance and many new members. Being the night of the exercises was an excellent concert at which a silver collection was taken in aid of the proposed sanatorium at Mill Bay. The following numbers were most efficiently rendered by local ladies: An instrumental solo, two vocal solos, "Irish Jig" by four girls, plantation songs by Aunt Hannah and Uncle Sam. The solo was an artist on the mouth organ and accompanied Aunt Hannah in the following songs: "Old Kentucky Home," "Swanee River," "Black Joe" and "One Year Ago To-day."

This was followed by a screamingly funny farce by two ladies which kept the audience convulsed with laughter throughout. Proceedings closed with the announcement that $15.75 was realized by the collection and "God Save the King."

A most enjoyable children's party was held last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. F. and Mrs. R. H. Bower-Scott, in honor of her niece, Barbara Scott, daughter of the late Mrs. Bower-Scott. The little girls' party was spent by the little guests in a wonderful treasure hunt in the garden and playing games. A delicious tea was served with a beautiful birthday cake which all enjoyed. Those present were the Misses Barbara Scott, Joy Lang-

FRENCH AND SPANISH FORCES JOIN LINES IN MOROCCAN AREA

Fez, French Morocco, Oct. 7.—Actual contact in the Eastern Moroccan sector between the French, who have advanced North of Kifane, and the Spanish coming down from the Mediterranean Coast, became an accomplished fact yesterday, following a rapid thrust of the Spanish to Syah, Northeast of Kifane.

With their forces spread out fan-like, West, North and East of Kifane, the extreme Northward limit of their outposts being six miles above that place in the direction of Ajdir, Abd-el-Krim's former capital, the French now control all the strategic bases they have sought, and are ready for winter.

The French experts agree that the campaign in Morocco just concluded will go down in military textbooks as a model for tactics in African warfare. Operating in a country in which all modern methods of transportation by rail or water are non-existent, Marshal Petain adopted methods for re-creating his army such as those used by Hannibal against the Romans. Mules have been more instrumental in bringing up the food and ammunition necessary to defeat the Moors than the motor transports. The percentage of French casualties is said to have been much lower than in any war ever waged on the African continent, being fully fifty per cent. less than in the Boer war.

Parksville

Special to The Times Parksville, Oct. 7.—The tenth birthday of the branch of the Women's Institute at Parksville was celebrated on Friday with a grand banquet, at which upwards of fifty ladies attended. The hall was prettily decorated with evergreens, and the tables were attractive with vases of beautiful Fall blossoms in white and gold, interspersed with greenery, these being the institute colors.

Mrs. L. T. Dyer acted as toastmistress and did her part very well, keeping the company amused with many appropriately witty remarks. The toasts were "Our King," responded to by the toastmistress, "The Past Presidents," responded to by Mrs. New-land, "The Women's Institute," responded to by Mrs. Hickey and Mrs. Craig; "To Visitors," responded to by Mrs. Bevis; "Our Institute," responded to by Mrs. H. K. Harrison and Mrs. Bernard and "The Men," responded to by Mrs. May and Mrs. Cruze. Community singing took place and seemed to be given with great enthusiasm. Each member had a "fortune" given, which had to be read out causing much amusement. Cards were indulged in for the latter part of the evening. Among those attending were Mrs. H. K. Harrison, Mrs. L. T. Dyer, Mrs. Bernard, Mrs. G. T. Wray, Mrs. Hickey, Mrs. Middleton, Mrs. Newmark, Mrs. Cruze, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Rushton, Mrs. Shelley, Mrs. Pattison, Mrs. Pettigrew, Mrs. A. Quenlette, Mrs. A. McKenzie, Mrs. N. Dickinson, Mrs. H. Marks, Mrs. Beaudette, Mrs. P. Crooks, Mrs. G. Davies, Miss Muzio, Miss Cheney and Miss Applewhite.

Miss O. Muzio has returned home after visiting in Portland for the past three weeks.

Mr. J. G. Bunce has returned to Nanoose from Victoria, where she attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Kirkham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith of Qualicum are visiting friends at Nanoose. Mrs. Smith was formerly Mrs. Holt of Nanoose Bay.

Mrs. N. A. Dickinson and son, Clyde, are visiting at Nanaimo.

Luxton

Celwood, Oct. 6.—The Luxton and Happy Valley Hall committee announce that another dance will take place in the hall on Friday, October 8, along similar lines to the last dance, which was such an unqualified success. Pitt's orchestra will be in attendance, and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. J. Parmenter and Mrs. S. J. J. Brice are attending the Women's Institute Conference in Victoria as official and institute delegates respectively of the Luxton and Happy Valley Women's Institute.

AID FOR SUFFERERS

London, Oct. 7.—The deathbed appeal of Sir Adam Beck to the people of Ontario to raise an endowment fund for the Queen Alexandra Sanatorium for tuberculosis, to insure that the doors should never be closed to any sufferer because of inability to pay, is about to be fulfilled. As a result of a series of meetings held during the past few days in London and Toronto, arrangements have been virtually completed to raise $500,000 in a province-wide campaign which will be concluded before Christmas.

DR. J. P. MOLLOY IS APPOINTED SENATOR

Fills Manitoba Vacancy, Completing Upper House Membership; Was M.P.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—Dr. J. P. Molloy of Morris, Manitoba, former Liberal member of the House of Commons for Provencher, Manitoba, has been appointed to the Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator George Bradbury of Selkirk, Manitoba. Official announcement of this effect was made last night. Dr. Molloy was born March 13, 1875, in Arthur, Ontario, educated in Emerson, Man., and Toronto, and holds the degrees of M.D. and V.M.S. He was a Liberal candidate in the provincial election in Manitoba in 1907. He was first elected to the House of Commons in 1908 and re-elected in 1911 and 1917, but was defeated in 1921. The appointment of Dr. Molloy to the Senate filled the one remaining vacancy existing in the Upper Chamber. Ten other senatorial appointments were recently announced.

GREATER TOURIST CAMPAIGN PLANNED

Suggested Interior of B.C. and Washington State Joint Coast Advertising

Vancouver, Oct. 7.—Expansion of British Columbia's tourist attraction efforts to great proportions, uniting all the cities of the Okanagan, Lillooet, the Cariboo and the Omineca districts with cities on the coast in public work is a plan being considered by the Greater Vancouver Publicity Bureau. S. T. Elliott of Kelowna, president of the Okanagan-Cariboo Trail Association, an international organization supported by the Okanagan District of British Columbia and the Okanagan Valley Communities of Washington State, presented the case for unity to Fred Crane, president, and C. H. Webster, manager of the local publicity bureau. He would link his organization with Vancouver and Victoria in the Puget Sound and British Columbia Association. National advertising of the Cariboo Road would be undertaken.

Canada's Oldest Mine, Opened 250 Years Ago, To Yield Lead Now

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—The romance woven around Canada's oldest mine, 250 years old, which has been lying dormant for many years on the shores of Lake Temiskaming, Northern Ontario, is about to be shattered by the march of progress and the demands of the financial world. This mine is known as the Wright mine and is a lead proposition of a high grade nature. It is now the property of Noah Timmins, president of the Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines, and will be worked. It is expected, this winter, lead has taken a sharp advance lately, which makes the Wright mine an attractive proposition. It is very favorably situated as regards transportation, power and other mining facilities. It lies within a few miles of the village of Ville Marie on the Quebec side of Lake Temiskaming and almost opposite the town of Haileybury.

The mine was discovered in 1686, but nothing seems to have been done about it until 1860, when E. V. Wright of Ottawa chanced to come upon the mineral in a novel way. He noticed, when he took off his boots at night, that bright pieces of metal adhered to the soles and so he took a piece of the ore to Ottawa with him. About 1870 it occurred to him to have the mineral assayed and the result was such as to create considerable interest. Shortly afterwards, Mr. Wright, accompanied by J. M. Currier, of Boston, commenced work. They sunk a shaft about twelve feet, from which they took out ten tons of lead ore, which they shipped to the market. Nothing further was done until 1885, when George Goodwin, also of Ottawa, and G. P. Brophy, of Ottawa, sank the shaft fifty feet further, but no ore was shipped as a result of this work.

Robert Chapin of New York acquired the property about 1890 and established the first air compressor in Canada. Later the Petroleum Trust of London operated the mill for a number of years. In 1907, the property was bought by the present owner, Timmins-McMartin, who has operated it for a few years ago. The future of this mine will be watched closely by mining men, especially as

WHY ONLY NOW?

IN 1897 THE LAURIER GOVERNMENT in subsidizing the construction of the Crow's Nest Pass line by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, made an agreement with that corporation in regard to freight rates between the prairie section and eastern Canada.

The agreement was incorporated in an Act of Parliament and remained in force until this year, with the exception of a period during the war when it was suspended in order to permit the railroads to increase their rates.

British Columbia, however, did not figure in the agreement as a beneficiary in regard to freight rates. In 1897 we exported comparatively little to the Prairie Provinces, while the westward movement of grain and flour then was not a practical possibility.

Mr. Meighen declared here yesterday evening that the Government's action of retaining that provision on the statutes was "utterly indefensible."

He said it was wrong in principle and would breed sectionalism. The Railway Commission alone should decide the question without any reservation or interference by Parliament.

The answer is obvious. About two months ago Chairman McKeown of the Railway Commission handed down a decision putting westbound freight rates on grain and flour on the same basis as the east-bound rates.

Three days later the Government of Nova Scotia—just turned Conservative—announced in Halifax that it was going to attack the decision of Commissioner McKeown, granting concessions in rates on westbound grain and flour.

As long as the grain and flour from the Prairie Provinces was kept moving eastward there was no hue-and-cry about "western sectionalism."

No fine-spun casuistry can obscure the outstanding fact that if Mr. Meighen has his way the westward movement of Alberta and Saskatchewan grain and flour will be doomed.

DR. TOLMIE'S NOVEL ECONOMICS

SOME OF DR. TOLMIE'S THEORIES are certainly humorous enough in all conscience. He advocated a protective tariff just as high as that imposed by the United States in order that the home market for agriculture might get the benefit and expand accordingly.

the Prairie farmer, is the protection which Dr. Tolmie and his Conservative friends say he needs. Dr. Tolmie knows that there will be no exportable surplus of wheat from the United States this year.

