

"OUR TOWN" WINS CAMPAIGN FOR NEW EXPRESS TRAIN

Pennsylvania Railroad Puts On 5.40 P. M. Express From Broad Street—First Stop Narberth!

"Five-forty express for Narberth!" Were you in Broad street station Tuesday afternoon along about 5.38 o'clock, in time to climb aboard the new Narberth express?

What, you didn't know there was a new Narberth express? Well, the world "do move" as the old darkey said. The campaign for additional train service from Broad street station to Narberth—long about supper time, started by "Our Town," has resulted in the desired express train. The new service started Tuesday, and will continue indefinitely. Express to Narberth leaves Broad street station at 5.40, and no stop after you leave West Philadelphia, until the train reaches Narberth.

Therefore, "Our Town" takes this occasion to thank the Pennsylvania Railroad and every individual connected with the railroad company and every one not connected with the railroad who assisted in any way in bringing about the very much needed express train.

And at the same time we wish to say just a few words about the business of needing things and then making up your mind to work for them—and then working, and plugging and kicking until you get what you want. When this paper first took up the question of improved train service to Narberth and the series of letters stating the case, began appearing, it was common talk among some of our residents that it was all a waste of good ink and valuable white paper. What, the Pennsylvania Railroad put on an express train to Narberth? Forget it, they said.

But "Our Town" doesn't believe in forgetting things. There wasn't anything sensational about the campaign but it was persistent, and the question was carefully studied, and the arguments detailed in the letters addressed to the railroad company were intelligently presented.

It wasn't long before the case of Narberth began reaching those officials at Broad street who have the "say." And once considered, the arguments were found logical and actually to the best interests of the railroad as well as to the best interest of the people of our borough. Happy New Year, Mr. Rea.

DELTA SIGMA MINSTREL SHOW AND DANCE.

The Delta Sigma Minstrel Show and Dance will be held on Friday evening, January 5th, at 8.15, at Elm Hall. Tickets, 25 and 35 cents, at Howard's drug store, or from any of the members of the Sorority.

DINNER PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Moore, of 102 Merion avenue, on Saturday evening gave a dinner to the following: Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Moore, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Moore, of Philadelphia. The dinner was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Moore, who have recently returned from Bermuda, where they went on their wedding trip. Mr. N. T. Moore was formerly of Germantown, as was also Mrs. N. T. Moore, nee Miss Anne Hanson.

DANCE.

Miss Hilda Smedley entertained at dancing at her home on North Narberth avenue Saturday evening. The guests were the Misses Mildred Harris, Augusta Witherow, Estelle Cohic, Jane Laird, of Narberth, and Margaret Mayes, of Frankford, and the Messrs. Richard Zinn, Horace Kirk, Monroe Copper, Harry Hewlett, William Harris, Alfred Malleisen, of Altoona, and James Osmond, of Ardmore. They all returned to their homes after having spent a most enjoyable evening.

PREPARATORY PRAYER IN EVANGELISM.

All the epochal revivals of history have been preceded by prayer burdened hearts. This is the way to open the windows of heaven and the hardened hearts of men. Wilbur Chapman and Billy Sunday always require two months of prayer preparedness before beginning the revival campaign. The different denominations uniting in the meeting are requested to hold union prayer services, both in the churches and in the homes of the people. At Paterson Billy Sunday's coming was postponed for three weeks, but the revival began on the expected Sunday, in answer to the prayers of the united congregations, with nearly two hundred conversions on that day. Truly, we must plow by prayer if we would reap the mighty harvest.

Moses and Elijah delivered Israel by prayer. The Transfiguration and Pentecost were preceded by prayer. Prayer opens the sluiceway to the irrigating channel of the River of Life. Prayer connects the human with the divine, throwing on the belt of power that moves the machinery of all church organization in the salvator of the people. David Livingstone prayed for a revival all of one night before he was to preach on a certain Sunday morning. When the hour for service arrived, the church was filled with people and the churchyard was full of those waiting to gain entrance. It is said that five hundred conversions was the result of that single service.

