

CITY TRUSTEES MEET

OPEN BIDS FOR WATER PIPE AND WIRE—HEAR USUAL COMMUNICATIONS

The Board of Trustees met in regular session at the city hall at 7:30 p. m. January 3, 1916. There were present at roll call: Trustees Grist, Lane, Thompson, Tower and Williams.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

On motion of Trustee Thompson, the bids were ordered to be opened for the furnishing of cast iron water pipe. On motion of Trustee Grist, the bids were referred to the manager of the Public Service Department.

On motion of Trustee Grist, the bids were ordered to be opened for the furnishing of wire for the Public Service department, and on motion of Trustee Tower, referred to the manager of the Public Service department.

Two representatives of the concerns submitting bids for water pipe addressed the board briefly upon the respective merits of twelve foot and sixteen foot lengths of pipe, and the matter was informally discussed.

A communication was read from H. C. Tupper, accompanied by a certificate of title to lots A, B, C and a portion of D in Tract Number 1026. The communication stated that the county taxes still due are to be paid out of the amount due the firm of Tupper & Robinson from the Public Service department, and suggesting that the balance be remitted to the firm.

Upon motion of Trustee Thompson, it was ordered that action be taken in accordance with the recommendation contained in the communication of Mr. Tupper.

A petition which had been filed with the city clerk on December 31, 1915, addressed to the Board of Trustees, signed by A. S. Chase and about twenty others, requesting that proceedings be abandoned in the opening and widening of Penn street between Columbus and Central avenue, was read, and upon motion, of Trustee Grist, ordered to be filed.

Reports were received from the Building Inspector, City Clerk, City Recorder and Health Officer, and ordered to be filed.

City Attorney Evans presented a written report in reference to the application of the City of Tropic to the City of Glendale, requesting contribution towards the expense of the moving of the tower across the Southern Pacific Railroad tracks where the same are crossed by the tracks of the Pacific Electric. The substance of the opinion being to the effect that the interest of the City of Glendale in the matter is similar to that of the city's interest in having the boulevard extended, and in the event of the City of Glendale being benefited by the work in that respect, the trustees would have authority to make a contribution towards the expense of such an improvement if in their judgment it is a matter of policy to do so.

The report was ordered to be filed. The City Attorney reported his receipt of a letter from a lady in Monrovia, making complaint of charges on her tax bill for lot cleaning, and on motion of Trustee Grist, the matter was referred to the City Manager.

The Manager of the Public Service department reported upon the bids submitted for supplying water pipe, recommending the acceptance of the bid of the Hunter Brokerage company as being the lowest bidder. Upon motion of Trustee Tower, the recommendation was adopted, and the bid accepted as recommended.

A representative of William B. Hooper, who wishes to run a three-night moving picture show in the Glendale Theater, appeared before the Board and made a plea that the license for the same be issued for a term less than one year, as required by the Ordinance. The matter was discussed by the Board, but no formal action was taken.

Mr. Tower made a report for Mr. J. W. Usilton, chairman of the committee appointed to work for the opening of Brand boulevard, stating that the committee had been very successful in its efforts, and that very encouraging progress had been made.

The manager of the public service department made a report on bids submitted for supplying wire, recommending acceptance of the bid of John A. Roebling's Sons Company, shipment to be made in thirty days, which he stated would be in time of use for his department.

Upon motion of Trustee Tower, the recommendation was adopted, and the bid of Roebling's Sons company accepted.

The following bills were allowed:
Frank S. Chase $ 42.12
National Roadmate Paving company 31.75

Plattiff told them emphatically that Ford would not. Some of the women then announced that they intended to remain in Europe after the Peace ship should sail for the United States and asked if Ford would pay their fares back on other steamers. Plattiff again returned a most decided negative. The women were loud in their expressions of opinion as to the "meanness" of these decisions.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS

COACH WIGHT TELLS OF TENNIS, TRACK AND BASKETBALL WORK

Athletics for the season, 1915-16, are coming to a point at Glendale Union High school, where the students' attention will be focused on the events of the next few weeks to determine where their school shall stand.

Glendale High school has entered a 110-15 pound basketball team in the A. A. U. league, this season, and beginning January 11 will play games with lightweight representatives of Whittier, Los Angeles Polytechnic and Manual Arts High schools.

The squad selected by Coach Wight of the local school consists of Carleton West, Leamon Crandall, Raymond Fanset, Myron Powers and Fred Dodge.

Lightweight A. A. U. basketball has heretofore been played in a tournament, but it has been found unsatisfactory. This resulted in the league being formed in which each team meets twice. Coach Wight believes his quintette has a most favorable chance of winning the pennant.

Varsity basketball at the High school is also coming along in fine shape. The league games have been played, one being lost to Covina and the other won from Monrovia. The loss of the one game, however, does not mean elimination from the championship of the Central section of the Southern California league.

"Glendale has only one team to fear in this division," says Coach Wight. "That team is Alhambra, although South Pasadena will be another strong contestant. This Saturday we meet the Harvard Military boys on their own field. The first team players are the following: Forwards, Martin Powers, Jamie Shea, Tom Phillips; centers, Dan Hagin, Arville Williams; guards, Robert Kol's, captain, Mark Francy and William Renshaw.