AUSTRALIA'S DEFENCE POLICY

IN HIS MANIFESTO TO THE ELECTORS of Australia Premier Bruce outlines a proposal for an army of 150,000 men—almost as big an army as the peace-time army of Britain—and a naval programme involving an outlay of $30,000,000.

The Prime Minister qualifies his somewhat unexpected departure in the matter of defence at this stage of the world's progress with the statement that Australia "will make every practical effort, in consonance with the League of Nations guarantee of world peace, to bring about disarmament."

This is Australia's affair; but it is open to question whether Premier Bruce's "practical effort" to bring about disarmament will remain a practical effort as long as it is represented by an armament programme which would put his country in a stronger defensive position than it was before the real world menace was removed.

MR. MEIGHEN AND THE TEXTILE WORKERS

DURING THE COURSE OF HIS SPEECH at the Armories last night Mr. Meighen told his audience that thousands of Canadian textile workers had been forced to cross the border to follow their jobs into the United States because of the lack of protection for this business in Canada.

Mr. Meighen should know that the textile industry of the United States is the most highly protected industry in that country. Most people know that the textile industry of the United States is in such a bad way that it is on the eve of approaching Congress for a measure of relief that will enable it to get on its feet again.

The Conservative leader has not changed his tune. More tariff restriction is still his cure-all. He gives no thought for the consumer. It never occurs to him that every time the price of an article goes up, which it must do when it is protected if the manufacturer is to get a temporary benefit from protection, the wage cheque of the worker is not increased accordingly.

Speaking at the Armories last night Mr. Reg. Hayward, M.P.P., hoped the electors of Victoria would "put in a good hard blow for Canada and Conservatism" on October 29 by electing Dr. Tolmie. It will certainly be a "good hard blow for Canada" if Mr. Meighen should be given the job of running the country.

GOLD-MINING IN QUEBEC

At the present time Ontario produces something like seven-eighths of the gold mined in Canada. The district of Porcupine alone supplies 82 per cent. of the gold produced in Ontario, Kirkland Lake furnishing the rest. It is reasonable to suppose that in a few more years the Rouyn region and others situated to the south of Abitibi will make an appreciable addition to this gold production and will compete with Porcupine and Kirkland Lake, of which fields they are the geological extension.

PREMIER KING SPEAKING IN SASKATCHEWAN

Tour of Prairies Brings Him Into That Province; Heard in North Battleford

Urges Prairies to Increase Voice in Affairs by Electing Liberals

North Battleford, Sask., Oct. 7.—I hold out my hand in fellowship from the East and I ask you to clasp it. I plead with you for a larger voice from the West in the Government of our Dominion because I want to see a united Canada.

The Prime Minister, traveling eastward after his visit to the British Columbia coast, renewed in this town his Federal election campaign series of meetings in Saskatchewan.

Mr. King asked how it could be expected immigrants would come to Canada in view of the present Atlantic Ocean rates. Such rates, he declared, were due to a monopoly.

Describing the working of a party caucus, Premier King said some people talked of caucuses as though they were diphtheria. Yet the only way to carry on business was by calling the members together and giving them an opportunity to consult each other.

Mr. King appeared to anyone in the crowd to bring in a bill under such circumstances to hold up his hand. One man complied.

There is one present holding up his hand, Mr. King told the crowd laughing. "Perhaps he will get up here and tell us how. He might wish his bill in, but I can tell him that both he and his bill would be rubbed out as quickly as he would not know where it came from."

Your members may talk to you of the great influence they have had. I would like to see you, Mr. King, I can tell you Western Canada would have got a great deal more in the last three or four years from the Government if it were not for the Liberal following from the West to voice the opinion of the West.

NATIONAL PARTY. He described the Progressives as being split during half of the last session, one calling itself the "Ginger Group" with its own whip.

"Ginger," commented Mr. King, "may be a good thing for a horse or a baby. It is no good for a political party. What you want in politics is a national party."

On his way from Edmonton to North Battleford Mr. King spoke from the rear platform of his railway car at three different points. He declared the only chance of constructive had of getting elected in the West was in the three-cornered fights. He declared that if the position were reversed—if the Conservatives were in the three-cornered fights throughout Canada—he would be the first to want to get out rather than that the Conservatives should get into power.

The Government needed Western support, he said, because the West represented more distinctly than any other part of Canada the great basic industry of agriculture.

"We have a strong following from Western Canada, that will help us to work together unitedly. We will complete the Hudson Bay Railway. If though the line should have been completed before."

MOTHERWELL SPOKE. Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, said that as a result of the Order-in-Council instructing the Railway Commission to have regard to the Pacific outlet in considering equalization of freight rates, the commission had made an order extending the Crow's Nest Pass Agreement rates to the Pacific coast.

"You are getting the benefit of Pacific rates on your grain equal to the Pacific rates to Fort William," Mr. Motherwell said. "They are in force now. This Government has done that—this week, wobbly Government that was charged with doing nothing has done something in regard to the Pacific rates on grain which was never dreamed of in the making of the Crow's Nest Agreement."

At the present time Ontario produces something like seven-eighths of the gold mined in Canada. The district of Porcupine alone supplies 82 per cent. of the gold produced in Ontario, Kirkland Lake furnishing the rest. It is reasonable to suppose that in a few more years the Rouyn region and others situated to the south of Abitibi will make an appreciable addition to this gold production and will compete with Porcupine and Kirkland Lake, of which fields they are the geological extension.

STRIVES TO SECURE RETURN OF LIQUOR PERMIT CANCELLED

An appeal against an order of interdiction made by Chief John Fry, regarding the liquor control board to cancel the permit of John Pullen made to His Honor Judge Lammiman yesterday was returned until Thursday afternoon for the production of the order. Edward Williams appeared for the applicant, Claude J. Harrison, City Prosecutor, opposed the application. Application for the production of the permit was made by Mr. Harrison stated because of the quantities of liquor which had been ordered by the applicant, Pullen could, if he pleased, order 7 1/2 million gallons a day." Mr. Williams contended.

VICE-PRESIDENT RESIGNS FROM U.S. FLEET CORPORATION

Washington, Oct. 7.—Hutchinson I. Cole, vice-president and general manager of the United States Fleet Corporation, submitted to Leitch C. Palmer of the United States Shipping Board to-day in protest of his action in removing Leigh C. Palmer as president.

The clash between the shipping board and the White House was greatly widened yesterday when the board removed President Leitch C. Palmer from the office in January, 1924, at the instance of President Coolidge and had given his consent support.

The board elected Mr. Palmer as vice-president in charge of European affairs of the corporation, a position for which he had been selected when Mr. Coolidge caused him to be made president.

This offer, one commissioner explained, was only a mark of "courtesy" to Mr. Palmer and the latter declined it. When he put on his hat late Tuesday he walked out of his office for the last time as president.

The step was one further advance along the line of exercising full and complete control of fleet corporation affairs, a programme it had recently notified Mr. Coolidge it intended to carry out by rescinding the broad powers it had vested in the corporation head at his request when Mr. Palmer took office and by re-assigning the personnel of the corporation. The powers were rescinded last week.

Man Meets Death He Feared From Sting of Wasp

London, Oct. 7.—A remarkable case of a man's terror of wasps and the fulfillment of a belief he had for years that his death would surely follow a third sting by a wasp came to light at an inquest at Newport recently in connection with the death of William Robert Doney, forty years of age, an employee in a gas works.

His husband had a terror of wasps. Mrs. Doney testified at the inquest, "If one came into the kitchen he would change color and want to vomit."

Doney has been stung twice by a wasp, continued Mrs. Doney, and he had said that the third sting would be fatal.

According to the doctor who made a post-mortem examination Doney died from shock following a wasp sting. There was a small puncture of the skin in the upper forearm near the vein. All his organs were healthy.

The doctor said he knew of only two cases of a fatal wasp sting and in both cases the victims were stung on the head.

Asked if he could account for the man's apprehension at the approach of a wasp, the doctor said that a previous injection of a poison into the blood made the victim very sensitive in the future.

Commenting on the case, the coroner said, "It is curious that a man like Doney, who looked a picture of robust manhood, and capable of standing any physical pain or dis-ease, should be so abnormally constituted in some respects that the sting of a wasp had a lethal effect. That such a strong, hardy man should have died in this utterly mysterious and insignificant manner is something that the ordinary person cannot understand. He died as not one man in 10,000 would die."

A verdict in accordance with the medical evidence was returned.

POPULAR PLAYERS BACK AT COLISEUM GET BIG RECEPTION

"The Pink Lady," with Eva Hart in the title role, George Brydson's demonstrations of The Charleston, the bright music and Lionel Barrymore in "I Am the Man," again proved an acceptable bill of fare for the company after a short vacation. When George Brydson led the Coliseum patrons last night, Cordia's ovations were given to Eva Hart and George Brydson to mark their return to the company after a short vacation. When George Brydson led the company in a happy demonstration of The Charleston, which they all seemed to enjoy, the audience would have recalled them until even the athletic George could not have taken another step. "The Pink Lady" as written by Frank Allwood the author of Katinka, specially written for the Coliseum company, gives every member an opportunity to win laughs, and the laughs this week at the Coliseum are prolific. With the company so rich in singing talent now it is complete again, the audience were delighted with the many captivating musical numbers.

Filled with the "surge" of the sea and animated by one of the most attractive "pirates" that ever stepped in a 16-A slipper, "Forbidden Cargo," the latest feature picture starring Evelyn Brent, now showing at the Playhouse Theatre, Captain Joe is the character played by Miss Brent, and as the daughter of a bootlegger who feels that he has a legitimate grudge against the United States Government, she has one of the finest roles ever written for the screen. Robert Ellis plays the leading male role opposite the star, and Boris Karloff is excellent in his part.

CRACK ROPE IN THRILLING STORY AT COLUMBIA THEATRE

The greatest rider of them all, Yakima Canutt, world's champion rope rider and bullfighter, creeps like an avenging Nemesis through a thrilling story of the western ranges in "White Thunder," which will be shown for the first time here at the Coliseum Theatre to-day. Taking the part of a mysterious night rider who is running down the murderer of his father, Yakima has a splendid opportunity to indulge his world-famous horsemanship in sensational chases, relays, and break-neck stunts. This is undoubtedly the best picture which Ben Wilson has produced, starring the hero of the cowboy country, and Kinsley Benedict's story makes a corking vehicle. Neil Brantley proves delightful in the heroine's role, while the rest of the cast, which includes George Lessey, Lew Meehan and William H. Turner, are all fine.

