CAMPBELL REALTY CO. ORGANIZING

A New Company Being Formed Which Will Do Much to Promote Local Interests

Among other improvements contemplated for Campbell this spring is the organization of a company to be known as the "Campbell Realty Co.," under the management of E. R. Kennedy. A number of the prominent and progressive business men of the town are interested in the concern. The company has purchased the property now occupied by the Bank of Campbell and as soon as the bank people complete their proposed building on the southwest corner of Campbell and Central avenues, the Realty Co. will occupy the old bank building. The company expects to be organized and ready for business the first of March.

This new organization will mean much to Campbell. Further particulars will be given later.

W. C. T. U. Dinner.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will serve one of their appetizing dinners at the Coffee Club.

The following are some of the good things on the menu: Meat pie, mashed potatoes, cold meat, pickles, salad, baked beans and brown bread, fruit pies, pumpkin pie and so on—ALL for 25 cts. The dining room will be warm and attractive, and you will be comfortably cared for in every way.

Rev. Atkinson visited the city Monday and attended a meeting of the California Home Missionary Society, and also a called meeting of the directors of the Congregational State Conference. At the Ferry building Mr. Atkinson stepped in to pay his respects to Dudley Moulton, who now holds the position of Deputy State Horticultural Commissioner, the next to the highest position in that line in the state. The rapid promotion and success which Mr. Moulton has attained goes to prove what opportunities are open to young men who apply themselves along definite lines of work. Mr. Atkinson brought home with him a specimen of the Honolulu "papaia"—a fruit somewhat like the muskmelon,—which Mr. Moulton had just received.

The edict has gone forth from the office of the Postmaster General at Washington that the placing of loose coin in rural mail boxes in lieu of stamps must be stopped. Seattle—Charles H. Miller, a barber, has been chosen as united labor candidate for mayor.

Berkeley—The City Council is taking steps to abolish the billboard advertising business in this city, and it is understood that an ordinance to this effect will shortly be passed.

Seattle—Dr. Mary E. Green, widely known as a physician and lecturer on the nutritive value of foods, and whose fight for the privilege of entering the medical profession won her fame 45 years ago, died last week at her home in this city, aged 66 years.

Napa Junction—Word has been received at the local offices of the Southern Pacific Company that tests will be made of the successful operation of gasoline-driven motor cars over Creston hill, and that if the tests are successful the cars will be placed on the run between Vallejo and Sacramento.

Redding—Upon looking through some old clothes belonging to his father, who died recently, Emmet Moss, son of J. E. Moss, found a wallet containing $755. The money was in bills. This find brings the total of the money found belonging to Moss to $1855. Moss was known to have money, but none was left in banks.

Sacramento—Rex E. Cahall's hopes for probation were blasted when Judge Hughes directed that the sheriff take the automobile thief to San Quentin to serve seven years for stealing the automobile belonging to Henry C. Keyes, president of the Sacramento Natural Gas Company. Cahall was arrested at the bay, where he had been joy riding.

Cordella—Mrs. Marie Borges, 60 years old, and her 16-year-old son, who were found by neighbors bedfast with rheumatism in their little home in the hills near this city, were removed to a Vallejo sanatorium in an ambulance that took twelve hours to make the trip of eighteen miles over muddy mountain roads. Both are in a critical condition.

Santa Cruz—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Silva of Soquel have a roof over their heads because of an alarm sounded by a parrot. Both were away, Mrs. Silva being at a neighbor's. She was attracted by the screams of the parrot, when she discovered the front room to be ablaze. Children left playing with matches started the fire, igniting the carpet and curtains. Mrs. Silva rushed in and quenched the flames before the damage exceeded $50.

Pasadena—Physicians are baffled by the malady of Mrs. H. H. Bodber, wife of a former state president of the Christian Endeavor Society, who has been hiccupping continuously for several weeks. Mrs. Godber fell away rapidly in weight and it was feared that she would collapse completely under strain, but it was found several days ago that the hiccupping ceased when sleep was induced and since that time she has obtained needed rest.