"Track work," the coach stated, "begins today. A good turnout is expected in response to the call for tonight's practice. Much new material has been discovered. Ed Seay is manager of the team this year, while J. T. Beach is captain of the squad. The field is in excellent condition for training as a result of the recent rains. All conditions at present point toward a most successful season."

High school tennis has its league opening the middle of this month. The players and their order are: William Balthis, Carleton West, Leamon Crandall and Ed Heacock.

A few baseball players are to be seen getting in form for the opening of the spring training season.

NEW YEAR HOUSE PARTY

One of the merriest affairs of the holidays was a house party, including a New Year's eve watch party, given by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Brice in honor of their daughters, Leone and Lena Mae Brice, at their home, 825 W. Colorado street. The house was artistically decorated in red and green. Beautiful Royal poinsettias nodded from huge vases, while bowers of mistletoe and holly with red berries waved over the chandeliers and windows. Music and games were enjoyed until a late hour. A midnight banquet was served. As the last minutes of the old year were passing away each guest was given a horn with which to blow out the old and blow in the New Year. The house guests, who were girls, enjoyed auto rides and many other amusements which had been planned for their entertainment.

The guests were: Misses Helen Begg, Doris Ingledue, Blanche Cramer, Frieda Lindly, Margaret Lusby, Leone Shattack, Marion Anderson, Mable Robbins, Leone Brice, Lena Mae Brice; Messrs. Claude Moore, Homer Morgan, Elwood Ingledue, Alvin Flanders, Harold Larter, Russell Laichinger, Paul Richardson, George March, Clyde Eidson of Redondo Beach, Raymond Dunbar of Alhambra, Wilber Speer of Covina.

MARRIED SIXTEEN YEARS

Monday, January 3, was the sixteenth wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds. While they were at dinner last evening, their neighbor, Mrs. R. T. Lyons, made her appearance at the manse with a beautiful cake decorated with sixteen candles to commemorate this happy event in the lives of the pastor and his wife. A happy time ensued and these good people were more than pleased to be so kindly remembered.

OUTLOOK IS BETTER

J. H. FLOWER, CONTRACTOR, SAYS BUSINESS PROSPECTS ARE IMPROVING

J. H. Flower, building contractor, who is at present engaged in remodeling the old Gold Fish cafe into a modern banking establishment, is convinced that there has been a steady improvement in business and that the change is bound to continue. "I do not mean to say that there is anything like a definite change in conditions, but there is more confidence and more money in circulation than there was a year ago," said Mr. Flower to a representative of The Glendale Evening News.

"When things began to get dull about three years ago," continued Mr. Flower, "I retired from my real estate business. I had just begun to build up a business at that time and was beginning to profit from the results of a great deal of hard work. The advent of a new government made itself felt in a very short time and I became convinced that it was wisdom to leave off trying to make a living in real estate. About a year ago I thought I detected a turn in the tide and I took up this contracting business.

"I have built a number of buildings since then. Among them is the two-story brick building at Burbank. Harry Betz did the brick work for me. The whole building cost $7000. This is a building 40x70 feet. Fortunately I have had no difficulty in renting that building. The Sunset Telephone company occupies the corner section of the ground floor and the Chaffey Grocery the other section. Upstairs I have rented the front offices to Dr. Cline and have rented the rear apartment to reliable people.

"This confirms me in my opinion that there is an improvement in the general situation. It is slow but sure. I am planning the erection of three stores in Tropic. This work is already under way. It will be a one-story brick building and will cost $3200. I have a good site on the south side of the San Fernando road, between Central and Los Feliz road. It looks as though my prognostication of better times were not so far out when I am able to say that before we have had time to do much more than prepare the site I have applicants for the tenancy of these buildings.

"This remodeling of the old cafe is proceeding rapidly, as you see. We have completely made over this corner on both fronts. Those large and handsome windows are constructed with copper, marble, plate glass and prism glass. They are quite modern and afford what is a desideratum in a banking building—plenty of light. The inside finish of the room will be of mahogany.

"There will be a steel ceiling with decorations after the fashion of The First National Bank. The old fittings of the former home of the Glendale Savings bank will be used here, but as business improves they will be taken out and new mahogany fittings installed. The bank is installing a new fireproof and burglar-proof vault.

"Next door, as you see, I am remodeling the entrance of the Schilling store by putting in a new vestibule, fourteen feet deep, with two large show windows. It is worth while noting, as a sign of the times, that the firm from which I ordered the plate glass for both these pieces of work recently sent an order to the east for two carloads of plate glass and received intimation that only one carload could be sent as the demand in the east is very heavy. Altogether I am satisfied with the business outlook."

PLAN FOR FLOOD WATERS

Federal government to pay $1,080,000; city or county $922,000 and guarantee maintenance $20,000; also provide right of way, roads and bridges and adjust all damage claims; also connect channels Long Beach and Los Angeles harbors. Government pay about one-half of cost.

