

GARDEN PARTY

BRITISH AMBULANCE SOCIETY PLANS BIG FETE OF ALLIES

Under the management of the Glendale Branch of the British Ambulance Society, a large garden party and fete is to be given Saturday, July 21st, afternoon and evening. All the Allies are to be represented if possible and arrangements are already made for the following nations to have booths: America, England, Canada, Australia, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, France, Belgium and Japan.

Each booth will sell some article, eatable or drinkable or otherwise, and those in charge will wear typical costumes and the decorations will be in keeping also.

Afternoon tea will be served by the English booth, ice cream by the Australian; Canada will have homemade bread, pies and cakes; Ireland is selling the costly and luxurious potato and other vegetables; Scotland has shortbread and toffee, etc., to offer, and other booths will announce their specialties later.

There will be a fish pond for the children. This will be in charge of the Princess Mary Society of Los Angeles. Some other clubs and prominent society women of Glendale and Los Angeles are taking leading parts.

In the evening there will be a fancy dress dance and open air concert and some very attractive novelties are promised. It is the aim of the management to make this affair as much as possible a repetition in miniature of the carnival given at the Shrine Auditorium in February.

The names of those taking part and full details will be given in these columns next week. The only names we can give to-day are those of two very popular gentlemen who will certainly be most conspicuous at the party as large as life and twice as handsome as wit, Uncle Sam and John Bull.

The help and co-operation of every one are earnestly solicited. All the proceeds of this entertainment will be devoted to helping the sufferers of the war, all nationalities. Any one willing to help in any way is requested to come to the meetings of the British Ambulance Society next Monday from 2 to 5 in the Bank of Glendale building, Broadway and Glendale avenue, or telephone to Mrs. England, 974-R, or Miss Whitaker, 586-J.

HEINZ-BREEDEN

Miss Florence Breeden, daughter of C. O. Breeden, formerly of Glendale, now of San Diego, was married to Edmond W. Heinz of Spokane at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday, July 3, 1917. Mrs. Heinz is well known in Glendale and Tropic, having resided there for eleven years. She is a graduate of the Tropic Grammar school and also of the Glendale High school. Mr. Heinz is the son of E. C. Heinz of Spokane, and the owner of two of the largest wheat ranches in the U. S. Mr. Heinz is at present in the 21st Infantry, U. S. Army, stationed at the San Diego Exposition.

Mrs. Heinz is also well known in San Diego, where she is very popular in the younger society set.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinz expect to make their future home in Glendale. The honeymoon is being spent in an auto trip to Spokane.

Murray Breeden, Mrs. Heinz' brother, has enlisted in the cavalry and is stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Owen and Bert Breeden, also brothers of Mrs. Heinz, are also in the U. S. Army, the former an aviator and the latter an electrical engineer, and is on his way to France.

A BUSY STORE

To-day a representative of the Evening News dropped into the Glendale Hardware Co.'s place of business, that has been recently taken over by Charles W. Kent & Son and James Webb. What a busy place! What a hustle and stir among the clerks, who were unpacking new goods and marking them at prices that will meet any city competitor. There will be no need of builders and others who are in need of hardware to go to Los Angeles for it now. This new firm brings a big wholesale and retail store to your door and will save the buyer both carfare and time. The helpers are all local people.

SIMPSON FUNERAL

The funeral of Mr. William D. Simpson of Pomona will be held Monday at 2:30 at Rosedale Cemetery, Los Angeles. All former friends are invited.

CONDITIONS IN EAST

MR. SHANE WRITES INTERESTING LETTER OF CROP AND WAR SITUATION

Mr. F. D. Shane, the writer of the following interesting letter to Mr. Archie M. Parker, will be remembered as having spent the winter in Glendale on Burchett street, where he and Mrs. Shane made many friends. Mr. Shane was engaged in large canning and packing industries and is a keen student of current affairs and his views will be of interest.

232 South 8th St.,
La Crosse, Wis.

Friend Parker:

It has been a month and a half since we left your city. Came direct to La Crosse. Found the weather cold and crops nearly three weeks behind the average season.