San Francisco—The right of a woman to use a club in self defense was upheld by Police Judge Shortall, when he dismissed a charge of battery against Mary Benson, proprietress of the Ferry Hotel, by Charles Spiro, a cook. Spiro, with a battered countenance, testified that Mrs. Benson belabored him with a policeman's club in an altercation over wages. Mrs. Benson testified that Spiro had first struck her on the eye and broken her glasses, and that she seized the club and used it as a weapon of defense.

Los Angeles—Superior Judge James awarded R. W. Pell a judgment for $3000 against Dr. A. A. Shaw, a dentist. Pell's damage suit had been bitterly fought in the courts for two months. His allegation was that the dentist, in extracting three teeth, had let one of the molars slip down into his lung. For two years thereafter, according to the complaint, Pell was treated for tuberculosis until the real cause of his shattered health was revealed, when a paroxysm of coughing ejected the tooth from the lung.

ORANGE GROVES IN SOUTH BADLY BITTEN BY FROST

Recent Cold Snap May Mean Loss of Millions to the Growers.

Los Angeles—The damage to oranges by the heavy frosts six weeks ago is much greater than was supposed. Some experts say one-third of the crop was frozen, meaning a direct loss of many millions of dollars and injury for years to come. The market is demoralized by shipments of bad fruit, and how to prevent the sending out of frozen oranges to the East is the great question.

The California Fruit Growers' Exchange has been studying the subject for weeks and it is understood the managers have about reached the conclusion that the only effective preventive will be to get a State law passed for the appointment of inspectors, with authority to forbid the shipping out of any fruit unfit for human food. This would include frozen oranges.

The thermometer was lower at places in Southern California this winter than ever before, registering 20 degrees in the orange belt for an hour or two at night.

MRS. RUSSELL SAGE GIVES AID TO SOUTHERN CHARITIES

Distributes Over $140,000 During Her
Recent Brief Trip to Texas.

Galveston, Tex.—About ten or twelve eleemosynary institutions and charitable societies aer beneficiaries of Russell Sage's millions in amounts ranging from $500 to $25,000, by reason of the visit from Mrs. Russell Sage to Texas. She denied herself to all newspaper interviewers. Major Slocum, said to be her nephew, with his wife, accompanied Mrs. Sage.

The reported contributions made to charitable causes amount to something between $140,000 and $150,000, but the list is not complete, as there are several donations ranging from $500 to $3000 not given out. The charitable ward of a large hospital in El Paso is to receive $25,000. An orphan asylum in Uvalde county gets $20,000, and the sanatorium fund for tuberculosis patients near Brackettville will be swelled by $25,000; Del Rio Home for Homeless Children receives $15,000, $10,000 for a sanatorium at Boerne and Pecos gets $15,000 for a hospital for consumptives.

Fishermen Ruining Breeding Grounds.

Sacramento.—Foreign fishermen are playing havoc with the black bass breeding grounds in Cache slough, on the lower Sacramento river, according to County Game Warden George Neale, who will ask the next Legislature to make this waterway a State preserve for fish raising. Neale claims that he has seen Italian fishermen cleaning the fish from their boats and dumping overboard many pounds of fish eggs.

Thieves Give Aid to Sick Man.

Chicago—Two thieves stopped in their work of ransacking a flat to wait upon a sick man who was alone in the rooms. They gave him his medicine, took him a glass of water and set it on a chair and then turned his pillow. The robbers' patient was J. S. McCullough of 4131 Indiana avenue. Some small articles of jewelry were taken by the thieves, who politely bowed themselves out.

Japanese Fruit Growers' Convention.

Newcastle—The first convention of Japanese fruit growers in Northern California was held here last week. There are 250 Japanese in the Placer County Fruit-growers' Association, and at the convention resolutions were adopted indicating that the Japanese will follow closely the lead of American growers in the matter of standardization of fruits.

Failed to Reach South Pole.

Punta Arenas, Chile.—The French Antarctic expedition steamer Pourquoi Pas, with Dr. Jean M. Charcot, head of the expedition, on board, has arrived here. The Frenchmen did not reach the South Pole. All the members of the crew are well, but in the voyage there were some cases of scurvy.