AUSTRIA'S WAR ON MIDDLEMEN

Those who are acquainted with the history of Ireland, not the book history, but the intimate history of the people themselves, know that the term "middleman" was one of peculiar approbrium in that long-vexed land. The Irish "middleman" was a kind of factor, who engaged to take charge of property in Ireland for absentees or semi-owners who had some kind of lien on an estate. The middleman undertook to pay the absentee a certain sum and recouped himself by squeezing as much out of the tenant as he could.

That is exactly what the middleman in business does to the present hour, but instead of the middleman in business being considered a thief and a robber as he was in the case of Irish land, he is an honorable man; "so are they all honorable men." However, the great war, which seems to be a wonderful teacher of many things, is teaching the European nations that they cannot afford middlemen. Austria is one of the first, strange to say, to apply the lesson in a manner most direct and effective.

All the nations, however, are doing the same thing. Germany has eliminated the middleman to a great extent. The prices of food are not only regulated but the government has so regulated its sale that only a certain quantity can be sold to each individual or family. Austria has a most thorough system. The middleman, says the Austrian government, does not add to the value or facilitate the distribution of necessities. New laws are being made for the purpose of controlling the middleman and the old laws, both civil and military, are being rigidly enforced. Nobody in Austria-Hungary may buy an article of necessity or a commodity and then sell it again for the sake of personal gain.

The Austrian government has effectually put an end to the process so well known in this land—"cornering the market." When, at the beginning of hostilities, provisions began to rise alarmingly in price, suitable laws were enacted both in Austria and Hungary and all the loopholes through which the offenders might manage to escape have been closed.

These laws are specially severe with those who attempt to make profit out of the buying and selling of grain. Merchants who purchased grain in certain quantities that were easily traceable were watched and finally brought into court and convicted because they had resold the grain at a profit; in one instance reselling it to its original owner. From this slight profit a certain increase in the price of breadstuffs was traceable. The seller, it was clearly shown, had added nothing to the value of the article sold, by his handling of it. In fact, as the judge said, he had rendered distribution more difficult by keeping back the article for a time.

In short, it is beginning to be fully understood all over Europe that to hold necessities for the gaining of a profit, through the operation of the law of "supply and demand," is illegal. This opens up a pleasant prospect for the consumer and holds forth a dreary future for the middleman everywhere. In fact, the middleman may be certain that his reign is nearing an end. Even in the United States the day approaches when he must "come down from his golden pedestal and sit upon a pavement of stones."

RUSSIA DEVELOPS NEW CAMPAIGN

How wonderful is the recuperative power of the Muscovite is seen in the fact that after the severe handling her armies received at the hands of the Germans and Austrians Russia is advancing aggressively against the Teuton foe, and, in accordance with a new plan of campaign, is tackling him in Bessarabia and the Balkans. At the beginning of the war Russia's greatest arsenal, near Petrograd, was blown up by German emissaries, and other minor arsenals and munitions factories were likewise destroyed. This sadly handicapped the Russian army and the effect thereof was seen in the gradual driving of the Muscovites back from Galicia, which they had conquered, and out of Poland, which was their own territory.

So serious was the lack of ammunition that the Germans were able to drive the Russians back in the direction of Riga and nearly succeeded in getting to that Baltic port. Gradually, however, the needed ammunition and equipment began to arrive in Russia. Canada sent her huge ice-breaking machines to keep the port of Archangel open all through the winter and weekly vessels are arriving at that harbor with munitions of war.

Russia herself has reorganized her industries and is manufacturing shells and other munitions in vast quantities. Every city is busy with this work. The Russian cabinet has been reformed with special reference to the great work of the war. A large number of Germans and pro-Germans who held office have been gotten rid of. The peasants are putting their savings into the banks and aiding the government with their money.

Czar Nicholas is at the head of the armies and has so stirred up the leaders and men that Russia has repulsed the German invader from Riga and put him on the defensive everywhere. For the last three months Japan, England and the United States have been pouring ammunition, rifles and quick-firing guns into the land of the Czar. Heavily loaded trains are creeping across the Siberian plains from Vladivostok carrying arms and ammunition to the Siberian soldiers who have been training only with sticks until such time as their rifles should be ready.

Russia's campaign is only beginning. At the present moment it is believed that Russia has freshly-armed troops to the number of five millions. Russia's veterans already holding the line from Riga to the Black sea and operating in the Caucasus are estimated at 4,000,000, all hardy fighters, making the total Russian military strength approximately 9,000,000 men.

Like England, France and Italy, Russia is preparing to fight in the Balkans. The Russians are not likely to forgive the Bulgarians for their treachery. It is true that Czar Ferdinand is to blame; but the people who permitted him to perpetrate the treachery against Russia, the Bulgarian deliverer, are likely to suffer for their supineness. In short Russia is now ready at many points to take an effective part in the great campaign that is rending Europe and the weight of her millions is certain to tell on the ultimate result.

