

AUTO STOLEN

DARING AUTO THIEVES TAKE H. G. MCBAIN'S MACHINE FROM IN FRONT OF PALACE GRAND

H. G. McBain of Shaver's Grocery Company, is minus a perfectly good Oakland touring car. He and Mrs. McBain drove it to the Palace Grand theatre about seven o'clock Friday evening and left it almost in front of the entrance in view of the ticket seller. Ordinarily Mr. McBain would have taken the precaution to lock it, but this time when he had secured such a near and conspicuous location he did not consider it necessary. Mrs. McBain, who had received a very handsome robe from her mother for a Christmas gift, did not want to run the risk of losing it, so took it with her to their seats in the theatre. When they came out about 8:45 o'clock, the car was gone. Mr. McBain does not know when it was taken, neither does anyone else. Across the way from the theatre Officer Lampert was at his post but not knowing the car or its owner, he would have no reason to challenge any one who might take possession of it and drive away. Mr. McBain carries auto theft insurance in a company represented by W. B. Kirk and if he does not recover his car the insurance company will make a satisfactory settlement with the owner of the car.

VALENTINE SUPPER

It was a happy occasion at the residence of Mrs. Sidney Dell, 622 Louise street, Glendale, when two of our soldier boys, Mr. Milburn Edwards of Oklahoma, now of Tropic, and Mr. Louie Lambermont, were entertained St. Valentine's eve.

The two young men expect to leave for a training camp some time within a month. The friends who greeted these dear boys were those who are grateful for the sacrifice they are making.

The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. U. F. Newlin, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Squier, Miss Helen Hardey, Miss Sherwood of North Glendale, Mr. L. Lambermont, his mother, Mrs. J. Lewis, his sister, Miss Louise Lambermont, Miss Helen Strangler, Milburn Edwards, Miss Ethel Kennedy, Mrs. Willie Clark, Miss Dorothy Moffatt, and Misses Laura and Margaret Conkle, all of Tropic.

The house was decorated for the occasion with the stars and stripes, and a very pleasant musical and literary entertainment was given, followed by refreshments served by the hostess. The evening closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Mr. Lanterman, Mr. Muhleman and Mrs. Jackson of the Exemption Board and Mr. Church of the Chamber of Commerce all took part in establishing the new arrangements.

The Exemption Board's desks, tables and cases are concentrated just back of the Chamber of Commerce exhibits which are once more in position to be seen by the public. All are cordially invited to come in and see the exhibit. It is worth while. There is room also for other curios and pictures. The loan of any interesting things will be welcomed.

FAMOUS INVENTOR

W. C. CUTLER SAYS THAT PUBLIC SHOULD BE INTERESTED IN PATENTS

Glendale has among her people many who have won distinction in other parts in various lines and who have been lured here by climatic conditions to enjoy the benefits of their earlier efforts. One of these is Mr. W. C. Cutler of 1327 N. Louise street, a distinguished inventor. However it must not be understood that Mr. Cutler has retired for he is just now in his prime and his fertile brain is still busy with ideas for creating and perfecting all sorts of devices. He owns 138 inventions of his own and last year put in application to the U. S. patent office for sixteen patents, eight of which have been granted.

Mr. Cutler is one of those rare mortals who have business judgment coupled with inventive ability so that he has been able to enjoy the fruits of his genius to a very large extent, a situation in which few inventors find themselves.

This gentleman is in a position to speak with authority about inventions and patents. He says the business of the U. S. patent office is understood by the general public less than any other branch of government business. "Probably one in five thousand of the business and professional men in this country, including attorneys, knows what protection is received with a patent on an invention from the U. S. patent office," said Mr. Cutler. He thinks the public is at fault in its indifference in this matter for patents are issued in the interests of the people and not for the benefit of the inventor. Think of the millions of patents that have been issued in the past years of which we ordinary mortals are now enjoying the benefits and you will see that Mr. Cutler is right.