New York—Mrs. Pauline Brooks, the oldest resident in New York city, who has lived in three centuries, is dead at her home here. She was 113 years old. Mrs. Brooks never wore glasses and had never been so seriously ill as to require the services of a physician.

Boy's Life Saved by Watch.

Spokane, Wash.—A small watch saved Joe Smeasted from being cut in two by a circular saw recently. The boy, who is 15 years old fell on the saw, but the teeth struck the watch in his breast pocket and his body was thrown off the saw by the contact.

What the Nation's Lawmakers Are Doing at Washington

Washington—A bill by Representative Hayes of California, aimed at the exclusion from the United States of the laboring classes of Japanese and other races, was reported favorably to the House by the Committee on Immigration by a unanimous vote.

At present Japanese immigration is restricted by a mutual agreement between the United States and Japan, by the terms of which Japan has prevented the laboring classes from coming to the United States. It has been expected that some exclusion law would be devised to take the place of this agreement.

Representative Hayes' bill is lengthy, embodying what the present law contains, with a clause inserted applying to the Japanese, but without specifically naming them. The clause reads: "To exclude persons who, under the provisions of the revised statutes of the United States, are ineligible to become citizens of the United States unless they are merchants, teachers, students or travelers for curiosity or pleasure."

The statute mentioned defines eligible aliens as free white persons or Africans by nativity or descent.

Washington—California is regarded as sharing very favorably in the Rivers and Harbors Appropriation bill. The $400,000 for the Sacramento river is allowed, and about $12,000 and $3000 for Napa and Petaluma, respectively. For removing Rincon Point and Centisima rocks in San Francisco bay $250,000 is appropriated. The San Joaquin river gets an additional allowance of $25,000 besides $40,000 for the purchase of cutoff lands, and Humboldt bay $150,000, San Diego, $150,000, and Oakland $250,000.

The abolishment of 17 out of 18 pension agencies in the country is recommended to the House by the Appropriation committee in the report on the pension bill. The only agency will be located at Washington. Among the agencies abolished is the one at San Francisco.

A bill was introduced in the House providing that a replica of the statue of the Revolutionary hero, General von Steuben, to be erected in Washington, be presented to the Emperor of Germany. The gift is to be in return for the statue of Frederick the Great, which the Kaiser presented to the people of the United States. Representative Bartholdt of Missouri, author of the measure, expressed confidence that the Senate would act promptly upon it, so that the statue would be ready by May, when it is hoped that the presentation may be made by former President Roosevelt on his visit to Germany.

Ten-Year-Old Boy, Bankrupt, in Debtors' Prison

New York—Jersey justice has furnished the youngest inmate of a debtors' prison on record in the person of Bronislaw Niemaszek of Newark, 10 years old. He was locked up in the Newark jail on a body execution issued by Judge Benjamin F. Jones of the Orange district court for debt.

Several months ago young Niemaszek and some other boys were playing in the streets of Orange when Edmund Wilmanski, 16 years old, and several other big boys, began teasing the smaller one. Finally they grabbed the youngster by the wrist after throwing his hat away and twisted his arm.

When Niemaszek got free he picked up a missile and threw it at his tormentors. Wilmanski was hit in the back and cut. As a result his father brought suit against the smaller boy and the action was begun with a warrant for assault. The damage claimed was $500.

The court awarded $75 and costs, amounting in all to $95.35, in default of which young Niemaszek was locked up in the Newark jail. His lawyer several hours later secured his release by having him take advantage of the bankruptcy law. The following inventory of the boy's assets was filed: One pair of shoes, 10 cents; one pair of stockings, 5 cents; one suit, 50 cents; one cap, 10 cents; total, 75 cents.

Liabilities, judgment in Orange district court, $95.35. The boy was in jail about three hours and, in addition to being the youngest debtor prisoner in the world, is the youngest bankrupt. The machinery of the Supreme Court of the State will be necessary to adjust the matter.