The picture of two French soldiers carrying from the field a wounded German and ministering to his needs is a rebuke to much of the bitterness that denounces a whole nation because our sympathies are on the other side. The human heart, deep below the surface, is about the same on both sides of a battle line, and on the whole as much to be trusted as that specimen of it we know best.

Good will toward men, all men, was never needed more than it will be through the year of grace nineteen hundred and sixteen.

No one, not even the most pronounced pacifist, wants such a peace as will start another war like this within a few short years.

What a world of hate, suspicion, distrust, misunderstanding this war has created! We cannot help being in such a world, but we can help being of it.

Three hundred and sixty-six days in the new year. It's well to remember that whatever they are to bring they can only come one at a time. No man would want to face them all at once.

A WINTER BOUQUET

Find a short fat jar of some kind, with a wide open top, like the little stone crock your mother keeps cookies in. Fill it nearly full of sand. When on your afternoon walks collect sprays of the evergreen trees and shrubs—pine, hemlock, cedar, holly, laurel, hlex; a few ferns and other field plants; a few sprays bearing colored berries—catberry, bayberry, bittersweet, rose and especially the alder with its bright red berries. With these build a bouquet by sticking the stems in the sand in your jar. Begin with the largest green sprays. Add the bright berries last. Make the bouquet quite round and massive. When finished the bouquet should look green with little masses of brown and dots of bright color here and there.—Something to Do.

THIS TOWN'S "PREPAREDNESS" WAS STOLEN

If the United States is thinking about going to war, Beloit, Wis., wants the powers that be to wait awhile until the city is prepared. The entire defenses of the city have been destroyed by vandals.

Boys have been using the cannon in the city park as a place to play and the paint has been rubbed off. The ammunition—three cannon balls—which had been placed in a nice little heap beside the gun, have been carried away by souvenir hunters.

HOW TO WIND YOUR CLOCK
Many a valuable clock is stopped by being wound up too tightly. The best clocks will keep better time if they are wound not too tightly and never allowed to run completely down. The best way to wind an eight-day clock is to wind it once in every four days and then half or a little more than half way each time. A watch that is wound twice a day will keep better time than if it is wound up tight once every 24 hours.—Pearsons.

NO CRIME IN CITY
Glendale has established a remarkable record in so far as there has been no crime in the city during the present year. There were no arrests on the last night of 1915 and 1916 opened with a clean sheet. What is most remarkable is that this absence of crime or arrest has included the Mexican community as well as the American. The Mexican colony apparently is on its good behavior, for there was no drunkenness in that section and no disturbance. The only item on the police books that resembles a crime is the report of a lost bicycle. Chief of Police Herald reiterates his recent statement that
"this is a moral community."

WATER MAIN WORK
LAYING OF PIPE PROCEEDING
RAPIDLY ON N. BRAND BLVD.
AND ELSEWHERE

H. B. Lynch, manager of the public service department, says that work on the laying of the water mains on Third street is practically completed and the street filled in again. The pipe laid here was 6-inch. Pipe of the same caliber was laid on Second street. "The department," said Mr. Lynch, "is completing the laying of the 8-inch cast-iron pipe on Brand boulevard ahead of the asphaltting. This work is progressing rapidly.

"Sixty tons of 6-inch and 8-inch cast-iron pipe has been ordered and also wire for the electric lights that are to be installed on the boulevard.
The standards for the boulevard also have arrived. The department is also repainting all the cast-iron light standards throughout the city.

"One of the most important pieces of work in connection with the water system of the city is nearing completion. This is the drilling of one of the wells that is to supplement the water supply in the hot summer months, when so much water is used for irrigation. This well is situated on San Fernando road and Grand View avenue. This will be a very valuable addition to the system.

"In every way the work in connection with the public service department is proceeding satisfactorily and a great deal of work has been planned ahead and will be taken up
as opportunity offers."

tian Missionary Alliance chapel, 932

speakers will be the Rev. George W.
Davis and the Rev. Herbert Dyke. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

GLENDALE COMMERCIAL SCHOOL
Among the new enterprises of Glendale is the Glendale Commercial school, which has been opened in the Rudy block, rooms 5 and 6, by Miss Neva Veysey. Miss Veysey has had a long experience as a teacher in one of the Los Angeles Commercial schools. The school was opened Monday morning with a gratifying attendance, which is certain of increase as the need for a commercial school of this nature has long been felt in Glendale.
The school will be fully equipped to teach all commercial branches, bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, business English, arithmetic and rapid calculation. Miss Veysey is persuaded that Glendale is a splendid center for a school of this kind and anticipates a great success
in her undertaking.

A very wise man once said that when he began to feel too important he got a map of the universe and tried to find himself on it.

NORTH GLENDALE

Miss Blanche Pierce of 927 Fairview avenue entertained complimentary to her house guest, Miss Ida Blake, last Thursday evening, her guests being several members of the Royal Society of the Supper Table, a society that was started several years ago back in the old home in Worcester, Mass., by a number of young people, and delightful indeed was this occasion to all present, the only regret of the evening being that the rest of the members were not here.
A delicious old-fashioned Boston baked bean supper was served, after which games were played and a musical program enjoyed, and flashlight pictures of the party were taken, to be sent back to the less favored members of the society. Those present were Mr. Edward Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Pierce, Miss Mary
Pierce, Miss Ida Blake, the charming hostess, and her mother, Mrs. Annie Pierce.