Small grain looks well, hay is fine, but corn is only 8 inches to a foot high. We really have not had a dozen pleasant days since we arrived. Too much rain; farmers can not properly cultivate corn and potatoes, and it's just impossible to cure hay. Owing to enlistments, help is becoming scarce and independent. I fear a considerable of the crops will be lost through lack of help, and the late season will make the matter still worse. There is a prospect for an average pea crop. The government has given packers notice to reserve one-eighth of the pea and corn pack for government use. Reports are required showing the pack and the cost of same; in fact, the government is calling for a considerable detail information from packers and manufacturers.

At this time it looks as though the merchant with a good stock of canned and other foods was in luck. Owing to government action, prices of flour and coal are some lower. Potatoes are out of the market. New potatoes are not ready yet.

The weather has been unfavorable for the berry crops. We certainly need good warm weather for the next three months.

Business is peculiarly active in some lines and strictly dead in others.

The country has taken care of the Liberty Loan and Red Cross financing in fine shape. The reaction has strengthened interest rates; would say the rate would average 1 to 2% higher than a month ago, when 5 to 6 per cent. was regular. Now 6 to 8 is about the range with no call for securities at 5 and 5 1/2%.

Call money in New York City is said to be as high as 8%.

It now looks as though there would be further inflation of values unless there should be some radical change in the war situation.

Enlistment proceedings have brought the country to a fuller sense of the seriousness of the situation, and when the call for men under conscription comes the feeling will become indeed tense.

We hear very little of the pro-German sentiment that might be expected in a state of so large a German population. Many have responded to the call to the colors and it now looks as if full loyalty could be expected.

This section is especially pleased that China has come out and made a stand with the Allies. There is a feeling that in the end it will curtail the Jap influence in the Orient and hold a more even balance among the powers.

Mrs. Shane and I are in usual health and plan to return to California in August or September, probably to Glendale. Expect other friends with us or later.

Would be pleased to hear from you as to conditions there.

Very truly yours,

F. D. SHANE.

THE DRINK HABIT

The drink habit will not interfere with your good health so long as you drink the Sierra Club Ginger Ale manufactured by the Henry-Brown Company at 702 W. Broadway, Glendale.

The plant in which this very refreshing and cooling drink is manufactured is owned and operated by two of Glendale's respected citizens, Francis J. W. Henry and S. W. Brown. The machinery in use is the most modern and sanitary that it is possible for money to buy. If you truly wish to assist in building up a Glendale industry, just call for Sierra Club Ginger Ale when you wish a cooling drink.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to-night and Sunday. Westerly winds.

N. E. A. IN WAR CONVENTION

COUNCIL OUTLINES PLANS FOR MEETINGS OF EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION IN PORTLAND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PORTLAND, Ore., July 7.—This year's gathering of the National Educational Association will be a war convention. The council of the association made this plan at the preliminary meeting here to-day. War topics were put on the program and patriotism is the guiding spirit. The convention proper opens here Monday afternoon and the council met to-day to discuss the policies of the meeting next week. Two hours were spent in discussing the opportunities and obligations of America's schools during the war. To-night a number of nationally known educators will speak before the council.

JEROME MINERS ON STRIKE

TWO MINES ARE CLOSED AND OTHERS DEMORIALIZED AS RESULT OF I. W. W. DEMANDS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
JEROME, July 7.—Fifty per cent. of the miners here are out on strike. Two mines have been closed with all others badly crippled as the result of I. W. W. demands here to-day.

NEAR RIOT AT GLOBE

TWO I. W. W.'S ARRESTED WHEN SOLDIERS WITH BAYONETS INTERVENE TO QUELL RIOT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
GLOBE, Arizona, July 7.—The intervention of soldiers with bayonets was all that prevented a general riot this afternoon when two men were fatally injured in a clash between mine workers and union men. Two I. W. W. leaders were arrested.

