FREEDOM OF CITY OF MONTREAL IS GIVEN TO MR. LLOYD GEORGE

Speech in Mount Royal Arena This Afternoon First Formal Public Address by ex-Prime Minister of Britain During Tour on This Continent

Montreal, Oct. 8 (By Staff Correspondent of Canadian Press)—Former Premier Lloyd George began another day full of receptions and sightseeing this morning. He was taken to the principal industrial plants in the city. He was given the freedom of the city at an open-air gathering on the steps of the city Hall Annex.

Arrangements have been made to broadcast the former British Prime Minister's address by wireless, which will carry the speaker's voice to the crowds in the streets.

"Gentlemen, I thank you for the cordial greetings you have given me. It is a new experience to me to be in the Stock Exchange, although, as Chancellor of the Exchequer, I was used to dealing with members of the Stock Exchange in London and I have the experience that they are a most patriotic body."

After a burst of cheering the members of the party went in their cars on a rapid trip along the front and then to the City Hall.

Freedom of City Standing on the steps of the City Hall, Mayor Martin presented the distinguished visitor the freedom of the city.

Shook Hands With Officials The address concluded, civic officials pressed around to shake hands with Mr. Lloyd George and his party.

British Empire Exhibition is Great Opportunity, Says Premier King

London, Oct. 8 (By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—Speaking during a visit to the buildings of the British Empire Exhibition, Premier Mackenzie King, of Canada, urged that the exhibition should represent the Empire in miniature.

"All through the history of nations," said Mr. King, "two antagonistic types of activities have struggled for the ascendancy—militant and industrial. The struggle has been the great object lesson in the outcome of the former within the recent past. In this exhibition we would have an object lesson of the possibilities of the latter. We of the British Empire would have the world witness here the limitless possibilities for progress and plenty of the arts of peace."

of United States, visited the various states of Australia, studying the geography of the country. They visited South Australia, New South Wales and Tasmania.

Dean Brock stated that Australia has wonderful natural resources, as is indicated by the large populations she can support in cities, with so small a population outside.

Dean Brock did not stay to the end of the conference but proceeded to Hongkong. While at the conference, however, he was particularly impressed by the manner in which every representative from each country broadcast his information which was particularly valuable. "One country's discoveries are of great value to another country and these conferences bring about an international exchange of information," he said.

At Hongkong Dean Brock made a brief survey of the work that he will have to do there. He stated that it is essential that every country should be geologically surveyed before any development is made.

Dean Brock announces the departure of Dr. S. J. Schofield for the Orient soon to take up the first part of this work. In expressing an opinion of the devastated area of Japan, Dean Brock thought that it would be feasible to rebuild Yokohama and stated that he thought that this city would be rebuilt by the Japanese Government.

NEGOTIATIONS NOW FOR FULL RESUMPTION OF WORK IN RUHR AREA

The Chancellor dealt at length with the abandonment of passive resistance in the Ruhr, rebutting the criticism of the Nationalists that he had already given up the fight. The situation with which his Government was confronted when he first assumed office, he said, was that passivity was no longer at its strongest, and that the French and Belgians could not be brought out of the occupied regions by this resistance alone.

Referring to the speech of the British Foreign Secretary, Marquis Curzon, before the Imperial Conference in London on Friday, Dr. Stresemann remarked that every attempt by Germany to play one ally off against another, would be political stupidity, and he declared that the sole possibility of a solution of the reparations problem was through an agreement between the Allies on one side and Germany on the other.

Replying to the interjection "Then you can wait a long time," the Chancellor asked his interrupter whether he believed the French would evacuate the Ruhr if Germany came to an agreement with Britain alone.

Financial Chaos.

Returning to the subject of passive resistance, the Chancellor said that if the Government had continued that by continuing resistance it could have achieved advantageous to Germany freedom, it would have caused it but to not admit that a financial chaos that the day was near when the German mark would cease to be a means of payment, not only abroad, but also in Germany.

HON. E. LAPORTE VISITS VANCOUVER

his Director of Fisheries, W. A. Fraser; his Chief Engineer, B. H. Fraser; and his Private Secretary, N. W. Langlois.

No Statement

The Minister stated yesterday he expected to be very busy while at the coast, but declined to comment on the various details of the work he had to undertake.

In reference to False Creek and the harbor question generally, Mr. Lapointe said that he did not anticipate any difficulty in coming to an understanding with Mr. Pattullo. He is just as much interested in the proper development of Vancouver harbor as we are.

The great projection of shipping off the west coast of Vancouver Island was a policy upon which the department had decided, he said, but among the many suggestions which had been made it was necessary to decide which were most efficacious and practicable, and for this purpose Mr. Johnston and Mr. Fraser would make a personal visit to the district next week, he announced.

Mr. Lapointe is accompanied on his visit to the coast by Madame Lapointe. On Wednesday they will proceed to Victoria.

Wireless Station

Deputy Minister Johnston, who is well known here for his efficient administration of the Marine Department under various Ministers, stated yesterday that during the summer months he had been investigating the best location for a new directional wireless station on the west coast, and he has not now believed that a suitable place had been found. He stated also that it had been decided to establish a sea-going boat at Banfield for life-saving and coast patrol work of that nature. Various other details of protection were under consideration, and Mr. Johnston said he wished to pay a personal visit to the district affected as it was the only important part of the coast of Canada, east or west, with which he felt himself unfamiliar.

It is planned to broadcast the speech of the Minister at the Royal Victoria Theatre. Those who heard the eloquent member for Quebec East when he came here with Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in 1920 will listen with interest to Mr. Lapointe's address a Victoria audience again. As there are thousands of arctic fans in the Province, it is thought this opportunity will be thoroughly appreciated.

EMPIRE DELEGATES HEAR STATEMENT BY CANADIAN PREMIERS

London, Oct. 8.—(George Humblon, Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press)—The Imperial Conference opened a discussion to-day that will be momentous. The tangled history of the Ruhr, the breach of the Entente, Lord Curzon's speech and the bitter rejoinder from France, are before the Dominion Premiers, and this morning they began to state their views thereon.

"Will the Dominion Premiers endorse Curzon's conclusion that there is nothing to be done beyond awaiting the action of the Government of France?" This is the question. It follows the question with an expression of confidence that the conference will decide to lead, not to follow.

The desire that the Dominions should be united with Great Britain in formulating a common foreign policy is finding wide expression here. A brief citation from The London Daily Telegraph will indicate this tendency. "It is today," says The Telegraph, "an accepted condition of our foreign policy that it is that of all the self-governing states of the Empire, and in framing it the Governments of those states must actively participate. That is the object of the presence of the Dominion Premiers in London to-day."

How would the Dominions express their joint view of the Empire's foreign policy, presuming they are in agreement on the subject, is a question that is creating speculation in political circles, with these alternatives suggested:

1. Issuance of a joint manifesto in the names of all the Premiers of the Empire and chief delegates in which the conduct adopted by them regarding the Ruhr is explained and European policy would be stated and explained.

2. Dominion representations on British delegations at inter-Allied conferences, following the practice adopted at the peace conference.

Montreal, Oct. 8 (Associated Press)—Europe is in the midst of a great struggle between hope and despair; and that struggle is becoming material. Mr. Hon. David Lloyd George, war-time Premier of Great Britain, declared in an address here yesterday. Speaking briefly at an open air service which he returned the first sod for the new Westmount Baptist Church, he declared he was glad Montreal and Canada were not the victims of the plague of materialism which is threatening to engulf the world.

"I am glad," he added, "that you here do not live by bread alone."

Attendance at the ceremony was the one break in a Sunday spent quietly with friends and resting after a period of several days, intense activity.

Guest of Senator

Accompanied by Dame Margaret and Miss Megan Lloyd George, the former Premier attended morning service at the First Baptist Church, and then went to the home of Lansing Lewis, president of the Welsh Society of St. David, for a reception. He was the guest at luncheon of Senator J. P. B. Casgrain, where he met prominent French-Canadians, and last evening was the dinner guest of Lord Atholstan, proprietor of The Montreal Star.

Traveling in an open automobile from his hotel to the church yesterday morning, he passed between continuous lines of people, to whose cheers he responded by doffing his hat and bowing.

At the close of the church service, at which the Rev. Dr. M. McCutcheon preached the sermon, he was formally welcomed to Canada by speakers on behalf of the Baptists of Ontario and Quebec.

Great Welcome

Mr. Lloyd George was accorded a magnificent welcome in Montreal Saturday night when the train which conveyed him from New York steamed into the Bonaventure Station at 9:30 o'clock. Thousands of persons thronged the streets and high streets leading to it in the hope of catching a glimpse of the man whose name was so familiar the world over during the dark war years.

As he left the train with his wife and daughter and came in view of the great concourse which awaited him, cheers arose which seemed to shake the depot, and which completely drowned the strains of the Welsh National Anthem played by a band at the end of the platform.

Montreal's welcome to Britain's war-time Premier was of a superlative character seldom extended in Canada. In it there was plainly discernible an echo of the rejoicing which greeted the victorious conclusion of the World War, in which Lloyd George played such a prominent part. There was not a discordant note in the ovation, and it was considered representative of many races, creeds and shades of opinion.

At Station

When Lloyd George and his party stepped from the train they were met by Mayor Martin, Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, Lord Atholstan, Lord Shaughnessy, Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, J. W. Ross, president of the Board of Trade; Hon. Walter Mitchell, Senators Cnamgram, Foster and Webster, Eric-Thomas, Dodds, Armstrong and McLaughlin; Hon. C. C. Bellantyne, Sir Charles Gordon, Col. Melghen, Grant Hall, Pierre Belanger, chief constable of the city, and many other men prominent in the social, business and public life of Montreal.

As the party proceeded into the station the congestion became intense. Police struggled with enthusiastic people, and at times were forced to use the ends of their batons before a narrow passage could be cleared.

About Automobile

When the main exit of the station was reached it was some minutes before the police could thrust a way out to the waiting automobiles. The huge crowd saw the striking little figure of the ex-Premier in the station entrance a great cheer went up and, pressing forward, the people demolished the square, and wedged themselves about the automobile in which the ex-Premier was seated with his wife and daughter.

When the hotel was reached the police found a dense crowd packed in front of the main entrance, and once again the struggle commenced to clear a passage for the ex-Premier and his party. Two minutes after Mr. Lloyd George had entered the hotel it was impossible to move in the rotunda owing to the density of the throng which, however, hoping that he would speak.

Admission to the reserved portion of the floor was by ticket, and in this way the officials in charge of the reception were able to keep check upon those who entered.

Shook Hands

Standing at the end of the apartment farthest from the crowd which was confined to the main rotunda, the ex-Premier shook hands with those presented to him by Mayor Martin. Despite the bright twinkle in his eyes, which is not overdone in his photographs, Mr. Lloyd George could not prevent an expression of weariness from creeping over his features. The day had been a strenuous one. He had been in New York at a comparatively early hour, several stops were made en route to Montreal, and in every case great crowds had collected at the stations to get a glimpse of the famous Brit-

Statement by Premier King

In his statement to-day it is expected that the Premier will define his views of Canada's position toward the foreign policy generally, rather than enter into detailed discussion of such subjects as the Premier Smuts, of South Africa, will likely adopt a critical attitude, arguing that the Ruhr situation should in the first instance be submitted to the League of Nations.

Empire Settlements

Turning to the economic side, the delegates on Tuesday will consider the frank exposition of the position on Empire Settlements suggested by Lord Curzon, Secretary of State for Overseas Trade and chairman of the Overseas Settlement Committee. He candidly admits the results are disappointing and that the numbers who have gone overseas are infinitesimal in comparison to the needs of the continent. Assisted passage schemes were originally designed for the absorption per annum of 50,000 by Australia, 10,000 by New Zealand, and 17,000 by Canada. In addition, settlement schemes with Australia were to provide for about 18,000 persons, making a total of 95,000 in one year. Yet, the numbers who actually have proceeded abroad with the assistance accorded under the Empire Settlement Act is relatively small. To the end of last month 22,485 had gone to Australia, 42 to New Zealand, and 2,851 to Canada, making a total of 25,338. In addition a further 7,000 have been approved but have not yet sailed. In addition, Canadian figures include both Dominion and Province of Ontario schemes.

The total British cash commitments amount to £32,200,000, as against £1,500,000 to the end of March and £3,000,000 for the current fiscal year.

Suggestions

What are the causes, Col. Buckley asked, of the somewhat meagre results so far attained? Are they economic, political or psychological?

On behalf of the British authorities, Col. Buckley put forward these suggestions:

1. Can we not expect water to run uphill or to work economic miracles. We must adjust our plans to what is economically possible. Every precaution is to be taken both in the Old Country and in the Dominions to eliminate failures.