If minister and members would get under the burden of the guilt of lost souls and cry with Moses, "Blot me out of thy book, but save this people," or with Paul, "I could wish myself accursed for Israel's sake," then a mighty movement of revival power, like the ocean's tide, would flood all shores and bless all the peoples of the earth.—From the Christian Herald, Dec. 27, 1916.

A NEW YEAR.

The year 1916, perhaps one of the most memorable of all times, has passed into history and the year 1917 has taken its place.

There was little to mark the change save the calendar.

That events of importance will occur in the lives of all during the year 1917 goes without saying. What these will be no one can foretell. Some will doubtless bring joy; others sorrow. A lot depends upon ourselves. It is comparatively easy for man to so shape his life that he will receive more of the good things of this world than the bad. But the fact should not escape him that what he sometimes regards as misfortunes frequently work out for his general good and that happenings which he regards at the time as blessings frequently turn out to be the reverse.

For most people, however, the year 1917 will probably not be unlike that of its predecessor. The usual amount of joys and sorrows will be their lot and the customary habits will be pursued, despite hastily conceived New Year's resolutions on the part of some.

On the other hand, it is highly commendable to start the New Year right, even though few succeed in living up to their resolutions throughout the year.

IMPORTANT ANNUAL DINNER.

On Monday evening, February 12 (Lincoln's Birthday), the annual dinner given by the citizens of Narberth to the active members of the fire company will be held.

The first annual dinner given for this cause was held last year, and, as you will remember, it was a great success. The committee for the coming event is planning to make this year's affair a greater success than before. The committee is as follows: Mr. J. Howard Wilson (chairman), Mr. Carden Warner, Mr. Frank Zentmyer, Mr. Tristan B. DuMars and Mr. Frederick L. Rose.

MINSTREL SHOW AND DANCE.

On Friday evening, January 5, the Delta Sigma Sorority will give a minstrel show and dance.

Look later for further particulars.

THE FIRESIDE

Betty Baxter's Gossip.

The Delta Sigma and Chi Pi dances were both great successes.

Do not forget the Delta Sigma Show and Dance on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Witherow entertained at dinner on New Year's Day.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Town, on New Year's Day entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Joyce.

Mr. and Mrs. William Livingston, of Essex avenue, spent the week's end at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk will close their house for the winter and go into the Walton Hotel.

Mrs. William S. Horner, of Narberth avenue, entertained informally last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Donnelly, of Woodside, entertained at bridge last Saturday evening.

Miss Olive Polhemus, of South Narberth avenue, has fully recovered from an attack of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haight, of Windsor avenue, are entertaining Miss Suter, of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Miss Margaret Henderson, of Chambersburg, was the guest of Miss Marion Haws over New Years.

Mrs. A. K. Siler entertained her Philadelphia card party at her home on Wynnewood avenue last Tuesday.

Ben Durbin, who is now a traveling salesman for the Dennison Paper Company, spent Christmas with his family here.

Mr. Carroll Downes, Jr., returns to Dartmouth College on Tuesday, after spending the holidays with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hunter, of 105 Merion avenue, have been entertaining Miss Kathryn Morgan for a few days.

A family dinner party was given Christmas Day by Mr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Pollock, Jr., at their home in Narberth.

The many friends of Edward Muschamp, Woodside avenue, were pained to learn of the recent bereavement of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Connell, of 26 Woodside avenue, spent New Year's Day with Mrs. Connell's mother in West Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirk, of Wynnewood avenue, spent New Year's Day with Mrs. Kirk's mother, Mrs. N. Rowand, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Miller and daughter Anita, of Stewart and Dudley avenues, spent New Year's Day with relatives in Baltimore.

The following are leaving Narberth for college: Estelle Cohic, Hilda Smedley, Bertha Redifer, Girard English and Marion Haws.

Two boys, Earnest and William Bailey, of Girard College, spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Haws, of Dudley avenue.

How Express Service to Narberth Was Accomplished.