Mrs. Joseph L. Stagner of 904 Dryden street has as her house guests her sister and little son, Mrs. Charles Spencer Rice and Master William,
from Berkeley, Cal., who are planning to remain here at least three months.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Watt of Monrovia motored to North Glendale last Friday, where they spent the weekend with Mr. Watt's parents, the D.
A. Watts of 1311 Valley View road.

Mr. M. B. Wilson of Kingman, Arizona, has returned to his place of business, after spending the holiday week with his family, who are domiciled in the Casa Blanca Apartments
on North Brand boulevard.

Miss Ida Blake, a recent arrival
from Worcester, Mass., is the house
guest of Miss Blanche Pierce of 927 Fairview avenue.

Mrs. Bert J. Lyons of 1617 Ruth street entertained as her guests on Monday of this week, her mother and brother, Mrs. J. F. Mayer and Mr.
Oscar Mayer, also Mrs. M. Bailey, of Los Angeles, who motored to North Glendale. During the afternoon Mrs.
Lyons and her guests enjoyed an auto ride, going to Van Nuys, returning by way of Hollywood to the city, where they were met by Mr. Lyons and together had dinner at one of the popular cafes.

Among the many delightful social affairs of the past week was that of Mrs. Joseph L. Stagner of 904 Dryden street, who entertained at cards.
Five hundred was played, tables before arranged for twelve. Yule-tide decorations prevailed throughout the house, also on the luncheon table,
where a dainty collation was served by the gracious hostess.

NEWSPAPER MAN BACK

Mr. Joyce P. Reuter of 939 Fairview avenue, remembered as private secretary to ex-Mayor Rose and a well-known newspaper man on New York papers, has interested a number of prominent and influential Los Angeles business men, who have formed a corporation for the purpose of establishing another paper in Los Angeles to be known as the Los Angeles Review.

POPULAR GIRL LEAVES

Miss Helen Hollingsworth, daughter of the C. H. Hollingsworths at

MAXWELL NON-STOP CAR VISITS
GLENDALE

At 3:45 o'clock Monday afternoon the much heralded Maxwell
non-stop car arrived in Glendale with 21,053 miles to its credit. In Glendale the drivers invited the local Maxwell agent; Chief of Police Herald and a representative of the Evening News to be passengers while the car traversed the principal streets of Glendale.

As this motor non-stop run is being conducted under an A. A. A.
sanction and at all times is under the continual observance of an A. A.
A. official observer the rules governing such a contest will be found interesting to many people. The sanction applied for in October was not issued until about November 15th and as there were a lot of preliminaries to be taken care of, such as a thorough mechanical examination to make positively certain that the car was absolutely stock, the testing and sealing of the speedometers, the appointment of the observers, and numerous exacting details,
the run was not officially started until November 22nd at 12:30 noon.

The rules regarding a car being thoroughly stock are more rigid on a motor-non-stop test than in any other kind of a car or motor test.
The magneto could not be covered with a leather boot, the gasoline line could not be taped or enclosed in rubber tubing, the spark plug wires could not have tape wrapped around them so that they could be handled
more easily if occasion demanded it.
The stock magneto, carburetor, storage battery and everything else had to be just the same as on any Maxwell car which is offered to the public with the following exceptions: An extra tool box on the runningboard,
an extra speedometer and a spare
tire mounted carried in the rear.

In addition to the mechanical examination the party getting the sanction is required to make affidavit to the fact that the car is absolutely stock.

To allow for the possibility of choking the motor in traffic or for any other exigency not caused by any mechanical condition, the driver is allowed sixty seconds to get his motor running again if it should stop. For the proper timing of any such stops the observers carry at all times stop watches. If the motor should stop for a period of time greater than sixty seconds, the run is terminated.

The observers are with the car
also for the purpose of checking all gas, oil and water that goes into the car as well as any tire changes, mechanical work or road stops of any nature.

SALE A SUCCESS

In spite of the inclement weather,
the Men's Shirt Sale being conducted by the Men's Shop, 1109 W. Broadway, is a decided success. The store's stock of 100 dozen shirts have been put on sale at straight reduction of 25 per cent, and naturally, the men of Glendale are taking advantage of the big discount.

W. C. T. U. ANNIVERSARY

One of the most important events in the history of the local W. C. T.
U. organization will be celebrated Friday, Jan. 7, when the Glendale society commemorates its eleventh anniversary. The affair will take place in the Presbyterian church, corner of Broadway and Cedar streets, from 10 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.
All local White Ribboners, past and present, are cordially invited to take part in the celebration. Members of the organization from other states will be made heartily welcome.

The forenoon will be given to social amenities. Interesting reminis-cences of the work of the society from its foundation in 1886 down to the present hour will be given by various members. Plans for the work during the coming season will be discussed.