THOMAS MEIGHAN IN ONE OF BEST ROLES IN CAPITOL FILM

Sing Sing, the unpopular home on the Hudson of New York crookdom, undergoes close scrutiny at the hands of Thomas Meighan and his associates during the filming of the star's latest picture for Paramount, "The Man Who Found Himself," an original story by Booth Tarkington, to be shown all this week at the Capitol Theatre.

In "The Man Who Found Himself," Meighan again has the kind of role which first endeared him with motion picture fans—an inmate of the model penitentiary at Ossining, N.Y. But this time he is not behind the walls to expiate his own wrongdoings, but rather serves in the place of a "respectable" brother whose "lifers" in Wall Street with money borrowed from his father's bank result in the fine's going to the wall and becoming criminally liable to the state.

COUDRAYE GIVES HIS FAMILY HISTORY

Gloria Swanson's Husband Says His Forefathers Were French Lords

Paris, Oct. 7.—Marquis Henri de la Courduyrie, Gloria Swanson's husband, when told yesterday his title was questioned in the United States, said laughingly: "After all, I suppose we are all descended from Adam."

"To have the title of Marquis," he continued, "has not caused me vanity. But since the point has been raised, here are the facts. I have authenticated birth and marriage certificates of all my ancestors since 1271, when a member of my family addressed a memorial to the King complaining his castle had been ruined by the late wars. The document is now in the Rouen record office—a sort of thirteenth century income tax complaint."

"My title actually is Marquis de la Courduyrie, conferred in 1707 on my fifth great-grandfather, then named Baron de la Palaise, by Queen Maria Casimira of Poland, at the time he was ambassador at Rome. This title is confirmed by several documents by Louis XV, especially one dated Versailles, November 22, 1766, countersigned by the King's secretary. This was the grant of the governorship of Fontenay le Comte, in Vendee, to Marquis de la Courduyrie, and in case of his death to his son, Count de la Courduyrie."

A LONG NAME
 "The title is re-confirmed by documents by Louis XVI and Louis XVIII. My patronymic name is Le Bailly, but I could add at least twenty-four other titles of small estates, under which I might live. I use the name De la Palaise because it is one of the great-grandfather branches of the Le Bailly family. De la Palaise is the only existing branch to-day of that family. So my entire name should be James Henry Le Bailly de la Palaise, Marquis de la Courduyrie. As a matter of fact, I am generally called 'Hank' in the United States."

An inquiry at official sources disclosed that at birth no child bears any title whatever if the father or grandfather is alive. Since the French Revolution no titles are legal in documents such as marriage certificates, unless the Government issues a special decree. Many noble families in France are in the same situation as the De la Palaise family, but the titles still are recognized among them, and false ones exposed.

In proof of his statement, the Marquis produced copies of the papers, with a Rouen notary public's stamp thereon.

"I am surprised my right to use the title Marquis has been raised," he went on, "and even more surprised that the question has arisen abroad, as my family was always established in France, and I am sorry I cannot go back in my genealogy beyond 1271, under the reign of Louis XI."

1925 Royal Academy Sets Near Record

Reuter's Special Dispatch to The Victoria Times

London, Oct. 7.—This year's Royal Academy has been one of the most successful on record both from the point of view of attendances and the number of pictures sold.

At Burlington House on closing day it was found that well over two hundred pictures were marked with the red disc denoting "sold." It is true that there were many important works which were unmarked, but in several cases (notably the late John Sargent's portrait of Lady Curzon) these had been commissioned before they were hung.

All the Orpens had been sold, including the so-called "problem" picture "Man versus Beast." The price paid for the latter, however, is not disclosed.

Of the figures which could be as-certainly, £600 for Glyn Philpott's "A Street Accident" was the highest. Sir Frank Dicksee's "Daughters of Eve" fetched £500, Sir John Lavery's "The Weighing Room, Hurst Park," £400, W. R. Wyllie's "The Nelson Touch," £450, De Glehn's "Hester," £350, Arnesby-Brown's "The Cloud," £350 and Gemmill Hutchinson's "A Ring of Roses," £250.

Drawings, engravings and etchings had gone only fairly well in spite of the fact that prices generally were marked low.

In sculpture there had been an almost complete slump in sales and many pieces have gone back to the

RUGBY CLUB TO BE DANCE HOSTS
Will Give First Entertainment of Season at St. Mary's Hall, Oak Bay

On Friday evening at 9 o'clock, Ivo Henderson's Orchestra will start up the strains of festivity at St. Mary's Hall, Oak Bay, with Art Kerr, noted as an amateur comedian, directing affairs and attending to the necessary arrangements which will insure a night of pleasure for all attending.

This is the first social affair to be given under the auspices of the Oak Bay "Oaks" R.F.C. Following the disbandment of the old Oak Wanderers, this club was formed this year, and it is the intention of the financial committee to stage a series of social entertainments to gain the support of the municipality which will be from 2 to 12, a little later, and the hosts promise something unique.

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB CLOSES ITS MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Membership Now Over 1,000; Miss Agnew Elected President by Acclamation at Meeting Yesterday.

Miss Kathleen Agnew was elected president of the Women's Canadian Club by acclamation at the annual meeting held in the Empress Hotel, yesterday afternoon, in succession to Mrs. H. P. Hodges, who retired after holding that office for two years.

Other officers elected for the coming year were as follows: First vice-president, Mrs. R. R. Taylor; second vice-president, Mrs. Peter McNaughton; secretary, Mrs. James Fletcher; treasurer, Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw; executive, Mesdames Perry, P. R. Brown, Angus Campbell, R. W. Mayhew, Gee, Herbert Pendray and Miss Lottie Bowron.

HEALTHY PROGRESS
Evidence of the healthy progress made by the club was given in the report of the secretary and treasurer, the latter noting a membership of 1,120, of whom 910 had paid up till yesterday, while the financial statement showed a balance on hand of $7,743.25. The membership showed a considerable increase during the past year.

REORGANIZATION EFFECTED
The reorganization of the association on a more permanent basis to bring into being more effective co-operation between the individual clubs and the association was reviewed. Plans were made for the establishment of a permanent headquarters at Ottawa, with a paid secretary for part-time work and the strengthening of a publicity campaign.

These changes would involve an annual expenditure of about $5,000, but the first year's maintenance cost would be covered by the usual fees from the affiliated clubs, with the addition of the balance in hand from last year.

CONFEDERATION JUBILEE
Another of the specially interesting projects which had been discussed at the convention had to do with the assisting of smaller clubs in the matter of speakers. The idea was to found a special fund for this purpose, which had Mrs. Hodges's hearty endorsement. Among the other matters referred to in her address were the suggestion brought in by Mrs. John Cooper of Toronto that some special recognition ought to be made by the Canadian Clubs in 1927 of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation.

Victoria had been paid a special compliment at the convention in the fact that the only two women elected to the executive were from this city, the reference being to Mrs. Hodges's own appointment to the vice-presidency and Mrs. J. C. P. Ryndman's to the executive. In conclusion, after speaking of the interest of the business sessions of the convention, Mrs. Hodges recalled the delightful hospitality of the people of Port Arthur and Fort William, who left nothing undone for the entertainment of the convention delegates.

At the close of her report, Mrs. Hodges was presented by Miss Cann, retiring first vice-president, with a charming cottage bouquet on behalf of the executive. During the afternoon solos were delightfully sung by Mrs. A. Dowell, with Mrs. Charles Copers at the piano.

ICE CREAM DESSERTS
Ice cream is a delicious ingredient of many desserts. Of course for these desserts you need only a small amount of ice cream—not half as much as if the ice cream were the whole of the dessert. A pint will be ample for half a dozen servings, or will even do for eight.
For one thing, there is less cream shortage. This is made by splitting rectangles of sponge cake, putting a good layer of ice cream between and pouring a hot sauce over the top—hot fudge sauce or hot maple sauce or some fruit sauce—fresh fruit cooked two or three minutes in a rich, thick syrup, for instance. It is really better to have this sauce not quite hot, but warm. A hot sauce melts the ice cream too quickly.
Then ice cream is a delicious addition to fresh fruit. Fresh sliced peaches served with ice cream are a real treat. A spoon of ice cream served with a baked apple lifts it right out of the ordinary into a really elaborate dessert.
You can make a delicious fruit sundae by putting a small helping of ice cream in each dish and then adding a big helping of a fruit combination consisting of cut-up peaches, pears, bananas and pineapple in a thick syrup well flavored and colored with raspberry or strawberry jelly.
Then, of course, there are pie-in-a-mode, always delicious. Fresh apple pie at this time of year is especially good with ice cream. Indeed, any fruit pie combines well with ice cream. And you can serve layer cake in the same way—a slab of the cake with a spoon of ice cream atop makes a truly filling and tempting dessert.
"I think, George," said Mrs. Binks to her husband, "I'll ask the people next door to have dinner with us on Sunday."
"Why?" asked the husband.
"Well, the butcher left their meat here by mistake, and it seems only fair."

What Would You Take for It?
To ask anyone how much they would take for their eyesight seems foolish, but a great many people are trifling away their most precious possession.
Why delay if you think you should be wearing glasses? Let us examine your eyes to-day.

HIGHER DUTIES ARE URGED BY MEIGHEN HERE

"The action of Parliament, and I have stated it in every province, was indefensible, the principle was wrong, it could never be applied, and therefore should not be applied at all."

AGAINST AMALGAMATION

He said that in 1920 the Government through its election campaign, lowering it does the esteem of that tribunal.

Mr. Meighen denied that he proposed to amalgamate the Canadian National with the C.P.R. He said that never in public or private had he uttered anything to justify such a statement.

He said that in gathering in the bankrupt railway five or six years ago he was opposed by Liberals, some of whom came out for amalgamation. "I never would dream of taking the line for amalgamation of the railroads," Mr. Meighen went on.

TARIFF ISSUE NOT DECIDED

Mr. Meighen declared that the public in the last election had its attention diverted from the tariff question, so the issue was not given a fair trial at that election.

By the reduction in the tariff on the implements of agriculture, he said the Government had not succeeded in reducing the price to the consumer, except in one case.

