Spalding's Athletic Library is the leading library series of its kind published in the world; in fact, it has no imitators, let alone equals. It occupies a field that it has created for itself.

The Library was established in the year 1892, and it is conceded by all authorities that Spalding's Athletic Library has been an important factor in the advancement of amateur sport in America.

The millions that read the Library during the year will attest to its value. A glance at its index will disclose the remarkable field that it covers. It is immaterial what the pastime may be, you will find in Spalding's Athletic Library a reference to it, either in a book devoted exclusively to that particular game or in some of the books that cover many sports.

It has been the aim of the editors to make the books Official, and they are recognized as such, all the important governing bodies in America granting to the publishers of Spalding's Athletic Library the exclusive right to publish their official books and official rules.

The best authorities in each particular line of sport or physical culture, the men best qualified to write intelligently on their respective subjects, are selected to edit the books and, as a result, there is not another series in the world that is as authoritative as Spalding's Athletic Library.

No matter what new game or form of sport be conceived or advanced, it is invariably the aim of the publishers to have a book on that sport. In that way Spalding's Athletic Library is in the field at the beginning of the sport, follows it year in and year out, and there can be no doubt whatever that the present popularity of athletic sports can attribute the same to the "backing" it has received from Spalding's Athletic Library. JAMES E. SULLIVAN.

Introduction

Let me introduce the seventh annual Gude of the National Association of Professional Base Ball Leagues. While we acknowledge the superior all around information contained in the Spalding Base Ball publications this year, that is, the Spalding Base Ball Record and the Spalding Annual Base Ball Guide, we claim the minor league Guide has a mission to fill in Base Ball, as it contains matter specially selected to interest and keep posted those who follow the great game from one end of the country to the other. This Guide is published in the sole interest of the minor organizations, allowing the more pretentious Guide to take care of the major leagues.

Since the first publication of this hand-book the organization has grown four-fold, and the end is not yet in sight. This cannual contains Agreements, Rules, Regulations, Records and Schedules, as well as general information that should interest the lovers of the national sport as well as the business men of the game and army of ball players.

COMBEINEMAYEA

The National Board of the National Association of Professional Base Ball Leagues thought it would be a graceful thing to have as the first life member of the association the distinguished President of the United States. The matter was first suggested by T. H. Murnane, one of the members of the Board, suggested by T. H. Murhane, one of the members of the Board, and taken up at once by Secretary John II. Farrell.

On May 16, 1907, President P. T. Powers of New York, Eugene F. Burt of San Francisco and Secretary John II. Farrell of Anburn, N. Y., as a committee from the Board, went to Washington and were received at the White House by President Roosevelt, Mr. Powers presented to the President Secretary Farrell, who made the presentation speech. In accepting the card of membership the President expressed his warm thanks and caid by wagended Pays 2nd 18 the typical warm thanks and said he regarded Base Ball as the typical game for Americans. He concluded by assuring the delegation that the game would always have his good wishes.

The card is of the regulation Base Ball senson ticket size with the President's photograph engraved in enameled gold, and the names of the leagues embracing the National Association.

The delegation was delightfully entertained, and afterward declared that Theodore Roosevelt was no mollycoddle President.

Seventh Annual Meeting of the National Association

The seventh annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Base Ball Leagues was held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York City, October 29, 30 and 31, 1907.

The attendance was the largest in the history of the organization, and most of the time was taken up by the National Board in deciding about forty cases. The convention was simply a gathering of Base Ball men from all over the country, to ratify the good work accomplished by Secretary John II. Farrell and the National Board.

President Joseph D. O'Brien of the American Association made a vigorous stand to have the Southern League, the Pacific Coast League and the Western League relegated to Class B, claiming that they had not the required population to entitle them to the higher classification.

The Eastern League alone voted with the American Association, and President O'Brien took his defeat gracefully.

James H. O'Rourke, the veteran Base Ball man of this country, as player and owner, fearing that contract-jumpers were being too lightly dealt with after having been put on the ineligible list by a compact of the National Commission and National Board, offered a resolution calling the attention of the National Commission to the danger of proceeding too rapidly with the contract-jumpers, and soliciting the minors to keep hands off of these men until cleared of the charge of contract-jumping

Mr. O'Rourke's resolution was passed by an unanimous vote, and later the National Commission saw the wisdom of the resolution and cleared the Base Ball atmosphere by ruling that hereafter players on the ineligible list of the minor leagues must first have their case heard by the National Board.

President Harry C. Pulliam of the National League took exceptions to the O'Rourke resolution, and was misled into believing that it was intended for players already placed on the ineligible list, several of whom had been reinstated by the National Commission. As there were no names given with the resolution and the National League president got his impression from a long list published in New York daily papers there was much friction. The minor league people stood by their ships in a dignified way until the hurricane passed over and the bright sun of absolutely honest methods broke through the clouds, with the sport perhaps better for the little misunderstanding.

While men differ the game rolls on, having the support of honest men who have no use for contract-jumpers.

The voting delegates are included in the following list of minor league notabilities:

The Salary Limit

The most vital question before the minor leagues of this country is the salary limit. As the leagues are classified according to population the limit of money the clubs can stand for the players' services must be graded according to the importance of the different organizations.

It is not necessary for all the leagues in Class A to have the same salary limit. For example, the American Association and the Eastern League should be well able to pay a monthly limit of at least $1,000 more than the other members of that class. The same reasoning holds good with the Class B leagues.

The important feature of the salary question is when and where to stop, and the evident fact that but few clubs are honestly living up to the agreements they enter into with each other.

When ordinary business men enter into an agreement for the protection of all they generally live up to the letter as well as the spirit of the document. But not so with Base Ball people, who have in the past considered it elever diplomacy to get a winner at the expense of the other clubs of the league by paying little attention to the signed agreement relative to the amount of money to be paid out.

Club owners have no right to complain about the demands of the ball players when they fail to live up to their own agreements. Every league should be just as liberal as possible, but when it comes to losing money the most enthusiastic follower of the sport will soon develop cold feet and find more congenial amusement.

As a matter of pure business—for professional ball playing is business—the salary question should be always uppermost in the mind of the men who enter into agreements to live within the law.

The game can be perpetuated in only one way. The gate money must pay expenses, and the great army of young men who hope in the future to gain the front ranks of the profession and carry off the big money will have this opportunity only by the continuance of the game as a profession, and there is not one chance in ten that the clubs and leagues will continue to live and thrive if the salary limits agreed to are ignored

The magnate or manager who openly violates the salary limit, and is reckless with the gate money for the purpose of winning glory, is a marked enemy of organized Base Ball.

If the magnates remain true to their agreements the game will live and thrive as a profession, and the best of the players will continue to rise within reach of the big money and get their share.

Leading Batsmen of Classes A and B

For the purpose of giving a fair and accurate comparison of ball players' worth as batsmen we publish a table of figures classifying the players by taking from the Class Λ leagues all who have taken part in fifty games or over, and who have hit for three hundred or over, covering exactly the same ground for the Class B leagues. For a better comparison the figures are published side by side.

It will be found among the Class A players entitled to a place in these records ten men who have gone out from the major leagues and seven from the Class B leagues. Of the seventy-one players entitled to a place in these exceptionally good records, only fifteen have been taken to the major leagues this season for a try out, and what is more interesting still is the fact that the veteran Jake Beckley leads the players in batting with the unusual high mark of .365.

Among the ex-major league players we find "Buck" Freeman, who stands No. 5 in the Class A combination, while Jesse Burkett stands No. 5 in the Class B leagues. William Hamilton, another ex-big league player, stands No. 8 in Class B. Both Hamilton and Burkett had the distinction of leading the National League for a full season. Every player who got his name on the list herewith published must be considered a first-class batsman, for no freaks could hit a three-hundred clip for fifty games. Besides the names mentioned we find Carr, Smoot, J. Kelley, McCreary, Wolverton, J. McCarthy and J. O'Neill, players who showed they could hit in fast company.

The high-class hitters of America number less than two hundred, and at least half the players mentioned in these tables must be numbered with the elect. There is a trite and true saying among ball players that "you can teach a player to field, but batting must come natural."

The .300 mark is considered the charmed circle for batsmen in organized Base Ball, where records are accurately kept by experts.

The new scoring rules for 1908, where a batsman is given a sacrifice where he brings a man home from third on a "fly to the outfield, will help to increase the batting records, while at the same time no better work need be performed by the player. This will make comparisons rather difficult, to the disadvantage of the players who worked under the old system of scoring.

