

BOOKS IN DEMAND

CLOSE OF YEAR FINDS GLENDALE LIBRARY WITH INCREASED STOCK AND PATRONAGE

Mrs. Danford, librarian of Glendale Public Library, speaking of the results of the past year's transactions at the public library, said to a representative of The Glendale Evening News: "I feel that I may be thankful for the success that has attended my efforts to administer the everyday routine of the library. That this daily administration has been successful I have not only the testimony of the shelves with their improvements and additions; but also the kind assurance of the friends and patrons of the library itself. I wish to convey to all who have so kindly encouraged the work and interested themselves in what has been going on here my warmest thanks and greetings for the New Year.

"During the past year we have added to the library 1306 books of all kinds. The public may be certain that whatever could be done to ascertain the needs of the different classes of readers was done and that a representative selection of every section of literature was made.

"Throughout the year the number of books issued was 50,000. This is the largest circulation in the history of the library. It shows that interest in the library is growing and that many more people are coming to use the library in an intelligent and systematic manner. It is interesting to note that this increased circulation shows an unusually large proportion of non-fiction books in circulation.

"This increased circulation and also the increased use of the reference library which has been noted throughout the year may be attributed in part to the fact that 1304 new cards were added to the library lists of readers.

"Among the new sets of books added to the library are many new editions of dramatic authors and some books on the classics. There have also been purchased a number of works on agriculture and horticulture and expositions of the researches of the Luther Burbank school.

"We have also endeavored to broaden the scope of the library so as to interest readers of all kinds. The best books in any subject have been obtained and effort has been made to have as complete information on any subject as possible with the limited means at command. New sets of historical novels and quite a number of interesting works of classical standing have been purchased. In every way the library has advanced during the past year.

"The board has made, also, many improvements both inside and outside the library. New shelves have been added and other additions made to secure the physical comfort of readers. A system of sprinkling has been installed outside, all round the building, and by next summer a fine lawn should add to the appearance of the library."

HONOR HANFORD GUESTS

Dr. and Mrs. John H. Cooper, of Hanford, California, were the honored guests at a most enjoyable affair last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chancy B. Lane, 1315 Chestnut street, where they are house guests. Music and dancing furnished the evening's entertainment, and the living rooms were bright with poinsettias and holly. Enchantress carnations and ferns were used to decorate the dining room, where a dainty repast was served at midnight. A large candle-lit cake was a feature, the thirty-first being Mrs. Cooper's birthday.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Demers of Oakland, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Preston of Los Angeles, Mrs. W. Rollin Newport of Hanford, Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCourt, Mrs. Arvilla Blakeley, all of Glendale, with the guests of honor and host and hostess.

All the guests present with the exception of three were former residents of Hanford.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

John Kopina, the Austrian miner, who was cruelly assaulted by two tramps on San Fernando Road, Tuesday, has been taken to the county hospital. It was found that the injuries inflicted on Kopino were much worse than had appeared on a cursory examination. The hoboes had kicked Kopino about the head and his eyes were badly bruised.

Today the "Signal" Film company, with studios in South Pasadena, and in which Miss Helen Holmes, a former Kalem favorite, is being featured, took scenes in Glendale, including some of our principal buildings on West Broadway, also Brand boulevard.

CHARM OF GLENDALE

GEORGE W. HYATT OF INDIANA SWINGS INTO LINE AS ADMIRER OF CALIFORNIA

George W. Hyatt of Richland township, Indiana, is one of those who have been smitten by the charm of Glendale. He has fallen into line as an admirer of Southern California and of Glendale in particular. Mr. Hyatt was resident in Glendale last summer, as a visitor of his brother, Mr. Hyatt, of 1634 W. Broadway, and during the three months he spent here he discovered so many charms in the place that he has determined to become a permanent resident as soon as he can make convenient arrangements for leaving his present abode.

Ever since he has been home in Richland, which is not far from Attica, Indiana, Mr. Hyatt has been sounding the praises of Glendale and of Southern California, that the people there, according to the Attica Ledger, are persuaded that he will never be happy until he gets back to Glendale.