At noon luncheon will be served by the brothers of the order in an entirely new and original style. The regular program will begin at 2 p. m.

One of the interesting features of the gathering will be the presentation of fourteen new members who will enter on the state work. State
Vice President Mrs. Hester T. Griffith will make the presentation. Mrs.
Griffith, who organized the Glendale Union in 1905, will speak on the work accomplished by the W. C. T.
U. during the past decade. Mrs. Griffith is a most interesting speaker.
She has a wide knowledge of the history of the Union throughout the United States and can tell many interesting stories concerning its early struggles and constantly growing successes.
Good music and interesting readings will be given by some of Glendale's most popular artists. The time will pass pleasantly and profitably for all. Come and help us to celebrate this anniversary.

MUSIC SECTION

The Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will resume their regular meeting beginning Friday, January the 14th.
This meeting will be held in the home of the curator or said section,

SPINSTERS' TEA

A truly novel form of entertainment had as its hostesses the Misses Bertha and Elizabeth Jackson, for on Saturday evening these charming and talented girls bade guests to their home at 1416 Milford street to attend a "Spinsters' tea." Each guest bidden was requested to bring the photo of one rejected suitor. Those present told in turn the story of the wooing and rejection of the photographed man. Miss Margaret Sharp's proved the most thrilling and was awarded a beautiful gift prize.

Others forced to disclose a single chapter of the past were the Misses Margaret Sharp, Laura-Wilfred Brown, Louise Brown, Lillian Shropshire, Helen Mosher, B. J. Julia Sharp, Birdie Shropshire, Muriel Wilson, Edith Bal, Gladys Sharp, Grace Shropshire and the two hostesses.

A pleasing program was given by Miss Bertha Jackson, who is a talented reader, vocal selections by Miss Helen Mosher and Miss Elizabeth Jackson pleased with several piano selections.

The affair was also in the nature of a farewell, for Miss Bertha Jackson leaves on Sunday next, January 9, for Deming, New Mexico, to be absent several months.

USHERING IN 1916

One of the merry happenings on New Year's Eve was the watch party given by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Wightman in their home at 601 S. Central avenue. Following so soon in the wake of Christmas celebrations, the decorative motif of red and green predominated.

The earlier hours of the evening were given over to games and cards. When the merry-makers were at the height of their fun the stillness of the night was broken by the blowing of whistles and ringing of bells announcing that 1916 had already begun. After the exchanges of greetings among the guests, they wandered to the porches of the Wightman home, mingling the noise of their horns.

Shortly after the midnight hour, supper was served at one long board, cards marking places for Mr. and Mrs. David Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. C. Alton Bridges, all of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. H. "SCOUTING IN THE DICTIONARY"

Boys Life, the official magazine of the scout movement, wants to prove to its readers that the dictionary is really interesting. It has turned the study of the dictionary into a game, by proposing a simple contest—the forming of words out of the letters contained in the phrase "Boy Scouts of America." Forty-four prizes are offered to boys who make the largest number of words; these prizes will be six dictionaries, 20 story books, and 18 subscriptions to the magazine.

Boys' Life is now publishing interesting stories which show the dictionary to be a book of wonders, not a mere bundle of difficult words. As the boys who enter the contest search the dictionary's pages, they will find that the book opens up new worlds to them—new words which they will find useful ever after.

CLIFFORD AT BAPTIST CHURCH

All who make the effort to attend the lecture on "Java" by Rev. Clifford, pastor of the Alhambra First Baptist church, will greatly benefit themselves. A troupe in native costumes will help illustrate the lecture. School life, market and village customs, native wedding and funeral scenes, war dances, etc., will be presented in a fashion that will bring the audience into the heart of that strange and distant land. Wherever the Cliffords appear very favorable press comments follow. No admission will be charged. A freewill offering will be taken. Doors of the church will be opened at 7:30. The date is tomorrow, Wednesday, January 5.

THE SWEET-JUICED MAPLE

In summer, if you've happened to be near one of these trees, you've noticed little green objects whirling through the air and dropping here and there on the grass or the leaf carpet of the forest. Look at the tree and you'll see it is covered with pairs of these little flyers, each with a flat blade-like wing and joined together at the base, where they are attached to the branch. As they ripen they fall from the tree, float away with their wings twirling and drop their seed some place where it will grow. The tree is the maple.

All maples use this aerial method of scattering their seed. The one we'll look at today is the sugar maple, also called the rock, or hard maple. It is a giant and deserves to lead the family procession. It puts on its dress of leaves somewhat later than the soft maples, and waits until October before sending forth its winged seed. As a lumber and shade tree, however, it's best of all.

This is the tree from which we get maple sugar. Its sap is sweet and in the spring, when the warmer weather begins to send the tree's life bloom from the trunk into the tips of the limb we tap the tree and steal some of its sweetness. In some parts of the country, notably Vermont, it is a profitable business. The sap is boiled down into sirup and sugar.—Philadelphia North-American.

