On Monday morning while burning brush near the garage of Fletcher W. Stites, the high wind carried some sparks to the roof, setting it on fire. Prompt action by several workmen nearby prevented the spread of the flames. The Narberth Fire Company were quickly on the job, but their services were not needed.

Mr. Edler's home is in Millville, N. J., but he pays periodical visits to Narberth, where he was born and raised on the old Price farm, now occupied by John A. Morer, Montgomery and Woodbine avenues. In spite of his advanced age Mr. Edler is hale and hearty. Mr. Edler was sergeant in Company B, First Pennsylvania Reserves, which was organized and left this place fifty-five years ago for Harrisburg, the mobilization camp, from which place they were sent to Washington. The club has put up more prizes than ever for the ladies, so we hope they will all enter.

BRYN MAWR COLLEGE ASKS HOUSES TAX FREE.

To be relieved of the payment of county and township taxes, Bryn Mawr College on Thursday instituted equity action against the county of Montgomery and township of Lower Merion, declaring that eight houses, assessed at $65,000, should, as in the college, be considered as charitable in that they house instructors of the Main Line educational institution for women.

In the bill in equity it is alleged that while the expenses of the college last year were close to $385,000, the income from students was but $290,000, and as the income from investments was but $83,000, there remained a considerable deficit in the running expenses which has to be made up from voluntary contributions, all going to show that the college is in need of relief from taxation.

HEALTH CERTIFICATES.

Parents Want to Take Children on Vacation Trips.

More than fifty residents of various towns in Lower Merion township have appealed to the township Health Board within the last few days for certificates of health that will permit them to go to other States with their children in accordance with the infantile paralysis quarantine requirements.

Most of the applicants were members of families who had planned vacation visits to Maine resorts and the seashore at this time, and a good many others have foregone plans to leave in fear of the infantile paralysis plague.

Every possible precaution is being adopted by the Lower Merion Board of Health and other health bodies in the Main Line suburban section to prevent the occurrence of any infantile paralysis epidemic in the territory. Only one case, that of a child at Cynwyd, exists now, and this child, Scott Gehring, is reported as doing well.

NARBERTH DEFEATS AUTOCAR, 4-2

Haviland Pitches Good Game—Nig. Koons Knocks Homer in First Inning—Gilmore Relieves Black for the Autocar Team

In one of the most bitterly fought battles of the season, the Boroughtites, managed by Fred Walzer, defeated the Autocar team on their grounds.

The game was witnessed by a large crowd and were kept on their feet all the time by spectacular plays and players of the home team being injured. Robinson, Autocar's shortstop, was forced to retire in the second inning when he was hurt by a fall, after catching Walter Humphries' intended Texas leaguer in the second inning. Curry then filled Robinson's place in fine style, having two of the Autocar's seven hits.

Lefty Black, Autocar's star pitcher, was pitted against Haviland for Narberth. It was evident that Black was going to prove no terror for Narberth, as they were hitting him, and then he was very wild, passing three and hitting three men during his stay on the mound which lasted four and part of the fifth inning. Bob Gilmore, who pitched Narberth to the championship last year, then took up the pitching duty for the Autocar Club and while he was hit fairly hard, yet only one run was scored off his delivery.

Haviland, who pitched for Narberth, did not give a semblance of a hit until the fourth inning, when Barker poled a double to left field, which the umpire called a foul, but reversed his decision. While they secured three hits in the fifth inning, yet they did not score.

Nig Koons Knocks Home Run.

With two out in the very first inning, Koons poled out a homer to left field which lodged somewhere in a tree. Had it not hit the tree, it would have been good for four sacks anyway.

One of the strange things of base ball happened in the third inning when the first five men up for Narberth reached first base, but not a one of them scored. Howes, the first man up, was hit in the ribs, but was out stealing. Wallace then singled to center and stole second, the umpire calling him safe, after which the Ardmore players all kicked, and Wallace started for third, but was nabbed by a quick throw by Black. Koons was then passed. Stites then singled and Fleck was passed, but Simpson ended the inning by fanning. Strange things happen, but that was the strangest.

Narberth Scores Two More.

