When the "racket" of school is all ended,
And the "doors" with a "slam" are all "fast";
When "shrill" "whistling" with "keen yelling" blends,
No more strike your ear like the "blast";
Oh, then, in that beautiful "May Day,"
Mid the pleasures you richly deserve,
Let memory come back to "fair play"
To linger awhile and observe. <sup>most friendly</sup> Yours