In each of three recent issues of Our Town there appeared an open letter to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, signed "Progressive."

The writer of these letters was Mr. H. R. Hillegas, of Elmwood avenue, Narberth. Mr. Hillegas appreciated what a valuable asset such express service would be to the borough. He investigated the matter and learned that Narberth formerly enjoyed express service in years gone by, but at present, was not getting the proper service consistent with the borough's growth, compared with the service which the railroad was giving to the nearby Main Line towns.

These letters were brought to the notice of the officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and a meeting was effected between the officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Mr. Hillegas and the Editor, which culminated in the Pennsylvania Railroad Company putting on the 5.40 express, details of which are given elsewhere.

This paper, as well as everyone in Narberth, appreciates this splendid achievement, and Our Town is to be congratulated on being the medium through which "something big" was done for Narberth.

We are also greatly indebted to Mr. W. H. Cohic, of Narberth, and Mr. M. M. Smith, both of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for their co-operation in our behalf.

ANNUAL SUFFRAGE MEETING FRIDAY

To Elect New Officers and Hear Reports on Work of 1916

All local suffragists will be especially interested in the annual meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Woman Suffrage party, which will be held on Friday, January 5, at 3 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Edward A. Muschamp, 24 Woodside avenue.

New officers will be elected for the ensuing year. The Nominating Committee, consisting of Miss Fannie Loos, Miss Anna Mackeag and Mrs. Charles Verna, has selected a number of candidates for the various offices. However, at the meeting, an opportunity will be given the members to name additional nominees from the floor.

Reports of the work done during 1916 will be submitted by the retiring officers.

Mrs. Mary Snyder, acting chairman of Montgomery county, will be present.

All members of the organization are urged to attend this very important meeting.

Annual Business Meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Women's Suffrage Association.

Mrs. E. Muschamp will be hostess to the members and friends of the Narberth Branch of the Women's Suffrage Association, on Friday, January 5, at 3 P. M. Annual election of officers.

TEACHERS' RESOLUTIONS.

Ask Legislature to Increase Appropriation to $18,000,000.

Pennsylvania needs "better and greater educational facilities," according to the teachers of Lower Merion township, who have adopted resolutions asking the Legislature to increase the biennial appropriation for public education to $18,000,000.

DIRECTORS OF THE Y. M. C. A.

Postponement of the Regular Meeting.

Mr. Charles W. Schaeffer, general secretary of the Narberth Y. M. C. A., announces that the regular meeting of the Board of Directors, postponed from the first Monday of the month (New Year's Day), will take place on Monday, January 15, at 7.30 P. M.

Directors will note that this is immediately preceding the annual meeting of the association, already announced in Our Town, which takes place the same evening at 8 o'clock. For this reason, promptness in attendance by the directors is essential, in order that there may be no delay in getting through with routine business, in time for the general meeting. Owing to the lack of room the Y. M. C. A. treasurer's report will be published next week.

COMMUNICATIONS

Editor of Our Town.

The wit and wisdom of the "Cub" are certainly worthy of high praise, but a writer of his marked ability should be made to write at least two columns each issue.

Will you please put this suggestion up to him, and if he does not come across, threaten to refuse his offerings. This will no doubt weaken him, and then we readers of Our Town will get enough good humor to last us from one edition to another.

By all means, Mr. Editor, do not take the joy out of Our Town by telling anybody who the "Cub" is.

We know he must look like Chauncey Depew or he could not write as he does. However, that is far enough—let his name remain an unsolved mystery.

FIRST NARBERTH EXPRESS.

Editor of Our Town:

It was a genuine pleasure to me last Tuesday at 5.38 to hear a gateman in the Broad Street Terminal call out: "Express to Paoli—First Stop Narberth" and to look up at the sign to reread the gateman's call and the time of departure—5.40.

I knew that the fair-minded, dignified series of letters you had printed had had the proper effect—that, because these letters stated facts, the P. R. R. officials had yielded to the demand of a large group of its patrons for a slightly improved service.