Mr. Hyatt of Glendale confirms this story and says that his brother George had the greatest satisfaction out of his summer visit to Glendale of any person he has ever known. "I have a Buick auto," said Mr. Hyatt to a representative of The Glendale Evening News, "and my brother was never better pleased than when he and I were careering all over the state seeing some new part of the country every day. Everything charmed him. He never ceased praising the climate and the productive soil, the wonderful scenery and the glorious ocean.

"We spent many very pleasant days exploring the valleys that lie far up in the mountains and in taking long trips to places seldom visited by local sightseers. The mountains had always a charm for my brother and I know he will never be pleased until he comes to dwell among them again. He was specially pleased with the farming prospects of the state and with the unchanging climate.

"My brother used to say to me that he would get up every morning expecting to see the sky overcast and the temperature falling, but that he gradually became convinced that all that was said of California was true and that the people of the state were sincere in their praises and not given to exaggeration of the advantages of the state.

"My brother," said Mr. Hyatt, "feels that he is entitled to a rest from business cares and labors and he wants to come where he can enjoy life twelve months in the year. It was quite a shock to him when he got home to Indiana to find everything covered with sleet and ice, so he has determined that he will settle up some business affairs in his home town and make arrangements to come back to Glendale. He will probably spend the rest of his days in this city.

"When in Glendale my brother visited both the Expositions and enjoyed them greatly. One thing he never ceased praising was the roads. Everyone knows what the country roads of Indiana were some years ago. They are trying to improve them by making gravel roads, which are expensive and do not last very long. My brother could not help comparing the Indiana roads with those of Southern California, where the excellent oiled or asphalt surface makes autoing a pleasure. If it were for nothing else than to enjoy the fine roads here I believe my brother would be back in Glendale; but he appreciated equally the many other charms of this favored spot."

HOME OVER HOLIDAYS

One of the happiest occasions taking place during this holiday week was the social afternoon and dinner given by Miss Mary Jane Evans to a coterie of her girl friends, on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, at the attractive home of her mother, Mrs. W. A. Hough, at 216 West 10th street, honoring Miss Pauline Hamilton, attractive daughter of the W. W. Hamiltons, home from Mills College until after the new year.

Christmas coloring predominated in the artistically arranged decorations, the table centerpiece being of California mountain holly intermingled with the grey of the desert holly. Place cards adorned with sprays of the desert holly held in place with tiny bows of green ribbon marked covers arranged for the honoree, her hostess, and the Misses Kathleen Dodge, Esther Schremp, Evangeline Hunchberger, Ernestine Lyon, Katherine Hobbs, Amy Miller and Dorothy Hobbs.

Following dinner the guests were entertained at the Palace Grand Theater. Assisting this charming young hostess were her mother, Mrs. W. A. Hough, and sister, Mrs. S. G. Craig.

CURRENT TOPICS

LITTLE SHORT STORIES OF THE DAY ABOUT GLENDALE PEOPLE AND EVENTS

Joseph Guidinger, 238 S. Maryland avenue, left his home this morning without his hat and without giving any intimation of where he was going. This alarmed his family and friends, who have noted with alarm symptoms of deep melancholy in Mr. Guidinger ever since the death of his daughter, who was killed by an auto accident about a year ago. The Glendale police were notified and Chief Herald, accompanied by Patrolman Hollenbeck, made a thorough search and just before 12 o'clock found him wandering aimlessly among the gardens of the houses in the vicinity of the Ford Garage. He was manifestly deranged and did not know who he was. The chief took him home and gave him into the custody of his friends, where he will be carefully watched.

ALARM OF FIRE

Glendale fire department had a welcome run with the big chemical Thursday night, when an alarm of fire was turned in in connection with a volume of smoke that was observed proceeding from the windows and doors of the house at 1437 Riverdale Drive, occupied by Mr. Christian Timmer the eminent Dutch violinist. When Chief Lankford and his men arrived at the house they found that the smoke proceeded from some grease that had fallen on the stove. Even a false alarm has its uses and the run warmed up both men and apparatus today.