RIDICULES IMMIGRATION POLICY

"You hear about people emigrating, what are they going to be heard if you don't want that stopped don't vote for Dr. Toimie."

Fertilizer plants, he declared, had been closed in all parts of Canada. "We have 31,000 workers out of work or gone," he went on.

Mr. Meighen ridiculed the new "Spear-Head" immigration policy supposed to direct immigration in the Peace River.

BANKRUPT FACTORIES

Mr. Meighen recalled his statement some time ago that 2,938 factories had failed in the last three years. In the same time the United States had only half as many going into bankruptcy.

THEODORE EGGERS IS SENTENCED FOR ASSISTING ESCAPE

Pleaded Guilty to Aiding Break of Milo and Ariel Eggers in South

Two Brothers Were Held For Alleged Hi-jacking in B.C. Waters

With the conviction and sentencing of Theodore Eggers before a San Francisco court yesterday on a charge of assisting his brothers, Milo and Ariel Eggers, to freedom, is recalled the hi-jacking of the B.C. gas boats, Tullums and Haduel, for alleged piracy.

While Milo and Ariel Eggers were being led along a court corridor in San Francisco in January, a group of men and women, joined their guards and acid was thrown at the eyes of the officers. The guard in charge of the party fell in blinded agony, firing at the men to his knees.

Whether it was the jailer's bullet or not was not established but Ariel Eggers fell dead in the pistol duel that followed, while Milo Eggers made good his escape. Theodore Eggers and two women were sought in connection with the affair.

At the time of the escape Milo and Ariel Eggers were held for the B.C. police, and were on their way to an extradition hearing. Only a few weeks before Sergeant Bob Owens, of the Victoria Division of the force, went to San Francisco to receive the men into custody, but a technical hitch delayed the transfer, a fact that probably saved the local officer from injury in the acid blinding affair that followed.

Facing a charge of assisting the release of the two brothers at San Francisco yesterday Theodore Eggers pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months in the County Jail.

His sister, Mrs. Annie Brown, and an alleged accomplice, Joseph O'Brien, were given their freedom when the evidence failed to connect them with the affair.

Theodore Eggers is wanted by the British Columbia police for alleged participation in the hi-jacking of the Haduel and the Tullums, according to officials of the force here to-day. Efforts to secure the extradition of the man for trial here may be made at the close of his present term in the San Francisco County Jail.

Pachena D.F. Station Gains Another Honor

A chance incident Tuesday proved again the good work being done by the Dominion Government direction finding wireless station at Pachena. At 6:40 a.m. faint and badly mangled wireless signals from some unpracticed hand played with the fatal signal "S.O.S."

Wireless operators along the coast from San Francisco to Prince Rupert heard the noise and very little could be made out save that somewhere someone was in trouble.

Just at this juncture the operators at all direction finding stations on the coast tuned in on the signals, for the Canadian station is only one of several in the world, and all of them are doing useful work.

It fell to the lot of Pachena, however, to pick up the signals and place a destination mark on them. The bearing furnished by Pachena, a "snap" rough bearing, was flashed to the U.S. cutter, Bear, and the St. George Allen, near the Unalaska lightship, and they proceeded at once to the scene.

The origin of the misspelled signals was found to be a seaman on the lightship who in the absence of the regular wireless operator, was trying to call for help for the gasboat adrift in an open boat that had broken adrift from the side of the vessel. Through the prompt action of the three gasboats, which were highly unorthodox and almost unintelligible, Pachena and other "D.F." stations were able to pick up the gasboat adrift in the middle of the trouble, and so save three men from what might have been their death. The O.S. station at Tatoosh assisted in the direction finding.

SALMON PACK IS RECORD ONE IN B.C. WATERS

Vanouver, Oct. 7.—British Columbia's salmon pack is now in excess of that for the same period in 1924, one of the record years in the history of the Province.

Statistics published by the Dominion Fisheries Department show the total pack up to October 6 in the present season was 1,376,442 cases. Last year at the same date the pack was 1,373,535 cases.

All species of salmon show an advance over 1924 except pink, which had a light run in Northern waters.

Master Asks For Hatch Survey Here, Fearing Damage to Cargo

Pitched and Rolled For Two Days With Decks Awash

Running for forty-eight hours with her decks awash and great combers breaking over her quarter the N.Y.K. steamship Toyama-Maru docked at 11:45 a.m. to-day from the Orient after a rough trip. Capt. N. Erawa asked for a hatch survey as it was feared some damage to her cargo may have resulted from the seas shipped.

The Toyama Maru will put off 170 tons here before shifting this afternoon to Seattle. She carries a fine cargo of Oriental freights, and apparently suffered less than expected from her rough trip.

The Toyama Maru reached the storm about five days out from Yokohama and pitched heavily for forty-eight hours to follow as she ran through the outer rings of the storm centre and won free. In that time her crew had a strenuous time, but none were injured though many had narrow escapes.

Capt. N. Erawa is making his first trip to this coast as master of the Toyama Maru. Despite heavy smoke and fog off the coast the Toyama Maru was little delayed by her experiences and came straight up this morning with Capt. Charlie Harris as pilot. Fog was thick in the straits as the N.Y.K. liner rounded the Race and stood up for William Head. She made a fine landing at the Rithet Wharves in spite of the fog.

For Victoria the Toyama carried the usual run of Oriental merchandise including tea, porcelain, rattan and miscellaneous freights. She is posted to clear at 4 p.m. for the Sound.

HALIBUT TREATY SUCCESS REPORTED

Vanouver, Oct. 7.—The closed season on halibut, which was enforced for the first time last year under the halibut treaty between the United States and Canada, will be continued for the next two years in compliance with the terms of the treaty, according to a decision reached at the final meeting of the session of the International Halibut Commission, which was held here Monday. It will be from November 15 to February 15. Splendid progress was reported from the commission's investigations, more than 2,000 fish having been tagged and the earbones of 2,000 more having been secured. One hundred and fifty tagged fish have been returned. From the earbones of the fish their age can be determined.

PASSENGER LOST HIS SATCHEL

Oakland Passenger Mislaid Black Bag With $50,000 in Taxicab

The loss of $50,000 in certified cheques contained in a handbag misplaced on his way to the hotel by L. S. King, a passenger from Eureka who joined the Admiral liner Ruth Alexander at San Francisco on Saturday last and passed through Victoria this week for Seattle.

Shortly after the Ruth Alexander cleared from her southern docks Mr. King sent a radiogram to the police at Oakland stating he had misplaced a black satchel in which he carried the sum of $50,000.

The Oakland police trailed the missing bag to the point where King was seen to leave the hotel with it in his hand, and are now trying to find the taxi driver who took him to the boat. On the supposition that the bag may have been left in the car, meanwhile Mr. King, three States away from his home, is waiting for news of what has become of the black satchel.

Furness-Pacific Boats Will Make Four Sailings

Seattle, Oct. 7.—Four vessels of the Furness-Pacific line are expected here before the end of October. The steamship Northwest Miller is due Monday. The chartered steamship Halibut is scheduled to arrive on October 18 to load lumber for ports in North Europe. The motorship Pacific Trader is due October 19 to load a cargo consisting mostly of apples, and is to be followed on October 23 by the freighter London Corporation to load lumber and general cargo.

EXPLORATION CRAFT MAUND IS USED FOR DEBTS

Norwegian Expedition in Drift Across Arctic Ice Had Novel Time

Sleigh Dogs Ate Carrier Pigeons in Mistaken Zeal

Seattle, Oct. 7.—The steamship Maund, which returned here Monday after failure of a three-year attempt to drift across the North Pole, was yesterday attached for debts of $5,000 to the creditors of the Maund & Company and other supply houses, a United States marshal seized the Maund under a libel.

When the Maund after being frozen in over Winter north of Asia, reached Nome, Alaska, August 22, she was seized for a debt of $600 to the Standard Oil Company, and was re-leased when Norway put up a bond. Both libels were for supplies furnished the Maund before she set out from here in her expedition. The Armour claim, was dated May 29, 1923.

During the months of drifting, members of the crew flew kites to obtain the wind pressure and direction, and chopped holes in the ice each day to get the depth of the water and to furnish their expedition. This information was carefully compiled.

The men, and even Capt. Westing, personally took turns feeding the dogs and pigeons and performing the odd tasks about the vessel, preferring work to the monotony of idleness.

PEARY AT HALIFAX

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 7.—The steamer Vary, which arrived here late Tuesday en route to Wiscasset, Maine.

JAY GOULD BACK FROM HONOLULU POLO TOURNAMENT

San Francisco, Oct. 7.—The Oceanic liner Sonoma arrived on Tuesday from Australia via Samoa, Fiji and Hawaii with a large passenger list and a heavy miscellaneous cargo from the Antipodes.

JAY GOULD BACK FROM HONOLULU POLO TOURNAMENT

Prominent among the passengers arriving on the Matson steamship Maunaloa from Honolulu was Jay Gould, New York millionaire sportsman, who played in the recent polo tournament in Honolulu. The Maunaloa brought its usual large cargo of island products.

SLIGHT DOGS ATE CARRIER PIGEONS IN MISTAKEN ZEAL

Spare time was spent by carving ivory, doing embroidery and fancy rope work. Some of the finest pieces of fancy work were brought back by the explorers on the expedition.

SLIGHT DOGS ATE CARRIER PIGEONS IN MISTAKEN ZEAL

The whole crew worked on a miniature model launch, with an all-metal boiler and engine run by steam. The model was finished this year before the vessel was released from the Kolyva River ice floes, and was christened the Paula, after a sweetheart of Aviator Opdahl, the station of the United States coastguard.

SLIGHT DOGS ATE CARRIER PIGEONS IN MISTAKEN ZEAL

The dogs ate six carrier pigeons last winter, leaving only two, which were the mascot of the ship, and will be taken back to Norway. The Maund still has provisions. At no time were fixed rations necessary. All food was cooked in the open. Capt. Westing, with twenty years' sea service before starting the polar trip, will return to his home in Norway.

SLIGHT DOGS ATE CARRIER PIGEONS IN MISTAKEN ZEAL

The ship was in radio communication with Spitzbergen every winter from January to March, and heard a number of United States broadcasting stations. This year was published aboard ship, helping to break monotony.