Personally, I thank "Our Town" for its service to residents of Narberth. For over eighteen years towns beyond us on the Main Line have enjoyed express service and have not contributed anywhere near as many "steady users of the service." While I feel grateful to the P. R. R. officials for their action, I can't see why they did not recognize the need of their own accord sometime ago.

Hats off to "Our Town" for attracting attention enough to get action. Now, let's push the tunnel and station plans!

EMERGENCY PHONE CALLS
Fire 350.
Police 1250.

Accept our thanks, officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad, for granting us our first express train last Tuesday evening at 5.40 P. M. Although unannounced until time of leaving, Narberthites crowded the train until many had to stand in the aisles. And every Narberthite who rode on this first express is a genuine booster for the P. R. R. Each one was enthusiastic over your favorable action on our just request. We believe you will find that it "pays" to please your patrons just as it pays any reliable business to give service.

The old adage: "Many a good thing is lost by not asking for it," is well illustrated by the addition of a 5.40 P. M. Narberth Express to our timetable. What is worth having is worth asking for.

Now is the time when the good resolutions, made at the close of last year, will be put to the severest test. If they can stand the strain of the first few weeks, the chances are they will hold out to the end.

What have you done personally toward helping strengthen our Y. M. C. A.? Do not forget that every new membership counts heavily. Your property is made more valuable by reason of the Y. M. C. A. It is an institution that reflects on the whole town. Won't you do your little bit, gentle reader?

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town.

I took a trip to the CITY last week—don't ask foolish questions, there's only one CITY. I only spent a few hours there and hence the report of my visit must necessarily be short.

The first thing that impressed me was the little trolley cars that run up and down Broadway. I tried to figure out why they made them so low and have come to the conclusion that their reason for existence is that the streets are frequently blocked and pedestrians can readily jump over the little cars, which would not be possible with cars of normal size.

I thought that the finest building I saw was the Pennsylvania Railroad Station. The Grand Central is also a handsome structure, but is not to be compared with the former for beauty. But in one thing the Grand Central has the advantage, and that is in the matter of convenience for passengers. If a man arrives at the P. R. R. Station two minutes before train time, it isn't a certainty that he is going to catch his train as he has a long way to go to reach the train shed. On the other hand, he can arrive at the Grand Central half a minute before train time and have plenty of time to buy his ticket and catch his train.

It seemed to me that several million people were all rushing around trying to find places of amusement, and I wondered why some of them didn't stay home. I asked one man if anybody ever stayed at home in the CITY and he said: "No, nobody has a home. I pay $10,000 a year for a flat and still feel homeless." This accounts for the number of theatres and their apparent prosperity. It also may account for the fact that when a really successful show comes to Philadelphia it is pretty well frayed out.

I tramped around looking for a cigar store and saw only those of the United Cigar Stores Company. Almost gave up trying to find any other when suddenly I saw the sign of Godfrey S. Mahn, our well known Chestnut street tobacconist. His big CITY store is probably not run by a Philadelphian, because, when I made known the fact that I came from Narberth, he asked me whether it was on the Erie or the B. & O.

The crowd was so dense at Broadway and Forty-second street that, in comparison, Broad and Chestnut streets on election night would be about as populous as the South Pole on New Year's eve. I looked almost in vain for a Gentile, however. I finally did discover one and asked him if he were a native. He replied in the negative, stating that he was a farmer from Westfield, N. J.

I noticed particularly the absence of change purses such as we Philadelphians carry, but found out later that change purses in the CITY are unnecessary, because over there no one ever gives you back any change.

I stood in front of the Woolworth Building and tried to see the top of it, but had such a cramp in the back of my neck that I had to give up. Finally a passerby suggested that I lie on my back and look up in the air, which I did. You will notice that the word lie has more than one meaning.

All the methods of transportation in the CITY are novel to me. Not only did the small trolley cars surprise me, but the subways and super-elevated were amazing to one who has traveled so little. The super-elevated, by the way, at night looks something like what I imagine a Zeppelin would to anybody seeing it for the first time, particularly at night. It seemed to me that every prominent street in the CITY was torn up and if it is really the intention to build a network of subways, I wonder if there will be anybody left to promenade the streets.

