M. A. YOST, A.M.,
PROFESSOR OF THE ANCIENT LANGUAGES.

PROF. M. A. Yost has filled the Chair of the Ancient Languages in this institution for the past eleven years. He is a man of scholarly attainments and marked ability as an instructor. Prof. Yost was graduated from Emory and Henry College, Va., with the class of '83. Since that time he has been engaged constantly in teaching. Recognizing his ability as an instructor, he was made tutor in his alma mater in his senior year. The first year after his graduation Prof. Yost was elected Principal of Asbury Academy, Wythe county, Va. For one year he filled the Chair of Ancient Languages in St. Charles College, St. Charles, Mo. His health failing here, he came to Weaverville College, and has been connected with this institution ever since.

Prof. Yost is a high-toned, Christian gentleman, and his influence for good is felt by the whole student body.

Faculty.

REV. George F. Kirby, the President of Weaverville College, was graduated with the class of '94, from Wofford College, situated at Spartanburg, S. C., receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Two years later, having pursued a special course in English and Science, and after standing examinations in these departments, the degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon him. At the annual session of the Western N. C. Conference convened at Reidsville, N. C., Nov. 27-Dec. 2, '95, Mr. Kirby was admitted on trial, and was sent to the Swannanoa Circuit, where he remained until the Trustees of Weaverville College elected him President of the faculty. His work is in the Science Department.

MISS ELIZABETH J. VANDIVER was graduated from Weaverville College with the class of '89. For one year after graduation she pursued her studies in English and expression at Converse College, one of the best schools for women in the whole country. For two years Miss Vandiver pursued a course of study in history and English in the University of Pennsylvania.

Miss Vandiver is a woman of rare intellectual endowments, as well as of rare intellectual attainments. She has the highest endorsement of all who know her.

MRS. M. A. Yost has entire control of the Musical Department. She is a graduate of Martha Washington College. Music was Mrs. Yots's specialty while at college, and after graduation she continued her musical studies and taught one year in the college from which she was graduated. Since that time she has been at Weaverville engaged in teaching music. Mrs. Yost gives instruction on the mandolin and piano.

Among Mrs. Yost's instructors we find the names of Prof. Parsons, now of Sullins College, Bristol, Tenn., a teacher of note, and Dr. Henry G. Hanchett, director of the Central School of Musical Art, Brooklyn, N. Y., member of the Advisory Board of the Department of Music, Brooklyn Institute; concert pianist and special lecturer on Musical Analysis during the past season before Columbia University, Vassar College, Smith College, the Brooklyn Institute, and the People's Course of the New York City Board of Education. Dr. Hanchett now receives the uniform price of five dollars per hour for piano lessons in the City of New York.

Prof. C. H. Reeves, an A. B. graduate from Weaverville, for the past year has filled the chair of Mathematics. With the experience of one year, he enters upon his duties with renewed confidence and energy.

Origin and Purpose.

WEAVERVILLE COLLEGE was originally organized and buildings erected to meet the needs of the immediate community in which it is located; but its patronage having increased, and its influence widened, it was deemed necessary to plan for larger things than was originally contemplated; so in the year 1883 the property was turned over to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, since which time it has been conducted as one of the institutions of that church.

It is now controlled by a board of trustees elected by the Western North Carolina Conference.

During its history it has had the following Presidents: Dr. J. A. Reagan, J. M. Campbell, Rev. J. S. Kennedy, D. D., Prof. E. M. Goolsby, Rev. D. Atkins, D. D., S. A. Trawick, M. A. Yost, Rev. George F. Kirby.

This school in a quiet and unobtrusive way has done its work for the past twenty-five years, and during that time has graduated young men that have become eminently useful in social, political, and religious life. Its purpose has been and is now to furnish the advantages of higher education at the smallest cost possible; and its highest aim is to stimulate in the young men and women who come within the circle of its influence a desire for those attainments in knowledge which will enable them the better to fill the sphere in life to which God has called them.