GERMANS ABANDON OFFENSIVE

CESSATION OF FIGHTING NEAR LAON REPORTED WITH RESUMPTION OF ACTIVITIES NEAR RHEIMS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, July 7.—Germany is apparently convinced of the fruitlessness of the counter offensive against the French south of Laon. French official reports detail the cessation of fighting in that region and the resumption of artillery activities at other parts of the line east of Rheims. In the period of June 21 to 30, 19 enemy aeroplanes and one captive balloon were destroyed.

FIGHT CENTERS ON BONDED SPIRITS

SENATE DEBATES QUESTION AS TO WHETHER WHISKEY SHALL BE CONFISCATED BY GOVERNMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, July 7.—The Senate is debating the problem as to whether the public shall be given a chance to consume the existing stock of bonded liquors or whether these shall be confiscated by the government as a war provision. With the manufacture of distilled booze doomed, the fight centers on the millions of gallons of whiskey held in bond.

AIRPLANES RAID ENGLAND

LONDON AGAIN THE OBJECT OF ATTACK OF TWENTY GERMAN AIRCRAFT—THREE ARE DESTROYED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, July 7.—A fleet of perhaps twenty enemy aeroplanes raided London this morning. Allied air craft guns rained shells on the invaders and brought down three as they fled to their base in Germany. No details as to casualties or damage have been reported.

TO CLEAR OUT GERMAN AGENTS

GOVERNMENT TO MAKE CLEAN SWEEP IN EFFORTS TO STOP LEAK OF MILITARY INFORMATION TO GERMANY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, July 7.—All German diplomatic agents will be cleaned out of the United States as the government proceeds with its work of stopping the leaks of military information to the Kaiser. Bernstorff's assistant, who remained here when the ambassador returned to Germany, will leave the United States soon.

A. A. U. GAMES EARLIER

NEW YORK, July 7.—The annual championship games of the Amateur Athletic Union instead of being held during the first weeks of September, as usually is the case, probably will be fought out this year about the middle of August. The fact that Uncle Sam will be busy making his first selections for an army the time the national athletes are usually doing things, is the reason for the change.

SISTERS REUNITED

Mrs. Jose Felix, 529 South Jackson street, has received a copy of the Central Missouri Republican containing an interesting article in regard to her stepmother, Mrs. Philora Edwards of Boonville, an aged lady who has been separated from her family since childhood, but who has recently found a sister whom she has not seen for 63 years. Mrs. Edwards was separated from her brothers and sisters when she was a child and for years has been endeavoring to learn something of them. Her mother died when she was six months old, and her father married again. The stepmother kept Mrs. Edwards, her sister Lavina and her own daughter, and Mrs. Edwards does not remember what became of the other three children. Later Lavina was taken to an orphan's home in Brooklyn and her sister lost track of her. Mrs. Edwards' father, Mr. Carpenter, a steamboat captain, took his wife, daughter Philora and stepdaughter to St. Louis, where he died 29 years ago. Philora married David Edwards in 1869 in St. Louis and for the past thirty-eight years Mrs. Edwards has lived in Boonville, Mo. Captain Carpenter died without revealing to his daughter the secret of the whereabouts of his other children, only saying that he had gone to the orphan's home in Brooklyn and tried to find a trace of Lavina.

A short time ago Mrs. Edwards gave up all hope of ever finding any of her people, but as a last resort wrote to Mayor Mitchell of New York City, asking him to try to locate some of the officials of the home in which her sister stayed one night, 63 years ago. The letter was referred to those who knew something of the home, which has since been destroyed, and a few weeks ago Mrs. Edwards received a letter saying that her sister, Mrs. Lavina Wilcox, is living in Meriden, Conn. The two sisters are now corresponding and Mrs. Wilcox, who is 75 years old, is planning to visit her sister in Boonville, Mo.

HARP AND SONG.

To all lovers of music the announcement of the First Methodist Church for Sunday evening will bring keen anticipations. The special feature of the evening will be Mr. Alfred L. Miller, harpist and tenor singer. He is well known as a singer of sacred music. His tenor voice is of pleasing quality and his interpretation and expression always effective. The singer and his harp are always heard with pleasure.

Mr. Miller and his harp, with the special numbers by the choir, and a message by the pastor on "Seeing It Through—Vacation Bubbles," promise an interesting evening.