The last thing I saw was the Statue of Liberty, and from it I got the impression I was at liberty to go home, which I immediately did. If the CITY is ever finished, I hope to go back there again, but in the meantime Narberth is good enough for me.

If you have one or more youngsters in the house, this is the time of year when you are kept busy repairing broken toys or trying to make some of those mechanical contrivances operate as they did when demonstrated in the department stores, but you might as well save your time. Most of this stuff will be in the rubbish heap in another week. Don't consider the money wasted, however. If you had a pleasant Christmas, hang the cost.

Some devoted, or perhaps I should say obedient, husbands have been wearing their Christmas gift neckwear, and I notice that the poor sufferers are turning up their coat collars to hide the rainbow effects. The day after Christmas the station looked like a mummies' parade. And then there are the fellows who wear yellow neckties, advertising the fact that they have married suffragettes—but they deserve their fate.

A prominent and highly respected lady of Narberth went into Ricklin's for some wire nails. Hyman asked her whether she wanted 2, 4, 6, 8 or 10 penny nails. She replied that she wanted the best and would therefore take the 10 penny.

Can't someone tell "Pop" Creamer when the prize for the best kept garden will be awarded? He needs the money. Japanese Cherry Wohlert please get busy.

When a Paoli local leaves Broad Street Station these days, the crew say "goodbye" to their families, promising to write, however. Even Bill Cohic has given up traveling on the P. R. R. since the schedule was lost a month ago. Bill now thinks the B. & O. is a fine road.

There were a lot of "12 o'clock Devils in a 9 o'clock Town" last Saturday night.

During a party at Duff's last Saturday night, some jokers (?) stole the ice cream. A cheap, mean, dirty trick. These funny (?) ducks will get caught one of these days and go to jail, where they belong.

That guy that says I look like Chauncey Depew doesn't flatter either of us. Now if Citizen Fix-It will arrange to transfer some of Chauncey's wealth or intellect to me, I won't resent his comparison between our ages. Chauncey's a bear. I am only a Cub.

The pastor will conduct the prayer service Wednesday evening in the lecture room. The regular monthly meeting of the Official Board will be held after the meeting.

New Scholars.

Two new scholars joined the school on Sunday. During fourteen consecutive Sundays the enrollment has been increased by fifty-three. Of these forty-two are in the main school. By another rearrangement of classes enough room has been secured to provide for the comfort and instruction of all. The especially equipped primary department has been further beautified with several new pictures.

Watch Night Echoes.

The church was crowded. Never did a four hour service seem so short. The musical numbers furnished by the choir were unsurpassed. Mr. Bartholomew's address at the consecration service was most practical and personal. Almost one hundred remained to see the new year in. When the call for prayer was given by the pastor the chancel and front benches were crowded by earnest petitioners praying that Narberth may have a great revival. Such a scene has not been experienced here in years. The Watch Night service of 1916 will ever remain a most refreshing memory.

It is expected that the union evangelistic meetings to be conducted by Dr. H. A. Deper will begin in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening, January 21st, 1917.

spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Keim, of Dudley avenue.

Our Town understands that a number of Narberthites have recently joined the Bon-Air Country Club near Llanerch and will become devoted followers of Colonel Bogey.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Fowler, of Windsor avenue, gave a dinner party on New Year's Day in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone and family, of Cynwyd, and Mrs. Elliott, of New York.

Montgomery County Court was informed Saturday that an agreement had been reached by Montgomery county and Lewisville and Prospectville Co. whereby the county was to pay the company $14,100 for the pike, which is to be freed of tolls.

Miss Mary Nolen entertained at tea on Friday last the following: Miss Marion Haws, Miss Nellie Cooke, Miss Ruth Haws, of Narberth; Miss Helen Grant, Miss Marion Grant, of Overbrook; Miss Dorothy Harrington, Miss Norma Stine, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. P. L. Piggott and son Clayton, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Arthur Cole and Miss Bertha Piggott, of Woodside avenue, during the Christmas holidays, returned to their home in North Chelmsford, Mass., on New Year's Day. Mr. P. L. Piggott is continuing his visit for another week.

