E & S

20 Dec 1945

1. Reference your informal memorandum of 17 December concerning arrangements for the F.E.A.C. while in Tokyo.

2. Concur in your proposed procedure. It is not believed necessary to establish any formal procedure at this time for contact between the F.E.A.C. members and the Government Section. This can be worked out informally between the representatives of this Section and F.E.A.C. when it is determined precisely what type of information will be requested from the Government Section.

3. The following officers are designated as liaison officers with F.E.A.C. for this Section:

a. For Korean Affairs.

Colonel B. E. Clarke
Lt. Commander H. E. Stevens

b. For Public Administration Affairs.

Colonel C. L. Kades
Commander G. L. Swope