REV. JOHN TROY RESIGNS

At the quarterly congregational meeting of the First Baptist Church of Glendale, Wednesday night, the Rev. John Troy, pastor of the church, handed in his resignation, which was accepted. It has been known for some time that Mr. Troy was desirous of entering on evangelistic work and it is understood that he is about to enter on that field of labor. There is some talk of calling the Rev. J. F. Watson of Los Angeles to the Glendale pastorate.

WOMAN'S CITY CLUB

The Woman's City club will hold an informal reception Monday, Jan. 3, between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m., in Blanchard hall, between Second and Third streets, on Broadway. The ladies of the club will serve tea to the members and friends. The Adolf-Taendler quartet will render several delightful numbers and Marie B. Tiffany's beautiful voice will be heard throughout the afternoon. The ladies of Glendale are specially invited to be present.

A REAL SNOW MAN

Many of us sat up and rubbed our eyes this morning, still wondering if yesterday's snow storm wasn't a dream. Not so little Thomas McClellan, son of the J. B. McClellans at 318 South Central avenue, for he has a real snow man standing in his yard, between 3 and 4 feet high and holding a pipe in his mouth. Many grown men, office bound this morning, stopped to look at Glendale's first snow man.

GLENDALE BRITISH RED CROSS

Members of the Glendale branch of the Southern California Branch of the British Red Cross, will meet Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. George Ely, 1210 Loma avenue. The ladies will spend the afternoon in sewing and knitting articles for the men in hospital and in the trenches. Any donations intended for the society may be left at the office of Mrs. Nanno Woods, 1111 W. Broadway.

In a flood of bright lights, novel decorations and programs, pretty girls and last, but not least, good music, for you know the Thorpe Orchestra of local musicians will furnish music, the Junior class of the Glendale High School are giving a New Year's Eve dancing party in the ballroom of the Masonic hall this evening. The affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable given by the younger set during the entire year.

Patrons and patronesses for the occasion are Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hunchberger, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Phillips, Mrs. David Imler, Mrs. Dora Glazier, Mrs. Letty Boucher, and chairmen of committees are the Misses Evangeline Hunchberger, Marjorie Imler, Catherine Phillips, Margaret Boucher and Mr. Harry Glazier, who wish to announce that the grand march will take place at 8:30 o'clock.

GLENDALE FLOAT

THIS CITY TO BE WELL REPRESENTED AT PASADENA ROSE TOURNAMENT

There will be few, if any, finer or more artistic floats in the Pasadena "Tournament of Roses," on New Year's day, Saturday, January 1, 1916. Under the direction of City Manager Watson and Dr. C. S. Steelman, who designed the float, and with the assistance of the Glendale Garden Society, a most finished production of floral design has been turned out. Frank Marek cleverly constructed the elaborate framework that affords the base on which the floral design has been carried out. The auto which is being utilized for the entry is the property of Mr. Schroeder of the Glendale fire department. The design is historical and patriotic.

Mrs. Albert D. Pearce will represent the Goddess of Liberty and has designed a striking costume for that part in which she will form the leading figure of the display. The colors will be red, white and blue, which will be carried out in violets and carnations.

The Glendale municipal band in full uniform will head the entry and has prepared special music for the occasion.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

Mrs. Nanno Woods, president of the Garden Society, advises the following set of resolutions for anyone desiring to begin the New Year well. I hereby resolve—

- To become a member of the Glendale Garden Society at once and to pay the annual dues of 25 cents.
- To attend the very next meeting of the Garden Society, which takes place the first Thursday of January, at 8 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.
- To be present on the 6th of January at 7:30 p. m. in order to take advantage of the social half-hour by means of which I may become acquainted with people and people may become acquainted with me.
- To obtain immediately at least 20 cuttings of ivy geranium, and to root them either in my garden or bring them to headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway, where some member will be found willing to root them.
- To offer freely to the members of the Garden Society, to the neighbors I know well, and to the neighbors I don't know at all, any bulbs, seeds or young plants, of any flowers or vegetables, which I may happen not to need.
- To immediately investigate the state of my finances—and my heart—to find out whether I can afford to offer a prize, be it ever so little, for the juvenile section of the Flower Show to be held next April.
- To make a special point of visiting headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway, and becoming acquainted with the president, Mrs. Nanno Woods, who, in spite of her faults and her failings, is always delighted to meet with anybody interested in flowers, in gardening, in dear mother Nature herself.

SHAKESPEARE SECTION

Monday, January 3, will be the first meeting in the new year of the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, and is to be held in the home of Mrs. W. E. Evans, 113 Orange street, promptly at 2 o'clock.

The section claimed 22 members during the first half of the club year, but prospects are bright for a large membership since the holiday rush is past.

The lesson for Monday afternoon will finish the play of Antony and Cleopatra, also the next play to be studied will be chosen.

Mrs. Mazie Hollman Garrett, instructor, has made arrangements for a splendid program, to be given at the next meeting, January 17. This is to be an open meeting in the form of a social afternoon. Tea will be served.

ENTERTAIN RELATIVES

The pretty new bungalow of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ward at 312 East Broadway, was the scene of a very happy Christmas gathering, for eighteen relatives sat at the oval board to do justice to the two fine turkeys from the J. C. Sherer ranch. Decorations were in red and green, smilax, holly and bells predominating. At 8 o'clock the guests departed for their respective homes feeling thankful for having had the privilege of spending one more happy Christmas together.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Saturday; killing frost in exposed places Saturday morning; north to northeasterly winds.

THE OLD AND THE NEW

HATEVER may have been the experience the closing year brought us, it has now passed away and leaves us to improve that experience if we can, or as is so often done with experience, cast it aside as useless.

Everyone is looking forward with hope to the year on which the world will soon enter. The past year has been a year of much strenuousness. This country has had to work painfully under adverse domestic business conditions and yet has found compensation for these conditions in the war, which has brought so much foreign business to our doors.

The United States now holds the gold of the world and is practically the banker of the nations. While it is the case that money is tied up to a certain extent by the uncertainties of the tariff and the home business conditions generally, there has been a certain amount of circulation of money in California on account of the two expositions that were held—the one at San Francisco and the other at San Diego.

It is certain that the coming year will find California benefiting by the results of the two expositions. People have learned through visiting California what kind of a climate is here and what conditions prevail in the northern and southern parts of the state.

These reports will determine a great many people to come here to settle. One thing is certain and that is that it is better for California to be settled by American citizens than to have an influx of Europeans coming here to live meagerly, and reduce the American style of living and the status of the American citizen generally.

Now, however, the war in Europe has been a blessing in disguise as far as this country is concerned. In like manner the slides in the Panama canal have been another blessing. Combined, these two elements have worked to keep up the barriers of the states against foreign immigration of a poor order.

Before California in the year about to open lies a great future. It is likely that 1916 will see an increase in the number of visitors and that the state will take another forward step.

WORK OF THE GARDEN SOCIETY

It must be manifest to everyone that under its present leadership the Glendale Garden Society has entered on an era of development that is certain to affect civic matters favorably.

Considerable attention has been directed to the work of the society by its energy in striving to get up a Flower Show that will attract attention to Glendale. That is as it should be. Glendale is a center of horticultural possibilities such as few other cities have the good fortune to possess.

With these elements in its favor Glendale should become a center from which should radiate light and enlightenment to all the surrounding communities. Those who are doing this great work in the city are deserving of the highest commendation.

What is needed to make still further assured the success of the Society is that every citizen should lend his or her aid in this important work. No one should hold back. Glendale should become known far and wide for its floral beauty.

In order to accomplish this everyone in the city should devote time and care in the directions indicated by the Garden Society. Real estate men all over the city might well lend a helping hand in this work as has already been suggested, and by so doing they would find a real reward.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

On Tuesday evening a delightful Christmas party was given for the Junior League of the First Methodist church. The social hall was prettily decorated in evergreens and a lovely Christmas tree was laden with cunning gifts for the dear little guests.

Miss Dora Hewitt, superintendent of the League, was assisted in dispensing the hospitalities by Mrs. E. B. Moore and Miss Elsie Anderson.

ANNUAL DINNER

At 6:30 o'clock, Wednesday evening, January 12, the annual meeting and dinner of the First Congregational Church will be held in the banquet hall of the building.

Following the dinner all reports of the past year's work will be read and a hearty welcome is extended to members of the church and congregation.

HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A.

Monday evening, January 3, promptly at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Glendale High School, the Parent-Teacher association will hold their first meeting of the New Year.

Mrs. Fred E. Hagin, president, will preside, introducing for the principal speaker of the evening Dr. Edward F. Merrill of Los Angeles, who will use as his subject, and a most interesting subject it is, "The Educational Value of Athletics in the Schools."

POULTRY SHOW NEXT WEEK

The Eleventh Annual Exhibition of the Southern California Poultry Breeders' Association will be held in the Robertson building, Los Angeles, next week, beginning Wednesday, January 5, and continuing until Tuesday night, January 11.

NO PAPER TOMORROW

Tomorrow being a legal holiday, no paper will be issued from the Evening News office. This has been our custom.

The British authorities have removed from a Swedish ship mails destined from Sweden to the United States. The diplomatic name for the act is not known, but the real name is piracy.

THREE very important factors in analyzing a bank—

The element of strength of a bank is its Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits in proportion to its deposits, (Liability)—
A strong Board of Directors, assuring strength of management
Conservative Banking Practice, assuring strength of policy.

These three factors are those which recommend this Bank to your favorable consideration.

A New Jersey man gave a "freedom party" to celebrate his divorce. It began as a stag affair and doubtless became stagger as it progressed.

THE OLD YEAR TO THE NEW

ETERNITY HALL, Eternity, Dec. 31.—A copy of Polonius Old Year's advice to his son, Laertes Nyntean Sixteen, was presented to the United Press correspondent by Father Time here late today. It reads:

"My son, I stand upon the threshold of Oblivion, wherein I soon shall vanish never to return. My legacy to you is a sadly disorganized world; and I trust that you will faithfully and better administer it than have I. You will have many things to contend with, but take them easy. A menagerie, led by a Donkey, an Elephant and a Bull Moose will chase the Winged Rooster of Victory up and down your days to the jaws of November. Heed them not. Men with peace missions they don't know what to do with will try to settle a war being fought for reasons no one has discovered. Let them go. The Panama canal may slide all over South America, and Colonel Goethal's conversation will sound like frequent reference to the Gatun dam. Let him alone. Cupid may pretend to scorn Romance and be engrossed in Eugenics. Tell him that Europe needs babies. Let the War Dogs chase their own tails until the Peace Dove sheds some of its courtplaster. Then, cautiously look about and see what you can do to fix things up.

George Bernard Shaw, Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, Lord Northcliffe, W. J. Bryan and Vesuvius are subject to eruption at any time. There's nothing you can do to stop any of them.

Remember that styles, suffrage, the tariff and sample moustaches you have always with you. Do the best you can with all these things and remember that however powerful and able you feel in this your youth, on the 365th day of your reign you will be weary and old and worn. Your robes, once white, will be dragged and torn and stained, as flapping rags about your withered legs. Your hand palsied, your st p halt, your eyes dim, you will die; and the World will go on. So take it easy, and don't get excited. If you sigh for a Place in the Sun, let it be on a park bench on a summer afternoon. Do these things in calm judgment and you may accomplish more than you expect.

Forever affectionately yours,
THE OLD YEAR.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Grist of 210 Colorado boulevard were numbered among the 400 guests attending the reception of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nelson Hamaker, at the Jonathan Club, Wednesday evening, Dec. 29.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE

A Watch Night service will be held in the First Methodist Church, corner of Third street and Dayton Court. A good program has been prepared, so that there will be something in progress during the entire service. There will be short addresses, readings, music, a social hour with refreshments, and a general spirit of thanksgiving and praise. The service is scheduled to begin at 8:30 o'clock. Any who feel that they cannot remain through the entire service will be welcome to attend and enjoy the proceedings as long as they can stay.

TROPICO

A mound of ferns, holly and fruits, accentuated by a large crystal bowl overflowing with brilliant red holly, centered a well appointed table at which Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Calhoun presided at a charming dinner party at their home in Los Angeles, Tuesday evening, complimenting Eugene Henry Imler, who that day celebrated his nineteenth birthday anniversary. Others who were bidden to accept the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun and this honor guest, Mr. Imler, were Mrs. David H. Imler, Miss Marjorie Imler, and Miss Cora Hickman, Master William Calhoun and Mr. Harry

Beard of Denver, Colorado.