The Montgomery County Court has been petitioned to appoint Kane S. Green, of Bryn Mawr, as a member of the Board of Lower Merion township Commissioners, in the East Bryn Mawr district, to succeed William Twells Tiers, who resigned. Mr. Green is a son of Captain John P. Green, a former vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He is not opposed. The Court will act on the petition next Tuesday.

The Narberth Fortnightly met at the home of Mrs. A. Lincoln Jacoby, Iona avenue, Narberth, Friday afternoon. The discussion on Central America was followed by tea and a general good time. Those present were: Mrs. A. Percy Redifer, Mrs. Augustus Loos, Mrs. Frederick Harjes, Jr., Mrs. John Van Ness, Mrs. W. S. Andrews, Mrs. Otlee Jackson, Mrs. John Gilroy, Mrs. S. Scharoth, Mrs. Walter Smith, Miss Barbara Shand, Miss Bird Roberts, Miss Anna MacKeag and Miss Cornelia Woodie.

At the Community Bible Study Class Tuesday evening, January 9th, the leader, Rev. H. S. Tillis will take up the study of Christ's second coming. This announcement will doubtless interest many who are not regular attendants. As the name of the class indicates, the sessions which last from 8 to 9 P. M. are open to every one in our borough and community, and are held in the Y. M. C. A. Building. Those who have derived so much benefit from the 1915 and 1916 studies are hoping 1917 will record an even larger group.

The Christmas business at the Narberth Post Office exceeded that of any year in the history of our town. The force of clerks worked valiantly in order that every one might receive their mail before or on Christmas Day, provided it arrived in Narberth in time. 4159 parcels were given out at the Arcade sub station, and 2000 (estimated) at the post office. There was a 15 per cent. increase in the sale of stamps in 1916 over the year 1915. Sales for the corresponding quarters were as follows:

	1915.	1916.
Quarter ending March 31	$1639.86	$2088.72
June 30	1909.80	1870.01
September 30	1547.49	1912.51
December 31	2455.45	2814.41
	$7552.60	$8685.65

SCHOOL NOTES

Motto:
Without halting, without rest,
Lifting better up to best.

The Alumni Association of the Narberth Public Schools held its Xmas meeting on Wednesday evening, December 27, in the school auditorium. After an evening of informal entertainment, refreshments were served.

The new desks which we have been expecting have arrived, making it possible for every pupil to have a desk.

Miss Wetherill, our first grade teacher, reports thirteen new pupils enrolled at the first of the year.

From the office we learn that Smith College has granted Narberth High School certificate rights. This adds another first rank college to the list of those granting certificate privilege to our High School.

We started the New Year well with our opening exercises on Tuesday morning. They were most interesting. After the devotional exercises, Mr. Melchior gave us a hearty welcome and best wishes for a successful New Year. Carroll Downes, Jr., '16, gave a short talk on how to boost our school that put some "pep" into a good many of us.

Fifteen members of the Narberth Faculty registered as members of the State Teachers' Association.

Physical Culture.

This Friday at 3.30 P. M. the Narberth High School basket ball team meets Jenkintown five on the Y. M. C. A. floor. Jenkintown has a strong team and they are coming here to win. But our boys have been busy, and, as their victory over Darby shows, are beginning to play ball. We hope to have all out to root for the team.

The girls' basket ball team has been busy the last few months and is in good shape to begin its schedule next week. They are in for victories and are going to play their hardest to win every game.

A WORD TO THE NEW RESIDENTS

For the information of the lately arriving residents of Narberth we announce again that to purchase postage stamps and stamped envelopes in the local post office is of great advantage to the office as its advancement is based upon the sales. We aim to be courteous and obliging. We also want to do business with our patrons. Edward S. Haws, Postmaster.