"Application for an original patent on an invention merely lays the foundation for improvements," says this inventor, "and after the first broad claims are allowed by the patent examiners, other applications written must necessarily be less broad in a given art, this fact being the foundation for patent protection for the inventor and the public."

"More than ever real inventors are coming into their own. Today the public demands to know who the real inventors are. They are not so much interested in the financial success of inventions as they were a few years ago," he said.

Mr. Cutler related an interesting reminiscence to illustrate how the people demand improvements in inventions. About twenty years ago he completed what was known as the Peeposcope, the first film slot picture machine. He tested it out in a town of about 3000 population, in Oregon. He took his invention out more than fifteen blocks from the center of the city and in less than four hours there were hundreds of people gathered about it. The same machine exhibited under the same conditions today might attract a few school children if conveniently located to the school house at recess.

"No man can attempt to put a limit on the development in this line in the next few years," said Mr. Cutler. "We of the United States are wonderful along the lines of invention but have been poor developers of our inventions. We have been content to let the more patient foreign people improve and develop but present conditions will bring about a wonderful change in this respect."

"Few people know that about 700 patents are issued from the U. S. patent office each week, probably more than in all the rest of the world combined." In speaking of the U-boat menace Mr. Cutler said, "The inventors of the United States produce more than half of all the important inventions of the world and still there are skeptical souls who think the power of the submarine can not be destroyed. It's a big job, but just keep your ear to the ground for a while and listen. We have tackled bigger and much less important jobs than this one and have always succeeded. 'He who smiles last smiles best.'" In this connection a little bird whispers that the authorities are now considering a device for this very purpose invented by a Glendale, California man.

Mr. Cutler takes exception to Edison's statement that there is no money in inventions and promises the News his views along that line. Inventions completed by our Glendale inventor the past year on some of which patents have already been granted, include:

An ice making and refrigerating machine, employing a liquid agent called Rhigolene. This machine is driven by direct connection with a one-quarter horse power single phase

DEBATING HONORS

GLENDALE HIGH'S TEAM WINS AGAINST SANTA ANA AND PASADENA

A good audience composed largely of students and an audience which scattered itself promiscuously over the auditorium, assembled for the excellent debate which came off Friday evening at Union High in which representatives of the Santa Ana High School, Edmund West and David Smiley, presented the negative side against Harlan Durand and Phillip Wernette, our own High School boys, on the question: "Resolved that the present Congress should enact legislation permitting the immigration of Chinese laborers to the United States for the period of the war, such laborers to be under bond to return to China at the termination of the war."

It was scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock but as a matter of fact did not start until about forty minutes later. In this interval the idle reporter felt convicted in watching a small boy across the aisle manipulate a pair of steel needles and a ball of blue yarn, and a small girl, not far away, similarly employed on a khaki muffler. The majority of the audience however were unemployed but they were not allowed to get dull. It was the business of the High School Band to prevent that and they did it in fine shape. Their music was of the explosive, quick-step kind so dear to the heart of youth, and they played with such rollicking infectious good spirits that the audience speedily became their comrades and grinned cheerfully without knowing just what the joke was. Front seats were occupied by the yell team between whom and the band members there was an excellent understanding. They demanded their favorites and were cheerfully accommodated. When band members paused for breath they were speedily applauded into action again.

At last the debaters made their appearance on the platform and the yell team got in its work, a very satisfactory yell for Santa Ana and a more elaborate one for Glendale.

John Hutton, who was the alternate of the debating team, who presided with credit to himself and the school, announced the rules governing the contest and the names of the judges, viz. Prof. John C. Shedd, of Occidental College, Prof. E. H. Mc-Matt of University of Southern California, and Prof. Kimber of Whittier.

Harlan Durant was then introduced as the first speaker and made an excellent argument. Very vehement and in earnest, he carried the audience with him. No less pleasing was his colleague, Phillip Wernette, who had an easy manner and a convincing logic which made an exceedingly favorable impression.