2. "The possibilities of improving the arrangements for the selection and recruitment of migrants in Great Britain and their reception and supervision overseas should be investigated."

3. "There should be an investigation of group settlement with the view of mitigating the strangeness of new surroundings and deterring the effect of distance which separate the new settlers from the old home."

In Groups

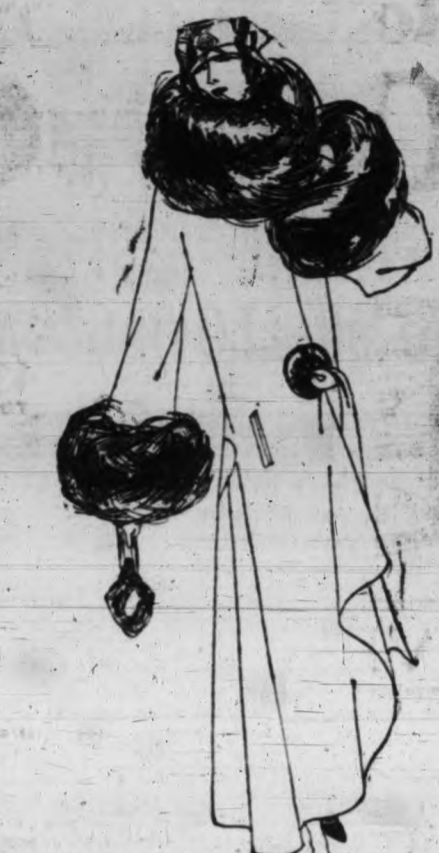

In regard to the group settlements idea it is argued that settlers from some particular county of Great Britain or groups of persons bound together by religious or social ties could be established in the same area overseas. Steps already have been taken along these lines in certain English counties.

The group system in South Africa, according to the South African delegates, has had both brilliant successes and hopeless failures. The important factor in migration is that Great Britain has more than half a million young persons, more than half of them boys leaving school, entering the labor market every year.

Progress Desired

Representatives of all the overseas Dominions have assured the British Government that they desire to work out a more effective scheme of

MANITOBA MAN SOUGHT BY POLICE

Farmer Died After Being Shot; Young Woman in Hospital

Emerson, Man., Oct. 8.—Provincial Police are scouring the countryside for John Bazuk, a farmer of Gardenton, Man., who is alleged to have shot and fatally wounded John Kulyk, twenty-four, a farmer of Tolstoi, twenty-two, of Gardenton, Man., with an automobile, inflicting serious injuries, and to have struck Edward Toews, of Stuartburn, and John Zahara, of Gardenton, on the head with a rock, inflicting scalp wounds.

Miss Zahara is in a Winnipeg hospital.

The incidents occurred on Saturday night when Kulyk and Miss Zahara were returning from a dance. As Kulyk entered a yard to get his horse and buggy he was shot by someone in an automobile which continued down the road, struck a rock and then swerved, hitting Miss Zahara, who had gone ahead with her sister. The car knocked her into the ditch and then fell on top of her.

Toews and Zahara, who went to her assistance, were struck on the heads while attempting to raise the car. A rock tied in a handkerchief which is believed to be the weapon used, was found in the grass.

TRICK PLAYED BY LONDON THIEVES

Shouted "Earthquake" and Caused Stampede in Street Market

Many Persons Are Injured; Animals Killed

London, Oct. 8.—Shouts of "earthquake" in a crowded street market held in the east end of London Saturday caused a wild stampede in which a number of people were trampled, hundreds of caged animals destroyed and a quantity of miscellaneous property ruined or stolen.

The scene of the disaster was the narrow Solitor Street, Bethnal Green, a noted centre for the sale of domestic pets. Local traders say an auction was in progress in the open street when a band of toughs rushed into the throng of thousands of marketeers and speculators, yelling "Earthquake!" The crowd fled screaming toward both ends of the street, while the stalls with which it was lined were overthrown. The caged birds and animals and other property that lay in the path of the terrified mob suffered severely, many of the creatures being trampled to death, and many of the people falling among them to be trampled themselves.

The Daily Mail gives the casualties as sixty persons injured, of whom a dozen were taken to hospitals; 2,900 small cage birds either killed or escaped; 100 dogs and cats and scores of poultry killed. The terror of the crowd was increased by the explosion of bottles of gasoline in one of the overturned stalls. This led to the belief that shooting was in progress. The dealers state the whole affair was an organized raid by a gang of thieves. Any way there seems to have been wholesale looting during the stampede.

BANDITS RELEASE MAN FROM JAIL

Jay, Okla., Oct. 8.—Five unmasked bandits broke into the jail here last night and released Ed. Lockhart, a notorious bandit, after they had locked Jack Carey, jailer, and Perry Arthur, a merchant, who was visiting the jail, in a cell. The bandits escaped in an automobile.

The actual holdup was committed by a youth not more than eight months old. The other men stationed themselves about the jail to fight off any resistance.

12 DENOMINATIONS UNITE TO ADVANCE RELIGIOUS WORKS

New York, Oct. 8.—Representatives of the twelve leading Protestant denominations have joined in the incorporation of a new religious educational body known as "The Institute for the Advancement of Christian Knowledge." This was announced to-day by Judge Henry Wade Rogers, LL.D., president of the institute. The first step in the institute's programme, which contemplates the study of religious problems and engaging in religious surveys and research, will be to secure the publication of an American Encyclopedia of Christianity.

Plans for getting out the encyclopedia for American Protestants are already under way, with an editorial board of nine Protestant scholars headed by Dr. Joseph Cullen Ayer, professor of ecclesiastical history in the Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in Philadelphia. The work will be in twelve volumes of approximately 1,000,000 words each, and will take six years to be completed. The editorial policy will be strictly impartial from an objective point of view, and it is proposed to let at least two different writers handle subjects that are open to controversy.

"The need for a body like the Institute for the Advancement of Christian Knowledge," its president, Judge Rogers, said, "arose out of present-day conditions. This is a day of a new and widespread religious renaissance. It is an hour in which the Protestant Church of the United States faces new duties, hears a new call to new activities. The purposes of the institute, in general, are to function as a laboratory of religion."

15,000 KILLED, $520,000,000 LOSS BY FIRE

That is Total of Destruction Last Year For Canada and United States

Radio To-night Joins in War on Waste From Conflagrations

New York, Oct. 8 (Associated Press)—"Fire prevention week" throughout the United States and Canada begins to-day. The entire population of the two countries will be urged to concentrate, during the next six days, upon the problem of decreasing a fire loss which last year resulted in the death of 15,000 persons and the destruction of more than $520,000,000 worth of property.

It is estimated, according to the Underwriters' laboratories, that between 75 and 85 per cent of this enormous waste is preventable by ordinary care—and it is a fact that the waste, in spite of efforts to prevent it, is increasing rather than decreasing year after year. The per capita loss in the United States is approximately $5. The per capita loss in Holland is 11 cents. The nearest approach to the huge per capita in America is approximately $1 in England and France.

In order to reach the largest possible number of people with an appeal to prevent fires, advantage is being taken of radio transmission. George B. Muldaur, general agent of the Underwriters' Laboratories, has prepared an address which is to be broadcast to-night from sixteen different radio stations in this country and Canada. The estimate of the number of people who will hear this message through the air runs as high as 10,000,000. The address reads in part as follows:

"The time to put out a fire is before it starts; in other words, prevention. While the use of improper building material is doubtless the cause of a large proportion of our industrial fire loss, it is certainly true that bad housekeeping, both in the home and industry, is a menace which permits the starting of an enormous number of fires which could never take place if simple rules of order and neatness were observed.

"How much do you know about the fire hazards existing in your own home? One of the most dangerous things in a house is the common match, because it is apt to be left carelessly about, within the reach of children or where it may be dropped and stepped upon. Matches carelessly thrown away after lighting are alone accountable for many millions of dollars of fire loss. An electric iron is a most useful implement, but if left alone with the current turned on will almost invariably cause a fire. The same is true of many other electrical devices, excellent in themselves, but a menace when improperly used. Greasy cloths, if thrown together and left for any length of time, will ignite spontaneously. Nothing is more dangerous than to throw rags and other rubbish into a closet or wooden receptacle. All cleaning cloths and fluids should be kept by themselves away from combustible material. All parts of the house, from attic to cellar, should be kept free from accumulation of any kind of rubbish. A small blaze once started in a rubbish pile makes headway with unexpected rapidity, and it is difficult to approach such a fire when hampered by an accumulation of articles which have no business to be there.

"Do you know the location of the fire alarm box nearest your house? If not, find out. Do not depend upon the telephone to send in a fire alarm.

"Bear in mind that a clean house is a safe house, and that every house should be clean at all times and free from all accumulation of unnecessary articles.

"Kerosene lamps, if used, should be kept well away from any inflammable part of the building, and the kerosene itself kept in a metal can outside of the house. It is not necessary to use inflammable cleaning fluids. Ashes should always be kept in metal cans and not allowed to accumulate. Walls and floors should be protected by metal or asbestos covering from stoves and pipes.

"Do not use wooden shingles. Entire cities have been destroyed because the majority of the houses were shingle covered, and roofs have been ignited by burning brands carried by the wind for distances of more than a mile. Defective chim-

SPOKE OF FUTURE OF SOUTH AFRICA

Premier Smuts Told British Audience Progress Not in Doubt

London, Oct. 8 (Canadian Press Cable).—Rt. Hon. J. C. Smuts, Prime Minister of the Union of South Africa, led the foundation stone on Saturday of the South African pavilion in the British Empire exhibition grounds at Wembley and delivered a speech which was noteworthy as being his first public address since arriving in England to attend the Imperial Conference. Premier Smuts said he had great hopes for the future of South Africa, which had been through an era of great trouble, national and political, such as New Zealand and Canada had not experienced. That was now finished, and South Africa, to-day, was a country about whose future none had the slightest doubt.

Premier Smuts described the Empire Exhibition to be held next year as part of a great campaign of self-development which was occurring in the Empire. The Empire was a great state which its people were called upon to develop and hand down to future generations.

CHAMBERLAIN WROTE KAISER ANECDOTE

London, Oct. 8.—Some interesting letters written by Austen Chamberlain to his family when, in 1871, as a young man, he visited Germany to complete his education, are published in the September issue of The Empire Review.

Among other anecdotes the writes gives the following story of Prince Wilhelm, now the occupant of Doorn House, in Holland, and often referred to as plain William Hohenzollern. "Prince Wilhelm, seeing one of the German officers, Goitz Pasha, who is serving in the Turkish Army, with three orders on his breast, asked for what service he got them. The pasha, after a moment's hesitation replied: "The first I got for gallantry in the second for stealing, and the third for lying."

WRONGLY DESCRIBED

We have already observed that there is a disposition in some quarters to confuse what is now described as the "beer situation" with the old familiar cry that has been heard in the Legislature on more than one occasion.

It would be nearer the mark to refer to the state of affairs in which beer seems to have become deeply involved as the "club situation" and not the "beer situation."

It is no secret that there is a tendency to utilize this unsatisfactory situation as an argument in favor of open sale by the glass.

We venture to suggest that there has been neither organized nor even unorganized demand upon the Government to re-open the subject in this connection.

CUT DOWN THE ASH HEAP

Canadians from the Pacific to the Atlantic are asked to give as much attention as they possibly can all this week to the elementary principles of fire prevention.

Fire statistics show that the resumption of more intensive domestic firing after the Summer season has been attended by many disasters that could have been prevented if the sweep had been called in to perform an examination or carry out such cleaning operations as are usually necessary.

One might dilate upon a whole chapter of "Don'ts" and still omit any reference to many dangerous practices that contribute to a Canadian ash heap that ought to be very considerably smaller than it is.

Those responsible for arranging fire prevention weeks are performing a public service of great value. It is one that concerns the property of the people alone.

GET A VICTORIAN IF POSSIBLE

It will have been generally hoped that among the applications for the position of City Comptroller one will be found from a local man who will be considered capable of performing the somewhat exacting duties of that important office. We observe that out of the score or more who have filed their desire for consideration are four from Victoria.

Although we are of the opinion that it should not be necessary to go farther than the environs of this city for a new official for the post in question, we contend that if neither of the local applicants is considered the right man for the job there should be no hesitation in appointing the applicant who seems to possess the necessary qualifications—no matter from whence he comes.

GETTING ORGANIZED

Vancouver heard Sir George Foster on Friday night and more than four hundred adults agreed to become members of the Terminal City's branch of the League of Nations Society of Canada.

Note and Comment

It is reported that Mr. Lloyd George is going to write a new series of articles at thirty shillings a word. Although we are not permitted to speak with accurate knowledge we should suggest that this is rather a "tail" price.

Canada's annual ash heap represents a loss to the people of the country of something like $45,000,000. This could be cut in half and eventually reduced to an insignificant total if the average individual would think before he does lots of things that he must know are careless.

The Montreal Star and Mr. Meighen continue to broadcast "whispers of death" and other doleful tidings that are intended to let all and sundry know that Canada cannot escape from wreck and ruin as long as the present Government is in power at Ottawa.

SOAP WILL EXTERMINATE LEPROSY, SAYS SCIENTIST

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Soap is the greatest enemy of leprosy and if economic conditions could be changed so that everyone could afford to be clean, and education create in them the desire and knowledge of hygiene, leprosy would soon cease to be a great scourge and become one of the rare diseases, Dr. Arthur W. Stillians, professor of dermatology at Northwestern University, announced in an article just published.

The author arrives at the conclusion that to eradicate leprosy in this country the first object of the attack must be on the popular fear of the disease. "It seems the greatest difficulty in the isolation of lepers is finding them, their fear of being branded as lepers being so great that those who suspect the nature of their disease will hide, at any sacrifice, rather than come into the open," says Dr. Stillians. "As for the victims of the malady, occupational therapy is of benefit, if it has been found. Kindness and encouragement put hope into their hearts and their condition improves as a consequence. Because leprosy in its early stages is not recognizable in port of entry examinations of immigrants, the problem of its control is a problem for the whole world." He concludes by saying: "Could the nations cease wasting wealth and energy in wars against one another and present a united front against the common enemies of the human race, leprosy would certainly be conquered."

LACK OF CLERGY IN ENGLAND NOW CAUSES ANXIETY

Anglican Church Reports a shortage of Men in Training

London, Oct. 8.—There is a grave shortage of clergy in the Church of England to-day. Official figures disclose that there are fewer than 13,000 incumbents this year, a shortage of 5,000. This figure is little more than half the number required to carry on the work of the church. The theological colleges, moreover, are nearly empty. "Our full staff should number 21,000," says Canon Partridge, secretary of the Church of England central board of finance. "Taking a generation as thirty years, it follows that 700 men should be ordained every year. We have not reached that figure for eleven years. In 1918 there were only 114 ordinations. "One of the causes of this shortage is the financial position of the professional classes from whose ranks the priesthood is usually recruited. They cannot now afford to give their sons the long and expensive training required. Another cause is the unattractiveness of the clerical profession as a career. Stipends are rarely more than $1,500 a year."

About thirty members of the Natural History Society and the B. C. Historical Society went to Aldridge Point, Beecher Bay, on Saturday afternoon to examine the rock pictures described in The Times last Monday, following the visit of Dr. Harlan I. Smith when he was in Victoria. Both the whale and the seal pictures were viewed. The party learned that near Beecher Bay are aboriginal drawings of deer, which they will examine on some future occasion.

WANTS CHEAP LIME FOR B.C.'S FARMS

Menzies Would Aid Farmers to Sweeten Soil; Finds Beer-Wine Store Satisfactory

Plans for providing lime to farmers to sweeten the soil of their farms at a low cost will be laid before the Agricultural Committee of the Legislature when the House opens by Rev. Thomas Menzies, independent member for Comox. Mr. Menzies arrived here to-day to discuss his scheme with members of the Provincial Government.

He has just returned from a trip to Blubber Bay, where the Pacific Lime Company operates a big quarry. The company, according to Mr. Menzies, would be prepared to supply lime to farmers at a low rate provided large quantities were used. Mr. Menzies proposes that the Department of Agriculture aid him by purchasing stumping powder, either through a system of rebates or by buying large quantities of lime itself and selling it to farmers at a low price.

"Lime is vitally needed by many farms in this Province to sweeten the soil," Mr. Menzies said to-day. "A scheme for distributing lime at a low cost undoubtedly would be a great boon to the farming business."

During his recent trip Mr. Menzies visited Powell River, where the Provincial Government is operating a liquor store in which only beer and light wines are sold. This store is a marked success and is satisfactory to the people of the place, Mr. Menzies says.

Mr. Menzies found the paper-making industry booming at Powell River, with 940 men employed.

On Texada Island Mr. Menzies discovered a strange treat of nature in the form of an apple tree bearing an excellent crop of apples and at the same time a beautiful showing of blossoms.

OPEN GAME DATES

In changing the open date for pheasant shooting no change was made in that of partridges. It is pointed out to-day by local hunters. Originally pheasants and partridges "came in" on the same day, October 15. Now, however, the pheasant season has been advanced two days, thus leaving the partridge date as before, October 15. Pheasants, the body of the victim fifteen feet above the ground and the Game Act now read.

AGED MINER FALLS TO DEATH

Edward Dower Fell From Window to Ground Fifteen Feet Below

In a pathetically tragic accident at "Maplehurst," Douglas Street, yesterday morning, Edward Dower, eighty-one years of age, lost his life when he walked through a window fifteen feet above the ground and fell headlong to the garden. The victim of the fatality was formerly an inmate of the Home for the Aged and Infirm, but had been removed to a boarding house.

The victim of the accident occupied a room with two other patients, one of whom was confined to his bed. He had been very feeble for the past few months, and had been ailing a long time. When daylight broke yesterday morning the occupants of the room missed the old man. The attention of the staff being called to the disappearance, a search was made in the garden underneath the bedroom window. Life had passed.

Notification of the circumstances last night reached the coroner, who made an examination of the facts to-day and decided that an inquest would not be necessary as the fatality was accidental beyond question.

The late Mr. Dower was a native of Truro, Cornwall, and had spent a long and active life in Alaska and British Columbia's hinterlands. He was known to a wide circle of friends among the older residents of this city, and his death will be regretted by many who shared their fortunes with him in the olden days of the mining fields.

He returned to Victoria in 1899 he returned to Victoria, and joined the staff of David Spencer, Ltd. DRAFT FINAL REPORT ON STEEL PROJECT

Members of Iron and Steel Committee of Chamber Meets To-morrow

The final decision of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce on H. J. Landahl's $15,000,000 coast range steel plant is expected at the meeting of the directors of the chamber next Monday. Since the project was presented before the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island convention at Nanaimo the matter has been thoroughly debated, and a comprehensive report of the iron and steel plant to the chamber headed by Hon. F. A. Pauline, M.P.P., was drafted and discussed at a meeting of Island and Mainland business men called by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and Nanaimo delegates took a lone stand in opposing the plan at the Nanaimo convention, but found support from Mainland speakers at the meeting mentioned. No vote was taken on that occasion on the Victoria report, which set forth many reasons for condemning the scheme, among them being that the committee doubted the possibility of securing a market for the proposed Coast Range Steel Company's product on the Inside Passage. Two cases showed that the Government should be called upon to spend several million dollars at this time.

H. J. Landahl, the author of the scheme, who at first refused to address any meeting, but a full meeting of the Chamber has since changed his decision, and met the iron and steel committee. The committee meets to-morrow to draft its final report for submission to the directors.

CONTROL EPIDEMIC AMONG INDIANS

Smallpox So Far Unattended With Fatalities

As sometimes happens at this time of year, when the Indians become migratory on account of seeking work far from their reserves, there has been quite an epidemic of smallpox among several of the tribes in British Columbia. Fortunately so far it has not been attended with fatal results. The movement of the Indians to the hop fields, and berry-picking appears to have occasioned the spreading of the outbreak. The dread disease made its appearance at Cle-omee, on the West Coast, apparently introduced by berry pickers, and has also been located at Alert Bay, Rivers Inlet, and other points on the Inside Passage. Two cases were found at Agassiz, and from there it was traced to the Nicola Valley. Smallpox has also appeared at Clinton, Fountain, and Pavilion.

Officials of the Indian Department feel well satisfied that so far the outbreaks have not been fatal. One man died, but on scrutiny it was shown that the end came from other causes than the effects of the epidemic. Indians are now returning from the usual activities in the fishing centres, and from the hop fields. The fishing at Rivers Inlet and Skeena Rivers has been reported as as satisfactory, but not so good as the Naas River canneries. The hop fields, both around Agassiz and Chilliwack, have occupied a considerable number of aborigines, as well as the plantations across the line. The payment to the picker advanced to $1.50 per box, with a gift of potatoes this year in place of the customary ration of bread.

Those Indians who are engaged in trapping have apparently also had a brisk season, with good catches reported from the outlying agencies particularly in the North.

MRS. ELLEN ROBSON DIED IN VANCOUVER

Widow of Rev. Dr. E. Robson, Pioneer B.C. Missionary

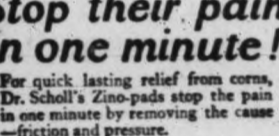

Vancouver, Oct. 8.—Ellen Mary Robson, widow of Rev. Ebenezer Robson, D.D., pioneer British Columbia missionary, who died May 4, 1911, passed away at 10.40 p.m. Saturday at her home, 201 Broadway West. She was eighty-nine years old and for the past thirteen years had been an invalid, paralyzed. One son, Ernest, of 262 Broadway West, and two grandchildren, Ewart and Sherwood, survive her.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon, interment to take place in Mount View Cemetery after a service at 2 p.m. in the Mount Pleasant Methodist Church.

Mrs. Robson's death is regretted by a large circle of friends in Vancouver and British Columbia. Since she came out to this Province sixty-three years ago to marry the young missionary, Ebenezer Robson, younger brother of Hon. John Robson, Premier of British Columbia from August, 1858, to June, 1892, Mrs. Robson had been a faithful friend and church worker. Born in Brockville, Ont., March 23, 1834, Mrs. Robson played a big part in the Methodist Church's early years in this Province.

"I can bear tribute to Mrs. Robson's saintly character, her wonderful patience, her appreciation of her friends, and her real reverence for her husband's memory," said Rev. O. M. Sanford, of Mount Pleasant Methodist Church.

GUIDE OFFICERS TRAINING CLASS

A course of meetings is being held fortnightly in the headquarters of the Victoria company, Board of Trade Building, for the training of officers, patrol leaders and second. These meetings will take the form of regular guides meetings, each company in the city supplying a patrol, and each patrol in turn will take charge of the programme of work for the evening. Instruction in signalling by an expert signaller will be given, by the kindness of the Boy Scouts' Association, and will be an important feature of each meeting. Special time will be devoted to tenderfoot, second class and first class work.

New officers who are urgently needed, and any others interested in guide work are cordially invited to be present at these classes, which they would find most instructive. The next meeting will be held to-night at 8.15.

Sit Down to Your Work

"I was much interested in your article about sitting down to do some of the ironing," writes a reader of this department, "wonder if some of your younger housewives know just how much they can do sitting down. Some years ago, when I found that what was tiring me most in my housework was being so constantly on my feet, I began working out plans for sitting down as much as possible.

"Between my kitchen table and near a pleasant window, I placed a low, armless chair with a cushion on it. I formed the habit of dropping into this chair to beat up a cake, or mix the batter for pancakes. I made mayonnaise there, and even sat down to whip cream, egg-whites and souffles. The necessary ingredients for everything can rest on the table edge, and stirring and beating is done more easily on the lap than on the table, as the arms do not have to be lifted so high.

"The next thing I did was to have a drop-leaf pastry shelf made. The shelf dropped back against the wall when not in use, similar to the disappearing table you described recently. When I was going to make

WINNIPEG WOMEN GUESTS OF CLUB

Interesting Celebration on Publication of Red River Reminiscences

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.—Winnipeg women, whose recollections of life in the Red River settlement form the book, "Women of the Red River," published recently by the Women's Canadian Club of this city, were the special guests of the club at a luncheon here on Saturday. The guests were presented with a copy of the book as a souvenir of the occasion.

Letters of congratulation regarding the book, which deals with incidents of the pioneer days within the recollection of the club, were read from Archbishop S. P. Matheson, Anglican primate of Canada, as well as from Canadian publishers and editors.

The book was not the history of pioneer life, but of community life. It was explained by W. J. Henly, provincial librarian, now living, who read from Archbishop S. P. Matheson's Anglican primate of Canada, as well as from Canadian publishers and editors.

"These women interviewed were not pioneers, but the daughters of pioneers," he said.

Hello Girls Supply Weather Forecasts and Charge 2 Pence

London, Oct. 8.—Pity the poor English telephone girls! They are supposed to be able to tell people what the weather will be like. In this, their newest duty, perhaps they will receive a sigh or two of sympathy from the operators of switchboards in America, who for many years bore the suffering of having subscribers ring up to ask "What time is it, please? My clock has stopped."

Not long ago the Post Office, which owns all the telephones in Great Britain, arranged with the Air Ministry to supply each exchange with daily forecasts of the weather in its vicinity. The first month this information was available to subscribers 16,172 persons called up to find out if it was going to rain. Of course it usually was, the weather being a wet one. In London most of the inquiries were made on Fridays and Saturdays. This was taken to mean that the only time people really care about climate over here is when they are set for an outing. The rest of the time they cannot be bothered, let the frogs fall where they may.

Hardly anyone troubles to ring up to find out the time. Maybe minutes do not mean so much in this easy-going land as in the supposedly "snappy" United States.

The other six clung to the masthead, lashed themselves secure and resisted the storm, hunger and thirst until they were rescued by the Schoedack Wednesday night. S.O.S. CALL WAS EXAGGERATED RADIO

Steamer Humboldt's Advice Was Distorted by Radio Amateurs

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—The marine and newspaper circles of the Pacific coast from Vancouver Island, south to San Diego, were set agog last night by what later appeared to have been a radio broadcaster's overzealous and a subsequent message from a ship which has picked up a becalmed sailing yacht that she had "taken thirty people off the Corsair." According to the best account, which admittedly was largely conjectural, the Calgary, Alberta, amateur station, experienced difficulty in communicating with the schooner Bowdoin, an exploration ship now in Arctic waters, and asked that the air be cleared.

This request was relayed far and wide by a radio broadcasting station, according to this account, with the added information that the reduction of interference was requested "because of an S.O.S. call." This in turn was picked up and tossed about between ships and shore stations, varying in a detail or two as it went, until north Pacific points turned out a well rounded account that a Japanese vessel was in distress and identified the ship with the call letters "J.A." Nobody could find these in any radio directory and the situation was murky when the steamer Humboldt reported she had picked up fifty persons from the yacht Corsair. This in turn was exaggerated and varied in relaying, and led to a report that the yacht in trouble was one owned by E. W. Schlipps, the newspaper publisher.

MADISON BRINGS 4,000 BALES OF SILK FROM ORIENT

Carried Large Passenger List and Docked Saturday After-Sundown

Ahead of her schedule and with a large passenger list, the Admiral Oriental liner President Madison, Capt. Thos. P. Quinn, docked here from the Orient on Saturday night. There was an unusually large list of Russian passengers for the United States and they surpassed the October quota.

Altogether there were 420 Russians, fifty of whom were refugees. A large silk cargo was brought across by the President Madison, which loaded most of her silk cargo in China. Altogether there were 4,000 bags of silk, valued at $5,000,000. Several passengers departed here for California ports. There were 110 first class passengers and 400 steer-bales of silk, valued at $5,000,000.

CHINESE DIPLOMAT ON WAY TO GENEVA

C. M. Chen Will Attend Conference for Chinese Government

C. M. Chen, Chinese diplomat, who is on his way to Europe to attend the Geneva Conference, arrived here to-day by the R.M.S. Empress of Canada. Educated in the public schools of England and passing through advanced educational institutions in Cambridge University, Mr. Chen has a clear and broadminded conception of the needs of China.

"Until the outside world, however, understands with the Chinese people and their literature the country will remain stationary. But there is a time coming," he said, "when the outside nations will take interest. At present they have a misconception of the situation in China."

HALT IN EXODUS FROM VICTORIA TO THE SOUTH

Activities in Victoria Steam Tide to California

Less people are leaving Victoria for the South in the last two weeks than for over a year past and more people are coming into the city than are leaving, was the information gathered this morning. At the office of the Victoria Publicity Bureau, fifty-nine prospective settlers for Victoria were listed during the month ending September 29. Los Angeles and San Francisco figured frequently among the destinations. Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba in the order named also figure prominently. England, Ireland, Texas, Vermont, Maine, Bermuda and Washington, and a lonely Moscow enquirer are included on the list. Many of the writers ask prices on bungalows and houses, and are being informed. The previous month there were sixty-five, on the list of prospective settlers.

BESSEMER CITY TAKES MILLION FEET OF LUMBER

Canadian Puget Sound Mills Provide Cargo For Isthmian Steamer. London Shipper Also Coming For Load From This Port. The Isthmian line steamer Bessemer City docked here yesterday at 1 o'clock and started loading for the United Kingdom this morning. She will call at Portland and San Pedro on her way to England. Over a million feet of lumber will be taken out of Victoria by this steamer. The Canadian Puget Sound mills is providing this cargo. More lumber will go out during this week from other mills which have ships scheduled to arrive here. King Bros. are handling the vessel while she is here for R. W. Greer & Co. of Vancouver. The London Shipper of the Furness Pines Line is due this evening and will commence loading the remaining portion of the Siberian Prince's cargo to-morrow. Captain Buckley is in command of this vessel. Constructed by the Furness shipbuilding yards at Hoynton Hill-on-Tees, the London Shipper has just been placed in commission. She showed up well on her trial demonstrations and made a speed of sixteen knots.

SHIPYARDS HAVE PLENTY OF WORK

City of Victoria Will be Next Big Job to Come Here. Local shipyards are being kept fairly busy and there is every prospect that the work will go on well into the Fall. Yarrows, Ltd., report that the Siberian Prince's hull is being rapidly repaired. Many of the plates already have been replaced and others are in process of riveting. The inside work is progressing rapidly and she will be able to take to the water again about the beginning of November. Yarrows also report that the Princess Alice went into drydock this morning at 10 o'clock for minor repairs. It is expected that she will be ready for her run again by 19 o'clock to-morrow. The Canadian Pacific Motor Princess is undergoing repairs. Big Repair Job. Another big repair job will be under way soon, it was announced at the V.M.D. this morning. At present the Victoria is on the marine ways having a new stem fitted. It is expected that the Ss. City of Victoria, which was released from drydock here some time ago so that the Siberian Prince contract could be placed at local yards, will be back from her trip soon and will in all probability be placed in drydock about the end of the first week or beginning of the second week in November. There is about three weeks' work to be done on her and considerable replating.

Capt. Kent, of Steel Navigator, Arrives Here

"It is all over now and I want nothing more to do with it. I decline to say anything concerning my experiences," said Capt. W. E. Kent, of the Ss. Steel Navigator, which played a prominent part in the Japanese disaster. Modest in the extreme, Captain Kent would say nothing of his adventures. Captain Kent endeavored to hide from the "limelight," but gave much praise to Captain Robinson, of the Empress of Australia. Captain Kent is a prominent pilot of Shanghai and is on his way to England for a holiday. He reports that very soon the European invasion of piloting in Japan will cease as the Government of the country is enforcing regulations whereby only Japanese pilots will be used.

CANADIAN NATIONAL OPENS ONE OF WORLD'S LARGEST RAILWAY YARDS FOR GRAIN

Some idea of the extent of the Neebing Terminal opened at Fort William this fall by the Canadian National Railways is given by the above pictures, showing part of the 43 miles trackage with capacity for 2,000 cars. This new terminal is doing much to minimize the possibility of grain car congestion on Canadian National lines at the head of the lakes; expedite delivery of grain to elevators for shipment down the lakes and also the movement of other "loads" and "empties" both east and west and thus further improve the transportation service provided. Views shown are as follows:

- 1.—Classification yard looking eastward from the "hump."
- 2.—Twenty-four stall round-house with electrically operated turntable in the foreground.
- 3.—View from center of the classification yard, showing car coming from "hump."
- 4.—Eight and one-half million bushel elevator at Port Arthur, owned by Canadian National Railway, the picture showing grain going into elevator from cars at one end and being loaded on boat at the other.
- 5.—The "hump," where the force of gravity is the only power used in placing cars in the classification tracks assigned to them. Two cars have just been released and are shown on their way to classification yard.

STEVEDORES MAY GO ON STRIKE

Vancouver, Oct. 8.—A strike of stevedores in the lower mainland of British Columbia, including the port of Vancouver and the lumber loading ports along the Fraser River, is imminent. Following a meeting here last night of the organized stevedores it was decided that unless their demands were met to-day by the employers a strike will be called. A committee of the stevedores met the employers to-day to discuss the men's demands. The meeting last night was in camera and no statement was issued by the union. It is understood, however, that one of the principal demands of the men is the restoration of the five cents per 1,000 feet bonus on loading lumber which was in effect between 1910 and 1920 and which was then taken away by the employers.

Ruth Ties Williams' Mark As Season Ends

Babe Clouted His Forty-First Homerun and Finishes Up Tie With Hitter Who Led All Season; Detroit Tigers Win Second Place Over Cleveland; Speaker's Two-Base Record Stands at 59; Miller Huggins Is Signed For Another Year; Curtain Drops on Baseball

New York, Oct. 8.—Babe Ruth's forty-first homerun, Tris Speaker's fifty-ninth double, the retention of their half-game lead over Cleveland by the Tigers and the signing of Miller Huggins as manager of the Yankees for another year were the outstanding happenings yesterday as major league brought its end to the 1923 season.

Ruth's homer came in the first inning of the Yankee-Athletic game at the Yankee Stadium and of the first ball pitched to him by Harris. Babe whacked it into the right field bleachers and became permanently padlocked with Cy Williams for homerun honors of the season, each having registered forty-one.

Speaker's fifty-ninth double advanced the world's two-base hit record. Speaker smashed the old record last week and has twice broken his own mark since that time. Detroit by means of an eight-inning rally against St. Louis held its half-game advantage over Cleveland for second place in the American League. With the score 6-4, Manush doubled, Veatch was purposely passed and Rigney came through with the hit which caused the final standing to read: Detroit, 59; Cleveland, 56.

Praise For Huggins Commenting upon the engagement of Miller Huggins for another year as manager of the Yankees, Colonel Ruppert said: "I am for Huggins. I don't believe the Yankees and New Yorkers realize the great work he has done. I signed him before the world's series so that he might go ahead and win the series for us."

The American League players during the 1923 season made 444 home runs compared with 524 last season. National Leaguers had 535 home runs to their credit, five more than last season.

Those who closed the season with a dozen homers or more to their credit follow:

Rugby Player Dies From Injuries in Game

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 8.—Price McLean, twenty-year-old centre on the University of Kentucky football team, died here last night from injuries received in Saturday's game with the University of Cincinnati, which team his eleven defeated there fourteen to nothing.

Capitals Failed To Bring Mann Cup Back

New Westminster Ran In Seven Goals on Victoria In Saturday's Game and Won Series and World's Championship by 8 Goals to 4; Kroeger's Inability to Score in Second Quarter With Everyone Beat But Goalie Crandall Proved Turning Point of Game

After five years of desperate effort New Westminster has finally landed the Mann Cup, emblematic of the world's amateur lacrosse championship. By their surprise victory of seven goals to two, over the Capitals on Saturday afternoon, the Royals captured the costly mug and the mayor of Westminster will be able to declare a half holiday so that all the little and big Salmonbellies can be on Columbia Street when the Mann Cup is taken to its new home.

The famous trophy is now held by the Vancouver Lacrosse Club, which captured it last season from Victoria. As soon as the Royals furnish the required bondholders they can run off with the cup, shine it up and show it to the fans who have been bending every effort for years to get their hands upon it.

The Royals are certainly entitled to the trophy after the splendid exhibition they gave before 2,000 fans at the game. They proved the better team, seemed to know what to do, and had all kinds of reserve speed.

Nothing Broke Right The Capitals entered the game with a one-goal lead, and it was expected that they would be able to hang on to it and bring the cup back to Victoria. They were in good shape, but nothing broke right for them. The work of the home was particularly faulty, the passing and fielding being terrible at times, and shooting backward. It was not until the last quarter that the Capitals finally got settled into their proper stride, and then it was too late. The boys seemed to get better when the rain was falling, and from that point of view it was too bad that it hadn't started in the opening quarter.

The drenching rain which fell half way through the third quarter, quickly emptied the stands, and only a few of the dived-in-the-wool fans were on deck when the final whistle home net. Kroeger, who had a lacrosse game here in years was on hand when Referee Harry Pickering tooted his whistle and set the Royals out to win.

It was early evident that the Capitals were not functioning properly, and that Westminster was put to win at all costs. The visitors jumped to the attack from the face-off and scored two goals in the first quarter. The half was through the quarter Vernon potted the net with a long shot, tying the series at 2-2. Right afterwards the play got so fast around the net that the defence got tied up in a knot, and handed the ball to Atkinson, who waltzed through and scored the counter that put the Royals ahead.