Howard Needs Your Opinion

Narberth has endorsed this establishment—decidedly, unequivocally and generously. That's plain to everyone—it's beyond question or dispute. Our store is double its pristine size—our business left its swaddling clothes long before the time anticipated by our fondest—our very fondest—(if Mr. Melchior won't object)—expectations. And how have we proved our appreciation of this most whole-hearted endorsement—this signal tribute of a discriminating and discerning community to a well-defined merchandising-service idea? Have we kept pace with the developing needs and requirements of people who are progressing constantly—have we anticipated to the ultimate degree the ever-upward trend of a spirit which is bound to make vast changes in Narberth a few years hence? We are hopeful that we have.
 Our customers say we have. The town's investors encourage us to go on. We want to know what you think. We need and welcome your opinion.

Boys' Department Activities are increasing rapidly in the Boys' Department, especially in the gymnasium.
 As an outcome of the basket ball meeting held on Thursday night last, there are now enough boys to select two teams. Mr. Schaeffer had a try out of the teams on Friday afternoon and the boys did great work for the first time, so that it is his hope to stage a game with an outside team soon, so watch the bulletins.

 How about it? Have you seen Mr.
 Frank Winne or Mr. Schaeffer about the pool tournament? If not, better get in line and sign up now.
 It will be a handicap tournament so that the inexperienced fellow will have as much chance to win as the expert.
 The tables have all been put in first-class order and everything is in prime condition. Prizes awarded.
Special Announcement
 Business men are requested to turn out strong this Wednesday night as this will be the first night for the men under Mr. Schaeffer's instruction.
 The exercises will be systemized and graded so that everyone will be benefited.
 Volley ball game will follow exercises.
 Make it a banner night and tell your friends about it.
 Don't overlook the fact that the Young Men's Christian Association of Narberth is of convenient location, courteous service and conservative management.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R. EXPRESS SERVICE TO NARBERTH
 To the Editor of Our Town:
 I congratulate the editor, and his partner, Mr. Horace R. Hillegas, for the success of their efforts to secure express service for Narberth. Their open letters to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, published in Our Town for some weeks past, have borne excellent fruit, inasmuch as arrangements have been completed for the 5.40 from Broad Street Station to make its first stop at Narberth, after leaving West Philadelphia, taking effect January 2, 1917. This will be particularly acceptable to those who have been using the 5.45 or the 6.15 heretofore, as they can readily arrange their business to take the 5.40,
 in most instances.
 This is a good illustration of the truth that anything worth having is worth working hard for. These gentlemen were discouraged in their efforts by some of their friends, who predicted that it would be useless to appeal to the railroad for express service. It was discouraging at first, but after a few letters, representatives of the railroad called on Messrs. Jacobs and Hillegas, and talked matters over.
 At first they discouraged the idea, but on listening to the strong presentation of the case made by the Narberth men, a favorable decision was secured, and announcement made of the 5.40 express, first stop Narberth.
 The Pennsylvania Railroad is desirous of pleasing its patrons and giving them the best possible service.

 It welcomes criticism and suggestions, and its policy in this respect has done much to enable it to attain its position as the foremost railroad in the world. Commuters and patrons generally should not assume an antagonistic attitude towards a company that is at all times doing its best to give the most improved accommodations and service. The growth and prosperity of towns like Narberth are very largely due to this excellent and unexcelled train service. We have very little of which to complain, and instead of grumbling at occasional delays, occasioned by the weather or accidents to plant, we should show appreciation of a service that is in the main perfect.
A. J. Loos.

COMMUNITY CLUB.
 The next meeting of the club will be January 19, at 4 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. Mrs. J. Owen Phillips will conduct her class on "Creative Thought and Public Speaking."

Private correspondence as well as that for business purposes should be marked showing to where it should be returned, if undelivered at post office of address. If this precautionary measure could be generally observed it would greatly assist post office officials in the handling of mail matter.

 order that it shall be the greatest use to the community the list should contain the name of every professional man, tradsman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsman.
 As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