The Santa Ana boys appeared to be handicapped by a lack of strong arguments on their side. Edmond West had a pleasing presence but spoke too rapidly to be well understood and was closely confined to his notes. David Smiley had not sufficient animation to effectively present his arguments.

The chief points made by the affirmative were the great labor shortage on the farms, the fact that the Chinese are the finest agricultural laborers in the world, the most contented and least liable to strike, that the farmers want them and the Chinese government is willing to loan them to the farmers of the United States during the period of the war, to be returned at its close, and that without some immediate arrangement for the efficient production of food, the war may be lost.

Negative speakers set forth the vast amount of cheap Mexican labor at our doors which does not have to be imported at great expense, which does not antagonize labor unions, will not require the use of ships needed for the transport of soldiers, food and munitions, and for those reasons the proposed legislation would be inexpedient.

The judges did not require much time to make their decision and gave it unanimously to the affirmative speakers, Mr. Durand and Mr. Wernette. A big cheer went up from the school, the yell team let loose again, the band began to play, and the friends of the debaters swarmed upon the platform to congratulate the victors.

While this was going on, two more Glendale boys, Frank Balthis, winner of the $20 gold medal, and Berna Martin, editor of the Explosion, were winning a like victory in Pasadena where two of the three judges decided in their favor. The judges were Miss Edith Everett, debating coach of Hollywood High, Mr. Horton, debating coach of Franklin High, and Mr. Kirkpatrick of Eagle Rock. One who was present

PROFIT OUT OF LOSS

TOM SHIMA WILL PAY CITY FOR PRIVILEGE OF COLLECTING GARBAGE

The City of Glendale is about to convert loss and expense into profit. At the Trustees' meeting Thursday evening an enterprising Japanese, Tom Shima by name, submitted a proposition to collect the garbage of the municipality in accordance with ordinance regulations and to pay the sum of $100 for same. Heretofore the city has been paying $4.50 per day for the collection of this refuse including tin cans, and there is little doubt that the Committee of the Whole, to which the proposition was referred, will award the contract to Shima. This will leave upon the city only the responsibility of collecting the tin cans. Perhaps the Red Cross Salvage Department will discover some profitable way of utilizing this waste metal which will make even that junk a source of revenue to the city or the Red Cross.

LIBRARY STAFF ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Isabel Jordan, 918 West Fifth street entertained the Library staff last Thursday evening with a valentine party. Part of the guests came early in the evening, the others, whose duties required their presence at the library, came later.

There was a candy heart hunt and prizes were given to those who got the greatest number.

Mrs. Jordan spent last winter in Honolulu and entertained her guests with views and anecdotes of that interesting country and also provided a guessing contest based on Philippine Island facts. Miss Marian Carmichael won the prize in this test of wits.

Hearts were very much in evidence in the party decorations and figured to some extent in the dainty refreshments which the hostess served at the close of the evening. She was the recipient of a beautiful valentine of sweet peas, the gift of her guests who were: Mrs. John C. Danford, Mrs. W. N. Pierce, Mrs. Chas. D. Shattuck, Misses Laura E. Roberts, Marguerite Stauffacher, Marian Carmichael, Leone Shattuck, Mildred Swinburne, May Church.

FIRST BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Wayland Brown celebrated the first birthday of her little daughter with a children's party at the home of her hostess, Mrs. Joseph Ashton, 222 El Bonita avenue Friday afternoon. All the children of the neighborhood were invited and given big pieces of the birthday cake illuminated by one handsome candle. "An enjoyable time was had by all, especially the grown-ups who looked on," so reports one of the guests who is a reliable person.

KILLED BY BLAST

J. L. Denny of 419 Verdugo Road, Friday received a telegram advising him that his younger brother, who spent the winter with him in Glendale about five years ago, had been killed while blasting stumps on his farm at Leesburg, Ohio. Mr. Denny has not received particulars of this said affair but assumes that he must have been struck by some flying fragment. He was also advised that funeral services will be held Sunday, too soon for him to be able to reach there in time.