Savant Says There's No Harm in Tail of Halley's Comet

Chicago—No, we aren't all going to be snuffed out like bugs in an entomologist's bottle when Halley's comet sweeps its tail over the earth. This assurance was given by Professor Edwin B. Frost, director of Yerkes Observatory, Williams Bay, Wis., following a dispatch from Berkeley, Cal., in which the deadly antithesis was set forth as a possibility. Although admitting that there is cyanogen gas in the comet's tail and that cyanogen gas, when mixed with our terrestrial atmosphere in sufficient quantities, is as fatal as lightning, the professor said that that there's not enough of the poison in the heavenly vagrant's tail to make a beetle blink.

When the word from the Far West was read to Professor Frost he chuckled and said: "The fact is that there isn't the slightest danger. In the first place, the comet's tail may not be long enough to reach the earth. In the second place, the density of this tail is so slight as to be almost nothing."

Professor Booth of the department of Chemistry of the University of California, who is an authority on gases and poisons, declared that if a sufficient quantity of cyanogen gas observed in the tail of the comet by Camille Flammarion, the noted French scientist, unites with the hydrogen in the atmosphere, the results will be fatal, and the lives of the inhabitants of the earth snuffed out.

French Girls Will Not Sell Their Hair and Prices Soar

New York—The last straw in the general ascension of prices of life's necessities came with an announcement here that spread consternation in its wake. Apparently without thought of any attempt to temper the force of the blow, a heartless dealer said: "Yes, hair is following beefsteak. It is going up. It has advanced 30 per cent in a few weeks. But it is not the fault of dealers. There's no combination, no trust in whose downfall one may hope. No Grand Jury can relieve the situation. No court of last resort—with jurisdiction. "You see, it has all come about in this manner: The girls in France won't cut their hair and the agents of the big Paris houses can't make them. The Paris firms are fighting each other and always bidding. But the French girls have seen the hair worn by the American women who motor through France and refuse more stubbornly each day the pleadings of the agents.

"No, it's not the tariff; it's not the result of gold storage. It's, perhaps, a result of conservation of natural resources—in France."

Cornell Hen Lays Eggs Bright With College Colors

Ithaca, N. Y.—So contagious is the Cornell spirit that a white Ithaca hen of the most unblemished character has been persuaded, after a course in dietetics with professors of the Cornell State College of Agriculture, to lay eggs bright with the Cornell colors.

The yolks are red and the albumen white. A harmless diet was given to the hen and when it was seen that her plumage began to turn a delicate pink, her eggs were examined and found to be still more deeply colored. Other mixtures of diet turned the yolk of the eggs pink and the hen's feet pink.

FRUIT MEN'S PROTECTIVE LEAGUE WILL GROW UP

WE DRANK $26,000,000 WORTH OF LIQUOR IN THE YEAR 1909

And Lead World in Coffee Consumption.
---England Drinks More Tea.

Washington—Americans must be a thirsty nation, judging from the imports of drinkables set forth in a statement just issued by the bureau of statistics. The United States drank the essence of more than a billion pounds of coffee in 1909, valued at $86,000,000; that was about a dollar's worth of coffee for every person in the United States. A little more than 100,000,000 pounds of tea, valued at $16,000,000, came in.

But in spirits, wines and malt liquors, the nation touched its highest record for importation in 1909, and consumed foreign products of that kind to the value of more than $26,000,000, more than twice as much as was imported in 1899.

South America supplied most of the coffee, Asia most of the tea, and Europe most of the wines and liquors. The United States is the world's greatest coffee drinker, and Great Britain is the world's greatest consumer of tea.

Lost His Life in Preventing a Wreck.

Walla Walla, Wash.—John Lewis, track walker for the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, was run over and instantly killed by a passenger train near Starbuck, while running along the track in an effort to prevent the train from crashing into a landslide. He met the train on the curve and was unable to leap aside before the engine struck him. The train was stopped within a few feet of the slide.

Castro in the Canary Islands.