WINTER OF HORRORS AWAITS SOLDIERS

By William G. Shepherd
 (United Press Staff Correspondent)
MONASTIR, Serbia, Dec. 24 (By Mail)—Balkan soldiers suffer more than those of any other nation. How the Bulgarians, the newcomers, will conduct their medical corps, remains to be seen. Winter imposes almost insurmountable difficulties on an army in the Balkans owing to the new roads and the almost incessant mud and rain. The Germans and the Austrians, with their automobile ambulances, have dodged the hardest and worst parts of Serbia. The German line extends down into Serbia only 50 miles and the Germans seem satisfied with that. There is little chance of their coming further. The Austrian line reaches only slightly deeper into the little ally country. The Austrians and the Germans appear to have the single intention of connecting with the Bulgarians, if possible, in the northeastern tip of Serbia and avoiding the Bad Lands.

But the Bulgarians will not have such easy going. Their wounded and sick must be carried on springless wagons drawn, oftentimes, by oxen which plod through the knee deep mud in a slow and dismal procession. Some of the difficulties that will be faced by the Bulgarians may be measured by what I have seen along the roads near Monastir and in the hospitals here. Most of the Serbian wounded suffer from gas gangrene, owing to the lack of attention imposed by the long, slow car journeys. Small wounds that would have meant only a week in the hospital if prompt medical attention could have been given, are killing men with pain and poison.

American as well as Serbian doctors are helpless against gas gangrene. Quinine is being tried in Serbia now and wounded men are being given doses almost unbelievably large and potent and the doctors fancy that the gas gangrene victims are helped slightly by the new treatment. Explosive bullets are another cause of horrible suffering in the Balkan fighting. Not content with sending a bullet through an enemy, the Balkan battlers often use bullets that explode. Let one of these bullets strike a bone and it creates in the flesh all the havoc of a miniature Jack Johnson shell, actually shredding and spattering flesh in all directions from the person of the unhappy target. All of a leg or arm below the point where an explosive bullet has struck, the bone may as well be amputated, for the bone will be splintered, the flesh blown away and gas gangrene imminent. In the hospital here is a farmer boy who was hit in the right arm and leg by a bullet which came from above him. The bullet exploded in the leg, shattering it, and the leg was taken off by the doctors. Gas gangrene set in in the arm and that, too, was amputated. The young man thereby gains the doubtful distinction of having lost a leg and an arm by one small bullet. The world is likely to hear little this winter of what is going on in Serbia because the fog of war which covers actual fighting grounds obscures much that the world ought to know. But the Serbians will be suffering incredibly, as will also the invaders who enter the heart of the country.

THE PUBLIC HAS A SHORT MEMORY

Just a short time back this nation was agog with a presidential campaign. The three principal contenders, you will remember, were Messrs. Wilson, Taft and Roosevelt.

Each of these men was supported by a vice-presidential candidate, and the names and pictures of the "big six" were printed in every newspaper and magazine in the land—not once but millions of times.

Surely, here was more publicity than has ever been put behind any dozen advertised commodities in the whole world. Here was a huge campaign of preferred position in more than 25,000 American newspapers alone.

But—quick now—see if you can name the vice-presidential candidate who ran with Colonel Roosevelt—or Taft.

Unless you possess a very long memory or an unusually keen interest in politics, you will have to do like the rest of us—reach for the almanac, won't you?

So, right here, you see, is a little thought which should "sink in."

There is only one kind of advertising that begins to be worth while. It is persistent, continuous advertising.—The Link.

VACANT LOT PROBLEM

GLENDALE GARDEN SOCIETY TO CONSIDER UTILIZATION OF UNOCCUPIED GROUND

On Thursday evening, January 6, at 8 o'clock, the Garden society will hold its regular meeting at the Chamber of Commerce, 1011 W. Broadway. A social half hour will precede the meeting. A program of great interest has been arranged. Mr. Chas. Dawson and Mrs. Anna Lucky, both of Pasadena, will speak on the "Municipal Employment of the Unemployed on Vacant Lots." This experiment now conducted in Pasadena is being watched with much eagerness by other municipalities. From these two speakers we shall hear the economic side of this vacant lot problem.

City Manager Watson will help with the legal viewpoint; he will tell how much authority the law gives the city and the individual regarding the care of vacant lots and parkings. Manager Watson wants to be asked questions. Let us shower him with intelligent inquiries.

The president, Mrs. Nanno Woods, will offer a suggestion as to the care of the untidy, unbeautiful parking along Brand boulevard; her suggestion may not be worth much, but it would be interesting to hear what other people have to say about it. She would be glad even to be flatly opposed, for anything is better than a do-nothing, think-nothing attitude of mind; and a lively discussion is sure to bring out many valuable points of view.

Judge Harry Miller will give an account of the Window box campaign recently started in the business center of Glendale. Window boxes have made Hamburger's the talk not only of Los Angeles, but of the states, and other Los Angeles merchants are fast following their example. Why should not Glendale, too, become the subject of magazine writers and magazine photographers throughout the United States?