Men Who Made the Game

Do professional Base Ball players ever stop to think of the wonderful strides that have been made in the national sport, and reflect for a moment how it became possible to bring this outdoor pastine to such perfection, not only on the ball field but in the management of the business?

The writer well remembers when there was but one league in the country—and that was composed of only six clubs. This was thirty years ago, while to-day we have sixteen major league clubs, and at least one hundred cities supporting the game in splendid style.

Let us note the names of those who were responsible for uplifting the sport when friends were valuable. Harry Wright was the pioneer in developing the professional end of the game, and the monument erected to his sweet memory by the lovers of the game in Philadelphia stands for clean sport, and is a reminder of those who fought hard in the early days of the game to better the condition of the player and make wholesome a sport fit for a king and his subjects alike.

The game was badly in need of a master hand to run the executive end of the business at a time when hidden rocks lay on every side of the Base Ball ship. Then up rose Hulbert of Chicago, the Abraham Lincoln of our grand old game. A fearless leader for the right. Others sang:

"Oh, could we do with this world of ours As thee with thy golden garden bowers, Reject the weeds and keep the flowers, What a Heaven on Earth we'd make it."

Hulbert was no dreamer, but a big, brainy man, full of electric sentiment. He went after the objectionable characters in the leading organizations, and tearing the mask from their faces declared:

"Gentlemen, we must have new conditions for the game; must live," and selecting a few apostles from out the breadth of the land, he created the National League.

Hulbert was an able lawyer, but was not thoroughly versed in the fine points of Base Ball; but he took his cue from A, G. Spalding, who was the brains of the National League for nearly twenty years. Spalding had been a great player in the pioneer days of the game and could fully appreciate what was fair to the player and just for the man willing to back the sport as a clean business proposition.

Without going, into a sketch of those who did much for the game we will mention:

A. H. Soden, who for thirty years controlled the Boston club; George Howe of Cleveland, John B. Day of New York, Senator Morgan G. Bulkeley of Hartford, Conn.; Nicholas E. Young of Washington, D. C.; Robert Ferguson of Brooklyn, Benjamin Douglass of Middletown, Conn., and John I. Rogers of Philadelphia. Then comes a line of players, including "Deacon" James White, John F. Morrill, George Wright, Hardy Richardson, A. C. Anson, Joe Start, John Burdock, Ezra Sutton, John Clapp, James H. O'Rourke, John M. Ward, Ed Hanlon, Arthur Irwin, Mike Kelly, Dan Richardson, Arthur Whitney, Al. McKinnon, Michael Dorgan, Wes Fisler, Charley Comiskey, Ted Sullivan, Thomas Loftus, Roger Connor, and Timothy Keefe. The above are named because I have a personal knowledge of their good work in materially helping to build up the game in their own modest way, and a way that counted for much.

As time rolls on and the men who carried the load, when the roads were rough and crooked, drift into the mighty Base Ball whirlpool, we are likely to forget, standing between the delightful Base Ball characters of the past and the whirling, crowding army of magnates, managers, and players of the present. It is like a cool drink of water on a desert plain to lift the curtain and say to the old boys:

"You built better than you knew,"

Base Ball has many good men in charge of the sport to-day, but the game now follows precedents, and the guide posts of the past are ever in sight. The game was purified by the men mentioned above.

Most Important Document Known to Base Ball

Every one connected with the professional end of Base Ball should make a careful study of the Agreement entered into between the major and minor leagues, and termed the National Agreement. The rights of each governing power are clearly laid down, and it will be seen that there is no such thing as a Supreme Court of Base Ball. Each party to the Agreement has the right to regulate its own affairs according to its own rules and regulations, confining its laws within the boundary lines of the agreement, of which there are two parts, the major leagues being the party of the first part, and the National Association of Professional Base Ball Leagues being the second party to the compact.

The National Commission has the power to regulate the affairs of the major bodies, while the National Board has the same power to regulate the affairs of the minor body.

Section 1 of Article IV, makes it plain that the National Commission has no right to interfere with the internal affairs of the minor organization.

When this document was drawn up it was considered wise to give the National Commission the power to carefully protect the rights of the ball player.

The document is as near perfect for the good of all as possible to make it, and if lived up to, there can be no misunderstanding between the two great governing powers.

The minor leagues were flourishing with a clear line of independence and perfectly able to continue along the liberal lines laid down by the founders of the new organization, when it was considered good policy to co-operate with the major leagues, for the protection and benefit of all. Working together the game would prosper, while operating independently both were bound to suffer, as the property rights e^{ρ} all were of little value as a substantial asset.

While acting under the National Agreement, the great minor organization work under a compact called the Rational Association Agreement, a document so well conceived that the officers have very little trouble in handling nearly forty leagues scattered through every State in the Union.

We like to keep the National Agreement before the eyes of the Base Ball public through the Official Guide of the minor leagues, so that the men who have their money invested can appreciate their exact connection with the great major leagues, who operate in a small territory, and become very powerful as the result of financial advantages, but who in no way dominate the broad and wholesome minor league field.

With liberal-minded and fair men composing the membership of the National Commission there can be no danger, but time may bring forth arbitrary conditions as the result of changes in the personnel of this powerful body, and the minors must always be on the alert to keep sane and able men in command of their own organization.

The make-up of the governing powers of both the major and minor leagues of the present time come in for the highest commendation, and should receive the honest thanks of those financially interested, whether as magnate or ball player,

This document was entered into September 10, 1903,

Approved September 11, 1903.

The National League and American Association of Professional Base Ball Clubs, by

HARRY C. PULLIAM,

President.

And the American League of Professional Base Pall Clubs, by

B. B. JOHNSON,

President.

The National Association of Professional Base Ball Leagues, by

P. T. POWERS, President.

NOTE.—The original agreement was amended in 1907, to read that but one player could be drafted from Class "A," and the prices for drafting players should be $1,000 for Class "A," $750 for Class "B," and $500 for Class "C."

Points Managers Should Know

The first notice of terms accepted received at Secretary John H. Farrell's office at Auburn, N. Y., shall be binding and hold the player. This must be followed by evidence, and the first notice should go by telegraph.

Non-reserve contracts are not allowed, and therefore not blinding, although the National Board has the power to act in a case of this kind and might favor a player who was misled.

Failure to file with the Secretary of the National Association the contract of any player within thirty days after the time such player joins said club shall subject the club to a fine of twenty-five dollars for each and every offense.

All matters and writings involving National Association clubs and major league clubs shall pass through the secretary's office, and be made a matter of record in said office.

Ball players in the employ of minor league clubs with a grievance must first put their cases before the National Board. If the finding by that body is not satisfactory, the player has the right to appeal to the National Commission, whose decision shall be final.

Contracts made out to individuals are not binding. name of the club (which must be in good standing) must be named, and the player becomes the property of the club and not any individual.

All National Association clubs shall be required to file with the secretary copies of the agreement entered into relating to the release by purchase of players by one National Association club to another. Releases containing options must read that the option shall be exercised on or before August 25 of each year, in order to comply with the drafting rules.

Copies of agreements between National Association clubs and major league clubs should also be filed in the secretary's office as a matter of record.

No club can reserve more than twenty players, including drafted, purchased, or reserved. This is a new rule and should be carefully lived up to.

No player will be allowed to go from one league to another at the close of the season, under penalty of a fine, and all games with such players shall be thrown out of the official standing.

The National Board has the power to discipline with fine or expulsion any player, owner or manager for assault on an umpire, and the feeling has grown so strong that anyone found guilty of work of the kind should be expelled.

CORRECT DIAGRAM OF A BALL FIELD

Official Playing Rules Professional Base Ball Clubs

AS ADOPTED BY THE

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL BASE BALL LEAGUES.

1908 Amendments; Rule 14, sec, 4; Rule 85, sec, 5,

The Ball Ground.

RULE 1. The ball ground must be enclosed. To obviate the necessity for ground rules, the shortest distance from a fence or stand on fair territory to the home base should be 235 feet and from home base to the grand stand 90 feet.

To Lay Off the Field.

RULE 2. To lay off the lines defining the location of the several bases, the catcher's and the pitcher's position and to establish the boundaries required in playing the game of base ball, proceed as follows:

Diamond or Infield.