Washington—The American consulate in the Canary islands reported to the State department that ex-President Castro of Venezuela had arrived there from Spain. Washington—More than 4,000,000 acres of land will be stripped from the forest reserves of the United States soon and restored to the public domain for homestead settlement through the government's policy in carrying out Gifford Pinchot's idea as to the classification of forest lands.

Washington—America has decided to seek for South Pole laurels similar to those won for her by Commander Peary at the North Pole. The National Geographic Society resolved to send an expedition in search of the South Pole provided the necessary funds can be raised. It is not believed there will be any failure on this score.

Washington—John Hays Hammond and Daniel J. Sully, associated with several men prominent in the cotton business in the south, are planning the organization of a cotton securities corporation which probably will have a capitalization of $10,000,000. Existing cotton companies would not be affected adversely by the new corporation, it is said.

Nyack, N. Y.—Harry K. Thaw's latest application for his discharge from the Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane was denied by Justice A. S. Thompkins. At the same time the justice appointed Wm. Van Aince of Orange county as a referee to take evidence on Thaw's application for a transfer from the Matteawan asylum to some other institution.

El Paso, Tex.—Another prehistoric village has been unearthed in Arizona. Frank C. Erwin, while digging an irrigation ditch fourteen miles from Cochise, unearthed a number of utensils and skeletons and then found a wall twenty feet long and tablets bearing remarkable hieroglyphics. Work at the place was stopped and the Smithsonian Institution notified of the discovery.

Calcutta—The press bill, designed to suppress the dissemination of anarchistic literature, was passed by the Imperial Council. The measure requires the proprietors of newspapers and job presses to deposit with the government a sum of money which will be forfeited should the depositor be convicted of an attempt to incite to murder or sedition, or to influence the public against law and order.

Oaxaca, Mex.—The Twenty-fifth Infantry has been sent to Petapa, on the border of Vera Cruz, where an election riot has resulted in several deaths. Supplicio Martinez, son of the clerk, and Juan Austin, member of an opposition political party, fought and killed each other. This led to a pitched battle between the members of the opposing parties, in which the town judge was killed, the municipal president, Senor Beltram, seriously wounded and several others injured. Seventy arrests have been made.

Mexico City—A sword presented by the United States government in 1855 to General Santa Ana, then President of Mexico, is now being hawked around Mexico among curio dealers and has been offered to the Mexican government for $2000. The sword was presented to General Santa Ana as a mark of appreciation on the part of the United States of some act of the Mexican President years after the Texas war of independence as a token of good will from the United States after it had taken Texas into the union.

The woman with a sense of humor smiled. "It is funny," said she, "how content some people are to sit jammed together in cars."
"But they can't help themselves," protested her companion.
"I know, but I refer to the times when they are not obliged to occupy the same six inches with their next neighbors. When a crowded car begins to thin out, most people expand, but some forget to. I have seen the woman who has been shopping squeeze into a seat beside a laborer at the rush hour, and just as often as not, she continues to tickle his nose with her plumes clear up to Austin after the car is half empty, and to rest her bundles on his lime coated overalls."
"One night, quite late, away up town on a State street car, a young man and young woman sat propped together midway of a long, empty seat. There was not another passenger left in that side of the car. They paid no attention to each other, and I supposed that they were too tired to talk. It was quite a shock to my calculations when the young man got off and left the girl sitting apathetically in the empty seat. I had estimated them as first cousins at the furthest."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Lost Felles.
The sale at auction of a strand of yarn "made from the first fleece of Mary's Little Lamb" calls attention to the lamentable lack of public interest in the preservation of relics of this order, priceless as they are in sentimental associations. It is gratifying to know that a lock of the wool precious to childhood has been saved to posterity. But where now is "the old oaken bucket"? Where the "little brown jug," the "grandfather's clock" that was "too tall for the shelf" and the curlew bell that "must not ring to-night"? Is there even a single shoulder strap of "the Mulligan Guards" in existence? Alas! a wanton indifference has permitted these choice relics to disappear. It might be thought that a generation which has shown itself sensitive to the desecration of Riley's "old smimmin' hole" would exercise greater care in preserving these souvenirs of sentiment.