CHAPTER B. A. MEETING

Chapter B. A., P. E. O. held an all-day meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Eva Cunningham, 330 South Orange street. Conforming to the spirit of the times the program was of patriotic nature. Guests were Mrs. H. E. Bartlett of Chapter L, Mrs. H. D. Dreisbach of Los Angeles and Mrs. E. H. Willisford of Claremont who is a member of the chapter. Mrs. H. H. Parker gave a very instructive talk on the flag and Mrs. A. D. Cross spoke interestingly on our National Song. Mrs. Frank N. Arnold sang the "Star Spangled Banner" and Mrs. Willisford gave an instructive travel talk.

reports that it was an interesting debate and that the home boys in delivery and argument did good work. They were opposed by Messrs. Trautman and Moore.

The winning of both debates has naturally made the Glendale League very happy. They have defeated this season Lincoln High, Santa Ana and Pasadena and have lost only to Pomona, the champion team. This last victory gives them eight judges out of a possible twelve and the second place in the Southwestern Debating League.

motor and is controlled by a thermostat which causes it to run absolutely automatic. Should you desire to keep your refrigerator at 40 degrees Fahrenheit, set the thermostat accordingly and it will automatically hold this temperature, as well as freezing table ice in the brine tank placed in your refrigerator, which, under the above conditions, would show a temperature of about 24 degrees. This machine under test, has taken care of a well heat insulated refrigerator containing forty cubic feet of air space, besides supplying table ice, for four months, with little or no care on the part of the owner.

A pie and bread wrapping machine, that will wrap, neater than you could possibly manually wrap, one thousand pies per hour, and by changing the cups (which requires but ten minutes time) the same number of five or ten cent loaves of bread can be wrapped with the same action. The bread or pies never need to be touched by the hand after being placed in the oven. The baker removing the bread or pies from the oven with a large scoop, places them on a belt which carries them direct to the wrapping machine. This same action is being used in a large factory today under test, for making pasteboard boxes. This factory had twenty-two girls employed making boxes. One girl today who could operate five machines, is supplying the factory by the operation of this one machine.

An ice cream vending and wrapping machine. Drop five or ten cents in a slot prepared to receive the same, the proper amount of brick ice cream, will, without further effort on your part, immediately be cut off and, removed from the freezer, wrapped in cone shape in paper and delivered on the brass plate to purchaser. This machine has many novel features and the action could be used for various purposes, for example, packing candy in artistically arranged boxes, etc.

A weight raising device, which provides inexpensive means for raising weight or load and holding it in any intermediate position. This device in actual practice will be a wonderful saving in supplying power for various purposes where power by other means is not obtainable, or expensive to secure. Momentum being the nearest approach to perpetual motion, is used, applied to its highest known efficiency in this device.

An automatic directory device, designed to be placed in a given district, say, for example, in the principal towns in New Mexico, Arizona and California, and the names and addresses of professional and business men compiled in alphabetical order and placed in each machine distributed throughout the district, machines being installed in public places such as hotels, depots, etc. The service is absolutely free to the public. To use the machine; for example, should you be in Seccoro, New Mexico, and desire the name, address and telephone number of a professional or business man in Glendale, all that is required of you is to step upon the platform, turn the pointer on the dial to the name "Glendale," operate the push button, and immediately there will appear in view the names and addresses of the professional and business men in Glendale. This device can be advantageously used in most every bank, office or business house. The card system used in this cabinet is alphabetically arranged, the same as the ordinary card system used so commonly today. Information compiled and placed on any of the many cards therein, can be instantly brought into view by the operator.