From a point, A, within the grounds, project a straight line out into the field, and at a point, B, 154 feet from point A, lay off lines B C and B D at right angles to the line A B; then, with B as a center and 63.63945 feet as a radius, describe arcs cutting the lines B A at F and B C at G, B D at H and B E at I. Draw lines F G, G E, E H, and H F, which said lines shall be the containing lines of the Diamond or Infield.

The Catcher's Lines.

With F as a center and 10 feet radius, describe an arc cutting line F A at L, and draw lines L M and L O at right angles to F A, and continue same out from F A not less than 10 feet.

The Foul Lines.

From the intersection point, F, continue the straight lines F G and F H until they intersect the lines L M and L O, and then from the points G and H in the opposite direction until they reach the boundary lines of the ground, and said lines shall be clearly visible from any part of the diamond, and no wood or other hard substance shall be used in the construction of such lines.

The Players' Lines.

RULE 5. With F as center and 50 feet radius, describe arcs cutting lines F O and F M at P and Q; then, with F as center again and 75 feet radius, describe arcs cutting F G and F H at R and S; then, from the points P, Q, R and S draw lines at right angles to the lines F O, F M, F G and F H, and continue the same until they intersect at the points T and W.

The Coachers' Lines.

RULE 6. With R and S as centers and 15 feet radius, describe arcs cutting the lines R W and S T at X and Y and from the points X and Y draw lines parallel with the lines F H and F G, and continue same out to the boundary lines of the ground.

The Three-Foot Line.

RULE 7. With F as a center and 45 feet radius, describe an arc cutting the line F G at 1, and from 1 to the distance of three feet draw a line at right angles to F G, and marked point 2; then from point 2, draw a line parallel with the line F G to a point three feet beyond the point G, marked 3; then from the point 3 draw a line at right angles to line 2, 3, back to and intersecting with F G, and from thence back along the line G F to point 1.

The Batsman's Lines.

RULE 8. On either side of the line A F B describe two parallelograms six feet long and four feet wide (marked 8 and 9), their longest side being parallel with the line A F B, their distance apart being six inches added to each end of the length of the diagonal of the square within the angle F, and the center of their length being on said diagonal.

The Pitcher's Plate.

RULE 9. SECTION 1. With point F as center and 60.5 feet as radius, describe an arc cutting the line F B at line 4, and draw a line 5, 6, passing through point 4 and extending 12 inches on either side of line F B; then with line 5, 6, as a side, describe a parallelogram 24 inches by 6 inches, in which shall be located the pitcher's plate.

SEC. 2. The pitcher's plate shall not be more than 15 inches higher than the base lines or the home plate, which shall be level with the surface of the field, and the slope from the pitcher's plate to every base line and the home plate shall be gradual.

The Bases.

RULE 10. Section 1. Within the angle F, describe a five-sided figure, two of the sides of which shall coincide with the lines F G and F H to the extent of 12 inches each, thence parallel with the line F B 8½ inches to the points X and Y, a straight line between which, 17 inches, will form the front of the home base or plate.

Sec. 2. Within the angles at G, I and II describe squares, whose sides are 15 inches in length, two of such sides of which squares shall lie along the lines F G and G I, G I and I H, I H and H F, which squares shall be the location of the first, second and third bases respectively.

RULE 11. The Home Base at F and the Pitcher's Plate at 4 must each be of whitened rubber, and so fixed in the ground as to be even with its surface.

RULE 12. The First Base at G, the Second Base at E, and the Third Base at H must each be a white canvas bag filled with soft material and securely fastened in place at the points specified in Rule 10.

RULE 13. The lines described in Rules 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 must be marked with lime, chalk or other white material, easily distinguishable from the ground or grass.

The Ball.

RULE 14. SECTION I. The ball must weigh not less than five nor more than five and one-quarter ounces avoirdupois, and measure not less than nine nor more than nine and one-quarter inches in circumference. The Spalding National League Ball or the Reach American League Ball must be used in all games played under these rules.

Sec. 2. Two regulation balls of the make adopted by the league of which the contesting clubs are members. shall be delivered by the home club to the umpire at or before the hour for the commencement of a championship game. If the ball placed in play be batted or thrown out of the grounds or into one of the stands for spectators or in the judgment of the umpire, become unfit for play from any cause, the umpire shall at once deliver the alternate ball to the pitcher and another legal ball shall be supplied to him, so that he shall at all times have in his control one or more alternate balls. Provided, however, that all balls batted or thrown out of the ground or into a stand shall when returned to the field be given into the custody of the umpire immediately and become alternate balls and so long as he has in his possession two or more alternate balls, he shall not call for a new ball to replace one that has gone out of play. The alternate balls shall become the ball in play in the order in which they were delivered to the umpire.

Sec. 3. Immediately upon the delivery to him of the alternate ball by the umpire, the pitcher shall take his position and on the call of "Play," by the umpire, it shall become the ball in play. Provided, however, that play shall not be resumed with the alternate ball when a fair batted ball or a ball thrown by a fielder goes out of the ground or into a stand for spectators until the base-runners have completed the circuit of the bases unless compelled to stop at second or third base in compliance with a ground rule.

The Spalding League Ball has been adopted by the National League for the past thirty-one years and is used in all the League contests. It has also been adopted by the majority of other professional leagues and by practically all the colleges.

For junior clubs (clubs composed of boys under 16 years of age) we recommend them to use the Spalding Boys' League Ball, and that games played by junior clubs with this ball will count as legal games the same as if played with the Official League Ball.

Discolored or Damaged Balls.

SEC. 4. In the event of a ball being intentionally discolored by rubbing it with the soil or otherwise by any player, or otherwise damaged by any player, the unpire shall, upon appeal by the captain of the opposite side, forthwith demand the return of that ball and substitute for it another legal ball, as hereinbefore described, and impose a fine of $5.00 on the offending player.

Home Club to Provide Balls.

Sec. 5. In every game the balls played with shall be furnished by the home club, and the last in play shall become the property of the winning club. Each ball shall be enclosed in a paper box, which must be sealed with the seal of the Secretary of the League and bear his certificate that he has examined measured and weighed the ball contained therein and that it is of the required standard in all respects. The seal shall not be broken by the umpire except in the presence of the captains of the contesting teams after "Play" has been called.

Reserve Balls on Field.

Sec. 6. The home club shall have at least a dozen regulation balls on the field during each championship game, ready for use on the call of the umpire.

The Bat.

RULE 15. The bat must be round, not over two and three-fourth inches in diameter at the thickest part, nor more than 42 inches in length and entirely of hardwood, except that for a distance of 18 inches from the end, twine may be wound around or a granulated substance applied to the handle.

Number of Players in a Game.

RULE 16. The players of each club, actively engaged in a game at one time, shall be nine in number, one of whom shall act as captain; and in no case shall more or less than nine men be allowed to play on a side in a game.

Positions of the Players.

The players may be stationed at any points of the field their captain may elect, regardless of their respective positions, except that the pitcher, while in the act of delivering the ball to the bat, must take his position as defined in Rules 9 and 30; and the catcher must be within the lines of his position as defined in Rule 3 and within 10 feet of home base, whenever the pitcher delivers the ball to the bat.

Must Not Mingle With Spectators.

RULE 18. Players in uniform shall not be permitted to occupy seats in the stands, or to mingle with the spectators.

Uniforms of Players.

RULE 19. Every club shall adopt two uniforms for its players, one to be worn in games at home and the other in games abroad, and the suits of each of the uniforms of a team shall conform in color and style. No player who shall attach anything to the sole or heel of his shoe other than the ordinary base ball shoe plate, or who shall appear in a uniform not conforming to the suits of the other members of his team, shall be permitted to take part in a game.

Size and Weight of Gloves.

RULE 20. The catcher or first baseman may wear a glove or mitt of any size, shape or weight. Every other player is restricted to the use of a glove or mitt weighing not over 10 ounces and measuring not over 14 inches around the palm.

Players' Benches.

Section I. Players' benches must be fur-RULE 21. nished by the home club and placed upon a portion of the ground not less than twenty-five (25) feet outside of the players' lines. One such bench shall be for the exclusive use of the visiting team and the other for the exclusive use of the home team. Each bench must be covered with a roof and closed at the back and each end; a space, however, not more than six (6) inches wide may be left under the roof for ventilation. All players and substitutes of the side at bat must be seated on their team's bench, except the batsman, baserunners and such as are legally assigned to coach baserunners. Under no circumstances shall the umpire permit any person except the players and substitutes in uniform and the manager of the team entitled to its exclusive use to be seated on a bench.

Penalty for Violation.

Sec. 2. Whenever the umpire observes a violation of the preceding section, he shall immediately order such player or players as have disregarded it to be seated. If the order be not obeyed within one minute the offending player or players shall be fined $5.00 each by the umpire. If the order be not then obeyed within one minute, the offending player or players shall be debarred from further participation in the game, and shall be obliged to forthwith leave the playing field.

A Regulation Game.

RULE 22. Every championship game must be commenced not later than two hours before sunset and shall continue until each team shall terminate:

Section 1. If the side first at bat scores less runs in nine innings than the other side has scored in eight innings.

SEC. 2. If the side last at bat in the ninth inning scores the winning run before the third man is out.

SEC. 3. If the game be called by the umpire on account of darkness, rain, fire, panic, or for other cause which puts patrons or players in peril.

Extra-Inning Games.

RULE 23. (9) innings for each team, play shall be continued until one side has scored more runs than the other in an equal number of innings, provided, that if the side last at bat score the winning run before the third man is out in any inning after the ninth, the game shall terminate.

Drawn Games.

RULE 24. A drawn game shall be declared by the umpire if the score is equal on the last even inning played when he terminates play in accordance with Rule 22, Section 3, after five or more equal innings have been played by each team. But if the side that went second to bat is at the bat when the game is terminated, and has scored the same number of runs as the other side, the umpire shall declare the game drawn without regard to the score of the last equal inning.

Called Games.

If the umpire calls a game in accordance RULE 25. with Rule 22, Section 3, at any time after five innings have been completed, the score shall be that of the last equal innings played, except that if the side second at bat shall have scored in an unequal number of innings, or before the completion of the unfinished inning, at least one run more than the side first at bat, the score of the game shall be the total number of runs each team has made.

Forfeited Games.

A forfeited game shall be declared by the RULE 26. umpire in favor of the club not in fault, in the following cases:

Section I. If the team of a club fail to appear upon the field, or being upon the field, refuse to begin a game for which it is scheduled or assigned, within five minutes after the umpire has called "Play" at the hour for the beginning of the game, unless such delay in appearing, or in commencing the game, be unavoidable.

Sec. 2. If, after the game has begun, one side refuse to continue to play, unless the game has been suspended or terminated by the umpire.

Sec. 3. If, after play has been suspended by the umpire, one side fails to resume playing in one minute after the umpire has called "Play."

Sec. 4. If a team employ tactics palpably designed to delay the game.

Sec. 5. If, after warning by the umpire, any one of the rules of the game be wilfully and persistently violated.

Sec. 6. If the order for the removal of a player, as authorized by Rules 21, 58 and 64, be not obeyed within one minute.

Sec. 7. If, because of the removal of players from the game by the umpire, or for any cause, there be less than nine players on either team.

Sec. 8. If, when two games are scheduled to be played in one afternoon, the second game be not commenced within ten minutes of the time of the completion of the first game. The umpire of the first game shall be the timekeeper.

SEC. 9. In case the umpire declare the game forfeited, he shall transmit a written report thereof to the president of the League within twenty-four hours thereafter. However, a failure on the part of the umpire to so notify the president shall not affect the validity of his award of the game by forfeiture.

No Game.

RULE 27. "No game" shall be declared by the umpire if he terminates play in accordance with Rule 22, Sec. 3, before five innings are completed by each team. Provided, however, that if the club second at bat shall have made more runs at the end of its fourth inning than the club first at bat has made in five completed innings of a game so terminated, the umpire shall award the game to the club having made the greater number of runs, and it shall count as a legal game in the championship record.

Substitutes.

RULE 28. SECTION I. Each side shall be required to have present on the field during a championship game a sufficient number of substitute players in uniform, conforming to the suits worn by their team-mates, to carry out the provisions of this code which requires that not less than nine players shall occupy the field in any inning of the game.

SEC. 2. Any such substitute may at any stage of the game take the place of a player whose name is in his team's batting order, but the player whom he succeeds shall not thereafter participate in that game.

SEC. 3. A base-runner shall not have another player whose name appears in the batting order of his team run for him except by the consent of the captain of the other team.

Choice of Innings-Fitness of Field for Play.

RULE 29. The choice of innings shall be given to the captain of the home club, who shall be the sole judge of the fitness of the ground for beginning a game after a rain; but, after play has been called by the umpire, he alone shall be the judge as to the fitness of the ground for resuming play after the game has been suspended on account of rain, and when time 18 50 called the ground-keeper and sufficient assistants shall be under the control of the umpire for the purpose of putting the ground in proper shape for play, under penalty of forfeiture of the game by the home team.

THE PITCHING RULES. Delivery of the Ball to the Bat.

RULE 30. Preliminary to pitching, the pitcher shall take his position facing the batsman with both feet squarely on the ground and in front of the pitcher's plate; and in the act of delivering the ball to the bat he must keep one foot in contact with the pitcher's plate defined in Rule 9. He shall not raise either foot until in the act of delivering the ball to the bat, nor make more than one step in such delivery.

A Fairly Delivered Ball.

RULE 31. A fairly delivered ball is a ball pitched or thrown to the bat by the pitcher while standing in his position and facing the batsman that passes over any portion of the home base, before touching the ground, not lower than the batsman's knee, nor higher than his shoulder. For every such fairly delivered ball the umpire shall call one strike.

An Unfairly Delivered Ball.

An unfairly delivered ball is a ball delivered to the bat by the pitcher while standing in his position and facing the batsman that does not pass over any portion of the home base between the batsman's shoulder and knees, or that touches the ground before passing home base, unless struck at by the batsman. For every unfairly delivered ball the umpire shall call one ball.

Delaying the Game.

RULE 33. SECTION I. If, after the batsman be standing in his proper position ready to strike at a pitched ball, the ball be thrown by the pitcher to any player other than the catcher when in the catcher's lines and within 10 feet of the home base (except in an attempt to retire a base runner), each ball so thrown shall be called a ball.

SEC. 2. The umpire shall call a ball on the pitcher each time he delays the game by failing to deliver the ball to the batsman for a longer period than 20 seconds, excepting that at the commencement of each inning, or when a pitcher relieves another, the pitcher may occupy one minute in delivering not to exceed five balls to the catcher or an infielder, during which time play shall be suspended.

Balking.

A balk shall be:

RULE 34. Section 1. Any motion made by the pitcher while in position to deliver the ball to the bat without delivering it, or to throw to first base when occupied by a base runner without completing the throw.

Sec. 2. Throwing the ball by the pitcher to any base to catch the base runner without stepping directly toward such base in the act of making such throw.

Sec. 3. Any delivery of the ball to the bat by the pitcher

Reserved for Umpire, Catcher and Batsman.

RULE 42. No player of the side "at bat," except the batsman, shall occupy any portion of the space within the catcher's lines as defined in Rule 3. The triangular space back of the home base is reserved for the exclusive use of the umpire, catcher and batsman, and the umpire must prohibit any player of the side "at bat" from crossing the same at any time while the ball is in the hands of the pitcher or catcher, or passing between them while standing in their positions.

Fielder Has Right of Way.

RULE 43. The players of the side at bat must speedily abandon their bench and hasten to another part of the field when by remaining upon or near it they or any of them would interfere with a fielder in an attempt to catch or handle a thrown or a batted ball.

A fair batted ball that goes over the fence or into a stand shall entitle the batsman to a home run unless it should pass out of the ground or into a stand at a less distance than two hundred and thirty-five (235) feet from the home base, in which case the batsman shall be entitled to two bases only. The point at which a fence or stand is less than 235 feet from the home base shall be plainly indicated by a white or black sign or mark for the umpire's guidance.

But only the proper batsman shall be declared out, and no runs shall be scored or bases run because of any act of the improper batsman. Provided, this rule shall not be enforced unless the out be declared before the ball be delivered to the succeeding batsman. Should the batsman declared out under this section be the third hand out and his side be thereby put out, the proper batsman in the next inning shall be the player who would have come to bat had the players been put out by ordinary play in the preceding inning.

Sec. 2. If he fail to take his position within one minute after the umpire has called for the batsman.

SEC. 3. If he make a foul hit other than a foul tip, as defined in Rule 46, and the ball be momentarily held by a fielder before touching the ground; provided, it be not caught in a fielder's cap, protector, pocket or other part of his uniform, or strike some object other than a fielder before being caught.

BASE RUNNING RULES. Legal Order of Bases.

The Base Runner must touch each base in legal order, viz., First, Second, Third and Home Bases; and when obliged to return while the ball is in play, must retouch the base or bases in reverse order. He can only acquire the right to a base by touching it, before having been put out, and shall then be entitled to hold such base until he has legally touched the next base in order, or has been legally forced to vacate it for a succeeding base runner. However, no base runner shall score a run to count in the game ahead of the base runner preceding him in the batting order, if there be such preceding base runner who has not been put out in that inning.

When the Batsman Becomes a Base-Runner.

The batsman becomes a base runner:

RULE 53. Section I. Instantly after he makes a fair hit.

Sec. 2. Instantly after "Four Balls" have been called by the umpire.

Sec. 3. Instantly after "Three Strikes" have been declared by the umpire.

Sec. 4. If, without making any attempt to strike at the ball, his person or clothing be hit by a pitched ball unless, in the opinion of the umpire, he plainly make no effort to get out of the way of the pitched ball.

Sec. 5. If the catcher interfere with him in or prevent him from striking at a pitched ball.

Sec. 6. If a fair hit ball strike the person or clothing of the unpire or a base runner on fair ground.

Entitled to Bases.

RULE 54. The base runner shall be entitled, without liability to be put out, to advance a base in the following cases:

Section 1. If, while the batsman, he becomes a base runner by reason of "four balls" or for being hit by a pitched ball, or for being interfered with by the catcher in striking at a pitched ball.

SEC. 2. If the umpire awards to a succeeding batsman a base on four balls, or for being hit by a pitched ball, or being interfered with by the catcher in striking at a pitched ball and the base runner be thereby forced to vacate the base held by him.

Sec. 3. If the umpire call a "Balk."

Sec. 4. If a ball delivered by the pitcher pass the catcher and touch the umpire or any fence or building within ninety (90) feet of the home base.

Sec. 5. If he be prevented from making a base by the obstruction of a fielder, unless the latter have the ball in his hand ready to touch the base runner.

SEC. 6. If the fielder stop or catch a batted ball with his cap, glove or any part of his uniform, while detached from its proper place on his person.

Returning to Bases.

The base runner shall return to his base without liability to be put out:

Section 1. If the umpire declares any foul not legally caught.

SEC. 2. If the umpire declares a foul strike.

SEC. 3. If the umpire declares a dead ball, unless it be also the fourth unfair ball, and he be thereby forced to take the next base, as provided in Rule 54, Section 2.

SEC. 4. If the person or clothing of the umpire interfere with the catcher in an attempt to throw or the umpire be struck by a ball thrown by the catcher or other fielder to intercept a base runner.

SEC. 5. If a pitched ball at which the batsman strikes but misses, touch any part of the batsman's person.

Sec. 6. In any and all of these cases the base runner is not required to touch the intervening bases in returning to the base he is legally entitled to.

When Base Runners are Out.

The base runner is out:

RULE 56. Section I. If, after three strikes have been declared against him while the batsman, the third strike ball be not legally caught and he plainly attempts to hinder the catcher from fielding the ball.

Sec. 2. If, having made a fair hit while batsman, such fair hit ball be momentarily held by a fielder before touching the ground or any object other than a fielder; provided, it be not caught in a fielder's hat, cap, protector, pocket or other part of his uniform.

SEC. 3. If, when the umpire has declared "Three Strikes" on him while the batsman, the third strike ball be momentarily held by a fielder before touching the ground; provided, it be not caught in a fielder's cap, protector, pocket or other part of his uniform, or touch some object other than a fielder before being caught.

Sec. 4. If, after three strikes or a fair hit, he be touched with the ball in the hand of a fielder before he shall have touched first base.

Sec. 5. If, after three strikes or a fair hit, the ball be securely held by a fielder while touching first base with any part of his person before such base runner touch first base.

SEC. 6. If, in running the last half of the distance from home base to first base, while the ball is being fielded to first base, he run outside the three foot lines, as defined in Rule 7, unless he do so to avoid a fielder attempting to field a batted ball.

SEC. 7. If, in running from first to second base, from second to third base, or from third to home base, he run more than three feet from a direct line between a base and the next one in regular or reverse order to avoid being touched by a ball in the hands of a fielder. But in case a fielder be occupying a base runner's proper path in attempting to field a batted ball, then the base runner shall run out of direct line to the next base and behind said fielder and shall not be declared out for so doing.

SEC. 8. If he fail to avoid a fielder attempting to field a batted bail, in the manner described in Sections 6 and 7 of this rule, or in any way obstruct a fielder in attempting to field a batted ball, or intentionally interfere with a thrown ball; provided, that if two or more fielders attempt to field a batted ball, and the base runner come in contact with one or more of them, the umpire shall determine which fielder is entitled to the benefit of this rule, and shall not decide the base runner out for coming in contact with a fielder other than the one the umpire determines to be entitled to field such batted ball.

SEC. 9. If at any time while the ball is in play, he be touched by the ball in the hands of a fielder, unless some part of his person be touching the base he is entitled to occupy; provided, however, that the ball be held by the fielder after touching him, unless the base runner deligation.

erately knock it out of his hand.

Sec. 10. If, when a fair or foul hit ball (other than a foul tip as defined in Rule 46) be legally caught by a fielder, such ball be legally held by a fielder on the base occupied by the base runner when such ball was batted, or the base runner be touched with the ball in the hands of a fielder, before he retouch such base after such fair or foul hit ball was so caught; provided, that the base runner shall not be out in such case, if, after the ball was legally eaught as above, it be delivered to the bat by the pitcher before the fielder hold it on said base, or touch the base runner out with it; but if the base runner, in attempting to reach a base, detach it from its fastening before being touched or forced out, he shall be declared safe.

Sec. 11. If, when the batsman becomes a base runner, the first base, or the first and second bases, or the first, second and third bases be occupied, any base runner so occupying a base shall cease to be entitled to hold it, and may be put out at the next base in the same manner as in running to first base, or by being touched with the ball in the hands of a fielder at any time before any base runner following him in the batting order be put out, unless the umpire should decide the hit of the batsman to be an infield fly.

Sec. 12. If a fair hit ball strike him before touching a fielder, and, in such case, no base shall be run unless necessitated by the batsman becoming a base runner, but no run shall be scored or any other base runner put out until the umpire puts the ball back into play.

Sec. 13. If, when advancing bases, or forced to return to a base, while the ball is in play, he fail to touch the intervening base or bases, if any, in the regular or reverse order, as the case may be, he may be put out by the ball being held by a fielder on any base he failed to touch, or by being touched by the ball in the hands of a fielder in the same manner as in running to first base; provided, that the base runner shall not be out in such case if the ball be delivered to the bat by the pitcher before the fielder hold it on said base or touch the base runner with it.

SEC. 14. If, when the umpire call "Play," after the suspension of a game, he fail to return to and touch the base he occupied when "Time" was called before touching the next base; provided, the base runner shall not be out, in such case, if the ball be delivered to the bat by the pitcher, before the fielder hold it on said base or touch the base runner with it.

Sec. 15. If with one or no one out and a base runner on third base, the batsman interferes with a play being made at home plate.

Sec. 16. If he pass a base runner who is caught between two bases, he shall be declared out immediately upon passing the preceding base runner.

Overrunning First Base.

Sec. 17. The base runner in running to first base may overrun said base after touching it in passing without incurring liability to be out for being off said base, provided he return at once and retouch the base, after which he may be put out as at any other base. If, after overrunning first base, he turn in the direction of or attempt to run to second base, before returning to first base, he shall forfeit such exemption from liability to be put out.

SEC. 18. If, before two hands are out and while third base is occupied, the coacher stationed near that base shall run in the direction of home base on or near the base line while a fielder is making or trying to make a play on a batted ball not caught on the fly, or on a thrown ball, and thereby draws a throw to home base, the base runner entitled to third base shall be declared out by the umpire for the coacher's interference with and prevention of the legitimate play.

SEC. 19. If one or more members of the team at bat stand or collect at or around a base for which a base runner is trying, thereby confusing the fielding side and adding to the difficulty of making such play, the base runner shall be declared out for the interference of his team mate or team mates.

Sec. 20. If he touch home base before a base runner preceding him in the batting order, if there be such preceding base runner, lose his right to third base.

When Umpire Shall Declare an Out.

RULE 57. The umpire shall declare the batsman or base runner out, without waiting for an appeal for such decision, in all cases where such player be put out in accordance with any of these rules, except Sections 13 and 17 of Rule 56.

Coaching Rules.