"How much do you sell them for?"

"Then why do you sell them for?"
"Oh, just to get to holler."—Catholic Citizen.

An Exciting Ride.
In going over one of the mountain roads, on the way to the crest of the Andes, the traveler has need of steady nerves. A passage in "The Andean Land," by C. S. Osborn, describes the journey.

The road is narrow and rocky and rutty and steep, with no walls to speak of except tumbledown ones that increase the danger by their false suggestion of safety, and in one place the wagon would fall two thousand feet if it should roll off the edge of the mountain.

The road has no graceful sweeps or round, easy curves as it takes its way up the Titanic heights, but rather it zigzags like the teeth of a saw, ascending in short stretches and doubling back at sharply acute angles, leaving very little room for a team and wagon to turn in when driven slowly and carefully and two abreast.

Now imagine, if you can, the horses driven madly in a gallop, no trot; that would be slow; but in quick, short, jerky jumps, such as the Mustang-like animals would make under the saddle when pressed.

The short, high coach follows the cavorting horses, jerking, careering and springing like a small boat sailing into a wildly chopped sea.

You perceive that the wheels are strong, and the springs, too, and the whole rig evidently intended for chariot racing.

The driver groans, yells, whistles shrilly, cracks his thick rawhide whip, lashes his horses, and does everything he knows that will inspire fear and induce speed.

All this you become accustomed to in a measure, on your dash up the narrow road, dug into and blown out of the giant ribs of the towering mountains.

THE BOOSTER BANQUET

The Rose Carnival committee started along right lines when they called together the leading business and professional men and the newspaper representatives of the county for a grand feed at Hotel Vendome last Friday night. Probably never before has San Jose undertaken a celebration that has aroused such universal interest and that will receive the support of such a large proportion of its people. The very name suggests only things sweet and beautiful. All over the county, as in Campbell during the past two weeks, thousands of children have been spading, planting and cultivating sweet peas and other varieties of flowers to assist in the great display.

The affair was called a "Publicity Banquet." Ate a rich repast consisting of everything from "Flor de San Francisco" to "Flor de Havana," Director General J. H. Henry introduced Mr. E. K. Johnson as toastmaster of the evening. Mr. Johnson said "the purpose of the banquet was to pay a compliment to the newspaper publishers of the county," and, during the spirited speaking which followed, every editor beside the many men prominent in other lines were called upon. Enthusiasm was at white heat. Among the many prominent speakers were, President, M. E. Dailey, J. O. Hayes, S. G. Tompkins, Paul Shoup, Judge Richards, Mayor Davison, Mayor Fitzgerald of Gilroy, Clifford Owen, L. Hathaway of Palo Alto, A. E. Smith and R. H. McKaig of Los Gatos, Judge Welch, Alex Sherriffs, Charles Shortridge, D. T. Bateman, Rev. "Sunshine" Williams of Saratoga, P. Milton Smith of Mountain View, and others. The number of representatives of the county outside of San Jose, and the character of their speeches, indicate something of the interest the entire valley is taking in the Carnival, and will assure a big turnout.

EAST SAN JOSE AND ANNEXATION

As the result of a straw vote taken in East San Jose Tuesday night it was shown that the majority of its citizens are not in favor of being a tail of San Jose. The ballot stood 35 for annexation, and 41 against. At the time of incorporation, July 1906, there was a bitter fight on the saloon question. Those who favored keeping the five nasty hell-holes—and this beautiful valley was never disgraced by dirtier ones—voted against incorporating and becoming a municipal organization, knowing that if the better element had a chance to vote on the question of saloons they would cease to exist. These five saloons were put out of business; but from that day to this there has been a group of soreheads who have been constantly kicking against every movement that has been made for better conditions. The members of the town council have been very careful in the expenditure of the peoples' money, making only such improvements as would be of the greatest benefit to the largest number of people. Those few kickers are men who ought to have better sense, but they were poor losers. They are backed up, not by representative property holders, but by the foreign and ignorant residents who live in the outlying districts. Men who, for fear of a few cents additional tax on their shanties, are willing to wade through the mud up to the shoe tops and permit disease-breeding cesspools to exist in their door yards.