The old year will be given a happy farewell and the new year a cordial welcome tonight at the First Methodist Episcopal church, corner of Central avenue and Palmer avenue. From 6:30 and continuing for two or more hours, a delicious supper will be served in the social hall of the church. Following the dinner the Epworth League will give one of their special programs. The devotional watch night service will follow the program and continue until after 1915 has been proclaimed as the old year and 1916 ushered in as the glad New Year, bringing with it all of the hopes and anticipations; bringing happiness and pleasure with never a suspicion of sorrow. May the year 1916 bring as much prosperity to the First Church and to the First Presbyterian church for this congregation will unite with the First Methodist church and Rev. Ford, as each of these churches have enjoyed in the past.

Of unusual interest and significance was the dinner party with which Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dutton entertained at their home on Virginia Place, Tuesday evening, when a family reunion was observed. This event not only celebrated the happy home gathering of this interesting family, but the thirty-fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dutton, as well as the natal anniversary of Mrs. Ruth Van Court, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dutton, who with her daughter, little Doris Van Court, were guests at the dinner party. Others who gathered at the festal board which was adorned in holly were Miss Eva May Dutton, supervisor of music in Poly high; Mr. Charles Dutton, of New York City, and Mr. Earl Dutton, who is a senior at Stanford University. This was the first reunion of the Dutton family that they have enjoyed for almost a decade. Limericks served as place cards, the handiwork of Miss Dutton, featuring some pronounced characteristic of each member of the family.

The news of the passing of Mrs. Mamie Sheldon, wife of Rev. O. P. Sheldon, which occurred at the family residence in Los Angeles, Wednesday, was received in Tropic early Thursday morning, bringing sorrow to a number of houses where Mrs. Sheldon was known and beloved. Rev. and Mrs. Sheldon's sisters, Mrs. Laura Weed and the late Miss Hattie Hawthorne, came to Tropic about twenty years ago, and remained here for several years, later removing to Los Angeles. Rev. and Mrs. Sheldon were frequent visitors in this city, their many friends always extending a cordial welcome, and many are the friends whose sympathy goes out to Rev. Sheldon and Mrs. Weed, in the passing of this most estimable and lovable woman.

Arthur Ackland and his sister, Miss Margaret Ackland, accompanied by Lyman Spaulding and his sister, Miss Ruth Spaulding, motored from Los Angeles Thursday afternoon and were the guests of Eugene H. Imler and his sister, Miss Marjorie Imler, at a charmingly appointed dinner party at their home, Palm Villa. These six young people, with Mrs. J. L. Ackland and Mrs. D. H. Imler as chaperones, visited the Panama-Pacific Exposition in October and the reunion of Thursday evening was a most delightful one.

The Tropic concert band gives a New Year's dance at K. P. hall tonight. The program will be in charge of the gentlemen during the closing hours of 1915. When 1916 crosses the threshold the ladies will assume charge of the dancing. It is superfluous to note that there will be no wall flowers following the advent of 1916.

A number of Tropic's society young people will attend the dancing party to be given at the Masonic hall, tonight, by the Juniors of the Glendale Union High School.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31.—Nine states in the United States will go dry in 1916; eight of them at midnight tonight and one, Virginia, November 1, 1916. The eight are: Alabama, South Carolina, Idaho, Arkansas, Colorado, Washington, Oregon and Iowa. This will make a total of 19 dry and 29 wet states of a total of 48. The states heretofore dry and the year each became so, are: Maine, 1851; Kansas, 1880; North Dakota, 1885; Georgia and Oklahoma, 1907; Mississippi and North Carolina, 1908; Tennessee, 1909 and Arizona and West Virginia, 1915. Alaska, Vermont, Indiana, Nebraska and South Dakota will vote on prohibition in 1916. If these four states go dry, practically half the United States will be dry. National prohibition through state prohibition is considered probable within a very few years, by leading prohibitionists.