RULE 58. The coacher shall be restricted to coaching the base runner only, and shall not address remarks except to the base runner, and then only in words of assistance and direction in running bases. He shall not, by words or signs, incite or try to incite the spectators to demonstrations, and shall not use language which will in any manner refer to or reflect upon a player of the opposite club, the umpire or the spectators. Not more than two coachers, who must be players in the uniform of the team at bat, shall be allowed to occupy the space between the players' and the coachers' lines, one near first and the other near third base, to coach base runners. If there be more than the legal number of coachers or this rule be violated in any respect the captain of the opposite side may call the attention of the umpire to the offense, and thereupon the umpire must order the illegal coacher or coachers to the bench, and if his order be not obeyed within one minute, the umpire shall assess a fine of $5.00 against each offending player, and upon a repetition of the offense, the offending player or players shall be debarred from further participation in the game, and shall leave the playing field forthwith.

The Scoring of Runs.

One run shall be scored every time a base runner, after having legally touched the first three bases, shall legally touch the home base before three men are put out; provided, however, that if he reach home on or during a play in which the third man be forced out or be put out before reaching first base, a run shall not count. A force-out can be made only when a base runner legally loses the right to the base he occupies and is thereby obliged to advance as the result of a fair hit ball not caught on the fly.

UMPIRE AND HIS DUTIES. Power to Enforce Decisions.

The umpire is the representative of the League and as such is authorized and required to enforce each section of this code. He shall have the power to order a player, captain or manager to do or omit to do any act which in his judgment is necessary to give force and effect to one or all of these rules, and to inflict penalties for violations of the rules as hereinafter prescribed.

RULE 61. There shall be no appeal from any decision of the umpire on the ground that he was not correct in his conclusion as to whether a batted ball was fair or foul, a base runner safe or out, a pitched ball a strike or ball, or on any other play involving accuracy of judgment, and no decision rendered by him shall be reversed, except that he be convinced that it is in violation of one of these rules. The captain shall alone have the right to protest against a decision and seek its reversal on a claim that it is in conflict with a section of these rules.

Must Not Question Decisions.

RULE 62. Under no circumstances shall a captain or player dispute the accuracy of the umpire's judgment and decision on a play.

Clubs Can Not Change Umpire.

Penalties for Violations of the Rules.

RULE 64. In all cases of violation of these rules, by either a player or manager, the penalty for the first offense shall be a fine by the umpire of $5.00, and, for a second offense, prompt removal of the offender from the game or grounds, followed by a period of such suspension from actual service in the club as the president of the League may fix.

Umpire to Report Violations of the Rules.

RULE 65. The umpire shall within twelve hours after fining or removing a player from the game, forward to the president a report of the penalty inflicted and the cause therefor.

RULE 66. RULE 67. When the offense of the player debarred from the game be of a flagrant nature, such as the use of obscene language or an assault upon a player or umpire, the umpire shall within four hours thereafter forward to the president of the League full particulars.

Warning to Captains.

RULE 68. The umpire shall notify both captains before the game, and in the presence of each other, that all the playing rules will be strictly and impartially enforced, and warn them that failure on their part to co-operate in such enforcement will result in offenders being fined, and, if necessary to preserve discipline, debarred from the game.

On Ground Rules.

RULE 69.

Before the commencement of a game the umpire shall see that the rules governing all the materials of the game are strictly observed. He shall ask the captain of the home club whether there are any special ground rules, and if there be he shall acquaint himself with them, advise the captain of the visiting team of their scope and see that each is duly enforced, provided that it does not conflict with any of these rules.

Official Announcements.

RULE 70. The umpire shall call "Play" at the hour appointed for the beginning of a game, announce "Time" at its legal interruption and declare "Game" at its legal termination.

I. If rain fall so heavily as to cause the spectators on the open field and open stands to seek shelter, in which case he shall note the time of suspension, and should rain fall continuously for thirty minutes thereafter he shall terminate the game.

2. In case of an accident which incapacitates him or a player from service in the field, or in order to remove from the grounds any player or spectator who has violated the rules, or in case of fire, panic or other extraordinary circumstances.

Call of Time.

RULE 72. In suspending play from any legal cause the umpire shall call "Time"; when he calls "Time," play shall be suspended until he calls "Play" again, and during the interim no player shall be put out, base be run or run be scored. "Time" shall not be called by the umpire until the ball be held by the pitcher while standing in his position.

Decisions on Balls and Strikes.

The umpire shall call and count as a "ball" any unfair ball delivered by the RULE 73. pitcher to the batsman. He shall also call and count as a "strike" any fairly delivered ball which passes over any portion of the home base, and within the batsman's legal range as defined in Rule 31, whether struck at or not by the batsman; or a foul tip which is caught by the catcher standing within the lines of his position, within 10 feet of the home base; or which, after being struck at and not hit, strike the person of the batsman; or when the ball be bunted foul by the batsman; or any foul hit ball not caught on the fly unless the batsman has two strikes, provided, however, that a pitched ball shall not be called or counted a "ball" or "strike" by the unpire until it has passed the home plate.

RULE 74. If but one umpire be assigned, his dities and jurisdiction shall extend to all points, and he shall be permitted to take his stand in any part of the field that in his opinion will best enable him to discharge his duties.

Field Rules.

RULE 75. No person shall be allowed upon any part of the field during the progress of a game except the players in uniform, the manager of each side, the umpire, such officers of the law as may be present in uniform, and such watchmen of the home club as may be necessary to preserve the peace.

No manager, captain or player shall address the spectators during a game except in reply to a request for information about the progress or state of the game.

RULE 77. Every club shall furnish sufficient police force to preserve order upon its own grounds, and in the event of a crowd entering with the play in any manner, the visiting club may refuse to play until the field be cleared. - RULE 78. "Play" is the order of the umpire to begin the game or to resume it after its suspension.
- RULE 79. "Time" is the order of the umpire to suspend play. Such suspension must not extend beyond the day.
- "Game" is the announcement of the umpire that the game is terminated.
- RULE 81. "An inning" is the term at bat of the nine players representing a club in a game and is completed when three of such players have been legally put out.
- RULE 82. "A Time at Bat" is the term at bat of a batsman. It begins when he takes his position, and continues until he is put out or becomes a base runner. But a time at bat shall not be charged against a batsman who is awarded first base by the umpire for being hit by a pitched ball, or on called balls, or when he makes a sacrifice hit, or for interference by the catcher.

"Legal" or "Legally" signifies as required RULE 83. by these rules.

THE SCORING RULES.

RULE 84. To promote uniformity in scoring championship games the following instructions are given and suggestions and definitions make all scores in accordance therewith.

The Batsman's Record.

Section 1. The first item in the tabu-RULE 85. lated score, after the player's name and position, shall be the number of times he has been at bat during the game, but the exceptions made in Rule 82 must not be included.

Sec. 2. In the second column shall be set down the runs, if any, made by each player.

Sec. 3. In the third column shall be placed the first base hits, if any, made by each player.

The Scoring of Base Hits.

Sec. 4. A base hit shall be scored in the following cases. When the ball from the bat strikes the ground on or within the foul lines and out of the reach of the fielders.

When a fair-hit ball is partially or wholly stopped by a fielder in motion, but such player can not recover himself in time to field the ball to first before the striker reaches that base or to force out another base runner.

When the ball be hit with such force to an infielder or pitcher that he can not handle it in time to put out the batsman or force out a base runner. In a case of doubt over this class of hits, a base hit should be scored and the fielder exempted from the charge of an error.

When the ball is hit so slowly toward a fielder that he cannot handle it in time to put out the batsman or force out a base runner.

In all cases where a base runner is retired by being hit by a batted ball, unless batted by himself, the batsman should be credited with a base hit.

When a batted ball hits the person or clothing of the umpire, as defined in Rule 53, Section 6.

In no case shall a base hit be scored when a base runner is forced out by the play.

Sacrifice Hits.

Sec. 5. In the fourth column shall be placed the sacrifice hits.

A sacrifice hit shall be credited to the batsman who when no one is out or when but one man is out, advances a runner a base by a bunt hit, which results in the batsman being put out before reaching first, or would so result if it were handled without error.

(a) A sacrifice hit shall also be credited to a batsman who, when no one is out or when but one man is out, hits a fly ball that is caught but results in a run being scored.

Fielding Records.

SEC. 6. The number of opponents, if any, put out by each player shall be set down in the fifth column. Where the batsman is given out by the umpire for a foul strike, or fails to bat in proper order, the put-out shall be scored to the catcher. In cases of the base runner being declared "out" for interference, running out of line, or on an infield fly, the "out" should be credited to the player who would have made the play but for the action of the base runner or the announcement of the umpire.

Sec. 7. The number of times, if any, each player assists in putting out an opponent shall be set down in the sixth column. An assist should be given to each player who handles the ball in aiding in a run out or any other play of the kind, except the one who completes it.

An assist should be given to a player who makes a play in time to put a runner out, even if the player who could complete the play fail, through no fault of the assisting player.

And generally an assist should be given to each player who handles or assists in any manner in handling the ball from the time it leaves the bat until it reaches the player who makes the put-out, or in case of a thrown ball, to each player who throws or handles it cleanly, and in such a way that a put-out results, or would result if no error were made by a team-mate.

Assists should be credited to every player who handles the ball in the play which results in a base runner being called "out" for interference or for running out of line.

Errors.

SEC. 8. An error shall be given in the seventh column for each misplay which prolongs the time at bat of the batsman or allows a base runner to make one or more bases when perfect play would have insured his being put out. But a wild pitch, a base on balls, a base awarded to a batsman by being struck by a pitched ball, an illegal pitch, a balk and a passed ball, each of which is a battery and not a fielding error, shall not be included in the seventh column.

An error shall not be charged against the catcher for a wild throw in an attempt to prevent a stolen base, unless the base runner advance an extra base because of the error.

An error shall not be scored against the catcher or an infielder who attempts to complete a double play, unless the throw be so wild that an additional base be gained.

What a Base Ball Club Needs

It is immaterial what position a ball club occupies, be it a National League team, a minor leaguer or a lot team, the most important article of the game is the ball, and a club should have the best ball made. The Spalding Official National League Ball-the adopted ball of the National League for over thirty years-is the leader whereever Base Ball is played. and is used by nine-tenths of the organized leagues throughout the world. The price is $1.50 each, but when ordered by clubs in dozen lots a special club price of $15.00 a dozen is made. The famous Spalding line of Base Balls includes in addition to the Official National League Ball fourteen other balls.

with the same care and of the same materials as the National League Ball, but is double stitched: warranted to last a full game. Price, $1.50.

The Spalding "National Association" Ball. This is a splendid ball, second only to the National League Ball, and is warranted to last a full game under ordinary conditions. Price, $1.25 each. and in dozen lots to clubs, $12.00 per made it a point to satisfy the juniors. and the only complete line in the world for the juniors to use is the Spalding line. The official ball for the boys is the Spalding Official "National League Jr." This ball is in every respect the same as the Spald-ing Official National League Ball, except smaller in size. All games played with this Junior League Ball will be recognized as legal.

Spalding's Complete line of Base Balls. The ball that promises to be a popular one among the juniors this year will be the "Public School League." It is a well made, junior size ball, with horschide cover. It is one of the best balls for general practice for boys' teams. Price, 50 cents.

The rest of the Spalding line includes the Spalding "Professional," at 50 cents; "King of the Diamond," 25 cents; "Lively Bounder," 25 cents; "Junior Professional," 25 cents; "Boys' Amateur," 10 cents; "Boys' Favorite," 10 cents, and "Rocket," 5 cents.

With such a variety to select from, any team can get a Spalding ball suitable to its needs, and when a Spalding ball is used there is no question of unfairness or irregularity, as the Spalding line is uniformly made and universally recognized as the standard wherever a game is played.

THE BAT

Before starting on a description of the Spalding line of bats, the following article from the New York Evening Journal of February 1, 1908, by Sam Crane, the old-time player and now the Base Ball writer on that publication, will be of interest.

BY SAM CRANE

"Before McGraw left for Los Angeles he went down to the celars of A. G. Spalding & Bros, and selected a string of bats that spell base hits. Six dozen of them McGraw picked out, and they were all those seasoned fellows that 'zing' whenever the ball is met on the trade mark.

"McGraw, when he selected the bats, said to me: 'It is the bats that tell the story and make ball players. Pitchers may be all right, and I guess they are, but give me the bat I want—the one that feels good to me—and I will make all the other fellows extend their grounds.'

TAKES PLENTY OF BATS.

"Well, Murphy takes down with him to Marlin Springs all those pitcher disturbers, and there is not a big stick in the bunch that don't call for a .300 average. Even Leon Ames has a bat labeled in his name that will produce results—so 'tis said."

The Spalding line of bats is a most complete one. The leader is the Spalding "Gold Medal" Bat. Its popularity has been secured by its superiority. It is perfect in balance and finish and the quality of timber the best; made in light or dark finish and with plain or taped handle. Price, $1.00 each, Spalding Boys' "Gold Medal" plain bat, 50 cents. The Spalding "Record" Bat is made from the same models as the Gold Medal bats, but finished in rough and ready style, with no polish—simply the plain oil finish. Packed one dozen in a crate (assorted lengths from 30 to 35 inches and weights from 36 to 42 ounces). The Record Bat is especially recommended for club use.

including college and school teams. Price, $1.00 each.

As usual, Spalding introduces something new this year—"Players' Autograph" Bats. This line was established to satisfy the ever-increasing demand from players throughout America for bats of the same model as used by the leading batsmen, and they are duplicates of the models of the well known stars, such as Cobb, Chance, Stone, Keeler, Bresnahan and Huggins, and the line has been so selected that it is immaterial what size, weight or length bat a player wants he is sure to hit it in one of the Autograph" bats. The cost of the "Autograph" bats, plain oil finish, is $1.00 each; special to clubs, $10.00 per dozen.

The Spalding "Trade-Mark" bats still retain their old-time popularity. because they are kept up to the high standard set for them in the early days of the game, when they were introduced by A. G. Spalding & Bros. in 1877, and have been recognized for over thirty years as standard by players. No. 3-OT is a wagon tongue ash bat, taped handle, 50 cents; No. 3-O, Wagon Tongue ash bat, plain handle, 50 cents; No. OXT, Axletree bat, taped handle, 35 cents; No. OX, Axletree bat, plain handle, 25 cents.

1t is in the Spalding Boys' Bats that A. G. Spalding & Bros. appeal to the youngsters. No. 3X, Junior League bat, plain handle, extra quality ash, spotted burning, 25 cents; No. 3-OB, Boys' Wagon Tongue bat, taped handle, 25 cents; No. 2XB, Boys' bat, good quality ash, 10 cents.

The bat and the ball taken care of, we will now consider other necessary implements, the inflated body protector, for instance. These come in five different styles, ranging in price from $3.00 to $8.00; for boys, the "Youths'," well made, costs $2.50.

MASKS

Spalding's Masks are the best on account of their superior workmanship, and their long experience as manufacturers. With a poor mask, a catcher takes a big risk, when by buying an article that is made right, he saves himself from possible disfigurement for life.

There are no less than fourteen different styles to select from in the Spalding line, beginning with the "Sun Protecting" Mask, guining with the "Sun Protecting" Mask, used by prominent leaguers, at $4.00, to the Spalding "Special Soldered" Mask, $4.00; "Neck Protecting" Mask, $5.50; "National Association" Mask, $5.50; "Semi-Pro League" Mask, black finish, $2.50, and the "Regulation League," three different styles, $2.00 and $1.75 in black wire, and $1.50 in bright wire.

The younger players have five different

The younger players have five different masks to select from. Spalding's "Amateur," $1.00; "Boys' Amateur," black wire, $1.00; "Regulation" Mask, 75 cents; "Youths'" Mask, 50 cents, and No. "D." slightly smaller than the Youths' mask, 25 cents.

Spalding now makes a special mask for umpires which combines the neck-protecting arrangement and a special ear protection. It costs $5.00, and is the safest mask for an umpire to wear,

All clubs need Bases, Home Plates, Pitchers' Plates, Foul Flags, Uniform Bags—these Spalding's have in various qualities, prices and designs.

Then there are Bat Bags for the club. No. 2, of waterproof canvas, to hold twelve bats, at $3.50; No. 3, for six bats, $2.00. No. 7 is a special club bat bag, of sole leather, made particularly for leagues, colleges and clubs; just the thing for clubs that travel on a schedule, $30.00 each.

There are also individual bat bags. No. 01 is of sole leather and holds two bats, it costs $4.00; No. 02, of heavy waterproof canvas, $1.50; No. 03.

heavy canvas, $1.00.