Amid great excitement, the Narberth boys scored two more. Walter Humphries led off with a single, was advanced to second on a passed ball and Mellon was safe on Fitzmaier's error, Humphries going to third. Walter then scored on Haviland's sacrifice hit. Howes then fanned and Mellon scored when Fitzmaier made his second error of the inning when Wallace was safe. Wallace then ended the inning by being thrown out at second trying to steal.

The Autocar team scored their first run of the game in the fourth inning when Fitzmaier was hit by a pitched ball. Sweet then sacrificed Fitz to second, and on Barker's double down the left field foul line, Fitzmaier scored. Curry ended the inning by fanning.

Narberth Scores Their Last Run in the Fifth.

The Narberth team scored their last run of the game when Koons was passed. Stites was also passed. Fleck was hit in the ribs. Exit Mr. Black. Enter Mr. Gilmore (Original Bob). Bob had a very discouraging situation to face—three men on and no one out. Bill Simpson then laid down a beautiful bunt, scoring Koons. Humphries then fanned. Mellon was then passed and Haviland was thrown out by Gilmore.

The Autocar team scored their last run in the ninth inning when Kemmerle was safe on Vernon Fleck's error. Barker then fanned and Curry then pushed out his second single, advancing Kimmerle to third, who then scored when Haviland uncorked a wild pitch. Henzy, who took Harry Simpson's place as catcher for the Autocar team, was thrown out by Bill Simpson, Narberth's shortstop. Shock ended the game by being thrown out by Mellon, thus ending one of the hardest games of the season.

George Howes and Flick Stites made some startling catches in the outfield, while the whole Narberth infield played startling good ball. Narberth's double play in the seventh inning cut down what looked to be a rally. While the Autocar team pulled off a double play in the ninth inning, but it was then too late for anything of this sort, as Narberth had a good lead.

Haviland pitched a good game for Narberth, not issuing a pass and fanning seven, while Black was wild, passing three, hitting three and struck out only four. Gilmore did much better work, fanning seven, but issuing two passes.

TO DECREASE SIZE OF PAPERS.

As a result of a series of meetings of the newspaper publishers of Philadelphia, called to consider the serious situation confronting them caused by what are virtually famine conditions in the news print market, the following agreement was unanimously reached:

All daily, evening and Sunday newspaper will immediately reduce the size of their issues to the extent of a total in excess of 80 pages weekly.

At this meeting of publishers facts and figures were submitted showing that the mills have been unable to supply the enormous demand for white paper. Not only have the mills been unable to lay in a reserve stock during the summer months, as in former years, but they are at the present time below their normal supply.

So serious has the situation become that it was pointed out that unless drastic reduction of consumption was enforced, some newspapers throughout the country would be confronted with possible suspension of publication.

Householders should save all newspapers and magazines, also every kind of scrap paper and rags; it will be needed.

FIGHTING MEN OF OLD MONTGOMERY.

Military Enrollment Shows the County Has 22,779 Possible Soldiers—Figures By Assessors.

The compilation of the military enrollment of Montgomery county has been completed, and the results are issued by the County Commissioners.

In the boroughs there are 12,221 men subject to call for military duty and in the townships 10,558—a total of 22,779.

Strange to say in this year of an "almost war," the military enrollment has fallen off materially from that of last year. Whether this is due to the fact that the war scare caused some men's ages to advance quickly beyond the limit, or whether it was due to negligence on the part of the assessors is a mooted question. However that may be, there are, in 1916, less men by 726 eligible for fighting purposes than was the case, according to the assessors' returns, in 1915.

In some districts this deficiency is particularly notable. In Abington, for instance, in 1915 the enrollment was 797; this year it is 502, a difference of 295. In Cheltenham, in 1915, there were 1315 fighting men; this year there are but 1218, a difference of 97. In Lower Merion there is a deficiency of 350.

In Norristown, in a few districts, there has been an increase, but in the borough as a whole there has been a decrease of 154.