SLIGHT DOGS ATE CARRIER PIGEONS IN MISTAKEN ZEAL

Polar bears were numerous. Twenty-two were shot by the crew. The coldest weather encountered was seventy degrees below zero. The farthest north the Maund drifted was latitude 77, longitude 146 east.

ALLEGED RINGLEADERS OF TONG SHOOTINGS SENT BACK TO ORIENT

Chinese to Number of 163 Were Taken in New York Round-up

Alleged to be members of New York gangs which have kept a shooting feud alive with considerable hatred in the last two years, 163 Chinese were on board the Admiral Oriental liner President Jefferson when she departed from this port last night for the Orient.

The Chinese were rounded up in New York police in a general drive which collected thousands of alleged long-men to the police station. The 163 Chinese deported were wanted out as the alleged ringleaders of the shooting affairs accounted for weekly killings in the American metropolises and kept Chinatown there in a state of nervous excitement.

The deported Chinese were placid enough as the Jefferson sailed from this port last night, under detention orders. They were brought across the continent under special guards and held in detention in Seattle until the Jefferson was due to sail. The deportees will be set ashore at Hongkong, their exodus costing the U.S. authorities the sum of $80,000, it is stated.

The Jefferson carried a good cargo and a fair passenger list on the start of her eastbound run last night. Capt. F. R. Nicholas carried the sum of $150,000, being detained at Seattle for late mails.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Liberal meeting at Gordon Head Hall, called for Friday, Oct. 9, has been postponed to a later date owing to the Liberal Rally in the Royal Victoria Theatre, the same evening.

Final reports and an audited financial statement of the Victoria War Memorial Committee at a public meeting to be held in the City Hall to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Charged with having opium smoking apparatus in his possession Lee Wong was arraigned before the magistrate in the city police court today but was finally dismissed owing to jurisdiction being the part of witnesses in evidence of importance.

On Friday night the annual meeting of the B.C. Historical Association will be held in the Provincial Archives, commencing at 8 o'clock. Major W. L. Shastart will contribute a paper giving a brief history of the Pacific station and the Esquimaux naval establishment, 1837-1910.

An enthusiastic meeting was held by the Debating Club of the Provincial Civil Service on October 5, at the club rooms. The election of officers for the ensuing year took place, and the proceedings were enlivened by songs from Madame Georgina Watt, Mr. Ingley, a recitation by Miss E. Mustard and a pianoforte solo by Miss Grey.

Dr. E. B. Paul of Victoria College has been invited to represent the University of Aberdeen, Scotland, at the opening of the University of British Columbia on October 16. The Scottish university which conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon Dr. Paul a few months ago, has requested him to be their representative on October 16.

Magistrate George Jay will be the speaker at Thursday's luncheon of the Rotary Club at the Chamber of Commerce, and will tell about the operations of Juvenile Courts, outline problems in dealing with delinquent lads and discuss playgrounds. Arthur Mallett will report on the boys' work sessions at the recent International Rotary Convention at Cleveland. Fire Marshal Thomas will speak on fire prevention. Transfer of the weekly luncheons to the Empress Hotel will be laid before the members in the shape of a questionnaire.

BOOK MUST GO TO PRISON, SAY AUTHORITIES

No Further Appeal Possible, Attorney-General's Department Holds

"We are proceeding on the understanding that the case is finally ended and that the law must now take its course," Deputy-Attorney General Carter announced this morning, in regard to the Boak case.

The next step, following the decision of the Court of Appeal dismissing Dr. E. W. Boak's appeal, is the issuance of an order committing him to imprisonment. Mr. Carter explained, this order of commitment will be issued as soon as the decision of the Appeal Court is formally filed. Preparation of the necessary documents is under way now, but this process will be delayed slightly by the fact that some of the papers are in Vancouver and some here.

When Mr. Carter was asked about reports that Dr. Boak's lawyers planned further appeals on his behalf, he expressed surprise. "My interpretation of the law," Mr. Carter said, "is that where the Court of Appeal is unanimous there can be no further appeal."

Mr. Carter added that habeas corpus proceedings could not be taken on Dr. Boak's behalf now that the Court of Appeal has ruled on his case.

INSTITUTES SHOW HEALTHY PROGRESS, FINE ACHIEVEMENT

Islands Districts W.I. Open Annual Sessions To-day

Delegates from all parts of Vancouver Island and the adjacent islands were present when Dr. Warlock gave the report of the secretary of the B.C. Women's Institutes before the delegates assembled in the second annual convention of the Islands district at the Parliament Buildings this morning for their initial session.

"The year 1924 has been somewhat unusual in several respects. First, the idea of a central institute, which was discussed by the first advisory board in 1911 actually materialized in April of this year; second, the Women's Institute exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, and third, the wonderful progress made in our treatment for the crippled children in British Columbia."

Sixteen institutes were formed in British Columbia, namely, Patricia, Squamish, Inxton, Happy Valley, Cedar and Shirley.

In the matter of home economics progress has not been as advanced as with other committees.

In the matter of night school classes, which were approved at last night's meeting, it being left in the hands of the committee to issue rules and regulations governing same. These have been adopted, together with the increased membership of the association, from the cottage to the professional. A communication was received from Cecil Ties, agronomist of the Department of Agriculture, announcing that the British Columbia Potato Show would be held in New Westminster about November 2nd and suggesting to the members the selection of their potatoes for this exhibition.

The association's thanks were tendered Mayor Penray, who, as honorary president of the association, for the promise of a silver cup to be devoted to the home garden competition of next year.

PACIFIC COAST NURSERYMEN MEET HERE NEXT YEAR

Victoria Gardeners' May Hold Annual Show in Conjunction With Convention

The Victoria and District Gardeners' Association held their regular meeting in the city hall last evening. W. J. Edwards, secretary, presiding, vice-president for British Columbia of the Pacific Coast Nurserymen's Association, addressed the meeting on the convention of that body, which meets in Victoria next year. It is thought possible that the annual show of the Victoria gardeners could be arranged to coincide with the visit of the nurserymen.

Additional competitions have been arranged to take place in conjunction with the association's regular meetings, which were approved at last night's meeting. It being left in the hands of the committee to issue rules and regulations governing same. These have been adopted, together with the increased membership of the association, from the cottage to the professional. A communication was received from Cecil Ties, agronomist of the Department of Agriculture, announcing that the British Columbia Potato Show would be held in New Westminster about November 2nd and suggesting to the members the selection of their potatoes for this exhibition.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S FUND

The outstanding accomplishment of the institutes in child welfare work in 1924 is the progress of the Crippled Children's Fund, $2,062.36 being received. Forty-one cases have been treated. The institutes are taking an interest in school grounds and military conditions and improvement of school grounds are much in evidence.

In immigration and settlement it is expected that the institutes will play a small part in helping to settle communities with British citizens.

The report urged the members of institutes to keep up the campaign for the purchase of B.C. products. In the matter of community betterment the great bulk of money raised is spent.

OBITUARY

The body of the late William Robinson is resting at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1225 Yates Street, from whence the funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the Rev. John Goodfellow, associate pastor, First United Church, will conduct the service. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

The funeral of little Linda Teresa Webb took place yesterday afternoon, at 1:45 o'clock, from the residence, proceeding to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where the funeral service was conducted at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Father Silver. There was a very large gathering of relatives and friends, and many beautiful flowers were received. The funeral care, as pallbearers: Messrs. Ronald Reid, Thomas O'Connell, Donald Klesinger and Desmond Murphy. The body was laid to rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

CHARGE WITHDRAWN

London, Oct. 7.—The charge of obtaining goods under false pretences recently brought by a large Oxford Street store against Mme. Gloria de Casares, London's "beautiful rum runner," was withdrawn in the Marlborough court to-day.

The original complaint was the purchase of an expensive gown, but no evidence was offered.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL

INQUEST DISCLOSES

C. H. Ellis Fell Fifteen Feet From Building and Broke His Neck

A coroner's jury sitting this morning returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of Charles Henry Ellis, who on Monday, while working on the new mill building of the McMaster-Horton Cedar Manufacturing Company Limited, on the Industrial Reserve, near Point Elliot, fell to his death from a beam, on which he was standing, but fifteen feet above the ground.

Ellis, according to medical testimony, suffered a fractured skull and a broken neck, from which injuries he died a few minutes after his arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Together with another workman, Ellis was in the act of lifting a heavy timber when he slipped and fell over the edge of the frame to the ground. His fellow workman called for help, at the same time clinging desperately to the timber they had been lifting, for fear it would slip and crush the fallen man.

After a short deliberation returned a verdict of accidental death this morning. The inquest took place at the B.C. Funeral Chapel, with Coroner E. C. Hart presiding.

CHINESE GIRL LOSES FIGHT FOR ENTRY AS NATIVE DAUGHTER

Lee Chow Ying, Back From China, Finds Canada's Door Closed

Lee Chow Ying, a Chinese girl claiming entry to Canada by virtue of birth in Victoria twenty-one years ago, was yesterday refused an order of release from custody of the Immigration Department. Mr. Justice Murphy, heard the application, argued by Stuart Henderson and T. M. Miller on behalf of Lee Chow Ying, and M. B. Jackson on behalf of the immigration authorities.

The application was based upon instances to the girl last July of a document permitting her to enter Canada, in the name of Lee Chow Ying, an official, Controller of Immigration, S. N. Reid. The Chinese girl arrived in Victoria on July 17 last, by the liner Empress of Asia, and is now at liberty on bonds.

Examination of Lee Chow Ying took place on July 17, and according to immigration officials, she was only allowed her liberty on condition that the examination for entry had been adjourned incomplete.

Mr. Justice Murphy refused to grant the application, on the grounds that the document permitting her to apply for registration had not been handed to her personally by Controller Reid, the examining officer, therefore the landing of the applicant had not taken place.

"The judgment of His Lordship is as follows: The affidavit of Mr. Reid, the Controller of Immigration, filed herein, and also his cross-examination, as a result, I hold that he is not, as Controller of Immigration, allowed the applicant to be landed in Canada. This view is confirmed by the record of the proceedings before me, which shows that the examination with respect to her status as an alien stood adjourned on July 17. It is true that he did allow the applicant to go to friends, and it is also true that one of his subordinates issued a document which would have been issued had the applicant been technically landed. As, however, the Controller himself was conducting this examination, no person other than himself, could technically land the applicant in Canada. I therefore refuse the writ in so far as it is based on this ground. If it is desired the case may be set down for further argument on other points."

CHURCH PROPERTY PROBLEMS AHEAD AT SYNOD MEETINGS

Presbyterians Suggest Joint Advisory Committee to Meet Commission

Rev. Dr. Clay is New Moderator of B.C.

Efforts to arrive at a solution of the problem of the division of church property arising out of church union created lengthy discussion at this morning's session of the Presbyterian Synod of British Columbia.

The discussion finally culminated in the passing of the following resolution, sponsored by Rev. Dr. Clay and passed by an overwhelming majority: "That this Synod appoint a committee of five to meet a similar committee composed of those who have entered the United Church to discuss those matters in dispute, with a view to enabling the commission which is to be appointed, under the Church Union Act to come to a just decision in all matters."

SOME CRITICISM

Dr. Clay, in supporting the motion, answering the criticisms of Rev. Mr. Mark of New Westminster, who charged that "the commission was a dead dog and as such should be let lie," inasmuch as no steps had been taken by the Government to appoint the Commission called for under the Church Union Act. Dr. Clay pointed out the difficulties attendant upon the appointment, and declared that the Attorney-General had given the assurance that such a Commission would be appointed. The proposed joint committee would act merely in an advisory capacity.

Opposition to the motion came from two lay members, G. Fraser of Vancouver and Duncan Campbell of Chilliwack, who were sceptical of the good that be achieved by the appointment of a commission in the first place, and secondly, by the action of any joint committee of Presbyterians and Unionists. As an amendment Mr. Campbell moved that the Synod appoint committee of Presbyterians to meet the commission and lay before that body the case of the Presbyterian Church and its property, but the amendment was lost by a large majority.

Following the passing of the main motion, the Synod endorsed the resolution sponsored by Rev. Dr. McBeth: "That in view of step now in progress to settle all matters now in dispute arising out of church union, this Synod feels that any legal proceedings now in progress on either side by stayed in the meantime."

MODERATOR'S MESSAGE

The following message of greeting from Rev. Dr. E. Scott, of Montreal, Moderator of the General Assembly, was read to the gathering and received with applause.

"I wish I could have the privilege of being with you to-day to receive and pass along to others the inspiration of your strong and loyal stand for the cause you believe to be right. But since our work imposed by Assembly denies me this privilege, I take the liberty of sending greetings and good wishes as you meet and plan to set in order the things that are wanting and ordain elders in every city."

"The Presbyterian Church in Canada has cause for thankfulness for the number of congregations that have voted to remain true, and have not concurred in bondage. And she has like cause for thankfulness for the minority groups everywhere who have resolved that, though losing their church homes, they too will be free, who refuse to surrender their liberties, their manhood and womanhood, and are banded together in maintaining their right to stand before God with none but Christ as 'dayman' between, who have lost their Church Homes but have kept their souls."

"The Presbyterian Church depends not upon buildings or estates, but upon charter or permission from civil government. She asks leave of no man to live, and at no man's bidding will she die. Whether two or three are gathered together holding her Scriptural doctrine and polity, her freedom of conscience, her right of private judgment, there is the Presbyterian Church."

"And where these great truths are sincerely held, we believe that Christ's promise is fulfilled. There am I in the midst of them. And where He is, whether few or many, whether in great cathedral or in borrowed upper room, may they hear His benediction, 'Peace be to you' and His 'Well done, good and faithful servant.'"

Rev. Dr. W. Leslie Clay, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and St. Andrew's Moderator of the Presbyterian Synod of B.C. at the meeting held at St. Andrew's Church last evening, Rev. E. D. McLaren, D.D., the retiring moderator, was nominated for the post by Rev. Dr. Clay and Rev. Dr. McCoy, but owing to ill-health the nominee declined to stand.

Dr. Clay's name was placed before the meeting by the Rev. Dr. R. G. McBeth of Vancouver, and was endorsed by the Synod amid hearty applause.

After an eloquent sermon by the retiring moderator, the business of the Synod was commenced. Rev. H. J. Douglas, pastor of Gordon Presbyterian Church, New Westminster, was elected clerk of the Synod.

Greetings to the members of the Synod, which includes all the ministers and representative elders in the Presbyterian Church in this Province, were extended on behalf of the Anglican Church here by the Right Rev. Bishop Schofield.

Notes of thanks to the retiring moderator, Dr. McLaren, for his excellent work as leader of the Presbyterians in British Columbia, was carried unanimously on the motion of Rev. Dr. McBeth.

INSTITUTES SHOW HEALTHY PROGRESS, FINE ACHIEVEMENT

Islands Districts W.I. Open Annual Sessions To-day

Delegates from all parts of Vancouver Island and the adjacent islands were present when Dr. Warlock gave the report of the secretary of the B.C. Women's Institutes before the delegates assembled in the second annual convention of the Islands district at the Parliament Buildings this morning for their initial session.

"The year 1924 has been somewhat unusual in several respects. First, the idea of a central institute, which was discussed by the first advisory board in 1911 actually materialized in April of this year; second, the Women's Institute exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, and third, the wonderful progress made in our treatment for the crippled children in British Columbia."

Sixteen institutes were formed in British Columbia, namely, Patricia, Squamish, Inxton, Happy Valley, Cedar and Shirley.

In the matter of home economics progress has not been as advanced as with other committees.

In the matter of night school classes, which were approved at last night's meeting, it being left in the hands of the committee to issue rules and regulations governing same. These have been adopted, together with the increased membership of the association, from the cottage to the professional. A communication was received from Cecil Ties, agronomist of the Department of Agriculture, announcing that the British Columbia Potato Show would be held in New Westminster about November 2nd and suggesting to the members the selection of their potatoes for this exhibition.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S FUND

The outstanding accomplishment of the institutes in child welfare work in 1924 is the progress of the Crippled Children's Fund, $2,062.36 being received. Forty-one cases have been treated. The institutes are taking an interest in school grounds and military conditions and improvement of school grounds are much in evidence.

In immigration and settlement it is expected that the institutes will play a small part in helping to settle communities with British citizens.

The report urged the members of institutes to keep up the campaign for the purchase of B.C. products. In the matter of community betterment the great bulk of money raised is spent.

OBITUARY

The body of the late William Robinson is resting at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1225 Yates Street, from whence the funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the Rev. John Goodfellow, associate pastor, First United Church, will conduct the service. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

The funeral of little Linda Teresa Webb took place yesterday afternoon, at 1:45 o'clock, from the residence, proceeding to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where the funeral service was conducted at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Father Silver. There was a very large gathering of relatives and friends, and many beautiful flowers were received. The funeral care, as pallbearers: Messrs. Ronald Reid, Thomas O'Connell, Donald Klesinger and Desmond Murphy. The body was laid to rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

CHARGE WITHDRAWN

London, Oct. 7.—The charge of obtaining goods under false pretences recently brought by a large Oxford Street store against Mme. Gloria de Casares, London's "beautiful rum runner," was withdrawn in the Marlborough court to-day.

The original complaint was the purchase of an expensive gown, but no evidence was offered.

RUSH SEAT MAKING

Was practiced at least 2,000 years ago. Stools and chairs bottomed with rush were among the property of ancient Egyptian Kings, when the possession of chairs denoted high rank. Rush seats were made in England in the 13th century when the fashioning of simple farmhouse and cottage chairs with plain ladder or spindle backs was a homely craft. Lancashire rushers are mentioned by Ben Jonson in "The New Inn," written in 1617. Whilst the framework of rush-seated chairs has been somewhat influenced by periodic styles, the actual craft of rush seating has not varied.

HELP PARTY OF OPTIMISM BOOTH URGES

Canada Has Choice Between Gospel of Confidence and Despair, He Asserts

King Foresees Great Future For Country; Meighen Talks Only Misery and Ruin

Canada has the choice between two leaders of diametrically opposite temperaments—Mr. King, who foresees for Canada a prosperous future and Mr. Meighen, who predicts nothing but gloom and despair, T. B. Booth, Liberal candidate in Nanaimo, declared at an enthusiastic meeting in Sidney last night. Mr. Booth came out strongly in favor of a policy of confidence in this country and against attempts to paint its condition as hopeless. He asked the electors to get behind a leader who believed that great things were in store for Canada rather than a man who was parading the Dominion with talk of ruin and misery.

Canada's wonderful resources of potentialities were touched upon by the speaker and her advantages of coastal trade. He stated that the greatest sea-borne trade of the world will be carried on in the Pacific waters.

"Canada is young in years and small in population as yet," Mr. Booth went on, "millions of acres of her land are still untilled. We must have population and we must have markets in which to market the products of the population. The legislation of the Liberal Party will enable Canada to compete in this world's market."

In discussing the tariff Mr. Booth produced statistics and figures which, he said, proved conclusively that a high protective tariff was robbing the country of money that should be going to build up her industries and build up her nation. The candidate went into details showing how everything, from the smallest to the largest thing, of the necessities of life was made higher priced than it should be because of the duty placed upon it. And this duty, Mr. Booth pointed out, did not go into the revenue of the country but into the pockets of the big manufacturers of the East.

FAIR TO ALL CANADA

The Mackenzie King policy is to frame a tariff that will enable Western Canada to compete with any portion of the East in fair competition, he explained.

Mr. Booth recalled C. H. Dickie's statements during his last campaign in 1921 that he had lost more than one fortune during his career as a business man, and asked if that was the kind of man in whose hands the business of the country should be placed.

In dealing with the Oriental question Mr. Booth said that one of the northern sections of this country the Orientals had a monopoly of hotels, restaurants and other business. Mr. Booth's firm stand regarding the Oriental question, and his assertion that if he is elected so far as he is concerned there will not be a Chinaman or Japanese in British Columbia called forth bursts of applause.

GIVEN OVATION

At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Booth was accorded hearty applause and the candidate expressed his gratification at the warm reception accorded to him by such a large representative meeting of the residents of Sidney.

C. H. O'Halloran said that the spirit of optimism with which the Liberals of the Nanaimo riding are imbued is well founded. The convention at which Mr. Booth was elected as the standardbearer for the Nanaimo riding Liberals, was conducted by six-time Liberals to be one of the most enthusiastic conventions ever held and since that convention organization has been steadily growing until to-day every section of the riding had its local association, who were working hard and faithfully for the election of their candidate, said Mr. O'Halloran.

A. McDonald, in a short address, drew attention to the fact that he being defeated four years ago, Mr. Booth had never lost interest in the Nanaimo riding but had done what the representative had not done, he had gone around among the districts learning the wants of the people and working for them.

"It," said Mr. McDonald, "Mr. Booth had done so much for us as a repeated candidate, we can reasonably expect service from him when we elect him."

Solos were rendered during the evening by Mrs. S. M. Morton of Victoria, Mrs. G. A. Downard accompanying the singer on the piano, the two ladies being tendered a very hearty vote of thanks by the meeting.

New Badminton Club Has Been Organized

At a meeting held this week in the Armories the Victoria Garrison Badminton Club was organized. The club is composed of officers and families of the Garrison and the R.C.N. Regulars, members of the active militia in Victoria and the members of the late Victoria Badminton Club.

Citizens of Victoria, and those living within a radius of twenty miles will be admitted to the club. The following will comprise the executive committee: Lt. Col. E. B. Eaton, Lt. Col. B. W. Browne, Major G. G. Aitken, Capt. W. Merston, K. Dennisson and honorary secretary, Capt. M. Plinter.

It is anticipated that play will start at the Armories by October 15. Play will take place on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7:30 till 10:30 o'clock and on Thursdays and Saturdays from 2 till 7 o'clock.

Any information regarding the new club can be obtained from Capt. Plinter, Work Point Barracks.

BASEBALL, CRICKET, HOCKEY, SPORTING NEWS, SWIMMING, GOLF

Ruel and Zachary Are Only College Players

Washington Has Few Men Who Went Far in School; Goslin and Rice Both Thought They Were Pitchers But Have Been Converted Into Brilliant Outfielders; Marberry Has Unique Job

Much has been written about Walter Johnson, Stanley Harris, Roger Peckinpaugh, Joe Judge and Osie Bluege, the main stars of the Washington inner defence, but the life story of the other members of the team has been overlooked in the desire to give details of the leaders.

Following, however, is a brief sketch of some of the Washington players who have not been given their "place in the sun":

RUEL: Harold D. Ruel, catcher, is one of the few college men in baseball. He is a graduate of Washington University, St. Louis, and is a lawyer.

MARBERRY: The role of Frederick Marberry, rangy Texan, with the Washington Americans is one of the most unique in baseball.

ZACHARY: Tom Zachary Jonathan Thompson Walton—to give him the name by which he was christened, is one of the few college players in baseball.

COVELESKIE: Pursuing the "comeback" which has earned him the title of leading pitcher of the league this year, Stanley Coveleskie, another product of the Pennsylvania academy, is expected to be the champion's mainstay in the title series.

SEVERED: After eleven years' service with the St. Louis Browns, Henry "Hank" Severed came to Washington early this season on a trade, and soon played an important part in the Nationals' campaign as relief man for "Muddy" Ruel.

REUTHER: Traded and sold among five major league clubs, Walter "Dutch" Reuther, temperamental southpaw and stormy petrel of baseball, finds himself counted on as a mainstay in the second world's series.

HARRIS: Joseph "Moon" Harris batted his way into the regular line-up of Washington soon after coming to the champions early this year in a trade with Boston.

SCOTT: Turned loose by the Yankees early this season after establishing a world's record of playing in 130 consecutive games, "Deacon" Scott, veteran of veterans, goes into his sixth world's series.

Contending Teams In World's Series

Hockey Fans In Niagara Falls Getting Their Tickets Early

JACK HOBBS, HERO OF CRICKET, MAY RUN AS LIBERAL

London, Oct. 7.—Such interest as might be awakened by a proposal to run "Babe" Ruth or Jack Dempsey for Congress in the United States has been aroused here by an invitation just made to Jack Hobbs, the professional cricketer who, in August, scored his one hundred and twenty-sixth century in the English pastime, to become a candidate for Parliament.

Vic Foley Matched With Los Angeles Flash in Seattle

Seattle, Oct. 7.—A boxing bout between Vic Foley, bantamweight champion of Australia and Canada, and Young Nationalista of Los Angeles, was announced here to-day for Tuesday night. Tommy O'Brien of Portland defeated Nationalista in Portland last night.

Rugger's Want Rain Before Opening Up

Grounds Are Too Hard and Victoria Rugby Union Is Forced to Postpone Opening of Season for One Week; Not Anxious to Court Injuries to Players So Early in Season; Three Splendid Teams Will Compete for Barnard Cup This Year

Although there may be a downpour of rain between now and Saturday the Victoria Rugby Union at its meeting last night did not feel like taking a chance on ordering the opening games scheduled for that date to go on.

Hard ground is not wanted by rugby players. They would sooner play in a foot of mud, as it makes the falling easier, although the fire department might be required to wash them off afterwards.

The various playing fields now are as hard-baked as dog biscuits. The absence of rain for five months has made it absolutely dangerous to play rugby on such footing is uncertain and in case of hard tackles bad injuries might result.

Three Pitchers In Position To Equal Record of Coombs

Coveleskie, Zachary and Adams Have Chance to Pitch Five Wins in Series

Review of Pitching Feats Performed in Former World's Series Given

Three pitchers this year have an opportunity to equal the world's series record of Jack Coombs, the mound marvel who came out of Holy College and established his record by pitching for the Mainland teaming Connie Mack's mighty Athletics to the highest place in baseball over a decade ago.

Coombs participated in three world's series, two as a Mack mound man and one as a Brooklyn hurler in the series of 1916 against the Boston Red Sox. He won five games and lost none to establish his record.

Oak Bay Caddies Play For Millbank Cup On Saturday

Forty Youngsters Have Already Entered and Keen Play Is Looked For

The annual caddies' competition at the Victoria Golf Club will be held at Oak Bay on Saturday morning next, commencing at 9 o'clock.

The competition will be eighteen holes medal play and full handicaps will be allowed. The winner will receive the Millbank Cup and will hold it for one year or until the competition is next played. He will also receive a miniature, presented by Mrs. Millbank, which he will retain and he will get a money prize too.

New York, Oct. 7.—Facing a new and persistent foe in nature, Dave Shada of California yesterday indicated that he was prepared to give up his three-year quest of the welterweight boxing championship now held by Mickey Walker of Elizabeth, N.J.

U.S. and Germany Are On Friendly Tennis Relations Once More

New York, Oct. 7.—Restoration of tennis relations between the United States and Germany was announced yesterday by the executive committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

English Battler in Draw Bout But Fans Thought He Had Won

Seattle, Oct. 7.—Jimmy Sacco of Boston and Pat Mills of England went to a six-round draw in the main event of to-night's card at the Crystal Ball. While there was little to choose between the work of the two, the crowd seemed to favor Mills and some of them thought he had a slight edge in the going.

Former Amateur Wins

Portland, Ore., Oct. 7.—Tommy O'Brien, the former amateur bantamweight boxer of Multnomah Club, won a ten-round decision from Young Nationalista of Los Angeles here last night. The fight was close, but O'Brien's superior boxing was the deciding factor.

MAD MEN'S LUCK

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM
Copyright 1925, Metropolitan Newspaper Service, New York

She leaned toward him, then suddenly drew back with a warning gesture. The door had opened noiselessly. Londe stood upon the threshold.

"I have a liqueur I am anxious for you to try, Mr. Brookes," he said. The young man hesitated. For a single moment a queer divination of evil seemed to oppress him.

A black gulf yawned at his feet on the other side of it Londe, impetuous, was reaching for it.

He had an impulse to fly from the house. Then he heard Judith's whisper, low and caressing, carrying with it the spice of promise.

"Go with him now, and return."

He followed his host into the dining-room. An old dust-covered brandy bottle stood upon the table and two Napoleon glasses. Londe served the liqueur with meticulous care.

"Eighteen-eighteen," he murmured. "Gold and sunshine—The best things in life."

Brookes drained the contents of his glass. He felt a delicious sense of fragrant warmth steal through his veins.

Londe drew another bottle from behind a bowl of roses, poured out a wine, passed it into a fresh glass and raised the glass to his lips and drained its contents. He saw Londe's face, sinister but triumphant, and then a hundred faces. A mist and a road. Afterwards nothing.

The morning was full of surprises to Brookes. He woke with an unusual sense of buoyancy, to find himself in his hotel bedroom, the valet moving about the room, laying out his clothes.

"Hullo!" he exclaimed. "How did I get here?"

"Monseur arrived home soon after one o'clock, the man confided. He was accompanied by an older gentleman."

Brookes felt absolutely no more curiosity about the events of the night before. He sprang out of bed, whistling lightly to himself.

From the moment he stepped into his bath he was conscious of a new light-heartedness which he seemed to accept as a matter of course. He shouted for his breakfast, which he devoured eagerly, dressed with interest and strolled out afterwards on to the Terrace, full of an exhilaration such as he had not experienced for years.

He talked to all his neighbors in the famous bar where he took his morning cocktail, and made several new acquaintances, and before lunch had won a trifle over forty miles.

Four o'clock found him at the Sporting Club. He stayed for a short time with a curious loss of all sense of excitement, but left the tables directly Londe and Judith entered.

"Winning?" Londe inquired.

"Yes, I've won," he admitted.

"What about some tea, Nurse Judith? Or shall we go somewhere and dance?"

"I've come to play," she told him. "We'll have some tea first, though."

Londe eagerly carried Judith away to a corner table in the bar.

He had lost all his nervous incoherence of the night before. He made open and unabashed love to her. He was eager, impetuous, almost compelling.

She, on her part, was all the time gracious. She at no time rebuked him, but he felt, somehow, or rather conscious of a barrier which had not been there on the preceding day. He refused to accept the possibility of his existence, however.

"You are an ardent lover to-day," she murmured, "but I have come to see you play. Remember you must win."

He suffered himself to be led, reluctantly, into the rooms. At seven o'clock he had won half a million francs.

"You must dine with me, both of you," he insisted.

"I shall have to go home and dress," Judith said. "However, I suppose I'll dine at the Hotel de Paris," Brookes interrupted. (To be continued.)