UNIFORMS

The Spalding line of Uniforms includes eight different grades, and is the only complete line of uniforms that a ball player has to select from. Catering to the highest class of ball players, Spalding is naturally in a position to give an amateur team the highest class of goods at the lowest prices, and made in a way that experienced base ball tailors can effect. The highest grade made is the No. 0 Uniform, in fifteen different colors. The blue check, red stripe and green stripe present new features for uniforms, and are meeting with excellent favor among different clubs. Price, $12.50 each when ordered for team.

Spalding No. M Uniform, the Minor League Uniform is for a club that desires a medium price uniform that is sure to give them good service. It is without doubt one of the strongest and most durable uniforms at the price and cannot be equaled. Team suits. $7 50 each.

The other grades are: University Uniform, No. 1, same as No. 0, but lighter in weight, $10.00 each; Interscholastic Uniform, No. 2, a very popular suit, which can usually be worn two seasons, $8.00 each; Chub Special Uniform, excellent for amateur clubs, No. 3, $5.00 each; Amateur Special Uniform, very popular with junior teams, No. 4, $4.00 each; the Spalding Junior Uniform, No. 5, $3.00 each; the Spalding Youths' Uniform, No. 6, in good quality gray material only, $1.00 each.

A coat is a necessary part of the equipment of a team. Spalding Base Ball Coats are made in four grades, and will be furnished in stock colors. The Spalding Vest Sweater, No. VG, is very popular with ball players. Best quality worsted, heavy weight, pearl buttons, price, $6.00 each; Boys' Jacket Sweater, No. BRC, all wool, in gray only, $2.50 each; Spalding Ribbed Coat Sweater, No. CDW, made of very good quality worsted, ribbed knit, in gray only, costs $5.00 each.

long sleeves, $3.50 each.

What a Base Ball Player Needs

Twenty-three styles of Catchers' Mitts—and every one a winner—comprises the Spalding line for 1908. Every catcher, no matter what pet ideas about a mitt he may have, will find them embodied in some particular style of a Spalding Mitt. As Spalding's have a store in every city of the National League and American League circuits, they are naturally the headquarters for Base Ball and are continually receiving suggestions from all of the leading players, who visit the stores to get their equipment.

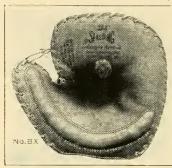

Space does not permit much more than a list of names and prices, but no loy should fail to send for a copy of the Spalding Base Ball Catalogue, which contains pictures which contains pictures, prices and descriptions of everything new in Base Ball. Write to the nearest Spalding store (see inside front cover for list) and the catalogue will be sent by return mail, free of charge.

The very best Catchers' Mitt made is the Spalding No. 9-0 Mitt, called the "Three-and-Out." This is the "last word" in Mitts and is certainly a masterpiece. It costs $8.00. The balance of the line each with some particular merit, and the best for the money that can be bought, is as follows:

SHOES

When it comes to outfitting a club with Shoes it is right there that A. G. Spalding & Bros. are at home. The Spalding Shoes are acknowledged to be the best examples of base ball footwear in America to-day. The best kangaroo leather is used for tops, best white oak leather for soles, and the finest hand-made steel plates. Spalding Shoes are made in the Spalding factory and are "bench made," meaning that the Shoe is really made throughout by hand by a shoemaker working at a bench in the good oldfashioned way. An ill-fitting shoe is the worst handicap a player can have; it annoys him, makes him slow and afraid to take chances, and in the end causes his release. Spalding's carry lasts of the leading players and their re-orders from season to season, are a tribute to the worth of the Spalding Shoe.

The Spalding "Highest Quality" Shoe, No. 2-0, is the one. that is universally used by the best ball players; it is hand-made throughout, is light and serviceable and makes a hall player feel like playing ball. Price, $7.00 per pair.

The Spalding "Sprinting" Base Ball Shoe, No. 30-S, is made of selected kangaroo leather and built on the Spalding famous running shoe last, the last that has made Spalding's running shoes famous. It is strong but light and fits the foot like a glove. The "Sprinting" costs $7.00 per pair. The Spalding 'Featherweight' Base Ball Shoe, No, FW, is the lightest

Base Ball Shoe ever made; it is the shoe that the fast basemen like to wear. Owing to the lightness and fineness of its construction it is suitable for the exacting demands of the fastest players, but is not intended for general use. $7.00 per pair.

The Spalding "Club Special," No. 0, is made of carefully selected satin calfskin, and a very substantially constructed shoe in every respect. Price, $5.00 per pair. Spalding "Amateur Special," No. 35. This is the popular one with the amateur players; it is of good quality calfskin, machine sewed; has a long life and gives good service. It is a comfortable shoe and we specially recommend it to amateurs and minor leaguers. Per pair. $3.50.

and by 22 other Professional Leagues that have adopted the Spalding Official National League Ball from 1 to 4 years.

THE Spalding Official National League Ball was first adopted by the National League in 1878, and is the only ball that has been used in Championship League Games since that time. In the recent great World's Championship Games in Chicago between the Chicago Nationals and the Detroit Americans the Spalding Official National League Ball was used.

IN addition to the different American adoptions, the Spalding Official National League Ball has been made the official ball by the governing Base Ball Associations of Mexico, Coba, Canada, Australia, South Africa, Great Britain, Philippine Islands, Japan, and, in fact, wherever Base Ball is played, The Spalding Official National League Ball has received this universal adoption because of its well established reputation for uniformity and high quality, but the special object of such adoptions, from the players' standpoint, is to secure absolute uniformity in a ball, that will prevent unfair "jockeyings", with an unknown ball, and make National and International Base Ball contests possible, and at the same time make the records of players of value, and uniform throughout the world, which can only be secured by standardizing one well known ball.

The Spalding Official National League Ball is used by Yale, Harvard, Princeton and all prominent college teams. The soldiers and sailors in thé.United States Army and Navy use it exclusively. In fact, the Spalding League

ALBERT G. and J. WALTER SPALDING commenced business March 1st, 1876, at Chicago, under the firm name of A. G. Spalding & Bro., with a small capital. Two years later their brother-in-law, William T. Brown, came into the business, and the firm name was then changed to A. G.

Spalding & Bros.

The business was founded on the Athletic reputation of Mr. A. G. Spalding, who acquired a national prominence in the realm of Sport, as Captain and Pitcher of the Forest City's of Rockford, Ill. (1865-70), the original Boston Base Ball Club (Champions of the United States, 1871-75), and the Chicago Ball Club (1876-77), first Champions of the National League. He was also one of the original organizers, and for many years a director, of the National League of America, the premier Base Ball organization of the world. Mr. Spalding has taken an important part in Base Ball affairs ever since it became the National Game of the United States at the close of the Civil War in 1865. The returning veterans of that War, who had played the game as a camp diversion, disseminated this new American field sport throughout the country, and throughout the world. thus gave it its national character.

Base Ball Goods were the only articles of merchandise carried the first year. Gradually implements and accessories of Athletic Sports were added, until the firm now manufacture the requisites for all kinds of Athletic Sports. Originally the firm contracted for their supplies from outside manufacturers, but finding it impossible, by this method, to keep the standard of quality up to their high ideals, they gradually commenced the manufacture of their own goods, and by the acquisition from time to time of various established factories located in different parts of the country, are now able to, and do manufacture in their own factories everything bearing the Spalding Trade-Mark, which stands the world over as a guarantee of the highest quality.

There are over three thousand persons employed in various capacities in A. G. Spalding & Bros.' factories and stores located in all the leading cities of the United States, Canada and England. A capital of over $4,000,000 is employed in carrying on this business, and the annual sales exceed the total combined annual sales of all other manufacturers in the world making a similar line of goods.

A. G. Spalding & Bros. have always taken a leading part in the introduction, encouragement and support of all new Sports and Games, and the prominence attained by Athletic Sports in the United States is in a very great measure due to the energy, enterprise and liberality of this progressive concern. They were the pioneers, and in fact the founders, of the Athletic Goods Trade in America, and are now universally recognized as the undisputed Leaders in the Athletic Goods line

The late Marshall Field of Chicago, America's greatest Merchant, speaking of the business of A. G. Spalding & Bros., said: "I am familiar with its early career, growth and development, and when I compare its unpromising outlook and the special field for its operations that existed at its inception in 1876, with its present magnitude, I consider it one of the most remarkable mercantile successes of the world."

The millions of Athletes using them, and the thousands of dealers selling them, attest to the High Quality of Spalding's Athletic Goods, and they must determine the future history of this concern.