It does not attempt in its curriculum to compete with colleges with extensive endowment and large faculties; but it does give thorough instruction in those Bern unv Purges, branches which constitute the basis of all true education.

It confers only two degrees, A. B. and B. S. One of these is approached through the sciences, and the other through the classics. It confers no post-graduate degree and does not attempt post-graduate work; because its faculty is not sufficiently large and its facilities such as to enable it to do such work satisfactorily. It encourages all its graduates who desire to pursue their studies further to avail themselves of the advantages afforded by such institutions as Trinity, and other of our church colleges of like grade.

Location.

Weaverville College is beautifully situated in that salubrious clime, "The Land of the Sky," eight miles northwest from Asheville, and four miles east from Alexander station, in one of the most picturesque portions of the far-famed mountain region of Western North Carolina. Weaverville is a small, quiet village, containing about three hundred and fifty inhabitants. No pleasanter nor more healthful place could be selected for a school.

SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

The above course, without Greek, satisfactorily completed, will entitle the pupil to a diploma with the degree of Bachelor of Science.

The course in the Preparatory Department leads into the College Course. Nothing tells so powerfully

MRS. N. B. MCDOWELL, A.M., LADY PRINCIPAL.

Mrs. N. B. McDowell for ten years has filled the Chair of English and Elocution in Weaverville College. All who have been under Mrs. McDowell's tuition, and those, too, who are acquainted with her work, will agree with me in saying that the Hon. Champ Clark, of Missouri made no extravagant statement when he wrote: "Mrs. N. B. McDowell is the best teacher I ever knew."

Since her graduation from Mt. Pleasant College, of Huntsville, Mo., she has pursued her studies most energetically, teaching all the time in her favorite branches. She first taught in her alma mater, then in the public schools of Bowling Green, Mo., which position she resigned to fill the Chair of English in Weaverville College.

Mrs. McDowell is a woman of noble character, and impresses herself indelibly upon the students of both sexes. The young ladies of the College will be under her immediate care.

upon one's after course as thorough, accurate training in the primary and preparatory branches. Hence the necessity of good work in these departments. To make this the best possible, part of the recitation work is conducted by the members of the faculty in their own branches of instruction.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.

This department is under the direction and supervision of the Faculty of the College, and is presided over by a teacher of experience and acknowledged ability and adaptedness for instructing the younger students. Rare advantages are offered in our Primary Department.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

Students of this department are also under the direction and supervision of the Faculty of the College, and are instructed by them.

MATRICULATION.

In order to become a member of the College, the student must call upon the President, enroll his name, and pledge conformity to the laws of the College, and make arrangements for the expenses of the term.

Students are received at any time, but we would emphasize the importance of entering at the beginning of the term. No deduction will be made for absence, unless it be for protracted sickness or other unavoidable circumstances.

GOVERNMENT.

An important part of education is self-government. The discipline of Weaverville College first proposes to the student self-government as the highest type of government, and seeks to surround him with a social atmosphere toned with purity, honor, and piety. The deportment enjoined for maintaining membership and good standing in the College, is defined by the morality of the Bible, the proprieties of gentlemen, and the fitness of our positive rules.

Every student is required to be present at chapel service, which consists of the reading of the Scriptures, singing and prayer.

A Christian character is considered the great essential, and no pains will be spared to surround the students with such influences as may be necessary to restrain them from vice and encourage them in virtue.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

Public worship is held on Sunday, which all students are required to attend. Every student is urged to attend Sunday-school.

EXAMINATIONS.

At the close of each term examinations are conducted in writing, as a test of proficiency and advancement, and each student's grade is recorded. If a grade of seventy in a standard of one hundred is not reached, the subject must be reviewed. No one can graduate until this grade has been reached in all the studies in the course.

DEGREES.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred on those who complete, in a satisfactory manner, the studies of the entire Classical Course.

Graduates in the Scientific Course receive the degree of Bachelor of Science.

College Calendar:

The Fall Term begins Wednesday, Sept. 13, 1899. Closes January 16, 1900.

The Spring Term begins January 17, and Closes May 22, 1900.