An appointment clock. This is small and compact, purely mechanical in action and very simple and cheap to construct. In action, should you call at my place of business and say, "I will return to see you at 10:30 o'clock twenty days from today," all that is required of me is to take your business card, place it in the container out of sight, and twenty days from that time at 10:30 the card will protrude from its opening, a phonograph speaks out, "You have an appointment at this hour," and a buzzer continues to ring until you relieve the container of the card. With this particular design you can have an appointment every five minutes for thirty days, for twelve hours each day. With the same mechanism rearranged, clocks conveniently placed in a hotel and connected by wire with each room; the guest comes in in the evening and says to the clerk, "My room number is 500, give me a call at 7:10 a. m.," at which hour in the morning a light appears and a buzzer sounds in the clock in the office, at the same time a bell continues to ring in room 500 until relieved by either attendant or guest. For a time clock in a factory, a workman comes in at eight in the morning, relieves the slot corresponding to his number of the key, walks to his bench, replaces the key in a slot arranged over his bench, which is connected by wire to the clock; the exact time that he relieved the slot of the key and placed the key in the slot over his bench, is immediately recorded.

Metallic Honeycomb, and the method of constructing the same, which has many novel features. After dipping the comb in melted beeswax the bees immediately fill same with honey, eliminating their labor of making the wax.

An under-reamer for the purpose of drilling wells; oil, water, etc.

Rotary pressure and vacuum pumps, for use in vacuum and compression work.

Non-skid device, which spins the Weed chains on the tires of your automobile while the machine is in motion, released by a lever from the driver's seat.

House cooling device, which stores the power to operate the same by the action of water flowing through the water pipes of your residence. Each time you open a faucet allowing the water to run, in your home for any purpose, you are storing power to operate this device.

A wave motor, which stores its power on the downward motion being just the opposite of any other wave motor, and is so constructed that there is equal resistance on all sides at all times.

A MOCK TRIAL

Enacted by the members of the Monday Night Mission Study Class of the Presbyterian church. The study text book is "The Lure of Africa," covering a course of six lessons under the leadership of Dr. Ernest Hall, of San Francisco. The class meets in the Sunday School room of the Presbyterian church at 7:30.

In the court room of the World, the case in the trial is The World versus Europe, the indictment being, Europe is charged with bringing to Africa more evil than good through secular civilization.

Counsel for the defense and the prosecution with opening and closing speeches and the examination of four witnesses on each side with cross-questions, will cover about three-quarters of an hour, the judge strictly observing the time schedule. The public is cordially invited.

IMPORTANT MEETING

The Executive Board of the Glendale P. T. A. will meet Monday next at 2:15 p. m. at the Intermediate School. Very important matters will come up for consideration.

DWIGHT L. STEPHENSON

It is a great satisfaction to the relatives of Mrs. Mary Jane West, who expired suddenly Tuesday last and who was laid to rest in Forest Lawn Thursday, that her grandson, Dwight L. Stephenson, whom she had longed to see in his uniform, spent the week-end at home and had a good visit with his grandmother. On Monday she expressed her satisfaction in his appearance as a soldier and no one could then imagine it would be his last visit with her. Dwight was given a furlough for the funeral at which he in association with his father, Andrew Stephenson, and Messrs. John A. Logan and John Hobbs, sons-in-law of Mrs. West, served as pall bearers. He was given leave until Sunday afternoon, and Friday addressed the History Class of Union High. He also visited the headquarters of the Exemption Board and renewed acquaintance with Mrs. Jackson, whom he knew as a business associate in the law office of Mattison B. Jones.

EXEMPTION BOARD NOTES

Ernest Lynn Soister of Burbank is to go today to Camp Fremont, Palo Alto to join the Pioneer Engineering Corps for early service in France. His is a case of special induction through the offices of the local Exemption Board.

Of the 1934 Questionnaires on file with the Exemption Board, something more than 500 have been reviewed and indexed by the teachers who are working after school hours at the office of the Exemption Board. Glendale is one of the few places where this work is well advanced. Governor Stephens has issued a special call for service on the part of teachers along this line. In many localities nothing has been done as yet.

Walt Le Noir Church has completed his work for the Exemption Board and severed his connection with it as an employee. He welcomes the break as it will give him more time to put into promotion work for the Chamber of Commerce.