In the second quarter there came a break which probably decided the game. Fred Kroeger, the locals' second defence, picked the ball, and went in to within five feet of Crandall, the Westminster goalie. Crandall stood right up to the shot, and blocked Kroeger, picking the ball right off his stick and relaying it up the field. The Victoria defence was caught flat-footed by the fast rush which followed, and Jack Keneb, however, got back the goal for Westminster, who in his long bullet shot went bouncing past Simpson.

In the third quarter the Royals ran low score goals when Wood rattled in two smart shots that gave Simpson little chance to save.

Capital's Score Victoria got its first counter of the game in the last quarter, when "Manny" Norton slipped in a fast one from a difficult angle. Jack Keneb, however, got back the goal for Westminster, when one of his long bullet shots went bouncing past Simpson.

The final whistle sounded shortly afterwards, with New Westminster winning the two-games series, by 8 goals to 4.

A Clean Game The game was very clean, only one penalty being handed out for a minor offence. It proved that the teams can play clean lacrosse if they want to, and all that is required is a referee whom the players respect.

None of the players chose to take liberties with the refereeing, as they knew they would get the bench for a good long spell if they tried anything.

The Capitals made a switch in their line-up in the last quarter, Coulter replacing McGregor at outside home, and Freddie Nobbs taking Mensies place. McGregor had to return to the game a few minutes later, as a flyover shot by Keneb, by a nasty cut from Vernon's stick.

Want More Youngsters It was quite evident from Saturday's play that more younger blood is required in the Victoria team. The officials of the Victoria Lacrosse Club realize this, and are looking through the season, and put a number of youngsters on who have played good lacrosse. Before another season rolls around, however, the Victoria Club should be lined up and given a chance to make good.

Summary First quarter—New Westminster, 1; Capitals, 2. Second quarter—New Westminster, 2; Capitals, 1. Third quarter—New Westminster, 3; Capitals, 1. Fourth quarter—New Westminster, 2; Capitals, 0. Total—New Westminster, 8; Capitals, 4.

Argos Are Again Leaders in Race In Eastern Rugby Hamilton Remain Contenders Beating Montreal; Queen's Score Fine Victory

Ontario, Oct. 8.—Toronto Argonauts relegated the Ottawa Rugby team to the cellar position of the inter-provincial rugby union when they defeated them at Lansdowne Park, Saturday, by a score of 11 to 2. The Argos not only got into the running for championship honors, but indicated on the play to date that they might prove the strongest team in the inter-provincial union.

The interference game played by the Argos, was a masterpiece of strategy. Their tackling also was very clean and effective. They outplayed Montreal in the first half, but they got away with a number of errors and line plunging that made them dangerous. Had it not been for the Argos, however, the line they would have overcome the lead.

Queen's Beat McGill Montreal, Oct. 8.—Queen's University rugby players made an auspicious start in their defence of the intercollegiate championship when they overcame McGill University in a 14-0 victory at the Percival Molson Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon, scoring a 24 to 0 victory.

At one time Bernie was a member of the Victoria team but was traded to Seattle several years ago and has alternated at centre ice and right wing.

Giants Smarter Ball Players Than Yankees

Ray Schalk Says That's the Reason Why McGraw's Men Won Past Two Series; Believes Giants Are Stronger This Year Than Last; Thinks That Better Days Are Ahead of Yankees, Who Have Failed Dismally in Other Years; Huggins Is Now Supreme

Are the Giants of 1923 as strong an aggregation as the pennant winners and world champions of 1921 and 1922? Are the Yankees of 1923 a better ball club than the team that twice fell before the Giants, after winning the American League pennant?

Those two questions have been fired at me time and again since it became apparent that the two New York clubs would again meet in the annual baseball classic. I will first consider the Giants.

To my way of thinking the Giants of 1923 are a superior club in every way to the pennant winner of the two previous years, with the exception of several important games. Only a make any great difference with the play of McGraw's club.

The Giants are a smart baseball club. They play snappy ball, are alive to every situation and are quick to take advantage of a slip on the part of an opponent. To my way of thinking the Giants twice beat the Yankees in the world series because they played smarter baseball than they were really the deciding factor.

Mental Slips Costly Mental slips lose many ball games. Incidentally, such lapses have a decidedly bad effect on the morale of a ball club. Sloppy work on the bases played havoc with the Yankees in both their clashes with the Giants. The memory of how Bancroft, at short for the Giants, cut off several throws that seemed certain to be allowed to go through, thereby trapping several unsuspecting Yankee runners, changed the complexion of several important games. Only a ball player knows what such slips take out of a team.

Very often one good utility man adds much strength to a ball club. In Travis Jackson, the youthful Southerner, the Giants have picked up one of the most promising infielders I have seen in several years. Jackson's ability to fill in at short, second and third, just about saved the Giants.

Speed is always a big factor in baseball. The Giants have on the team chaperoned by John McGraw. I don't expect to see much of Travis Jackson's ability to fill in at short, second and third, just about saved the Giants.

McGraw always has his team running. In a smart ball game each and every man must play heads up baseball and utilize his speed to the greatest possible extent.

The Yankees are a direct contrast in this respect. As a whole, the Huggins entry is rather slow moving. It takes more time for the Yankees to score a run than the Giants. Incidentally, there isn't the intelligent use made of speed that really is available.

Then again, in considering the Giants as a team, one must not overlook the part that Manager McGraw plays. In a smart ball game the direction of play means much. McGraw is a great leader who has the courage of his convictions. He makes few mistakes. He dominates the play of his team. His players respect his every word. We be to the athlete who fails to follow his directions.

The Giants' pitching staff is a club, well handled. The team has great power on the offence and a pretty fair defence. The pitching is just so-so. He dominates the play of his team. His players respect his every word. We be to the athlete who fails to follow his directions.

What about Joe Judge? The Yankees are one of the most unusual ball clubs in the history of the game. At times the Yanks display a game that is unbecoming, and for a great ball club it can look very ordinary. It has any number of individual stars, a punch on the offence, the biggest threat in baseball to the Yankees. The addition of Herb Pennock strengthened the pitching staff. The Yankees lacked a good southpaw. Pennock has filled that breach. He should trouble the Giants.

However, to my way of thinking the outstanding feature of the Yankees play this year has been the fine spirit and harmony that has prevailed in the club ranks. Individual effort has been shunted aside for team play. Incidentally, Manager Miller Huggins is reigning supreme. His word is law, and his orders are being followed to the letter.

Yes, the Giants and Yankees of 1923 are both improved ball clubs over former years, and the Yankees to my way of thinking, have gained the more strength.

American Football New York, Oct. 8.—Noteworthy among the unlooked for happenings in United States college football Saturday were the 3 to 0 defeat of Pennsylvania by Maryland, the scoreless tie involving Columbia and Amherst, and the difficulties experienced by Dartmouth and Navy in overcoming supposedly unimportant opponents.

With these exceptions, however, the better known eleven performed well up to expectations. He anticipated close score resulted in the Pittsburgh-Lafayette annual which Pittsburgh won, 7 to 6, while teams such as Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Colgate, West Virginia, Syracuse, Brown, Lehigh, Holy Cross and Rutgers, ran up the predicted large totals of points.

Marathon Victor Halifax, Oct. 8.—Victor McAulay, Halifax Wanderers, won the Herald five-mile modified marathon here Saturday for the third successive time. He went the distance in 55 minutes 50 seconds.

Meadowbrook Wins Westbury, N.Y., Oct. 8.—Meadowbrook Saturday won the United States open polo championship, defeating the British army team in a stirring rally in the second half of the game by a score of 12 to 9.

Old Country Football London, Oct. 8.—(Canadian Press cable)—Additional football results on Saturday were: Scottish League—Second Division Albion Rovers 4, Armadale 0. Arbroath 2, Forth 1. Dundee 1, Bathgate 1. Cowdenbeath 1, Boness 1, St. Johnstone 2. Dundee 1, Dundee Hibs 0. Johnstone 2, Broxburn 0. East Fife 2, Dumbarton 0. Kings Park 1, Alloa 0. St. Bernard's 1, Lochgelly 0. AT THE THEATRES

"MERRY GO ROUND" NOW AT DOMINION

Is Story of Viennese Park Amusements and Their Operators

Robert E. Sherwood, whose brilliant pen has won him hosts of readers throughout the United States, after reviewing the world's premier of "Merry-Go-Round" at the magnificent play palace, The Rivoli, in New York City, wrote:

"Merry-Go-Round" is one of the finest pictures that has ever been shown at this beautiful theatre. In its essence the Viennese atmosphere is masterfully reproduced and its flavor is distinctly continental.

The story revolves about a merry-go-round in a Viennese park—the same sort of carousel that Lillians Barker for in Monar's play. The characters are mostly workers in the various concessions in the park; a villainous fellow who operates the merry-go-round, a picturesque sideshow clown, his beautiful, pathetic daughter and her lover, a hunchback who is entrusted with the care of the menagerie.

Into this scene stalks a staff officer of Franz Joseph's court, a swaggering, unscrupulous fellow with waded moustaches and a regrettably unmoral code of ethics. He covets the clown's daughter and subjects her to the usual advances. Although his base machinations prove highly successful, her purity serves to bring his better nature to life and he falls honestly in love. Although he is slightly handicapped by the presence of a wife who has been saddled upon him at the Emperor's request, he presses his courtship with the humble girl and then, when the great war has cleared away the mists of misunderstanding, he marries her.

This rather unimportant story has been developed in a remarkably imaginative manner, providing that in spite of all that, the Author's League may have to say the plot of the picture is insignificant as compared with the treatment.

"Merry-Go-Round" has a solidity of construction, a smoothness and a polish that is a credit to Rippet Julian.

Mary Phillips and George Haskethorne are both excellent. Cesare Gravina does a memorable bit of character work as the sideshow clown. Dale Fuller is an usual, thoroughly competent. Norman's habitual stiffness is an asset rather than a defect in this picture; he appears as an Austrian officer.

"Merry-Go-Round" deserves very high rating in every respect. It is very typical of the new Universal pictures we most emphatically want to see more of them.

"Merry-Go-Round" comes to the Dominion Theatre this week for an engagement of six days.

POWERFUL DRAMA IN UNUSUAL FILM

Royal Presents "What's Wrong With the Women"

That sparkling dynamo of ever-changing emotions—modern woman—is revealed in all her strength and weakness by Daniel Carson Goodman's unusual photoplay, "What's Wrong With the Women" shown for the first time at the Royal to-day.

It is a bit strange upon which this powerful dramatic subject is founded. It deals not merely with individuals. Mr. Goodman, who wrote and also produced it, goes beyond the little group of interesting characters with which he tells his deeply moving story. He treats his theme in a big way and makes of it a huge canvas upon which he depicts with bold strokes the eternal struggle of the sexes.

Mr. Goodman shows, in essentially good. But when the forces of extravagance and folly enter the home and take the place of love and understanding Destiny imposes a heavy toll.

The story has to do with the lives of men and women of wealth and social position and others of lesser affluence who seek to move in the swift set. A young business man and his devoted wife live happily with their baby. The wife is led innocently into a fast circle in which she is almost engulfed. Troubles follow. The situations occur frequently. Mr. Goodman, with the facility of a master story teller, depicts his tale in vividly dramatic sequences.

Among the prominent players in the cast are: Wilton Lackaye, long famous on stage and screen; Barbara Castleton, Constance Bennett, Montagu Love, Julia Swayne Gordon, Huntley Gordon, Paul McAllister, Mrs. Oscar Hammerstein and others.

CROOK DRAMA AT PANTAGES TO-NIGHT

Macy and Baird Stock Company Offers "One Girl in a Million"

The Macy and Baird Stock Company at Pantages depart from the line of performance that has been associated with them since they opened at the Pantages Theatre by presenting the crook play, "One Girl in a Million." The opening to-night is awaited with keen interest by the many followers the company has entailed in the short time they have been in Victoria. Miss Jean Rose, as the shop girl associated with a crook who risks his liberty to guard her against the unwelcome attentions of her father's defaulting partner, and Howard R. Macy as the crook, have parts in which there is plenty of scope for their ability. The laughter makers of the company also have the opportunity of upholding their reputation.

The play tells the story of a shop girl, who has been reduced to poverty at her father's death, being defrauded by her father's partner. This partner is now pursuing the girl with his unwelcome attentions and is prevented from annoying her by a young crook, even though he risks his liberty in so doing. The girl later helps the crook to escape his pursuers and later they plan a method of securing her father's stolen property by stealing it back again. In the attempt the girl escapes with the valuables, but the crook is captured. How she eventually secures his release and at the same time wins her property back.

Buster Keaton in a gripping scene from "Three Aces" forms the climax of one of the most interesting dramas to be presented in Victoria this winter.

Mr. Nordseth, P. A. Dale, Jos. Baird and Miss Zoe Bates have interesting parts, while Mr. Allan Wisbert, as the unscrupulous partner, does exceptionally fine work.

Starting October 15, this company will conduct a weekly amateur contest, consisting of anything at all in the vaudeville line that the contestants wish to present. The winner each week will be engaged to work between the acts of the regular programme the following week. Applications for entry should be made to R. Jamieson at the Pantages Theatre or at the box office.

"SNOWDRIFT" IS COLUMBIA FEATURE

To-night will be the first opportunity to dwell at the exciting acts of Charles Jones in "Snowdrift," his latest William Fox picture which is being shown at the Columbia Theatre. This feature, which was made from a dramatic story of the Northwest by James B. Hendryx, was directed by Scott Dunlap.

Thrilling incidents in the gold fields of the Yukon make this one of the best pictures in which Jones has appeared. The supporting cast includes such well known players as Irene Rich, G. Raymond Nye, Collin Chase, Dorothy Manners, Evelyn Selbie, Lolo Encinas and Lee Shumway.

CAPITOL

KEATON TRIUMPHS IN GREAT PICTURE

"Three Ages" is Being Presented at Capitol

The first feature length comedy, "Three Ages," to be made with Buster Keaton as the star, is the best work of this ingenious young comedian. "Three Ages," now playing at the Capitol Theatre, is replete with laughs and thrills and establishes Keaton permanently in big full length feature comedies.

In "Three Ages" Buster springs with agility from side spitting exposition of life as it was in the cave man era to an hilarious explanation of life as it was in the brilliant reign of triumphant Rome. From Rome he carries us forward to our own age where he enjoys himself in a keen satire of the modern world never losing sight, however, of the humorous, the pathetic, the up-to-date touches with which modern life is full.

"Three Ages" has a cast of more than two thousand people in several of the massive scenes staged in a duplication of the age-old Colosseum in Rome. This Colosseum set is said to have cost a huge sum and is the largest set ever constructed for a motion picture comedy. With Buster Keaton in the cast is also Margaret Leahy, an English beauty, and Wallace Beery, as the inevitable villain. There are also Joe Roberts, Lillian Lawrence and Horace "Cupid" Morgan.

"Three Ages" was directed by Keaton and Edith Clime from the story by Jean Haves, Joe Mitchell and Clyde Bruckman. Fred Gabouri is credited with the fine art direction. It was photographed by William McMan and Elgin Jessy. "Three Ages" is a Joseph M. Schenck presentation through Metro. This week's musical attraction is an exceptional one. Victor Edmondson, the popular Capitol tenor, and Miss Beatrice McDonald, soprano, will sing the "Miserere," which contains one of the most popular melodies in the realm of Grand Opera.

IMMORTAL COMEDY PLAYHOUSE FARE

"She Stoops to Conquer" Commencing Wednesday by Compton Players

Another fine play will be given by the Compton Comedy Company this week, "She Stoops to Conquer" being in the very front rank of English classical comedies. All lovers of high-class comedy will make a special effort to see this gem of English literature, brimful as it is with delightful wit and humor, and although among the foremost, classics, all may be assured of a thoroughly enjoyable evening's entertainment. The plot of the play centres around the young Tony Lumpkin, a step-brother to Kate Hardcastle, who directs young Marlow to Mr. Hardcastle's house as an inn. Marlow having been sent by his father to seek an alliance with Kate. He, of course, assumes that Hardcastle is the landlord of the inn and that Kate is the barmaid, and the fun extracted from the situation is made the most of by the author, the famous Oliver Goldsmith.

Mr. Francis Compton plays Tony Lumpkin, following in the footsteps of his father, Edward Compton, and his grandfather, Henry Compton, who each, in turn, made great success in the part. Miss Peggy Dundas will be welcomed back by her many admirers as Kate Hardcastle, a character which will particularly well give scope to her attractive style. The part of Constance Neville will be filled by Miss Dorothy Clancy, a newcomer to the company, who has been very successful in several London productions, including an engagement with Sir Herbert Tree at his Majesty's Theatre, and in "Us" at the Ambassador's Theatre, and the lead in "Theodore & Co." at the Gaiety Theatre. Miss Agnes Burton and Mr. Herbert Leslie will again be coupled this week in two fine character roles, Mr. and Mrs. Hardcastle, which will give them lots of opportunity. Mr. Clifford Winterson being presented as the dashing young Marlow. Mr. Bruce Bredin, Mr. Geo. Durham, Mr. Will Marshall, Mr. Gibson-Gunn, Mr. Geo. Fenlon, Mr. William Hill and Miss Rosher, complete the cast, which will be elaborately costumed and staged.

APPEAR IN RECITAL

Miss Marian Heming Arranges Fine Programme for Friday

Many unusually attractive features are adding interest to the programme which has been arranged by Miss Marian Heming for her annual pupils' recital next Friday evening in the Empress Hotel ballroom. The entire proceeds of the concert will be handed to Billy Muir, the injured athlete, Miss Heming defraying all the expenses entailed for the concert out of her own pocket.

One interesting feature of the programme lies in the youth of some of the performers. Fourteen of those appearing on the first half are between the ages of nine and fifteen.

The second half of the programme will be given over to the more advanced pupils, and each selection played by a student will be repeated by Frederick King, of Fletcher Bros. music store on the Duo-Art piano. Miss Heming will be assisted by two young vocalists, Miss Beatrice McDonald and Miss Charlotte Foote. The first half of the programme will include a brief talk by Miss Heming on the Virgil Clavier method of instruction, followed by numbers by the Misses Dorothy Dean, Margaret Laidlaw, Ruth Fields, Helen Winn, Helen Tapscott, Ethne Gale, Girsha Orpen, Madeleine Staggitt, Marjorie Press, Beatrice Ryan, Vida Shandley, Kenneth Bennett, Nora Tolson, Hilda Anderson, Beatrice Hicks, Noel Cusack, Rowena Horsey, Charlotte Foote, Eva Howard and Olga Hays.

In the second half numbers will be contributed by Miss Beatrice McDonald, Miss Dorothy Holmes, Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Miss Betsy Ormiston and Mrs. Marjorie Walker. Although there are so many items on the programme its duration will only be of an hour and a half, and "no encores" will be given.

ROADHOUSE AFFAIR

Seattle Advertising Director in Dying Statement Accused Her of Shooting

Seattle, Oct. 8.—Harry Lacelle, thirty-four, a prominent publicity and advertising director, was shot and fatally wounded early Sunday morning in a roadhouse on the Bothell Highway near Seattle. He died ten hours later in a hospital. County authorities are holding Miss Winifred Gibbons, aged twenty-one, in connection with the shooting. Lacelle, in his dying statement, charged her with the shooting. Lacelle and his wife, with a party of friends, drove out to the roadhouse.

Lacelle left the party while they were dining upstairs and went to the first floor, where he joined a group of men on the porch. Miss Gibbons, according to statements of eye-witnesses, was trying to get some of the men to help her get her automobile from a ditch nearby. Suddenly, according to these eye-witnesses, she drew a revolver from her clothing and fired, the bullet striking Lacelle in the abdomen.

Did Not Know Woman

Lacelle claimed in his dying statement that he did not know the woman, and had never met her until she confronted him at the roadhouse. Miss Gibbons told the prosecuting attorney she had known Lacelle several years ago as "Bill Williams," but had not seen him recently until the accidental roadhouse meeting last night. In another statement she referred to Lacelle as "Harry," the prosecutor said.

Lacelle was married two months ago at Bellingham. He had lived in Seattle three years, coming here from San Francisco, where his mother, two sisters and two brothers live.

Lillian Burkhardt to Star in "The Straight Dope"—Play on Narcotic Evils

How a society matron, busy in welfare work for the community in which she lived, got out of focus with her own home and readjusted her sight only in time to learn that her son had fallen foul of the drug habit, is the central theme around which Lillian Burkhardt, noted American artist, has woven a charming personality. The play, entitled "The Straight Dope" is from the pen of Ruth Compton Mitchell, and will be the headliner at the Pantages Theatre on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The performance will open on Tuesday evening, while matinees as well as two evening performances will be shown on the two days following. "Hophead Harry, king of the Snow Bird," "Donald Ormsby," a school boy; "Marion Ormsby," the society matron, and others figure in a plot that serves to intensify the horror called to the average mind at the thought of drug addiction. How Donald Ormsby becomes enmeshed in the coils of the drug ring while his mother seeks the welfare of the community at large is a theme that provides ample scope for the histrionic ability of Lillian Burkhardt.

Usually it is the play that carries the artist, but this is one case where the artist could of her own personality carry the action of the play. Here, however, the plot of itself lends enhancement to the talents of the leading lady, and the whole production is a thought provoking commentary on the growing evils of narcotic drug addiction.

Miss Burkhardt, a lecturer of high order, will address several of the vice clubs while in this city with her message on the narcotic drug trade and its ramifications in private life. Rhoda and Broshell, styling themselves the "Wizards of Wind Instruments," prove their claim to the title in a swift moving act. Johnny Clarke

Dear Miss Burkhardt,—

Last evening I had the pleasure of hearing you at Pantages in your educational and delightful sketch "The Straight Dope". I cannot refrain from expressing to you my deep appreciation, not only for your genius as an actress; but for the novel and interesting manner in which your playlet is presented.

The appeal you make should be heard by everyone who has an interest in the welfare of the State.

All thinking men and women must bend every effort in a nation-wide movement to abolish the use of narcotics. Because of your deep sincerity and the artistic, forceful manner in which you present this new and novel play, it gives me great pleasure to commend it to the community at large and to all officers and administrators of the law.

The whole throbbing universe swept by humanity's unbridled excesses is asking "What's Wrong With the Women?" Like a mighty psychologic message to a world gone mad with anxiety, "What's Wrong With the Women?" is of truly momentous timeliness. It is, indeed, the most timely motion picture of the day. NOTICE TO OUR PATRONS—"What's Wrong With the Women?" has been booked at the last moment to replace "Within the Law," which was the attraction advertised for this week, the reason for this being pushed ahead being the unusual excellence of "What's Wrong With the Women?" and to the fact that it is booked in other cities so far ahead outside of this one week, that we should not have been able to present it to our patrons until some months to come, and then we are afraid it would not have been in the best of condition.

MUST PROTECT VETERANS OF PREVIOUS WARS

Army and Navy Veterans Secretary Explains Stand on Amalgamation

As an organization formed in 1866, including in its membership veterans of other wars previous to the Great War, the Army and Navy Veterans stands in a different position to other ex-service men's organizations, Captain F. J. Money, secretary of the Victoria unit, explains on his return from the Dominion convention. The organization, however, Captain Money states, although it is formed under a special act of Parliament and is different in many respects to other soldier associations, is prepared to make sacrifices to attain unity of veterans but it is determined that the interests of veterans of other wars shall be protected. Correcting a mistaken impression that the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada are not in favor of amalgamation the secretary points to a resolution adopted on the question passed at the Army and Navy Veterans conference in Calgary. The resolution reads:

"Whereas the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada in convention assembled, at Toronto, 1921, went on record in favor of the amalgamation of all ex-service men, subject to certain conditions, namely:

"That the organization be non-political, non-partisan and non-sectarian, and that the qualifications of membership be not below the standard set by the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, and that the best interests of the older members of the said Army and Navy Veterans be fully served."

"And whereas in the pursuance of the said resolution the Board of Directors proceeded to carry out the same, and although certain progress along these lines has been made, especially in regard to the good work accomplished by the Dominion Veterans' Alliance, Provincial and sub-provincial councils in matters pertaining to legislation, yet such amalgamation has not been consummated."

"And whereas the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada are still in favor of amalgamation as above set forth, and are willing to co-operate and discuss the question with other veterans' organizations."

"Be it resolved that this convention is of opinion that the activities of this Association should be pressed energetically with a view of increasing their scope of influence, in order to further the aims and objects of the Association in the interests of ex-service men."

Matters which came before the convention will be discussed at a meeting of the executive to-night.

Canadian Rockies Lure Noted Artists

Noted artists, famous moving picture directors and expert scenic photographers, like thousands of tourists, have succumbed to the lure of the innumerable beauties of Banff and the Canadian Pacific Rockies. Artists in increasing numbers each year spend the summer on the trail in the mountains transferring these beauties to canvas. For seventeen years Carl Rungius, celebrated painter of wild animals in their native haunts, has been a regular visitor to Banff. Now he lives there most of the year and has built his own bungalow and studio. In 1921 Rungius won the $1,000 Altman prize, but, being foreign born, was disqualified, whereupon the National Academy of Design bought the painting for $1,000 and it now hangs in the Corcoran Art Gallery, Washington.