THAT IVANHOE BRIDGE

LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCIL TO DISCUSS APPROPRIATION MONDAY

There is nothing more needed and there is nothing more wanted than the Ivanhoe bridge, which is necessary for the completion of the extension of Brand boulevard from Glendale to Los Angeles, and yet there has been considerable delay on the part of the Los Angeles City Council in getting the amount of money necessary for the city's share of the cost of construction into the budget for the coming year.

The question of getting the amount into the budget will come up for consideration at 9 o'clock next Monday in the Council Chamber in Los Angeles. All persons interested in the new bridge should use means to bring all possible argument before the council as to the need of the bridge.

CENTRAL AVENUE TEACHERS

Miss Annie McIntyre, principal of the Central avenue school, is an enthusiastic motorist and handles her car with the skill of a professional, as many of her friends who have enjoyed her hospitality can testify. Miss McIntyre will spend the vacation at her home, 435 Isabel street, taking a number of short trips.

Miss Elizabeth Edwards and Miss Emma Saxton are spending a month enjoying the beauties of Yosemite. They are also taking a course in Nature study at a summer school conducted at the Yosemite by Professor Loye Holmes Miller, the well-known instructor of the Los Angeles State Normal school.

Miss Vera McPherson has just returned from a week's visit with Miss Susan Cooper, another of the Central avenue teachers, who has a cottage at Camp Cooper in Santa Anita Canyon. Miss Cooper will spend the summer there. Miss McPherson will be at home at present at 1516 Pioneer drive. Later she will enjoy an outing either at the beaches or in the mountains.

PATRONS FOR Y. M. C. A. WAR BENEFIT

The committee in charge of the Tuesday Afternoon club benefit for the Y. M. C. A. war work announce that so many people are vitally interested in the benefit that a list of the patrons is being secured and the names will be published the first of the week.

This is an opportunity for those who wish to aid this cause in a larger way than the twenty-five cent admission, for the committee says that patrons become such on the payment of one dollar a couple. This dollar does not include the price of admission, which is 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children, an admission fee within the reach of all. The committee announces that remarkably fine talent is being secured for the affair, which will be held on the lawn of the John Robert White home, 101 Orange street, Tuesday evening, July 17.

If you desire to aid by becoming a patron of this very worthy cause, telephone any of the following ladies: Mrs. John Robert White, Mrs. R. E. Chase, Mrs. S. A. Chase, Mrs. Stephen Packer, Mrs. C. E. Harlan, Mrs. H. L. Clotworthy.

SUMMER CHRISTMAS TREE

On last Sunday morning the children of the First Congregational Church participated in a most unique affair. The school had a summer Christmas tree, and together with members of the Woman's Missionary Society brought gifts which were placed upon the tree for the little children in China. Great enthusiasm was shown by members of the school and many fine and useful gifts were placed thereon. On Monday the gifts were started on the first part of their journey, and we know when our Saviour's birthday comes again many little hearts over there will be made brighter for our having given so generously. In the evening the Woman's Missionary Society had charge of the service, and Miss Denton, who has been a missionary to Japan for thirty years, was the speaker. She brought a glowing message to us of the work over there, and we truly felt after such a blessed day that we must indeed obey our Saviour's last command: "Go ye therefore and teach all nations." Secretary Woman's Missionary Society.

Mrs. Dan Campbell and children, Daniel, Arthur and Kathleen, of Ard-Eevin, leave to-day for Coronado, where they expect to spend two months.

MISSION OF A DAILY NEWSPAPER

A daily newspaper in a community has an important work to perform. A paper to be successful must have a financial management that gets the respect of the people residing in the territory over which the paper circulates. It requires money to publish any kind of a paper, and the man who is not financially able to tide over a dull month would better stay out of the publishing game.

A daily newspaper is a real community builder, providing the publisher of the paper is absolutely interested in the social, religious, educational and financial progress of the city in which he is actively at work. The management of a paper should be governed by an unchangeable policy embodying firmness and fairness toward all.

No publisher can advocate what is noblest and best in a community without meeting with opposition, and the publisher who changes his course of procedure every time he has apparently stepped on somebody's toes, is a spineless specimen of humanity and should follow an occupation that requires but little rigidity of the spinal column. Never think for a minute that the editor of the Evening News is disappointed because he can't please everybody. However, he takes occasion to thank the hundreds of citizens of Glendale who co-operate with him in making a greater and better daily paper for the people of this territory.

DEMOCRACY FOR RUSSIA

Through the hard school of experience the Russian people are learning the necessity of organized government to preserve the rights of individuals.

In revolution-torn, disorganized Russia we see an illustration of the growth of the idea of government. Russia is going through the process which makes government in all ages and in all lands.

The people when they threw down the autocracy and banished its symbol and idols did not put an end to government. They simply destroyed the form of government that had grown up through generations.

They are now finding that there must be a strong, organized government if the rights of the people are to be made safe and if the progress of the people is to be made possible.

In the breaking down of the old Russian system, the prison doors were thrown open, among those confined in Siberia or political reasons there were thousands of anarchists and criminals.

These men, once free, began to prey on society. To them property rights meant nothing. Out of prison they resumed the criminal course of crime that had been interrupted.

Now the Russian people are finding that if society is to be maintained in orderliness they must find a prompt remedy for the condition of chaos which the operations of these criminals has brought.

Following the overthrowing of the czar and all the machinery of government, there was no law except the individual will. It was soon found that this condition could not last. Theories concerning the organization of society are all very well as theories, but organization is necessary to protect society.

Russia is simply learning anew the old lesson. The sound common sense of all the people in the end will result in the formation of a stable government in which anarchy will have no place.—Sacramento Union.

Carelessness with fire in forest reserves may bring death to human beings and entail huge monetary losses. There is but one proper course—always, everywhere, in all circumstances, be careful with fire!

NEW EDUCATIONAL MOVEMENT.

The United States Department of Agriculture in the North and West are working together on plans for a farm and home handicraft club for boys and girls from 10 to 18 years of age. The club will stimulate interest in the agriculture clubs in the season when activity in the field and garden is suspended, and it will develop manual skill through practical work. The club will minister to the winter social needs of country children and will provide for exhibits and contests which will be conducted on the plan of corn clubs, canning clubs, and the like.

Senator Money, of Mississippi, asked an old colored man what breed of chickens he considered best, and he replied:
 "All kinds has merits. De white ones is de easiest to find; but de black ones is de easiest to hide aftah you gits 'em."—Exchange.

Last year there were 2,893,000 club depositors in the banks, who deposited approximately $80,000,000. The total for New York State was said to be $12,000,000.

A PRAYER FOR NATIVE LAND.

God of our land and State,
 To thee we consecrate
 Our manhood's might!
 Help us like those to be—
 Our fathers, brave and free,
 Who made our history—
 Firm for the right!

Fill us with patriot zeal,
 To raise a grand ideal
 In freedom's cause!
 Make greed and cunning less,
 Inspire unselfishness,
 Let brotherhood express
 Its love in laws!

Create a purpose strong
 To righten every wrong
 From shore to shore!
 To stand by public trust,
 By conscience clear and just,
 By scorn of sordid lust
 For spoils and power!

Bless church and press and school,
 In all our rulers rule,
 Feed our fair fame!
 Heal every social sore,
 Blend hearts of rich and poor.
 Uplift us to adore
 And fear Thy name!

—Dr. Levi Gilbert.

ARMY DOGS

In Germany the dog has his place as a part of the nation's regular fighting force. There is a regular dog corps for service in time of war. The dogs are carefully trained to their duties.

Most of the dog corps are composed entirely of Spitzes or Pomeranians, and these are mostly white in color. Of course a gray dog has a better chance of escaping detection in the field than a white one, but the white dogs are gray enough after they have been on the march for a day or two. Each dog is equipped with a metal collar and a pouch for letters. He is never tied up and is never led by a chain or rope. The dogs are given a peculiar but remarkably thorough and painstaking education. First, the dog is taught to distinguish between the uniforms of the Germans and those of foreign countries. He is then taught the uniforms of the officers of the German army. After he has mastered the uniforms of the various armies, he is given some drills in scout duty, being taught to tell his master of the approach of an enemy or friend.

The army dog is also taught to deliver letters. The letters are placed in his pouch and he is trained to run from post to post with them. He is taught to know many other posts besides his own, to recognize them by name, to take a pouch of letters to any post designated, to deliver them to an officer, to wait for a reply, and to return to his own post.—American Boy.

One of the best things recently said is a remark by William T. Ellis: "There are three kinds of people in the world: the wills, the won'ts and the can'ts. The first accomplish everything, the second oppose everything, and the third fail in everything."

BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts in the State of Ohio have been doing splendid work for forestry in fighting the tussock moth that was destroying the trees in Canton, Ohio. In two weeks the Scouts collected three million of the eggs. A quart of these eggs were sent to Professor Barnes of the Department of Entomology of Harvard, for investigative purposes. The mayor of Canton commended the work of the Scouts.

OHIO'S CHAMPION CORN GROWER

Dewey Hanes, a boy in Darke County, has outstripped his rivals in corn growing. In 1916 he raised on one acre of land 137.5 bushels of corn. The second place was won by a girl, Rhoda Bayha, of Batavia, Ohio, who raised 121.04 bushels of corn on one acre.

Whistler, the artist, had a French poodle of which he was extravagantly fond. Once the dog became ill and the artist sent for Sir Morell Mackenzie, the great throat specialist.

Doctor Mackenzie was not pleased, but he prescribed for the dog. The next day he sent for Whistler in great haste, and the artist, believing that he had been summoned on some matter connected with the poodle, dropped his work and hastened to Sir Morell's house.

A GIFT TO YALE UNIVERSITY

Mrs. S. V. Harkness, of New York, gives to Yale University, in memory of her son, who was a Yale man, a number of dormitories costing about ten million dollars. This is the largest gift to Yale in its history.

"In your conduct and conversation never swerve from your honest convictions."

RUTH WILSON RECEIVES GOLD MEDAL

(Contributed)
 Miss Ruth Wilson, of 326 South Louise street, one of Glendale's most popular and talented young ladies, was one of the participants in the commencement exercises of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts, on the evening of June 26th, at the Ebell Club house. Miss Wilson rendered, in a most artistic and finished manner, the second Portrait from the Kamenoi Ostrow Album by Anton Rubenstein. Diplomas, medals and prizes were awarded. Miss Wilson completed the gold medal course and will teach Theory this summer under the supervision of Jaroslav de Zielinski, the director of the Conservatory, with whom she has been studying for the past three years. Miss Wilson has completed eight years' work in five years, having studied piano, harmony, ear training, appreciation, notation and terminology, theory, history of music, and composition and invention, and is one of the most thorough and capable teachers in Glendale.

WHAT! SWEAR OFF THE WEED?

Editor Morning Tribune: As a constant reader of your papers, as well as several others, I desire to say a few words anent the now popular subject of the "wasteful house wife." Although I have always thought of myself as an economical woman, I have found, upon careful examination, that I can save food and food values where I before did not. But although I am sure that there are thousands of wasteful and careless housewives, I also know that the majority of the middle class women are trying in the most conscientious manner to save waste in the household.

Of course the men never think, in discussing this matter of national conservation that they might also serve. To be sure, your papers, and some others which I read, do suggest that a great saving might be made by conserving the grain now put into intoxicants, but from the president and Food Administrator Hoover, down to the editor of a small town paper, which I read every day, not one has touched upon one of the most flagrant causes of waste: I refer to the burning up of millions of dollars in pipes, cigars and cigarettes. I am not a fanatic about tobacco, as my "good man" and one of my sons smoke, but this eternal harping upon the wasteful housekeeper has gotten on my nerves.