Mrs. Woods strongly urges every member of the Garden society to attend this meeting and to bring a friend along. Let that friend preferably be a real estate man. For you must know, dear members, but let it be a whispered secret, that the real estate men of Glendale are just too awfully shy or too awfully busy so far to take any interest in the Gardea society. We have members from every walk of life, over 75 loyal, enthusiastic members; why should the real estate profession not be represented?

Dr. and Mrs. McArthur were recent visitors at headquarters. Talk about enthusiastic members! Mrs. McArthur is bringing six new members with her next Thursday. She is fairly bubbling over with loyalty and goodwill to the Garden Society. Headquarters seemed full of sunshine radiating from her gracious presence.

Mrs. Klee of 1319 Chestnut offers slips of her very fine red ivy geraniums to all who care to call at her residence for them. Miss Anderson of 1419 West Third street sent about a hundred cuttings of pink ivy geraniums to the president this week.

Owing to the wet weather many people have been unable to avail themselves of the offer of half-a-dozen carnation slips free to every one joining the society before the 6th, the offer is therefore extended for another week.

Mrs. W. W. McElroy, Mrs. Sydney Dell, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Braly have all joined recently. The membership will soon be up to the hundred mark. Watch us grow.

The president, Mrs. Nanno Woods, wishes each and all a happy and prosperous New Year.

GREAT MISSIONARY MEETING

Under the auspices of the National Laymen's Missionary Movement, which is conducting similar missionary campaigns in seventy-five cities in the United States and Canada, a great missionary convention will be held, for men only, at the Bible Institute auditorium, Feb. 27 to March 1. This convention is expected to be attended by more than 5000. There will be no collections, offerings or subscriptions taken. A registration fee of one dollar entitles the delegate to all the privileges of the meeting. Foreign and Home Mission and Social Service workers will speak. J. Campbell White, one of the founders of the Laymen's Missionary movement, will be the leading orator. The Church Federation of Los Angeles and the California State Church Federation are co-operating in the convention.

NOT A MOVIE

Glendale Evening News: I heard two men talking about the coming Masonic play a day or two ago. One of them said that it was a movie. The other insisted that it was to be produced by real honest to goodness people. The insistent one was right.

While "A Bachelor's Romance" has been done in pictures as well as nearly all the other important stage successes, this production is essentially a "live" one. We are not movie actors either. In fact, very few of us have ever even seriously considered becoming such. I firmly refuse to state the reason why. It's our secret—perhaps our misfortune. ONE OF THE CAST.

A THEATRICAL JINKS

Now that that much heralded Masonic play, "A Bachelor's Romance," is moving along to an early production, dates January 13th and 14th, it should not be betraying secrets to say that it has been a long time in getting here.

Rehearsals were started early last year—this is 1916, with an enthusiastic cast and an energetic director in the person of Mr. Dan Bruce. Things progressed nicely for a time, but a refractory molar which had decided to retire from active service and succeeded remarkably well in making the decision known, drew Mr. Bruce's mind away from such trivialities as plays and players.

Mrs. Bruce, known on the stage as Margo Duffet, took charge of rehearsals, and when the aching void where once a tooth had been allowed Mr. Bruce to resume his duties as director an attractive theatrical engagement offered itself and the Bruces regretfully (?) hid themselves away.

Time waned, various members of the cast taking command, each giving it up as "a bad job."

Younger members of the cast bade fair to grow too old for juvenile roles, the older members began to fear that by the time the production should be ready they must have passed, perforce, into the shadowland where all actors go sooner or later—we do not refer to the movies.

Mr. Willis Marks was called on to whip the piece into shape and he has flogged to some purpose.

The show will go on rain or shine the 13th and 14th of this month.

"A Bachelor's Romance," not a picture this time but real.

TRAJAN'S WALL

The stretch of the Danube between Russia and Bulgaria, through Roumania, passes two great works, ancient and modern, in close proximity. One is Trajan's wall, a double rampart of earth extending from the river to the Rumanian Black sea port, Constanza. Just below this the Danube is crossed by the great railway bridge of the Bucharest-Constanza line, one of the most wonderful engineering triumphs of the modern world. The biggest of its 68 spans is a cantilever of over 200 yards, crossing the main stream. The piers are laid in water nearly 100 feet deep, while at low water the height of the bridge exceeds 120 feet. It cost about $7,000,000.—Exchange.

MY SHADOW

I have a little shadow that goes in and out with me,
 And what can be the use of him is more than I can see.
 He is very, very like me from the heels up to the head;
 And I see him jump before me, when I jump into my bed.

The funniest thing about him is the way he likes to grow—
 Not at all like proper children, which is always very slow;
 For he sometimes shoots up taller like an india-rubber ball,
 And he sometimes gets so little that there's none of him at all.

He hasn't got a notion of how children ought to play,
 And he can only make a fool of me in every sort of way.
 He stays so close beside me, he's a coward you can see;
 I'd think shame to stick to nurse as that shadow sticks to me.

One morning, very early, before the sun was up,
 I rose and found the shining dew on every buttercup;
 But my lazy little shadow, like an arrant sleepy-head,
 Had stayed at home behind me and was fast asleep in bed.