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily's Raincoat

Copyright, 1925, McClure Newspaper Syndicate

(By Howard R. Garis)

Something fluttered in the open window of the hollow stump bungalow one day, where Nurse Jane Fuzzy was helping Mrs. Longears, the rabbit lady, make pickled carrots. "Oh, my goodness!" squawked Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, who was a bit nervous on account of spilling some vinegar on her tail.

"Don't be frightened!" cried Uncle Wiggily's wife. "It is only Mrs. Squiggle Bug!" And so it was—the lady entering in and sitting on the edge of a chair.

"I thought it was the Woonzie Wolf blowing dried leaves in at us," explained the muskrat lady house-keeper. "But what is the matter, Mrs. Squiggle?" she asked. "You look worried!"

"I am worried," buzzed the bug lady. "My little boy Fitter is lost. He went out to fly in the woods and he hasn't come home! Oh, I am so worried, I'm afraid he is lost—gone forever!"

"Nonsense! I'll find him for you!" spoke the brave and kind voice of Uncle Wiggily, who, just then,

MERCHANTS ENDORSE NEW TRADING POLICY

J. T. Crowder, Dominion President, Secures Splendid Co-operation

Vancouver, Oct. 7.—J. T. Crowder, Dominion president of the Retail Merchants' Association, who is making a tour of Canada and who recently held an enthusiastic meeting in Victoria in connection with the fair trading policy plan, is securing splendid co-operation throughout British Columbia.

Resolutions are now passed and committee are now working in Nanaimo, New Westminster, Vancouver, North Vancouver, Kamloops, Armstrong, Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton.

Mr. Crowder speaks at Nelson today. The Association Growers of B. C. have endorsed the plan and promised co-operation.

AUSTRALIANS DEBATE DEFENCE

London, Oct. 7 (Canadian Press cable)—Great interest is being shown here in military circles at Premier Bruce's cable announcement of the proposals of his Government, if returned to power, for Australian national defence.

The five infantry divisions proposed, with their complement of artillery and air services, and the cavalry, would give Australia a standing army equal to the entire Australian force under arms at the time of the Armistice.

Hamilton, Oct. 7.—Rev. Canon R. Ferguson, Guelph, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Anglican Diocese of Niagara at the synod meeting here yesterday.

BRINGING UP FATHER

SCHOOL DAYS

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

What is the matter, Mrs. Squiggle? hopped into the bungalow kitchen. For he smelled, with his pink, twinkling nose, the pickled carrots and he wanted to taste them.

"Oh, will you really get Fitter for me?" asked Mrs. Squiggle Bug eagerly.

"Certainly will!" promised the bunnish gentleman. "I'll hop here and I'll hop there, through the woods, looking for Fitter and when I find him, as I surely shall, I'll bring him home to you."

"But hadn't you better take your umbrella, Wigg?" asked his wife, as the rabbit gentleman quickly hopped from the hollow stump bungalow. "It looks like rain!"

"No matter! I'll not stop to get my umbrella," answered the rabbit gentleman. "I must find little lost Fitter for his mother!"

"Oh, I hope he does find him!" sighed Mrs. Squiggle Bug and she was very sad, not even feeling happy when Nurse Jane gave her some candied cabbage with saffran flavoured.

Uncle Wiggily hopped here in the woods and he hopped there in the woods, looking for Fitter, the little lost Squiggle, but he could not find the small bug, who had pretty red spots on his yellow back.

And then, all of a sudden, while Mr. Longears was hopping amid the trees, the rain began to pelt down. Splash, splash, the drops fell all about, some even dropping on Uncle Wiggily's pink nose.

"Dear me! I should have brought my umbrella!" thought the bunny as he took shelter beneath a tree. "I am getting soaking wet!"

"Would you like a raincoat?" asked a voice in the tree over his head, looking up, he saw Mrs. Bushytall, the squirrel, mother of Johnnie and Billie peering out of her front door. For the tree was hollow and Mrs. Bushytall lived within.

"Certainly, I should like a raincoat," answered the rabbit gentleman, "but I would get wetter than ever hopping through the storm to a raincoat store. If you will permit me, I shall stand under your tree until the rain stops."

"You are welcome to stay," chattered the squirrel lady. "But it is going to rain all the rest of the day.

TELLS CHILDREN OF FIRE MENACE

Chief Vernon Stewart Enlisting School Children in Fire Prevention Campaign

Fire Chief Vernon Stewart has been visiting the schools of the city this week with a view to enlisting the aid of the children in fighting the fire menace. The appeal is a part of the Dominion-wide campaign for fire prevention week. Interesting talks have made an impression on the pupils of the schools and Chief Stewart feels that they have received a lesson in fire prevention and that they will help in the great campaign to protect life and property.

The annual loss of property in Canada and the United States, exclusive of forest fires, exceeds $500,000,000, and of this huge sum, Canada's portion in 1924 was over $45,000,000. Over eighty per cent. of these fires are due to carelessness combined with ignorance of fire hazard. Such fires are therefore preventable and all citizens are this week and throughout the year reminded to institute a systematic clean-up and inspection; to clean chimneys, stoves, pipes, and chimneys may be overhauled, cleaned and made safe for the winter; rubbish and inflammable material should be destroyed or removed. Safety first—never be the cause of an accident every tenant and property owner.

Fire losses in Victoria last year amounted to nearly $8,000,000.

These fires originate from sparks on roofs, cigar and cigarette butts, null burner, defective chimneys, rubbish near buildings, electric fire, hot pipes against wooden structures and children playing with matches.

Fire prevention is therefore a community problem. Fire causes suffering, want and unemployment, it interrupts business and destroys property and increases living costs, therefore fire prevention is good citizenship.

OVER MILLION CROSS D.C. - WASHINGTON LINE BY VED CAR

During Season 283,789 Automobiles Pass Through Seven Coast Immigration Ports

Seattle, Oct. 7.—That the annual automobile passenger traffic across the Washington-British Columbia boundary has passed the one million mark by a substantial margin is shown in a report compiled by immigration Commissioner Luther Weedin.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925, the report indicates 1,208,323 automobile passengers to and from Canada were registered at the seven immigration ports of entry. Of these, 616,578 were entering the United States, and 591,745 were Northbound to British Columbia. 283,789 AUTOS PASS

A total of 283,789 automobiles were noted, 138,305 going into Canada and 145,484 coming into Washington.

The report also shows a remarkable record of activity by the limited personnel of the immigration border patrol, which consists of twenty-three uniformed and armed patrolmen in command of Inspector Arthur Telford, with headquarters at Lynden.

BLAINE IS FAVORITE

The fact that 24,326 more passengers are shown entering the United States from Canada into Canada is explained by immigration officials in that many of them are persons returning from visits, and whose departure was recorded in the previous fiscal year.

Blaine bore the brunt of the automobile traffic, with 391,896 passengers to the United States and 35,592 to Canada. Sumas was next, with 177,746 to the United States and 151,701 Canadian-bound. Other stations come in the following order: Lynden, Port Angeles, Anacortes, Bellingham and Roche Harbor. $57,000 SEIZED

The border patrolmen, it is reported, seized automobiles valued at $23,000 and contraband and smuggled goods, principally liquor and narcotics, valued at $56,000. These were turned over, in many instances, to other government departments for prosecution and forfeiture.

Where it was not possible to identify the owners of the automobiles suspected of being aliens seeking illegal entry, of these 1,652 were reported, the balance being released upon establishing their legal residence here.

WAR POSITION OF EMPIRE DEBATED

Resolution Before Interparliamentary Union on Dominion's Neutrality Withdrawn

Washington, Oct. 7.—A motion which would have had the Interparliamentary Union, now in session here, go on record as favoring an agreement permitting any Dominion to withdraw from the League of Nations, was defeated by a vote of 10 to 9.

The resolution, which was introduced by the British Government, was supported by the United States, Canada, and several other nations. It was defeated by a vote of 10 to 9, with the United States and Canada voting against it.

Canada Wheat Crop Total Now Goes Over 400,000,000 Bushels

Winnipeg, Oct. 7.—Western Canada's wheat crop is now placed at 400,585,000 bushels in an estimate released here today by the Northwest Grain Dealers' Association. This figure is based on an estimated average of 29.3 bushels to the acre on 13,585,500 acres. By provinces the production is estimated as follows: Manitoba, 28,241,000 bushels; Saskatchewan, 25,518,000 bushels; Alberta, 125,225,000 bushels; and Ontario, 156,601,000 bushels. The aggregate estimate for oats is 302,653,000 bushels; barley, 55,355,000 bushels; rye, 9,220,000 bushels; flax, 6,395,000 bushels.

Wondered Why Breath Was so Bad

Brooklyn, Miss Rose Dittmar writes:—"Even though I brushed my teeth and used a mouth wash, my friends turned away when I talked and I wondered why my breath was so offensive, while people less careful were not troubled at all. After taking Carter's Little Liver Pills for a while the trouble disappeared. I no longer started to discompose. I was much clearer, my eyes brighter, my appetite more hearty and I had no constipation. Now I can see that bad breath comes from the stomach. Bad breath can only be dispelled temporarily. You must reach the source of the trouble. All druggists, 25c, red packages. (Adv.)

OAKUM FIBRE CHOKED METERS AND SAANICH PAID CITY TOO MUCH

Oakum and other rubbish, accumulated in the valve seats of the large meters registering Saanich consumption of Sooke water, caused overcharges by the city of more than $1,800 in August, according to Saanich officials.

The City Council recently passed a refund for this sum, upon the advice of Water Commissioner Preston, and were at that time informed that the over-charge was the fault of the Saanich waterworks employees, and caused by failure to check the water at intervals.

In returning the refund to Saanich Water Commissioner Preston reiterated his complaint and asked for closer inspection, in view of the water meters being owned by Saanich.

Reeve Macleod has drawn the attention of Water Commissioner Preston to the large accumulations of oakum and other detritus from leak plugging operations on the Sooke flowline, this material having been removed from the valve seats.

"Were it not for this carelessness by the city's workmen, there would have been no serious inaccuracies," he charges. The city is protesting the claims of Saanich for refund on the water bills of June and July last.

NEW MACHINERY TO HANDLE LANDS IN UNIVERSITY AREA

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried digestin, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your troubles—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic, just try the effect of a little Bismarck Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate or milk, but the pure Bismarck Magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or three compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated, heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little Bismarck Magnesia immediately after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated, heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.