The writer of this article was a resident of East San Jose at one time, and knows of the conditions there. A strong factor in driving us from that community was the unsanitary conditions. On a warm spring evening, instead of the sweet odors of the fruit blossoms, one's nostrils would be greeted with an awful stench from cesspools and cowyards. While the members of the town board have been giving much time and thought—without compensation—to the interests of the community, the disturbing element have been doing all in their power to annoy the board and create ill feeling against them. After finding that the majority would not tolerate saloons, they took up the matter of disincorporation; failing in that, the next issue was annexation to San Jose. After a thorough investigation of the reasons for and against the "Greater San Jose" movement, the wise heads of the little town across the Coyote can not see where there is anything to gain, but they can see some decided disadvantages. Of course, we do not blame San Jose for desiring to absorb East San Jose, it would be a good thing for the larger city. Further, it would be a decided advantage in various ways for other outlying tracts to become a part of the city. East San Jose is better off as an independent municipality.

The Press is authorized to state that Campbell, along with the other towns of the county, will be entitled to a booth for a display in the Pavilion. Who shall arrange and take charge of this booth, the Improvement Club, the Country Woman's Club, or who? The larger schools of the county will all be represented in the great parade by a float. As the Campbell schools have a reputation for doing things well, they will certainly excel in this regard. NOW is the time to begin getting ready.

Commodore Perry has gotten into the habit of Pole hunting 'and can't quit. He now proposes a trip to the south, where conditions are quite different. Not only are human inhabitants unknown south of Cape Horn, more than 2300 miles from the Pole, but, except sea forms, within the circle animal life and vegetable life are practically absent save a few low forms of hardy lichens and mosses.

Campbell has quite a number of fraternal organizations. All of which will be given an opportunity to take some part in the Carnival.

May 11, 12, 13 and 14, 1910, will occur in San Jose the greatest floral display ever witnessed in the State of California.

A two-day aviation meet will be a feature at the Rose Carnival next May.

Uncle Sam ought to pay a Pole tax this year.

RUSHING BUSINESS.

Owing to the pressure of business last week at the Press office the papers for the rural delivery were allowed to go out without the first page being proof-read and corrected. An agreement was made with some of our advertisers made it necessary that the rural subscribers receive their paper on Friday morning.

The Press has been going through a period of transition and at such a time there is usually more or less internal disturbance. During the last four weeks we have had three different compositors. The last one, Mr. William Gale, is a very good and rapid compositor and will hold cases on the Press permanently. Mr. Gale is the son of Rev. S. G. Gale, a retired Methodist minister who resides in the Willows and is well known in this part of the State. Patrons calling at this office and finding the editor out will need to carry on communication with Mr. Gale by writing, as he is deaf and dumb.

Two Good Families Gone

Messrs. Kent and Cleland with their families left last week for Portland, Oregon, to remain. The entire community regrets losing such good people and all join in wishing them success and happiness in their new home. The writer, having come from that city five years ago, can assure them that they will meet many excellent people in Portland and will find larger opportunities in business lines.

$100 REWARD

On Sunday, Feb. 6th, L. Genasci lost his fine Spitz dog. After being tied up all night the dog was turned loose at 6 o'clock and in two hours he was found dying in front of Mr. Green's house on Central avenue. Mr. Green summoned Mr. Genasci but it was too late to save the animal's life. Mr. Genasci says he has lost three dogs within one year, and now proposes to give a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the poisoner.

Epworth League Gives Tokens of Friendship

At the devotional meeting of the Epworth League last Sunday evening Russell Kennedy, representing the society, with appropriate remarks presented Miss Viola Kent with a beautifully bound copy of the Methodist Hymnal having her name stamped in gold on the cover. Also, to Mr. E. A. Cleland a fine copy of the New Testament. As this was the last meeting with these two most efficient and helpful workers in the League and Church, the society took this means of expressing the high regard for the characters and usefulness of their departing members.