Yesterday, at a family gathering, it was amusing (if it had not been so exasperating) to hear my husband and brother-in-law, each with a good cigar between his lips, exhort the "woman-folks" to economy. With perfectly straight faces and not a trace of self-consciousness they orated upon the woeful lack of responsibility of the "average woman." They thought it strange at this time of national peril that women should be so lacking in patriotism.

Mr. Editor, will you not present in your very influential papers this side of the argument? If we weigh all our groceries and forego the dainty desserts so dear to our hearts, eat johnnie cake once a week and prepare mush and milk for the family occasionally, won't the good men be persuaded to forego the pipe, cigar or cigarette "as a war measure"? But, perhaps, Mr. Editor, you are also addicted to the weed, in which case there is no hope. But at least if the men will not deny themselves this pleasure, let them cease to demand so much of us.

MRS. KATE PARKER,
 311 S. Louise St., Glendale.

True, the editor of this little town paper has not said much upon this question. He uses tobacco in no form himself. Will not run a cigarette advertisement in his paper. The question is one for parents to control while children are young. If there could be less time spent by parents in laying down laws for others, and more attention given to what their own children are doing, perhaps the tobacco expenses would not be so great at the present time.

BARACA NOTICE

The First M. E. Baraca Class will meet as usual to-morrow at 9:40 in the Baraca room of the church. It is expected that Rev. Snudden will have charge of the class. All officers and members are expected to be present. Press. Cor.

We are now spending a billion dollars a year upon education in the United States. One half of the sum goes for elementary education, one half for high school, colleges and technical schools. The total enrollment in public and private school is 23,500,000, nearly one-quarter of the whole population. The teaching staff numbers 706,000, of whom 537,000 are women.

TELEPHONE CALLS

The Bell Telephone Company had an average of 20,420,000 calls a day during the year 1916.

HARD

About the hardest job I have is to convince people that our business is not purely commercial, and that a big corporation back east is not making a profit on the insurance. True, I get my living out of the business, and the officers of the company can not work for nothing. Each annual report of our company states, however, that "The entire surplus in the insurance department belongs to the policy holders." Could anything be plainer?

Let me talk to you about this great company and its low net cost of insurance.

LAST WATER CARRIERS OF PARIS.

Paris, one of the most progressive cities in the world in finance, banking, fashions, aviation, is, nevertheless, far behind the times in some other respects. For instance, she still allows her streets to be littered with hand bills and leaflets, handed out by the hundreds, and quickly thrown away. Rag pickers are allowed to go about the city collecting refuse, which they renovate and sell again. Bath peddlers go about with a huge tin bathtub and small tank filled with hot water, selling the use of the tub to those wishing a bath.

Then there are water carriers, although they have nearly all passed away. The extension of the water system has almost eliminated this picturesque person. In some isolated quarters, however, he still exists, drawing water from springs carefully piped or from driven wells, bottling it in huge earthen jugs, or drawing it into pails and cans, from which he supplies his customers. In some cases he draws the water from the nearest street faucet, for it is not so much the lack of water mains, as the lack of plumbing in the houses that gives rise to this unique business.—Popular Electricity and Modern Mechanics.

"BRITISH OBJECTS"

West Indians, like other Negroes, delight in large, high-sounding words. For example, when I asked a Jamaican whether he thought it was likely to rain, he replied, "We may expect it momentarily, sah!"

They find great delight in composing long and grandiloquent letters and petitions. Many of them are expert penmen, and write with a copious exactness. On one occasion a delegation of six, headed by an elegantly attired legal adviser in frock coat, silk hat, and gloves, called upon me to present a statement of grievances. They handed me the document with great ceremony, and requested my attention to it and a reply. I asked them to leave it, saying I would give it careful consideration, and assuring them that if they would call a week later I would give them a reply. When they had departed I found that the document comprised six foolscap pages, beautifully penned, and containing more large and resounding words than I had believed the English language to possess. It began, "Honored Sir, Good Morning," and closed with "Honored Sir, Good Evening." A day had obviously been required for its composition.