Belmore Browne, artist, author, explorer and conqueror of Mt. McKinley, 29,300 feet, lives in his own bungalow studio in Banff the year round except when exhibiting in New York. He and Rungius both study the mountain goats, sheep, deer and bear in their wilderness homes and paint them and their majestic scenic backgrounds. Richard M. Kimbel, landscape painter, has spent two summers in Banff and is painting at Lake O'Hara, near Lake Louise, and last year W. Langdon Kihn lived a month on the Stoney Indian reservation making pastel portraits of the big chiefs, little papooses, squaws and guides. Leonard M. Davis, who paints wonderful landscapes in Alaska and the Canadian Rockies with a palette knife, has joined the Banff art colony and expects to make his winter home in near-by Calgary.

The lure of Canada's Switzerland drew John Singer Sergeant, R. A.; to beautiful Lake O'Hara, in the heart of the Great Divide, and with his easel planted in the white and pink heather of an Alpine meadow 6,600 feet above sea level the world renowned painter devoted ten days to painting this exquisite jade-green lake and the towering mountains in which it is cupped. Charles W. Simpson, R. C. A., of Montreal; Oliver Dennett Grover, of Chicago; Philip R. Goodwin, Edward Fottis and Albert Groll of New York and many other painters of note have found inspiration in this scenic wonderland. As for those humbler artists, the tourists with cameras, they are to be seen snapping everywhere in the bungalow camps, by the lakeside and along the trails making beautiful pictures which inspire their envious friends to visit Banff and do likewise.

Thursday evening the general monthly meeting will be held, when Captain F. L. Money, C. P. Askey and E. Gardiner, delegates to the convention, will present reports. A full attendance is called for at the general meeting to obtain an expression of opinion on some of the most important matters that have come before the organization.

Ferdinand Charles Stanley, C.M.G., D.S.O., brother of the Earl of Derby, British War Minister, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon in his capacity as Chairman of the Associated Portland Cement Association of Great Britain, accompanied by another director, Alfred Stevens. Mrs. Stanley and Miss Stevens accompany them.

They were met on arrival by Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart. Mr. Butchart being their host while in the city.

The intention is to visit the cement plant at Bamberton, which was built by the Associated Cement Company, of Great Britain. The plan is to proceed to Mexico where the Associated Company also has interests.

General Stanley saw service in the Nile Expedition of 1898, the South African War of 1899-1900, and the Great War. He was awarded the D.S.O. for his services in South Africa, and the C.M.G. and Legion of Honor during the last conflict.

MRS. BAIRD DELIGHTS COWICHAN AUDIENCE

Was Assisted in Recital by Drury Pryce and Mrs. Gibson

Residents of the Cowichan district enjoyed a rare musical feast on Friday evening when Mrs. Robert Baird, of Victoria, gave a recital in the Cowichan Yacht Club before a large and enthusiastic audience. Mrs. Baird had chosen a programme which revealed her beautiful mellow contralto voice to perfection and each number created a demand for an encore. The assisting artists, who each in their own inimitable way maintained the very high standard of the recital, were F. Drury Pryce, violin and Mrs. A. J. Gibson at the piano.

At the close the artists were overwhelmed with requests to again visit Cowichan at an early date.

Times Book Review

By Prof. W. T. Allison

Few Canadians realize what romantic history has been enacted of Victoria, rival fur traders, Selkirk's settlers, Indians and half-breeds contributed to the stirring story of this settlement on the edge of the vast country of the plains. W. J. Healy, Manitoba's provincial librarian, has written a volume entitled, "Women of Red River," in which he describes chiefly through the recollections of old-timers who are still living, the social life of the pioneer community up to the year 1873. This handsomely illustrated book is a Winnipeg production published under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club. Although the volume is sectional in its appeal, it cannot fail to be interesting to readers in all parts of the Dominion.

Before the recent death of Lord Morley, the Macmillan Company had already in hand the publication of a new edition of his works in twelve cloth-bound volumes at a very moderate price. Among the titles are "Politics and History," "Critical Miscellanies," "Biographical Studies," "Oliver Cromwell," "Burke," "Voltaire," "Rousseau and His Era," "Diderot and the Encyclopedists," and "On Compromise." Next to his "Life of Gladstone," Morley's essay "On Compromise" is probably the most important book in the list.

John Buchan has struck out a new line in his latest story, "Midwinter," by introducing as one of the chief characters Dr. Samuel Johnston. A witty English friend of Mr. Buchan recently sent to the author the following imaginary dialogue between Johnston and Boswell:

Johnston: Sir, so much fiction has been published about me by my Scotch biographer that nothing but the truth has been left for a Scotch novelist.

Boswell: But would he not be too candid a biographer who did not prefer Johnston to truth?

Johnston: Sir, the dilemma is of your own invention, like most of your narrative, and I am glad to know that posterity has produced one Scotchman who prefers truth in the guise of fiction to fiction in the disguise of truth.

The Atlantic Monthly Press offers a cash prize of $2,000, in addition to royalties, for the manuscript of an adventure story of not less than 60,000 words, of the character and excellence of the works of the late Charles Boardman Hawes. The competition closes October 1, 1924. The prize is to be known as the Charles Boardman Hawes prize, in memory of the author of "The Mutineers," "The Great Guest" and "The Dark Frigate."

The University of Michigan has offered the Chair of Creative Art to Dr. Robert Bridges, the poet Laureate, for one year. Dr. Bridges is a critic, a playwright, a compiler of hymns and a musician. While he followed the profession of medicine he was the casualty and assistant physician at the Children's Hospital in Great Ormond Street, London. He is now in his seventy-ninth year, and lives at Boar's Hill, outside Oxford, a spot which has been described as "a poet's paradise." W.T.A.

Dame Fashion and Common Sense agree

It's astonishing how many ladies are wearing wool "undies," particularly when they can wear pure woolen vests—as soft as the finest flannel—made with low neck and no sleeves, that can be worn with the present fashion of dresses.

Other reasons are the fine unexcelled softness, and high quality that can always be relied on in TURNBULL'S under-clothing.

HUNDREDS WERE TURNED AWAY

Packed Church Heard Dr. Davies Preach on "If I Were the Devil"

Hundreds, unable to gain admission, turned away disappointed from Centennial Church last evening after ushers had done all in their power to find room for those who could crowd into the edifice.

According to church officials it was the largest congregation and the most successful service ever held in the church's history. The building was comfortably filled long before the hour of commencement, and many were standing during the entire service, while others were seated in the choir, congested inside the altar rail and seated on the pulpit steps.

Enthusiastic applause was evoked during Rev. Dr. Clem Davies's sermon on "If I Were the Devil," and the close attention of the vast audience was held throughout. In the course of his remarks Dr. Davies stated that if he "were the devil" he would (1) "De-religionize the youth by neglecting Sunday schools, parental neglect of spiritual oversight, and a cold attitude on the part of church officials in caring for the spiritual and social needs of the young people in the churches;" (2) "repudiate the contribution of social Christianity, service clubs, fraternal orders and better working conditions;" (3) "leave politics as they are and if possible bring back the saloon, surreptitiously, by turning patriotic societies into "booze clubs" with lockers;" (4) "destroy the church's usefulness by causing dissension by heated controversy about "so-called" fundamentals in dogma and doctrine;" (5) "cultivate in the church a sanctimonious attitude and an exaggerated "other worldiness" and a spirit of intolerance, making church people believe that their business was not to Christianize the social order, but to sanctify a few undamned souls within the fold;" (6) "bring about another war with all the curses in its train, glorifying militarism, and during "peace" have a "peace-time war" that keeps ill-will alive and nations heavily armed.

P.-T. ASSOCIATION FOR NANAIMO SCHOOLS

Special to The Times
Nanaimo, Oct. 8.—A meeting to form a Parent-Teacher Association was held in the Quennell School Friday evening. Mrs. Barnard, vice-president of the provincial executive, presided and explained the objects of the meeting, there being about thirty-five present. Rev. S. Ryall was appointed to act as secretary of the meeting. The aims and objects were outlined by Mrs. Barnard, who enlarged upon certain aspects of the work.

Resolution Not Accepted
Trustee Thomas Hodgson, of the Nanaimo School Board, had prepared a resolution in connection with a pledge card to be signed by pupils, which resolution was to be presented to the school trustees' convention to be held in Duncan, October 17, 18 and 19. The resolution referred to the trustees when first presented, but at a meeting on Friday night it was repudiated after a letter had been received from Secretary Viala, of the local Ministerial Association.

In the absence of Chairman Shaw, Trustee Hodgson presided, and owing to his position was unable to take part in the discussion on his resolution, which read as follows:

"Whereas, there has been a gradual decline in the number of people attending churches in comparison with the number of the population for many years past, and therefore the churches have lost their hold upon the people to such an extent that they now form but a small force or power in controlling the children and youth of the present day; and whereas, the children and youth of to-day, being somewhat freed from the fear of eternal torment and punishment to restrain them in their out-of-school activities, has resulted in a large freedom of action and less responsibility, and this has resulted in a greater amount of damage to property than in times past; and whereas, the curriculum of the public school system contains no special moral training or special teaching of moral responsibility, only in the ordinary school lessons; and

"Whereas, it is desirable that some broad and simple principal of moral teaching be given in the public schools to take the place of the waning influence of the churches, but free from all religious teachings;

"Resolved, that we, the trustees of the public schools of British Columbia, in convention assembled, petition the Education Department at Victoria to have printed and circulated among the schools of the Province a 'Card of Honor' or a 'Card of Good Behavior,' with proper instructions as to its signature and use."

Health Report
At the meeting of the School Board held last evening a comprehensive report regarding the health of the local school children was submitted by the public health instructor, Miss Woods. According to her report, from September 14 until October 8, only 108 pupils had been absent from school due to sickness. There were up to the day previous to her report only fifteen cases under quarantine for measles, smallpox and other infectious diseases.

Linen Shower
Miss Olive G. Dunsmore was hostess at her home on the Townside, when she entertained at a pretty linen shower in honor of Miss Mary Traylor, whose marriage is to take place shortly. The color scheme was of pink and white with a large wedding bell hanging from a chandelier. The gifts were concealed in a large book representing the statutes. Little Miss Lillie Rogers, gowned as a lawyer, opened the book and presented the gifts. A very pleasant evening was afterwards spent in games, music and dancing.

Altar Society Card Party—The Altar Society of St. Andrew's Cathedral will hold a card party, bridge and five hundred, at the residence of the Misses Ogden, 67 Wellington Avenue, on Wednesday afternoon next at three o'clock. Reservations for tables can be made by telephoning 2745 or bringing their own cards and tallies. Afternoon tea will be served at four o'clock.

J. N. HARVEY, LTD. CLOSING OUT VICTORIA STORE

News Item Oct. 5

Will Concentrate on Vancouver Branch

Mr. J. N. Harvey Decides to Withdraw From Local Clothing Firm—May Sell as Going Concern

Mr. J. N. Harvey, head of the clothing firm that bears his name, was in the city recently. The object of his visit was one that Victorians will regret, having for its purpose the withdrawal of Mr. Harvey from Victoria in order that he may concentrate all his efforts upon the Vancouver branch of the business, which he finds requires the fullest share of his attention.

It is not without regrets on the part of Mr. Harvey that he has decided upon this move, for, as he stated to a Times reporter, the outlook for business here, and the Victoria branch has been a very satisfactory one. It is more than likely that while Mr. Harvey feels it necessary to withdraw from the local store, the business will in all likelihood be carried on under new owners, who may take over the stock as a going concern.

In spite of the fact that he feels that it is advisable to concentrate on the one business, Mr. Harvey's faith in the tourist business as an adjunct to trade here in Victoria was of the most enthusiastic type. He feels that the fringes of this business only have been touched as yet, and he is a firm advocate of the closest co-operation in this line between Victoria and Vancouver.

"After very careful consideration our directors have reached the conclusion that the interests of our company would be best served by closing the Victoria business and concentrating in Vancouver," said Mr. J. N. Harvey.

"We regret exceedingly pulling out of Victoria just at the present time, but our experience with the new stand in Vancouver, where we have the whole building, has led us to the conclusion that by concentrating our efforts and resources there we can double our turnover and cut the overhead in two.

"I certainly have no reason to lose faith in Victoria; we have come safely through the readjustment period and the business is on a paying basis, and in addition, July, which is usually an ordinary summer business month, has through the tremendous increase in tourist trade been turned into a really profitable month, showing in Victoria an increase in excess of forty per cent. over last year.