ELECTION CARRIES

The election in the Grand View District Friday at which its citizens voted on the proposition to annex to Glendale carried in favor of annexation by a vote of 25 to 2. This adds to the city a territory of about 345 acres, and in the neighborhood of seventy-five voters.

REV. COLE IN DEMAND

Glendale is always glad to lend the help of its leaders to other communities for he who is in most demand for his services abroad is of greater usefulness at home. There is scarcely a week that Rev. C. A. Cole of the Christian Church is not called upon for service outside the city. Last night he was a judge in the annual debate between Whittier College and the University of Redlands. Tonight he is to give an address at an Institute in Pomona. Twice this month he has spoken in large meetings at Long Beach.

PATRIOTIC PARTY

Mrs. Charles Hutchinson of 200 Orange street entertained Friday evening for her son, Paul Hutchinson with a valentine and patriotic party at which the thirty-nine children of the A. 8 Class of the Intermediate School, and their teacher, Miss Elizabeth Jackson, were guests.

American flags, valentines and large pictures of Washington and Lincoln constituted the special decorations for the event.

The boys and girls had a delightful evening playing games, charades and guessing contests, for which valentines were given as prizes. Home-made cake and punch were served as refreshments.

Any mail carrier will sell you Thrift Stamps.

"JOSEPH"

was the original Hoover. Did you ever read the great T. De Witt Talmage's sermon on Life Insurance? In it he shows that the first Life Insurance Company was Divinely organized when Joseph, at God's command, stored up the product of the seven good years against the famine of the succeeding seven. Mr. Talmage clearly established the fact that insurance is "a theme vital, religious, and of infinite import, and it is time for the pulpit to speak out."

I can not understand why the "men of the cloth" do not preach more sermons on life insurance. It is so clearly taught in the Scriptures that an occasional discourse on the subject ought to be preached—yet how seldom do we hear it! Ask me for a copy of Talmage's sermon—free.

RED CROSS NOTES

Twenty-four new chairs have been bought for use in the Red Cross headquarters. Workers and visitors are becoming so numerous that the seating capacity of the place had to be increased.

Mrs. Cornelia Williamson, Chairman of Production for the Santa Monica Red Cross Chapter, and Miss Lorenca Anderson, from the same Chapter were visitors at headquarters this week.

The War Relief and Recreation Committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of which Mrs. Dan Campbell is Chairman, has donated its membership fees, amounting to $19 to the Glendale Chapter.

The Red Cross Concert in Union High Auditorium Tuesday evening netted $23.65 for the Chapter's Treasury.

Employees of the Glendale Laundry are making regular monthly contributions to the Chapter which average about $12.

Mrs. Ben Nichols will exhibit at the Glendale schools garments for Belgian Relief which have been made at the Pasadena Chapter and loaned to the Junior Red Cross of Glendale for inspection.

Mrs. Ezra Parker has been elected chairman of the Knitting Department of the Glendale Chapter to take the place of Mrs. Carter who is going North to live. Mrs. Parker has been assisting this week to get her hand in preparatory to taking charge next week.

Returns from the Red Cross store from January 10th to February 6th amounted to $63.

Art Classes of the Grammar schools have been making some fine signs and posters for the Red Cross headquarters. One which is particularly effective is at the entrance to the workroom.

The treasury of the Glendale Chapter is richer by $10, the proceeds of a box party auction at the home of Mrs. H. V. Henry, who recently entertained at 1427 Patterson avenue.

Fifteen new members have been enrolled at Chapter headquarters since the membership report last week.

Work on leather waistcoats under Miss Griffith was proceeding at a very encouraging rate Friday afternoon. Workers who are thus occupied were: Mesdames H. V. Henry, W. R. Heustis, Geo. A. Whitaker, G. E. Whittemore, T. C. Gillett, C. D. Shattuck, Scott F. Whitaker, Emma L. Edwards and Miss Rose Yokel.