The grievance was trivial, an act of imaginary discourtesy on the part of a foreman that the complainants, as "British objects"—West Indians invariably speak of themselves as British objects, instead of subjects—resented, as offensive to their dignity. I awaited the delegation at the end of the week, but they did not come back at that or any other time. They had so enjoyed themselves in composing and presenting the petition that they cared nothing for a reply.—Joseph B. Bishop, Secretary of the Isthmian Canal Commission, in Youth's Companion.

RED CROSS DOGS

In the Red Cross service in European battlefields there are twenty-five hundred dogs which have been trained to search out the wounded and then go for Red Cross help. To prove their find they bring some article taken from the wounded soldier, a handkerchief, hat, or belt.

COMFORT AND PROGRESS.

Progress demands that all men should be able to live comfortably. Luxury effeminates, but reasonable comfort leads to contentment. This makes the best workman and produces the hardest stock. For the sake of a few dollars the nation dare not pay the price of low living and the resultant viciousness. It avails little that the nation produce stalwart workmen who after all are the bulwark of the nation. Keep the national morals high and the bodies well nourished and you have the highest materials from which to build the nation. With resources like ours there is no excuse for less.—Pennsylvania Grit.

The cause of the abnormal price of soap is that we formerly imported 50% of tallow used in the soap-making industry from Argentina, Russia and Australia. This importation is now stopped, and the manufacture of soap is jealously controlled so that none of the glycerine so essential in the manufacture of dynamite will go astray.

Soap used by the Glendale Laundry is now selling at 16 1/2 cents per pound.

This will be the first in a series of three morning sermons. You will be helped by these meditations. The Sunday School as usual. Watch the Men's Class grow. Be one of them. The Epworth League has a good leader and lesson. Remember the social given by the ladies on the evening of the twelfth.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

This coming Sunday with the Lutheran Church promises to be an exceptional day. The great Sunday School "drive" is now on for 100 men to build up the Men's Bible Class. This is promising success. The pastor has prepared a special divine message for the 11 o'clock service entitled, "Only an Earthen Vessel." It will be clean cut, clearing up, it is hoped, many beclouded ideas regarding the real place the material and spiritual hold in relation to each other. "Billy" Sunday as God's special man for a special work will be brought out to show how God never cares for form or rules or social demands laid down by men, but when the heart is touched God is ready to surprise the world and all religious cant. At 6:30 the C. E. will unite with all the other societies of Glendale in an "echo meeting" on West Third St. At 7:30 will be held an "After Convention Rally," when reports will be given by the delegates who were in attendance at the State C. E. Convention. And to add to it the pastor will give an illustrated talk on "Riverside, the 'Convention City,'" showing some of the many good things the delegates saw while there. All welcome. Don't miss either service. You will want to hear the morning message and that of the evening. Will do you good.

OVER THE TELEPHONE.

The manner in which you use a telephone indicates largely what you are.

Many a man has dug his grave with his tongue.

Discourtesy hurts the person who uses it more than the person toward whom it is directed.

You cannot get away from that truth by drawing a herring across the trail.

We have proved to our satisfaction that courtesy is a good investment.

One discourteous action by you over the telephone to a patron or prospective patron does an injury to every man whose name is on the payroll; and a place on the payroll beats one in the breadline.

It is not always what a man knows: it is what he does that counts. Opportunity plays no favorites.

Knockers do not kill men: they kill business. They are the persons who sift sand into the gear boxes of progress.

Wounds inflicted by a knife heal more quickly than those inflicted by a sharp tongue.

Chickens come home to roost; so do harsh words.

—Ladies' Home Journal.

PRACTICAL BROTHERHOOD

In Binghamton, New York, a flour manufacturer who employs twelve thousand workmen has announced that owing to the high cost of living he will sell flour at cost to the men working in his mills.

Wisconsin is using an aeroplane in its forestry department as an agency for fighting fires. From a height of fifteen hundred feet a man can discover a small forest fire sixty miles away.

Bicycling is a favorite sport at one of the schools for the blind in England. The sightless riders are not, however, sent out alone. They use a special make of a machine that has six double wheels and carries twelve persons. It is very much like a tandem; six times multiplied, and each set of wheels is connected with the rest. One seeing person goes along to steer.—Exchange.