Appended is the enrollment in each district of the county:

To the Editor of Our Town:

After reading the letter of your correspondent, "The Children's Friend," in last week's issue, I conclude that the author is some dear old lady, very fond of children and probably a spinster. She probably wrote as she did with the best of intentions, but without knowing the facts and apparently having but a vague idea of what my letter of the week before last really contained. This must be so, because the great majority of Narberth citizens have been discussing the topic which was the subject of my letter, and she probably being a new resident and not familiar with what has been going on for a long time, is getting mixed up in something she knows nothing about. She also makes reference to certain things alleged to be in my letter which are not there at all. The harshest remark I care to make of your correspondent is that her sentiments are a credit to her kind heart, but unfortunately reflect the entire absence of a sense of humor, for which I will surely forgive her. The suggestion to open a church for the sole benefit of all those little ones who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with contagious or infectious diseases and bring them together, may appeal to some, but not to me and I modestly confess I am fond of children. Your correspondent quotes the Scriptures with more facility than I possibly could, but the Good Book, I know, contains a precept which is known as the "Golden Rule" and this would probably be my guide in case my own children should become afflicted.

Dear "Children's Friend," please read my letter over and then get in touch with the sentiment of the town and you will find out what has been going on while you have probably been very far away. After that I am sure you will not judge me so harshly and will recall your kind invitation to me to pull up stakes and quit Narberth. If all those of the same mind as myself felt your invitation applied to them and they accepted, the "poor little dears" would have no company but their "friend." Think of it. But there's the "Movies."
The Narberth Kicker.

WHEN THE APRIL FISH WENT FISHING

One day in early spring two young men were sauntering along a path through the woods just outside a New England college town. When they reached a little spring they stopped for a drink. They were about to proceed on their way when their eyes caught the glint of a small metal box lying close up under a jagged stone in the pool just below the spring.

"What do you suppose that is, Billy?"

"Don't know, Henry. I'm going to fish it up and find out."

The water in the pool was two or three feet deep; the stone proved to be heavier than it appeared to be, and it rested on one end of the metal box, which was partly sunken in the gravel of the pool. There was much puffing and splashing and damage to clothing before the box was landed. Opening it, the two found within a flat piece of wood, at which they gazed in solemn silence.

"If my reckoning is right," remarked one of them at last, "this is the thirty-second day of March."

"This is undoubtedly the day after the last day of March, Billy," responded the other gravely.

The wood within the metal box was thus inscribed:

"Have the kindness to replace me, without needless delay in the nice, shiny metal box, and then carefully wedge us back under the big rock, so that we can catch the eye of the next fool freshman that happens along." Then ensued more puffing, more splashing and further damage to clothing, until everything was in place again.—Youth's Companion.

Purse-proud Man—Look at me, I started in a grocer's shop at fifteen, and when I was twenty I was worth $2500.

The Other Chap—Ah, but you couldn't do that nowadays, when every shopkeeper uses cash registers.

NARBERTH AT PAOLI GAMES TRANSFERRED TO NARBERTH

Through the Courtesy of Manager Hanley

Through the extreme courtesy of Manager Walter Hanley, of the Paoli Men's Club, the games which were originally booked to be played at Paoli have been transferred to Narberth. For this reason, next Saturday's game will be played at Narberth, as will the game scheduled for Labor Day afternoon. This means that Narberth will be at home on Labor Day both games.

Haviland, the new man, pitched good ball.

Koons' homer was certainly some homer.

Walter Humphries fumbled one, but recovered the ball and threw the man out at first.

Harry Simpson was caught napping at first.

Two sacrifice hits for Narberth. Both resulted in runs.

Two Simpsons—one on each side.

Stites' running catch in right field was certainly a honey.

Not a stolen base for the Autocar team.

Paoli at Narberth next week.

Barker, Gilmore and Harry Simpson, three former Narberth players.

First five men reach first—yet not a run.

Very long game.

THE CHAMPION FOOL.

There's fools of many kinds—there's fools

That think they know it all;

There's fools that jaw at others when They stub their toes and fall.

There's fools who think that when they're hurt

All other folks should howl;

There's fools who think the sun's got lost

Each time the weather's foul.

But there's one kind of fool that's worse

Than all the rest. Excuse Me from that fool who boasts what he Would do if he could only be In someone else's shoes.

There's fools who go and drown themselves

When girls say "No." They s'pose They couldn't learn to love again.

There's fools who think what they believe

Is all that's true; there's some Who think when their digestion's bad The old world's end has come.

We'll have to bear with such as these,

I guess, but please excuse Me from the fool who tells how he Would rise if he could only be In someone else's shoes.