The Surgical Dressings Department on Friday was under the instruction of Mrs. Boothby, assisted by Mrs. Stephen Packer. Other workers were: Mesdames Fred Russell, O. Spencer, O. T. Walker, M. E. Brode, Meta Hearnshaw, O. L. Papineau, C. E. Harlan, B. H. Ward, Fred Myton, McLaughlin White, Stephen C. Packer, C. L. Peckham, Thomas Wood, T. S. Leavitt, E. D. Yard, L. M. Whitaker, Geo. A. Whitaker, H. A. LaGross, H. M. Petty.

FEBRUARY FESTIVAL

Ladies of the First Methodist Church of Glendale report a very successful February Festival. It took place Tuesday evening and the social hall was well filled for the hot lunch served at 6:30.

Booths had been artistically arranged and decorated for the sale of liberty confections, valentines, and punch, etc. At the Colonial Booth tea was served by young women in Martha Washington costume. Mrs. R. D. Goss was at home in the dainty "Subscription Booth."

The Junior Orchestra gave several numbers, and Mrs. Whitten delighted with piano solos. Miss Isgrig gave a whistling solo. "The Swallows," responded to an encore with "Mother Machree."

The climax of the very enjoyable evening was a four-act comedy by "Our Colored Brethren," Messrs. Ricksecker, Haines, Jones, Doctors Ralph and C. R. Lusby.

It is expected when all returns are in that the ladies will realize from this entertainment about $60.

KNITTERS IN THE SHADE

A knitting chain party was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Chas. Hutchinson of 200 Orange street at which a special guest was Mrs. Cook of British Columbia, mother of Mrs. Frank Chambers. Mrs. Cook has been an ardent worker for the Canadian Red Cross and had much which was of interest to tell the ladies about the work there. The guest list included Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. A. T. Cowan, Miss Cowan, Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Cook. As it was wheatless day, the refreshments were made to conform to government requirements and cornmeal and barley wafers were served with tea.

The help you give in time of need is the help that is worth while.
 It is the patriotic duty of all users to avoid waste of gasoline.
 A saving of one and three-quarter pints each day for each automobile and truck will insure enough for government needs for the coming year.
 Let us help you by giving you printed instructions (how to save) which are free for the asking.
 Save your old casings and tubes for your local Red Cross Society.

KNITTING CHAIN

A very delightful afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies who attended the Knitting Chain party given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. A. H. Chapman of 1535 West Third street. Pink sweet peas and ferns furnished charming floral decorations for the occasion. The ladies spent the afternoon knitting and sewing on hospital shirts for the Red Cross, entertained meanwhile by music of the victrola. Guests were Mesdames Willisford, Kinsley, Price, Williams, Atkinson and Marsh. Light refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Mothers' club of the Acacia Street school held its regular business meeting Friday afternoon. Miss Cathcart of the Immigration Department of the Y. W. C. A. gave an interesting talk. Interpretive dances by little Misses Lois Naudain and Norma Maxim were greatly enjoyed. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Berman, Mrs. Glassburn, Mrs. Lawyer and Mrs. Patterson who served cake and coffee after the program. The usual business was transacted.

LOCAL RELIEF

The local relief committee of Glendale is greatly in need of clothing—nightgowns, underwear, boy's clothing and shoes. Bedding, chairs and beds are also needed.

Anything the people of our city may have to donate for the needy in our midst will be greatly appreciated. The store room at West Broadway will be open every Wednesday from 2 to 6 p. m.

For further information call Mrs. E. S. McKee, Glendale 1423-J, Chairman Local Relief Work.

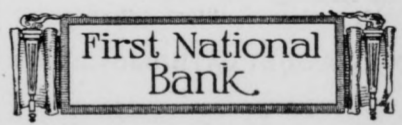

Just as a Mighty Oak

Can grow from a small acorn,—so can a fortune grow from a small bank account.

Both when well started have a steady growth. You can start your account this month. Even though it be a small one at first, if you will steadily add to it in a few years you will have a capital worth working for.

If you live in Glendale, make up your mind to start an account in this Glendale Bank and watch your money grow with the bank and the town.