"Regarding our business here, we have found that the people of this city demand good merchandise. We have always endeavored to meet them in this, and they have shown their appreciation by their loyalty to the store. The only reason we have for closing this store is to concentrate on a bigger effort in Vancouver. After the stock has been reduced to the minimum we will then remove the balance to Vancouver or sell as a going concern.

Old timers in Victoria will recall that this business was established by B. Williams & Company in 1881, was taken over by the Harvey Company (which was established in Vancouver) in the Spring of 1911, and ever since then has been under the active management of Mr. R. B. Price.

Well Men—You surely gave us one wonderful rush on Saturday, our opening day, and we regret exceedingly that it was utterly impossible to attend to all your needs. We are rearranging the store and goods in a manner that will enable us better to serve you, and you to inspect the many lines of good clothing and furnishings at very real savings.

TWO PRISONERS KILLED BY CONVICT

Walla Walla, Wash., Oct. 5.—One convict was killed and another fatally injured at the state penitentiary yesterday morning by Thomas Walton, forty, who leaped from the line emerging from chapel and drove a knife into the heart of S. P. Burt, twenty-seven, his former pal. He fatally wounded George McDonald, twenty-seven, Burt's cell-mate, and was then knocked down and disarmed by E. P. Gregory, prison guard. McDonald died last night. Walton and Burt were old pals. They escaped from San Quentin Prison, California, where they were serving first degree murder terms. They got into trouble in Spokane, wounding Officer Cashatt. After coming here Walton accused Burt of telling McDonald things about him, and the killing was the outgrowth of this. Walton was serving eight to twenty years, Burt five years to life and McDonald two to five years for murder.

Your Own Pearls

Are the finest—pearly teeth
Millions find them by combating film

No pearls which hang about the neck compare with pretty teeth. Don't leave them coated by a dingy film.

Look about you. Note how countless teeth now glisten. Mark what they add to beauty and to charm. Then make this test and learn how people get them.

The cloud is film. You feel on your teeth a viscous film. Under old-way brushing, much of it clings and stays. Soon it becomes discolored, then forms dingy coats. That is why so many teeth lose luster.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

This film is the greatest enemy of tooth beauty and tooth health. Dental science, after long research, found ways to combat that film. One disintegrates the film, the other removes it without harmful scouring.

Able authorities proved these methods effective. Then a new-type tooth paste was created to apply them daily. The name is Pepsodent.

To the careful, dainty people of some 20 nations this method has brought a new dental era.

Some sad mistakes. Research also proved that soapy tooth pastes had brought undesired results. They reduced the alkalinity of the saliva, reduced its starch digestant. Pepsodent brings just opposite effects. It multiplies the alkalinity, multiplies the starch digestant. And they are Nature's agents for fighting acid and starch deposits.

Watch for 10 days. Watch for ten days the Pepsodent effects. They will amaze and delight you. They will convince you that all in your family should get them every day.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the film-coats disappear.

It will be a revelation to you. Cut out coupon now.

The Michigan court investigation denounced King Ben and his practices, dealing in no uncertain terms with alleged immoral treatment of girl and women members in his seraglio of virgins "promoted from the ranks to be cleansed and made holy." His cult was held to be a gigantic fraud cloaked by religion. When King Ben fled he wore full whiskers and the unshorn locks, required by the religion of the order. These pictures have been sent out to help police identify him. Left, King Ben partly shaven with moustache only; centre, as he fled; right, all off.

said presently, "Why did the silly devil want to tell you anything about it?"... "She had to laugh at his angry voice—a pathetic laugh all jumbled up with sobs.

Reddy Squirrel was very angry. He had found that morning when he got up a paper tacked on his house with a long horn, and this was what was printed on it:

"Please come back." Ursula looked at him with distressed eyes. She wanted to tell him the truth, and yet she did not like to bring Doris into the discussion.

"Do you think it's only a faint?" Ursula asked. "Oh, please, please, do something." The man glanced at her and away again, then he took a little phial from his pocket, and slipping an arm beneath Jake's head, forced some drops between his lips.

"All right, my interupter," Ursula checked. "I'm sorry." "The big man interupted." "All right, my interupter," Ursula checked. "I'm sorry."

It was very much over-furnished, and had a tidy, dusted air, but it was very clean, and there was a cheery fire in the grate.

"This was enough for Reddy Squirrel. He hopped right out the door, and off he flew toward the Bunny home and ran straight into Mr. Dog.

"GOSH! WHAT NEXT?"... "GOSH! WHAT NEXT?"... "GOSH! WHAT NEXT?"

"I shall never forgive myself," he said presently. "Why did the silly devil want to tell you anything about it?"

He felt her way beneath his hands, then—the hot color went rioting up to her face as she broke out passionately: "Oh, I thought you were dead... I thought you were dead."

G.I.A.U.V. DELEGATES HEAR OF PROGRESS
Glowing Reports Presented at Convention
Plan to Amalgamate Veterans' Organizations is Supported

Substantial progress of the Grand Army United Veterans and endorsement of amalgamation were reported at the convention meetings held over the week-end.

Comrade Donald Grant, president, in an annual review of the Provincial Command's activities, stated that the association had made substantial progress during the 1922-23 term. He said that much of the credit for this success could be attributed to the excellent co-operation of the members of the retiring executive.

He gave unstinted praise to Comrade J. A. Johnson, of Burnaby, secretary-treasurer, "the backbone of the Provincial Command." Comrade Johnson had been untiring in his efforts, and the members fully appreciated his excellent work.

Comrade F. W. Crawford, Provincial organizer, presented his report, which showed that during the past twelve months branches had been established in Nanaimo, Kamloops, Coquitlam, Northfield, Duncan, Cumberland, Courtenay and Alberni.

The financial statement, read by Secretary-Treasurer Johnson, showed that the organization was in good circumstances, and in a much better condition than in October of last year.

In the absence of Tyler Comrade Jack, the president appointed Comrade Arthur C. Howard, of Victoria, to officiate as Provincial tyler during the gathering.

The question of amalgamation was introduced by the committee reporting on progress made by the Dominion Veterans' Alliance and the plan to unite all ex-service men in one body was cordially supported.

A smoking concert was held in the evening at the clubrooms.

EXPERTS' VIEWS ON WOOLLEN MILL
Leading Canadian Worsted Manufacturers Pay Visit Here

Think Fabrication Should Start at Stage of "Tops"

That there is an opening for the manufacture of woollens on this coast, but that with the limited population the stage of fabrication should be started not with the native fleeces, but when the wool has been combed and carded by the experts in the textile districts of the Old Country, is the view of the woollen industry expressed to The Times by T. O. Aked, president of Aked & Co., Ltd., worsted spinners and manufacturers, who is in the city with Frank J. Byrne, manager of their headquarters here at Toronto, and they have excellent connections all over the Dominion.

Mr. Aked, it may be mentioned, is the inventor of special spinning machinery which is used all over the world in up-to-date plants.

Buy Australian Wool
The family associations of Mr. Aked and Mr. Byrne date back some generations. When he came to Canada he saw the opportunity for the manufacture of wool, and particularly knitting supplies. He says that the Canadian fleeces do not prove satisfactory, because the lower grades are not absorbent on this market, and the wool through to the United States where there is a larger demand. His firm buys Australian wool, which has been shipped to the West Riding town in Yorkshire, and there carried through the usual processes of combing and carding. The yarn in that stage is imported, and all the processes of manufacture of the wool continued, it being occasionally the circumstance that the manufactured fabric goes back to the Australian cities, where the wool originated in bale form.

Water Suitable For Dyeing
Mr. Aked believes the best material for general production to be Australian merino, and says that a manufacturer in Canada could well afford to send native fleeces to Yorkshire, have the grades he required combed and carded and sent back to him as yarn, and allow the other grades to be used in the by-products industries of the great West Riding industries rather than try to use the whole product in this country. His business carries out its own dyeing, and in that respect he says the cities of this coast, using soft water from the mountains, could readily save money on the dyeing process. The water is so hard at the Aked Toronto plant that it costs a considerable addition to the outlay to soften it with chemicals for the necessary processes.

Home Loom Results
Mr. Aked has been very favorably struck with the products of the home looms here. There he says all the fleeces he worked up, as in the Scottish tweeds, with very satisfactory results. In general manufacturing, however, it does not work out satisfactorily, because a lower grade of material often depreciates the higher qualities, particularly in certain classes of cloths.

Canadian woollen goods, he points out, took a great advance during the war years, and in many respects they are able to hold their own with the products of any factory. The machinery is quite as up-to-date as in the British mills.

Showing Finished Product
Mr. Byrne states that the tour has been very successful in introducing new customers, although that was not the primary purpose of the journey across Canada at this time, but rather to induce firms stocking the Aked product to display side by side with the wool various articles made from the produce, a policy which has proved very popular. Although not soliciting business, he says they have had numerous orders placed by western wholesalers, demonstrating the popularity of the Canadian woollen manufacturer.

Both are enthusiastic for the water route via the Panama Canal for trade between the east and western Canada, as representing a considerable saving in freight cost.

SCHEDULE ISSUED FOR POTATO FAIR

Has Been Prepared With Idea of Interesting as Many as Possible

The second annual Provincial potato show and educational seed exhibit of all crops will be held in the Arcade Building, November 12-17, under the auspices of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, Victoria Potato Growers' Association and Chamber of Commerce. The show will be officially opened to the public on Wednesday afternoon, November 14, at 2.30 p.m. Reduced transportation rates, regular fare and one-third, having been secured on the railroads and steamships, it is hoped that all those interested in the potato industry will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend this annual event.

The prize list has been arranged to give everyone, adults and children, the chance to exhibit. In order to encourage the use of good seed and the growing of standard varieties prizes are being given for certified seed potatoes only of standard varieties. There is no class for the general run of seed. Those who have potatoes grown from certified seed, but not inspected during the growing season, may enter in Class B—commercial, the object of this class being to encourage the public to use high grade seed for the commercial acreage. Certified seed growers are not allowed to show in this class. On the other hand, those who have potatoes grown from any kind of seed may show in Class C—commercial. A special class for cottage garden varieties has been arranged, and should therefore be an inducement for city folk as well as farmers to take an interest in the show.

INDIGESTION
relieved in two minutes with JO-TO
Gas, acid, sour burning stomach all quickly relieved with JO-TO. Drug Stores.

Class I should be of interest to every boy and girl. For the best collection of six potatoes of each of not less than six named varieties prohibited by any school in the province three substantial prizes are being given.

In addition to these classes the women's institutes of Vancouver Island have arranged a special class for their exhibits.

During the potato show a growers' conference will be held and addresses will be given by leading authorities from British Columbia and across the line. A special session is being arranged for seed growers. Added attractions will consist of a demonstration in the methods to employ in cooking the various varieties. The value of the potato in the daily diet will also be explained. Machinery displays and seed exhibits of all kinds are being arranged. An illustrated lecture on Central British Columbia will be given by Col. R. D. Davies, of the Land Settlement Board.

There never was a better time for the potato and seed growers of the Province of British Columbia to get together to discuss matters of vital importance. Every district should see that one or a number of representatives are present to join in the discussions. For further particulars write to C. Tice, Department of Agriculture, Victoria, or the nearest Agricultural Representative.

NIGHT SCHOOL CLASS IN MUSIC
The night school class in music is held each Tuesday in the Girls' Central School, Fernwood and Fort, commencing at 7.45. The class is under the direction of Dr. J. E. Hodgson, late supervisor of music to the City of Calgary.

WAS ENGAGED UPON OPENING OF UPLANDS
C. M. Perrin Here; Now Officer of Shanghai Municipality

Mr. Perrin, who was engaged in the electrical work in connection with the Uplands subdivision at the time when it was laid out some ten years ago, and who for the past seven years has been registered at the Strathcona Hotel, is now registered at the Strathcona Hotel.

Mr. Perrin finds the city has not much changed in the interval, and he is glad to pay a visit on his way back to the Orient. He has been on tour looking into the purchase of supplies and to examine the development of the electrical business since he was last in Europe and America. After completing his contract here, he was for two years engaged at Boston, and then proceeded to the Far East.

He says it will surprise the average person to learn that the Shanghai municipality sells more power from its steam plant than a great corporation like that of Manchester, England. The reason of this condition is the great industrial expansion of Shanghai in the way of cotton mills, flour-mills and smaller industries. He states that there is more variety of industries using electric power in Shanghai than in any other city in the world. The Japanese are pushing their interests, particularly in the cotton industry.

Mr. Perrin looks for great industrial expansion in China, the natural resources of the country being rapidly developed under Western guidance.

The regular monthly meeting of the local branch of the V.O.N. will be held at 1115 Colinton Street, at Tuesday, October 9, at 2.30 p.m.