"Yes," said the old mathematician, with a gleam in his eyes, "I've always looked at it that way. Marriage is addition; when the little ones come it's multiplication; when dis-sension comes up to cloud the horizon of their happiness it's division; and when the final parting comes it's subtraction!"

"And how about divorce?" asked the listener.

"Oh, that would come under the denomination of fractions!"

It's a woman's natural faith that enables her to believe only the things she wants to when she knows she doesn't.

Those who are members of other associations and not the temporary guests of the Philadelphia associations may, upon presentation of their membership cards, secure a pass from the executive secretary entitling them to the privileges of the resort, limited to the time of the stay. By the terms of the trust, the resort is open only to white members over eighteen years of age. Members may bring guests to spend the day, and excursions may be arranged for through the executive secretary or the secretaries of the different associations, departments or divisions.

Equipment.

Six comfortable cottages, each equipped with single beds, bath room and running water. An attractive dining hall, situated on the edge of the plateau, where an unsurpassed view may be had, and where refreshing breezes constantly keep the dining hall cool and inviting. The clubhouse, with its library, victrola, writing tables, pocket billiard and billiard tables, chess, checkers and other games, has two extensive fireplaces and wide verandas, one side overlooking the base ball field.

In the open, one will find a particularly good base ball diamond, tennis courts ready for use, hand ball court and swimming pool. These features and the good fellowship that prevails, the impromptu entertainments, music, sports and competitions, the camera room and the shower baths, make the Country Club an ideal summer resort for the man of moderate means.

The plateau upon which the club is placed rising over 500 feet insures cool breezes, invigorating air, and extensive views overlooking the Chester Valley, which form ever-changing pictures.

Much of the vegetables, fruit, milk, cream and other supplies are produced on the place, which assures an abundant and attractive table.

Rates.

There are no fees or charges beyond those for board and lodging. The rate for board and lodging, covering all other privileges, is $1 a day. Saturday afternoon to Sunday evening, $1.50; dinner, 50c.; breakfast and supper, 35c.; lodging, 35c. The moderate cost and the absence of fees and extras make this a vacation place second to none other.

Make it a point to get out to the 11 o'clock service next Sunday morning and encourage the visiting clergyman. He would much rather preach to a large congregation than a lot of empty pews.

3.—Brush your teeth at least once a day. Rinse mouth out well with water after each meal.

4.—Be sure your bowels move at least once each day.

5.—Keep clean—body, clothes and mind. Wash your hands always before eating. Take a warm bath with soap once or twice a week; a cool sponge (or shower) bath each morning before breakfast and rub body to a glow with a rough towel.

6.—Try to keep your companions, especially young children, away from those who have contagious diseases.

7.—Use your handkerchief to cover a sneeze or cough and try to avoid coughing, sneezing or blowing your nose in front of others.

8.—Study hard. In study, work or play, do your best.

9.—Play hard and fair. Be loyal to your teammates and generous to your opponents.

10.—Be cheerful and do your best to keep your school and your home clean and attractive and to make the world a better place to live in.

During vacation is a splendid time to practice these rules. By September they may be a part of your daily life.

IMPORTANT

Cases of communicable disease are ordinarily reported to the secretary of the Board of Health by the physician in attendance. If no physician is called in, the responsibility for reporting rests with the head of the household. This is made obligatory by State law and the regulations of the Board of Health. The penalty for failure to report is a fine not exceeding $100 and costs.

To avoid the imposition of the penalty, physicians and householders are requested to report immediately in writing cases of communicable disease which may exist to the secretary of the Board of Health. All children in families in which there is whooping cough or chicken pox must be kept on the premises and not be allowed to come in contact with other children.

POST OFFICE NOTES

More than three thousand persons receive mail through the Narberth post office. It is difficult to remember them all. By having your box number placed on your mail you will aid in having the mail cased up without delay.

BETTER FACILITIES FOR POST OFFICE

Narberth post office is unable to take complete advantage of the second-class privilege owing to the lack of room in which to place the equipment that a second-class office is entitled to, such as modern casing racks, sorting tables, cancelling machine, filing cases for supplies and records, sack racks for outgoing mail and many other things too numerous to enumerate. These will be secured when new quarters are provided.

Printed stamped envelopes may be secured at the post office at the following prices:

500 1-cent envelopes.....$5.62
500 2-cent envelopes.....$10.62

These envelopes are of first quality. The name and address of purchaser neatly printed in upper left hand corner, with request to return in days. Note the price.

Edward S. Haws, Postmaster.

Private correspondence as well as that for business purposes should be marked showing to where it should be returned, if undelivered at post office of address. If this precautionary measure could be generally observed it would greatly assist post office officials in the handling of mail matter.

A WORD TO THE NEW RESIDENTS

For the information of the lately arriving residents of Narberth we announce again that to purchase postage stamps and stamped envelopes in the local post office is of great advantage to the office as its advancement is based upon the sales. We aim to be courteous and obliging. We also want to do business with our patrons. Edward S. Haws, Postmaster.

His face was pinched and drawn. With faltering footsteps he wended his way among the bustling crowd.

Anon he paused.
"Kind sir," he suddenly exclaimed, "will you not give me a loaf of bread for my wife and little ones?"
The stranger regarded him not unkindly. "Far be it from me," he rejoined, "to take advantage of your destitution. Keep your wife and little ones; I do not want them."
Turning upon his heel, he walked away.

OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE.

Vegetables are always acceptable at the King's Daughters' Holiday House on Sabine avenue, near Wynne-wood avenue. Contributions of money will also be thankfully received, as the funds are running dangerously low at this time.

It might be said in connection with the above announcement that there are no doubt numerous gardens in and about Narberth where there is a surplus of vegetables, oftentimes considerable going to waste. If the King's Daughters could be notified they would gladly send for vegetables in cases where it is inconvenient for the donors to deliver same to the Summer House where so many poor children are being cared for. Call up the house on 'phone or send a postal card.

TRI-COUNTY LAWN FETE

The spacious lawn of Mrs. Ferree Brinton's home at St. Davids will present an unusual and attractive scene on October 4, when the Womans' Suffrage Party of three counties will co-operate in holding a lawn fete in the interest of suffrage.
Mrs. Wm. Ward, Jr., of Chester, general chairman, is arranging a unique entertainment, among the interesting features of which will be a play, cards, music and dancing. Women from Chester county will have charge of the card tables; Delaware county representatives will be in charge of refreshments, which include a supper; while Montgomery county women will superintend the music and dancing. The play will be given under the direction of Mrs. E.
Mitchell, of Ardmore; Mrs. E. P.
Flannery, of Wynnewood, will manage a fish-pond, and Mrs. A. M. Wilson, of Wayne, will conduct a publicity booth, including literature, novelties, etc.

At the Montgomery County Fair to be held in Pottstown, August 29, 30, 31 and September 1, the Woman's Suffrage Party will conduct a rest tent to which all visitors will be welcome. The well-known speaker, Miss Anna McCue, will make an address each day.

NEXT WEEK-END TRIP
AUGUST 26TH

Are You Going?

If any association member wants to know if week-end trips to Dewitt farms or the Y. M. C. A. Country Club at Downtown are worth while, let him ask either Newton Compton or Secretary Hampton or Mr. Justice or Mr. Gara.

These were only four of the seventy-five at the club last Saturday and Sunday, and these because of the fine time and good eats they had agreed to repeat the dose at an early date. In the meantime if you are interested in a delightful week-end,
"say something" and have yourself registered for some Saturday and Sunday between now and September 15th. You'll find it time well spent at a small money cost. Take the word for it of Don't miss this chance.

"I was at the big general stores in Market street the other day," said Slimfingered Joe, "when the whole and all the different departments were chuckled his friend. "What did you get?"

"My beastly luck again. It's always dogging me. I was in the grand piano department."

Berwyn, Pa., Aug. 12.—Cloughley's Dun & Co. tourists traveled to the home of the Berwyn Pirates to-day and handed out a clean-cut whitewash in a Main Line League game by the score of 5 to 0. Dun's new pitcher, Markley, made a most impressive debut, allowing three singles and creating a new record by striking out 18 batsmen.

This victory enabled the pace-making Dun & Co. team to maintain their half-game lead over the fast-stepping champions. The score:
